Master of Manipulation: Thanos is an exceptionally skillful and experienced master of manipulation, quite possibly the best manipulator in the universe, as without leaving his throne, with superb manipulations of powerful beings alone, Thanos was able to cause the Battle of Xandar and Chitauri Invasion, which were among the most devastating battles ever known. He even managed to manipulate someone as intelligent as Loki, who was famous for his manipulation skills, with ease by using his distaste for Thor and Odin. Thor has said that Thanos has been playing a very intricate game for years with such efficiency that he has effectively manipulated the Avengers as pawns for his plans.

Master Tactician and Strategist: Thanos is an exceptionally accomplished strategist and tactician, with centuries of experience in using strategies, quite possibly the best master of tactical warfare currently in the universe. Thanos' mastery and experience in using strategy and tactics allows him to create extremely complex and well-coordinated plans and execute them effectively, with the strategies he created and employed being so effective that he gave the Avengers and Guardians of the Galaxy great trouble all the while remaining anonymous. Thanos is even a far more skilled tactician than Loki, who was famous for being a crafty genius in orchestrating cunning schemes, as he easily deceived the God of Mischief into becoming his minion and later easily predicted and outsmarted Loki's attempt to assassinate him and successfully finished him off. Thanos' strategical aptitude also allows him to accurately predict incoming events and effectively manipulate said events to his advantage, as he was able to anticipate the Guardians going to Knowhere to retrieve the Reality Stone and arrived there before they could prevent him from taking it. Thanos even went as far as to set up a brilliant trap for the Guardians by casting an illusion to fool them into believing that he is still torturing the Collector for the Reality Stone while in actuality he had acquired the Reality Stone long before they arrived, all the while easily manipulating Gamora using illusions specifically seen in her mind to lure her into emotionally charging at Thanos, which worked to a great effect, catching Gamora and the Guardians completely off-guard and allowing Thanos to successfully capture Gamora and escape from the Guardians uninjured.

Master Leader: Thanos is an extremely skilled leader, with a large amount of charisma despite his intimidating persona, inspiring absolute loyalty to the violent and powerful armies of Chitauri and Outriders and members of the Black Order. He is known for having easily decimated dozens of species with his powerful army, killing the Zenohebrei and Luphomoid species.

Polymath: Thanos is also shown to be quite learned and accomplished in many subjects, such as math and science, with him thus being able to accurately predict that his people and planet was about to be devastated due to overpopulation, which he claims to be a simple calculus to him.

Master Martial Artist: Thanos wielded supreme fighting prowess and millennia worth of fighting experience, easily the deadliest fighter in the universe. His style is shown to be fluid, as he first defends against his enemy before unleashing a devastating barrage of attacks. He was able to easily fight off and quickly force back both Doctor Strange using a sword made of Eldritch Magic, and Drax with his knives while his right eye was blinded by a web cotton, easily fight off and swiftly pummel Spider-Man with only one hand while his other hand was restricted by the Cloak of Levitation) and easily defeat and grievously wound Iron Man (despite Iron Man's nanotech Mark L armor and sword, which he easily disarmed and used to land the severe wound), with only Doctor Strange's intervention saving Iron Man from death. Additionally, Thanos easily countered Black Panther's charge by choking him with a single hand and then pummeled him to the ground with a single punch, as well as effortlessly defeated and knocked out Captain America with a single blow. Most impressively, Thanos was even able to defeat and beat Hulk (the former undefeatable champion of the Grandmaster's Contest of Champions) to a bloody pulp with ease with well-coordinated attacks, something Iron Man could only do after a long battle and a moment of distraction, as well as defeat a fully-empowered Thor without much effort. It was only with a sneak attack that Thor, armed with Stormbreaker, was able to land a severe wound on Thanos, but even then the Mad Titan was able to quickly recover. The 2014 Thanos was able to easily repeatedly knock around Thor, Captain America, and Iron Man while also using his sword, with him not only easily downing Rogers and Stark unarmed but even overpowering Thor upon being disarmed of his sword when he was armed with Stormbreaker and soundly pummeling him. He was also able to surpass and ultimately defeat Captain Marvel and could overpower both Thor using both Mjolnir and his axe and Rogers ultimately. One should note, however, that he only beat Carol because he outsmarted her; not because he was the more skilled/powerful fighter.

Master Swordsman: Thanos was an extremely skilled swordsman, using a double-edged sword as his main weapon, with which he was able to easily fight off the combined assault of Captain America, Thor, and Iron Man, including the latter's lasers, even when powered by Thor's lightning, before being disarmed by Thor and near-entirely pressure Captain America into the defensive and soon gain the upper hand and break his shield. He was also able to use it skillfully to deflect energy projections from Scarlet Witch and nearly managed to defeat her, pushing the sword dangerously close to her neck, forcing her to use her powers to disarm him. He can throw it with dangerous accuracy, even able to achieve a boomerang-like effect, as he accurately threw it at Thor and it quickly returned to him after he missed, hit the superhumanly fast Black Panther in mid-air and even outpaced Captain Marvel to Luis's Van.

Torturer: Thanos is shown to be highly accomplished in many fields of torture, with his skills in torture being quite famous, as the Other implied Thanos can cause so much suffering to Loki that he would beg for pain itself. His mastery of torturing techniques allows him to inflict the maximum amount of damage without killing the subject, as when he tortured Nebula to make Gamora give up the location of the Soul Stone, Thanos used the Infinity Gauntlet to painfully pull apart Nebula's cybernetic implants, but he was casually able to avoid truly ripping the necessary implants apart in order to cause her severe pain without killing her. The torture was effective enough that Gamora fairly quickly gave in and told Thanos the location of the Soul Stone to spare Nebula from further torture.

EBONY MAW

Ebony Maw is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe, serving as one of the secondary antagonists of Avengers: Infinity War and as a minor antagonist in its sequel

Avengers: Endgame.

He is the herald of the Black Order who (alongside Corvus Glaive, Cull Obsidian, and Proxima Midnight) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Maw was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by the deceased Surtur. Along with his father and siblings, he slaughtered the Asgardians and tells them to rejoice in becoming children of Thanos, before Thanos is attacked by the Hulk. Although Obsidian intends to help Thanos, Maw tells him to stand down, knowing that Thanos is too strong for the Hulk to defeat. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Hemidall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Maw uses his powers to restrain Thor, making him watch Thanos forcing Loki to surrender the Space Stone (the Tesseract). It is also revealed that Maw was involved in his father's attack on the planet Zen-Whoberi along with the Chitauri, massacred half the Zehoberei population (including Gamora's family) and took in Gamora. After Thanos kills Loki, Maw escaped with his family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Eye of Agamotto, Maw and Obsidian tracked down its current location in New York City, where they laid down an attack in to draw out Doctor Strange (the current holder of the Eye), also attracting Tony Stark, Wong, Bruce Banner (who had warned the group about Thanos) and Spider-Man. Despite the heroes' efforts, Maw managed to capture Strange and flies away on his ship, intending to deliver the Eye to Thanos at the planet Titan while Obsidian meets up with Proxima and Glaive to later attack Wakanda to get the Mind Stone.

Unknown to Maw, Tony and Spider-Man had snuck on-board to stop him and save Strange. Maw begins torturing Strange to force him to release the Time Stone, while Tony and Spider-Man come up with a plan, leading to Spider-Man asking Tony if he has ever seen the film

Aliens. Tony soon confronts Maw, who arrogantly remarks that his abilities are superior to Tony's and he will kill him easily, although the latter states "yeah, but the kid has seen more movies" before blasting a hole in the ship. Maw is then sucked out into space, where he freezes to death while his ship crashes on Titan. His siblings would later meet the same fate along with their army of Outriders during the battle in Wakanda.

Despite the losses, Thanos shows no regard for Ebony's death when he arrived on Titan and deduced it after seeing Doctor Strange free and waiting for him as he managed to collect the Time Stone after defeating the heroes in Titan; though he did say that Ebony carried his mission anyway by dragging Strange to Titan, implying that he appreciated his adopted son's efforts. Thanos then heads over to Earth to successfully collect the Mind Stone, allowing himself to use the Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace (including several Avengers and Guardians), much to the surviving heroes' distraught.

Avengers: Endgame

Five years after Thanos' destruction of half of all life, the remaining Avengers and Guardians use the properties of the Quantum Realm to travel back to different points in time to collect the Infinity Stones and use them to undo Thanos' actions; however, due to the sensors of the past and future Nebula interfering, the past Nebula inadvertently reveals to Thanos that the future Nebula and War Machine are on Morag preparing to take the Power Stone. Thanos takes Nebula to Maw to be inspected, and by searching through her memories they learn that Thanos will ultimately succeed in his goal, much to his joy. However, Maw goes further into Nebula's memories, also revealing to them that Thanos will be killed and that the Avengers will still try to reverse his actions.

With this knowledge in mind, Thanos has the future Nebula abducted before she can return to the present and swaps the past Nebula (who is still loyal to him) in her place, allowing her to transport Thanos and his forces, Maw included, into the future; right after Hulk construct and use the Avenger's own Infinity Gauntlet to revive everyone who had been killed. Thanos proceeds to bomb the Avengers' headquarters and, after revealing his new plan to decimate the entire universe and the create a new universe in his image to Thor, Iron Man and Captain America before defeating them, unleashes his forces (including Maw and the rest of the Black Order, the Chitauri, the Outriders, and the Sakaaran Mercenaries) to destroy the remaining Avengers and ravage the earth. However, they are opposed by an army of the Avengers' revived allies, who battle Maw and the others as they try to get their hands on the Infinity Gauntlet. Following a massive battle, Iron Man ultimately sacrifices himself by attaching the Infinity Stones to his armor and using their power to decimate Thanos and his armies. This resulted resulting in a distraught Thanos watching Maw, as Maw bowed to his master for the final time as a gesture of loyalty to his dying master before dying himself.

PROXIMA MIDNIGHT

Proxima Midnight is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe, serving as one of the secondary antagonists of the 2018 Marvel blockbuster film Avengers: Infinity War, and as a minor antagonist in its 2019 sequel Avengers: Endgame.

She is a high-ranking member of the Black Order who (alongside Ebony Maw, Corvus Glaive and Cull Obsidian) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Proxima was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by the deceased Surtur. Along with her father and siblings, she slaughtered the Asgardians to their deaths just as Thanos fights against the raging Hulk. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Hemidall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Proxima helps her siblings in forcing Loki to surrender the Space Stone (the Tesseract) to Thanos. It is also revealed that Proxima was involved of her father's attack on the planet Xandar to gain possession of the Power Stone (the Orb), which he used to destroy Xandar. After Thanos kills Loki, Proxima escaped with her family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Mind Stone, Proxima and Glaive tracked down its location in Scotland, where they spot Vision (the current holder of the Mind Stone) and Scarlet Witch. Both Proxima and Glaive attempt to ambush the two, but the arrival of Captain America, Black Widow and Falcon forced the two to escape back into space. The Avengers then send Vision out to Wakanda, in hopes that they could use its technology to safely remove the Mind Stone and destroy it with Scarlet Witch's powers.

After collecting the Aether and the Soul Stone, Thanos heads over to Titan, where he defeated several Avengers and Guardians to get the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto). Around the same time, he sends Proxima, Corvus and Obsidian to Wakanda, ordering them to lead a massive army of Outriders to attack the country and obtain the Mind Stone at all costs. This forces several Avengers and Wakandan warriors to fight back against the massive army. During the battle, Proxima eventually meets her end when Scarlet Witch uses her magic to blast her into the spinning blades of one of her own war machines, but not before Proxima tells her that Vision will die alone and that Scarlet Witch will suffer the same fate. The rest of Proxima's siblings and the Outriders ends up being killed as well, thanks to the arrival of a returning Thor, Rocket Racoon, and Groot with a new powerful weapon called Stormbreaker.

Despite the massive losses, an arriving Thanos didn't care about Proxima's death as he managed to obtain the Mind Stone while killing Vision at the same time. Even when Thor used Stormbreaker to strike Thanos in the chest, Thanos used all of the Infinity Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace in retaliation, taunting Thor that he should aimed for the head instead. Proxima's prediction even became true when Scarlet Witch starts to disintegrate to her death along with several Avengers and Guardians while a triumphant Thanos escapes and oversees a sunrise from another planet.

Avengers: Endgame

She can be seen during the final battle along with the rest of the Black Order. They began to fight until they ended up dead along with the rest of Thanos' forces after Iron Man's snap. Before being disintegrated herself alongside Corvus, Proxima can be seen in the background cradling Corvus himself, who had been wounded early on by Okoye.

CORVUS GLAIVE

Corvus Glaive is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe, serving as one of the secondary antagonists of the 2018 Marvel blockbuster film Avengers: Infinity War, and as a minor antagonist in its 2019 sequel Avengers: Endgame.

He is a high-ranking member of the Black Order who (alongside Ebony Maw, Cull Obsidian, and Proxima Midnight) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Glaive was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by Surtur. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Heimdall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Glaive helps his siblings in forcing Loki to surrender the Space Stone (the Tesseract) to Thanos. It is also revealed that Glaive was involved of his father's attack on the planet Xandar to gain possession of the Power Stone (the Orb), which he used to destroy Xandar. After Thanos kills Loki, Glaive escaped with his family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Mind Stone, Glaive and Proxima tracked down its location in Scotland, where they spot Vision (the current holder of the Mind Stone) and Scarlet Witch. Both Glaive and Proxima attempt to ambush the two, but the arrival of Captain America, Black Widow and Falcon forced the two to escape back into space. The Avengers then send Vision out to Wakanda, in hopes that they could use its technology to safely remove the Mind Stone and destroy it with Scarlet Witch's powers.

After collecting the Aether and the Soul Stone, Thanos heads over to Titan, where he defeated several Avengers and Guardians to get the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto). Around the same time, he sends Proxima, Corvus, and Obsidian to Wakanda, ordering them to lead a massive army of Outriders to attack the country and obtain the Mind Stone at all costs. This forces several Avengers and Wakandan warriors to fight back against the massive army. During the battle, Glaive infiltrated into the Wakandan palace after defeating Shuri and Ayo before engaging into a fight against Vision and then Captain America, assuring to Vision that he will die an ordinary man. However, after taking his weapon, Vision kills Glaive by stabbing him from behind, just as soon as the rest of his siblings and the Outriders end up being killed as well (thanks to the arrival of a returning Thor, Rocket Racoon, and Groot with a new powerful weapon called Stormbreaker).

Despite the massive losses, Glaive's prediction became true when an arriving Thanos managed to obtain the Mind Stone while killing Vision at the same time. Even when Thor used Stormbreaker to violently strike Thanos in the chest, Thanos used all of the Infinity Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace (including several Avengers and Guardians) before escaping away, taunting Thor that he should've aimed for the head instead.

Avengers: Endgame

Five years after Thanos' destruction of half of all life, the remaining Avengers and Guardians use the properties of the Quantum Realm to travel back to different points in time to collect the Infinity Stones and use them to undo Thanos' actions; however, due to the sensors of Nebula's past and future selves interfering, the Thanos of 2014 ends up learning of the Avenger's plans and that they had killed him in their time. Knowing this, Thanos decides to use the Stones to wipe out all life and create a new universe, and has 2014 Nebula impersonate her future counterpart and bring his ship and all of his forces, Glaive included, to the future.

After bombing the Avenger's headquarters and defeating Thor, Iron Man and Captain America, Thanos unleashes all of his minions upon the earth to overrun his enemies and destroy the planet, Glaive and the other Children of Thanos, along with the Chitauri and Outriders, among them. However, they are opposed by an army of the Avengers' revived allies, who battle Glaive and the others as they try to get their hands on the Infinity Gauntlet. During the battle, Thanos is overcome by Scarlet Witch and orders Glaive to have their ship bomb the battlefield, which he does; though this attempt to destroy the heroes fails when Captain Marvel arrives and destroys the ship. Glaive is then wounded by Okoye shortly afterwards, and is later killed along with the rest of Thanos' forces when Iron Man sacrifices himself in using the Gauntlet to destroy them and Thanos.

CULL OBSIDIAN

Cull Obsidian is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe. He serves as one of the secondary antagonists of the 2018 Marvel blockbuster film Avengers: Infinity War, and as a minor antagonist in its 2019 sequel Avengers: Endgame.

He is a high-ranking member of the Black Order and, physically, the strongest one of them all. He (alongside Ebony Maw, Corvus Glaive and Proxima Midnight) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Obsidian was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by the deceased Surtur. Along with his father and siblings, he slaughtered the Asgardians to their deaths just as Thanos fights against the raging Hulk. Although Obsidian intends to help Thanos, Maw tells him to stand down, knowing that Thanos is too strong for the Hulk to defeat. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Hemidall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Obsidian helps his siblings in forcing Loki in surrendering the Space Stone (the Tesseract) to Thanos. It is also revealed that Obsidian was involved of his father's attack on the planet Xandar to gain possession of the Power Stone (the Orb), which he used to destroy Xandar. After Thanos kills Loki, Obsidian escaped with his family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Eye of Agamotto, Maw and Obsidian tracked down its current location in New York City, where they laid down an attack in to draw

Iron Man, Spider-Man and Doctor Strange (the current holder of the Eye) into the scene. Despite the heroes' efforts, Maw managed to capture Strange and flies away on his ship, intending to deliver the Eye to Thanos at the planet Titan while Obsidian meets up with Proxima and Glaive after their failed attempt to collect the Mind Stone.

After collecting the Aether, the Soul Stone and the Eye of Agamotto, Thanos sends Proxima, Glaive and Obsidian to Wakanda, ordering them to lead a massive army of Outriders to attack the country and obtain the Mind Stone at all costs. This forces several Avengers and Wakandan warriors to fight back against the massive army. During the battle, Obsidian engaged into a fight against Bruce Banner wearing a Hulkbuster suit. Though he managed to tear off one of Banner's arms, Banner set the arm flying by activating its thrusters, sending Obsidian into the forcefield protecting Wakanda until he exploded to his death. His siblings and the Outriders would later meet the same fate after being killed by the Avengers and Guardians.

Despite the losses, an arriving Thanos didn't care about Obsidian's death and managed to collect the Mind Stone after killing Vision. Thanos then used all of the Infinity Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace (including several Avengers and Guardians), much to the heroes' distraught.

Avengers: Endgame

He can be seen during the final battle, along with the rest of the Black Order. Cull began to fight Korg before being stepped on and subsequently killed by Giant Ant-Man.

---

Thanos: So the famous members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm are all here.

Proxima Midnight: We've heard so much about you and the reputation you have.

Thanos: Loki. You're still alive.

Loki: Of course I'm alive. Which is something you won't be very soon.

Ultra Humanite: Ok, Thanos. Why haven't you made a move yet? It's been over a year since J.D. gave you that warning.

Thanos: Simple. I am simply planning out the best plan of attack against you all. In the past, most of the villains met their end because they didn't do enough research on all of you. Ever since Ronan fell, I have been looking over footage of all your battles to find the best solution against you all as well as any weaknesses.

Nico: You won't find any. Not that it matters since you'll eventually get what's coming to you.

Thanos: That's your opinion. I still have a few more battles to look over. You've waited patiently for me to make the first move for a year now. I'm sure you can wait another week or two.

Me: Oh really. When the time comes Thanos, your days of terrorizing the entire universe will be finished for good.

Lincoln: That's right!

Corvus Glaive: Lord Thanos, allow us to kill these fools while we have the chance!

Proxima Midnight: No, Corvus. They are still too powerful. Now is not the right time.

Mimi: You should really listen to your girlfriend.

Palmon: Unless you want to end up like your buddy Ronan.

Me: That's right. We killed Ronan. And you will share his fate when we fight. No way in hell are we gonna let you destroy the entire universe.

Nico: That's right.

I revealed a special ring around my middle finger on my right hand. It was a special gold ring with the Infinity Stones in it! All 6 of them!

Me: I made this ring and it will allow me to use all of the Infinity Stones. You want the stones, you'll have to go through us.

Ebony Maw: Now that all of the threats have been exchanged… (sounds the alarm) Attention all troops! Team Loud Phoenix Storm has infiltrated the ship and is planning to kill Lord Thanos!

Kickback (hears troops approaching): That can't be good.

Supergiant: In about a minute, our troops will have you all surrounded.

Cull Obsidian: What's it going to be? Fight us and be overwhelmed? Or go back to Earth and wait for us to make the first move?

Me: We'll go back back to Earth. But remember this Thanos, you will pay for your crimes.

We teleported back to Earth.

Proxima Midnight: What are we gonna do my Lord? He has all the Infinity Stones.

Thanos: No matter. When I face J.D., he will be the first to die by my hands and then I will get the stones back.

The stage has been set. The Battle that will decide the fate of the universe will soon begin.

---

We arrived back on Earth.

Loki: I'm just glad we got out of there! I've experienced the kind of pain that the Mad Titan can cause.

Me: I believe it Loki.

Cliffjumper: Loki, when Thanos attacks, I think it's best if you stay with Mr. Grouse.

Loki: Fair enough. Thanos will just kill me even if I did have my powers. But can I give you all a piece of advice?

Cliffjumper: Sure.

Me: Go for it.

Loki: Keep your friends close and your enemies closer. And I'm not just talking about Ra's Al Ghul, Man Boy, and the Central City Rogues.

Nico: (thinking about Riddler, Dark Laser, and Bowser) I'll keep that in mind.

Me: Me too.

We went back home and revealed the situation to everyone.

Lori: So the Battle with Thanos is coming.

Me: It is. And he knows that we're going to face him in the coming days. But that's why I have a plan. We're going to train hard and Master Goku know's a good place that can help us.

Goku: That's right. I know a great place where we can get a whole year of training done in 1 day.

Me: Really?

Nico: Wow!

Laney: I know a place like that. It's called the Hyperbolic Time Chamber.

Me: I know that place. That's so cool! We haven't used that chamber in a long time.

Goku: Follow me.

We went to a special room in the estate and we have arrived at the HYPERBOLIC TIME CHAMBER!

The Hyperbolic Time Chamber, also known as the Room of Spirit and Time (精神と時の部屋 Seishin to Toki no Heya) in the original Japanese version, is a location that can be accessed through different doorways throughout Universe 7.

When using the entryway to the Hyperbolic Time Chamber via The Lookout on Earth, one year inside the chamber is the equivalent to one day on the outside. A step over the threshold of the training area brings one immediately into ten times Earth's gravity (the same as that of Planet Vegeta, Planet Zoon, and King Kai's Planet); the air gets denser, and the temperature fluctuates, the deeper one goes into the training area.

When using the entryway that the Galactic Patrol use on an alien planet, three days inside the chamber is equivalent to one day outside.

The Hyperbolic Time Chamber has an entrance at its center, located in a central building with two side wings with housing, food supplies, bathing quarters and sleeping quarters. There is no night or day in the Room, but the surroundings remain a constant bright iridescent white aurora. Its reflective floor is of undefined area, and the Room's boundaries are thought to stretch to infinity in all directions even though it appears to have a definite atmosphere, limiting its size to about that of the Earth. Goku explains to Gohan during their visit to the chamber that the air grows increasingly dense in the recesses beyond the plaza, which can be threatening as the Hyperbolic Time Chamber has no apparent boundaries. The Hyperbolic Time Chamber represents a separate dimension from that of Earth.

The time dilation that occurs when using the Earth entry to the Hyperbolic Time Chamber is one day of real time is equivalent to one year in the Chamber, or one minute of real time is approximately six hours, five minutes, and 15 seconds in the Chamber. There are dual giant hourglasses of emerald sand adorning the sides of the building that count down a year within the chamber. A clock on the dome roof of the main part of the building tells the applicable time in the real world.

This essentially allows for someone entering the Hyperbolic Time Chamber to get one year worth of intense training in a single day.

The gravity in the Hyperbolic Time Chamber living area is described as being "different", though it seems to not be much higher than Earth's gravity. The gravity of the training area is 10g. Gohan's first step over the threshold of the training area brought him to his knees (this does not happen in the Dragon Ball manga, which explains how the gravity could feel "different" in the living area); Trunks also had some difficulty with the gravity, but Goku and Vegeta were both well accustomed to much higher levels of gravity by the time they used the chamber.

Those talking in the chamber have an echo in their voices akin to when a character thinks a word, rather than says it aloud. However, there are no solid objects other than the entrance for the sound waves to bounce off of.

The temperature in the training area fluctuates rapidly, ranging between -40 °F (-40 °C) and 122 °F (50 °C), and the air pressure is a quarter of Earth's (in the anime, the air is said to grow denser the deeper one goes into the chamber). Goku, Gohan, Vegeta and Future Trunks are the only characters shown to go deep into the chamber. It is not shown if Piccolo, Goten, or Trunks did, though it seems unlikely that any of the three would have much trouble with it.

The wooden door entrance is a portal between the Earth and the Hyperbolic Time Chamber, and is the only way to travel to the pocket dimension without ripping holes in the dimensional walls.

The Chamber can only be entered for two days (or two years) at a time, if anybody attempts to stay longer, they will not be able to exit, leaving them in nothingness and not allowing anyone else to use the door. Also, there are only enough provisions to accommodate two people for the full year. This is commonly misinterpreted as a two-person limit overall, but it should be noted that in the Buu Saga four people in total entered through the main door. Vegeta and Future Trunks are the only two to enter the room for two entire days, though due to their lack of mastery of the Super Saiyan form, they increased far less than Goku and Gohan had in less than one year inside. Goten and Trunks are the last to train in the room when, upon Buu's transformation to Super Buu, Piccolo decides to give them time inside. In less than half of the hour (roughly one week inside the chamber) that Piccolo told Buu to wait, they achieve the Super Saiyan 3 transformation while fused as Gotenks.

We decided to go in 16 at a time and it was gonna be really challenging. We made some modifications to the Time Chamber so that it would allow 16 of us to go in and there was enough food and necessities. And the entrance will not disappear and it has unlimited usage. I went in and Lincoln and the Loud Sisters and Master Goku were with me. We had special seals on us that kept us from aging in the chamber and they only activate when we're in the chamber. The whole room was completely different. It was completely different from anything we were familiar with. We got to training almost immediately. But there were many challenges to face inside it. Spending 1 whole year in the Hyperbolic Time Chamber was without a doubt the most difficult task we've ever had to face. The gravity was so intense that we could barely walk, the air was so thick that we could hardly breathe and the temperature fluctuated wildly. Sometimes bone-chilling cold and others times Raging Hot. Every day presented its own hardship with a new obstacle to be met and overcome. But some days were harder than others. We were battered with blazing fire, ferocious cold and nasty weather conditions. But thanks to our abilities to absorb fire, we got stronger and stronger at a massively accelerated rate as the fire swirled around us. They were a result of the intensely powerful burning desire to protect all of our love ones and our friends and family. Our hearts were drivin by that one intense burning love for everyone that we care about and our mission to eradicate the evils that plague the entire universe.

Nico: I wonder how much longer they have in there.

Krillin: They should be done by now.

The door opened and we came out and we were changed dramatically. But our clothes were all torn up and shredded.

Me: Hey guys.

Nico: Boy you guys really have changed!

Me: I know. Master Goku ran us into the ground. He's a great teacher.

Lori: But our powers are literally stronger than ever.

Leni: They totes are.

Luna: Yeah dudes. We really trained hard.

Luan: We really Railed our training. (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

Most of us laughed and the others sighed.

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was funny!

Lynn: But man that training was awesome!

Lincoln: We feel stronger than ever.

Lucy Loud: Yeah.

Laney: No kidding.

Lana: But it was awesome!

Lola: But our clothes are shot.

Lisa: Indeed they are and my glasses are cracked.

Lily: Yeah.

Goku: (Laughs) That's what happens when you train hard.

Me: That's true. Luckily my clothes mend themselves back.

My clothes did so and they were good as new.

Nico: So what is it like in there?

Me: It was an epic challenge that made all of our fights seem like a joke.

The doorbell rang.

Me: I'll get that.

I went to the front door and to my surprise it was the world famous vampire hunter Buffy Summers.

Buffy Anne Summers was a Slayer who was activated in the late 20th century. Born on January 19, 1981, she was called to be the Slayer in 1996 at the age of fifteen. Buffy was originally living in Los Angeles; but, due to an incident involving a gang of vampires at Hemery High School, she moved to Sunnydale with her mother. There, she acted as guardian of the Hellmouth for seven years before the town's destruction in mid-2003.

Initially a reluctant hero who constantly wished for nothing more than a normal life, Buffy eventually grew to embrace her destiny. Buffy was unique as a Slayer in many ways; she refused to sacrifice her ordinary life for her supernatural destiny, often operated as part of a team with her friends the Scooby Gang, and had romantic relationships with notorious vampires Angel and Spike.

Buffy was one of the longest-lived Slayers and returned from death not once, but twice, then coexisting with another Slayer, an act that disrupted the magic surrounding the traditional line. During their war with the First Evil, Buffy enacted a plan to activate every Potential Slayer in the world, abolishing the traditional line of Chosen Ones, before dedicating herself to gathering and training the ever-growing number of Slayers. She created the Slayer Organization, protecting the world and Slayers when the supernatural had then become public knowledge.

Revealed she had been long involved in an ancient prophecy that would bring about Twilight as an evolution to replace the Earth dimension, Buffy prevented this destroying the Seed of Wonder, thus bringing about the end of magic. She established herself in San Francisco, where she continued her Slayer duties and eventually restored magic on Earth, taking responsibility for its new rules with the Vampyr book. Ultimately, Buffy was the Slayer that defined the battle of the Reckoning, which allowed Slayers to exist and work towards a better future, changing the course of history up to the 23rd century.

Buffy was born to Hank and Joyce Summers on January 19, 1981, in Los Angeles, California.

In childhood, she was close friends with her cousin Celia, and enjoyed playing Power Girl with her. When she was eight, she witnessed Celia's murder in her hospital bed by Der Kindestod, a demon that killed sick children and who was only visible to those who were ill. Buffy was left with a fear of hospitals after the experience.

As she grew up, she came to idolize Olympic ice skater Dorothy Hamill, and practiced the sport herself. Her father took her for trick-or-treating until she was twelve.

In the fifth grade, she developed a crush on sixth-grader Billy Fordham; although the two were friends, he never returned her feelings. Buffy started attending Hemery High School in 1995, where she became a popular cheerleader and was elected both Prom Princess and Fiesta Queen.

Called as the Slayer

At the age of fifteen, Buffy suddenly began having violent dreams about women from different historical periods slaying monsters. Although she didn't understand at first, her experiences were soon explained to her when she was approached at school by Merrick Jamison-Smythe, a mysterious man who revealed her destiny as the "Chosen One" and became her first Watcher.

Buffy and Merrick initially butted heads due to his intolerance of her teenaged-girliness; however, the pair eventually gained a mutual fondness for each other as he trained her for battle against the vampire king Lothos. As her increasingly strange behavior alienated her from her peers and her boyfriend Jeffrey Kramer, she befriended fellow outcast Pike. She began relying on him for support after Merrick sacrificed himself to protect her from Lothos. Despite having had very little training, Buffy managed to defeat Lothos and his minions at a school dance. Unfortunately, she burnt down her high school's gym in the process, for which she was subsequently expelled. Shortly after her expulsion, Buffy and Pike took an impromptu trip to Las Vegas to hunt vampires.

Upon their return, Buffy told her parents what had happened at Hemery High and about her destiny as the Slayer. They refused to believe her, thinking instead that she was losing her mind. They made the decision to commit her to an insane asylum. Shortly after her arrival, Buffy realized that it was better not to perpetuate her story, and she was released after a few short weeks. Buffy and her parents never spoke of it again.

Sophomore

Buffy's parents, who had been experiencing marital troubles for years, finally divorced, and Buffy moved with her mother to 1630 Revello Drive in Sunnydale, a small town in California. Little did they know that the town was located on a Hellmouth and that Buffy's presence there was predestined. Buffy enrolled at Sunnydale High School where she became friends with Alexander Harris and Willow Rosenberg as well as meeting her new Watcher, Rupert Giles. She also met Cordelia Chase, a superficial cheerleader reminiscent of Buffy before she became the Slayer, and Angel, a mysterious and handsome stranger who aided Buffy with cryptic advice. Buffy at first rejected her Slayer duties in favor of a normal life but was forced into action to stop the vampire ritual known as the Harvest by the Order of Aurelius, a vampire cult under the rule of the ancient and powerful vampire Master, who was trapped underground in Sunnydale.

Together, Buffy, Xander, Willow, and Giles formed the Scooby Gang and continued to investigate the various supernatural mysteries that occurred on the Hellmouth. Wishing to have a social life separate from her Slayer duties, Buffy tried out for the cheerleading squad and briefly dated fellow student Owen Thurman, but these attempts at normalcy were quickly thwarted by supernatural activity.

Buffy gradually developed an attraction to Angel and was horrified when she came to realize that he was a vampire. Though initially reluctant to slay him, she ultimately decided to do so when it appeared that Angel had attacked her mother. She relented upon discovering that he had a soul as a result of being cursed with the Ritual of Restoration by the Clan Kalderash as punishment for his vicious crimes. Additionally, she found out that Angel had in fact been set up by the vampire Darla of the Order of Aurelius, Angel's sire and Joyce's true attacker, who was staked by Angel in the ensuing confrontation.

When people's nightmares began coming true in Sunnydale, Buffy's guilt over her parents' divorce manifested and she was briefly transformed into a vampire. When a string of odd occurrences started, making what was believed to be the oncoming apocalypse, Giles warned Buffy that she would eventually be forced to fight the Master as the Hellmouth opened.

Upon learning that the infallible Pergamum Codex prophesied her death at the hands of the Master, a saddened and fearful Buffy temporarily quit being the Slayer and contemplated leaving town, but accepted her fate after Willow discovered bodies of their classmates slaughtered inside the school. Armed with a crossbow and wearing a prom dress, Buffy descended down the sewers to confront the Master at his lair. Buffy was overpowered and bitten once, discovering it was her that would set the Master free as her Slayer blood gave him the power to do so. The Master then left Buffy to drown in a pool of water in the Master's dwellings, but Xander resuscitated her, Awakening, Buffy felt much stronger and confronted the Master once more, managing to defeat him and effectively closing the Hellmouth.

First love

Buffy spent the summer with her father in Los Angeles. During her time there she didn't slay a single vampire, but after her fatal experience, she began suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder, causing her to obsess over material items like clothes while remaining emotionally distant from others. Upon her return to Sunnydale in the fall, she made her condition obvious by taking out her anger on her slaying-targets and behaving rudely to her friends. She finally recovered emotionally when she destroyed the Master's skeleton when his remaining followers attempted to resurrect him.

In her junior year of high school, Buffy came into conflict with Spike, a vampire renowned for murdering two Slayers previously. Spike and his lover Drusilla were Angel's former associates, and had come to Sunnydale intent on wreaking havoc on the town. Spike, in particular, wanted to make Buffy his third slayer kill.

Buffy once again attempted to attain some level of normalcy in her life when she lied to her Watcher so she could attend a frat-party alongside Cordelia, due to Giles' strictness and Angel's reluctance to start a real relationship. However, she was again forced into action when she was offered as a sacrifice to Machida by the fraternity. She also took her relationship with Angel to the next level, and the two began officially dating.

During the school career fair, Buffy's test qualified her for training in law enforcement. Around this time, Buffy was targeted by the Order of Taraka, an order of assassins hired by Spike to kill her so she wouldn't interrupt a ritual to heal a sickly and weak Drusilla. While hiding in Angel's apartment, Buffy met Kendra Young, a second Slayer who had been mystically activated when Buffy drowned. The two quickly proved to be near-polar opposites, with Kendra's complete devotion to her Slayer duties contrasting to Buffy's emotions and loyalty to her friends and family. They eventually became friends and Kendra helped Buffy rescue Angel after he was kidnapped to complete Drusilla's healing, his life for hers. From this, Kendra taught Buffy to appreciate that being a Slayer was part of who she was and not just a burden.

On the night of her seventeenth birthday, Buffy lost her virginity to Angel when their passion for each other grew too strong. By causing Angel to experience a moment of true and utter happiness, she unknowingly lifted the curse placed on him a century earlier, causing him to lose his soul and revert to the evil Angelus, the most notoriously evil vampire in recorded history.

Angelus became obsessed with destroying Buffy's life and joined Spike and Drusilla (now restored), who had reconstructed an invincible demon called The Judge to destroy humanity. Buffy managed to defeat the Judge with a stolen rocket launcher but was unwilling to kill Angelus when the opportunity first presented itself. Angelus' pathological harassment continued to take a heavy toll on Buffy and her friends over the months through the form of creepy letters and threatening to endanger her friends and family. He even revealed their intimate night together to her mother, forcing Buffy to go through "the talk" with her, though they came to an understanding when Joyce assured her that she would always be looking out for her no matter how distant they were. Angelus' stalking and emotional abuse eventually climaxed when he murdered the Scoobies' ally and Giles' lover, Jennifer Calendar. This caused Giles to endanger himself in an attempt to kill Angelus in retribution, nearly getting killed himself before Buffy saved him, not wanting to lose him, especially at a time like this.

When faced with Angelus's subsequent plan to destroy the world, Buffy was completely willing to kill him, but also relied on Willow to re-ensoul him as a last resort after they discovered the spell to do so in Jenny's office. Buffy accepted Angelus' challenge to a duel with him under the threat of innocent's lives but was tricked again when he staged an attack against Willow and the others in the meantime which culminated in the death of Kendra at the hands of Drusilla. Coming to the scene of the crime, Buffy was suspected for Kendra's murder and resisted arrest, making her a target to the Sunnydale police force.

Buffy then reluctantly accepted an alliance with Spike, who had become tired of Angelus' presence and had no desire to see the world end. When returning home with Spike, she killed a vampire in front of her mother; this forced her to reveal her identity as the Slayer. Joyce reacted badly to the news and the two got into a fight, leading to Joyce giving Buffy a spur-of-the-moment ultimatum where she would be thrown out if she left the house to stop Angelus' plot. Buffy accepted and returned to the scene of the crime to acquire a mystical sword given to her by Kendra prior to her death. The school's Principal Snyder then arrived and expelled her.

Buffy confronted Angelus and tried to prevent him from opening a vortex to a hell dimension, while Willow cast the spell to re-ensoul Angel. Though the spell was successful, Angelus had already opened the vortex, and Buffy was forced to tearfully drive the sword through Angel's chest seconds after his re-ensoulment, sending him through the vortex to the hell dimension before he could even remember Angelus' siege against her. Traumatized and alone, Buffy then boarded a bus out of Sunnydale and escaped to Los Angeles.

Return to Sunnydale

In L.A., Buffy spent the summer waiting tables in a diner under a false identity (her middle name, Anne), trying to turn her back on her destiny. However, after rescuing a runaway from a hell dimension which struck her into battle mode, Buffy returned to Sunnydale to face her own demons.

Buffy had some difficulties reconnecting with her mother and friends which culminated in them having a big argument in the middle of her welcome back party after she was caught trying to run away once more. Buffy eventually reconciled with her friends and family following a zombie attack during the party. Buffy was also released from the charges against her and let back into Sunnydale High even though Snyder initially prevented her return from happening before being overruled by the School Board.

Buffy was required to improve her grades by doing several makeup tests, obtain a recommendation from a member of the school staff that wasn't Giles himself, and receive counseling for a short time. She also started a relationship with her schoolmate Scott Hope which ended after a number of weeks. While this was happening, she discovered Angel had been returned from the hell dimension in a feral state. She secretly rehabilitated him at his mansion, helping him heal while still finding herself greatly drawn to him. When the Scoobies discovered this, they were disgusted, confused, and furious, though they begrudgingly accepted him back into the team when he saved Willow from being killed by Gwendolyn Post, a corrupt ex-Watcher.

Meanwhile, a rebellious new Slayer, Faith Lehane, arrived in town, immediately winning over Buffy's friends and family and providing Buffy with a new ally. Contrary to Kendra who was the model slayer, Faith was a fun-loving brawler that rejected responsibility more so than Buffy did. Buffy discovered that under her façade of enthusiasm for the kill was fear, having escaped from Sunnydale after the vampire Kakistos killed her Watcher and threatened to come after her. After averting the problem by slaying the vampire, Buffy and Faith started a complicated sisterly relationship, learning each others' strengths and weaknesses.

Though Buffy and Angel attempted to simply be friends and nothing more, they eventually continued dating, though they took great care to keep their relationship celibate.

Shortly before her eighteenth birthday, Buffy was de-powered in preparation for her Cruciamentum, a Slayer rite of passage organized by the Watchers Council meant to test the Slayer's practical capabilities. This pitted her against a psychotic vampire which she initially avoided though packed the courage to take him on when he held her mother hostage and she ended victoriously. Giles' reluctance to see Buffy hurt and subsequent interference in the test led to him being fired as her official Watcher and replaced with Wesley Wyndam-Pryce, though Buffy quickly rebelled against Wesley and refused to take him seriously when he turned out to be little more than a bumbling idiot and a coward.

Eventually, Faith led Buffy on a rebellious tour of her side of Slaying, which did entice Buffy to some degree. This proved disastrous when Faith accidentally killed the Deputy Mayor Allan Finch and refused to recognize the problem and take responsibility for her actions. Buffy tried to make her own up but was shot down and Faith herself tried to frame Buffy for her crime by lying to Giles, though he saw through this. Buffy and Faith's relationship would be then changed from that point on.

As the Senior Prom was closing in, Buffy expressed excitement in having her perfect high school experience with Angel as her date. However, realizing he could never give her a normal life, Angel broke up with Buffy the day before. Despite being extremely saddened, Buffy still made it her duty that she and her friends enjoy themselves at the event. She went forth and killed a group of mind-controlled hellhounds released by a dateless nerd, Tucker Wells, before attending prom dressed in formal wear. To her surprise, she was presented with a Class Protector Award, acknowledging the countless times she saved the student body. Just as she thought it couldn't get any better, Angel arrived in a tuxedo, not wanting to take her back but to give her the slow dance she desired.

Faith became increasingly alienated from the Scoobies and found a friend in the affable yet sinister Mayor of Sunnydale Richard Wilkins, who was preparing to become an Old One on the Sunnydale High Graduation Day and devour the student body. As the Mayor relied on Faith to help him prepare for his ascension, Buffy worked first to thwart his plans, then to organize a resistance. Faith impeded these efforts by poisoning Angel with Killer of the Dead, leaving him on the verge of death; when the Watchers Council refused to help on the grounds that Angel was a vampire, a furious and disgusted Buffy chose to stop following the Council's orders altogether, severing all ties with them. When the Scoobies learned that only the blood of a Slayer could save Angel's life, Buffy attempted to sacrifice Faith to save him, willing to kill a human in this case. Their battle left Faith in a seemingly-permanent coma, and Buffy ultimately saved Angel by offering him her own blood.

Buffy then led her classmates in a climactic battle against the Mayor, ascended into the Olvikan, and his minions, which culminated in an explosion that destroyed the Mayor as well as the school. After the smoke cleared, Angel left for Los Angeles so that Buffy could try to have a more normal life without him.

U.C. Sunnydale

After the explosive events of her high school graduation, Buffy experienced difficulties adjusting to life as a college freshman at University of California, Sunnydale She was injured during an encounter with a group of on-campus vampires, and came off as unstable to her friends when she suspected her unpleasant roommate Kathy Newman to be demon (which she was eventually proven correct in her assumption), and she began rooming with Willow after the Mok'tagar demon departure.

Her troubles were only worsened by Angel's recent departure, and she sought comfort with fellow student Parker Abrams and slept with him a few weeks after meeting him. He then brushed her off as a one-night stand despite having made her believe that this was the start of a new relationship. Her experience with Parker was made more difficult by Spike, who had returned to Sunnydale after Drusilla left him once again. He uncovered the Gem of Amara - a ring that made any vampire who wore it invulnerable to vampiric weaknesses - and attacked her on campus. Though she managed to defeat him and take the ring back, Spike escaped into the sewers. At Buffy's request, Oz delivered the Gem to Angel in Los Angeles.

During Thanksgiving, Buffy was forced to deal with Hus, the vengeful spirit of a Native American warrior, after he was released by Xander's construction crew. Buffy - who had been determined to have a safe and normal holiday meal with her friends - was also shocked when Spike arrived unexpectedly at Giles' flat, begging for help. Spike had been captured by the mysterious Initiative; a group of army-clad individuals Buffy had previously encountered on campus who implanted Spike with a cerebral microchip that made it impossible for him to harm humans.

Buffy was aided in the battle against Hus by Angel, who had returned to Sunnydale without her knowledge. When Xander accidentally revealed that Angel had reappeared, Buffy immediately traveled to Los Angeles to confront him as she was hurt that he had spoken to everyone but her. Buffy and Angel agreed to remain apart; just as she was about to leave, they were attacked by a Mohra demon. They tracked the demon down into the sewers and succeeded in wounding it before it escaped. The demon's blood had mixed with Angel's during the confrontation, causing him to become human again. Buffy and Angel reveled in finally being able to be together, but Angel soon discovered that The Powers That Be had not yet offered him redemption. When Angel was almost killed by the regenerated Mohra demon, Buffy managed to slay it. After Angel discovered that Buffy would die much sooner if he remained human, Angel had The Oracles create a temporal fold to reverse his transformation into a human. Buffy was left with no memory of the incident.

Back in Sunnydale, Buffy and the Scoobies kept Spike tied up in Giles' flat as he bartered information about the Initiative for shelter and blood. At school, Buffy eventually attracted the sincere attention of her psychology teacher's assistant, Riley Finn, and began to wonder how she could balance her Slayer duties while dating a seemingly-normal boy. While fighting the Gentlemen, however, Buffy came to discover that Riley had a secret of his own; he was a member of the Initiative, which Buffy learned was a government task force led by Buffy's psychology professor, Maggie Walsh, which was created to research mystical and demonic creatures.

Buffy briefly joined forces with the Initiative, but her relentless questioning of the organization's motives, as well as her relationship with Riley, began to unsettle Professor Maggie Walsh, who tried to have her killed in action. Walsh was subsequently murdered by a creature of her own creation, the monstrous half-human/half-demon cyborg, Adam, who then escaped and began his plan to create an army of super-soldiers like him.

Faith then awakened from her coma and used a Draconian Katra left to her by the Mayor to switch bodies with Buffy. In Faith's body, Buffy was taken into custody by the Watchers Council Special Operations Team. She managed to escape and convince Giles of her true identity. With the help of Willow and Tara Maclay, Buffy reversed the body swap.

Upon discovering that Faith had traveled to Los Angeles and was attempting to kill Angel, a furious Buffy traveled to L.A. for vengeance, only to discover that Faith had become remorseful for her crimes. This put Buffy into direct conflict with Angel, who insisted that Faith could be rehabilitated. Though understandably unwilling or unable to believe that Faith was capable of redemption, Buffy ultimately had no choice but to work together with her to fight back against the Watchers Council Special Operations Team. Faith subsequently surrendered herself to the police, and Buffy got into a heated exchange with Angel, climaxing when she used her relationship with Riley to put Angel on the defensive, who then harshly ordered her to go back to Sunnydale after reminding her that he himself could not move on from their relationship.

Angel subsequently returned to Sunnydale to apologize, and after running afoul of the Initiative in the process, succeeded in mending things with Buffy, with both sides admitting that they had been wrong. Riley, who had been torn between the Scooby Gang and the Initiative for some time, eventually turned his back on the corrupt organization to join Buffy after helping them save Oz from the Initiative complex. Having been drifting apart for the previous year, the existing tensions between Buffy, Giles, Willow, and Xander reached their boiling point when Spike, wanting to have the chip removed from his head, exploited them to turn the gang against each other as part of Adam's plan. When Spike let too much information about the plot slip during an encounter with Buffy, it caused the Scoobies to reconcile; then, with the enjoining spell, they combined their essences within Buffy's body, allowing her to destroy Adam.

The Scoobies, helped by Riley and Spike, subsequently helped save the Initiative's soldiers from the rampaging demon hordes within the complex; the Initiative was subsequently closed down by the U.S. government, and Riley was honorably discharged from the military. The four were later attacked in their dreams by the first Slayer, Sineya, who was offended by their use of the adjoining spell to defeat Adam; Buffy promptly rejected Sineya's insistence that the Slayer work alone without friends.

Sisterhood and sacrifice

Soon after her confrontation with Sineya, Buffy started to wonder about what it meant to be the Slayer and this encouraged her to start patrolling every night. On one of these patrols, she encountered the world-renowned vampire Dracula, who had traveled to Sunnydale with the intention of making the legendary warrior his bride. Buffy - among others - was at first left powerless to Dracula's unique "thrall", but managed to overcome his control over her and forced him to leave town. Her battle against the infamous Count combined with her encounter with the first Slayer made Buffy realize the inherent "darkness" behind the Slayer legend and made her want to learn more about the other slayers. She began to fully accept her duty as the Slayer for the first time in her life and enlisted Giles to put her through more extensive training in order to make her a better Slayer.

Meanwhile, a younger sister, Dawn Summers, had mysteriously appeared in the Summers' household; her existence had been seamlessly integrated into the memories of all those she had ever known. After casting a spell on herself in the hopes of discovering the mystical source of an illness she believed her mother was blighted by, Buffy discovered that Dawn was not her sister at all, but rather a ball of magical energy known as The Key capable of opening interdimensional portals. A group of monks had caused the Key to take human shape in order to protect it from a mentally unstable higher being known as Glorificus; they had chosen to put the Key in the Slayer's care, as a sister, in the hopes that she would protect it with her life. Though Buffy was understandably skeptical of Dawn when she learned that she had been fabricated and integrated into her life without her prior knowledge, she quickly came to accept her responsibility as Dawn's protector, not because she felt obliged to carry out the monks' wishes, but because she slowly realized that she truly did love her sister, regardless of the circumstances of her existence.

Buffy continued to patrol Sunnydale and fight evil with the Scoobies, despite the looming threat of Glory. After an encounter with an average vampire left her badly wounded, she became interested in learning the deaths of past Slayers and poured through old Watchers Diaries with Giles in an attempt to better understand her situation. She eventually went to Spike for information instead, who, having killed two Slayers in his lifetime, proved particularly knowledgeable on the subject. He brought her to the Bronze, where he recounted to her the events of his life in great detail, from his human life as William Pratt, to his siring by Drusilla, his rivalry with Angelus and his obsession with Slayers. He imparted to her his own personal philosophy in regards to Slayers - that everyone had a death wish - before she shoved him to the ground and returned home, where she had to confront her mother's worsening state. As she cried on the back porch, Spike suddenly appeared; though he at first seemed frustrated and intent on harming her for her prior words, upon seeing her in distress, he abandoned his pointless vendetta and comforted her for the first time.

Buffy's relationship with Riley slowly began to deteriorate as she repeatedly failed to give him the emotional intimacy he craved. Riley began visiting a vampire brothel where he would allow vampires to bite him; when Buffy discovered this as a result of Spike's interference, she destroyed the brothel and confronted Riley, after which he left her and returned to the military. Buffy dealt with Riley's departure as best as she could but remained emotionally sensitive. Buffy's pain over having had two failed relationships caused her to take an interest in Ben Wilkinson, a handsome medic. However, an encounter with April, the love-struck robot girlfriend of Warren Mears, made her realize that she was overly dependent on men and decided she needed to be by herself for a while. This proved to be greatly fortunate as Ben was secretly Glory's human vessel.

The Watchers Council eventually came to Sunnydale with information about Glory but refused to give it up until Buffy passed a test they had prepared for her. The Council interviewed Buffy's friends and allies in order to ascertain if she was "worthy" of the knowledge they had to deliver. Though Buffy at first failed to meet their high standards, it was a conversation with Glory (who threatened to kill her and her friends) that gave her the confidence to stand up to the Council. Through a rousing speech, she managed to convince them to give her all the information they and reinstate Giles into the Council as her paid Watcher. With the Council's knowledge, Buffy discovered Glory was not a demon at all, but a deity.

Later, Dawn casually revealed to Buffy that Spike had fallen in love with her, much to Buffy's surprise and disgust. She confronted him about it on a stakeout; while she attempted to tell him that his feelings were impossible, he kidnapped her in order to proclaim his devotion to her via murdering his sire and ex-lover, Drusilla. Buffy managed to escape, and subsequently alienated Spike from the Scoobies and had Willow recant his invitation into her house - something she had not bothered to do since he first helped her during their fight against Angel.

Buffy and Dawn were then devastated by the death of their mother shortly after. Joyce had been experiencing health problems for months, and only recently received surgery for a brain tumor when she died unexpectedly from an aneurysm. In order to fully take up her role as Dawn's legal guardian, Buffy was forced to drop out of college, though she faced difficulties as a result of Dawn's increasingly rebellious behavior.

Meanwhile, Giles decided to take Buffy on a Vision Quest to help her discover what being the Slayer truly meant. It involved the first Slayer, her vision guide, cryptically telling her that death was her "gift." Buffy found such a message both confusing and hurtful so soon after her mother's passing, and immediately returned to Sunnydale. Upon her return, she discovered that Spike had forced Warren to build Buffybot, a robotic sex toy in her likeness, which had resulted in him being captured by Glorificus' minions in the belief that he was the Key. Despite her understandable rage and disgust over the robot's existence, Buffy saved Spike and subsequently discovered that he had endured intense torture - and come close to dying - at the hands of Glory in order to protect Dawn's identity as the Key. Moved by his sacrifice, Buffy rewarded Spike with a kiss and reconciled with him, welcoming him back into her circle of friends.

When Glory finally discovered that Dawn was the Key, Buffy immediately had her and the gang rushed out of Sunnydale in a Winnebago piloted by Spike. This attempt was hampered when the Knights of Byzantium, a militia intent on killing the Key to stop Glory, attacked the Scoobies on the road. The Scoobies then held up inside an abandoned gas station and called in Ben to treat Giles who had been injured in the assault. He then unwillingly turned into Glory who kidnapped Dawn, despite Buffy and the others' attempts to protect her.

Believing she had failed, Buffy broke down retreated into her subconscious, where she battled with the guilt of having failed to protect her sister. Via magic, Willow successfully dove into Buffy's mind and helped her overcome her helplessness.

Although she knew that Dawn's death would destroy Glory's plan for good, Buffy refused to allow her sister to be harmed. She prepared for the battle with the Scoobies; whilst retrieving weapons from her house, she granted Spike permission to enter again, after which he expressed his gratitude to her for treating him "like a man." Buffy and the others subsequently attacked Glory's stronghold in full force. Willow weakened Glory's mentality, while Xander hit her with a wrecking ball and Buffy beat her repeatedly with Olaf the Troll God's Enchanted Hammer before she finally reverted to Ben's weaker form. Not wanting to kill an innocent human, Buffy allowed Ben to live, warning him not to go after Dawn again. Giles, however, knew that Glory would rise again and killed Ben with his own hands, thus destroying her.

Spike climbed the tower where the ritual was to be performed in an attempt to rescue Dawn, but was outmaneuvered and thrown off the tower by Doc, secretly one of Glory's followers. Despite all the Scoobies' best efforts, Dawn's blood had already been used to open the interdimensional portal by the time Buffy reached her atop the tower. Dawn offered to sacrifice herself in order to stop the ritual, but Buffy, who at that moment understood the meaning behind Sineya's message, chose instead to sacrifice herself for the good of the world. She leaped into the portal - her blood, which Dawn's had been modeled after, effectively closed the rift. Buffy's allies stood over her body and wept openly. She was buried on the outskirts of Sunnydale with the epitaph: "She saved the world. A lot." Finally able to rest, she ascended to another dimension, where she apparently found peace.

Resurrection

Several months later, Buffy was resurrected by her friends who had feared that her spirit had been trapped in a hell dimension due to the mystical circumstances of her death. In reality, she had been allowed to move onto heaven, where she had apparently found peace and happiness.

After crawling from the depths of her own grave, Buffy aimlessly wandered the streets of Sunnydale before being found and taken back to her house by Dawn. Buffy was comforted by Spike, who had been serving as Dawn's protector and sitter in Buffy's absence and officially joined the Scooby Gang in Buffy's absence. Her transition back to life was very difficult; she experienced an overwhelming sense of loss after being - as she put it - ripped out of heaven and thrust back into a world of pain. She had to take back her duties as the Slayer and deal with the everyday responsibilities of raising Dawn, working and paying bills. She attempted to keep the secret that she had been in heaven from her friends, not wanting them to share in her grief, and confided only in Spike, though the truth ultimately came out when she was under the influence of the demon Sweet. Buffy's depression worsened when Giles left Sunnydale and returned to England when she became overly dependent on him.

Struggling to feel alive and seeking someone who understood her, Buffy began a violent sexual relationship with Spike which left neither of them satisfied, keeping it secret from everyone but Tara out of fear of their reaction. What initiated the relationship was the fact that Spike could then hit her despite his chip still working. Buffy consulted with Tara on whether her resurrection changed who she was and thus no longer made her a human according to the chip. Tara discovered that the chip was merely confused due to her mystical resurrection, upsetting Buffy as it made her come to terms with the fact that her relationship with Spike was her own doing and not anything outside her control.

In order to deal with her increasing financial problems, Buffy started working at a local burger bar called the Doublemeat Palace, a job she found degrading and disturbingly mundane. With all of these problems, Buffy sank into severe depression and self-loathing.

Meanwhile, Willow, following Buffy's resurrection, developed an addiction to magic and began to use it excessively, which Buffy, faced with her own problems, failed to notice and largely ignored at first, even when confronted with evidence by Anya Jenkins and Xander. This climaxed when a memory purge spell cast by Willow went awry and erased all of the memories of the Scooby Gang; when the spell was ended, Tara dumped Willow, which immediately caused Willow's addiction to spiral out of control. Buffy finally became aware of the full extent of Willow's addiction when she and Amy Madison (having been transformed into a rat for three years, only to be finally changed back) began making regular visits to Rack, a shady sorcery dealer, which only worsened Willow's condition. When Willow made another trip to Rack's place with Dawn in tow, the two were attacked by Mandraz, who Willow unwittingly summoned during her high, and Willow's carelessness caused a car accident that left Dawn severely injured. Buffy and Spike arrived in time to save them and, despite being understandably furious with Willow, relented slightly when Willow desperately begged her for help. With Buffy's help, Willow renounced the usage of her magic altogether and was put on the road to recovery.

In contrast to the ruthless hell-goddess Buffy faced the year before, her newest "nemesises" consisted of her old nerdy classmates that formed a group called "the Trio", with the intent of committing crimes, obtaining women, and eventually taking over Sunnydale. Seeing Buffy as a foil in their plans, they made it their top priority to take the Slayer out, proceeding with several, ongoing minor annoyances against her, though she never had any interest in directly stopping them. One of their games led to accidentally turning Buffy invisible. At first, Buffy enjoyed this new power, by tricking the mentality of the social worker Doris Kroeger, who had been unimpressed by Buffy's ability as Dawn's guardian; and by going to Spike for sex, without the risk of their affair being discovered. Upon learning that if she were to continue being invisible her molecule structure would break down, Buffy sought to stop the Trio and made herself visible, not wanting to die despite her current grime state of life.

The Trio's schemes finally reached the breaking point when their leader, Warren Mears, accidentally killed his ex-girlfriend Katrina Silber after a mystical date-rape attempt. With the use of Jonathan Levinson's magicks and Andrew Wells' demon summoning, he manipulated events to make Buffy think she killed Katrina. Convinced, Buffy was ready to confess to the police, although this was thwarted when Spike dumped the body to save her. In a combination of grief and denial in her relationship with Spike, Buffy beat him severely. Luckily for her, Buffy discovered that she wasn't actually the perpetrator of the crime and the death was ruled as a suicide; nonetheless, Buffy realized that the Trio was becoming too dangerous for her to ignore and resolved to bring them to justice.

Buffy soon met Riley again when she enlisted her help with a demon he's tracking. Buffy discovered that his current situation was much more desirable than her own; Riley was happily married then, while Buffy was desperately turning to Spike for relief. This realization shocked Buffy into finally breaking up with Spike, admitting to him that she was just using him and it was killing her.

Confused and angry, Spike later got drunk with Anya, who had recently been left at the altar by Xander, and the two had sex in the Magic Box, which the Scoobies discovered through hidden cameras that the Trio had planted in the Bronze, the Magic Box, and Buffy's house. Xander subsequently attempted to kill Spike in a jealous rage, but Buffy intervened, revealing her secret relationship with Spike in the process; though Willow, Dawn, and Anya accepted it with relative grace, understanding what Buffy had been going through, Xander reacted exactly as Buffy feared, though he eventually realized why Buffy had kept it secret and apologized. Later, Spike cornered her in her bathroom, and in a misguided attempt to force her to admit her love for him, tried to rape her. She managed to fight him off, and in tears, dared him to ask again why she couldn't love him. Frustrated with his own inability to be either a man or a monster and disgusted with himself for his own actions, Spike fled Sunnydale.

After yet again foiling the Trio's plan, an enraged and embarrassed Warren tried to kill Buffy by shooting at her while she was caught off-guard in her backyard. Buffy used the split-second she had after being made aware of Warren's presence to push Xander out of the way and take the bullet in the process. Meanwhile, one of Warren's stray bullets accidentally killed Tara. Willow, enraged and grief-stricken, suffered a relapse and recklessly absorbed a large amount of dark magic. Willow saved Buffy at the hospital by removing the bullet with telekinesis, before proceeding to hunt down Warren and exacting bloody revenge against him; Willow flayed him alive before the eyes of her friends who came to stop her.

Despite Warren's actions, Buffy was adamant that Willow had done the wrong thing and worked to protect Andrew and Jonathan (who had no involvement in Tara's murder) to prevent further deaths and to prevent her friend from becoming completely evil. Buffy even battled her best friend one-on-one so that the remaining Trio members could escape, but was promptly defeated before Giles came to her rescue.

In the ensuing battle, the Magic Box was destroyed and Willow tried to kill Andrew and Jonathan with a homing fireball which Buffy managed to stop, though this resulted in Dawn and herself being trapped underground in the cemetery where the fireball impacted.

Willow then tried to destroy the whole world to end everybody's pain, which caused a number of demons to spawn and attack Buffy and Dawn. Xander finally got through to Willow in the end. The trauma of Tara's death, Willow nearly destroying the world and seeing Dawn's showing her proficiency with a sword allowed Buffy to realize that life was worth living after all. With that, Buffy promised to stop her self-destructive behavior in order to be there for Dawn when Dawn needed her; with this crisis resolved, Buffy was finally ready to live again.

Leader to the Potentials

When Dawn enrolled in the recently rebuilt Sunnydale High as a freshman, Buffy was offered a job as a guidance counselor by Principal Robin Wood, which she gratefully accepted. Initially, she found it to be an unfulfilling experience, as she was unable to connect with any of the students that came to her for advice, many of them having trivial reasons. She soon became concerned when a girl with psychic powers, Cassie Newton, came to her claiming she would soon die. Buffy at first thought she was suicidal, but after learning it was an upcoming event, she saved her from being sacrificed by a group of demon-worshipping students. Afterward, Buffy discovered that Cassie would actually die from a congenital heart condition. Cassie would be the first of numerous young women Buffy wouldn't be able to save in the following months.

Meanwhile, Buffy had discovered that Spike was living in the basement of the high school. Though at first taken aback by his madness, she eventually came to realize that he had regained his soul in order to prove himself to her. Recognizing that he had changed, she brought him out of the basement and helped him to recover. It eventually became apparent that he was being controlled by an evil force to feed on, kill and sire humans in town. Buffy tied Spike to a chair in order to prohibit him from moving; after he went into a frenzy and attacked Andrew Wells, she chained him in her basement. When he begged her to kill him, she refused and expressed her belief in him. He was later kidnapped by the agents of the First Evil.[89] The First's minions had been tracking down and killing Potential Slayers in an attempt to abolish the entire Slayer chain. These Potentials were brought to Sunnydale for protection and training at Buffy's home; the house was quickly overrun with teenage Potentials.

Andrew, who had been under the influence of the First and captured by Buffy and her friends, led them to the First's area of focus, the Seal of Danzalthar, situated on the gateway to the Hellmouth; Spike's blood had been used to open the Seal. Upon investigating the creature that had been released, Buffy encountered an ancient and powerful vampire known as a Turok-Han.[90] Buffy eventually stepped up as a leader to the Potentials and killed the Turok-Han to prove her determination and ability. Afterward, she delved into the First's lair, where she rescued Spike, who had been brutally tortured by both the First and the Turok-Han.

She later used the Slayer Emergency Kit given to her by Robin, whose mother was a Slayer herself. She used this to contact the Shadowmen for assistance. In response, they took her into another dimension and offered to increase her strength via the essence of a demon. Buffy refused, unwilling to sacrifice her humanity in exchange for power.

Meanwhile, a reformed Faith, having escaped from prison to help Angel, traveled to Sunnydale to aid the Scoobies in the battle. Upon learning that the First's minion Caleb had something of hers, Buffy led the Potentials into battle at a Vineyard to retrieve it, which resulted in the loss of several girls as well as Xander's eye. With this, the Scoobies and Potentials, having been losing confidence in Buffy's leadership skills and methods for quite some time, became mutinous, appointing a reluctant Faith their leader and forcing Buffy out of the house. Alone, she briefly resided in a house that had been abandoned by its owner.

Only Spike remained loyal to her; he followed her to the house, and expressed his love and admiration for her; it was because of his belief in her that Buffy was able to overcome her feelings of rejection and depression, and found the strength to keep fighting. Through quick maneuvers and witty remarks, Buffy found the object Caleb was keeping from her - an ancient Slayer scythe called Mʔ - and saved the Potentials and Faith after the latter led them into a trap, earning back the gang's loyalty and finally making peace with Faith before revealing her plan to share her power with the other Potentials.

Also, with the help of Angel, Buffy finally defeated Caleb and killed him by cutting him in half, killing the First's leading enforcer and one of her greatest foes. The First confronted her once more. From the rantings on how there was only one Slayer, Buffy realized her revolutionary idea.

Willow used the Scythe to perform a spell that activated Slayers all around the world. This happened just as Buffy led an army of potential Slayers down to the Hellmouth through the Seal of Danzalthar in the then abandoned Sunnydale High. A huge battle was then waged between the newly-activated Slayers and the Turok-Han vampires. During the fight, Buffy was struck down with a sword and then taunted by the First while witnessing the loss of several new Slayers; Buffy, however, found the strength within herself to get up again and continue fighting.

When Spike's amulet suddenly activated, she rushed to his side and urged him to accompany her to the surface. He made it clear that he needed to finish his job; the two locked fingers, and their hands ignited in flame. Buffy confessed her love for him, though he remained unconvinced yet pleased by the gesture, and then she escaped the ruins at Spike's insistence.

With the other survivors, she looked on at the crater where her hometown had been and revealed to them that Spike had sacrificed himself to save the world. Resolved to go on, she reflected on what they would do next.

Slayer Organization

Following the destruction of Sunnydale, the Scoobies scattered across the globe to locate and train newly-activated Slayers. Simultaneously, in Los Angeles, Angel and his team began working at the Los Angeles branch of the demonic law firm Wolfram & Hart. Believing he had been corrupted by the firm, Buffy and her friends lost trust in him; when he contacted them for help containing the psychotic Slayer Dana, Buffy directed Andrew to L.A. to apprehend her, but refused to leave her in Angel's care afterward, and even sent a sizable squad of Slayers to ensure that Andrew accompanied her back out of the city.

Meanwhile, in the midst of mourning Anya's death, Xander had once again fallen under Dracula's thrall. Buffy was left with no choice but to break into the elder vampire's castle and convince him to let his "manservant" go. When he returned, he resumed his place in Buffy's team. Encompassing both mystics and a wide technological army, as well as countless new Slayers, the Scoobies expanded to keep watch on demonic threats on a global scale. Although it counted with voluntary donors, Buffy funded this organization's great expenses by robbing a Swiss bank with the help of several of her fellow Slayers, which she later reasoned had been a victimless crime because of the bank's insurance. Buffy was forced to create decoys of herself to divert enemy attention: one in Rome, supposedly dating The Immortal, and the other underground; not even former allies - namely, Angel - were made aware of her true location.

Buffy, Xander, and Dawn - who had been magically made giant - eventually set up the Slayer Organization command center in Scotland, where Buffy, with the help of Xander as a watcher, trained new Slayers and formed a team of her most trusted fighters, including Satsu, Rowena, and Leah. At some point, she learned that Spike had been resurrected in L.A., and, according to Willow, followed several leads to make sure the information was valid, but could not find the time to get in contact with him afterward.

Buffy eventually encountered signs of an attack from a new enemy known as Twilight. In her investigation, her team came under fire by the United States military, who had the Slayers declared terrorists, justified by Sunnydale's violent destruction and the creation of a powerful army. General Voll, leader of the Drextalcorp Recycling Technologies secret operation investigating the town's destruction, informed Buffy she was at war with the human race, and that many others like him were part of the anti-Slayer Twilight Group.

Though she had managed to organize a highly effective institution, Buffy failed to experience the feelings of connection that the other Slayers did. In her first encounter with Twilight, Buffy was warned that her decision to activate the Slayers had been a mistake, and she began to question her own actions. Accompanied with Satsu, her most trusted fighting companion, she discovered the other Slayer's feelings for her, and, despite flattered, she was mostly worried for Satsu's safety due to her own past relationships, describing that people tended to get hurt. The two ended up sleeping together anyway. While Satsu remained in love with her, Buffy adopted a stance of either avoiding or protecting her, ordering Satsu to lead Tokyo cell after its former leader, Aiko, was assassinated by Toru's pack. She accepted the position, and two had sex one last time, before parting ways indefinitely.

On a mission to New York City, Buffy was transported several centuries into the future. In Haddyn, she discovered that, by the 23rd century, the thousands of Slayers activated had been reduced to one individual once more, a young woman named Melaka Fray. Though Buffy and Fray quickly became accustomed to each other, Fray betrayed her when she learned that if Buffy returned to her own time, her own world would cease to exist. Both Fray and a future version of Dark Willow tried to prevent her from returning home, prompting Buffy to kill future Willow, just as present Willow brought her back to her own time. When Buffy later told her of these events, Willow assured her that the future was not set in stone.

War against humanity

Over time, various factors - including Simone Doffler's rogue Slayers, her ex-classmate Harmony Kendall's pro-vampire reality show Harmony Bites, and the machinations of Twilight - caused the existence of the supernatural to become public knowledge and public opinion towards Slayers to turn hostile. Buffy herself became a public hate figure in the media, at one point being branded the "Worst Person in the World." The Scooby Gang fled to Tibet, where old friend and werewolf Oz taught them to suppress their magical powers in order to hide from Twilight.

When Twilight found them anyway, the Slayers were forced to fight a human war against the military, with casualties incurred on both sides. Buffy found herself suddenly and inexplicably imbued with new powers, including flight, super speed, and even greater strength than before; she quickly used these abilities to contain the three Wrathful goddesses that had been unleashed during the battle. She also confessed to Xander that she had developed romantic feelings for him, but acknowledged that she was too late as he had already fallen in love with Dawn.

During their second confrontation, Buffy was horrified when Twilight unmasked himself as Angel; he had created the Twilight persona to unite the various anti-Slayer forces and minimize the destruction they would cause. It was revealed that Buffy and Angel were actually prophesied to bring about the apocalyptic event of Universal Recreation, which would destroy Earth and create the sentient Twilight dimension in its place. Buffy and Angel succumbed to their passions and engaged in an act of airborne sex. After that, they found themselves in the new Twilight dimension. With the prospect of eternal happiness with Angel in the new paradise dimension, Buffy quested the reality, especially after observing that her friends were fighting the demons on earth unleashed by the creation of the new dimension. She decided to return to Earth to help her friends in the resulting apocalypse and, with brief hesitation, Angel following suit. Amidst this chaos, Spike returned to inform Buffy about the Seed of Wonder, the source of magic on Earth and the secret to defeating Twilight.

The Scooby Gang traveled to the ruins of Sunnydale, where they were confronted by the Master, resurrected and protecting the Seed. Taking possession of Angel, Twilight killed the Master, battled Buffy, and murdered Giles to prevent him from destroying the Seed; however, a grief-stricken Buffy succeeded where Giles had failed and smashed the Seed, defeating Twilight and putting an end to magic on Earth. Still in a state of despair and hopelessness, Buffy recuperated enough to prevent Xander from murdering Angel, pleading to him that she couldn't handle losing anyone else close to her but most of all, she could not lose Xander by betraying his very being if he went through with this.

With magic cut off from Earth, the Slayer organization disbanded and Buffy returned to relative civilian life. The government continued to monitor the remaining Slayers, although most of them no longer identified as such. Giles left the majority of his assets to Faith in his will; Buffy's only inheritance was Vampyr, the book he presented her with on their first meeting. Faith interpreted this as Giles' belief that Buffy was the one and only Slayer. Four months after the destruction of the Seed, Buffy was a guest in Xander and Dawn's apartment in San Francisco, while working as a waitress at the coffee shop Pick Me Up. Willow told Buffy she had robbed the Earth of its heart by destroying the Seed; however, Spike assured her that nobody else could have acted better under the circumstances. When confronted with three Slayers angry at her for betraying the cause, Buffy asserted herself and focused on her mission, hoping that she had still managed to make some positive change to the world.

World without magic

After a while, Buffy moved out of Xander and Dawn's apartment in favor of her own place, which she shared with two new roommates, Anaheed and Tumble. During her housewarming party, Buffy experienced a night of wild, unprecedented drinking - unable to recall the events of the previous evening the following day, she made slow attempts to piece together her memories while going about her daily business. Spike, who had also relocated to San Francisco ensuing the destruction of the Seed, continuously warned her about a new evil force stalking her, while Willow desperately tried to make Buffy realize the consequences of shattering the earth's literal "spark of creation".

Later, after Buffy saved a young man who was under attack by a vampire, she was suddenly arrested by the San Francisco detectives Robert Dowling and Miranda Cheung, who had recently discovered a large number of dead bodies and had theorized they belonged to vampires. Though both detectives decided not to free Buffy until she gave them the answers they desired, Buffy managed to escape custody and became a fugitive from the law as a result.

She then came across the same man she had saved earlier - Severin -, who revealed his mysterious ability to drain the energy from mystical beings. Buffy also discovered one of the more pressing consequences of the destruction of the Seed: all vampires sired after Seed's shattering had risen mindless and feral, and were later dubbed "zompires" by Xander. After consulting on the matter with the Scoobies, Buffy accompanied Severin to take out a vampire nest, only to have Severin turn on her when they entered a seaside warehouse filled with dead bodies.

In the ensuing fight, Severin told Buffy that he had to kill all those vampires because Buffy destroyed the Seed and that she didn't deserve her power. Eventually, Severin overpowered Buffy and began to drain her powers, as well as Spike's when he arrived to help her, but just before he could drain the two completely, detective Dowling, having been anonymously tipped off, arrived and made the save by shooting Severin four times in the chest. Having discovered that Severin was the real culprit, Buffy was subsequently cleared of all charges.

Proceeding this, Buffy began to suffer from strange dreams involving Sineya and a mysterious fairy, along with frequent bouts of vomiting and morning sickness. While sharing the dream with Willow, the fairy told her that the first Slayer wanted her to "unlock the key", but this was, in fact, Willow's job. When Buffy awoke, she discovered both Willow and the Scythe missing; she had gone to restore the magic on Earth. Buffy then took a pregnancy test and was shocked to discover it positive.

Despite advice and encouragement from Robin Wood, Buffy came to the decision that she was not ready to be a mother and asked Spike to come with her to get an abortion. However, this planned abortion was interrupted when, while helping Spike tackle a group of zompires, Buffy sustained injuries that revealed that she was actually in a robotic body.

Confronting Andrew, Buffy and Spike learned that she was actually Buffy's mind transferred into Buffybot; based on Warren's notes, Andrew had transferred Buffy's mind into the robot in order to help her escape a rumored assassination attempt while leaving her body living a civilian life in another part of the country. However, Andrew, Spike, and Buffy went to retrieve Buffy's body, which was captured by Simone. Once the ordeal was over, Spike left San Francisco and Buffy, much to her disappointment and sadness. Buffy then appeared to turn in her resignation to her boss.

Following quitting her job as a waitress, she began to try something newer. Buffy was forced to take orders from fellow slayer Kennedy, under the profession of being a bodyguard in Deepscan. However, she struggled with shutting off her Slayer instincts, much to Kennedy's annoyance who could do so easily. Nevertheless, she received a client named Theo Daniels who revealed he was being hunted by Wolfram & Hart. Acknowledging the seriousness of the situation, Buffy sought out Eldre Koh for his help only to have him betray her trust and his code, reasoning to Buffy that vengeance towards the demon that imprisoned him was much more important than honor, much to her shock.

After her client was kidnapped, Buffy and Kennedy come up with a plan of attack due to the information that Koh would not get what he wanted right away. After some clashes with Kennedy over Giles's death, they sneaked underground and arrived before Eldre Koh could find out the information he was after from them over who imprisoned him. Once Kennedy saved Theo, Buffy faced off against Koh only for him to escape with his life. With TinCan destroyed and her mission complete, Buffy originally believed she'd get punished but instead received praise and promotion, given a check for her efforts. Despite the prospect of money, Buffy declined the offer, coming to an epiphany that she had to do this by herself.

Soon afterward, Buffy became acquainted with Billy Lane, a 16-year-old boy who decided to become a "slayer" and aid others in the zompire epidemic. Realizing the growing problem of zompires and other challenges created since the end of magic, she easily accepted him with open arms, proposing to train him. She quickly created a routine with Dowling and Billy, regularly patrolling with them to slay the zompires. However, she made sure to give Billy certain limitations, due to his young age and how dangerous slaying could be. During one of those patrols, she got easily beaten by a zompire; this was because she had earlier been cut with a mystical knife that was slightly draining her strength.

Having moved back in with Dawn and Xander, she realized that she had recognized this strong vampire that had bested her but could not remember where she had seen her before. Buffy hangs out with Dowling and Billy as well as Xander and Dawn, seeming to be somewhat happy that she had finally managed some semblance of an average night. However, she was ripped away from it just as quickly and teleported to the Magic Council, courtesy of none other than the Old One Illyria. She abruptly forced her to join this Council, much to Buffy's great confusion and indignation.

The Magic Council informed her that they had to protect the remaining magic on this dimension and that Severin was threatening that. Buffy agreed to help them, reasoning that she had no problem taking out demons and knew that Severin was gathering all of this energy for a reason. Buffy fell into an uneasy alliance with Eldre Koh and Illyria, arriving at Severin's new lair. After a failed attempt to attack three sides, Severin suddenly showed before him: completely a full power. Buffy and the others immediately attack Severin, only to be blown away by his immense strength. Eventually, Illyria teleported her group out of the building, where Buffy told the Council that Severin's plan was to lure Illyria out to drain her power, hoping to use her time-travel abilities to save the girl he had killed. As the Council argued over this, Severin suddenly burst in and started to drain Illyria's powers. With the new reality of Severin taking her time-travel powers, Buffy came to the conclusion she needed the other Scoobies to help her with this one.

Buffy returned home, only to discover that Xander and Dawn were at the hospital. Arriving there, Illyria noted that mystical energy was leaving Dawn's body, continuing on to explain that mystical energy was used to hold the body together and without it, she would die. Later at Andrew's, Xander admitted he blamed Buffy for this. She explained that she had to destroy the Seed, but then he blamed her for sleeping with Angel and creating all of this. Despite her attempts to explain, Xander didn't listen. Guilty and miserable, Buffy insisted that Dawn was still her sister and she would do anything she could to help her. Willow then reappeared in San Francisco, and, for much of her relief, Buffy realized that the witch had managed to regain her magic.

In an effort to save Dawn's life, Buffy formed a plan. With Willow's magic temporarily holding off Dawn's death for a few more days at the most, and Xander's information over what Severin and Simone were planning to do with the Vampyr book, she deduced that their solution to all of this was traveling to the Deeper Well in England. Since that place was magical and powered with many powerful sealed Old Ones, they could use that magic to load Willow up as a "battery", hopefully ensuring her sister's life to be restored. After sharing some heartfelt words of comfort to Dawn, she borrowed Kennedy's jet and flew to England. Arriving at the Deeper Well, Buffy and her friends stand up to the Council, who was there to protect the entrance.

Buffy fought against hordes of demons that stood in her way to save Dawn's life with Willow and her magic to help her, while Illyria and Koh arrived to help. Buffy and the others finalized a plan that could potentially get them all killed, only for a guilty and worried Xander to confess to them that he had been feeding Simone and Severin information of Buffy's motives, in exchange for going back to reverse Twilight. Buffy was hurt at his complete lack of trust in her. Informed that Simone and Severin had managed to enter the Deeper Well, Illyria identified that their plan of preventing Twilight would create a reality tear in the universe. Buffy realized that, rather than just Dawn, she had to save the entire world once again.

While the Council pleaded for Buffy to help to save the world, she was more focused on saving Dawn, so she and Willow ventured into the Deeper Well. After showing early signs of forgetting about her sister, Willow began to grow red with magic as they got closer to a powerful source of magic. Willow tried to send Buffy to help Illyria, Koh, and the Council to help them defeat the Old One Maloker. Buffy refused, wanting her to help save her Dawn instead, but Willow was firm, saying she needed to trust her. Reluctantly, Buffy agreed. She eventually ran into Xander, who was standing at the dead body of Simone near Maloker's coffin. Xander warned her that Simone's plan was to create an army of slayer/zompire hybrids. Buffy seemed to figure something out and lifted her Scythe to decapitate the dead Slayer. At that moment, Simone awakened as a fully intelligent vampire and attacked them.

Buffy proceeded to battle against Simone, who expressed her intense hatred of her since she was the one who turned her into a Slayer when she never wanted to be one. Buffy ignored it, realizing how much stronger Simone was after she became a slayer-vampire. However, a burst of magical energy incinerated Maloker, but Willow was able to save Buffy, Xander, and the surviving members of the Council. As they made their escape, Simone attacked them and dragged Buffy off, determined to kill her once and for all. In the ensuing skirmish, Simone nearly beheaded Buffy, but only succeeded in cutting off most of her hair. Gaining the upper hand, Buffy told Simone that she regretted ever making her a Slayer before staking her with the Scythe and making her way out of the Well.

Upon her escape, Buffy discovered from Willow that a new Seed of Wonder had formed and restored Earth's magic, but both Severin and Illyria sacrificed themselves in the process of doing so. Assuring that they would not let their deaths be in vain, the group returned to San Francisco to save Dawn. Succeeding the ritual to restore Dawn, Buffy proceeded to thank Spike for watching over her sister, and forgave Xander for his alliance with Simone. When she and Willow decided to check the Vampyr book, they were shocked to discover that its pages were completely blank, leaving Buffy to wonder exactly what they did in the Deeper Well.

Return of magic

"The only worse option than me being in charge of the book is everyone else who wants it. No… I'm done running away from the hard choices. But I can't even manage my own life. How am I supposed to write the freaking rules of magic?"

Buffy and the others went to Santa Rosita to deal with the last zompires, and was assisted by Vicki and a group of new vampires, discovering the consequence from the return of magic. As soon as the zompires were extinguished, the vampires turned against the Slayer. The Scooby Gang then counted on the sudden assistance of Deepscan, with Kennedy, Faith, Leah, Holly, and Giles, who revealed himself resurrected in an emotional reunion.

Returning to San Francisco, the Scoobies discovered the new magic of this world was still undefined, with Buffy's allies learning that they could write new rules for magic in the Vampyr book, such as preventing the vampires from using their new powers in daylight, or Clem making unicorns real for Harmony.

She and her friends were able to move to a haunted building in Tenderloin, with discount on their rent after exorcising the place. Buffy shared the apartment with Willow and Dawn, while neighbors to Xander and Spike's, as well as Giles' apartment. Both in a better place than their previous encounters, Buffy and Spike began a relationship.

Her father attempted to reconnect with Buffy and Dawn through monthly reunions. Announcing he was about to marry again, he communicated his decision to exclude Buffy from their wedding ceremony "for safety reasons," based on her public reputation as a Slayer. When Buffy returned distraught from this reunion, Giles defended her, declaring she was an exceptional woman more than capable of forging her own path, and she didn't need Hank, himself, or anyone else; so they shared an emotional hug.

Buffy became a supernatural consultant to SFPD, working alongside Spike and Dowling. She assisted in Jean Anthony' case, who was attacked by an incubus. This made Buffy revisit Spike' attempt rape, as well as many difficulties through her life, and the couple finally talked and came to terms about their turbulent past.

The world then was being taken by interdimensional demons, allowed to enter the Earth dimension with the use of the Restless Door, in power of the demon lords the Mistress, the Soul Glutton, and the Sculptor. Through a visit from Satsu, the American army contacted Buffy in order to use her in a necessary partnership between humans, vampires, and new vampires. For this, she participated in the VampCon event, which included Harmony and Vicki, and won a battle against their strongest vampire. Although, when Willow revealed to be working for the government in secret, their friendship was shaken. The two quickly realized their unity was strongest than their divergent opinions.

Buffy finally met the new Magic Coucil formation. Insecure about her responsibility over the magic rules of the world, she counted with the group to oversee her choices, and gave them new abilities to assist her.

The Slayer was faced again with a critical crisis to save the world when D'Hoffryn then suddenly killed the rest of the Council and took all their power for himself. He affirmed the Scooby Gang had taken Anya away from him, and he wanted his vengeance.

During to an ambush by the demon lords, Dawn volunteered herself to use her Key powers and be left behind, arguing Buffy always sacrificed herself for her and she always wished to be that brave, and that was her chance. Despite Spike's protests, Buffy agreed with her sister, explaining she was an adult and that was her decision, and she was proud of her for that. Buffy also considered the fact that she had to resume her responsibilities and focus on saving the world.

This choice, though, wasn't easy, as Buffy ended up taking her anger and frustration on her friends, in special on his boyfriend Spike. Saddened he wanted to help but only making her angry, Spike suggested them to break up. He pointed out his inability to give her a normal life despite his want, and it'd be easier for them to call things off before it hurts worse later. Buffy immediately stopped crying and disagreed with him, and asked him to follow her in her mission and hit the road. She met with various demons and vampires she had allied himself before and counted with their help to take D'Hoffryn new powers away. With the time, Buffy agreed it would be easier to break up indeed, but it wasn't right; she could've had a normal relationship with Riley, but it didn't erase other challenges, as nothing would ever be perfect. Buffy declared that they together were something she didn't want to lose without a fight, and she wanted to give it a try.

After Buffy and the Scooby Gang had their morals back, and D'Hoffryn had to run away from the fight, Buffy finally used the book in her favor: giving her own sister the possibility to manifest her Key powers in any dimension. With D'Hoffryn defeated, Buffy assembled a new Magic Council, consisting of her allies and potential adversaries to supervise the magic, and herself as the president.

The Reckoning

After a quiet year, Buffy became aunt Xander and Dawn's daughter Joyce Harris, and was again single after a mutual break up with Spike. Angel returned with Illyria reporting that dark forces were merging in San Francisco, while Wolfram & Hart was coordinating an attack against Willow's empowerment center and its Slayers. Buffy and the Scoobies attempted to fight an army of demons in Wolfram & Hart Silicon Valley branch, where Buffy recognized Harth Fray. With the combined powers of Dawn, Willow, and Illyria, Buffy once again time traveled to Fray's future Haddyn to seek answers, where she learned from the 23rd century Harmony her own bleak future: bound to fight demons in a hell dimension for the rest of her brief life. Despite the odds against her and the Scoobies, they vowed to find a way to save the world, returning to her present with the new allies Melaka and Erin.

The battle began, and eventually, out of desperation, Buffy convinced Willow to cast a spell to give her the collective powers of all active Slayers. Just as they began the spell, however, Harth jumped in, using a staff used by one of the Shadow Men to steal the power for himself. With no other way, Dawn opened a portal to a hell dimension, and Buffy planned to force the demons through as history dictated. However, Illyria jumped in and sacrificed herself to force the demons in. Harth proceeded to overpower the combined might of Buffy and Melaka, until his body began to break down under the strain of his Slayer powers, so Buffy staked him with the Scythe. As he dusted, the Slayer powers flowed back to their previous owners, including Melaka's Slayer memories.

Two weeks after the crisis was averted, Buffy told Spike that their relationship could happen again, any time, so it was important they were happy and together, and didn't want anything to get in the way of that. Buffy then joined the Scoobies - Dawn, Joyce, Xander, Willow, Giles, Andrew, Faith, Angel, and Spike - in a barbecue commemorating hers and Faith's graduation from San Francisco Police Academy. Around her loved ones, Buffy reflected: "the trouble with changing the world is… worth it." Meanwhile, in the 23rd century, Fray arrived in a new and improved future changed by the Reckoning, welcomed by her sister Slayers.

Buffy: Hello J.D.

Me: Wow! Buffy Summers the World Famous Vampire Hunter.

Buffy: That's right J.D. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here. You have killed more vampires than anyone else that we know.

Maria: It's an honor to meet you, Buffy!

Buffy: You too Maria. You all are widely known all over the worlds of the Supernatural and the mystic.

Nico: So we heard.

Then a massive swarm of bats came in and spun around and we saw that they turned into Alucard of HELLSING and with him was Seras Victoria.

Alucard first appears as the Hellsing Organization is called in the investigate happenings in Cheddar. Here he meets Seras Victoria, one of the police sent in beforehand to handle the situation, as well the target, the Cheddar Priest. Thinking Alucard will not shoot him if he holds the girl hostage, the priest puts Seras between himself and the other vampire's Casull but, apologizing to the Police Girl, Alucard shoots him anyway, and her. He then gives her a chance to avoid death and turn into a Vampire, which she accepts. Alucard sets about trying to teach her how to be a true vampire, helping her unlock her bloodlust and tap into her superhuman abilities, but doing one such mission in Badrick, he is interrupted by Alexander Anderson. The two trump cards fight viciously, but before any major damage can be done, Integra arrives and collects her vampires.

Later, when the Hellsing Organization is assailed by Luke Valentine and Jan Valentine, Alucard engages and devours Luke with his Baskerville Familiar. He meets the Wild Geese once they are hired, walking through a wall, terrifying them in the process and calling them "a pathetic bunch of sniveling cowards". He then heads to Rio with Seras. Upon exiting his room, Alucard is attacked by the remaining SWAT members, and he proceeds to sadistically and brutally massacre them. After killing the last SWAT members by impaling them on flagpoles, he is engaged by Tubalcain Alhambra in person. After a brief battle which causes serious collateral damage in the observing crowd, Alhambra manages to hit Alucard with several of his razor sharp, ultra durable playing cards, which Alucard appears to have some difficulty regenerating from initially. The two of them make their way to the roof of the hotel, where Alucard releases his restriction seals and vanishes. After fending off an assault from Seras, Alhambra re-engages Alucard, only to have his knee inverted with a kick and his arm split lengthwise after a failed attempt to do the same to Alucard with one of his cards. Alucard then consumes Alhambra to gain information on Millennium's plans, but gains only the limited knowledge that Alhambra himself had on Millennium, and thus receives an incomplete picture of their plans. As Alhambra's remains burn, Pip arrives with a helicopter and escapes with Alucard and Seras.

Alucard and company then set up shop in a small Brazilian town after the fiasco in Rio, from where Alucard calls Integra to report in. He tells her that he is now aware of what Millennium is planning to do, and Integra orders him back to London after a small verbal jab from Alucard. When Seras and Pip return (apparently from buying groceries), they begin to brainstorm how to return to London when Anderson kicks in the door. He and Alucard exchange a few hard punches before drawing weapons. Anderson, however, simply stakes a set of release papers to a wall, explaining that the Vatican will be providing their transport home. In London, Alucard and company join a meeting involving the Iscariot and Round Table management, presided over by Queen Elizabeth II herself.

After exchanging a tender greeting with the Queen, Alucard reports on Millennium's plan to use their newly bred vampire army to avenge their defeat during WWII. Immediately after this report, Schrödinger appears and sets up a video conference between Integra and The Major. After The Major states his intentions, Alucard tells him it will be a pleasure to destroy Millennium again and blows Schrödinger's head off as per Integra's orders. Sometime later, the Royal Navy receive reports of a Millennium hijacking of an aircraft carrier, the HMS Eagle. Integra, Walter, and Alucard journey to London to devise a way to recapture the ship. After listing and shooting down several possibilities, Walter comes up with the idea to use a modified SR-71 to get Alucard to the Eagle. Alucard then uses the plane to fly over the Eagle, well out of weapons range, and then to nosedive straight towards the ship before it can get its engines started. The Nazi soldiers and Millennium first lieutenant Rip Van Winkle attempt to shoot him down, but Alucard simply covers the SR-71 with his own body, keeping it in one piece long enough to crash into the flight deck of the Eagle. As he moves to confront a terrified Rip, the Nazi soldiers attempt to kill him while Rip retreats. Alucard brushes off their attack and butchers the lot of them. He then moves to confront Rip again, who gathers her courage and attempts to blast him into the ocean with her magic bullets. Right on the verge of falling off the ship, Alucard casually catches the bullet in his mouth and shatters it. He then punches Rip, stakes her to a wall with her own gun, and devours her. After consuming Rip, he lets out a maniacal laugh as the Major prepares his troops to attack London.

Despite the strategy of stranding in the ocean (as vampires cannot cross large bodies of water on their own), he manages to use his shadow powers to take control of and sail the stalled ship. Alucard begins his journey back to London on board the Eagle as Millennium burns London, opposed only by an advance force of Iscariot led by Alexander Anderson.

He later communicates telepathically with Seras during the attack on the Hellsing Manor by Millennium forces led by Zorin Blitz, prompting her to learn how to see through Zorin's illusions.

As the Vatican continues to fight the Last Battalion and murder the civilians of London, Alucard, at last, reaches London. Covering his arrival in a city-wide cloud of fog, he leaps from the Eagle (situated on the Thames river), and floats down between the Vatican forces and the Last Battalion, about to engage each other. When he lands, both Alexander Anderson and The Captain of Millennium move to confront him, each ignoring the other in favor of killing Alucard. Alucard shouts to Integra to give him an order, and she responds by ordering him to kill every one of Hellsing's enemies. To this end, she orders him to release Level Zero, Alucard's final and most devastating form. Every one of his enemies is overcome by dread as he initiates his release, sensing the horror that is to come, and they all attack him. Anderson and The Captain, seeing their attacks have no effect on Alucard, retreat while the Vatican and Millennium soldiers continue desperately to attack him.

Ultimately, they are unable to harm him, and the shadow matter Alucard's body was reduced to during the joint attack on him envelopes his foes like a tidal wave. As the shadow matter spreads throughout the city, human bodies begin to rise out of it, revealing that Level Zero is, in fact, the release of all the souls Alucard has devoured in corporeal form. As the Last Battalion and the Vatican prepare for the onslaught, Alucard takes the form of Vlad III "the Impaler" Dracula, appearing as he did when he first became a vampire. His forces wash over the Last Battalion and the Vatican while Tubalcain Alhambra and Rip Van Winkle, now familiars, destroy the Vatican's air forces. As the one-sided carnage draws to a close, Alucard greets Integra and Seras, acknowledging his pride in Seras for finally becoming a true vampire. He is then attacked by Anderson in the middle of this reunion. Telling his archenemy to come and kill him if he can, the two engage in a duel, with Alucard in his Vlad Tepes form wielding a broadsword.

When Anderson backs off to throw his bayonets at Alucard, Alucard shifts back to his Count-form and draws his guns, introducing Anderson to the Jackal. Anderson charges Alucard again, only to have the majority of his left upper arm blown off by the Jackal. Alucard then leaps behind a swarm of his familiars, out of reach of Anderson, who is then peppered with Alhambra's cards and shot by Rip Van Winkle's bullet. Badly hurt, with the wound in his left arm not regenerating, Anderson pauses to catch his breath while Alucard mocks him with the seemingly impossible odds of actually killing him. Anderson, disregarding these odds, prepares to charge into the horde of familiars, with Alucard looking on approvingly. As Anderson cuts his way to Alucard, Alucard revels in the thought that Anderson might be the human opponent he has been searching for; the one who might actually kill him. Anderson is finally stopped by Alucard's familiars but just as they are about to kill him, he is saved by a group of the remaining Iscariot-priests led by Heinkel Wolfe and Yumie Takagi. These priests engage in suicide bomber tactics to provide a path to Alucard for Anderson, which he utilizes successfully. Anderson then reveals his trump card, Helena's Nail, and prepares to stab himself with it. Horrified, Alucard shouts to him not to do it, telling him that he had enough strength as a man to win and begs him not to make the same mistake that he (Alucard) made. Anderson declines, saying that he does not wish to be a man, but a terrible storm of heartless, tearless piety, and stabs the nail through his own heart. Alucard, beside himself with fury, walks up to Anderson and points the Casull at him, screaming at him for his foolishness, but Anderson cuts off the arm with the Casull and Alucard's head in one motion. His headless body then blows off Anderson's head in return. As the two of them fall back, their bodies catch themselves and start to regrow their lost pieces. Alucard's pieces reappear as their usual shadow matter, but Anderson's head regrows as a half human mass of thorny vines. Alucard then unloads upon Anderson, blowing off numerous chunks of the priest's body, but to no avail. He then shoots a Jackal round at the nail itself, only for the bullet to be stopped in mid-flight by Anderson's vines. Anderson, smiling, then leaps into the air and casts a bayonet at Alucard's head, impaling him and doing the first real damage to ever be dealt to him. Vines erupt from the blade in Alucard's head and set him aflame, burning his horde of familiars (which is just an extension of his form) as well.

Alucard then has flashbacks concerning his past (possibly his life flashing before him), and relives it form and charges Anderson. Anderson attempts to stop him with more vines but to no avail; Alucard plunges his hand into Anderson's chest, removes both the Nail and Anderson's heart, and rips him in half. As Anderson's pieces fall, Alucard closes his hand upon the heart and the Nail, destroying them both. Instead of gloating or laughing as with his other defeated foes, Alucard is overcome by grief and screams at Anderson for making the same mistake that he did and starts to sob under his breath. Anderson quietly laughs, however, and says to Alucard "Monsters don't cry. And that's why you became one, isn't it? So you wouldn't have to." This gets Alucard's attention and he regains his composure as Anderson continues with, "When a man's tears dry up forever, they become a monster… so laugh… just as always." Anderson exchanges a few final words with Alucard and then crumbles to dust with a final, "Amen", echoed by Alucard.

The scene of mourning is then interrupted by a rejuvenated Walter descending from the sky onto Anderson's crumbling remains. Walter explains to his former family how he has betrayed Hellsing of his own free will, and Alucard tells him sorrowfully that his old body was far more beautiful than his new, immortal one. As he sadly kneels in Anderson's ashes, Walter shouts at him to stand up and fight. Alucard then asks Integra to reaffirm her kill order which she does, to the delight of not only Alucard but The Major and Walter as well. As Integra and Seras leave to storm the Deus Ex Machina, Alucard and Walter begin their battle. Walter initially seems to have the upper hand since most of Alucard's fighting methods are useless against him. When he is about to use the Jackal against Walter, the pistol is revealed to be made by Millennium as The Doctor uses his remote to destroy it. Alucard then creates a hellhound out of his body, nicknamed "Baskerville" by Walter, who cuts it in half. A disgusted and confused Luke Valentine crawls out of its body, much to the amusement of Alucard. The hound's corpse and Luke are both then hijacked by Walter's wires, and he begins to control them like puppets. As he uses them, however, Walter's wires go slack and he coughs up blood due to his hasty transformation. Alucard then shoots the controlled Luke and dispatches the hound after being bitten in half by it. Walter then re-engages a regenerated Alucard himself, cutting his arms and legs off, slicing his torso in half, and suspending him in the middle of the room with wires. After collapsing and regressing in age, Walter then picks up a piece of re-bar and impales what he believes to be Alucard through the heart with it. In actuality, it was only the body of Luke Valentine disguised as Alucard who, now in the form of a young girl, snappishly punches Walter. This blow causes Walter to revert back to his 14-year-old body, with Alucard theorizing as to the cause of his regression. Alucard then taunts Walter, telling him that he was afraid of becoming old and useless and that his victory over Alucard would just provide a self-esteem boost. Alucard then begins to absorb the blood from the deceased inhabitants of London and the two defeated militaries.

Alucard continues to absorb the city's dead as Walter vertically bisects him with his wires, which is as futile as his other attacks. Alucard then grabs Walter, who appears to have given up at this point, contemptuously mocks him and Anderson for their respective failures, and prepares to kill Walter. Unknown to Alucard, Schrödinger commits suicide as Alucard drinks the city's dead, combining his remains into the river of human blood flowing to Alucard. Alucard inadvertently absorbs his soul as he drinks, and when he does, The Major claims that Alucard has lost. The vampire arrogantly mocks him for saying so, but as he does, he sees the sunrise. As he gazes at it, he recalls that whenever he thought he was about to die, he saw the sunrise in just the same manner. This time, however, for some reason, it seems more beautiful to him than ever before, and he starts to disappear as the Major explains to Integra what is happening. He explains that as long as Schrödinger can recognize himself, he exists everywhere and nowhere; but because he is absorbed by Alucard, he became a part of Alucard and was thus no longer a separate entity that could recognize itself. Thus, Alucard, now containing Schrödinger, can no longer stay in phase with the rest of reality and is becoming "a set of imaginary numbers", existing on some level but not in reality. Integra shouts an order at Alucard not to disappear, but as his numerous eyes continue to close, he tells Integra that there is nothing he can do, and bids her farewell as he closes his final two eyes. All that is left is a bloodstained Hellsing pentagram in one of the cobblestones in the street.

In the final chapter, Alucard re-appears in Integra's bedroom after a 30-year absence. He approaches a sleeping Integra and leans down, apparently with the intention of biting her. Before he can do so, however, Integra wakes up and unloads a handgun into him, knocking him to the floor. The commotion alerts Seras, who kicks open the bedroom door and turns on the lights. The two women find themselves staring at Alucard, who is sitting up against the wall regenerating. Integra, now as an old woman, asks him to explain what he was doing this whole time, and he tells her that he was killing his own lives except for one so that he could exist with Schrödinger's powers. She asks him if he is hungry, to which he responds that, after 30 years of not eating anything, of course he is. When Integra regretfully comments on how old she is now, Alucard simply tells her that it is fine with him. She then smiles, bites her finger, and gives him a drop of blood as Alucard, having finally earned his right to immortality, licks. Alucard's eyes seem to have changed slightly due to possessing only a single soul.

SERAS VICTORIA

At the beginning of the series, Seras' history is unknown, though hinted at through a very brief flashback in OVA I. Later in OVA IV, Walter tells Alucard that he had not met her family, as she had been orphaned. In Vol. 7 and OVA VII, Zorin Blitz casts an illusion on Seras, causing her to flash back to her very dark history. It is discovered that Seras' father, a police officer, "got in too deep" during an undercover mission. The group he had infiltrated traced him back to his home and brutally murdered him. Her mother, Mrs. Victoria, hid Seras in a closet and then confronted the criminals, who immediately killed her as well. A distraught Seras charged out and stabbed one of the criminals in the eye with a fork before being shot in the gut. The flashback ends with Seras seeing glimpses of the criminals raping her mother's corpse.

Sometime later, Seras was sent to live in an orphanage. The horrific murder of her parents caused her to react violently to bullies and other children. None of the teachers took kindly to her and discussed removing her from the orphanage if she continued to cause more trouble. In another flashback, Seras expresses her strongest wish - to become a police officer, despite being persuaded against doing so. It's unclear what happens to her afterward, whether she got adopted or not but she managed to become a police officer as she dreamed she would.

Seras was originally a police officer who, along with the rest of her squad, was sent into Cheddar Village to investigate a priest who was responsible for multiple homicides. A vampire disguised as (or possibly was formerly) a priest had taken control of the town and turned its inhabitants into Ghouls. The vampire took Seras hostage; unsure if she was a virgin or not, he planned to rape her to ensure she would turn into a ghoul after he drank her blood. When Alucard arrived, the priest used her as a human shield to coerce Alucard into letting him live. Alucard asked her if she was a virgin, and when she confirmed that she was, he shot through her to kill her captor. In her final moments of human life, she was given a choice: to die as a human or become a vampire. She chose to live and Alucard turned her into a vampire.

With Hellsing

Given her condition, Seras was immediately employed to the Hellsing Organization after becoming a vampire. She was given a new uniform and almost immediately sent out on a mission by Integra with Alucard to eliminate some ghouls which had infested a household. While carrying out this mission she would come face to face with Father Alexander Anderson from the Vatican agency Iscariot who pierced her with numerous blessed blades from behind before proceeding to fight with Alucard.

During the course of this battle, Alucard's head was taken off by the priest and Seras, fearing her Master dead, took it and fled. As she pulled out the blades from her body Alucard's voice spoke to her, bidding her to drink his blood and become a true vampire. Seras, however, was too hesitant to do so before Anderson caught up to her, it was only the timely arrival of Integra and Alucard's subsequent resurrection which saved the situation.

Sometime later, Walter revealed to Seras that per Sir Integra's order, he disposed of her bed and replaced it with a coffin. It was then Seras was also given her new weapon, the anti-tank cannon Harkonnen. The timing of this proved fortunate as soon after the Hellsing Manor was attacked by two vampire brothers, Luke and Jan Valentine. The younger brother Jan led an army of ghouls which slaughtered the Hellsing troops and almost succeeded in reaching Integra and the visiting council members. Together Seras and Walter were able to stop this from happening. Walter led their attacks and Seras provided armed support, eventually managing to pin Jan down in a grapple she learned from her police training. After revealing the Hellsing troops were now Ghouls Jan broke free of her hold, sending Seras into the arms of the ghouls. She subsequently lost control and in a fit of bloodlust destroyed a number of them until Integra intervened.

Jan, now disabled by gunshot wounds at the hands of Integra and the council, died as an unknown entity set him alight from the inside, the vampire only giving a single clue as to who sent him, 'Millennium'. Meanwhile downstairs Alucard killed and consumed Luke Valentine.

Shortly afterwards, a confrontation with the Iscariot Section XIII leader Maxwell occurred at the British Imperial War Museum, during which Seras successfully managed to avert another fight between Alucard and Anderson by pretending to be a tour guide.

After the encounter, she has a run in with The Wild Geese. Much later she is comically locked in her coffin by Alucard so she could be tricked into traveling in the jet to Brazil. When they arrive in Brazil, Seras awakens to Alucard telling her to prepare for battle with the Rio SWAT team.

Seras tries to protest but is berated by Alucard for her mercy toward mortals. During her master's fight with Tublucain Alahambra, she tries to shoot at him but fails. The two are then rescued by Pip Bernadotte after Alucard defeats Tublucain.

During a fight with Anderson she tries to intervene but is scared into submission. At the meeting between the Iscariot, Hellsing, and the Queen she is a security guard of sorts.

During the Invasion of London Seras and the Wild Geese are stationed at the Hellsing Manor and she manages to destroy Zorin's airship Alfred Rosenberg/Graf Zeppelin II. Later she easily tears through her men and comes to the rescue of the Wild Geese crew who were mostly being slaughtered by Zorin Blitz's battalion. When she arrives she kills Zorin's men and takes on the artificial vampire herself, only to have her memories searched, her arm cut off, her eyes busted open and wounded in the back and spine.

Pip then rushes to save her but is killed by Zorin Blitz. Right before his death, he orders Seras to drink his blood so she can kill Zorin. Seras does so and kills her and the reinforcements.

She then proceeds to save Integra from the Iscariot priests and meets up with Alucard on his return to London, astounded by his original form. Soon after she is present when Paladin Alexander Anderson dies and questions Walter for his betrayal of Hellsing. She and Integra are then invited to fight on the airship Deus Ex Machina along with The Major and The Captain. While Integra looks for the Major Seras confronts the Captain and is again being beaten by her Millennium opponent. However, with the use of a silver tooth and her familiar Pip Bernadotte, she is able to kill The Captain.

She then destroys the Major's shield, blowing away half his body in the process. Then she carries Integra from the zeppelin as it explodes.

30 years later, she declares Integra the winner of a fencing match, and has seemingly developed a rivalry with Heinkel Wolfe. She then comes to her master's aid after hearing gunshots from her room but stops her attack when she finds Alucard back and alive after 30 years.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! Alucard and Seras Victoria of HELLSING!

Alucard: (Transylvanian Accent) It's a pleasure to meet you J.D. Knudson and Nicolas Chan of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: It's truly an honor to meet you all.

Seras: Same to you J.D. Master Alucard has told us all about you.

Lori: What is HELLSING?

Me: It's a famous organization of Vampire Hunters over in Europe. It stands for H er Royal E ngland L egions of L egitimate S upernatural and I mmortal N ight G uard. It's a very powerful organization thats been around since 1944. They were known for defeating an evil Nazi Branch of the Third Reich called the Millennium. You guys would hate these Millennium guys. They are completely Anti-God.

I went over HELLSING's History as well as the history of the Millennium.

---

It is suggested that the Hellsing Organization was founded by Abraham Van Helsing shortly after the events of Bram Stoker's novel as a response to the threat posed by vampires after his encounter with Dracula. The purpose of the Hellsing Organization is to end all earthly activity of non-human creatures. It is traditionally headed by Abraham's descendants, as they are the only ones who can control Alucard, "the fruit of the Hellsing family's labors," whom they performed many experiments upon, building him into the ultimate undead for use in battle against other undead. In Hellsing: The Dawn, which is set in 1944, Arthur Hellsing, then the director of the organization, sent Alucard and a 14-year-old Walter C. Dornez to halt the attempts by Millennium to create an artificial vampire force that could help the Nazis win World War II. They succeeded in eradicating a majority of the soldiers, although they failed to kill the key members of Millennium. After WWII, it was decided that Alucard was too powerful, and potentially dangerous to be used as a weapon, and as thus was sealed away in the basement of the Hellsing mansion. Upon Arthur's death, his daughter,Integra Fairbrook Wingates Hellsing, became the director of the organization, not before her uncle Richard Hellsing attempted to kill her and take the headship of the organization for himself. This inadvertently awakened Alucard, whom quickly overpowers Richard. Then, in a bold move, the 12-year-old Integra fires the bullet that ends Richard's life. By doing so, she is left at the helm of Hellsing, and the true master of Alucard.

Millennium

Millennium (ミレニアム Mireniamu?) was a Nazi paramilitary organization from the Hellsing manga series by Kouta Hirano. They serve as the primary antagonists in the series. Its name is a reference to the "Thousand Year Reich" which Adolf Hitler sought to establish during World War II. Within the series, the mysterious group pools its resources after the war and with, for unknown reasons, substantial help from the Vatican (which later broke away from it upon seeing the error of their ways), is able to relocate to Brazil to go into hiding. Millennium's researchers discover a way to transform humans into vampires through unknown means (although it is suggested that some kind of surgery is involved), and monitors the implanted computer chips.

Millennium was founded before the end of World War II, by "Hitler's Special Order #666" (an obvious reference to the mark of the beast in the Book of Revelation), as a means of researching and using supernatural phenomena for military purposes. In 1944, their grand project of creating a vampire army was foiled by a 14-year-old Walter C. Dornez and his accomplice, Alucard (who had apparently taken on the form of a young girl). In the current storyline (set in 1999), Walter and Alucard claim to have "killed everyone there" and put an end to their experiments, but exactly what happened during these events remains to be seen. It is apparent that they did not, in fact, kill the Major, the Doctor, the Captain, Lieutenant Rip Van Winkle or indeed any of the top Millennium brass. Furthermore, the current status of their supposed source vampire (an unnamed female referred to only as "She") was unknown until recently. Chapter 94 of Hellsing reveals that 'She' was in fact Mina Harker. As Alucard was not killed by Van Helsing, Mina did not become fully human and thus, Millennium were able to extract some of her blood which contained Alucard's essence and used this as a base for all their artificial vampires. The events that took place in 1944 are told in Hellsing: The Dawn, an ongoing prequel to Hellsing.

After this event, Millennium began to plan their escape. Some time after the end of the war in Europe, most of the members had left for South America, taking with them a battalion of 1,000 Waffen-SS volunteers and a few members of the Kriegsmarine and the Heer. This was known as the "Letztes Bataillon", translated in English as the "Last Battalion", a secret weapon to be used in a future conflict. They also brought with them a massive amount of valuables taken from victims of the Holocaust, as well as an assortment of advanced weaponry, such as V-1 flying bombs and advanced Zeppelins in which to convey their forces. Millennium soldiers are equipped with World War 2-era German weapons and clothing, including Kar98 bolt-action rifles, MP 40s, StG 44s, stick grenades, Panzerfausts and Panzerschrecks, as well as stahlhelms along with SS-issue greatcoats. Millennium also had possession of Panther tanks, Messerschmitt Me 262 Schwalbe fighter jets and other sorts of heavier equipment that were not used in battle.

Millennium initially stayed hidden in the shadows for over 50 years. Seemingly the organisation had been run by officer's of the German Heer, up until after Alucard defeated Tubalcain Alhambra, when the Major revealed that he did not share their interests in building a Fourth Reich and turning them into vampires, but instead wanted to wage eternal war, and that he had turned every other member of the Millennium to his side. He then proceeded to execute the Heer officers and began preparing the attack on London. Millennium had been observing the Hellsing organization's capabilities by attacking it with ghouls (and devastating it in the process). They were first discovered when Warrant Officer Schrödinger delivered a message to Hellsing Manor. The Major declared war on them, to which, strangely, Alucard gladly accepted, being eager to destroy them again. The invasion of London began after occupying a Royal Navy carrier (which in turn was destroyed by Alucard), arriving at the city at night. Unbeknownst to the civilian population, Millennium also jammed the entire British military's communications, rendering them unable to respond nor even know what was going on. V1 and V2 bombs were shot all over London as hundreds of Nazi troops descended from the Zeppelins, massacring everyone on sight. British police officers attempted to fight back though were quickly wiped out as bullets had no effect on the vampire soldiers. Also, Millennium is not only attacking London, Maxwell and the round table mention Millennium soldiers attacking Washington D.C.

Sir Integra Hellsing was also pursued by a platoon of Millennium troops, though the chase was a failure when Father Alexander and a force of armed Iscariot paladins arrived in the nick of time, wiping out the vampire soldiers but lost half of their own men in the process.

The organization then attacked Hellsing manor under the command of Zorin Blitz, though the attack was initially a disaster, Seras Victoria having shot down their Zeppelin with the Harkonnen II. Despite this, the survivors, behind halved in number and having lost all their heavy equipment, continued to attack, only to fall into a minefield set up by Captain Pip's Wild Geese troops. Ultimately, the Millennium forces were able to bypass the minefield and destroy the Wild Geese almost entirely, but were wiped out by Seras Victoria who also managed to kill Zorin Blitz in a brutal duel.

While in London, Millennium found itself facing another enemy; the Iscariot Organization led by newly-appointed Archbishop Enrico Maxwell, which arrived with a far larger army backed up with gunships. Both forces engaged in a fierce clash until the arrival of Alucard. By then, Millennium's manpower was largely depleted, numbering only 572 troops not to mention the Iscariot gunships inflicted severe damage on their blimps with huge amounts of missile barrages, including the flagship. Much of the troops at the ground were then wiped out by Alucard's undead army along with the Iscariot knights. Upon when Seras entered the halls of the Millennium flagship, the group's troops remained of only the crew flying the flagship, engineers and Feldgendarmerie (military police). Despite attempts to hold her off, they are are all wiped out down to the last man.

Millennium has no clear goal, as described by the Major. According to him, their only purpose is to wage war. The Major often tells his troops that their operation is executed for their vengeance of their defeat 54 years ago - both against England and the Hellsing Organization - when in fact, his goals are much smaller.

He states that by pouring in so many vampiric soldiers, by slaughtering the Wild Geese and the people of London, and by drawing in the massed Vatican forces, he planned to sacrifice them all to kill one being - Alucard. Walter C. Dornez is revealed to have sided with Millennium ever since 1944, and has now become a vampire, and although he was formidable, his body was unstable and proved to be no match for Alucard. Seras Victoria and The Captain fought and with the aid of Pip Bernadotte, she was able to kill the Captain. Integra finds the Major in his room and explains that Alucard was about to be erased. Alucard, after absorbing so many souls of people who died at London, Schrodinger commits suicide and his blood is absorbed by Alucard, and causes him to be poisoned by his blood (Since Alucard can no longer realize himself). After that, Seras comes and mutilates the Major's body by using a 88mm cannon. Integra later sees the Major's cyborg body and states that he is a monster. Soon, the Major and Integra engage in a gunfight, Integra gets her eye shot out but kills the Major with a shot to the head.

After getting shot by Heinkel Wolfe, Walter goes to the Doc, having his arm and leg severed, resulting in him to pull down a the wall revealing Mina Harker's remains. Walter realizes that Millennium's research was based on Mina Harker and they used her remains to create artificial vampires. Walter states that everything was just an imitation of Alucard. With that, Walter killed The Doctor by dropping large chunks of debris on him and effectively completing his mission from 50 years ago by ending the creation of artificial vampires.

After 30 years, Alucard returns by killing all his souls inside him except for one and that he could be everywhere and nowhere, therefore gaining Schrodinger's abilities. Millennium at the end proved to be a fool's dream as no survivors were shown and instead created a far superior Alucard, strengthening Seras's and Integra's resolve and faith in humanity.

Everyone gasped in horror.

Lincoln: That is sick!

Me: It was. Totally Anti-God. But we don't have to worry about them. HELLSING killed the Millennium ages ago.

Nico: Good riddance.

Vince: I believe you partner.

Carol: They got what was coming to them.

Me: Yeah.

Seras: You all have done so much and we heard that you're going after Thanos.

Me: We are Seras. That's gonna be one helluva fight.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and it found a supernatural disturbance over at the hospital. It was the work of Vampires.

Me: There's a supernatural disturbance over at the hospital. Vampires are at work.

Buffy: Looks like we're going after a lot of them.

Me: Then we better get the right tools.

We went to the Vampire Hunter room. We got Garlic Bulbs, Liquid Garlic Squirt Guns, Silver Stakes, Guns with Silver Bullets, Holy Water, Crucifixes, EDTA Auto Injectors, Ultraviolet Flashlights and Blade's Ultraviolet Flashbang Grenades.

Me: We have everything we need.

Lana: What's in these tubes?

Me: It's EDTA.

Lola: What's EDTA?

Lisa: It stands for Ethylenediaminetetraacetic acid. It's an anti-coagulant used to treat blood clots.

Me: That's right. Blade used these on some vampires and it causes them to explode.

Nico: That's a clever and gross method.

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

Buffy: Didn't know that was possible.

William: Alucard, I hope you don't mind fighting alongside other humans.

Alucard: I don't mind at all William.

Buffy: This is gonna be good.

Me: Yep. We got some fucking suckheads to kill. No offense to Lucy, Alucard and Seras.

Alucard: None taken.

Lucy Loud: This is gonna be good.

We went to the hospital at night. It was quiet. Too quiet. It was deserted. No one running around.

Me: This place should be running with sick people and doctors.

Lincoln: Something is not right here.

Laney: It's quiet. Too quiet.

Lola: Where is everyone?

Me: No idea. I don't sense anything.

We went in and stayed on the alert.

Me: Stay close guys.

Then we heard the sounds of crying.

Me: Someone's crying.

Nico: It's coming from in there.

It was coming from the janitors closet.

Lincoln: Is it a vampire?

Me: One way to find out.

We went to the closet and I counted down from three and we opened the door and we had our guns pointed at a girl and she saw us and screamed. She didn't have fangs and that showed that she was human.

Me: Whoa! Sorry. Are you all right?

Amanda: Yeah I think so. Whoa! You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm! My name is Amanda and I'm a nurse here.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Amanda. Why were you hiding in the Janitor's closet?

Amanda: This whole hospital is overrun with Vampires.

Laney: Whoa!

Nico: Real vampires or people that have been turned into Vampires.

Amanda: Both.

Me: These people are all dead. We got to keep them contained. or the whole city will be Vampireville.

Nico: Yeah.

I sensed something coming and I saw that it was a VAMPIRE!

BANG!

I fired a silver bullet right into its heart and it was dead. It disintegrated into ash.

Me: Go to Hell you fucking suckhead!

Nico: Nice shot J.D.!

Me: Thanks man. They know we're here now. We better watch ourselves.

Seras: We have to stay alert.

Me: Amanda, would you like to help us?

Amanda: I would be honored.

Me: Great.

Amanda was armed with a rifle, stakes, and Ultraviolet Grenades and she had Garlic Bulbs around her neck. We walked through the Mall and we saw a vampire coming.

Buffy: I got this!

Buffy took a stake and stabbed him in the heart. He disintegrated into dust.

Laney: Wow!

Maria: Nice one Buffy!

Buffy: Thanks.

A female vampire jumped from behind her and Seras shot her dead.

Me: Nice shot!

Seras: Thanks.

?: Soon you'll all be dead.

We turned and we saw DEACON FROST!

---

Frost's goal is to bring glory and dominance to the vampire race by reviving the vampiric blood god known La Magra, using Blade's blood in a special ritual. Frost believes that the world belongs to the Hominus Nocturna and not the humans, as he sees the human race as nothing but food. He leads and represents a renegade faction of fellow vampires who believe the vampires deserve to rule the world, and Frost constantly searches for Blade in an attempt to take his blood and use it to revive the god. The vampire Shadow Council, including Dragonetti, disagree with Frost's ideology but Frost ends up killing Dragonetti by exposing him to the morning sun.

Eventually, Frost succeeds in capturing Blade and adopts tremendous powers from the vampire god, but Blade manages to break free from his captors and fights Blade in the middle of the temple. After an intense sword fight, Blade dismembers Frost but his newfound powers allow his body to reattach itself as well as to regenerate any lost limbs. Despite this, Blade manages to kill Frost by injecting him with several vials of EDTA, a liquid that reacts explosively with vampire blood. Frost roars in agony as his entire body swells up and explodes, spraying blood across the temple floor.

Me: Deacon Frost!

Laney: I remember him!

Lucy Loud: Gasp!

Me: What in the fucking hell are you doing here!?

Frost: I've come here to kill you fuckers.

Me: What the fuck is wrong with you Frost? What do you got against all humans?

Frost: I'll tell you what I got against them! We're the top of the fucking food chain. The Blood God is coming and after tonight you people are fucking history.

Me: You're the who's history you fuckwipe. After you're dead, I'm going to wipe the floor with your fucking ass.

Frost: We'll see. He's a hurricane. An act of God. Anyone caught in his path will instantly be turned. Everyone you've ever known, everyone you've ever fucking loved. It won't even matter who's pureblood and who's not.

Me: Like hell he will.

Frost: How are you gonna cure the whole fucking world?

Me: It won't matter. If the whole world got turned into vampires, I would kill this entire planet, along with all of you fucking shitsuckers.

I teleported and stabbed him with an auto injector full of EDTA and it was injected into him.

Me: Some motherfuckers are always trying to ice skate uphill.

Then he swelled up and then he exploded into a massive pile of blood and guts and he was disintegrated.

Me: Go to Hell and stay there. Fucking son of a bitch.

Laney: Good riddance. There must've been a Deacon Frost here that we haven't noticed.

Me: Well we killed him now. But that was too easy. Deacon Frost gave Blade one helluva challenge.

?: Hey! They killed Frost! FUCK THEM UP!

Many vampires came.

Me: Quinn! We're the ones who will fuck YOU up!

I activated an Ultraviolet Flashbang grenade.

Me: You obviously do not know who you are FUCKING WITH!

A massive flash of ultraviolet sunlight incinerated all of the Vampires away in an instant!

Lincoln: They're all toast!

Lola: Deep fried!

Amanda: That was awesome!

Buffy: That was clever!

Me: Lets get them!

We found a bunch of vampires and killed all of them and destroyed them. Sending them to hell and freeing some of them.

Alucard: (hole in his chest heals up) Sorry, dirtbag. But you can't kill someone who's immortal.

Me: I'm immortal and invincible.

We blew them apart and killed them.

Then we saw a girl. It was Margot.

Amanda: Margot!

Margot: I'm not who you think.

Margot then changed and she was really a VAMPIRE! It was COUNT MARGOT! He had an ugly green face and terrifying blood red eyes and ugly fangs. He laughed malevolently.

---

The Vampire, is an ancient and pure evil monster who is sadistic, psychotic, ruthless and manipulative and he cannot be reasoned with. He has incredible super strength, and he has the ability to shapeshift and use transformation powers.

Just before the beginning of the events of the episode, The Vampire had his coffin placed inside a large wooden crate and had itmailed to the receiving department at United Hospital. Possibly arranged by a loyal minion of his or possibly by himself in a very weakened state.

That night, the crate was mailed to the hospital under the false pretense that it contained a large water pump inside of it. The order to receive the crate was signed by Felix. Felix was a teenage janitor who worked for United Hospital who was a little clumsy and a slight bit disobedient. Little did Felix know that the crate contained the coffin and The Vampire busted out of it in no time.

First Margot sought out blood to regain his strength. He found the storage room where the blood packets were and drank all of them in no time. Then he transformed into a beautiful red haired teenage girl and signed up as a new nighttime employee. Nobody ever suspected someone so young, so pretty and so innocent of being an evil ancient vampire. Therefore she used this to her advantage. Nobody suspected who she really was, and with Nurse Laurette and Amanda's help she got to know all the other patients and staff members around the hospital.

First she lured Felix, who was checking the basement to find the so called missing "water pump". The Vampire transformed into a beautiful girl with short blonde hair. Then she lured him to go over to see her, when his guard was down. Then he changed back to his real self and bit him making him the first victim and minion. He placed his body in the morgue, either to keep him hidden or wait for him to transform completely and have him prey on his own victims later on.

Soon, afterwards he transformed into a pretty young blonde girl and called out to Nurse Laurette. Nurse Laurette chased her into another room thinking she was playing hide n seek. Then he transformed into his real self and bit her and made her another minion. When Nurse Laurette came back out of it and when head Nurse Hantin seemed out of it (he got her too) Amanda and her friend a patient named Colin suspected something horrible was going on when they found the blood packets all drained and especially when they found Felix in the morgue.

Although Felix was able to fight off his new vampire urges. However gradually it was getting much harder. He explained what was going on and that the vampire needed his coffin burnt to be destroyed. However The Vampire now had the hospital in lock down. Amanda and Colin, were trapped like flies in a spider's web. There were his minions at every entrance, even Jack Palmer and Head Nurse Hantin became victims and minions.

Eventually Amanda, Colin and Felix were preparing to burn the coffin, when suddenly the encountered Margot. They were very surprised to see her and they tried to warn her to run and hide because a vampire was on the lose.

When realizing she wasn't scared and laughing, Amanda fearfully asked who she was, she said that some vampires need to feed every fifty years, and no place is better than a hospital, because it's just like a candy store. Margot just laughed and apologized to Felix for not relying on him to have transformed so soon, and her work at the hospital was nearly done. When asked what she meant by that, she transformed into her true form terrifying them and closed in to try and finish off Felix.

A little later Amanda, decide, to run around and lure him away and keep distracted. Meanwhile Colin and Felix tried to burn and destroy his coffin, because a vampire can't live without a coffin. Amanda carefully avoided contact with all the other people the vampire had already victimized. Then she was chased all the way to the top of the roof. The Vampire grabbed her, and held her in the air. He considered dropping her splat onto the pavement below and licking up her bloody mess.

Then at last moment he changed his mind, and decides to do it the old-fashioned way. Just as he is about to bite her, Colin and Felix pushed his coffin into the furnace incinerator. He literally went up and engulfed in flames, let Amanda go and fell off the roof. Then he went crashing down to pavement below burning to death.

Instantly all of his victimized minions were all changed back. None of them had any memory of what had happened. Except for Felix because he was the first one and only one who nearly became a vampire. Then everyone was safe and sound again.

Me: WHAT THE FUCK!?

Laney: That is an ugly vampire.

Buffy: (sees the Vampire) I've seen a lot of vampires but this one is extremely ugly!

Me: You are the ugliest of all vampires.

Count Margot: Yes but you killed all my minions.

Me: We didn't kill all your minions. We tied all the people you marked. We killed all the vampires you hired. Now you are next! You will never torment the sick again!

Troy: This time, my team will use our Basic Megaforce Powers.

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Basic Megaforce Rangers.

Me: Lets get him!

We went at Count Margot and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Nico leg swept him and kicked him in the back and punched him in the stomach and fired a blast of fire and burned him all over. Buffy punched him in the face and fired a blast of light and it burned his eyes and Laney fired a bunch of barbs and they poisoned him and she kicked him in the chest and punched him in the mouth and knocked out his fangs. Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him and burned him. The Megaforce Rangers blasted and slashed them all over and burned him. The Samurai Power Rangers slashed him all over. Amanda blasted him with silver bullets and Alucard and Seras blasted him all over.

Me: Lets show this monster some teamwork!

Jayden Shiba: Right!

Jayden Shiba had fire around the blade of his Spin Katana and Troy Burrows had has Dragon Sword!

Jayden Shiba and Troy Burrows: FIRESTORM DRAGON SWORD

SLASH!

They slashed Count Margot all over and burned him bad.

Kevin had water around his Spin Katana and Noah Carver had his Shark Bowgun.

Kevin (Samurai) and Noah Carver: WATERSLASH ARROW STRIKE!

Kevin fired a bunch of blades of watter and Noah Carver fired a bunch of blue arrows and they hit Count Margot and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Mike had Leaves spiraling around his sword and Jake Holling had his Snake Axe ready.

Mike (Samurai) and Jake Holling: LEAF SNAKE BLADE SLASH!

The blasts combined and turned into a deadly leaf snake and it hit Count Margot and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Emily fired a bunch of rocks from her Spin Katana and Gia Moran fired a blade of yellow energy from her Tiger Claw.

Emily (Samurai) and Gia Moran: EARTH BLADE SLASHSTORM!

The blasts hit Count Margot and exploded with devastating force.

KRABBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMMM!

Mia Watanabe fired a powerful blast of wind from her sword and Emma Goodall fired a powerful blast of energy from her Phoenix Shot.

Mia Watanabe and Emma Goodall: WIND PHOENIX DEATH BLAST!

The blasts combined and turned into a deadly phoenix of wind and it slammed into Count Margot and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Antonio Garcia fired powerful blades of light from his Barracuda Sword and Robo Knight fired his Vulcan Cannon blaster.

Antonio Garcia and Robo Knight: LIGHTBLADE ENERGY SHRED!

The blasts and blades hit him and tore him apart.

Me: Time for this monster to feel our power!

Cliffjumper: Right boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his speed and weapons and Glass Gas 100-fold.

Mimi: Lets do it Palmon! DIGITAL WORLD CYBER KEY POWER!

The Digital World Cyber Planet Key went into Mimi's Digivice and enhanced Palmon's powers 100-fold.

Palmon and Cliffjumper: POISON IVY SPEEDLASH!

Palmon extended her vines and immobilized Count Margot and Cliffjumper punched him all over with incredible speed and Palmon lashed him all over.

Ultra Humanite: You will never terrorize the human world again! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his psychic powers 100-fold.

Kickback: Yeah what he said! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his sub-machine gun 100-fold.

Ultra Humanite and Kickback: PSYCHIC MACHINE GUN BURST!

Ultra Humanite fired a powerful Psychic blast and Kickback fired a powerful machine gun blast and they hit Count Margot and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Now lets send this monster back to hell where he belongs!

Amanda: With pleasure!

Lucy Loud: Lets do it! NIZOGAMOURNE BLACK FIRE SLASH!

Lucy Loud ignited her sword with black fire and slashed Margot all over and burned him.

Buffy: You don't deserve to be with us humans! SILVER STAKE SKEWER!

Buffy stabbed him in the heart with a stake.

Alucard: I agree with you Buffy. SILVER BULLET FIRESTORM!

Alucard fired many silver bullets from his guns and they lit on fire with silver flames and they pierced him and burned him from the inside.

Brittney Knudson: You will feel the fire of darkness. DARKFIRE DRAGON STRIKE!

Brittney fired a powerful dragon of dark fire and it slammed into Count Margot and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Amanda: This is for using me! ULTRAVIOLET LIGHT BLAST BURST!

Amanda fired a powerful blast of ultraviolet light and it hit Count Margot and he was incinerated in an instant!

Me: Go back to hell and stay there!

All of the people Margot turned into his minions were back to normal. Amanda came up to me and she looked at me and broke down crying and she hugged me and was crying hard into my chest.

Me: It's all right Amanda. It'a all right. It's over.

Buffy: (To the viewers) This was a harrowing adventure but we beat a lot of vampires and killed them all.

Amanda was still crying.

THE END

Another fanfiction complete and a scary vampire bites the dust.

The Tale of The Night Shift was the scariest episode I remember seeing from Are You Afraid of The Dark? and it was frightening. I had bad nightmares about it years ago. It was scary! NicoChan11 and vinjedi1995 gave me the ideas for this one. The final smash was supposed to be for Adder Carbalo, but he was in The Tale of Vampire Town so I changed it to Amanda. Thanks for the ideas guys. The next Are You Afraid of The Dark? villain is Nosferatu from The Tale of the Midnight Madness and that one is gonna be freaky! Let me know what you all think. Next up is a flashback chapter for the Loud House Episode Tails of Woe and that is gonna be a creepy one.

See you all tomorrow.

Tails of Woe

NOTE: The flashback in this chapter takes place between the events of A Duckberg Reunion and A Sociopathic Imaginary Friend.

---

At the Jupiter Prison, it was time for another Rant Fest against the most hated evil babysitter in the world: ICKY VICKY.

Lincoln: YOU ARE THE MOST UGLY FUCKED UP BITCH EVER! I HATE YOU VICKY!

Marinette: So these are your rant fests?

Nico: Yep. They are so much fun. We rant at Icky Vicky and she is the most hated of all.

Adrien: Wow. But why is Vicky hated?

Me: Oh that's right, you guys don't know about this. Icky Vicky as she's called is a ruthless evil babysitter and she gets a sick thrill out of torturing and killing kids. She's a remorseless, psychotic, evil, cruel, arrogant and greedy psychopathic bitch.

I revealed her history.

---

Vicky is the secondary antagonists of The Fairly OddParents. She is one of Timmy Turner's most personal enemies and his remorseless, arrogant and cruel babysitter.

Background

As revealed in Abra-Catastrophe!, Vicky first started babysitting Timmy Turner when he was eight and she was fourteen. Timmy had found a flier advertising Vicky's babysitting service, and panicked and called this number when his parents tricked him into thinking he was being left alone. When Vicky arrived, she convinced Timmy's parents that they could use a babysitter so they would have time for each other to go out and do adult things. From that point on, Vicky tormented Timmy whenever she babysat him, and his parents would continue to spend time away leaving him under Vicky's cruel care. Timmy became so miserable that he needed fairy godparents. With them, he was able to use magic to get even with Vicky. Even with his fairies, Timmy is still challenged by Vicky over the course of the show. She has also worked other non-babysitting jobs, usually if they involve hurting others or holding sharp objects. In most of her early appearances, the simple act of saying her name would cause thunder and lightning to flash in the sky.

Early life

Vicky appears to have started babysitting at age fourteen or possibly earlier. When she first met Timmy when he was eight, she was just as mean as she is now. It is never explained why Vicky is the way that she is, although several conflicting plots have been put forth. In the episode Snow Bound, she reveals that she had a rough childhood. In Tiny Timmy, it is said that her niceness never showed up to work inside her brain. In Vicky Loses Her Icky, the cause of her evilness is attributed to an evil bug that crawled up her butt (although it is equally likely that the bug was a pure concentration of her evil personality). In the episode The Switch Glitch, after Timmy wished for Vicky to turn into a five-year-old, she was actually nice but turned bad when she wanted revenge on Timmy for being a mean babysitter. It has also been suggested in fanon that her sister Tootie being born was the cause of her disliking younger kids, and although this has never been explicitly stated, in the episode The Masked Magician, Vicky lists Tootie first as she went through various enemies she had made in her life, as well as her own parents. Hanging in her house is a picture of an infant-aged Vicky that is shown with the same evil scowl she has in her later life, so it's possible she was born this way.

Future

After Timmy Turner successfully defeated Vicky in the past and changed the bad future into a good one, twenty years passed by and Timmy is revealed to have two children, a son, and a daughter. The children bear a resemblance to Vicky's little sister Tootie among other characters, meaning that these children would be Vicky's nephew and niece if Tootie married Timmy. Some fans even believe that Vicky herself could have been the mother, and even if so, it's possible that her children could have inherited genes from their grandmother. The two children are babysat by a robot that looks and acts like Vicky, so it is likely that Timmy has some connection with her in the future, or has at the very least reconciled with her. It is also possible, even implied in some of Adult Timmy's dialogue, that because he forgot about his fairies in his later life, Timmy eventually assumed that it was his parents, and by extension Vicky, who helped shape him into becoming a responsible adult instead of his fairies. Therefore he believes that hiring a babysitter that resembles Vicky will help shape his own children into responsible adults too. Vicky's exact connection with the robot is unknown, but if she makes and designs these robots, she is likely very rich and successful like she always wanted to be.

Alternate Reality

In the episode "Vicky Gets Fired", Timmy's parents attend a cinema and leave Timmy alone with Vicky, but this time, Timmy, determined to prove Vicky is evil, shows his parents a video in which she tapes over their extremely important videotape, causing her to be fired. Vicky then attempts to seek a new line of employment, although she only succeeds in torturing others, resulting in her getting fired by all her bosses, both literally and figuratively. Eventually, she goes to the mayor and reveals to Chompy the Goat that the mayor indulges himself in eating goat meat, causing the goat to chase him out of his office. Vicky then names herself the new mayor and takes over Dimmsdale, rename it "Vickyland" and attacks it with her newly established ape army. Timmy, who is enjoying the time of his life with his god-family, soon discovers that getting Vicky out of his life causes her to ruin everyone else's. Wanda proposes that they take fire-breathing battle-rhinos and a lion-cloth warrior to Vicky to depose her; however, they lose badly, and Timmy tries wishing that Vicky wasn't the mayor. Unfortunately, Vicky, not being mayor, becomes president of the U.S.A. instead and attacks the country with another armored ape army. Timmy tries unwishing that Vicky dominated reality again, only for Vicky to become the "Dark Empress of Everything that Breathes", and began attacking Earth with her Star-Destroyer-like warship. To save the Earth, Timmy reluctantly wishes that Vicky was his babysitter again in order to maintain peace.

Leadership

Vicky was formerly a member of B.R.A.T. (Babysitters Raging Against Twerps) until she was rescued by Timmy Turner and felt grateful. Vicky tried to make a new life being Timmy's friend but he rejected her favors and Vicky returned to her organization more abusive than ever, so much so that their companions named her their new leader. On another occasion, she joined and subsequently lead L.O.S.E.R.S. (composed of Crocker, Dark Laser and Foop) and advised them on how to destroy Timmy once and for all, but, after Timmy wished that these four enemies wanted to be him, all members (including her) ended up destroying each other. Vicky subsequently left the team after their initial failure and ends up being replaced by Timmy's dad (who thought he was joining a sewing club).

Plots

In the 2003 video game "Breakin' Da Rules", Vicky served as the main villain. After picking up Cosmo and Wanda's copy of Da Rules, Vicky received their wishing power and spent the game accidentally wishing Timmy into strange situations such as turning him into a dog or sending him into the past.

The 2004 movie Channel Chasers also featured Vicky as the main antagonist. After taking the Magic Remote away from Timmy and sabotaging the Turner house to frame Timmy for its destruction, Vicky discovered its power and planned on using it to get to the biographical channel and make herself a dictator. The film includes a look into the future where Vicky is victorious and leads an army of masked soldiers. A visit from the future Timmy to his young self assures Vicky's defeat in this plan and she ends up not remembering the events. In the end following her defeat, Timmy's parents fire Vicky for lying to them and being a mean and nasty babysitter to Timmy. This was Vicky's only significant movie role, and she served as the main antagonist for most of the movie.

In the 2009 three-part movie Wishology, Vicky joins forces with Timmy in exchange for twenty dollars. When Timmy "sacrifices" himself to The Darkness, she even shows a moment of remorse for Timmy. However, by the end of the movie, and definitely after Jorgen's memory wipe, she has reverted to her old self.

Me: Vicky shows no remorse for her crimes. Not even one single tear. She's pure evil.

Marinette: She's a monster!

Chloe: I hate her!

Me: We all do. Vicky makes all babysitters look like a total joke and we killed all of her evil friends.

Alya: Good riddance.

Man Boy: Nico, you don't know how happy I am to see that you're alive! I was worried sick!

Nico: Relax, Man Boy. Thundercracker and Maria just told you the news as a precaution. But here I am, still alive.

Man Boy: Well, you should know that Icky Vicky was hoping that you would die.

Me: I heard about that.

Marinette: WHAT!?

Marinette walked up to Icky Vicky and punched her in the face a knocked out some of her teeth.

Nico: OOH! Nice shot.

Laney: (Applause) Good show.

Lana: Nice!

Nico: Watch this.

Nico walked up to Icky Vicky.

Nico: Icky Vicky, aren't we forgetting one teensy-weensie but ever so crucial little tiny detail? (FLARES UP HADES FIRE) I WILL LIVE FOREVER!

Me: YEAH!

Man Boy: Nico, Thanos is getting close to unleashing his endgame, isn't he?

Nico: He is. But luckily, you and some of our enemies will help us against him. Personally, I think you'd do well against Cull Obsidian. I know you probably looking forward to being on Earth again. But keep in mind that if we don't stop Thanos, there won't be an Earth to go back to.

Me: Are we gonna have a huge alliance between villains and heroes to take down Thanos?

Nico: A Truce and a temporary ceasefire.

Me: You are amazing Nico.

We later went back to Earth.

---

Over in Texas, we were flying and we found The Black Viper Gang!

---

It is led by Clay Bailey's sister, Jessie Bailey. It is an all-girl gang of motorcyclists with not much known information. They steal Wu from Clay and the monks and at first appear to be ruthless. After the episode, Jesse returned the Shen Gong Wu, all but one. She kept the Wings of Tinabi for her own entertainment.

---

We intercepted them and stopped them just to talk.

Clay Bailey: (Texas Accent) Jessie.

Jessie Bailey: (Texas Accent) Hello big brother.

Black Viper member (to Spicer): You again? We told your Heylin buddies we're not interested in joining them!

Jack Spicer: That's fine. I'm not with them anymore.

Jessie Bailey: (raises eyebrow) Man, Spicer. You've really changed. I remember when you were less braver.

Maria: Jessie Bailey, right? Clay said you caused a lot of trouble for him before.

Jessie Bailey: That's right. And did my bro also tell ya that we made amends?

William: We just wanted to see it for ourselves.

Jessie Bailey: Look, you don't have to say anything. I've had a lot of thinking to do since the last Xiaolin Showdown I participated in. I'll accept any punishments you have.

Nico: We'll let Mr. Bailey decide your punishment. But the reason we came here is to recruit you and your friends into Team Loud Phoenix Storm. And don't worry. We're not with the Heylin forces.

Cleo: (to Jessie Bailey) You can have the Wings of Tinabi back, Jesse. I was just borrowing them.

Jessie Bailey: (smiles) No. You keep em. Those belong to a member of the Black Vipers. And now, that means you.

Cleo: Thanks.

Jessie Bailey: Now, why don't you join us for lunch? I ordered pizza!

We cheered and we went to the Black Vipers Cave and we had an awesome pizza. We had all kinds of awesome pizzas.

Me: Good pizza.

Jessie Bailey: Thank you kindly.

Laney: Mmm. Just as good as Lola's pizza she made.

Lola: Thank you Laney.

Me: You know, being in a cave like this reminds me of the time we tried to find Stella's Music Box.

Stella (Loud House): I remember that. That was awesome.

---

[On the school bus, Me, Nico, Lincoln, Lincoln, Karla, Stella, and Rusty are riding along, Rusty is snoozing. When the bus stops, Rusty gets thrown against the seat in front of him and wakes up, the rest of the gang boards.]

Stella: "Hey guys, ready for Friday Share?

Clyde: "Heck yes! I brought my dream journal to read excerpts from."

Me: I brought this.

I pulled out an amazing red diamond.

Me: The Sonic Diamond of High Note C.

Girl Jordan: Wow! That is beautiful!

Mollie: That diamond is amazing.

Me: Thanks. I found it in a river. Watch this.

I pinged the diamond and it released a very high pitch sonic note and it shattered all of the windows in the bus.

SMASH!

Nico: Wow! That was powerful!

Lincoln: No kidding!

Clyde: My glasses!

Me: Sorry guys! Sorry Clyde.

I snapped my fingers and fixed everything.

Me: This diamond has a sonic sound that is so powerful that it can reduce mountains to rubble in seconds.

Clyde: Whoa! That is a powerful diamond!

Lana: I'll say.

Liam: "And I brought my prize piglet."

[Liam shows them the piglet, they are awed by it. Zach comes up.]

Me: Aww hey little guy.

I pet her.

Zach: "Yah, I blanked on the assignment 'til like two minutes ago, and grabbed a random take-out menu by the door, so…"

Rusty: [Takes out a picture of himself.] "I brought this sweet portrait I commissioned on the boardwalk, really captured my rugged essence."

Me: Nice caricature.

[Awkward beat]

Stella (Loud House): "Well, can't lie, I'm pretty excited about my 'Friday Share'." [Takes an egg shaped object out of her backpack, its wind up key starts turning and it plays sweet piano music, the boys are awed by it, the music box opens up revealing a dancing elephant, and the boys love it even more. Stella turns it off.] "My Granny and I found it at the flea market, it was broken and rusted shut, but, she's a total wizard and helped me fix it."

Me: Wow! That is a beautiful Faberge Egg Music Box.

Nico: That is an amazing Russian Music Box.

Stella (Loud House): Thanks guys.

Laney: It's a really lovely music box.

Rusty: [Nudges Zach] "Bet you're really regretting that take-out menu now, huh?

[At school, Zach is sharing his take-out menu.]

Zach: "Feeling bold? Try Giovanni Chang's penne a-la eggroll. Need delivery? it's F, R, E, E, free baby, thank you."

Me: Good food.

Mrs. Johnson: "Hmm, you get a C for preparedness, but an A for improve. So, a B."

Zach: "Score!"

Mrs. Johnson: J.D. what do you have to share with us today?

Me: You'll love this Mrs. Johnson.

I pulled out the Red Diamond.

Me: This is the Red Sonic Diamond of Note High C.

Everyone: OOOHHH!

Cookie: That's a pretty diamond.

Trent: It sure is.

Richie: Where did you find a diamond like that?

Me: I found it at the base of a waterfall in a river. But this diamond is really a musical diamond. But there's a powerful effect it has. Watch.

I pinged the diamond and it shattered the windows and the school rumbled.

I stopped it and the school stopped rumbling. I snapped my fingers and fixed everything.

Me: This diamond has a sonic ping that is so powerful that it can shatter mountains and reduce them to piles of rocks in seconds.

Laney: Wow!

Liberty: That is a powerful diamond. Very potent.

Me: It is.

Nico: No kidding.

Mrs. Johnson: "Great job J.D.! A+. Alright, Miss Stella, what do you have to share with us today?"

[Stella grabs her backpack, and looks for her music box, but gasps when she sees that it's not there.]

Stella (Loud House): "I, can't, find it."

Mrs. Johnson: "Did everyone forget this assignment?"

Stella (Loud House): [Dumps her backpack on the floor.] "No, I had it on the bus, I swear."

Me: It's true. It was there.

Nico: Yeah she had it when we were on the bus.

Lincoln: "She did! She did!"

Liam: "She showed us."

Zach: "I saw it."

Clyde: [Starts pirouetting] "There was this elephant that dances like this."

Mrs. Johnson: "Okay, okay," [chuckles] "I believe you, we'll get to you next Friday."

Stella (Loud House): "But, where did it go?"

Maria: Stella, where did you last put your music box?

Stella (Loud House): I had it in my backpack.

Laney: That's unusual for a beautiful music box like that to vanish like that.

[At Lunch, Stella can't focus on anything other than her music box.]

Rusty: "Stell," [waves his hand in her face.] "hey Stells, trade you my delicious cold fish soup for that lame toasted meatball sub."

Stella: [Not even paying attention.] "Huh? Sure, whatever."

[Stella is about to trade, when Clyde blows a whistle, actually getting Stella's attention.]

Clyde: "As trade commissioner, I have to point out; this is a terrible deal."

Stella: "Thanks Clyde. Sorry, I just can't stop thinking about my music box. What could have happened to it?"

Zach: [Whispers] "Uh, I don't wanna be, that guy, but," [looks around] "maybe the Rat Beast took it."

[The other boys gasp.]

Me: (Gulp) The Rat Beast?

Nico: I don't like the sound of that!

Rusty: "Don't even joke, man."

Stella: [Still being the new kid.] "What are you talking about?"

Nico: I don't like the sound of this.

[Zach looks around and gestures for everyone to follow him, and the boys sink under the table. Stella watches her friends do this, and follows them.]

Zach: "It's a Gotham Royal York Elementary legend; it all began one faithful day in the school science lab," [Flashback to that faithful day.] "an experiment went badly wrong."

[A beaker overheats and bursts all over some rats.]

Rusty: "And a cage full of lab rats mutated into one giant hideous creature."

Liam: "With glowin' green eyes, razor sharp fangs, and too many slimy pink tails to count."

[End of flashback]

All Six: "The Rat Beast."

Me: (Shudders) That is scary.

Carmen: I would not want to encounter something like that.

Lincoln: "That's when things started going missing."

Clyde: "And people started hearing strange sounds in the halls."

Zach: "And haven't you noticed the weird smell in the vents, kinda like…"

Stella: [Gasps] "Corn chips?"

Zach: "Yeah-huh, that's the beast."

Double D: A rat monster is possible considering the types of villains we've encountered.

Me: That's true.

Maria: Freaky.

Stella: "Has anyone tried to track it down?"

Liam: "Nuh-uh, it swiped my harmonica, but, it's welcome to keep it. I'm not lookin' to tussle with a mutant."

Me: We've tussled with a lot of mutants.

Nico: And killed a couple of them.

Stella: [Determined] "Well, I'm not giving up my music box, I'm finding the Rat Beast!"

Lincoln: "We'll help." [The other boys act casual.] "Come on, Stella's our friend, we can't let her do this alone."

Me: That's right. Stella is our friend.

Nico: Yeah!

[Everyone agreed.]

Stella: [Touched] "Oh," [hugs Liam and Clyde] "thanks guys. Now let's start gathering some intel."

Laney: Right.

Laney spun around and garnered her detective costume.

Laney: This looks like a job for Detective Laney.

Poromon: Can me, Manaphy, Horsea, and Poliwah help with the search as well?

Nico: Sure.

Leonardo: Let us help too.

Raphael: Yeah we'll turn that mouse into pulp!

Michelangelo: Yeah dudes!

Donatello: Lets do it!

May: I'll help too.

[Cut to a sideways three-panel shot of her taking out a notepad, and clicking a pen.]

Laney: "Tell me everything you know."

Girl Jordan: "The Rat Beast swiped my gold hoops when I took them off for dodgeball."

Me: (Writes it down) Gold Hoop Earrings missing.

Mollie: "Yeah, I heard that thing in the band room. It stole my lucky Canadian penny."

Nico: (Writes it down) A Canadian Penny missing. Those coins aren't worth squat here in America.

Hassan: "One time when Principal Huggins was chewing me out, I saw two of its gnarly tails in the air vent."

Lana: Looks like we got a sighting here.

Stella: [Writes it down in her pad.] "Thanks, Hassan." [The bell rings and Hassan wheels off; To the boys.] "Great, there's recess. Let's go check out our leads."

Me: Affirmative.

[Lincoln and Stella head off in one direction while Clyde and Liam head off the other. Rusty nervously chuckles.]

We regroup.

Zach: [Grabs Rusty's arm and drags him off.] "Come on, let's go."

[The gymnasium. A basketball hits the backboard and bounces off the rim of the net, the girl catches it and keeps playing as Lincoln and Stella walk in.]

Stella: "Girl Jordan had her earrings swiped in here. [She and Lincoln look under one of the benches.] Keep your eyes peeled of any sign of the beast. Claw marks, squeaking…"

[The two sniff around and gasp.]

Lincoln and Stella: "Corn chips!"

Me: (Sniffs) Chili cheese flavor.

[They keep sniffing and it leads them to Coach Pacowski's office.]

Stella: The smell is coming from here."

Me: In Coach Pacowski's office.

[We open the door and find Coach Pacowski dancing to his mixtape. His pants rip and gets startled when he notices the two. He pauses his mixtape as Lincoln and Stella sheepishly smile.]

Coach Pacowski: "This is my free period! I can do what I like."

Lincoln and Stella: "Sorry, Coach P."

Me: Good dancing though.

Coach Pacowski: Thanks J.D.

[They both shut the door. Once Coach Pacowski sees they're gone, he plays his mixtape and resumes dancing. Lincoln and Stella have their backs leaning against the door.]

Lincoln: "Guess that smell wasn't the Rat Beast."

Me: Nope.

[They both cringe.]

[In the band room, Zach looks under a tuba, and Rusty approaches him with an acoustic guitar.]

Rusty: "Check out this sweet axe."

Zach: "You don't even know how to play it."

Nico: Luna does. But she's in High School.

Rusty: "Says who?!" [Suddenly the supply closet door creaks, the boys get scared.] "The Rat Beast!" [They hide behind some timpani drums, Rusty pushes Zach with the guitar.] "You go!"

Zach: "No, you! You're taller!"

[The door slowly begins opening, the boys shake with fear, when suddenly, Norm comes out.]

Norm: "Glad you boys are here, you can help me scrape the gum off the music stands."

[Rusty and Zach aren't very happy about this.]

[In the office, Clyde peeks out from behind the couch, and Liam peeks out from behind a plant, Cheryl is at her desk.]

Cheryl: "Hmm, paperwork done, Principal Huggins is at the barber. Maybe I can slip away for a latte, and some… [She takes out her hair pin and her hair falls to her shoulders.] Cheryl time."

[Cheryl walks out of the office as Clyde and Liam peek out from behind the door. They then approach near Cheryl's desk.]

Clyde: "Okay, Hassan said he saw the Rat Beast's tail in the air vent." [Points to said air vent.]

Liam: [Looks through] "Hmm, uh, nothing but dust bunnies in here."

Clyde: [Notices something under Cheryl's desk.] "Liam, look! Two of its tails."

[They stumble as the ladder gives away and they both fall to the ground. They look at the "tails" and back away. Just then, Cheryl catches them.]

Cheryl: [Gasps] "What are you boys doing? Oh, y'all found my lanyard!" [Picks up her lanyard from under her desk.] "Can't get my administration discount at the Burnt Bean without it."

[Cheryl leaves. Clyde and Liam look at each other, annoyed.]

[In the hall, Liam and Clyde meet up with Lincoln and Stella.]

Stella: "Hey, any luck?"

Liam: "Nah, skunk'd."

Stella: "Us too."

Me: Yep.

Nico: Same.

[Rusty and Zach join them.]

Rusty: "Same here."

Stella: "Crud! Recess is almost over and our leads have turned up nothing." [Checks her watch] "I guess we'd better get to class, we'll get detention if we're caught in the halls after the bell rings." [Sad] "Thanks anyway, guys."

Rusty: [Glad it's over] "Well, we tried," [leans against the wall] "but I guess the search is officially over."

[Suddenly, the sound of the music box is heard in the wall, Rusty falls backward in surprise taking Zach to the ground with him.]

Me: Hey hear that?

Stella: "My music box," [Presses her ear against the wall.] "it's inside the wall."

Clyde: "The Rat Beast must have it with him."

Me: I can hear it!

Laney: Same here!

Liam: "And he's on the move! Come on!"

[Stella, Lincoln, Clyde, and Liam start running, Zach gets up and follows, and Rusty gets up, groaning, and joins in. We all follow the music, when suddenly the bell rings.]

Stella: "Dang it."

Me: Tartar sauce.

Lincoln: "Keep going! It's headed for the basement!"

[The gang heads for the basement.]

Stella: [Sees something and gasps] "Duck!"

[The gang ducks behind a trashcan, and a hairy shadow approaches.]

Zach: "It's the Rat Beast."

Me: It's ugly.

[The shadow comes closer, revealing who the owner really is.]

Clyde: "No, that's just Principal Wiggins- I mean Huggins with a new hair piece."

Me: Lookin snazzy.

[Principal Huggins admires himself in his handheld mirror, he's the only thing between the kids and the basement.]

Stella: "We need to get to the basement."

Lincoln: "Zach, do you have that take-out menu with you?"

Zach: "Yeah, you hungry?"

Rusty: "I could eat."

Lincoln: [Takes the menu] "No, I have a plan." [Rusty is bummed that he's not getting food. Lincoln folds the menu into a plane.] "Here goes."

[Lincoln tosses the plane, and it takes Principal Huggins' wig down the hall, Principal Huggins chases after it, dropping his mirror.]

Me: Nice one buddy.

Stella: "Great throw, Lincoln! Let's go."

[She slides under the chain, Lincoln does the same, Liam crawls, Zach climbs over it, and Clyde crawls backwards under it.]

Rusty: [Looking at the mirror Principal Huggins dropped.] "Is that mirror up for grabs?"

[Not looking, Rusty walks right into the chain and falls down the stairs. Stella opens the basement door and sniffs.]

Stella: "Smell that?" [The boys come up behind her] "The Rat Beast is down there, and so is my music box, let's do this."

[Stella marches down the stairs with the boys behind her.]

Zach: "Honestly, corn chips are ruined for me after this."

[The gang walks through the basement, some more scared than others.]

Rusty: [One of the more scared ones] "Guys, I just remembered I have a, uh, piano lesson."

Zach: "No you don't, those are on Thursdays."

Rusty: [Aggravated] "Maybe it moved, you don't know."

[The gang continues, and Stella sees something.]

Stella: "Look!" [Points around the corner, there's a large shadow on the wall.]

Liam: "The creature!"

Stella: "Let's get it."

Me: Yeah!

[The gang charges around the corner, Rusty is still afraid. They see the figure and start yelling, the figure gets up and is revealed to be Norm the janitor, who is very surprised to see them.]

All: [Stop charging] "Norm?"

Me: Norm the Janitor?

Norm: "Gracious me, ya, what are you kids doing down here?"

[The boys stutter, looking for an excuse.]

Stella: "We're looking for the Rat Beast."

Norm: "The what?"

Zach: "Big mutant rat, vicious fangs."

Me: Glowing green eyes.

Clyde: "Terrorizes the school, smells like corn chips."

Me: Hideously ugly.

Stella: "It's got my music box, we followed the sound of it down here."

Norm: "A mutant rat? In my school? [Determined] Not on Norm's watch. You kids go back upstairs where it's safe, and leave the beast to me."

Rusty: "Well, that's a very kind offer, we'll take you up on that." [Attempts to leave]

Stella: "Sorry Norm, but I can't leave without my music box."

Me: And we blast that rat!

Norm: "Alright, let's split up then;" [takes a flashlight out of his toolbox and gives it to Stella.] "you take the East wing, I'll take the West."

[Norm heads off in that direction, Stella turns on the flashlight and the gang goes in the other direction.]

Clyde: "Should one of us go with Norm? What if the Rat Beast corners him?"

Lincoln: "Norm knows this basement better than anyone, there's no way that monster will get the jump on him."

Norm: [Offscreen, yells] "Aah! Back you beast! Aah!"

[The gang runs to help.]

Clyde: "We're coming, Norm!"

Liam: "Hold on, buddy!"

[Rusty groans and goes after them. They get to the supply closet.]

Norm: [Inside, with a lot of crashing sounds.] "Gah! Take that! And that!"

Stella: [Gives Lincoln the flashlight and grabs the doorknob.] "Norm, are you okay?"

Norm: "Stay back! This thing is vicious."

[Rusty backs away.]

Lincoln: "We have to help him."

Clyde: [in unison] "Uh…"

Zach: [in unison] "I'm not going in there."

Liam: [in unison] "No thank you."

Me: What are you guys, men or mice?

Rusty: "Well, somebody has to be a hero, this is a job for…" [Puffs out his chest and grabs a nearby broom.] "Rusty Spokes!"

[Rusty charges at the supply closet holding the broom like a spear, only for Norm to open the door, unknowingly smashing Rusty into the wall, the other kids are happy Norm is okay. Norm closes the door, Rusty is now dazed.]

Norm: "I got the beast, you don't wanna go in there, it's pretty gruesome."

Stella: "Wow, thank you, Norm."

Zach: "Did it have Stella's music box?"

Norm: "No, I'm sorry." [Stella looks at the ground, sad.] "But don't worry, if it's down here, I'll find it. In the meantime, let's get you kids back upstairs."

[They all head back, when suddenly, there's a noise behind them. They all gasp, and Lincoln shines the flashlight in that direction.]

Stella: "What was that?"

[The shadow of a giant rat with glowing green eyes appears at the end of the hall.]

Rusty: "The Rat Beast!"

Me: It's huge!

Nico: And ugly!

Laney: And scary!

Clyde: [Scared] "I thought Norm already got him."

Stella: [Grabs the broom from Rusty.] "Give me back my music box you monster!"

Me: Give back everyones stuff you freak!

[Stella charges at the beast, her friends alongside cheering her on, Norm gasps and runs ahead of them.]

Norm: [Stopping them] "Wait!"

[Norm looks behind him, and from around the corner, comes a small and rather cute rat, with glowing green eyes and two tails.]

All: [Confused] "Huh?"

Norm: [Picks up the rat.] "I can explain, this little fella is your Rat Beast."

Nico: That little guy!?

May: This is the so called monster? It looks harmless and cute.

Zach: "Then who were you fighting in the closet?"

Norm: "No one, I was just play-acting so you kids would go away. I didn't want you to find out about Cinnamon here, he and I go way back. He used to live in the school science lab," [Flashback to the faithful day, Norm is sweeping the science lab, and hanging out with Cinnamon.] "Aw, he was great company on the late shift." [The two laugh and Norm tosses him a corn chip.] "But one faithful night, we were having such a ball, that I forgot to lock the supply closet." [Cinnamon sees corn chips in the closet full of chemicals.] "And the next day," [The next morning, Norm returns and gasps at the outcome, dropping his coffee mug. End of flashback.] "I don't know what he got into in there, but he came back out like this. A freak of nature!" [Cinnamon gives Norm a dirty look.] "Eh, not to me of course. But I was afraid that scientists would wanna take him away to be studied, so I hid him down here in the basement, with a steady supply of his favorite snack; corn chips." [Gives Cinnamon another one.] "I've been able to keep him a secret for ten whole years."

Me: Wow.

Laney: That's really impressive.

Zach: "Well, not exactly."

Me: So it was all a hoax.

Laney: Well half of it was a hoax anyway.

Me: Yeah part of it was true.

Clyde: "He's been stealing kids' stuff all over school."

Stella: "He took my music box from my backpack."

Norm: [Unhappy] "Cinnamon Bartholomew! Is this true?"

[Cinnamon nods, and jumps down from Norm's shoulder. He moves a stack of boxes, revealing a hole in the wall full of stolen stuff; Liam's harmonica, Mollie's penny, Girl Jordan's hoops, and… ]

Stella: [Happy] "My music box!"

Me: Everybody's stuff.

[She opens it, and Cinnamon dances with the elephant.]

Norm: [Can't believe this] "Oh, I can't believe you buddy, you are going to have to return everything you've taken, and write apology notes." [Sighs, to Stella] "I'm sorry about all the trouble, ah, I just wanted to look out for my friend."

Stella: [Understanding] "I get that," [Looks at her own friends.] Same way these guys looked out for me."

Me: Same here.

Nico: Me too.

Norm: "So, you think you could maybe keep this a secret?"

Me: Sure Norm. We've dealt with mutants many times. Did you watch Total Drama?

Norm: Heck Yeah! You guys were incredible!

Me: We're gonna be on Total Drama again next year and this time, it's in space.

Stella: Awesome!

[The gang looks at each other sure that they can.]

[At lunch the next day, Girl Jordan is happy to have her earrings back.]

Girl Jordan: "Wow, I never thought I'd see these again." [Hugs them, and looks at the gang, Liam is playing his harmonica.] "Did you have to fight the Rat Beast for them?"

[The gang looks at each other, and laughs.]

Stella: "No, we searched the whole school, and I'm pretty sure it was all a hoax."

Me: Yeah.

Lincoln: "We did find tons of missing stuff though." [Grabs their box of recovered goods.] "If you see Mollie, tell her we've got her lucky Canadian penny."

Girl Jordan: [Admires the penny] "Ooh, so exotic," [heads off] "I'll let her know, thanks again."

[They all bid her ado, and Clyde blows his whistle.]

Clyde: "Shall we commence the daily lunch swap?"

[Everybody grabs their lunches, and Rusty likes what Stella has.]

Rusty: "Ooh, corn chips, trade you my mustard sandwich."

Stella: "Sorry, Rusty, these are spoken for." [Walks over to the air vent, takes out a chip, and holds it near the grate making chittering sounds, glowing green eyes emerge from the duct.] "Here you go, bud."

[Stella gives her corn chip to Cinnamon, and giggles as he eats it.]

FLASHBACK ENDS.

Me: That was a funny adventure. But at least we found everyone's stuff.

Nico: Yeah. That diamond you found was amazing.

Me: Yeah.

Carly Beth: And to think that we encountered Cinnamon during the time Chuck and Steve were on the run.

Me: Yeah.

Jessie Bailey: (thinks about one of the Goosebumps books she read) Little Lady, I know you're gonna be mad at me for saying this but maybe it's time you forgave Ol' Chuck and Steve.

Carly Beth: Are you fucking kidding me? After all the Hell they've put me through?!

Jessie Bailey: I won't deny that they've tormented you. But I've read some of the Goosebumps books myself, including the Haunted Mask ones. And in the second Haunted Mask book, Steve actually has shown to have a good side. And Chuck probably has a good side too. Plus, you forgave that Cinnamon critter for stealing stuff. And Clay forgave me for how much of a jerk I've been. And you forgave plenty of the other baddies for their past crimes. So, should Chuck and Steve really be any different?

Carly Beth: (sighs) Look, I'll think about it, ok?

Me: Good.

We had our pizza and we knew that we were in for a wild ride later when we kill Thanos. Nico, Vegeta, Girl Jordan and 14 of our friends went into the Hyperbolic Time Chamber for more training.

THE END

Another Fanfiction complete and another awesome episode of the Loud House done.

Tails of Woe was a creepy episode of the Loud house that aired earlier this year and it was awesome! It was funny and creepy. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. I got the idea for the red diamond from an episode of a show that I watched when I was a kid: Rupert. It was awesome! It was from Rupert and the Crystal Kingdom. Thanks for the ideas man. Let me know what you all think. Next for Christmas is a chapter for the movie Rise of The Guardians and that's gonna be awesome helping Jack Frost! We're gonna also hook him up with Elsa.

See you all on Christmas.

Holiday Guardians VS Fear

MERRY CHRISTMAS 2019 EVERYONE!

---

At the estate, we were waiting outside the Hyperbolic Time Chamber for Nico, Vegeta and some of our friends to come out.

Laney: How much time is there left in there?

Me: Nico and company have three hours left.

Naruto: This is gonna be interesting to see them come out.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Lola: I wonder how much stronger they will be.

Me: We'll find out when they come out.

Then we suddenly felt an enormous energy signal.

Me: Whoa! Feel that guys.

Lori: That literally powerful energy.

Laney: They must be done. I can feel Nico and the others energy.

Me: They must've decided that they were done.

They came out and we saw that they were forever changed! Nico was stronger and more powerful and his clothes were torn to shreds and he was now in his Super Saiyan form. Vegeta and everyone that went in with Nico were stronger and more powerful than ever. But their clothes were shredded.

Nico: Hey guys.

Me: Wow! You all look incredible!

Earth: Thanks J.D.

Clyde: It was amazing in there.

Syd: I'll say.

Me: How did the Training go Master Vegeta?

Vegeta: It went really well. Too well.

Girl Jordan: Yeah. We were running run into the ground. But we feel stronger than ever before.

Me: I can tell. Good work guys. Nico, have you found a way to stay as a Super Saiyan permanently?

Nico: I sure did. I don't know how that was possible but somehow I did.

Goku: This is too coincidental. Me and Gohan were like that when we came out of the Time Chamber ready to fight cell.

Me: I remember seeing that when we killed Cell.

Nico: Yeah. That was awesome.

Me: Yep.

Vince, Carol, Piccolo and 15 more of our friends went in next.

At Arkham Asylum in Gotham City, Nico, Ax, Animorphs Rachel and Maria were talking to Chato Santana A.K.A. EL DIABLO!

* * *

Chato Santana, also known as El Diablo, is a Metahuman criminal of Hispanic descent, a member of the Suicide Squad and is the tritagonist antagonist of the movie Suicide Squad. While initially reluctant to use his pyrokinetic powers out of guilt and fear, he ultimately sacrifices his life to defeat Incubus and save the world from the Enchantress.

Chato Santana was born on June 3, 1981, in Los Angeles, California, into a family of Catholic immigrants from Mexico, and spent most of his childhood in the watchful custody of his grandmother. As the pyrokinetic powers he was born with slowly developed in strength with his age, he struggled to hide these abilities and curbed the temptation to use them growing up. But, this eventually led Santana to weaponize them to his advantage and draw him into getting involved in gang activity at age 17, moving up the ranks by stealing cars, dealing drugs and selling handguns. Becoming known as "El Diablo" on the streets, he was suspected, although never charged, with the murder of fifteen men in East Los Angeles. He thus realized that this might spike his dangerous abilities further and adjusted to the life of a family man, marrying a woman named Grace and fathering a son and daughter with her.

Death of his family and Imprisonment

One evening, however, Grace came to discover her husband's criminal activities by finding a stash of money and a pair of pistols in their closet and confronted him about them. When the married couple argued with her threatening to take their children away to her mother's, El Diablo lost his temper and had a hard time controlling his pyrokinesis. This resulted in him setting their house ablaze, unwillingly killing both Grace and their two children.

Devastated, a remorseful El Diablo handed himself over to police custody voluntarily and was subsequently charged to life incarceration in federal prison. Upon entering, he was jumped by several other inmates in the recreational area during a prison riot, prompting him to freak out and torch the entire area, killing those nearby. Deemed far too dangerous for a federal prison, the fiery homeboy was subsequently transferred to Belle Reve, where he was put inside a container capable of dousing the fire.

Recruited into the Suicide Squad

At Belle Reve, El Diablo was approached by Amanda Waller and Rick Flag who showed him footage of him killing several inmates. El Diablo denied being the person in the footage saying that person is dead, frustrating Waller. Flag tried to talk to El Diablo but was shut down saying that he isn't going to fight again. Diablo then used his powers to create the word 'bye' to Waller and Flag.

When Midway City was attacked by Incubus, the US government called to assemble Task Force X. El Diablo's cell began to fill up with water and flushed him out where he was apprehended by Hunter Griggs and the guards injected him with a tranquilizer before he could escape.

The Squad was then briefed by Rick Flag on how they are to go about accomplishing their mission. El Diablo then gathered his gear and changed into street clothes and watched with everyone else as Harley Quinn got changed. El Diablo then commented on how they were the ones who were going to die on the mission saying they were being led to their deaths. The rest of the squad started to make jokes about El Diablo; Captain Boomerang asked if his tattoos washed off, Harley asked if he could light a cigarette with his pinkie and Deadshot reminded them that he could torch the whole area. He then reassured the squad that they don't have to worry about him.

Battle of Midway City

When the squad had geared up, they were informed by Amanda Waller about their mission and what they are to do. If they were successful in their mission they would receive time off their prison sentence but if they fail, they would die. The squad gathered in a helicopter and were about to head off to Midway City when Katana joined them. The Squad crash-landed in Midway City and they made their way to retrieve Waller when Captain Boomerang and Slipknot attempted to escape. After witnessing Slipknot getting his head blown off, Rick Flag threatened the rest of the Squad.

The Squad then proceeded when they came across some of Enchantress' minions who became hostile and began to attack them. While the rest of the squad fought off the creatures, El Diablo stayed out of the way and decided not to fight because he is afraid that he would lose control. After the fight Captain Boomerang approached El Diablo and mocked him about not helping to hold up a lighter and taunting him.

The squad made their way to John F. Ostrander Federal Building where they made their way upstairs where they were ambushed by Enchantress' minions. Once again El Diablo stayed out of the way while everyone fought off the creatures which made Deadshot pull him aside and tried to get him to fight. Becoming angry with Deadshot having a go at him, he used his powers to eliminate all of the remaining enemies which shocked the Squad on how powerful he is.

El Diablo and the rest of the squad waited while Rick Flag and Deadshot went to retrieve Amanda Waller. They were greeted by Waller who threatened to blow their heads off when Captain Boomerang suggested killing her and Flag. When they were on the rooftop, a chopper hijacked by the Joker opened fire on the squad so El Diablo took cover. When Harley Quinn escaped and Deadshot went to shoot her, El Diablo watched believing she had been shot only to reveal to be pretending. The squad watched as the chopper got shot down and blow up thinking Harley had died.

As the squad left the building they saw Harley Quinn still alive to their surprise. After being informed that Flag and Waller are responsible for Enchantress destroying due to a failed mission, the squad decided to go to a bar and have a drink. El Diablo orders water and they listen to Deadshot review the mission and that they are the ones who will be blamed. El Diablo then preached to Deadshot and told the whole squad about how he used to rule the streets and accidentally killed his wife and children.

After hearing El Diablo's story Harley started to have a go at him, telling him to own what he has done and that he can't have a normal life until Deadshot and Boomerang get Harley to back off. Flag then joined them and told them that he is in love with June Moone and that he needs to stop the Enchantress. Flag told the squad that they are free to go but they decide to stay to help him, making sure that everyone will know what they did. The squad all got ready to fight Enchantress and Incubus and made their way through the destroyed train station.

Final Fight and Sacrifice

As they made their way, Deadshot asked El Diablo if he was going to fight with them which he answered by being worried that he would lose control, which Deadshot said would give them a chance. When they reached the Enchantress, Flag told them to draw out Incubus so they can blow him up when suddenly Enchantress sensed them and told them to come out. She then showed the squad what they want and that she can give it to them. She showed El Diablo with his family alive until he breaks from her reality and owns that he cannot change what he did.

He then pleads to the rest of the squad to reject the realities Enchantresses promises them, telling them that it is not real. An enraged El Diablo then goes to confront the Enchantress, defiantly declaring that she can't control him or the squad. They are then attacked by Incubus who easily overpowers the group. El Diablo then volunteers to get Incubus in the corner so he can be blown up. Stating that he is not going to lose another family to Enchantress, he goes and fights off Incubus to protect the squad with his powers which temporarily affects him until he knocks El Diablo away.

El Diablo gets back up and uses his powers and transforms into a flaming skeleton avatar and manages to overpower Incubus and get him into the corner. He then thrusts his superheated arm right through Incubus' extremely durable chest, weakening him until his arm got stuck in Incubus' chest due to his healing factor and Incubus chokes him and reverts him into his original human form. Flag tells him to get away from the bomb, but knowing that he can't, he tells Flag to blow the bomb killing both Incubus and himself. Chato saved Task Force X and the world from Incubus' and Enchantress' decimating power.

El Diablo: (Spanish Accent) So you came here to talk?

Nico: That's right.

Ax (Animorphs): El Diablo, I presume?

El Diablo: Lemme guess, you want to join your little club. I'll pass. I'm done with that life.

Nico: Let's not jump to conclusions here, Chato. I know you got the whole criminal underworld to fear you when you ruled the streets, but now a greater threat is about to approach the Earth, and only you can help stop him.

El Diablo: I told you I'm done with the killing. That's not what my chica y niños wanted. You should've just killed me along with the Joker and Deadshot.

Nico: Isolating yourself from the world and living the rest of your life in grief is not what they wanted. They wanted you to help others without becoming a criminal again. Besides, Thanos is a threat to everyone in the Universe. If he wins, there will be so many people who will lose their lives. If you join help us, you can help ensure that Thanos will never cause suffering to anymore people. It's what your family would've wanted. (sighs) Just think about it, ok?

With that, Nico and Ax leave, giving El Diablo a lot to think about.

Rachel (Animorphs): You sure it's wise to recruit him Nico? You know how dangerous El Diablo is.

Nico: I know but we need all the help we can get. Thanos is really powerful.

* * *

It was Christmas Day and Nico went to the prison in Paris to pick up Gabriel Agreste. With him was Cybertron Menasor.

Gabriel: Nico.

Nico: Hey Gabriel.

Gabriel: Love the new hair style.

Nico: Oh it's actually part of my transformation as a Super Saiyan. But thank you for noticing.

Gabriel: You're welcome.

Nico opened the door and Gabriel was released for Christmas.

Nico: Adrien will be glad to have you home for Christmas.

Gabriel: Thanks Nico.

Guard: Merry Christmas to you Nico and have a good Christmas, Gabriel.

Nico: Thank you very much.

Gabriel: Thank you.

Guard: Tell Adrien I said Hello.

Gabriel: Will do.

Cybertron Menasor: (to Gabriel) (Irish Accent) See, lad? We told you that you'd be out for Christmas.

Gabriel: You sure did.

They went back home to the estate with Instant Transmission

Me: Boy we got a massive plethora of gifts huh?

Qin: We sure did.

Timmy: But Christmas this year is just as big as the time when I wished that every day would be Christmas.

Qin: You wished for it to be Christmas every day?

Wanda: He sure did. But he didn't realize the truth until it was too late.

Me: What happened?

Cosmo and Wanda went over what happened.

---

Christmas is Timmy's favorite day of the year, as in addition to the tremendous amount of gifts he receives from Santa Claus, it is also the one day of the year he is guaranteed that his mom and dad will stay home and not have Vicky babysit him. So when the day arrives, he expresses through a song to Cosmo and Wanda that he wishes Christmas were every day. Despite their reluctance, they grant his wish.

At first, Timmy is thrilled to have Christmas every day, but things soon take a sour turn, as he begins to notice when he starts receiving less and less presents as each day passes. And because Christmas now falls on every day, all the schools, stores, and businesses remain closed, and everybody has become so sick of Christmas that the armed forces are working to shoot Santa's sleigh down. Even worse, the mascots for the other holidays (led by the Easter Bunny and consisting of Baby New Year, Cupid, and The April Fool) are furious that their respective holidays can no longer come.

Unfortunately, Timmy cannot reverse his wish, because every Christmas Eve, all the fairies in Fairy World transfer their magic to Santa so that he can make his annual journey, and they do not get it back till Christmas is over; but because it was Christmas everyday, Cosmo and Wanda cannot reverse the wish. The angry holiday mascots, planning to banish Santa to the non-existent date of February 33, kidnap Cosmo and Wanda (in order to use what remains of their magic against Santa's) and take off in the April Fool's bus.

Using a high-speed snowmobile, Timmy makes his way to Greenland, all the while getting help from other kids who celebrate Christmas, soon catching up with the holiday mascots. Disguising himself as another holiday mascot named Birthday Boy, Timmy tricks the mascots into letting him on their bus, then slows them down by puncturing their tires with Cosmo and Wanda's crowns. Up at Santa's workshop, the elves have gone on strike over the never ending Christmas, leaving Santa to come up with designs for rather pathetic looking toys. Timmy makes it to Santa's workshop in time to warn Santa of the oncoming attack (Mrs. Claus giving Timmy a lump of coal for making the wish in the first place), but the mascots soon catch up.

Santa's attempts to fight them off are futile, and his magic is soon sucked out of him and transferred to the Easter Bunny, who prepares to blow Santa to February 33 with an egg-shaped bomb. Timmy at this point arrives to stop this, but Easter Bunny is still willing to throw Timmy to February 33 for creating the mess he made and that he is the only kid that is there. Fortunately, the kids who helped Timmy in his journey show up, along with every other child with Internet access, and they help him make it clear to the holiday mascots that they do love their respective holidays as well, just not as much as Christmas-as Timmy points out, Santa Claus brings people presents and Christmas brings friends and families together. The mascots acknowledge this and realize that their holidays don't really do much compared to Christmas:

The Easter Bunny notes that all he really does is hide eggs that go bad if you don't find them soon enough.

The April Fool notes that all he does is get people to play mean-spirited pranks on each other.

Cupid says that he makes people fall in love with each other, which the kids find gross.

The mascots realize the error of their ways and apologize to Santa for what they did and give him his magic back. While Santa's back to normal, it doesn't change the fact that it's still Christmas. Timmy then rallies all the kids to tell Santa that what they want is for it to be December 26, which they do. Thanks to that, the endless Christmas finally ends, and things return to normal. However, to make amends for the whole mess, Timmy, Cosmo, Wanda, and the other holiday mascots have to deliver the Christmas presents next year while Santa and his wife take a vacation in Hawaii and, to make sure no other kid makes the same wish Timmy made, Jorgen Von Strangle adds a new rule to Da Rules that forbids fairies from granting "Christmas Every Day" wishes.

Qin: Wow! I didn't know that the magic you all give Santa fuels him for his trip around the world.

Wanda: That's right.

Starlight: Yep. We have to supply it to him for his annual Journey.

Stellar: And we all made a new rule in the rules.

Stella poofed up the Rules book Qin found it.

Qin: "Under no circumstances is any fairy allowed to grant an "I wish Every Day would be Christmas" wish ever again." Wow! That is a good idea.

Me: Boy that would put the entirety of the world into total gridlock.

Lisa: Indeed it would.

Elsa: Yes it would.

Gabriel: Agreed.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh. Looks like evil never rests even on Christmas.

Then the door opened and in came a wind of snow and then we saw Jack Frost, the Personification of Winter. But it was Jack Frost from Rise of The Guardians in 2012.

---

Jack Frost awakens from a frozen pond with amnesia. Upon realizing no one can see or hear him, he disappears. Three hundred years later, Jack, as the young Spirit of Winter, enjoys delivering snow days to school kids, but resents that they do not believe in him. At the North Pole, the Man in the Moon warns Nicholas St. North that Pitch Black is threatening the children of the world with his nightmares. He calls E. Aster Bunnymund, Sandy, and Tooth, to arms. They are then told that Jack Frost has been chosen to be a new Guardian, and has him brought to the North Pole by Bunnymund. North explains to Jack that every Guardian has a center - something they are the Guardian of, but a call for help from Tooth's fairies ends the conversation.

Visiting Tooth's world, Jack learns that each and every baby tooth contains childhood memories of the children who lost it, Jack's teeth included. However, Pitch raids Tooth's home, kidnapping all of her subordinate tooth fairies except Baby Tooth and stealing all the teeth, thus preventing Tooth from sharing Jack's memories and weakening children's belief in Tooth. In order to thwart Pitch's plan, the group decides to collect children's teeth. During their journey, a quarrel between North and Bunnymund awakens a boy, Jamie. Since he still believes, he can see everybody except for Jack. Pitch's nightmares then attack, provoking Sandy as the Guardian of Dreams. Jack tries to intervene, but Sandy is overwhelmed and killed by Pitch.

As Easter approaches, the dejected Guardians gather in Bunnymund's home. With the unexpected aid of Jamie's little sister, Sophie, they begin the process of painting eggs for Easter. After Jack takes Sophie home, he is lured to Pitch's lair by a voice. Pitch taunts him with his memories and fear of non-belief, distracting him long enough for Pitch to destroy the eggs, causing children to stop believing in Easter and Bunnymund. Losing his trust in the Guardians, a shamed Jack isolates himself in Antarctica, where Pitch tries to convince him to join his side. When Jack refuses, Pitch threatens to kill Baby Tooth unless Jack gives him his staff, the source of his magic. He agrees, but Pitch breaks Jack's staff and throws him down a chasm. Unlocking his memories inside his tooth, he learns that he was a mortal teenager who fell to his death in the frozen pond while saving his younger sister. Inspired, Jack repairs his staff and returns to the lair to rescue the kidnapped baby fairies.

Due to Pitch, every child in the world except Jamie disbelieves, drastically weakening the Guardians. Finding Jamie's belief wavering, Jack makes it snow in his room, renewing Jamie's belief and letting him become the first person to ever believe in and see Jack. Jack and Jamie gather the boy's friends, whose renewed belief bolsters their fight against Pitch. Pitch threatens them, but their dreams prove stronger than his nightmares, resulting in Sandy's resurrection. Defeated and disbelieved in, Pitch tries to retreat, but his nightmares, sensing his own fears, turn on him and trap him in his lair. Afterward, Jamie and his friends bid goodbye to the Guardians as Jack accepts his place as the Guardian of Fun.

Jack Frost: Sorry to come in like this.

Me: Wow! You're Jack Frost! The personification of Winter. It's an honor to meet you.

Jack Frost: Same to you J.D. Santa, the Sand Man, the Tooth Fairy, The Easter Bunny and all the holidays talk about you all so much.

Lincoln: Wait a second. I've seen you before. You're the Jack Frost from Rise of The Guardians!

Jack Frost: That's right Lincoln.

Lola: Wow! I love that movie! You were awesome!

Jack Frost: Thanks Lola.

He saw Elsa.

Jack Frost: Hi, there. You must be Elsa. I'm Jack Frost.

Elsa (blushes): Nice to meet you.

Me: I sense a new couple coming. But anyway, what's the problem Jack?

Jack Frost: Pitch Black has returned.

We gasped!

Laney: Pitch Black, the Boogeyman!?

Me: I remember him! He's the ultimate personification of fear.

I went over his history.

---

Pitch Black (full name: Kozmotis Pitchiner) is the main antagonist of DreamWorks' 25th full-length animated feature film Rise of the Guardians. He is the cunning, tyrannical and manipulative Nightmare King who plots to make children forget their beloved Guardians and send the world into "eternal darkness", an era where fear is the only thing that can be felt anywhere by anyone.

Pitch Black was originally a powerful master of terror due to humanity's great fear and terror of the dark in the times before the Guardians. But after the Man in the Moon chose and sent the Guardians to give light and happiness and hope to the children of the world, children lost their misery and fear of the Boogeyman, causing Pitch's power to wane until his existence was so fragile that he could not be seen or heard. This lonely existence, in comparison to the Guardians of Childhood who are loved and believed in all over the world, caused Pitch to harbor a bitter hatred for the Guardians.

Rise of the Guardians

For centuries, Pitch searched for a way to strike against his foes. Eventually, he found a way to transform the Sandman's dreams into nightmares, which are monstrous horses that he controls.

Pitch attacks what gives the Guardians their power: children's belief in them. He kidnaps the Tooth fairy's army of fairies to stop her from collecting teeth, but the other Guardians help her perform her duties. Seeing that more direct action is in order, Pitch battles against the Guardians, and manages to overwhelm the Sandman with black nightmare sand, killing him. Next, he sends nightmares to destroy the Easter Bunny's warren, while he distracts Jack Frost by taunting him with his memories.

When all hope seems lost, Pitch approaches Jack in Antarctica, and offered an alliance due to the fact that they were both outcasts. When Jack refuses, Pitch snaps his magic staff in two and throws him into a crevasse.

Children all around the world ceased to believe in the Guardians, and soon only one boy named Jamie still held on to the hope that the Guardians exist. With so few children believing in them, the Guardians become weak while Pitch gained incredible strength. As Jamie's hope is too irrepressible, Pitch tries to kill the boy, but the Guardians all try to protect him. With encouragement from Jack and the other Guardians, Jamie gets his friends together and prepares to stand up to Pitch. By not giving in to fear, the children gain the power to turn nightmare sand back into dream sand.

The Guardians regain their strength and manage to fight off Pitch and the nightmares. Sandman is also revived. Ultimately, the children no long fear Pitch and hence no longer see or hear him. Pitch attempts to run away, but is confronted by the Guardians. Pitch vows that he cannot be rid of them forever and that there will always be fear, but North reminds him as long as one child believes, that Guardians will be able to fight fear. At the same time, Pitch's nightmares arrived to the scene sensing his own fears, so they attack and drag him down into his lair.

Everyone gasped.

Nico: So Pitch Black the Boogeyman has returned.

Qin: But I thought you guys killed the Boogeyman.

Me: We did. But we killed 2 versions of him. One was a monster that the Grim Reaper hated more than anyone.

Grim Reaper: (Jamaican Accent) That's right mon. The Boogey Man was the worst bully in all of the Underworld.

Grim went over Boogey's history.

Boogey (also known as Boogey Man) is one of the recurring antagonists in Billy & Mandy & the main antagonist in the television movie, Billy & Mandy's Big Boogey Adventure.

An old arch-enemy of Grim's since junior high school who was the worst school bully, Boogey played pranks on other classmates including Grim and make them look like idiots throughout his school career. Boogey is, in fact, the Boogeyman himself, and can shapeshift in order to scare people. Boogey is Grim's rival in scaring people, but usually fails in doing so. Being constantly frustrated by his inability to scare modern-day children (he blames cartoons, video games and for some reason, the tuba), Boogey visits Grim in the episode Bully Boogie. Mandy suggests a challenge of a scaring contest, which Boogey promptly loses, and is banished to the Pit of Terror/Nightmare Realm. Ironically, it is the same dimension to which he sent Billy, one filled with spiny plants and a creature similar to the plants.

The Boogey Man is prominently featured as the main villain in the television movie, Billy & Mandy's Big Boogey Adventure where he testified against Grim in front of the Underworld Court. After getting his old nemesis fired from his position as reaper, he volunteers to take Grim and his accomplices out for a sail with his pirate crew in order to dispose of the former reaper. Boogey also revealed his plan to claim a very powerful artifact known as Horror's Hand, so as to make children fear him again. In the end, he discovers that he is not scary at all and becomes afraid of everything himself. He has not been seen since, due to his newly developed panphobia. it is unknown if Boogey survived or not.

The Boogey Man later appears in the flashbacks of "Wrath of the Spider Queen." He attempts to cheat in the Grim Reaper election by stuffing the ballot box, but Grim catches him and tries to undo what he's done. Velma then finds Grim with the ballot box, assumes that he is trying to cheat and runs away in tears. Angry at Boogey, Grim grabs the scythe and attacks him in a horrifying display. This prompts everyone else in the school that hadn't already voted to support Grim, meaning that Boogey was inadvertently responsible for him becoming the Grim Reaper.

Me: And he tried to go after Horror's Hand again and in the end, we sent his freakish face into the River of Fire for all eternity. We recently faced Oogie Boogie and he often went as the Boogey Man.

---

Oogie Boogie, sometimes shortened to simply Oogie, is the main antagonist of Tim Burton's 1993 animated stop-motion film The Nightmare Before Christmas, as well as its 2005 video game prequel The Nightmare Before Christmas: The Pumpkin King, its 2005 video game sequel The Nightmare Before Christmas: Oogie's Revenge, and a major antagonist in the Kingdom Hearts series. He is the personification of the common child's nightmare of the "Boogie Man", resembling a large burlap sack full of bugs, spiders, and snakes. He is Jack Skellington's archenemy.

The Nightmare Before Christmas: The Pumpkin King

In the video game prequel to the film, Oogie's origins and the birth of his rivalry with Jack were revealed. As it turned out, he once had his own holiday known as Bug Day, that was most likely forgotten by the people of the real world and thus vanished. Unfortunately, Oogie escaped, found Halloween Town, and decided that it would be the new Bug Day. He and his army of insects invaded the town and nearly took it over. Jack found out and he defeated the bugs and Oogie. Oogie survived the battle, learned to fear the Pumpkin King, and was banished to his underground lair.

The Nightmare Before Christmas

Although he is the main antagonist, his role in the film is small. During the time that Oogie was imprisoned in his lair and plotting his revenge, Lock, Shock and Barrel revealed the existence of Santa Claus to him. Later, the trio kidnapped Santa and (against the wishes of Jack Skellington, who held Oogie in great contempt) sent him down to his lair beneath their Treehouse home. After introducing himself, Oogie binds Santa to a giant roulette wheel and prepares to torture him. Later on, Sally attempts to rescue Santa from Oogie, but she ends up being captured herself. Following Jack's failed escapade as Santa Claus, Oogie tried to kill his captives by cooking them in his snake and spider stew but was stopped by Jack.

Jack confronts Oogie, who activated his robot killing machines and trapped him in response, but the latter acrobatically evaded the devices and managed to reach Oogie. Oogie tried to escape on a propeller, but Jack shouted "How dare you treat my friends so shamefully!", indicating that Oogie was too dangerous to be left alive. The pumpkin king then pulled a loose thread on him, which opened him up and caused about 90% of his bugs to fall into his own burning stew. He fearfully screamed "My bugs!", and his voice then changed to insects, faded from existence, and left only squeaks. Albeit most of the insects fell to their deaths in Oogie's stew, one of them, presumably the leader, tried to escape his fellows' fate, but was ultimately crushed to death by Santa with his feet. It is completely unknown if any bug from Oogie's bag survived the ordeal, but if some of them did so, they most likely escaped from Oogie's lair and went to live normal lives as ordinary insects.

The Nightmare Before Christmas: Oogie's Revenge

In the 2005 video game sequel, Oogie was resurrected by his three henchmen, Lock, Shock, and Barrel, who sewed him back together. He quickly deceived the residents of Halloween Town and tricked the townsfolk into making traps for his archenemy, Jack Skellington. Oogie attempted to become the "Seven Holidays King". He successfully kidnapped the real leaders and tried to murder Santa Claus again, but his plans were foiled by Jack. Oogie desperately put up a fight by turning into a gigantic, junk-filled version of himself named "Mega-Oogie". He was again destroyed by Jack, reducing into nothing, apparently ending Oogie's threat once and for all.

However, he could still be resurrected once more like in the past.

---

Qin: Wow! So we killed two Personifications of Fear.

Lana: And Oogie Boogie had the most delicious bugs ever.

Nick F.: I still hurl my guts out every time I see that.

Lori J.: Me too.

Jack: I can lead you all to Pitch Black.

Me: Okay. Lets get him!

We were following Jack Frost to where Pitch Black was.

---

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA

---

We were over in Anchorage, Alaska!

Me: Anchorage, Alaska. Why is he here?

Nico: Probably to get everyone to fear him.

Me: He could be anywhere.

?: (British Accent) Perhaps I'm right behind you.

We turned and we saw PITCH BLACK and he had Sabrina hostage!

Me: Pitch Black!

Pitch Black: So the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm is here. I see you all have Gabriel with you.

Pitch Black was holding the Butterfly Miraculous in one hand and grasping at Sabrina's wrist with the other.

Pitch Black (to Gabriel): Gabriel, those heroes made the mistake of letting you out. I'm giving you the chance to become Hawk Moth again and rule by my side. All I ask is that you help me destroy the Guardians and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Gabriel: Here's what I think of your offer. (spits at Pitch's face)

Pitch Black: You dare?!

Gabriel: Sorry, but I'm currently happy with my reunited family. My Hawk Moth days are behind me now. So, I'm not going to be joining you in your scheme to ruin Christmas for everyone.

Me: Or poison the entire world with your fear!

Pitch Black: Fine. If you want something done right, do it yourself! What is it you always say? Oh yes. NOOROOS, DARK WINGS RISE!

Pitch Black was enveloped in a vortex of darkness.

Pitch Black: Time to get more faces in here! (summons clones of Bubbler, Princess Fragrance, Lady Wifi, Reflekta, Anti-Bug, Timebreaker, Dark Cupid, Evillustrator, Stoneheart, Gamer, and Vanisher)

Me: It's clones of the Akumatized Villains we faced!

Juleka: Me as Reflekta!

Kim: Me as Dark Cupid!

Alya: Me as Lady Wifi!

Rose: Me as Princess Fragrance!

Nino: Me as the Bubbler!

Chloe: Me as the Anti-Bug!

Alix: Me as Timebreaker!

Nathanial: Me as Evillustrator!

Max: Me as Gamer!

Sabrina: Me as the Vanisher!

Max: Me as Gamer!

Me: And Ivan Bruel as Stoneheart!

Me: But we've faced them all before. And because they are clones, we can kill them without killing the originals.

Nico: I agree.

Me: Lets power up and destroy these monsters!

Marinette: You got it!

Me: Kibal! Lets Howl!

I turned into Wolf Moon!

Marinette: Tikki! Spots On! HA!

Marinette became Ladybug!

Adrien: Plagg! Claws Out!

Adrien turned into Cat Noir!

Alya: Trixx! Lets Pounce!

Alya turned into Rena Rouge!

Chloe: Pollin! Buzz On!

Chloe turned into Queen Bee!

Juleka: Swanno! White Feathers Spread!

Juleka turned into Maestra!

Aurore: Feel the Power of the Storm!

Aurore turned into Stormy Weather!

Nino: Wayzz! Shell On!

Nino turned into Carapace!

Alix: Fluff! Clock Wind!

Alix turned into Bunnyx.

Kim: Xuppu! Showtime!

Kim turned into King Monkey.

Luka: Sass! Scales Slither!

Luka turned into Viperion.

Kagami: Long! Bring the Storm!

Kagami turned into Ryuko!

Max: Kaalki! Full Gallop!

Max turned into Pegasus!

Sabrina: Nooroo! Wings Take Flight!

Sabrina turned into Undermoth!

Nico: Pyri! Fire Wings Burn!

Nico turned into Firewing!

Rose: Duusu! Spread My Feathers!

Rose turned into Mayura!

Lana: Mudi! Lets get dirty!

Lana turned into Mudfilth.

Lori: Fawna! Lets Frolic!

Lori turned into Wind Deer!

Lincoln: Eini! Lets Speed Away!

Lincoln turned into Thunder Hare!

Laney: Wooll! Warm up!

Laney turned into Celtic Sheep!

Mylene: Canin! Slobber On!

Mylene turned into Flamewolf!

Nathanial: Strype! Stripes on!

Nathanial turned into White Tiger!

William: Erida! Surf the Stream!

William turned into Surf Master!

Maria: Ursus! Claws Extend!

Maria turned into Bear Claw!

Troy: Here's a Christmas present from the Power Rangers to you, Pitch Black!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Sun Flare Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Sun Vulcan Rangers from 1982.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at the clones and Pitch Black and we punched them and blasted them and absorbed their negative energy and it made us more powerful. Then we set our sights on Pitch Black.

Maria: (to Gabriel) Out of curiosoty, how did you get Akumatized into the Collector?

Gabriel: It's simple, actually. When I lost the Miraculous spellbook, I knew I had to throw Adrien and Marinette off of their suspiciouns regarding my Hawk Moth identity. So I detransformed after releasing an Akuma and allowed myself to be Akumatized.

William: That's actually very clever.

Me: It sure is.

Permafrost: Mom, I hope you were watching this fight from heaven.

Ben: Lets see how you deal with this!

Ben turned into Astrodactyl.

Ben: ASTRODACTYL!

Me: Wow! That a Vaxadactylus from the Planet Terradino!

Astrodactyl: That's right. They come from Terradino like Humongosaur does.

Me: Cool!

We went at Pitch Black and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and slashed him in the stomach with my scythe and blasted him with a blast of dark blue fire and burned him all over. Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him and Nico fired a powerful blast of fire at him and burned him and Laney entangled him in vines and she kicked him in the face and Troy Burrows fired a blast of red energy and it hit Pitch Black and burned him. The Megaforce Rangers were blasting him all over the place with powerful energy lasers and weapons and they burned him all over. Astrodactyl flew faster than a bullet fired from a gun via a jetpack and he formed an energy whip with his Star Power and slashed Pitch Black all over and he fired an energy blast from his mouth and it hit him all over and exploded. Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him and Adrien fired a powerful Cataclysm blast and it hit him and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Gabriel: Wow!

Adrien punched Pitch Black and kicked him in the stomach and fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Adrien kicked Pitch Black in the back and punched him in the crotch and leg swept him and then he punched him the face and knocked his teeth out. Gabriel could not believe what he was seeing. Adrien was a skilled fighter like all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and he was fighting really valiantly against a malevolent spirit like Pitch Black. It was a powerful and awesome fight. Marinette kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach and slashed him with her lucky charm as a sword and Lincoln lashed him all over with his whip of lightning and electrocuted him all over. Linka fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted him with 750 quadrillion volts of electricity. Permafrost fired a powerful blast of ice and froze him and Bai Tza smashed him with a powerful hammer made of water and then she kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into a building.

Liberty: RIDDIKULUS!

Liberty fired a spell and it turned Pitch Black into a silly guy dressed in a dress and a red handbag. We laughed in amusement.

Me: (LAUGHS) That is so funny!

Nico: (Laughs) What a bad fashion statement!

Gabriel: (Laughs) That is very amusing!

Leni: (Laughs) That was so funny! But those clothes totes are perfect on him!

We laughed and it was funny!

Me: Total Humiliation! Lets finish this freak off!

Cybertron Menasor: Right lad! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his drill and enhanced its strength and speed and power.

Arixam: Time for some action! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and she formed Cybertron Menasor's drill made of pure water and got the same enhancements.

Cybertron Menasor and Arixam: TWIN GIANT DRILL PUNCH!

They slammed their drills into Pitch Black and he screamed in excruciating pain! He went flying and crashed into a building.

Bluestreak: Feel the lightning! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Bluestreak's back and enhanced his volt gun to 100 billion volts.

Ax (Animorphs): You will pay for your crimes. ANDALITE CYBER KEY POWER!

The Andalite Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his powers in shapeshifting 100-fold and it gave him the abilities of all of powers we know.

Bluestreak and Ax (Animorphs): LIGHTNING SUPERVOLT STRIKE!

Ax used the powers of Buzzshock and fired a powerful blast of lightning and Bluestreak fired his volt gun and the blasts combined and they hit Pitch Black and electrocuted him.

Me: Time to finish this clod off for good!

Elsa: With pleasure! SNOW QUEEN ICE LASER!

Elsa fired a powerful blast of ice energy and it hit Pitch Black and froze him up to his chest in a block of ice.

Lana: You will never plague us with fear again! ICE FIST MEGA PUNCH STORM!

Lana formed powerful spiked fists made of pure ice and she punched him all over with incredible ferocity.

Killer Frost: Feel the Cold Shoulder! ICE STAR STRIKE!

Killer Frost formed a powerful ball of ice and turned it into a deadly star and she threw it and it slashed Pitch Black and cut him up.

Permafrost: Feel the cold pain of loneliness! FROZEN ANGEL JUDGEMENT!

Permafrost formed a snow angel and it went at Pitch Black and it hit him and exploded into a massive explosion of ice!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM!

Ice Man (X-Men): You will freeze in oblivion! ICEBEAM FIRESTORM!

Ice Man fired numerous beams of ice and froze him all over in ice.

Jack Frost: You will never terrorize this world again! WINTERBLAST STAFF BEAM!

Jack Frost fired a powerful beam of ice from his staff and it hit him and completely froze Pitch Black in a powerful block of ice.

Me: And now for the grand finale!

I picked up the ice and a portal into the River of Fire opened up.

Me: You will never terrorize our planet again Pitch Black. You are now condemned to eternity into the River Of Fire! BURN!

I threw him into the River of Fire and it closed and he was gone forever.

Nico: Pitch Black you have failed this universe!

Me: And more.

Jack Frost: (To the Viewers) A heart of darkness can never match the purities of a heart of ice.

Me: You said it Jack.

Anna: (to Jack Frost) If you hurt my sister, I'm going to make what Pitch Black tried to do look merciful!

Jack Frost gulped.

Jack Frost: You have my word Anna.

Gabriel: Adrien, I'm so proud of you. You have grown into a strong and powerful man and you don't know how proud I am of you.

Adrien: Thanks dad.

We later went back to the estate and we were ready to spend the rest of Christmas with our families.

THE END

Another Fanfiction complete and another awesome movie done.

Rise of The Guardians from 2012 was an awesome movie and I loved how Jack Frost and all the kids helped all the awesome holidays and personifications take down Pitch Black. It was awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the battle you've all been waiting for! The ultimate battle that will decide the fate of the entire universe! The Ultimate Battle with Thanos the Mad Titan! Get ready to see an explosive fight as we take down the Mad Titan and the Black Order once and for all!

See you all tomorrow.

The Phoenix Infinity War!

GET READY FOR THE ULTIMATE MOTHER OF ALL BATTLES!

---

Team Loud Phoenix Storm was now in a state of emergency. It was an AΩ Level Emergency Alert! Thanos was on his way to Earth and this time he means business.

Flash and Green Lantern John Stewart were talking to Mick Rory A.K.A. Heat Wave.

Heat Wave: You're kidding me! Thanos is coming?!

Flash: Yeah. You heard right. But maybe we would've stopped him by now if we hadn't been busy fighting your fellow villains. You guys owe us big time!

Green Lantern: Look, since the 6 of you are currently taking a vacation from the Legion of Doom, you guys are the perfect criminals to check out of this war we have against your buddies, at least for a bit, to help us out against Thanos. So, are you with us?

Heat Wave: I will tell everyone John. We're in.

Green Lantern: Thank you Mick.

They shook hands.

---

Over in Gotham City, New Jersey Batman was talking to Edward Nygma A.K.A. The Riddler and Oswald Chesterfield Cobblepot A.K.A. The Penguin, two of Batman's most dangerous enemies.

Riddler: Look who came crawling to us, Penguin.

Batman: Riddler, I don't have time for you and Penguin's games. I need both of your help.

Penguin: Against Thanos, right?

Batman: You heard about him?

Penguin: News in the Gotham Underworld spreads fast. But sure. We'll help you.

Batman: Just like that?

Riddler: Of course. Penguin thinks helping you heroes will be good publicity for the Iceberg Lounge. And I myself can't possibly pass up a chance to use my superior intellect to help defeat the Mad Titan.

Batman: Don't make me regret this.

Penguin: We won't Batman. Without fine gentlemen like you to stop us it wouldn't be much of a challenge.

* * *

In the Jupiter Maximum Security Prison, Nico was talking to Man Boy.

Man Boy: Thanos is coming right now?!

Nico: Yeah, he is. That's why we're getting you out until he's dead. I'm actually surprised you decided to help us. Before, you used to care about making the city of Townsville manly.

Man Boy: Well, time in here pretty much changed me. And like you said, if Thanos wins, there's no city to get manly.

Nico: That's true. We're gonna need all the help we can get.

Man Boy: Count me in Nico!

Nico: Thank you Man Boy.

* * *

In another part of the universe, Timmy Turner was talking to his enemy Dark Laser.

Timmy looked at Dark Laser, who was a mess. And Flipsy growled at him.

Timmy: Dark Laser, I can't believe I'm saying this but…

Dark Laser: (depressed) Go away, Turner. You're interrupting my alone time.

Timmy: Come on, Laser. We need your help to fight Thanos.

Dark Laser: Thanos the Mad Titan!? Are you crazy!?

Timmy: No I'm not. He's out to destroy the entire universe and we need your help to stop him once and for all.

Dark Laser: Don't you get it, Turner?! You've ruined me. My battles against you are over. And you've won!

Timmy: So you're just giving up? Just like that? No way in Hell!

Dark Laser: Then tell me what I can do. Tell me what chances you and I have without Crocker and Foop or most of the villains who would've stood a chance against Thanos!

Timmy: But there are still other villains out there that my friends are recruiting right now.

Dark Laser: Well, there's no point in me fighting for anything anymore. Your friends made it clear that I have no place in your world.

Timmy: Ok, you have a good point. But this isn't the time for personal grudges. Not with Thanos approaching.

Dark Laser: But without the aid of powerful villains like Megatron or Nerissa, we don't have a chance against the Mad Titan.

Timmy: Alright, so there isn't a huge army of villains in our ranks. But it's a start.

Dark Laser: Then you'll have to start without me. Just… let me rot here for the rest of my life.

Timmy: (glares at him in disgust) You know what, Laser? Even when we were enemies, I still had respect for you. But now, I don't see any trace of the villain I respected. Only a hollow shell of a human being. (sighs) Look, when you decide to get over yourself, you know where to find me and my friends.

Timmy left and Dark Laser had a lot to think about.

---

In the Mariana Trench Maximum Security Prison, Mario was talking to Bowser.

Bowser: So, you want me to help you guys against Thanos?

Mario: (Italian Accent) Yes. After all, you did help us plenty of times against villains like Tabuu.

Bowser: Well, when you put it that way, count me in.

Bowser Jr (smiles): It's good to have you back, Dad.

Bowser: Good to be back son.

---

In the Moon Prison, I was talking to Ra's Al Ghul.

Ra's Al Ghul: So, it seems the time has come for me to aid you all against the Mad Titan.

Me: That's right Ra's It has come. If you don't want to, that's fine. No one's forcing you to help us.

Ra's: No. I always said that I love the Planet Earth. Now, it's time for me to fight for it.

Me: Thanks Ra's.

---

In another part of the Jupiter Prison, Edd was talking to Rojo.

Rojo: So, that bitch Supergiant is coming along with Thanos the Mad Titan and the Black Order?

Iron Boy: That's right. I know you've been itching for payback on her for not paying you for the bounty on Argit.

Rojo: Damn right! Looks like you and I get to be partners again. Even if it is temporary.

Iron Boy: Thanks Rojo.

---

In another part of the Mariana Trench Maximum Security Prison, Fox McCloud was visiting his old enemies of Star Wolf: Wolf O'Donnell, Leon Powalski, and Panther Caroso.

Wolf: Alright, Fox. Why are you letting me and my team out? Ther's got to be a catch.

Fox: Here's the catch. You three help us againt Thanos and you guys don't get turned to dust by him.

Panther: What?! I can't let my beautiful self get turned to dust!

Leon: Ok, I guess that's a good reason for us to help you.

Fox: Thanks Leon. Thanks guys.

---

At the Gotham Royal York Juvenile Detention Facility, Carly Beth Caldwell and Sabrina Mason were talking to Chuck and Steve.

Carly Beth: Hey, Steve. Hey, Chuck.

Chuck: Hey.

Sabrina Mason: You guys must be wondering why we're visiting you.

Steve: Before you two say anything, we want to say that we're sorry. You guys were right. We should've been good friends to Carly Beth instead of bullies.

Carly Beth: I'm glad to hear that. Now, it's time we got you two out.

Chuck: Why? What's going on?

Sabrina Mason: We'll explain on the way.

Steve: Well, alright.

They got them out.

---

In a hideout in New York City, Captain America was making a dangerous decision: He was going to recruit the infamous Wade Winston Wilson A.K.A. Deadpool. A deadly sadistic martial artist with a taste for guns and has a sadistic sense of humor. He's like a combination of The Joker and Slade Wilson.

Captain America (sighs): I can't believe I have to resort to this. I swear I would only come to you if there was no other choice. And there really is no other choice. Somehow, you know about our battle against Thanos. And you know how powerful he is. We would've gone to equally powerful villains for help. But those villains had to be killed to save everyone in the universe. Most of the others are recruiting other villains, but that still won't be enough. So that's why I'm asking you for help. As long as you behave yourself around the others. So, will you please help us?

We then see that Captain America was talking to Deadpool.

Deadpool: (grins) It's about time you called me for help, Cap!

Captain America: (Groans) Oh what have I done?

---

Once everyone was gathered we were ready.

Nico: Glad to see you finally joining us, El Diablo.

El Diablo: You were right. Just standing by won't stop Thanos. My family would've wanted me to join the fight.

Me: That's the spirit El Diablo.

Then the alarm rang.

Me: Uh oh.

Computer: Intruder in the Training grounds.

We went out to the Training Grounds and we saw SUPERGIANT!

---

Supergiant is a member of Thanos' Black Order. She is a mentally unstable omnipath and telepathic parasite who seeks out intellect to devour.

In the search for Thanos' son Thane during the Infinity storyline, Supergiant and Corvus Glaive laid siege to the Jean Grey School for Higher Learning and easily defeated the X-Men. They left after realizing that Thane was not there.

When the Black Order seized Wakanda, Supergiant was left in control of Black Bolt who she would mentally order to activate the Illuminati's hidden bombs in Wakanda's Necropolis. When the Illuminati arrived to save Black Bolt, Supergiant used Black Bolt's ability to defeat the heroes. Upon activating the bomb, Supergiant was faced by Maximus who had the trigger. Maximus triggered the bomb, but also used Lockjaw to transport Supergiant along with the bomb to a distant uninhabited planet where she perished in the explosion.

During the "No Surrender" arc, Supergiant came back as a psychic projection, along with the rest of the Black Order, thanks to the Challenger who had set them up against Grandmaster's Lethal Legion. During the battle in Antarctica, the Black Order retreat after Corvus Glaive is killed. Supergiant stays to take control of Thor, but is dissipated by Lethal Legion member Ferene the Other.

Me: Supergiant!

Nico: So Thanos knows about our fight against him.

Supergiant: (Insane chuckle) That's right Nico. And just to minimize your forces, I'm going to kill all of you.

She had a laser blast ready to fire.

Supergiant: Now, Talia Al Ghul. You will be the first to die! (fires laser blast at Talia)

Ra's Al Ghul: Talia, no!

Ra's pushes Talia out of the way and takes the shot to the chest.

Talia: FATHER!

Nico: RA'S!

Me: NO!

Rojo: (grabs Supergiant by the throat) That was a mistake you bitch! And also, this is payback for not paying me!

She snapped her neck and killed Supergiant!

Nico: Supergiant you have failed this universe!

Ra's was on the ground dying.

Ra's: (Weakly) Is she…

Me: Yes, Supergiant is dead. Rojo killed her.

Talia: Father, don't talk. We'll have Ratchet help heal you!

Ra's: (weakly) Can't you see that I'm dying, Talia?

Me: What are you talking about, Ra's?

Ra's: I'm old, J.D. And even if I hadn't been shot, no one lives forever. I know that now.

Talia: Father, please! Don't talk like that.

Ra's: Talia, I've lived for a long time now. 600+ years and I know when my time is up. I had a good run. But you still have your entire life ahead of you. Now, it's time for you to let me go.

Talia: But I'm not ready for you to go.

Ra's: I'm not, either. But when you think about it… compared to the cosmos, one's life is but a blink of an eye.

Talia: You're really teaching me life lessons now?

Ra's: I have been the best father to you, Talia. I'm very proud of you. And I'll always love you, no matter what.

Talia: (cries) Thank you, father!

Ra's: (to me): J.D, please look after my daughter.

Me: (cries) I will, Ra's. You have my word of honor.

Ra's: Thank you, J.D. Knudson. I am proud to call you my successor.

Me: I am too Ra's.

And with that, Ra's took his last breath, closed his eyes, and died in my arms.

Talia cried hard and I comforted her. Most of us were crying over the loss of a friend and a brave hero that lived for 600 long years.

(RA'S AL GHUL - 1417 to 2019)

We buried him in the graveyard that Bruce Wayne's parents are buried in.

Star Butterfly: (looks at Ra's grave)… Any other family we should contact?

Override: There's his other daughter, Nyssa. But I don't know how we'll break the news to her.

Talia: This is my fault. I should've dodged that shot.

Me: No, it wasn't your fault that this happened, Talia.

Kingdom Hearts Terra: J.D.'s right. None of this was on any of us!

Deadpool: (Looks around at everyone mourning) What? What-What are you doing?

Aqua: (Turns to Deadpool) Terra was just saying it's no one's fault.

Deadpool: Yes, I know that you're acting like he's dead, but why are we acting like he's dead? J.D. can snap his fingers, right? (Turns to Talia) We can easily bring your dad back, right? (Turns to everyone else) So stop with this shit! You're Team Loud Phoenix Storm, get it together!

Numbuh One: We can't do that.

Deadpool: (Turns to Numbuh One) I'm sorry, w-what?

Numbuh Five: We've already buried Ra's, Deadpool.

Deadpool: (Starts laughing horsely) I'm sorry, no offense, but you're a very Earthly Being, okay? We're talking about J.D. having the power to do anything, and "Can't" seems very definitive, don't you think?!

Talia: (Turns to Deadpool) I understand you know everything in the universe, but being brought back isn't what my father would want! He would've wanted to be one with the planet he loved the most!

Deadpool: Okay, you don't possibly know that-!

Danny Phantom: (Turns to Deadpool) Hey, hey! Settle down! Alright? What's done is done! Ra's isn't coming back. But we can't let his sacrifice be in vain. We have to make sure we defeat Thanos, no matter the cost.

Me: That's right. Thanos will pay for his crimes and I will make sure that he does.

Back at the Estate, we were watching Thanos's ship.

But then we got a call from Thanos himself!

Thanos: Greetings Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: Thanos!

Thanos: (contacts us through our supercomputer) I know you just lost one of your own. And so, I'm willing to spare all of you. Give me the Infinity Stones and when I cleanse this world, you all will be among the people still alive.

Me: LIKE HELL WE WILL!

Nico: You can have them over our dead bodies, Thanos! Ra's Al Ghul died protecting the Stones from you. So, if you want them, you'll have to take them from us!

Thanos: Very well. So be it. (ends contact)

Me: Now its war.

?: You could use some help J.D.

We turned and we saw Dark Laser and the entire Legion Of Doom!

Me: Dark Laser! Grodd!

Timmy: (to Dark Laser) What made you change your mind, Laser?

Dark Laser: You were right, Turner. Just moping around isn't going to solve anything (to the rest of us) You all may not want me. But I know when I'm needed.

Timmy: Thanks Dark.

Grodd: Thought you all might like some help.

Nico: Grodd? You're helping us?

Grodd: Of course I am. I respected Ra's Al Ghul. And I'll be damned if I let his sacrifice be in vain!

?: Let us help you too!

We turned and we saw THE PSYCHO RANGERS!

---

In Space

Astronema created the Psycho Rangers, not only to destroy the Power Rangers, but to help her overthrow Dark Specter, since their powers were tied to him. Because of this, the more they fought the more of Dark Specter's power they would drain. However the Psychos were too obsessed with destroying the Rangers and became increasingly frustrated since Astronema would constantly call them away from battle just when they were getting close to destroying the Power Rangers.

Eventually this obsession began leading to them engaging the Rangers on their own, which would cause the destruction of Psycho Pink and Psycho Blue. They were destroyed because the Rangers discovered each Psycho is designed to fight the Power Ranger of the corresponding color. With Pink and Blue gone, the Rangers managed to destroy Psychos Red, Black and Yellow. However the Psychos still lived on as spirits.

Later when Astronema managed to use a machine to turn the Power Rangers and many of the citizens of Angel Grove into data cards, the Psychos succeeded in entering the machine, which let them regain their physical bodies. They freed the Rangers from their data cards so they could destroy them personally. Finding themselves outmatched, the Power Rangers managed to transform the Psychos into data cards.

Lost Galaxy

However these cards found their way into the hands of Deviot, who freed the Psycho Rangers and sent them after the Lost Galaxy Power Rangers. But the Space Rangers returned and teamed up with them to defeat the Psycho Rangers, destroying all of them except for Psycho Pink. She managed to learn the location of the Savage Sword, a powerful sword that continually grew with more energy. After getting her hands on it, she engaged the Pink Galaxy and Space Rangers and managed to drive the sword into the Pink Space Ranger's morpher. This destroyed it and absorbing the energy of the morpher to make a tornado. After transforming into her monster form and growing, Psycho Pink engaged both team's Megazords, but was destroyed. However to save the Pink Space Ranger's life, the Pink Galaxy Ranger had to sacrifice her own.

Lightspeed Rescue

The Monster forms of Psychos Blue and Pink were seen in the Shadow World's underground tomb when Queen Bansheera opened it.

Psycho Red

Psycho Red was based on the Red Space Ranger and had absorbed his brainwaves, making Psycho Red perfect to fight Andros. He is the most egotistical, arrogant, brash, evil, brutal, violent and disloyal of the group and frequently disobeyed orders and caused conflict on the team. After Psycho Blue's destruction, Psycho Red, along with Psycho Yellow and Psycho Black, assumed human forms to try and track the Rangers by identifying their voices. As is the case with all the Psychos, Psycho Red has a monster form, a fire based monster and he wields the Psycho Sword.

Psycho Black

Psycho Black was based on the Black Space Ranger and had absorbed his brainwaves, making Psycho Black perfect to fight Carlos. He is the most intellectual, levelheaded and rational of the Psychos and is the most willing to follow Astronema's orders. After Psycho Blue's destruction, Psycho Black, along with Psycho Red and Psycho Yellow, assumed human forms to try and track the Rangers by identifying their voices. As is the case with all the Psychos, Psycho Black has a monster form, a rock-based monster and wields the Psycho Rod.

Psycho Blue

Psycho Blue was based on the Blue Space Ranger and had absorbed his brainwaves, making him perfect to fight TJ. He is the most cruel member of the team and possibly the most psychotic. Psycho Blue met his end the first time after the Rangers all dressed up as the Blue Ranger to confuse the Psychos and he fought them on his own. As is the case with all the Psychos, Psycho Blue has a monster form, an ice-based monster and wields the Psycho Axe.

Psycho Yellow

Psycho Yellow was based on the Yellow Space Ranger and had absorbed her brainwaves, making her perfect to fight Ashley. She was deceitful, calculating and manipulative, using her teammates to fulfill her own goals and preferring to work alone. After Psycho's Blue destruction, Psycho Yellow, along with Psycho Red and Psycho Black, assumed human forms to try and track the Rangers by identifying their voices. As is the case with all the Psychos, Psycho Yellow has a monster form, a hornet/lizard monster and wields the Psycho Slinger.

Psycho Pink

Psycho Pink was based on the Pink Space Ranger and had absorbed her brainwaves, making her perfect to fight Cassie. Psycho Pink was first destroyed after Psycho Yellow manipulated Pink into helping her capture the Yellow Ranger, but she escaped and Psycho Pink pursued her, only to be destroyed after the other rangers arrived. As is the case with all the Psychos, Psycho Pink has a monster form, a plant-based monster and wields the Psycho Bow.

Psycho Green

Psycho Green is a comic-exclusive character that was absent in the TV series, but was the right hand of Dark Specter in the 19th century who was sent to release Rita Repulsa, but his spaceship was shot down by Zordon and Alpha 5. Psycho Green survived and his ship placed him into a deep sleep.

He was the first and original Psycho Ranger in history, and the only one who isn't a clone. Psycho Green was once known as Trek, the traitorous Green Ranger of Supersonic Rangers from Xybria (home planet to Time Force Green Ranger Trip), who betrayed his team due to had enough of mistreated by his selfish leader, Supersonic Red Ranger Ace.

A century later, Psycho Green was reawakened by the events of the moon landing n 1969. He attacks the Blue and Black Rangers, Nikolai Chukarin and Jamie Gilmore and kills Jamie with a boulder. After Grace, Terona and Daniel, the Red, Yellow and Pink Rangers show up to confront Psycho Green, Psycho Green is easily able to to defeat them by shattering Daniel's visor to make him lose oxygen and die in the vacuum of space before eventually reaching the space dumpster. The remaining Rangers shoot Psycho Green down, but the effect didn't work as he transforms into his monster form, a dragon-like flaming green monster and wields the Psycho Dagger as he chases the trio to Rita's palace. He was eventually destroyed when Nikolai made the ultimate sacrifice as the cost of his own life by setting an explosion in the inside of Psycho Green. Grace then secretly takes Psycho Green's dagger for safekeeping.

In reality, Psycho Green was merely buried under the surface of the moon for decades, his armor battered, but his powers preserving him in the prime of his youth and sustaining him purely through the combination of Dark Specter's dark energy and Trek's own corrupted connection to the Morphin Grid. For years, he remained hidden and begin to observes every events where he learned Astronema (upon being brainwashed into evil by Darkonda through a brainwashed Ecliptor) created 5 Psycho Rangers we know based on Space Rangers, but likely also indirectly Supersonic Rangers, thus indirectly make her his new "step-sister" for this. As the Psycho Rangers destroyed third times, involving being defeated by the hands of Space Rangers, Trek manage to retrieve the Space Psycho Rangers' broken data cards and revived them, granting them to be able to demorphed into civilian forms based on one of Astronema's victims since Psycho Red, Black and Yellow did before their first defeats. He lead Psycho Rangers to attack in other planet to lure Karone and making her return into Astronema. Unaware to Trek, Karone would follow his scheme, allowing her chance to redeem the Psycho Rangers to be good, feeling responsible for creating them, causing a conflict between her and Andros over Psycho Rangers' redemption. When Space Rangers found Trek's hideout, Trek was about to kill an unconscious Andros, but was stopped by Psycho Pink, who manage to gain a sanity and redemption first. As the redeemed Psycho Rangers core team live peacefully with their newfound live, Trek is finally being imprisoned.

Lincoln: The Psycho Rangers!

Me: I remember you guys! You were the most dangerous enemies of the Space Power Rangers!

Andros: (to the Psycho Rangers) You guys again!?

Psycho Red: Call it a temporary truce until Thanos is defeated. We'd rather die being on the same side.

Nicole: Fine. But if you double cross us, there's a few pages in the Book of Vile Darkness with your names on them.

Psycho Red: Fair enough.

Psycho Black: How ironic. We tried to destroy the world. And now, we're gonna save it.

Psycho Yellow: We've got nothing else to do.

Psycho Blue: I'm gonna enjoy killing Thanos' forces!

Psycho Pink: Get in line!

Me: We all will.

?: Let me help you all too.

We turned and we saw the Anti-Hero RED X!

---

Red X is a recurring antagonist and anti-hero in the Teen Titans series. Originally an alias Robin used to get closer to Slade, an unknown person took up the Red X identity after stealing the suit and used it to become a professional thief.

Red X started out as an evil alter-ego of Robin so he could get close to Slade and know about his plans. But in a later season, someone stole the Red X suit and decided to wear it and become a thief.

Red X (Robin)

When the Teen Titans first encountered an army of Slade's robots, Robin want to figure out who he was, and what he was planning. So he created an evil alter-ego to figure out Slade, but in the process, Robin almost crossed the line between good and evil, and almost lost his friends.

2nd Red X

After Robin quit being the Red X, the suit was never seen for some time. Until someone stole the suit and decided to wear the suit and become a thief. He only stole stuff so he could look out for what he considers as Numero Uno. But when Raven, Cyborg, Starfire, and Beast Boy were kidnapped by Professor Chang, Red X decided to help Robin take out Chang. But he only did this to steal the Xenothium to power up his suit. However Robin anticipated this so he managed to take Red X's belt. X manage to steal one tube of the Xenothium and used it to create a distraction and manage to escape from the Titans.

Red X made another appearance, and became a member of Brain's Brotherhood of Evil. When Ding Dong Daddy manage to steal something precious from Robin. Because it was valuable to Robin, all the Teen Titan villains teamed up and tried to steal it from DDD, while preventing the Teen Titans from getting the Briefcase, including Red X. However near the end of the episode, Red X saw in Robin's eyes that it was really valuable to him and decided to take out the other villains that wanted the briefcase. What happened to Red X is unknown. During the fight between the Teen Titans and the Brotherhood of Evil, Red X wasn't spotted, it's likely that he left the Brotherhood after the Ding Dong Daddy race.

Powers and Abilities

Physically, Red X is an accomplished acrobat and martial arts fighter on par with Robin. In fact, their combat techniques are quite similar, giving weight to the common suspicion that both once had the same tutor (which would be Batman).

Red X's powers derive from his suit's belt. The belt relies on power from a (possibly artificial) element called Xenothium. The suit is also fitted with an invisibility or cloaking device, and a teleportation device. The palms of his gloves can also form x-shaped manifestations which can act as shuriken, wrist-mounted blades, restraints (by constriction or adhesion), timed explosives, instant openings, or any other conceivable function. Robin noted that he created Red X's main weapon systems as specific ways to beat each of his fellow Titans.

At the end of the episode "X", Robin reveals that he took his belt. Red X smashes the xenothioum in his hand and jumps into the clouds. In his next appearance, he somehow had stolen it back, as he is shown using his suit's powers again.

Me: Red X!

Robin: (to Red X) Red X? What are you doing here?

Red X: I'm helping you out. If Thanos wins, I probably won't be alive to keep doing what I do best.

Me: Not only that but from what Robin told me, you were stealing Xenothium.

Laney: What is Xenothium?

Me: A very dangerous and extremely unstable radioactive element. It's VERY Dangerous.

Robin: That's right and I used it to power the suit.

Cyborg: (Shocked) Xenothium?! You powered that suit with XENOTHIUM?! Are you crazy, man? That stuff is dangerous! And unstable! Tell me you were not stupid enough to go messing with it!

Robin: I was stupid.

Me: Guys. We have too much to worry about now. Right now our biggest priority is to save the entire universe from ultimate destruction.

Nico: That's right. Thanos is gonna be one of our most dangerous enemies next to Unicron and we can't let him get away with all of his crimes.

Me: That's right.

I had all six Infinity Stones in my hand. In my hands were the very powers that created the entire universe itself.

Me: These stones created the entire universe into what it is today and their immeasurable power is going to be used by Thanos to destroy it. We can't let that happen. You guys have all been very helpful and very loyal and awesome friend to me ever since we became Team Loud Phoenix Storm over a year ago. And I couldn't be more happier to have awesome friends like all of you. Now the Universe needs us more than ever to stop a ruthless powerhungry warlord and his followers from destroying the entire universe. Thanos was going to decimate half of the entire universe to get these stones and kill countless lives. Ours included. But we were one step ahead of him when we killed Ronan the Accuser. We gathered all the Infinity Stones before he could.

Nico: That's right.

Me: Are you all with me!?

Everyone: YEAH!

Stan Lee: I believe in you all!

We saw Stan Lee.

Me: Stan Lee!

Stan Lee: That's right true believers! Go make that mad monster pay!

Me: With pleasure Stan! EXCELSIOR!

Everyone: EXCELSIOR!

Stan Lee: Excelsior!

Superman: Justice League!

Captain America: Avengers!

Me: Team Loud Phoenix Storm…

Me, Superman and Captain America:… Assemble!

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it guys! IT'S MORPHIN' TIME!

The Power Rangers all transformed into their ranger forms and the Megaforce Rangers were in their Basic forms.

Me: And I have called in some special help for the power rangers.

In flashes of light came all of the Japanese Power Rangers from 1975 to 1993.

TV series

The following is a list of the 43 Super Sentai Series and their years of broadcast. Each Super Sentai series has its own unique values and motifs:

The first Super Sentai team, the Gorengers.

Himitsu Sentai Gorenger, aired from 1975-1977, and was the first Sentai Series. Developed by Shotaro Ishinomori, the Gorengers are a super-technology spy team that fight against a secret terrorist monster force: the Black Cross Army. At 84 episodes, Gorenger is the longest-running Super Sentai show in the franchise.

This was also the first Super Sentai entry of the Shōwa period.

JAKQ team

The second Super Sentai team, J.A.K.Q.

J.A.K.Q. Dengekitai aired in 1977. It featured a team of cyborgs based on a playing card motif - Jack, Ace, King and Queen - later joined by another member who takes over the leadership roles. Due to low ratings, the series was canceled after 35 episodes - making it the shortest-running Super Sentai series. J.A.K.Q. also had a feature film that served as a crossover with Gorenger. This use of a crossover would not happen again until 1995, when it began an annual tradition for a V-Cinema release.

Battle Fever J

The third Super Sentai team, Battle Fever J.

Battle Fever J aired in 1979 and featured an international group of characters. This series was the first to be produced by Marvel Comics after Toei and Marvel worked together on Spider-Man and featured characters resembling Captain America and Miss America. The series' motif was unusual, wherein each member represented a certain country and did a specific dance. Battle Fever J also featured the first giant robot, an idea carried over from the Spider-Man production. From then on, the series' official name came to be Super Sentai. In addition, this was the first series to feature a team cannon formed from the members' individual weapons.

Denjimens

The fourth Super Sentai team, the Denzimen.

Denshi Sentai Denziman aired in 1980 punch boxing motif. and was the first series completely produced by Toei. It is the first series to have a transforming giant robot and utilize an actual lens visor in the suits' helmet (unlike previous series where the visor was made of the same fiber of the helmet). The series was also the first to introduce a personal transformation device - in this case, each member wore a special ring.

The fifth Super Sentai team, Sun Vulcan.

Taiyo Sentai Sun Vulcan aired in 1981 animals motif. and served as a direct sequel to Denziman, with Machiko Soga's Queen Hedrian character returning. The series used an air, land, and sea motif and featured the first combining robot to be used, a trend that continues throughout the Super Sentai Series. It was also the first to use a transformation bracelet - a device that would be standard in majority of the Super Sentai franchise. Sun Vulcan was the only official series to have a three-member team throughout the show (with the fourth member being actually a substitute to another team member), and the only one to have an all-male team.

Goggle

The sixth Super Sentai team, Goggle V.

Dai Sentai Goggle V aired in 1982 and featured motifs based on gemstones, ancient civilizations, and athletics, most notably rhythmic gymnastics. It was also the first series to start the tradition of the main cast members shouting the team name on the opening title. While a success, it was overshadowed by Space Sheriff Gavan, created by the main writer of Sun Vulcan and the beginning of the Metal Heroes franchise and generally the two were seen together during the year of airing.

The seventh Super Sentai team, the Dynamen.

Kagaku Sentai Dynaman aired in 1983 and was featured a motif scientist and baseball player. the first series to use "spandex" costumes for the heroes and was the first series to remove the scarves from the costume (a tradition carried over from Ishinomori's Kamen Rider Series). It began developing stronger story elements and was the first to have a truly ambiguous "dark hero" who rode the line between hero and villain. Several episodes of Dynaman were comically dubbed into English and aired during the USA Network's 1987 Night Flight programming block.

Bioman

The eighth Super Sentai team, the Biomen.

Choudenshi Bioman aired in 1984 Bio Particles/technology motif. techand was the first series to feature two heroines on the team and the first to feature a helping robot to aid the heroes. The show was also the last to have a change in team members mid-season.

The ninth Super Sentai team, the Changemen.

Dengeki Sentai Changeman aired in 1985 and featured a motif based on legendary creatures in European traditions and focused on a trained military batallion fighting an alien invasion threat. At 55 episodes, it is the second longest-running of all the Super Sentai titles, after Gorenger.

Flashman

The tenth Super Sentai team, the Flashmen.

Choushinsei Flashman aired in 1986 prism powers involving five humans formerly of Earth returning to face their captors using technology and abilities gained while living on a planetary system, which gave them great powers but with an unexpected, tragic side-effect that emerges towards the end. This was the first series to add a second giant robot for the team to fight with. It was notated as the "10th Super Sentai". (with Gorenger and J.A.K.Q. counted at the time)

Hikari Sentai Maskman

The eleventh Super Sentai team, the Maskmen.

Hikari Sentai Maskman aired in 1987 and featured a motif based on martial arts and Ch'i aura powers. It introduced the first five-piece combining robot, with an individual mecha piloted by each member of the team. The series also featured the first sixth warrior, appearing for only one episode.

Liveman

The twelfth Super Sentai team, the Livemen.

Choujuu Sentai Liveman aired in 1988 and featured an animal-based motif, and was the first Super Sentai series to have a female blue warrior and the first mech completely based on an animal. The series also featured the first addition of two new team members to a three-person team as well as the first combination of two individual robots into a single powerful robot. This was the last series to be broadcasted during the Shōwa period.

The thirteenth Super Sentai team, the Turborangers.

Kousoku Sentai Turboranger aired in 1989 and featured an automobile vehicles motif, as well as the first team made completely of high school teenagers. As the tenth anniversary of the Super Sentai Series (Gorenger and J.A.K.Q. were not included this time), Turboranger featured an anniversary crossover with the previous teams. This was also the first Super Sentai entry of the Heisei period.

The fourteenth Super Sentai team, the Fivemen.

Chikyuu Sentai Fiveman aired in 1990 and featured a school motif. both an antagonistic team of villainous counterpart and a team power upgrade armor. The motif of the series is a mix of martial arts and education, as each member poses as a school teacher. The series is also the first to have the entire team consist of family siblings.

The fifteenth Super Sentai team, the Jetmen.

Choujin Sentai Jetman aired in 1991 and featured a bird motif, an homage to the anime and manga Science Ninja Team Gatchaman. The series was the first to feature a marriage of two members of the team and the last to feature the death of a main team member for over 20 years. Jetman also featured the first tertiary robot that could operate on its own and a manga epilogue that introduced a new member.

The sixteenth Super Sentai team, the Zyurangers.

Kyōryū Sentai Zyuranger aired in 1992 and used prehistoric creatures (dinosaurs and extinct Pleistocene megafauna) as a motif. The series introduced both the first regular sixth team member and the first seven mecha combination. Zyuranger was later adapted into Mighty Morphin Power Rangers for American audiences, beginning the Power Rangers franchise.

Dairanger

The seventeenth Super Sentai team, the Dairangers.

Gosei Sentai Dairanger aired in 1993 using kung fu and traditional Chinese mythological creatures as a motif, as well as a unique storytelling style giving a sub-plot to each of the team members. The mecha action scenes, plus footage of their sixth member, KibaRanger, were adapted into the second season of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers.

Me: (Kung Fu Bow) My pleasure Tsuyoshi and thank you for answering my call.

Tsuyoshi Kaijo: You're welcome J.D.

Peggy Matsuyama: (Japanese Accent) It will be a great honor to fight alongside you all.

?: Let me help too.

We turned and we saw Gamora's sister NEBULA!

---

Nebula is a major character in the Marvel Cinematic Universe. She served as the secondary antagonist of Guardians of the Galaxy, the anti-heroic tritagonist of Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2, and one of the tritagonists of Avengers: Infinity War. She also reappears in Avengers: Endgame as one of the titular protagonists, while her 2014 self serves as the secondary antagonist.

Nebula is the adopted daughter of Thanos, former assassin of the Black Order, adoptive sister of Gamora (a member of the Guardians of the Galaxy), and one of the two loyal enforcers of Ronan the Accuser (the other being Korath the Pursuer).

Early life

Nebula is a Luphomoid assassin, and an adoptive daughter of Thanos, an alien overlord, taken in after Thanos slaughtered the rest of her kind. She was put under the tutelage of Thanos' henchman Ronan the Accuser to become a "Galaxy-Class Killer", and would connect with other Thanos minions like Gamora, a Zephoberei whose race was slaughtered by Thanos too, and Korath.

Despite her loyalty to Thanos, Gamora was considered his "favorite daughter" however, even though Nebula was jealous of her, she apparently liked her to an extent, saying "Of all our siblings, I hated you the least". Thanos was obsessed with acquiring the Infinity Stones, objects of great power that he could use for his own purposes, later coming into possession of the Mind Stone and placing it in a spear that channelled its power.

Gamora and Nebula were told that they were important to their father, but he was vague about what they could really do so as to avoid them using the stones to betray him. In the prequel comic Guardians of the Galaxy Prelude, Nebula and Gamora sparred, with Nebula ending up falling down a cliff, forcing her to have most of her body fitted with cybernetic parts, making her a cyborg in Guardians of the Galaxy.

However, Nebula claims that Thanos regularly forced Gamora and Nebula to fight each other and every time Nebula lost, Thanos replaced a piece of her body with machinery in order to make the battle more equal. Later in the same comic, Thanos sent Gamora and Nebula to Praxius IX to get the Orb, which contained the Power Stone, but Nebula became trapped in a net. Thanos refused to let Gamora save her, and so Nebula was left with a sharp blade to free herself; she amputated her arm to do so.

Guardians of the Galaxy

Nebula first appears alongside Ronan, her former master. She witnessed the death of The Other, before her meeting with Thanos, her father. When Thanos wanted to obtain the Orb for unrevealed reasons, Ronan sent Gamora to retrieve the orb, but Peter Quill (a.k.a. Star-Lord) interferes with Gamora, both ending up in prison. Eventually, Gamora joined the Guardians, which left Nebula as Ronan's only enforcer (with the exception of Korath).

Sometime later, Drax, one of the Guardians, contacted Ronan while insane, in which Ronan quickly came to Knowhere to search the one who made the call. When Ronan found out it was Drax, he dealt with him while Nebula was in search of the Orb. She made an attempt to kill Gamora, but Star-Lord saved her in time. Nebula was able to retrieve the Orb. They eventually learned that the Orb held an Infinity Stone, Ronan was going to give it to Thanos, but instead, he betrays Thanos by keeping it to himself, intending to use it to destroy Xandar himself before destroying Thanos himself. Out of spite against Thanos for favouring Gamora, Nebula offers to help Ronan destroy a thousand planets in exchange for killing Thanos.

Nebula was still following orders from Ronan to destroy Xandar, which they were planning to destroy with Ronan's behemoth ship. The Guardians, with the help of the Nova Corps, eventually stormed through Ronan's ship and dealt with Korath, who was killed by Drax. Gamora was sent to open a door, but Nebula was sent to defend. Gamora and Nebula had a swordfight during when Ronan was trying to annihilate Xandar. Gamora got the winning hand and cornered Nebula to a cliff on Ronan's ship. Nebula let go and fell to her presumed death. Nebula, however, landed on one of the Ravager attack quads and tried to attack. She then escaped the war and left Ronan's side. She was never seen again in the film.

Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2

Before the event of the film, Nebula infiltrated the planet of the Sovereign and attempted to steal some of the Sovereign's energy batteries. However, she was captured and imprisoned by the Sovereign high priestess Ayesha until the Guardians of the Galaxy arrived at the Sovereign planet and offered to battle the Abilisk in exchange for Nebula. After the beast is killed, Ayesha keeps her word and delivers Nebula into Gamora's custody. On their way back to Xandar, where Nebula is to be imprisoned, their spaceship crashes. While most of the team travel on with their newfound ally, Ego, Rocket and Groot remain in the wreck to guard Nebula.

However, when the Yondu Ravager Clan turn up to capture the Guardians, Rocket runs off to meet them in battle. While he is gone, Nebula manages to convince Groot to free her so that she can help Rocket. However, this is a lie, and once she had been freed, she is revealed to have tricked him. After Rocket has been captured by the Ravagers and Yondu refuses to assist in murdering the Guardians, a mutiny (led by Taserface) ensues. Nebula turns up just in time to witness the beginning of the mutiny and assists the mutineers by shooting the fin from Yondu's head with which he controls his telepathic arrow. She also blasts her gun at Rocket, electrocuting him.

With Taserface now leading the Ravagers, Nebula sets off with them in their spaceship. However, after advising Taserface and his men to deliver the Guardians and Yondu to the Kree for maximal payment, she decides to set off on her own in order to kill Gamora and to track down and murder Thanos afterwards. Kraglin Obfonteri presents her with a spaceship and Nebula leaves the Ravager-base. In her spaceship, Nebula returns to Ego's planet. There, she spots Gamora sitting alone in a field.

She immediately heads her spaceship towards Gamora and starts firing. Gamora avoids being hit by jumping over a cliff but Nebula turns her ship around, again and again, continuously shooting lasers at Gamora. Nebula even continues following Gamora when Gamora flees into a cave, causing the ship to crash as the cave is to narrow for its wings. This gives Gamora the opportunity to fire back, destroying the ship and trapping Nebula in the burning wreckage. Gamora pulls her sister out of the wreck seconds before it explodes.

Although both women are weakened, Nebula continues attacking Gamora until she eventually overpowers her and is able to draw a knife. However, she is unable to go through with murdering her sister and drops her. Nonetheless, she claims that she won and finally bested Gamora in combat, referring to the fights Thanos had them both fight when they were young. She spitefully confronts Gamora with the fact that Thanos forcefully turned her into a cyborg, ripping out her body-parts piece by piece only because Gamora was unwilling to let herself get defeated in their battles. She then claims that all she was wanted back then was a sister and that Gamora was all she had.

The two then try to get back to the surface, but while they walk, they suddenly find a chamber deep inside the planet, filled, to their combined horror, with corpses and skeletons. They both realize that Ego is up to no good, and Nebula unnecessarily declares, "We have to get off this planet!" She then joins the team in attempting to defeat him. While doing so, Nebula and Yondu manage to destroy the Sovereign fleet hunting the Guardians. During the final battle against the living planet, Nebula even saves Gamora's life.

Avengers: Infinity War

Nebula returns in Infinity War, where she is kidnapped and tortured by Thanos, who is furious for her betrayal against him, even thought this wasn't remotely "betrayal", as she already hated him. After collecting three of the Infinity Stones, Thanos kidnaps Gamora and forces her to reveal the location of the Soul Stone (the planet Vormir) by threatening to torture Nebula more. After Gamora gives out the location, Thanos leaves Nebula behind while taking Gamora to Vormir, where he reluctantly kills Gamora to get hold of the Soul Stone.

Nebula eventually escaped from her confinement and contacted the other Guardians to meet her at the planet Titan, where they meet up with Tony Stark, Peter Parker and Stephen Strange. However, Thanos arrived at the scene as he plans to collect the Time Stone from Strange. Nebula arrived later on and managed to distract him long enough for the heroes to barely subdue Thanos. However, Nebula soon learned in horror that he killed Gamora to take hold of the Soul Stone and implied this to Quill but never actually said it, apparently knowing of his relationship with Gamora and sympathizing for his loss, which caused Quill to get furious and attack Thanos, but the latter managed to beat them all before forcing Strange to surrender the Time Stone.

After collecting the Mind Stone from Earth, Thanos used the power of all six Infinity Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace.

Though Nebula has survived Thanos' slaughter, she is horrified to see Quill, Drax, Mantis, Parker and Strange perish away to their deaths, leaving her and Stark as the only survivors left in Titan. This made both a distraught Nebula and Stark realize that Thanos has finally accomplished his goal as the latter is last seen watching a sunrise from another planet.

Avengers: Endgame

Following the events of Infinity War, Nebula and Tony Stark piloted the Benatar to leave Titan and set a course to Earth. However, they are stranded in deep space with the ship suddenly halted due to its power distribution cells being severely damaged during the battle on Titan. Fortunately, they were rescued by Captain Marvel, who brought their ship back to Earth.

Upon hearing of Thanos' current location in an uninhabited planet and sensing that he used the Stones again, Nebula tagged along with the Avengers to confront Thanos in hope of retrieving the Stones and reverse the death wave. However, Thanos taunted them by confessing that he actually destroyed the Stones prior to their arrival so that no one can reverse the death wave. At first, the other Avengers refused to believe this, but Nebula points out that Thanos isn't a liar in spite of his notorious crimes. Thanos thanks Nebula for pointing that out and admits that he was wrong to be too harsh on her, but this provoked an angry Thor to decapitate him. In spite of her hatred towards Thanos, Nebula was touched by Thanos' last words and mourns for him by closing his eyelids out of respect.

For the next five years, Nebula helped the Avengers in maintaining control throughout the universe, despite the surviving half of the populace being unable to move on due to their losses caused by Thanos. However, Ant-Man returns from the Quantum Realm and revealed that it took him five hours to get out after he entered the Quantum Realm prior to the death wave. Upon learning this, the Avengers realized that they could use the Quantum Realm to create a time machine to travel back in time to retrieve the Infinity Stones and use them to reverse the death wave for good.

Nebula was tasked alongside War Machine to go back in 2014 Morag, where they would have to steal the Power Stone. Though they were successful in gaining the Power Stone, Nebula soon learned that her her cybernetic implants are interfacing with those of her past self, prevent herself from returning to the present. Through the interfaces, the 2014 Thanos soon learned about the Avengers' current plot to reverse the death wave and captured the present Nebula before sending the past Nebula in her place.

With that in mind, the past Nebula travels to the present, where she witnessed the Avengers creating a new Infinity Gauntlet to hold all the Stones before using them to reverse the death wave, reviving those who have perished. While they do so, the past Nebula takes control of the time machine, allowing herself to transport the 2014 Thanos and the Black Order, and their vast armies of Chitauri soldiers, Leviathans, and Sakaaran Mercenaries. Thanos then laid down an attack at the Avengers HQ, and the past Nebula spots Hawkeye retrieving the Gauntlet. The past Nebula takes the Gauntlet from Hawkeye and intends to deliver it to Thanos, only to be confronted by the present Nebula, who has been freed by the 2014 Gamora. Both Nebula and the 2014 Gamora then tried to convince the 2014 Nebula to sever her ties with Thanos and do the right thing, but the 2014 Nebula refuses and tries to shoot the 2014 Gamora. This forces Nebula to take action by shooting down her 2014 self, saving the 2014 Gamora. Nebula and Gamora would later help the other revived heroes in warding off Thanos and his forces.

Following the deaths of the 2014 Thanos and his remaining forces, Nebula (along with the other revived Guardians of the Galaxy) attended Stark's funeral (as Stark sacrificed himself to use the Stones to defeat Thanos and his forces). She would later join up with the Guardians (and Thor) in hopes of finding the 2014 Gamora.

We sounded the war cry and we were off to Thanos's ship, the Sanctuary II.

We were flying into the skies and everyone on Earth was cheering wildly for us as we set out to destroy Thanos for good!

We entered the endless vacuum of space and everyone can now breathe in space.

Marinette: (echoing) WOW!

Fu: (Echoing) Space! It's so amazing!

Me: (Echoing) It's the Final Frontier.

Lana: (Echoing) Amazing!

Lisa: (Echoing) An infinite void filled with planets and all kinds of astrological beauty.

Adrien: (Echoing) Wow! It's amazing!

Alya: (Echoing) This is so cool being in the endless void of space. I can't believe it goes on forever like this.

Aurore: (Echoing) Incredible!.

Me: Space is infinite and it goes on forever.

Starfire: It's amazing.

Kira Ford: I can't believe that it goes on forever. There's no end to it.

Laney: No kidding. I can't even see the nearest galaxies.

Lola: They're millions of light-years away from us Laney.

Nico: Yeah.

Lori: So where is the Sanctuary II?

Me: It said it's right in between the orbits of Mars and Jupiter. Somewhere in the Asteroid Belt.

Lucy Loud: The Asteroid Belt is a very gloomy place.

Me: It's millions of asteroids and rocks that failed to form a planet.

Lincoln: Ra's would love seeing all this.

Me: He would.

Batman: We can't bring Ra's back, but we can protect the planet he loved, and the legacy he left behind.

Me: Batman is right! (Echoing) FOR RA'S AL GHUL!

All of us: (Echoing) FOR RA'S AL GHUL!

Lincoln: By the way J.D. what is Thano's species?

Me: Thanos comes from a race called the Titanian Eternals.

Shanan: That's right dad.

Shanan went over their history.

---

When the Celestials visited Earth one million years ago and performed genetic experiments on early proto-humanity, they created two divergent races: the long-lived Eternals, and the genetically unstable and monstrously grotesque Deviants. These experiments also led to the capacity for super-powered mutations in humans. They also performed this experiment on other planets (such as the Kree and Skrull homeworlds) with similar results.

Despite looking human, Eternals are much longer-lived (but were not originally fully immortal) and that kept them from having much contact with their human cousins. Eternals have a low birth rate; they can interbreed with humans but the result is always a normal human (although Joey Athena, son of Thena and a normal human seems to have become an Eternal with long lived properties and powers). Despite this, the Eternals have in general protected the human race, especially from the Deviants, with whom they've always had an enmity. The Eternals also developed advanced technology.

Long ago, a civil war broke out amongst the Eternals over whether to conquer the other races, with one faction led by Kronos and the other by his warlike brother, Uranos. Kronos's side prevailed, and Uranos and his defeated faction left Earth and journeyed to Uranus where they built a colony. Some of Uranos's group soon tried to return to Earth to re-kindle the war, but they were attacked by a passing Kree ship and forced to land on Saturn's moon Titan. There they built another colony. (Experiments performed by Kree scientists on a captured Eternal led them to go to Earth and perform their own genetic experiments on a group of humans, thus creating the Inhumans.)

One day, Kronos's experiments in cosmic energy caused a catastrophic release of energy throughout the Eternals' city, Titanos, destroying it, activating latent genes in the Eternals, and disintegrating the scientist's body. The Eternals now found they could channel large quantities of cosmic energy themselves, granting them near-godlike power. The accident left Kronos in an immaterial state, so a new leader had to be chosen. For the first time, the Eternals merged into a single being, the Uni-Mind, to decide which of Kronos's sons, Zuras or A'lars should be the new leader. Zuras was chosen to be the Prime Eternal, and A'lars chose to leave Earth to avoid causing another civil war, and journeyed to Titan.

There he found that a war (allegedly caused by the Dragon of the Moon) had erupted on Titan and wiped out all but one member, a woman named Sui-San. A'lars fell in love with her, and in time they repopulated Titan. Due to the mix of activated genes from A'lars and unactivated ones from Sui-San, these new Titanian Eternals are not as powerful or immortal as Terran Eternals, but are more powerful and longer-lived than the earlier pre-civil war Titanian Eternals.

While Zuras ruled, three new Eternal cities were built. The first was Olympia, located in the mountains of Greece, near the main portal between the Earth dimension and the Olympians' home dimension, which led many ancient Greeks to confuse some of the godlike Eternals with members of the Olympian pantheon. Eventually, an agreement was reached with the gods where some Eternals, such as Thena, would impersonate the Olympians before their worshipers. The other two Eternal cities were Polaria (located in Siberia) and Oceana (in the Pacific).

18,000 years ago, the Celestials returned to Earth. The Deviants attacked them, but the Celestials counterattacked, resulting in the sinking of Mu and Atlantis, and much worldwide havoc. The Eternals helped rescue many humans. An Eternal named Valkin was entrusted by the Celestials with an artifact of great power for safekeeping.

At some point during the early centuries, Ikaris and the Eternals came into conflict with the immortal mutant, Apocalypse. This conflict ended when Ikaris and the Eternals defeated him. Ikaris believed Apocalypse was dead.

1,000 years ago, the Asgardian god Thor encountered some Eternals, but the encounter was erased from his mind, to prevent him from learning about the Celestials, who were about to return to Earth. An Eternal named Ajak became the Celestials' spokesperson, and put himself to sleep when the Celestials left, to wait for their return 1,000 years later to judge humanity.

During the early 20th century, a human scientist made contact with the Uranian Eternals and was taken to live with them along with his young son, who would later become Marvel Boy. The Uranians were eventually killed by Deathurge. After World War II, some Eternals allied with humans and Deviants to form the Damocles Foundation, which tried to create a new breed of superhuman to rule Earth.

Some Eternals, such as Makkari, were also active as superheroes, or living amongst humans, keeping their true nature hidden. The Eternals also helped to move the Inhumans' city to the Himalayas to keep it hidden.

At some point, Thanos of the Eternals of Titan nearly destroyed their colony, but they rebuilt it, and would help Earth's heroes to oppose him on several occasions.

When the Celestials returned to judge the worthiness of their creations a few years ago, the Eternals found themselves clashing with the Deviants again, and decided to publicly reveal their existence to humanity. Zuras feared what would happen if the Celestials judged unfavorably. They encountered Thor again, and were attacked by Thor's father Odin and the Olympian gods, who tried to prevent their interfering with the gods' plans to attack the Celestials. Eventually, the Eternals decided to help the gods and formed a Uni-Mind to assist the Destroyer's assault on the Celestials.

They were forced to dissolve back into Eternals by the Celestials, and the shock of the attack killed Zuras. Before his spirit fully left the material plane, he instructed his daughter Thena to take his people to explore space. Most of the Eternals did so in the form of a Uni-Mind, but a handful - those most heavily involved in Earthly affairs - remained behind on Earth. Since then, the Eternals have helped Earth's heroes, particularly the Avengers, against several menaces. They also discovered the existence of the Titanian Eternals.

Eternals volume 3

The Eternals began reappearing on Earth in Neil Gaiman's new take on the immortal beings. Most seem to have no memory of their own history and abilities, except Ikaris, and no records of their previous appearances remain. Apparently the Eternal known as Sprite, angered at having to remain an eleven-year-old and unable to grow any further, managed to induce collective amnesia in the Eternals as well as distort their perceptions of history. This can possibly be seen as Gaiman's attempt to retcon the characters; early stories as well as officially published statistics portrayed most of the current generation of Eternals - such as Ikaris and Thena - as being "only" several tens of thousands of years old but Gaiman's run describes them as being closer to a million years old.

A group of Deviants manage to kidnap Makkari, using him to awaken the Dreaming Celestial. Upon awakening, he decides to judge humanity. The Eternals, realizing that they cannot stop him, leave him be. The Eternals then embark on a quest to go and recruit the other members who have similarly forgotten their true selves due to Sprite's trickery.

The Final Host

When Celestials literally began "raining" down on Earth, the Avengers are forced to reunite again and just in time to see the arrival of the Final Host which is composed of Dark Celestials that are each physically unique and were the ones who easily took down their brethren. In an attempt to learn more about these new breed of Celestials, Iron Man and Doctor Strange travelled to the Mountains of Greece in order to try to get some answers from The Eternals. When Stark and Strange arrived, there were no signs of life to be found as almost all of the Eternals were dead, with Strange deducing that the wounds were self-inflicted. Only Ikaris was left barely alive and reveals that the Eternals were never meant to protect Humanity as they thought. Instead, they were actually created to "cultivate" them, as the Celestials saw the human population as a useful pathogen to act as antibodies against the Horde. This discovery drove all Eternals mad which either made them turn against each other or commit suicide. Ikaris is also able to reveal that the only way to prevent the Final Host from unleashing the Horde is the Uni-mind and sends a message into Stark's mind before the last Eternal died.

Powers and abilities

Due to the cosmic energy that suffuses an Eternal's body and the unbreakable mental hold they have over their physiological processes, the Eternals of Earth are effectively immortal. They live for millennia, do not fatigue from physical exertion, are immune to disease and poison, and are unaffected by environmental extremes of cold and heat. Most cannot be injured by conventional weaponry, and even if they somehow are, an Eternal can rapidly regenerate any damage as long as they are able to retain their mental hold over their bodies; this mental bond can be broken however. In the 2006 series it was also stated that Eternals are able to absorb oxygen directly from water, and therefore cannot drown. In the same series, Ikaris was plunged into molten metal and experienced great pain, but no physical injury, which the Deviants attributed to a forcefield which protects Ikaris even when unconscious. It is unclear if all Eternals share this degree of protection.

At one time, the official limit to the Eternals' durability was such that they could only be permanently destroyed by dispersing their bodies' molecules over a wide area. However, this degree of extreme durability was revealed to have increased to a much greater degree; as demonstrated in the 2006 Eternals limited series, it is shown that even total molecular dispersal is insufficient to destroy an Eternal. As long as "The Machine" (a restoration device of Celestial origin; possibly the Earth itself) keeps running, any destroyed Eternal will eventually return, as was the case with Ikaris after he was completely vaporized by a particle accelerator as part of a series of "experiments" performed upon him by the Deviants.

This same cosmic energy can be channeled for a number of superhuman abilities. All Eternals are potentially capable of:

Superhuman strength. The limits of their strength can be increased as a result of years of focusing some of their energy towards that purpose.

Projecting concussive blasts, heat, and/or blinding flashes of energy from their eyes and hands

Flight (and levitating others)

Reading/controlling minds

Generating illusions

Teleporting vast distances, though most Eternals prefer not to use this ability as many find it uncomfortable (and according to the 2006 series, it also greatly depletes their store of cosmic energy)

Transmuting objects, altering both their shape and composition. (The extent of this ability can vary from one Eternal to another.)

Forcefield generation providing invulnerability to harm.

In addition, groups of Eternals, as few as three at a time, can initiate a transformation into a gestalt being called the Uni-Mind, a vastly powerful psionic entity that contains the totality of the powers and abilities of all the beings that comprise it.

Some Eternals choose to focus on a particular power in order to increase their effectiveness with it. Sersi, for example, has developed the power of transmutation further than any other Eternal. Additionally, some Eternals choose to focus their cosmic energies into other, non-standard abilities. Ikaris, for example, channels cosmic energy to greatly enhance his senses, while the Interloper uses his to generate fear in others, and Makkari uses his cosmic energies for superspeed.

Limitations

The recent retcon of the Eternals' origins and abilities introduces a significant limitation to their powers, and possibly to their free will, with numerous references to Eternals being "programmed" or "hardwired." They cannot attack their Celestial "masters" for any reason, whether they make a conscious decision to do so, or are tricked into accidentally striking the beings. Any such attempt shuts down the body of the attacking Eternal, and is implied to be an automatic defense mechanism of the Celestials' armor. On one occasion, when the Eternals attempted to form a Uni-Mind with the intent of keeping the Dreaming Celestial asleep, they were immediately shut down and discorporated back into their original, individual forms before they could even form a non-aggressive plan of action. Eternals can seemingly also not leave the solar system.

Furthermore, Eternals are compelled to attack and neutralize any being that attempts to engage any Celestial with hostile intent - this compulsion extends even to the Dreaming Celestial, whom the Eternals were forced to defend even as they feared that the newly awakened Celestial would destroy all life on the planet.

At least as presented in Gaiman's Volume 3, the Eternals are aware of their role on Earth, and the duties and constraints placed on them by the Celestials. Ikaris rather sardonically describes himself as "a humanoid-based repair and maintenance unit left behind by unknowable alien gods to make sure that the earth is still here and in good shape when they get back." Zuras phrased the same concept more philosophically: "We are the Eternals. We are the court of last resort for humanity and for all living things on Earth. We do not choose sides. Countries are lines in the sand, empires rise and fall. We are timeless. We will still be here tomorrow, and a hundred centuries from now."

Me: Wow! That's incredible.

Laney: Amazing.

Bella: Boy that would be so awesome to have Eternals powers as heroes for our Omnitrixes.

Me: That would be so cool!

Ben: I think so too.

Grodd: I see his ship up ahead.

We saw the Sanctuary II.

Me: Sanctuary II dead ahead. This is it guys. We're going in!

We flew at the ship while we were invisible and we smashed in through the Control Room ceiling and in a massive fiery explosion we came in and a phoenix cry was heard. We saw THANOS! We also saw his followers and minions: Cull Obsidian, Ebony Maw, Proxima Midnight and Crovus Glaive! Along with millions of soldiers.

THANOS

Thanos is the main antagonist of the Infinity Saga of the Marvel

Cinematic Universe, appearing as the overarching antagonist of The Avengers, Guardians of the Galaxy, Avengers: Age of Ultron; and as the unseen overarching antagonist of Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2, Ant-Man and the Wasp, and the fifth season of Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D.. He later served as the main antagonist of both Avengers: Infinity War and Avengers: Endgame, and as a posthumous antagonist in Spider-Man: Far From Home.

Thanos was born to A'Lars, a member of the Titans, a race of powerful, tall, god-like beings that evolved on the planet Titan. He was considered a freak by his fellow Titans due to a genetic mutation he bore. Despite this treatment, Thanos unconditionally loved his people and desperately sought to save Titan when the planet became threatened by the imminent catastrophic event of overpopulation. When society was facing collapse, Thanos suggested killing half the population of the planet to solve the problem, not in a prejudiced, but random, dispassionate, and fair to rich and poor alike. However, his idea was considered too drastic and was immediately dismissed by his people, resulting in Thanos being cast out as a madman by his people, which eventually earned him his reputation as "The Mad Titan". However, as Thanos predicted, Titan subsequently became devastated as well as nearly uninhabitable. Another result of this devastation was that the Titan species was on the verge of extinction. Thus, proving Thanos was right to an extent.

After the fall of Titan, Thanos, devastated by his inability to prevent the destruction of his people and possible resentment towards him for not listening to him, came to believe that the universe's vast population was consuming its finite resources, and if left unchecked, it eventually cause the destruction of the universe itself. Thus, to save other planets from Titan's fate, Thanos willingly became a world-conqueror, moving throughout the universe and destroying half of all life within the planets he conquered due to his ideology of balancing the universe. Thanos always made sure that the half of the population that was slaughtered was picked entirely at random so everyone would have a 50% chance of survival as even he felt that again certain groups was going too far. He earned a fearful reputation as a galactic warlord, due to his immense power and even ruling over a distinct region of space, and gaining control over the deadly armies of the Chitauri, the Outriders, and the Sakaaran Mercenaries, that he was widely considered among the most powerful, if not the most powerful, being in the universe, so greatly superior to others that even the thought of anyone defeating him in a fight was considered laughable. His cunning, ruthless nature stroked people's fear of him.

To build his strength, Thanos collected children from several races that he conquered. His oldest children were Ebony Maw, Corvus Glaive, Cull Obsidian, and Proxima Midnight after slaughtering half of their respective races. The four warriors, completely faithful and devoted to Thanos' command, comprised the Black Order, although he felt no love for them but did appreciate their loyalty.

Among the species he culled was the Zehoberei, a species of green humanoids. During the slaughter, Thanos' attention was caught by a young Zehoberei named Gamora, who was fighting against one of his Chitauri soldiers. Thanos admired her fighting spirit and took her aside just before Chitauri army began the massacre. There, Thanos explained his beliefs using a switchblade knife by balancing it on his finger. He then gave it to Gamora and told her to do the same just as Ebony Maw ordered the Chitauri soldiers to open fire on a group of Zehobereis. Afterward, Thanos adopted Gamora as his daughter afterwards, training her to become the deadliest woman in the galaxy, and over the years he had grew to genuinely care about her as a result. With her being the only one who he truly cared for her among his children, even as she changed from being devoted to him to hating him, Thanos still believed she could become loyal to him again and inherit his throne, continuing to favor her above all others.

Also taken in was Nebula, a Luphomoid from another world he visited and had her and Gamora given cybernetic implants. Both Nebula and Gamora had a sibling rivalry but became somewhat attached, with Nebula saying "of all our siblings, I hated you the least", which could imply none of Thanos' other children showed Nebula any compassion. Despite how close they were, they were constantly driven apart by Thanos forcing them to compete against each other. Thanos once called Gamora "my favorite daughter" without considering Nebula being present at the moment. In their childhood, Thanos would force the two to battle each other, and Thanos would force a cybernetic enhancement on the loser. Each and every time, Nebula would lose and her body became less and less organic. At some point, he took command of the Chitauri species and used their leader The Other as an emissary.

During one particularly dangerous training session, Nebula and Gamora engaged each other in fierce combat in a competition to retrieve a data ingot for Ronan. The two female warriors were evenly matched and their bout leads them to a cliff side from which Gamora tossed Nebula over. Nebula was severely injured after the fall, and subsequently was forced to undergo cybernetic augmentations. As she was being repaired, Thanos approached her and openly expressed his disappointment over Nebula's actions, lecturing her on the limits of weakness, even going as far as to say "flesh itself is a weakness" and even mentions he should kill her for her failure.

Even with his best efforts, Thanos eventually realized that they are far too many lifeforms in the universe for him to balance. Deducing that the Infinity Stones, objects of immense power that held considerable dominance over the various forces that occupied the universe, could perhaps solve this issue permanently, Thanos made it his life's goal to gather them and use their combined power to erase half of all life in the universe immediately, and forged several alliances in order to locate them. He successfully located at least one of the stones; the Mind Stone, which he then hid inside a Scepter that was capable of manipulating minds.

Through many years of searching, Thanos discovered a lead on the Orb's (which contained the Power Stone) location, and sent his daughter Nebula and Gamora to the Cloud Tombs of Praxius under Korath's command. Nebula fell victim to a trap during the mission, and Thanos, not being one who tolerates failure, forbade Gamora from rescuing her. Nebula was eventually forced to amputate her own arm in order to escape. The Orb was never recovered, but Thanos decided to let the failure pass and carried on his search. Thanos also sent Gamora to find the Soul Stone, but reported back to him that her search had been unsuccessful, while in actuality Gamora had lied and she had found a map to the location of the Soul Stone and burned it to ashes. However, Thanos, being as perceptive as he is, easily saw through her lies. However, he allowed her to believe she had fooled him for the time being and decided to use this information in the future when it became useful to him. Thus, his conquest to perseve all life continued.

In the film, Thanos appears in a post-credits scene, where the Other tells Thanos that the Tesseract, the Space Stone, is on a small world, a human world. It also informs him that Loki is ready to lead the Chitauri, and so he was given the scepter with the Mind Stone to get the Tesseract. In a post-credits scene, Thanos is revealed to have been Loki's benefactor, having provided the Chitauri Army and the Mind Stone inside Loki's scepter used by Loki in his attempted invasion of Earth. When advised by the Other that opposing the Avengers would be "to court death", as the human race was not as weak as Loki claimed, Thanos glances at the camera and flashes an evil grin.

Thanos plays a more active role in the film, where he has enlisted the help of Ronan, Korath, and his daughters, Gamora and Nebula, to retrieve the Orb (Power Stone) for him. As it turns out, Gamora is not actually Thanos's daughter, since Thanos killed Gamora's family and snatched her as an infant to train her into the perfect assassin, having abused and tormented her in the process of doing so. This causes Gamora to betray Thanos, which leads to a chain of events that leads to Gamora finding her true calling as a protector of the universe and a member of the Guardians of the Galaxy. It also results in other races hating her because of the actions she committed while under Thanos's rule.

When Ronan and Nebula are called to discuss Gamora's betrayal, Ronan kills The Other, who was speaking for Thanos, much to Nebula's surprise and concern. Thanos does not care about the death of the Other but is furious at Ronan for not only failing to obtain the Orb but also having alienated and cost him Gamora.

After berating Ronan and calling him "Boy", Thanos says he will destroy Xandar for Ronan if he brings him the Orb but promises to "bathe the star-ways with [his] blood" should he fail him. Nebula then easily persuaded the frightened Ronan to leave, as they knew too well he is no match for Thanos even without the Stones.

As stated before, Thanos promised Ronan that he will help Ronan destroy Xandar in exchange for Ronan's services. However, once Ronan gets a hold of the Orb, he feels he no longer needs Thanos help and also decides to betray him. Nebula also decides to betray Thanos out of jealousy over Thanos showing a preference for Gamora over her. Ronan and Nebula take Korath with them, while Thanos, unfazed by their threats of killing him, cut off contact with them in anger of their betrayal. Their actions would later finally convince him to stop relying solely on others to get the Stones.

In the end, Ronan and Korath are killed by the Guardians of the Galaxy (including Gamora), Nebula escapes and becomes a renegade villain independent of Thanos, and the Guardians give the Orb to the Nova Corps for safekeeping. Drax the Destroyer, who got revenge on Ronan for killing his family, decides to turn his attention to Thanos, as the latter was the one who sent Ronan to kill Drax's family to Gamora's dismay.

However, Thanos was still determined to find the six Infinity Stones and the Infinity Gauntlet so he can use them to conquer and rebalance the universe and this event would finally make him decide to come out to the open. He would eventfully encounter the Guardians for the first time several years later.

Thanos doesn't appear in the film, but is mentioned twice, once by Nebula (who angrily blames Gamora for the lifetime of pain and misery that she suffered at the hands of Thanos), and another by one of the Ravagers (led by Taserface) as he is aware that Nebula is Thanos' adoptive daughter. Eventually, after having a change of heart and helping the Guardians defeat Ego and the Sovereign, Nebula reconciles with Gamora but leaves her despite Gamora's pleas to become a Guardian and help them protect people from Thanos, intending to instead kill Thanos and prevent anyone else from falling under his control and experience the same suffering she had.

Thanos is indirectly mentioned numerous times in this film; the first time was when Tony said of a possibility that a powerful villain would destroy the Avengers. This was foreshadowed when Tony and Banner found Loki's sceptre and used it to bring life to a peacekeeping A.I. program, which later became known as the homicidal cyborg Ultron, much to both Tony and Banner's distraught.

Gaining sentience from the power of the Mind Stone after breaking the scepter and killing HYDRA leader Wolfgang von Strucker, Ultron decides to utilize the Mind Stone in his plot to destroy the Avengers and all of humanity with his own army of Ultron Sentinels. Tony also suffered a nightmare (thanks to the powers of Scarlet Witch) where he sees all the Avengers being murdered (presumably by Thanos) while more Leviathans are heading towards Earth, foreshadowing Thanos' plot to take over the universe with the Infinity Stones

Eventually, as Ultron and his Sentinels end up being destroyed by the Avengers at Sokovia while the Mind Stone ends up in the possession of Vision, Thor, from his vision in the River of Sights, finally realizes that someone (Thanos) is the one who has been manipulating the events throughout the years for the Infinity Stones, referring to Thanos's part in Loki's invasion and Ronan's quest to acquire the Orb, although what part Thanos played in the Dark Elves's attempt to use the Aether remains unknown but he either somehow woke them up or had no actual part in their awakening.

Thanos finally appeared in a mid-credits scene, where he is fed up with losing his resources and his henchmen failing him and betraying him in his failed attempts to acquire the Stones. Deciding to take matters into his own hand, Thanos arrived to Nidavellir and forced the Dwarf King Eitri to forge the Infinity Gauntlet in order to control the power of all the six Infinity Stones at once. After they had completed the Gauntlet, Thanos massacred them all, leaving only Eitri due to his help but he still cut off the Dwarf King's hands to prevent further weapon forging. Thanos then began to hunt for the Stones himself, believing himself to be capable of completing the task while smiling confidently to himself at the prospect of victory. He then took the Infinity Gauntlet from its hiding place, swearing to collect all of the six Infinity Stones (including the Mind Stone) by himself.

At some point off-screen, Thanos learned that the Power Stone was on Xandar and traveled to the planet promptly, effortlessly destroying and decimating the Nova Empire in process. Afterwards, Thanos retrieved the Power Stone after breaking the Orb and then inserted it into his Gauntlet before massacring half of the Xandarians as part of his quest to balance the universe.

Thanos doesn't appear nor is mentioned in the film. However, his giant ship (the Sanctuary II) is seen during a mid-credits scene as it was intercepting one of the Grandmaster's giant ships containing the Asgardians survivors following the deaths of Hela and the Berserker Army, as well as the destruction of Asgard, by the hands of Surtur. It can be implied that Thanos and his forces are going after the Space Stone (the Tesseract) that Loki saved from Ragnarok following Surtur's death.

In the film, Thanos is first seen when the Black Order massacred half of the Asgardians aboard Thor's ship. Thanos personally confronted and easily defeated and beat Thor half-to death, dragging him as he claimed to know what it was like to fail, but also stating one cannot stop destiny from arriving. Thanos then threatened to kill Thor in front of Loki if he did not hand him the Tesseract. Despite Thanos' threat, Loki seemed to be fine with Thor's death, which didn't faze Thanos, knowing fully well Loki was simply pretending to not care and quickly went through with his threat and began slowly killing Thor with the Power Stone, at which point Loki gave in and told Thanos to stop. Thor then informed Thanos that they did not have the Tesseract, claiming it was destroyed during the destruction of Asgard. However, this was disproven when Loki spawned the Tesseract in his hand, much to Thor's dismay and Thanos's glee.

After manifesting the Tesseract, Loki assured Thor that the sun would shine on them again. Thanos mocked this claim and told Loki his optimism was misplaced. Loki then distracted Thanos by saying he was not an Asgardian, which shocked Thanos due to Loki always claiming to be one in all their interactions, allowing Hulk to attack. Despite the Hulk's raw power, Thanos proved to be a much more skilled and stronger opponent and, after quickly composing himself, beated up the Hulk and then once again easily overpowered Thor after he futility attacked him with a piece of metal which was broken off from his head, allowing Maw to bind Thor. After Heimdall gave the Hulk a chance to escape by teleporting him to Earth, Thanos calmly told him he should not have done it and then executed him with Corvus Glaive's glaive, much to Thor's dismay.

As Thanos took off his armor, Ebony Maw then handed Thanos the Tesseract, which Thanos easily crushed in his hand, revealing the Space Stone, which Thanos inserted into the Gauntlet alongside the Power Stone. The Mad Titan then ordered the Black Order to retrieve the other stones on Earth. Loki offered to help, but Thanos mocked Loki's experience on Earth as being derived from his failures and knowing fully well Loki planned to assassinate him, when Loki offered his fidelity, the Mad Titan easily caught Loki's attack with the Space Stone. Thanos then disarmed Loki while sarcastically mocking Loki for choosing the word "undying", and rebuked that he should have chosen his words more wisely.

Thanos then grabbed Loki by the throat and lifted him in the air, slowly strangling the Frost Giant to death, while giving Thor a mocking look as he watched helplessly. Struggling to speak, Loki defiantly told Thanos that he would never be a god. Thanos was unfazed by Loki's words and calmly crushed Loki's neck as punishment for an attempt to kill him before exhaling a deep breath of having killed someone he considered disgusting, having always held disdain at Loki's selfish desires. Thanos then cruelly dropped Loki's corpse in front of a distraught Thor and taunted him by the fact Loki is truly dead and thus would not be resurrected. Using the Power Stone, Thanos then destroyed the Statesman and teleported his children and himself out of the exploding ship, leaving Thor and the dead Asgardian bodies to float in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in his possession, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he travels to Knowhere, where he is interrogating the Collector to get hold of the Reality Stone (the Aether). As the interrogation was underway, the Guardians of the Galaxy (sans Groot and Rocket) arrive to stop Thanos. The plan was going smoothly until Drax, due to having lost his wife Hovat and his daughter Kamaria at the hands of Thanos's army, almost compromised the Guardians' position due to his anger, prepared to attack Thanos head-on and be the one that kills him. Star-Lord attempted to convince him to wait, noting that Thanos did not have the Stone yet, thus they could still take it from him before he even noticed. His attempt to stop Drax was unsuccessful, however, with Drax ignoring Quill, prompting Mantis to force him to sleep in order to prevent him from giving their location away.

Unfortunately, the sound of Drax collapsing on the ground drew Thanos's attention anyway, and he violently threw the Collector into a tank before advancing towards the Guardians. Before Star-Lord could give combat instructions to Gamora and Mantis, Gamora swiftly attacked Thanos without waiting, engaging in melee combat with her sword Godslayer. However, while Thanos managed to effortlessly destroy Godslayer, Gamora quickly fatally stabbed him in the neck with the remains of Godslayer and then stabbed him very switchblade Thanos had offered her as a child. Thanos appeared to quickly bleed out from his injuries, astonishing the other Guardians and the Collector, who stood in disbelief. The Titan pleaded with Gamora, heartbroken that she would murder him with his own gift to her, before succumbing anticlimactically to his injuries. After Thanos' apparent "death", Gamora down sobbing when she thinks that she has killed her father; partly out of relief, partly out of grief, since she was raised by the Titan after all.

Nevertheless, Thanos's voice was still heard in spite of the Titan's apparent death. Thanos noted that Gamora's tears indicated she still cared for him to an extent. As the dead Titan and the surrounding Knowhere began to dissolve in a red mist, revealing a burning wasteland, Thanos's trickery was finally revealed: The Titan had already laid waste to Knowhere and retrieved the Reality Stone, conjuring an elaborate illusion using the Stone in order to lure in his adopted daughter, who he knew would come for him. Thanos soon appeared himself and commented that while reality was often disappointing, with the power of the Reality Stone, this no longer held true as reality would be his to command. Indeed, Thanos needed Gamora to disclose the location of the Soul Stone, being the only one who knew its whereabouts, telling her that he counted on their arrival.

Gamora immediately attempted to attack Thanos, but was quickly restrained by the massive Titan. Enraged and recovered from Mantis' sleep inducement, Drax attempted to attack Thanos, only for Thanos to simply smirk at Drax, knowing the latter wanted to avenge his family, and immediately incapacitate him with the Reality Stone, turning him into a statue that immediately crumbled. Terrified, Mantis inadvertently revealed herself, causing Thanos to turn his attention to her and transform her with the Stone as well, cutting her into still-conscious ribbons of flesh, before being confronted by Quill.

Thanos recognized Quill as Gamora's lover, who fruitlessly demanded that Thanos release Gamora, threatening to kill him with his blaster. However, Gamora reminded him of his promise to kill her if she was captured by Thanos, which they made shortly before their arrival. Reluctantly, Quill pointed his Quad Blaster at Gamora, though Thanos was skeptical that Quill would have the courage to follow through on his promise. Thanos then dared Quill to kill her by putting her up against the blaster point-blank. As they confessed their love to each other, Quill finally pulled the trigger. However, the Blaster only fired harmless bubbles - Thanos had preemptively transmuted the blaster's ammunition using the Stone, before transmuting the blaster itself into bubbles. Impressed with Quill for having the courage to do what was necessary, Thanos admitted to having a liking to Quill before he teleported himself and Gamora away with the Reality Stone, leaving Drax and Mantis to reconstitute themselves in the absence of the Reality Stone's effects.

Back on his Sanctuary, Thanos attempted to give Gamora food, believing that she was hungry, but Gamora angrily tossed it into his throne, saying bitterly that she always hated the throne, which Thanos simply retorted by saying he always hoped that she would sit on it anyway and succeed him. Having already heard Gamora's repeated confessions of hatred for his ship and her life, Thanos remained unfazed by all of Gamora's angry statements and simply said that he saved her when Gamora reminisced on how she was a child when Thanos took her.

Thanos then revealed to Gamora on how thanks to his decision to massacre of half the population of her planet, Zen-Whoberi is now prospered and simply dismissed the massacre as a small price to pay for salvation when Gamora angrily said it. Thanos then reminded Gamora on how she once had the same will as he had and that it was due to his training that she became the fiercest woman in the Galaxy and he was so confident in her abilities that he even send her to locate the Soul Stone, which she sarcastically apologized for failing to do. However, Thanos was unfazed and said that he is disappointed not because she did not find the location but she did and lied to him.

Thanos then took Gamora to reveal that Nebula has been captured due to her attempt to assassinate him. However, Thanos did not kill her and instead imprisoned her for interrogation, proceeding to torture her in front of Gamora. Even though Gamora desperately sought to conceal the location of the stone, Thanos revealed that he was aware that Gamora had lied to him by showing a video recording inside Nebula's system. Thanos went as far as to say that while Thanos turned her into the warrior she is now, he never taught her to lie and thus she was never a good liar. Nebula, when Thanos briefly pauses her torture, desperately tries to stop Gamora from telling him where the Soul Stone is. Thanos demanded the Stone's location again, but when Gamora stayed quite, tortured Nebula even further, long enough for Gamora to feel remorse for her pain. Finally giving in, Gamora told Thanos the stone was on Vormir.

Thanos and Gamora traveled to Vormir via a portal from the Space Stone and warned her that the stone better be recovered from where she last lost it or else Nebula would be killed. Thanos and Gamora then walked on top of the cliff and met a mysterious figure. The Stonekeeper would then talk to Thanos about retrieving the Soul Stone and how it extracts a terrible price but Thanos responded to his statement, that he was ultimately prepared for it. The Stonekeeper guided them to the top of a nearby cliff, as the Guardian of the Soul Stone explained to Thanos that obtaining the Stone required the sacrifice of a loved one. Upon hearing this, Gamora laughed in relief and mocked Thanos as a heartless and uncaring monster who loves nobody and nothing. Seeing Thanos has shed tears over this revelation, Gamora further mocked him for crying over his failure to obtain the Soul Stone, until the Stonekeeper informed her that his tears were not for him, but for her. Finally realizing that Thanos had genuinely grew to love Gamora, she was genuinely surprised for a moment and quickly and desperately attempted suicide using her knife, refusing to die for the Soul Stone, but Thanos used the Reality Stone to turn her knife into bubbles. Thanos lamented on how he had once ignored his destiny and cannot do it again before apologizing to Gamora as he tearfully hurled her off the cliff to her death.

As Gamora hit the ground, Thanos winced and closes his eyes when he clearly hears the sound of her hitting the stone, and her screams stop. Thanos sternly looked over the cliff and mourns over Gamora's death. A light burst out that briefly knocked Thanos out but once he awoke in the shallow waters of a river-like environment, he found the Soul Stone in his right hand and inserted it into his Infinity Gauntlet.

With four Infinity Stones in place, Thanos travels back to his homeworld Titan, where he intends to wait for Ebony Maw to deliver the Eye of Agamotto. However, he found Doctor Strange waiting for him and instantly deduced that Maw is dead due to Tony Stark (Iron Man) killing him to save Strange (the current holder of the Eye). Unfazed, Thanos simply asked Strange where did he think Maw brought him to and corrected Strange when he calmly guessed Titan as being his home, saying it was. Thanos then told him about the history of his planet while altering the reality around it using the Reality Stone to show it's former beauty. Thanos explained how he planned to commit painless and randomly fair genocide across the entire universe with the assistance of the Infinity Stones, after which he simply intended to rest and watch the sun rise on an "grateful universe".

As his conversation with Strange ended, Iron Man dropped a massive piece of debris on him, which only served to infuriate Thanos, who simply blasted away the rubble and transmuted it into an endless swarm of bats and hurled them at Iron Man, forcing him to flee. Spider-Man then used his webbing to blind Thanos, and Drax the Destroyer quickly slashed him with his Knives while Doctor Strange conjured a sword to engage Thanos in close combat, but Thanos swiftly composed himself and quickly began to overwhelm them, overtaking Drax through several stones and blowing away Doctor Strange upon bringing down his Eldritch Magic shield with a kick.

However, Star-Lord maneuvered through Thanos' blasts with help from Doctor Strange, who conjured platforms for him to jump on and shot him before planting an explosive on Thanos' back, which briefly stunned him. The Cloak of Levitation wrapped itself around the Infinity Gauntlet, preventing Thanos from using it. Using this moment to his advantage, Spider-Man attacked Thanos with several kicks, assisted by Doctor Strange's portals,, but it only served to irritate the Mad Titan, who swiftly pinned Spider-Man down and angrily called him an insect before flinging him back at Doctor Strange, knocking him to the ground. Iron Man caused a massive explosion next to Thanos, who remained once again uninjured and simply used the Infinity Gauntlet to absorb the entire explosion and blast the flames back at him, knocking him from the air. Thanos was once again attacked by Spider-Man but he easily broke out of his web and used it to pull Spider-Man towards him, striking him in the face.

Suddenly, a ship crashed upon Thanos but he easily survived and was attacked by Nebula. Coldly greeting his former adopted daughter, she warned him that he should have killed her when he had the chance, to which Thanos hatefully spits that it would have been "a waste of parts". He then swiftly overpowered her but the group took advantage of the time Nebula bought and managed to barely restrain Thanos. Doctor Strange restricted the gauntlet while Drax, Iron Man and Spider-Man restrained Thanos' arms and legs, Strange opened a portal for Mantis above Thanos to inflict sleep upon him using her powers. Star-Lord then mocked Thanos and demanded the location of Gamora, visibly causing him to become crest-fallen. Mantis then revealed that Thanos was in mourning, which led Drax to wonder what a "monster" like Thanos had to mourn. Nebula, however, understood in horror and sadness that he had sacrificed Gamora for the Soul Stone. Star-Lord then angrily confronted Thanos to tell her that Nebula was lying and Thanos emotionally said he had to kill her.

Infuriated beyond all reasoning, Star-Lord repeatedly hit Thanos with his blaster, hitting Mantis' hands in the process which caused her to lose her grip on Thanos. Freed from his trance and now truly furious upon being reminded of how he was forced to kill Gamora, which only served to make him more determined to complete his goal so as not to let her sacrifice be in vain, Thanos angrily and brutally attacked the group, putting the Guardians of the Galaxy to sleep with a single wild shockwave and then using the Space Stone to pull an entire moon from the sky. Thanos then furiously used the Power Stone to obliterate the entire moon, which he then hurled at his opponents in a hail of meteors.

While Iron Man dodged the meteors and Spider-Man went to save the Guardians of the Galaxy, Thanos ferociously dueled Doctor Strange upon cornering him, with Strange launching the first strike with fiery beams. Thanos leaped into the air to avoid them and retaliated with a blast of energy from the gauntlet. Strange summoned the Mirror Dimension to absorb it and then hurled it back at Thanos. Thanos responded by crushing it with the Power Stone, unable to be trapped inside thanks to the Reality Stone, and then threw the remnants back at Strange in the form of a destructive black hole with the Space Stone, which Strange swiftly transmuted into blue butterflies, which momentarily confused Thanos.

Doctor Strange than proceeded to make almost countless copies of himself and attempted to restrain Thanos with Eldritch Whips. However, Thanos dispelled the many replicas of Doctor Strange using the Soul and Power Stones in unison and sundered his Astral Form out of his body until he regained control. Thanos was able to pull him to his hand before he could react. Thanos admitted he was impressed by Strange's mastery over Magic but criticized him for not using his "greatest weapon". Thanos then grabbed and crushed the Eye of Agamotto and tossed him aside.

Before he could look for the Time Stone, Iron Man, being the final Avenger standing, used a trap to restrain Thanos' gauntlet hand, making him unable to use it's power. After a brief conversation in which Thanos revealed that he knew who Iron Man was and what drove him, which Stark expressed his profound grudge towards him, Thanos was attacked relentlessly by all of Iron Man's advanced technology but remained uninjured throughout the onslaught. Iron Man dashed forward and immediately struck Thanos again with two repulsor-powered battering rams, beating him back into a wall with enough force to break it. Recovering quickly, Thanos tore off Iron Man's helmet with his bare hand and punched him to the ground, although Stark reformed his helmet just in time to prevent his head from being knocked off. With Iron Man dazed from the devastating blow, Thanos quickly ripped the clamp from the Gauntlet, and blasted the downed Avenger with a concentrated beam from the Power Stone. Barely recovering, Iron Man managed to block and sidestep the blast by forming a shield.

Boosting towards Thanos in a renewed assault, Iron Man swiftly pinned the Gauntlet to the ground using a foot clamp before twisting around and pummeling the Titan's face with a repulsor-boosted hammer, with enough force to make him bleed. Unfazed, Thanos wiped the small amount of purple blood from his face and simply taunted the Avenger for giving so much labor and struggle only to shed a single drop of blood. Thanos then grinned and effortlessly ripped the Gauntlet free from Iron Man's hold, flipping the battered Avenger onto his back. Thanos began to brutally beat the downed Avenger with his fists, breaking off more and more of his armor with each strike. With Iron Man helpless to resist, Thanos lifted Iron Man up and followed with a point-blank blast with the Power Stone to the Avenger's chest, sending him flying and heavily damaging his armor.

Despite missing much of the upper half of his armor, Iron Man desperately persisted and attempted to hold off the advancing Thanos with his repulsors. Thanos merely blocked the blasts with the Infinity Gauntlet and began beating the Avenger once again, completely destroying his helmet. Stark attempted to defend himself with his bare hands, only for the massive Titan's overwhelmingly superior strength to force him to use both hands to barely block a blow from Thanos's single hand. As Thanos effortlessly blocked and firmly trapped his left hand, Stark then shifted the nanites from his left arm to his right arm to form a sword, and wildly stabbed at the Titan but Thanos easily caught the sword and ripped it from Stark's hand and ruthlessly stabbed him in the abdomen with it, quickly ending the fight in a no-contest victory.

Cradling the injured Stark's head in his hand, Thanos revealed his respect for the Avenger, genuinely impressed by his fearlessness and determination. Thanos took the time to tell the injured Stark that once his goals are complete half of humanity will still exist and he hopes they will remember him. Thanos rised the Gauntlet to finish off Stark only for Doctor Strange to intervene, offering the Time Stone in exchange for Stark's life, much to Stark's surprise and dismay. Thanos agreed but warned Doctor Strange to not double-cross him. Despite Stark's pleas to not give in, Doctor Strange revealed the Time Stone, having disguised it as a star in Titan's sky, and reluctantly surrendered it to Thanos. After taking the Stone, Thanos inserted it into the thumb slot of the Gauntlet, allowing him to control time itself now, leaving him with only one more to collect: the Mind Stone. Suddenly, Thanos was attacked by an awakened and enraged Star-Lord, who began to wildly fire at him, but Thanos remained unfazed and activated the Space Stone and vanished through a portal to Earth to retrieve the final stone.

Meanwhile, Corvus Glaive, Proxima Midnight and Cull Obsidian assemble a massive army of Outriders to attack Wakanda, being aware that the hero Vision has the Mind Stone lodged in his forehead and is currently located in Wakanda. This forces several Avengers and the Wakandan warriors to fight back against Thanos's army. At first, the heroes are being overwhelmed, but Thor, Rocket Raccoon and Groot arrived at the rescue with a new powerful weapon called Stormbreaker, allowing the Avengers and Wakandan warriors to finish off Glaive, Proxima, Obsidian and the Outriders to their defeat and deaths.

As unnatural winds began to blow, signalling Thanos' arrival, Captain America sensed the incoming threat, and ordered the other Avengers to converge on his position to assist. Suddenly, a portal opened, and Thanos himself stepped through it, finally arriving on Wakanda and Earth. With the Power, Space, Reality, Soul and Time Stones mounted on the Infinity Gauntlet and only the Mind Stone, his final objective, not installed inside it, Thanos calmly and confidently glared at the heroes that stood between him and his goal. As Banner recognized Thanos and confirmed his identity, Thanos began slowly advancing towards Vision to get the final Stone.

Steve Rogers rallied the Avengers to hold Thanos off for as long as they could while Scarlet Witch, was forced to mercy-kill Vision to prevent Thanos from obtaining the stone. Bruce Banner, in the Hulkbuster armor, made the first strike, leaping furiously at Thanos, only for the Titan to calmly use the Space Stone to phase through Banner. Banner tumbled helplessly through Thanos into a solid rock cliff, where he released Banner from the phase, imprisoning him in the rock. As Captain America dashed at Thanos, Thanos casually blasted Rogers aside with a shockwave from the Power Stone. Black Panther then leaped at Thanos, but the Titan merely grabbed him in mid-air by the throat before he brutally punched him into the ground. Falcon then attempted to provide air support, only for Thanos to block all of his attacks effortlessly and incapacitate him by disabling his wings with the Space Stone.

Using the Space Stone to deflect War Machine's shots, Thanos simply and effortlessly compacted the Avenger's armor telekinetically before flinging him aside. Bucky Barnes then arrived to reinforce but was simply blasted aside with the Power Stone. Black Widow and Okoye moved to replace Barnes, with the latter throwing her spear at Thanos' head. Thanos simply stopped the spear and blasted Okoye aside with the Power Stone and then used the Reality Stone to trap Black Widow in a cage of rock before she could react. Groot then attempted to restrain Thanos using his vines, but Thanos effortlessly snapped them apart with pure strength and continued advancing toward Vision and the Mind Stone.

As Maximoff continued to pool energy into the Stone, Thanos was engaged once again by Steve Rogers, who managed to dodge Thanos attacks and land multiple hits upon the Titan. Despite managing to briefly hold back the Infinity Gauntlet, Rogers was finally downed with a direct punch to the head, leaving only Scarlet Witch to defend Vision. Desperately, Maximoff held Thanos back with a beam of energy to stall him further, who continued to slowly advance while blocking the beam with the Space Stone. Despite continuing to advance forward, Thanos was too late - with a final confession of love to Maximoff, Vision peacefully shut his eyes as the Stone's structure began to destabilize, and finally shatter in a violent explosion, disintegrating itself and Vision completely, destroying the Mind Stone.

As Maximoff lay on the ground, heartbroken, Thanos only stared at the barren crater where Vision had once remained. However, despite seemingly failing his goals, Thanos not only remained calm, but comforted Maximoff, sympathizing with her pain at having to sacrifice what she loved most, having previously sacrificed his dearest daughter, Gamora, for the Soul Stone. Maximoff bitterly retorted, claiming he knew nothing of her pain, but Thanos replied that he had lost more than she could ever know just before noting that there was no time to mourn, Thanos activated the Time Stone, using its powers to reverse Vision's destruction, restoring the Mind Stone and rendering Maximoff's actions moot. Before she could stop him, Thanos easily knocked her aside, taking Vision by the throat and ripping the Mind Stone right from his forehead, killing him a second time. Flinging his lifeless corpse aside, Thanos inserted the Stone into the Gauntlet. As the Stones' combined energies flowed through his body, even causing a bit of pain to the Titan, Thanos admired the Gauntlet, having finally completed his quest.

In a last-minute attempt to finish off Thanos and avenge all those who Thanos had killed, Thor blasted Thanos into the ground with a powerful lightning blast from his new weapon, Stormbreaker. Regaining his footing but unaware of the true properties inside the axe, Thanos unleashed an energy blast on Thor from the Infinity Gauntlet, who then hurled it with all his electrical power and great strength at Thanos' torso. The power of the fully enchanted axe, having been created to counter the Gauntlet, quickly overwhelmed the beam, and Thanos could do nothing to stop Stormbreaker from burying itself deep in his chest. Landing in front of the severely injured Thanos, Thor proceeded to vengefully remind Thanos of his promise to kill him. Thor than forced Stormbreaker deeper into his chest, causing him further pain and injury to make sure Thanos suffered before his death. However, despite being grievously wounded and in severe pain, the wound was not enough to kill him and the Mad Titan, although struggling to speak at first, victoriously taunted Thor for not aiming for the head for an instantaneous kill. Thor, realizing his mistake too late, could do nothing but yell in horror as Thanos mustered the strength to simply snap his fingers anyway and activate the death wave. The Gauntlet was activated in a blinding flash of energy, altering the Universe on an unprecedented scale.

Nearly overwhelmed by the sheer amount of power required to use the Gauntlet's full power in his weakened state, Thanos briefly passed out, and to his great surprise, reawakened in a vast orange void, a world within the Soul Stone, without the Gauntlet or his fatal injury. Turning to find a lone Zen-Whoberi archway, Thanos found a reflection of a young Gamora's spirit standing alone underneath. Initially expecting Gamora to lash out at him, Thanos was surprised when Gamora calmly asked if he accomplished his mission and Thanos, preparing himself for the inevitable argument, resignedly acknowledged he had. Although horrified by the severe consequences of his victory, Thanos found that Gamora no longer had the drive to do so, having been resigned to being defeated and gently asked what his actions had cost. Thanos sadly replied that his actions cost him everything, as he had lost the only thing that mattered most to him, Gamora herself, to which Gamora sadly concurred by nodding at this answer.

Regaining consciousness, Thanos returned to his body in Wakanda, the Infinity Gauntlet and his left arm scorched and burned by the immense release of energy. Seeing no apparent change, Thor furiously questioned Thanos about what he had done, but Thanos, knowing that his goal was finally completed, merely smirked at Thor mockingly for how his selfish desire for revenge had cost him victory before teleporting away, leaving only a confused Thor and Stormbreaker falling to the ground, covered in Thanos' blood.

Quickly after Thanos vanished, half of all life in the universe slowly disintegrated into ashes: As Rogers questioned Thor as to Thanos' whereabouts, Bucky Barnes suddenly crumbled into dust in front of Rogers. M'Baku could only watch with horror as the Wakandan soldiers around him began to fade. Hidden on the ground in long grass, Falcon disintegrated as Rhodes called out to him, not realizing yet that his companion and friend was already gone. T'Challa, attempting to help Okoye up and encourage her to fight, fell into ashes before her eyes just as he attempted to help her up. Afterward, Rocket tearfully watched Groot fade away as he weakly called for his "father" to help him. Kneeling over Vision's lifeless body, Wanda Maximoff vanished into dust with a face of relief and peace on her face.

On Titan, in the aftermath of their defeat, the effects of the Gauntlet began to claim the lives of the battered Mantis, Drax, Star-Lord, Doctor Strange and Spider-Man, leaving Iron Man and Nebula as the only survivors on Titan. As the effects of Thanos' mass genocide took hold across the Universe, the remaining survivors could do nothing but stand in utter shock and defeat, unable to do anything but accept the reality of Thanos' victory.

Far away on an unknown distant planet, Thanos limped out of a farm with his wounds mostly healed, and his armor hung up on a nearby scarecrow. Finally at peace, he sat down and smiled to himself in relief, satisfied that he finally defeated the heroes and achieved his goal. As a call-back to what he said to Doctor Strange on Titan, Thanos calmly watched the sun rise upon what he saw as a grateful universe.

Thanos does not appear in the series, but he was mentioned in the Season 5 episode "The One Who Will Save Us All", where Graviton learned from the Kree about Thanos' plot to wipe out half of the universe. As such, Graviton suggests that they ally with the Avengers to fight against Thanos, but the Kree convinced him to obtain more Gravitonium in order to absorb it and increase his own powers.

Thanos does not appear nor he is mentioned in the film. However, during a mid-credits scene following the arrest of Sonny Burch and the curing of Ghost, it is revealed that Thanos' death wave has killed Hank Pym, along with his wife Janet van Dyne, and their daughter Hope (known as The Wasp), leaving them to be wiped away from existence. The Pym family's demise also caused Hope's partner Scott Lang (known as Ant-Man) to be left trapped in a Quantum Realm, much to his complete distraught.

Although not appearing in the movie, Thanos is mentioned scarcely. Following the defeat of the Supreme Intelligence and Starforce of the Kree Empire, Captain Marvel gave Nick Fury a modified pager in case he would have to send out distress calls to her as she would be busy helping Talos and his fellow Skrulls find a new home planet to live in. The pager would be activated 23 years later during the events of Infinity War, prompting Captain Marvel to head over to the New Avengers Facility, where she saw that the surviving Avengers, moping over their failure to defeat Thanos and deeming Thanos's actions as being a nightmare, had retrieved Fury's pager before demanding to know where Fury is. She later found out in horror that Fury activated his pager before he was dissolved to his death along with half of the universe's populace thanks to Thanos' death wave.

Three weeks after the cataclysmic events of Thanos's victory, a weakened and horribly scarred Thanos is first seen cooking up a stew in his hut before Captain Marvel, who had been recruited by the Avengers, smashed through the roof of his hut and restrained him, alongside the Hulkbuster and War Machine. As the weakened Thanos struggled against them, Thor quickly smashed through the hut and sliced Thanos' left arm off with Stormbreaker in order to free the Gauntlet. As Captain America and the rest of the Avengers came in, Rocket Raccoon goes to get the Infinity Stones from the Gauntlet, only to discover they are gone. Captain America interrogated the Mad Titan on the location of the stones, and Thanos reveals that once he fulfilled his goal to eradicate half of the universe, the Stones served no purpose beyond temptation. An angry Bruce Banner proceeded to assault Thanos out of rage for his murder of trillions.

Thanos taunted the Avengers by revealing that he had actually destroyed the Stones in case he would be tracked down so that his work wouldn't be reversed, which may explain the scars he received. He also reveals that he did it, so he wouldn't feel tempeted to use them again. Knowing that his work for the universe is done, Thanos proclaims that he is inevitable. The Avengers refused to believe this and War Machine suggests tearing down Thanos' hut to find the Stones, but Nebula (in spite of her hatred towards Thanos) stated that Thanos is never a liar of any sort despite his atrocities, implying that his statement of destroying the Stones has to be true. With his last words while knowing that he will die, Thanos confirmed this by thanking Nebula for pointing that out and admitting that he was wrong to treat her too harshly. With this horrible revelation revealed, a furious Thor decapitates Thanos with Stormbreaker, and a grieving Nebula took solace in Thanos' last words by closing his eyelids out of respect. The surviving Avengers then return back to Earth in shame, knowing now that even after killing Thanos, they have lost to him again as that they cannot reverse the death wave to bring back their loved ones.

For the next five years, the surviving populace is forced to live with the damage that Thanos caused, but are unable to move on due to being traumatized by the deaths of their loved ones. However, Ant-Man escapes from the Quantum Realm and meets up with the Avengers, stating that he got stuck there when the death wave happened and that it took five hours for him to escape instead of five years. The Avengers soon learned that they can use the energy from the Quantum Realm to create a time machine so that they can go back and get the Infinity Stones to reverse the massacre. To that end, the Avengers split away into traveling into different timelines: Hulk and Captain America managed to retrieve the Time and Mind Stones during the Chituari invasion of New York from 2012, Iron Man and Captain America retrieved the Space Stone and several Pym Particles from 1970 S.H.I.E.L.D HQ, Rocket and Thor retrieved Mjølnir and the Reality Stone from 2013 Asgard, and Romanoff sacrificed herself in 2014 Vormir to allow Barton to obtain the Soul Stone.

In the meantime, Nebula and War Machine managed to steal the Power Orb from 2014 Morag. However, while War Machine was able to return to the present, Nebula was unable to do so due to her cybernetic implants interfacing with those of her 2014 self, causing Nebula to be captured by the 2014 Thanos. Through this connection between Nebula and her 2014 self, the 2014 Thanos learns of his future self's success and death, as well as the Avengers' plot to reverse the death wave because of the surviving populace being unable to move on without their loved ones. Realizing now that no one will accept his ideals and philosophy of maintaining balance even if he would succeed on it, the 2014 Thanos decides to compensate this by changing his goal into destroying the entire universe and recreating it under his own image.

As such, the 2014 Thanos (who decided to treat Nebula better after hearing his Future's Self's confession), sends the 2014 Nebula in the original Nebula's place so that she can use the time machine to send him and his army to the present. Even when the Avengers finally utilized the Stones (combined with a new Infinity Gauntlet) to reverse Thanos' massacre while the original Nebula kills her 2014 self after being freed by the 2014 Gamora, the 2014 Thanos arrives with his army to attack the Avengers' headquarters.

Fully aware of the transgressions of what has happened and is about to happen, Thanos calmly awaits the arrival of the Avengers. As Iron Man, Captain America, and Thor approached the Mad Titan, the latter confronted them for being unable to move on without their loved ones and making his deeds so ungrateful to the universe. Declaring this as the last straw as he was already annoyed with them for stopping his invasion of Earth, Thanos announces his next plot of destroying the universe and rebuilding it with vast resources and life that will be forced to be grateful to him. When Captain America noted how the new universe would be built from blood, Thanos said it wouldn't matter because the Avengers won't live to tell them about, before engaging the three Avengers in a brutal battle.

During the ensuing fight, Thanos overwhelmed the three Avengers with his superior speed and power, and his immense skills with his massive double-ended sword. At one point, Thanos managed to knock Iron Man out of the fight by using his body to block an attack from Thor's hammer, Mjølnir, before facing Thor himself. Due to the God of Lightning being weakened from years of inactivity, Thanos easily overpowered Thor and brutally beat him down. Thor attempted to summon Stormbreaker to kill Thanos, but Thanos caught it before Thor could and attempted to cut Thor in half with the axe in revenge for his future self's death. Before Thanos could do so, Mjølnir is thrown at his back and knocks him down. The hammer flies back to its wielder, who is revealed to be Steve Rogers - who has proven himself worthy to wield the mystical hammer, much to Thor's delight.

Thanos kicked Thor to the ground and proceeded to battle Captain America, who was now armed with both Mjølnir and his shield. At first, Steve Rogers proves to be a match to Thanos (possibly because of his already superhuman strength being empowered), even being able to cast lightning at the Titan, but Thanos manages to dodge an attack from Captain America proceeds to slam the Avenger to the ground. Thanos then removes his helmet and attacks Rogers with his sword, managing to cut him across the leg. Gaining control, Thanos knocks Mjølnir out of his hands and then proceeds to break Rogers' shield with his double sword before pummeling the hero into the ground.

With the three Avengers defeated, Thanos expressed in his seething rage that he will personally enjoy razing Earth and wiping out all of its populace in a way that he had never done in his previous conquests. Thanos then summons his entire army, which emerges from his warship behind him. Despite being outnumbered and injured, Rogers rises from the ground and stood ready to face Thanos and his entire army alone until he suddenly receives a faint radio communication from Falcon, who tells him to look behind him.

Just then, a portal opened behind Rogers as Black Panther, Okoye, Shuri, and the Wakandan Army slowly arrived to the battlefield. Another portal from Titan opens to reveal Doctor Strange along with the Guardians of the Galaxy and Spider-Man. More portals began opening as the Asgardians, the Ravagers (including Howard the Duck) and the Masters of the Mystic Arts joined the Avengers' side. Pepper Potts, now donning a blue-and-silver armor, also appeared. After everyone forms up to face Thanos and his forces once and for all, all the allied teams charged at Thanos' forces as Thanos himself motioned his army to attack before joining the fight shortly after.

During the large battle, Thanos, during an attempt to retake the Iron Gauntlet from Black Panther, was confronted by the Scarlet Witch. The enraged woman, who remembered how Thanos murdered Vision, hatefully told him that he took everything from her. Thanos furiously responded by saying he didn't know who Scarlet Witch was, but she told him that he would and engaged him in battle. Despite initially gaining the upper hand on her, Wanda managed to overcome him, depriving of his double-edged sword and lifting him and using telekinesis to almost tear him apart. During the assault, Thanos furiously ordered a missile strike (though at the cost of losing much of his forces in the process). Though the airstrike was successful in keeping Scarlet Witch and the Avengers at bay, Captain Marvel arrived from space and destroyed the Sanctuary II as Thanos watched in surprise.

Shortly after, Ant-Man and Wasp attempted to return the Infinity Stones to the past using the Quantum Realm, but Thanos himself managed to halt their efforts and attempted to retake the Gauntlet in the ensuing chaos, before being attacked again by Captain America, Thor, and Iron Man. Despite their efforts, Thanos overpowered the three before successfully taking the Iron Gauntlet, but before he could wield it, Captain Marvel stopped him and engaged the Titan in a vicious fight. Thanos managed to toss her away before finally donning the Gauntlet, causing energy to surge throughout his body. Despite the pain, Thanos attempted to snap his fingers and destroy the universe, but Captain Marvel seized and forced open his hand, stopping him from doing so. Thanos attempted to headbutt Captain Marvel, but she didn't react at all to the attack. Slowly being overpowered, Thanos pulled the Power Stone from the Gauntlet and used it to violently blast Captain Marvel away with a punch, knocking her out of the fight.

Placing the Power Stone back in the Iron Gauntlet, Thanos was briefly halted by Iron Man, who tried to prevent him from using the Gauntlet, but Thanos violently knocks Iron Man aside and donned the Gauntlet back into his hand. Having defeated all the Avengers once again, Thanos (with an evil smile) taunted them of their failure by repeating his future self's words that he is inevitable before snapping his fingers with the Gauntlet, expecting for the entire universe to be destroyed and all of its populace to be extinguished by his own will.

However, this time, to Thanos' surprise, his snap has no effect at all as the Gauntlet is missing the Stones. He shortly discovers that Iron Man actually managed to remove the Stones from the Gauntlet and transfer them to his armor in case Thanos would get his hands on the Gauntlet. Iron Man taunted back at a shocked Thanos before sacrificing himself by snapping his fingers with the Stones, causing all the Black Order and their alien armies (except for Gamora from 2014 and Nebula) to disintegrate into dust at the cost of Iron Man's life with his human body being unable to sustain the power. Watching all of his massive armies fade away into dust, Thanos is left horrified that his goals for the universe have been undone and possibly losing his children. Realizing that there is nothing he can do to prevent his impending death, Thanos solemnly sits down among the devastated battlefield, gazing at the darkended sky, and accepting his fate in despair as he is wiped away from existence.

With Thanos and his forces finally dead at last, the Avengers are satisfied that they have finally defeated them for good. Following Iron Man's funeral, the Avengers return the Stones (and Mjølnir) back to their original places and timelines before going their separate ways, safe in the knowledge that the universe is now at peace.

Thanos' actions leave an enormous impact in the aftermath of his final defeat. As Earth begins to recover, Iron Man is revered for his sacrfice, and there is much speculation as to who will replace him as the world's next hero. The return of the Thanos' victims results in problems with identity documentation, as they returned five years after their deaths without having physically aged. Any high school student that was a victim of the Snap is subsequently forced to retake the entire school year, even if they had already completed midterms, including Peter Parker's class.

Thanos was an extremely powerful alien warlord who commanded three massive armies called the Chitauri, the Sakaarans and the Outriders, as well as a small group of fanatical followers known as the Black Order.

Thanos formed an alliance with Loki to invade Earth, and later forged a partnership with Ronan the Accuser to destroy Xandar - both in exchange for the deliverance of two powerful Infinity Stones, only for the pair to end up failing their tasks before they betrayed Thanos afterwards. Thanos was also indirectly responsible for the creation of Ultron as his supplying of the Mind Stone to Loki was what gave Ultron free will to rebel against humanity in the first place.

He later obtained all six Infinity stones, fought with the Avengers and Guardians of the Galaxy, and successfully wiped out half the life in the universe. His actions would ultimately be undone, however, after the Avengers successfully retrieved the Infinity Stones through time travel. Soon after, an alternate version of Thanos from the past, time traveled to the present in an effort to destroy the Avengers and erase the whole universe in order to create a new one, but was defeated and erased from existence once and for all before he could carry out that plan. However, even after his demise, Thanos' actions still haunted the Avengers.

Powers

Titan Physiology: As a mutated Titan, Thanos possess immeasurable levels of strength, reflexes, durability, regenerative healing, and endurance as well as near-immortality. He is frighteningly powerful, able to effortlessly intimidate, overpower, severely harm, and even potentially kill beings as powerful as Loki, who is almost on par with Thor, and Ronan The Accuser, who was among the strongest Kree, Thor at full power, and Hulk. He rules the Chitauri and Outrider army unchallenged. Korath has fearfully said he is the most powerful being in the universe, although Ronan was confident that he could kill Thanos with the power of the Orb. Nevertheless, Thanos displayed no sign of concern after Ronan threatened him. Gamora also blatantly told Nebula she doesn't know if killing Thanos is possible. Thanos was also shown to be fully confident in being capable of collectively harnessing the full power of all six Infinity Stones with the use of an Infinity Gauntlet, a feat that no other being has ever survived. This was proven correct when he was able to handle the use of all six after finally completing the Infinity Gauntlet.

Superhuman Longevity: Like all Titans, Thanos himself was also nearly immortal and had existed for a very long time. It had been confirmed that Thanes was roughly over one thousand years of age by the time Tony Stark decimated him with the power of the Infinity Stones during the Battle of Earth.

Superhuman Strength: Thanos holds incalculably extraordinary, godly levels of superhuman strength, to the point that he is capable of easily wielding all six Infinity Stones with the Infinity Gauntlet, a feat that no other being has survived, making him one of the strongest beings in existence, if not the strongest. Thanos could effortlessly break the highly durable containers of the Infinity Stones, as he casually crushed the Tesseract and later the Eye of Agamotto in a single hand, which was protected by an extremely powerful spell. He was also capable of effortlessly breaking out of Groot's vines and it took the combined efforts of Doctor Strange, Drax, Iron Man, Spider-Man, Star-Lord, and Mantis to keep him restrained, and even then, he still showed great resistance. Upon waking up, Thanos was quickly able to break out of the restraints and regain control of the Infinity Gauntlet. He also was still casually able to clench the Infinity Gauntlet when restrained by countless Eldritch Whips by Doctor Strange's replicas. Thanos is so strong that beings of lesser but still higher superhuman strength and resilience pose no threat or challenge to him, such as Black Panther, Spider-Man, and Gamora, as Thanos proves by effortlessly stopping Black Panther's full charge with a single-handed choke hold and knock him out with a punch, overpowering Spider-Man with one hand casually and being able to effortlessly break out of his web and use it to pull him to Thanos, effortlessly restraining Gamora with a single hand and later throwing her off a cliff in Vormir with little effort. He also could overpower Iron Man in his nanotech Mark L Armor with little effort, with his strength being more than sufficient to easily tear apart the armor with his bare hands, and he was able to effortlessly break Iron Man's sword in half and then stab him with it. Even when Captain America used all his strength, which was vastly augmented by his determination, he was only just barely able to hold back Thanos' gauntlet hand and the Mad Titan proceeded to effortlessly knock the Super Soldier out with a single punch. Even beings of the highest levels of strength and resilience such as Hulk, Vision, and Thor do not pose much threat to Thanos, as Thanos effortlessly beat Hulk to a bloody pulp and Thor, with Thanos going as far as to threaten that he can easily crush Thor's head and kill him anytime he wants, and lifted Vision off the ground with one hand, who was powerless to break free, and quickly ripped the Mind Stone from Vision's extremely durable Vibranium forehead. Lacking the Infinity Gauntlet did not prevent the 2014 Thanos from being capable of overpowering Thor and Captain America in raw strength without much effort, as he was easily able to pummel Thor enough to cause him to severely bleed and bruised and steadily overwhelm him when he tried to use Stormbreaker to gut open his chest, with only Captain America's sudden mastery of Mjolnir preventing him from doing so and was firmly holding back Thor's attempts to stab him with Stormbreaker despite being electrocuted by the electricity surrounding the mighty axe and even with Mjolnir further enhancing Thor's strength and Captain America restraining him, he was still able to overpower their combined might eventually. He even broke Captain America's shield with mere brute strikes from his sword and could easily knock Mjolnir from Rogers's grasp with a single blow and lift and send him flying and before Captain America was able to use Mjolnir, Thanos rendered him near entirely powerless, easily badly incapacitating him with a single punch. Even Captain Marvel using all her cosmic power to augment her strength had to put it all to ensure Thanos could not close his fist and showed trouble overcoming him. The only time he was significantly injured was against the fully-empowered Thor wielding Stormbreaker, a weapon reputed to be the strongest of all of Asgard's weaponry, and this was while he was distracted, and even still, Thanos quickly regained control over the Infinity Gauntlet afterwards and was still strong enough to survive using it at the scale needed to wipe out half of the universe, although he did enter a catatonic state for a while due to performing such a feat while considerably injured. His strength also extends to his legs, as he was able to jump a tremendous distance to avoid Doctor Strange's rays with a single leap.

Superhuman Speed, Agility, and Reflexes: Thanos possesses incredulously swiftness and incredibly superhuman levels of speed, agility, and reflexes, making him fully capable of easily fighting and outpacing even the swiftest of enemies, including others of far smaller size and superhuman conditioning. He was able to easily dodge a few blows from Hulk, and then instantly struck him multiple times before Hulk had a chance to respond. Thanos also easily reacted to Loki's swift attempt to kill him, effortlessly choking Loki to death before the latter could react. While Thor managed to land a blow on Thanos after Thanos had just beaten Hulk, Thanos easily kicked the God of Thunder away before he could attack again. With just a single hand, Thanos was able to easily grab Gamora before she could strike him with Godslayer (which Thanos broke in the process), and was even able to react to the extremely agile Spider-Man's attacks, eventually getting a grip on him and pinning Spider-Man down. He was also able to effortlessly pummel Iron Man in hand-to-hand combat within seconds and break his sword and stab him before he could react and casually catch Black Panther mid-charge with a single hand and could react to the extreme speed of the bullets fired by Winter Soldier and War Machine and Okoye's thrown spear to easily blast it away. The 2014 Thanos was able to easily keep pace with and even beat Thor, Captain America, and Iron Man, with him being able to move faster than Iron Man's strongest armor could react while blocking his repulsors and casually toss aside Rogers as well as swiftly pummel and disarm Thor before he could react. He also could catch Stormbreaker faster than Thor could catch it to use against him.

Regenerative Healing Factor: Thanos has displayed an extremely strong regenerative healing factor, capable of quickly recovering from even the most severe of wounds as long as his head is not cut off. Mere moments after being damaged by Iron Man slightly, he was completely healed upon arriving on Wakanda. Even when Thor dealt a severe wound to his chest with the devastatingly powerful Stormbreaker, by the time he was "admiring the sunset" at an unknown place, he had completely regenerated, although the wounds of using the Infinity Stones would take a long period of time to heal and he did not manage to heal it at all until he was killed.

Superhuman Durability: Thanos has incalculably extraordinary, godly levels of supernatural resilience and durability, to the point many believed he cannot be killed and with not even the best efforts of those of great power and tenacity seen capable of inflicting lasting harm on him. rendering him capable of easily handling the Infinity Stones with the Infinity Gauntlet without any strain or harm done to himself, even surviving the power of all six without harm, something that none who have attempted have ever survived. Regula gunshots understandably does absolutely no harm to him, as shown when he remained completely unfazed by shots from the Winter Soldier, with even firearms and melee weapons of among the highest caliber doing very little harm to him, with him only barely flinching after being shot by Star-Lord and slashed by Drax's knives and managing to parry Drax's knives and Doctor Strange's Eldritch Sword with his bare hands without suffering any damage. In addition, his skin and skeleton is also nearly impenetrable to both outside and inside interference, as Doctor Strange decided against trying to use a Sling Ring to kill him as it wouldn't work fast enough to prevent Thanos's snap and if Ant-Man had tried to shrink himself, enter into his anus and then expand himself to kill the Mad Titan, the tough walls of Thanos' rectum would simply crush him to death. He is also able to effortlessly endure and shrug off attacks from beings of among the highest levels of superhuman strength as if it was nothing, as he was completely uninjured by punches from Spider-Man, which barely staggered him, remained completely uninjured by full-powered blows from Iron Man's Mark L armor, with even the sharp blades of the armor only inflicting a slight cut on Thanos' face, with him going as far as to mock Iron Man for only being able to draw a little drop of blood, and he was even barely fazed and completely uninjured by blows from Hulk or a fully-empowered Thor. Indeed, Thanos' durability is great enough that it took an attack from a fully-empowered Thor wielding Stormbreaker, a weapon so powerful that it was considered the most powerful in Asgard's history, to finally wound and harm him when the blade got lodged directly in his chest and even though Thor caused Thanos visible pain by twisting the ax deeper, Thanos retained enough strength to activate and use the Infinity Gauntlet at the scale needed to wipe out half of the universe, surviving such vast display of power despite the severe injury, although it did cause him to briefly entered a catatonic state but he quickly recovered, even going as far as to mock Thor for not aiming at his head. Even after being in a weakened state, Thanos was once again able to survive using the Infinity Gauntlet to destroy all the Stones, although it worsened his injuries. The 2014 Thanos was able to take blows from Captain America using Mjolnir, including lightning attacks, with no injuries despite being knocked around and staggered by them. In addition, he once again shrugged off Scarlet Witch's energy attacks despite her having grown even more powerful than last time and was even able to last long enough when Scarlet Witch used her full power to try to crush him for him to order his army to fire on her. After which, he was still able to take a beating from Captain Marvel without any significant damage.

Superhuman Stamina: Thanos has displayed vast levels of superhuman stamina, as he proved capable of exerting himself at full capacity for tremendous periods of time even while pressured, as shown when he endured fighting repeatedly in Titan and Wakanda against the likes of the Avengers, Guardians, Black Panther, and Okoye without once showing any signs of fatigue and even after being severely injured by Thor stabbing and then twisting Stormbreaker into his chest as deep as he could, Thanos retained enough stamina to activate the Infinity Gauntlet at the scale needed to wipe out half of the universe and although he was exhausted enough to enter a catatonic state briefly, Thanos quickly recovered and was still able to warp away and only moments later had fully recovered from any exhaustion he underwent. The 2014 Thanos was able to engage in a prolonged battle for the Infinity Stones, overpowering the efforts of any hero he had faced, and in the end only being stopped by Iron Man causing his death with the Infinity Stones.

Supernatural Powers: After equipping the Infinity Gauntlet into his left arm, combined with his already extraordinary physical constitution and raw power, Thanos gained the potential to safely harness the supernatural powers and dominion over all aspects of existence possessed by all six Infinity Stones should he add them to the Gauntlet, with the more stones Thanos inserts into the Gauntlet, the more power he gains. Upon acquiring all six stones, Thanos becomes nearly omnipotent and even gained the power to force living beings to just die without hesitation or resistance no matter if they were powerful or not. This was seen when even with a severe injury, he killed off half of life within the universe with just a snap of his fingers, making him the most powerful entity in the universe. It is notable that Thanos seems to completely master all the powers of the stones just after only shortly acquiring them, apparently showing he had full understanding and knowledge of the powers of the Infinity Stones, making him nearly invincible as he can easily and seamlessly switch between the powers of the stones and can even combine them.

Energy Absorption and Warping: Combining the Power and Space Stones, Thanos is able to absorb energies he was exposed to and transform them into something else, as he could absorb the explosive energy of Iron Man's missiles, and redirect it at the Avenger as a single concentrated beam of fiery energy.

Terrain Manipulation: Combining the Reality and Space Stones, Thanos can manipulate the terrain at a great enough scale to be able to pull the surface of Titan in order to force Doctor Strange closer to him.

Space Manipulation: After inserting the Space Stone into the Infinity Gauntlet, Thanos acquires the stone's complete control over space. His mastery and understanding of its powers allows him to achieve a wide plethora of liberal but potent capabilities and is not limited to simply opening portals, although it remains the most useful ability that he acquired as he can now effortlessly travel to anywhere he desires without needing to use any other transportation, even able to achieve interdimensional travel without aid now, as he easily warped to Knowhere, Titan, and later Wakanda by casually opening a portal and he can also take others with him, as he warped not only himself but also the entire Black Order after having the Power Stone slowly blow away the Statesman and can also forcibly warp others along with him with ease, as he effortlessly took both him and Gamora despite her resistance to his ship and later Vormir, as well as being able to use the portals to influence other locations without directly being there, doing so to send the Power Stone's energies to the moon and then send the pieces through the portal, with his precise control over the portals even allowing him to remove an object attached to him if he so desires, as he removed Stormbreaker from his chest upon warping away from Wakanda. He could create compression forces strong enough to create singularities that sucks up anything within close proximity, as shown when he summoned a devastating vortex that gathered up all in it's path and sent it at Doctor Strange, which Strange could not block and was forced to transmute it into a multitude of blue butterflies to repel it, funnel the kinetic force of oncoming projectile attacks to make them harmless and then gather them and redirect them, as he harmlessly funnel the kinetic energy of Iron Man's projectiles before sending it back at the hero, create force fields that can easily disintegrate bullets, as he easily destroyed multiple shots from War Machine, and even has the sufficient skill to alter the space between molecules, allowing him to make others intangible and just as easily make them solid again, as he easily phased Hulkbuster through him and stone before making him solid again to trap him. Thanos was also able to skillfully use the Stone as a powerful form of telekinesis, warping the fabric of space around objects in order to manipulate and move them with a single gesture. He was able to instantly freeze Loki mid-stab with ease, effortlessly crush the guns on War Machine's armor, knock down Falcon, and produce force fields powerful enough to repel the energy of Scarlet Witch as a means of defense. His Space Stone induced telekinesis was so strong that he was able to telekinetically pull the shattered fragments of Titan's moon across space to rain down on the attacking Avengers during the Battle of Titan.

Reality Manipulation: Upon acquiring the Reality Stone and inserting it into the Infinity Gauntlet, Thanos acquires complete control over reality, allowing him to warp the very fabric of reality itself to be whatever he desires, as he himself boasted to Gamora. He has shown to have a full understanding and mastery over the Reality Stone's powers, surpassing even Malekith, capable of using it to warp reality to such a degree as to create highly elaborate physical simulations and illusions of false realities over a wide range of influence, as evidenced when Thanos was able to create a false illusion of himself interrogating the Collector in a completely deserted Knowhere, in order to fool the approaching Guardians of the Galaxy and mask the colony's true status as burning down and utterly ruined, which was so convincing that the illusionary self of Thanos can be physically interacted with, with Gamora being able to fight and even kill the false Thanos. He later conjured another illusion to Doctor Strange, showing the planet Titan in its peaceful prime, in a time before it became an uninhabited wasteland. He can make himself invisible using the Reality Stone, as he first spoke to Gamora unseen before revealing himself shortly after undoing the illusion. Thanos can also use the Reality Stone to warp and transmute matter and object into anything he desires, even being able to do this to living organisms, as he effortlessly incapacitated Guardians Drax and Mantis by temporarily warping their physical bodies, splitting Drax's body into pieces and turning Mantis into still-conscious strips of flesh. While he did this by sending a beam from the Reality Stone, he can also silently do this and without needing to fire a beam, as when Star-Lord reluctantly attempted to execute his teammate and lover, Gamora, to prevent her capture by Thanos, the Titan silently transmuted his Quad Blasters to harmlessly fire bubbles, before transforming the weapon itself into bubbles, and would later do the same to Gamora's dagger on Vormir to prevent her committing suicide. Thanos can use this very effectively in combat, as evidenced when he fought in Titan and Wakanda, transmuting a field of ship wreckage into a swarm of bats to attack Iron Man. He can also manipulate the earth with the stone, spawning a cage of stone pillars to trap Black Widow and pulling the surface of Titan itself to pull Doctor Strange into his hand. Upon completing the Infinity Gauntlet, thus reaching the highest level of power the Reality Stone can exert, he became able to warp reality to such an extent that he was even able to cause the bodies of others to turn to dust at a global scale, even while severely injured, causing the victims of his genocide to disintegrate to ashes, with just a snap of his fingers.

Energy Manipulation: After inserting the Power Stone into his Infinity Gauntlet, Thanos acquires complete control over the destructive force of the universe, giving him vast energy-manipulating powers. Due to his strong understanding of the Power Stone's capabilities, Thanos was able to use it for more diverse and versatile capabilities, with the Stone becoming one of his most versatile and often-used in combat for its destructive potential. Thanos' control over the energy of the Power Stone can allow him to infuse it into the Gauntlet, with it being strong enough to shatter a gateway to the Mirror Dimension sent to him by Doctor Strange. With a single gesture from the Gauntlet, Thanos is able to manipulate and specifically unleash the Stone's power to charge objects with unstable energy, causing them to overload and violently detonate. Thanos makes common use of this ability due to its versatility and combat potential, as he is able to control the time and size of the detonation, whether instantly or slowly as Thanos used the Stone to slowly overload and detonate the damaged Statesman after retrieving the Space Stone, giving himself time to teleport him and his Children out and later used the Stone's energy and versatile destructive powers to devastating effect, violently and instantly detonating a ruined spaceship fragment that was dropped on him by Iron Man. He can even exert such powerful energy that it was even powerful enough to rip apart the surface of Titan's moon with its sheer power. Thanos can also unleash tremendously powerful blasts or waves of the Stone's explosive energy, applying powerful concussive force or outright destroying objects with its volatile power. A wild shockwave of energy was able to knock out Star-Lord, Drax and Nebula instantaneously, with all three individuals having great superhuman resilience, while a few concussive waves were enough to effortlessly repel attacks and blast away the majority of the opposing Avengers during the Battle of Wakanda. The Stone's energy could also be concentrated into direct beams of power with enough power to be capable of cleaving through structures with ease, forcing back a shielded Iron Man, and heavily damaging the Avenger's armor with a single point-blank blast. Thanos could also use the stone for more subtle applications, such as exerting the energy upon others to torture them. During the Attack on the Statesman, Thanos utilized the Stone to torture an injured Thor, pushing the Stone into his head and causing the Asgardian excruciating pain using its energy. Used together with the Space Stone, Thanos also brutally tortured Nebula with its power, by telekinetically pulling her mechanical components apart while exposing her to the energy of the Power Stone. With the Power Stone, Thanos can also negate and redirect oncoming energy attacks, as he easily prevented Black Panther from using his kinetic energy pulse and redirected it to the earth when he struck the latter to the ground.

Time Manipulation: After inserting the Time Stone into his Infinity Gauntlet, Thanos acquires complete control over time. Quickly completely mastering the Time Stone's powers, while using it similarly to Doctor Strange's method, although he does not need Eldritch Magic and simply needs to clench the Gauntlet to activate the Time Manipulation Magic, causing the same symbol of the Eye of Agamotto to appear in the palm of his Gauntlet's hand and similarly conjuring said symbol as he uses it. His skill is shown to be far more refined than Doctor Strange's, as Thanos has the skill needed to rewind time with the level of finesse needed to truly recreate an object, even one as powerful as an Infinity Stone, while simultaneously resurrecting a being and keeping some from being affected by it, as he was able to recreate the events where Vision died, so as to resurrect Vision and recreate the Mind Stone, even after Wanda Maximoff had destroyed both of them, while also keeping the Avengers from being affected to prevent them from trying to stop him, whereas Doctor Strange could not truly recreate the stolen pages of the Book of Cagliostro with the Time Stone, although this may have been aided by the fact that the Time Stone was amplified by the Gauntlet already having 4 other Stones. At the height of the Time Stone's powers, with the Infinity Gauntlet having been completed, Thanos gains the ability to accelerate the time of living creatures at a global scale, even able to do this while badly wounded, with the victims of his genocide quickly aging and becoming decomposable brown corpses.

Soul Manipulation: After inserting the Soul Stone into the Infinity Gauntlet, Thanos acquires complete control over souls as well as life and death, giving him divine authority over souls and the right to decide who lives and who dies. With the Soul Stone, Thanos can detect and attack the souls of others, allowing him to identify the real one among mystical replicas of others and attack them, as evidenced when he was able to tell which one is the real Doctor Strange and disperse his duplicates with a single burst of energy, also pushing the sorcerer's astral form out of his body for a while. Upon completing the Infinity Gauntlet and greatly enhancing the Soul Stone's powers as a result, Thanos gained the ability to induce death by wiping the very souls of his targets at a global scale to the point that, even with a severe injury, he still was able to use the Soul Stone in conjunction with the other Stones to successfully wipe out half of the universe, erasing the victim's souls from existence. This catastrophic event even claimed the lives of most of the Avengers and all of the Guardians of the Galaxy, with the exception of Rocket Raccoon and Nebula. The Soul Stone also can conjure dreams for Thanos to recover from exhaustion and speak with someone he cherishes, as after wiping out half of all life in the Universe, the sheer energy required to achieve such a feat nearly overwhelmed Thanos, and briefly sent him into a dream state caused by the Soul Stone itself, transporting his mind to a world consisting of a barren, infinite expanse of feet-high water under an orange sky. Within the dream world, Thanos saw himself as without the Gauntlet or his injuries sustained from Stormbreaker. Before returning to his senses, he was briefly able to communicate with a reflection of his deceased daughter, Gamora, standing under a Zen-Whoberi gateway - in the form of the young child she was when Thanos first met and adopted her - telling her of his final fulfillment of his lifelong goal and admitting to her the great cost and sacrifices made to achieve it.

Death Inducement: This ability is Thanos' most terrifying and yet the mightiest demonstration of his true power. After completing the Gauntlet, Thanos becomes able to use the powers of the Reality, Time, and Soul Stones at such a vast scale as to wipe out half of the universe with just the snap of his fingers, successfully achieving this even after being severely wounded by Thor using Stormbreaker. The victims of the universal genocide quickly aged before turning into a brown decomposing corpse, disintegrating them and erasing them from their physical existence.

Abilities

Genius-Level Intellect: Even in his youth, Thanos was deemed a genius among his kind, despite his deformation. His long life allowed Thanos to refine his intellectual aptitude to the highest degree, making him exceptionally intelligent. Hence, due to Thanos' intellectual genius, he is among the most intelligent (if not the most intelligent) individuals in the universe. His intellect makes him incredibly lethal even without using his powers or fighting skills, as displayed by his ability to conquer many worlds. By simply using his manipulative and strategic skills, he indirectly causes the Battle of Xandar and Chitauri Invasion, both of which caused the formations of the Guardians of the Galaxy and the Avengers to fight their respective battles. All the while, Thanos remained effectively anonymous, so much so that even the extremely intelligent Iron Man was completely fooled into believing that Loki had no aid during his invasion, and with Doctor Strange initially not having Thanos on his list of otherworldly threats. It was only after Thor received a vision on the Infinity Stones that he was able to figure out Thanos' involvement, with Thor admitting that Thanos had been using his intellect to play a very intricate game and has effectively used the Avengers as pawns without them even realizing it until Thor saw the vision. Thanos was even clever enough to be considerably superior to Loki himself, as he easily outsmarted him on more than one occasion - he not only successfully used Loki as a pawn without the latter realizing it for a long time, but he was later also able to successfully finish off the God of Mischief by easily predicting that he would attempt an assassination and countering it casually. Thanos also easily deceived the Guardians of the Galaxy into letting their guard down, thus allowing Thanos to incapacitate them and capture Gamora. Thanos is also highly perceptive, as he is not fooled at all by Loki and easily saw through Gamora's lies that she never found the Soul Stone. That said, Thanos' high view of his intellect is also the reason he failed as shown when his 2014 self got killed by letting his anger at the 2018 Avengers get the best of him after they proved him wrong.

Master of Manipulation: Thanos is an exceptionally skillful and experienced master of manipulation, quite possibly the best manipulator in the universe, as without leaving his throne, with superb manipulations of powerful beings alone, Thanos was able to cause the Battle of Xandar and Chitauri Invasion, which were among the most devastating battles ever known. He even managed to manipulate someone as intelligent as Loki, who was famous for his manipulation skills, with ease by using his distaste for Thor and Odin. Thor has said that Thanos has been playing a very intricate game for years with such efficiency that he has effectively manipulated the Avengers as pawns for his plans.

Master Tactician and Strategist: Thanos is an exceptionally accomplished strategist and tactician, with centuries of experience in using strategies, quite possibly the best master of tactical warfare currently in the universe. Thanos' mastery and experience in using strategy and tactics allows him to create extremely complex and well-coordinated plans and execute them effectively, with the strategies he created and employed being so effective that he gave the Avengers and Guardians of the Galaxy great trouble all the while remaining anonymous. Thanos is even a far more skilled tactician than Loki, who was famous for being a crafty genius in orchestrating cunning schemes, as he easily deceived the God of Mischief into becoming his minion and later easily predicted and outsmarted Loki's attempt to assassinate him and successfully finished him off. Thanos' strategical aptitude also allows him to accurately predict incoming events and effectively manipulate said events to his advantage, as he was able to anticipate the Guardians going to Knowhere to retrieve the Reality Stone and arrived there before they could prevent him from taking it. Thanos even went as far as to set up a brilliant trap for the Guardians by casting an illusion to fool them into believing that he is still torturing the Collector for the Reality Stone while in actuality he had acquired the Reality Stone long before they arrived, all the while easily manipulating Gamora using illusions specifically seen in her mind to lure her into emotionally charging at Thanos, which worked to a great effect, catching Gamora and the Guardians completely off-guard and allowing Thanos to successfully capture Gamora and escape from the Guardians uninjured.

Master Leader: Thanos is an extremely skilled leader, with a large amount of charisma despite his intimidating persona, inspiring absolute loyalty to the violent and powerful armies of Chitauri and Outriders and members of the Black Order. He is known for having easily decimated dozens of species with his powerful army, killing the Zenohebrei and Luphomoid species.

Polymath: Thanos is also shown to be quite learned and accomplished in many subjects, such as math and science, with him thus being able to accurately predict that his people and planet was about to be devastated due to overpopulation, which he claims to be a simple calculus to him.

Master Martial Artist: Thanos wielded supreme fighting prowess and millennia worth of fighting experience, easily the deadliest fighter in the universe. His style is shown to be fluid, as he first defends against his enemy before unleashing a devastating barrage of attacks. He was able to easily fight off and quickly force back both Doctor Strange using a sword made of Eldritch Magic, and Drax with his knives while his right eye was blinded by a web cotton, easily fight off and swiftly pummel Spider-Man with only one hand while his other hand was restricted by the Cloak of Levitation) and easily defeat and grievously wound Iron Man (despite Iron Man's nanotech Mark L armor and sword, which he easily disarmed and used to land the severe wound), with only Doctor Strange's intervention saving Iron Man from death. Additionally, Thanos easily countered Black Panther's charge by choking him with a single hand and then pummeled him to the ground with a single punch, as well as effortlessly defeated and knocked out Captain America with a single blow. Most impressively, Thanos was even able to defeat and beat Hulk (the former undefeatable champion of the Grandmaster's Contest of Champions) to a bloody pulp with ease with well-coordinated attacks, something Iron Man could only do after a long battle and a moment of distraction, as well as defeat a fully-empowered Thor without much effort. It was only with a sneak attack that Thor, armed with Stormbreaker, was able to land a severe wound on Thanos, but even then the Mad Titan was able to quickly recover. The 2014 Thanos was able to easily repeatedly knock around Thor, Captain America, and Iron Man while also using his sword, with him not only easily downing Rogers and Stark unarmed but even overpowering Thor upon being disarmed of his sword when he was armed with Stormbreaker and soundly pummeling him. He was also able to surpass and ultimately defeat Captain Marvel and could overpower both Thor using both Mjolnir and his axe and Rogers ultimately. One should note, however, that he only beat Carol because he outsmarted her; not because he was the more skilled/powerful fighter.

Master Swordsman: Thanos was an extremely skilled swordsman, using a double-edged sword as his main weapon, with which he was able to easily fight off the combined assault of Captain America, Thor, and Iron Man, including the latter's lasers, even when powered by Thor's lightning, before being disarmed by Thor and near-entirely pressure Captain America into the defensive and soon gain the upper hand and break his shield. He was also able to use it skillfully to deflect energy projections from Scarlet Witch and nearly managed to defeat her, pushing the sword dangerously close to her neck, forcing her to use her powers to disarm him. He can throw it with dangerous accuracy, even able to achieve a boomerang-like effect, as he accurately threw it at Thor and it quickly returned to him after he missed, hit the superhumanly fast Black Panther in mid-air and even outpaced Captain Marvel to Luis's Van.

Torturer: Thanos is shown to be highly accomplished in many fields of torture, with his skills in torture being quite famous, as the Other implied Thanos can cause so much suffering to Loki that he would beg for pain itself. His mastery of torturing techniques allows him to inflict the maximum amount of damage without killing the subject, as when he tortured Nebula to make Gamora give up the location of the Soul Stone, Thanos used the Infinity Gauntlet to painfully pull apart Nebula's cybernetic implants, but he was casually able to avoid truly ripping the necessary implants apart in order to cause her severe pain without killing her. The torture was effective enough that Gamora fairly quickly gave in and told Thanos the location of the Soul Stone to spare Nebula from further torture.

EBONY MAW

Ebony Maw is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe, serving as one of the secondary antagonists of Avengers: Infinity War and as a minor antagonist in its sequel Avengers: Endgame.

He is the herald of the Black Order who (alongside Corvus Glaive, Cull Obsidian, and Proxima Midnight) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Maw was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by the deceased Surtur. Along with his father and siblings, he slaughtered the Asgardians and tells them to rejoice in becoming children of Thanos, before Thanos is attacked by the Hulk. Although Obsidian intends to help Thanos, Maw tells him to stand down, knowing that Thanos is too strong for the Hulk to defeat. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Hemidall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Maw uses his powers to restrain Thor, making him watch Thanos forcing Loki to surrender the Space Stone (the Tesseract). It is also revealed that Maw was involved in his father's attack on the planet Zen-Whoberi along with the Chitauri, massacred half the Zehoberei population (including Gamora's family) and took in Gamora. After Thanos kills Loki, Maw escaped with his family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Eye of Agamotto, Maw and Obsidian tracked down its current location in New York City, where they laid down an attack in to draw out Doctor Strange (the current holder of the Eye), also attracting Tony Stark, Wong, Bruce Banner (who had warned the group about Thanos) and Spider-Man. Despite the heroes' efforts, Maw managed to capture Strange and flies away on his ship, intending to deliver the Eye to Thanos at the planet Titan while Obsidian meets up with Proxima and Glaive to later attack Wakanda to get the Mind Stone.

Unknown to Maw, Tony and Spider-Man had snuck on-board to stop him and save Strange. Maw begins torturing Strange to force him to release the Time Stone, while Tony and Spider-Man come up with a plan, leading to Spider-Man asking Tony if he has ever seen the film Aliens. Tony soon confronts Maw, who arrogantly remarks that his abilities are superior to Tony's and he will kill him easily, although the latter states "yeah, but the kid has seen more movies" before blasting a hole in the ship. Maw is then sucked out into space, where he freezes to death while his ship crashes on Titan. His siblings would later meet the same fate along with their army of Outriders during the battle in Wakanda.

Despite the losses, Thanos shows no regard for Ebony's death when he arrived on Titan and deduced it after seeing Doctor Strange free and waiting for him as he managed to collect the Time Stone after defeating the heroes in Titan; though he did say that Ebony carried his mission anyway by dragging Strange to Titan, implying that he appreciated his adopted son's efforts. Thanos then heads over to Earth to successfully collect the Mind Stone, allowing himself to use the Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace (including several Avengers and Guardians), much to the surviving heroes' distraught.

Avengers: Endgame

Five years after Thanos' destruction of half of all life, the remaining Avengers and Guardians use the properties of the Quantum Realm to travel back to different points in time to collect the Infinity Stones and use them to undo Thanos' actions; however, due to the sensors of the past and future Nebula interfering, the past Nebula inadvertently reveals to Thanos that the future Nebula and War Machine are on Morag preparing to take the Power Stone. Thanos takes Nebula to Maw to be inspected, and by searching through her memories they learn that Thanos will ultimately succeed in his goal, much to his joy. However, Maw goes further into Nebula's memories, also revealing to them that Thanos will be killed and that the Avengers will still try to reverse his actions.

With this knowledge in mind, Thanos has the future Nebula abducted before she can return to the present and swaps the past Nebula (who is still loyal to him) in her place, allowing her to transport Thanos and his forces, Maw included, into the future; right after Hulk construct and use the Avenger's own Infinity Gauntlet to revive everyone who had been killed. Thanos proceeds to bomb the Avengers' headquarters and, after revealing his new plan to decimate the entire universe and the create a new universe in his image to Thor, Iron Man and Captain America before defeating them, unleashes his forces (including Maw and the rest of the Black Order, the Chitauri, the Outriders, and the Sakaaran Mercenaries) to destroy the remaining Avengers and ravage the earth. However, they are opposed by an army of the Avengers' revived allies, who battle Maw and the others as they try to get their hands on the Infinity Gauntlet. Following a massive battle, Iron Man ultimately sacrifices himself by attaching the Infinity Stones to his armor and using their power to decimate Thanos and his armies. This resulted resulting in a distraught Thanos watching Maw, as Maw bowed to his master for the final time as a gesture of loyalty to his dying master before dying himself.

PROXIMA MIDNIGHT

Proxima Midnight is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe, serving as one of the secondary antagonists of the 2018 Marvel blockbuster film Avengers: Infinity War, and as a minor antagonist in its 2019 sequel Avengers: Endgame.

She is a high-ranking member of the Black Order who (alongside Ebony Maw, Corvus Glaive and Cull Obsidian) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Proxima was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by the deceased Surtur. Along with her father and siblings, she slaughtered the Asgardians to their deaths just as Thanos fights against the raging Hulk. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Hemidall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Proxima helps her siblings in forcing Loki to surrender the Space Stone (the Tesseract) to Thanos. It is also revealed that Proxima was involved of her father's attack on the planet Xandar to gain possession of the Power Stone (the Orb), which he used to destroy Xandar. After Thanos kills Loki, Proxima escaped with her family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Mind Stone, Proxima and Glaive tracked down its location in Scotland, where they spot Vision (the current holder of the Mind Stone) and Scarlet Witch. Both Proxima and Glaive attempt to ambush the two, but the arrival of Captain America, Black Widow and Falcon forced the two to escape back into space. The Avengers then send Vision out to Wakanda, in hopes that they could use its technology to safely remove the Mind Stone and destroy it with Scarlet Witch's powers.

After collecting the Aether and the Soul Stone, Thanos heads over to Titan, where he defeated several Avengers and Guardians to get the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto). Around the same time, he sends Proxima, Corvus and Obsidian to Wakanda, ordering them to lead a massive army of Outriders to attack the country and obtain the Mind Stone at all costs. This forces several Avengers and Wakandan warriors to fight back against the massive army. During the battle, Proxima eventually meets her end when Scarlet Witch uses her magic to blast her into the spinning blades of one of her own war machines, but not before Proxima tells her that Vision will die alone and that Scarlet Witch will suffer the same fate. The rest of Proxima's siblings and the Outriders ends up being killed as well, thanks to the arrival of a returning Thor, Rocket Racoon, and Groot with a new powerful weapon called Stormbreaker.

Despite the massive losses, an arriving Thanos didn't care about Proxima's death as he managed to obtain the Mind Stone while killing Vision at the same time. Even when Thor used Stormbreaker to strike Thanos in the chest, Thanos used all of the Infinity Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace in retaliation, taunting Thor that he should aimed for the head instead. Proxima's prediction even became true when Scarlet Witch starts to disintegrate to her death along with several Avengers and Guardians while a triumphant Thanos escapes and oversees a sunrise from another planet.

Avengers: Endgame

She can be seen during the final battle along with the rest of the Black Order. They began to fight until they ended up dead along with the rest of Thanos' forces after Iron Man's snap. Before being disintegrated herself alongside Corvus, Proxima can be seen in the background cradling Corvus himself, who had been wounded early on by Okoye.

CORVUS GLAIVE

Corvus Glaive is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe, serving as one of the secondary antagonists of the 2018 Marvel blockbuster film Avengers: Infinity War, and as a minor antagonist in its 2019 sequel Avengers: Endgame.

He is a high-ranking member of the Black Order who (alongside Ebony Maw, Cull Obsidian, and Proxima Midnight) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Glaive was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by Surtur. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Heimdall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Glaive helps his siblings in forcing Loki to surrender the Space Stone (the Tesseract) to Thanos. It is also revealed that Glaive was involved of his father's attack on the planet Xandar to gain possession of the Power Stone (the Orb), which he used to destroy Xandar. After Thanos kills Loki, Glaive escaped with his family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Mind Stone, Glaive and Proxima tracked down its location in Scotland, where they spot Vision (the current holder of the Mind Stone) and Scarlet Witch. Both Glaive and Proxima attempt to ambush the two, but the arrival of Captain America, Black Widow and Falcon forced the two to escape back into space. The Avengers then send Vision out to Wakanda, in hopes that they could use its technology to safely remove the Mind Stone and destroy it with Scarlet Witch's powers.

After collecting the Aether and the Soul Stone, Thanos heads over to Titan, where he defeated several Avengers and Guardians to get the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto). Around the same time, he sends Proxima, Corvus, and Obsidian to Wakanda, ordering them to lead a massive army of Outriders to attack the country and obtain the Mind Stone at all costs. This forces several Avengers and Wakandan warriors to fight back against the massive army. During the battle, Glaive infiltrated into the Wakandan palace after defeating Shuri and Ayo before engaging into a fight against Vision and then Captain America, assuring to Vision that he will die an ordinary man. However, after taking his weapon, Vision kills Glaive by stabbing him from behind, just as soon as the rest of his siblings and the Outriders end up being killed as well (thanks to the arrival of a returning Thor, Rocket Racoon, and Groot with a new powerful weapon called Stormbreaker).

Despite the massive losses, Glaive's prediction became true when an arriving Thanos managed to obtain the Mind Stone while killing Vision at the same time. Even when Thor used Stormbreaker to violently strike Thanos in the chest, Thanos used all of the Infinity Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace (including several Avengers and Guardians) before escaping away, taunting Thor that he should've aimed for the head instead.

Avengers: Endgame

Five years after Thanos' destruction of half of all life, the remaining Avengers and Guardians use the properties of the Quantum Realm to travel back to different points in time to collect the Infinity Stones and use them to undo Thanos' actions; however, due to the sensors of Nebula's past and future selves interfering, the Thanos of 2014 ends up learning of the Avenger's plans and that they had killed him in their time. Knowing this, Thanos decides to use the Stones to wipe out all life and create a new universe, and has 2014 Nebula impersonate her future counterpart and bring his ship and all of his forces, Glaive included, to the future.

After bombing the Avenger's headquarters and defeating Thor, Iron Man and Captain America, Thanos unleashes all of his minions upon the earth to overrun his enemies and destroy the planet, Glaive and the other Children of Thanos, along with the Chitauri and Outriders, among them. However, they are opposed by an army of the Avengers' revived allies, who battle Glaive and the others as they try to get their hands on the Infinity Gauntlet. During the battle, Thanos is overcome by Scarlet Witch and orders Glaive to have their ship bomb the battlefield, which he does; though this attempt to destroy the heroes fails when Captain Marvel arrives and destroys the ship. Glaive is then wounded by Okoye shortly afterwards, and is later killed along with the rest of Thanos' forces when Iron Man sacrifices himself in using the Gauntlet to destroy them and Thanos.

CULL OBSIDIAN

Cull Obsidian is a major antagonist in the Infinity Saga of the Marvel Cinematic Universe. He serves as one of the secondary antagonists of the 2018 Marvel blockbuster film Avengers: Infinity War, and as a minor antagonist in its 2019 sequel Avengers: Endgame.

He is a high-ranking member of the Black Order and, physically, the strongest one of them all. He (alongside Ebony Maw, Corvus Glaive and Proxima Midnight) assists Thanos in his quest to collect the Infinity Stones.

Obsidian was first seen raiding the Asgardians' ship following the destruction of Asgard by the deceased Surtur. Along with his father and siblings, he slaughtered the Asgardians to their deaths just as Thanos fights against the raging Hulk. Although Obsidian intends to help Thanos, Maw tells him to stand down, knowing that Thanos is too strong for the Hulk to defeat. When the defeated Hulk is sent back to Earth by Hemidall (who ends up being killed by Thanos), Obsidian helps his siblings in forcing Loki in surrendering the Space Stone (the Tesseract) to Thanos. It is also revealed that Obsidian was involved of his father's attack on the planet Xandar to gain possession of the Power Stone (the Orb), which he used to destroy Xandar. After Thanos kills Loki, Obsidian escaped with his family as Thanos uses the Orb to destroy the Asgardians' ship, leaving a helpless Thor to drift in space.

With two of the Infinity Stones in place, Thanos sends the Black Order to Earth to collect the Time Stone (the Eye of Agamotto) and the Mind Stone while he personally travels to Knowhere to collect the Reality Stone (the Aether) from the Collector and Vormir to collect the Soul Stone from the Red Skull. Assigned to collect the Eye of Agamotto, Maw and Obsidian tracked down its current location in New York City, where they laid down an attack in to draw Iron Man, Spider-Man and Doctor Strange (the current holder of the Eye) into the scene. Despite the heroes' efforts, Maw managed to capture Strange and flies away on his ship, intending to deliver the Eye to Thanos at the planet Titan while Obsidian meets up with Proxima and Glaive after their failed attempt to collect the Mind Stone.

After collecting the Aether, the Soul Stone and the Eye of Agamotto, Thanos sends Proxima, Glaive and Obsidian to Wakanda, ordering them to lead a massive army of Outriders to attack the country and obtain the Mind Stone at all costs. This forces several Avengers and Wakandan warriors to fight back against the massive army. During the battle, Obsidian engaged into a fight against Bruce Banner wearing a Hulkbuster suit. Though he managed to tear off one of Banner's arms, Banner set the arm flying by activating its thrusters, sending Obsidian into the forcefield protecting Wakanda until he exploded to his death. His siblings and the Outriders would later meet the same fate after being killed by the Avengers and Guardians.

Despite the losses, an arriving Thanos didn't care about Obsidian's death and managed to collect the Mind Stone after killing Vision. Thanos then used all of the Infinity Stones to wipe out half of the universe's populace (including several Avengers and Guardians), much to the heroes' distraught.

Avengers: Endgame

He can be seen during the final battle, along with the rest of the Black Order. Cull began to fight Korg before being stepped on and subsequently killed by Giant Ant-Man.

Thanos: So we meet again J.D.

Me: For the last time Thanos.

Lincoln: You all will pay for your crimes!

Me: (In my head) Ra's, you loved life. You gave everything up to save it. But you saved your daughter from death! But I won't watch anymore people die because of this monster! I feel it slipping.

Something snapped within me.

Me: (In my head) AND I WON'T LET THIS MONSTER WIN! (OUT LOUD) AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHH

The whole control room exploded into a massive fiery inferno in an instant!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I was screaming like a madman as my Super Angel 30,000 Power was rising at an accelerated rate! My power was causing the entirety of the very fabric of the universe to quake with fear!

Vegeta: (Gasps) It's unreal!

Nico: HOLY SHIT! WHAT POWER!

Trunks: This is it!

Gohan: Wow! What power!

Me: I WILL NEVER FORGIVE YOU!

(Gohan's Anger Theme Plays)

Fire, Lightning, Water, Wind, Earth, Light, Darkness and Aura energy were swirling around me all over and my power was rising more! My muscles were bigger and my hair grew longer and changed into a different color! I then screamed and unleashed the full extent of my power! When it calmed down, I was forever changed. I was a whole new different person with a massively powerful and whole new transformation! I was now a SUPER ANGEL-EBONWU 100,000 ELEMENTAL PHOENIX! My hair had a rainbow chronmage, my aura was now a rainbow aura and it had all the elemental forces of nature swirling around me and my eyes had star sclera and they had rainbow irises. It was all a combination of my Super Angel forms and Super Ebonwu forms all together. My power was so strong that everything and everyone all over the entire universe felt its incredible force! I also had my Wolf Moon trench coat on and my wings now had rainbow flames on them.

Nico: WOW! Look at J.D.!

Lincoln: His power is really unreal!

Laney: He turned into a whole new different person!

Varie: Wow! J.D. you look incredible!

Vince: You sure do partner. Wow!

Goku: Whoa! Your power is incredible!

Vegeta: J.D. you are amazing!

Trunks: Just what I was gonna say Father.

Me: (Divine voice) Thanks guys. All that training in the Hyperbolic Time Chamber is about to be put to good use. Lets power up.

Nico: With pleasure.

We all powered up to the extreme! We flared up powerful auras and we were at an all time incredible high with our power.

We went at Thanos and all his followers.

THE BATTLE THAT WILL DECIDE THE FATE OF THE UNIVERSE HAS BEGUN!

We charged fast and we rammed each other in a massive fiery explosion.

TTTTHHHHHOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew most of his men away! I punched Thanos in the face and a massive fiery explosion blew him back on impact and sent him crashing into the wall.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Nico: NUOVA DEATH RAY!

The 4-Star Dragonball on his bracelet glowed and he formed 7 powerful magnifying glass lenses and he fired powerful solar laser blasts at a bunch of Thanos's men and they skewered them and exploded all over the place.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Deadpool: You are not even worth a good joke motherfucker! DEADPOOL RAPID FIRE!

Deadpool fired a massive hail of bullets all at Thanos and they hit him all over.

Grodd: In the name of the Legion Of Doom, you will never be like us! SUPER PSYCHIC DEATH BALL!

Grodd fired a powerful ball of psychic energy from his mind and it hit Thanos and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lincoln: You are never gonna be welcome in our universe! LIGHTNING MEGADRAGON DEATH RAY!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and it turned into a powerful dragon made of pure lightning and it slammed into him and exploded all over.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Thanos was weakened and down for the count.

Me: It's over Thanos.

I took Thanos's Infinity Guantlet, put it on and put all the Infinity Stones in it.

Me: You will pay for all of your crimes against the universe. I'm going to snap you and all of your followers out of existence forever!

Thanos: You fool! By using the Infinity Gauntlet and the Stones, you'll kill yourself!

Me: Nothing else matters as long as everyone else is safe!

But just as I about to snap my fingers, Bowser pushes me out of the way.

Me: Bowser! What are you doing!?

Bowser: Sorry, J.D. but I can't let you do this.

Thanos: I do not need your assistance, Bowser. You had your chances to defeat Team Loud Phoenix Storm, and you have been nothing but a failure.

Bowser: I've failed at many things, Thanos, but I won't fail at this!

Bowser Jr.: (realizes what's about to happen) Dad, no! (Bowser snaps his fingers)

Bowser turns Thanos and his goons to dust at the cost of his own life. We saw Thanos and all of his men and followers and even his own ship disintegrate in an instant! They were completely erased from existence forever! Like Hakai on steroids. We were on an asteroid holding on to Bowser.

Bowser Jr.: (cries) Dad, hang in there. We'll get you healed up!

Bowser: (Weakly) Junior, no. Consider this redemption for my crimes. But I'll always love you no matter what. Remember that.

Bowser Jr.: I will.

Mario: (cries) Bowser, why did you do this?

Bowser: Isn't this what you guys were taught to do? Isn't this what a hero would do? Isn't this what a best friend would do?

Mario: (smiles) Yes. It is what a best friend would do. My best friend.

Bowser: (smiles weakly) You and Team Loud Phoenix Storm have great power, Mario. And the world needs you guys more than it needs me.

And with that, Bowser dies in Mario's arms.

Bowser was gone. But the good news is that Thanos and the entire Black Order had been silenced forever. The Universe was free of their terror.

We went back to Earth.

* * *

Later we were having a funeral for Bowser and Ra's Al Ghul.

Me: We are here to honor two mighty heroes that have not only redeemed themselves but saved the lives of countless people all over the universe. Those two brave heroes are Bowser, former enemy of the entire Mushroom Kingdom, who for 34 years since 1985 has tried countless times to kidnap Princess Peach and rule over the Mushroom Kingdom. Not just in video games, but in real life as well. Bowser may have been the Lord of the Koopas, but he is one of the bravest and best friends of Mario and Luigi. The 2nd one is Ra's Al Ghul. For 602 years, Ra's has been walking the world thanks to the healing and rejuvenating properties of the chemicals in the Lazarus Pits around the world. He had a huge secret organization and a massive band of followers that have done so much for him. But his goal above all others was to return the world to what it was. Sure it might've resulted in the annihilation of billions of people. But he was trying to help our hone planet. Ra's may have been an ecoterrorist but he was a good man with 500 years of experiences from his journey to help him. He met all kinds of famous figures from history during that journey. Let us honor a magnificent and amazing soul who has outlived everyone for 602 years from 1417 to 2019. If it weren't for Bowser and Ra's Al Ghul's ultimate sacrifice and courageous acts of valor, the universe would not be here.

We prayed for him.

We later had a reception for the funeral and Talia was crying hard. I was comforting her.

Captain Cold: Flash, I speak for all 6 of us and say that we've decided to turn ourselves in.

Flash: Really? Why?

Top: It's what Ra's and Bowser would've wanted.

Mirror Master: You guys can still fight our other selves with your simulator. But for now, it's time for us to do the right thing for once.

Flash: I understand.

They put the cuffs on them.

Andros: (to the Psycho Rangers) So what now? Do we start fighting each other again?

Psycho Red: (solemnly) No. We won't fight you Rangers today. All of you have earned our respect. But next time, it'll be business as usual.

With that, the Psycho Rangers teleported out.

Superman: So what now, Grodd? Do we go back to our war?

Grodd: (sighs) Not this time, Superman. This whole ordeal has taught me that crime just isn't worth it anymore. So I've disbanded the Legion of Doom. All of the members have left the base and the equipment has been cleared out.

Trailbreaker: What about you?

Grodd: Me? I'm going to use my helmet and my psychic powers to overload my brain and reduce my mind to that of a normal ape.

Lucy Loud: We can't let you do that, Grodd. You're too much of a worthy opponent to quit now.

Grodd: (chuckles) I'm flattered to hear that. But this time, you all don't have a choice.

We could only watch as Grodd puts his helmet on and uses his powers on himself to fry his brain and reduce his mind to that of a normal ape.

Nico: I'll take him back to Gorilla City.

Lincoln: Okay.

Nico did so.

William: (to the remaining villains) To those of you we haven't captured yet, you all can go. But when we find you the next time, you're in for a fight.

Cybertron Crumplezone: But the villains we did bust better go back to their cells!

They did so.

But little did we know, that someone was watching us and listening from the Shadows. It was Vypra and Dark Jack Spicer.

Vypra: (walks out of the shadows) Looks like the Legion of Doom is no more.

Dark Spicer: (walks out of the shadows wearing the Antitrix) That's fine. Now, it's time for the Masters of Evil to rise.

They laughed malevolently.

We went back to the estate and we erected statues of Bowser and Ra's in their memory. We put the Infinity Stones back in the vault.

Superman: (To the viewers) Not even Universe-Destroying monsters like Thanos will be a match for all of the incredible power of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, The Justice League, The Avengers and all of the villains that have helped us.

Me: You said it Kal. But you were awesome. We all were.

Nico: And how.

Me: We've now seen the last of Thanos the Mad Titan and the Black Order.

Lincoln: We sure have.

We went to bed after a long and devastating battle.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and Thanos is dead!

WHOO HOO! This was awesome! Thanos was beyond a shadow of a doubt the most powerful villain that all of the Avengers and the entirety of the heroes of marvel faced! But we had the villains and heroes work together to bring him down. This was an explosive battle like with Unicron and it took everything we got to bring down Thanos. I never saw Infinity War or Endgame but I heard that they were both awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think! Thank you all fellow True Believers! EXCELSIOR! Next up is Scooby Doo and the Legend of The Phantosaur! Get ready for an awesome prehistoric mystery with Mystery Inc!

See you all tomorrow.

Legend of The Phantosaur

At the Burpin' Burger we were having a nice lunch and we were having burgers and all kinds of drinks.

Nico: I'd like to propose a toast to Bowser and Ra's Al Ghul. They started out as villains. But in the end, they redeemed themselves as heroes. Without them, the universe wouldn't be standing right now.

Me and everyone: HERE HERE!

We clinked our glasses together.

Me: What Ra's and Bowser did saved all of us.

Laney: Yeah. Thanos was the most powerful opponent we've ever faced.

Me: But all of us together completely overwhelmed him.

Lana: We sure have.

Amorpho: Me and the other ghosts couldn't find Bowser and Ra's' spirits in the Ghost Zone. So, they must've been accepted into Heaven.

Me: They can rest in peace.

Lincoln: You know what? When we get home, I'm going to play Super Smash Bros Ultimate and go through Bowser's Classic mode in honor of him.

Blaster: I think you should go for it, Lincoln.

Me: Yeah. Go for it.

Lincoln: I will.

We enjoyed our lunch in honor of Ra's and Bowser.

At Hogwarts, Me, Nico, Murray, Soundwave, Lincoln, Liberty, Carla Pusateri, Qin, Harry Potter, Ron Weasley, Hermione Granger, Ginny Weasley and Laney were checking out the Hogwarts Common Rooms. First we were heading to the Gryffindor's Common Room.

---

Gryffindor Common Room serves as a Common room for Gryffindor House at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. In general, it sports several shades of red and gold. The fireplace mantle is adorned with a portrait of a lion (associated with the house) and the room is described as being 'cosy'.

The entrance to the Gryffindor common room is concealed under the portrait of the Fat Lady, on the lavish Gryffindor Landing.

To enter one must present the Fat Lady with the correct password of the week. However, getting the password wrong means the student will have to wait the day for another student to come by and pass them the code.

Description

The common room is a circular room where Gryffindor students can relax after a long day of studying. It is full of squashy armchairs, tables, and a bulletin board where school notices, ads, lost posters, etc. can be posted. The common room is decorated in several shades of red, which is associated with the house. The common room is comfortable, but not more comfortable than the Hufflepuff basement.

There are many windows that look out onto the grounds of the school, and a large fireplace dominates one wall. The mantle of the fireplace is adorned with a portrait of a lion. The fireplace is also connected to the Floo Network, but as it is extremely public except in the dead of night. The walls are decorated with scarlet tapestries that depict witches and wizards, but also various animals. There are also bookcases located in the room, filled with various novels.

The common room is usually where celebration parties are held after Gryffindor Quidditch victories, or when Harry Potter completed a task for the Triwizard Tournament. It was also the location for Harry and Ginny Weasley's first kiss following Gryffindor's Quidditch Cup victory in 1997. The common room fireplace was used on several occasions by Sirius Black to contact Harry while he was on the run from the Ministry of Magic.

Qin: You guys are gonna love the Gryffindor Common Room.

We were in front of a portrait of a fat woman.

Fat Woman: (British Accent) Password?

Qin: Capot Draconis.

It opened and we saw the Gryffindor Common room and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow! The common room for Gryffindor is amazing.

Nico: Boy it sure is. The fireplace is amazing and the Lion portrait is beautiful.

Qin: It's home within home.

Harry Potter: (British Accent) It's a nice home for all of us.

Hermione Granger: (British Accent) It sure is.

Ginny Weasley: (British Accent) Yeah.

---

Next we were in the Hufflepuff Common Room. With us was Susan Bones.

---

The Hufflepuff Common Room is the Common Room for the Hufflepuff House located in Hufflepuff Basement. In general, it sports several motifs, such as circles, nature, copper and the colours yellow and black (all associated with the house). It also emphasises comfort, said to be "the cosiest common room of them all". It is at one floor below the ground and is very sheltered from the elements, generally allowing students to sleep easier than those in the towers (like Gryffindor and Ravenclaw).

The entrance to the common room is located "in a nook on the right hand side of the kitchen corridor", concealed behind a stack of barrels. In order to reveal the entrance, no password is required. Instead, one must tap the barrel two from the bottom, middle of the second row, in the rhythm of 'Helga Hufflepuff', which will make the lid swing open, exposing a passageway that will lead to the basement when crawled through. However, if the wrong lid is tapped or the wrong rhythm is used, the intruder will be doused in vinegar and barred access.

Description

The actual basement itself is round, earthy, low-ceilinged, welcoming, warm, and sunny. There are lots of yellow hangings, burnished copper, and overstuffed sofas and armchairs upholstered in yellow and black, and small circular windows that provide a vista of "rippling grass and dandelions". There is also a large, honey coloured, wooden mantelpiece with carvings of badgers on it. This is located underneath a portrait of the house's founder, Helga Hufflepuff.

The head of house, Pomona Sprout, also teaches Herbology and as such brings many interesting plants in to decorate the common room (some of which dance, talk, and wave), placing them on the windowsills or having them hang from the ceiling, encouraging interest in Herbology (and hence part of why Hufflepuffs tend to be good at it). Various cactii stands on wooden circular shelves that are curved to fit the walls, and copper-bottomed plant holders dangle amid the ceiling with ferns and ivies.

In LEGO Harry Potter: Years 1-4, the walls are decorated with the Hufflepuff crest.

We saw the Hufflepuff Common Room and it was a breathtaking room that looked completely one with nature.

Me: Wow! Susan, your house is amazing.

Laney: It sure is. It's like you're all one with nature.

Susan Bones: (British Accent) It sure is. But it's an amazing home within home.

Laney: That's true.

Liberty: Yep.

---

Next we were in the Ravenclaw Common Room. With us was Maisy Reynolds, a student of Ravenclaw.

---

The Ravenclaw Common Room is a Common Room for Ravenclaw House located in Ravenclaw Tower. In general, it sports several shades of blue with bronze (all associated with the house). It is also the airiest of the four common rooms.

The entrance to the common room is located on the west side of Hogwarts at the top of a spiral staircase, presumably located on the fifth floor, and is a door without a doorknob or keyhole, but a bronze knocker in the shape of an eagle. In order to enter the room, a person must answer a riddle asked by the eagle knocker; if they answer incorrectly, they must wait for someone else who gets it right.

Description

The Ravenclaw Common Room is one of the airiest rooms at Hogwarts. It is a wide, circular room with graceful arched windows that punctuate the walls which were hung with blue and bronze silks and a midnight blue carpet covered in stars, which is reflected onto the domed ceiling. The room is furnished with blue tables, chairs, and a divan. Next to the door leading up to the dormitories stands a tall statue of Rowena Ravenclaw made of white marble. According to Prefect Robert Hilliard, the sound of wind whistling around the windows of the tower is relaxing while going to sleep. Portraits of famous Ravenclaws hang on the walls.

The Ravenclaws also have their own library within the common room, which is nowhere as big as the main library, but have almost as many books. The personal library is located in a niche.

During the day, Ravenclaw students have a spectacular view of the school grounds, including the Great Lake, Forbidden Forest, Quidditch pitch, Herbology greenhouses and the surrounding mountains.

Behind the scenes

In LEGO Harry Potter: Years 1-4, the Ravenclaw Common Room was two-stories and had bookshelves on the bottom floor. The walls are blue and depicted scenes of famous Ravenclaws.

---

Me: Wow. Maisy your Common Room is amazing.

Maisy Reynolds: (British Accent) Thank you. The Ravenclaw Dorm Room is an amazing home within home. We learn everything here and it's our home.

Carla Pusateri: It is beautiful.

Murray: I heard that Hogwarts has really good food.

Me: It does.

Qin: Yep.

---

Lastly we went to the Slytherin Dorm Room. With us was Daphne Greengrass.

---

The Slytherin Common Room is a Common Room for Slytherin House located in Slytherin Dungeon. In general, it sports several shades of green and the mantle is adorned with a portrait of a serpent (all associated with the house).

In Harry Potter's second year, he and Ron Weasley went into the Slytherin common room disguised as Vincent Crabbe and Gregory Goyle with the aid of Polyjuice Potion to attempt to discover the identity of the Heir of Slytherin. The entry password was "Pure-blood" when Draco Malfoy let them in. The Polyjuice Potion's wearing off prompted Harry and Ron to leave after staying nearly an hour, still not finding out the identity of the Heir of Slytherin, but they did learn that Malfoy was not the heir, as they originally thought.

Entrance

There is a door on the right side of the Entrance Hall (if coming down the marble staircase facing the front doors of the castle) that is most frequently used by Slytherin students to get to their common room. Behind the door is a set of stone steps which descend deep into the dungeons.

Note that this door is different from the entrance to the narrow staircase that leads down to Snape's office.

The entrance to the common room is located behind a bare stretch of stone wall in the dungeons of Hogwarts Castle. A password is required to enter it; whereupon a passage is revealed leading to the common room.

Description

"The Slytherin common room was a long, low underground room with rough stone walls and ceiling, from which round, greenish lamps were hanging on chains. A fire was crackling under an elaborately carved mantelpiece ahead of them, and several Slytherins were silhouetted around it in carved chairs."

The common room is a dungeon-like room with greenish lamps and chairs. This dungeon extends partway under the lake, giving the light in the room a green tinge. The common room has lots of low backed black and dark green button-tufted, leather sofas; skulls; and dark wood cupboards. One of the wooden tables has a Wizard's Chess set on it. It is decorated with tapestries featuring the adventures of famous Medieval Slytherins. It has quite a grand atmosphere, but also quite a cold one. It was decorated with pumpkins for Hallowe'en at least once in the 1980s.

The password to the common room changes every fortnight, and it is posted on the noticeboard. Slytherin students are warned never to bring students from other houses into the common room, or to reveal the password. Supposedly, no outsider had entered the common room for more than seven centuries until Harry and Ron entered Slytherin common room in 1992.

As of 2016, a portrait of Horace Slughorn has a place in the common room due to his bravery at the Battle of Hogwarts.

---

Me: Wow. So this is the Slytherin Common Room.

Daphne Greengrass: (British Accent) Yeah for over 700 years we've never had any commoners come in to our dorm room.

Nico: That sucks. Curse Salazar Slytherin and his bigotry.

Me: Yeah. If he were still alive, I would've killed him and sent him off to hell.

Daphne Greengrass: I agree. I've never been a strong believer in what his beliefs were.

Carla Pusateri: Yeah. What a jerk.

Me: But you guys have an awesome aquarium.

Daphne Greengrass: Thank you J.D.

Lincoln: Lana would love this Dorm room. She has snakes and lizards of all kinds.

Harry Potter: It's true.

We saw the beds and they had an awesome hot tub.

Me: A hot tub in the dorm rooms? Awesome.

Daphne Greengrass: Thanks. Here's Malfoy's bed.

We saw his bed and over the right side of it was a dartboard and it had a picture of Harry Potter in the middle and darts were sticking into it.

Me: Geez! He REALLY Hates you Harry.

Harry Potter: Tell me about it.

Me: Anybody that has a dartboard like that and it has a picture of someone on it shows that they have an extreme hatred towards someone.

Lincoln: You got that right.

Me: Here's what I think.

I went over and took the picture of Harry Potter off and replaced it with a picture of Draco Malfoy. I stood back and formed a small fireball in my hand.

Me: Here's what I think of you Draco Fuckmoy.

Draco Malfoy, Vincent Crabbe and Gregory Goyle came in and they saw me throw the fireball and it hit it and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOMMM!

The dartboard and picture of Malfoy were destroyed. I blew the smoke off my finger.

Nico: Nice shot J.D.

Daphne Greengrass: Good show!

Me: Thank you. Thank you.

Draco Malfoy: (British Accent) That was my favorite dartboard!

Me: Draco Malfoy, gentlemen. Like I give a crap.

Vincent Crabbe: (British Accent) What are you commoners doing in here?

Carla Pusateri: Daphne here let us come in.

Me: And for your information I saved one of your own from a Rogue Dementor attack. You should be thanking me.

Murray: Or else The Murray is gonna wail on your faces!

Malfoy: Ha! You can't hurt me here! This is the Slytherin Dorm!

Murray: So? Do we look like we give a damn?

Me: Yeah!

POW!

I punched Draco Malfoy in the face and he crashed into a bed.

Me: Man. That felt good.

Hermione Granger laughed and so did all of Slytherin. Except for Crabbe and Goyle.

Me: (To Crabbe and Goyle) You two better watch it. Or Malfoy's punch to his face will seem like a punch to a pillow.

I revealed that I had spiked knuckledusters on and so did Hermione Granger.

Me: So don't fuck around with us. Or else.

The spikes shined in the light from the bottom to the tips and they were as sharp as a razor blade.

They gulped in fear.

We later went to Professor McGonagall's office.

Me: Hello Professor. Sorry about all the commotion in Slytherin

House.

Professor McGonagall: (British Accent) That's quite all right J.D. Mr. Malfoy's hatred towards Mr. Potter and all of Gryffindor and the other houses has lead to a whole new level.

Nico: Well if he keeps provoking us he will regret it.

Professor McGonagall: Indeed. I want to thank you all for defeating Thanos. Even if the price was high.

Soundwave: Your concern is appreciated, Professor.

Me: But Ra's and Bowser are heroes. They risked their lives to save the entire universe from Total Destruction. Talia is really hurt over the loss of her father.

Professor McGonagall: Poor child. But she will recover.

Me: She will. Ra's told told me to look out for Talia. And that's what I'm gonna do. For over 600 years he lived and now I will live up to his legacy and keep everyone safe.

Professor McGonagall: That's a noble cause.

Me: Thank you professor.

Carla Pusateri: Mom wanted me to become a wizard too and I'm learning all kinds of awesome spells and potions.

Carla sensed Professor Snape coming.

Carla Pusateri: And here comes a good subject.

Snape came in.

Carla Pusateri: Check this out.

She held out her hand.

Carla Pusateri: RIDDIKULUS!

Carla made Professor Snape's clothes turn into women's clothes and he had a silly dress and hat and a red handbag and it was so funny!

Me: (LAUGHS) OH THAT IS HILARIOUS!

Nico: (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY) OH THAT IS TOO FUNNY!

Lincoln: (LAUGHS) THAT IS SO FUNNY!

Laney: (LAUGHS) That is awesome!

Professor McGonagall: (Giggles) That was amusing.

Me: Harry, you saw Neville do that to Snape right?

Harry Potter: I sure did. It was really amusing.

Me: It made practically everybody laugh. Professor Lupin taught all of you well.

We went back to the estate.

---

Later we were on our way to an archaeological dig sight in the middle of the Arizona Desert.

We arrived at the dig sight and we saw that they were digging up for dinosaur bones.

Nicole: Wow! It's a paleontology dig sight!

We were introduced to a colleague of Nicole's: Professor Svankmajer.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Professor.

Professor Svankmajer: Thank you all for coming J.D.

Me: Our pleasure professor.

I then saw Velma falling head over heels with Professor Svankmajer's assistant: Winsor. She and he were in love at first sight.

Laney: Looks like Velma has found her soulmate.

Me: She sure has.

Professor Svankmajer: I see your friend has met my assistant, Winsor.

Me: And I can tell that they were made for each other. I pick up on these things.

We went over.

Winsor: Wow! J.D. Knudson and Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you Winsor. Looks like Velma and you have fallen in love.

Velma: We sure have.

Winsor: Yeah.

We were told of the situation there. We found out that there was a ghost dinosaur terrorizing the area.

Megan: A ghost dinosaur? That actually doesn't sound too bad.

As soon as Megan finished her sentence, Shaggy suddenly smirked.

Megan: Shaggy? You ok?

Shaggy: Never better, babe.

Megan: "Babe"? Are you hitting on me?

I recognized this.

Me: That's a trigger! It's a hypnosis trigger!

Laney: What kind of trigger?

Me: Whenever someone says the word B-A-D, it causes Shaggy to become a brave man with incredible confidence and skill. While in this state, Shaggy kicked the living crap out of a whole motorcycle gang all by himself!

We gasped in sheer astonishment!

Nico: Shaggy did that all by himself!?

Lincoln: Unbelievable!

Me: I saw that there is an internet meme about this. It is called Ultra Instinct Shaggy. It's a really popular Meme.

I pulled out my phone and showed everyone.

Goku: Whoa! That was incredible!

Lana: I'll say! That was amazing!

Crystal: Shaggy you are like amazing!

Me: More like bad to the bone!

Shaggy reverted back.

Shaggy: Huh?

Me: Shaggy, are you all right?

Shaggy: Like yeah. Why?

I revealed everything.

Shaggy: Like wow! Better be careful when you say that around me J.D.

Me: Noted Shaggy. I'll only say B-A-D when I have to during our fights.

Shaggy: Like, good thinking.

Talia was still down about what happened to her father.

Fred: Talia, Bowser Jr, we're really sorry about your dads.

Talia: It's not your fault, Fred.

Bowser Jr: If anyone's to blame, it's Thanos for trying to wipe out half of all life in the universe.

Daphne: We know. Bowser and Ra's Al Ghul were true heroes to the end.

Lori: They literally were. (sighs) You know what? We'll go along with your usual plans of splitting up and searching for clues for this Mystery.

Me: Right.

Then we heard a roar!

Me: Uh oh.

We saw a ghostly bunch of dinosaurs coming!

Me: They are Dinosaur Ghosts!

Troy: Time to make these dinos extinct!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lightmask Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Maskman Rangers from 1987.

Me: Lets get this freaks! Connor, you stay with Winsor. He's about to see us in action.

Connor McKnight: Right!

We went at the Ghost Dinosaurs and we were blasting them with energy and fire blasts.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted them.

Velma fired an energy blast at them and burned them in a massive explosion.

KRABBBBOOOOLOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Winsor: Wow! Velma is amazing!

Connor McKnight: Winsor, we'd like to show you a video from the battle against Thanos. It'll change your mind about being a bad guy.

Winsor: Okay.

He showed him an awesome video of what we did during the battle with Thanos and it was an epic adventure. What he saw was mind boggling.

Winsor: Wow! You all did all that!?

Connor McKnight: We sure did. It was an epic battle.

Winsor: Wow. I have a confession Connor.

Connor McKnight: What is it.

He revealed what he was going to do. They actually found a powerful find. They found a whole perfectly preserved Allosaurus perfectly preserved in solid diamond and he and Professor Svankmajer coerced him into helping her.

Connor McKnight: Wow! That's a huge find. But Winsor it's not to late for you to do the right thing and turn around.

Winsor: You're right.

Winsor called the police and reported everything and more.

Me: Lets beat these clods with our combos.

Amorpho: Right! GHOST ZONE CYBER KEY POWER!

The Ghost Zone Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and it enhanced his shapeshifting powers and ghost powers 100-fold.

Soundwave: Time for action! CYBER KEY POWER!

Soundwave turned into his Cybertron Form and the Planet X Cyber Planet Key went into Soundwave's back and he can fire energy disks from his chest.

Amorpho and Soundwave: SONIC SOUNDWAVE BLAST!

Amorpho turned into Buttercup and did a Sonic Scream and Soundwave fired a powerful energy blast from his chest and the blasts hit the dinosaurs and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Murray: The Murray is gonna smash these dinosaurs and floss my teeth with their spines! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his strength and thief powers 100-fold.

Blaster: Time for some action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Electro-scrambler gun 100-fold.

Murray and Blaster: LIGHTNING FIST MEGAPUNCH BLAST!

Murray fired a powerful energy fist and Blaster fired a powerful lightning blast and they combined and hit the Ghost Dinosaurs and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOMMM!

Me: Time to finish these freaks!

Velma: With pleasure! MATH EQUATION RIBBONSTRIKE!

Velma fired a powerful energy ribbon and it had powerful quantum math equations and it slammed into the Phantosaurs and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Aylene Carter: You all give dinosaurs a bad name! VOLCANIC

FIRESNAKE VENOM FIRE!

Aylene Carter formed a powerful snake of fire and it fired a massive blast of fire and burned them.

Connor McKnight: Time for some Tyrannosaurus Power! TYRANNO STAFF SMASH!

Connor McKnight smashed the Phantosaurs with his Tyranno Staff and destroyed them!

Razor: Bingo!

Nico: You Dinosaurs have failed this world!

Winsor revealed what he told Connor to us and he showed us what he and professor Svenkmajer found and we were shocked and amazed!

Velma: Another mystery solved!

Me: Yep. Winsor redeemed himself.

Professor Svankmajer was arrested and sentenced to 20 to 30 years in prison. But she showed remorse for her actions. She'll be out in 5 years with good behavior.

Velma: (To the viewers) Never mess with the good finds of paleontology.

Me: You said it Velma.

We dug the dinosaur preserved in crystal out and gave it to the museums for everyone to see. It was an awesome mystery and an awesome adventure! Winsor and Velma were now an awesome couple.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another awesome Scooby Doo

Mystery solved.

Legend of The Phantosaur was an awesome movie and I absolutely loved it how Shaggy kicked that entire motorcycle gangs butts. They made an awesome meme for it too. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. The next chapter is for one of my favorite movies - The Legend of The Guardians: The Owls of Ga'Hoole. Owls are my favorite birds and they are awesome and very wise birds. We're going after the ruthless Metal Beak and pluck his wings!

See you all tomorrow.

The Owls of Ga'Hoole

In the living room at the estate, Lincoln was playing on an acoustic guitar he was borrowing from Luna. He was playing a song called Land of Anaka by Geoffrey Oryema.

Lincoln: (Singing Divinely)

In this land of Anaka

They called us Payira

In this land of Anaka

They called us Payira

Obiga lead me in this darkness

Show me the way

Obiga take me to a place

Where I can see light

(Obiga lead me in this darkness)

Show me the way

(Obiga lead me in this darkness)

Show me the way

In this land of Anaka

They called us Payira

In this land of Anaka

They called us Payira

Obiga lead me in this darkness

Show me the way
Obiga lead me in this darkness
Show me the way
(Obiga lead me in this darkness)
Show me the way
(Obiga take me home, take me home)
Obiga lead me in this darkness
Show me the way
In this land of Anaka
We had hope in Obiga
In this land of Anaka
We had hope in Obiga
We had hopes, we had dreams
Of a clear green land
In place of the family house
Dead sand, dead sand
(Obiga lead me in this darkness)
Show me the way
(Obiga take me home)
Show me the way
Obiga is no more
We are left in disarray

(Obiga take me home)

The clan of Anaka, pillar

The room looked like the Serengeti in Tanzania and we saw all kinds of magnificent landscapes. We also saw Mount Kilimanjaro - the highest mountain in Africa and we saw all kinds of awesome animals and more. When the song was done, we cheered wildly.

Me: Great song choice Lincoln!

Nico: I'll say. Good job!

Lincoln: Thanks. I have another song. Nightingale by Yanni.

Me: That's one of my favorites.

Lincoln: Want to help me with this one J.D.? I need someone to play the piano.

Me: Sure.

I went on the piano and Lincoln was playing the flute. The song began and it was beautiful. It was an instrumental song and the room changed into a beautiful forest and we saw a beautiful flock of Nightingale Birds and they were dancing to the music. It was so breathtaking and peaceful. When the song was done we cheered wildly.

Carol: That was so awesome!

Maria: That was beautiful too!

Nico: Great job guys. I didn't know you could play the piano well.

Me: It's a talent.

Carol: I have a song. I'm going to sing Bailero by Sarah Brightman.

Me: That's one of my favorites Carol.

Carla Pusateri: Go Mom!

Evelyn Pusateri: Yeah!

The song played and we were in the beautiful scenery of the Swiss Alps.

Carol: (Singing Divinely in French)

Pastrè dè délaï l'aïo,

As gaïré dè buon tèms?

Dio lou baïlèro lèrô,

Lèrô lèrô lèrô lèrô baïlèro lô.

Pastré lou prat faï flour,

Li cal gorda toun troupel.

Dio lou baïlèro lèrô,

Lèrô lèrô lèrô lèrô baïlèro lô.

Pastré couci foraï,

En obal io lou bel riou!

Dio lou baïlèro lèrô,

Lèrô lèrô lèrô lèrô baïlèro lô.

(Shepherd across the river

You're hardly having a good time

Sing baïlèro lèrô

Shepherd, the meadows are in bloom

You should watch your flock on this side

Sing baïlèro lèrô

Shepherd, the water divides us

And I can't cross it

Sing baïlèro lèrô)

When the song was done we cheered wildly and it was awesome!

Me: That was awesome!

Lincoln: I have one more song for you all. It's A Thousand Years by Christina Perri.

Me: Great song. Love that one.

Lincoln: This is for Earth and all of my future wives.

Lincoln played his guitar and we were at the beautiful ocean and it was awesome seeing the amber ocean sunset.

Lincoln: (Singing Divinely)

The day we met,

Frozen I held my breath

Right from the start

I knew that I'd found a home for my heart

Beats fast

Colors and promises

How to be brave?

How can I love when I'm afraid to fall

But watching you stand alone?

All of my doubt suddenly goes away somehow

One step closer
I have died everyday waiting for you
Darling don't be afraid I have loved you
For a thousand years
I'll love you for a thousand more
Time stands still
Beauty in all she is
I will be brave
I will not let anything take away
What's standing in front of me
Every breath
Every hour has come to this
One step closer
I have died everyday waiting for you
Darling don't be afraid I have loved you
For a thousand years
I'll love you for a thousand more
And all along I believed I would find you
Time has brought your heart to me
I have loved you for a thousand years
I'll love you for a thousand more
I'll love you for a thousand more

One step closer

I have died everyday waiting for you

Darling don't be afraid I have loved you

For a thousand years

I'll love you for a thousand more

And all along I believed I would find you

Time has brought your heart to me

I have loved you for a thousand years

I'll love you for a thousand more

When the song was done we cheered wildly!

Me: Way to go Lincoln!

Maria: Those were some awesome songs, Lincoln!

Lincoln: Thanks Maria. J.D. helped me with them.

Me: We all did.

Koda: Friends have great voices.

Me: Thanks Koda. I heard from Tyler that you haven't tried Bowling yet.

Koda: Never tried it.

Me: No sweat man. We can teach you. We have an awesome bowling alley at home.

Nico: Really?

Me: Sure. Follow me.

Everyone came and we were at an awesome indoor bowling alley in my mansion.

Me: Here we are guys.

Nico: Wow! This is awesome!

Laney: Never knew about this being here.

Lincoln: Me neither.

Lana: This is awesome!

Gwen Tennyson: Here, Koda. Let me demonstrate how the bowling ball's used in bowling.

Koda: Okay.

Gwen Tennyson demonstrated how to do it.

She got a strike.

Nico: Nice one Gwen!

Ben: Yeah.

Cybertron Sideways: (To Nico) Koda's gonna get us thrown out of this bowling alley. I just know it.

Nico: No worries Sideways. This is J.D.'s Bowling Alley. Everyone is welcome.

Gwen Tennyson: Now you do it Koda.

Elena Validus: Alright, Koda. Your team already showed you how to play several sports before. Now, let's see you do bowling.

Koda took the ball and he threw it and smashed it into the pins. He knocked them all down.

Brawn: Koda, you don't throw the bowling ball. You're supposed to roll it!

Me: Brawn! Let him learn. This is the only sport he's unfamiliar with. So let him learn.

Brawn: Sorry.

Brawn kept trying and he got it right after 4 tries.

Me: Way to go Koda!

Koda: Starting get it!

Me: You sure are. Well done.

Nico: Yeah.

We played awesome bowling.

Later in the living room we were watching one of my favorite movies from 2010. We were watching Legend of the Guardians: The Owls of Ga'Hoole. Owls are one of our favorite birds.

* * *

Soren (Jim Sturgess), a young barn owl, lives in the forest of Tyto with his family: his father, Noctus (Hugo Weaving); his mother, Marella (Essie Davis); his older brother, Kludd (Ryan Kwanten); his younger sister, Eglantine (Adrienne DeFaria); and Ms. Plithiver, or Ms. P, (Miriam Margoyles), the family's nest maid, a blind snake. Soren enjoys listening to the 'Legends of Ga'Hoole,' which are mythical tales of warrior owls. In jealousy of Soren's flight talent one day, Kludd pushes him off a branch, but inadvertently falls as well. On the ground, being flightless, they are attacked by a tasmanian devil, but are kidnapped by two long-eared owls, Jatt and Jutt, during the attack.

As the owls take them to St. Aegolious, the canyonland home to the Pure Ones, Soren meets Gylfie, a young elf owl as well as many other young owls who have not yet fledged. At St. Aegolious, the second-in-command and self-proclaimed Queen of the Pure Ones, Nyra, begins to say that the young owls are their slaves. When Soren and Gylfie protest, the two are punished as 'pickers.' Kludd, who openly rejected Soren, then comes to be a soldier to the Pure Ones and impresses Nyra. Grimble, a boreal owl, the captor of Gylfie, secretly tells them that he is disloyal to the Pure Ones and manages to teach them to fly. However, Nyra soon catches them just as they are about to fly away. Grimble then sacrifices himself to allow the owls to fly away seeking the 'Great Ga'Hoole Tree.' To warn the mythical Guardians about the Pure Ones' plan against them.

Along the journey, they meet Twilight, a great grey owl and Digger, a burrowing owl. They also find Mrs. P, who had been kidnapped by Twilight, intending to make her their dinner before Soren protests.

The owls manage to reach the Great Tree, where they are trained in different chaws, or classes. They meet Bubo, a great horned owl, who was the member of The Parliament of the tree listens intently to the Band's story. One owl, Allomere, a great grey, objects the story; however, another owl, a whiskered screech owl named Eyzlryb, supports it. Soren later discovers that Eyzlryb was once a legendary hero name Lyze of Kiel, who battled the Pure Ones leader and Nyra's mate Metal Beak, managing to tear out his beak and forcing him to wear a metal mask to hide the disfigurement.

Allomere returns from a scouting mission from St. Aegolious with news that scouts were killed in an ambush by the Pure Ones. He had brought to the tree 2 moon-blinked, or in-a-trance, owls, one of which is Soren's younger sister, Eglantine. Soren manages to break her trance and Eglantine reveals that Kludd had kidnapped her and given her to Allomere. Shocked by this deception, the Band quickly flies to the Guardian's aid, who are being paralyzed by mind and gizzard-destroying 'flecks.'

After Twilight, Gylfie and Digger fend off some bats from the paralysed Guardians, Metal Beak begins to distrust Allomere, while Nyra has had enough of lying. Allomere yells at them that he would be king of the tree. Metal Beak has Allomere dragged away by bats, believing that Allomere knew about their plan. Meanwhile, Soren flies through a forest fire, igniting a lamp of oil, and manages to disable the fleck trap, risking his life. Freed and recovered, the Guardians fly into battle with the Pure Ones and Ezylryb goes straight for Metal Beak, but Metal Beak and Nyra begin to overpower him. Soren flies into the battle after spotting Kludd, but Kludd attacks him, throwing him into a forest fire. The two brothers briefly fight in the burning forest and argue, before Kludd leaps onto Soren, causing them to fall down a tree. Soren grabs Kludd's talon to stop him falling into the fire, but Kludd breaks his wing in the process, making him unable to fly. Kludd begs Soren to help him, but when he does, Kludd, who is still a Pure One, attacks Soren, only for his branch to break. Kludd falls into the fire, disappearing as a distraught Soren tries to help him.

Furious at Kludd's 'death' and hearing Metal Beak and Nyra fighting Ezylryb, Soren grabs a burning branch and attacks Metal Beak. Ezylryb overpowers Nyra as Soren and Metal Beak fight. Soren drops the branch, and whilst diving after it, ends up grounded, trapped against a rock as Metal Beak comes closer, preparing to deliver the death blow. However, Soren reaches the burning branch just in time and manages to impale Metal Beak in the stomach, killing him. Nyra retreats and Soren is shocked that he has just killed an owl, but he is comforted by Ezylryb.

The owlets of St. Aegelious are rescued as Nyra and the remaining Pure Ones flee. Soren and Eglantine are reunited with Noctus and Marella, who have come to the tree. Soren and the rest of the Band are welcomed as new Guardians, Soren noting that it is a Guardian's everlasting duty to "Mend the broken, make strong the weak, and vanquish all evil." Soren states that whilst Metal Beak was defeated, Nyra escaped and Kludd's body was never found. However, in the smoking remains of the canyons, an injured silhouette, showing the distinct features of Kludd, is seen staring at the mask of Metal Beak, with the glowing red eyes of the Pure Ones, hinting at Kludd's survival. Soren asks if he can stop, but the owlets who were listening to the story plead with him to keep going, and even Eyzlryb say they want more stories. The movie then ends with Soren and the band following Ezylryb into a storm.

We had our owls with us and they were really intrigued by the movie. When it was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That was awesome!

Nico: It sure was. Owls are breathtaking creatures.

Me: They sure are. Owls are also the wisest of all birds and the Spirit of the Owl is the wisest of them all.

Clyde: That's right J.D.

Isabelle: You should know Clyde. Your Spirit Animal is the owl. You are really wise beyond your years in both physical and spiritual forms. So the Owl is your spirit animal.

Isabelle blue out some blew dust and Clyde got an awesome ring on his middle right hand finger. It had a beautiful ocean blue gem with an owl in it.

Clyde: Whoa! Thanks Isabelle.

Isabelle: You're welcome Clyde.

Then a blue light appeared out of nowhere and we saw that it was an animal crystal. It landed in Clyde's hand and we saw that it was a crystal for The Owl Zord.

Clyde: The Owl Zord Crystal.

A Wild Force Crystal Saber in a holster appeared on his left hip.

Me: Wow!

Vince: This is awesome Clyde.

Clyde: It sure is. The Owl chose me.

Lily Loud: That is so awesome Clyde.

Syd: I'm happy for you Clyde-bear.

Me: We are.

Lincoln: That's my brother.

We laughed.

Me: (Laughs) That's true. But what Metal Beak did was really unforgivable. He's like Salazar Slytherin in bird form.

Lincoln: You got that right.

Ginny Weasley: (British Accent) That's a good way to put it

I looked up Metal Beak's history.

---

Surtr, or better known as Metal Beak, is the main antagonist of the 2010 computer-animated Warner Bros. film Legend of the Guardians: The Owls of Ga'Hoole. He is the husband of Nyra, and the leader of the Pure Ones. In the Book series he was the main villain of the first half of the series.

Metal Beak was originally called Surtr and took part in the battle of the Ice Claws with the Pure Ones against the Guardians of Ga'Hoole. During the battle, Surtr was bested and maimed by a Guardian named Lyze of Kiel, resulting in him wearing a metal mask to cover his facial scars and going under a new name; Metal Beak.

Legend of the Guardians: The Owls of Ga'Hoole

Many years later, Metal Beak, his wife Nyra and the rest of the Pure Ones, took over St. Aegolius Acadamy for Orphaned Owls (St. Aggie's for short) and would send out his minions to capture owlets (among them Soren and his brother Kludd, who becomes a Pure One) in order to either convert them into Pure One soldiers or make them pickers to pick through pellets to find flecks to power his device to use against the Guardians. He had made an alliance with Allomere, a Guardian who had became a turnfeather for the Pure Ones as Metal Beak has promised him a portion of the owl kingdoms to rule as King if he helped them.

After being given a moonblinked Eglantine and another owlet by Kludd, Allomere returned to the Great Ga'Hoole Tree and told the Guardians the Pure Ones plan, which made the Guardians decide to fight them. However, this was part of Metal Beak's plan and when the Guardians arrived, the device was activated and the Guardians were pinned to the ground with it's power. However, Soren and the band arrive to save the Guardians (after Eglantine revealed to him that Kludd had moonblinked her and gave her to Allomere). Seeing the group, Metal Beak believed that they were Guardians, and felt betrayed by Allomere, who was meant to bring all the Guardians. Saying that there was only room for one king, Metal Beak ordered Allomere killed; the treacherous Guardian was then attacked and dragged by several bats. However, unbeknownst to Metal Beak, Allomere had escaped the bats, but was later killed by his former apprentice Shard, after discovering that Allomere killed his parents.

Later in the battle, Metal Beak battles Lyze of Kiel (now known as Ezylryb), who despite his age is able to overpower his enemy, until Nyra's arrival. However, before they can kill Ezylryb, Soren arrives with a flaming branch to defeat Metal Beak to stop him destroying another owl's soul, after battling Kludd. The two owls battled, but the veteran warlord is able to overpower the younger owl and swoops at Soren with talons out to kill him. Luckily, Soren is able to grab the branch and stabs Metal Beak through the heart, killing him. Horrified at her husband's death, Nyra gives Soren an angry glare before retreating with the remaining Pure Ones.

Near the end of the film, Kludd (who had survived falling into a forest fire during his battle with Soren) comes across Metal Beak's body and gazes down at his fallen leader's mask, possibly taking it for himself.

Me: Metal Beak is really sick. An Owl Racist.

Nico: No kidding.

Harry Potter: (British accent) He gives all owls everywhere a bad name.

Me: You got that right.

Harry Potter: Think you can give Hedwig flying lessons?

Me: I would be honored Harry.

Nico: Ok. In this mission, our flight powers will really come in handy.

Me: They sure will buddy. Metal Beak gets tired really easily. Lets head to the Simulator.

We went to the Simulator.

---

We were in the simulator and we were getting ready. Our mission was to kill Metal Beak and save all the owls he was poisoning with his evil.

The simulator activated and we found ourselves in the forests of Ga'Hoole.

Me: Wow!

Nico: It's beautiful here.

Laney: It sure is.

Lori: Wait, where are all the humans and people?

Me: Lets see.

I looked on the scanners on my wrist computer and it showed that there were no humans on Earth. What it revealed was shocking.

Me: Whoa! It says here that the world of Ga'Hoole is really another Earth. But it says that it's a Post-Apocalyptic world where all humans are completely extinct and certain species have evolved to fill in for them.

Nico: Whoa! That's terrible!

Me: So we're the only humans on this planet.

Lincoln: It would appear so.

Laney: That's awful that we're the only humans here after all these centuries on Earth.

Lana: Yeah.

Lola: But what happened to the Earth in its entirety?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up a map of the Earth and what I saw was shocking! The whole landscape of the planet was completely changed and the whole planet was completely unrecognizable!

Me: Whoa! Look at this!

I showed everyone a holographic map sphere of the Earth and they were all shocked.

Nico: Wow!

Laney: Our world and civilization has been destroyed.

Carla Pusateri: This is terrible!

Me: But look at the planet. All of nature has reclaimed the whole planet.

Vince: It sure has. Wow.

Lynn: This is amazing.

?: Hey!

We looked up and we saw a beautiful Barn Owl! He landed by us and he was half of our height.

Me: Wow. Beautiful Barn Owl.

Soren: Thank you all. My name is Soren. It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Nico: Same here Soren.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you too. We are Team Loud Phoenix

Storm. Do you know what year it is here on this version of Earth?

Soren: I do. It is the year 30,212.

We gasped in shock.

Me: Wow! 30,212!?

Nico: That's 28,000 years into the future!

Me: 28,193 years to be precise. We're from the year 2019. Almost the start of 2020.

Soren: Wow. But thank goodness you all came. We need your help to kill Metal Beak.

Me: We'll gladly do it Soren.

Laney: Yeah!

Troy: Time to shoot that bird out of the sky!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Star Earth Five!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Earth Squadron Fiveman from 1991.

We were off and we were flying over the world of Ga'Hoole and we saw that it was a beautiful world inhabited by Owls. Clyde was flying in his Owl Zord and it was beautiful. With us was Jatt and Jutt - Two Long-eared Owls, Gylfie - an Elf Owl, Grimble - a Boreal Owl, Twilight - A Great Grey Owl, Digger - a Burrowing Owl, Bubo - a Great Horned Owl and Ezylryb - a Whiskered Screech Owl. We had owls from all over the world with us and it was amazing.

Me: Wow. This world is so beautiful.

Laney: It's beautiful.

Lana: Yeah.

Gylfie: It's a beautiful world.

Jatt: Yeah and it's a beautiful home for us.

Digger: I love it.

Lynn: It sure is pretty here. It's just a shame that humans aren't here anymore and we're the only ones here.

Me: There's something up ahead.

We saw Metal Beak and his army up ahead.

Me: There they are.

We flew up to them.

Metal Beak: So you all came back.

Soren: You're through terrorizing my friends, Metal Beak!

Me: We're gonna clip your wings Metal Beak!

Metal Beak: You all think you're heroes? Don't make me laugh! If you really were the heroes everyone says you are, maybe Bowser and Ra's Al Ghul would still be alive!

Me: You have no right to say their names!

Lily Loud: That's right! And you all will like this! I have a new transformation! Owla! Spread my Wings!

Lily had her Miraculous Activate. It was a pair of Owl Earrings and they turned dark purple and she was enveloped in a flash of light and she was transforming. When the light faded, Lily was now a 14-year-old girl and she had a headband with flowers on it, white earrings and she had the body of a goddess. She had a lavender shirt with a rabbit on it and a blue skirt and she had lavender socks, black Mary Jane Shoes, black bracelets and she had a dark purple sleeveless Trench Coat with the moon and the night sky on it and she had the kanji for The Moonlight Owl of the Night's Justice on the back. 夜の正義の月明のフクロウ Lily had a sword that had a powerful star blade and she had dark purple angel wings and in this form she goes by Night Owl. It was a combination of Super Angel

20,000 and a Miraculous form.

Me: Wow! Lily, you look incredible!

Lori: You are literally amazing Lily.

Carlitos was shocked and babbling in amazement.

Carlitos: Bah… bah… bah… bah.

Lily Loud: (Older voice) I know Carlitos, I'm sexy and hot. (Strikes a pose)

Lisa: Indeed.

Metal Beak: It doesn't matter, you all will die!

Me: You first! You are gonna be a fried chicken by the time we're done with you! ATTACK!

We went at Metal Beak and I punched him in the beak and kicked him in the stomach.

Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted most of the owls. Clyde fired lasers from the Owl Zord and burned most of the owls and destroyed them.

Laney fired barbs at them and poisoned them and killed them.

Lana fired numerous blasts of ice lightning and froze the owls in ice.

Lola fired powerful blasts of fire at the owls and burned them all over.

Lily slashed numerous owls all over with her star sword and blasted them all over in powerful explosions.

Soren slashed Metal Beak with his talons.

The Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over. And so did the Dino Charge Rangers.

Me: Time to finish this bad bird off!

Cybertron Sideways: With pleasure! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Planet X Cyber Planet Key went into his shield and it grew spikes.

Elena Validus: Time for action of the Plumbers! PLUMBER CYBER KEY POWER!

The Plumber Cyber Planet Key went into Elena's right arm device and it enhanced her Nanite Chip powers 100-fold.

Cybertron Sideways and Elena Validus: SUPERSONIC BLADEDANCE SLASH!

Elena Validus formed her arm into a deadly sword and Cybertron Sideways had his blade shield ready and they slashed Metalbeak at supersonic speeds.

Brawn: Time to flatten this bird! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it enhanced his strength 100-fold.

Gwen Tennyson: You give all owls everywhere a bad name! ANODYNE CYBER KEY POWER!

The Anodyne Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and sure turned into her Anodite form.

Brawn and Gwen Tennyson: SUPER MANA ROCK SLAM!

Brawn threw a huge rock and Gwen Tennyson compressed it with her mana powers and it was made explosive. It slammed into Metal Beak and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Now to finish you for good Metal Beak!

Harry Potter: With pleasure! EXPECTO PETRONUM!

Harry Potter fired a powerful blast of white light and he sent an energy stag at Metal Beak and it slammed into him with devastating force and rammed him down!

Soren: This is for my family! OWL SPIRIT WINGSLASH!

Soren had blades form on his wings and he slashed and cut Metal Beak all over. Lily then ripped Metal Beak's mask off and decided to keep it as a trophy.

Lily Loud: You are not worthy of wearing this mask and you are not welcome here in this world Metal Beak! OWL MOONLIGHT SLASHBLADE!

Lily Loud slashed Metal Beak with her sword and he was cleaved in half right down the middle and he exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

The explosion killed Metal Beak instantly.

Me: Whoa!

Lincoln: Way to go Lily!

Soren: That was so awesome!

Troy Burrows: Lily has gotten stronger and more powerful.

Laney: She sure has.

Soren: (To the viewers) Humans and owls working together was an awesome achievement for us and nature.

Me: It sure was.

We later went back home to our Earth and Soren's home tree was in our backyard. As promised we, taught our owls to fly and even Hedwig.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another awesome adventure done.

The Legend of The Guardians: The Owls of Ga'Hoole was an awesome movie and I love owls. They are my favorite birds. I like all owls and they are amazing birds. I call them the wisest birds in the animal kingdom. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. I hope you have a really good sweet tooth because next up is the awesome movie Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory and we're going to have an awesome adventure in the world of candy when we go to the Wonka factory and help Charlie live in the factory.

See you all tomorrow.

Sweetness of The Chocolate Factory

In the estate, we were watching TV and playing card games.

The doorbell rang.

Lynn Sr.: I'll get it.

Me: Okay.

Lynn Sr. got the door and he got a box and opened it and in it was a bunch of bags full of M&M's candy.

Lynn Sr: Odd. We didn't order a package full of M&Ms.

Poromon: Oh that's for us.

Poliwag: We have a special project for them.

Lincoln: What are the M&M's for guys?

Poromon: Me, Poliwag, Manaphy and Horsea are going to attempt to break a world record.

Manaphy: We're going to construct the largest pyramid made entirely out of M&M's.

We gasped.

Melman: You four are going to make a pyramid made of M&Ms?! Are you crazy?!

Huffer: Do you guys know how hard it is to make an M&M pyramid?

Me: Yeah, that record has never before been attempted. That's why it's very hard.

Lisa: That is correct. The odds of completing said project of constructing a pyramid of chocolate candies; street name: M&M's are approximately 7,235,235,236 to 1.

Nico: That is not very good odds.

Lisa: Indeed.

Maria: But I can tell that they want to try it.

May: Yep.

Me: Okay. Go for it. Lynn, you better get a stopwatch just to be on the safe side.

Lynn: I'm on it.

Lynn went to her room and came back with her stopwatch.

Lynn: Got it.

Me: Okay.

We dumped all of the M&M's in a giant washtub and they got to work. After 6 hours, 43 minutes and 12 seconds, they built a full scale replica of the Great Pyramid of Giza made entirely out of M&M's and it was successful! It was 754 feet wide and 426 feet tall and composed of 10 million plus M&M's!

Dirt Boss: Oh man. The four of you actually did it!

Me: Wow! They did it! They pulled it off!

May: Wow!

I took an instant picture of it and wrote down the dimensions and how many M&M's it took to make it.

Bomb Man: I think that's a new world record!

Me: It sure is.

With us was the editor-in-chief of the Guinness Book of World Records, Craig Glenday.

Craig Glenday: (British Accent) You have broken the world record for the first time you four!

We cheered wildly for them!

Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag and Horsea were forever immortalized in the Guinness Book of World Records.

Poromon: Now comes the best part.

Nico: What's that?

Poliwag: Eating it.

Manaphy: Yeah!

They got to eating in and in minutes, the whole pyramid was completely devoured and gone. They were belching and burping.

Me: Boy that's a lot of M&M's you guys ate.

Maria: No kidding.

They were stuffed.

---

Later we were watching TV and then Laney, Luan, Eddy and Nico came in with big boxes full of candy.

Laney: Hey guys. I got an awesome snack for all of us.

Me: What you guys got?

Nico: You'll like this. We got candy from Willy Wonka.

Me: Willy Wonka candy!? I haven't had their candy in like forever.

Lincoln: It's so good.

Laney: I know. Look what we got.

They opened the boxes and in them were Nerds, Laffy Taffy, Shock Tarts, Chewy Runts, Oompas, Pixisticks, Gobstoppers, Wonka Bars and more.

Mary Knudson: Boy I haven't had their candy in a long time. It feels like forever.

Laney: I know. I'm drooling for their chocolate.

Me: We all are.

I looked at a Wonka Bar.

Me: Hey look! There's a contest. "Find the Golden Ticket in a Wonka Bar and you could win a tour of the Willy Wonka Chocolate Factory!" Wow! Just like in the movie!

Nico: Cool!

Lincoln: Lets see if we can find it!

Lana: Yeah!

We started looking and then right off the bat Lincoln found it!

Lincoln: (GASP) I found it! I found the golden ticket!

Me: Wow! Way to go Lincoln!

Laney: Yeah! Awesome!

Poromon: I can't wait to eat all of that chocolate!

Me: We're off to the Willy Wonka factory.

We were off to the Willy Wonka Chocolate Factory in Munich, Germany.

---

MUNICH, GERMANY

---

We arrived in Munich, Germany and we were standing in front of the Willy Wonka Chocolate Factory.

Me: Wow!

Laney: I'm drooling with chocolate cravings!

Lori: It's so good!

?: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

We turned and we saw Charlie Bucket and his friend Violet Beauregarde and Charlie's grandpa Joe.

Me: Charlie Bucket! Violet Beauregarde and Grandpa Joe. It's great to see you all here.

Charlie Bucket: You too J.D.

Violet: Yeah you are all awesome!

Grandpa Joe: Yeah.

Lincoln: You guys won the ticket too?

Charlie: We sure did.

Violet: It's gonna be so cool having you all with us.

Me: It sure is.

We went into the factory and we were greeted by the great chocolate maker Willy Wonka himself!

Willy Wonka: Team Loud Phoenix Storm welcome to my chocolate factory.

Team Loud Phoenix Storm: By the sweet love and deliciousness of chocolate. (Bows) Ye are worthy, we are not.

Me: It's an honor to meet the great candy maker Willy Wonka.

Willy Wonka: Same to you J.D. Word about all of your adventures is truly remarkable. And you have my sincere condolences for what happened to Ra's Al Ghul and Bowser.

Me: We appreciate that Mr. Wonka.

Charlie Bucket: Yeah.

Me: We love all your candy and it's so delicious.

Willy Wonka: Why thank you all.

He went over the tour lines and we were ready. It was gonna be an awesome tour. We got to see where they make Nerds and they were really awesome! They use giant hammers to smash them into smaller pieces and they get two flavors in a box. We then saw where they make the Chewy Runts. They shook a bunch of fruit trees and put them through a giant set of novelty chattering teeth and it makes them chewy and they were awesome! Next we saw where they make Xploder Chocolate and it was really good chocolate with Pop Rocks in it. The Oompa Loompas blow explosives and the explosion energy is transferred to Cardiac Defibrillators and infused into the chocolate. Awesome! It was delicious. Next we saw where they make Laffy Taffy. One of my favorites. It's flavored taffy and there's jokes on the wrappers and they are funny. Hence why it's called Laffy Taffy. We saw where they make the jokes. It was funny! Luan can't have taffy because of her braces. But the jokes she can use for her material. Next we saw where they make the Shock Tarts, extremely sour sweet tarts and they were tasty. Lincoln loves those and they were electrifying. Next we saw where they make Pixi Stix. It was little stick wrappers filled with candy powder. Dexter and Lisa's favorites. Next we saw Fun Dip. It was delicious dip candy that you spread on your tongue and you can even eat the sticks that come with it. Next was saw Gobstoppers. They were jawbreakers with many layers of flavors on them. Eddy and Luan loved those. We also saw where they had the Geese that laid the golden eggs. It was awesome! We then went into Oompa Land and we saw how they made a chewy candy called Oompas and they were delicious. When trying one of Willy Wonka's full course meal chews, Violet turned blue and inflated up and Lisa made an antidote that got her back to normal. But she released a massive blueberry scented fart while doing so.

We had a lot of great candy and sugar rushes all over.

Me: Boy this was really delicious.

?: Soon you all will die!

We turned and we saw VERUCA SALT!

---

Veruca Salt is the spoiled daughter of the Salts, her husband of whom is the owner of a successful peanut factory. Having been spoiled by her parents and her high status, Veruca has become immensely arrogant and self-centered. She browbeats her father into giving into her every demands.

When Willy Wonka, the owner of a chocolate factory which had shut down, unexpectedly reveals he will be hosting a tour of his factory and has sent out five Golden Tickets to determine the winners, Veruca demands to be given one. To cater to his daughter's demands, Mr. Salt demands his worker's "shell" thousands of Wonka bars until one of them finds a Golden Ticket. Veruca becomes the second Golden Ticket winner, and is thus allowed entry into his factory, along with the poor Charlie Bucket, the gluttonous Augustus Gloop, the competitive gum-chewer Violet Beauregarde, and the TV-obsessed Mike Teavee.

Veruca is the third child to meet her downfall when she tours Wonka's Nut Room, where she takes a liking to Wonka's trained, nut-sorting squirrels. When Wonka refuses to give her one, Veruca enters the Nut Room and attempts to steal one, but is ambushed and overpowered by the squirrels, who then dispose of her in the garbage chute leading to the incinerator. Her parents join her shortly afterwards.

Veruca survives the ordeal and leaves the factory alive, albet humiliated and covered in garbage.

1971 film

Veruca appears in the 1971 film, portrayed by actress Julie Dawn Cole. Veruca is shown as one of the older and more prominent children to show up at Wonka's factory, as well as one of the more bratty.

Veruca berates and intimidates her father into finding her a Golden Ticket so she can go to Willy Wonka's factory. When she does get the ticket, she is approached by a man named Mr. Slugsworth, who asks that she get him an Everlasting Gobstopper in exchange for whatever she wants. At the factory, Veruca introduces herself to the factory owner, as well as meeting the other ticket winners. Veruca and Violet antagonize each other throughout the tour, shoving each other and insulting one another. Veruca also briefly tries to convince Charlie that Wonka is "bonkers", though he retorts that that's not a bad thing. Veruca, along with the other ticket winners, are given an Everlasting Gobstopper. However, when Wonka tells them to promise not to show it to anyone, Veruca crosses her fingers behind her back.

Veruca meets her end when she enters Wonka's Golden Egg Room and demands a golden goose from Wonka. When Wonka refuses, Veruca throws a tantrum and trashes the Egg Room before plummeting down the Eggdicator, having been deemed a 'bad egg'. Her father joins her soon afterwards. Wonak reassures the remaining guests that Veruca and her father will be okay, and presumably become more wiser from the experience.

Veruca appears in the 2005 film directed by Tim Burton, portrayed by Julia Winter.

---

Me: Veruca Salt!

Veruca: That's right J.D.!

Me: I thought you learned your lesson the first time you were here but obviously you didn't.

Charlie: Veruca!

Maria: Who's she again?

Charlie: One of the kids who didn't learn her lesson. Specifically, she was a spoiled brat.

Violet: How did you get back here, anyway? Mr. Wonka and Charlie banned you from here!

Veruca: And after the prize at the end of the tour was rightfully mine! Fortunately, I made some new friends that don't like following the rules. And starting today, I'll be one of the top employees of this factory.

Violet: You, making chocolates? You'll just screw it up!

Veruca: Who said anything about making chocolates? Candies just won't cut it now these days. But making weapons? That's more productive!

Me: You're insane!

William: We won't let you turn this factory into a weapons sweatshop. Same goes with whoever's helping you!

Veruca: Just try and stop me. You'll see soon enough. I'm gonna be a legend around this place. Now, consider your careers officially over. (teleports out)

As we looked around for any signs of Veruca, we suddenly heard Veruca's voice over the intercom.

Veruca (over the intercom): We're in control of this factory now. And I suggested a few improvements - some real doozies I just know you're gonna love. In fact… you're not getting out of here alive…

Randy: (growls) There you are, Veruca! Don't think you'll run away from us that easily!

Veruca: (grins evilly) Who's running? (snaps fingers)

Then we saw bubbles in the chocolate and out of it came a new heartless! It looked like a giant living bon bon with an evil grin and glowing yellow eyes and it was made of chocolate that tastes great and it had breath that smells horrible. It was called the Sweet Tooth

Horror.

Me: A Heartless made of pure chocolate!

Sora: That's unusual!

My dark orb detector went off.

Me: There's a dark orb in here.

Laney: And I see it in that pump right there.

Laney went over to it and smashed the dark orb.

Veruca: Finally. This is exactly what I needed to take over the factory. But first, I am getting rid of you. (To the Heartless) Attack!

Me: I don't think so!

I punched the Chocolate heartless and splattered it all over.

SPLAT!

We were covered in chocolate and we licked it off.

Lana: (Slurps) Yummy!

Lola: Delicious chocolate!

Me: Look!

We saw two people floating in the lake of chocolate and we recognized them.

Me: That's Augustus Gloop and Mike Teavee.

?: Not just them.

We then saw Vypra and Dark Jack Spicer come out of the shadows.

Me: Vypra and Dark Spicer! What are you doing here!?

Vypra: We're here to help Veruca control this factory!

Dark Spicer (to Charlie Bucket): Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: Not on your life you fucking cavity inducer!

But Veruca was then thrown from the control room and she fell into the chocolate pool.

SPLASH!

Kevin Levin: (sees the Antitrix on Dark Spicer's wrist) Hey! That's the Antitrix my younger evil self used!

Dark Spicer: It is, isn't it? Though, unlike your younger bad counterpart, my aliens aren't unstable.

Me: You must mean Kevin's 2016 counterpart.

Vypra: That's right.

Dark Spicer: And watch what it can do.

Dark Spicer turned into a different version of Heatblast. He was a Pyronite but with purple flames and he had a really ugly hole in his chest that burned with intense fire.

Lea: Who in the world is this Heatblast knock off? Hot Shot?

Hot Burn: Nah. I prefer a more cooler name. Like… Hot Burn! (generates a sphere of fire in his hands and throws it at Lea)

Lola caught it and absorbed it.

Shanan: This is not a normal Pyronite. This is a Pyronite hybridized with something else.

Me: You guys deal with Dark Spicer, I'll face Vypra.

Nico: Okay.

Jessica Namiko: No J.D. I'll face Vypra. I haven't had my shot at her yet.

Me: Okay. Mr. Wonka, this is about to get really ugly so you may want to get to somewhere safe.

Willy Wonka: No I want to watch you all.

Me: Okay.

Dark Spicer then transformed again. He was a purple Petrosapien with razor sharp crystals on his arms and shoulders and on his head.

Crystal Freak: Say hello to Crystal Freak! (fires Diamond shards at Aeleus)

Aeleus deflected them back.

Shanan: This is a Petrosapien mixed with something else.

Troy: You're not the only one who can transform!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dino Thunder!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dino Thunder Rangers and Emma Goodall turned into a new Dino Thunder Ranger never seen before. She was turned into the new Purple Stegosaurus Ranger and she had a Stego Scythe.

Augustus and Mike woke up.

Kevin Levin: (to Mike and Augustus) Your buddy Veruca is being helped by two villains that have in their possession a device that one of my evil selves used. If they harm anyone, you two are gonna pay for it!

Me: Lets dance!

We went at them and I punched Crystal Freak in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Nico punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the face. Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him. Emma Goodall tried her new Dino Thunder powers out and she slashed Crystal Freak all over with her Stego Scythe and cut him really good. Troy Burrows smashed his head with his Tyranno Staff and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire at him and burned him all over. Lana fired a powerful blast of ice lightning and froze his legs. Laney fired poison barbs at him and they cut him all over and he was itching like crazy. Linka fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him. Aurore fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Me: Lets get him with teamwork!

Huffer: Roger that boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his strength and weapons 100-fold and it enabled him to fire a powerful fire cannon from his shoulder.

Melman: Time for this giraffe to strike! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into a collar around his neck and it enabled him to use Cybertron Scourge's twin fire dragon heads.

Huffer and Melman: SUPER FIRESTORM BEAM!

They both fired powerful blasts of fire and they hit Crystal Freak and burned him all over.

Cybertron Dirt Boss: Time for this boss to pound! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it caused a powerful cannon to pop out on him.

Bomb Man: Time for this guy to get bombed! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and it enhanced his Hyper Bomb 100-fold.

Cybertron Dirt Boss and Bomb Man: DIRT DOG BADDA BOOM!

Cybertron Dirt Boss fired his Dirt Dog Attack and Bomb Man threw a bomb and they hit Crystal freak and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Lets finish him!

Charlie: You got it J.D.! I've always wanted to try this out! CHOCOLATE DELUGE CAVITY STRIKE!

Charlie fired a powerful shower of chocolate and it hit Dark Spicer and covered him in chocolate.

Fudgy used a Final Smash called CHOCOLATE MEGADRENCH and it covered Dark Spicer in chocolate.

Willy Wonka: Try this on! GOBSTOPPER JAWBREAKER FACESMASH!

He threw massive gobstoppers and they smashed into his face!

SMASH! SMASH! SMASH!

Lola: Now for you to burn! FIRESTORM DRAGON STRIKE!

Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and it turned into a dragon of pure fire and it slammed into Dark Spicer and exploded. He was burned and knocked down and he was back to human.

Jessica Namiko was facing Vypra and she had a sword of pure lightning ready and they went at each other and clashed ferociously. It was a powerful clash and they were really going at each other and it was powerful. Jessica fired a powerful 700 billion volt blast of electricity and electrocuted Vypra.

Dark Spicer just transformed back to human.

Dark Spicer: Well, this has been fun. But we should be going.

Veruca: Wait. Where are you two going?

Vypra: We're off to recruit more villains. Specifically, ones that don't whine like spoiled brats!

Veruca: Hang on! I can finish this! Wait for me!

But it was too late. Vypra and Dark Spicer teleported out. Fudgy blew a raspberry at Veruca.

We tied up Augustus, Mike and Veruca.

Nico: You three have failed this factory.

Willy Wonka: Thank you all so much for saving the factory J.D.

Me: It was our pleasure Mr. Wonka. But we just do what we do best and that's kicking the living crap out of bad guys.

Willy Wonka: Guys, for helping to stop Veruca and behaving yourselves throughout the tour, you've earned yourselves some prizes!

We got eternal passes to visit the factory at anytime and we got a lifetime supply of our favorite candies from Willy Wonka.

Laney: What do we do about these three.

Me: Well Augustus and Mike were coerced into doing all this against their wills. So we'll let them go. But Veruca needs to be punished harshly. I think spending the rest of her life in Switzerlands Limburger Mines doing backbreaking hard labor is perfect for her.

Nico: Limburger Mines?

Me: It's a special mine I found. It was after the battle with Princess Morbucks during 2018's Christmas, I found it in a cave under The Matterhorn and it was a mine full of Limburger Cheese. It smells like rotten socks down there and I figured that it would be a perfect prison for spoiled brats.

Nico: Nice!

Lincoln: I like it!

Lori: This wretch literally deserves it.

Me: You got it.

Veruca: You can't do this to me! I'm Veruca Salt and I will make you all suffer for this!

Me: Do we look like care?

Later, Veruca was in prison clothes and she had a pickaxe and she was working in the Limburger Mines For Spoiled Ungrateful Brats. We even Resurrected Chandler Henderson and he too got the same punishment. But they were under the constant watch of the Swiss Guards.

Veruca: I hate that Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Chandler Henderson: Me too.

Back in America we were having an awesome rest.

Charlie: (To the viewers) Never mess with an awesome sweet tooth or Willy Wonka or you will face Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Charlie Bucket and Violet Beauregarde were now an awesome couple. They grew into it during the fight.

We were proud of them.

Kevin Levin: Hey J.D., I heard you all busted Michael Morningstar during your worldwide trip.

Me: We sure did Kevin.

Julie Yamamoto: Was it the Michael Morningstar we faced?

Me: No Julie. He was from 2016's Ben 10. But the one you all faced is still out there and when that time comes we will face him.

Nico: Yep.

We were gonna face him later.

THE END

Another Awesome fanfiction complete and it was a sweet victory.

Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory is one of my favorites and it was awesome! This chapter was based on the 2005 movie Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and it was awesome! Never saw the movie but it was awesome from what I heard. Veruca Salt was the worst! What a whiny brat! But this chapter was also made as a tribute to Gene Wilder who played as Willy Wonka back in 1971. He was a great actor. Too bad Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory didn't do well in the box office. But lots of people loved the movie despite it not being a success back then. Also I love Wonka candy. It was so tasty and sweet!

R.I.P. Gene Wilder - June 11, 1933 - August 29, 2016.

NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is 2002's The Time Machine and that is gonna be an interesting fight as we face the Morlock's 800,000 years into the future!

See you all tomorrow.

An 800,000 Year Future Trip

HAPPY FINAL DAY OF HANUKKAH 2019 EVERYONE

---

Over at the Sun Prison for World Conqueror's me, Nico, Lincoln, Maria, Cyborg, Gears, Billy, Snake Man and Laney had Willy Wonka with us and we were there to visit the Disembodied Brain wannabe conqueror and the disgraced leader of Evil Con Carne - Hector Con Carne.

---

Early life

Hector Con Carne was a kajillionaire playboy that desired world domination until a bomb disguised as a nurse from Cod Commando destroyed his human body except his still living brain and now somehow sentient stomach. In order to keep him alive, Major Dr. Ghastly attached him to a circus bear named Boskov.

New Vessel

Now attached to the body of Boskov, Hector Con Carne decides to continue his attempts to conquer the world. Deciding to move into Bunny Island to continue is goal of world domination and use it as base for his organization, Evil Con Carne.

---

We arrived at his cell and it was a tank with his living brain still inside.

Me: Hector Con Carne. How nice to see you again.

Hector Con Carne: (Spanish Accent) I still hate you for destroying my body! I'M JUST A BRAIN AND STOMACH BECAUSE OF YOU! I HATE YOU MORE THAN LIFE ITSELF!

My rainbow aura flared up with incredible force!

Willy Wonka: My goodness. Is that what happens when you feel hatred?

Me: Yep.

Willy Wonka: (to Hector Con Carne): I think you'll remember that you made a comment saying that you were me on the day you were arrested.

Hector Con Carne: Oh, c'mon! It was just the usual villain hero banter!

Snake Man: We know. We just wanted to follow up on that banter.

Willy Wonka: You know what the difference between us is? I'm a good person. You're not.

Hector Con Carne: I didn't think you'd take that comment seriously! Besides, your chocolate sucks.

Cyborg: You're just saying that because you haven't tried any real food.

Me: Because I blew up his body.

Hector Con Carne: Don't remind me.

Gears: (smirks) Hey, Billy. Why don't you keep Hector company for an hour?

Billy: You bet!

Maria: (giggles) Ok, Billy. We'll pick you up in an hour. You have fun now!

We left.

Billy then blabbed about all kinds of incoherent nonsense and it was so bad that Hector Con Carne screamed in insanity!

Back at the estate on Earth, we were watching TV and reading books.

Megan: Violet, I just realized that we have a lot in common.

Violet: We do?

Megan: Yeah. You and I were both mean to Charlie and Kevin at first. But after important events happened to them, we made up and became closer to them.

Violet: (smiles) You have a point there.

Reflector: (to Megan) The difference is that your other siblings learned their lesson. Veruca didn't. I can't say much about Gloop and Teavee.

Me: Now Veruca has the rest of her life in the Limburger Cheese mines to think about.

Laney: And Chandler is now with her too.

Me: Yeah. Chandler deserves the Limburger mines. I hope he likes the smell of rotten socks.

Nico: He has failed this universe.

Lincoln: So has Veruca Salt.

We later were reading books on Elemental Magic and it was awesome.

Qin: Lucy, can I ask you a question?

Lucy Loud: Sure Qin. What is it?

Qin: I heard you fought an evil man named Henry Kane.

Me: That's Reverend Henry Kane and you would hate this guy Qin.

Lucy Loud: He was a 19th Century Satanic Cult Minister.

Lucy Loud went over his history.

---

Reverend Henry Kane, also known as "The Beast", is the main antagonist of the Poltergeist film series. In life, this angry ghost he was a leader and priest of a Satanic, 19th century Utopian cult who held an apocalyptic view on the world, sealing himself and his followers inside a cave system in area to die: this location would eventually be built over to make the home the Freeling family would reside in within Cuesta Verde in California and his dark soul wishes to abduct the youngest child of the Freeling family named Carol Anne, to use her innocence and her untainted life essence to capture souls trying to enter the afterlife. This origin story contradicts the original movie's plot but seems to be the official story of the sequels.

Life and Death

Kane was a reverend, possibly from the American South, who started a utopian cult in the early 19th century. However, Kane simply wanted to harvest the energy of his followers' spirits in the afterlife to gain supernatural power; despite this, Kane is shown throughout the films to be a zealot, as he does believe in certain religious values. He led his "flock" into an underground cavern under the premise that the world was about to end, but in truth, Kane simply wanted to kill his disciples and himself and then harvest their souls in death. It is implied in Poltergeist II: The Other Side that Kane became enemies with an immortal Red Indian shaman called the "Medicine Man" who is also known as Taylor. The novelization for Poltergeist II: The Other Side states that Taylor is the reincarnation of an Indian named Ben Lagou; Lagou was a member of Kane's cult, but when he witnessed Kane's growing evil, he turned against him. Ben Lagou was briefly possessed when he drank tequila, just as Steve Freeling later would be. Ben was able to free himself from the possession, while Kane told his followers that had witnessed this event that Ben Lagou was evil. Kane's cult headed for the cavern and sealed themselves in. Ben tried to find Kane to stop him, but could not find him. He used his shaman abilities to reincarnate himself through lifetime after lifetime until he was reborn as Taylor, who helped the Freeling family defeat Kane.

The Beast

After Kane died, his ghost absorbed the energy from the souls of his followers and this fused with the power-hungry evil in his heart, transforming Kane into a monstrous apparition that the psychic Tangina Barrons would go on to call "The Beast". Kane/The Beast was able to gain his powers from his followers. However, he desired the energy of more souls which he could not obtain because they kept entering the Light, but when a house was built over his cavern in the 1980s and the Freelings moved in, Kane immediately sensed the power of the Freelings' daughter Carol Anne's innocence and because of her hidden clairvoyant abilities, and realized that it shone like the Light. As the Beast, Kane persuaded other benign spirits to join with him and his cult to abduct Carol Anne through the screen of a TV set (showing only static) and bring her to their realm, dubbed the "Other Side" where he could use her to attract more souls. Luckily, Carol Anne was rescued by her mother, Diane and brought back to the real world whilst Tangina was able to persuade most of Kane's minions to enter the Light. A vengeful Kane/The Beast used his remaining strength to make the corpses of his pawns rise from their graves and eventually consumed the entire Freeling house, but unfortunately for Kane, the Freelings escaped.

4 years later, Kane tracked Carol Anne to a new house where her grandmother, Grandma Jess's clairvoyance was able to forbid him from entering the house without permission before she passed away in her sleep. This is the moment that Kane takes his human form and attempts to gain the Freeling household's confidence but Carol Anne's father, Steven, manages to see through Kane's lies and Diane even has visions of Kane's life. This is known as the famous "Let Me In" sequence. After Grandma Jess dies, Kane attacks the Freelings but is stopped by the Medicine Man, now calling himself "Taylor". Taylor gives Steve the Smoke Spirit, which has the power to resist Kane's attacks. Kane also manages to possess Steve and in a disturbing scene, it is shown that Kane is also a rapist, as he tries to use Steve's body to rape Diane, this echoes a scene from Poltergeist, where the Beast telepathically drags Diane above her bed and lifts up her top to reveal her undergarments. Luckily, Diane's love for Steve forces Kane out of his body. At the end of the film, the Freelings travel to the "Other Side" and Kane is defeated by Steve using a magical spear that Taylor gave him. Kane and his cultists became lost in limbo.

In Poltergeist III, Kane manages to trace Carol Anne to her new home at the John Hancock Center and takes possession of the entire building, using the mirrors as a gateway to their world and getting his minions to take the form of reflections. Once again, Tangina comes to Carol Anne's aid but is captured by Kane. The now defenseless Carol Anne is almost taken by Kane but is stopped thanks to Tangina's sacrifice. Kane is offered redemption, which he seemingly takes and moves on into the Light. However, at the end of the film, Kane reveals his "redemption" to have been fake, as he cracks the sky with a bolt of lightning at the city of Chicago and laughs evilly, planning on wrecking more havoc in the world.

Powers and Abilities

In death, Kane possesses relatively canonical poltergeist powers such as possession, invisibility, transparency and telepathy. But he also contains a vast amount of power due to him harvesting the souls of his followers, enabling him to shapeshift and virtually bend all matter to his will. Kane is able to transform into demonic monsters. He also can create minions such as in the third film, where he transforms the protagonists' reflections into flesh and blood servants. Kane does however have various weaknesses that can be used against him.

He cannot enter the property of the living without access to an electric item or permission from the owner.

Clairvoyant energy acts as a barrier to his power.

Displays of good emotions, love, kindness, and belief weaken him, yet bad emotions such as rage, frustration and despair strengthen his evil.

---

Qin gasped in horror!

Qin: He was ultimate evil!

Me: He was. Lucy killed him. He was the ultimate personification of evil.

Lincoln: That's right and during that adventure it revealed the reason why Lucy always had her eyes covered.

Lucy Loud: I have demon eyes.

Lucy revealed her eyes.

Qin: Wow! Your eyes are awesome Lucy.

Lucy Loud: Thanks Qin. My eyes are the reason why my bangs were grown out.

Rocky: I think Lucy has the most beautiful eyes.

Lucy blushed.

---

Later we were lighting the last Hanukkah candle on the Menorah. Today was December 30th, 2019 and it was the finale of the 8 days of Hanukkah.

I lit the 8th and last flame on the menorah.

Me: (Speaking Hebrew) ברוך אתה יהוה אלוהינו מלך העולם אשר קידש אותנו במצוותיו וציווה עלינו להצית את אורות החנוכה (Blessed are You, LORD our God, King of the universe, Who has sanctified us with His commandments and commanded us to kindle the Hanukkah lights)

We cheered.

Lori: That was literally awesome!

Me: It sure was.

---

Now we were watching one of my favorite movies. We were watching The Time Machine from 2002.

---

In 1899, Dr. Alexander Hartdegen is an inventor teaching at Columbia University in New York City. Unlike his friend David Philby, Alexander would rather do pure research than work in the world of business. After a mugger kills his fiancée, Emma, he devotes himself to building a time machine that will allow him to travel back in time to save her. When he completes the machine in 1903, he travels back to 1899 and prevents her murder, only to see her killed again when a horseless carriage frightens the horses of a horse-drawn vehicle.

Alexander realizes that any attempt to save Emma will result in her death through other circumstances. Distraught, Alexander travels to 2030 to discover whether science has been able to solve his question of how to change the past. At the New York Public Library, a holographic sentient librarian called Vox 114 insists that time travel to the past is impossible and is the realm of fictional authors such as Isaac Asimov and H.G. Wells. Alexander looks up himself and learns that he was reported missing in 1903 and dismissed as a crackpot. Alexander travels to 2037, when the accidental destruction of the Moon by the lunar colonists' demolition team has begun rendering the Earth virtually uninhabitable. While restarting the time machine, he is knocked unconscious and travels to the year 802,701 before reawakening.

When Alexander comes to, he learns that Earth has now healed and the human race has reverted to a primitive lifestyle. Some survivors, called "Eloi", live on the sides of cliffs of what was once Manhattan. Alexander is nursed back to health by a woman named Mara, one of the few Eloi who speak English. He observes the broken moon and suggests that maybe his teachings led to this future. One night, Alexander and Mara's young brother Kalen dream of a frightening, jagged-toothed face and a creature calling their name. Alexander informs Mara of the dream, and she tells him they all have that dream and notices that his watch is missing. The next day, the Eloi are attacked and Mara is dragged underground by ape-like monsters called "Morlocks" that hunt the Eloi for food. In order to rescue her, Kalen leads Alexander to Vox 114, which is still functional after 800,000 years.

After learning from Vox how to find the Morlocks, Alexander enters their underground lair through an opening that resembles the face in his nightmare. He is captured and thrown into an area where Mara sits in a cage. Alexander meets the Über-Morlock, who explains that Morlocks are the descendants of the humans who went underground after the Moon broke apart, while the Eloi are descended from those who remained on the surface. The Über-Morlocks are a caste of telepaths who rule the other Morlocks.

The Über-Morlock explains that Alexander cannot alter Emma's fate, because her death is what drove him to build the time machine in the first place: saving her would be a virtual impossibility due to temporal paradox. He then reveals that the Morlocks have brought the time machine underground, and tells Alexander to return home after he gives Alexander his watch and the answer of why can't he change the past. Alexander gets into the machine, but pulls the Über-Morlock in with him, carrying them into the future as they fight. The Über-Morlock dies by rapidly aging when Alexander pushes him outside of the machine's temporal bubble. Alexander arrives at the year 635,427,810, revealing a harsh, rust-colored sky over a wasteland of Morlock caves.

Accepting that he cannot save Emma, Alexander travels back to rescue Mara. After freeing her, he starts the time machine and jams its gears with his watch, creating a violent distortion in time. Pursued by the Morlocks, Alexander and Mara escape to the surface as the time distortion explodes, killing the Morlocks and destroying their caves along with the time machine. Alexander begins a new life with Mara and the Eloi, while Vox 114 becomes a teacher to the Eloi children.

Back in 1903, Philby and Alexander's housekeeper Mrs. Watchit are in his laboratory discussing his absence. Philby tells Mrs. Watchit he is glad that Alexander has gone to a place where he can find peace, then tells her that he would like to hire her as a housekeeper, which she accepts until Alexander returns. Mrs. Watchit bids Alexander farewell and Philby leaves, looking toward the laboratory affectionately, then throws his bowler hat away in tribute to Alexander's distaste for conformity.

We saw him journey to the year 802,701 and it was amazing! He went 800,798 years into the future. Unbelievable. We saw the moon break apart and that was terrible. But the landscape changing over the course of that timeframe was amazing! But what really amazed us was what we saw in the year 802,701 and it was unbelievable. We saw the whole Eloi village in houses on cliffs and we saw the Morlock and they were voracious monsters.

But in the end they were all destroyed.

We cheered wildly after the movie ended.

Me: That was awesome!

Laney: That was so cool! I can't believe this movie was not that liked.

Star Butterfly: I know right? But Time Travel is amazing.

Lincoln: It sure is Star.

Me: But time travel is very dangerous business. One small mistake can have disastrous effects on the universe.

Lisa: That is correct 2nd Elder Brother.

Wes Collins: Time travel? Me and my team experienced that before.

Me: Well you guys are all from the year 3000. Dr. Alexander Hartdegen invented a time machine back in 1903 and it's based on a book written by famous author H.G. Wells.

Laney: One of my favorite authors.

Me: He made all kinds of great books. But this gives me an idea. Lets go through the simulator and destroy the Morlocks.

Nico: Yeah! Awesome!

Lana: But what are the Morlocks?

Me: They are evolved humans that are Evil. Lets see here.

I looked up their history.

---

The Morlocks are the main antagonists of the novel The Time Machine by the late H.G. Wells, and its film adaptations. They are an evil race that evolved from humans.

In the 2002 movie, the catastrophe that divided the Human race into Eloi and Morlocks wasn't an atomic war, but instead failed blasting operations on the Moon. These Morlocks do not fear the daylight and therefore act as an even higher threat. They are bred into castes: The Hunter-Morlocks, the Spy-Morlocks and the Über-Morlock. He confronted Professor Alexander Hartdegen and gave him his time machine back, with which the Professor was able to destroy the Morlock-Cave, but afterwards couldn't return to his own time.

The Über-Morlock is the main antagonist in the 2002 remake of The Time Machine. He is one of the leaders of the Morlocks.

The Über-Morlock is encountered by time traveler Dr. Alexander Hartdegen in the year 802,701, when he steals his time machine, he is a member of the telepathic ruling class of the Morlock world who are a race of underground humanoids descending from us after the moon broke forcing them to live underground, they feed on the peaceful human race of the Eloi that live on top. The Uber morlock is superior and controls the minds of the other members of his species telepathically. The Uber morlock also gives Alexander the answer to why he can't change the past. He meets his death when he is suddenly pulled by Alexander into the time machine and a fight breaks out, he dies by rapidly aging when Alexander pushes him outside of the machine's sphere of influence before Alexander entered the year 635,427,810.

---

Marco Diaz: These guys are freaks!

Me: Lets go get them!

We went to the simulator.

---

In the simulator we got ready and we were gonna be in for an incredible experience. The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in the year 802,701. What we saw could only be described as an incredible world of amazement. We were 800,682 years into the future and what we saw was incredible. We saw the houses of the Eloi and all of their people in houses on cliffs and they were incredible. We also saw amazing cities that were primitive but highly advanced. We were thousands of years into the future and it was just a mind-blowing experience.

Laney: Whoa!

Lola: Wow! This is incredible!

Nico: Wow! This is amazing! It's like we've entered a whole new world except it's on Earth!

Lincoln: The whole landscape has completely changed.

Me: I know.

I looked at my device and on a holographic map it showed that the world was completely different and unlike anything we've ever seen. All the seven continents were still intact. But all of the land was completely covered in forest.

Me: Wow! The whole land is covered in forest!

Laney: Whoa! The whole planet is now one giant forest.

Me: And that's not all. The mountains and landscape is all completely different from what we are all familiar with.

But then we saw a shocking part of the map of the Earth. The moon was completely broken and shattered! It was broken into a million pieces and it was now nothing more than a bunch of rocks and rubble and a cloud of dust in orbit around the Earth.

Me: Whoa! Look at the moon!

Lily: Wow! That's terrible!

Lisa: Gadzooks!

Megan: What happened to it?

Me: It was blown to pieces.

Lucy Loud: Gasp!

Claire the Gatekeeper: This is awful.

Luan: What happened to all of the cities and stuff?

Me: Lets see here.

I looked it up and found out that because of raining debris from the breakup of the Moon, they were all completely destroyed and erased from existence. Forcing some of the surviving humans to move underground and wait.

Luna: Dude! That is terrible!

Sam S.L.: No kidding. I can't believe that all this happened in this time.

Nico: No kidding. But this might be an alternate time.

Me: Yeah. But lets find Dr. Alexander and help him.

We went to find him and it was a beautiful world.

Vince: Wow. This world in the future is amazing.

Carol: No kidding. It's like everything is now one with nature.

Rachel San Diego: No kidding. I wouldn't mind coming here from time to time every now and then.

Me: Me neither Rach. This is amazing.

Talia: It's amazing that all of this happened in this time. My father would've loved this world.

Me: He sure would Talia.

We then saw a terrifying metal structure that looked like a mouth. It was an entrance into the Morlock cave.

Me: This is the Morlock cave.

Clyde: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Syd Chang: I know Clyde. But we can get through this if we work together.

Me: Lets get them! We're going in!

We flew in and we went into the cave. We blasted them with energy blasts and blew them apart.

Jake: Let's go Wild on these guys!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Wild Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Wild Force Rangers!

Time Force Rangers: TIME FOR TIME FORCE!

The Time Force Rangers transformed and they turned into their ranger forms.

Marinette: Time for Miraculous power!

The Miraculous Celestial Union turned into their Miraculous forms. I turned into Wolf Moon and Lily turned into Night Owl and we were blasting the Morlocks all over the place. I fired powerful blasts of dark blue fire and blasted a bunch of Morlocks into nothing and they were incinerated. Laney fired numerous poison barbs and they poisoned a bunch of Morlocks with Strychnine Ω and killed them instantly. Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and electricuted numerous Morlocks into ash and Kayla Schmidt fired a massive blast of fire and burned them into ash in an instant. Julie Tancheno fired a powerful blast of Ice Lightning and froze them into blocks of ice. Clyde fired powerful time ray blasts and disintegrated the Morlocks into dust. Syd Chang slashed numerous Morlucks with a plant sword and they melted with super strong acid. Marinette fired a powerful blast of red fire and incinerated a lot of Morlocks in an instant. Adrien fired a powerful blast of Cataclysm Energy and obliterated a bunch of them in a massive explosion. The Megaforce Rangers slashed and bashed them all over and killed them and the Keybladers slashed and destroyed a lot of them. Lynn fired powerful blast of lava at them and melted them and Luan fired powerful blasts of light and burned them and Luna and Sam fired blasts of water and fire and burned and drenched them. Leni smashed them with boulders and fired gravity lightning and they exploded. Lori blew them all over with powerful blasts of wind and blew them away.

Edzilla: (punches a Morlock) ED SMASH MORLOCKS!

Edzilla was tearing them apart.

The Time Force Rangers were blasting them all into dust and blowing them apart.

Nico: You Morlocks have failed this future!

Nico was blasting them with energy blasts and destroyed a lot of them.

Chloe fired venom fire blasts and poisoned them and killed them.

We blew them all apart until we went into the heart of the colony and we saw Dr. Alexander Hartdegen and we saw him talking to the Uber Morlock.

Me: The Uber Morlock.

Uber Morlock: So the mighty and all powerful Team Loud Phoenix Storm has come.

Alexander: Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Me: That's us Alexander. We are from an alternate time in the year 2019.

Uber Morlock: That's right Alexander. They are the most powerful fighting force that the entire universe has ever witnessed. They have done so many incredible deeds in their mission to destroy the evil forces that have threatened the entire universe.

Me: That's right. But why are you feasting on the Eloi? What have they ever done to you that would warrant such barbaric nature?

Uber Morlock: There's a reason for it. When the moon broke apart many of the humans went into hiding and we bred ourselves into castes. Some to be our eyes and ears and some to be our muscles and hunters.

Me: So like a caste on the ways of the social insects.

Uber Morlock: Exactly. Bred to be predators. But bred also to be controlled you see. My caste concentrated on expanding our cerebral abilities.

Lincoln: You control them with psychic powers.

Uber Morlock: Yes.

Me: But you hunt them down like animals and that is really barbaric!

Uber Morlock: We all pay a price J.D.

Me: Why are you doing all this!? They are human beings like you!

Uber Morlock: Who are you to question 800,000 years of evolution?

Me: Someone who will stop you.

Alexander Hartdegen: You were right, Phillby. We did go too far.

William: But it's not too late Alexander.

Me: Lets take this freak down!

We powered up.

Me: You've sensed a demonstration of our power.

Uber Morlock: Yes. Now you will feel mine.

Me: Lets dance!

We went at the Uber Morlock and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and face.

Me: You may have ruled this planet for 800,000 years, but I have walked this planet for 151,000 years!

I punched him in the face and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him. Lana fired a powerful blast of ice lightning and froze his arms off and Laney fired a powerful blast of acid and burned him. Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him.

Me: Lets finish this freak!

Reflector: With pleasure boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Vertigo Light 100-fold.

Snake Man: Time for this ssssnake to poison you. ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and it enhanced his Search Snake 100-fold.

Reflector and Snake Man: VERTIGO SNAKE BEAM STRIKE!

Snake Man fired his Search Snake and Reflector fired his Vertigo Light and the beam merged with it and it hit the Uber Morlock and exploded and it made him really dizzy.

Gears: Time for some power! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it enhanced his strength and power 100-fold.

Cyborg: Yeah! I've always wanted to try this! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber planet Key went into his right arm and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Gears and Cyborg: BOULDER SONIC BLAST!

Gears threw a powerful boulder and Cyborg blasted it and rained many boulders onto him.

Double D: This is precisely why we stick to our simulator instead of a time machine.

Me: Yep. Lets finish this freak off!

Wes Collins: With pleasure.

Time Force Rangers: VORTEX CANNON BLAST!

The Time Force Rangers fired a powerful blast from the Vortex Cannon and it hit the Uber Morlock and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Clyde: You will pay for ruining our friends in the human race! TIME RAY AGE!

Clyde fired a powerful blast of his time ray and it hit the Uber Morlock and aged him.

Syd Chang: Yeah! VENUS FLY TRAP ACID BURN!

Syd Chang grew a powerful Venus Fly Trap plant that had acid dripping from its mouth and it chomped onto the Uber Morlock and burned him.

Lincoln: Lightning will burn! LIGHTNING DRAGON STRIKE!

Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and it turned into a powerful dragon of lightning and it slammed into the Uber Morlock and electrocuted him.

Alexander: No one ruins the future! TIME DISINTEGRATOR BLAST!

Alexander fired a powerful blast of energy from his hands and it slammed into the Uber Morlock and he disintegrated into dust. Killing him.

Alexander: (To the viewers) Wow! I didn't know I had that kind of power.

Me: Your first final smash Alexander. Well done.

Alexander: There's still one thing left to do.

First he got a woman named Mara out of a cage and he jammed the time machine he built. We made blueprints for it beforehand and we got out of there. Then the whole Time Machine exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The whole colony rusted and deteriorated into dust and we got out of there in time. We left the simulator and built a portal that would take us into the Distant Future at 802,701 whenever Alexander needed us.

THE END

Another Fanfiction complete and another awesome Time Travel excursion done.

The Time Machine from 2002 was an awesome movie! The special effects were awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the 2016 Powerpuff Girls villain Packrat and we're going to exterminate him.

See you all tomorrow.

Packrat Thieves

In the city of New York City, New York April O'Neal and her little sister June were being terrorized by a ruthless landlord. But they had no idea that this landlord was actually a serial killer that's been wanted by the FBI for the deaths of 25 people in 14 states. June kicked him in the face and punched him in the crotch. Donatello and Casey Jones were sneaking up on him from the darkness of the shadows.

Jessie (Pokemon): Seviper, help Donnie and Casey sneak up on that evil landlord.

Jessie's Seviper: (nods) Seviper!

They snuck up to him.

June smiled in amusement.

Killer: Are you smiling because you're going to die!?

June: No. You are the one that's going to die. In prison!

POW!

They punched him in the face and knocked him out and then the SWAT Team of the FBI came in.

We busted in and saw him.

Me: Just as I thought. This is the infamous serial killer Sean Cain A.K.A. the Mad Dog Landlord Killer..

SWAT Member: We've been after him for years. He's wanted for the murders of 25 people in 14 states.

Lincoln: Boy this guy is pure evil!

Me: This guy is gonna get the chair for his crimes.

Thundercracker: Did you really have to hide in the shadows? Everyone pretty much knows about you, Raph, Leo, and Mikey now.

Donnie: Well, hiding in the shadows is good for when we need stealth attacks.

The SWAT Members picked him up.

Sean Cain: YOU MOTHERFUCKING CUR! I WILL KILL YOU FOR THIS J.D.! I WILL KILL YOU!

Me: Get him outta here.

SWAT Member: With pleasure.

They took him away.

April O'Neal: Thanks guys.

Nico: No problem April.

Casey Jones: You all right babe?

April O'Neal: I'm fine Casey. Thanks for saving me guys.

Me: Anytime April.

Sean Cain was found guilty of his crimes and sentenced to death. He was executed by firing squad and we blew his brains out.

In the Jupiter Prison we were having another Rant session with the most hated babysitter in the world: ICKY VICKY.

Marinette: This is gonna be awesome!

Natsu: (to Marinette and Adrien) Mind if I join you two in ranting at Icky Vicky?

Adrien: Sure.

Gabriel was with us.

Gabriel was given a pardon for helping us during the battle with Thanos and he used one of Lisa's ray guns to blast him all over the place.

Me: So you see Gabriel, we have these awesome rant sessions with Icky Vicky. She's the most hated person in the world. She tortures kids all for her own sick enjoyment and she wants nothing more than to see the entire world burn.

Gabriel: Vicky is a monster!

Manboy: She sure is.

Nico: Lets get ready to (Hades Hair flares up) RUMBLE!

Gabriel: YEAH!

Marinette: I hope I don't get grounded for this.

Marinette walked up to her.

Marinette: YOU STUPID UGLY FUCKING BITCH! (Slaps Vicky's face twice and pokes her eyes.) IF YOU EVEN TOUCH ANOTHER KID I'LL RIP YOUR TONSILS OUT AND TIE THEM AROUND YOUR FUCKING NECK FOR A BOWTIE! (Marinette bonked her on her head and put her fist under her chin and her knee under her arm and kicked it. It punched her in the face and knocked out some of her teeth.)

We all cheered and laughed.

Gabriel: That was funny!

Nico: That sure was.

Prisoner 1: I love those Three Stooges shenanigans! They were so funny!

Prisoner 2: I haven't watched the Three Stooges since I was a little kid! Good times!

Prisoner 3: My father loved the Three Stooges. They were so funny!

Nico: But their legacy lives on.

Adrien: My turn.

Adrien went up to her.

Adrien: I hope you don't ground me for this dad.

Gabriel: Go on son.

Adrien: Thanks.

He looked at Icky Vicky with a glare of pure hate.

Adrien: YOU MAKE ME FUCKING SICK! (Slaps her in the face!) I WOULD RATHER KISS MOJO JOJO THAN HAVE YOU AS A BABYSITTER! (He slaps her face and slaps her head, punches her stomach and bonks her head and then he rips her green shirt in half and revealed her black bra and elbowed her in the face and knocked her down.)

We cheered for him.

Me: That was so funny!

Nico: (LAUGHS) What a flat chested freak!

We all laughed.

Natsu: Time for some action!

Natsu went up to her.

Natsu: YOU REALLY FUCKING BURN ME UP YOU FILTHY FUCKING BITCH! (ECHOING) FIRE DRAGON ROAR!

Natsu fired a powerful blast of fire at her and burned her all over. She was a burnt to a crisp.

Me: She's toasted.

Nico: (Laughs) That was funny.

Later at the estate we were watching TV and reading books and playing card games.

Qin: Hey J.D. can I ask you something?

Me: Sure Qin. What's up?

Qin: I heard you met Rex Salazar and killed and monster named Van Kleiss. What was that like?

Me: That was one of our most amazing adventures. We went to another planet Earth that Ben went to by accident. He helped Rex Salazar take down an evil Nanite monster called Alpha. It was an awesome adventure. But we went back and helped him kill Van Kleiss. He was a deadly adversary.

I went over Van Kleiss's history.

---

Van Kleiss is the secondary antagonist of the animated series Generator Rex. He is the main antagonist of the first and second season and a major anti-hero during the third. He is able to control his nanites like Rex, except his mutation is unstable and requires a constant supply of fresh nanites, causing his victims to petrify in the process.

Backstory

In the past, Van Kleiss was present during the nanite incident. He was power hungry and never cared about others but for himself, wanting to obtain all the power with the help of the nanites and seeks to create a planet populated entirely by E.V.O.s. It's also revealed that he killed Rex's parents after the incident happened after discovering the same thing. This was due to him realizing that the Consortium had also the same objective like him.

Present

With the Pack as his enforcers, he established a domain called Abyssus at the original site of the nanite explosion and has nanites seeded for miles in the area. As a result, he can control everything in his sphere of influence, and even regenerate completely from the ground if his body is destroyed. He has an extensive knowledge about the nanites, apparently having worked on or been familiar with the experiment which released them, and about Rex's past.

He is killed in the episode "Dark Passage" while attempting to secure Dr. Gabriel Rylander's nanite laboratory but was resurrected in "What Lies Beneath" when Rex had to resurrect him with a machine when Abysus was becoming unstable. Rex cured him shortly thereafter.

In doing so, however, Rex gave Van Kleiss the means to study his nanites, which Van Kleiss then stole. With Rex's nanites, Van Kleiss gained the new power to create E.V.O.s simply by touching his victim, which passes them a unique mark. It is said that E.V.O.s created by Van Kleiss has their nanites extremely unstable, meaning that the transformation will eventually be permanent if not cured.

In "End Game" Pt. 2, during the final cure, Van Kleiss is dragged by Breach into one of her wormholes. His fate is still unknown.

---

Qin gasped and then growled.

Qin: Man what a monster!

Me: He was. But in the end, we killed him. Van Kleiss was a ruthless monster. But if he does come back as a Heartless or something else, it's a one way trip into the River of Fire.

Breach: I was once a member of Van Kleiss's group. We were called The Pack.

Circe: Same with me. We were known as Van Kleiss's enforcers.

Me: Yeah and they were powerful. They are what's called E.V.O.'s.

Qin: What are E.V.O.'s?

Me: It's an acronym. It stands for E xponentially V ariegated O rganism. They are people that were changed because of a nasty cataclysmic accident that took place in Rex's world.

Qin: What happened?

Me: It was 6 years before Ben went to his world. It was a project that was designed to cure disease and prevent starvation and promote longevity. But it also wanted to be used for evil as weapons and it resulted in a massive explosion of cataclysmic strength. These scientists were really playing with fire and messing with forces no one can even begin to understand.

I revealed what happened.

---

The Nanite Project consisted of a group of scientists experimenting with nanites to help humanity by eliminating diseases and starvation.

Controlling nanites

In the early stages of the project, scientists stumbled upon a problem with controlling nanotechnology, which led to forming two theories on how nanites should be controlled. The machine-to-machine theory, strongly supported by Caesar Salazar, stated that nanites should be controlled by other machines. This theory led to the creation of Alpha. However, the project was scrapped after Alpha became out of control. The human-to-machine theory stated that a human being should control the nanites. The theory was most likely supported by Violeta and Rafael Salazar, who programmed the Meta-Nanites to be commanded only by their youngest son, and supported by Gabriel Rylander when the Omega-1 Nanite was created.

The first E.V.O.

The second son of the scientists, Rafael and Violeta Salazar, Rex was critically injured in an industrial accident caused by a dispute between the many scientists about how the nanites were to be used. The scientists injected Rex with the original batch of fully programed nanites, hoping to save Rex's life and to make the other scientists see that their ways were for the greater good. Rex was able to be saved. However, Rex's new abilities, courtesy of the nanites, convinced the Consortium and the scientists that the nanites had even more potential. The nanites were seen as weapons, providing their mercenary operative Black Knight as another test subject.

Meta-Nanites

During the project, the scientists accidentally discovered the Dominion Code. As the name implies, the code would give its user control over the fabric of the universe. This code was stored inside five specialized nanites called Meta-Nanites, which were programed to only obey Rex.

When the scientists realized that the Consortium wanted the Meta-Nanites, Caesar along with his parents intentionally caused the explosion to keep the Consortium from gaining the Meta-Nanites. According to Caesar, it had to be done to save the world. This is later supported by White Knight who stated that the Consortium wishes to use the Meta-Nanites to take over the world and to become gods. There would be numerous consequences for this though; first and foremost, the nanites now infected every living thing on the planet and would randomly activate inside a host body, turning them into EVOs; second, the site of the Nanite Project would become completely infused with nanites controlled by the EVO project scientist Van Kleiss; finally, a huge concentration of nanites were funneled into the city Kiev, turning every living thing there into EVOs and prompting the city to be sealed off and dubbed the Bug Jar.

Restart

The Nanite Project was restarted by Caesar with the help of Providence funding. However, even though the organization was paying him, Caesar had his own plans regarding the project and did not feel duty-bound to Black Knight's jurisdiction.

Caesar's initial goal was to fix the nanites. To achieve that goal the surviving scientists of the original Project had to be reassembled.[8] Eventually Caesar succeeded, thus he could continue his plans.

Sharing the power

After successfully gaining all the Meta-Nanites, the Consortium finally could achieve all the power they ever wanted. However, the procedure did not go according to plan, as the union of the Control Nanites was interrupted by Rex, thus dividing the nanites' powers to each of the Consortium members.

Ending

Rex, with the help of the Meta-Nanites, used the nanites in the reactor to reprogram the nanites all over the world, initiating to reverse the EVO mutations. The Nanite Project came to an end with the goal of Caesar Salazar, Gabriel Rylander and Peter Meechum finally coming true. The three remaining members are now moving on.

Nanite Event

Prior to the Nanite Event, scientists had been experimenting with nanotechnology. During the Nanite Project, a splinter group of scientists formed at the Applied Nanite Research Lab in Abysus. The group had different ideas about how to use the power coming from the nanites. Due to an accident, ten-year-old Rex was gravely injured and only an infusion of active nanites could save him. However, even the successful operation did not convince the other people to change their plans.

Caesar Salazar, with the help of his parents, later sabotaged the Nanite Project to keep the Meta-Nanites from falling into the Consortium's hands, or, as Rex put it,"freaked out in a 'gotta save the world' kind of way". The explosion was caused by triggering the nanites' replication cycle. Rex and Caesar's parents, Rafael and Violeta Salazar, were near the nanite reactor when the explosion occurred, instantly killing them in the process.

Aftermath

The explosion spread the results of the scientists' experimentation, nanites, into the atmosphere where they eventually descended and bonded to the molecular structure of every living organism on the planet. Under normal circumstances the nanites are completely harmless until they activate, turning their host into an often monstrous creature called an EVO In response to the threat posed by EVOs, Providence was founded.

The land in the five mile radius of the explosion was infused with large amounts of nanites. Van Kleiss later established his EVO kingdom of Abysus there after he discovered that he was turned into an EVO with the ability to control the nanites in the soil. Also during the Event, Earth's magnetic field funneled a huge concentration of nanites into the city of Kiev, turning nearly everything that lived there into EVOs.

Point of views

Due to the enormous size of the research and sum of money invested into the project - as well as the scientists' expectations and ambitions - many of the scientists have a different take on what went wrong during the procedures.

Van Kleiss's explanation

Some of the scientists involved in the nanotechnology experiment were aware that they were making a mistake, but the overzealous ones proceeded with the experiment. Van Kleiss also stated that both he and Rex were present at the explosion. Van Kleiss accused Rex's older brother, Caesar Salazar, as being responsible for the explosion which was later proven true by Caesar himself.

Gabriel Rylander's explanation

The scientists that were working on the Nanite Project were hoping that their nanotechnological experiments would one day wipe out all disease and starvation on the planet. However, everything went downhill when investors were brought in to provide more funding for the Nanite Project. The nanites were incomplete and unstable which had initiated the explosion.

Rex Salazar's dreams

As five unknown people stood above Rex, one of them stretched his hand toward the boy. The man's voice assured Rex that "he [could] do it". After a beam of light the scene changed and three people (two men and a woman), dressed in lab coats, watched as Rex played with a strange device. The woman was impressed by this ability, claiming that Rex "[talked] to it". Suddenly the scientists turned into EVOs. Rex's vision turned pitch-black but then flashes of light (akin to a short-circuit) appeared and were followed by an explosion. The whole scene was engulfed with flames in which in the middle glowed a yellow nanite. It transformed into a brown colored eye which scanned unknown dimensions. These visions were followed by Rex murmuring programming commands.

---

Qin: Whoa! That was awful!

Laney: I remember that. That was terrible!

Nico: Wow. I didn't know you did that.

Me: It was before we met you Nico. But it was awesome.

Cricket: It was really cool though.

Qin: Cricket, how did you become an E.V.O.?

Cricket: That is an interesting story mate. After the Nanite Event, I was a looter.

Cricket revealed her background.

---

Cricket was an EVO that is a friend of Rex Salazar's and a member of his old gang. Throughout the later years of her life, Cricket became a looter and had multiple run-ins with Quarry, a crime lord she and her friends worked for. With the help of her friends, especially Rex, they defeated him. Cricket was eventually cured of being an EVO.

Cricket became an EVO some time after the Nanite Event. She later met up with Tuck, Skwydd, and Rex Salazar and has been with Tuck and Skwydd ever since. Rex, who was secretly the lieutenant in an EVO crime ring working directly under Quarry, later traded his friends to Quarry for his own freedom and left Hong Kong.

---

Qin: Wow!

Nico: That's amazing.

May: It sure is.

Me: A lot of E.V.O.'s have incredible powers as a result as you have seen.

Qin: Wow!

Cricket: It's really something. Because I have Insect-like abilities, I have superhuman agility and incredible leg strength.

Qin: Wow!

Circe: I was once a member of the Pack and it's an interesting story with me.

Circe went over her background.

---

Circe was a teenage EVO with the ability to project sonic blasts from her mouth. For a long time, she staunchly believed that Van Kleiss was the only hope EVO-kind had left, despite his aggressive methods in achieving his goals. However, Circe eventually realized that she and the rest of the Pack were only a means to an end for Van Kleiss. She later quit the group and went off on her own. After traveling to Hong Kong, she joined Rex's old street gang and became good friends with them. She was eventually cured.

Circe first appeared at the Cabo Luna beach resort, where she bumped into Rex during a volleyball game. Rex accidentally crashed into her, knocking both of them down. Since he did not bother apologizing, she insulted him and walked out of sight. She was spotted by him again while walking on the beach and vanished into the forest where he chased her. She ambushed him and demanded him to stop following her. However, she was convinced to hang out with him and befriended him. They both participated in and won a race, but Circe received an important phone call and fled without notice. At her own resort cabin, she was approached by The Pack (Biowulf and Breach). Biowulf judged her actions and questioned her loyalty to Van Kleiss. She defended herself by confirming she was still up for their task.

Circe was located by Rex again, this time making a strange sound out into the sea. As Circe warned Rex to leave the area, a large sea monster EVO emerged from the ocean. Circe jumped into the water after it but was shocked to see Rex by her side and attack the creature with EVO powers. Circe did the same and used her EVO scream to toss back the sea monster, receiving the same reaction from Rex. The sea monster retreated and Circe safely pulled Rex ashore. Rex pleaded for Circe to meet with him again. Saying that she would try, Circe left.

Circe broke her promise and missed her date with Rex. Picking up from where she left off, her sounds were followed by him. However, Circe noticed The Pack right behind Rex. Although, Rex was surprised by it Circe proceeded to attack Rex. Shortly after Rex returned, Six showed up and both got into a fight with the Pack. Circe ran off to continue her fulfill her duty and was joined by Rex once again. She explained that she was trying to complete her initiation into the group. When the sea monster reappeared by the sounds of her call, Rex convinced her that the EVO was too large for her to fight alone and offered help. Circe agreed and accepted. Eventually, they defeated the EVO and shared a romantic moment. It came to a quick end when The Pack arrived for her. Even though Rex promised she had a place at Providence, she voluntarily left with The Pack. Officially meeting with Van Kleiss, he began to threaten her for failing her task. Making it very clear that she wasn't afraid of him, he admitted that she could be of use because of her relationship with Rex. For that, she was welcomed into the Pack.

Circe: And my E.V.O. Powers are sonic screams from an extended mouth I form.

Me: Yeah it's powerful enough to shatter all the glass in the area.

Qin: Wow! That is deadly!

Nico: Wow!

Me: It was powerful. During one of Varie's Girls Night Outs, Circe demonstrated her E.V.O. Powers and all the windows were shattered.

Varie: I remember that. That was powerful!

Cricket: It sure was.

Lana: Yeah!

Beverly Holiday: But J.D. and Rex cured me.

Me: Yes we did. Not all E.V.O.'s can be easily cured. There were some that were incurable.

Beverly Holiday: Yeah and I was one of those incurable E.V.O.'s.

Qin: What did you look like as an E.V.O. Beverly?

Beverly Holiday: It was terrifying! I looked like a spider.

Me: With terrifying red eyes.

I showed her and she was horrified.

Qin: That is horrifying!

Me: Yeah. I came up with this plan to help cure her.

I went over our plan during the events of An Earth of Machines and Qin was amazed.

Qin: Wow! That was awesome!

Beverly Holiday: It was very brave and thoughtful.

Me: Yeah. Also when we landed on that Earth we noticed something very unusual. Our powers were protecting us from something in the atmosphere. We had auras that were preventing something from getting to us. We found out that the whole planet was completely flooded with Nanites. That was when we met Breach.

Laney: I Remember that.

Breach: I have a dark background. My story before I joined Team Loud Phoenix Storm was not pleasant.

Breach went over her background.

---

Breach is a four-armed human EVO who used to be a member of The Pack. Dangerous and unpredictable, she can literally tear open reality itself, creating dimensional portals that can connect any two places.

The Day That Everything Changed

Breach, along with Biowulf and Skalamander, was first seen hiding in the shadows as she watched Rex fight the Multi-faced EVO Later, after Rex and Bobo left Providence Headquarters, the three of them continued to follow. Once Agent Six and the Providence agents found them with Noah, The Pack attacked. During the battle Breach opened a portal to Abysus and Skalamander pushed Rex, Bobo, and Noah through.

At Abysus, Breach accompanied Bobo and Noah to the gardens, where they were going to deal with them. During the fight, Noah drop-kicked her, knocking her unconscious. Later, after Agent Six came to their rescue, she battled him. By opening several portals and attacking through them, she immediately got the upper hand. But when he counterattacked with his katanas, he was able to knock her unconscious.

Beyond the Sea

Breach assisted in recruiting a new member of The Pack, Circe. She struggled in battle due to easily being knocked out by Noah.

Leader of the Pack

Breach and Circe were seen using worm EVOs to dump Abysus soil underneath the UN building in New York City. When Rex approached, she silently ordered one of the EVOs to attack him, but Circe stopped her. Breach waited quietly while Circe tried, and failed, to convince Rex to join the Pack before the four EVOs escaped back through to Abysus.

Breach

Breach ambushed Rex and imprisoned him in an unknown area. Later, she was captured by Providence but refused to reveal Rex's location. She was revealed to be mentally unstable as she was shown to be quite obsessive as well as displaying other signs of insanity such as talking to herself and thinking of people as objects and vice versa. She was revealed to have captured Rex in a "pocket dimension" which she used to store her "shiny things" including the town of Greenville, Ohio which mysteriously disappeared two years ago.

Later, during a fight between Rex and an EVO girl, they ended up destroying sections of the town. After seeing her "things" being destroyed, Breach began to send them to various parts of the world. After realizing that destroying the town upset her, Rex began to destroy more of the town. Breach began to suffer from a mental meltdown and opened a portal to Providence, which Rex used to return to the real world. The dimension was seemingly destroyed and left Breach completely heartbroken. She suffered a full mental breakdown and disappeared into an imploding portal.

What Lies Beneath

Breach appeared near the end, having survived seemingly self-imploding. She pulled Van Kleiss to safety before he could be brought into Providence custody. Before leaving she gave Rex a sly smirk.

Payback

Breach was assigned the task of placing bombs throughout

Providence HQ as part of Van Kleiss's plan to get revenge on Providence and Rex for temporarily curing her master of his EVO abilities. After placing the last bomb, she smiled and waved to Noah and Bobo before escaping through a portal.

Rampage

Breach tried to stop Rex when he was pursuing Van Kleiss by opening one of her portals, but she was defeated seconds later. She also helped Van Kleiss escape when he transformed Noah into an EVO. Later, she stole the fuel core and rescued Van Kleiss again.

Alliance

Breach, along with the rest of the Pack, including Circe, arrived with Van Kleiss in the Bug Jar. She was the only Pack member who was told to accompany Van Kleiss further into the heart of the Bug Jar, so that he could persuade NoFace to join his cause. Biowulf and Circe were ordered to remain behind, as Van Kleiss needed Breach's portal-opening ability to escape should the need arise.

Later, Breach, along with Circe and the rest of Pack, were forced to watch the intense battle between Rex and an extremely vengeful NoFace in the arena. Van Kleiss told her to open a portal for him and the other members of the Pack so they could leave before things got more out of hand. However, she was knocked into a wall and was unconscious. She is not seen at the end, but it is assumed that she had used her abilities to rescue Van Kleiss and the others from the orb-shaped shield around the Bug Jar.

Hard Target

Breach returned in order to retrieve someone due to Van Kleiss' request. After attacking Rex, she told him that she was going to Hong Kong to visit an old friend of Rex's. Rex, who mistakenly took this person for Circe, was wrong. Breach was sent to recruit a villainous EVO named Quarry. When breaking him out of Providence, she explained to him that Van Kleiss wanted to use his special abilities for something. Against her better judgment, Breach told Quarry the reason why in order to secure his agreement to the bargain. Unfortunately for Breach, Quarry attacked her and used her portal to break out and obtain the device himself.

Breach ran into Rex and escaped, kidnapping Circe shortly afterward in order to use her as a cover for her tattle. Meanwhile, Quarry fought Rex, allowing the molecular destabilizer to eventually become destroyed by him. When Breach returned, Rex threatened to tell Van Kleiss that she told his plan to Quarry even though she was not supposed to, meaning that she would be penalized. Furious at this, Rex offered to trade Quarry for Circe and Breach, with much satisfaction, took Quarry.

Lions and Lambs

Breach reappeared on her own once again to fight a large group of Providence agents. But this time with some unknown technology strapped onto her back and arms. While battling the agents, she tossed her portals at them and easily won. When fighting Rex, she demonstrated her new, but painful, enhanced ability, that enabled her to cut open a bright golden-colored portal, allowing a large Tyrannosaurus Rex to crawl out. Leaving Rex to fight it, she escaped easily.

Within two hours of transporting the dinosaur to Providence, it died, turning it to its real age - dust. Caesar Salazar put together clues that Breach had gotten her abilities enhanced to the point where she could now open portals in time by using some advanced technology Van Kleiss had made. White Knight suggested that Rex try and get Breach on the good side with such powerful abilities and Rex submitted.

Shortly afterward, Rex snuck into Abysus and witnessed Van Kleiss straining Breach's powers to work a machine for something important. While Breach was put through excruciating pain, Van Kleiss continued the experiment until it failed. After Van Kleiss left to return later, Rex had a deep conversation with Breach, trying to tell her what was good for her. Taking his words into consideration before the two were caught socializing by Van Kleiss. Van Kleiss told her to transport Rex out of Abysus, but she tricked Van Kleiss and quickly escaped into a portal with him.

She brought Rex to many places that "calm" her. Rex then told

White Knight and Holiday that he was making progress. Shortly afterward, Rex took Breach to a bowling alley where they sat and continued talking and Breach continued to get closer to Rex. Meanwhile, Breach's enhancer began to glow, signaling that Van Kleiss was near controlling the item. The two then escaped to the park, but Breach was soon surrounded by Providence and was attacked by White Knight who believed they were running out of time. Afraid and unable to trust Rex any longer, she fought until she was knocked out on a merry-go-round.

She woke up, overhearing Rex and Van Kleiss talking about her, and called both of them liars. But before she left, Rex powered up her ability-enhancer to regain her trust. This allowed her to use her portals once again. Van Kleiss, who believed that Breach would be on his side, was teleported somewhere else in time by Breach. However, her enhancement device could only be controlled by Van Kleiss in case she ever did exactly that, allowing the device to keep running. A large dome-shaped time portal formed around her and Rex. Not knowing what was going to happen, she cried, telling him that she had a great time with him and ran into him giving him a full hug. He hugged her back and after a large flash, they both vanished.

A Brief History of Time

As Van Kleiss journeyed through time, he revealed that he was being chased by what he called "Time's Antibody", which was later revealed to be Breach. Rex had realized it was her as soon as he was transported briefly. Breach's form was soon revealed when Rex succeeded in containing the tachyons. When she was conscious, she asked Rex if he was real, and then she told him she was everywhere. Doctor Holiday explained that Breach was drawn with Van Kleiss' time frame. Breach seemed to be fully recovered mentally and physically. When Rex asked if they were still friends she only smiled, formed another portal and left.

Endgame, Part 2

As Rex cured the world of all present EVOs, Breach appeared to Biowulf and Skalamander on a rooftop and gave them a smile before seemingly saving them as the wave that could cure them headed right towards them. She proceeded to the Consortium's base to rescue Van Kleiss, observed by Peter Meechum and Doctor Rylander through a camera screen. Her whereabouts, as well as the whereabouts of Van Kleiss, Biowulf and Skalamander are unknown again after all EVOs were cured by Rex, though given the fact that the cure effected every EVO on earth, it is possible that she brought them to her pocket dimension.

---

Breach: It's been a nightmare for me ever since I turned E.V.O.

Qin: I'm sorry Breach.

Breach: It's okay. My powers include portal generation and teleportation.

Qin: Wow! So that's how you can send bad guys away.

Breach: Yep.

Me: And we were introduced to Providence.

Qin: Providence, Rhode Island?

Me: No, this is completely different. Providence is a powerful Government Organization. It specializes in the containment and curing of E.V.O.s. It was built just a couple of years after the Nanite Event. They use high powered cutting edge technology to do this.

I revealed their history.

---

Providence is a global, clandestine military organization that was created in response to the Nanite Event. Providence's initial function was to contain or kill hostile EVOs. Over time, the organization discovered a teenager named Rex Salazar, a human-passing EVO capable of curing other EVOs. Providence then decided to take a more ethical approach to make curing EVOs their top objective.

Originally, Providence was funded and created by a group of elites known as the Consortium. Eventually, White Knight was granted leadership of the organization-that equivalent to a commander-in-chief. Seeing that he was promoted from a Providence agent, it is unknown who his predecessor is. However, after White Knight "betrayed" the organization, he was replaced with Black Knight. The object of Providence was changed yet again, planning to weaponize EVOs through mind-control and make the public fear them through propaganda. White Knight later reclaimed his position of the organization.

Providence is a secretive organization that is protective of its actions, especially in the case of Rex, who they claimed as their secret weapon in the war against EVOs. Providence was a growing military that attained many agents within years since its initiation. As opposed to general military groups, Providence has one of the most advanced weaponry and equipment for the sole purpose of suppressing EVO activity.

Founded in collaboration by the governments of the world in response to the Nanite Event, Providence uses its army to combat the EVO threat. This army is made up of thousands of loyal soldiers willing to risk their lives for the cause.

The organization was once run and funded by the Consortium, a group of wealthy and powerful individuals involved in the fields of international finance and business. The committee typically appoints a leader to control Providence on a daily basis, despite the group retaining its ownership and true objectives.

When Providence was first starting out, the organization's primary method of dealing with EVOs was to kill or capture them. Even EVOs that they captured were only held long enough to be experimented on and dissected for study. After Agent Six discovered Rex, an EVO with the ability to cure other EVOs, Providence eventually adopted their current way of handling EVOs: curing them when they can, containing them when necessary, and only killing them as a last resort.

The organization also began to receive greater funding from the world's governments due to this non-violent approach. However, White Knight would still occasionally order his troops to take lethal action against EVOs, but only in extremely dire situations. Following the six month time-skip, Providence underwent several changes due to White Knight's removal and replacement by Black Knight as leader.

The organization began to focus on the capture and control of EVOs using Caesar's technology. Control collars and brain-washing machines were also used as weapons against EVOs through the implementation of devices that shoot the collars like projectiles to ensnare unsuspecting prey. Following Black Knight's appointment, the Consortium took a much stronger hold over Providence's functions.

They focused the bulk of their resources on the task of finding and obtaining five Meta-Nanites, each containing a unique ability that allows the user to control the forces of the universe. Providence also restarted the Nanite Project with Caesar as its new leader, and directed several of their operations towards finding the surviving scientists to aid in the completion of their plans. Van Kleiss, Peter Meechum, and Gabriel Rylander were recruited to work alongside Caesar in the completion of their assignment. The reunited research team was shown to have completed a new nanite generator.

After the fight with Black Knight and the Consortium, who had received powers of the Meta-Nanites, White Knight took over Providence and saved Rex. The Providence Defect Group joined back into Providence. Due to the Consortium gaining the power of the Meta-Nanites and becoming the enemy of Providence, it can be assumed that now, only international governments will provide the funding for the organization.

Qin: Wow! That's incredible!

Lisa: Indeed it is.

Me: Yep.

Qin: I heard that there's a giant dome in the Ukraine.

Me: That is the Bug Jar.

I pulled it up.

Me: It used to be the city of Kiev, the Capital city of Ukraine. It's home to E.V.O.'s of terrifying caliber. Not even Providence is allowed to go in there. It's a hellhole.

---

The Bug Jar is what Providence refers to as the former city of Kiev, Ukraine, which has long since been overrun by EVOs. During the Nanite Event, the Earth's magnetic field funneled a massive concentration of nanites into the city, causing nearly every living organism to turn into EVOs. The survivors in the city were evacuated. As damage control, a classified one-way spherical containment field was set up around the city to keep the EVOs in.

Up until Rex, Agent Six, and Bobo were sent on a mission to the Bug Jar, the whole site and what was inside it had been a complete mystery for five years. Even Providence was not allowed on the site.

The Forgotten

A Providence transport under the command of Captain Calan was being chased by unidentified ships for its cargo: an important data rod containing vital information about EVOs. The ship was forced over the Bug Jar and shot down by an EVO inside. A Providence team was later sent in with three missions: retrieve the data rod, rescue the stranded Providence team, and collect samples of the EVOs living there.

Alliance

Rex was sent into the Bug Jar a second time to repair the shield regulator when it began to falter. Rex quickly discovered that Van Kleiss was planning to form an alliance with NoFace in order to gain access to his army. Rex was able to stop the alliance by driving a wedge between NoFace and Van Kleiss, and with Circe's help was able to repair the generator and contain all the EVOs inside.

Heroes United

Following Alpha's release from the Null Void, the nanite proceeded to the Bug Jar where, in addition to dealing massive damage to the force field, it drained every last nanite inside, transforming itself into a massive mechanical monster and killing nearly every EVO within.

It then further destroyed the city to acquire the raw materials to make even more nanites after acquiring the Omega-1 Nanite. After the battle between Alpha, Rex and Ben, Rex used his powers to compress Alpha into a ball and Caesar sent it back into the void.

In the aftermath of the battle, the Bug Jar was nothing more than a deserted wasteland.

Endgame, Part 2

As Rex sent out his EVO curing wave, NoFace was briefly seen back in the Bug Jar as a human. The force field was still in the same state of disrepair as it was during the battle with Alpha.

---

Qin: That's terrible!

Me: It is. That place is a terrifying zone of death. They kept that whole place contained ever since the Nanite Event. Those were extremely chaotic times back before Providence.

Qin: Wow. But where was Van Kleiss operating his evil plans?

Me: That is an easy one. He was operating his plans in the heart of E.V.O. country. The Epicenter of where the massive explosion that caused the Nanite Event happened…

I pulled up the location on the computer.

Me: Abysus.

Qin: What's Abysus?

Me: It was where the Nanite Project was being built. It used to be a forested mountain area with a beautiful castle. But now it looks like a nasty Apocalyptic landscape that was destroyed by a nuclear holocaust. I call it the Zone from Hell.

Vince: I remember that. It was a zone of pure evil.

Laney: It was scary.

Me: Yeah.

---

Abysus is a country once ruled by Van Kleiss and functions as the base of operations for The Pack. After Van Kleiss's fall, Biowulf became the country's new leader.

Six years prior to the present, Abysus became the birthplace for EVOs after the Nanite Event took place there. Most if not all of the country's human population were turned EVO, and those who did not were either evacuated or killed.

After the Event, Van Kleiss eventually took control of the EVO population and whatever government was left of Abysus, declaring it a haven for EVOs. Soon after, the EVO population continued to increase. Abysus now has its own army, one made up of a large force of mindless beasts and a much smaller and more intelligent special unit called The Pack.

Militarily, Abysus has had several setbacks since Van Kleiss invaded the United Nations, making it an enemy of not only Providence but also the world. The loss of Van Kleiss's nature generating powers cost Abysus its defense system that at one time was capable of taking out an entire Providence army. The most recent setback was the loss of several Pack members as only two out of its original five remain.

Abysus and its EVO inhabitants were eventually conquered by Black Knight and Providence while trying to retrieve the Meta-Nanite hidden there.

Before the Nanite Event, Abysus resembled a desolate town with a castle located at its center.

After the Nanite Event, every square inch of Abysus was infused with nanites. The explosion turned the sky crimson red, wiped out most of the buildings, and turned most of the townspeople into EVOs. The ruined town is largely replaced with forests likely grown by Van Kleiss's powers, while the only inhabitants seem to be EVOs - either the survivors of the Event or brought there on the orders of Van Kleiss.

Abysus is also infested with highly unstable nanites. Van Kleiss's body acts as a stabilizer and assures that the nanites do not run wild. During his temporary death, the nanites went out of control and started devouring everything until Rex revived Van Kleiss.

---

Nico: Wow! That's intense!

Me: Yep. It was intense. But it was one of the most unforgettable battles we've had.

Qin: Wow! Rex Salazar is the hero right?

Me: He is. But he has incredible powers too. He is an E.V.O. that works for Providence.

I went over his history.

---

Rex Salazar is a 16-year-old, amnesiac EVO with the ability to grow weapons and machines out of his body at will. Prior to the Nanite Event, he was one of the initial recipients of a controlled batch of nanites. Unlike a majority of EVOs, Rex has control over his nanites and is the only known being capable of curing other EVOs. Since childhood, Rex was employed as a secret weapon for Providence, a global organization dedicated to protecting the world from rampaging EVOs.

Unintentionally, Rex disappeared six months into the future and returned to a Providence with a new regime he disapproved of. He willingly left Providence for the time being to join a defect group and rebel against the corrupted organization. While he defeated the Consortium, Rex cured the entire world of nanites. However, Rex reserved his abilities and continued to fight for Providence.

Rex was the second son born to Rafael and Violeta Salazar in Geneva, Switzerland, where he lived with them and his older brother Caesar. Rafael, Violeta, and Caesar were brilliant scientists who had traveled all over the world before Rex's birth. As a young child, Rex spent every summer in a small South American town, where he played with his best friend, Federico.

Prior to the Nanite Event, and during the Nanite Project which his parents and brother worked on, Rex was critically injured in an industrial accident caused by a dispute between the many scientists about how the nanites were to be used. The scientists-among them Violeta, Rafael, Caesar, and Gabriel Rylander-injected Rex with the original batch of fully programed nanites, hoping to save Rex's life and to make the other scientists see that their ways were for the greater good. It was a major success as Rex was able to be saved. However, Rex's new abilities, courtesy of the nanites, only reinforced their beliefs. While Rex, Gabriel, and Caesar were able to survive the Nanite Event by blind luck, Rafael and Violeta were killed as a result of the massive nanite explosion.

Later, after losing his memories, assumed to have been caused by the explosion, Rex traveled to Hong Kong and befriended three incurable EVOs named Tuck, Skwydd, and Cricket. Unbeknown to them, Rex was also top lieutenant to an EVO crime lord named Quarry. During their time together, Rex and his gang had an encounter with the shape shifter John Scarecrow and all got voice activated nano-ink tattoos to prevent a repeat of the events. He later secretly traded his friends to Quarry in exchange for his own freedom.

A few years later, Rex transformed into a giant bio-mechanical form and went on a rampage in Mexico. Providence sent a group of soldiers-including Agent Six and White Knight-to contain the menace. After sustaining heavy damage, Rex crashed into a building and reverted to his human form, forgetting everything that happened before he turned full EVO Six discovered the young boy beneath the wreckage and helped him to safety, not knowing that he was the EVO that had just attacked him. Although Six was initially reluctant to look after Rex, he felt sympathy for him when he discovered that Rex was suffering from amnesia.

After Rex saved Six from a dangerous EVO by curing it, Six took Rex to Providence to show his incredible curing capabilities to Dr. Holiday, who had been trying to find a way to revert EVOs' mutations instead of killing them. While hopeful by the discovery, Six did not trust the current head of Research and Development, Doctor Fell, and his then partner, White Knight, and asked that the discovery be kept under wraps. Six's suspicions were confirmed when White kidnapped, interrogated, and later caged Dr. Holiday to discover the reason why Six had brought Rex to Providence.

White, with Dr. Fell, kidnapped Rex while he was sleeping and attempted to dissect him molecule by molecule to reverse-engineer his unique curing capabilities. They failed, however, when Rex's nanites subconsciously reacted to the danger. In the resulting struggle, White was trapped in the chamber during an overload, and Fell was later fired and replaced by Dr. Holiday. With White Knight's body bleached and his nanites destroyed, he was declared head of Providence. Rex was inducted into Providence for his curing powers.

As Rex lived in Providence, he came to see it as his home and developed close bonds with the people there, particularly Agent Six, Dr. Holiday and Bobo, openly acknowledging them as his family. After finding his older brother Caesar, Rex was glad to be reunited with a family member. However, he admitted that the people in Providence were the ones he really had a family-like connection with.

Qin: WHOA! That is amazing!

Me: Yep. Rex has awesome powers. He can build machines with his body. I've always thought that was one of the coolest powers ever.

Qin: I saw him in action before and that was incredible that he has that kind of power.

Me: It is.

Skids: Manboy, how exactly did you get to Townsville before the day that we fought you?

Manboy: Well, new villains pop up everyday. I took a bus to Townsville along with a few other guys. Like that Packrat jerk.

Maria: Can you tell us about Packrat?

Manboy (smirks): Oh, it would be my pleasure.

Manboy revealed his background.

* * *

Packrat has also girlfriends that are actually plastic dolls as it is seen in the episodes "Little Octi Lost" and "Strong-Armed." According to those two episodes, Packrat does all the stealing because the shiny things are gifts for his dolls. Packrat made his debut in the episode "Little Octi Lost". It is also possible that Packrat is either a hoarder, materialistic, or a kleptomaniac based on these acts.

* * *

Me: So he's a total Kleptomaniac.

Laney: Yep.

Nico: We fought a brainwashed villain called Pack Rat before on the day you guys met me.

Me: I remember that. That guy was forced to do that against his will because of Mad Hatter.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that Packrat was at it again.

Me: Packrat is at it again. Lets get him!

We were off to the city.

---

We arrived in the heart of the city and we saw Packrat going after jewels. We swooped in and I punched him in the face and knocked him down.

He got up and he saw us ready to fight.

Packrat: Hello Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I see you're here to stop me from giving gifts to my girls.

Me: What do you mean?

Packrat: I collect things for myself and for my girls. Sure they're dolls but they are perfect.

William: That's your evil plan? To collect shiny things? We were gonna throw you in one of our prisons. But now, you're going to the prison in Townsville!

Me: No. I have a better idea. Lets get him!

Troy: Time to fight rat with other animals!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Animal Supersquad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Liveman Rangers from 1989.

We went at Packrat and I punched him in the face and knocked out his buck teeth and Leni kicked him in the face with a powerful kick and Nico punched him in the stomach and punched him in the mouth. Cricket used her super powerful agility and punched him all over the place with incredible force.

Qin: WHOA! That is powerful speed and power!

Laney: I know.

We punched him all over and the Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over.

Me: Lets take this Bubonic Freak down!

Skids: With pleasure! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his liquid nitrogen gun 100-fold.

Natsu: Lets burn this freak! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his powers over fire 100-fold.

Skids and Natsu: ICE FIRE FREEZE BURN!

Skids fired a powerful blast of liquid nitrogen and Natsu fired a powerful blast of fire and they hit him and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Jessie (Pokemon): Time for some poison! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her Seviper's abilities 100-fold.

Thundercracker: Lets do it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his arm cannon and turned it into a powerful cannon.

Jessie (Pokemon): Seviper! POISON NEEDLE!

Jessie's Seviper and Thundercracker: THUNDEROUS POISON NEEDLE BLAST!

Thundercracker fired his thunder cannon and Seviper fired a powerful barrage of Poison Needles and they hit Packrat and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Time for some Final Smash power!

Star Butterfly: You got it! NARWHAL SUPERSLAM FLOP!

Star Butterfly fired a powerful blast of magic and it formed a huge Narwhal and it slammed onto him.

KRABBBBBLLLLLLAAAAAAAAAAAAAMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMM!

Blossom (Adult): This is for being a Kleptomaniac! PINK FLOWER HAMMERSLAM!

Blossom formed a hammer of pink energy and slammed it into him and knocked him down!

Me: I decided to banish him to the island we sent the Amoeba Boys to.

Blossom: I'll send you to that island myself! (punches Packrat hard)

SMMMMMAAAAAAAASSSSSSSSSHHHHHHHHHHH!

Blossom's punch was so powerful that it sent him flying far! It sent him to the island where the Amoeba Boys were 1,000 miles from South Africa.

Star Butterfly: What do we do with the stuff Packrat stole?

Me: We return it to the rightful owners.

We did so.

We went back to the estate afterwards.

Blossom: (To the viewers) Kleptomaniacs will never be welcome anywhere.

Me: You got that right Blossom.

We later went to having dinner.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction complete and another Powerpuff Girls Villain defeated.

Packrat is another pathetic villain on the Powerpuff Girls and he is just as stupid as the Amoeba Boys. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is Loud House Version of the SpongeBob episode Roller Cowards. Lincoln and Clyde are gonna be afraid of a new roller coaster we built at our amusement park so get ready for a fast moving adrenaline rush that will be vomit-inducing!

See you all tomorrow.

Roller Coaster Cowards

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2020 EVERYONE!

This chapter is a parody of the SpongeBob SquarePants episode Roller Cowards

---

At the estate in Gotham Royal York, we were celebrating the start of the new year. Today was January 1st, 2020.

Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag, and Horsea: HAPPY NEW YEAR'S, EVERYBODY!

They blew noisemakers.

Me: I propose a toast everyone, to the start of an awesome new year!

Everyone: HERE HERE!

We clinked our glasses together.

Lincoln: This year is gonna be awesome!

Laney: It sure is.

Maria: In 2016, J.D. met the Loud Family and Varie, in 2017 he met Vince, Hercules & Zoe and Riley, In 2018 Team Loud Phoenix Storm was formed. And in 2019, we met the Transformers and Power Rangers. I can't wait to see the surprises for this year.

Me: Yeah! A lot of things have happened over the course of 3 and a half years.

Muscle Man: You know who else is looking forward to the rest of 2020? My mom!

Lana: (Laughs) That's right Muscle Man!

Nico: My New Year's Resolution is to keep making more friends.

Vince: Good idea Nico!

Carol: That's right!

Carla: You said it mommy.

Me: 2019 was very eventful and we did a lot of action and adventure.

Varie: Boy we sure did.

Aylene C.: Boy it was awesome!

Littlefoot: You said it Aylene.

Later we were watching the Rose Bowl Parade and we saw all kinds of awesome floats and it was awesome!

Me: Wow! I love all these floats.

Lola: Me too. They are so beautiful.

Lily Loud: And really colorful and artistic.

Nico: They sure made a lot of beautiful ones.

Laney: Yep.

Then we were watching the Rose Bowl Game. It was awesome!

Lynn: YEAH!

Me: YEAH! How can this day get any better?

William: Let's celebrate the New Year by going to our amusement park!

Everyone: YEAH!

Then Clyde appeared through a portal!

Syd Chang: Hey Clyde.

Clyde: Guys you gotta see this! It's an emergency broadcast on my TV!

TV announcer: The day you've been waiting for is almost here. That's right. Phoenix Land has a new ride. It's big… [roller coaster goes into the stars and then back down to Earth.] It's fast… [Nancy and Harold are riding a roller coaster so fast, Harold flies off of it]

Nancy Suzy Fish: Harold, no!

TV announcer: It's painful… [roller coaster crashes into the ground, causing an explosion]

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

TV announcer: It's The Flaming Blast of Obliteration! Opening today at Phoenix Land!

Lana: Wow! What a roller coaster!

Me: Yep, we just built it. Lily told us about an awesome Roller Coaster she went on over at Glove World with SpongeBob and Patrick and we got the idea for it.

Lily: Oh yeah! That was awesome! That was the Fiery Fist O' Pain and it was awesome!

Gali: I remember seeing that. That was awesome!

Me: Lets head over there!

We were off to our awesome amusement park.

Lincoln: Wait for me, guys.

We were walking towards Phoenix Land.

Lincoln: Whoo! Flaming Blast of Obliteration, here we come.

Timmy Monroe: Yeah, dudes, we're all riding the Blast of Obliteration.

Boy #2: I heard somebody rode it and his spine fell out.

Timmy: [laughing] Dude, I hope my spine falls out.

Taylor: [laughing] Yeah, me too.

Me: Boy the new Roller Coaster we built looks like its a success.

Lincoln: Boy, the Blast of Obliteration sounds…

Clyde: Really, really scary. I mean fun! Fun, really, really fun.

Lincoln: Yeah, really fun.

We arrived at Phoenix Land and we saw our new roller coaster we built. It was a massive and terrifying new roller coaster with lots of awesome loops and twists and it had one super tall ramp that went out into space. Lightning came out of storm clouds around the tall ramp and the car came back down fast and a massive explosion happened when the car hit the bottom.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Lincoln: That sure looks like fun.

Clyde: Yeah, I can't wait to ride it.

Me: Here we are guys. Phoenix Land. The only amusement park opened all year and on Major Holidays.

Laney: This is amazing!

Lizzie Morris: Your new amusement park is awesome!

Fu: (Offscreen) I'll say and the pay is worth it.

We saw Fu and she had a tray full of cotton candy.

Me: Hey Fu.

Fu: Hey guys.

Lana: I didn't know you work in Phoenix Land, Fu.

Fu: It's an awesome job. Lady Hokage said that we should diversify in the number of jobs we do besides being a shinobi.

Me: Good thinking. And with your Shinobi abilities you can do multiple jobs all at once. We're heading over to ride the Flaming Blast of Obliteration.

Fu: That roller coaster is awesome!

Laney: I heard about it.

Lucy Heartfilia: It sure looks awesome!

Fu: See ya at home guys.

Me: Will do.

We walked and found the line for the ride.

Lincoln: There it is. The line looks awfully long.

Clyde: Oh, I know! Let's go on some of the dumb kiddie rides first.

Me: Good idea Clyde. Lets go have some fun while we're here.

Everyone: YEAH!

Some of us went onto the regular rides like the bumper cars, mad tea cups and others, some of us went to the prize booths and more and everyone else went to the other rides and more.

Lincoln: Can you believe some people are afraid to ride roller coasters?

Clyde: Yeah, only a real baby would be afraid of a roll… Whoa!

Lincoln: I can't believe it, Clyde. It's Fiery Bird! [a man in a cool red, orange and yellow phoenix costume is standing in front of them] Get over there and I'll take your picture with him. [Clyde moves a few steps into the camera phone so he's not too close to Fiery Bird] Get closer, Clyde.

Clyde: Nuh-uh.

Lincoln: Come on, closer. [Clyde moves a little closer] That's it, a little more. Now hold onto his thumb. Give me a big smile. [takes the picture]

Clyde: How do I look? [pictures shows Clyde touching Fiery Bird with only a finger] Wow, I look great. [a little kid is laughing on one of the kiddie rides]

Lincoln and Clyde: The Firechick!

Me: That's an adorable ride we built for kids

Lincoln: [clears throat] I mean, The Firechick.

Clyde: That ride's for babies.

Lincoln: Yeah. Let's ride it just to see how baby-fied it is.

Me: Okay.

[Both Lincoln and Clyde walk over and get into the ride, with the little kid. When they go over a bump, they scream. When the ride is over, they get out and both are shivering; the baby snaps his fingers at Lincoln and Clyde and walks away]

Clyde: I guess that ride was too much for the little guy. [cut to Lincoln and Clyde standing in line by the Flaming Blast of Obliteration]

Lincoln: Well, the line looks a little bit shorter now. Can you believe that some people are scared of this ride? [both chuckle nervously]

Me, Kevin Levin and Captain America were figuring them out.

Clyde: Yeah, it's perfectly safe. No one gets hurt riding these roller coasters. [an old man is wheel chaired out of Phoenix Land!]

Old Man Walker: Oh, why, why, why? [Lincoln and Clyde scream and run off] Why won't you let me on the ride?

Sasuke: Sir, you have a serious medical condition.

Old Man Walker: But it's my birthday! [cut to Lincoln and Clyde running through a line, cheering]

Clyde: Yeah!

Lincoln & Clyde: One more time!

Tom: You know, this is the line for the bathroom.

Lincoln: [laughs] We've gone eight times.

Clyde: And I went three times all by myself.

Tom: I'm going to walk away now. [does so]

Lincoln: Bye.

Me: You guys are funny.

Clyde: Have fun! [Lightning walks up]

Lightning: Lincoln! Clyde!

Lincoln: Hello, Lightning.

Me: Hey Lightning! What's happening?

We high five.

Lightning: I just got off the Blast of Obliteration. Man, what a rush. [sniffs his armpit then sighs in relief as a green odor is released from under his arm] You smell that? That's the smell of adrenaline. [Lincoln's and Clyde's eyebrows disintegrate]

Lincoln: Oh, it's, uh… [holding breath] very manly, Lightning.

Me: Invigorating Lightning!

Lightning: Thanks [picks up Lincoln and smells him] Lincoln, I'm not smelling any adrenaline on you. You haven't gone on the ride?

Lincoln: Um, I have a confession to make. We haven't gone on the ride because I'm… hungry. I'm very hungry. Hungry, hungry! [runs off]

Lightning: Come on, Clyde. You and me, pal?

Clyde: I'm hungry, too. [runs off]

Lightning: Maybe I should stop making people smell me.

Me: You can come with us Lightning. I think we know what's going on [Cuts to Lincoln and Clyde sitting at a table, eating ice cream, and looking at the explosions on the Blast of Obliteration]

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Clyde: Want some?

Lincoln: No thanks, Clyde. Um, you got ice cream in your eyebrows.

Clyde: Yeah, that's the problem with this brand.

Me: Lincoln, I think you and Clyde are scared of the roller coaster.

Lincoln: (Sighs) Yeah we are J.D.

Clyde: It's really scary for us.

Me: Aw it's okay guys.

Everyone else came to us.

Lana: What's wrong guys?

Lisa: It appears that our elder brother and his best friend unit appear to be showing a cowardly yellow stripe towards the newest Roller Coaster.

Laney: They're scared of the new Roller Coaster?

Syd Chang: Oh man.

Kevin Levin: (to Lincoln) Dude, you and the others fought several bad guys, powerful monsters and save the universe several times, and yet, you're scared of a roller coaster?

Edd: This is quite normal for children.

Captain America: Lincoln, it's ok to be afraid. That shows that despite our powers and accomplishments, deep down, we're still only human.

Lightning: I just tried that roller coaster a few minutes ago. I found it awesome! And I barely needed powers to survive it!

Me: That's right.

Earth: If you want, I can go with you Linky.

Syd Chang: Same here Clyde.

Lincoln: Really? Okay Earth.

Clyde: I would like that Syd.

Me: Awesome! Lets go!

Lincoln: [reads the sign] Warning! This ride may cause: Crying, screaming, projectile vomiting, amnesia, spine loss, embarrassing accidents, uncontrollable gas…

Lincoln & Clyde:… and explosive diarrhea. [explosion is heard]

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Lincoln: Is that all?

Clyde: Big deal, I did half that stuff this morning.

Syd Chang: It's okay Clyde. We're with you.

Earth: That's right Linky.

Clyde: After you. [both sit down in the ride]

Lincoln: We made it.

Clyde: Yeah.

Syd Chang: This is gonna be awesome!

Employee #3: Please keep your arms and legs inside the vehicle at all times. [buckles them, puts on helmets, and wraps them up] There.

Employee #4: Now if you could just sign this release, absolving Phoenix Land in case of accidental spine loss… [Lincoln, Clyde, Syd and Earth sign their name] Well, nice knowing you.

Employee #3: Ready in ten…

Lincoln: This is it, guys.

Earth: Oh yeah!

Employee #3: Nine, eight…

Lincoln: We made it!

Employee #3: Seven, six…

Clyde: We're not scaredy cats.

Employee #3: Five, four…

Lincoln: We're not crybabies.

Employee #3: Three, two…

Lincoln & Clyde: We're brave!

Employee #3: One… [when he presses the 'GO' button, Lincoln & Clyde scream, but the roller coaster breaks down]

Henry: [over speaker] Uh, we're experiencing some technical difficulties.

Employee #3: Man, this cheap thing is always breaking down.

Me: Let me see that stupid thing.

I kicked it and it was working again.

Employee #3: Oh, wait, it's fine.

Lincoln & Clyde: Huh?

Employee #3: Have fun. [presses the 'GO' button again. They all take off but their wrapping and helmets have come off]

Lincoln: Clyde, I don't want to face my fears. I'm afraid of them! [when they get to the top, it stops for a moment] Goodbye, Clyde. Goodbye Earth.

Clyde: Goodbye, Lincoln. Goodbye Syd.

[Coaster starts again, dropping and going around many loops and tunnels and they had a lot of fire in them and they through a saw, a flaming fist, a log ram, a wrecking ball, lightning blasts and a laser. When the coaster drops at a 90 degree angle, Lincoln, Clyde, Syd and Earth's skeletons fly through the air while their bodies go down with the coaster. Their skeletons fly into them as they go up, out of the sky and into space, but when they sit up, they have the other one's skeleton. The coaster drops into the ground, causing an explosion.]

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

[When the ride is over, Lincoln was hugging Earth and Clyde was holding Syd Chang, shaking]

Woman: [over speaker] Please wait until the car has come to a complete stop. And stop crying!

Employee #3: It's over. You can get out now.

Lincoln & Clyde: We did it! [both get out and run around in circles]

Clyde: That was so much fun!

Me: That was awesome!

Lori: Great job boys!

Syd Chang: Way to go Clyde!

Earth: Yeah Linky!

Lincoln: We conquered our fears!

Clyde: We stopped crying!

Lincoln: We survived the Blast of Obliteration!

Employee #3: Hey, hold it right there! You forgot these.

Lincoln, Clyde, Earth and Syd: Our spines! [grab their spines]

Me: Geez! Those kids weren't kidding! That ride does cause spine lose!

Lincoln: Yeah! [when they grab them, they start to wiggle their bodies and then bend them backwards. They laugh]

Lincoln: Let's go again!

Clyde: Yeah!

Syd Chang: That was so awesome!

Earth: I'll say!

We later went home and got their spines put back in.

Nico: That was so much fun!

Vince: Boy you said it!

Lola: We won all kinds of awesome prizes too.

Lana: You said it!

Lila Loud: Yeah!

Laney: But it was so cool seeing Lincoln and Clyde conquer their fears like that.

Me: Boy you said it Laney. But they are gonna be in a lot of pain after having their spines put back.

Sora: I can heal them.

Me: Thanks Sora.

Qin: Yeah. J.D. I heard from Vince that you were known as the Hero of Prague who saved the world from Vostok.

Me: Yep. That was one of my first fights.

Nico: Who is Vostok?

Me: He was a former Soviet Union K.G.B. operator that went rogue when the Soviet Union fell from power.

I pulled up his history.

---

Vostok was a hard-line Siberian army general and former KGB agent who resented the former Soviet Union's abandonment of Communism. He sought to use a living golem to overthrow the Czech Republic's current government headed by President Alena Stasny. To this end, he posed as Czech scientist Professor Karst's chauffeur, but was recognized by Race Bannon. He sent an attack helicopter to kill Bannon, but the pilot failed, and Bannon stole the chopper.

Still posing as Karst's chauffeur, Vostok accompanied him and the Quests to where the golem was. After Vostok brought the stone giant to life by carving an infinity symbol into its forehead using an artifact Vostok hard murdered another Czech scientist to obtain, Vostok betrayed Karst, and ordered the golem to kill him and the Quests. Although Karst seemed to die, the Quests were able to escape thanks to the intervention of Race Bannon in the helicopter.

Gathering his men, led by his second in command Colonel Dimitri, Vostok led an assault against President Stasny's mansion, using the golem as a spearhead. The golem laid waste to the Czech soldiers and flipped a tank over, smashing the top end into the upper floor of the house, allowing Vostok and Dimitri, the latter armed with a machine pistol, to simply walk up it like a ramp.

Vostok confronted Stasny and the Quest and ordered the golem to kill them. However, it turned out that Professor Karst had survived the attack earlier. He knocked out Dimitri, took his gun, and attempted to kill his former business partner. As the two fought over the artifact which controlled the golem, part of the ceiling caved in on them, destroying the golem and killing Karst. However, Vostok survived and escaped.

Later, he weaponized Dr. Gunter Erikson's ability to freeze large amounts of water, the Bifrost Effect, using it to steal a Russian submarine, the Gagarin. He was killed when Dr. Quest turned the Bifrost Effect against him; as Vostok launched torpedoes, the water around his submarine froze, preventing the torpedoes from advancing any further. The resulting explosion destroyed the Gagarin, killing Vostok.

---

Qin: Whoa! I had no idea he was that dangerous!

Me: The Russian Federation ordered its entire military to kill him on sight for terrorism. But here's what happened.

---

Me: (Narrating) It was back in 2013 in Prague, the Capital City of the Czech Republic. Me and my family were on vacation there when we found out that Vostok was terrorizing the area with the golem. I found out about this and went after Vostok. It was the most brutal and ferocious fight I've ever faced.

Past me kicked Vostok in the face and I kicked the Scriv out of his hands and stopped the Golem. Then we engaged in a brutal fist fight! We screamed and roared and went at each other and engaged in a ferocious fight! We grabbed each other and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and he punched me in the face and I kicked him in the face and he kicked me in the stomach and I punched him in the stomach and he punched me in the face twice and I dodged his third strike and punched him in the face and he kicked at me and I dodged his strike and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach. He came at me and fired a bunch of bullets and I deflected them away and punched him in the face and kicked him in the chest and punched him in the face again! He got up and went at me and punched me in the face and kicked me in the stomach with devastating force and I crashed into a rock and belched up a huge amount of blood. He grabbed me and threw me down and pile drove me and I belched up even more blood and it got on his face and he was screaming in pain as it burned him and I got up and punched him in the face and kicked him and punched him in the face and he punched me in the face with devastating force and knocked out some of my teeth and I was thrown to the ground and he jumped and just as he was about to smash my head in, I grabbed he foot and threw him into a rock and I kicked him with devastating force and I grabbed his arm and broke it. He then got up and viciously punched me in the stomach and I belched out a huge amount of blood and I punched him away.

Past me: YOU CAN'T WIN VOSTOK!

Vostok: (RUSSIAN ACCENT) THIS PLANET WILL BE MINE IN THE NAME OF COMMUNISM AND YOU ALL WILL DIE WITHOUT FREE WILL!

Past me: LIKE HELL IT WILL BE YOU MOTHERFUCKING MOTHERFUCKER!

We went back to fighting! We were mercilessly thrashing each other and we weren't gonna give up until one of us dies! I punched him in the face with devastating force and he belched up a huge amount of blood and I kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face! Vostok punched me in the stomach and kicked me in the face with devastating force and I belched up a huge amount of blood and I dealt him a deadly uppercut and kicked him in the face. He growled ferociously and punched me in the stomach and dealt me a deadly uppercut!

I landed and he had a pipe ready and we clashed with them. We stood ready to clash again.

Vostok: It is over.

Past me: (Speaking Russian) Сделай свой лучший выстрел, ты, коммунистический ублюдок! (Take your best shot you communist motherfucker!)

He came at me and and I kicked him in the head and bashed him in the head with the pipe and knocked him out.

Me: It was one of the most brutal fights I've ever had. But I saved all of Prague from a fate worse than death. Vostok wanted to bring back the Soviet Union and everyone into the age of Communism.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Me: That's what got me Prague's highest honor: The Order of The White Lion medal.

Everyone: Wow!

Girl Jordan: That's incredible!

Stella (Loud House): It sure is.

Nico: Wow! But what happened to Vostok?

Me: He was taken back to Russia and brought to trial for his crimes. They sentenced him to spend the rest of his miserable life in the Black Dolphin Maximum Security Prison. It's Russia's toughest maximum security prison and the toughest prison in the world. It's only reserved for the most dangerous criminals in the world.

I pulled up its info.

---

Federal Governmental Institution - penal colony № 6 Federal Penitentiary Service of Russia in Orenburg region (Russian: ФКУ ИК-6 УФСИН России по Оренбургской области or Федеральное Казённое Учреждение - Исправительная Колония №6 Управления Федеральной Службы Исполнения Наказаний России по Оренбургской области), commonly known as the Black Dolphin Prison (Russian: Чёрный дельфин, Cheornyi del′fin), is a correctional facility in Sol-Iletsk, Orenburg Oblast, Russia, near its border with Kazakhstan. The prison is one of the oldest in Russia, and one of the first in the Orenburg region to accept prisoners with life sentences. It gets its unofficial name from a prisoner-constructed[citation needed] sculpture depicting a black dolphin, which is set in front of the main entrance.

The prison houses approximately 700 of the most serious criminals in Russia, including child molestors, murderers, terrorists, cannibals, serial killers, political prisoners and so-called "maniacs". Prisoners at Black Dolphin are all serving sentences of imprisonment for life. The prison began accepting these inmates on 1 November 2000.

Inmates are kept isolated and housed in cells that have a set of three steel doors. For 90 minutes a day, they are transported to a large cage for exercise; during this time, cells are searched for contraband or illegal items. Prisoners at Black Dolphin are kept under 24-hour supervision; they are not permitted to rest or sit on their bunks from the time they are awoken until it is time to sleep again, a span of about 16 hours. Every 15 minutes, a guard makes rounds to ensure inmates are complying with the rules. The prisoners are fed soup four times a day. The prisoners are only allowed books, newspapers, and a radio (which is their only link to the outside world). When prison officers make a command to the inmates, they must respond with the words "yes, sir" (Russian: есть, гражданин начальник, tr. yest', grazhdanin nachalnik, which has the literal translation of lit. "It is so, Citizen Chief").

Prison guards place blindfolds on arriving prisoners so that they can not map out the prison or plan escapes. Prisoners are also blindfolded whenever they are transported between buildings. Also unique to Black Dolphin is the form in which guards escort inmates; prisoners are kept bent over at the waist while a guard holds their handcuffed hands behind their back, higher than the inmate's hips. This "stress position" allows for maximum control over the inmate while depriving him of a view of his immediate surroundings, and prevents him from escaping and attacking prison staff. While there have been rumors of inmate abuse and misconduct at Black Dolphin

Prison, there have been no confirmed reports or complaints.[dubious - discuss]

Originally, Black Dolphin was a jail (Ostrog) for those sentenced to life at hard labor, a purpose it had dating to at least 1745. After the suppression of Pugachev's Rebellion in 1773, the prison was updated for the deportation and confinement of robbers.

German actress Carola Neher died at Black Dolphin in 1942.

---

Nico: Whoa! That prison looks dangerous!

Me: It is. That's what makes it one of the most dangerous prisons in the world.

Laney: Wow.

Me: But after we built the space prisons, I had Vostok moved to the Neptune Prison for Traitors and he was placed in the supermax portion of the prison.

Nico: Good riddance. Vostok has failed this world.

Liberty: He sure has.

May: Yeah.

We continued talking and we had an awesome New Year.

Another Fanfiction Complete and an awesome SpongeBob episode complete!

Happy New Year to you all and happy first day of 2020. Roller Cowards was one of the funniest episodes of SpongeBob season 5 and it was awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the first chapter for Rocko's Modern Life and it will be a battle against the Sausage Cult Leader. Get ready for salivary overload as we eat sausage!

See you all tomorrow

Night of the Sausage Cult

In the estate, Rosa Casagrande was watching her favorite horoscope show: Ernesto Estrella.

I came in.

Me: Hola Rosa.

Rosa: (Spanish Accent) Hola J.D.

Me: What ya watching?

Rosa: It's my favorite astrologer show Ernesto Estrella. He's a horoscope teller.

Me: Like a fortune teller. That's neat. I was born a Libra. But I am also a very special case.

Rosa: How so?

Me: I was born on a very rare planetary alignment. It's an alignment that happens once every 30,000 to 40,000 years.

Rosa: Aye caramba. What is the alignment?

Me: The planets Mars, Venus, Saturn, Uranus and Neptune were aligned that night when I was born.

Rosa: Wow! That's amazing!

Nico: Wow. I didn't know that J.D. That's really something.

Me: I looked it up on the star charts and it was a rare event.

Jessie K.: That's awesome dad. I know another person that was born on a rare planetary alignment like that. Christina of Sweden. She was born on a rare conjunction with Mars, Venus and Pluto on December 28th, 1626.

Rosa: Wow. That is something.

Me: An alignment like that probably happens once every 40,000 to 50,000 years.

Nico: Wow.

Ernesto: (Spanish Accent) Today, I will be talking about the Fire Sign.

He formed a fire in his hand.

Rosa: Ooh! Ronalda is a fire sign.

Me: Libra is under wind. Nico, your birthday is on May 27th, so that makes you a Gemini and they fall under Wind.

Nico: Nice!

Jessie K.: Wow!

Me: Yep. They represent the realms of ideas, perception and a rational mind.

Nico: That is so cool!

Rosa: That's right.

We went to the kitchen to get some drinks.

---

Later we were watching TV.

Arixam: You all ready for the Girl's Night Out?

Xion: You bet I am Arixam!

Maria: Yeah!

Me: You girls haven't had a Girls Night Out in a long time.

Varie: No we sure haven't.

Laney: It's gonna be really fun.

Nathalie Sancoeur: I hope you don't mind me supervising this Girl's Night Out. It's the least I could do since you pardoned me.

Marinette: Sure Nathalie. You're welcome to join us.

Lana: Yeah.

Lola: It's gonna be awesome.

Linka: We haven't had a Girls Night Out in like forever. Since the last Humiliation with the Griffins.

Me: Yeah. But have fun girls.

Varie: Will do.

They left and were ready to have fun.

Beast Wars Inferno: Boss, what should we do while the girls are out?

Me: We could go to the obstacle course and practice.

Nico: Good idea.

We left for the Obstacle Course.

* * *

In the middle of the city, Varie and the girls were ready to have fun.

Thunderblast: So, where are we going for the Girl's Night Out?

Varie: We're going to the mall for a shopping spree.

Leni: Yay! I love the mall.

Nathalie: Sounds like we're going to have fun.

Aylene C.: We are.

They went to the mall. They were at the clothing stores and they tried on all kinds of awesome clothes and they were showing off and they had awesome looks. They tried everything on from summer dresses, bikinis, dresses, shirts, skirts, shoes and so much more.

They bought their clothes and left. They went to several stores in the mall and so much more.

Next they went to an awesome restaurant called the India Megabistro. They had really good India Food.

Marinette: Good food.

Lana: You said it.

Lori: It's literally delicious.

Laney: It sure is.

Lisa: Indeed.

Nathalie: I haven't had Curry in a long time.

Maria: It sure is good.

Luna: We should have Girl's Nights Out more often dudes!

Luan: Yeah!

Then Maria got a call on her call watch.

Maria: Hello?

G1 Inferno: (contact Maria) Maria, we need you and the girls to come back to the estate. We just found our next baddie to bust.

Maria: We'll be right over.

They paid for their lunch and headed back to the estate.

---

Back at the estate, we got word on the satellites that an evil sausage cult was causing trouble in the city of O-Town, Michigan. It eas some kind of weird cult that worships sausages.

---

The Sausage Cult Leader is an anthropomorphic bird that appears as the main antagonist in one episode of the series Schnit-heads.

He is the manager of The Schnit Hut who invites Heffer to his party and to join the club. He and his associates are entirely devoted to producing, selling, consuming and even worshipping sausages day after day after day. At first enthusiastic about his new friends' devotion to one of his favorite foods, Heffer eventually grows tired and, one fatidical night, decides to order some pizza, explaining to the shocked cult members that he was getting a little tired of sausage.

The Leader goes berserk and sentences Heffer to ploughing the Sauerkraut Field. When Rocko goes to The Club of Sausage, the guards yelled at Rocko that he's never allowed to see Heffer again and forces Rocko to get out. Meanwhile, Rocko and Filburt work on a disguise of a giant great one of sausage. Upon seeing the giant sausage, the guard becomes cowardly and allows the monster in, with Heffer's friends hiding inside the disguise. Filburt yells at the members to bow down and bring him Heffer, but throwing Heffer inside of the great one's mouth and the costume's jaw became loose and fell out.

The Cult members realize that they have been fooled and they charge at Filburt, Rocko and Heffer. The Cult Leader and his membesr threaten to torture the three of them for punishment, but Really Really Big Man shows up right in time, disguised as a king of wiener, and claims to send the Leader and his member henchmen to flight but tricks them into dropping them to an island for their punishment, so Big Man saves Rocko and his friends and sends them home.

Despite being sent to an island as punishment for his actions, the Sausage Cult Leader makes a cameo appearance in the Netflix film, "Rocko's Modern Life: Static Cling" among the other residents present in watching the return of the Fatheads in Conglomo.

---

Me: O-Town? That's located just outside of Detroit.

Lori: That's literally not far from here.

Lana: I never heard of a Sausage Cult before.

Me: Looks like we got another Evil cult to take down. But this time it worships sausages.

Mordecai's mouth was salivating.

Mordecai: Please tell me that we get to actually steal sausages from that cult!

Me: We will Mordecai. O-Town is also a city full of Anthropomorphic Animals. This is gonna be interesting. Lets get them!

We were off to O-Town.

---

O-TOWN, MICHIGAN!

---

We arrived in O-Town and it was a beautiful town.

Me: Wow! We're in O-Town.

Nico: Wow! It's amazing!

Lola: It sure is beautiful.

Me: But it wasn't like this 20 years ago. It was just a small town back then.

We then saw a wallaby come up to us.

Rocko: (Australian Accent) G-day mates.

Me: Oh hello there.

Rocko: Wow! You're the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet you all. I'm Rocko.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Rocko. We got word that an evil sausage cult is back.

Rocko: That's right mate. It got Heffer once and now we have to stop them for good.

Me: We'll gladly help you. But wait, isn't Heffer the Scoutmaster of Camp Kidney?

Rocko: That's right! Until that big dumb moose ruined it for him.

Lincoln: You mean Lumpus.

Rocko: That's him. What a jerk!

Nico: We killed Lumpus.

Rocko: Good riddance.

We went into Rocko's house and we saw Heffer eating a lot of food.

Heffer: Hey Rocko. Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right Heffer. It's good to see you again.

Heffer: Same to you J.D.

Me: How have you been doing since that dumb moose was exposed?

Heffer: Been doing good. Now that Lumpus is dead, I can now move on with my life and help out Camp Squirrel Bean whenever Slinkman needs it.

Laney: That's awesome!

Lana: Yeah!

Nico: It's great for you to help them out. But I take it you heard of that Sausage Cult returning.

Heffer: I sure did.

Me: Want to help us take them down?

Heffer: You bet!

Rocko: Lets get them!

Rocko called Mrs. Bighead, Filbert and Dr. Hutchinson and we were off to the Sausage House.

---

At the Sausage House, the Sausage Cult Leader was getting his followers together. But then a massive fiery explosion blasted a hole in his factory gate and a phoenix cry was heard and we came out of the explosion.

Me: This cult is hereby disbanded!

Sausage Cult Leader: On who's authority?

Me: Mine!

William: (to the Sausuge Cult Leader) Before we fight, give us all your sausages!

Sausage Cult Leader: Okay?

We were given an eternity supply of sausage.

Laney tied him up with bramble vines and they really hurt.

Dark Spicer: (Offscreen) He's not the only one you have to worry about.

We saw Dark Spicer come out of the shadows.

Dark Spicer: (to Lynn) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: Dark Spicer. Where's Vypra? Usually she's with you.

Dark Spicer: She decided to sit this one out. I have new aliens for you.

Dark Spicer turned into a Wildmutt lookalike. He had dark black fur, red eyes showing that can see in infrared, razor sharp claws and powerful teeth.

Feralhound: Meet Feralhound!

Ben: How come your Wildmutt form can talk but mine can't?

Feralhound: Why don't you ask Shanan? Since apparently, she's such an expert on my alien forms! (charges at Snake Man)

Snake Man dodged him.

Shanan: This is a mutant Vulpimancer. It's a hybrid with a Vulpimancer and something else.

Feralhound: Try this on.

Dark Spicer turned into a mutant Kineceleran. He was a red version of XLR8 but with lightning stripes and powerful flaming mufflers on his shoulders and legs.

Dirtdrive: Say hello to Dirtdrive!

Dirtdrive rushes at you and writes on my forehead in black marker "Insert Brains here".

Me: (sees what Dirtdrive wrote) Hey!

Turbo Man: "Insert Brains Here"? Are you kidding me?

Dirtdrive: (laughs) Don't forget about the big arrow that points to where the brain should go. That's very important. (runs forward at high speeds to strike Turbo Man)

Turbo Man punched him in the face.

Me: (Sarcastically) Oh that is so funny.

Shanan: He's a mutant Kineceleran hybrid.

Nico: No one pranks J.D.!

Gia Moran: Let's show Dark Spicer our full Fury!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Jungle Fury!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jungle Fury Power Rangers and Orion turned into the Black Lion Ranger.

Me: Lets get him!

Nathalie: Time for action! Conda! Spread my Wings!

Nathalie then had an awesome new dark blue sleeveless body suit with feathers on it and she had a blue and purple sleeveless trench coat with the Andes Mountains on it and the Condors were flying in it. She had beautiful blue and purple angel angel wings and she had the Kanji for The Condor of The Flight of Justice on the back. 正義の飛行のコンドル She had an awesome and powerful fan that looked like Condor Feathers. In this form she was known as Pride Bird.

We went at him and I punched him in the face with devastating force and Nico punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the mouth and knocked his teeth out. Nathalie fired numerous feather shuriken and they hit Dark Spicer and he was in a lot of pain and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him. Laney and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and plant barbs and burned him and poisoned him.

Me: Time for some teamwork!

Luna: You got it dude! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and it enhanced her water powers 100-fold.

G1 Inferno: Time for some fiery pain! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Fire Extinguisher 100-fold.

Luna and G1 Inferno: MEGAFOAM WATER BLAST!

Luna fired a powerful blast of water and G1 Inferno fired a blast of foam and the blasts combined and turned into a deadly foam blast that got him really wet.

Beast Wars Inferno: Time for this monster to Burn! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Predacon Cyber Planet Key went into his gun and enhanced it 100-fold.

Thunderblast: Lets dance freak! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into her rocket launcher and it turned into a more powerful bigger rocket launcher.

Beast Wars Inferno and Thunderblast: INFERNO MEGABLAST FIRESTORM!

They both fired powerful blasts of fire and energy and they hit Dark Spicer and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM

Ben: Time for some true Heatblast Power!

Bella: You got it Ben!

Bella turned into Ultimate Bella and Ben turned into Heatblast.

Ben: HEATBLAST!

Lea and Heatblast fired a massive blast of fire.

Lea and Heatblast: MEGA FIRE BLAST MEGARAY!

The blasts combined and turned into a deadly blast of fire and burned him all over.

Bella: Try this on! IONSTORM!

Bella fired powerful blasts of energy with the power of the Drej.

Snake Man fired a powerful Search Snake and Ben turned into

Wildmutt and went at him.

Snake Man: WILDSNAKE DEATH SLASH!

Wildmutt slashed him all over the place and Snake Man's Search Snake exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Lets finish you off!

Nathalie: I'll start things off!

Me: Ladies first.

Nathalie: You're too kind. CONDOR FEATHER SHURIKEN STORM!

Nathalie fired a powerful barrage of feather shuriken and they hit Dark Spicer and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Heffer: This is for brainwashing me! SUPER STEER SITFLAT!

Heffer jumped and sat on Dark Spicer and squished him as flat as a pancake.

SQUISH!

Lynn: Feel the burn! VOLCANIC LAVA PUNCH!

Lynn coated her arm in fire and punched him with devastating force and it burned him bad.

Nico: Dark Spicer, you and that Sausage Cult Leader have failed this world! LIGHTNING THUNDERCLAP STRIKE!

Nico fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him.

Dark Spicer reverted back.

Me: You're finished Spicer!

Nico: Yeah!

Dark Spicer: I'm out of here!

He was leaving.

Sausage Cult Leader: Take me too!

Dirtdrive: (to Sausuge Cult Leader) Sorry, pal. But I can't babysit you anymore.

With that, Dirtdrive runs off, leaving the Sausuge Cult Leader behind.

Lynn: Looks like Dark Spicer abandoned you.

Heffer: (to Sausge Cult Leader) You're going to prison for a very long time.

Me: Life in one of our space prisons will do.

Lynn: (To the viewers) Not even the love of sausage can match the power of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Nope.

The Sausage Cult Leader was sentenced to life in the Uranus Prison without parole.

Another Fanfiction Complete and the first ever Rocko's Modern Life chapter done.

Schnit-Heads was a very funny episode of Rocko's Modern Life and it was funny! Everything I said about the Planetary Alignment on my birthday is true. I was born on an extremely rare planetary alignment on my birthday in 1987. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Get ready for an out of this world adventure as we do a chapter for the 1982 movie E.T. the Extraterrestrial and it's gonna be an epic chase through the stars as we help E.T. get home.

See you all tomorrow.

ET Phone Home

It was a snowy day at the estate in Gotham Royal York and Eddy was up to something mischievous.

Eddy saw Goku and he was chuckling mischievously.

Eddy: (Snickering) My first pigeon.

Goku: Hey, Eddy. Is there something you need?

Eddy raised his finger and slowly touched Goku's finger.

Eddy: Ouch.

Goku (weirded out): Um… okay.

Eddy left.

Eddy then found Bombshell sitting in the library.

Bombshell: Hey, Eddy. What's up?

Eddy raised his finger and slowly touched Bombshell's finger.

Eddy: Ouch.

Bombshell: What are you doing?

Eddy then left.

Tracks was playing video games with Lincoln.

Tracks: Can I help you with anything, Eddy?

Eddy raised his finger and slowly touched Tracks' finger.

Eddy: Ouch.

Tracks: Please don't do that again.

Lincoln: What was that about?

Cutthroat was in Lynn's sports stadium playing football with Lynn.

Cutthroat: Something wrong, Eddy?

Eddy raised his finger and slowly touched Cutthroat's finger.

Eddy: Ouch.

Cutthroat: What the hell?

Lynn: He got you.

Edd was getting suspicious.

* * *

Later in Luan's room, Eddy and Luan were deciding on what to for their next party gig when there was a knock at their door.

Luan: Come in.

The door opened and in came everyone.

Edd: Pardon the interruption Luan, but we need to have a talk with Eddy.

Luan: Oh sure.

Edd: Eddy. Would you care to explain why I've been getting complaints about you touching other people's fingers?

Eddy: I saw it on the movie E.T. the Extraterrestrial and I thought it would be funny.

Me: E.T.? Oh I love that movie!

Lori: That movie is literally one of my favorites.

Nico: Oh wow! I love E.T. That was an awesome movie!

Lana: It sure was.

Lisa: It was a rather enjoyable piece of entertainment.

Tara: It sure was.

Luan: I don't think I ever saw that movie.

Eddy: Oh you will love it Luan. It's so awesome.

Cutthroat: So that what that was about.

Tracks: E.T. from what I heard is amazing.

Goku: What is it about?

Me: You would love it Master Goku. It's about an alien named E.T. that was Stranded here on Earth after being accidentally left behind and a young boy named Elliott is trying to help him get back home before the government can get to him.

Lana: That's right.

Qin: That movie is so awesome.

Nathalie: Yeah. It's widely known all over the world.

Me: Yeah for 38 years its been a huge iconic film legend. It was made in 1982.

Kate Lloyd: Around the same year as The Thing.

Me: Yep. Lets watch the movie.

We then went down to the Living Room and we were watching the awesome 1982 movie E.T. the Extraterrestrial.

---

A small group of alien botanists secretly visits Earth under cover of night to gather plant specimens in a California forest. When government agents appear on the scene, the aliens flee in their spaceship (or UFO), but in their haste, one of them is left behind. In a suburban neighborhood in the San Fernando Valley, a ten-year-old boy named Elliott is spending time with his brother, Michael, and his friends. As he returns from picking up a pizza, he discovers that something is hiding in their tool shed. The alien promptly flees upon being discovered.

Despite his family's disbelief, Elliott leaves Reese's Pieces candy to lure the alien to his house. Before going to sleep, Elliott realizes the alien is imitating his movements. He feigns illness the next morning to stay home from school and play with him. Later that day, Michael and their five-year-old sister, Gertie, meet the alien. They decide to keep him hidden from their mother, Mary. When they ask him about his origin, he levitates several balls to represent his planetary system and then demonstrates his powers by reviving dead chrysanthemums. Already starting to pick up the English language he demonstrates his signature power, revealed through his glowing fingertip by healing a minor flesh wound on Elliot's finger.

At school the next day, Elliott begins to experience a telepathic connection with the alien, including exhibiting signs of intoxication (because the alien is at his home, drinking beer and watching television), and he begins freeing all the frogs in his biology class. As the alien watches John Wayne kiss Maureen O'Hara in The Quiet Man on television, Elliott then kisses a girl he likes, in the same manner and is sent to the principal's office.

The alien learns to speak English by repeating what Gertie says as she watches Sesame Street and, at Elliott's urging, dubs himself "E.T." E.T. reads a comic strip where Buck Rogers, stranded, calls for help by building a makeshift communication device and is inspired to try it himself. E.T. receives Elliott's help in building a device to "phone home" by using a Speak & Spell toy. Michael notices that E.T.'s health is declining and that Elliott is referring to himself as "we".

On Halloween, Michael and Elliott dress E.T. as a ghost so they can sneak him out of the house. That night, Elliott and E.T. head through the forest, where they make a successful call home. The next day, Elliott wakes up in the field, only to find E.T. gone. Elliott returns home to his distressed family. Michael searches for and finds E.T. dying next to a culvert. Michael takes E.T. home to Elliott, who is also dying. Mary becomes frightened when she discovers her son's illness and the dying alien, just as government agents invade the house.

Scientists set up a hospital at the house, questioning Michael, Mary, and Gertie, while treating Elliott and E.T. Their mental connection disappears, and E.T. then appears to die while Elliott recovers. A grief-stricken Elliott is left alone with the motionless E.T. when he notices a dead chrysanthemum, the plant E.T. had previously revived, coming back to life. E.T. reanimates and reveals that his people are returning. Elliott and Michael steal a van that E.T. had been loaded into and a chase ensues, with Michael's friends joining them as they attempt to evade the authorities on bicycles. Suddenly facing a police roadblock, they escape as E.T. uses telekinesis to lift them into the air and toward the forest, like he had done for Elliott before.

Standing near the spaceship, E.T.'s heart glows as he prepares to return home. Mary, Gertie, and Keys, a friendly government agent, show up. E.T. says goodbye to Michael and Gertie, as she presents him with the chrysanthemum that he had revived. Before boarding the spaceship, he embraces Elliott and tells him "I'll be right here", pointing his glowing finger to Elliott's forehead. He then picks up the chrysanthemum and boards the spaceship. As the others watch it take off, the spaceship leaves a rainbow in the sky.

---

We saw how they made that makeshift communicator out of all kinds of stuff we used almost 40 years ago and it was awesome and we saw all kinds of awesome stuff happen. The psychic flight of the bikes was awesome! But the coolest part was their ship and more.

We cheered wildly when the movie ended. Elliott not only helped E.T., but he brought two worlds together as friends.

Leni: That movie was so totes awesome!

Luna: It was rockin dudes!

Lynn: Yeah!

Lori: That movie is literally always one of my favorites.

Lincoln: And Luan you said that you didn't like Science-Fiction movies.

Luan: Well I can make an exception when it comes to E.T.

Me: That's understandable.

Linka: Yeah. But that was awesome how E.T.'s chest glowed like that.

Laney: It sure was.

Chione: What do you think it means when that happens?

Me: I think it's some kind of psychic form of communication. I think that's how they communicate.

Nico: That is really something.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und I think it's amazing that E.T. does that.

Kira Ford: Yeah. But it was really sad that E.T. was accidentally stranded here on Earth.

Me: I know. They didn't even wait for him.

Lana: What kind of Aliens are E.T.'s species?

Me: They're some kind of botanists. They collect different species of plants for study of some kind.

Shanan: I know their race. They are the Vicondans. They are a peaceful race from the planet Vicond and they are known as the great healers of the galaxy. Their planet is located only one light-year away and it's just outside of our Solar System.

Lincoln: So we're interstellar neighbors.

Me: That's an interesting way to put it.

Delphine: (Alien Voice) Just like we are neighbors with Earth.

Maria: That's right.

Laney: Wow. But I don't think it's right that the government has to take E.T. to be experimented on.

Me: I agree with you Laney. For decades, the government has been wanting to experiment on various aliens to get their technology for the betterment of humanity. But that is just absolutely barbaric.

Nathalie: I agree with you J.D.

Natilee: Same here dad.

Delphine: That is an atrocity.

Me: I agree with you Delphine. But we would never do that to you.

Starfire: I agree. Me and Blackfire are from Tamaran and we wouldn't let that happen to us.

Me: I agree with you Starfire. I won't allow that to happen. But lets head to the simulator and help E.T. get back home.

Everyone: Yeah!

We went to the simulator.

Jason Lee Scott: Don't worry, E.T. We'll help get you home. And we'll use our vehicles to do it.

Me: As well as our horses Jason.

We were heading to the simulator.

---

We were in the Simulator getting ready.

Me: When we go into the simulator, we're gonna help Elliott get E.T. back home by getting him to the forest.

Lincoln: We're also gonna blast any government car that gets in our way.

Me: Yep. No government facility is gonna mess with aliens on our watch.

Varie: That's right!

Earth: Yeah! This is our home planet and all peaceful aliens are welcome. Not even the government has anything to say about it.

Lincoln: Yeah you said it Earth!

Me: Lets go guys!

The Simulator activated and we were in Los Angeles, California in 1982.

Me: Los Angeles, California. 1982.

Nico: Wow. It's like we went back in time.

Lincoln: It sure does feel like it.

We were in the park and we saw a van come and it had a huge cloud of steam come out of the back and in it was E.T. standing up and we saw his chest glowing.

Me: Wow. E.T.

I sent a psychic message to him.

Me: (Telepathically) E.T. we mean you no harm. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we are here to help Elliott get you back home.

E.T.: Home.

Elliott: He's from outer space.

Me: We know Elliott. We're going to help you get to the forest.

Elliott: How do you know my name?

Me: We are from the future in a sense. We'll explain later, we got a lot of company coming.

We were off to the forest. We were using our Rapidash, our bicycles and vehicles. The Power Rangers were using their vehicles. The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers had their Battle Bikes, The Zeo Rangers had their Jet Cycles, the Space Rangers had their Galaxy Gliders, The Lost Galaxy Rangers had their Astro Cycles, the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers had their Lightspeed Cycles, The Time Force Rangers had their Vector Cycles, the Wild Force Rangers had their Savage Cycles, The Ninja Storm Rangers had their Tsunami Cycles, The Dino Thunder Rangers had their Raptor Riders, The S.P.D. Rangers had their Delta Patrol Cycles, The Mystic Force Rangers had their Mystic Speeders, The Operation Overdrive Rangers had their Hovertek Cycles, The Jungle Fury Rangers had their Strike Rider Cycles, The R.P.M. Rangers had their own vehicles each: Scott had a Red Nissan Sylvia, Flynn had a blue Hummer, Summer had a dirt bike, Dillion had a black Pontiac GTO, Ziggy had a Jeep Wrangler, Gem had a gold Ferrari and Gemma had a silver 1951 Mercury and we modified them with all kinds of awesome features, The Samurai Rangers had their War Horses, The Super Megaforce rangers had awesome brand new Megaforce Legacy Ranger Cycles: Troy Burrows had an awesome Red Pirate Ship Cycle, Noah Carver had an awesome Blue Jeep with spike wheels, Gia Moran had a Yellow Fly Cycle, Jake Holling had an awesome Green Aqua Cycle, Emma Goodall had an awesome Pink Fly Cycle and Orion had an awesome Silver Amphibious Hovercraft, The Dino Charge Rangers were on their Dino Cycles and the Ninja Steel Rangers were on their Mega Morph Cycles.

The Transformers were in their Vehicle and Beast Forms.

Me: Wow! We have a massive army ready for action!

Greg: Where are we going!?

Elliott: To the forest!

G1 Bumblebee: At this rate, we'll have E.T. back to his home in no time.

Police sirens were heard and we saw a police car coming from behind us.

Me: Follow me!

Nico: Right!

We turned and flew and dodged the cops. Cops came at us from every angle!

Me: Light them up!

We fired laser blasts and missiles and energy blasts at the cars and blew them up in powerful fiery explosions.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KABBOOOOM! KABBOOOOOOOM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Thermo Blaster!

I summoned my Purple Thermo Blaster and fired at a bunch of police cars and blew them up.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBOOOOM! KABBOOOMM! BOOOM!

Fiery explosions blew the cop cars apart and sent the cops flying all over.

We fired lasers from our cycles and blew some of the cars apart.

KRAAAABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Nico: You government agents have failed this world!

We blasted them all over.

Elliott: This is so awesome!

Laney: It sure is!

Maria: Uh oh! We're not done yet! Up ahead!

We saw up ahead JASON VOORHEES AND LEATHERFACE! They were reborn as HEARTLESS!

Me: That's Jason Voorhees and Leatherface!

Qin: From Friday the 13th and Texas Chainsaw Massacre!?

Me: That's them.

I went over their history.

---

Jason Voorhees

Jason Voorhees is a serial killer and the main antagonist of the Friday the 13th franchise. Although he wasn't exactly the villain in the first film, he would later maintain the role starting in Friday the 13th Part 2 and its subsequent installments, as well as its remake.

He is a deformed murderer who wears a hockey mask to cover his deformities, and killing those that trespass Crystal Lake, as well as to avenge his mother Pamela whom he witnessed being decapitated. When he was a human, Jason was exceptionally durable to kill, but he did feel pain when attacked he already have immortality because he has hanged, stab and he rise. He got accidentally resurrected from the dead by his killer, Tommy Jarvis, and became a undead gain and supernatural abilities. Jason is also notable for using a machete as his preferred weapon, but he alternatively uses other weapons and/or methods of killing.

Friday the 13th.

Jason Voorhees is an indirect antagonist in this film and is only present through flashbacks. When the protagonist Alice met his mother Pamela, she recounted how she and her husband had Jason born as a hydrocephalic, making him physically deformed. Because of this, his mother never took him to school, and was extremely overprotective of him.

Pamela later took a job as a cook at Camp Crystal Lake, where the other campers would frequently bully Jason because of his deformity. Jason drowned when his bullies pushed him into Crystal Lake. The bullies ran off after realizing their actions.

The camp counselors were unaware of what was happening, as they were busy partying and having sex elsewhere at the time. Pamela proceeded to kill many of the camp counselors and campers in later years for vengeance over Jason's drowning. As soon as she finishes recounting his story, Pamela directs her anger towards Alice, viewing her as another camper conniving in the suffering of Jason. Alice denies this, but Pamela doesn't listen to her and violently attacks her. After a violent and bloody confrontation, Alice finally decapitates Pamela.

Friday the 13th Part 2

His first actual appearance (other than a flashback and a dream sequence) was in Friday the 13th Part 2, as the killer seen wearing a sack over his face to hide his deformities. Supposedly, Jason apparently never drowned in the lake and had been surviving all these years as a hermit in the woods. According to legend, Jason stumbled upon witnessing his mother decapitated by Alice, the sole survivor of Pamela's spree. Taking revenge, he tracked down Alice a month later and murdered her with an ice pick to her temple. Since then, Camp Crystal Lake had been off-limits to everyone.

Five years later, he discovered the whereabouts of a nearby training camp within the area of Camp Crystal Lake, and began to murder many of the camp counselors as well as a local named Crazy Ralph, who always warned people about Crystal Lake being doomed. Eventually, he fought two of the remaining counselors named Ginny and Paul inside his makeshift shack, which contained a shrine where his mother's head and clothing were put onto and having bodies of his victims surrounding it. While Jason was distracted into fighting Paul, Ginny managed to slam the machete used by his mother into his shoulder before escaping.

Friday the 13th Part III

Surviving the events from Part 2, Jason headed down to a nearby store to steal new clothing, and murdering the owner and his wife. Nearby, he then hid inside a barn at a house in the Crystal Lake area, named Higgins Haven. When the inhabitants of the house returned to the area, he once again returned to his killings and murdered many of the inhabitants in the area, including three hostile bikers. During his spree, he managed to take and don a hockey mask from a nearby victim named Shelly.

While fighting the last survivor Chris Higgins, she remembered him as the same man who previously attacked her in the woods two years ago, just before hanging the killer with a noose. When he freed himself and while in the process of finally killing one of the bikers named Ali who had awoken from being unconscious by him, Chris then struck him in the head with an axe, supposedly killing him.

Friday the 13th: The Final Chapter

Despite his wound, Jason supposedly managed to survive and revived inside the morgue, where he kills an attendant and a nurse before escaping and setting out to the Crystal Lake again. After escaping, he targeted a nearby rental house owned by a group of teenagers for the weekend, across from a house owned by the Jarvis family.

He once again proceeded to brutally slaughter many of the residents in the area, including a hitchhiker and the older vengeful brother of one of his previous victims, whom had been tracking down Jason since then. After murdering everyone else, Jason continued into targeting the last two survivors, Tommy and Trish Jarvis. In the fight, Tommy manages to distract Jason into shaving his head, resembling Jason at a younger age. While distracted, Trish took a machete and slammed into the side of his head, splitting his head upon falling down into the blade. As Trish and Tommy embrace, he sees Jason's fingers slowly move and continues to hack at his body with the machete.

Friday the 13th: A New Beginning

Although Jason Voorhees did not appear as the killer in Friday the 13th: A New Beginning, he is seen in dream sequences and hallucinations by an adult Tommy Jarvis, five years later since the demise of Jason. Instead, a different antagonist named Roy Burns appeared in the film, using Jason's identity to avenge the death of his son Joey and murdering the nearby residents of a halfway home named Pinehurst, as a copycat killer. Burns was eventually killed and in the process, his true identity was revealed to the characters and audience.

Friday the 13th Part VI: Jason Lives

Years later, it is believed by authorities that Jason was cremated, but this is proven false when an adult Tommy finds Jason's burial with his friend Allen Hawes and attempts to burn him. While stabbing at his corpse with a metal pole, lightning strikes at the pole connected into Jason, and soon brings the mass murderer back to life as a strong zombie. Allen attempts to knock Jason unconscious with a shovel, but it shatters to pieces as soon as it hits his head. Jason rips Hawes' heart out while Tommy flees to his car. Jason then dons his hockey mask once again. Jason returns to his vengeful killing spree and murders many of the victims at Camp Crystal Lake (renamed to Forest Green), including the camp counselors, a gravedigger, five paintball players, but spares the little children but had a fascination with one little girl. and killed (once he finally realized that Jason had returned) Sheriff Garris and two of his officers before Tommy used a boulder and chain to chain him to the bottom of Crystal Lake. To finish him off, Tommy and the sheriff's daughter Megan activate a boat propeller's blade and uses it on Jason's face, cutting off part of his mask and breaking his neck.

Friday the 13th Part VII: The New Blood

Jason was accidentally reawakened by Tina Shepard, who used her telekinetic powers in an attempt to resurrect her father, who drowned in Crystal Lake. His chain was snapped, allowing him to return and kill Jane and Michael, whose birthday several people were celebrating at Camp Crystal Lake and most of the people at the party, as well as Tina's mother and her doctor, Dr. Crews, until only Tina and Nick were the only ones left. Tina fought Jason off using her telekinesis, and eventually snapped his mask in two, revealing his hideous zombie-esque face. Eventually, Tina summoned the spirit of her father, who dragged Jason to the bottom of Crystal Lake and chained him there again.

Friday the 13th Part VIII: Jason Takes Manhattan

Jason was reawakened by a boat on Crystal Lake when its anchor caught on a power line, shocking him and releasing him from his prison. He killed the boat's inhabitants Jim and Suzy, donning a new mask from then, and stowed aboard the S.S. Lazarus, a cruise ship on its way to New York occupied by several high school graduates. Jason killed all of them as they reached New York, including the teacher Charles McCulloch (who, like Garris, denied Jason's return until moments before his death), leaving only Rennie and her boyfriend Sean. He eventually chased them into the sewer, which flooded with toxic wastes and swept him away, despite the survivors having a hallucination where it transformed him into his child self.

Jason Goes to Hell: The Final Friday

The NYPD notifies the FBI of Jason Voorhees. The FBI, finally aware of his existence, set up a sting operation and successfully managed to shoot him down and blow him to pieces just before he could kill an FBI agent luring him to the shooting spot. However, not even this could kill him by now. His heart lived on, and at the morgue, it hypnotized a coroner into eating it. Jason's spirit possessed the coroner.

In the form of a worm-like creature, Jason's soul transferred to different people to possess them (gruesomely melting and killing his previous host once he leaves them because Jasons rage was too strong for their bodies), and killed several people in an attempt to be reborn through Diana Kimble, her daughter Jessica, or her baby daughter Stephanie, because, as the only remaining blood relatives of Jason, they are the only ones he can be reborn through. Likewise, only Diana or Jessica can truly destroy him by striking at his heart with a mystical dagger. Bounty Hunter Creighton Duke told all this to the film's male protagonist, Steven (Jessica's boyfriend) and Steven told Jessica everything Steven was told by Duke. Jason managed to kill Diana by accident on which he was trying to kill Steven and eventually he managed to discover her corpse at the Voorhees house and was reborn through it.

He then briefly grabbed Jessica in her top before He then killed Duke with a bear hug which crushed him and Jason then went after Jessica and Steven again whom pushed him out the window and then he fought Steven, before Jessica stabbed him in the heart, and he was dragged to Hell. As Steven and Jessica walk off together with their baby, Jason's masks is seen remained on the surface. But Freddy Krueger's hand grabs his discarded mask and pulls it into the ground.

Freddy vs. Jason

Contrary to what Creighton Duke believed not even this could prevent him from being resurrected, this time not by lightning, but by someone from inside Hell itself. In Freddy vs. Jason, Freddy Krueger brought Jason back to life, disguised as Mrs. Voorhees, so he could kill for him at Elm Street so people would believe that he returned (since their fear gives Freddy his power, and if no one remembers him, he cannot come back). Once Jason spread enough fear around, Freddy was able to return, but Jason did not stop killing, stealing his potential victims from him. So Freddy possessed someone to inject Jason with tranquilizer so he could enter his dreams and kill him.

In the meantime, Lori Campbell and Will Rollins were taking Jason to Camp Crystal Lake so he could fight Freddy and have a home field advantage. Freddy nearly killed Jason before he woke up. When Lori pulled Freddy out of the dream world, Freddy and Jason engaged in a bloody battle, while Freddy landed numerous hits on Jason, they did little more than irritate him and failed to slow him down until the battle moved to the docks where Jason brutally slashed Freddy in submission.

Jason was about to finish Freddy off when Freddy uses his glove to slice Jason's fingers off forcing him to drop his machete. Taking Jason's weapon, Freddy sliced him with both the Machete and his glove and eventually drives the blades of his glove in Jason's eyes, still not able to kill him. The two continue to fight and as the fight progresses Jason pulls Freddy's arm out of its socket and Freddy drives the Machete into Jason's chest. Jason then punches a hole into Freddy's stomach, and the two only stop fighting when Lori sets fire to a large number of propane tanks with gasoline, the resulting explosion sending both of them into the lake.

Freddy emerges a short time later with Jason's machete, to kill Lori and Will, but the two are unintentionally saved by Jason who stabs Freddy with his own severed arm, after which Jason sank below

Crystal Lake after Lori decapitated Freddy and threw Jason's machete into the lake and left with Will. However, Jason survived, and walked out of Crystal Lake carrying Freddy's head, which winks at the audience, indicating that he too may still be alive.

Jason X

Jason was then captured by the U.S. government in 2008. After many unsuccessful execution attempts, they decided in 2010 that since Jason could not be killed, he must be frozen until they could find a way to destroy him. However, one of the doctors wanted to research his ability to regenerate lost tissue for a profit, but was killed when Jason escaped. One of the government researchers, Rowan, managed to cryogenically freeze Jason, but was frozen in the process when Jason stabbed her through the wall of the chamber. Jason remained frozen until 2455, when some students on a field trip discovered him and Rowan and took them aboard their ship, the Grendel, and headed back to Earth 2 (the original Earth was dead, having experienced either an apocalypse or suffering nuclear fallout). He was thought to be dead, but he woke up and killed most of the ship's crew, including most of the students, Professor Lowe, and Sergeant Brodski's grunt team (though Brodski survived Jason's attempt to kill him). Eventually he fought an android, Kay Em, who blew off his right arm, left leg, a portion of his chest, and his head. However, a nanotechnology medical station brought him back to life and transformed him into an equally unkillable cyborg, Uber Jason, using scraps of metal and cloth around the room. It is unknown whether the machine was malfunctioning or if Jason's soul was manipulating it. Eventually, Jason blew up the ship, and the explosion sent him flying toward the shuttle where Rowan, Tsunaron (the last surviving student), and Kay Em (who, at this point, is only a head because Jason punched off her head during their initial confrontation upon Jason's "upgrade") were escaping. Before he could reach them, however, he was intercepted by Brodski, who somehow escaped the explosion, and knocked down toward Earth 2, where both Jason and Brodski were burned in its atmosphere by the reentry. What ever remained landed in a lake, the two teens go in to investigate.

Leatherface

Jedidiah Sawyer, better known as Leatherface, is the main antagonist of The Texas Chain Saw Massacre series.

He is one of the biggest horror icons, but unlike most of them, is not supernatural in any way. His main weapons are a chainsaw and sledgehammer. He wears a mask made from a person's skin, which he uses to express a personality, and engages in murder and cannibalism alongside his family. It is also notable that director Tobe Hooper has stated that Leatherface kills out of fear, not malice.

The original film never showed Leatherface without one of his human-hide faces on. Leatherface used to work as the cow killer at the meat factory. Gunnar Hansen, who portrayed Leatherface in the original 1974 film, sees Leatherface as "completely under the control of his family. He'll do whatever they tell him to do. He's a little bit afraid of them." In the documentary The Shocking Truth, Tobe Hooper portrays Leatherface as a "big baby" who kills in self-defense because he feels threatened. In the first film, Leatherface shows fear when new people enter his home.

Leatherface's family uses the bones of the people he kills (along with some animal bones) to build the inside of their house. They process the victims' flesh into barbecue and chili, which his brother Drayton, a skilled chef, sells at the "Last Chance" gas station. They also enter human-flesh dishes at cook-offs (according to the sequel, Drayton has won two cooking awards doing this). Aside from Leatherface and Drayton, the Sawyer clan includes several more brothers, a hitchhiker named Nubbins, his twin brother, a Vietnam vet known as Chop Top or Plate Head, a hitchhiking cowboy named Eddie/Tex, a hook-handed man named Tech/Tinker, a deranged pervert named Alfredo/Fred, a tow-truck driver named Vilmer and a redneck know-it-all named W.E. Apart from the brothers, the Sawyer clan includes the supercentenarian Grandpa, the dead Grandma/Great-Grandma Sawyer (whose corpse has been preserved), a wheelchair-bound mother called Mama and Leatherface's daughter (first names unknown).

The Texas Chainsaw Massacre 2, a direct sequel to the 1974 film, featured a more campy and over-the-top atmosphere than the original. Tobe Hooper stated on The Shocking Truth that he wanted to expand on the dark comedy in the original film, as he felt no one truly picked up on this element. In this film, the Hitchhiker is replaced by his hippy twin brother Chop Top (who transforms his dead twin's corpse into a puppet), the cook, Drayton, has become an award-winning chef. Leatherface develops a "crush" on one of his victims, and in one scene, removes the skin from the face of her still-living friend and places it on her to hide her from the rest of his family. At the end of the film, he apparently dies in an explosion after being impaled with a chainsaw in a fight with the uncle of his previous victims from the first film. Leatherface's clan's last name is also revealed in the film when brother Drayton wins a local cook-off, their family name being Sawyer.

Leatherface: The Texas Chainsaw Massacre III, became the second sequel in The Texas Chainsaw Massacre film series. The film was made as a reboot and a sequel, so the audience could interpret it as a direct sequel or as an alternative sequel in a different continuity of the previous two films, though several references are made to the previous two films, including Leatherface having a knee brace from his chainsaw accident at the climax of the first film, brother Alfredo owning a gas station and truck labeled "Last Chance Gas", the family's last name remaining Sawyer from the previous film and the inclusion of several characters from both earlier films.

The filmmakers attempted to make the series darker and grittier (much as the film-makers of the original had intended), but they had to tone it down and change the ending after interventions from the MPAA. New Line released an uncut version to the home-video market in 2003. In this film Leatherface has an extended family and a daughter - possibly the product of a rape. A four-issue comic series based on the film, entitled Leatherface, was created; notably, portions of the comics are narrated by and shown from Leatherface's point of view. Note that horror actor Kane Hodder choreographed the stunts and played the stunt-double Leatherface in the Texas Chainsaw Massacre 3.

Texas Chainsaw Massacre: The Next Generation apparently takes place in its own continuity; its prologue describes the second and third films as "two minor, yet apparently related incidents". The film features Leatherface as a yelping, pizza-eating transvestite involved in an Illuminati conspiracy to provide society a source of horror, and, again, with a different family.

Texas Chainsaw

Leatherface returned in the direct sequel to the original The Texas Chain Saw Massacre, Texas Chainsaw, which also serves as a reboot to the franchise. However, Leatherface is the deuteragonist (his cousin Heather Miller is the main protagonist), the main antagonist being Burt Hartman.

The film begins directly after the events of the 1974 film, in which a mob led by Burt Hartman burns the family's house to the ground, and Leatherface becomes the sole survivor of his family except for his baby cousin Edith, also known as Heather, whom a member of the angry mob rescues and smuggles away. Many years later, when Heather returns to the local area with her friends, Leatherface lives in the basement of a mansion belonging to their recently deceased grandmother, who has been caring for him for the past 20 odd years.

Due to her passing away, Heather - as the only identified living blood relative - inherits the mansion. Leatherface kills off Heather's friends one by one, not realizing that Heather is related to him and nearly kills Heather before she escapes. After traveling to the local police station, Heather discovers her ancestry and the fact that Leatherface is her cousin.

Upon discovering he is still alive, Burt Hartman, now town mayor, sets out to kill Leatherface once and for all, and since Heather is a member of the same family (the "Sawyers"), he develops a vendetta against her as well. Leatherface once again attempts to kill Heather before recognizing her birthmark, and realizing his kinship to her. Burt attacks Leatherface; Leatherface ultimately kills Hartman by pushing him down into a meat grinder. Later on, Heather finally reads a letter given to her by her now deceased grandmother, revealing that she simply wanted Heather to take care of Leatherface. His name is revealed to be Jedidiah Sawyer, known as "Jed" for short.

In a post-credits scene, Heather's adoptive parents arrive at the mansion, greedily discussing how they plan to split the assets

Heather now owns. Leatherface then shocks them as he answers the door, chainsaw in hand.

LeatherfaceE

Jedidiah Sawyer since his childhood was pushed by his family, to kill using a chainsaw, however he was unable to. After leading a teenage girl named Betty Hartman into a death trap in 1955, her father, sheriff Hal Hartman has Jed committed to a Mental Institution, he was there for almost 10 years. In 1965, he escaped with several other patients from the institution, kidnapping a nurse. During his years in the Institution he became a friend of Bud, they were best friends until he dies on the run. When Jed is trying to escape from Hal Hartman he shoots him to his face, destroying part of his mouth leaving him with the inability to talk. When Hartman puts Jed in the same hole where his daughter died, Verna and her family track him to the place, saving Jed. When Jed is finally home Verna tries to sew Jed's mouth, using a harness to keep his face together but this leaves him deformed. When Hal Hartman is tied on Jed's house he takes the chainsaw and finally kills Hartman. Lizzy, the nurse escapes from Jed's house, when Jed caught her she told him that his mother is crazy, immediately Jed cuts her head with the chainsaw. Later, Jed becomes Leatherface, using Lizzy's face as his first mask.

The Texas Chain Saw Massacre

Leatherface's cannibalistic family consists of his older brothers Nubbins Sawyer, Chop Top Sawyer, and his father Drayton Sawyer. He also has an unnamed grandfather, who is extremely old and frail. Leatherface's real name is Jedidiah "Jed" Sawyer.

When Sally, Franklin, Jerry, Pam, and Kirk reached their homestead, Kirk and Pam looked for the local swimming hole and stumbled upon the cannibals' house-hoping they could get some gasoline for their van-where Leatherface killed Kirk with a sledgehammer and hung Pam on a meat hook before throwing her into a freezer where she froze to death. When Jerry came looking for them, he was killed by Leatherface with a sledgehammer. He then killed Franklin in the woods with his chainsaw and chased Sally, where Drayton took her to his house to cook her and eat her.

When Grandpa failed to kill Sally with the hammer, she ran, but Nubbins the hitchhiker and Leatherface chased after her. Nubbins were much faster then Leatherface and caught up to Sally. Before he could kill her, he was run over by an 18-wheeler and had been too focused on Sally to notice. With Nubbins dead, only Leatherface was left and managed to catch up to Sally. Sally went in the truck and with the driver and he attacked with his chainsaw. The two got out and ran and Leatherface chased after them. Seeing that they weren't losing him, the driver with a wrench, knocking him down and causing him to cut his leg on his chainsaw. Sally managed to take advantage of this distraction and escape on a passing pickup truck while the driver ran away in fear. He was last seen swinging his chainsaw around in frustration due to his victim escaping, his wounds and his Nubbins dead.

The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Part 2

After fourteen years, Leatherface reemerged, killing two drunks named Buzz and Rick. Sally and Franklin's uncle Lefty Enright was searching for the cannibals to get his revenge. When he got Stretch to play the deaths on the radio, Leatherface and Chop Top went over to the station to kill her. However, Leatherface fell in love with her. He refused to kill her when Drayton and Chop Top found her, however he did not attempt to stop Grandpa from killing her because was forced to hold her in place. But Grandpa was too old and frail, so Drayton tried to kill her himself, but Lefty entered, armed with three chainsaws. After injuring Drayton, Lefty engaged Leatherface in a chainsaw duel, where Leatherface was impaled by Lefty with his chainsaw. He was still able to fight, but the fight was ended shortly after; Drayton, deranged and having lost a lot of blood, set off a grenade. Leatherface was last seen getting hit by Grandpa with a hammer (he was really aiming for Lefty), knocking him down, before all four of them were killed in the grenade explosion, which narrowly missed Chop Top as he climbed a ladder after Stretch and eventually falls to his death.

This is the only timeline where Leatherface ever dies; he survives in all others.

This was the end of the original franchise, followed by remakes and prequels later on in the years.

Leatherface: The Texas Chainsaw Massacre III

Leatherface is first seen in the intro scene, doing his work with a dead body, later, after Michelle and Ryan meets Alfredo Sawyer and Tex Sawyer, they find themselves lost in a dark forest and Ryan is kidnapped, Michelle finally meet Leatherface when a young girl is killed by him, Michelle runs away in fear only to find Leatherface's house, there she meets the rest of the family: Tinker Sawyer, Mama Sawyer, Little Girl Sawyer and Grandpa Sawyer, Ryan is killed by the family and Benny attacks the house, killing Tinker and Mama, Leatherface leaves Tex to fight the intruders and escapes, He is later seen in the ending when Michelle kills Alfredo.

Texas Chainsaw Massacre: The Next Generation

Leatherface lives along with his brothers Vilmer Slaughter and W.E. Slaughter and his sister-in-law Darla Slaughter, He constantly stalks the characters of the film and kidnaps Jenny and Heather, he is later seen, in the dinner scene eating pizza along with his family, after Jenny escapes, he and Vilmer stalks her.

Vilmer is killed by a propeller in the head and Jenny is saved by Rothman, Leatherface starts to cry and scream in agony.

Qin gasped!

Qin: That's horrific!

Laney: I can't believe they are that insane!

Me: Now we have a chance to send these creeps into the River of Fire forever!

Orion: Let's send these guys back to the grave!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ranger J Platoon!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Battle Field J Rangers from 1979!

Me: Take them down!

We fired powerful energy blasts and lasers and elemental blasts at them and blew them all over the place in fiery explosions of fire.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! BOOOM! BOOOOM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOM! BBOOOOOMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOM! KRABBBOOOOOMMM! BOOOM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Me: Time to finish these Horror Movie Atrocities for good!

Bombshell: You got it boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Explosive Shell 100-fold.

Cutthroat: Time for some slicing pain! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his fire powers 100-fold.

Bombshell and Cutthroat: BURNING EXPLOSIVE MEGABLAST SHELL!

They fired an explosive shell and Cutthroat fired a powerful fire blast and the blasts hit Jason Voorhees and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Aeleus and Diamondhead

Aeleus fired a powerful blast of Earth Energy and Ben as Diamondhead fired a powerful barrage of diamonds.

Aeleus and Diamondhead: EARTHSTRIKE MEGA BARRAGE!

The blasts hit Jason Voorhees and skewered and blasted him all over.

Delphine: Time to take this monster out! AQUITAR SUPER

WHITE BLAST!

Delphine fired a powerful blast of white energy and it hit Jason Voorhees and exploded! Completely obliterating him in an instant!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Jason Voorhees was sent into the River of Fire to burn for all eternity.

Me: Time for you to go back to Hell, Leatherface! Die you freak!

Tracks: Time for this guy to burn! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Black Beam gun 100-fold.

Goku: You're gonna pay for all the people you've slaughtered! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Goku's Right Arm device and enhanced his Super Saiyan powers 100-fold.

Tracks and Goku: BLACK BLIND WAVE BURST!

Tracks fired a massive black blast and Goku fired a powerful blast of energy and they hit Leatherface and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Ben turned into XLR8 and went at 500 miles per hour and Turbo Man went at the same speed.

XLR8 and Turbo Man: NEED FOR SPEED SUPERPUNCH!

They punched him all over with incredible speed and fury.

Lisa: Time to finish this evil cannibalistic monstrosity! ATOMIC CHEMICAL RAY BURST!

Lisa fired a powerful blast of atomic energy from her hands and it was shaped like the symbols of the periodic table and it slammed into Leatherface and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Elliott: Time for you to pay for your crimes! EARTHRAY FIRESTORM BURST!

Elliott fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit Leatherface and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Leatherface was obliterated in an instant and he was sent into the River of Fire for all eternity!

Me: Now that they are out of the way, we got to hurry!

We went to the forest fast and we arrived with just a few seconds to spare as we saw E.T.'s spaceship land right in front of us.

Laney: Wow! What a ship!

Lana: It's amazing!

Lola: Wow!

Lisa: What a magnificent piece of engineering.

E.T.: Home.

Me: It's amazing.

It opened up.

Elliott's little sister said goodbye.

E.T.: Be good.

Me: You did teach him how to talk Gertie.

Delphine: We'll make sure to visit you at your home planet.

E.T.: Thank you.

Elliott walked up to him.

Elliot: (tears in his eyes) I'll miss you, E.T.

E.T. held up his finger to his forehead and it glowed.

E.T.: I'll be right here.

They hugged.

We were happy for them both. E.T. got onto the ship and it closed and took off. As it left it left a rainbow trail behind and it was on its way home.

We looked on as it left for the planet Vicond.

Me: That is so awesome!

Hunter: Ja. We did a good thing.

Vince: And we helped Elliott bring two awesome worlds together.

Me: Yep.

Elliott: But who are you all?

We told him everything.

Elliott: Wow. That is amazing. So that's how you all know those amazing powers and more.

Nico: That's right.

Me: But you were awesome Elliott. But one day, E.T. will come back and see you again. He views you as a friend. Even though Earth and his world are apart in distance, you will never be apart from each other in spirit. He's right here. (Puts my hand on his chest) And in here. (Puts my finger on his forehead.)

Elliott: Thank you J.D.

He hugged me.

Me: You're welcome Elliott.

We left for home.

Elliott: (To the viewers) E.T. may be on his planet, but he will never leave as long as I have him in my thoughts and my heart and spirit.

Gertie: That's right big bro.

It was an awesome adventure!

THE END

Another Fanfiction complete and an awesome movie done.

E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial has been one of my favorite movies since I was a little kid and it was an awesome movie from 1982! Stephen Spielberg did an awesome job making that movie and all the stars from back then did a great job as well! It was awesome! It's what got me into learning so much about aliens and planets out there. E.T. is awesome and here we are 38 years later still loving him. I've had this one on my mind for a long time but I didn't know how to set it up. But thanks to NicoChan11 and my knowledge of the entire movie by heart we pulled it off. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the 4th Swat Kats villain, Dr. Viper and we're going to do the episode Destructive Nature. We're going to face him on the grand opening of a brand new 8,000 foot superhighrise building.

See you all tomorrow.

Viper's Destructive Nature

In Bikini Bottom a major fight had broken out. The Neptune Crusaders were fighting stupid Squidward who had broken out of the Insane Asylum to try and kill SpongeBob and Patrick. He hates Patrick and SpongeBob with an incredibly merciless vengeance now and he wants nothing more than to see the entire world burn!

Lily punched him in the face.

Lily: You are a worthless waste of a life Stupid Squidward!

Squidward: You know who's an even bigger waste of a life!? (Points to SpongeBob and Patrick) Those two morons sitting right there!

Maria: Squilliam is a much better person than you ever will be Squidward!

Gali: That's right!

Nokama: You don't care about anyone but yourself!

Katara: That's why everyone hates you! You have no talent and you are a lousy and pathetic artist.

Lana: No wonder everyone hates you!

Bai Tza: I'd rather kiss my pathetic brother Shendu than see your art.

Stupid Squidward then blew his stack and Maria kicked him in the crotch and kicked him in the face and Irma Lair punched him in the stomach and kneed him in the face.

Manaphy slapped him all over.

Nokama skewered his butt with her trident and kicked him in the face.

Gali slapped him in the face with her axe and knocked him down.

Stupid Squidward got up and just as he was about to charge at them, two police fish bashed him on the head with their police batons and knocked him out and put him in a straitjacket.

Officer Nancy: Looks like you guys had everything under control.

Lily: Yep.

Varie: He's all yours officers.

Officer Nancy: Thank you guys.

They took Squidward away.

Lana: That's that.

Nokama: They need to keep a better eye on him and make sure he doesn't escape.

Varie: Nah, I think this is good comedy relief.

Luna: Boy you said it dude. It sure was funny how Squidward got poked with that trident.

Nokama: Thanks Luna.

They laughed.

SpongeBob: Thanks for saving us guys.

Lily: Anytime Mr. SquarePants.

Patrick: I honestly don't think Squidward ever was our friend at all.

They facepalmed.

Mindy (SpongeBob): But good job guys. Squidward had it coming to him.

Varie: Thanks Mindy. It was good to pulverize a talentless loser like Squidward.

The camera shows Squidward thrashing and screaming around in a paddy wagon van and he was completely out of his mind with sheer insanity as he was screaming and foaming at the mouth like a rabid dog!

May: Geez! He's a monster! Now I know what the face of a maniac looks like.

They laughed.

Later at the estate in Michigan, everyone came back and they went to the shower.

---

At school, class was getting out for lunch. We were having a great lunch.

Me: It's really cool that you guys are learning about rocks and minerals now.

Lincoln: Thanks J.D.

Laney: Geology is an awesome subject at school and Nicole is an awesome Geologist and all that.

Me: She knows everything about rocks, minerals, mountains and volcanoes and all of the universe. She's like a living geology and astronomy textbook.

They laughed.

Alexis Rhodes: You got that right J.D.

Lana: But that is so awesome!

Stella (Loud House): Yeah. I think it's amazing that you have an awesome daughter like her.

Me: I love all my children like that.

Lola: They are amazing.

Clyde: I agree. I think it's so cool.

Syd Chang: You said it Clyde-bear.

Lincoln then saw something going on in the city. What he saw was amazing.

Lincoln: Whoa! Look at that!

We turned and we saw a massive super high rise skyscraper right in the middle of the city.

Laney: Wow! Look at that!

Me: That's the new Megakat Towers Building. It's a new multi-purpose office building that is also a hotel, shops, restaurants and many more. It's over 8,000 feet high and it's gonna be a brand new powerful building.

Lana: I can't wait to see it open. I heard that it's going to become the newest tallest building in the world.

Lola: That is gonna be so cool!

Killer Frost: It sure is.

Alexis Rhodes: Hey look!

We saw two creatures above the school.

Alexis Rhodes: That looks like a Lugia and a Ho-Oh.

Me: It sure is.

Killer Frost: What would a Lugia and Ho-Oh be doing out here?

Nico: Maybe they're gene-slammed Pokemon.

Laney: He's right. I sense human brainwave patterns in them.

Me: I feel it too.

They saw us and landed by us.

Lincoln: Wow!

Lugia: I'm glad we found you all.

Ho-Oh: Wow. It's an honor to meet the world famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you too.

Lugia: My name is Daniel Korrigan.

Ho-Oh: And I'm his girlfriend Helen Markovia.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you. Let me guess, Team Rocket's scientists did this to you.

Lugia: That's right.

Ho-Oh: How did you know?

Me: We've had many encounters with people who were gene-slammed into Pokemon.

Kenai: It's good that you two retained your love for each other even as Pokemon.

Lugia: Thanks.

Me: How about I give you guys the ability to change into your Pokemon forms at will?

Ho-Oh. I would like that.

Lugia: Me too.

Me: Okay. But this is gonna hurt really bad.

Lugia: Okay.

Me: Everyone cover your eyes.

They did so.

Me: Here we go.

I snapped my fingers and covered my eyes and Daniel and Helen were in excruciating pain as they were reverting back and they got their human looks back as well as their human bodies.

Grapple: So, how do you two feel?

Helen Morkovia: (about to throw up) I think I'm gonna be sick! (throws up all over Poromon)

Poromon: HEY! WHY YOU LITTLE!

Nico: Poromon, it was an accident.

Scrapper: We better get you two some towels until we get home.

Maria: Already ahead of you Scrapper.

Maria pulled out some robes and put them on them.

Daniel: Thanks guys. Man it feels great to be human.

Me: Lets get you home and get you some new clothes.

Helen Morkovia: Okay.

We went back to the estate. In Leni's room we gave them some awesome clothes. Daniel had an awesome blue shirt with a Lugia on it and he had black jeans and blue combat boots and he had an awesome trench coat with ocean waves on it and it had the kanji for Lugia's Ambassador to The Ocean of Blue Justice on it. 青い正義の海へのルギア大使

Helen Morkovia had awesome fire earrings and an awesome red fire beret in her hair an awesome red summer shirt with a Ho-Oh on it and she had a red plaid skirt and red fire leggings and awesome red tennis shoes and she had an awesome red sleeveless trench coat with red fire on it and it had the Kanji for Ho-Oh's Ambassador of the Fiery Skies of Crimson Justice on the back. 紅の正義の燃えるような空へのHの大使

Helen Morkovia: Wow! I look awesome!

Daniel: Same with me.

Me: Leni is a master when it comes to fashions and she taught Maria and Teresa how to make clothes.

Laney then came into the room. Frantic.

Laney: Guys! We got trouble at the new Megakat Towers!

Me: What!?

We went outside and we saw the whole tower being covered in huge plants!

Laney: Whoa! Plants can't grow that fast!

Me: This is the work of mad science!

Aylene C.: Oh no. This is the work of that insidiously evil mad scientist Dr. Viper!

Me: Dr. Viper?

Qin: Who is he?

Aylene C.: You guys would hate this guy.

Aylene took us to the computer and looked up his history.

---

Dr. Viper is one of the principal antagonists in SWAT Kats: The Radical Squadron, particularly serving as the secondary antagonist. He appeared in five episodes total.

The Viper Mutagen

Dr. Viper used to be an unremarkable biochemist named Dr. Elrod Purvis, who worked at Megakat Biochemical Labs as an assistant to Dr. N. Zyme. After years of research, the two co-created Viper Mutagen 368. The noble Dr. Zyme planned to donate the formula to the city, but Purvis had other ideas.

Deciding he wanted to get rich off of the formula, he decided to try to steal the Viper Mutagen, to sell to the highest bidder. Dr. Zyme, however, returned to the lab and caught him in the act. A fight broke out, which ended with Purvis taking a fall down a flight of stairs, spilling the chemical all over himself in the process and seeming to die.

Later, at the city morgue, the Viper Mutagen took effect, and resurrected Purvis - unfortunately, it had a disastrous side effect, causing Purvis to mutate into creature that is half cat, half snake, and with no soul.

After scaring a hapless attendant and causing him to go into shock, Purvis, now calling himself "Dr. Viper," proceeded back to Megakat Biochemical Labs, where he rounded up Mayor Manx and Deputy Mayor Briggs, who were visiting the lab, and Dr. Zyme as his prisoners, planning to mutate them all into cat/snake beings like himself with a new batch of Viper Mutagen. Luckily for them all, the SWAT Kats arrived in the nick of time and stopped the mad scientist and his army of mutant bugs. However, Dr. Viper escaped after being knocked out the window.

Since then he has made Megakat Swamp his home, living in a lifeless area full of malformed giant trees known as "the Dead Forest," hatching many a scheme to transform the world into an environment only his depraved mind could love: a festering, mutation-filled wasteland.

Katalyst 99

His first scheme involved obtaining a rare compound called Katalyst 99 from his former place of employement. Another villain named Morbulus had recently been defeated by the SWAT Kats and escaped into a sewer drain pipe, where he met Viper. Viper took him back to his lair in the Dead Forest, where he turned him into a giant purple bacteria monster, intending to use him in his newly mutated form to break into Megakat Biochemical to steal the katalyst.

During this particular caper, many innocent cats were killed by being eaten by Viper's bacteria monsters. They ate a subway train full of commuters and a farmer, and even Dr. Zyme is also thought to have been eaten by one of the creatures. Viper himself fed the farmer to the monster as punishment for trying to attack his creation with his pitchfork.

He'd thought ahead, making the monster immune to antibiotics and also giving it the ability to divide into more of itself when hit. He failed when the SWAT Kats killed them all by electrocuting them. Nevertheless he did get inside the lab where he took Callie Briggs prisoner. The SWAT Kats almost took him into custody, but he blew up the lab using the (as it turned out) highly combustible katalysts. The SWAT Kats and Callie got out alive but Viper seemed to have died.

The Megakat Tower

But Viper was back again for a third attempt, this time setting his sights on the newly constructed office building dubbed the Megakat Tower. Its great height - 300 stories - meant it was perfect for his plan to place a mutant spore pod on the roof, which would explode and spread mutant plant spores all of the city, thereby turning it into the "Megaswamp City" of his dreams.

Disguised as a gardener, Viper pretended to water the building's potted plants, but was in reality dousing them with his mutagenic growth formula, which turned them into monsters which he called Plantimals. He took Callie Briggs hostage and held her in the skyscraper's penthouse.

A thick wall of vines kept the Enforcers out, while flying Plantimals guarded the roof. Razor was able to infiltrate the building and come up on Viper from underneath however. During this time it was discovered extreme cold killed the monsters, so T-Bone, after rescuing Razor and Callie, dumped a tank of rocket coolant obtained from MASA onto the tower, freezing all of the plant monsters and seemingly Viper himself.

The Invincible Alliance of Evil

A thawed out Viper later returned his attention to Megakat Biochemical (since rebuilt) and its supply of katalysts. In particular, he wanted Katalyst 100. Joined by his latest creation, a huge, hungry half cat, half mushroom creature that served as his assistant, he broke in, with the mushroom monster eating the guards in the process. Viper was shocked and angered to discover Dark Kat's Creeplings already inside, in the process of stealing the katalyst.

A fight broke out between Viper and the Creeplings over possession of the flask, interrupted by the SWAT Kats. In the ensuing conflict, Megakat Biochemical was blown up again. All the Creeplings died and Viper's mushroom monster wound up splattered all over the Turbokat. Viper survived and confronted Dark Kat, who proposed an alliance. The two even forcibly recruited the Metallikats to their cause and Viper also reformed his mushroom monster (or made another). The group of five villains (incuding Viper's monster) made it their sole goal to kill the SWAT Kats and divide Megakat City equally among them.

After several failed attempts, the villains soon had T-Bone, Razor, Callie and Mayor Manx imprisoned inside a force field bubble in Dark Kat's hideout. Dark Kat revealed his intention to betray his allies and rule the city by himself, and so a fight broke out among the villains. Aside from knocking a Creepling into his mushroom monster's mouth, Viper mostly stayed on the sidelines. When Commander Feral freed the captives and the SWAT Kats successfully trapped Dark Kat, the Metallikats and the mushroom monster, Viper attempted to escape but was collared by Feral and then thrown into prison with the other villains.

Dark Kat then set off a bomb, declaring if he lost, everyone lost. The heroes made it out safely but all of the villains were inside when it blew up. Like his former allies, Viper was again thought dead.

"Mutation City"

But the sinister scientist survived to make one final try at conquering Megakat City. He stole a shipment of Katalyst X-63 and used it to flood the city, mutating numerous animals into giant monsters. He even poured some of it on himself and surfaced as a skyscraper-sized giant cat-snake monster with immense strength and the ability to shoot acid from his fingertips.

The Enforcers' Dr. Konway deduced the antidote to X-63 was a supply of anti-mutagen chemicals found in Megakat Biochemical Labs, once more rebuilt. The SWAT Kats undertook a perilous mission through the mutant-infested city to get there. T-Bone, bitten by a mutant, turned into a half cat, half frog monster and had to be knocked out and restrained by his partner.

Razor then tried to fly the two huge tanks of anti-mutagens back to Enforcer Headquarters, but was intercepted by the giant Viper, who grabbed the tanks and held them aloft in victory, laughing insanely. Razor fire Match-Head Missiles into the tanks and they exploded in Viper's face. The anti-mutagens, in a gaseous form, spread through the city, returning T-Bone and all the mutated animals to normal. Viper's fate following this is unknown.

The Unfinished Episode: The Doctors of Doom

Planned as the season two finale, The Doctors of Doom would've seen Viper teaming up with Dr. Harley Street, the MASA scientist bitten and converted into an autonomous Ci-Kat-A drone by the alien queen in The Ci-Kat-A. In this unfinished premise, which was apparently never fully scripted, Viper, following the events of Mutation City, would've been reverted to his previously mutated form after being gassed by the anti-mutagens, although he would've retained the ability to shoot acid from his fingertips.

The Doctors of Doom would've revealed that after Dr. Street fell from the Megakat Tower at the end of The Ci-Kat-A, he crawled into the sewer, Viper nursed him back to health under the agreement that Street would help him steal Super Katalyst S66 from Megakat Biochemical Labs so Viper could (he claimed) use it to help the Ci-Kat-A race take over the world, as this was Street's only driving goal.

After biting and converting a group of escaped prisoners who stumbled across Viper's swamp lair, Street and his new group of "brothers" successfully stole the katalyst, even gaining yet another follower when one of the converted prisoners bit Enforcer rookie Gray Taylor. Street, Taylor and the former prisoners returned to Viper's lab, where Viper betrayed them by putting them to sleep using knockout gas and then using the stolen S66 to mutate the already transformed group even further, turning Street into an enormous, armored black scarab, and Taylor and the prisoners into armored white grub creatures.

Viper's true plan all along was to use the katalyst to turn his erstwhile "allies" into mindlessly obedient monsters, just as he'd done with Morbulus. He accompanied the scarab and grubs to the Megakat Thermonuclear Plant with the intention of making its reactor go critical, in order to trigger a meltdown to destroy the entire city so he could create a (now radioactive) mutant-infested swampland (which he now intended to call "Viper City" instead of Megaswamp City or Mutation City). However, he was stopped by the SWAT Kats, who killed his tragic, twice-mutated insect minions, while he himself escaped by swimming away into Megakat Bay.

---

We gasped.

Laney: That's insane!

Me: Just what the universe needs, another fucked up mad scientist running amok and causing trouble.

Lana: This guy is a monster!

Lincoln: Yeah!

Nico: We got to kill this guy.

Randy: You guys still have that marker that we stole from Dark Spicer?

Maria: We do. Why?

Randy (smirks): Because after Ben deactivates Viper's security as Grey Matter, I plan to take him by surprise by drawing on his face!

Me: Nice!

Lisa: According to this, the security systems aren't installed yet.

Me: It's like fighting Orochimaru all over again. Lets get him guys.

We got a snake to kill!

Aylene C.: After this, lets raid his lab and use his research to further benefit humanity.

Lisa: Good thinking.

Me: Lets go!

We flew out to the heart of the city and we heard the Swat Kats jet.

Me: Looks like help has arrived.

T-Bone: Looks like we're not the only ones answering the call to stop Viper.

Kira: Yeah. We got to hurry to stop Viper.

Me: We're going to take the tower from above and underneath.

Laney: Good idea.

Lana: Me, Bai Tza, Kira and Katara will go into the building and come up from underneath him.

Razor: Good thinking.

T-Bone: I like it.

But then we got a surprise from a bunch of flying sapslingers.

Me: We got company!

Laney: Those things are ugly!

T-Bone: We got some crud-ugly company!

Lola: Really ugly!

A Sapslinger spit acid at me and it hit my shoulder and burned it.

Me: (SCREAM!) That is strong sulfuric acid!

I saw a bad burn on my shoulder and it really hurt.

Me: Whoa! That is strong acid! Change of plans. We attack head on at the roof.

We flew at the roof. My wound healed up.

Callie Brigs was being held by Dr. Viper and a plant animal grabbed her foot.

Callie Brigs: Let me go!

Dr. Viper: Save your breath Ms. Brigsssss. My plantimals obey only me. Besidessss, you don't want to run away and miss out on all the excitement. (Laughs)

Callie saw a huge pod full of something.

Callie Brigs: What is that thing?

Dr. Viper: My spore pod? Why it's going to explode and at this height it's beautiful ssspores will cover the entire city. (Hisses) I can see it all now.

Dr. Viper had a fantasy vision where he saw the entire city of Gotham Royal York completely covered in plants and everything was turned into a real jungle loaded with all kinds of deadly things.

Dr. Viper: (Voiceover) A spectacular new Megakat City. No more ugly metal and plastic. Only beautiful sssswamp.

Dr. Viper's evil malevolent yellow eyes were over the swamp.

Dr. Viper: Ruled by me, Dr. Viper's Megaswamp City!

The Fantasy Vision fades.

Dr. Viper had tears of joy in his eyes.

Dr. Viper: It will be ssso Beautiful!

Then a fiery explosion blew a hole in the roof and a phoenix cry was heard.

We landed.

Callie Brigs: Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Looks like we got here just in time.

Dr. Viper: Who are all of you!?

Me: Your worst fucking nightmare!

Nico: We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Dr. Viper: Yessss. I heard about all of you. You killed the Metallikatsss, Dark Kat, and Rex Ssshard.

Me: That's right. And the Swat Kats have been helping us as powerful friends and allies.

Kira: You're next on our hit list Viper.

Dr. Viper: Who are you?

Kira: I'm Kira, newest member of the Swat Kats.

Me: Now that introductions are out of the way, it's time to take you down Viper. But… (Snickers) Look at yourself in the mirror.

He did so and he saw that there were silly writings on his face. On his forehead he had Big Dumb Baby and on his chest was "This Space for Rent."

We were laughing.

Dr. Viper: Do you all think thissss is a joke?!

Randy: (laughs) Actually, yeah!

William: (chuckles) Alright, let's let the man wipe off his face. He should at least die with some dignity.

Dr. Viper got the marks off.

Emma: Time to make this asshole go boom!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Science Platoon Dynaman!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dynaman Rangers from 1984.

Me: Get him!

We went at Dr. Viper and I punch him in the face. It was also the perfect time to test out our new Wristband Missile Launchers with infinite Swat Kats Missiles.

Edzilla: (punches Dr. Viper) ED SMASH STUPID SCIENTIST!

Me: Try this on Viper! Matchhead Missiles! Fire!

I fired a matchhead missile and its head lit on fire and it hit Dr. Viper and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Nico: Nice shot!

Kira: My turn: Slicer Missile! Fire!

Kira fired a Slicer Missile and it slashed off Dr. Viper's Tail.

Lincoln: That's got a hurt.

Me: Wait. Look.

We saw that Dr. Viper grew his tail back.

Me: That Viper 368 Mutagen did wonders for him. But the best way to kill a snake is to chop off its head.

Laney: That's right.

Ben: Lets fight Snake with Snake.

Ben turned into Snakepit!

Ben: SNAKEPIT!

Me: Wow! So that's you as a Serpenterran.

Snakepit: That's right.

Snakepit fired venom blasts from his snake hands and they burned Dr. Viper.

Me: Time to finish this creep for good!

Scrapper: Right boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Shovel and strength 100-fold.

Killer Frost: Lets freeze this monster! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her ice powers 100-fold.

Scrapper and Killer Frost: ICE SHOVEL MEGA STRIKE!

Killer Frost formed a powerful Ice Shovel and they both slammed it onto Dr. Viper with devastating force.

Permafrost: I hope you're watching me mom.

Permafrost fired a powerful blast of ice from her hand and froze the entire Spore Pod and it shattered into a million pieces.

Razor: Hey that gives me an idea. T-Bone, I think we have a plan to stop the plants from destroying the building. But we'll need you to make a fast pickup at the space center.

T-Bone: I'm there buddy. What do you need?

Razor: Super Rocket Coolant. Just enough to freeze the whole building.

T-Bone: Roger that.

T-Bone went to the Megakat Space Center.

Me: You're gonna freeze the whole building with Nitrogen?

Razor: That's right J.D. The plants are vulnerable to ice.

Me: Wow! And Liquid Nitrogen has a temperature of -370˚ Fahrenheit. Brilliant thinking.

Razor: It was Maureen that gave me the idea.

Me: Nice!

Dr. Viper: You won't live to do it!

Me: We'll sssseeeeeee. Snake puss!

Kenai: Yeah!

Kenai turned into a bear.

Kenai: Time to fight bear with Snake! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and it enhanced his bear powers 100-fold.

Grapple: Time for some rocket pain! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his wrist rockets 100-fold.

Kenai and Grapple: BEAR MISSILE MEGA SLASH!

Kenai slashed Dr. Viper all over the place and Grapple fired numerous rockets and they hit Dr. Viper and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Ben turned into Grey Matter.

Breach: Time to send some of these plants into the sun.

Breach fired numerous portals and Grey Matter fired his blasters.

Breach and Grey Matter: BLACK HOLE PORTAL WORMHOLE!

The blasts combined and sent numerous Plantimals into the fires of the sun where they were vaporized.

Grey Matter: Time for these plants to be burned!

Ben turned into Fourarms and Karai had her sword ready.

Four Arms and Karai: SWORD STRONG FISTSLASH!

Fourarms punched Numerous plantimals and Karai slashed them apart and cut them up. It sent them all into Breach's Portal.

Me: Now to finish you off Dr. Viper.

T-Bone: I got the freeze bomb J.D.!

Me: Excellent T-Bone. Wait for my signal to drop it.

T-Bone: Right!

Commander Feral: Back off Swat Kats and Team Loud Phoenix Storm! The Enforcers are here!

Me: No Commander, leave this to us! We're gonna kill this snake trash!

Varie: He's terrorized our city for far too long!

Then in came Lieutenant Felina Feral, the Commander's Niece.

Lieutenant Feral: Looks like I got here in time.

Me: Lieutenant Felina Feral, it's an honor to meet you.

Kira recognized her.

Kira: (In her head) It can't be. Sis?

Lieutenant Feral: Same to you J.D. I've heard so much about you.

Me: It's mutual. But no amount of time in prison is good enough for a monster like Dr. Viper. Lets finish this creep!

Lieutenant Feral: Mind if I help you out.

Me: Not at all Lieutenant. Go for it.

Lana: Lets freeze him to death! ICE LIGHTNING DRAGON STORM!

Lana fired a powerful blast of Ice Lightning and it hit Dr. Viper and froze him in a block of ice.

Killer Frost: Time for some pain from ice! SUPER ICE WING SLASH!

Killer Frost formed Angel Wings made of pure ice and she flew into the air and slashed him all over.

Laney: You are a terrible gardener Viper! POISON PLANT BARBSTORM!

Laney fired numerous poison barbs from her hands and plants and they hit Dr. Viper and poisoned him.

Kira: Time for you to have your plugs pulled! MATCHHEAD MISSILE MEGA BARRAGE!

Kira fired a bunch of Matchhead missiles and they lit on fire and hit Dr. Viper and exploded with incredible fiery fury.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Katara: It's the fury of the Ocean for you! OCEAN FORCE MEGATSUNAMI PLUNGE!

Katara formed a powerful ball of water and she threw it at Dr. Viper and drenched him with the force of a powerful megatsunami!

Lieutenant Feral: Try this on for size! ENFORCER BLASTER MEGA BLAST!

Lieutenant Feral fired a powerful blast from her Enforcer Blaster and it hit Dr. Viper and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Nico: Dr. Viper, you have failed this city!

Me: Many times as a matter of fact.

Nico: Yep. EIS FREEZE BLAST!

Nico fired a massive blast of Eis Shenron's Ice Ray from his eyes and froze Dr. Viper in a block of ice.

Me: Now to finish him for good! LAVA STYLE: VESUVIUS INCINERATOR PUNCH!

I formed my fist into a blob of super hot lava and punched him and blew him into pieces and killed Dr. Viper instantly.

Me: Go to Hell Dr. Viper!

Dr. Viper's Spirit was sucked into the River of Fire.

Dr. Viper: (As a Spirit) CURSSSSSE YOU SSSSWAT KATSSSSS!

Me: Go to Hell you retched snake!

Katara: Eddy. Jack. Dump Viper's corpse into the nearest body of water. His stench is starting to stink up the place.

Eddy: You got it Katara. Welcome back to the force.

Katara: Thanks Eddy. Had to take care of my daughter a lot.

They did so.

Kira walked up to Lieutenant Feral.

Kira: Lieutenant Feral?

Alexis (Swat Kats) Revealed herself. And Felina Feral recognized her.

Lieutenant Feral: (Gasp!) Alexis. Is that really you!?

Alexis (Swat Kats): It is me sis. I'm alive and well.

They hugged for the first time in so long!

Me: Awesome reunion. Lets get out of here so we can freeze the building.

We left.

Me: Now T-Bone!

T-Bone dropped the Freeze Bomb and it hit the building's Air Conditioner and froze all the plants with liquid nitrogen and the plants were killed.

Me: BINGO!

Razor: That did it!

Callie Brigs: Better drop me off guys. I think the mayor is gonna need sedation.

Me: Okay. And I can fix the building too.

We landed on the ground and I snapped my fingers and fixed the building.

Me: Done.

Katara: That was cool!

Lana: Yeah! Nice job J.D.!

Lieutenant Feral: Alexis, I didn't know you were a Swat Kat.

Alexis (Swat Kats): I joined them after they found me and I wanted to help them out. I want to help out Team Loud Phoenix Storm as well.

Me: She has been a great me,ber to them and us Lieutenant. She's a true friend.

Lieutenant Feral: I understand. But no matter what happens, you will always be my little sister Alexis.

Alexis (Swat Kats): (With tears in her eyes) Thanks big sis.

They hugged and later went back to the hanger.

Me: That's really something. I didn't know Alexis was your sister Lieutenant.

Lieutenant Feral: Yeah. I've been trying to find her ever since I got word about her parents dying. They are my half parents.

Me: Wow. It's good you two are reunited.

Katara: (To the viewers) This was a harrowing adventure that put a mad scientist out of work for good.

Laney: It was.

Later, Aylene C. and Lana and Lisa went to the swamp of Dr. Viper and they found his papers and research and we put it to good use in the future. Another Villain of the Swat Kats has been Euthanized.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction complete and the 4th Swat Kats Villain defeated.

Dr. Viper was beyond a shadow of a doubt the most insane villain of the Swat Kats. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the first ever Villain from the Legend of Tarzan series from Disney: Tublat. We're going to make sure he never takes control of Tarzan's Family.

See you all tomorrow.

A Rogue Gorilla

We were over in the Swiss Alps of Switzerland. We were there to check out one of Dr. Wily's old abandoned hideouts. It's been almost a year since we killed the notorious mad scientist Dr. Albert Wily, Public Enemy #1 of Mega Man and Dr. Light.

Maria: It's good that we're out checking for any of Wily's abandoned hideouts.

Me: Yep. It's just in case that we missed out on some robots we forgot.

Qin: Who is Dr. Wily again?

Me: He was the worst mad scientist we've ever encountered. He also put a huge bounty on my head and sent his Robot Masters out to destroy me. But he also tried to take over the world numerous times and Mega Man, Roll and Dr. Light stopped him every time.

I went over his history.

---

Dr. Albert W. Wily, also better known as Dr. Wily or Doctor Wily, is the main antagonist of the classic Mega Man series, and a major character and antagonist in the franchise overall. He is a knowledgeable and intellectual scientist and the former college friend and rival of Dr. Light, who strives to conquer the world. In almost all of his appearances, he does this through enlisting an army of Robot Masters to assist with his plans, which are always foiled by his nemesis and Dr. Light's creation, Mega Man.

Dr. Albert W. Wily was always an extremely intelligent and knowledgeable person. He was a classmate of Dr. Thomas Light, and both of them graduated together, receiving their PhD almost simultaneously. The two were responsible for many great advancements in the field of robotics, but it was Dr. Light who always seemed to win the accolades. Dr. Light won the LIT Manual

Design contest four years in a row, the World Engineer First Prize, and even won a Nobel Prize for Physics (Wily was nominated, but did not win). Though the two doctors worked closely together, they eventually broke up due to conflicting views. Wily developed a prototype for what he called the Double Gear system, which could push robots beyond their capabilities, but his research was shut down by a committee, with Light siding with them due to believing Wily's research was too dangerous. Wily abandons his research and disappears into his own self-imposed exile, not being heard from again for quite a while.

Years later in 20XX A.D. while Wily was gone, Dr. Light succeeded in completing designs for an independent humanoid robot, albeit one designed specifically for combat applications-Proto Man. However, after a violent and destructive defect was discovered in Proto Man's power core, he disappeared, and was found, broken-down, years later by the exiled Dr. Wily. He repaired Proto Man, and exchanged his solar power reactor for a nuclear one, knowing that this only provided a temporary fix. From here on out, Wily began formulating his plans for world domination as revenge against those who shunned him, while Dr. Light continued designing other robots for various purposes. When the day finally came and Wily declared his revolt, he stole six of Dr. Light's robots (eight in Mega Man Powered Up), reprogrammed them, and turned them on the world.

Rock, a household robot built by Dr. Light, volunteered to be converted into a fighting robot, and thus Mega Man was born. Mega Man set out and stopped Wily's evil plans. Wily escaped Mega Man's clutches, and lived to strike again and again with more advanced Robot Masters he designed himself. Mega Man stopped his plans time and time again, even when Wily framed others for his schemes, like Dr. Cossack and even Proto Man himself.

Mega Man/Mega Man Powered Up

In the first game in the series, Wily uses the stolen robots from Dr. Light to take on the world, but is challenged by Mega Man. He is fought at his fortress, where he uses his Wily Machine to fight in two phases. In the first part, he will just drop random shots. In the second part, he will use spiraling shots. after being defeated, Wily ask Mega Man for forgiveness.

In the PSP remake, Wily's role is much of the same as in the original game, although, in the intro sequence, Dr. Wily is shown stealing Dr. Light's Robot Masters after announcing his plans for world domination (the actual speech implying that he merely decided to take over the world on a whim). He also mocks Light by saying that all his creations were junk after they are defeated and invites Mega Man (or the other playable characters) to challenge him at Wily Castle. Following his defeat he begs for mercy and promises to change his ways, although whether these claims are held up or not is not shown.

Mega Man 2

After some time, Dr. Wily returns once more, this time using his own Robot Masters called the Wily Numbers Series to take on the world, and once again being challenged by Mega Man. The fight once again is divided into two phases. In the first, he attacks using shots that go down then up in an arc. His weakness is the Atomic Fire. In the second phase, he attacks using bouncing shots. This phase is weak against the Air Shooter. After the Wily Machine is destroyed, Wily retreats to the back of his fortress, where he transforms into an alien robot. His only weakness is the Bubble Lead. As Mega Man defeats the alien form, the room's lights are turned on, and is revealed that the alien was just an hologram controlled by Wily. Once again defeated, Wily begs for forgiveness.

Mega Man 3

Wily pretends to be reformed, and joins Dr. Light in the construction of Gamma, a titanic peace-keeping robot. While they work on it, they also work on new Robot Masters and the Doc Robots. However, they all turn berserk for some reason, fleeing with some of Gamma's parts. Mega Man is sent to fight them and retrieve the parts, but after the fight is over, Wily runs away with Gamma planning to use it to conquer the world.

Mega Man follows him to his fortress and fights his new Wily Machine. The machine has two phases, the first being weak to the Spark Shock and the second to the Hard Knuckle. After the machine is destroyed, Mega Man finds that the Wily controlling it was a fake, so goes deep into the fortress, where Wily is waiting for him, controlling Gamma to defeat Mega Man. The first form's weakness is the Shadow Blade, while the second is the Top Spin, which is very hard to hit. After being defeated, the fortress starts falling down, and both Mega Man and Wily are crushed under debris. Proto Man rescues Mega Man, but is unable to find Wily, who is then presumed deceased.

Mega Man 4

A Russian scientist called Dr. Cossack sends a message to Mega Man, challenging him to fight his Robot Masters to prove he was the best scientist in the world. Mega Man defeats his robots and challenges him in his Siberian fortress, but the fight is interrupted by Proto Man, who brings Cossack his daughter Kalinka, revealing that Wily had kidnapped her and forced Cossack to work for him. Mega Man follows Wily to his fortress again. His new Wily Machine now have a skull motif that would be followed by all subsequent games. the first phase's weakness is the Ring Boomerang, while the second is the Drill Bomb. As it is destroyed, Wily escapes in his Wily Capsule, which also would become the final boss for the subsequent games. It's weakness is the Pharaoh Shot. As he is defeated, Wily escapes through a secret door while his castle crumbles.

Mega Man 5

Proto Man apparently turns evil and unleashes an army of Robot Masters to take on the world, all while he kidnaps Dr. Light, leaving his scarf behind. Mega Man, helped by Dr. Cossack, goes after Proto Man, but refuses to fight him. Just then, the real Proto Man appears and reveals the other was Dark Man, a fake created by Wily to frame Proto Man for his crimes. Mega Man defeats Dark Man and goes after Wily. Wily first fights using a giant press, then retreats after defeat. He now uses a new Wily Machine, that can be easily defeated with the Super Arrow. He again escapes in the Wily Capsule, whose weakness is Beat. Wily tries to escape, only to be followed by Mega Man, who also rescues Dr. Light. But then the castle begins to crumble, as the ceiling falls over them. Mega Man holds the ceiling, and Wily takes the opportunity to escape. Proto Man appears again and helps Mega Man and Light to escape.

Mega Man: The Wily Wars

In Wily Tower, a unlockable game from Mega Man: The Wily Wars, Wily creates the Genesis Unit; a team of robots comprised of Buster Rod G, Mega Water S and Hyper Storm H, challenging Mega Man to defeat his new robots in his new fortress. Mega Man defeats them and topples Wily's fortress, whilst Wily is chased into the sunset, escaping only by reaching his UFO.

Gameboy Mega Man games

At some unknown point between the second and sixth games, Wily creates the Mega Man Killers; Enker, Punk and Ballade, special robots specially designed to defeat Mega Man. He also creates Quint, who is apparently a future self of Mega Man whom Wily kidnapped and reprogrammed. Each of them is fought in one game. Mega Man defeats the all, even being saved by Ballade at the end of the fourth game.

Mega Man V

Mega Man is challenged by a robot called Terra, but is defeated. Soon, Terra reveals himself as the leader of the Stardroids, alien robots seeking to conquer earth. Dr. Light gives Mega Man new upgrades, allowing him to defeat them. Once he defeats Terra, Dr. Wily reveals himself, having created the Stardroids after a real alien robot called Sunstar. Wily activates Sunstar, who promptly attacks him, forcing him to retreat, and fights Mega Man. Wily is last seen attempting to attack Mega Man but failing and running away.

Mega Man 6

Wily is unheard of for some time, when an eccentric billionaire known only as Mr. X promotes the first annual Robot Master Tournament, with robots from all over the world. When the eight finalists are decided, Mr. X reprograms them to obey him and decides to take over the world, claiming he had been using Dr. Wily as a pawn the whole time. Mega Man takes the challenge and defeats the tournament robots, going after Mr. X. However, as Mega Man defeats him, he reveals that he was actually Dr. Wily in disguise, running away to his new castle. Mega Man fights his new Wily Machine, whose attacks involve jumping around and shooting. As the machine is destroyed, he continues the fight on the new Wily Capsule. All three forms are very weak to the Silver Tomahawk. Defeated once again, Mega Man captures Wily, who is finally imprisoned.

Mega Man 7

The world was once again at peace, as Dr. Wily was spending his days in a high security prison. However, Wily always thought his plans might end with him arrested, so he devised four robots who would awake and look for him in case he remained a long time absent from his lab. After six months, the robots awaken and start looking for their master. Mega Man rushes into the scene, only to watch while the robots free Wily, who runs away. Mega Man goes after him, but is confronted by a mysterious robot. After a brief fight, the robot identifies himself as Bass, saying that he and his partner Treble were protecting the city while Mega Man was out. Mega Man goes after the robots and defeats them, when Wily attacks a Robot Museum to steal Guts Man, also sending another four robots to attack the city. Mega Man goes after the robots and finds Bass again, who was apparently damaged, and tells him to go to Light's lab for repairs.

After the robots are defeated, Mega Man returns to the lab only to find it destroyed, as Bass had blown the entire place. Wily contacts them and taunts them, telling that Bass was actually his creation. Mega Man then goes after Wily on his new fortress, fighting Bass twice. He finally finds Wily, who attacks Mega Man on his new Wily Machine, which just jumps around and throws some small walker robots. As the machine is destroyed, Wily continues the battle on the Wily Capsule, this one being infamous as the hardest fight against Wily. As Mega Man defeats Wily once again, he decides to kill the mad doctor, but hesitates after Wily tells him that robots cannot harm humans. This gives Bass enough time to burst in and rescue Wily. Mega Man then escapes the crumbling lab.

Mega Man 8

A meteor falls on Earth, and Dr. Light find some strange energy readings. Mega Man, who was fighting Bass, interrupts the battle and goes after the meteorite, who have fallen on a uncharted island. Once on the island, he finds Dr. Wily, who have been using that island as his base. He picked something from the meteorite, which he claims is more powerful than the island, and runs away. Mega Man then finds a strange robot on the crash site and contacts Dr. Light, who goes to pick the robot while Mega Man goes after Wily. Mega Man fights four of his robots, all which seemed to be powered up by a strange form of energy, which Mega Man collects and brings to Dr. Light. Suddenly, the mysterious robot wakes up and destroys the strange energy, running away after that. Mega Man goes after him and they have a brief fight, but the robot runs away again. Proto Man appears and tells Mega Man the robot is going after Wily's new fortress; the Wily Tower.

Mega Man goes after him as well, only to be attacked by a giant robot that protects Wily's fortress. The mysterious robot helps Mega Man and destroys the robot. He identify himself as Duo, telling Mega Man that he was created to destroy the Evil Energy, a strange form of energy that feeds on evil thoughts and multiplies itself. Wily had obtained this energy and was now using it to power up his robots, but his fortress was protected by some kind of barrier. Mega Man goes after Wily's new robots and destroys them, lifting the barrier on the fortress. Once there, he fights Bass once again and defeats him, but gets captured by Wily. Duo appears and saves Mega Man again, but ends up exhausted. Proto Man then appears as well, taking Duo away while Mega Man faces Wily.

His new Wily Machine can be easily defeated using the Water Balloon, while the Wily Capsule can be defeated with either the charged Buster or the Flash Bomb. Defeated once again, Wily asks for forgiveness, to which Mega Man replies that he's using the same old apology again. Suddenly, a portion of Evil Energy comes out of Wily's Capsule and attacks Mega Man, something Wily was never expecting, as the entire place crumbles. Duo finds Mega Man, but he has been badly hurt and was now infected with the Evil Energy. He removes the energy from Mega Man, when Proto Man appears. Duo tells Proto Man to give Mega Man a message when he gets better. Mega Man is taken to Dr. Light's lab and is restored. Proto Man meets him, and gives him Duo's message.

Mega Man & Bass

After Bass previous defeats against Mega Man, Wily starts doubting

Bass abilities, creating King in order to test him. However, King breaks free, deciding to create a country for the robots, stealing some of Wily's robot schematics and invading a robot museum, intending to create his own army of robots. Wily sends Bass, who reluctantly teams up with Mega Man to face King. Once King is defeated, Wily reveals his plans, brainwashing King to fight again. Bass is enraged, facing Wily by himself. Wily tells Bass his plans and shows him his plans to create King MK-II, but Proto Man invades his lab and destroys the plans.

Mega Man: The Power Battle

Wily reconstruct various of his robots to take over the world. Mega Man teams up with Proto Man to fight Wily's forces, being joined by Bass, who wants Wily to "stop making junk robots", so he can defeat Mega Man by himself.

Mega Man 2: The Power Fighters

On the second game, Wily once again uses reconstructed robots, kidnapping Roll and stealing special parts. Mega Man, Proto Man and Bass once again go after him, this time with Duo's help as well. On Bass's ending, Wily tell him how he accidentally created the Bassnium, which he used to create Bass himself, and shows him the blueprints of a new robot he was creating, which he claimed would be much stronger than any robot, which Bass promptly mocks for it's girlie-looking appearance. The silhouette in the blueprints is obviously that of Zero from the X series, which confirms Wily was indeed his creator.

Mega Man 9

Some time have passed after Wily's last defeat at Mega Man's hands, and the world was at peace. It was not for long, however, as robots start going rampant. Surprisingly, these robots were all made by Dr. Light. Wily shows himself, claiming no responsibility on the attack and blaming Light, asking for donations to create new robots to fight Light's robots. Mega Man decides to fight the robots and discover what Wily is scheming, while Dr. Light was taken under arrest.

Upon defeating them, Mega Man recovers their memory chips, discovering that they were all created with an expiry date and were scheduled to be retired, so Wily simply convinced them to be reprogrammed by him. Wily invades the lab and steals the memory chip, retreating to his new fortress. His new Wily Machine has a dinosaur shape, and the only way to harm it is by deflecting the explosive eggs it spits. Upon losing half health, it starts moving around and shooting fire, it's weakness being the Concrete Shot. After being destroyed Wily continues the fight on his Wily Capsule, which is weak to the Plug Ball.

Upon defeat, Wily once again asks for forgiveness, so Mega Man shows him every single of his previous defeats. Wily tricks Mega Man into thinking Light was imprisoned on the next room, even though Proto Man warns him that was a trap. Mega Man is electrocuted upon inspecting the fake Dr. Light, which gives Wily time to escape while his fortress crumbles. Proto Man rescues Mega Man in time, and Light is freed from jail, as his innocence was now proven. Wily is last seen being chased by Concrete Man during the credits sequence.

Mega Man 10

A strange virus called "Roboenza" starts affecting robots everywhere, making them fall sick. One month after the virus outbreak, the infected robots turn violent and destructive, as they start rampaging. Roll falls sick, and shortly after Wily crash-lands near Dr. Light lab, being rescued by Mega Man. Wily claims that he has been developing an anti-virus, but his robots turned against him and stole his medicine-making machine, so he asks for help to recover the machine. Mega Man decides to go after the infected robots, being joined by Proto Man while Wily develops a prototype cure, which he gives to Roll.

After the medicine-making machine is retrieved, Wily runs away with it, revealing himself as the creator of the Roboenza and telling that any robot wanting the medicine should work for him. Mega Man falls sick too, but Roll, who had not used her vaccine, gives it to Mega Man, so he could go after Wily at his new fortress. Wily first fights on the Wily Machine, which now has a pirate motif. He attacks by shooting huge rockets from the mouth which can be used as platforms and shooting homing missiles. It is weak to the Solar Flare. Once the external shielding is destroyed, the machine's cockpit is revealed, so he starts attacking with lightning bolts, it's weakness being the Water Shield. As the machine is destroyed, Wily escapes on the Wily Capsule, retreating to his stratosphere base. The Wily Capsule can be easily defeated with the Chill Spike. Once he is defeated, Wily falls sick with a high fever, so Mega Man takes him to a hospital. Dr. Wily runs away from the hospital, but leaves behind a large quantity of medicine to cure the infected robots, presumably out of gratitude.

Mega Man 11

During a dream, Wily recalls his youth days with Light and his Double Gear research. He then decides to finish and perfect his old research, completing the Double Gear system and installing it on his own UFO. He crashes into Dr. Light's lab during a routine maintenance and steals eight of his robots, reprogramming them and installing the Double Gear onto them. Dr. Light, fearing Mega Man would have no chance at fighting the Double Gear-powered robots, picks up the Double Gear prototype which he had been keeping this whole time and finishes it, installing it on Mega Man.

Mega Man defeats the eight Robot masters and confronts Wily on his new fortress, first on his new gear-themed Wily Machine, first attacking by shooting missiles and attempting to ram the player, then using the gears to move the conveyor belt in the floor. As usual, you fight his Wily Capsule afterwards, which also got a gear motif, attacking by shooting various gears and moving fast around, taking advantage of the Double Gear system installed on it. Upon being defeated, Wily once again begs for forgiveness, though Mega Man isn't fooled. Angry, he proclaims Mega Man only defeated him thanks to his own Double Gear system, which if anything just proved his genius, but Dr. Light interrupts their conversation, claiming that Mega Man was now the result of both of their geniuses, but Wily adamantly refuses to believe that. Light then offers Wily a chance to atone for his evil ways and join him again, but the latter refuses and once again escapes while his fortress self-destructs.

X Series

In his last days, Wily dedicated himself to finish Zero, his masterpiece. When he first activates Zero he shows a violent behavior and unwillingness to follow orders, so Wily shuts him down and leaves him in stasis. Wily then creates the Zero Virus, intended to "purify" Zero's body, but not long after Wily dies of old age, unable to see his ultimate creation functional.

Before dying, Wily somehow uploaded his consciousness inside the virus (much in the same way Dr. Light became the hologram inside X's armor capsules). Wily often appears to Zero on his dreams, calling Zero "his son" and telling him to "go after him" (probably referring to X). Sigma, likely due to his long contact with the virus, was able to interact with Wily's consciousness inside the virus. Wily is notably implied to have helped Sigma throughout the majority of the series, including the Eurasia Colony incident, when he created Sigma's new body. It is also heavily implied that during the X-Hunters incident, Wily's consciousness inhabited the body of a Reploid by the name Serges, who temporarily mistook X for Mega Man and referred to Light by name (in the Japanese version only).

It is also all but said that the Reploid, Isoc was another host for Wily's consciousness. Isoc had knowledge of Zero only Wily had, showed delight and enjoyment over Zero being able to defeat High Max (whereas X could not at the time), and his body is last encountered as an empty shell, whilst Zero hears Wily's voice emanating near Isoc's discarded body. Isoc also shares Wily's Japanese voice actor and his official profile says his design was intentionally designed to invoke, "a certain scientist."

Eventually, Mega Man X destroyed the Maverick Virus using the power of the Mother Elf, presumably killing Wily for good.

Battle Network/EXE Series

Dr. Wily, under the name "Lord Wily", appears as the leader of the terrorist organization called World Three (also known as WWW) as well as the father of Dr. Regal, and the major villain in the Mega Man Battle Network/EXE universe. His motives are similar to the mainline games, Hikari got the accolades for Network technology while Wily's research was snubbed. He is the main antagonist in the first, third, and sixth games of the series. At the end of Battle Network 6, he gives up on revenge and contributes to net security as atonement.

---

Qin gasped in sheer horror.

Qin: I can't believe he was that dangerous!

Nico: He was one of the worst. Dr. Wily was a mad scientist of the worst kind and that's one of the reasons we had to kill him.

Me: But we didn't kill him Nico. We left him at the mercy of his robots that we saved from him to do that.

Elec Man: That's right. I remember that.

Block Man: Yeah. It was good to smash him to pieces.

Mega Man: It's good that Dr. Wily is dead. But that doesn't mean that there are other evil things out there for us to destroy.

Me: That's right. Evil never sleeps and never learns from defeat.

Smokescreen: I'm glad that Dr. Wily didn't resurrect Megatron or Starscream.

Me: I don't think he had that kind of technological mind. But nonetheless, he still got what he deserved.

Smokescreen: Hello. What's this?

Me: What is it Smokescreen?

We saw a metal handle completely covered in moss.

Wolverine: (Sniffs) I smell something metallic.

Cyclops: Cybertronian?

Wolverine: No. If it were, I would also smell Energon.

Me: True. Guys give me a hand here.

We grabbed the handle and we pulled and it opened a hatch and it was an entrance.

We went inside it and we saw another lab.

Me: This one was underground.

Laney: Wow. There's a lot of equipment here.

Lola: No kidding.

Lana: Look over here.

We looked at where Lana was and we found more pods containing 8 robot masters.

Fire Man: There's more of us in stasis? Wily never told us about this!

Me: I guess he must've forgotten about them when he put that bounty on my head.

Qin: That could be the case.

Me: Lets wake them up.

We did so. We encountered 8 more robots.

Concrete Man

Concrete Man (コンクリートマン Konkurītoman) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 modeled after a construction worker that Dr. Light created to be the supervisor of dam construction. He is very dedicated to his job, but is mostly stubborn and will tell off any robots that are lazy on the job.

Concrete Man is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots to help him conquer the world.

He tries to stop the player with his Concrete Shot, jumps from the top of the screen and shakes the floor, which will make Mega Man stumble, or tackles.

Concrete Man's weakness is the Laser Trident due to its ability to penetrate most shielding. It can also cause critical damage to him, and can pierce through the blocks of the Concrete Shots.

In the end credits picture, he is seen outside Dr. Wily's fortress, chasing Wily for his trickery, having been rebuilt after the events of the game.

Tornado Man

Tornado Man (トルネードマン Torunēdo Man) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 created by Dr. Light. He was created to stave off powerful storms, and his job was stationed at a weather regulation facility. Dr. Light equipped him with powerful equipment, such as the fans attached to his arms, allowing him to stave off tropical storms.

Tornado Man is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots into becoming his servants who will help him conquer the world.

Tornado Man will often stay airborne while using his Tornado Blow, which consists of four gusts traveling upwards across the screen. During this attack, Mega Man's jump height will be increased. The player should watch out for this, since there are spike traps in the ceiling which Mega Man could bang his head on (and therefore take damage from) while under these conditions.

Tornado Man can be damaged easily Plug Ball. Even though he stays airborne most of the time this should not be a problem, since he will frequently stay next to the ceiling, allowing his weakness to reach him by running up the walls and along the ceiling. Upon his defeat, Tornado Man surrenders his weapon.

In the end credits picture, he is seen staring off into the sky with Mega Man, having been rebuilt after the events of the game.

Splash Woman

Splash Woman (スプラッシュウーマン Supurasshu Ūman) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 that Dr. Light created to rescue swimmers from sinking ships, being an expert swimmer (due to her design as a mermaid) but having very poor land mobility. She possesses a beautiful voice and is fond of karaoke, but it is rumored that she has turned down numerous invitations to enter the world of show business, possibly having a dislike of large crowds. Splash Woman attacks by singing to call fish robots, tackling with her trident, and using her Special Weapon, the Laser Trident, which can emit a laser capable of penetrating tough surfaces such as shields and the hulls of ships.

Splash Woman is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots to help him conquer the world.

In battle, Splash Woman will first call three groups of robot fishes to charge into the player that can be dodged by extended jumps. Then, when she is at the top of the area, she'll move around the room shooting the Laser Trident and finally try to tackle Mega Man with her trident.

Her weakness is the Hornet Chaser. The bees will fly around and can easily demolish the fish, and damage Splash Woman as she goes to the top of the screen. Take into account that after a bee kills fishes, it will continue until none are remaining and won't attack Splash Woman. However, they can still damage her if she is lured into them before they fly offscreen.

In the end credits picture, she is seen at the beach having her picture taken by Auto, having been rebuilt after the events of the game.

Plug Man

Plug Man (プラグマン Puragu Man) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 that Dr. Light created to inspect the quality control in a television factory, strictly inspecting each unit. He is obsessed with gadgets and loves to browse electronic stores like Akihabara and talking with his friends about geeky subjects. His Special Weapon is the Plug Ball.

Plug Man is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots to help him conquer the world.

Plug Man will jump around trying to jump on Mega Man or Proto Man. At times, he will shoot Plug Balls at Mega Man that will run on the ceiling. Once he is under the ball, it will drop toward him.

His weakness is the Jewel Satellite, which will deflect all Plug Balls launched.

In the end credits picture, he is seen going shopping with Rush, having been rebuilt after the events of the game.

Jewel Man

Jewel Man (ジュエルマン Jueru Man) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 modeled after gems that Dr. Light created to work in a diamond mine where he was in charge of cutting and polishing rocks with dexterity. He likes to receive attention and collect shiny things.

His weapon, Jewel Satellite, has jewels surround Mega Man like a shield. This is similar to shield weapons like Wood Man's Leaf Shield, Skull Man's Skull Barrier, Star Man's Star Crash, Plant Man's Plant Barrier, Junk Man's Junk Shield, Turbo Man's Scorch Wheel and Pump Man's Water Shield.

Jewel Man is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots to help him conquer the world.

His pattern is running left and right with his Jewel Satellite surrounding him; he only jumps when Mega Man jumps, and throws individual jewels at Mega Man whenever he hits one of them or after a long time passes. With good aim, it's actually possible to slip in a shot through his shield; ironic since no projectiles can pass through the Jewel Satellite when used by Mega Man.

His weakness is Galaxy Man's Black Hole Bomb. In addition to doing five units of damage to him, it will also suck in the jewels of his Jewel Satellite, preventing him from firing at Mega Man until he creates more jewels.

In the end credits picture, he is seen in a mine holding up a jewel that he found and showing it to Roll, having been rebuilt after the events of the game.

Hornet Man

Hornet Man (ホーネットマン Hōnettoman) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 modeled after a hornet and a honeycomb that Dr. Light created to manage a flower park. It was his job to pollinate the flowers using his vast knowledge of flowers from around the world, and he loves gardening. He attacks by releasing robot hornets from the honeycomb in his chest.

Hornet Man is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots to help him conquer the world.

He walks to one side of the arena, flies up and shoots three Hornet Chasers, which follow the player; he then drops to the floor, runs to the other side, and repeats.

His weakness is the Magma Bazooka. Its diagonal fire blasts will destroy all the bees when the center shot hits the center Hornet Chaser. When charged, it will also blast through them toward Hornet Man. Another viable weapon is the Black Hole Bomb which, when positioned properly, will suck in all three Hornet Chasers as they move towards Mega Man, and will then damage Hornet Man as he runs through it to the other side of the room.

In the end credits picture, he is seen watering the flowers in his garden with Beat, having been rebuilt after the events of the game.

Magma Man

Magma Man (マグママン Maguma Man) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 modeled after an incinerator that Dr. Light created to oversee safety operations and manage a geothermal power plant. He is able to withstand incredibly high temperatures and loves to visit hot spas.

The lavafalls in his stage have the same effect as the laser beams from Quick Man's stage in Mega Man 2, the ignited oil from Flame Man's stage in Mega Man 6, and the fire beams from Turbo Man's stage in Mega Man 7, in which they cause Mega Man to die instantly.

Magma Man is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots to help him conquer the world.

Magma Man moves by jumping while shooting his Magma Bazooka. As long as the flames on his head are ignited, he will fire off charged shots.

His weakness is the Tornado Blow, which not only damages him, but also blows out the flames on his head. Afterwards, Magma Man can only fire normal shots until he recharges.

In the end credits picture, he is seen heating up a bathing oil drum that Dr. Light is relaxing in, having been rebuilt after the events of the game.

Galaxy Man

Galaxy Man (ギャラクシーマン Gyarakushīman) is a Robot Master from Mega Man 9 modeled after a flying saucer commonly used by aliens in media that Dr. Light created to work in a space research center where it was his job to instantly calculate the trajectories for rockets. He loves to observe stars and name any new ones that he finds. He seems to have the ability to fly short distances, retracting his arms and legs when he does so, just like Gigabolt Man-O-War's "UFO mode" from Mega Man X8, along with teleportation. Galaxy

Man is also able to constantly change colors. His Special Weapon, the Black Hole Bomb, can be used to suck enemies into a black hole or drain certain enemies' health, similar to the Gravity Well weapon from Mega Man X3. His stage consists of a series of portals.

Galaxy Man is one of the eight Robot Masters whose period of use had expired and was scheduled to be scrapped. Dr. Wily pretended to be concerned by offering to repair them, reprogramming the tricked robots to help him conquer the world.

Galaxy Man begins battle by hovering toward the player, dealing contact damage to Mega Man if he does not move quickly enough. He then jumps in the air and fires a Black Hole Bomb where the player is standing, then teleports under the black hole. If Mega Man collides with Galaxy Man, he will take damage. He then teleports back in the ceiling, then he lands and tries to attack Mega Man again.

If Concrete Shot has been obtained earlier, it can be used to neutralize the Black Hole Bomb. Galaxy Man will then be vulnerable as he will still teleport to where the bomb would have exploded, but he will just stand there and there will be nothing to pull Mega Man towards him.

In the end credits picture, he is seen flying in the sky at sunset, having been rebuilt after the events of the game, while Proto Man observes him from a distance.

---

Me: Wow!

Nicole: The Robots from Mega Man 9.

Mega Man: These are Dr. Light's robots that were stolen 2 years ago.

Me: I guess Dr. Wily forgot they were here. Even for a smart guy, he sure was stupid.

Wildrider: Welcome back to the land of moving parts!

Splash Woman: What happened?

Mega Man: It's great to have you back Splash Woman.

Splash Woman: Mega Man? What happened?

Me: It's a long and ugly story. But we should introduce ourselves. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we killed Dr. Wily.

We introduced ourselves.

Tornado Man: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Magma Man: It's good that Dr. Wily is dead. I never want to see him again.

Nico: You won't ever again. He's in the River of Fire burning for all eternity.

Concrete Man: Good riddance.

Galaxy Man: Yeah.

Hornet Man: But at least we've seen the last of him for good.

Splash Woman: But aren't some of you guys the Robot Masters under Wily's control?

Drill Man: We were. But thanks to J.D. and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm we were rebuilt and are now fighting for the side of good.

Lisa: And you have me, Nicole and our scientists to thank for that.

Galaxy Man: Wow.

Jewel Man: Thank goodness.

Magma Man: Yeah.

Me: Lets get you all back to the estate to make sure that Dr. Wily didn't corrupt you any further.

We left the lab and I fired an energy blast down into the lab and blew up the whole lab in a powerful fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM

Me: Good riddance. Now we've erased all of Dr. Wily's work.

Nico: I've said it before and I'll say it again. Dr. Albert Wily, you have failed this universe.

May: He sure has. He'll have all of his worthless afterlife to think about his crimes against the world of robots and the world in general.

Me: You said it May.

Splash Woman: Yeah.

Varie: Hold on Splash Woman.

Varie formed a ball of water that was floating and Splash Woman got in it and she was now mobile.

Splash Woman: Ahh. That is much better. Thanks Varie.

Varie: Anytime Splash Woman.

Me: Let me show you guys where I found the Limburger Mines.

Lincoln: Okay.

Me: But first, when we get there you'll need these.

I pulled out some nose plugs.

Nico: Ah. Thanks man.

We went to the Matterhorn and we entered the cave and we arrived in the Limburger Mines. What we saw was amazing. We saw a cave completely filled with Limburger Cheese and the walls of the cave were covered in it. And boy did it smell HORRIBLE! It smelled like rotten socks! The guards had gas masks on and they had guns with them full of skunk oil which is 1,000 times worse than the smell of Limburger. Mining the walls of the Mines were thousands of spoiled brat kids that came from a lot of different environments and more. These kids were the very personification of greedy and spoiled.

Me: (Nasally) Here we are guys. Welcome to the Limburger Cheese Mines for Spoiled Brats.

Lola: (Nasally) Wow! So this is the Limburger Cheese Mines.

Laney: (Nasally) I didn't think mines like these were real.

Lori: (Nasally) It literally smells so horrible in here!

Lana: I'll say! (Inhales) Oooh! Yeah! I love that smell.

Me: You are a silly girl Lana.

Tornado Man: Thank goodness we robots don't have a sense of smell or we would be hurling our guts now.

Me: Well yeah.

Varie: True.

We then saw Chandler.

Laney: Hello Chandler.

Chandler: Scarfy. It's been a long time since we saw each other.

Laney: Both dead and alive. You've been dead for 2 and a half years.

Lincoln: You were a menace to everyone Chandler. Your sister is glad that you are dead.

Chandler: Good. She should be. That little deadbeat doesn't deserve any happiness.

POW!

Lincoln sent him crashing into a wall of cheese.

Lincoln: (Nasally) No one talks about your sister like that.

Nico: (Nasally) Chandler Henderson, you have failed this world.

Me: And more.

Guard: We'll put him in solitary for that remark boss.

Me: Good. Put him in there for a year and a half.

Guard: Yes sir.

They dragged him off.

Lana was eating some of the cheese.

Lana: Boy this cheese is good!

Me: But your breath is gonna smell like rotten socks.

Luan: Cheese Lana, you need a breath mint! (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

We laughed at Luan's joke.

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one Luan!

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one!

Ed: (Laughs) Cheese Jokes are funny.

Me: You better Cheddar believe it! (Laughs to Rimshot)

We laughed some more.

Splash Woman: That was funny.

We later went back home to the estate.

---

We later went to the zoo and we helped out Becca build more animal exhibits and they were awesome. We also helped out in the jungle greenhouse and planted more plants, trees and more. Later we were watching TV and playing card games.

Me: Boy it sure is quiet outside.

Vince: No kidding.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we found out that Tarzan's world is being attacked by an evil gorilla that Tarzan knows named Tublat.

Me: Tublat? Who is he?

Maria: Sounds like someone that Tarzan met ages ago.

Me: Lets find out.

I looked up what he looked like.

Me: He's a Silverback Gorilla like Kerchak. But he looks stronger than him.

I looked up Tublat's history.

---

Tublat is a monstrous gorilla who appears as one of the main antagonists of Disney's animated TV series The Legend of Tarzan. As Kerchak's rival, he aggressively tried to take over control of the family, but was quickly banished. The banishment only worsens his evil, turning him bitter, rage-filled, and, shockingly, carnivorous and willing to kill anyone who crosses his path.

With Tarzan now in charge of Kerchak's family, he seeks to defeat him and assert himself as the leader of the gorillas. Strangely enough, while the books portrayed Kerchak as being the violent and dangerous one, but was made more sympathetic by Disney, using the book's portrayal of Tublat as being benevolent, Disney's version of Tublat suffered the complete opposite (he is changed into a villain using the original version of Kerchak's personality). His strength is extreme, even by gorilla standards.

Tublat's Revenge

A violent and destructive thunderstorm has Tarzan, Jane Porter, and the rest of the gorilla family seeking shelter in nearby caves, but they have chosen the same cave that the banished gorilla Tublat lives in. Tublat first kidnaps Flynt in the hopes of leading Tarzan into a trap, which succeeds. Tarzan is no physical match for Tublat, and after he is defeated in a battle, Tublat proceeds to kidnap Jane, Terk, Kala, Professor Porter, and the rest of the gorilla family. But using his superior cunning, speed, agility, and ingenuity, Tarzan manages to defeat Tublat and rescue the gorillas.

Caged Fury

Niels and Merkus return to the Jungle to mine diamonds. Tarzan agrees to this as long as they stay away from the gorillas. Neils and Merkus are threatened by Tublat, who attempts to eat them, but they capture and plan to make money off him. Tarzan is initially tempted to let them take him due to their past conflict. However, after he talks to Jane about it, he knows that the right thing to do would be to rescue him. So in spite of Terk's similar protests to about their history, he sets out to rescue Tublat with her help, which he does.

Enemy Within

In this episode, Tublat appeared as the leader of the family of a gorilla named Gobu, whom Tarzan had earlier nursed back to health after he found him being attacked by a pack of hyenas. Gobu states that a few months before the events in that episode took place, Tublat killed the family leader and took over control, content to take over another family rather than Kerchak's. He also forced Gobu to gain Tarzan's trust and bring him to him directly under threat of mutilating or killing Gobu's relatives. Relishing the long-awaited opportunity to kill Tarzan, Tublat has his minions pursue him after the ape man escapes and blackmails him into compliance by threatening Terk (who had also traveled to find Gobu and pursue a relationship with him). To save his friend Tarzan, concedes to allow Tublat to have his way with him. Eagerly intending to do so, Tublat is intercepted by Gobu himself.

Emboldened by Tarzan's earlier speech towards him, Gobu openly speaks out against Tublat, claiming he is dependent on the family to secure his victory over Tarzan. Seething with rage, Tublat attacks Gobu with lethal intentions for his defiance, stating maliciously that he has outlived his usefulness. After beating aside the intervening Tarzan, Tublat grabs Gobu in a bear hug to crush him to death. Gobu cries out to his family encouraging them to stand together and face Tublat and that they are stronger than him together. Inspired and bolstered by his words, the family turns on Tublat and overpowers him. Driven off, Tublat lets out a roar of anger before fleeing. With he and his family now free from Tublat's reign of terror, Gobu steps up to lead them.

* * *

We gasped in horror!

Me: Tublat is a monster! I can't believe he's that brutal towards all gorillas!

Lana: He's a gorilla that rules with fear!

Naruto: He's like Gato but in Gorilla form.

Me: Nice way to put it bro. But we got to put down this Gorilla for good. Lets go!

We were off to the Deep Jungle.

* * *

DEEP JUNGLE - World of Tarzan 1999

* * *

We arrived in the Deep Jungle and we saw Tarzan's family under attack by Tublat. Tarzan had a spear ready and Jane had her Jungle King Keyblade ready and they were ready to fight. A massive fiery explosion appeared and a phoenix cry was heard and we appeared and we landed by Tarzan and Jane and the family.

Me: Looks like we got here just in time.

Tarzan: You sure did J.D. We owe you one.

Sora: Thought you could use some help.

Tublat: So you are the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Goliath: You and I sound the same. Our voices are totally identical.

Tublat: (to Goliath) We may sound alike. But your attachment to humans has made you soft. I don't have that weakness.

Breach: You only rule with fear and that is not something the leader of a gorilla family does!

Kerchak: That's right Tublat. That's why we kicked you out of our family. You are not worthy of the title of leader.

Me: That's right!

Jane: (British Accent) You are a monster Tublat!

?: You have more things to worry about.

Me: Dark Spicer. Why am I not surprised.

We saw him.

Dark Spicer (to Tarzan): Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Tarzan: We'll see about that.

Kerchak: Is he another enemy?

Me: Unfortunately yes. But he's really incompetent.

Dark Spicer: And I have new forms to show you.

Dark Spicer than turned into a Galvan Mutant. He looked like a

Galvan but he was purple and he had 9 antennae.

Anti Matter: Say hello to Anti Matter!

Ben: You're picking a Galvan form? This'll be easy.

Anti Matter: (chuckles) You shouldn't underestimate the little guys. (takes out a ray gun and fires a thin beam of energy at Breach)

But her powers made the beams go somewhere else and they hit the ground behind him and he was dancing.

Me: Nice dance Dark Spicer. You know who else dances like that?

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed.

Shanan: That's a mutant Galvan. But he's uglier than what we know.

Dark Spicer: Now try this.

Dark Spicer turned into a mutant Tetramand. He looked like a dark purple Tetramand but he had red splotches and he had spiked arms.

Menace Arms: You've met my brains! Now, meet my brawn!

Kevin Levin: You're got a Four Arms form too?!

Menace Arms: Four Arms? I prefer… Menace Arms! (jumps up before doing a falling punch with two of his fists towards Karai)

But Karai dodged his attack and kicked him in the face and jumped back.

I punched Dark Spicer in the face and knocked him down and he was knocked out.

Me: Now to teach this rogue baboon a lesson in humility.

Optimus Primal: With pleasure. Optimus Primal! MAXIMIZE!

Optimus Primal transformed.

Noah Carver: Let's run circles around this damn dirty ape!

Megaforce Ranger: Legendary Ranger Mode: Race Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Japanese version of the Turbo Rangers.

Kim: Time to fight Monkey With Monkey! Xuppu! Showtime!

Kim turned into King Monkey!

Me: Lets see how he likes the Wolf! Kibal! Lets Howl!

I turned into Wolf Moon!

Lily: Owla! Spread my wings!

Lily turned into Night Owl!

Lily: Lets bring this bad link of our evolution down!

Aurore: I'm way ahead of you Lily! Feel the Power of The Storm!

Aurore turned into Stormy Weather.

Me: Lets get him!

We went at Tublat and I kicked him in the face and slashed him with my Wolf Fire Scythe and burned him with a blue fire blade. Aurore fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted Tublat all over. Kairi and Sora slashed him with their keyblades and boy did it hurt. Nico punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach. Tublat and Nico then locked hands and they roared ferociously!

RRRROOOOOOOAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRRRRR!

Tublat: You're really good for a human punk.

Nico: I'm actually a Saiyan.

Tublat: What is a Saiyan?

Nico: We are a race of warriors from the planet Sadala and we live for the fight!

Nico kneed him in the face and kicked him in the chest and kicked him in the stomach.

Nico: Tublat, you have failed all of this world!

Me: And more!

Luan: This monkey is one that goes Ape! (Laughs) Get it? But seriously he is a monster!

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one Luan!

Lensay: Yay! Mommy!

Me: That was amusing.

King Monkey bashed Tublat all over with his staff and it packed a wallop. The Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over with their weapons and they hurt him all over. The Gorillas threw fruit and rocks at him and they splat and hurt him. Splash Woman fired her Laser Trident at Tublat and it hit him all over and exploded.

Me: Time to finish this overgrown monkey!

Ben: Right!

Ben turned into Stinkfly.

Ben: STINKFLY!

Stinkfly fired a powerful wave of stinky goo and Teresa fired a powerful blast of Sonic waves.

Stinkfly and Teresa: STINKY SONIC MEGAFLOOD!

The blasts combined and turned into a deadly blast of stinky sonic slime and it hit hit Tublat and exploded all over. It smelled horrible.

Ben then turned into Ripjaws!

Ben: RIPJAWS!

Maria formed a slide of pure water that went at Tublat and Ripjaws was sliding on it.

Ripjaws and Maria: WATERSLIDE SUPER CHOMP!

Ripjaws bit Tublat and he screamed in pure pain and it really hurt. Ripjaws jaw strength was like that of 100 bear traps.

Fire Man: Time for him to burn! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and it enhanced his Fire Storm 100-fold.

Wildrider: Time for some action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his Right Arm and it enhanced his Scattershot laser gun 100-fold.

Fire Man and Wildrider: LASER FIRESTORM MEGABLAST!

Fire Man fired a massive blast of fire and Wildrider fired a massive barrage of lasers and they hit Tublat and exploded all over.

Smokescreen: Time for some action.

Smokescreen turned into his Transformers Armada form.

Smokescreen: CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into his crane and it turned it into a powerful cannon!

Wolverine: Time for me to slice him! AVENGERS CYBER KEY POWER!

The Avengers Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and his claws grew out of his knuckles and they were now as long as katanas.

Smokescreen and Wolverine: SLASH CANNON STRIKE!

Wolverine slashed Tublat all over and Smokescreen blasted him all over and it hurt.

Me: Time to finish you Tublat!

Tarzan: You got it! SPEARDANCE MEGASPIN SLASH!

Tarzan slashed Tublat all over with his spear while spinning like a top.

Jane: You are not welcome in the world of Gorillas! JUNGLE POWER STRIKE!

Jane's Keyblade glowed and she slashed Tublat all over with incredible fury.

Magma Man: Feel the burn of this! VOLCANIC MAGMA BLAST!

Magma Man fired a powerful blast of lava and it covered Tublat and burned him all over.

Search Man: Time for some action! HOMING MISSILE STRIKE!

Search Man fired his Homing Sniper and it hit Tublat and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Tublat was defeated and knocked down.

We turned to Dark Spicer and he got up.

Tarzan: Leave, Dark Spicer. Unless you want to share Tublat's fate.

Dark Spicer: Fine. But this isn't over! (turns into Dirtdrive and escapes)

Me: He'll be back. But we'll be ready for him.

Syd Chang: This gorilla gives all gorillas everywhere a really bad name!

Me: I have just the place for him to be right at him.

I opened a portal that lead to the dark planet where we banished Lady Tremaine and Drizella and we threw him in and it closed.

Tarzan: (To the viewers) Not even the laws of the jungle are nice to any gorilla that goes bad.

Me: No they aren't.

Tarzan: Thanks for helping us guys.

Me: Anytime Tarzan.

Search Man: It was good to be fighting alongside my long lost brethren.

Concrete Man: Same here Search Man.

Me: Now we have all of the Robot Masters turned good fighting with us and we have an awesome army.

Everyone: YEAH!

Nico: Yeah!

We went back to Earth and we decided to form a new branch team for Team Loud Phoenix Storm for Mega Man and the Robots.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and the first villain of the Legend of Tarzan complete.

Tublat was one tough gorilla and he was a nasty one with a rotten temper. All he wanted to do was rule with fear. Keith David did a great job voicing him. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. The next Legend of Tarzan Villain down the road is the Rogue Elephant Mabaya! He is gonna be one dangerous elephant of sheer brute force. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the Powerpunk Girls and we're gonna be in for one dangerous fight when we face the evil parallel universe counterparts of the Powerpuff Girls. These villains were only in the Powerpuff Girls Comics.

See you all tomorrow.

A World Ruled by Evil Powerpuffs

On another planet Earth located 14,238 light-years away from our planet Earth, something major was going on. But this wasn't just any planet Earth. It was a planet Earth completely in the grip of evil. It was a parallel universe world where Lawlessness is the law. It was under the evil rule of the ruthless and brutal Powerpunk Girls, the evil parallel universe counterparts of the Powerpuff Girls. They were the rulers of Townsvilles wartorn counterpart city: Viletown!

---

The Powerpunk Girls are evil, spoiled, selfish, vicious, sadistic villains and love to bring destruction to their hometown of Viletown, as well as killing it's civilians (offscreen, however). Their negative traits outweighs the Powerpuff Girls' good side, and they never change their ways. According to Jomo Momo (Mojo Jojo's good counterpart), Viletown used to be a normal city until Oppressor Plutonium (Professor Utonium's evil counterpart) ruled it with an iron fist. But to bring "fun" and "profit", Oppressor created the Powerpunk Girls to act as his tools to terrorize Viletown, and the three girls love nothing more then to bring terror and destruction to those around them. They were supposed to appear in an episode, but due to the creator's time to make the Powerpuff Girls Movie, the episode has to be scrapped, and was then put into one of the comic issues.

The Powerpunk Girls only appear in Deja View, where they and their good counterparts swapped each other to their respective universes. They were mad at Professor Utonium entering "their" room, not even knowing that they were in another universe, until a monster attacks Townsville. They took care of it before destroying Townsville the same way they do in Viletown, even killing it's civilians. When the Powerpuff Girls have to go back to their universe to take their evil counterparts back into their respective universe, a battle ensues between the Puffs and the Punks, where the Powerpunk Girls got the upperhand due to them being stronger then the Powerpuff Girls, despite the six of them being the same person. They were, however, defeated when they were tricked into going back to their universe.

Before they could terrorize Viletown yet again, Jomo appeared in front of them with a ray gun, ready to fire. Whether or not the Powerpunk Girls died afterwards or continue their rampage to Viletown is unknown.

There were also rumors that if the show were to be renewed, there would be an episode where the Powerpunk Girls would somehow arrive back to the Powerpuff Girls' universe, where they would meet and fall in love with The Rowdyruff Boys, which would bring jealousy to the girls. The rumors, however, are completely false, as there is no way for the Powerpunks to go back to their counterparts' universe, as well as their possible ultimate fate in the comic, and not to mention the Rowdyruff Boys and the Powerpuff Girls' unending hatred towards each other.

Berserk

Berserk is Blossom's counterpart. Unlike Blossom, Berserk is bossy, mean, and always talkative. While Blossom is a "parent" to her sisters, Berserk would often cause conflicts between herself and her sisters. Her ribbons are long and messy, and it is rumored that she can move them to attack or grab her foes, though it is unconfirmed. Her element is Everything Nasty.

Brat

Brat is Bubbles' counterpart and has a perky and somewhat sadistic attitude. She looks exactly like her good counterpart, except her pigtails are much longer, have visible ribbons, and wears revealing clothing with three bracelets on each wrists. While Bubbles cries, Brat doesn't. Like her name suggests, she acts like a spoiled brat and enjoys acting very sassy. Her element is Salt.

Brute

Brute is Buttercup's counterpart. She has the same personality as her, but she is meaner, more disgusting and more violent. She is the only Powerpunk Girl who doesn't have long hair, and instead sports a black mohawk. Unlike her regular counterpart, Brute enjoys being rude, cruel, and gross towards everyone around her (even her sisters). She sports spiked wristbands and a spike waistband, which are real spikes. Her element is Vinegar.

---

The Powerpunk Girls were fighting their arch nemesis Jomo Momo and he was the good version of the villain that we know: Mojo Jojo.

---

Jomo Momo is the arch-enemy of The Powerpunk Girls in a parrel world. He is the equivalent of Mojo Jojo and, unlike Mojo, is actually the hero in that universe while the Powerpunks are bad.

Like Mojo, he has a large brain with a helmet and creates machines, though for the good of mankind rather than for its destruction.

Jomo has yellow skin, black fur, orange eyes, a large, overly exposed brain under his helmet, which has straight green stripes, light greenish gloves and boots, an orange necklace with the letter J on it, a light greenish belt with a diamond on it.

Somehow Jomo's legs are furless but in the rest of the series they are covered with a thick layer of hairy black fur.

He speaks with a western Japanese accent and somehow he also has long lasting sentences just like Mojo, but the only thing different is that Mojo lives in a laboratory built on an active volcano in Townsville and Jomo lives in a laboratory just like Mojo, but his laboratory is built on a mountainous, dormant volcano in the middle of Viletown.

---

Jomo Momo had just killed the Powerpunk Girls creator Oppressor Plutonium, the evil counterpart of Professor Utonium. He was hiding. But not for long. He was just found.

Berserk: Jomo! Did you really think you could hide from our super hearing?

Brat: You're in so much trouble now!

Brute: You're gonna pay for killing the Professor, asshole! That's a promise!

Jomo: (determined) (Japanese Accent) I've got a promise of my own. I'm going to finish the job my friends started. Starting now! (teleports away)

Berserk: He'll be back. But we'll kill him.

---

In the middle of Space, the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the voids of Space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2782.3: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is heading back home to Earth after blowing up a massive colony of evil aliens in Beta Quadrant. We are heading home under full impulse power. I'm pleased to report that ship and crew have functioned well.

Laney: Boy that was something.

Lincoln: It sure was. I can't believe that those aliens were that dangerous.

Nico: But nonetheless, they won't be bothering anyone ever again.

Then the ship alarm went off.

Computer: INTRUDER ALERT! INTRUDER ALERT!

Me: Uh oh!

Jomo Momo then suddenly appeared in our cargo bay.

Nitro Man: Mojo Jojo! What are you doing here?

Jomo: No need to make a scene. I want you to contact Team Loud Phoenix Storm for me.

Nitro Man: Or else?

Jomo: Oh, I don't know. I'll destroy the world? Is that sufficient?

We came down and we saw him.

Me: Mojo Jojo!

Lincoln: Wait! There's something different about him.

Nico: You're from another universe, aren't you?

Jomo: How did you know?

Scarlet Witch: For starters, your appearance is different. And you seem to be talking normally.

Demolisher: How do we know this isn't a trick?

Maria: Because the Mojo Jojo we all know and hate is in the Moon Prison.

Me: That's right.

We went to the bridge and he told us about what has been going on.

Me: So you're from a parallel Earth that's in the grip of terror from the evil Powerpunk Girls?

Jomo: That's right. I came to find you so we can put an end to the Powerpunk Girls for good and free the city so that we can start protecting it. Unlike your version of myself that you put in prison, I am a hero that wants to further benefit humanity and help everyone.

Me: So it's the exact opposite of everything we know.

Nico: That's amazing.

Me: What were the Powerpunk Girls made with?

Lola: Were they made with Sugar, Spice and Everything nice too?

Jomo: No. Something worse. They were made with Salt, Vinegar and Everything Nasty.

Everyone: EW!

Lincoln: YUCK!

Stella (Loud House): These girls sound like they are really dangerous.

Lincoln: Wait. I have a comic about the Powerpuff Girls where they go to a parallel universe and fight them. Wait here.

Lincoln went to his quarters and he came back later with a comic about the Powerpuff Girls called Deja View.

Lincoln: Here it is.

Lincoln handed it to me and the comic showed the Powerpuff Girls seeing the Powerpunk Girls in the mirror.

Me: I remember this comic. It was awesome!

Lana: That is cool.

Lola: I didn't know there was a villain like them.

Me: No kidding. Bad to the bone bitches.

The Powerpunk Girls were causing all kinds of chaos and mayhem and more and they were tearing the City of Townsville apart and more.

Me: Geez I would not want to have these girls roaming about. The Rowdyruff Boys were plenty.

Windcharger: Don't good versions of the other Townsville villains exist as well? If so, are they even stil alive?

Jomo: They are. We are an underground hero organization that is trying to find ways to destroy the Powerpunk Girls. I already killed Oppressor Plutonium.

Me: I take it he was the evil version of Professor Utonium.

Jomo: That is correct.

Fuzzy: It's just like old times! Except these are bad Powerpuff Girls!

Me: Yep. Really bad Powerpuff Girls. Set course for Jomo's world.

Lana: Aye sir!

We were off to the world of the Powerpunk Girls.

Me: Captain's log, Stardate 2783.1: We had just received word that another Earth located 14,000 light-years from our Earth is under tyrannical rule by the ruthless Powerpunk Girls, Parallel Universe counterparts of the Powerpuff Girls and instead of Fighting Crime, they cause it and they have enslaved the entire city of their Townsville and turned it into Vileville. Our mission is to kill the Powerpunk Girls.

Ronnie Anne: Boy I can't believe these girls are that dangerous.

Nico: They give the Powerpuff Girls a really bad name.

Me: I agree. Normally we aren't supposed to kill kids. But in this case, we'll make an exception.

Bunny (Adult): These girls are monsters and disgraces to us.

Qin: I agree. Bunny, I heard from J.D. that you only lived 1 day.

Bunny (Adult): I did. That was a dark day for my sisters.

Me: That was one of the darkest days in their careers.

I went over what happened during the events of Twisted Sister.

Qin: So the girls were overworked and wanted some help?

Me: Yeah and they decided to try and duplicate the process they were born with.

Syd Chang: How did they do that?

Me: They used Artificial Sweetener, Dirt and Twigs and unusual things for everything nice.

Qin: That's not a very good combination.

Bunny (Adult): Yeah but it went south very fast. I misunderstood what the girls meant by locking up the bad guys and keeping the city safe. I mistook the cops as the bad guys and put the cops in the jails and released the bad guys. But in the end, when I heard my sisters in trouble, I beat up the bad guys. But in the end I exploded because of my unstable structure and died.

Qin gasped.

Me: That was a devastating day for the Powerpuff Girls. Bunny was only a few hours old.

Laney: It was awful for them. But 12 years later, the heavens smiled on them and brought the Adult and Little versions of the Powerpuff Girls Bunny back the right way and they were reunited with them.

Me: Oh yeah. I remember that. It was a great day for them.

Nico: That is amazing.

Splash Woman: It's good that they are reunited.

Concrete Man: You said it.

Tornado Man: I'm glad they're reunited.

Magma Man: Me too.

Chill Man: What happened that day must've been really awful.

Me: Yeah.

Lisa: Captain, we appeared to have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

On the screen we saw another Planet Earth located at 14,238 light-years away from our Earth. What we saw on it was terrible and can only be described as a scene of absolute terror. The major cities were totally on fire and burning with intense flames and they were totally burning.

Me: Whoa! This is worse than we thought.

Nico: This is terrible!

Me: Engage cloaking device so we won't be seen.

The ship went completely invisible.

Me: Looks like we got here just in time.

Jomo: We sure did. I know where the Powerpunk Girls hideout is. We can blow that up first before we fight the Powerpunk Girls.

Me: Okay.

I pulled up a holographic map of the Earth we were at.

Me: Lets see. According to the comic, It's located in a forest outside of the city. 100 miles outside to be precise. We can blow it up with the Superlaser.

Jomo: Good idea.

Me: Thanks. Maria, Fu, charge up Superlaser.

Maria: Right!

Fu: Commence Primary Ignition.

Fu pressed some buttons and pulled a lever and Maria pressed more buttons.

Me: Fire!

The Superlaser fired and it hit the hideout and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion completely obliterated the whole hideout in an instant. There was nothing left of it.

Me: BINGO! Now to send a video message!

On the planet, the Powerpunk Girls saw their hideout completely destroyed!

Berserk: OUR HIDEOUT!

Brat: IT'S GONE!

Brute: WHOEVER DID THIS WILL DIE!

Me: (On the P.A. System) Attention Powerpunk Girls. Attention. This is Team Loud Phoenix Storm. The destruction of your precious hideout today was only a small sample of our destructive power. You will pay for the senseless spree of crimes that you have committed and you will die just like Oppressor Plutonium. We will free the city of Townsville from your wrath and return everything that you took away from these people. We're coming for you Powerpunks. You will pay for your crimes.

The people of Townsville cheered wildly as they knew that they were gonna be freed!

Berserk: SHUT YOUR FUCKING TRAPS!

Brat: YEAH!

Just then from out of nowhere, we swooped in and then…

BLAM!

We punched them in their faces and they went crashing into a building and it fell on top of them.

CRRAAAAAASSSSSSHHHHH!

Me: That must've hurt.

But then the Powerpunk Girls exploded out of the rubble. They came to us.

Me: Powerpunk Girls. So we meet at last. Now it'll be the last time.

Berserk: So you are the ones that Jomo sent to get.

Me: That's right. You will pay for your crimes.

Buttercup (Adult): We're ashamed to call you our counterparts!

Brute: Oh please! You've all killed people as well. But you also waste your power on pointless heroics!

Bubbles (Adult): What are you planning to do, talk us to death?

Brat: Actually… we thought we'd beat you to death!

Blossom: If we're really alike, you know this is wrong. You must have been good people once.

Berserk: No. Not good. Never good. After all, we're only human.

Me: That may be true, but you are still gonna pay for your crimes. Now die!

Troy Burrows: Time to bring hope to this world!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitz Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Changeman Rangers from 1985.

Venom: (grabs Brute by the throat) Eyes. Lungs. Pancreas. So many snacks. So little time.

Venom threw Brute into another building and crashed into it.

Me: Get them!

We attacked and I punched Berserk in the face and set her flying and we were mercilessly thrashing the Powerpunk Girls. Nico punched Brat in the face and kicked her in the stomach and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted her. Laney fired a powerful bunch of barbs laced with Strychnine Ω and it poisoned her and killed her.

Berserk: BRAT! (ENRAGED ROAR)!

Berserk went at me and I punched her in the face and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned her all over. Splash Woman fired a powerful laser blast from her Laser Trident and Concrete Man encased her in concrete leaving her head exposed and Magma Man fired his Magma Bazooza and covered her in lava and burned her. The Megaforce Power Rangers used the powers of the Dragon, Phoenix, Gryphon, Pegasus, Mermaid and Elf blew them away with powerful elemental energies and the Mystic Force Rangers used their magic and blasted them with magic powers.

Lynn and Luan fired blasts of lava and light and burned Berserk all over.

Me: Time for some epic teamwork!

Ben: You got it J.D.!

Bella: Let me help out too.

Bella turned into Ultimate Bella and activated Buzzshocks powers.

Bella: BUZZSHOCK!

Ben turned into Upgrade!

Ben: UPGRADE!

Upgrade was ready.

Upgrade: Ready Elena?

Elena Validus: You know I am Ben.

Upgrade merged with Elena and Elena now had an awesome Galvanic Mechamorph style body suit and she had awesome powers with the help of Upgrade.

Bella: Whoa! That is awesome!

Me: It must be because of the alien microchips that Elena has in her.

Rex: That's exactly what happened to me when Ben merged with me.

Me: That's right. Because you're an E.V.O. you and Ben made an awesome team.

Rex: We sure did.

Upgrade: Ready Elena?

Elena Validus: You know I am Ben.

Elena then formed a powerful enhanced sword of energy and it was more powerful than ever.

Me: Whoa! That is so awesome!

Upgrade, Bella, and Elena Validus: LIGHTNING GALVIN SWORD SUPERSLASH!

Bella fired a powerful blast of lightning and Upgrade-Elena slashed Berserk with a deadly blade and it electrocuted and cut Berserk all over.

Upgrade separated from her.

Upgrade: Wow! That was intense!

Bella: That was awesome!

Elena V.: It sure was Ben.

Upgrade: Lets use our own combo on her now.

Elena V.: Lets do it!

Elena formed a powerful megablaster and Upgrade had his powers ready.

Upgrade and Elena Validus: UPGRADING MEGALASER SUPERBLAST!

They fired powerful lasers and they hit Berserk and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa! What power!

Nico: That was awesome!

Bella: Let me shock them a bit. SHOCKSQUATCH!

Bella activated Shocksquatch's lightning powers.

She fired a powerful blast of lightning at Berserk and electrocuted her.

Upgrade: Lets see how she likes this.

Ben turned into Ghostfreak.

Ben: GHOSTFREAK!

Ben fired a powerful dark blue blast of energy at her from his hands and it hit Berserk and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Ghostfreak then flew up to her.

Ghostfreak: I just figured out there's something I'm even more afraid of than you.

Ghostfreak punched her in the face and bashed her in the stomach and fired another blast of energy. It hit her and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Ghostfreak: Taking everyone in this whole away from all of life as you instill fear and bloodshed to everyone. In other words…

Ghostfreak punched her in the face with devastating force and sent her crashing into the wall of a building.

Ghostfreak: You're going down freak.

Venom: Lets take her down together.

Venom fired a powerful Symbiote Goo blast and Ghostfreak fired a powerful blast of blue energy.

Ghostfreak and Venom: ECTO-VENOM MEGABLAST!

The blasts combined and it hit her and exploded all over.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Yeah!

Berserk was knocked down.

Me: Time for some Cyber Key power.

Nitro Man: You got it J.D. VELOCITRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and it enhanced his Wheel Spike 100-fold.

Demolisher: Time for some pain and smash! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Decepticon Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it caused 5 more blasters to pop out and it turned his fingers into blasters as well.

Nitro Man and Demolisher: LASER SUPERWHEEL BURNOUT!

Nitro Man fired a spike wheel and Demolisher fired numerous lasers and they hit Brat all over and exploded.

Scarlet Witch: Time for some magic! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her magic and powers 100-fold.

Windcharger: Time for action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his magnetic field generator 100-fold.

Scarlet Witch and Windcharger: MAGICAL MAGNETIC CRUSH!

Scarlet Witch and Windcharger fired blasts of magnetic energy and they hit Brat and attracted deadly metallic objects and slammed into her and smashed her all over.

Me: Lets see how she likes this! Sonar, Runway, Jetstorm!

Sonar: Lets do it!

The Air Minicon team formed into the Star Saber!

Me: I haven't used the Star Saber in a long time.

I jumped and slashed Brat and cleaved her in half right down the middle. Killing her.

Berserk: BRAT!

Me: Lets finish this freak off for good!

Blossom (Adult): Right! Girls! MEGABLAST SUPERSLAM!

Blossom, Bubbles, Buttercup and Bunny fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit Berserk and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa! What power!

Jomo: This is for all the pain you caused to our town! BANANA BOMB SUPERBOMB!

Jomo threw a powerful banana bomb and it hit Berserk and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Mega Man: This is for all the pain you've caused to everyone here!

Mega Man, Roll and the Robot Masters: SUPER ROBOT MEGABLAST!

Mega Man, Roll and the Robot Masters fired all of their powerful attacks and they combined into a deadly megablast and it hit

Berserk and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now to finish you for good Berserk! You three have ruined the Powerpuff Girls reputation for the last time!

Steven Universe: I agree! Garnet, Amethyst, Pearl, lets fuse into Obsidian.

Garnet: Right Steven.

Amethyst: I'm in.

Pearl: Lets do it!

They danced and then they formed into Obsidian!

Obsidian is a massive fusion with eight arms, glowing orange eyes, gray skin, and slightly curly charcoal-black hair that reaches their knees. The skin and hair have bright orange markings, which appear to be lava. They have plump lips, and their knee caps are diamond-shaped. Steven's clothes can be seen on one of Obsidian's hands, a reference to where Steven's laundry is hanged in the Crystal Temple.

They also flaunt a mask (that features a nose similar to that of Pearl and plump lips similar to Garnet and Amethyst's), which opens up to a third mouth. The third mouth is filled with lava that Obsidian uses to forge their sword.

Their appearance greatly resembles that of the Crystal Temple's statue figure.

All the components' gemstones appear solid black.

Me: Whoa! So that's Obsidian! She looks awesome!

Lori: She's literally huge!

Nicole: Wow! So that's how they represent volcanic glass.

Lincoln: That… Is… AWESOME!

Cuprosklodoskite: She's awesome Lincoln.

Obsidian then formed a powerful broadsword. It was a black hilt with a red hot lava blade that had runes on it.

Me: Lets finish her together Obsidian!

Obsidian: (In Steven, Pearl, Garnet and Amethyst's Voices in Unison) Lets!

We went at Berserk as she was getting up and she was too weak to attack or get away.

Obsidian: YOUR REIGN OF TERROR ON THIS WORLD IS OVER!

Me: NOW YOU WILL RULE IN HELL!

Me and Obsidian: VOLCANIC SOLAR FLARE SUPERSLASH!

Me and Obsidian slashed Berserk at the same time with our swords and cleaved her in half.

Then Berserk, Brat and Brute had lights explode out of them.

Me: Uh oh!

I formed a force field around us and then they exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful and so devastating that it completely destroyed the entire city in a massive fiery blast. When the explosion faded, the entire city was completely destroyed in an instant and it was gone.

Me: Whoa! That was intense!

The citizens of Townsville came out and everyone cheered wildly for us.

Citizen 1: We are finally free!

Citizen 2: Thank you all so much.

Me: You're welcome everyone.

Jomo: Thank you, Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Never again will the Powerpunk Girls rule over this world.

Mega Man: You sure you don't want to merge your city with ours?

Jomo: Not yet. I have to do some cleaning up in Viletown. It should take about a week.

Me: Well from the looks of things, it will take a lot longer than that. But if you do need help, you let us know.

Jomo: Will do.

Me: But I think I can help you out.

I snapped my fingers and resurrected everyone that the Powerpunk Girls killed. We shook hands.

We left for our Earth. Team Loud Phoenix Storm had saved the entire city of Townsville on a parallel Earth from a fate worst than death.

Jomo: (To the viewers) Team Loud Phoenix Storm has saved us and you all must never brew evil monsters like the Powerpunk Girls.

Citizen 1: You said it Jomo.

They got to work cleaning up the city and rebuilding it.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another villain of the Powerpuff Girls destroyed.

The Powerpunk Girls of the Comic Book Deja View were by far the most ruthless villains ever introduced. I got the idea when I did a revision of the Powerpuff Girls Villains Hitlist. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the Bulleteers. They were one of the first ever villains that Superman busted. It was a cartoon from 1942. One of the first Superman cartoons ever made.

See you all tomorrow.

Crime Spree of the Bulleteers

In Bikini Bottom, Stupid Squidward Tentacles had gotten out of the Insane Asylum again and he was really infuriated! Qin punched him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and kicked him in the stomach.

POW! BOOF!

She then dealt him a powerful uppercut that sent him crashing into a bunch of garbage cans.

Qin: You are a freak of nature!

Squidward: I DON'T CARE! SPONGEBOB AND PATRICK ARE A COUPLE OF BRAINLESS MORONS!

Qin: The only moron here is you! You are a worthless piece of dung!

Squidward: BECAUSE (Points to SpongeBob and Patrick) THOSE TWO MORONS ARE THE MOST BRAINLESS IDIOTS EVER TO WALK THE SEA FLOOR! AND THIS WHOLE TOWN IS A BUNCH OF IDIOTS! THEY ALL DESERVE TO DIE!

Qin: Why? Because you can't be accepted into society because you have no talent and are nothing more than a worthless loser!? Squilliam is a much better person than you ever will be in 100 lifetimes! You're nothing but a stupid reprobate and an imbecilic talentless freak of nature! As far as I'm concerned, the world is a lot better off without you!

Squidward then growled in a ferocious level of rage! He had some of his own words thrown right back at him!

Qin: This is why everyone hates you Stupid Squidward. You are a worthless and talentless loser and you have tried to get rid of SpongeBob and Patrick in more ways than anyone else can count and you tried to get them killed and more! You should've been thrown in jail instead of the nuthouse! You have no respect for good art and talent! You're a loser!

Squidward then ROARED FEROCIOUSLY! He went at Qin and she punched him in the face with devastating force and knocked out all of his teeth and then she grabbed his nose and ripped it clean off of his face.

CRUNCH!

Squidward: DDOOOOOOOOOOOOWWWWWWW!

POW! BIFF! CRACK! SMASH! BLAM! ZONK! SMACK! WHAM! BLANG! KATOW!

Qin smashed him into a huge pulp and he was taken back to the nuthouse.

Qin: Hmph! What a loser. Next time there will be no mercy.

SpongeBob: Thanks Qin. What a jerk.

Patrick: Squidward is a loser. He doesn't deserve uh… anything.

Qin: No he doesn't.

Mr. Krabs: (Laughs) That's right lass.

---

Later at the estate we were at the dinner table. I was in the kitchen cooking up an awesome Louisiana feast. What it was really for was to add new food items to the menu at Lynn's Table.

I had amazing food ready.

Me: Here we are guys. I have quite an assortment for you all.

We had all sorts of food. We had Cajun crawfish, Lamb tagine, Grilled lamb sausage, Zucchini bisque, Crabmeat po'boy, Chicken sausage po'boy, Crawfish sausage po'boy, Cochon de lait po'boy, Turkey giardiniera po'boy, Roast beef po'boy, Alligator po'boy, Catfish amandine, Crawfish amandine, Crawfish étouffée, Boiled crawfish, Cajun shrimp, Duck pasta, Fried crab cake, Pecan catfish, Blackened redfish, Seafood mirliton casserole, Fried chicken, Fried green tomatoes, Stuffed shrimp, Muffuletta, Barbecue brisket sandwich, Barbecue chicken sandwich, Smoky bacon greens, Seafood au gratin, Seafood gumbo, Frogs' legs, Chicken gumbo, Jambalaya, Spinach artichoke, Creole sweet potato pone, Red beans and rice with sausage, Veggie red beans and rice, Pralines in cookies, Oyster pralines, Oyster shots, Oyster patties, Bananas Foster, King cake, Dixie cake, Pecan pie, Cajun boudin, Boudin balls, Crawfish rémoulade, Shrimp and lump crabmeat ravigote, Au croissant crawfish po'boy and Yaka mein.

Maria: That's a lot of food!

Nico: Wow! I love Louisiana food.

Laney: Me too. It's so delicious.

Lana: It's awesome!

Lola: It's really good! I love the Lamb Sausage.

Homer: I love all this food. I tried it all when I was in New Orleans a while back.

Lincoln: It's really good food Homer. You practically eat anything nowadays.

Homer: (Laughs) Yep that's true.

We laughed.

Mantaman: Is it true that you guys went to Woody and Buzz's world?

Me: We sure did. It was awesome seeing the world of Toy Story.

Freeze Man: We actually became toy sized in that world.

Laney: Yeah. It was so cool!

I went over what happened during the events of Phoenix's in Toyland. Everyone that didn't hear about it were amazed and shocked.

Qin: Whoa! That's awesome!

Woody: When we got to Galaxy Toys, Lotso and Stinky Pete used their Dark Orb to summon Heartless that took control of the majority of the toys in the store.

Me: Yeah. That was intense.

Long Haul: I remember that Scrapper helped Xion beat the Heartless Possessed Doll. And that we also found some Gigas Mechs.

Buzz: Surprisingly, it wasn't me or Woody who killed Lotso and Stnky Pete.

Armada Hoist: It was Ironhide who did it with his cannons in that world.

Ironhide: Got that right!

Me: I remember that. That was awesome!

Nico: It sure was.

We had really good food and it was all added to the menu of Lynn's Table.

---

Later that night while everyone was asleep, a mysterious bullet-shaped rocket car slammed through the police station of Gotham Royal York and it caused it to explode into fiery rubble.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

Luckily no one was inside it.

We got word about this the following morning.

Me: A bullet car destroyed the entire Police Building!?

Laney: Whoa!

Lana: That's weird.

But then we heard an announcement.

Man: ATTENTION ALL OF GOTHAM ROYAL YORK! ATTENTION! THE DESTRUCTION OF YOUR POLICE STATION TODAY WAS ONLY A SMALL DEMONSTRATION OF OUR POWER. UNLESS YOUR MAYOR HANDS OVER THE FUNDS TO THE ENTIRE CITY TREASURY, POWER PLANTS, FIRE HOUSES AND ALL MUNICIPAL BUILDINGS WILL BE NEXT. TAKE HEED, THIS IS YOUR LAST WARNING.

Superman: I know that voice. This is the leader of the Bulleteers.

We gasped.

Me: The Bulleteers!? That nefarious gang that holds cities for ransom and destroys everything in their path if they don't get their way? But you busted them years ago didn't you Kal?

Superman: I did J.D. but that was a long time ago.

Vince: I've heard about the Bulleteers and they are bad guys that I had been trying to stop for years. They escaped from prison just before I moved here and I have been trying to send them back to prison ever since.

Me: Looks like you're gonna get your shot again partner. We'll help you out with this.

Lois Lane: We better stop them.

Eddy: I have an idea on how we can stop them.

Eddy pulled out a laundry bag and in it was a lot of money but with Ed's face on the bills.

Eddy: So, the Bulleteers want ransom money, huh? (smirks) Oh, they'll get ransom money, all right. But not the usual kind!

Me: Wow! Where'd you get all that money Eddy?

Eddy: Oh this isn't real money. It was money Ed made when I was going through an episode from lack of kids to scam.

Ed: I drew it myself.

Me: Very genius Ed. Normally it's a federal offense to do counterfeiting. But this just might work. I have a plan.

We huddled around and I revealed the plan. It was to have me disguised as a thief wearing a trench coat while having my face hidden and dressed as the famous whistleblower Deep-Throat and have the money in the bag at the headquarters and then we attack them in an ambush style raid. I relayed my plan to Mayor Davis and we put our plan into action. The lair of the Bulleteers was located in a lone mountain on the outskirts of the city. It was looking down onto the city.

9:00 PM - Bulleteers Lair.

I was in my disguise and I had the "Money" with me in the laundry bag.

Me: (Whispers) This is it. I better disguise my voice with a falsetto. (Clears throat) (Deep voice) Bulleteers, I have your money! It's the whole treasury fund!

The lair door opened and out came the Bulleteers.

Bulleteer Leader: Excellent. Come inside.

I went in with them and everyone followed while they were invisible thanks to a spell from Harry Potter.

Bulleteer Leader: Lets make sure it's the right stuff.

I waited and he opened the case and he saw that it was fake money.

Bulleteer Leader: (sees the Ed Bucks) What the Hell is this?!

Me: You've all been duped!

I threw off my disguise and revealed myself!

Bulleteer member: J.D. Knudson!

Eddy: (laughs) You wanted ransom money. So, you got it! In the form of Ed Bucks! Good luck finding a way to spend it!

Everyone came down.

Bulleteer Leader: So all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm is here. I must admit that was very impressive fooling us like that.

Nico: It was genius.

Vince: And now I'm going to stop you guys!

Bulleteer Leader: Vince Pusateri! You're with Team Loud Phoenix Storm now!?

Vince: Joined 2 and a half years ago.

Lily: You assholes better say your prayers! Owla! Spread My Wings!

Lily turned into Night Owl!

Troy: Time to show these guys a force from Space!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: In Space!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Space Rangers.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at the Bulleteers and I punched the leader in the face and he pulled out a gun and I pulled out my gun and we fired at each other and it turned into an epic firefight!

Nico: You Bulleteers have failed this city!

Nico punched the two members in their stomachs and kicked their faces in and knocked out some of their teeth and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted them. I called forth my purple V-Lancer and I had it in blaster mode and I fired purple laser blasts and they hit the Lead Bulleteer and exploded all over and I punched him in the face and the Megaforce Rangers kicked and blasted the Bulleteers all over the place.

Me: I haven't done this in a while! MAGMA BAZOOKA!

My left arm device formed a powerful bazooka that fires Magma Man's Lava Blaster.

Me: GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into my Left Arm Device and it enhanced the Magma Bazooka 100-fold.

Me: VOLCANIC BAZOOKA MEGABLAST!

I fired a massive ray of lava and the Lead Bulleteer dodged it and the blast hit the wall and exploded in a massive fiery blast.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lola: Whoa! That was awesome!

Sam S.L.: And powerful!

Qin: No kidding!

Magma Man: Well done J.D. Awesome job!

Me: Thanks Magma Man. It was cool using your Magma Bazooka. But how about this as well to go with it? AUTOBOT CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into my right arm device and I got Cybertron Scattershot's Missile arms and cannons and I also got Cybertron Red Alert's Enhanced Plasma Cannon and Cybertron Hot Shot's Missile Shoulder Launchers.

Nico and the others had tied up the other two Bulleteers.

Nico: Whoa! J.D. that is so awesome!

Lana: WHOA! That's what I call fully loaded!

Me: Thanks. Watch this. Try all this on for size!

I fired powerful blasts of missiles and lava at the lead Bulleteer and they all hit him all over and the whole mountain exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared, the entire mountain was completely destroyed and it was totally on fire.

The only thing left standing was the bullet car completely intact.

Lincoln: Wow! That was intense!

Laney: Whoa! So that's the bullet car.

Me: Nico, Laney, Lana, Lisa, you go analyze that car and take it back to headquarters while we finish up here.

Nico: Right.

They did so.

Me: Lets get back to the fight. JEWEL SATELLITE!

I had 7 diamonds orbiting around me.

Me: They say that Diamonds are a Girls Best Friend, but they are your worst enemy. Watch this. ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into my Left Arm device and it enhanced the Jewel Satellite 100-fold and turned the diamonds into powerful fast moving hummingbirds.

Me: RAINBOW JEWEL HUMMINGBIRD MEGA SATELLITE!

I fired the Hummingbird Jewel Satellite at the Bulleteer Leader and it cut him up really good with powerful diamonds of each of the 7 colors of the rainbow.

Me: It's times like these I'm glad we killed Dr. Wily. Otherwise we wouldn't have gotten awesome Robot Friends in the former Robot Masters.

Elec Man: Thanks J.D.

Me: Now lets finish these clods off!

Ben: With pleasure!

Ben turned into Cannonbolt!

Ben: CANNONBOLT!

Me: Show them how to Roll with an Arburian Pelarota!

Luna: (Laughs) Good one J.D.

Me: Thanks Luan.

Cannonbolt rolled like a powerful cannonball and Roxas fired a powerful blast of light and darkness from his Keyblades.

Cannonbolt and Roxas: TWILIGHT COMETPUNCH CANNONBALL!

The blasts of light and darkness merged with Cannonbolt and he was turned into a powerful Light and Darkness Comet and he slammed into the Lead Bulleteer with incredible force and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Cannonbolt: Try this on.

Ben turned into Wildvine.

Ben: WILDVINE!

Me: This is gonna be good.

Wildvine: But check this out.

Wildvine activated his ultimate form and we got an awesome surprise. Wildvine grew powerful Venus Fly Trap limbs and his body was covered in many spines and thorns and he was stronger and more powerful than ever.

Ben: ULTIMATE WILDVINE!

Me: Whoa! An Evolved Florauna!

Shanan: Wow! That is so awesome!

Gwen Tennyson: That's a new one. I never saw him before.

Riley: He must be a brand new ultimate form.

Ultimate Wildvine: He's a brand new ultimate alien Riley. Watch what he can do!

Ultimate Wildvine fired powerful jets of super strong sulfuric acid from his Venus Fly Trap mouths and it melted all of the rocks all over and he threw powerful seed grenades and they hit all over and exploded with the power of 8 pounds of C4!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Me: Whoa! What power!

Ben then reverted back to Wildvine.

Wildvine then threw powerful vines and Rubberband Man threw his arms.

Wildvine and Rubberband Man: STRETCHY VINE SMASH!

They smashed the lead Bulleteer all over the place.

Armada Hoist: Lets do it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his Crane and enhanced his strength 100-fold.

Mantaman: Time for some Mantaman Power! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Mantaman's right arm device and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Armada Hoist and Mantaman: SUPER MANTA CRANE PUNCH!

Armada Hoist and Mantaman punched the Lead Bulleteer with devastating force and sent him crashing into the wall.

Long Haul: My turn! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his missile launcher and it enhanced his heat seeking missiles 100-fold.

Freeze Man: Time for him to freeze! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and it enhanced his Freeze Cracker 100-fold.

Long Haul and Freeze Man: FREEZING MISSILE BARRAGE!

They fired powerful freeze blasts and missiles and they merged and they hit the Lead Bulleteer and froze him solid.

Me: Time for some Final Smash power!

Superman: Since I busted these guys before, I'll start us off. LASER VISION SUPERBLAST!

Superman fired a powerful laser vision blast and it thawed the lead Bulleteer out and burned him.

Lois Lane: The Owl of Athena is gonna blow you away! WIND FEATHER SHREDSTORM!

Lois fired a powerful blast of wind flowing with feathers as sharp as razors and they cut the Lead Bulleteer all over and it hurt bad.

Lily Loud: Feel the stars of the Owl! STAR OWL SWORD BLADE!

Lily fired a powerful blade of star energy and it turned into a purple owl and it did a terrifying call and it hit the Lead Bulleteer and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

It knocked him out and we tied them up.

Lois Lane: You all wanted money so bad? Well, now you can spend the rest of your lives in your cell with those Ed Bucks!

Me: Yeah.

Vince: Now you will have 100 years to life to think about it in our space prisons.

We got the Bulleteers sentenced to spend eternity in the Uranus Prison.

Lily Loud: (To the viewers) Not even villains of Superman's past is a match for Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Yep.

We went to Lynn's Table for dinner. The Bullet Car was gonna be put to good use for us later on.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another villain defeated.

The Superman cartoons created by Max Fleischer were so awesome and they were ones that I've known since I was a little kid. The Bulleteers were so cool how they flew that bullet rocket car and it was awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up for the Superman villains is the Mad Scientist, the first villain that Superman busted. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the SpongeBob episode Yeti Krabs and that one is gonna be a flashback chapter. It will show how stupid Stupid Squidward was. I'm gonna be with my friends until tomorrow afternoon so I'm gonna work on it when I get back.

See you tomorrow.

Yeti Krab Visiter

This chapter is a parody of the SpongeBob SquarePants episode Yeti Krabs.

Note: The flashback in this chapter takes place in between the events of Sportz and A Bad Photo Moment.

---

In the middle of the city we were helping in repairing the entire police station after it was completely destroyed by the Bulleteers. It was a very good deed we were doing.

Sheila Castille: Thanks for helping us repair the police station guys.

Me: Anytime Sheila. It's the least we can do after what happened.

The Transformers put the pieces of steel back and even put new building pieces on to make it stronger.

We had the Police Station fully rebuilt and better than ever.

Nico: (looks at the rebuilt police station) There. Good as new.

Me: It looks even better than what it was before. Nice job guys!

Varie: Thanks.

Aylene C.: It sure does.

Sheila C.: No kidding. Awesome job guys.

Me: Thanks Sheila.

Lincoln: It's so awesome!

Later we went over to Mr. Smoothies to get a drink.

---

Later, Back at the estate, we were watching TV and reading books.

Qin: Hey Carrie, I heard that you went through a terrible ordeal up in a place called Chamberlain, Maine.

Carrie White Loud: I sure did. It was a nightmare I never want to relive again. I went through a nightmare at the hands of Chris Hargensen and my mother Margaret.

Me: That was a nightmare she'll never forget. Chris and her mom ruined her life and because of them she killed over 260 people.

I went over what happened during the events of The Flames of Insanity and the history of Chris Hargensen and Margaret White.

---

Chris Hargensen

Christine "Chris" Hargensen is the secondary antagonist of Carrie.

She is also one of the main perpetrators of the infamous pig's blood prank and ultimately, the prom massacre as she angered Carrie White to the point that she could not handle her own emotions and killed everyone with her telekinesis as a tragic result.

In the 2013 version of the movie, Chris is played by Portia Doubleday. She is the head leader of the Ultras, a clique of popular girls. She recorded Carrie panicking over getting her period via Chris' cell phone. While initially trying to help a hysterical Carrie, telling her the reason why she was bleeding and handing her a tampon, Carrie is too frightened to listen and unintentionally covers Chris's hand with menstrual blood. From there, the situation escalates. The girls, mostly led by Chris, start pelting a crying, cowering Carrie with tampons and sanitary napkins. In a deleted scene, Chris tells Carrie, "Wipe that smile off your face" after seeing her smiling at Tommy which causes her to give Carrie a dirty look.

Later, at Chris's house, Chris, Tina, and Billy upload the shower scene on Youtube. The video goes viral. By the next day, everyone in school has seen it. This is most likely how Miss Desjardin found out about it.

Chris, along with the rest of the girls who tormented Carrie, is forced to attend Ms. Desjardin's boot-camp style detention. However, she quickly loses her temper, telling Ms. Desjardin, "f-you" and stating "I'm not gonna run another god-damn/god damn/goddamn inch because Carrie White had her period and was too stupid to know what it was.". She refuses to stay in detention and looks for support from her friends, convinced that they did nothing wrong. When none of her friends back her up, Chris feels hurt and betrayed. In an unseen scene, Chris tells her dad that she was banned from the prom due to her bad behavior. Chris and Mr. Hargensen speak with Mr. Morton. Mr. Hargensen tells Chris to give him the phone in order to prove that she didn't post the video, but a furious Chris, knowing that the video was indeed on her phone, refuses to comply and storms out.

Later on, Chris and her boyfriend Billy Nolan, along with a group of his friends, go to a farm. Billy tells her to pick a pig that resembles Carrie, stating, "pig's blood for a pig." They soon select and slaughter a pig. Chris slits the pig's throat and is shown with a trickle of blood on her face. As Chris, Billy, and his friends are setting up the bucket, a drop of blood lands on Chris, but she wipes it off with her nail.

On the night of the prom, Chris texts Sue saying, "Your girl looks good. She won't for long" which causes Sue to rush over to the school where she sees Billy pull the rope.

After Billy pulls the rope and blood pours all over Carrie, Chris laughs with excitement and glee. As Billy tries to take her away, Chris yells out, "Freak, freak." As she and Billy run out the door, the bucket falls on Tommy's head which worries her, but Billy pulls her out of the gymnasium. After seeing the massacre from outside the gym, Chris tries to text her father and pleading him to pick her up. Billy notices snaps at her and takes her phone away. They discuss how they're going to escape before attempting to leave. They spot Carrie and Billy attempts to run her over, but when she unleashes her telekinetic powers on the car, Chris' head goes back as Billy goes head-first into the steering wheel which cracks his nose and kills him. A frightened Chris shakes Billy, not knowing what happened. She tries to get out of the car, but Carrie locks her inside.

Carrie attempts to hold Chris with the seatbelt, but Chris pulls it off. As Carrie lifts up the car, Chris looks shocked. The two girls share a final cold stare.

As Chris tries to run Carrie over again (uselessly, as she's levitating in the air), Carrie sends the car down the parking lot, which causes Chris to go face-first into the windshield. Chris is shown bleeding with open wounds and glass sticking out of her cheeks.

Chris tries to take her head out of the windshield with her hands, shown struggling. She silently begs Carrie to help her, but Carrie refuses. She dies from her injuries immediately afterward. After Chris dies, Carrie causes the car to explode with her and Billy inside it.

Margaret White

Margaret White (née Brigham) is one of the main antagonists in Stephen King's novel Carrie, its subsequent film adaptations and the Broadway musical. She is the abusive and religious mother of Carrie White, and is obsessed with her excessive convictions on Christian principles of modesty and chastity.

The wife of the late Ralph White and the mother of Carrie, Margaret lived with her parents, John and Judith Brigman, in Motton, Maine until 1960, when she moved to Chamberlain Center with Ralph White. 2 years later, he two married on March 23, 1962; shortly after, on April 3, 1962, Margaret was admitted to Westover Doctors Hospital for a suspected miscarriage. 5 months later on August 19, 1962, she last wrote to her mother, and later became pregnant in December that year, though she was convinced that she was afflicted with "cancer of the womanly parts".

Her husband died in February 1963 in a grisly construction accident, and she gave birth to her daughter alone on September 21, 1963. 3 years later on August 17, 1966, her house was deluged with stones from the sky brought on by her daughter's telekinesis after she punished the girl particularly hard.

Margaret White was very emotionally unstable and suffered from untreated mental illness. She was an extremely abusive and religious zealot who punished her daughter continually for any and all "sins", viewing her as a demonic child and showing no remorse over severe emotional and physical abuse. She also heavily believed herself to be continually under assault from evil forces.

In the novel's climax, Margaret was killed by Carrie, ending her reign of terror, sadly before this occurs, the abusive Margaret is able to stab her daughter - this would later prove to be fatal and Carrie died a short time later in the arms of one of her few friends, Sue Snell. In the movie, Carrie died along with her mother as their home crumbled on top of them due to Carrie's telekinetic powers gone awry.

Everyone gasped in Sheer Horror!

Lori: That motherfucking bitch!

Aqua: (angry) You guys might want to keep Anti-Aqua at bay if she comes out.

Skywarp: Why?

Aqua: Because I'm about to go to the prison that Chris is at and commit murder! (about to walk out the door)

Ventus and Terra stopped her.

Me: Aqua! Chris is at the toughest prison we built when all this happened. We arrested her for Capital Murder, Arson and Domestic Terrorism. She was sent to the Moon Prison. Chris got 660 life sentences without parole + 30,000,000 years and she's hated by the entire Prison Populous.

Lincoln: It's true Aqua.

Aqua: Oh. Good I hope she suffers there.

Me: She already is.

Miranda: So those girls taunted you while you were having your period?! Are you fucking kidding me?!

Carrie W.L.: Yeah they were.

Leia White Loud: Oh mommy.

Lori: I can't believe that she would literally do that to you Carrie. I'm so sorry.

Carrie W.L.: It's all right Lori. But thank you.

Kitten: Believing in God is a good thing. Problem is, your mom believed in God a bit too much.

Me: She was insane. She had what's called according to Forensic Psychologists, Religious Ideation and it can make them really dangerous to other people. After that incident I called a Press Conference in Washington D.C. to let everyone know about what happened. Here it is.

I played the press conference from Washington D.C. from the events of The Flames of Insanity.

---

Me: Good morning everyone. I'm sorry to interupt all your activities but a major tragedy has befallen the small town of Chamberlain in Maine. Due to bullying that got completely out of control, young Carrie White here went on a ballistic rampage and completely destroyed the town. Christina Harginson and her boyfriend Billy Nolan were responsible for this whole tragedy that left 260 men, women and children dead. Carrie White's own mother Margeret White is also responsible for this horrific event. Margeret is insane. She has Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome and Schizophrenia. She also has delusions that cause Religious Ideation and it made her into an insane Christian Fanatic. All three people were arrested. Margeret White will no doubt be found completely incompetent to stand trial and will be considered an extreme danger to everyone around her and to herself. Carrie White has been through a nasty and terrible ordeal at the hands at these three people. No, these monsters and they deserve to be punished at the maximum extent of the law. The President of The United States of America has ruled last nights horrific tragedy as an act of genocide.

---

Me: The press and the country were horrified. The whole world saw the press conference and it was horrifying.

Nico: I think I remember seeing that when you did that.

Me: Yep. Margeret was indeed found incompetent to stand trial for her crimes and she was declared criminally insane. They called her a female John Hinckley Jr. to the 10th power. She was committed to the Los Angeles County Jail in the Twin Towers Maximum Security Mental Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

Laney: I remember that. She was diagnosed with Paranoid Schizophrenia and Severe Depression.

Me: Yep.

Lola: What happened to Billy Nolan?

Me: Chris and Billy were found guilty on numerous counts of Arson, Assault and Battery and domestic terrorism and 260 counts of Capital Murder. Billy Nolan was sentenced to death and Chris because she was 17 at the time of the crime, she was sentenced to 660 consecutive terms of life without parole plus 30,874,837 years in federal prison.

Aqua: Whoa! That's a long time to be in prison.

Nico: Wow! That has to be the longest prison sentence ever.

Lana: It is.

Me: The Guinness Book of World Records made her prison sentence the Longest Prison Sentence ever recorded in the history of man and also called her the youngest person to ever serve said sentence. Her case is so high profile that she can't even serve it on Earth. So that's when I decided to build a special prison. It was built on the place they least expected it, THE MOON. I built the Moon

Prison for that reason. For people like Chris Hargenson.

Vince: Wow! So that's where you got the idea for the construction of the Moon Prison.

Me: That's right. The Moon prison is also known as the Alcatraz of Space because an escape attempt is 150% impossible. I know that's not a real percentage but I thought it was a good one. The reason for this is because if they escape, the endless vacuum of space will kill them in seconds. It's the ultimate supermaximum security prison.

Luna: Wow! Dude that's amazing.

Me: It was. Chris was disowned by her family and stripped of her reputation, and more. I also placed a terrible curse on Chris, Eternal life as a Spoiled Brat Child of 6 years old.

Lana: Eternal life as a six-year-old kid. I like it.

Me: You would think so. But that is considered a much bigger fate that's worse than death. Chris is now also forever bound to the prison and she can never leave the facility. Billy was executed the following morning after his sentence was announced. Chris Hargenson is now forever labeled as a "Female Charles Manson" and as "The Female Devil Incarnate".

Clyde: Whoa! She deserves to be in prison like that.

Lincoln: You said it Clyde.

Star Lord: I remember that we went to meet you guys for the first time on the Saturn Prison.

Me: That's right Peter. It was so cool having you guys meet us there.

Rocket Raccoon: (to Carrie) Dammit, if we hadn't been so busy trying to waste Ronan, we would've stuck around to see what kind of nut your mom was.

Carrie W.L.: It's okay Rocket.

Me: She was the worst kind Rocket.

Carrie W.L.: But I forgave my mom for everything that happened to me. But I still hate her. I may have been through a horrible nightmare but I am now stronger than ever.

Nico: That's good.

---

Later we went to Lynn's Table and we were having good food and more.

Lynn: (Takes a bite out of a Crab Po'Boy) Mmm. Good food guys. Adding the Louisiana food to dad's restaurant was a really good idea.

Me: Thanks Lynn. But there's plenty more where that came from in my cooking repertoire from around the world.

Kitaro: Hey guys!

We saw Kitaro sweeping the floors with two brooms at the same time.

Lily Loud: Wow! Kitaro is really busy. Reminds me of the time where I had to up the work game because of the visit from the Yeti Krab.

Maria: Oh yeah. That was funny and awesome!

---

Maria: (to a sleeping Squidward) Hey, Squidward! SpongeBob and Mr. Krabs aren't paying you to take a nap. So get busy!

Squidward: (wakes up) Or what? You'll snap my neck or kill me in another gruesome fashion?

Maria: Okay, that was uncalled for.

POW!

Mr. Krabs: Squidward!

Squidward: [screams] What is your problem?

Mr. Krabs: My problem is that you aren't workin'! Which means we lose M-U-N-E-E! Which means you lose your J-O-B!

Nokama: That's not how you spell Money, Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: Oh. Sorry.

Squidward: Remind me again, is that good news or bad news?

Mr. Krabs: Tentacles, I mean it! [pointing to Squidward again] You get back to mindin' that register!

Squidward: Minding it for [pointing at an empty Krusty Krab] which customer?

Mr. Krabs: I see your point.

Varie: Hey! What do we look like!? Chopped Liver?

SpongeBob: But still, I'm not paying you to dream sweet nothin's! Do something! Pick up a mop, a broom, uh, a window wiper, a spatula, even!

Squidward: Lily's got that covered.

Lily: [mops the floor while humming, and as she sweeps, she comes across the window, causing her eye to protrude out, then she gasps] Dust specs on the window! Don't worry, boss men, I got it covered! [generates a water tentacle with a window wiper and wipes the window] That's better! Oh, sounds like the dishes are done soaking! [makes more water tentacles that make their way to the kitchen sink and begins humming again]

Maria: Wow! Lily is really good at that.

Mr. Krabs: That's a perfect example of what I'm talkin' about! Stayin' busy!

Gali: You said it Mr. Krabs. She is as busy as a bee.

Lana: That's my little sis for you.

Luna: You said it dude.

Squidward: I was busy, trying to forget about this place 'till you woke me up.

Horsea: (to Squidward) Hey! No sleeping on the job! (uses Bubblebeam on him)

Squidward: HEY! Stop that!

Varie: Stupid Squidward.

Mr. Krabs: Okay, have it your way, Squidward! Since you can't be bothered to take the initiative yourself, it's clear we must assign tasks to you.

SpongeBob: Hmm… Mr. Squidward, scrub the walls of the Krusty Krab 'till they gleam!

Lily: Already done, sir! [comes sliding off the wall with a wave of water, then a shot of a sparkling Krusty Krab is shown]

Irma Lair: Wow! It's so shiny I can see my reflection.

Cleo: It sure is shiny.

Mr. Krabs: Well, that's very nice, lass, thank you. But, you see, I'm tryin' to give Squidward a task.

Lily: Hmm… well, the smoke duct needs sweeping!

Mr. Krabs: Excellent idea, Ms. Loud! Squidward, I'd like you to sweep- [hears a noise in the ducts and looks up at them and a dirty Lily coming out of the ducts]

Lily: Done and dusted! [coughs up a puff of smoke]

Lana: Cool!

Nokama: Boy that was a dirty job. But awesome work Lily.

Lily: Thank you Nokama.

Squidward: Nice working conditions, but, no thanks! [grabs his magazine]

Luna: Jerk.

Mr. Krabs: Oh, is that so? [lifts the bottom of one of the tables with gum underneath] Perhaps you'd prefer scraping the gum off the underside of these tables!

Squidward: Oh, a restaurant employee handling chewed bubble gum? That's gotta violate a lot of health codes.

Lana: Don't remind him Squidward.

Mr. Krabs: Yeah please.

Lily: [while pulling off a piece of gum from the underside of another table] Not if you wear gloves, it doesn't. [pulls on the gum, then sticks on a giant ball of chewed gum] Mind if I take this to Lana after work, Mr. Krabs?

Mr. Krabs: Not at all Lily.

Lana: Thanks Lily.

SpongeBob: Looks like Lily has a handle on all the Krusty Krab duties.

Varie: She sure does SpongeBob.

Mr. Krabs: (To Squidward) Which leaves you with all the extracirculars! [puts a pair of shoes on the edge of the cashier boat] Like shinin' me shoes!

Lana: Those are nice shoes Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: Thanks lass. They belonged to me Great Grandfathers.

Varie: Cool.

Squidward: Sorry, all out of polish.

Lily: [appears out of the boat, then polishes the shoes] Well, I'm not!

Lana: Lily is fully prepared.

Mr. Krabs and SpongeBob: Wash our boats! [spots Lily outside the Krusty Krab, forming wings of water filled with soap and washing the boat while humming]

Mr. Krabs: Wow! That's very impressive.

Lana: Lily always is a good help when she washes our car.

Gali: She does the same method on the car.

Luna: It's true dudes.

SpongeBob: Very Impressive. Listen, Squidward, I'm gonna get a full day's work out of you one way or another.

Sydney: Yeah!

Squidward: It doesn't matter what you "want" me to do, I won't do it!

Maria: Then we'll beat you to death.

Irma: Maria, calm down.

[Mr. Krabs gets really angry and his face turns purple, however, he gets an idea.]

Mr. Krabs: Oh-ho, yeah? Fine… if you refuse to work, then I can't be held responsible.

Lily: [coming in from washing Mr. Krabs' and SpongeBob's boats] Responsible for what, Mr. Krabs?

Mr. Krabs: For… for… [thinks for a second]… a visit from… the Yeti Krab.

SpongeBob: [gulps] The Yeti Krab?

Maria: The Yeti Krab? You mean the white crabs that live off the coast of Easter Island?

SpongeBob: That's them. How did you know?

Maria: Heidi is a Marine Biologist and she knows all about fish.

Lana: Wow!

Lily: What are Yeti Krabs?

Mr. Krabs: [comes close to Lily] Everyone's heard of the abominable Yeti Krab… [pulls his eyebrows longer]… with his long, white hair, and six-pack abs… [shows his teeth]… and yeller' teeth! And everybody knows that he only comes out of his mountain cave to feed on lazy workers. [comes close to Squidward] He's attracted to the scent, he can smell your lazy, lazy stench from hundreds of miles away!

They grabbed each other in a fearful hug and they were shaking in fear.

Lily: [screams] Oh, wait. What am I worried about? I'm a hard-working, self-motivated girl.

Mr. Krabs: Yes, but that won't make any difference because of your proximity to Squidward's laziness. You will be eaten!

SpongeBob: [gasps] Squidward and I were as close as brothers!

Squidward: Ludicrous.

POW!

Varie punched him in the face and knocked him down.

He had a nasty lump on his head.

Mr. Krabs: You won't think so if that big, hairy fellow wants to eat ya! [chuckles] Yeah. Now, listen up, crew! Bossmen Krabs and SpongeBob are steppin' out for a minute. [while putting dirty clothes on the order boat] But I want this tub of laundry done before I come back, or…

SpongeBob: Or the Yeti Krab will smell your laziness and eat you!

Mr. Krabs: Precisely. See ya, everyone! [steps out of the Krusty Krab]

Lily: I'm not scared of a legend.

Squidward: Whatever. [relaxes]

Lana: Jerk.

Lily: Squidward, what are you doing? [sniffs] Oh, no! Your lack of work is taking on an odor!

Nokama: Yeah it smells horrible!

Squidward: [picks up a pair of underwear] You sure it's not these you're smelling?

Lana: It might be.

Maria: If I were you I would get back to work Stupid Squidward.

Squidward: No.

Lily: If the Yeti Krab catches wind of it, he's gonna… [her nose pops like a balloon] you know, [whispers] eat us!

Squidward: Oh, come on, Lily. Krabs' Yeti story is a complete and total crock!

Gali: You are the one that's full of crock Stupid Squidward.

Lily: Yeah Squidward, Mr. Krabs would never make up something like that! Not after everything that happened to him that got him caught in the first place.

Squidward: You can believe in whatever garbage you want to. Just do it away from me. Now, run along and wash Krabs' undies.

Bella (H2O): We'll get him to work one way or another.

Lily: You got it, Squidward! [Lily forms into her wings into a washing machine and takes Mr. Krabs' dirty laundry] Anything to keep that Yeti Krab at bay. [puts the laundry in her wings washing machine door, then puts laundry soap inside it and turns a dial with a water tentacle to delicate, and pulls a button to start the washing process]

Emma: That's clever.

Varie: It sure is.

Narrator: (French Accent) Just then… By sheer coincidence…

[Cuts to the mountain tops where a mysterious monster with red crab claws and white fur is lurking. The monster is revealed to be the Yeti Krab that was mentioned by Mr. Krabs earlier. The Yeti Krab sniffs the air and walks menacingly towards Bikini Bottom. He stops and sniffs a sign with an arrow and the word Bikini Bottom on it. He smashes it with his claws and continues walking. He stops and sniffs at a mailbox. He takes a bite of it but spits it out. He continues walking until he stops at a department store named Gramma's Closet. He sniffs the window and growls at it. He continues to walk until he feels a growling motion in his body. It shows his heart, lungs, and stomach. The stomach looks more agitated than the heart and lungs.]

Yeti Krab's stomach: Let me out of here, you hairy brute! I can find my own food!

[The Yeti Krab roars in disgust and hunger until he smells the scent of Krabby Patties. He immediately runs to the Krusty Krab where SpongeBob in cleaning the tables.]

Sydney: (sees the Yeti Krab outside) Uh, guys? We have a very huge customer outside!

Lily: [hears someone at the door] Good day, sir. Are you Yeti to order? [notices the Yeti Krab is behind him and runs towards Squidward who is sound asleep] Oh, Squidward!

Squidward: [wakes up] What? What? What? Wha… huh?

Lily: You are not gonna believe this! There's a Yeti Krab at table 7!

And he is sniffing out the lazy!

Lana: That's a real Yeti Krab all right!

Squidward: [laughs] Of course, he is. Nice costume, Eugene. Couldn't you at least have it dry-cleaned or pressed?

BLAM!

Sydney punched Squidward in the face.

[The Yeti Krab roars at Lily and Squidward in the faces]

Squidward: Ow. Didn't brush this morning. Did we?

Lily: Please don't eat us, Mr. Yeti! We're not lazy!

Sydney: You want to eat Lily and Stupid Squidward, you'll have to go through us!

Squidward: [sits back and relaxes] Oh, yes I am lazy.

Lana jumped on Squidward's head and smashed him!

CRUSH!

Squidward: Ow.

Gali: Lazy bum.

Lily: Oh, boy! I'll have to work twice as hard to make up for Squidward's laziness! [runs to the tables and pushes some chairs in. The Yeti Krab walks up to Lily as the young fry cook girl chuckles nervously. However, the table starts to wobble] A wobbly table! Oh, we can't have that!

Lana: I'll fix that Lily.

Lily: Oh thanks Lana.

Lana pulled out her tools and fixed the table.

Lana: There! Perfect!

Lily: Good job Lana.

[Lily walks to the condiment dispensers and opens the mustard.]

Lily: Yikes! Time to top off the mustard! [Lily pulls a large bag of mustard, rips it open, and over fills the dispenser. Lily then runs into the kitchen towards the spice rack.] See I'm busy! I'm organizing the spice racks! By color!

Gali: Good job Lily.

[The Yeti Krab sniffs some of the spices, but sneezes really hard. The force of the sneeze makes Lily bounce around the kitchen. She slams on the wall and slides down next to the grease trap door.]

Lily: Ow. I'm okay. Well, I guess while I'm down here, I'll hit the old grease traps again. [opens the door and reveals bubbling grease underneath. Lily takes a large barrel and forms her wings into suction pipes and sucks in the grease into the barrel through them. She fills up the barrel. The Yeti Krab takes one sample of grease, sniffs it, and eats it with his claw. Lily becomes startled and grease spits out of his body.] I'm not lazy! Don't eat me! [The grease is sprayed on the Yeti Krab and he aggressively roars. The scene cuts to the lazy Squidward reading the newspaper.] I'm sorry, Mr. Yeti Krab!

Squidward: [sighs] I almost feel sorry for the little nimrod.

BAM!

Maria kicked him in the face.

Squidward: (With a huge black eye) Ow. [Then drops of varnishing liquid splatters in the newspaper and on Squidward's hat] What the? Do you mind?

Lily: [Lily is upside-down, mopping the ceiling with varnishing liquid] Sorry, Squidward! Just varnishing the ceiling!

Lana: Wow!

Squidward: [turns to the Yeti Krab] Oh, I hope you're happy, Mr.

Krabs! You're driving her insane!

Cleo: Squidward that's a real Yeti Crab you dunce!

Squidward didn't believe her.

Squidward: [The Yeti Krab growls at Squidward] Yeah, yeah, yeah. You'll eat me if I'm lazy. Whatever. [The Yeti Krab roars real loudly until sparks causes him to back away. The sparks burn Squidward's newspaper to the crisp.]

Varie: Whoa look out!

They duck under a table.

Squidward: Not the home and garden section! Lily! [Lily is burning the metal shut on Mr. Krabs' and SpongeBob's office door]

Lily: [Takes off the mask] Huh? Oh, sorry. Just making all the rivets are securely welded.

Lana: Just be careful with that acetylene torch Lily.

Lily: Okay.

Squidward: Lily, we have no customers today! Ergo, we have nothing to do! No matter what that buffoon wants you to think!

Maria: Shut up Squidward!

POW! DING!

Maria punched him in the face and kicked him in the crotch.

Lily: Shh! Squidward, he might hear you! Don't worry, Mr. Yeti Krab! We have plenty to do! [Lily gets off her chair and carries a pile of toilet paper to the bathroom] I can replenish the toilet paper! [Then runs with a bucket of paint and a paint roller] And redecorate Mr. Krabs' and SpongeBob's office! [Then sits to the table and makes origami with some napkins] And refold the napkins into origami figures!

Gali: Those are good.

Lily: Thanks Gali.

Cleo: (to Lily) Lily, don't overwork yourself! We don't want to give Squidward too much free time, do we?

Lily: I guess so. [Then knits some things with yarn and needles] Knit straw cozies! [The straws are covered in knitted cozies. Lily then sprays a bar of soap with the dishwasher hose] Clean the soap! [Then cleans grill with a surface waxer] Re-clean the grill! [Goes outside the kitchen] Washing inside the walls! [Uses her wings that slide onto the wall and comes back out covered in filth. Then takes a vacuum and sweeps the table with it.] Sucking up every dust particle in the restaurant! [Lily sucks Squidward's newspaper with the vacuum.]

Squidward: Have you lost it, Lily?!

Lily: Lost it? [chuckles nervously] Lost it? [chuckles] What a silly thing to say! [The vacuum sucks Lily's hat. Lily becomes more nervous and runs in panic]

Squidward: [sighs] Guess I'm down to the comic section. [Lily backs up in fear and jump in front of Squidward.]

Lily: Squidward! You were right! There's no more work to do! [hugs Squidward] I have done it all!

Maria: Wow! Lily had practically did it all. She is a very proficient worker.

Lily: [The Yeti Krab slashes the newspaper in pieces with his claws and roars viciously] Which means he is gonna eat us! [The Yeti Krab chases Lily]

Squidward: That does it! [Squidward goes to through the back door where the dumpster is] I have had it with this ridiculous ruse! [He takes an empty trash bin and stuck his feet through. Then he jumps on two empty shoe boxes and made them look like shoes.] Using fear to prey on a feeble mind! [Digs through the garbage and pulls out an old cushion.] Even SpongeBob doesn't deserve that! [Takes some of the stuffing out and puts some on his face, arms and legs to look like fur. He then takes a mop and rips it off the stick.] Enjoy spooking the witless, eh Krabs? Well, we'll just see how you like it. [Puts the mop on his head and sticks his eyes out through like crab eyes. The Yeti Krab is about to attack SpongeBob until Squidward bursts in with his disguise.] Roar! See? I can dress up as a convincing Yeti Krab too! [The Yeti Krab roars in Squidward's face.]

Gali: Okay that is totally pathetic.

Lana: Yeah even Leni would believe that.

Luna: No kidding dude.

Lily: Nice try Squidward. But I know that's you.

Squidward: [Squidward is now on top of the Yeti Krab pulling his head] Take off that phony suit, Mr. Krabs! You're not fooling anybody! [At that same moment, the real Mr. Krabs shows up at the front door.]

Mr. Krabs: I'm back, fellas!

SpongeBob: Same with me!

Maria: You got to stop Squidward guys!

Squidward: [Still pulling on the Yeti Krab's head] Sorry, Mr. Krabs. I'm a little busy trying to pull off this stupid mask of yours.

Mr. Krabs: Uh, Squidward?

Lana: That's not Mr. Krabs stupid!

SpongeBob: He's right here!

Squidward: What? [Squidward looks for a minute at Mr. Krabs and the Yeti Krab. He is finally convinced that the Yeti Krab is real, not Mr. Krabs in disguise. He shrieks as the Yeti Krab glares at him. The Yeti Krab grabs Squidward, Mr. Krabs, SpongeBob, and he went for Lily and she turned into water and got away. Ties them to the grill and turns the heat up to cook.]

Mr. Krabs: We're as good as Yeti food! I blame Squidward!

Lily: I blame him more!

SPongeBob: Guys, do you hear that?

Squidward: You mean the sound of my own flesh sizzling to a crisp? [The Yeti Krab's stomach growls]

Lily: No, he's talking about the sound of a hungry customer. He doesn't want to eat you for being lazy, he wants to eat you because he's hungry. Don't worry guys, I got this.

[Lily takes out a can of "Emergency Krabby Patties" out of her pocket and opens it with her wings and got the ingredients for Krabby Patties. She puts three patties on the grill and cooks them. Then she flips the patties with the spatula, puts them in buns with tomatoes, lettuce, cheese, pickles, onions, ketchup, and mustard on a plate and serves them to the Yeti Krab. The Yeti Krab sniffs the patties, eats them and is now fully satisfied with the meal he wanted.]

Mr. Krabs: Way to go, lass! He loves it! [The Yeti Krab pays Mr. Krabs with a dollar.] And look, he's a paying customer. [The Yeti Krab walks happily out of the Krusty Krab and heads back to the mountains.] Come back and see us anytime, Mr. Yeti Krab!

Sydney: That was amazing Lily.

Lily: No thanks to stupid Squidward.

Mr. Krabs: I agree lass.

Maria: This is Strike 2 on Squidward. One more and he goes back to the nuthouse.

Lily: Yep. What did he get Strike 1 for?

Lana: It was for that volcano incident that nearly destroyed all of Bikini Bottom.

Lily: Oh man. I remember that. That was awful.

Squidward: And you still destroyed my house!

Sandy: (Texas Accent) Because you don't deserve it!

Karen: Yeah!

Lily: All right guys, lets get back to work.

Mr. Krabs: Good thinking lass. Squidward, sweep out the crow's nest!

Squidward: No.

Lily: [Lily takes a broom and runs.] Done! [Cuts to the outside of the Krusty Krab.]

POW!

Lana kicked Squidward in the face.

Mr. Krabs: Refinish me floors!

Squidward: No.

Lily: Done!

BLAM!

Gali punched Squidward in the nose and broke it.

Mr. Krabs: Build me and SpongeBob a new safe!

Squidward: Nuh-uh.

Lily: Consider it done!

SMASH!

Luna smashed his head in with her axe.

FLASHBACK ENDS

We were laughing.

Me: Boy that was so funny.

Nico: It sure was. But that stupid Squidward just is a pathetic creature.

Laney: Everyone hates him no matter what.

Lily: Yep.

Meanwhile, in another location, something was going on with Vypra and Waffle Woman.

Vypra: Waffle Woman, I presume?

Waffle Woman: Who the Hell are you?

Vypra: My name's Vypra. And the two of us have a common enemy in Team Loud Phoenix Storm. (smirks) I think it's time that we helped one another.

Waffle Woman smirked at the idea.

THE END

Another Fanfiction complete and another SpongeBob Episode done.

Yeti Krabs was really funny and it aired a couple of years ago and it was so funny. Yeti Crabs are a real species of White Crabs that live off the coast of Easter Island and they are really cool looking. They have white fur on their pinchers. NicoChan11 gave me the idea for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is a trip into the future to help Future Ben take on the ruthless Kevin 11,000 and he's going to present one helluva challenge.

See you all tomorrow.

A Battle in the Future

In Hogwarts, we were going to show everyone the execution of the ruthless bloodthirsty werewolf FENRIR GREYBACK.

---

Fenrir Greyback is a supporting antagonist in Harry Potter and the Half Blood Prince. He is a sadistic Werewolf who serves as a high-ranking member of the Death Eaters. His main goal was to lead and unite every Werewolf in a violent and feral lifestyle, in hope of creating a world of werewolves by infecting as many people as possible with the curse of lycanthropy. He is also notorious for his unrelenting bloodlust and savagery, and is well known as a particularly violent and cannibalistic serial killer, with implied paedophilic tendencies. His is one of the most feared individuals in the British Wizarding community.

Backstory

Greyback was in the First Wizarding War and was a ruthless Werewolf who took no remorse in killing. He was either infected as a youth or during his childhood. Unlike other Werewolves, he showed a delight in transforming, going as far as to express lupine tendencies and aggression in his human form.

During the First Wizarding War, he was convicted of killing Muggle children, and bought before the Ministry for a trail. However, Greyback was such a good actor he passed himself off as a homeless Muggle man who claimed to be astonished at being in front of a congregation of wizards and disgusted by child killings. Given Greyback's stale smell and scruffy appearance, the court almost believed his homeless story, until Lyall Lupin, Remus Lupin's father, who was a court martial at the time, noticed the signs of Lycanthrophy in Greyback's face. He noted the pallour that set in during full Moon (coincidentally, it was going to be a full Moon the next day) and Lyall said how Werewolves were brutal monsters who should all be executed. Lyall was heard by Greyback, who was enraged, and by the other ministers, who said Lyall should be rounding up centaurs instead. However, Lyall demonstrated Greyback's lycanthrophy to the whole court, and Greyback yelled he would make Lyall pay as he was thrown back outside.

A few days later, Greyback found the Lupin home, broke into young Remus' room, and bit him as he slept. He thus paid Lyall back and gave Lyall a Werewolf with which to live with. Lyall tried to find a cure for Remus but none worked. He eventually learned to put up with the affliction and stress of the infection his son had.

During the Second Wizarding War

During Draco Malfoy's sixth year at Hogwarts, Greyback appeared at Hogwarts thanks to the Vanishing Cabinet in the Room of Requirement whose other entrance as located at the shop Borgin & Burkes from the Diagon Alley. He was present with the other Death Eaters on the Astronomy Tower when Albus Dumbledore was murdered by Severus Snape and threw off the tower. During the First Battle of Hogwarts, Greyback also also set the Burrow on fire with Bellatrix Lestrange, allowing Snape to defeat Harry Potter and escape victorious.

One year later, Greyback helped the Snatchers, led by Scabior, to catch Harry, Ron and Hermione and brought them to the Malfoy Manor, home of Lucius Malfoy. He, along Scabior, became furious when the Malfoys tried to hand the trio to Voldemort like if they would have made the work, but he decided to remain in silence for his good. He was later chased away out of the Manor by Bellatrix, but Bellatrix committed a great error when she did so, because without Greyback, the trio were able to escape with Dobby from the Death Eaters, albeit Dobby was fatally stabbed. Thus, Greyback saved from being punished by his master when he arrived.

Following Harry Potter and his friends' infiltration in Hogwarts, Greyback came along the other Death Eaters and Werewolfs to participate in what became the Second Battle of Hogwarts. When student Lavender Brown fell from a balcony, Greyback attacked her, fatally injuring Brown. Hermione Granger, however, arrived with Harry and Ron Weasley. Upon seeing that Greyback did, Granger blasted him and Greyback fell out from a window of the Viaduct

Courtyard. It's completely unknown if Greyback survived the fall or not, but if he survived it, he was most likely arrested and sent to Azkaban following the end of the war. In the film version, he died, after being blasted onto the cliffs by Hermione Granger with a blasting curse, as revenge for murdering Lavender Brown.

* * *

Me: Well, well, well. Here we have the ruthless Bloodthirsty Werewolf who infected Professor Remus Lupin, Fenrir Greyback. Hm. I like that name Fenrir. It's that monstrous wolf in Norse Mythology.

Nico: It's really neat.

Me: Yeah.

Fenrir: (ROARS AT ME)

Luckily he was held down by extremely powerful energy chains that held him in place despite how strong he was.

Me: Good thing those chains are holding. But you are one enormously disturbed fuckpot.

Lincoln: You tell him J.D.!

Me: Thanks buddy. Not only that but he is also the one that has killed a lot of muggle children without a single shred of remorse or guilt. Making him one of the most ruthless serial killers in all of the Wizarding World and in London.

Everyone gasped.

Laney: What a monster!

Harry Potter: (British Accent) Wow. What a beast.

Me: That's right.

Fenrir: (British Accent) (Malevolent Deep Voice) You think you have me all figured out you fuckers?

Me: So you can talk. Always thought you were all brawn. But you aren't the only werewolf.

I then growled and turned into J.D. THE NOCTURNAL!

I howled.

Daphne Greengrass: (British Accent) Whoa! J.D. is also the famous Werewolf hero, J.D. The Nocturnal!?

Ron Weasley: (British Accent) How many surprises does J.D. have?

Lana: He has a lot of them Ron.

Me: (Deep voice) Yes I am also the famous Werewolf hero J.D. the Nocturnal.

Fenrir: So you are also J.D. the Nocturnal as well. I will enjoy drinking your blood.

Me: I became a werewolf of my own free will. I took some of an experimental wolf steroid formula from when we raided Professor Milo's laboratory when we brought Roland Daggett to justice.

Nico: Wow! I remember he told me about that.

Lana: That was one of our coolest adventures!

Lincoln: It sure was.

Me: It was a neat one. I now have the ability to become a werewolf at will no matter what time of day it is. But we didn't come here for me to show off. This is justice for everyone you killed in cold blood.

Professor Lupin: (British Accent) And for infecting me!

Me: Yep. And I take it those scars on your face are the result of his claws right?

I held up my hand with my claws shining.

Professor Lupin: That's correct J.D.

Me: I can see that now. But I did some reading on the Werewolf Curse and found out that the best way to cure you is to kill the werewolf that bit you.

Lincoln: You do it J.D.!

Me: With pleasure!

I plunged my hand into Fenrir's chest and he screamed in pain and I ripped his black heart right out of his body! Blood poured out of him and I then fired an energy blast at him and obliterated him in an instant.

Nico: Fenrir Greyback, you have failed this universe.

I then handed Professor Lupin the heart.

Me: The only way to be free of the curse forever is to eat his heart.

Professor Lupin: Well as much as I don't like it, I'll do it.

Me: Uh I hope you guys don't get sick over this.

Lupin then ate the heart and swallowed it.

Me: Awesome.

Lincoln: Good riddance.

I reverted back.

Me: We'll find out if it works tomorrow night. The first Full Moon of January is tomorrow night.

Lincoln: That's the Wolf Moon.

Nico: Yep.

Later we went to the Moon Prison. We were there to visit the Invisible Man of Gotham City: Lloyd Ventrix.

---

Lloyd Ventrix, is a minor villain in Batman the Animated Series. He's also known as Mojo. Years ago, Lloyd was a con artist who after being paroled came to possess a suit that allowed him to turn invisible. He uses the suit so he can see his daughter; Kimberly. He pretend to be his daughter's imaginary friend and brings her all sorts or jewels and anything she wanted.

Lloyd Ventrix was a con artist who was arrested for one of his crimes. As a result, his ex-wife named Helen had a restraining order issued, and he wasn't allowed within 100 feet of either her or his daughter Kimberly. However, Lloyd, wasn't about to be stopped by the law.

After being paroled and finding work with a scientist Sam Giddell as his errand boy, Ventrix stole some samples of a plastic that grants allowed Ventrix to see his daughter but in the process, the material became toxic to both the mind and body. Ventrix made a suit out of the material; using it, he acquired both the means to steal anything without detection and the ability to visit his daughter without being detected. Using the name "Mojo", Ventrix became Kimberly's "imaginary friend".

While the suit prevented him from visible detection, he could still be heard and physically interacted with. Robbing a jewel exposition in Gotham City while the day was young, he attracted the attention of Batman. The Dark Knight investigated, and discovered the link between the material, Giddell, and the Ventrixes. Lloyd Ventrix deactivates the invisibility suit. Ventrix kidnapped his daughter after learning Helen had planned to move from Gotham. Taking her to an abandoned station, Ventrix had planned to escape the city with his daughter. However, Kimberly became hesitant, and attempted to flee when Ventrix revealed his identity to her. Batman arrived, and a skirmish ensued in which Kimberly escaped back to her mother. Ventrix attempted to flee in his invisible car, but Batman held on and the chase eventually led them to a rooftop with a water tower. In a crazed fury, Ventrix began beating Batman severely and ignored his pleas to remove the suit before it poisoned him fatally, but Batman manage to punctured a water tower nearby. This caused Ventrix to be revealed, Batman quickly defeated Ventrix by pummeling him into unconsciousness with one pumuch and a couple kicks and apprehended him. Ventrix was sent back to prison and hasn't been seen since.

Powers, Abilities and Weapons

Lloyd Ventrix doesn't have any superhuman abilities. His only piece of equipment was a suit fashioned from an experimental plastic that, when electrically charged, bent light instead of absorbing it. This allowed the suit (and its contents) to become invisible. When charged, however, the plastic became toxic to both the body and the mind. He also has a car that contains the same material that Ventrix's costume has, grant the car invisibility.

---

Me: So we came here to talk to Lloyd Ventrix, the Invisible Man of Gotham.

Gabriel: I heard he has been using clones of my Akumatized villains without my permission.

Me: Well we aren't sure yet Gabriel. But I did get a taste of that Copycat Clone's Cataclysm. Boy was it powerful. Blew me into a building.

Adrien: Sorry J.D.

Me: It wasn't your fault Adrien. But it was powerful.

James (Pokemon): Hello, Ventrix. We have some guests who want to speak with you.

James' Carnvine: (snickers) Carnivine!

The Miraculous Celestial Union was mad at him.

Gabriel: So you are Lloyd Ventrix.

Lloyd Ventrix: That's me.

Gabriel: How did he become Invisible?

Me: That was a very genius method. He used this strange invisibility plastic to get away with his crimes undetected.

Gabriel: Very interesting.

Me: But there was a fatal flaw in his plans. His plastic may have been able to Bend Light on the Visible Light part of the Spectrum, but it couldn't get passed Infrared, or heat. My infrared vision and Ben's vision as Predator helped too.

Riley: That was cool though.

Gabriel: I got to admit, that was genius.

Marinette: Are you kidding me, Ventrix? You used clones of Akumatized victims to do your dirty work?!

Adrien: Not to mention that clone of me!

Ventrix: Technically, that was a clone of Copycat, which happened to look like you.

Me: He does have a point. But he got tired very easily.

Taranee: But you still could've gotten Adrien into trouble!

Gabriel: (to Ventrix) Now I remember one of the reasons why I planned to overthrow Grodd. I didn't like how some of you used Akumatized villain clones without my permission!

Runamuck: I can imagine that you didn't.

Red Alert: (to Ventrix) What in Primus' name made you decide to use clones of Akumatized villains in the first place?

Ventrix: I wanted to have more power when doing my crimes.

Edzilla: (grabs Ventrix by the throat) ED USE INVISIBLE MAN AS JUMP ROPE!

He did so.

---

We were back at the estate having some snacks and watching TV.

Me: So far things have been quiet.

But then a whoosh was heard and then a portal opened up and out came a woman.

Me: Whoa! Who are you?

She revealed herself and it was an older Gwen Tennyson.

Gwen Tennyson: Whoa! It's me from the future.

Future Gwen: That's right. It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Gwen Tennyson: She's what got me into using magic.

Me: That's what I've heard.

Ben Tennyson: Is something going on?

Future Gwen: I'll explain when we get there.

Me: Lets get going.

We went throught the time portal and we arrived in an awesome Time! We saw the future Bellwood! It was a super awesome mega advanced city that looked like it was from the year 6,000.

Me: Whoa! What an awesome city!

Lincoln: Wow! So this is the future!

Nico: What year is it?

Future Gwen: It's actually the year 2040.

Me: That's 20 years from our time. I can't believe it became so advanced this quickly.

Kevin Levin: Hard to imagine.

Gwen Tennyson: It's okay, he's now one of the good guys.

Future Gwen: I can see that.

We arrived at the awesome Omnitrix Headquarters.

Me: Wow! This headquarters is amazing!

Lisa: It sure is a magnificent marvel of engineering.

?: I'm glad you like it.

We saw a figure swoop in at 500 miles per hour and it was Ben 10,000 as XLR8!

He reverted back and we saw an older and awesome version of Ben. It was Ben 10,000!

Ben 10,000: It's a pleasure to meet you J.D.

Me: Wow! You too. You must be Ben 10,000. Your younger self told me so much about you.

Ben 10,000: I can tell.

Then another blur swoop by us and it was another XLR8 and another flash happened and we saw a young boy at about 10 years old and he had black hair, green eyes, black and white shirt. It was Ben 10,000's son Ken Tennyson. Kenny bears a striking resemblance to his father when he was his age. His clothes are modeled after his father's. These include a white T-shirt with black accents and borders at the sleeves, and his trademark baggy green cargo pants. Kenny's eye color is even the same as Ben's. His skin tone is slightly tanned, a trait which he inherited from Kai.

Ken: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet all of you.

Ben 10,000: This is my son Ken.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Ken. I see you have an Omnitrix too.

Ken: Yep. It was given to me on my 10th Birthday.

Me: Like father like son. I got my Omnitrix when I was 15.

Bella: I got my Omnitrix when I was 10 too.

Me: Deja Vu huh Bella? But I got my Omnitrix when I defeated Azmuth's estranged assistant Albedo.

Ben 10,000: I see.

Ben: It's great to see you again.

Ben 10,000: Same to you.

Then a girl flying on glowing pink energy wings flew in and it was Gwendolyn Tennyson II, Ken's sister. Gwendolyn bears a striking resemblance to her mother at her age, primarily consisting of a Native American complexion, black hair, brown eyes, and her frail figure. She has her long, black hair kept in a ponytail. Her outfit is a blue colored dress with white stripes on its center.

Gwendolyn: Hello.

Ben 10,000: This is my daughter Gwendolyn Tennyson II.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Gwendolyn: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you.

Then a woman came out and it was Kai Green. Kai Green has long, dark hair, brown eyes, and tan skin. She now wears a red and brown jumpsuit. She wears a belt with pouches as well as pouches on the side of her thighs.

Kai Green: I had a feeling you all would be here. My name is Kai.

Me: I've heard about you. Max told us so much about you from your Grandfather Wes. You and Ben met down in New Mexico when a Loboan was stealing satellite equipment for a Corrodium Transceiver.

Ben: Yeah. I remember that.

Kai Green: So that's why the Yenaldooshi was stealing that equipment.

Lola: What's a Yenaldooshi?

Brittney: It's the name of a werewolf in Navajo Legend.

Kai Green: That's right Brittney. I see that you know your Navajo Legends.

Brittney: Being a goth girl comes with its perks.

Me: I've always been very fascinated with the Navajo. When I lived in Colorado, I would always read books about the Navajo and they live in parts of Colorado, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico.

Lincoln: Wow! J.D. that is so cool!

Nico: It sure is.

Kai Green: I know. I see that your Ben has a girlfriend too.

Riley: My name is Riley Anderson. Me and Ben have been dating for 2 years now. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Kai Green: Same to you Riley.

Me: Our timelines may be different but that doesn't mean that we can learn from them.

Ben 10,000: That's true.

Me: Anyway, Gwen's future self called us here for some reason but we don't know why.

Ben 10,000: Yes, we should get down to business.

?: Wait!

We turned and we saw a kid that was in an amazing fusion! He was 1/12 Human, 1/12 Osmosian, 1/12 Pyronite, 1/12 Vulpimancer, 1/12 Petrosapien, 1/12 Kineceleran, 1/12 Galvan, 1/12 Tetramand, 1/12 Lepidopterran, 1/12 Piscciss Volan, 1/12 Galvanic Mechamorph, and 1/12 Ectonurite.

Me: Whoa! What a fusion! He looks a lot like you back when you first fought Ben, Kevin.

Kevin Levin: Yeah! He sure does.

Ben 10,000: I see you have a good Kevin Levin with you.

Me: Yep. He was redeemed when we helped him and Team Omnitrix got back together.

He reverted back and it was Kevin Levin's son, Devlin Levin. Devlin bears a striking resemblance to Kevin when he was his age. He is tall for his age and has long black hair pulled back in a straight ponytail with the sides of his head shaved. He also has dark blue eyes and pale skin. He wears a dark gray short-sleeved hoodie, a black long-sleeved shirt, black pants, black and white shoes and a bandage around his right leg.

Me: Wow.

Devlin: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I'm Devlin Levin.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Devlin. You're half Osmosian like Kevin.

Devlin: That's right. I see you have a past version of my former father.

Kevin Levin: Former?

Devlin: It's an ugly story.

Ken Tennyson: He's now my adopted brother and best friend.

Me: Wow.

Laney: That's so cool! They must've had a falling out when they fought earlier.

Ben 10,000: That's right.

Me: Whoa!

Ben 10,000: That's what we want to tell you about. My nemesis Kevin is back. But he's more powerful than ever. He calls himself Kevin 11,000.

Me: Whoa! He must be really bad news!

Kevin Levin: I bet he was like me when we first fought.

Ben 10,000: He's 1000 times worse than you Kevin.

Me: Then we better stop him.

I then sensed something coming fast.

Me: Something is coming really fast.

Then a whoosh blew by us and we saw KEVIN 11,000! Kevin looks skinnier than his past self, his hair is longer, and he retains the X-shaped scar he gained when he battled Swampfire at age 17. He also wears the same black Proto-Tech Armor he wore when he was 12 and 17 years old.

---

Kevin 11,000 is a possible future version of Kevin Levin in the TV show Ben 10. He serves as the true main antagonist in the episode "Ken 10".

In the future, Kevin has been trapped in the Null Void for about 32 years. While he was there, Kevin had been absorbing around 10,989 other aliens to acquire their powers. During one of his breakouts Kevin had a relationship with nameless woman and had a son named Devlin. He tricked his own son into believing that he's reformed and that he want to "Spend some quality time with his son," and that all he had to do was to find and open the Null Void Projector.

After Devlin tricked Ken Tennyson into showing him where the Null Void Projector was, Devlin opened the projector, releasing Kevin. When Ben found out, Kevin showed his true form. Kevin proved to be more than a match for both Ben, and Ken. When Devlin found out that he was tricked by his own father, Devlin decided to team up with the Tennyson and fight his father. When Ben witness Kevin beating up Ken and knocking him unconscious, he transforms into Way Big and beats up Kevin to, presumably, near death. When Ben and Ken walked away, Kevin got back up, proclaiming that, that was nothing. Eventually Ken manage to toss a Null Void Bomb right underneath Kevin, trapping Kevin inside the bomb, and presumably sending him back to the Null Void.

---

Me: Whoa! So you are the future version of Kevin.

Kevin 11,000: That's right.

Me: The X-Shaped Scar on your chin is new. How did you get that?

Kevin 11,000: I got into a fight with Benjie as Swampfire and he cut me. He sent me into the Null Void.

Me: How long were you in there?

Kevin 11,000: 32 years.

Laney: Wow!

Me: And your power has gotten stronger. I can tell.

Kevin 11,000: (to Kevin Levin) Look at you. You used to be bad just like me. And now, you're weak because of your so called friends!

Kevin Levin: No. My friends are the reason why I'm the hero that I am today. And that's why I'll never become you!

Me: That's right! This time you will be destroyed!

Kevin 11,000: We'll see. But thanks to all that time in the Null Void, I was able to absorb a few tricks from all those aliens Ben locked in there with me.

We saw him Transform and he turned into an ugly monstrosity!

He was a fusion of thousands of aliens:

Pyronite: Torso, right tentacle structure, head and left wing structure,

Tetramand: Torso, left arm, legs and arm count,

Ectonurite: Head,

Vulpimancer: Lower arms, upper left hand,

Galvanic Mechamorph: Structure of elbow tentacle,

Kineceleran: Tip of the tail on the elbow tentacle,

Null Guardian: Tentacles,

Lepidopterran: Wings,

Unknown: Left wing,

Unknown: Elbow tentacle,

Unknown: Tentacle arm,

And 10,989 different features!

Kevin 11,000: Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Meet KEVIN 11,000!

Me: Whoa! What a fusion!

Nico: He's ugly!

Me: Lets see here.

Me, Bella and Ben scanned him and he had 10,989 different aliens in him.

My Omnitrix: 10,989 unknown DNA samples acquired. Scan complete.

Me: 10,989 aliens!? WHOA!

Bella: Wow! That's almost as many as Agent Alpha.

Me: Close.

Kate Lloyd: But not nearly as many as the Thing.

?: Not the only one you have to worry about!

We turned and we saw Dark Spicer!

Me: Dark Spicer! What the hell are you doing here!?

Ben 10,000: I take it you know him?

Me: Don't ask.

Dark Spicer: (to Ben 10,000) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Ben 10,000: Not likely!

Waffle Woman was with him.

Varie: Waffle Woman too!?

Waffle Woman: That's right!

Then he turned into a mutant version of Stinkfly. He was a purple version of Stinkfly but he had 9 antennae that shoot slime and acid and he had 8 wings.

Shanan: A mutant Lepidopterran!

Ripgnat: Say hello to Ripgnat! (spews slime at my face)

Me: (SPITS) Oh yuck!

Kevin 11,000 (laughs): Finally! An Omnitrix Wielder I can get along with!

Ripgnat: (laughs at me) Maybe if you didn't charge in without a clear strategy all the time, you wouldn't be so easy to prank! (spews slime in Teresa's direction)

Teresa dodged it and flew at him and kicked him in the face.

Me: Shut your fucking trap! But lets see how you like this!

I went Ultimate J.D. and activated Heatblast's powers.

Me: HEATBLAST!

I fired a blast of fire at Dark Spicer and it burned him all over.

Ripgnat: Ow. Try this!

Dark Spicer then turned into a mutated Ripjaws. He looked like a purple version of Ripjaws but he had 4 light lures on his head and he had 6 arms.

Deathbite: Meet Deathbite!

Maria: (smirks) Joke's on you. You're going to get dehydrated in a few minutes!

Deathbite: Actually, my Piscciss Volann form can breathe easily on land. (lunges forward and strikes Maria with his tail)

Maria ducked under it and kicked him and punched him in the face! Sending him crashing into the wall. Dark Spicer then turned into Hot Burn and set his sights on Ben 10,000. But Kevin 11,000 blocked his path.

Hot Burn: (forms fireball in his hand) Dude, move the fuck out of the way!

Kevin 11,000: Fat chance, copycat! He's mine. It's my destiny to destroy Ben Tennyson!

Waffle Woman: Will you two focus here?

Ben 10,000: I knew that alliance wouldn't last for long.

Me: I agree.

Dark Spicer: For once we agree.

He turned into Ripgnat.

Ripgnat: (Waffle Woman gets on his back) Well, we've gotta fly. But first, here's a parting gift. (spews slime all over Lola, Lori, and Lynn)

Lola: Gross!

Lori: YUCK! You are dead when we get you!

Waffle Woman: (laughs) Like we said, your recklessness make you all easy to prank! (she and Ripgnat fly off)

Kevin 11,000: (Sarcastically) Thanks for the help!

Me: Never mind about them! Lets get him!

Ben 10,000 turned into Humongosaur! Bella turned into Ultimate Bella and activated Ultimate Big Chill's powers, Ken turned into Spitter, and I activated Ultimate Humongosaur's powers and I got his size.

Ben: He's something I wanted to try.

Ben turned into Heatblast.

Ben: HEATBLAST!

Ben fired a powerful blast of fire at Kevin 11,000 and it burned him all over.

Heatblast: But try this!

Heatblast then activated a new ultimate form and his Heatblast form turned into an awesome giant Pyronite and his lava skin turned black and his fire was more powerful and he had arm blades made of rock and he had shoulder chimneys and he had fire coming out of his shoulders.

Ben: ULTIMATE HEATBLAST!

Me: Whoa! An Evolved Pyronite!

Shanan: Wow! That is awesome!

Riley: That is so cool!

Lola: More like blazing hot!

Troy: Time for the future to meet futuristic Rangers!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: S.P.D.!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the S.P.D. rangers

Me: Lets get him!

We went at him and I punched him in the face and fired a blast of lightning at him and electrocuted him and I punched him in the face with devastating force. Ultimate Heatblast fired a powerful blast of blue fire that was as hot as 90,000˚ Fahrenheit and it hit Kevin 11,000 and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Bella fired a powerful blast of endothermic fire and froze Kevin 11,000 in place in a block of ice and Spitter fired a powerful blast of water from his mouth and then he turned into Buzzshock and fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him.

Me: Try this on! SHOCKSQUATCH!

I activated Shocksquatch's powers of lightning and fired a powerful blast of lightning at Kevin 11,000 and electrocuted him more.

Nico: Kevin 11,000 you have failed this future!

Ben 10,000 turned into Heatblast and fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him.

Nico fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Megaforce Rangers blasted Kevin all over.

Future Gwen: MENAH GOH!

She fired an intense focused blast of fire from her hands and it hit Kevin 11,000 and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMMMMMM

Rhinox: Time for some trampling! Rhinox! MAXIMIZE!

Rhinox transformed and he fired his machine guns at Kevin 11,000 and they pelted him all over.

Me: Time to show some awesome teamwork!

Ben then turned into Blitzwolfer.

Ben: BLITZWOLFER!

Me: Yeah!

Blitzwolfer: Got it!

William: Lets do it!

Blitzwolfer fired a powerful blast of sonic energy from his energy and William fired a powerful blast of wind.

Blitzwolfer and William: SONIC HURRICANE BLAST!

The blasts combined and turned into a deadly barrage of wind sonic rings and they hit Kevin 11,000 and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM

Ben then turned into Snare-Oh!

Ben: SNARE-OH!

Snare-Oh threw his bandages and Sandman fired a blast of sand.

Snare Oh and Sandman: EGYPTIAN SAND PUNCH!

Their attacks merged and smashed into Kevin 11,000 and punched him with incredible force.

Me: Time for some action! Lets see how he likes the power of Fire Man! FIRE STORM!

My Left Arm Device glowed and it activated Fire Man's Fire Storm blaster.

Me: GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into my Left Arm Device and enhanced the Fire Storm 100-fold.

Me: SUPER FIRESTORM BLAST!

I fired a powerful blast of fire at Kevin 11,000 and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Red Alert: Time for some action!

Red Alert turned into his Cybertron form.

Cybertron Red Alert: Time for some power! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into his rocket cannon and turned it into a powerful super plasma cannon.

Taranee: Time for some fire power! GIGANTION CYBER KEY

POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her fire powers 100-fold.

Cybertron Red Alert and Taranee: FIRESTORM PLASMA DEATHRAY!

They fired blasts of energy and fire and plasma and they hit Kevin 11,000 and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

James (Pokemon): Time for some action Carnivine! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and it enhanced his Carnivine's powers 100-fold.

Runamuck: Time for action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Kinetic Friction Rifle 100-fold.

James (Pokemon): Carnivine, use Razor Leaf!

James' Carnvine and Runamuck: FRICTION LEAF FLAMESTORM!

The razor leaves hit Kevin 11,000 and the blasts from the friction rifle hit them and made him heavy and the leaves scrapped the ground and ignited and exploded. Burning him all over.

Me: Time to finish this monster for good!

Ben 10,000: With pleasure! 10,000 ALIEN POWER STRIKE!

Ben 10,000 fired powerful elemental blasts of energy that took the forms of 10,000 aliens and they hit Kevin 11,000 and exploded all over.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Kai Green: This is for messing with our family! EXCALIBUR MAGIC

SLASH BLADESHOWER!

Kai slashed Kevin 11,000 with the power of the mighty sword Excalibur that she acquired during a raid on one of the castles of the Forever Knights. The slashes hurt really bad.

Gwendolyn: This is for hurting my brother! ANODITE ANGEL MANA FIRESTORM!

Gwendolyn formed glowing pink angel wings and they helped her fly and she fired powerful blasts of mana at Kevin 11,000 and they hit him and exploded all over.

Ken Tennyson: This is for hurting me and my family! OMNITRIX ALIEN STRIKE!

Ken fired a powerful energy blast and it took the form of his original aliens and they hit Kevin 11,000 and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Devlin: You make me sick DAD! 11 FAMILY DEATH BLAST!

Devlin fired a powerful blast of energy at him and it took the forms of 11 aliens and they hit Kevin 11,000 and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Kevin Levin: This is for ruining my name! OSMOSIAN FIREBLAST BURST!

Kevin fired a powerful blast of blue fire at Kevin 11,000 and it exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now you die!

I fired a Kamehameha Wave at Kevin 11,000 and it hit him and exploded and killed him.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion obliterated him into nothing.

Me: Go to Hell, Kevin 11,000.

Laney: Good riddance.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Nico: Yep.

Ben 10,000: (To the viewers) Not even the ruthlessness of my old enemies can stop us.

Me: Nope. But it was so awesome helping you Ben 10,000.

We then merged the world of Ben 10,000 with our world and the world of 2040 was now part of our world. We now had Ben 10,000's awesome Headquarters was now 200 feet from the estate and next to the city.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfiction complete and another Ben 10 Villain destroyed.

Kevin 11,000 from the Ben 10 episode Ken 10 was awesome and one wicked and terrifying villain that was a fusion of over 11,000 aliens! Awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is a flashback episode for the Loud House Episode A Pimple Plan and that is gonna show us what happened when Luan and Eddy went on their first date and there will be some similarities to what happened during the events of X Marks the Ed.

See you all tomorrow.

A Pimple Plan

Note: The flashback in this chapter takes place after the events of Spell It Out.

---

In the Moon Prison, we were in the Supermax Portion and we were there to visit the worlds most dangerous inmate girl who destroyed all of Chamberlain, Maine: Chris Hargensen.

---

Christine "Chris" Hargensen is the secondary antagonist of Carrie.

She is also one of the main perpetrators of the infamous pig's blood prank and ultimately, the prom massacre as she angered Carrie White to the point that she could not handle her own emotions and killed everyone with her telekinesis as a tragic result.

In the 2013 version of the movie, Chris is played by Portia Doubleday. She is the head leader of the Ultras, a clique of popular girls. She recorded Carrie panicking over getting her period via Chris' cell phone. While initially trying to help a hysterical Carrie, telling her the reason why she was bleeding and handing her a tampon, Carrie is too frightened to listen and unintentionally covers Chris's hand with menstrual blood. From there, the situation escalates. The girls, mostly led by Chris, start pelting a crying, cowering Carrie with tampons and sanitary napkins. In a deleted scene, Chris tells Carrie, "Wipe that smile off your face" after seeing her smiling at Tommy which causes her to give Carrie a dirty look.

Later, at Chris's house, Chris, Tina, and Billy upload the shower scene on Youtube. The video goes viral. By the next day, everyone in school has seen it. This is most likely how Miss Desjardin found out about it.

Chris, along with the rest of the girls who tormented Carrie, is forced to attend Ms. Desjardin's boot-camp style detention. However, she quickly loses her temper, telling Ms. Desjardin, "f-you" and stating "I'm not gonna run another god-damn/god damn/goddamn inch because Carrie White had her period and was too stupid to know what it was.". She refuses to stay in detention and looks for support from her friends, convinced that they did nothing wrong. When none of her friends back her up, Chris feels hurt and betrayed. In an unseen scene, Chris tells her dad that she was banned from the prom due to her bad behavior. Chris and Mr. Hargensen speak with Mr. Morton. Mr. Hargensen tells Chris to give him the phone in order to prove that she didn't post the video, but a furious Chris, knowing that the video was indeed on her phone, refuses to comply and storms out.

Later on, Chris and her boyfriend Billy Nolan, along with a group of his friends, go to a farm. Billy tells her to pick a pig that resembles Carrie, stating, "pig's blood for a pig." They soon select and slaughter a pig. Chris slits the pig's throat and is shown with a trickle of blood on her face. As Chris, Billy, and his friends are setting up the bucket, a drop of blood lands on Chris, but she wipes it off with her nail.

On the night of the prom, Chris texts Sue saying, "Your girl looks good. She won't for long" which causes Sue to rush over to the school where she sees Billy pull the rope.

After Billy pulls the rope and blood pours all over Carrie, Chris laughs with excitement and glee. As Billy tries to take her away, Chris yells out, "Freak, freak." As she and Billy run out the door, the bucket falls on Tommy's head which worries her, but Billy pulls her out of the gymnasium. After seeing the massacre from outside the gym, Chris tries to text her father and pleading him to pick her up. Billy notices snaps at her and takes her phone away. They discuss how they're going to escape before attempting to leave. They spot Carrie and Billy attempts to run her over, but when she unleashes her telekinetic powers on the car, Chris' head goes back as Billy goes head-first into the steering wheel which cracks his nose and kills him. A frightened Chris shakes Billy, not knowing what happened. She tries to get out of the car, but Carrie locks her inside. Carrie attempts to hold Chris with the seatbelt, but Chris pulls it off. As Carrie lifts up the car, Chris looks shocked. The two girls share a final cold stare.

As Chris tries to run Carrie over again (uselessly, as she's levitating in the air), Carrie sends the car down the parking lot, which causes Chris to go face-first into the windshield. Chris is shown bleeding with open wounds and glass sticking out of her cheeks.

Chris tries to take her head out of the windshield with her hands, shown struggling. She silently begs Carrie to help her, but Carrie refuses. She dies from her injuries immediately afterward. After Chris dies, Carrie causes the car to explode with her and Billy inside it.

---

Lincoln: So this is the Supermax Portion of the Moon Prison.

Me: Yep. It's where we hold the most dangerous inmates of the Moon Prison. It's for the most dangerous of criminals we've ever caught. No visitors are hardly ever allowed down here because of the danger that the inmates pose.

Laney: Wow. Sounds like they are really dangerous.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Oh yeah.

Me: There's Chris Hargenson's cell right there.

I pointed to it up ahead and it was a prison cell on a pedestal in the middle of a pool full of molten lava.

Lana: That's her cell!?

Lola: It's in the middle of a pool of Lava!

Sam S.L.: Boy that is intense!

Me: That's why we have a heat shield bubble over the cell. It's to keep the heat out and prevent her from getting out. Whenever someone brings her lunch, we have to pull this lever.

I pulled a lever and the pool of lava closed and it was covered up with a powerful steel shield and it was safe to walk on.

Me: Here we go.

We walked up to the cell and it can only be opened by a handprint scanner and retina scanner.

Computer: Authorized Access Only. Please provide palm and retina scan.

I scanned my hand and retina.

Computer: Access approved.

The door to the cell opened and we saw behind a bar door was Chris Hargensen herself after being in prison for 2 and a half years.

Me: Rise and shine princess.

Me, Aqua, Carrie W.L. and Lincoln went in.

Chris Hargensen: Carrie White! You will pay for everything you did to me!

Me: You brought all that on yourself with the deaths of 260 people!

Aqua: Do you think it's funny to humiliate Carrie like that?

Chris: Oh please! She's a loser! Always has been and always will be!

Lincoln punched her in the face!

Lincoln: You shut your fucking trap!

Aqua: She had nothing before J.D. and the others met her! She had a chance to be happy at homecoming with Tommy. And she actually did have a nice time. And what do you do? YOU FUCKING HUMILIATE HER AND ALMOST PUSHED HER INTO BECOMING A VILLAIN! Not only that, but in the process, so many people got killed. And guess what? All those lives lost all because of you!

Lori: You literally disgust me Chris!

Lori spit on her.

Lincoln: The blood of 260 people is on your hands. Most of them are children.

Aqua then proceeded to beat Chris up. But right before the beatdown, the bitch swore she saw Aqua's eyes turn yellow for a split second.

Aqua: It's ok, guys. So far, Anti-Aqua is being kept buried inside me.

Me: Don't worry Aqua. If she comes out we'll stop her.

Kairi then came in with a bucket full of pigs blood.

Kairi: This is the pig blood that you poured on Carrie. We couldn't find all of it. But this amount will do. (Pours pig blood on Chris)

Me: EW! I hope that blood was from a meat packing plant.

Lincoln: Yeah!

Me: Pretty ironic that the very thing you used to humiliate Carrie became your downfall.

Nico: Chris Hargensen, you have failed this world.

Lana: Yeah!

We later left the prison.

---

Back at the estate we were in the dining room devising up new food items for Lynn's Table.

Raphael: How about pizza gets served at the restaurant?

Me: Good idea Raph. We can have different kinds of pizza for it.

Lincoln: And we love pizza.

Me: We sure do buddy. I have quite a lot of ideas for the pizzas.

I pulled out a notepad and it had some ideas for pizza flavors.

Me: We have Buffalo Chicken, Asian Chicken Teriyaki, White Chicken Parmesan, and several more flavors.

Lola: Those are all delicious flavors.

Me: Thanks Lola. Also we should have great dessert pizzas too.

Laney: That's a great idea.

Lori: It sure is. What dessert pizzas are good for dad's restaurant?

Me: Lets see. How about S'mores, apple pie, blueberry pie, cherry pie, banana cream pie and other chocolate pizzas with candy on them?

Nico: Great ideas.

Scrappy Doo: Boy those are great pizza ideas J.D. and you know that Shaggy likes to eat as much as my Uncle Scooby.

Lana: (Laughs) Shaggy and Scooby can eat everything!

We laughed.

Me: That they can. Also lets have Lynn's Table serve ice cream too.

Everyone agreed.

Laney: I love ice cream.

Nico: Me too. My favorite flavor is Cookies and Cream.

Me: Good flavor.

Nico: I've already suggested my flavour of ice cream. How about you guys?

Me: Mint Chip for me.

Lincoln: Orange Creamsicle for me.

Lori: I like cotton candy.

We had over 40 flavor ideas. And we also came up with good milkshakes and more.

Nico: Boy we came up with a lot of awesome ideas.

Me: We sure did.

Marinette: Kairi, what are the Destiny Islands like?

Alya: Did you do stuff there like go to school? Or shop at the mall?

Chloe Bourgeois: Somehow, I doubt that.

Kairi: The Destiny Islands are really beautiful. They are the home of me, Sora and Riku and the Legendary Keybladers. We also have Tidus, Selphie and Wakka there.

Me: Come to think of it, we haven't met them yet.

Sora: That's right.

Me: The Destiny Islands are beautiful and a paradise. But when Sora got the Keyblade, it turned into a battle to save the entire universe from Xehanort and his plans to destroy it. Xehanort destroyed many worlds to feed the dark forces of the Heartless.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: But one of these days we need to go through the entirety of Sora's journey from the day he started to when we face Xehanort.

Sora: It was a harrowing journey J.D.

Me: I know. But Team Loud Phoenix Storm is always up for a challenge.

But then I saw something on Lori's face.

Me: Lori you got something on your face.

Lori: Where!?

I held up a mirror and she saw a zit on her cheek.

Lori: A Zit!?

Luan: Whoa! This reminds me of the time I had a date with Eddy and I had to hide it.

Eddy: (Laughs) I remember.

---

[It's early morning in the Loud house, a rooster crows, in her room Luan opens her eyes, and the throws the covers away.]

Luan: [To her still sleepy dummy] "Good morning Mr. Coconuts."

Mr. Coconuts: "Wow, you're extra chipper today. What's the occasion doll?"

Luan: [Looks at a calendar next to her bed.] "Today is my first official date with Eddy. Remember?"

Mr. Coconuts: "Oh, right, how could I forget."

[Today's date has a photo of Eddy with a heart drawn around it.]

I came in.

Me: Morning Luan. You're in a happy mood today.

Luan: It's my first date with Eddy and I'm really excited.

Me: That's right and you guys are made for each other.

[Luan puts Mr. Coconuts down and gets her prop box.]

Luan: "What should I wear?" [Sees something] "Maybe these gag glasses, always a classic." [Puts them on and the eyes spring out, knocking Mr. Coconuts over, Luan helps him up, and tries something else.] "Or what about this mini top hat?"

Me: It's up to you Luan.

[She takes out a mirror, and confidently looks, but gasps, there's a giant pimple on her face, she yelps and wraps herself in her covers.]

Mr. Coconuts: "Jeez, the hat doesn't look that bad."

Me: What's wrong Luan?

Luan: "Look, I have a huge pimple, I can't let Eddy see me like this, oh…" [Looks angrily at Mr. Coconuts.] "Why didn't you say anything?"

Mr. Coconuts: "I didn't notice, but I can certainly see it now, yowzers." [Picks up a banana, using is as a phone.] "Hello, operator, get me NASA, I just discovered a new planet."

Luan: "Not helping Mr. C."

Me: Luan, it doesn't look that bad.

Luan: Maybe for you, you never have zits.

Me: I know.

[She takes off, Mr. Coconuts shrugs and follows. Luan lays down on Lori's bed.]

Lori: "Okay, take a deep breathe, pimples are literally no big deal, and plus, Eddy should like you for who you are, not what you look like."

Me: Yeah, pimples are a natural and unavoidable part of life.

Luan: [Feeling better] "Maybe you're right."

Luna: [Horrified] "Good Golly, Miss Molley! That thing's a monster!"

Luna: [Worried] "It is?"

Lana: [Runs in with a net] "Monster? Where?" [Sees; disappointed] "Awe, it's just a zit, but man is it huge." [The rest of the siblings and the Ed's gather in the door, gasp, and come in.] "Can I pop it? Can I pop it? Please?"

[Lori stops Lana.]

Lisa: "Uh, popping that beast will spread the bacteria."

Leni: [Remembering] "Wait, isn't your date with Eddy today?"

Luan: "Yes! So I've got to get rid of this. Can you guys help me?" [Everyone except Luna, Lucy and Lori nods, Lucy gives a thumbs up, and Luna shakes her head in disgust; to Lori.] "Please?"

Lori: "I still don't think you should worry about it, but if it's literally that important to you, I'll help."

[Luan hugs her.]

Lynn: C'mon, Luan. Eddy's our friend. There's no way he'll hate you because of a zit.

Edd: Lynn is right Luan. Pimples are a natural phase of growing up, as normal as mother's charcoal filter shoe inserts.

Ed: I make a game out of mine Luan. Because I'm productive. You can play connect the dots. [Lifts up his shirt and he has a boat on his back.] See? It's a boat.

Luan: That's one way to Line it up. (Laughs to rimshot) Get it?

We laughed.

Laney: That was a good one.

[Later, they are all in the bathroom.]

Lori: "According to sixteen and a half magazine, this pimple patch should vanish your zit in five seconds or less."

Luan: "Hit me."

[Puts the patch on Luan.]

Lynn: "Three! Two! One! Rip it!"

[Lori takes the patch off, sees the pimple is still there, and throws it away.]

Luan: "Did it work?"

Me: Nope.

Varie: Not even close.

Lily: Darn.

Lisa: "Of course it didn't work," [looks at the magazine] "we in the scientific community refer to these ludicrous claims as… malarkey." [Luan groans] "But don't fret, I've got your back."

[Later, Luan is on Lisa's table, wearing goggles, Lisa, also wearing goggles, presses a button on her tablet, and Luan finds herself at laser point.]

Mr. Coconuts: "Aah."

Me: That's a Dermatologist Ion Laser.

Varie: Wow.

Laney: I don't think this is a good idea.

Luan: [Scared and gasps] "Is this safe?"

Lisa: "In the hands of a skilled professional like me, you have nothing to worry about."

[Lisa fires the laser, it bounces off Luan's braces.]

Me: HIT THE DECK!

We ducked.

[It bounced off Lisa's beaker, Mr. Coconuts' forehead, the floor, just as the skilled professional ducks in cover, and finally takes Luan's scrunchy off and vaporizes it.]

Luan: [Seeing that she still has the blemish.] "Dang it."

Me: Whoa! That was powerful.

Lisa: "Whoopsy daisy, this skilled professional owes you a scrunchy." [Shrugs]

Laney: We'll try something else.

Mr. Coconuts: "And some lumber for a new mug." [Points at his burn.]

[Next, The shower is on high, as Luan is with Lynn, jogging in the steam filled bathroom, wearing sweats, Lynn blows her whistle, and Luan switches to push ups, Lynn blows it again and Luan goes back to jogging.]

Lynn: "Faster, wanna sweat that nasty pimple out or what?"

[Blows her whistle, and Luan has switched to spandex and does aerobics.]

Luan: "Are you sure this is gonna work?" [Stops]

Lynn: "Margo's older cousin said it does, so it has to be true." [Luan goes to the mirror, cleans off the steam, and is horrified that her zit is bigger now.]

Me: Geez! It's bigger than it was before.

Lynn: "Wait, Margo's cousin also said the Jaguars were gonna win the title this year and they beefed it again, yeah, sorry."

Me: Sweat only makes it worse.

[Next, an array of candles light.]

Lucy: [In a slow tone] "Spirits of skin care, take this cookie, I mean, human heart in exchange for the removal of Luan's pimple." [Lucy leaves the heart on a pillow on the table, Luan, who is holding her cheek, looks around for a few moments, and looks in the mirror, and puts it down moaning.] "Sorry Luan, the spirits seem to be busy."

Laney: It was a good try though.

Luan: "Yeah, it must be zit season."

[Starts eating the "human heart". Later, she is in the living room, with a frozen steak tied to her blemish.]

Lincoln: "Rip Hardcore says that frozen meat reduces swelling for bug bites, so maybe it works for pimples too."

Me: It's worth a shot buddy.

[Suddenly, Charles sees a steak, Lincoln tries to stop him.]

Lincoln: "No Charles, that's not for you."

[But Charles completely ignores him and starts chasing Luan, she runs, tries to jump over the ottoman, but falls, and the steak comes off her face, which still has a huge pimple, and Charles enjoys the steak. Eventually, Luan is just looking in the mirror, at her even bigger pimple.]

Mr. Coconuts: "Yowzers, that things taking up so much real estate on your face, you might wanna think about charging it rent."

Me: Not funny Mr. Coconuts.

Luan: [Sighs] "What am I gonna do? My date's in a half an hour, and I'm no closer to getting rid of this thing."

Lori: "Guess you'll just have to trust he likes you, zits or not."

Leni: "Wait, if we can't get rid of it, maybe we can cover it up."

Laney: That's a great idea Leni.

Me: I agree.

Edd: A cosmetic cover up is perfect for hiding Luan's blemish.

[Later, at Reiningers, Luan is in a makeup chair, and Miguel spins her around, Lola gets in between them to watch.]

(We'll say that Miguel is one of Leni's High School Friends.)

Miguel: "Mmm, I'm gonna need you to back up sweetie."

[Lola joins her other siblings.]

Leni: "Miguel is the makeup master, you should have seen how he transformed Scoots for the Sunset Canyon Formal."

[A before and an after shot come on the screen, meanwhile Miguel is just finishing.]

Me: Yeah Miguel made Scoots look like she was 30 years old again. He took 40 years off her.

Lori: Wow! That is literally amazing.

Laney: I was really amazed myself when I saw her.

Miguel: "A little finishing spray, and voila!" [spins her back around] "Dazzling and date ready, how much do you love it?"

[Gives her a mirror, and Luan sees that her zit can't be seen, everyone agrees that it's perfect.]

Luan: [Gasps] "Thanks Miguel, you really are the master."

Miguel: [Touched] "Aw, thank you for providing the canvas. Here are some samples in case you need a touch up during your date." [Gives her a bag]

Me: You did a great job Miguel. Thank you.

Miguel: Anytime J.D.

Mr. Coconuts: "Hey, you think you could do something about this burn? Her sweetheart might be bringing my best friend along for the date." [Shows Miguel a friendship heart shaped locket with a photo inside of him and Eddy's dummy Eddo.]

Miguel: "I think we can fix up your noggin."

[Starts filing Mr. Coconuts head, much to his discomfort.]

[Later in Vanzilla, Lola sprays a perfume bottle.]

Lincoln: [Gags on the perfume] "Lola, how many perfume samples did you take?"

Lola: "What? The sign said 'help yourself'."

Me: I think it smells very fragrant.

Lincoln: It's good though.

Luan: [Looking out the window, gasps.] "We're here." [They stop in the parking lot, and Luan jumps out.] "You guys are the best," [runs off] "thanks again for your help."

Me: Anytime Luan. Have a good time.

Lincoln: "You got this."

Leni: "Have a great date."

Luna: "Eddy's a lucky dude."

---

Eddy was ready for Luan. Edd and Ed were primping him up. He was down by the docks at the pond.

Eddy: Do I look like $20.00 or what?

Ed: You look amazing Eddy.

Edd: Ready for your first date, Eddy?

Eddy: I'm ready Double D.

---

Luan was walking to the docks.

Mr. Coconuts: "Wait." [Returns] "Anyone got a breath mint?" [Lola sprays another perfume sample at Mr. Coconuts; everyone gags. He and Luan walk along the path.] "So, what's on the agenda? I saw a photo booth back there, we should jump in and give it a go."

Luan: "And memorialize this gross thing forever? I don't think so." [Gasps] "There he is." [On the dock, with his dummy in one hand and a bouquet of flowers in the other, Luan's beloved turns around and sees his date, the two approach each other.] "Hey Eddy."

Eddy: "What's happening Luan?," [regarding the bouquet] "These are for you," [Gives her the flowers] "they're from my new garden."

Luan: "Wow, daisies." [Smells them] "Ah, they smell so fresh."

Mr. Coconuts: "And this is for you buddy."

[Gives Eddo a little gift.]

Eddo: [Gasps] "Oh wow, wood polish." [Smells] "Mmm, smells so musky."

Eddy: "So, Luan, you ready for a fun day?"

Mr. Coconuts: "Are you kiddin' me? She's been countin' down the seconds."

[Luan covers his mouth, and laughs sheepishly.]

[Later, the two lovers are riding a paddleboat.]

Eddy: "Whew, oh, paddleboats are way harder than I thought, I'm getting a little sweaty here."

Luan: [Getting nervous, whispers to Mr. Coconuts.] "Oh no, am I sweating too?" [She looks into the water, and sees that her pimple has reemerged, she gasps and stands up.] "Uh, don't go anywhere, I'll be back in a splash."

[Laughs, then dives off the boat and backstrokes to shore.]

Eddy: [Laughs and takes out Eddo.] "Luan's hilarious, you just never know what she's going to do next."

Eddo: "Indeed, Eddy, she's a keeper."

[Eddy puts him away and paddles on.]

Luan: [Hiding behind a tree, takes out her phone.] "Oh, pick up, pick up, pick up, pick up."

Leni: "Hey Luan, are you having the best time ever?"

Luan: [Frantic] "No, the worst, I sweated all my makeup off. Can you bring me those makeup samples from Miguel? And meet me in the park bathroom?"

[Leni looks towards the bag, which they left next to the wrong person, everyone gasps when they see Lola putting it on her teddy bear.]

Lincoln: "Lola used up all the makeup!"

Lola: "What! Mr. Sprinkles wanted to see what he'd look like as a princess." [Whispers to Mr. Sprinkles] "Dashing I might add."

Me: He does look really cute.

Varie: He sure does.

Luan: "Ugh! Just grab my emergency clown bag in the trunk, and hurry."

Me: We're on our way Luan!

[At the park entrance, Luan is hiding just outside the bathroom.]

Mr. Coconuts: "Look, the photo booth is open, we could snap a few."

Luan: "Ugh! Not now Mr. C."

[Vanzilla pulls up, and Lincoln comes out with a duffle bag.]

Lincoln: "Hey Luan, is this the right bag?" [Opens it, and gets a pie to the face

SPLAT!

Lincoln: [aggravated] "Yup."

Luan: [Takes the bag] "Sorry Lincoln, now where's my face paint?"

Me: I think it's right here.

I pulled it out.

Luan: Thanks J.D.

Laney: I still think he should like her for who she is.

Edd: I agree Laney.

[Under a tree, Benny starts a vinyl record, and sees Luan the Clown strut up to him.]

Eddy: [Laughs] "Love the new look."

Luan: "Oh, you know me, always clowning around." [Sits on the blanket, and puts Mr. Coconuts down.] "Wow Eddy, this picnic is so nice."

Eddy: [Hold up a plate] "Care for a macaron? My Mom and I made them last night."

Luan: "Yes, please."

[She and Mr. Coconuts each take one.]

Mr. Coconuts: "And he bakes, hang on to this one."

Park kid: [Offscreen] "Look, a clown."

UH OH!

[Luan looks, and sees a number of kids after her.]

Luan: [Takes off] "Umm, I'll be right back." [The kids chase Luan, and trample Eddy, Luan dives into a bush and the kids run right past her. Luan calls her siblings again.] "Turns out it wasn't a great idea to dress like a clown in a park full of small children, I need a new cover for my zit."

Lincoln: "Copy that." [Vanzilla turns around, and later pulls up at the park, Lincoln looks around.] "Cover, cover, cover." [Suddenly he sees Flip]

Flip: "Get your flippees here! Now also serving hotdogs! And for a limited time; cotton candy!"

Laney: (Growls) That Flip!

[Lincoln snaps his fingers getting an idea. Later, Luan walks up to Eddy with a cotton candy beard.]

Luan:: "Ho ho ho, got any more of those cookies for Santa?"

Eddy: "(Laughs) Wow, all the way from the North Pole. Wanna play some chess?"

[Luan nods. Later, Eddy is trying to decide on his first move. Meanwhile a bee lands on Luan's beard and she gets nervous, suddenly a swarm shows up and eats the cotton candy beard off Luan, who gasps, tries to hide her zit, and picks up a discarded newspaper, she nervously laughs.]

Eddy: [To himself] "If I move my bishop here…"

[A wind comes and blows Luan's newspaper away, and Eddy's hair over his face.]

Eddo: "And just leave your rook flappin' in the breaze?"

[Luan grabs a branch from above and uses it to cover her zit, but a bird swoops in and grabs it away.]

Eddy: "But then Luan will probably move her queen there."

Flip: [To someone dressed as a unicorn giving out balloons right in front of his cart.] "Hey scram, would you?! This is my turf."

Luan: [Stands up] "Sorry, gotta pee real quick." [Takes off]

POW!

I punched Flip in the mouth and knocked out some of his teeth.

Me: Cheap Jerk.

Eddy: "Oh, okay, we'll be here." [Makes his move]

Luan: [Returns wearing the unicorn head.] "What do you think of my new look? Too corny?"

Eddy: [Laughs] "No I love it. Okay, I finally made my move, it's your turn."

Luan: "Hmm…" [Hears a horse] "Huh?"

[The park ranger's horse makes lovey eyes at Luan and runs after her, dropping the ranger.]

Mr. Coconuts: "Looks like somebody's got a crush."

Luan: [Gets up] "Uh-oh, sorry I uh, gotta go, uh, charge my phone."

Eddy: [Growing despondent] "But you just got back," [looks at his watch] "and we don't have that much time left."

Luan: [Takes off] Won't be long." [Eddy sits there, while the horse gallops past him, and he doesn't see Luan behind him, running from the horse screaming. She dives into a bush again and the horse passes her, she runs back, but hers stuck in the knothole of a tree.] "Oh-no." [She tries to free herself, but she can't so she calls her siblings again.] "Mayday! I need your help."

Lynn: "Okay everybody, on the count of three. One, two, three."

[They all pull a rope tied to Luan, and they get her out, but the unicorn head falls off, Lynn helps her up.]

Leni: "Are you okay?"

Luan: "I've been better."

Me: Sorry about that Luan.

Eddy: [Offscreen, looking for his date.] "Luan?!"

Lola: [Sees Eddy heading their way.] "Eddy at six o'clock." [Throws mud on Luan's face to cover her zit.]

Lynn: "Everybody, form a wall."

[The siblings lock elbows, and hide Luan. Eddy walks up to them.]

Eddy: "Uh, hey Luan," [observing] "and all of Luan's siblings. Is everything okay? I'm really sorry but my mom is on her way o pick me up."

Luan: "No, I'm sorry, today was supposed to be about spending time together, but now our date is almost over, and I've spent the whole time hiding from you."

Eddy: "Why have you been hiding?"

Luan: "Oh, I'll show you." [Her siblings, except Lori, protest.] "Guys, it's okay." [She moves them aside, and walks up to Eddy.] "I've been hiding this." [Wipes the mud off, exposing her zit, Mr. Coconuts is horrified by it.] "I understand if you don't wanna hang out with me anymore, I mean; who wants to date a girl with a gross pimple on her cheek? Right?"

Eddy: "Umm, I do, I don't care if you have a pimple, you're still you, you're sweet, you crack me up, and you're so much fun to hang out with."

Luan: Really?

Eddy: I'm your boyfriend, Luan. I don't care what you look like. (sighs) Besides, I went through a similar thing back in Peach Creek.

Me: When was this Eddy?

Eddy: Before the Vengeance Express broke out.

Edd: We were doing a scam for fishing where we were fishing in Ed's backyard pond and Eddy had a big zit on his head.

Ed: Yeah it was funny. All the kids laughed at him and it grew to the size of a bowling ball.

Eddy: But Rolf used a remedy from his country that made it go away. It worked but it ended up shrinking my head.

Laney: Wow! That's really something.

Me: Wow. I'm really impressed.

Varie: That's really cool.

[Luan is so flattered, but the moment is broken up when Lola comes up to Eddy.]

Lola: "So romantic, you wouldn't happen to have a little brother would you?"

Eddy: (Laughs) No I don't Lola.

Lori: [Takes her and the other siblings away.] "Alright, let's go." [Winks at Luan.]

Me: We'll leave you guys alone.

Varie: Yeah. Have a good time.

Ed: Now that the date is done, can I pop Luan's zit?

Everyone: NO!

Ed: Aww.

We left.

Eddy: "Pimples are no big deal, they're just a part of life."

Luan: "You're right, thanks for making me feel better, I'm sorry I wasted our whole date obsessing about this."

Eddy: [Takes Luan's hand.] "Well, we still have five minutes before my mom gets here."

Luan: "Ooh, I know what we should do."

[Later, they take a photo of themselves looking cool, and another of them being goofy, and one making it clear that Luan has a pimple. They laugh outside the photo booth.]

Eddy: "These turned out great, I'm gonna hang a copy in my locker."

Luan: "I was thinking the same thing."

Eddy: See, Luan? You didn't need to hide anything from me. If I learned anything from the Vengeance Exoress, it's that the outside doesn't matter. The inside does.

Luan: That's true.

Eddy: [Gives Luan his copy.] "I had a really nice time with you today."

Luan: "Me to."

[They blush at each other, when suddenly another slip comes out of the photo booth.]

Eddy & Luan: "What the?"

[The photos are of Mr. Coconuts and Eddo holding each other as brothers. Eddy grabs the curtain with one hand, Luan grabs his other arm, and they look. Mr. Coconuts and Eddo are indeed inside the booth, and the two human lovers gasp, blushing, when Eddo falls onto the ground headfirst.]

FLASHBACK ENDS

We laughed at that.

Lori: That was literally a fun time for them.

Eddy: It sure was.

Me: That was a fun date though.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another Loud House Episode done.

A Pimple Plan was a funny and really cute episode that aired in November of last year and it was really cute. The episode we had this use lines and references from was from X Marks the Ed and that was one of my favorites and it was really funny! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the first monsters that Johnny Test faced: The Boyborgs and they were deadly. Get ready for a robot war like no other.

See you all tomorrow.

Invasion of the Robo-Gills

At the estate, me, Lily and Lincoln were playing Video Games. We were playing Super Smash Bros. Ultimate and I was playing as Donkey Kong, Lincoln was playing as Zero Suit Samus and Lily was playing as Princess Zelda.

Me: I got you guys now!

Lana and Nico were watching and so was Marinette and Adrien.

Adrien: Go get them J.D.!

Lana: Yeah!

Nico: It's gonna be close.

Marinette: It's really close.

Lily: YEAH!

Lily won.

Me: Oh man!

Lincoln: Lily is really good.

Me: She sure is.

Marinette: How did Lily get so good at Video Games like this?

Me: She's learning how to be the next Goddess of Video Games from my daughter Nicole.

Nicole: That's right Marinette. When I was a little girl, dad took me to the arcade and I was a legend already in it. That's when I saw the coveted title for the God of Video Gaming. I trained very hard with a lot of concentration and training, I beat the three games needed to get it: Wreck-It-Ralph, Hero Duty and Sugar Rush. I beat all three games at the same time. I got this awesome tattoo as a result.

She revealed her tattoo and it was awesome.

Marinette: Wow. Awesome tattoo.

Nicole: Thanks. Ever since then, no one has even come close to beating me in any video game.

Lincoln: That still is so cool.

Nico: It sure is.

Adrien: That is amazing. And Lily and Lincoln are your students, Nicole?

Nicole: They sure are. They are my proteges.

Shaggy then came out and he had a platter full of fritters.

Nico: What you got there Shaggy?

Shaggy: These are one of my favorites from Georgia. Ma and Pa Skillet's Funky Fritters. We made our own version of them when we were there to solve the case of the Ghost of The Gator Ghoul.

Me: I remember these. Boy I haven't had these in years. These are what got me into super spicy food.

Nico: Wow.

Lincoln: These look tasty.

Qin: Oh boy.

We tried them and they were delicious and tasty and they were really spicy and awesome.

Lincoln: Whoa! Those are (Wheezes) Delicious!

Nico: (Munching) Wow! Delicious!

Lily: I'll say!

Qin: Boy these are really good! (Munching) Delicious!

Lana: I'll say! (Munching)

Lynn came down.

Lynn: Hey guys. (Sniffs the air) Wow! What smells spicy and delicious?

Me: Shaggy's recipe he learned from Ma and Pa Skillet when we were there in Georgia.

Shaggy: It's called Funky Fritters. I learned the recipe when we were there to solve the case of the Ghost of the Gator Ghoul.

Lynn: Cool!

Lana: What's in them Shaggy?

Shaggy: Well, Like there's 10 whole chili peppers, 2 ounces Tabasco Sauce, 1 pound hot pepper and 4 cups of hot mustard. We had to quadruple everything when we were down there.

Me: With us was Scooby Doo's cousin Scooby Dum and he was fun.

Lana: That is really spicy stuff and really good too.

Lincoln: You said it.

Nico: Boy you are one awesomely spicy guy Shaggy. Same to you J.D.

Me: Thanks Nico.

Lynn: Cool.

Lynn tried a fritter and she was in spicy heaven. Red smoke came out of her ears.

Lynn: Whoa! Those are really good!

Shaggy: Like thanks Lynn.

Me: We should add the Funky Fritters to the Lynn's Table menu as appetizers.

Nico: Good idea.

Ed: Hey guys.

Me: Hi Ed.

Ed: Marinette, I have someone I would like you to meet.

Marinette: Who is it Ed?

Ed pulled out his chunk of stinky rotten cheese: Sheldon Jr.

Ed: Meet Sheldon Jr.

Marinette: EW!

Ed: He's my lucky cheese chunk.

Plagg then went at it.

Adrien: Plagg, no! You can't eat Sheldon Jr.! He's Ed's lucky cheese chunk.

Horsea: No matter how stinky he is.

Marinette: J.D., what does Kibal like to eat?

Me: He likes meat. I grew a meat tree outside and now he has a lot of meat to eat.

Nico Robin: Sounds like something that Luffy would love.

Nami: I remember that. Luffy loves a lot of meat.

Me: Boy I can tell.

Qin: Hey J.D., I heard from Lincoln that you guys went to Utah and defeated a couple of disgraced satellite workers because they were looking for gold.

Me: We sure did Qin. That was an interesting adventure. It was located in Scorpion Ridge, Utah. We found out that Steve, Laura and Max were mining gold all for themselves. So we brought them to justice and brought a new shipment of gold into Fort Knox.

Qin: Wow!

Me: Yep. We mined the gold and brought it to Fort Knox in Kentucky. It was over $300,000,000,000 in gold.

Qin: Whoa! That's a lot of gold!

Me: It sure was. And some good came out of it. We helped Solomon Grundy pass on to the Afterlife.

Nico: I heard about that!

Qin: Wow! That's amazing!

Killer Frost: Wow! I always thought Grundy was killed by you. When word got out when the Legion of Doom was still active we were gonna try to avenge him. But I didn't know that.

Me: Yep. He was already dead. But we helped him get to the other side.

Lincoln: Yep.

Qin: That's incredible. Solomon Grundy is also a famous nursery rhyme.

Me: Yep.

Then Susan & Mary came down with a really heavy box.

Susan Test: Guys, can you help us throw these out?

Rubberband Man: What are you girls throwing out?

Mary Test: Just some failed inventions that are beyond upgrading.

Me: Sure we can help you.

We got the box ready and loaded it in the car.

Me: Wow. Whatever is in here is heavy.

Susan Test: That's the Boyborgs we have in here.

Me: Are these them? They look like boy robots.

Mary Test: Yep. These are them.

Me: They look in every way like Gill but with different hair styles.

Susan Test: That's right.

Laney: What was their purpose?

Susan Test: We were going to make Gill jealous and have him care for us.

---

Boyborgs are the robotic machines designed to look like Gil Nexdor, built by Susan and Mary Test. They are the main antagonists of Johnny vs. Super Soaking Cyborgs, after they learn that the Twins love Gil more than them and attempt to eliminate him.

Appearance

The Boyborgs appear to look like Gil; blonde parted hair, blue eyes, a striped shirt and white undershirt with cargo shorts with Will having an orange shirt, Bill having blue and Phil having green. However, they appear to have an overbite and a robotic facial appearance. They also have bolts along their arms as well as bolts that hold their lower jaw to their head.

Phil is the android who is dressed in a green shirt, helmet, and brown pants.

Bill is the android who is dressed in a yellow, red and orange shirt, helmet and brown pants.

Will is the android who is dressed in a dark blue shirt, helmet, and brown pants. He is the leader of the other 2.

Purpose

The Boyborgs were created in order to make Gil jealous of the Boyborgs when they would hold Susan and Mary in an attempt to make Gil care for them. However, when the Boyborgs learn that Susan and Mary loved Gil more than they loved them, they decided to destroy Gil.

---

Nico: That plan went south big time.

Mary Test: Yep.

Me: Well lets get these to the dump.

We loaded them in and took them to the dump. Rodimus Prime: Don't you think one of the bad guys still out there might be willing to hijack the remains of these failed inventions on the way to the garbage dump?

Johnny Test: Relax, dude. Who would be interested in failed inventions that my sisters made?

Me: A lot of people.

We arrived at the dump and threw them into the dump.

Me: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Rachel S.D.: You said it J.D.

Varie: Yep.

We went back home.

But little did we know, that someone was there and she saw us dump the Boyborgs from the shadows. It was Vypra. She is planning her next move.

Vypra: (sees the Boyborgs' remains) Poor things. All they wanted was the love of two girls. Well, I think it's time that they get a second chance.

Vypra put Dark Orbs near each of the Boyborgs and their parts start to reassemble themselves.

---

Back at the estate we were watching TV and Reading books. Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that Vypra has made her move and she was over in the dump.

Me: It's Vypra! She's at it again! She's at the dump!

Carter Grayson: Lets do it guys!

Lightspeed Rescue Rangers: LIGHTSPEED RESCUE!

The Lightspeed Rescue Rangers transformed.

Ryan Mitchell: TITANIUM POWER!

Ryan turned into the Titanium Power Ranger.

We were off to the dump.

---

GOTHAM ROYAL YORK DUMP

---

We arrived at the garbage dump.

Me: Here we are. Stay alert.

I had my V-Lancer ready.

Laney had her Thermo Blaster ready.

Laney: She could be anywhere.

Nico: Yeah.

Then a fireball flew at us!

Me: Watch out!

We got out of the way as it hit the ground and exploded with a powerful fiery exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Then out came the first monster that the Lightspeed Power Rangers defeated when they made their debut: GHOULIGAN!

---

Ghouligan is a fire demon who serves as the primary villain of the pilot episode of Power Rangers Lightspeed Rescue "Operation Lightspeed". He is the first monster the Lightspeed Rangers faced.

Ghouligan is a fire demon. He was sent by Diabolico to destroy Mariner Bay. He first appeared in a burning building, when Carter Grayson rescued a young girl in the building.

Later on, Ghouligan attacked Mariner Bay with an army of Batlings and encountered the rangers. While Chad, Joel, Kelsey and Dana tried to battle the Batlings, Carter fought against Ghouligan, but the demon easily defeated him. The Rangers morphed into Lightspeed Rangers for the first time and easily defeated all Ghouligan's Batlings. Together, the Rangers quickly defeated Ghouligan, and he was destroyed by the Rangers' Rescue Blasters.

---

Ghouligan: It's been a long time Lightspeed Rescue Rangers.

Carter Grayson: Ghouligan!

Me: I remember this guy! He was the first ever monster you all defeated.

Kelsey Winslow: That's right.

Dana Mitchell: He was a tough one though.

Me: But he doesn't know that you're now members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

I fired my V-Lancer blaster and it hit Ghouligan and exploded all over and Laney fired her Thermo Blaster and the blast hit him and Ghouligan exploded into a fiery explosion.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

Ghouligan was dead. Again.

Me: YEAH!

Carter Grayson: Nice job guys!

Me: Thanks Carter. But we're not done yet!

We saw Vypra and with her was the Boyborgs.

Carter Grayson: What have you done, Vypra?!

Vypra: I made the Boyborgs more powerful. (to the Test Sisters) All they wanted was for you two to love them. But you wanted to make Gill jealous. Well, now you're going to pay for using them like that!

Me: You made a big mistake Vypra. But bringing Ghouligan back was interesting. But I sense that the Boyborgs aren't the only ones with you.

Vypra: You're right J.D.

We heard ghoulish moaning and out came the Chocolate, Strawberry and Vanilla Technicolor Phantoms and the 10,000 Volt Ghost!

Nico: The Chocolate, Strawberry and Vanilla Technicolor Phantoms!

Lincoln: And the 10,000 Volt Ghost!

Qin: Who are they really?

Nico: The Technicolor Phantoms were really Sammy the Shrimp and his henchmen. Sammy the Shrimp was the cleverest hijacker in the country and he stole an entire armored car from a local bank and painted it over to look like an ice cream truck to get the stolen money across the border.

Lincoln: The 10,000 Volt Ghost was really Mr. Voltner. He faked his death and he and Mayor Dudley were scaring away the citizens of Winterhaven so that they could buy the land very cheap. A new highway was going through the land and they wanted to make a fortune for it.

Me: Sammy the Shrimp got 40 years in Federal Prison for his crimes and Mayor Dudley and Voltner 30 years in prison for their crimes.

Laney: Wow!

Qin: Good riddance. And I'll bet they got life in prison without parole when they swore to get even with Mystery Inc.

Me: Bingo. They got Federal Conspiracy Charges and they got life without parole.

Kayla: But the fight is not gonna start without us. Let me face Vypra.

Me: Okay Kayla.

Vypra: (to Kayla) This isn't going to be like the other times your friends fought me. I knew you were going to be the next one to face me. So I made sure there were fire hydrants near our battle! (punches a fire hydrant open and it gets Kayla wet)

But Kayla had a powerful fire aura that was so strong that it turned the water into steam instantly.

Kayla: Nice try. But being spliced with the DNA and power of Moltres has given me incredible fire powers and they are stronger than anything of conventional means.

Kayla then formed a sword of pure fire and she spread her wings and Vypra had her sword ready.

Noah: I know the perfect Ranger Team to fight these scrapheaps!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Electronic Brigade!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Denziman rangers from 1980.

Boyborgs: GILL MUST BE ELIMINATED!

Maria: (to Susan and Mary) After this is over, you two need to decide which one of you wants to have Gill as a boyfriend.

Johnny Test: I agree.

We went at the Boyborgs and Nico went at the Technicolor Phantoms and Lincoln went at the 10,000 Volt Ghost and Kayla was fighting Vypra.

Nico punched the chocolate phantom in the face and kicked the strawberry phantom in the mouth and punched the Vanilla phantom in the face and kicked it in the stomach and Kicked him in the face and he fired a powerful blast of fire and melted them.

Lincoln was facing the 10,000 Volt Ghost. Lincoln went Super Angel 20,000 Supercell Thunderbird.

Lincoln: Lets see who has more powerful lightning.

Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning at 10 Novemdecillion Volts of electricity and the 10,000 Volt Ghost fired a powerful blast of electricity at… Well… 10,000 Volts. The blasts collided and lightning struck most of the garbage all over the place and lit it all on fire. Massive fiery explosions blasted all over the place and it was turned the entire garbage dump into a raging and epic inferno.

Varie: We got to get this fire under control or the whole city is gonna burn!

Lola: Right!

Sam S.L., Lola, Aylene C., Taranee, Suzi (Camp Lakebottom), Jared and Carlitos were absorbing all the fire and it was a really raging conflagration that defied all logic. The fire kept on pouring into them.

Lincoln's lightning overpowered the 10,000 Volt Ghost and it hit him and overloaded him. The 10,000 Volt Ghost exploded into nothing.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Kayla was clashing with Vypra and they were really clashing with their swords and blasts of fire and energy. Fiery explosions were blowing much of the dump apart and setting it all on fire.

Kayla kicked her in the face and fired a powerful blast of fire and burned Vypra's arm.

We then set our sights on the Boyborgs and I punched one in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Nico punched one in the stomach and kicked him in the face and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted one. The Megaforce Rangers blasted them with their weapons and so did the Lightspeed Rescue Power Rangers.

Susan and Mary Test fired a bunch of laser blasts and they hit one and exploded. Blowing a hole in their chests and revealing their power source.

Me: Their power source is a dark orb!

Nico: So that's it! Vypra is using the dark orbs scattered across the planet for her evil plans.

Me: She really was crafty. Lets show her some teamwork!

Ben: You got it J.D.!

Ben turned into Frankenstrike!

Ben: FRANKENSTRIKE!

Ben fired a powerful blast of lightning and Jinx fired a blast of pink energy.

Frankenstrike and Jinx: LIGHTNING LUCK ELECTROCUTION!

The blasts hit one of the Boyborgs and electrocuted it.

Frankenstrike: Time for some eating!

Ben turned into Upchuck!

Ben: UPCHUCK!

Upchuck ate some garbage.

Circe: You better cover your ears Qin. This is gonna be loud.

Qin: Okay.

Me: Uh oh! Cover your ears guys! This is gonna be loud!

We did so.

Circe formed her second mouth and it was a powerful tube-like megaphone mouth.

Upchuck fired a powerful energy and Circe fired a powerful super ultra loud blast of sound.

Upchuck and Circe (Generator Rex): ULTRA SOUND SUPERSTRIKE!

The blasts hit the first Boyborg and it hit him and exploded. Destroying him and the 1st dark orb and we got a massive power boost.

Circe retracted her mouth.

Qin: Whoa! Circe you weren't kidding! That was really loud!

Circe: Yeah. Sorry about that.

Qin: No worries.

Nico: Wow! That was powerful!

Lincoln: We were shocked ourselves when we heard it.

Kayla and Vypra were evenly matched and then Beverly Holiday swooped in and kicked Vypra in the face with incredible force and sent her crashing into the garbage. Vypra got up and then Beverly ran fast and kicked her in the stomach and punched her in the face again. She moved with such amazing speed and attacked with incredible strength. She was really pounding Vypra into dust.

We were really shocked and amazed!

Motormaster: Time for some action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Cyclone Gun 100-fold.

Rubberband Man: Lets stretch! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his super stretchy powers 100-fold.

Motormaster and Rubberband Man: CYCLONE MEGASTRETCH FIST!

Motormaster fired a powerful blast of wind from his Cyclone Gun and Rubberband Man formed a huge stretch fist and the wind merged with it and it slammed into the 2nd Boyborg and smashed him in half.

Horsea: Time for some action! POKEMON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Pokemon Cyber Planet Key went into Horsea's right fin device and it enhanced her powers 100-fold.

Rodimus Prime: Time for some pain! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his High Voltage Photon Eliminator 100-fold.

Horsea and Rodimus Prime: LIGHTNING BUBBLE MEGABLAST!

Horsea fired a powerful bubblebeam blast and Rodimus Prime fired a powerful lightning blast and the lightning merged with the bubbles and they hit the second Boyborg and exploded. Destroying it.

Me: Two down and one to go! Lets finish him with our final smashes!

Johnny Test: With pleasure! ATOMIC FLAME BLADE BURST!

Johnny Test fired a blast of atomic energy and it turned into a blade and it cut the boyborg in half.

Carter Grayson: Time for some Red Ranger Power! THERMO BLASTER FIRESTORM!

Carter Grayson fired a powerful blast of red energy from his Thermo Blaster and it hit the Boyborg and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Susan & Mary Test: Take this freak! MOLECULAR DISINTEGRATOR BLAST!

They fired a powerful blast of energy from their hands and it hit the third Boyborg and destroyed it.

Me: That's that.

Beverly Holiday was overwhelming Vypra and she punched her in the face and sent her crashing into the ground.

We stood ready to face her.

Me: It's over Vypra!

Vypra: Next time, you're all history! (teleports out)

William: You'd better run!

Me: Nice! But Beverly, that was unbelievable!

Beverly: I didn't know I could do all that.

Me: I think some of my energy must've gotten into you during the curing we did and gave you powers. Your E.V.O. form had enhanced durability, super speed, super strength and superhuman agility.

Beverly: That's true. I'll have to talk to Rebecca about it.

Me: Maybe we can find out when we go on a tour of Providence tomorrow.

Nico: Nice!

Carter Grayson: But that was amazing. (To the viewers) This was a powerful fight and never dump garbage where villains can get to it.

Lincoln: That's right.

Nico: Yep.

We laughed.

We later went back to the estate.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction and another awesome Johnny Test Villain defeated.

The Boyborgs were one of the first villains that Johnny Test and his family destroyed. They were funny. Ghouligan was a wicked awesome monster from Lightspeed Rescue was a deadly one. We decided to include the appearances of two of the Scooby Doo monsters that they faced and one of the monsters from the Power Rangers series. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the Goosebumps book How to Kill a Monster and there are thousands of ways to do that and there's only one way we do it.

See you tomorrow.

Infinite Ways to Kill a Monster

On the cliffs of Lake Huron, we were walking over to the powerful government organization Providence.

Qin: Wow! So that's Providence.

Me: Yep. It's a very powerful military organization designed for the purpose of Containing, Curing and killing of Hostile E.V.O.'s

Rex: It's a powerful job and I was the best E.V.O. chosen for it.

Me: Yep.

We went in.

We were inside Providence.

---

Providence is a global, clandestine military organization that was created in response to the Nanite Event. Providence's initial function was to contain or kill hostile EVOs. Over time, the organization discovered a teenager named Rex Salazar, a human-passing EVO capable of curing other EVOs. Providence then decided to take a more ethical approach to make curing EVOs their top objective.

Originally, Providence was funded and created by a group of elites known as the Consortium. Eventually, White Knight was granted leadership of the organization-that equivalent to a commander-in-chief. Seeing that he was promoted from a Providence agent, it is unknown who his predecessor is. However, after White Knight "betrayed" the organization, he was replaced with Black Knight. The object of Providence was changed yet again, planning to weaponize EVOs through mind-control and make the public fear them through propaganda. White Knight later reclaimed his position of the organization.

Providence is a secretive organization that is protective of its actions, especially in the case of Rex, who they claimed as their secret weapon in the war against EVOs. Providence was a growing military that attained many agents within years since its initiation. As opposed to general military groups, Providence has one of the most advanced weaponry and equipment for the sole purpose of suppressing EVO activity.

Founded in collaboration by the governments of the world in response to the Nanite Event, Providence uses its army to combat the EVO threat. This army is made up of thousands of loyal soldiers willing to risk their lives for the cause.

The organization was once run and funded by the Consortium, a group of wealthy and powerful individuals involved in the fields of international finance and business. The committee typically appoints a leader to control Providence on a daily basis, despite the group retaining its ownership and true objectives.

When Providence was first starting out, the organization's primary method of dealing with EVOs was to kill or capture them. Even EVOs that they captured were only held long enough to be experimented on and dissected for study. After Agent Six discovered Rex, an EVO with the ability to cure other EVOs, Providence eventually adopted their current way of handling EVOs: curing them when they can, containing them when necessary, and only killing them as a last resort.

The organization also began to receive greater funding from the world's governments due to this non-violent approach. However, White Knight would still occasionally order his troops to take lethal action against EVOs, but only in extremely dire situations. Following the six month time-skip, Providence underwent several changes due to White Knight's removal and replacement by Black Knight as leader.

The organization began to focus on the capture and control of EVOs using Caesar's technology. Control collars and brain-washing machines were also used as weapons against EVOs through the implementation of devices that shoot the collars like projectiles to ensnare unsuspecting prey. Following Black Knight's appointment, the Consortium took a much stronger hold over Providence's functions.

They focused the bulk of their resources on the task of finding and obtaining five Meta-Nanites, each containing a unique ability that allows the user to control the forces of the universe. Providence also restarted the Nanite Project with Caesar as its new leader, and directed several of their operations towards finding the surviving scientists to aid in the completion of their plans. Van Kleiss, Peter Meechum, and Gabriel Rylander were recruited to work alongside Caesar in the completion of their assignment. The reunited research team was shown to have completed a new nanite generator.

After the fight with Black Knight and the Consortium, who had received powers of the Meta-Nanites, White Knight took over Providence and saved Rex. The Providence Defect Group joined back into Providence. Due to the Consortium gaining the power of the Meta-Nanites and becoming the enemy of Providence, it can be assumed that now, only international governments will provide the funding for the organization.

Training and exercise

Before officially joining Providence, every Providence soldier must start out as a cadet at Providence Basic Training. Cadets are tested on their physical and mental skills to determine whether they are capable of working for Providence. Providence Basic Training is very challenging to complete, as most cadets have caved and quit under the pressure. Others have been simply sent home because they could not simply complete extremely difficult missions or tasks. Outside of Basic Training, Providence headquarters sometimes send out their agents on global exercises to train with other Providence operatives from around the world.

Uniforms

Commonly, Providence uniforms have a black and white color scheme. As a para-military organization, agents have their own rankings. Agents with different rankings have subtle differences in their uniforms, presumably for a signature look.

By rank

Agents wear black suits along with a black balaclava with a white rectangle at the level of their eyes-their version of goggles. They also wear white vests along with white backpacks, utility belts, and boots. An admiral's uniform differs from an average agent's by the addition of a white sash worn over the left shoulder and a white pad on the right. A captain's uniform differs from an average agent's by partially switched colors. The captain's shirt is white while the vest is black, everything else remains. A sergeant's uniform is similar to an average agent's except for a white blank shoulder sleeve insignia and lack of a mask. Lastly, a cadet's uniform is no different than the average Providence agent's. However, cadets are not seen wearing masks, backpacks, or utility belts.

There are doctors that primarily wear knee-long white robes to stand out from the agent profession. They usually wear large goggles when working in labs. When out in the field, scientists uniforms are exact replicas of the common uniform, however, the colors are swapped.

Function

There are uniforms that help accommodate agents for particular purposes such as espionage, aerial & underwater travel, and certain weather conditions. For instance, pilot suits are mostly black, with a few white colored additions such as extra chest protection, belts, and padding. The helmet is mostly black with wide vision range and white stripes on its sides. Additionally, the helmet has special tubes connected to a device located on the collar of the suit. The uniform also includes black boots.

Stealths suit, which is capable of making agents camouflage with their surroundings, do not differ much from the average Providence suit. The stealth mode is activated by pulling up the mask over the mouth of the agent, making the user invisible to the naked eye. Agents also have uniforms they wear to go underwater. Like a regular scuba diving suit, it comes with flippers, goggles, and an oxygen tank. The uniform maintains its signature black and white aesthetic. There are even space suits used to protect agents from the harsh environments of outer space.

When in frigid weather conditions, agents appear to wear extra garments such as white winter coats. Providence agents that worked at Paradise wore this all the time.

Equipment

Most of Providence's vehicles, technology, weapons, and uniforms are white in color, sometimes with shades of gray and black tones. Because of its international funding, Providence is kept up to date on the latest high-tech equipment.

Weapons and gear

Providence agents are well-equipped with various kinds of high-end technology in their EVO suppression operations-some being more common than others. The most common and least effective weapon a Providence agent must carry is an EVO blaster. Aside from its design, it acts just like any ordinary firearm. For the purpose of fending off hostile opponents, they also possess tasers that are similar to batons. Rarely do they use far more powerful weapons such as missile launchers, neural detention grids, or Providence broilers. Katanas were implemented under Black Knight's administration and were exclusive for elite agents.

Providence agents of the future.

After Black Knight attained leadership of Providence, she formed an elite group of Providence agents. They appeared to wear dark grey vests, over full black suits with black masks that possessed rectangular, glowing goggles. However, there are only a select few. Unlike a majority of Providence agents, not only are the elite agents skilled in basic marksmanship, they are also trained in the art of swordsmanship and stealth. They are far more agile and evasive than the average agent, making them formidable when fighting opponents. Rex dubbed them "Black Pawns". It is later revealed that the elite agents are nothing more than androids programmed to serve Black Knight's every command. They are the only subset of agents that remained loyal to Black Knight after White Knight regained his position.

Threat levels

According to Rex, the lower the threat level, the larger the threat. The threat levels go from five to one, with five being the least and one being the most.

---

Me: Here we are guys. This is Providence.

Qin: Whoa! It's amazing!

Lincoln: We were amazed ourselves when we first saw it.

Then we were greeted by White Knight.

White Knight: (smiles) Hello, Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome back to Providence!

Me: Good to see you too White Knight, sir.

Qin: Who is he?

Me: That's White Knight. He's the leader and boss of Providence.

I went over his history.

---

White Knight, also known as White, was the former (now reinstated) leader of Providence, an organization dedicated to eliminating the threat of EVOs. The only known nanite-free person on the planet, he almost always stays in his white sterile office, communicating his orders only through two-way television screens. He doesn't want to touch or even be near EVOs because he fears they'll infect him with nanites, which hinted his dislike for Rex Salazar.

He hired Noah Nixon to keep an eye on Rex and tends to view Rex only as a weapon against the EVOs, instead of a regular person. He's willing to go to great lengths to win the war against EVOs, even if it means sacrificing the lives of innocent people that get in the way.

After Rex traveled six months into the future, White Knight was fired from Providence after attempting a hostile takeover of the facility because of it going under new management. He defected from Providence and joined a small group of his own. Through the experiences, he started to view Rex as a person and was no longer threatened by other sane EVOs.

At least six years ago, it was hinted that White and Agent Six were working together as mercenaries before the Nanite Event. Most likely at Six's suggestion, the duo went to work for Providence. Several years later, White and Six were called in to halt the rampage of a giant bio-mechanical EVO. Much to White's surprise, Six had rescued a young Rex in the area where the EVO had rampaged, and would later discover that they were one and the same.

The additional discovery that Rex had the ability to cure other EVOs prompted White to kidnap Rex and bring him to the head of R&D, Doctor Fell, to have him reverse engineer Rex's powers. Six and White got into a fight over the life of Rex which had accidentally overloaded the molecular disassembling chamber that was being used to study Rex. White rescued Six and brought him to safety but he was caught in the destruction of the machine.

Rex deactivated the machine before it killed him and the accident stripped White Knight of his nanites. White Knight was then promoted to leader of Providence. His nanite-free condition made him "the perfect poster boy for the operation," as he put it, but as a consequence, he was trapped in a sterile nanite free environment for the rest of his life to prevent reinfection with nanites.

Despite saving his life, White would never forget the monster that Rex was when he was found and began construction of a weaponized hazmat suit to kill him if he ever turned back.

---

Qin: Wow! But that must be crazy having to be the only nanite-free human left.

Me: It's a terrible curse. Ever since the Nanite Event he was trapped in his room ever since.

White Knight: Considering my history, I'm surprised you guys didn't beat me up when you first met me.

Edd: Well, you only did what you had to do to protect people from E.V.O.'s. And it must have been lonely to have been the only human on Rex's earth not to be infected with Nanites.

Ben: Not to mention that he did help out against Alpha.

Xerneas: Really? How?

Qin: Who is Alpha? You mean the rogue Agent Alpha?

Me: No. This is a completely different Alpha. It was called the Alpha Nanite.

Ben: It was the toughest villain me and Rex ever faced.

Rex: It sure was.

I went over its history.

Alpha is an old creation of Rex's brother, Caesar, and the main villain from Ben 10-Generator Rex: Heroes United.

Alpha was originally created in the early days of the nanites project as a means of manufacturing nanites able to be adapted for any need. Caesar programmed it with artificial intelligence so that it could control the nanites as they did their tasks.

However, Alpha became unstable with every mechanical body it formed, quickly burning out. It tried to take over an organic body, forcing Caesar to banish it to what he thought was as an empty pocket dimension. In actuality, it was the Null Void, a dimension where galactic criminals were banished, and Alpha apparently absorbed alien life, gaining a new form. It also managed to absorb alien technology that used a dimensional equivalent to nanites, giving it the power it needed to return to Rex's world to seek out Caesar, so as to stabilize itself.

Battle with Rex and Ben

However, as Alpha returned, it accidentally brought Ben Tennyson with it and upon arriving, it headed into New York City while Ben and Rex engaged each other. Alpha was interested by the presence of nanites in the humans and creatures all around it. Six attacked it, cutting a piece off of its mechanical body, which came into Caesar's possession. However, Alpha's body self-destructed, putting Six in a coma, and it later began tailing Rex and Ben.

When they met up with Caesar, Alpha showed up and attacked them, trying to get its "father" to stabilize it. Ben, Rex, and Caesar retreated to Caesar's lab, but Alpha pursued them and attacked again, though Ben and Rex escaped.

Alpha invaded Rex's base, trying to absorb all the E.V.O.s inside to get their nanites. When Ben and Rex showed up, Alpha went after Rex, hoping to gain his Omega nanite, which was its key to becoming perfect and stabilizing itself. However, Ben and Rex managed to drive Alpha off, forcing it to seek another source of nanites.

Alpha headed to the location of the second-largest nanite concentration, the Bug Jar, which was a whole city of E.V.O.s. Rex, Ben, and White Knight arrived to stop Alpha, but by the time that they arrived, it had already absorbed the nanites of every E.V.O. in the Bug Jar, gaining a new monstrous form. They began fighting and Alpha continued to try and absorb Rex's Omega nanite. Eventually it hacked Ben's Ultimatrix so as to gain more power, thanks to the inactive nanites Ben absorbed earlier. This allowed Alpha to form its own corrupt Ultimatrix and transform into mutated E.V.O. versions of Ben's aliens. It continued to try to absorb Rex's Omega nanite and Ben managed to briefly transform into Shocksquatch, catching Alpha off guard. Rex eventually managed to disable Alpha's Ultimatrix, but was finally caught, allowing it to absorb the Omega nanite and transform again. Declaring itself Alpha-Omega, it rampaged through the Bug Jar, absorbing ruined buildings and forming them into new nanites. Rex doubted that he could stop the nanite monster without his Omega nanite, but Ben turned into Upgrade and merged with Rex. They were able to take on and weaken Alpha-Omega, before Caesar showed up and extracted the Omega nanite. Thus, Rex was able to compress Alpha into a small sphere of matter and Caesar opened a rift for Ben to get home. Before doing so, Ben transformed into Upchuck and swallowed the cube Alpha had been compacted into, returning him to the Null Void before heading back to his own dimension. However, Alpha began stirring, cracking its matter prison in the depths of the Null Void. Alpha never returned after this.

Personality

Alpha is heartless and cruel, constantly seeking to accomplish its own goals. It looks upon Nanites as its brethren and considers Caesar its father, despite the fact that Caesar cares nothing for it. Alpha also considers the E.V.O.s superior to humans because of their active nanites.

Abilities

Alpha is made of a non-organic compound and can take over living creatures and machines, as well as drain nanites from E.V.O.s to increase its own power. It can also absorb machines to gain their abilities, such as the Ultimatrix. When Alpha did so, it formed its own Ultimatrix, allowing it to turn into even stronger E.V.O. versions of Ben's aliens.

---

Qin gasped in shock!

Qin: That's both horrible and amazing at the same time!

Me: Yeah. Alpha was a failed experiment from the very beginning. But the Alpha Nanite proved to be the most deadliest and most formidable adversary that Ben and Rex have ever faced.

Qin: Wow.

Me: But we don't have to worry about him. But Rex has to face a lot of E.V.O.'s on a daily basis like we do as we face the villains we take down.

Agent Six: Kleiss and the Pack might be dead. But Vypra could resurrect them. And there are still plenty of enemies that Rex has dealt with before that are still at large.

Dead End: Not to worry. Those scum will get what's coming to them eventually.

White Knight: You know, most people would think killing villains is still murder. (smirks) Fortunately, I'm not one of those people who think that.

Me: Glad to hear that White Knight.

Lana: That's right.

Me: Lets show you around.

We showed her around. We showed her Rex's Room and it was snazzy and we also saw the containment cell where Ben was.

Kevin Levin: (to Ben) So, this is where you stayed at while you were chasing down Alpha.

Ben: Yep. This is where I was held for a bit.

Me: Nice.

Rex: But let me show you something really cool.

We went to a special habitat and greenhouse for the less hostile animal E.V.O.'s and it was called The Petting Zoo.

---

The Petting Zoo is a section of Providence Headquarters that houses many plant and animal E.V.O.'s. The zoo, which functions as a self-contained ecosystem, has been around since the early days of Providence and was in use before Providence Headquarters was fully constructed. The vast majority of E.V.O.'s in the Petting Zoo are harmless to Providence agents. However, there are exceptions; the ones that are considered dangerous are taken to the Hole.

Areas

There are many sections of the Petting Zoo both for the human scientists and the EVO residents.

The Hole

A prison-like containment area found in the Petting Zoo. A spider E.V.O. was formerly kept there, and during that time, Doc Holiday visited there often, as the EVO was her sister.

Research tower

The research tower is a part of the zoo housing many computers and technology for studying the creatures in the zoo. It is evident that there are holding cells and underground ducts as well. This tower can ascend and descend to different heights.

Weapon storage

Several types of weapons used for subduing E.V.O.s are stored here, from stun rods to tranquilizer guns.

Forest

A large forest presumably made up of E.V.O. flora, such as Blinky.

Lake

A massive river where Mel and presumably other aquatic E.V.O.s are kept.

Notable Petting Zoo E.V.O.s

Mel: Mel is a giant alligator-like E.V.O. that has three tentacle-like tongues.

Blinky: This E.V.O. is simply a tree with many eyes and can form human-like hands from its branches in an attempt to grab prey.

Lizard E.V.O.: A creature that tried to injure Rex and Noah.

Stork E.V.O.: A dangerous turkey-like E.V.O. that is seen in the swamp. It attacked Rex and Noah two times, almost injuring them at one point.

Rhinocerage: These E.V.O.'s tried to attack Doctor Holiday and Rex but were driven off by Doc's tranquillizer gun.

Rabbit E.V.O.'s: A female rabbit E.V.O. was captured and gave birth in captivity to a litter of rabbit E.V.O.'s.

---

Me: This is the Petting Zoo. It's home to many plant and animal E.V.O.'s

Qin: Wow! It's like a greenhouse and a jungle in here.

Me: That was my first thought too.

Laney: Yeah and it's crawling with all kinds of E.V.O.'s.

Lincoln: It sure is amazing here.

An Aligator E.V.O. then appeared and Edzilla roared at it and scared it off.

Me: Bravo Ed!

Eddy: Nice one Lumpy.

Ed: Thank you very much.

Noah Carver: It sure looks amazing in here though.

Me: But let me show you all where we found Beverly.

We went to the Hole.

---

The Hole is a containment area in the Petting Zoo where dangerous and incurable EVOs were held captive.

During Noah's first stay over at Providence Headquarters, Doctor Holiday's sister, Beverly Holiday, had broken out of The Hole and captured the Providence agents stationed in the Petting Zoo's research tower.

The Hole was later destroyed after Rex attempted to escape Providence. However, it was quickly rebuilt and used to hold other incurable and dangerous EVOs.

Trivia

It seems that The Hole's cells are so effective that E.V.O. imprisoned there do not need to be restrained with collars.

---

Me: There it is guys. The Hole.

Qin: Wow. It looks like a Solitary Confinement cell block.

Laney: That's exactly what I said when we first saw it.

Me: Yep. It's also where we found Dr. Rebecca Holiday's sister Beverly.

Beverly Holiday: I remember that. It took an amazing amount of energy from you and Rex to cure me.

Me: Yeah. It took 25% of my power to help cure her.

Qin: But you have infinite power now right?

Me: Not back then I didn't. Back then my powers were starting to evolve and I got more powerful and new incredible abilities as I mastered my powers. My power was limited back then. But now I have infinite power.

Breach: This is also where they recruited me and saved me from myself.

Laney: Yeah.

We then went to go talk to Dr. Holiday.

We saw her working on a new device that can help with Incurable E.V.O.'s

Dr. Holiday: Hello guys.

Me: Hello doctor. We're just taking a tour of Providence. But we have a new revelation that surfaced in our last battle yesterday.

Kup: (to Doctor Holiday) Doc, I don't want you to freak out. But when we fought Vypra the other day, Beverly displayed the abilities of her E.V.O. form.

Me: But I think I have a hunch as to what happened. When me and Rex cured her, it infused her with some of my energy and it might have given her the powers she had as an E.V.O. minus the spider-like qualities.

Dr. Holiday: Hmm. That could be the case. Let me see here.

Dr. Holiday took Beverly to one of the fancy machines and she did a scan on her and it showed that my energy merged with her DNA and it caused the inert nanites in her to reactivate with her own energy and color and it caused them to give her new powers and abilities.

Dr. Holiday: Your hunch is indeed correct J.D. Your energy after you and Rex cured her merged with her DNA and reactivated her inert nanites and gave her new powers and abilities.

Me: Wow! So she's now Half-E.V.O. in a sense.

Dr. Holiday: That's right. Your powers have given Beverly the next giant step in human evolution.

Lori: Wow! So she's literally one of the first ever advanced superhumans.

Dr. Holiday: Exactly.

Me: That's incredible!

Nico: No kidding. I think this is gonna be amazing for her.

Beverly Holiday: I think so too.

May: Yeah.

Qin: I have a question. What kinds of E.V.O.'s are there?

Dr. Holiday: There are many different kinds of E.V.O.'s out there Qin. They come in many different shapes, sizes and types.

Dr. Holiday went over what kinds of E.V.O.'s there are.

Overview

Five years prior to the start of the series, a massive explosion released nanites into the atmosphere, infecting every living thing on Earth. These nanites randomly activate inside their hosts, mutating the subjects into monsters known as EVOs.

Besides triggering physical transformations, active nanites can also affect the hosts' minds, turning most EVOs into mindless creatures that know only destruction until they are cured. To combat the EVO threat, the global military force known as Providence was created.

Public reaction to EVOs is varied, with many people viewing EVOs as savage and dangerous. Even EVOs that have retained their sanity are often met with fear and suspicion. Nevertheless, there are people who are willing to peacefully coexist with EVOs, believing they have as much a right to the area as any person as long as the two groups don't bother each other. Some people even attend social events that promote cooperation between humans and EVOs.

Types of EVOs

Human EVOs

These EVOs are humans prior to their nanites activating. Most barely resemble their original forms and are mindless monsters who will attack anything, including former friends and family.

Although rare, some human EVOs are still aware of themselves and have a relatively humanoid appearance, such as Breach and Quarry. Even rarer are human EVOs who look completely normal as long as their powers remain inactivated, two notable examples being Rex and Circe.

Animal EVOs

Like their human counterparts, animals often undergo dramatic physical changes once their nanites activate. In some animals this transformation also increases aggression. A rarer occurrence is when the animal gains an immense intellectual boost, as in the case of Bobo Haha.

Arthropod EVOs

These are EVOs with arthropod characteristics. They can be dangerous because individual members of the swarm are connected; an entire nest will go EVO if one begins to change. Examples include Swarmers, Lomitle, and Liants.

Plant EVOs

These EVOs were simple plants until their nanites activated. Many become carnivorous after their mututations, such as Blinky, and are able to move their roots and branches at will.

Alien EVOs

This type of EVO is the rarest. While imitating the Ultimatrix, Alpha became several different alien lifeforms. The most notable examples would be Alpha Heatblast, Alpha Four Arms, and Alpha Humongosaur.

Incurable EVOs

Incurable EVOs have nanites that have been changed beyond repair, or have evolved beyond normal curing methods. Examples include Cricket, Tuck, Skwydd, and One. Most seem to have some awareness and possess human-level thought processes.

Virus EVOs

Virus EVOs are microscopic organisms that have been altered by the nanites and developed a form of symbiosis with their host, usually another EVO. They will do anything possible to protect the host, and in turn, to protect themselves. The only example of this bizarre symbiosis is Patient Zero and Peter Meechum.

Ghostly EVOs

These EVOs can change into an invisible cloud of nanites. Strong magnets and ice are effective in pulling the EVO back together to be cured.

Genetic EVOs

These are EVOs whose nanites affect or have been affected by dormant traits in their genetics, resulting in unusual mutation patterns. For example, Rex met a small community of werewolf-like EVOs in Mexico. In their case, the nanites had interacted with dormant "Werewolf Syndrome" genes in their bodies, creating an EVO mutation that takes hold at night and reverts at sunrise.

* * *

Qin: Wow! That's amazing!

Me: The Human E.V.O.'s are those that are like Tuck, Skwydd, Cricket, Breach, Circe and Rex. They are examples of those.

Nico: Incurable Nanites are also part of that group and they have Nanites that have been changed beyond repair or have evolved beyond normal methods.

Tuck: That's right. And me, Skwydd and Cricket fall into that category.

Me: Same with Biowulf, Skalamander and Van Kleiss.

Kevin Levin: That is really complex.

Lisa: Agreed. But learning all about nanomechanics and nanotechnology is a really fascinating field of science I can comprehend.

Dr. Holiday: It sure is something.

We later went back to the estate.

---

Back at the estate we were watching TV and reading books and playing card games.

Nico was reading a Goosebumps book called How To Kill A Monster.

William: (sees the Goosebumps book he's reading) How to Kill a Monster, huh? With us, there's an infinite number of ways.

Maria: But we use only one of those ways per kill.

Me: Energy blasts mostly. But that's a good one. Gretchen and her family dealt with a Swamp Monster in Atlanta, Georgia.

Nico: That's right. They succeeded in killing the first Swamp Monster they faced. But he has brothers and sisters.

Me: And they're going to be coming for vengeance. Something is telling me that they are going to need some help.

Laney: Then we got to get over there and help them out.

Me: Right!

Jaime: Lets do it! I'm always up for a challenge.

Me: Me too. Lets fly!

We were off to the Swamps of Atlanta, Georgia.

OKEFENOKEE SWAMP, GEORGIA

We arrived in the Okefenokee Swamp of Georgia and Florida. One of the most treacherous swamps in the United States.

Me: Here we are guys. The Okefenokee Swamp, one of the most dangerous swamps in the world.

Lana: I think this is a cool swamp.

We saw that it was a creepy and terrifying swamp. Many birds were chirping and there were many frogs and toads croaking and a lot of alligators were hissing.

Laney: This place gives me the creeps.

Lola: Me too.

Lucy: Exactly.

Carly Beth Caldwell: So where does Gretchen Allen live?

Me: It says in a swamp house.

Grady Tucker: This place reminds me of Fever Swamp. But on a more terrifying scale.

Me: It sure does. Follow me and be careful guys.

We went to the Allen's Swamp House and we knocked on the door. Answering it was Gretchen Allen. Gretchen's hair is long, straight, and blond. She has green eyes and says that she looks quite a bit like her father.

Gretchen: Yes?

Me: Are you Gretchen Allen?

Gretchen: Wow! It's Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: At your service.

Gretchen Allen: It's an honor to meet you guys!

Captain America: The honor is ours. We've heard you have a Swamp Monster problem.

Iron Man: And we're the exterminators for that job!

Gretchen Allen: Really?

Lana: Sure.

Me: You can help us if you want.

Gretchen Allen: I would be honored.

Clark Allen: Count me in too.

Me: Okay.

?: Allow me to help you as well.

We turned and we saw SWAMP THING!

Me: Whoa! Swamp Thing!

Lincoln: Wow! The protector of life!

Laney: It's truly an honor.

Swamp Thing: Pleasure to meet all of you Team Loud Phoenix

Storm. The Justice League and the Avengers have told me so much about you.

Lincoln: I can tell.

Swamp Thing: I hope you do not mind me helping out. After all, these monsters threaten the Green.

Me: We gladly appreciate it Swamp Thing.

Gretchen: Yeah.

Me: Lets get those monsters.

We set out to find them and then we saw 6 monsters! They were hideously ugly!

How to Kill a Monster

The Swamp Monster is a creature that lives in the swamps of Georgia. It is a green-furred creature with the head of an alligator and a gorilla-like body. It had invaded the house of Gretchen and Clark's grandparents, causing them to lock it up in a hidden room.

Gretchen and Clark find the Swamp Monster in a hidden room. The Swamp Monster is concentrating on eating pancakes and doesn't notice Gretchen in the room. She turns to leave and he spies her. Dropping the pancakes on the ground, he trounces after her. Gretchen narrowly escapes the locked room, only to encounter Clark in the hall. The Swamp Monster escapes out into the hallway in pursuit of the children. The children run away in fear, dragging their dog Charley with them, who keeps trying to turn around and confront the monster. They make it down to the second floor and lock Charley in a bathroom to keep him safe. The children attempt to get their grandparents' attention, but can't seem to find them in the castle.

The Swamp monster proceeds to make it down the floors of the castle as Gretchen and Clark find letters that give them info on how to kill the Swamp Monster. Gretchen has a plan. The stairwell to the third floor is missing some planks as the children run up the stairs and then jump onto the banister, the Swamp monster will keep running and fall three stories down to the ground floor of the castle. The Swamp monster survived that attempt.

For the second attempt, Gretchen pours drain cleaner, rat poison, ammonia, and turpentine into the pie. As the monster makes its way to the kitchen, Gretchen throws some orange paint and mothballs into the pie for good measure. The two children hide under the kitchen table as the large Swamp Monster makes his way around the kitchen, sniffing at appliances. The Swamp Monster rips the oven door off and throws it across the kitchen. He retrieves the non-poisoned pies from the oven and shoves them whole into his mouth, then turns around and polishes off the third, adulterated pie. The two children huddle in fear as the Swamp Monster stands inches from them, licking the pie plate. Then the Swamp Monster's eyes pop out of its head and it falls to the floor, dead. Gretchen does not want to get too close but it looks like the monster isn't breathing.

The monster later appears alive in the kitchen doorway. Clark thinks it's going to eat him first since he threw the comic book at its head. Gretchen rightly reasons that the monster will likely eat both of them, since they did try to kill it and all. Gretchen, holding the shovel in both hands, attacks the Swamp monster in the stomach with the tool. The Swamp Monster picks the shovel from her hands and tosses it behind him back into the kitchen. Gretchen tries to grab the other shovel from the wall of the room, but the Swamp monster spots her movement and grabs that shovel as well, breaking it in two with his hands. Gretchen tells her brother to open that second envelope from the fridge. Before Clark can comply, the Swamp Monster grabs Gretchen's arm and pulls her closer to him, her face now in front of the Swamp Monster's rank alligator-like mouth. Charley the dog runs to the rescue, biting into the Swamp Monster's leg. The Swamp monster kicks his leg backwards, sending the dog flying across the room back into the kitchen. The Swamp monster pulls Gretchen's head into his mouth and extends his tongue, covering her entire face with the Swamp Monster's saliva as he licks her body to prepare for eating her. Before the Swamp Monster can close his jaws around Gretchen's head, he stops, removes her from his mouth and asks in English "You human?" Gretchen confirms she is. The Swamp Monster then bellows "I'm allergic to humans!" The Swamp monster dies for real this time.

The second letter that Gretchen reads state that the Swamp Monster had many brothers and sisters and that they come out at night.

---

Me: So those are the Swamp Monsters.

Laney: They sure are ugly!

?: And they aren't the only ones you have to face.

We saw with them two familiar monsters! They were MANTOR and the GHOST OF OLD IRON FACE!

---

Mantor

Mantor is the first Rinshi chosen by Dai Shi to fight the Jungle Fury Rangers. As his name applies, he has the spirit of the mantis. He serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Welcome to the Jungle".

Mantor was the first Rinshi chosen by Dai Shi to fight the Rangers. Dai Shi gave him the power of the mantis and sent him with the army of Rinshi soldiers to destroy Ocean Bluff. In the first battle with Rangers, Mantor easily used, his explosive ground slam to knock down Theo and Casey. Lily then showed up but was just as easily overpowered. But RJ appeared who defeated all of the Rinshi and forced Mantor back to his Rinshi Beast form who then retreated. Then Mantor returned, and now he fought with Casey. The Red Ranger used his power and defeated the monster. But Mantor used the fear he absorbed and enlarged himself. He wanted to kill The Rangers, but Master Mao defeated him and threw him out of the city. Dai Shi gave Mantor the last chance to destroy The Rangers and city and Camille gave him new powers. Mantor returned to the city and enlarged himself. Now he destroyed the dam of the city and went to smash the city. In the final battle with Rangers, Mantor was finally destroyed by Jungle Fury Megazord Spin Attack. Welcome to the Jungle

Personality

Mantor is cold and cunning Rinshi. He is very nasty, destructive, mean, hypocritical, sinister, villainous and power hungry. He is very arrogant, stubborn, treacherous, confident and will never stop at his goals. Mantor is a cowardly, he fights only when he knews he win. When he knows the opponent is stronger, he runs away. Despite his arrogant and confident personality, Mantor is complete looser. He wants to finish his goals, but always loose it. But he is also very loyal to Dai Shi and Camille.

Powers And Abilities

As a Rinshi Beast

Strength-Whilst his strength was not shown outside of his monster forms, Mantor is presumably much stronger than he was as a normal Rinshi..

Speaking-Unlike his Rinshi form, Mantor can speak in his Rinshi Beast form.

Fear Absorbtion-Even without turning into thier monster forms, Mantor can absorb fear to increase thier power.

Monster Transformation-Mantor can transform into his monster form at will.

Arsenal

Mantis Embelem-Mantor has a mantis embelem representing his animal spirit attached to his forehead. This can transform Mantor into his speaking forms as well as grant them thier monster form and powers.

As Mantor

Superhuman Strength: Mantor has great physical strength and is powerful enough to easily fight off the unmorphed Jungle Fury

Rangers. Whilst fighting an unmorphed Lilly, he was easily able to toss her quite a distance to land with her downed friends.

Durability-Despite just being the first monster of Jungle Fury, Mantor has extremely thick skin that allows him to take powerful hits from the Rangers and mentors without being harmed. Using his explosive slam on the Rangers caused a massive explosion in front of and around him without making him react at all. Being made to explode by some kind of energy pulse from RJ merely made him explode and revert back to his Rinshi Beast form.

Martial Arts-Mantor is very good at martial arts as he was easily able to overpower Lilly during thier battle.

Enlarging: like many other Rinshi Mantor can enlarge himself, using fear he absorbed.

Arsenal

Mantis Scythe Arms: Being a Pry-mantis-like beast, Mantor posses two blade arms for combat.

Explosive Slam-Mantor can slam his scythe arm into the ground with enough force to make the area explode in front of him. This is probably his strongest attack due to both the nature of his move and also because it sent Theo and Casey flying across the area.

Energy Cutters: Mantor can also launch white energy cutters from his scythes arms.

Old Iron Face

Physical appearance

Old Iron Face has an intimidating appearance. He has a huge masculine body built with a wide chest and broad shoulders with an iron mask covering his face, revealing his green eyes. His outfit sightly resembles a pirates with a captain's hat, a light blue long-sleeved collared shirt under a black tunic with a purple belt sash and jean colored pants with high black boots with shoe buckles.

Personality

Spooky, gruff, and mean-looking; stops at nothing to keep people away from Skull Island.

Powers and abilities

He was extremely strong, being able to bust down multiple locked stone doors with ease.

History

The Scooby-Doo Show

When Scooby-Doo and Shaggy Rogers discovered the sharks the ghost rode had torpedoes, they led Iron Face on a chase until Fred Jones caught him with a magnetic crane.

When Iron Face was unmasked, it was revealed that he wasn't a male, but a female: Mama Mione. Mama Mione had decided to pretend she was Old Iron Face and use the cafè to hide the fact that she smuggled convicts through an underground hideout on Skull Island. She then sent them out from her secret hideaway in a fake iron shark. She dressed as Old Iron Face to make sure nobody went to Skull Island and found where she smuggled and hid the escaped convicts.

---

Casey Rhodes: Mantor!

Mantor: Been a long time Rangers.

Me: I remember this guy! He was the first ever monster you defeated Casey!

Casey Rhodes: That's right.

Theo Martin: Yeah. He was tough too.

Qin: Who is the big guy with him?

Me: That's Old Iron Face! He was the most ruthless villain me and Mystery Inc. encountered.

Shaggy: Like yeah! He scared me and Scooby more than any other villain.

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: It was the disguise of former famous Water Skiing Champion Mama Mione.

I went over her history.

---

He first appeared in the The Scooby-Doo Show episode, The Creepy Case of The Iron Face. He was the disguise of a female chef named Mama Mione who was breaking convicts out of jail.

Scooby-Doo and The Cyber Chase

He later appears in the movie, Scooby-Doo and the Cyber Chase. He was the fifth and final monster both the real and cyber gang encountered while running from the phantom and the other monsters, just like his real world self, he is seen riding 2 mechanic sharks while on his way to the pier. He was later seen in the back room of the Wax Museum where he posed as a Wax version of himself to surpise the Velmas, only for him to be tripped into a vat of wax thanks to Velmas losing their glasses. he was later seen again chasing the Velmas into a petting zoo where they stopped to pet a baby goat, only for them to be chased again, However the father goat chase Iron Face instead and hit him into a hen's nest. He appeared one last time, along with the other monsters to capture the cyber gang, only to disappear after the real one got the Snax.

Scooby-Doo! Frankencreepy

Mama Mione recently appeared as one of the main antagonists of the movie, Scooby-Doo! Frankencreepy. She is a part of the conspiracy to get revenge on Mystery Incorporated.

---

Qin: Whoa! That's nuts!

Me: She got 30 to 40 years in federal prison for her crimes. But her sentence was extended to life without parole for orchestrating to kill my friends.

Qin: What a fiend!

Shaggy: But like, she did cook really good food too.

Me: You and your stomach Shaggy.

Casey Rhodes: Lets do it guys!

Me and the Jungle Fury Rangers: JUNGLE BEAST SPIRIT UNLEASHED!

The Jungle Fury Rangers transformed.

Casey Rhodes: WITH THE STRENGTH OF THE TIGER! JUNGLE FURY RED RANGER!

Theo Martin: WITH THE STEALTH OF THE JAGUAR! JUNGLE FURY BLUE RANGER!

Lily Chilean: WITH THE SPEED OF THE CHEETAH! JUNGLE FURY YELLOW RANGER!

R.J.: WITH THE COURAGE OF THE WOLF! JUNGLE FURY WOLF RANGER!

Dominic Hargen: WITH THE POWER OF THE RHINO! JUNGLE FURY RHINO RANGER!

Elephant Spirit Ranger: WITH THE SPIRIT OF THE ELEPHANT! JUNGLE FURY ELEPHANT RANGER!

Bat Spirit Ranger: WITH THE SPIRIT OF THE BAT! JUNGLE FURY BAT RANGER!

Shark Spirit Ranger: WITH THE SPIRIT OF THE SHARK! JUNGLE FURY SHARK RANGER!

Jarrod: WITH THE COURAGE OF A LION! JUNGLE FURY BLACK

LION RANGER!

Camille: WITH THE CUNNING OF A CHAMELEON! JUNGLE FURY CHAMELEON WARRIOR!

I revealed that I had a new Falcon Ranger form. I had the wings of a Peregrine Falcon, the fastest bird on the planet, falcon tail feathers and a sword with feather blades and I had a powerful Jungle Fury Blaster.

Me: WITH THE SWIFTNESS OF THE FALCON! J.D. KNUDSON, JUNGLE FURY FALCON FLYER!

Nico: Whoa! J.D. you look awesome as a Jungle Fury Ranger.

Me: This is new for me too Nico. Casey taught me so much at both the pizza shop and the dojo the Jungle Fury Rangers went to. It really has been beneficial.

Troy: Here's one way to kill a monster!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Alien!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Aquitar Rangers.

Maria: My water powers won't be needed for this one with the Megaforce Rangers.

Nico: True.

The Megaforce Rangers fired a powerful energy laser blast from their staffs and they hit Mantor and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM

But he wasn't finished yet.

I went at Mantor with incredible speed and slashed him all over and he was in a lot of pain.

Camille: Wow! What speed.

Casey Rhodes: J.D. is incredible!

Me: Lets charge up the Claw Cannon and you'll like the new enhancements I made to it.

Lily Chilman: Lets do it!

We called the Claw Cannon and it had more 8 powerful mini-cannons next to the main cannon and more activators.

Casey Rhodes: Whoa! Awesome!

Theo Martin: You really made it amazingly powerful!

Me: Thanks guys. Time for this guy to give up the power of the Mantis.

Spirit Elephant Ranger: Lets do it!

We charged it up with our Animal Spirits.

Me and the Jungle Fury Rangers: POWERED BY ANIMAL SPIRITS!

Me: FIRE!

Mantor: OH NO! NOT AGAIN!

We fired a powerful blast of multi-color energy that represents our spirit animals and it hit Mantor and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Mantor was dead.

Me: Bullseye!

Nico: Mantor, you have failed this world!

Me: YEAH!

Casey Rhodes: J.D. that was awesome!

Lily Chilman: You have learned so much from our show and from us in general.

Me: Normally my Spirit Animal is the Wolf, but the Falcon is perfect for me too.

Then Lisa had a green ring appear on her finger and it was a ring that will fit her as she grows. She had a green gem in it with the Spirit Animal of the Praying Mantis.

Isabelle: The Praying Mantis is a perfect spirit animal for you Lisa. They represent your intuition and wisdom brought about by patience and creativity.

Lisa: Wow. That's a really symbolic and amazing way to represent me.

Then a green light appear and out of the sky came a new Animal Crystal for Lisa. It landed in her hand and it was the Praying Mantis Zord Crystal.

Lisa: It's a new Animal Crystal. The Praying Mantis!

Me: Wow! That's amazing! Cole, I don't think they showed Wild Zords from the Insect world did they?

Cole: No this is a first for us.

Me: Yeah.

A Crystal Saber appeared in a holster on her left hip.

Lori: I'll take on Old Iron Face.

Me: Show no mercy Lori! Lets get the other monsters!

Lori then powered up to Super Angel level and she and Old Iron Face went at each other roaring in incredible fury! It erupted into a ferocious fight! Lori kicked Old Iron face in the face and she kicked him in the stomach with incredible force. They roared and went at each other and engaged in a ferocious fight! They grabbed each other and Lori punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and he punched her in the face and she kicked him in the face and he kicked her in the stomach and she punched him in the stomach and he punched her in the face twice and she dodged his third strike and punched him in the face and he kicked at her and she dodged his strike and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach. He came at her and puncher her all over with indiscriminate fury as a massive flurry of fisticuffs were pulverizing her and Lori punched him in the face and kicked him in the chest and punched him in the face again! He got up and went at her and punched her in the face and kicked her in the stomach with devastating force and she crashed into a rock and belched up a huge amount of blood. He grabbed her and threw her down and pile drove her and she belched up even more blood and it got on his face and he was screaming in pain as it burned him and she got up and punched him in the face and kicked him and punched him in the face and he punched Lori in the face with devastating force and knocked out some of her teeth and she was thrown to the ground and he jumped and just as he was about to smash her head in, she grabbed his foot and threw him into a rock and she kicked him with devastating force and she grabbed his arm and broke it. He then got up and viciously punched Lori in the stomach and she belched out a huge amount of blood and she punched him away. They were mercilessly thrashing each other and they weren't gonna give up until one of them dies! Lori punched him in the face with devastating force and he belched up a huge amount of blood and she kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face! Old Iron Face punched her in the stomach and kicked her in the face with devastating force and she belched up a huge amount of blood and she dealt him a deadly uppercut and kicked him in the face. He growled ferociously and punched her in the stomach and dealt her a deadly uppercut! Lori rebounded and formed a blade of wind and skewered him through his black heart!

Lori: GO TO HELL! AND STAY THERE YOU FUCKING SON OF A BITCH!

Old Iron face exploded into nothing and he was dead! Lori was badly beaten up and she was really thrashed. Bobby picked her up as she was badly mangled up.

Edzilla: ED SMASH SWAMP MONSTERS! (charges at the Swamp Monsters)

Raythor: (smirks) Another way to kill a monster is to use another monster.

They slammed into the monsters and ran them down. Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted some of them. Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and incinerated them.

Nico fired a powerful blast of energy and obliterated a couple of them. Rex formed his right arm into a powerful sword and he slashed them in half and Cricket used her powerful super agility and leg strength to smash them apart.

Ben: Time to try out a new Ultimate form.

Ben turned into Buzzshock!

Ben: BUZZSHOCK!

Buzzshock fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted the monsters.

Buzzshock: And try this.

Buzzshock activated a new Ultimate Form. It was ULTIMATE BUZZSHOCK! His appearance is radically changed since he goes ultimate. He has no longer the form of a battery and looks now like blue knight's torso. His neck and shoulders are condensators while his face and arms are transparent. His face under the glass is made of electricity, just like his arms. He has blue hands with four long fingers. He lacks a lower body which is replaced by an electric rod. His electric powers are largely enhanced as he now can regulate the voltage of his attacks. He also can create 'spectres' of electricity to attack his enemies. Another new ability is his discharge punch. His enemy is hit by a strong voltage but each time it has to discharge while leaving the body, the victim gets a shock. He also has limited weather control. He can levitate and create legs of electricity.

Ultimate Buzzshock: (Knightly British Voice) ULTIMATE BUZZSHOCK!

Me: Whoa! He's an Evolved Megawhatt!

Shanan: Wow! I've never seen a creature like this before!

Lincoln: Incredible!

Laney: Wow! It's amazing!

Ultimate Buzzshock: Watch this ladies and knaves.

Ultimate Buzzshock fired a powerful blast of lightning and it turned into deadly ghosts made of pure lightning and they hit the Swamp Monsters and electrocuted most of them.

Me: Whoa! That was powerful!

Luan: That was truly Electrifying! (Laughs) Get it?

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one Luan!

Me: (Laughs) That was funny!

Ultimate Buzzshock: Lets do some teamwork comrades.

Ben turned into Ditto!

Ben: DITTO!

Ditto split into 10 copies and Dust Man fired his Dust Crusher.

Ditto and Dust Man: SPLIXSON DUST CRUSH BOMB!

The Dust Crusher Bombs merged with the Splixson copies and turned them into kamikaze bombs. They hugged the Swamp Monsters and exploded and killed three monsters.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Me: WHOA! That was genius!

Yamcha: That's like what happened with me when I got killed by that Saibaman.

Me: I remember that Master Yamcha. That was terrible! Bulma was devastated when you died during that fight.

Yamcha: Yeah she was.

Ditto: I'm never doing that again.

Dust Man: I'll make a note of it. Sorry about that.

Ditto: No worries. Lets try this.

Ditto turned into Eye Guy!

Ben: EYE GUY!

Tundra Man: Let the show begin!

Tundra Man fired a powerful blast of ice wind with his Tundra Storm and Eye Guy fired a powerful blast of ice energy from a middle eye in his chest.

Eye Guy and Tundra Man: SUBZERO TUNDRA FREEZE BURST!

The blasts combined and they hit the Swamp Monsters and froze them solid.

Me: Boy that's what I call Getting Cold Feet! (Rimshot)

Luan: (Laughs) Good one J.D.!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Nico: That was a good one.

Me: Time for some Cyber Key Power!

Kup: Right boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his corrosive acid blaster 100-fold.

Xerneas: This is gonna be awesome! POKEMON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Pokemon Cyber Planet Key went into Xerneas's Right Arm device and enhanced her powers and archery skills 100-fold.

Kup and Xerneas: ACID LIFEARROW FIRESTORM!

Xerneas fired a powerful life arrow from her Bow and Kup fired a powerful blast of acid that merged with it and it skewered a Swamp Monster and killed it.

Dead End: Time for action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Compressor Air-Gun 100-fold.

Me: Here Kevin. You'll need this.

I pulled out a diamond made of solid Taydenite, a mineral that is used as a power source and for powerful cutting. Kevin touched it and he turned into solid Taydenite.

Kevin Levin: Thanks J.D. Where'd you get that piece of Taydenite anyway?

Me: Complicated story. I found it on the side of the road near a Nuclear Power Plant.

Ben: That's where we fought P'andor.

Me: That Rogue Prypiatosian-B you guys fought to prevent Aggregor from getting?

Gwen Tennyson: That's him.

Me: Boy that must've been one helluva challenge.

Riley: No kidding. You'll have to tell me about that later.

Kevin Levin: Okay. OMNITRIX CYBER KEY POWER!

The Omnitrix Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and it enhanced his powers 100-fold. He turned his arms into blades that are sharper than razor blades.

Dead End and Kevin Levin: AIR TAYDENITE SLASH!

Kevin went at the Swamp Monster and Dead End fired a powerful blast of wind that merged with his arm blades and Kevin slashed a Swamp Monster and cut it up really good and killed it.

There was only one Swamp Monster left.

Me: Lets finish this guy off!

Swamp Thing: Right! LIFE SWAMP PUNCH!

Swamp Thing had his arm glow with powerful energy and he punched the Swamp Monster with devastating force!

Varie: You need to look at yourself in the mirror and croak! WHIRLPOOL DRAGON MEGASLAM!

Varie fired a powerful blast of spinning water and it formed into a powerful dragon spinning with the power of 100 whirlpools and it slammed into the Swamp Monster and drenched him. The Salt Water was burning him.

Gretchen Allen: This is for terrorizing my family! SWAMP FIRE MEGABLAST!

Gretchen Allen fired a powerful blast of fire at the Swamp Monster and it hit him and incinerated him into nothing. All the Swamp Monsters were dead.

Nico: Swamp Monsters you have failed this world.

We cheered wildly.

Me: Yeah!

Gretchen Allen: (To the viewers) Not even the power of dangerous swamp monsters can stop the power of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Lincoln: No they can't.

---

Back in the estate at the infirmary, Lori was resting after she took a monster beating. She was in bed with casts on her leg and arm and she had bandages on her face and head. She took one helluva beating.

Me: Boy Lori, Old Iron Face really did a number on you.

Lori: He literally did. But I think this will be a good time to spend with my family while I recuperate.

Carol: Yeah but I think some R&R is perfect for you. It'll give you plenty of time to have fun with Bobby and your children.

Lori: Thanks Carol.

Me: Well get some rest Lori. You'll be better in a couple of weeks. Ratchet, Robo-Lori, Nurse Santiago and Bobby and your kids will take care of you.

Lori: Thanks guys.

We left and Lori was watching TV. She was gonna have a long road of recovery. Gretchen Allen and her brother were made honorary members of the Goosebumps Monster Busters.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another Goosebumps monster destroyed.

The Swamp Monsters from How to Kill a Monster were UG-LY! The episode versions were the most hideous versions of them all! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. We'll decide what the next Goosebumps Monster will be later. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the first ever Aladdin Series villain: Arburtus and we're going to burn that evil life sorcerer into ash!

See you all tomorrow.

The Evil Plant Sorcerer

In the middle of the city we were walking over to the mansion of Victor and Nora Fries.

Qin: So we're heading over to the mansion of Victor Fries? Wasn't he Mr. Freeze?

Me: Yes he was. But that was before we cured him.

Maria: We actually met Victor a few days after I got cured.

Top Man: Really? I didn't know that.

Me: It was a battle with fire and ice. But he was one of the villains that Batman faced that I felt sorry for because all he wanted was to bring his wife Nora back.

Gabriel: So in every way it was like with me and Emile.

Me: That's right Gabriel. But Nora Fries was diagnosed with a terminal illness and Victor put her in a Cryogenic Sleep until he could find a cure.

I went over Victor Fries's history.

---

Victor Fries, better known as Mr. Freeze, is a recurring antagonist in the DC Animated Universe, appearing as a minor antagonist in Batman: The Animated Series, The New Batman Adventures and Batman Beyond, and the titular main antagonist of the film Batman & Mr. Freeze: SubZero.

He is a Gothcorp scientist bent on saving his wife Nora who was mutated following an accident caused by his employer Ferris Boyle, making it so he couldn't survive in any warm environment without the use of a special suit. This incarnation of Mr. Freeze is known for completely reinventing the original character from the comics; transforming him from a cookie cutter mad scientist into a deeply tragic villain.

Heart of Ice

Victor Fries was once a stoic scientist who didn't really feel any happiness until he met Nora who later became his wife. Nora later became infected with a terminal illness that was rare so Victor used equipment from Gothcorp, the company he works for. However, Ferris Boyle the CEO shuts it down since Victor didn't have his authorization. He was later kicked into a table filled with unknown chemical by Boyle and left for dead.

Victor became unable to survive in warm temperatures and dons a suit that met his temperature needs and call himself Mr. Freeze. He recruits a group of henchmen to avenge his wife by destroying Gothcorp property and eventually tries to kill Boyle. However, Batman foiled that attempt and Freeze was sent to Arkham while Boyle gets arrested.

Deep Freeze

Months passed, Freeze was kidnapped from his prison cell by billionaire Grant Walker. Walker wanted Freeze to mutate him to become immortal. At first, he was reluctant, but agrees to do so after seeing that his wife Nora is still alive. He later helps Walker freeze the world but turns on him when he realizes that Nora would not leave him, but will hate him if he helps Walker with his goal. Freeze turned against Walker and destroyed his utopia society.

Mr. Freeze chose to stay with his wife and secluded himself from the public in a block of ice. The ice eventually drifted into the Arctic Ocean where Freeze found Koonak and adopted him as his own son. Mr. Freeze kept his wife in the containment cell until he could find a cure for her condition.

SubZero

An exploration crew crashed into Freeze's home, destroying Nora's container which progressed her illness. Mr. Freeze froze the entire crew and traveled back to Gotham City with his wife Nora, Koonak, and his two polar bears to look for his old colleague Gregory Belson who became head cryogenic researcher of Gothcorp. Freeze gave Belson a gold nugget to help him cure Nora with an organ transplant. Since they could not find any deceased donors, they decided to look for living donors.

Belson was reluctant at first but Freeze convinced him to help him by giving Belson a gold vein he found in the Arctic. Among the living donors they've searched, they chose Commissioner Gordon's daughter and Dick Grayson's girlfriend, Barbara Gordon as their donor and kidnapped her. Batman and Robin stopped the transplant and saw that Freeze's lair begins to collapse. Belson refused to continue the operation and tried to escape from the oil rig only to be crushed by the falling debris.

Freeze was still alive but his leg was broken. Batman tries to help him up but Freeze insisted that he, Robin and Barbara rescue Nora and Koonak first. After Koonak and Nora were taken to the Batwing, Batman tries to rescue Freeze, but a pipe hits him, causing him to drop Freeze to a fiery ocean. Mr. Freeze survived the fall and swam with his polar bears to shore. Freeze watched a TV news report about his presumed death and a successful organ transplant funded by Wayne Enterprises that cured Nora of her illness. Freeze walks with his polar bears back home as he was moved to tears of joy, relieved that Nora is finally cured and safe.

Cold Comfort

Freeze returns his new-found joy quickly evaporated. Nora had recovered, but believing her husband dead, remarried and left Gotham. At the same time, Fries' own condition worsened, and by the time kidnapped doctors were able to stabilize him, Fries was reduced to a head in a jar walking on mechanical spider-like legs, interacting with the outside world with a robotic suit. Faced with no probability of assuming a normal life with Nora, Freeze decides to take out his pain and loss on Gotham by freezing everyone and everything in it. Batman thwarted Fries, who went missing afterward. The next time Fries resurfaces would be decades later in the Batman Beyond episode, "Meltdown".

Meltdown

Fifty years after being thwarted by Batman, Fries' head was in storage at a facility belonging to Wayne-Powers, kept alive by having machines take care of his vital functions and not having aged a minute. Derek Powers, now Blight, is searching for a cure to his mutation. Dr. Stephanie Lake, a young ambitious researcher, recommends growing a new body for Powers, and transferring his consciousness into the new body. Victor Fries was to be the test subject.

Fries was thrilled to be able to feel again after the procedure, and decides to turnover a new leaf. Bruce Wayne is suspicious of his old foe, and instructs Terry McGinnis, the new Batman, to monitor him. Terry was not so convinced on the old man's suspicion. Fries' new found life was short, however, as he inexplicably relapses. At Derek's powers' instructions, Dr. Lake locked Victor in a chamber and increased the heat to weaken him enough to run a biopsy to determine the problem.

Freeze managed to escape, however, and returned to vengeance in his new cryogenic suit, which he had left in cold storage. For Power's and Lake's treachery, Mr. Freeze freezes them, despite Lake pleading for mercy. Lake is presumably killed at this point, encased completely in cold ice and no visible breathing holes. Freeze proceeds to destroy the facility. Batman tried to stop him, but Derek Powers, now in his Blight guise, broke out of his ice encasing and intervened, fighting them both.

Freeze finally managed to dispatch of Blight, blowing him out of the building, but his suit was damaged by Blight's radiation blast. Batman pleaded with Freeze to escape, but Freeze was determined to go down with the building, saying to Batman in a sad, regretful tone "Believe me, you're the only one who cares…", before sealing himself off. Batman escapes as the building collapses and explodes, killing Freeze in the process. Terry later admitted to Bruce that he was wrong about Freeze. Bruce replied that they both were.

---

Qin gasped.

Qin: I can't believe that happened to them! Boyle ruined their lives!

Lily: Well it wasn't all that bad. I managed to help cure Nora Fries. My curing water from my wings healed her and cured her disease.

Qin: Wow.

Nico: I heard about that. It was a joyful day for them.

Me: And we kept Victor under house arrest in our freezer set at -75˚ Fahrenheit until we can reverse his condition. And on Carol's birthday we got the cure.

Lincoln: I remember that! That was awesome!

Lisa: Indeed it was elder brother.

Qin: Wow! That was awesome!

Nico: It sure was.

Gabriel: I understand how Victor feels. Like him I was trying to bring back Emile as Hawk Moth.

Marinette: I know Gabriel. It's not your fault. You were just trying to bring your family back together.

Nathalie: Indeed.

Gabriel: I agree.

Qin: What happened to Boyle?

Me: We arrested him and got him sent to Federal Prison for 150 years without parole and he was also ordered to pay $200,000,000,000.00 in restitution to Victor and Nora.

Qin: Good riddance.

Laney: I hope he burns in hell.

Me: I have a feeling he already is. He made a lot of enemies in not just Gotham City, but a lot of parts of the country because of his corruption. When he got to prison just a few weeks into his sentence, some of his enemies were already there and they beat him to death. Killing him.

Nico: Good riddance. Ferris Boyle has failed this world.

Me: And then some. Because of his selfishness and corruption he paid the ultimate price.

Laney: Good. I'm glad he's gone.

Cybertron Ransack: But it's good that we never have to see him again.

Lincoln: Yep.

We arrived at the huge mansion of Victor and Nora Fries. It was an amazing mansion!

Me: Wow! They bought the old McKinsel estate.

Lincoln: Wow! That family is the most hated family in Michigan!

Nico: Why is that?

Me: They were investigated for the biggest human trafficking operation in the country. They would be hired as babysitters and then they would kidnap the children and sell them on the worlds black market for a fortune. It's how they got their money for their mansion. And we should know because we busted them shortly after we got back from our Worldwide Adventure.

Nico: Wow! That's amazing!

Laney: But that is completely inhumane doing that to innocent people!

Me: I know. But they were sentenced to spend 50 life sentences in a maximum security federal prison up in Alaska. They froze to death up there from frostbite.

Nico: Good riddance.

Me: All of their assets were seized and the entire mansion was placed on the market empty.

We went up to the mansion and knocked on the door and we were escorted in and Victor and Nora saw us.

Victor: Everyone!

Nora: Lily, J.D.! Welcome.

Me: It's good to see you all again Victor.

Blur: How have things been for you, Victor?

Stewie: (to Victor) And in case you're wondering, I did some modifications to Blur so he talks at a normal speed and not super fast.

Victor: I see. We're doing great!

Nora: We can't thank you guys enough for everything you've done for us.

We got to having a nice conversation.

Me: You guys have an awesome mansion like we do.

Victor: Thank you J.D. It was the best house ever.

Me: It sure is.

Then 2 girls came in playing. One was 10 years old and the 2nd one was around 7 years old.

Nora: These are our new adopted children. Delilah is the eldest girl, Olivia is the middle child. And…

Nora went to a crib and she pulled out a baby boy.

Nora: This is our newest biological son Noah.

Cybertron Ransack: (sees Victor and Nora's kids) Aw! They're so adorable!

Nico: They sure are.

Delilah: Wow! You're Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Olivia F.: You guys are our heroes! We love you guys!

Me: Glad we have some fans.

Nico: It's a pleasure to meet you both.

Delilah: Same here. We love all your adventures and they are so awesome.

Laney: We've had a lot of awesome adventures.

Me: We sure did.

Nora: Delilah and Olivia's biological parents died in a tragic plane crash when they were born.

Me: Oh no. I'm sorry.

Delilah: It's okay. But they are with us in spirit.

Lincoln: I thought you two looked familiar. We go to school together.

Delilah: That's right! Lincoln we didn't know you were a member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: I'm one of the founders of the team.

Me: The letter L on our logo is for the Loud family. K.L.A.W. That means K nudson- L oud- A nderson- W eather.

Olivia F.: Oh I get it.

Delilah: Wow! That's amazing!

Laney: Yep. Our family is one of the founders of the team.

Zoe: Me and Hercules found it too.

Riley: Yep. Same with me.

Me: And me as well. I came up with the team name.

Nora: Wow.

May: Victor, I just wanted to thank you for giving me your ice gun almost two years ago. Instead of people remembering all the bad stuff you did as Mr. Freeze, they'll know the good stuff I do with it.

Nico: And that's part of why you're my girlfriend.

Nico's Smeargle: Smeargle!

Later we went back to the estate.

---

Back at the estate, we went to check up on Lori. She was resting on the sofa with her leg on the table on a pillow and she was watching TV.

Me: How are you feeling Lori?

Lori: Still really sore.

Me: You really took one helluva beating. But Sora ran out of potions and he's over in Agrabah helping Aladdin with something.

Lori: I see. My kids are watching out for me and so is Bobby.

Me: Well you can sit this one out until we heal you.

Lori: Thanks J.D.

---

Later we were over in Agrabah in Jordan in the Middle East.

Me: Well we're back in Agrabah. So what's the problem Aladdin?

Aladdin: Jasmine is being plagued with nightmares about the evil plant sorcerer Arbutus.

Me: Arbutus?

Laney: Who is he?

Crysta: Laney, I've heard of him. He is widely known down in FernGully. He is a plant sorcerer that loves all of nature.

Crysta went over his history.

---

Arbutus is the main antagonist of the episode "Garden of Evil" of the Disney animated TV series Aladdin. He is an entity of nature who thinks of himself as an artist and he rules a Garden of his own creation, where many plants, flowers, and trees grown into artistic and fanciful forms of beauty and expression.

Many years ago, the Sultan, as a young man, came upon the Garden and explored it. The Sultan made the mistake of plucking a beautiful flower as a gift for his wife, which spurred the wrath of Arbutus. To quell his anger, the Sultan promised Arbutus whatever he wanted; Arbutus agreed, promising in twenty years time he would come and take the Sultan's dearest treasure.

Came he did, and Arbutus did indeed take what was dearest to the sultan; his daughter Jasmine. Taking the princess to his garden, Arbutus intended to have her become a part of his works of art and to critique them. He treated her cruelly, expressing his hatred of humanity's actions against nature for crass purposes (burning wood for warmth, allowing smoke to pollute the air and block out the sun, collecting flowers to die a slow death in a vase), causing Jasmine to understand why he treated her so off-handedly. Jasmine almost convinced Arbutus that humans aren't as bad as he thinks of them but Aladdin's sudden appearance dashes those doubts away. In the struggle, Aladdin managed to kill Arbutus, albeit inadvertently, by cutting the rose from his chest, causing Arbutus and his garden to wither and die, but Jasmine lamented his death.

Jasmine and Aladdin honored Arbutus by planting his rose, which seemed to take a breath, implying perhaps someday Arbutus may return to life.

Personality

Arbutus is artistic and imaginative, no doubt about it. He expresses his art in the forms of the plants he creates, shaping them into visions of beauty. He is an intelligent individual who loves his plants and even seems to think of them as his children. But he holds humanity in low regard due to them treating plants and nature like disposable objects and using them for crass purposes (cutting trees into lumber, burning wood for warmth, allowing smoke to pollute the air and block out the sun, collecting flowers to die a slow death in a vase), thus in return he treats humans as they would treat plants.

He is dry, cynical and somewhat gentlemanly, so he values beauty in many forms, and he thinks highly of himself and nature, claiming that blades may "sever every limb, every branch but [his] power will always bloom".

However, despite his antagonistic ways towards humans, Arbutus is truly a good-natured and thoughtful person who loves his garden as families love each other. And he was convinced by Jasmine that not all humans are bad, as some appreciate nature; the beauty of a flower, the shade of a tree, the joy of planting a seed and watching it grow. And he noted how Jasmine is named for the flower.

Powers and Abilities

As an entity of nature and plants, Arbutus can create any form of plant, from vines to thorns to trees to flowers, and shape them but he desires. He also seems to have the ability to send telepathic messages, as the Sultan dreamed his memory of meeting Arbutus and the promise he made to him. Whether or not this was Arbutus's doing is still unknown. Arbutus' garden seems to be tied to the life of its master; when Arbutus died his garden shriveled up and died with him.

---

Laney: Wow! So he's very artistic like me and loves plants as much as I do. He and I have so much in common when it comes to plants.

Poison Ivy: Same with me. And I was once an ecoterrorist.

Aladdin: I can tell.

Laney: But Arbutus sounds like he's trying to express his love for art like me.

Aladdin: You are a very caring person Laney. You love all plants like he does. Arbutus may be creative but he was never a bad guy to begin with.

Me: I can tell.

Sora: This doesn't make sense! Aladdin said that Arbutus isn't really a bad guy. He's just bitter towards humans because of how plants are treated.

Jack Spicer: Wait. Didn't Aladdin say that Arburtus is causing attacks at night?

Kairi: I think so.

Jack Spicer: Aladdin, After we meet up with you, we need to find Arbutus. I think I know what's going on.

Aladdin: What do you think it is?

Jack Spicer: Arbutus has a dark side that is doing all this at night.

Nico: That is a very strong possibility.

Me: Yeah.

Princess Peach: But we can help him be rid of it.

Me: That's a great idea and we can destroy the dark side.

Aladdin: Good thinking.

We set out for Arbutus's garden and it was a beautiful garden worthy of a hundred Eden's.

Me: WOW! Look at this place!

Laney: Arbutus is an amazing artist!

Lola: It's breathtaking!

Lily: So beautiful!

Lucy Loud: I could get used to this. It's a beautiful garden perfect for funerals.

Luna: Dude, it's beautiful here.

Luan: It sure is a garden in Bloom! (Laughs) Get it?

We laughed at Luan's Joke.

Me: (Laughs) Good one Luan.

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one!

We went into a central garden and we saw ARBUTUS!

Me: Arbutus.

Aladdin: Hello Arbutus.

Arbutus: Aladdin, Jasmine and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's a pleasure to see you.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Arbutus.

Aladdin: Same here.

Laney: It's a pleasure. We mean you no harm.

Laney forms a beautiful blue rose in her hand and she forms a beautiful tree full of many kinds of flowers.

Arbutus: Wow! Amazing creativity

Lincoln: Wow! Laney is just as creative with plants as she is with her paintings.

William: Arbutus, have you been experiencing blackouts for the past several nights.

Arbutus: I believe so. I thought it was because I was really tired.

William: I think that might be your Dark Side taking control of your body during those times.

Arbutus: That could be the case. But how can I get rid of it?

Me: Leave that to us.

I fired a powerful blast of magic and it hit Arbutus and it caused a black aura to come out of him and it separated and it turned into DARK ARBUTUS!

Dark Arbutus: Thank you all for freeing me. And now, it's time to make humanity pay!

Poison Ivy: From one plant user to another, that's not happening!

Troy Burrows: Time to cut this plant up!

Me: YEAH!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Goggle V Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Goggle V Rangers from 1983.

Then a groan was heard and out came the 2,000,000-year-old Caveman that Scooby Doo faced!

Me: It's the 2,000,000-Year-Old Caveman!

Qin: Wow! A Real Caveman!

Me: And a very prominent link in our human evolutionary chain.

Shaggy: Zoinks! I remember this creep!

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: He was really Professor Wayne who was after a powerful Marine Life Communicator.

I went over his history.

While fishing at a beach, Shaggy Rogers snagged and pulled ashore a giant block of ice containing a frozen caveman. Velma Dinkley recognized it as a 2,000,000-year-old caveman discovered in the Arctic and washed over the side of a research vessel during a storm. The kids took it to Oceanland and left it with two scientists, Professor Wayne and Professor Engstrom. After they leave, someone turned a space heater onto the caveman.

At the malt shop, Shaggy remembered that he left his fishing tackle at Oceanland, and the gang returned to pick it up. They found the doors ripped off their hinges, Wayne's torn parka, and the caveman thawed out and missing. The phone was broken, so the kids decided to investigate. They followed giant caveman tracks to the dock, where they saw Engstrom working a strange device and seemingly talking to a porpoise. He took fright and fled into a shack when he heard Scooby creeping up on him. When Fred Jones opened the door to the shack, they discovered the angry caveman, who chased them all about Oceanland.

After they escaped, Velma found a map showing the currents off Oceanland and an object anchored offshore. She, Shaggy and Scooby took a row boat out, where they found a fishing boat. While investigating, they got locked inside a room with an ice machine that was churning out giant ice blocks full blast. They escaped just before being crushed by the ice, only to find that their boat had been scuttled, so they paddle back to shore on an ice block.

Freddy resolved to catch the caveman and had Shaggy and Scooby (dressed as fish) lure the caveman to a spot where he and the girls could drop a net on him. But Daphne fell, pulling everyone else down into the net. The caveman chased them again, but was caught when he fell into the tank holding a giant clam. They pulled him out and unmasked him as Professor Wayne; Wayne had heard about the loss of the Arctic caveman and had constructed his own "frozen caveman" at the fishing boat, with the intent of letting it drift down to Oceanland. After its recovery, he melted it with an electric heater and disguised himself as the caveman with the idea of getting rid of Ingstrom and stealing his invention: a revolutionary marine life communicator. After Professor Wayne was taken away by the sheriff, Mystery Inc. headed to the malt shop where Scooby-Doo used the caveman costume as a dance partner.

---

Qin: Wow! That's nuts. But he's still part of mankind's evolutionary chain.

Me: That's right. He's a true example of a Homo Erectus Caveman from 2,000,000 years ago.

?: He's not the only one you have to face.

We saw a figure come out and it was the first monster that the Time Force Rangers faced: FLAMECON!

---

Biography

Like all other mutants, Flamecon was created in the result of the accident. This criminal was captured by the Time Force Rangers. Flamecon first appeared in the first episode, when he was frozen in the Cryo-prison. He was released by Ransik in the sixth episode. The mutant attacked Silver Hills and encountered the rangers. Wes easily defeated Flamecon. Flamecon cut his chain of DNA and enlarged himself. In the giant form he tried to battle the Time Force Zords, but was defeated by Time Force Megazord. Flamecon was defeated by Time Force Megazord Blue Mode and was eventually frozen by the Red Mode. He made two appearence, but was never named on screen, making his name notably fan-based.

Personality

Not much known about Flamecon's personality. Like many other mutants, he is very nasty and likes causing havoc and fighting the rangers. He is also very confident and thinks he can defeat rangers.

Powers And Abilities

Strength

Energy beams: Flamecon can shoot beams from his eyes.

Enlarging: Flamecon can enlarge himself, using his Seal Patch.

Arsenal

Chain: Flamecon use a chain battle.

---

Wes Collins: Flamecon!

Flamecon: Its been a long time Time Force Rangers!

Me: I remember this guy! He was the first ever monster you all defeated Wes.

Wes Collins: That's right.

Me: But lets fight on another planet!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the the mountain desert planet Glaren!

Me: This planet is perfect for your demise Dark Arbutus.

Wes Collins: Lets get him guys!

Time Force Rangers: TIME FOR TIME FORCE!

The Time Force Rangers transformed.

Eric Myers: QUANTUM POWER!

Eric Myers turned into the Quantum Ranger!

Clyde: I'll help the Time Force Rangers take on Flamecon.

Syd Chang: Get them Clyde!

Jen Scotts: Okay Clyde.

Me: I'll face the Caveman.

Nico: And we'll take on Dark Arbutus.

We went at them and I punched the Caveman in his face and he bashed me in the face with his club!

KRABLAM!

The power of the hit from his club broke my nose and gave me a huge black eye!

Me: OW!

I reset my nose and a huge crunch was heard.

Me: Geez! That was powerful! But so am I.

I punched the caveman in the stomach and wrapped him in vines.

Me: The scientific community would love to help you out my prehistoric friend.

Clyde fired a powerful time ray blast and it hit Flamecon's chain mace and destroyed it.

The Time Force Rangers then summoned the Vortex Cannon and Clyde had his own powerful Vortex Blaster. It was a brown blaster with the number 8 on it.

Me, Laney, Nico and Clyde added our own Vortex Blasters to the Vortex Cannon. I attached a Purple blaster with the Number 6, Laney attached a Cyan blaster with the number 7, Clyde attached a brown blaster with the number 8 and Nico attached an Orange Blaster with the number 9. We formed a powerful super vortex blaster.

Wes Collins had a clock target locked on Flamecon.

Wes Collins: Locked on target!

Me: FIRE!

We fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit Flamecon and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Flamecon was now a toy figure. Dead.

I picked him up and he was now a harmless toy figure.

Me: You know I've always wanted to start my own collection of Time Force Mutant Toys.

Nico: Flamecon has failed this timeline.

Me: He sure has.

Nico: Whoa! Nice shiner!

Me: Yeah the caveman bashed my face in. Ow.

Nico: No kidding.

Everyone else was facing Dark Arbutus. The Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over with their weapons and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him and Laney formed a plant sword and slashed him all over and burned him with sulfuric acid.

Ben: I've always wanted to try this.

Ben turned into Goop!

Ben: (Jellied Gurgling voice) GOOP!

Goop threw globs of sulfuric acid at Dark Arbutus and they burned him all over.

Goop: But try this!

He turned into his ultimate form and he was bigger and much different. He was 30 feet tall and he had 2 sets of eyes and instead of 1 stabilizer probe he had three stabilizer probes and he had much bigger jelly arms. He was now ULTIMATE GOOP!

Ultimate Goop: ULTIMATE GOOP!

Me: WHOA! An Evolved Polymorph!

Julie Yamamoto: That has to be the coolest version of Goop ever!

Riley: You said it Julie. This is amazing!

Shanan: I never saw an evolved Polymorph before.

Nico: It's a first for all of us.

May: Incredible!

Ultimate Goop: But watch what he can do.

Ultimate Goop fired a massive wave of acid and it hit Dark Arbutus and drenched him. He was screaming in agony as he was being burned.

Me: Thats gotta hurt!

Laney: No kidding.

Me: Lets finish him with some teamwork!

Ultimate Goop: You got it!

Ben then turned into Way Big!

Ben: WAY BIG!

Demolisher was ready and he fired laser blasts from his fingers and Way Big fired a powerful blast of energy from his arms.

Demolisher and Way Big: COSMIC LASER MEGA BARRAGE!

The blasts hit Dark Arbutus and exploded all over him.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Try this on.

My device on my left arm formed a laser blaster and missile launcher.

Me: (Echoing) CLEANSING LIGHT!

I fired a powerful laser blast of light and numerous missiles and they hit Dark Arbutus and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Nico: That was Beowulfmon's attack! Awesome!

Ben then turned into Spitter.

Ben: SPITTER!

Dive Man: Time for this guy to be drenched.

Spitter fired a powerful blast of water and Dive Man fired his Dive Torpedoes.

Spitter (Ben 10) and Dive Man: MAELSTROM TORPEDO BARRAGE!

The water hit Dark Arbutus and the torpedoes hit him and exploded with incredible power and fire.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Check this out.

I summoned EmperorGreymon's Dragon Soul Sword.

Me: (Echoing) PYRO DRAGONS!

I releases the eight dragon's veins dwelling within the ground, and then it became the final dragon itself and I pulverized the opponent with the Dragon Soul Sword.

Nico: Whoa! That was one of EmperorGreymon's powerful attacks!

Lincoln: Unbelievable!

Me: Now to hold him down so we can finish him!

I formed Storm Clouds in the sky and lightning struck all over the place.

Me (Echoing) HEAVEN'S THUNDER!

I called down powerful lightning dragons and it held Dark Arbutus in place.

Nico: That's one of Susanoomon's Attacks!

Cybertron Ransack: Time for some action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his back seat gun and turned it into a powerful cannon.

Top Man: Time for some action to spin forth! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and it enhanced his Top Spin 100-fold.

Cybertron Ransack and Top Man: LASER TOP SPINSTORM!

Top Man threw a powerful spinning top and Ransack fired a powerful laser blast that merged with it and it hit Dark Arbutus and burned him all over with powerful spinning fury.

Nico: Lets get him Smeargle! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into Nico's right arm device and it enhanced his Smeargle's abilities 100-fold.

Blur: Time for the need for speed! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his speed 100-fold.

Nico: Smeargle, use HYPER BEAM!

Smeargle charged up a Hyper Beam.

Nico Smeargle and Blur: HYPER SPEED PUNCH BLAST!

Smeargle fired a powerful blast of energy and Blur went faster than a bullet fired from a gun and he hit Dark Arbutus with devastating force and the Hyper Beam blast hit him and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: WHOA! What power!

May: The Hyper Beam is a very powerful move J.D.

Me: Wow. No kidding. Now lets finish him for good!

Princess Jasmine: (to Dark Arburtus) When you see Jafar in Hell, tell him we said Hi! DESERT TORNADO SUPERSPIN!

Princess Jasmine fired a powerful blast of wind and it hit Dark Arbutus and spun him around in a deadly spin.

Princess Peach: You will never terrorize Agrabah again! FIRE PEACH FIREBALL STRIKE!

Princess Peach turned into Fire Peach and she fired a massive fireball that hit Dark Arbutus and he was on fire.

Princess Rosalina: You are not worthy of the stars! GRAND STAR!

Rosalina summoned a Grand Star and the smaller stars launched Dark Arbutus into the main star and pulverized him all over.

Lola: Time for you to burn! FIRE DRAGON MEGA BURN!

Lola fired a massive blast of fire and it turned into a powerful dragon and it hit Dark Arbutus and incinerated him and killed him!

Me: Go to hell and stay there!

Then his spirit appeared.

Nicole: Or better yet, enjoy your new home in the Book of Vile Darkness! (Chants an incantation) ALDRUON ENLENTHRANEL VOSOLUN LIRUS-NOR!

Dark Arbutus was sucked into the Book of Vile Darkness.

He was gone forever.

Me: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

We were back on Earth and we had the Caveman tied up.

Arbutus: Thank you all so much for freeing me.

Me: You're welcome Arbutus.

Arbutus: To show my gratitude I have something for you.

He grew powerful herbs and gave them to Rosalina.

Rosalina: Are these herbs?

Arburtus: Yes. Give these to Lori and they will instantly heal her back to full strength.

Me: Thank you Arbutus.

Princess Jasmine: (To the viewers) Never mess with the beauty and love of nature or you will face us.

Me: You said it.

We went back home and made some herbal tea for Lori with the herbs we were given and Lori was healed instantly.

Lori: WHOA! What happened!? I feel better than ever!

Me: We were given herbs that healed you instantly.

Lori: Wow! I literally feel amazing. But J.D. what happened to your eye?

Me: I got smashed by the Caveman's club.

Nico: Yeah.

Laney: We faced the 2,000,000-Year-Old Caveman and he smashed J.D.'s face with his club.

Lori: Ouch.

Carol: Yikes.

Me: Yeah. But we turned the caveman over to the Paleozoic World Tertiary Exhibit for display.

Lana: That's amazing.

Me: But this was a cool adventure.

Nico: It sure was.

My eye would heal in 4 hours.

Another awesome fanfiction complete and the first villain of the Aladdin series defeated.

Arbutus was an awesome plant sorcerer and he was awesome! The Caveman from the Scooby Doo episode Scooby's Night with a Frozen Fright was a great villain and an awesome villain. But man did he pack a wallop. He stepped on Scooby's tail! Ouch! But it was funny how that anchor crushed his foot. But he was a villain that showed a great example of what happened during his step in our evolution. vinjedi1995 and NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Let me know what you all think. Next up we're going to face the biggest whale villain ever! MONSTRO! He was the biggest whale ever and he could swallow whole ships alive and he was one GINORMOUS WHALE! By the time we're done with him, he'll be turned into fish sticks.

See you all tomorrow.

A Puppet Boy and a Huge Whale!

In the Simulator, Nico was facing the ruthless Saiyan Commander and Chief, Nappa and Prince Vegeta before he became one of the good guys. Piccolo, Tien, Yamcha, Chiaotzu, Krillin, Young Gohan and Yamcha were watching as Nico was ready to fight.

---

General Nappa is an antagonist in the manga and anime series Dragon Ball Z (as well as the anime's redux Dragon Ball Z Kai). He is the secondary antagonist of the Saiyan Saga and one of the main characters of Dragon Ball FighterZ. He later appears as a brief villain in GT during the Super 17 Saga.

Despite his appearance of being in his early 30s, Nappa is actually roughly 50. He is one of the larger characters in terms of muscle mass. When younger, he had black hair, but he has since gone bald. Nappa is an arrogant, heartless, manipulative, obstreperous, egotistical, cocky, and violent brute who loves beating up anyone weaker than him. He is capable of being friendly, but like most other Saiyans, he is also very supercilious, persuasive, and hotheaded, with Raditz as a prime example. Despite this, he was the most honorable of the three before Vegeta reformed.

It is shown that Nappa can be loyal, generous, and trustworthy to other Saiyans. He was extremely dependable to Vegeta, and though he did not personally like Raditz, he still suggested bringing him back to life. Also, in an anime-only filler, Nappa was very depressed about the death of the many Saiyans. He was likewise shocked to hear that Vegeta mentioned that every Saiyan deserved to die just for not being half as psychically strong as himself. Both Nappa (and Raditz of all people) were also disgusted to hear that Vegeta was willing to serve Freeza after killing his father. On top of this, he was shocked that Vegeta would kill the Saibaman for losing to Tien; even saying it was still alive.

When faced with the prospect of losing to someone he considers a weakling, Nappa will let blind rage overwhelm his thought processing. With Vegeta having to regularly remind (or in extreme cases order) him to calm down.

Dragon Ball Z

Nappa was a member of the Saiyan race, and formerly served as commander-in-chief of the Saiyan army before the planet was destroyed. He accompanied Vegeta when he went to Earth. He is not as strong as Vegeta, but he is still strong enough to take on many of the heroes, even Son Goku at one point.

Upon hearing from Raditz about the Dragon Balls, Nappa and Vegeta decided to go to Earth to use the Dragon Balls to wish for immortality. Along the way, they stopped at Planet Arlia, where Nappa killed many of the wicked King Moai's guards, as well as his pet, the fearsome monster Yetti (Vegeta killed the king and blew up the planet).

When they arrived on Earth, Nappa destroyed a city with little effort. The two head toward the strongest energy they could sense, and thus ran into Piccolo and Son Gohan. After a short wait, everybody showed up for battle.

Nappa planted six seeds to grow into Saibamen to fight Yamcha, Tenshinhan, Chaozu, Kuririn, Gohan, and Piccolo. One Saibaman was capable of killing Yamcha, who was unaware of their secret ability of exploding. Kuririn, angry with Yamcha's death, kills most of them, with Piccolo killing the last one, so Nappa stepped up to fight. During the battle, Nappa showed himself to be vicious, sadistic and practically unbeatable. He cut off Tenshinhan's hand with a punch. Chaozu believed that the only way to defeat Nappa was to sacrifice himself, so he grabbed Nappa's back and self-destructed in a vain attempt to kill him, but Nappa survived, practically uninjured. As Tenshinhan attacked Nappa in revenge, Piccolo devised a plan to stop him. This failed, as Gohan froze with fear when it was his turn to attack and give the finishing blow. This causes Piccolo to scold Gohan, but it is later shown that this attack had an unlikely chance of succeeding anyway.

After Piccolo and Kuririn's Tri-Form was unsuccessful at beating

Nappa, Tenshinhan used all his lifeforce energy for a Kikoho as a final attack, which did no damage to Nappa but damaged his armor. After Tenshinhan died from using up all his energy, Vegeta ordered him to stop, as he was interested in seeing Kakarot (Son Goku) fight, and gave Kuririn, Piccolo, and Gohan three hours for Goku to show up. Nappa spent the time going on a rampage by destroying cities, boats, and planes (in the manga and in Kai, he destroys a camp set up to film the event, as well as a few jet planes. Nothing more). After three hours, Goku did not show up, however, so Nappa removed his broken armor and resumed the attack, promising to enjoy bullying them all for much longer.

Piccolo devised a plan to grab Nappa's tail, however this failed, as Nappa and Vegeta had become immune to having their tails squeezed, and Nappa hammered Piccolo. He nearly caught Kuririn's Kienzan (and would have been killed by it), but Vegeta warned him at the last second and he avoided it, but his face was scratched. This caused Nappa to lose all sense of restraint and put more effort into killing Kuririn. When Vegeta realized Goku was coming, he ordered Nappa to kill all three of them - even Piccolo, whom he had previously told to spare so he could ask him about the Dragon Balls. Nappa attacked Gohan, bullying him, sitting on him while face up, and threatening him with fart jokes. After getting up, he continuously mocking the boy's father, leading Gohan to attack him back with a powerful kick. This kick, however, had practically no effect, other than angering Nappa. Nappa beats Gohan tremendously, and prepares to kill him with a Deluxe Bomber. Piccolo, who had grown a good relationship with Goku's son, jumped in front of him, sacrificing himself to save him. This sacrifice was nearly in vain, and now, nothing could stop Nappa from killing Gohan. Fortunately, Goku showed up and saved his son with the Kinto'un.

Goku fought and found himself evenly matched with Nappa, due to Kaio's training. Originally, the fight seemed in Goku's favor, however, Nappa calmed down and focused his power, allowing him to fight on and even get in a few hits. Soon, Vegeta told Nappa to stop, realizing that his partner could not beat Goku without getting seriously injured. An infuriated Nappa then decided to go after Gohan and Kuririn, leaving Goku as their only hope. Goku could not catch up with Nappa, so he had to power up and reveal his new technique, the Kaio-ken, at x5. With this, he caught up with and crippled Nappa, being the first to take the mighty brute down.

Despite the heartfelt moment in which Nappa, who could not move his body, begged for Vegeta's help, the Saiyan prince threw him into the air and killed him with a Galaxy Buster, believing that Nappa has proven himself as no longer useful.

Dragonball GT

Nappa briefly returns in Dragonball GT. He, along with nearly all the Dragon Ball villains were revived and escaped Hell. He managed to destroy an entire city (just like when he first landed on Earth, but with even less effort). This shows that, like all Saiyans, Nappa's power and strength has grown tremendously as a result of being resurrected. Vegeta appears and the two seemingly "catch-up." Vegeta shows some signs of apology for mistreating Nappa, though the former Saiyan commander-in-chief is still enraged at being killed. Vegeta warns Nappa to cease his destruction, but his former partner attacks him immediately, so Vegeta effortlessly kills him again with an energy blast. He is later seen in Hell trying to attack Piccolo along with several Red Ribbon Army members and is defeated yet again off screen.

---

Nappa saw Nico.

Nappa: Well who do we have here?

Nico: It's over for you Nappa! You will pay for your crimes!

Nappa: Wait a second. I've seen you before. Who are you?

Nico: My name is Nicolas Chan. But everyone calls me Nico. I'm a Saiyan like you. My Saiyan name is Bokrua.

Nappa and Vegeta gasped when they heard Nico say his name.

Nappa: Weren't you supposed to be executed under orders of King Vegeta?

Nico: That's right. Vegeta's bastard of a father ordered for my death because of my unusual power level. But before the order could be carried out, my mother put me in a space pod and sent me to another dimension.

Krillin: Unusually high power level?

Young Gohan: What do you mean?

Nico: When I was born, my strength was tested and I had an unusually high power level of 100,000.

Everyone was shocked.

Piccolo: (Gasps) 100,000 at a baby!?

Yamcha: How in the world is that possible!

Tien: I don't know, but it's inconceivable!

Chiaotzu: Incredible!

Krillin: How can someone have all that power at such a young age!?

Young Gohan: It's mind boggling!

Nappa: But you should have died! (Charges at Nico) I'm going to crush you!

Nico then teleported and kicked him in the back of the head and knocked him down.

Nappa got up.

Nappa: You! You'll pay for that! You'll PAY!

Nico: We'll see about that. But I haven't even begun to fight.

Nappa: What!? Why you little!? That was luck! I'm the 2nd Strongest Saiyan in the universe!

Nico: Sorry to disappoint you but I have surpassed all the Saiyan's combined together.

Nappa: (Laughs) Bokrua! (Flares up aura) I'm gonna rip you apart!

He charged at Nico and punched and kicked at him and Nico was dodging all his attacks with incredible speed.

Nico's speed was so fast that it made it seem like Time was slowing down.

He threw a powerful punch and Nico teleported. Nappa looked for him.

Nico: I'm over here.

Nappa saw him 30 feet behind him.

Nappa: I'll get my hands on you and when I do!

Nico ran fast and teleported and he was standing on top of Nappa's bald head. Nappa then went to grab him and Nico teleported and punched him in the stomach with devastating force!

KROW!

The force of the punch was so strong and powerful that it really hurt Nappa and he belched up a huge amount of blood. Nico then kicked Nappa in the face with incredible force and sent him crashing into the ground.

He got up.

Nappa was growling ferociously.

Nappa: I was commander and chief of the whole Saiyan Army! You're nothing compared to me!

Nico: Says the pot calling the kettle black.

Nappa then growled and roared ferociously and the arteries in his eyes were showing and this showed that he was out of his mind with incredible fury! He punched at Nico and Nico dodged his attacks and he punched Nappa in the back and sent him flying into the air. Nappa was growling and roaring ferociously at Nico with unrelenting fury.

Nappa: (ROARING!) I'M THROUGH WITH YOU! BOKRUA!

He flared up a yellow aura and fired a powerful energy blast from his hand at Nico.

Nico: Pathetic.

Nico swatted the blast away and it went up into the sky.

Nico: You're gonna have to do better than that.

Nappa: WELL TAKE THIS!

Nico then flew up to him with incredible speed and kicked him in the head and sent him flying and then Nico kicked him in the back and sent him crashing into a mountain.

CRAASSSHHH!

Nico landed and then 30 seconds later, Nappa exploded out of the rubble and he landed in front of Nico and he was growling ferociously and roaring with extreme fury. The arteries in his eyes were showing and that showed that he was out of his mind.

Nappa: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) I HATE YOU!

Nico's aura flared up with incredible power and Vegeta's scouter measured it and his scouter exploded.

The Z Fighters sensed his power skyrocket exponentially.

Nappa threw a rock at him and Nico dodged it.

Nico: You can hate me all you want. I'm far more powerful than you ever will be.

Nappa: YOU'RE NOT STRONGER THAN ME YOU FUCKING LITTLE MOTHERFUCKER! YOU MAY BE THE MOST POWERFUL SAIYAN AT BIRTH BUT YOU ARE NOTHING TO ME! I'M A SAIYAN ELITE YOU FUCKING FREAK!

Nico: More like a Saiyan Amateur.

Then Nappa SNAPPED!

Nico then fired a powerful energy blast at him and completely obliterated him in one powerful blast followed by a massive explosion.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was a massive Mushroom Cloud that could be seen for miles. When the smoke cleared, Nappa was dead and gone forever. Nothing of him was left.

Krillin: WHOA! Unbelievable!

Piccolo: Amazing! He just killed that big Saiyan like he was absolutely nothing!

Yamcha: That was hardcore!

Tien: It's amazing! How can he generate that much power!?

Chiaotzu: It's incredible!

Young Gohan: It's unheard of!

Nico: I'm not done yet.

Nico went to face Vegeta.

Vegeta: I'm amazed that you were able to kill Nappa, Bokrua. For that I have a proposition to ask so I'm only going to say this once. So listen carefully. I, Vegeta, Prince of all Saiyans would like to offer you Bokrua, the opportunity to stand beside me in this conquest. With Nappa gone, I could use a good man. Think about it. We would rule the planets. You could have anything you desired. There's no one in the universe that could touch us. Nothing would be out of your grasp. Well? What do you say Bokrua?

Nico: (Laughs) Do you honestly think I'm that naive? I would never betray my friends and family. I have everything I need and my friends are my power. And I would never throw it away all for evil. So you can take your offer and shove it up your ass. And besides, when I was fighting Nappa, I was only using 1% of my power.

Vegeta: Huh?

Nico: Now watch this.

Nico stood ready and he flared up his aura and lightning flickered everywhere as his aura turned golden yellow. Vegeta felt his power rising fast.

Nico: HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

Nico then transformed into a Super Saiyan 2!

All the Z fighters and Vegeta gasped in shock, amazement and even more horror.

Nico: Lets see how you fair against an ascended Super Saiyan!

Vegeta gasped in pure shock. Standing before him was a powerful example of a true Super Saiyan! After 1,000 years a Super Saiyan was born! But Nico's power was unlike anything he had ever seen!

Nico then went at him and punched him in the stomach with devastating force and he placed his hands on Vegeta's chest and then he fired a powerful energy blast and vaporized him instantly!

There was nothing left of Vegeta as he was totally obliterated in an instant.

Nico: See you in Hell, Vegeta.

The simulation ended and Nico powered down and left the Simulator and we cheered wildly for him.

Me: Nice job buddy!

Nico: Thanks J.D. It was awesome fighting Nappa and Vegeta.

Lincoln: That was so awesome!

Laney: They didn't stand a chance against you.

Lana: No they didn't!

Nico's stomach growled.

Nico: (Laughs) I'm hungry.

Me: Me too. Lets get some grub.

We went to the kitchen.

* * *

Out in the training grounds, Kairi and Aqua were training in their Keyblade abilities. They were getting stronger and stronger with more new abilities and and skills.

Aqua: Good! You're getting good Kairi.

Kairi: Thanks Aqua.

Then they got a cute and awesome surprise. They saw 13 Necrofriggian babies fly to them and they were adorable.

Aqua: Aww. These little guys are cute. So these are the Necrofriggian babies Ben told us about.

Kairi: (hugs one of them) They're so cute!

Aqua: They are so adorable!

Kairi: We got to hide them from everyone.

They put the baby Necrofriggian's in a bag and went back inside.

Sora: Hey, Kairi. What are you and Aqua up to?

Kairi: (she and Aqua are holding bags containing the Big Chill Babies) Nothing much.

Aqua: We're just putting this laundry in our rooms.

For a minute, Aqua and Kairi were worried that no one bought this lie.

Blizzard Man: (shrugs) Well, there's nothing wrong with that.

They went up to Aqua's room.

But I wasn't fooled. I sensed that they were lying.

Me: They're hiding something. I know it.

Static: What do you think it might be?

Me: Lets go see.

We went to Aqua's room.

---

Aqua and Kairi were playing with the Necrofriggian babies.

But then they heard us coming.

Aqua: Uh oh.

Static and us came in.

Static: Ok, Aqua. The jig's up. What are you and Kairi trying to hide?

Kairi: Nothing.

Kairi then floated up and we saw that she was being lifted by the Necrofriggian babies and then she was dropped onto the floor.

BONK!

Kairi: Ouch.

We saw the Necrofriggian babies.

Lola: (Squeals) (Hugs them) They are so adorable!

Laney: (Hugs them) They are so cute!

Nightbird: Ben, aren't these your Necrofriggian kids?

Ben: Yep those are them.

Me: They are cute! I remember Kevin said that Ben gave birth to them during your first date.

Gwen Tennyson: That's right J.D. Necrofriggian's only give birth once every 80 years.

Me: Wow.

Julie Yamamoto: I remember that. They were really cute.

Me: But that still stumps me. How can Ben have kids like that? He's a boy and I can never understand how that happens.

Chione: That's true and I'm half Necrofriggian myself.

Kevin Levin: Yeah it really threw us for a loop.

Me: I'm not surprised.

Aqua: They are really cute though.

Lola: They sure are.

Kairi: Yeah.

Arcee: I think they should have names.

Ben: I agree.

Ben decided to name them Argon, Freeze, Lunar, Pluto, Urana, Keto, Langa, Eform, Radia, Megin, Deva, Jeta and Morpa.

We agreed with the names.

Chione: Those are cute names!

Ben: I agree. And Chione how would you like to be their caretaker.

Chione: I would be honored Ben.

Nico: Awesome.

Later we were watching a movie. We were watching the movie Pinocchio from 1940. One of my all time favorite Disney Movies from my childhood.

---

Jiminy Cricket explains that he is going to tell a story of a wish coming true. His story begins in the Italian workshop of a woodworker named Geppetto. Jiminy watches as Geppetto finishes work on a wooden marionette whom he names Pinocchio. Before falling asleep, Geppetto makes a wish on a star that Pinocchio will be a real boy. During the night, a Blue Fairy visits the workshop and brings Pinocchio to life, although he still remains a puppet. She informs him that if he proves himself brave, truthful, and unselfish, he will become a real boy, and assigns Jiminy to be his conscience.

Geppetto discovers that his wish has come true, and is filled with joy. However, on his way to school, Pinocchio is led astray by Honest John the Fox and his companion, Gideon the Cat, who convinces him to join Stromboli's puppet show, despite Jiminy's objections. Pinocchio becomes Stromboli's star attraction as a marionette who can sing and dance without strings. However, when Pinocchio wants to go home for the night, Stromboli locks him in a birdcage. Jiminy arrives to see Pinocchio and is unable to free him. The Blue Fairy appears and asks Pinocchio why he was not at school. Jiminy urges Pinocchio to tell the truth, but instead, he starts telling lies, which causes his nose to grow longer and longer. Pinocchio vows to be good from now on, and the Blue Fairy returns his nose to its original form and sets him free while warning him that this will be the last time she can help him.

Meanwhile, across town, Honest John and Gideon meet a coachman who promises to pay them money if they can find naughty little boys for him to take to Pleasure Island. Encountering Pinocchio on his way home, they convince him that he needs to take a vacation there. On the way to Pleasure Island, he befriends Lampwick, a delinquent boy. Without rules or authority to enforce their activity, Pinocchio and the other boys soon engage in smoking, gambling, vandalism, and getting drunk, much to Jiminy's dismay. Later, while trying to get home, Jiminy discovers that the island hides a horrible curse: the boys brought to Pleasure Island transform into donkeys for their misbehavior and are sold to slave labor in the salt mine and circus. Jiminy runs back to warn Pinocchio, only to discover that Lampwick has transformed into a donkey; Pinocchio manages to escape the island, only with donkey ears and a tail.

Upon returning home, Pinocchio and Jiminy find the workshop vacant. They soon get a letter from the blue fairy as a dove, stating that Geppetto had ventured out to sea to save Pinocchio from Pleasure Island, but was swallowed by a terrible giant whale named Monstro, and is now living in his belly. Determined to rescue his father, Pinocchio jumps into the sea accompanied by Jiminy. Pinocchio is soon swallowed by Monstro as well, where he is reunited with Geppetto. Pinocchio devises a scheme to make Monstro sneeze, giving them a chance to escape. The scheme works, but the enraged whale chases them and smashes their raft. Pinocchio pulls Geppetto to safety in a cave before Monstro crashes into it. Geppetto, Figaro, Cleo, and Jiminy are washed up safely on a beach, but Pinocchio is presumably killed.

Back home, Geppetto grieves over Pinocchio with Jiminy Cricket and the pets also mourn alongside. The Blue Fairy, however, decides that Pinocchio has proven himself brave, truthful, and selfless. To reward him, the Blue Fairy resurrects Pinocchio, reversing the Pleasure Island curse and turning him into a real boy. Pinocchio awakens and reveals that he is alive and a real human boy and everyone celebrates. Jiminy steps outside to thank the Fairy and is rewarded with a solid gold badge that certifies him as an official conscience.

---

When the movie was done we cheered wildly.

Me: Boy that is always an awesome part of my childhood!

Nico: It sure is. Love that movie too.

Lola: But those clocks and music boxes that Mr. Geppetto made were very cute.

Laney: They were really creative and beautiful.

Me: Yeah and Sora, you were swallowed by Monstro right?

Sora: I sure was. It was awful.

Me: And we were inside Monstro when we found Lori Jimenez during the Transformer War.

Lori J.: That's right. I remember that.

Nico: But I can't believe that Monstro is that big of a whale!

Me: Lets see what it says about him.

I looked up Monstro's history and what it revealed was shocking!

---

Monstro is the final antagonist of Disney's 2nd full-length animated feature film Pinocchio. He is a giant whale who ate entire ships whole.

In Pinocchio, he was animated by the late Wolfgang Reitherman. He has also appeared in a Bonkers comic and the Kingdom Hearts videogames.

Pinocchio

Monstro is first mentioned in the film when Pinocchio and Jiminy Cricket, after escaping Pleasure Island and The Coachman, receive a message from the Blue Fairy who is in the shape of a dove that the whale has swallowed Geppetto, Figaro and Cleo when the toymaker took to sea to search for Pinocchio on Pleasure Island. The three are still alive, inside Monstro's belly. Against Jiminy's warnings, Pinocchio resolves to find and rescue Geppetto. Though Jiminy tries to dissuade Pinocchio, warning that Monstro is "a whale of a whale… he swallows whole ships!", he does not hesitate to join Pinocchio in his search at the bottom of the sea. The two search for Monstro; mention of his name causes the sea creatures to flee in terror. Meanwhile, in Monstro's belly, Geppetto and Figaro are trying to catch fish to eat. The toymaker tells Figaro that he fears that they will starve in the belly of the sleeping whale.

Monstro wakes at the sight of a school of tuna swimming nearby. Opening his great eyes, he pursues the fish with his mouth open, tearing through the ocean. When Pinocchio sees Monstro approaching, he flees for his life, pushing past the tuna, though he is nevertheless consumed by Monstro. The sprightly Jiminy escapes his jaws, but on discovery that Pinocchio has been swallowed, he tries to enter Monstro's now closed mouth. Jiminy tries to get in, but he won't open his mouth. Inside Monstro's belly, Pinocchio, reunited with his father, proposes that they escape in a raft (constructed by Geppetto) when Monstro opens his mouth. When told that "everything comes in… nothing goes out" of his jaws, Pinocchio suggests that they start a fire to make him sneeze.

Monstro once again opens his eyes, this time to find smoke rising from his blowhole. He begins taking deep breaths; while his mouth is open, Pinocchio, Geppetto and the pets try to escape and Jiminy tries to follow them; they succeed when Monstro finally sneezes, sending them flying out onto the sea. After another powerful sneeze, Monstro drank lots of water to put out the fire. Enraged, he then pursued the raft while Pinocchio and Geppetto rowed for their lives. He dove underwater and emerged underneath the raft. Pinocchio and his father rowed away in time, but when Monstro leaped after them, they were forced to jump into the sea. He smashed the raft into pieces with his tail. Pinocchio saved his father from drowning and pulled him to shore, with Monstro in hot pursuit. As he built up speed, the waves drifting from the cliffs of the shore hindered Pinocchio. Monstro leaped into the air, aiming to consume and kill the two. Finally, paddling madly, Pinocchio swam through the hole in the cliff just as Monstro smashed into them, the impact of which sends Pinocchio and Geppetto flying onto the beach. As the toymaker came to, Jiminy, Figaro and Cleo are washed onto the shore. However, Pinocchio did not survive the blow. He is later revived, however, and turned into a real boy, by the Blue Fairy. It is unclear what exactly happened to Monstro. While it is implied that he was killed after ramming into the cliff, this remains unknown.

The Whalers

Monstro appears in this short as the main antagonist. Here, Mickey, Donald and Goofy are about to catch Monstro, but with Goofy's stupidity and Donald's prone-to-frustration, Monstro gets the better of them and they failed, however.

Merbabies

In this Silly Symphony short, when the merbabies are conducting a circus underwater, a sea slug accidentally awakes Monstro and makes him sneeze, blowing the babies and the other sea creatures away.

Bonkers

Monstro had a guest star appearance in a Bonkers comic story titled "Whale of a Tale", published in the December 1994 issue of Disney Adventures. In this story, he is not villainous, but rather a very polite (albeit destructive due to his size) actor who was simply playing a villainous role in Pinocchio and had not found work in the movies since then. He is duped by a gang of crooks, posing as a movie company, into breaking into banks for them to rob, and upon finding out the truth, helps Bonkers catch the criminals.

House of Mouse

Monstro made various cameo appearances on the show.

In Clarabelle's Christmas List, Donald reels in Monstro when trying to reel in Santa's Naughty and Nice list.

In Ask Von Drake, Monstro was seen during Ludwig Von Drake's headcount of all of the Disney character guests.

Mickey and Minnie's Big Vacation ends with an advertisement for "Monstro Cruise Lines".

Once Upon a Time

Monstro is seen in Fairy Tale Land chasing Pinocchio and Geppetto. He attacks the raft and leaves.

Kingdom Hearts series

Monstro appears as both a character and world from Kingdom Hearts. Like many of the worlds from the original game, it also appears in Kingdom Hearts: Chain of Memories as well. He is an immense space whale that swims the Lanes Between, so large that its innards are a world to themselves, similar to Deep Space, and have also appeared as an arena for the Mirage Arena matches in Kingdom Hearts Birth by Sleep Final Mix. However, despite its monstrous size, it is actually fought as a boss in Kingdom Hearts Birth by Sleep Final Mix, in an oceanic arena seemingly based upon Pinocchio's world. Although Monstro is considered a world, it lacks a Keyhole, and its mobile nature means that Sora and his friends cannot always reach it whenever they try.

Monstro is one of the few worlds in Kingdom Hearts that do not need to be cleared to beat the game, but Geppetto and Pinocchio will not appear in Traverse Town until it is completed. Furthermore, if the player waits until they have cleared Hollow Bastion to venture through Monstro, Riku will not appear in any of the world's cutscenes or battles.

Monstro appears in Kingdom Hearts as a supporting world, where Pinocchio and Geppetto temporarily live until being rescued. Within Monstro dwell many Heartless, including one called the Parasite Cage, which eats Pinocchio, trapping him within its cage-like stomach, and delivers the puppet to Riku, who wishes to use Pinocchio's heart to rescue Kairi. After Kingdom Hearts is sealed, Monstro presumably returns to his world.

He later reappears in Kingdom Hearts: Chain of Memories, as a figment of Sora and Riku's memories. Monstro himself is not physically seen, but card rooms resembling his bowels are explored.

Monstro appears in Kingdom Hearts Birth by Sleep Final Mix as a new boss in the Mirage Arena.

Monstro appears in his world Prankster's Paradise before it was consumed by darkness. Jiminy and Pinocchio are swimming away from Monstro, but the force of the water pulls them along with Sora into the chaos. Eventually, Pinocchio and Jiminy are then swallowed by Monstro, Sora gives chase on him, but a Dream Eater appears and freezes him in an iceberg that rises the top of the ocean, where Sora follows. He then fights Chill Clawbster on the clusters of the frozen Monstro. During the battle, he frees him, encasing him in a water bubble. Chill Clawbster is soon defeated and swallowed by the whale, while Sora falls into the ocean. Eventually, Monstro then sneezes, blowing him away.

In conjunction, during his adventure, Riku finds himself inside Monstro and spots Geppetto looking for Pinocchio. Riku offers to help find him and also encounter Jiminy, who reveals that Pinocchio ran off with somebody with a black coat. The two spot him walking with that person, revealed to be another Riku as he enters a corridor of darkness without a word. Pinnochio and Jiminy ask if there is anyone that will always be there for Riku. He explains that there is. Suddenly, a thunderous vibration happens. Riku orders Pinnochio and Jiminy to head back while he takes a look around, finding the Char Clawbster Dream Eater and destroying it. As Geppetto and Pinocchio are reunited, Riku recalls Yen Sid's words of wisdom and unlocking the world's keyhole. Monstro also appears in Kingdom Hearts and acts as a world of sorts via swallowing the gummi-ship - trapping the heroes in its Heartless infested stomach, while there they also come across Geppetto and Pinocchio, who are still stuck in the belly of the whale.

Kinect Disneyland Adventures

Like in the actual Disneyland park, Monstro is apart of the Storybook Land Canal. At one point in the game, he eats Pinocchio's school books. To recover them, the player must gather some pepper pots to make Monstro sneeze. The powerful sneeze releases them.

Epic Mickey: Power of Illusion

Monstro can be seen in artwork in Atlantica for the upcoming game.

Disney Parks

Monstro has a spell card known as "Monstro's Water Spout" in the attraction Sorcerers of the Magic Kingdom.

Pinocchio's Daring Journey

Monstro makes a brief appearance at the ride's climax. Just after escaping from Pleasure Island, the riders are warned by Jiminy that Monstro is approaching. Suddenly, he bursts out of the ocean and lunges at them, accompanied by thunder and lightning. They veer away just in time.

Fantasmic!

Monstro appears in both versions of the show as a lead-in to Mickey falling into the whirlpool and the stormy ship scene, ending the Dancing Bubbles sequence at the Disney's Hollywood Studios version and coming after the I've Got No Strings scene in the Disneyland version.

Storybook Land Canal Boats

Monstro's biggest appearance is at Disneyland's version of the Storybook Land Canal Boats attraction. Guests ride boats through his mouth, which serves as a tunnel to a land of miniature buildings based on various Disney films.

The guides on the boats state that Pinoccio blew a hole in the back of Monstro to free himself and the others, explaining why he has a hole where his fluke should be. This is far from the events shown in the movies.

---

We gasped.

Me: WOW! Monstro has had many appearances in other media and it's amazing how he is so huge!

Nico: No kidding. It says he's Half Blue Whale, Half Sperm Whale. How is that even possible for him to be a hybrid creature?

Me: Any number of ways.

Lynn: Wow! But I had no idea that Monstro was that dangerous!

Thunderblast: Had I known that Monstro was going to be that huge of a threat, I would've used my Cyber Key power to destroy him from the inside out when I first met you guys!

Me: I know. Monstro is that massive. He has to be the biggest whale and largest creature on the planet. But what really infuriates me is that the Coachman was exploiting the Curse of Pleasure Island all for his own greed.

Nico: Yeah me too. He turned all those poor boys into Donkey's and sold them into slavery on the worlds black market.

Me: What a monster. Lets see what it says here about him.

I looked up his history.

---

The Coachman is one of the main antagonists of Disney's 2nd full-length animated feature film Pinocchio, which is based on the 1883 Italian novel The Adventures of Pinocchio by the late Carlo Collodi.

He is an evil and greedy old man who turns naughty boys into donkeys and sells them off for slavery whilst making himself a profit.

The Coachman is the owner of Pleasure Island, an amusement park located on a remote island. A seemingly kind and charitable gentleman, he takes naughty boys to said island where they would be allowed to do many bad things such as smoking, drinking, and fighting without having to worry about adult supervision.

As the boys continued to engage in this misbehaviour, the boys would fall victim to the curse of this seemingly innocent amusement park, gradually beginning to transform into donkeys. The Coachman and his henchmen would then gather the boys to ship them away to salt mines and circuses in exchange for profit.

To that end, the Coachman hires Honest John and Gideon (who were both deeply frightened of him) to lure such boys (such as Pinocchio) into his sinister trap, telling them that they will not need to worry about the authorities as the boys will not return as themselves and will therefore not leave behind any evidence that they had ever been to Pleasure Island. He is shown to be served by a group of silent and mysterious hooded ape-like creatures who lurk in the shadows.

Fortunately, Pinocchio was able to escape Pleasure Island after Jiminy Cricket alerted him what he was planning to the boys and alerted him of the situation, though not before developing donkey ears and a tail. Lampwick was transformed into a donkey and was presumably captured by the Coachman to sell into slavery. The Coachman was never seen again after this.

---

Lincoln: That guy was a monster!

Me: But we removed the curse of Pleasure Island and made it a fun and normal amusement park.

Nico: I heard about that. That was good you all did that.

Qin: It sure was. But what that Honest John guy did was just as bad.

Me: Yeah. Lets see what it says about him and Gideon.

I looked up their history.

---

Honest John.

Honest John Worthington Foulfellow, also simply known as Honest John, is one of the main antagonists of Disney's 2nd full-length animated feature film Pinocchio, which is based on the 1883 Italian novel The Adventures of Pinocchio by the late Carlo Collodi. He is one of the five arch-nemesis of Pinocchio.

Pinocchio

He is a sly fox who first appears strolling down the street with Gideon when they see that Stromboli has come back to town and recalled how they once tried to trick him by making Gideon look like a puppet. They then come across Pinocchio. Realizing that he is a living and breathing puppet, they decide to get rich by tricking Pinocchio into thinking they are friends and leading him to Stromboli.

They later meet the Coachman in the "Red Lobster Inn" and the Coachman discusses his plans to send naughty boys to Pleasure Island. Honest John is shocked by this and is horrified when the Coachman tells them they never return as human boys. Nevertheless, Honest John and Gideon obey the Coachman's orders out of fear and not out of money.

The duo encounters Pinocchio again, and pretend to be doctors, convincing the wooden boy that he has an allergy that can only be cured by a visit to Pleasure Island. They give him a ticket and bring him to Pleasure Island.

Their final fate remains unknown after this, as they are not seen again for the rest of the film. Although, in a deleted scene, they were arrested by the police for their dishonest actions.

SEGA game

Honest John appeared at the end of first level, where he grabs Pinocchio's book and threw it out.

SNES game

Honest John will try to use his cane when Pinocchio runs to try and make him trip, taking some life off him.

House of Mouse

Honest John appears in the cartoon series along with many other Disney characters. He usually sits with Gideon. He is used as an example of temptation by Jiminy in Jiminy Cricket. In Pete's One Man Show, a life-sized cutout of Foulfellow and other characters were used to trick Pete into thinking that it was a full house. He also makes a cameo appearance in Mickey's House of Villains, but does not take part in the takeover.

Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days

Honest John and Gideon were originally set to appear in Kingdom

Hearts 358/2 Days, due to their popularity, in a Pinocchio-based world. The idea was dropped due to space restrictions.

Gideon

Gideon is one of the main antagonists of Disney's 2nd full-length animated feature film Pinocchio, which is based on the 1883 Italian novel The Adventures of Pinocchio by the late Carlo Collodi. He is the minion of Honest John and is far less intelligent than his partner. In spite of this, Gideon still manages to help the fox with his crimes. He would often use a mallet to hit people with.

Pinocchio

He first appears strolling down the street with Honest John when they see that Stromboli has come back to town and recall how they once tried to trick him by making Gideon look like a puppet. They then come across Pinocchio. Realizing that he is a living and breathing puppet, they decide to get rich by tricking Pinocchio into thinking they are friends and leading him to Stromboli.

---

Me: Boy these two need to go to prison forever. They lured Pinocchio away from going where he was supposed to be going!

Nico: No kidding.

Laney: You said it.

Me: But that Stromboli guy is a big jerk! Lets see here.

I looked up Stromboli's history.

---

Stromboli is one of the main antagonists of Disney's 2nd full-length animated feature film Pinocchio, the main antagonist in the 2000 semi-remake Geppetto, and one of the supporting antagonists in Mickey's House of Villains.

He is based on Mangiafuoco, the puppet master of the 1883 Italian novel The Adventures of Pinocchio by the late Carlo Collodi. Mangiafuoco was willing to burn Pinocchio because he ruined his show, but he spares him and gives him five gold coins. Basically, Stromboli would be the opposite of Mangiafuoco.

Pinocchio

At first, Stromboli portrayed himself as a large, but friendly man who learned of a living puppet named Pinocchio from Honest John and

Gideon. To that end, Stromboli planned for Pinocchio to perform in his show, which Pinocchio did with glee (in his famous "I have no strings" melody). With the show declared a success, Stromoboli received lots of money and paid Honest John and Gideon a small percentage of it.

However, after the show had finished, Stromboli showed his true nature when Pinocchio wished to return home to Geppetto (though he would be back in the morning). Stromboli declared Pinocchio was "home" and locked him up into a cage, planning to make money from his performances and chop him into firewood when he became too old to perform.

Eventually, Pinocchio was freed from the cage by the Blue Fairy and Jiminy Cricket. Stromboli is not heard of again following this encounter, but his marionette show is presumably bankrupt after realizing that Pinocchio has escaped.

He does have a bit of a temper, and often loses it. He tends to say bad words in Italian whenever he loses his temper.

House of Mouse

Stromboli made an appearance in the episode "House of Crime", where he is seen arguing with Percival C. McLeach. Later that same episode, Stromboli was imprisoned with other Disney Villains as suspects of mysterious disappearances.

Stromboli himself made a cameo appearance in Mickey's Magical Christmas: Snowed in the House of Mouse and "Mickey vs. Shelby" during Mad Hatter's hat performance.

In Mickey's House of Villains, Stromboli joined the villains as they took over the House of Mouse. He is seen on the conga line behind Lucifer during the song "It's Our House Now!".

Geppetto

In the 2000 live action semi-remake Geppetto, Stromboli was portrayed by Brent Spiner (data on Star Trek: the Next Generation). Here, he is depicted as an arrogant, mendacious, exploitative, and obnoxious bully who constantly argues with his ventriloquist dummy.

In the movie, after learning that Pinocchio was a stringless puppet, Stromboli asked him if he liked to sing and dance. Geppetto refused to let him get involved in show business and that he should not talk to strangers. After getting in trouble, Pinocchio runs away from home to live with Stromboli as well as performing for his puppet show.

After the show, Stromboli and his ventriloquist dummy were counting the money made from the show. Pinocchio was seen locked in a cage. Stromboli refused to let him out, because it is a dark and cruel world out there and, more importantly, it is part of the contract he signed. When Geppetto came by, Stromboli covered Pinocchio's cage with a quilt and hid him outside. He lied to Geppetto that Pinocchio went off on his own. After he left, Stromboli discovers that Pinocchio did wander off and learns that he was headed to Pleasure Island. Knowing what really happens there, Stromboli and his dummy went off to retrieve him before his father does.

Later, the Blue Fairy shows Geppetto what Stromboli (redeeming in himself) is really like and what he really wants from Pinocchio. At Pleasure Island, Stromboli followed Pinocchio around, but the Ringmaster tells him that adults are not allowed there. When Pinocchio tries to get on the rollercoaster, Geppetto and Stromboli were fighting each other, only to have the fight broke up and that Stromboli was escorted out of there (though Geppetto manages to dodge the stilt men).

Back in the toyshop, Stromboli had been waiting for them and that he showed Geppetto the contract Pinocchio signed. He pushed Geppetto aside, ransomed Pinocchio, and went off. After the Blue Fairy turned him into a real boy, Stromboli realized that no one would pay to see a real boy. In the end, he was repeatedly attacked by the Blue Fairy and fled.

---

Me: Jerk! I can't believe that guy.

Lana: You said it.

Me: But he was a greedy jerk. Lets head into the Simulator and give those bad guys what for.

Nico: Lets do it!

We headed to the Simulator.

---

We got ready for the Simulator adventure. We were going to the world of Pinocchio. The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in the world of Pinocchio from 1940. We were on Pleasure Island again.

---

Pleasure Island is a theme park located on an island and is accessed there by ferry. It is implied to be an illegal place, as hinted by J. Worthington Foulfellow. The Coachman is apparently the owner of the park and takes all the bad boys collected by himself from various towns and villages, including Pinocchio, this last one collected by Foulfellow and Gideon, to the island. Apparently, the boys can do whatever they pleased on the island, such as smoking, drinking alcohol, fighting, wrecking the place, and other deeds that good children wouldn't do. Food, alcohol and tobacco were made freely available on this island. The boys were also free of the law and any parents or cops who could stop them from being naughty. However, unknown to the boys, Pleasure Island in truth actually serves as a trap. Once the boys had enough time being bad, they would turn into donkeys after they made "jackasses" of themselves. The boys would first grow donkey ears, then a tail, their head would turn furry, having donkey hair, their laughing would then become braying, their hands and feet becoming hooves, before losing their ability to talk (though some donkeys like Alexander can still talk) and then finally being on all fours. The donkeys were then rounded up by the Coachman and his minions. The donkeys were then inspected and those who couldn't talk were stripped of their clothes if they still wore any before being put into crates, then taken back to the ferry that took the boys to the island. They were then sold to salt mines, the circus, and other places for money.

Those like Alexander that could still speak were kept behind until they lost their voices or simply used to pull the Coachman's stagecoach. It is implied the donkeys seen pulling the coach were once bad boys that were on Pleasure Island before the events of the film. It is unclear how the boys became donkeys despite being bad. It can be argued that certain beer and cigars were spiked with a magical potion that can turn them into donkeys. For example: Lampwick grew donkey ears after taking a swig of beer and this may have caused a chain reaction that made him into a donkey. Pinocchio put his drink aside and threw away his cigar, which may explain why he only grew ears, a tail, and brayed. It can also be implied that once a boy reaches a certain level of being bad, they turn into donkeys. It can also be implied that the curse can only transform the boys as long as they're on the island. Lampwick grew donkey ears, a tail, furry head, and accidentally brayed after making fun of Jiminy Cricket and teasing Pinocchio when the puppet accidentally brayed for the first time. Strangely enough, Pinocchio and Lampwick were the last ones to be the island's victims, but it is likely they avoided the spell as they appeared to be the last ones awake, while playing pool and gambling. It is also unknown how the island got repaired but the Coachman likely got it all mended for its next use.

Origin

In Italy, where the original story was written, the Donkey is a symbol of "stupidity". The moral behind Pleasure Island (or "Toyland" as it was called in the original) is that little boys who scoff at education and moral codes set forth by their parents, preachers and authority figures and will engage in "jackass" behavior instead, such as fighting, vandalism and underage drinking and are often destined to grow up to become men who have no option to make a living except through backbreaking manual labor. And there are plenty of people in the world, such as the Coachman, who will take advantage of that.

Pinocchio

Many bad boys, including Pinocchio and Lampwick, were taken to the island via stagecoach. Upon arriving, the Coachman ushers them inside and they can do whatever they please on the island, such as fighting, drinking alcohol, smoking, wrecking the place and other deeds that good children wouldn't do.

However, unknown to the boys, Pleasure Island in truth actually serves as a trap. Once the boys have enough time being bad, they would turn into donkeys after they made "jackasses" of themselves. After the transformations, Jiminy Cricket ventures across the island in search of Pinocchio, but the boy sends him away. Jiminy witnesses through a hatch that the donkeys were being rounded up by the Coachman and his minions. The donkeys were then inspected and those who couldn't talk were stripped of their clothes before being put into crates, then taken back to the ferry that took the boys to the island. They were then sold for money. Those like Alexander that could still speak were kept behind until they lost their voices or simply used to pull the Coachman's stagecoach. It is implied the donkeys seen pulling the coach were once bad boys that were on Pleasure Island before the events of the film.

Meanwhile As the boys resume play, Lampwick grows donkey ears after taking a swig of beer and this causes a chain reaction that made him into a donkey. Pinocchio throws away his cigar and put his drink aside, which may explain why he only grew ears, a tail and brayed. Strangely enough, Pinocchio and Lampwick are the last ones to be the island's victims, but it is likely they avoided the spell as they appear to be the last ones awake. Fortunately, Pinocchio and Jiminy make a quick escape into the sea before the donkey transformation on Pinocchio could be complete.

Geppetto

The island remains very much similar to the 1940 iteration, however Tobacco Row and references to alcohol were cut, due to it being a made-for-television live-action film in 2000, as well as network censors not allowing alcohol and tobacco references in family-oriented films. In this version it is specifically stated that the Rollercoaster is what causes the boys to instantly transform into donkeys, as witnessed when Geppetto warns Pinocchio who immediately begins turning into one after boarding the coaster's car, and is found fully transformed after passing through the Coaster's doors. It doesn't completely act as a roller coaster, as it stops beyond the doors into a stable where the boys-turned-donkeys are mistreated.

La storia (in)finita

In this crossover comic story, Mickey Mouse, stranded at sea, sees an island in the distance and manages to swim there. He soon discovers that the island is none other than Pleasure Island. The Coachman's fair has fallen into disrepair, some parts of the island having even reverted to a wild jungle; Mickey comments that it seems to have been abandoned for years (confirming that the Coachman did get his comeuppance at some point after the original movie). Mickey faces Maleficent on the island, but the witch is destroyed as the Nothing (a magic phenomenon of unknown origins which provides the main conflict for the story) eats up the whole island. Mickey is saved in extremeis by Dumbo as the last parts of the cursed island fall into oblivion.

Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance

Pleasure Island appears in Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance in the world Prankster's Paradise. It includes various areas of the Island that are found in the original film, like the amusement park. Several new areas that weren't in the original film, like the Windup Way and the Circus Tent, were also included in the game.

Once Upon a Time

Pleasure Island appears in the episode Murder Most Foul. Prince James flees to Pleasure Island to escape from King George who wants him to become a knight. James' real father, Robert, comes to Pleasure Island, and enlists the help of Pinocchio to find James and bring him home to his real family. As they are about to leave, King George arrives.

After an argument between King George and Robert occurs, King George orders his guards to take Robert and kill him, ordering them to make sure it looks like an accident. As the king's men are about to murder Robert, Captain Hook arrives with a few pirates. Hook's men rob the King's men and kill them. Robert believes Hook has saved his life, but Hook says that he can't let him go, as he was a witness to the murders. Robert begs for his life, but is then stabbed by Hook.

Me: We're back on Pleasure Island guys.

Nico: Wow! Look at all the kids having fun.

Maria: Boy I hope the curse of this place doesn't get them.

Me: Don't worry about that Maria. Lucy got rid of the curse with her dark magic and this place is now curse free. We threw a major wrench into the Coachman's plans when we were here to fight Dark Luan on April Fools Day in 2017. You remember that Luan?

Luan: Yeah. How can I ever forget? You put my dark self in the moon prison forever.

Nico: Good riddance. I hope my brother can be rid of something like that.

Me: We all do buddy.

We saw many kids having fun on the roller coasters and doing all kinds of stuff that would normally get them in trouble with their parents and more. It was one amazing park for them.

Me: Wow. Look at all the kids.

Lincoln: There are a lot of them.

We then saw the Coachman and Stewie pulled out his gun and jumped him.

Stewie: (points gun at Coachman's head) William, say the word and I'll blow this asshole's brains out!

William: Stand down Stewie. We're here to arrest him.

Me: Coachman you are under arrest for human trafficking, animal cruelty and fraud.

I slapped the cuffs on him.

Coachman: But I didn't do nothing!

Me: Tell it to the judge! People like you make me sick!

I beamed him to a holding cell for when he goes to trial. He and his minions have a lot to answer for when they go to trial.

Then we heard donkey brays and out came 4 donkey girls.

Me: Donkey girls? I thought the curse only affects boys.

Lucy Loud: I guess the curse improved before we got rid of it.

Chione: That could be the reason.

Donkey girl 1: Wow! You're the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Donkey girl 2: We love all your adventures.

We gasped.

Me: You all can talk. You still have traces of your humanity in you.

Dahlia: That's right. Forgive us for not introducing ourselves. I'm Dahlia Rourke.

Kay: I'm Kay Morningstar.

Joy: I'm Joy Undine.

Yvonne: And I'm Yvonne Lacrecia.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you girls. Were you here to have a good time too?

Kay: That's right. But we didn't know that this would happen to us.

Me: This island was cursed. But the curse only affected boys. It would turn them into donkeys and the Coachman would capture them and sell them on the worlds black market.

Lucy Loud: I got rid of the curse with my dark magic.

Joy: Wow! Thank goodness he didn't catch us.

Yvonne: Yeah. We were hiding here for over 2 years.

Dahlia: But we were strong when we worked together.

Laney: And you all prevailed.

Me: You sure did. Kay, by any chance are you related to…

Kay: Yes. I'm Michael Morningstar's little sister.

We gasped.

Ben: I didn't know Michael had a little sister.

Gwen Tennyson: That is surprising.

Kay: Are you Ben Tennyson?

Ben: That's right.

Kay: Wow! You are amazing! I've heard so much about all your adventures.

Riley: That's my boyfriend for you.

Me: Lets get you girls back to human again.

I snapped my fingers and in a flash of light they were reverted back to human again.

Dahlia had a Black shirt, blue overalls, red shoes and she had a punk dahlia flower tattoo in the middle of her forehead.

Kay Morningstar had a Yellow shirt, a Blue skirt, yellow sandals and she can fly with golden yellow angel wings.

Joy Undine had an Aqua blue shirt with an ocean wave on it, blue hair, blue eyes, blue skirt, blue sandals and she is half water elemental.

Yvonne Lacrecia had Red hair, red eyes, a red shirt with flames on it, red leggings, red shoes and she is half fire elemental like Flame Princess.

They were around 10 years old.

Dahlia: We're back to normal!

Kay: Awesome!

Yvonne: This is amazing!

Joy: It's a miracle!

Dahlia: Thank you all so much!

Me: Anytime Dahlia.

Gwen Tennyson: Your brother is also one of our most dangerous enemies Kay.

Kay: So I have heard. I am not like my brother. I have all of his powers over light and stars but I don't have his energy draining powers.

Me: That's a relief. We sent another version of Michael Morningstar to the Moon Prison and we cursed him. Which reminds me.

I looked up the timer on him on my device and it said that it had 4 seconds left. It counted down to zero.

In the Moon Prison, 2016's Michael Morningstar fell over dead when the timer hit zero and his soul was grabbed by demons and pulled down into Hell.

In the world of Pinocchio a Skull and Crossbones light appeared on my device and it showed that he was dead.

Me: That's the end of 2016's Michael Morningstar.

Kay: Good riddance. I heard about that. That version of my brother is not my brother.

Joy: Yeah. Also I'm half Water Elemental.

Yvonne: And I'm half Fire Elemental.

Me: Wow! That's amazing. We're trying to find a young boy named Pinocchio.

Dahlia: I saw him head into that bar that looks like a billiard ball.

We saw the bar and it was in the shape of an 8 ball.

Me: Now that gives a meaning to the phrase 8 Ball in the Side pocket.

We laughed.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one J.D.!

Dahlia: (Laughs) That was a good one.

Eddy: (Laughs) That was funny.

Me: Would you 4 like to come with us?

Dahlia: We would be honored.

Joy: Sure!

They agreed.

We went to the bar and we saw Pinocchio and Lampwick playing pool, smoking and drinking beer.

Sora: Pinocchio!

Pinocchio: Sora!

He came and hugged him.

Sora: It's great to see you again.

Pinocchio: Same to you Sora. What brings you here?

Me: We're here to bring the villains that did all the stuff they did here to you to justice. It's a pleasure to meet you Pinocchio. J.D.

Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Pinocchio: Wow! It's an honor to meet you.

Lampwick: Heard so many good things about you.

He grabbed another cigar.

Me: Light ya?

Lampwick: Sure.

I snapped my finger and lit my thumb like a match and lit the cigar. Lampwick puffed it.

Lampwick: Thanks.

Me: No problem. In all my years I've never met a kid that loves to smoke like you do.

Lampwick: It's a living.

Me: My dad smoked for 18 years before quitting.

We played some pool and talked.

Lampwick: Got quite some good moves J.D.

Me: Thanks Lampwick. (Knocks the 4, 3, 8, and 1 balls in the corner and side pockets) John has been teaching me some of his awesome moves in pool.

Nico: Good shot.

Me: Thanks.

Dahlia: That was really good though.

Laney: It sure was.

Me: Yep.

---

Later we headed back to shore and we went to Geppetto's shop. We saw the shop locked and no one was home.

Me: He's not home.

Pinocchio: He's gone.

Jiminy Cricket: Yeah and Figuro.

Pinocchio: And Cleo too.

We sat on the sidewalk.

Pinocchio: Maybe something awful happened to him.

Jimmy Cricket: Don't worry son, I'm sure he hasn't gone far.

But then a message from the Blue Fairy appeared.

Jiminy Cricket: Hey!

Me: It looks like a message.

Pinocchio: What's it say?

Jimmy Cricket: It's about your father.

Me: Let me see.

I read it.

Me: "Dear Pinocchio,

Your Father Geppetto went out looking for you and went out at sea and he was swallowed by a whale named Monstro. He's alive and is inside the whale at the bottom of the sea."

We gasped.

Lincoln: Whoa!

Me: We got to find him!

Jiminy Cricket: Okay.

Sora: Lets do it!

We went to the cliff and at Sunrise we arrived.

Jimmy Cricket: But this Monstro! I've heard about him! He's a whale of a whale! Why he swallows whole ships alive!

Laney: We know that. We got to find him and get them out.

Me: We're also going to kill that whale and grind him into chum.

Lana: Yeah!

Me: Lets do it.

Dahlia: We're with you all the way!

Kay: You got it.

We went into the sea and we traveled across the sea floor and up ahead we saw a huge giant formation. But we saw that it was MONSTRO!

Me: Whoa! Is that Monstro!?

Nico: He's huge!

Laney: Massive!

Lily Loud: How are we gonna get inside him?

Me: He usually opens his mouth when he's hungry. And we're in luck.

We saw a school of tuna and then we saw Monstro go after them.

Me: NOW!

We went into the whale through his mouth and we saw Geppetto's boat and he was fishing for tuna and he was pulling them in. We were once again inside the bowels of Monstro!

We jumped onto the boat.

Me: Mr. Geppetto.

Geppetto: Yes.

Pinocchio: Father!

Geppetto: Pinocchio!

They hugged in reunion.

Sora: It's good to see you again Mr. Geppetto.

Geppetto: Sora. You too. Donald, Goofy. It's great to see you too.

Donald: Same to you.

Goofy: How have you been?

Geppetto: Worse. This giant whale swallowed us.

Me: We'll think of something to get you out of here.

But then we saw a figure go down into the bowels of the whale.

Me: Uh oh. We're not alone in here.

Pinocchio: Uh oh. We better help out. Father, we'll worry about that later.

We went down into the bowels of the whale and in the stomach of Monstro we saw VYPRA AND WAFFLE WOMAN!

Me: Vypra and Waffle Woman!

Nico: How in the world did you two get inside a ginormous whale like Monstro!?

Vypra: Isn't it obvious? We teleported in.

Waffle Woman: It's the perfect place for us to defeat you.

Me: I think you may want to rethink that. You're in the stomach of a huge whale that is known as the terror of the seas.

Vypra: Oh we'll take that chance!

Vypra fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit the wall of the stomach and Monstro groaned in pain.

Me: Geez! Talk about a nasty case of indigestion.

Waffle Woman: Shut up and fight!

Waffle Woman fired a blast of syrup and it hit the acid and it formed bubbles and then the huge whale belched.

BBBBBEEEEEEEEEEEEELLLLLLLLLCCCCCCCCCCCCHHHHHHHHHH!

Laney: Whoa! What a belch!

Me: Stop this now!

Nico: (to Vypra and Waffle Woman) It's your choice. You two can continue fighting us and get digested by Monstro. Or you two can get out and live to fight another day.

Vypra: We'll pick the latter option.

Waffle Woman: But first, there are some old friends who want to say hi!

UH OH.

They teleported away and then 3 monsters appeared. It was a Parasite Cage Heartless.

Sora: The Parasite Cage Heartless!

Laney: He's ugly.

The Second monster was the Snow Creature!

Fred: The Snow Creature!

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: He was a remote controlled robot that was controlled by former disgraced snowboarding champion Avalanche Anderson and he tried to kill Chris Klug.

I went over his history.

---

Early life

Fred Jones had been watching his movies since he was a kid; one of them may have been called White Out. He entered Bruce Wilkinson's contest in order to regain his fame. When he discovered that Chris Klug was in the contest as well, he decided to take action.

Season one

He walked in on Chris Klug and the gang as Chris was describing the Snow Creature that attacked him. He appeared to show concern for Chris, saying that he believed that he wouldn't quit on purpose.

After the monster appeared before the gang a second time near Theodore's shed, he was found lying in the snow. He was brought back to the lodge to get treated for his presumed injuries. He seemed relieved to be out of the contest. Later, he passed through the kitchen with Bruce and Chris on crutches.

Soon after the gang defeated the Snow Creature, Avalanche (as the "mystery sneak") attempted to escape. He was caught when an avalanche caused by Velma sneeze dragged him down a slope. He was unmasked by Fred.

Velma knew that Avalanche was the culprit due to his experience with Hollywood. That gave him access to the special effects department. He built the Snow Creature out of a see-through lucite and controlled him using virtual reality equipment. To enhance the signal between himself and the creature, he used a powerful remote control amplifier at the top of an abandoned ski jump, which caused multiple cases of cell phone interference. With his supposed injury, he was to make a miraculous recovery. When Chris questioned his motives, Avalanche stated that Chris was in the way of his return to fame.

---

Qin: That's nuts!

Me: He got 50 to 75 years in prison for attempted murder and assault and battery and he was permanently banned from snowboarding by the National Snowboarding Commission.

Lola: Good riddance.

?: (Techno Voice) And he's not the only one!

We saw the Generation 5 Attack Bot!

---

Attack Bot was created by Venjix. He is an incinerator themed. When Defence Shields of Corinth City were down while Dillon and Ziggy rushed to the town through armies of Venjix, Venjix sent Attack Bot to attack city with army of Grinders. Attack Bot attacked the city with army of Grinders and encountered the Power Rangers. After the fight, rangers were able to defeat him with Road Blaster.

However, Venjix brought Attack Bot back online and made him grow. The Rangers formed High Octane Megazord to battle him. Monster used his pipes and started pollting the air of city with smoke. Luckily, our heroes were able to stop him by clogging his pipes which raised the pressure. Then Rangers used High Octane Megazord's Super Saber Attack to destroy the Attack Bot.

---

Scott Truman: The Generation 5 Attack Bot!

Me: I remember this tin can! He was the first ever monster you guys took down in Corinth.

Summer Landsdown: That's right.

Flynn McAllistair: (Scottish Accent) He was a tough one lad. He really gave us one helluva fight.

Me: He sure did.

Scott Truman: (to Generation 5 Attack Bot) Even if you do kill us, you're still going to lose.

Gem: That's right!

Gemma: When Monstro digests us, you'll be digested too!

Generation 5 Attack Bot: Fine then. If it means getting rid of you Rangers, then my life is a small price to pay!

Me: I don't know if you've heard about this but Venjix is dead! We also blew up his whole factory.

Generation 5 Attack Bot: What!?

Me: That's right. We fired our ship superlaser at the factory and completely obliterated it.

Nico: All that remains of it is nothing but a giant smoldering crater.

Laney: YEAH!

Me: Lets dance!

Troy: Let's take the Parasite Cage down!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mighty Morphin!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mighty Morphin Rangers.

Scott Truman: Lets do it guys!

The R.P.M. Rangers got their morphemes ready.

R.P.M. Power Rangers: R.P.M. GET IN GEAR!

The R.P.M. Rangers transformed and they were ready!

Me: Lets get them!

Leni: I'll take on this tin freak.

Leni fired a powerful blast of gravity lightning at him and it hit the Generation 5 Battle Bot and exploded all over.

Nico: Lets get this tin can!

The R.P.M. Rangers formed the R.P.M. Enforcer!

Nico: Generation 5 Battle Bot, you have failed this world! Engine Cell Activate!

Nico put in a Stellar Engine Cell with the number 20 on it and its number looked like a 20 in the shape of a monkey.

Gem and Gemma formed their blasters and they were ready to fire.

Nico and the R.P.M Rangers: R.P.M. ENFORCER! FIRE!

It fired at the Generation 5 Battle Bot and it fired a powerful Star Monkey and it hit the Generation 5 Battle Bot and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Nice one!

Scott Truman: Thanks Nico.

Sora slashed the Parasite Cage and the Megaforce Rangers blasted it with their weapons and killed it.

Lola faced the Snow Creature and fired a powerful blast of fire and melted.

Me: That takes care of them. Now lets give this overgrown guppy the worst case of indigestion ever.

We fired energy blasts and elemental attacks inside Monstro's stomach and we were blowing it open as blood and acid was pouring in.

Me: Lets take the fight outside and bring and end to this monster! Scott, you're gonna love what I have done to your R.P.M. Zords. I used my magic to have them drive on water.

Scott Truman: Awesome! This we got to see.

Me: And me, Nico, Laney, Lori and Lincoln have our own R.P.M. zords you got to see.

Flynn McAllistair: With pleasure!

Me: Lets do it!

I summoned my own R.P.M. Zord. It was called the Phoenix Air Striker and it was a purple airplane zord shaped like an awesome F117 Nighthawk Plane and it had purple phoenix flame wings and awesome lasers, missile blasters and more. Nico summoned his zord and it was called the Whale Aqua Submariner and it was and Aqua Blue Zord shaped like a Typhoon Class Submarine and it had a whale face, blowhole, fin and tail and powerful weapons. Laney summoned her zord and it was called the Falcon Air Skystreaker. It was a brown zord shaped like a Concorde Supersonic Airliner and it had a falcon beak, wings and tail and it had powerful supersonic speed and many more. Lori summoned her zord and it was called the Plesio Ocean Battlecruiser. It looked like a massive version of the U.S.S. Iowa Class Battleship and it was 4 times the size of the ship and it had the long neck and head of a plesiosaurus and the fins and tail of one and it had powerful cannons and lasers and more. And Lincoln summoned his zord and it was called the Dragonfly Desert Heliflyer. It was an Orange Zord in the shape of an AH-1 Cobra Helicopter and it had dragonfly wings for the rotor, dragonfly head and it had powerful lasers, cannons, missile blasters and more. Pinocchio and Geppetto and everyone got on board the R.P.M. Zords and on top of them and we flew out of Monstro's mouth!

Me: YEE HAW!

Nico: Wow! This is awesome!

Lori: This is literally so amazing!

Laney: AWESOME!

Lincoln: Wow! J.D. this is so cool!

Me: Glad you like them guys. Now lets make fish food out of this monster whale!

Nico: With pleasure!

We flew and drove all over the place and we had Monstro in our sights.

Me: Missiles away!

I fired my napalm missiles and they hit Monstro and exploded all over.

KRABBBOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMM! BOOOMM! BOOOOM! BBOOOOOMM! BOOOOM!

They burned him bad.

Monstro then dove underwater.

Nico: I got this. Dive!

The dive alarm in Nico's zord sounded and he dove and he got Monstro on Sonar.

Nico: Sonar Signature confirmed! Torpedoes fire!

Nico fired 5 powerful torpedoes and they hit Monstro and exploded all over.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOMMM! BOOOOM! BOOOOM! BOOOMM!

Monstro then breached and Laney came flying at him at over 6,320 miles per hour.

Laney: Target in sight. Fire lasers!

Laney fired numerous lasers from her zord and they hit Monstro all over and burned him bad.

Monstro was on the surface and Lori had him locked on target.

Lori: I'm going to literally turn this big fish into a Whale Pretzel! Fire Cannons!

Lori fired powerful cannons and lasers and they hit Monstro all over and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Muscle Man: You know who else likes firing at whales? My mom!

Muscle Man fired energy blasts from his hands and they hit Monstro and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Lincoln flew around Monstro.

Lincoln: Lets see how Monstro likes lightning! Lightning Machine Guns fire!

Lincoln fired powerful machine guns that fired powerful lightning and they hit and electrocuted Monstro all over.

Clyde: Wow! Awesome flying buddy!

Lincoln: Thanks Clyde.

Ben: J.D., I have a new alien for this. Let me show you.

Me: Okay.

Ben went out onto the wing of my zord and he was ready. Ben then turned into a new alien!

Ben: SHOCK ROCK!

Me: Whoa! I've never seen this one.

Shanan: I don't believe it! That's a Fulmini from the planet Fulmas!

Me: What are they known for Shanan?

Shanan: They are a very powerful race dad. The Fulmini fought amongst themselves over the energy that Fulmas held, until the planet began to fall apart. United, the Fulmini began to wage war against the rest of the universe, using wormholes to travel to nearby planets in order to plunder their energy and use it to restore Fulmas to its former strength.

Me: Whoa! They are incredibly dangerous!

Shanan: Exactly.

Nico: Wow! They sound very tough.

Shanan: And they have incredibly strong lightning powers that are just as powerful as Lincoln's when he's at Super Angel 20,000.

Lola: Wow! I never knew they are that powerful!

Chione: Me neither.

Shock Rock: I never knew I had this form until now. Lets see what it can do.

Shock Rock fired a powerful blast of lightning from his hands and it hit Monstro and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lola: WHOA! That was powerful!

Me: No kidding! My instruments measured that blast of lightning at 720 gigawatts! Unbelievable!

Nico: Wow! That is powerful!

Lori: No kidding.

Flynn McAllistair: Amazing lads!

Riley: Way to go Ben!

Scott Truman: That is incredible!

Gem: I'll say!

Me: Lets finish this monster with our combos and Final Smashes!

Shock Rock: You got it J.D.!

Ben turned into Swampfire.

Ben: SWAMPFIRE!

Clayface was ready. He was on the deck of Lori's Zord.

Swampfire fired a massive blast of fire and Clayface fired a powerful maceball of pure clay and it had deadly spikes on it.

Swampfire and Clayface: VOLCANIC LAVA MACE CRUSH!

The fire merged with the mace ball and turned it into a deadly red hot super mace ball of pure lava and it hit Monstro and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: WHOA! Awesome!

Swampfire: Just getting started!

Ben turned into Echo Echo!

Ben: (Techno Voice) ECHO ECHO!

Maria: (Squeals) There's my favorite cute alien!

May: Mine is Pesky Dust.

Echo Echo fired a powerful blast of Sound and Soundwave fired his powerful concussion blaster.

Echo Echo and Soundwave: HYPERSONIC SOUND SONIC BOOM!

The blasts combined and they hit Monstro with the power of a mach 100 Sonic Boom or 71,000 miles per hour and it exploded with the power of 6,000 decibels.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion of sound sent Monstro skidding and he was coming back.

Me: Time for Cyber Key Power!

Arcee: Affirmative! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into her arm and it enhanced her Photon Pistols 100-fold.

Static: This is gonna be awesome! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into Static's right arm device and it enhanced his lightning powers 100-fold.

Arcee and Static: PHOTON LIGHTNING SUPERBLAST!

Arcee fired a powerful blast of photon energy and Static fired a powerful blast of lightning and the blasts combined and they hit Monstro and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Nightbird: Time for the need for speed! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Nightbird's back and it enhanced her speed 100-fold.

Blizzard Man: Time for this monster to get the cold shoulder! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Blizzard Man's Right arm and enhanced his Blizzard Attack 100-fold.

Nightbird and Blizzard Man: SUPERSONIC BLIZZARD STRIKE!

Nightbird went at incredibly fast speed and Blizzard Man fired a powerful blast of snow from his attack and it hit Monstro and made him cold.

Me: Time for final smashes!

Chione: Lets do it! NECROFRIGGIAN ENDOTHERMIC FIRESTORM!

The Necrofriggian Babies fired powerful blasts of ice and Chione fired a powerful blast of endothermic fire and the blasts hit Monstro and half froze him in ice.

Pinocchio: This is for hurting my father! LIAR NOSE SKEWER! I ate a piece of my father's lasagna for lunch.

His nose grew to the length of a spear and he skewered Monstro.

Jiminy Cricket: You will pay Blubbermouth! LIGHTNING UMBRELLA BLAST!

Jiminy Cricket fired a powerful blast of lightning from his umbrella and electrocuted Monstro.

Kairi: You will never terrorize the oceans again Monstro! RAINBOW PRISM KEYBLADE RAY!

Kairi fired a powerful rainbow light blast from her Keyblade and it hit Monstro and exploded.

Aqua: You are a monster to the ocean! MEGATSUNAMI SPELLBINDER SPIN!

Aqua fired a powerful blast of water and it spun Monstro around in a powerful whirlpool.

Me: Now to finish him for good. I'll finish him the old fashion way.

I pressed a button and my zord had a Mother Of All Bombs missile ready to fire.

Me: Smile you son of a bitch!

I fired the missile and it went down Monstro's throat and when it hit his stomach it blew Monstro into a million bloody pieces and splattered his blood and guts all over the ocean in a massive explosion of carnage.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

EEEEWWWWWWWW!

(That scene is based on how Brody killed Jaws)

Me: BINGO!

Nico: Nice shot J.D.!

Laney: What a mess!

Me: Who's hungry for whale soup?

Nico: Monstro, you have failed this world!

Monstro was dead!

Jiminy Cricket: I can't believe it! We actually destroyed Monstro!

Me: Wow! We sure did.

Kay: That was so awesome!

Dahlia: Way to go!

Me: Imagine what would happen if we did that to Moby Dick.

We laughed.

Jimmy Cricket: (To the viewers) Never underestimate the technological genius of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

We later got Pinocchio and his family back to shore and got them home. We arrested Honest John, Gideon and Stromboli for their crimes and they and the Coachman were sentenced to spend the rest of their miserable lives in the Uranus Prison without parole. They were also ordered to pay $729 Novemdecillion in damages and return all the kids that were turned into Donkeys because of the curse to their families. I used my powers to break the curse.

Me: Only one loose end to cover. Good thing we moved the rides and all that to Phoenix Land. Fu, charge up the superlaser.

Fu: You got it J.D. Commence Primary Ignition.

Fu and Naruto pressed some buttons and pulled a lever and a portal formed. The target was Pleasure Island. We got all the kids off it and back to their homes.

Me: Fire.

The Superlaser fired and it hit Pleasure Island and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared, the whole island was completely obliterated and a crater was all that was left.

Me: BINGO!

Nico: Pleasure Island, you have failed this world!

Me: YEAH!

We went back home and placed the world of Pinocchio around the Realm of Departure. We bought all kinds of awesome clocks and music boxes and they were amazing. I bought a clock that looked like a hunter going after a bird. It was cute.

But then later that night we got an awesome surprise! As Pinocchio was reading a book and a light appeared.

Blue Fairy: Prove yourself brave, truthful and unselfish and someday you will be a real boy.

In a magic spell we saw Pinocchio become a real full fledge boy!

Me: I don't believe it! Mr. Geppetto you got to see this!

Geppetto: What happened!?

Me: Pinocchio is real!

Pinocchio saw that I was right.

Pinocchio: Yeah. I'M A REAL BOY!

Geppetto was overjoyed. We were so happy for them! We had an awesome celebration for them!

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another awesome Disney movie done.

Pinocchio has been one of my favorite childhood movies ever since I was a little kid and it was so awesome! Pinocchio has been an iconic movie for Disney since 1940. Awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is Scooby Doo Music of the Vampire and that is one of the Scooby Doo movies I've never seen. But it will be interesting.

See you all tomorrow.

A Musical Vampire Mystery

At Lynn's Table, we were watching an eating contest between Carol and May. They were having one of the most insidious eating contests ever: The Brain Freeze Ice Cream contest. Whoever gets a brain freeze first loses. In front of them was a bowl full of their favorite flavors of ice cream and they were staring at each other with a competitive look in their eyes.

Manaphy: C'mon, Mama! I believe in you!

Maria: C'mon, Carol! You can do it!

Francis: Where did we get all that ice cream again?

Me: Mr. Lynn has an awesome ice cream maker and he made it all by hand.

Francis: Nice!

Steven Universe: Who do you guys think will win?

Vince: My money is on Carol.

Me: Mine is May.

Astrotrain was the referee.

Astrotrain: And go!

Carol and May got to eating and they were eating the cold treat fast and it was awesome!

Nico: Wow! That must be a really cold ice cream.

Lola: I love ice cream but I would never eat it fast like that.

Carol then got a massive brain freeze.

Carol: (holds her head in pain) AARGH! BRAIN FREEZE!

Astrotrain: And May wins!

We cheered for her!

Vince: You did good honey.

Carla: It was a good try mommy.

Carol: Thanks honey.

Springer: Sorry you lost, Carol.

Carol: It's all right Springer. You can't win them all.

Lana: Now I got a contest! J.D. I challenge you to a contest!

Me: You're on Lana!

Me and Lana sat at a table and Lynn Sr. came out with something under a serving dome for each of us.

Lana: You are gonna lose to this one J.D.

Me: I'm ready for anything. Are we gonna eat bugs?

Lana: Nope. Something even better.

Lynn Sr. placed the dishes in front of me and Lana and he pulled the cover up and in front of me was a big bowl full of Chum!

Me: Chum!?

Everyone gasped.

Nico: Chum!?

Lola: OH YUCK!

Laney: This is gonna be so disgusting.

I gulped in disgust and fear.

Lana: I bet you can't eat this.

Me: Oh boy.

Astrotrain: This is gonna be gross.

Cuprosklodowskite: No kidding.

Lapis: Yuck.

I looked at what was in my bowl. It was full of fish organs and it was so gross!

Astrotrain: Ready guys?

We were ready.

Astrotrain: GO!

Lana ate her whole bowl of chum in less than 2 minutes.

I picked up a fork and skewered an intestine and then I put it in my mouth and the taste hit. It was so disgusting and rotten and putrid that I instantly hurled my guts out.

Me: (PROJECTILE VOMITVILLE!)

I was hurling my guts out all over the floor like Niagara Falls and Laney came with a bucket for me to puke in. It was a huge bucket and Luna fainted.

FWOMP!

Sam S.L.: Luna!

Me: (VOMITS) Oh that is so disgusting! (VOMITS)

Lana: Aw it's not so bad.

Lana ate my bowl.

Astrotrain: Lana wins.

Nico: Lana you are a gross but funny girl.

Me: (VOMITS) That is really foul! Mr. Lynn, I can never understand why you liked that stuff.

Lynn Sr.: Yeah in all honesty, I don't know why I liked chum anyway.

Lily then came out with some Krabby Patties.

Lily: Here J.D. have some Krabby Patties. This gets rid of the taste of chum.

Me: Thanks Lily.

I ate some Krabby Patties and I was better.

Me: Ahh. Much better.

Maria: Krabby Patties, the miracle cure for everything.

Lily: Yep. Mr. SquarePants makes his Krabby Patties with love.

Girl Jordan: I can't believe that they are that good. SpongeBob is an awesome fry cook like Lily is.

Lily: Thanks G.J. That means a lot to me and Mr. SquarePants.

Me: But still, I can't believe that Plankton would make such a disgusting abomination of food. What the hell was he thinking using Chum for food?

Lincoln: Boy I don't know J.D.

Nico: Well now Plankton has all of eternity to think about it as he drifts in space forever.

Me: Yep.

Then I got a call on my Cell Phone.

Me: Oh.

I answered it.

Me: Hello?

Velma: Hey J.D. it's Velma.

Me: Hey Velma. How are things going?

Velma: Good. I have awesome news. We're over at an awesome cool festival for vampires called Vampire Palooza and it's a really cool festival. I met one of my favorite authors Vincent Van Helsing and it's amazing!

Me: Cool! I haven't been to Vampire Palooza in like forever.

Lucy Loud: Gasp! Vampire Palooza sounds like an amazing festival.

Brittney: That's awesome dad.

Haiku: Vampires are amazing.

Maggie: Wow. I would love a festival like that.

Velma: You're free to join us if you want to.

Me: I'm sure everyone would love it. But sure. We're on our way.

Velma: It's over in the town of Petit Chauve Sourie Ville in Oregon.

Me: Got it Velma. We're on our way. See you there.

I hung up and later we were off to Petit Chauve Sourie Ville in Oregon.

---

PETIT CHAUVE SOURIE VILLE, OREGON.

---

We were flying over the Cascade Mountains of Oregon and it was beautiful.

Me: The Cascade Mountains of Oregon, one of the most amazing volcanic mountain ranges in the Rocky Mountains.

Nico: It's beautiful. I wouldn't mind coming here for a vacation.

Laney: Me neither.

Me: Who wouldn't? It's a beautiful mountain area here in the Rocky Mountains.

We arrived in the town of Petit Chauve Sourie Ville, Oregon and we were in the middle of the festival of Vampire Palooza.

Me: Here we are guys.

Brittney: This is gonna be amazing dad.

Maggie: I agree. It's gonna be awesome.

Yumi: You said it Maggie.

Alicia Chan: I think this is gonna be awesome too.

Thorn: Long time no see guys!

Me: Hey! Thorn, Dusk, Luna! Good to see you all again.

Maria: Same here. It's been over a year since we helped give Doug and Michelle what they deserve.

Hex Girls Luna: I remember that.

Dusk: And I see you guys have gotten plenty of new friends.

Nico: We sure did. (introduces Tommy Oliver and Optimus Prime) I'd like you girls to meet Tommy Oliver and Optimus Prime.

Me: We met the Power Rangers from over the course of 26+ Years.

Tommy Oliver: You sure did. Pleasure to meet you. Tommy Oliver, leader of the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers.

Dusk: It's a pleasure. Love the Power Rangers.

Thorn: Very popular show.

Delphine: (Alien Voice) I'm Delphine, leader of the Aquitar Alien Power Rangers.

Hex Girls Luna: Wow! It's a pleasure.

Me: The planet Aquitar is an ocean world and when Rita Repulsa turned the Power Rangers into kids while they found the Zeo Crystals, Zordon called on the Aquitar Power Rangers to help for a bit.

Thorn: Wow! That's amazing!

Kat Hillard: (Australian Accent) G'day it's a pleasure. I'm Katherine Hillard, leader of the Zeo Power Rangers.

Dusk: It's a pleasure. You're from Australia.

Kat Hillard: I sure am.

Dusk: We went to Australia a while back.

Me: Feels like forever huh?

T.J. Johnson: I'm T.J. Johnson, leader of the Turbo Power Rangers.

Thorn: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Andros: I'm Andros, leader of the In Space Power Rangers.

Hex Girls Luna: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Leo Corbett: Name's Leo Corbett, leader of the Lost Galaxy Power Rangers.

Thorn: Wow! I think I remember seeing you guys on TV.

Leo Corbett: That's us.

Hex Girls Luna: Amazing!

Carter Grayson: My name is Carter Grayson, I'm the leader of the Lightspeed Rescue Power Rangers.

Dusk: Wow! You are amazing! We watched you guys all the time!

Kelsey Winslow: Thanks.

Me: One of their primary villains, Vypra is back and she is causing havoc for us by resurrecting the Power Rangers old enemies and some of the monsters that the Mystery Inc. gang faced and it's proving to be an awesome challenge.

Thorn: Whoa! I remember Vypra! She is a monster! But how is that possible!? She was killed when Bansheera forced her to merge with her.

Me: That was our first reaction as well. But a Dark Orb brought her back to life and she's out there right now even as we speak.

Dusk: Heavy.

Wes Collins: My name is Wes Collins. I'm the leader of the Time Force Rangers and member of the Silver Guardians.

Dusk: I remember you! You're from the year 3000.

Wes Collins: That's right.

Cole Evans: I'm Cole Evans, leader of the Wild Force Power Rangers.

Thorn: Wow! We love the Wild Force series!

Me: It's one of my favorites too. Most of us got Animal Crystals and found some awesome new Wild Zords never seen before on TV.

We held up our Animal Crystals for them.

Thorn: Amazing! You guys have really been busy.

Nico: It's been an amazing journey.

Shane Clarke: It's a pleasure to meet you. I'm Shane Clarke, leader of the Ninja Storm Power Rangers.

Hex Girls Luna: Wow! Ninja Storm was awesome!

Connor McKnight: Pleasure to meet you. I'm Connor McKnight, leader of the Dino Thunder Power Rangers.

Hex Girls Luna: Awesome! And Tommy, you were the Black Brachio Ranger in that one right?

Tommy Oliver: I sure was. I am also a professor of Paleontology and I helped train them.

Kira Ford: Dr. Oliver is really gifted.

Trent Fernandez: He sure is.

Jack Landors: Pleasure to meet you all. I'm Jack Landors, Leader of the S.P.D. Power Rangers.

Thorn: Wow! It's awesome to meet you.

Dusk: S.P.D.?

Me: It stands for Space Patrol Delta. It's a special interplanetary police force.

Z: That's right.

Sydney Drew: It's an amazing field of work.

Me: But it takes a lot of discipline.

Thorn: I remember that.

Nick Russell: I'm Nick Russell, leader of the Mystic Force Power Rangers.

Dusk gasped.

Dusk: WOW! It's so awesome to meet you all.

Xander Bly: (Australian Accent) Thank you mate.

Vida Rocca: The magic of the Mystic Force Rangers is amazing.

Me: It's true girls. The Mystic Force Power Rangers are the only Power Rangers team that can utilize magic. And it's so awesome.

Thorn: I remember that. That is amazing.

Nico: It sure is.

Mack Hartford: My name is Mack Hartford, leader of the Operation Overdrive Power Rangers.

Dusk: Wow! It's a pleasure to meet you.

Casey Rhodes: It's a pleasure. I am Casey Rhodes, Leader of the Jungle Fury Power Rangers.

Hex Girls Luna: Wow! I love how you represent animal spirits.

Me: It was so awesome.

Isabelle: That series of Power Rangers was perfect for me. I am known as the Shaman of the team and I can identify which animal spirit a person has.

Dusk: Wow!

Me: It's true.

We showed them rings on our fingers for the Animal Spirits we embody.

Thorn: Amazing.

Scott Truman: I'm Scott Truman, leader of the R.P.M. Power Rangers.

Thorn: Whoa! I remember that one. It's just awful that your version of Planet Earth went to Hell.

Me: Yeah that was awful. It was best described as a nightmare from the fire of Hell. Venjix killed most of the people and the only city left was the City of Corinth. It was awful.

Nico: Yeah. But we blew up Venjix's factory and now he has to start over from scratch.

Thorn: Good.

Dusk: What does R.P.M. stand for?

Me: Racing Performance Machines.

Hex Girls Luna: Wow!

Jayden: It's a pleasure. I'm Jayden Shiba, leader of the Samurai Power Rangers.

Dusk: Wow! That one was a cool one!

Me: It was one of the coolest ever.

Troy Burrows: I'm Troy Burrows, leader of the Super Megaforce Rangers.

Me: The Megaforce Rangers are one of the coolest teams of Rangers we've ever met. They have the abilities and arsenal of every single Power Rangers team from over the course of 45+ years.

Thorn: WHOA!

Dusk: But I thought it was on for 26+ years.

Me: Well it was Japan that started it all back in 1975. Japan is where we got the idea for it here in America that started it all back in 1993.

Nico: Yep.

Thorn: Wow! So you all have over 45+ years of Power Rangers skills inside you!?

Noah Carver: We sure do.

Gia Moran: Its an amazing adventure and an awesome experience.

Me: It was so cool seeing them transform into so many groups of Rangers from over the course of 45+ years. But the coolest event we saw on TV was the Megaforce Rangers teaming up with every single group of Power Rangers from over the course of 20 years to take down the Army of the Armada. That was so cool!

Lana: It sure was. That was very unforgettable.

Nico: Boy I will never forget that. That was an awesome way to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Power Rangers back in 2013.

Emma Goodall: It was a true honor to have them all help us and now we're awesome friends.

Jake Holling: You said it Emma.

Orion: Oh yeah.

Tyler: I'll never forget that. Sorry, I'm Tyler Navarro, Leader of the Dino Charge Power Rangers.

Thorn: Wow! You guys are one of my favorites!

Dusk: And from what we saw, you're also the Ranger Team that has the most Power Rangers ever from over the course of 26+ years.

Tyler Navarro: That's right. We have 10 Rangers in our group.

Laney: Yep.

Dusk: Wow!

Brody Romero: And I'm Brody Romero, Leader of the Ninja Steel Power Rangers.

Thorn: That was an awesome one.

Me: It was. The only ranger team we have yet to meet are the Beast Morpher Rangers.

Thorn: Wow. That is amazing. You guys have been busy meeting some of the Rangers.

Me: Well some of them met us while on our adventures. Also we got to meet the Japanese Power Rangers from 45 years ago.

Thorn: Really!? That is amazing!

Me: It sure was. They essentially came out of retirement to help us take down Thanos.

The Hex Girls gasped.

Thorn: Thanos the Mad Titan!?

Me: Yeah that's him. That was one of the most devastating battles we've ever had. We managed to kill Thanos but it came at a really heavy price. We suffered 2 casualties.

I went over to Talia and hugged her and she was crying.

Laney: Thanos killed Ra's Al Ghul and Bowser.

The Hex Girls gasped again and they were shocked.

Laney: Yeah. It was a tragic day for us. But the good news is that we killed Thanos and the entire Black Order and saved the entire universe from total destruction.

Thorn: My god. I'm so sorry about your dad Bowser Jr.

Bowser Jr.: It's all right. But I appreciate your concern.

Dusk: Talia, I'm so sorry.

Talia calmed down.

Talia: (Sniffles) It's okay. But thank you.

Me: But after the battle with Thanos, the Legion Of Doom disbanded and the villains we were about to face turned themselves in. We had a massive team of us and all the villains. They all helped us take down Thanos.

Thorn: Wow! That's amazing!

Me: We also have the Transformers you all haven't met yet.

Optimus Prime: That's right. I am Optimus Prime, leader of the Autobots. It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Thorn: Same here and it's an honor.

Marinette: It's an honor to meet the Hex Girls.

Thorn: Same here. And you are?

Marinette: My name is Marinette Cheng.

Nico: Marinette is one of my friends from Paris, France. She's also the famous superheroine Ladybug.

Dusk: Wow! We heard that you all went to Paris to stop Hawk Moth?

Me: That's right. That was one of our most stressful adventures. Nico told us about what was going on over in Paris with Hawk Moth and it took every ounce of our will power to try to not kill him.

Lily: It was a similar situation with Mr. Freeze and Nora Fries. Hawk Moth was also world famous designer and critic Gabriel Agreste.

Hex Girls Luna: Wow! I've heard about him. He makes awesome clothes and Leni would love him.

Leni: I totes love him Luna. Gabriel Agreste's fashion designs are in my favorite fashion magazines.

Me: It's where she gets most of the ideas for all of her clothes. Gabriel as Hawk Moth would turn a lot of people in Paris into villains of amazing power to get the Miraculous of Ladybug and Cat Noir so that he can revive his wife Emile who was in a coma.

Adrien: That's right. I'm Adrien Agreste, Gabriel is my father.

Dusk: Pleasure to meet you.

Adrien: My mom was in a coma for quite a while and dad was doing everything he could to bring her back.

Lily: But thanks to my curing water, I was able to revive her and cure her.

Thorn: Wow! That's amazing! It's amazing that you were able to hold together under all that pressure. We read about all this on the world news and it must've been really awful for you.

Me: It was.

Nico: But I was in charge of that mission and we sent Gabriel to jail for 6 years.

Dusk: And I heard about what happened with that monster Lila Rossi.

Me: Yeah. She tried to kill Marinette's mom Sabine and assassinate Mayor Bourgeois.

The Hex Girls gasped.

Me: But she's all the way up in the Saturn Insane Asylum for the rest of her fucking life.

Dusk: Good.

Thorn: But is Mayor Bourgeois and Mrs. Cheng all right?

Me: Yeah. Their okay.

Chloe Bourgeois: Thanks goodness. My name is Chloe Bourgeois. It's an honor.

Thorn: Same here.

All our friends introduced themselves.

Thorn: It's an honor and pleasure. Wow. You all have done so much since we disgraced Doug and Michelle.

Me: We sure have.

Then we saw Fred and all of Mystery Inc.

Me: Hey guys!

Fred: It's great to see you here guys.

Me: Same here Fred. Brittney and the Goths love vampires.

Brittney: Yep.

Velma: Glad to see you all here. We got a huge problem.

Kim Possible: So what's the Sitch?

Velma revealed that the festival is being haunted by the spirit of an evil vampire named Lord Valdronya.

Thorn: Another vampire? Wasn't the last one involving Doc Ock enough?

Me: Obviously not. But like Fred says, it looks like we've got another mystery on our hands.

Fred: Yep. But how are we gonna find any clues with all these people here?

Dusk: We'll distract the crowd with a song. That'll give you guys enough time to look for clues.

Me: Great idea. Thanks girls. We owe you all again.

Thorn: Think nothing of it.

The Hex Girls got to playing and we got to searching. We found some strange clues and they were some knock out medicine and a holographic projector as well. But it wasn't until we found a book that was dropped and it belonged to Vincent Van Hellsing and that was the clue we needed to put all the clues together.

Me: We have the mystery solved.

Then we heard a motorcycle coming! We turned and saw it and there was no driver! The Motorcycle transformed and it was the MOTORCYCLE ORG from Wild Force Episode 13.

---

History of Scooter Org

Scooter Org was one of the ancient Orgs that tried to take over the Earth with Master Org 3,000 years ago, this Org tooked the form of a scooter and is the first Org that the Taylor, the Yellow Ranger fights (and chronologically, the first Org to be fought as a whole), she was out match because she couldn't handle it the first time she faced it, luckily with Princess Shayla's help, they were able to sealed the Org in a tomb.

History of Motorcycle Org

A year later after the new Rangers: Cole, Alyssa, Danny and Max joined in the team, a Duke Org name Zen-Aku heard Scooter Org moaning out for revenge, he goes to an Org cemetery and frees the Org. he conferred both the Taylor and Princess Shayla in an upgraded form with a new motorcycle theme now called Motorcycle Org, she remembers him and took on the Org, but she was quickly out match, Princess Shayla tried to help, but she was caught by Zen-Aku, Taylor tried to save her, but she got blasted by Motorcycle Org, wounding her completely, Motorcycle Org was about to finish her off until Zen-Aku told the Org to finisher her later, because "Revenge isn't something to rush", he agrees and he along with Zen-Aku and the now captured Princess Shayla teleported away, at the work shop, he is recharging thanks to Zen-Aku, he later alerts Zen-Aku of the Rangers outside and (after Zen-Aku takes Princess Shayla outside as well) he conferds Taylor in the battle, the other four Rangers came in to help, but they were stop by Zen-Ake, even tho Motorcycle Org is now Turbo-Charge, he was no match for the Yellow Ranger (who was enrage by that has happen because of Motorcycle Org), she then use the Soaring Slash Attack to greatly wound the Org. He was then destroyed permanently by the Wild Force Ranger's Jungle Sword Savage Slash Attack. Revenge of Zen-Aku

Personality

As Scooter Org, he was loud, ruthless and will stop at nothing to defeat Taylor.

As Motorcycle Org, he retains his peronality that he had before, but he is very loyal to Zen-Aku since he freed him.

Powers And Abilities

Scooter Org

Strength: While being the first Org and lacking any super powers or weapons what so ever, Scooter Org is strong enough to overpower the Yellow Ranger.

Motorcycle Org

Strength: Motorcycle Org is far stronger then before.

Motorcycle Charge: Motorcycle Org can charge in high speeds at the enemy.

Teleportation: Motorcycle Org can teleport to any location at will.

Arsenal

Left Screw Gun Arm: Motorcycle Org can turn his left arm into a screw shape gun that he can fire yellow colored energy lasers with yellow colored electricity around it.

Org Horns: Motocycle Org posses two horns on his head, for which he can use these to ram his enemies with.

Org Spear: When in combat, Motorcycle Org can also equipped a spear.

---

Motorcycle Org: It's been a long time Yellow Ranger!

Taylor Earhart: I remember you!

Me: The Motorcycle Org! I remember this guy! He was the Org you sealed away Taylor!

Taylor Earhart: That's right. But he was the Scooter Org.

Nico: Whoa! I didn't think Vypra would bring you back.

Then we heard an eerie moan.

Nico: That moan sounds really familiar.

Then out came an old prospector! It was THE MINER 49ER!

Me: That's the Miner 49er!

Shaggy: Zoinks! I remember him!

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: He was really the caretaker of an old Ghost Town in Arizona named Gold City. His name was Hank and he worked at a Guest Ranch and he was scaring a lot of people off so that he could buy the land cheap for the oil that was underneath it. And they do say that oil is worth its weight in gold.

Lola: So he's an old 19th Century Gold Miner.

Me: Yep. Hank got 20 to 25 years in prison for his crimes. He died in prison of natural causes.

Qin: Wow.

Lola: Lets see who loves gold more.

Me: And we faced the Miner 49er in that awesome game our friend Eric made.

Qin: What game was that?

Me: It was an awesome game! It was called Mystery Inc. Adventures. We got word that our friends of Mystery Inc got sent into it and we hooked up the game to our Training Simulator and went into the game to help them out.

Qin: Wow! Nico told me about that. That was awesome!

Nico: It was an awesome adventure.

Me: It sure was. We faced the Miner 49er in a level that looked like Blackhawk, Colorado.

Qin: Cool! Isn't Blackhawk one of the famous gambling towns in Colorado?

Me: Yep and the food is delicious.

Shaggy: I could go for that.

Scooby Doo: Me too.

Then out came LORD VALDRONYA!

Me: It's the vampire! Lets get them!

Lola: I'll take the Gold Miner!

Taylor Earhart: Lets get him guys!

Cole Evans: Right!

Wild Force Power Rangers: WILD ACCESS!

The Wild Force Rangers transformed.

Brittney: We'll take on the vampire.

Troy: Let's give the audience a show!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Nova Flashteam!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Flashmen from 1987.

Lola: Lets see who loves gold more!

Lola fired a powerful blast of gold fire and it hit the Miner 49er and it turned him into a statue of solid gold!

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Nico: I don't believe it! Lola's fire turned him into a 24K solid gold statue!

Me: The Midas Flame.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one J.D.!

Me: That wasn't a joke but thanks.

Lana: Way to go sis!

Lola: Thanks Lana. I didn't even know I had this kind of power.

Laney: Me neither.

Lola: I guess my love for all things made of gold made my flame change.

Motorcycle Org: I can now do this.

He turned into an awesome Harley Davidson motorcycle!

Nico: What the?

Motorcycle Org: Surprised? I can now turn into a real motorcycle! Pretty cool, huh?

Hot Shot: You're not the only one who can turn into a vehicle!

Hot Shot turned into his Cybertron form and turned into his Cybertron Defense form. It was an M1117 Guardian Armored Security Vehicle.

It was an epic chase.

Motorcycle Org: You wanna play Chicken, Yellow Ranger? Fine by me! (turns into motorcycle)

Motorcyle Org rode towards Taylor, who rode towards him in her Savage Cycle. But right before the two could collide, Taylor jumped out of the way as her Savage Cycle collided with Motorcyle Org.

CRASH!

Hot Shot: Try this on! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into his rifles on top and they popped up and he fired numerous missiles at the Motorcycle Org and they hit him and exploded all over. They knocked him down.

Nico: Time to finish him for good!

The Wild Force Rangers formed the Jungle Blaster.

Nico: Motorcycle Org, you have failed this world! Say hi to Master Org in Hell when you see him!

Cole Evans: JUNGLE BLASTER! SAVAGE BLAST!

The Wild Force Rangers fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit the Motorcycle Org and exploded and it obliterated him.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

It turned him into a pile of green slop.

Me: Too bad Toxica isn't here.

I fired a blast of fire and incinerated him. There was nothing left of the Org.

Me: Now it's time for the phony vampire.

We went at Lord Valdronya and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over and Lana fired a powerful blast of ice lightning and froze his arms.

Ben: Try this one on!

Ben then turned into OVERFLOW!

Ben: OVERFLOW!

Me: Whoa! That is definitely not an Orishan.

Shanan: No he's not dad. That's a Cascan from the planet Cascareau in the Andromeda Galaxy.

Laney: Wow! What is Cascareau like?

Shanan: Cascareau is much different than Water Hazard's home planet Kiusana.

Shanan told us what Cascareau is like.

Cascareau is a planet located within the Andromeda Galaxy. It is an aquatic world where the Cascan make their home.

Society

The dominant species of the planet appears to be the Cascan, armored humanoid creatures that reside deep within the waters due to the dangerous surface overridden with predators, harsh hurricanes, and pirates. Other sea creatures include a giant turtle like species, an eel like species, and a fish like species. There are also humanoid squid-like species guarding the serpent glass bank

Landscape

The planet is covered with water and has various purple land. There is some water currents that lead to the various moons surrounding the planet.

---

Me: Wow! It's an ocean planet and it has water rivers that connect to its many moons?

Shanan: Yeah. It's a really amazing planetary feature.

Nico: How is that possible?

Shanan: I honestly have no clue. It must have something to do with gravity.

Me: Maybe.

Overflow: Watch what he can do.

Overflow fired a massive blast of water and it hit Lord Valdronya and drenched him all over.

Maria: Wow! He has powerful water powers.

Bella: Wow! Amazing! Let me help too.

Bella activated Ultimate Bella!

Bella: DIAMONDHEAD!

She fired numerous diamond shards at Valdronya and pinned him to a tree.

Me: Time for some teamwork!

Ben then turned into Humungousaur.

Ben: HUMUNGOUSAUR!

Humungousaur threw a boulder and Pharaoh Man fired a powerful ball of sun fire.

Humungousaur and Pharoah Man: SOLAR FIREBALL METEOR!

The Sun fire ball merged with the boulder and it hit Lord Valdronya and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Ben then turned into Jetray!

Ben: JETRAY!

He and Xion flew into the air and Xion had black angel wings spread and she and Jetray fired powerful laser blasts.

Jetray and Xion: FLYING LASER FIRESTORM!

The lasers hit Valdronya and exploded all over.

Springer: Time for some power! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Laser Wind blaster 100-fold.

Steven: Time for some crystal gem power! CRYSTAL GEM CYBER KEY POWER!

The Crystal Gem Homeworld Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and it enhanced his Crystal Gem powers 100-fold.

Springer and Steven Universe: CRYSTAL SHARD MEGACYCLONE!

Springer fired a powerful blast of wind and Steven fired a powerful blast of crystal energy and the blasts hit Valdronya and shredded his clothes.

Astrotrain: Time for some awesome fun! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Ionic Disrupter rifle 100-fold.

Francis: I hope he likes being cooked well done. GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into Francis's right arm device and it enhanced his flamethrower cannons 100-fold.

Astrotrain and Francis: IONIC FIRE BURN!

Astrotrain fired a blast of ion energy and Francis fired a powerful blast of fire and the blasts hit Valdronya and burned him all over.

Me: Lets finish him with final smashes!

Brittney: You got it dad! NIGHT LIGHTNING ELECTROCUTION!

Brittney fired a powerful blast of black lightning and it hit Valdronya and electrocuted him all over.

Lucy Loud: You give vampires everywhere a really bad name! NIGHT LIGHTNING NIGHTMARE!

Lucy fired a powerful blast of black lightning and it electrocuted him all over.

Thorn: Lets give this maniac a scaring like no other.

Hex Girl Luna: Hex Girl Style!

Dusk: Yeah!

Hex Girls: UNHOLY ECO TRINITY FORCE!

The Hex Girls fired a powerful blast of Red, Green and Blue energy and it took the shape of the planet Earth and it slammed into Valdronya and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Valdronya was knocked down!

Me: Bullseye!

Nico: Valdronya, you have failed this planet!

Lucy Loud went up to him.

Lucy Loud: Now, time to unmask who the Vampire really is!

Lucy pulled the mask off and we got a surprise shock. It was VINCENT VAN HELSING!

Mystery Inc.: VINCENT VAN HELSING!

Velma: Just as I suspected.

Me: But why?

Velma went over his motive.

---

His books were doing badly and tourism for little bat town is very low, so he dressed up as Lord Valdronya and duped the Fangenschanz actor troupe into helping him stage a vampire wedding for the publicity it would bring in his new book, The Bride of the Vampire.

---

Me: I wouldn't mind reading that.

Nico: Me neither. That sounds like a good story.

Brittney: I understand why you did what you did Vincent.

Brittney pulled out his newest book and he saw that Brittney was a fan.

Vincent Van Helsing: You're a fan of my book too Brittney?

Brittney: We sure are.

The Goths of Darkness held up copies of his latest book: The Lord's Return.

Vincent Van Helsing: Wow! So you are all fans.

Lucy Loud: Indeed.

Haiku: Our morticians club at school also has an amazing book club.

Brittney: And I'm the president and founder of the Gotham Royal York Vampire Novel Admirers Club.

Maggie: And your books are one of our favorite works.

Laney: Wow! That's amazing.

Lincoln: I didn't know about that Brittney.

Brittney: You didn't ask.

Lincoln: Touche.

Me: Well since nobody got hurt, we'll let Vincent Van Helsing off the hook. This gives me an idea.

We later set up an awesome stand at the festival and we were giving people an awesome copy of Vincent Van Helsings newest book: The Bride of The Vampire and it was a huge success.

Vincent Van Helsing: Thank you all for helping me become a great success. You are all wonderful meddling kids.

We laughed.

Me: That wasn't the first time we were called that.

Fred: That's right.

Thorn: But it sure was awesome helping you guys out.

Me: Thanks Thorn.

Lucy Loud: (To the viewers) Vampire Novels are really amazing. But don't take them too far just to bring in success.

Me: That's true Lucy.

Brittney: Yep. Vincent, I have something to tell you. I am a direct descendent of Gabriel Van Helsing.

Vincent Van Helsing: Really!?

Me: She sure is. And we killed the most evil vampire ever: Count Dracula. Brittney revealed that she is a direct descendent of the world famous vampire hunter Gabriel Van Helsing and it was thanks to her knowledge of killing vampires that we killed Dracula.

Vincent Van Helsing: Amazing! I had no idea we were family.

Brittney: I know. Shocking huh.

We laughed.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another Scooby Doo movie done.

Scooby Doo Music of the Vampire was an awesome movie and I saw it last night. It was amazing! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Buckle your seat belts for the next awesome race! We're going to race around Pluto!

See you all tomorrow.

A Super Far Cold Race Around Pluto

In the Saturn Insane Asylum, we were walking through the halls of the supermax portion of the asylum. This area was reserved for the most dangerous of insane patients and they were declared so dangerous that no one would even come near them.

With us was Neuropsychologist Dr. Callie Makura, Margaret White's doctor.

Me: So the doctors here failed to help Margaret doctor?

Dr. Makura: We've done everything we could J.D. But Margaret White is a completely lost cause.

Nico: Wow.

Dr. Makura: I know. We've tried everything we could to help her, but her mind is far too gone.

Me: Lets see here.

I did a brain scan of Margaret White and it showed that she was 35,717% Fucked up and it also said Condition Critical on it!

Me: Whoa! 35,717% and it says condition critical.

Dr. Makura: That's right. Her brain scans are the worst we've ever seen. Her brain is so bad and so damaged and insane, that she is rendered completely beyond all help. So we decided to remove her brain.

Lincoln: Wow.

Laney: She's already dead anyway. She forced Carrie to kill 260 people in a blind rage.

Carrie W.L.: I've forgiven my mom, but she will never forgive me.

Lana: I can't believe that woman is that delusional!

Me: I got word that the Federal Government is planning to indict her. But because of her insanity they decided to take that risk.

Lily Loud: Good.

Qin: It's for the best. But I can't believe that your mom made you kill all those people.

Carrie W.L.: I know.

We arrived at Margaret White's cell. It was a solitary confinement padded cell and there were a bunch of evil symbols on it. The Star of Satan, all kinds of evil symbols. There were even some very terrifying racial slurs on it.

Me: Geez! Margaret must be really hated here next to Lila Rossi.

Dr. Makura: Margaret is right up there.

I placed my hand on a palm scanner and it scanned my eye and the door opened.

We saw Margaret White in her cell locked in a powerful straitjacket. She had her hair all messed up and her eyes were red with pure insane evil. She was chained to the wall.

---

Margaret White (née Brigham) is one of the main antagonists in Stephen King's novel Carrie, its subsequent film adaptations and the Broadway musical. She is the abusive and religious mother of Carrie White, and is obsessed with her excessive convictions on Christian principles of modesty and chastity.

The wife of the late Ralph White and the mother of Carrie, Margaret lived with her parents, John and Judith Brigman, in Motton, Maine until 1960, when she moved to Chamberlain Center with Ralph White. 2 years later, he two married on March 23, 1962; shortly after, on April 3, 1962, Margaret was admitted to Westover Doctors Hospital for a suspected miscarriage. 5 months later on August 19, 1962, she last wrote to her mother, and later became pregnant in December that year, though she was convinced that she was afflicted with "cancer of the womanly parts".

Her husband died in February 1963 in a grisly construction accident, and she gave birth to her daughter alone on September 21, 1963. 3 years later on August 17, 1966, her house was deluged with stones from the sky brought on by her daughter's telekinesis after she punished the girl particularly hard.

Margaret White was very emotionally unstable and suffered from untreated mental illness. She was an extremely abusive and religious zealot who punished her daughter continually for any and all "sins", viewing her as a demonic child and showing no remorse over severe emotional and physical abuse. She also heavily believed herself to be continually under assault from evil forces.

In the novel's climax, Margaret was killed by Carrie, ending her reign of terror, sadly before this occurs, the abusive Margaret is able to stab her daughter - this would later prove to be fatal and Carrie died a short time later in the arms of one of her few friends, Sue Snell. In the movie, Carrie died along with her mother as their home crumbled on top of them due to Carrie's telekinetic powers gone awry.

---

Me: Hello Margaret.

Margaret White: Well well. If it isn't the devil's heroes.

Me: You are just a fucked up bitch Margaret.

Nico: I can't believe that you would kill so many innocent people. What the hell were you thinking!?

Laney: Yeah! How can you be so stupid!?

Margaret White: You think you all are heroes? You are no better then Carrie! (to Aqua) Especially you! You have the Devil inside you. I can see it in your eyes!

This caused Aqua to look down and clench her fist.

Me: I should kill you right now for saying that.

Drax: (grabs Margaret by the throat) You call yourself a mother? You know nothing about the word "Family"! If you did, you would've treated Carrie with love and affection! (looks down in sadness) And I should know.

Me: Drax let her go. She is going to die in a few minutes.

Nico: Margaret White, you have failed this world and universe as a parent and as a human being. You are the one that has the Devil inside you and for that we're sending you back to Hell.

Me: But I think Hell is too good for the likes of you.

Nicole: Same with the Book of Vile Darkness.

Me: So the River of Fire is perfect for you. You have no right to call yourself a human being.

Ben then turned into Nanomech. He landed on Stewie's finger.

Nanomech: (Tiny Techno voice) Ok, if I'm gonna get Margaret's brain out of her head, I'll need someone to keep her still.

Stewie: I can use my stasis blaster to do that. But you'll only have a limited amount of time to get her brain out.

Nanomech: How long do I have?

Stewie: 10 minutes.

Nanomech: That's all I'll need.

Stewie fired his Stasis Blaster at Margaret and went into her through her ear. He was flying through her body and he reached the underside of her brain and fired a laser at the brainstem and cut it away.

Riley: I hope Ben will be fine in there!

Gwen Tennyson: Riley, he'll be fine.

Kevin Levin: Gwen's right. If he can defeat Vilgax, the Highbreed, Aggregor, and even me when I was Kevin 11, he should have no problem getting that insane bitch's brain out.

Me: Also from what I was told, Ben has many more enemies other than them. Dr. Animo is now in Arkham, Rojo is in the Jupiter Prison, Thumbhead and Acid Breath are dead…

Frightwig: I'm reformed and now a good guy.

Me: Yep. Zombozo is dead and we still have many more of Ben's enemies to face. Some of them are still at large.

Then suddenly, Margaret's head exploded and Ben flew out with her brain completely covered in blood and slime!

Me: EEEEEWWW!

Lincoln: Yuck!

Ben reverted back.

Riley: (hugs Ben) Ben, I was so worried!

Ben: Relax, Riley. I've been through situations a lot worse then that. Now, let's put this brain in a jar. It feels gross touching it.

Me: I got this.

I pulled out a jar filled with fluid and put the brain in it.

Me: Yuck. Now I know how Hector Con Carne must feel.

Lola: You will never harm another person again.

Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and incinerated Margaret White's body. Nothing was left of it but a pile of ash.

We put the brain in a nourishment jar and delivered it to the federal court system. Margaret's trial is gonna be a swift one later on.

---

Later I was over at the grocery store getting some groceries for us. I got everything for us. It was also for Lynn Sr. and his restaurant. He needs a lot of Lynngredients for his cooking and more.

Me: Lets see. Eggs, cereal, fruit, veggies and meat and so much more. Wow. This is a lot of food for his restaurant and us.

I had 4 shopping carts full of items and more.

I was walking to the next isle and then I got a surprise appearance by Bobbie Fletcher.

Bobbie: Hey J.D.

Me: Bobbie Fletcher. Wow. Here getting groceries as well?

Bobbie: I sure am. And I was just about to look for you. A new race is on soon.

Me: Awesome. Where is it at?

Bobbie: It's gonna be on the planet Pluto.

Me: Pluto!? All the way out there? That's 3.9 billion miles away and the images from the New Horizons Satellite were breathtaking.

Bobbie: That's right. Pluto is gonna be really amazing.

Me: It sure is. For many years we had no idea what Pluto looked like. The images were too blurry. Not even the Hubble Space Telescope could give us a clear view of it. But now in 2015 thanks to the New Horizon's Satellite, we have awesome images of it. It's amazing.

Bobbie: I know. Now we know what it looks like. It's amazing.

Me: It brought an end to a big 85 year mystery. Clyde Tombaugh is the one that discovered Pluto back in 1930 and it was a very small object that he found.

Bobbie: That's right. I'm very excited for this race and it's gonna be very interesting.

Me: It sure is. But Pluto is made almost entirely of Methane Ice and our vehicles will slide all over the place in ice.

Bobbie: Not to worry. We made special anti-zero friction traction wheels for your vehicles when you get there.

Me: Oh good. We'll gladly be there!

Bobbie: Awesome! See you all there.

Me: Will do Bobbie.

Bobbie left and I paid for my groceries and loaded them in my car. My car is now equipped with expanded space for all my groceries.

I drove home.

---

At home, everyone was watching TV and playing card games and reading books. I pulled into the garage and unloaded all the groceries. Then I came in through the door.

Me: Hey guys.

Nico: Hey J.D. How did the shopping go?

Me: It went great.

Lynn Sr.: (Offscreen) Thanks for the groceries J.D.!

Me: Anytime Mr. Lynn. I have awesome news guys. I ran into Bobbie Fletcher at the store and I found out where the next race is.

Lana: Wow! Where is it gonna be?

Me: It's gonna be on the farthest planet in the Solar System: Pluto.

Everyone gasped.

Lori: Pluto!?

Leni: Is Mickey's dog gonna be there?

Lisa: No Leni, Pluto is the 9th planet from the Sun. But it was classified as what we call a Dwarf Planet.

William: I don't care what Astronomers say. Pluto's still a planet to me.

Me: I agree with you William. I can't believe Pluto was demoted like that back in 2006. Pluto is still part of our Solar System and it is still a planet in our hearts.

Sailor Pluto: Thanks J.D., William, that means a lot to me.

Me: You're welcome Trista.

Hot Shot: A race around Pluto is gonna be really amazing! But isn't Pluto made entirely of solid ice?

Me: It sure is Hot Shot. Methane Ice actually. Pluto is gonna be amazing. The New Horizons satellite discovered all kinds of amazing terrains and landscapes on Pluto and it showed us what it looked like after 85 years where the Hubble Space Telescope could not.

Lincoln: Wow! That is so cool!

Earth: It sure is.

Varie: This is gonna be amazing and really educational for us.

Me: It sure is. And the there is gonna be a whole new terrain we haven't seen yet. It's Race time!

We cheered.

We left for the garage.

---

In the garage, Marinette was working on her new cart for everyday use.

Tikki: Need some help building your cart, Marinette?

Marinette: Sure Tikki.

Tikki got to helping her out.

Adrien: This is gonna be interesting. We now are gonna have Everyday cars that can turn into Race Cars.

Me and everyone else came.

Me: Hey guys. We have another race. It's Race Time!

Marinette: Awesome!

Adrien: Where is it at?

Me: Believe it or not, It's on the planet Pluto.

Marinette: Pluto!? All the way out there?

Me: That's right. It's gonna be amazing.

We got our cars ready and we were off to Pluto.

We took our new Lightspeed Rescue Carrier Zord to it. It was going to be awesome!

* * *

We arrived on a space station orbiting above Pluto and it was a breathtaking view. We were looking over the entire planet of Pluto. We even saw the Sun from 3.9 Billion miles away from us. It was so far away and the Sun looked like all the other stars in the entire universe.

Me: Wow! It's so beautiful!

Lana: It sure is. I didn't know that the Sun could look so beautiful from this far away!

Laney: It looks like a star. Just like all the other stars out there in the galaxy.

Me: It sure does. This is an amazing view.

I looked over the map of the landscape of Pluto and we were to start at the top of the North Pole of Pluto at Voyager Terra and go around to Djanggawul Fossae, through the terrain of Hayabusa Terra, and race around the edge of Tombaugh Regio and to the South Pole at the finish line.

Me: Wow. This is gonna be tough. But I'm ready for anything.

We finished putting the snow tracks that will prevent us from sliding on Pluto's surface.

Me: We are ready to go.

We got in our cars.

Maria: Horsea, make sure to keep your seat belt fastened at all times.

Horsea: Right Maria.

Me: This is gonna be awesome.

Marinette: I know. I can't wait to race around Pluto. It's gonna be amazing!

Adrien: Boy it sure is. Dad is here to watch as well as mom.

Gabriel: (From the stands) Good luck son.

Emile: (From the stands) You can do it son.

Sabine Cheng was with them as well.

Sabine: Good luck Marinette.

Me: Good luck to both of you guys.

Adrien: Thanks J.D.

Marinette: Thanks.

Billy Natson then came.

Billy Natson: And… Welcome to one of the biggest days in racing history! Hello I'm Billy Natson and we have quite an amazing treat for you all today. We are on the distant 9th Planet from the Sun, Pluto and ever since we learned more about its geographical structure from the New Horizons Satellite that was launched back in 2004 and made it here in 2015, we saw many new amazing Geographical features and amazing features. Wow! For the first time ever we are going to have an amazing race on our distant Solar System planet Pluto! We have our favorite racers ready to give us an amazing show like always. We have Team Loud Phoenix Storm here. You ready for another awesome race J.D.?

Me: You bet I am Billy. This is a major first for all of us! LETS BURN RUBBER!

Billy Natson: Love that racing spirit J.D.!

Dick Dastardly: You all will soon be frozen on Pluto when I win!

Me: In your dreams Dastardly!

Muscle Man: Hey, Dastardly. Cheatings for little babies. Like you!

Laney: Yeah!

Krista: Racers are you ready!?

We were ready, willing and able!

Krista held up the green flag.

Krista: On your marks…

We revved our engines.

Krista: GET SET…

We were ready.

Krista: REV UP AND GOOOOO! (WAVES THE GREEN FLAG!)

We zoomed through a portal that took us to the North Pole of Pluto.

Billy Natson: AND THEY'RE OFF!

Gabriel: Go son!

We were racing through Voyager Terra.

---

Voyager Terra is a region on the dwarf planet Pluto, north of Viking Terra and Tombaugh Regio and west of Pioneer Terra, which was discovered in July 2015 by the New Horizons spacecraft. It is named for the Voyager program and Voyager 2, the first spacecraft to explore Uranus and Neptune and to cross into interstellar space. On 7 September 2017, the name Voyager Terra was officially approved together with the names of Tombaugh Regio and twelve other nearby surface features.

---

Voyager Terra was an amazing desert like area and it was a desert full of ice.

Me: Wow! This is amazing.

Lola: This is breathtaking! I can't believe we never saw any of this years ago.

Laney: Me neither. How come we didn't know about any of this?

Me: Because the images of Pluto taken through the Hubble Space Telescope were too blurry and the computer enhancements weren't enough.

Nico: Until the New Horizons satellite took those amazing pictures.

Me: Yep.

Lincoln: What is the temperature here on Pluto?

Me: It can drop to -387˚ Fahrenheit here.

Lana: Whoa! That is really cold.

Me: It sure is.

Lucy Loud: How long does it take for Pluto to orbit the sun?

Me: 247 years. Pluto takes 247 years to make a full circle around the sun.

Lynn: Whoa! That's a really long time.

Me: It sure is.

Lily Loud: Hey what's that over there!

Lily pointed to something and shockingly we saw strange hopping crystal creatures!

Me: WHOA!

Shanan was flying above us and she couldn't believe it.

Shanan: I don't believe it! Dad, those are Plutonian Zistles!

Me: I thought those were only hypothetical creatures!

Linka: What are Plutonian Zistles?

Me: A hypothetical creature that was said to be an example of extraterrestrial life. I read about it constantly in one of my favorite books. It was called Picture Atlas of Our Universe by National Geographic.

Lisa: I read that one too. It's amazing.

Me: Wow!

---

Zistles are composed of blue, irregular crystal lattices. Their body shows a vaguely spherical symmetry, without any limbs or orifices. However, they do appear to have root-like appendages in the lower part of their body.

Temperatures higher than -250 ºC (-418 ºF) are uncomfortably warm to them. They are likely capable of electroreception, as the book describes that nighttime allows them to communicate better due to higher electric conductivity.

Despite lacking significant motility, zistles are able to jump up to 20 meters under their home planet's low surface gravity.

Zistles make use of the increased electric conductivity at night to spend it "radioing great thoughts to each other." Unaware of life on Earth, zistles think of Pluto as the only life-harboring world.

---

Nico: That's amazing that they would be here for real!

Laney: I got to get a picture of this!

Laney took a picture of it and then one hopped into her car and Laney kept it cold.

Laney: Wow!

Me: That's amazing Laney. I hope it likes the temperatures we have on Earth.

Laney: Me too.

Dick Dastardly was closing on Laney and he had his missiles ready to fire at her!

Laney: Uh oh!

Dick Dastardly: No one is winning this race but me! (Evil Laughter)

G1 Smokescreen: I don't think so Dastardly! There's a reason they call me Smokescreen! (emits thick smoke from tailpipe towards Dastardly's car)

It obscured Dick Dastardly's view.

Dick Dastardly: I can't see!

Laney: Yeah!

Then the Zistle hopped onto her head and fired a powerful blast of lightning and it hit Dick Dastardly's car and destroyed it in a powerful explosion.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

The car was completely destroyed and Dick Dastardly and Mutley were sent rolling and they crashed into a rock.

Dick Dastardly: DRAT! DRAT! DRAT! AND TRIPLE DRAT!

Mutley snickered.

Nico: Dick Dastardly, you have failed this race!

Laney: Thanks for the save Smokescreen.

G1 Smokescreen: Anytime Laney.

We then passed through Djanggawul Fossae and it was a cratered terrain. But it was really beautiful.

Next we passed through Hayabusa Terra. It was a cratered area and we saw Kowal Crater, Drake Crater and Hollis Crater. Beautiful. Next we were driving along the edge of the heart of Tombaugh Regio.

---

Tombaugh Regio nicknamed The Heart after its shape, is the largest bright surface feature of the dwarf planet Pluto. It is just north of the equator, to the northeast of Cthulhu Macula and to the northwest of Krun Macula, which are both dark features. Its western lobe, a 1000 km-wide plain of nitrogen and other ices lying within a basin, is named Sputnik Planitia. The eastern lobe consists of high-albedo uplands thought to be coated by nitrogen transported through the atmosphere from Sputnik Planitia, and then deposited as ice. Some of this nitrogen ice then returns to Sputnik Planitia via glacial flow. It is named after Clyde Tombaugh, the discoverer of Pluto.

Description

Tombaugh Regio is a large, light-colored region about 1,590 km (990 mi) across. The two lobes of the feature are geologically distinct. The western lobe, Sputnik Planitia, is smoother than the eastern, and they are of slightly different colors. Early speculation was that the western lobe may be a large impact crater filled with nitrogen snow. Bright spots within the region were initially speculated to be mountain peaks. Photos, released on 15 July 2015, revealed 3,400 m (11,000 ft) mountains made of water ice in the feature; they also showed no craters in this same region. Subsequent data indicated that the center of Sputnik Planitia is rich in nitrogen, carbon monoxide, and methane ices, and that features near the edges of the region show evidence of ice flow such as glaciers, and light material overlying the darker material at the eastern edge of Cthulhu Macula. The surface of Sputnik Planitia is divided into polygonal convection cells and is less than 10 million years old, indicating that Pluto is geologically active.

The feature had been identified as a bright spot for six decades prior to the New Horizons flyby, although it was impossible to image it with enough resolution to determine its shape. Over these six decades the spot had been observed to be dimming.

Naming

Tombaugh Regio was first identified in the initial image of Pluto returned after the New Horizons probe recovered from an anomaly that temporarily sent it into safe mode. NASA initially referred to it as a "heart" in reference to its overall shape. On 15 July 2015, the region was provisionally named "Tombaugh Regio" by the New Horizons team in honor of astronomer Clyde Tombaugh, the discoverer of Pluto, regio being Latin for 'region'. On 7 September 2017, the name was officially approved by the International Astronomical Union (IAU), together with names for 13 other surface features on Pluto.

Some people find the feature also resembles the Disney character Pluto, an animated non-anthropomorphic dog which shares the name of the dwarf Walt Disney Company acknowledged this perceived likeness in a short animation.

Me: Wow! So this is Tombaugh Regio.

Lincoln: This is amazing!

Nico: Wow! Why is it called Tombaugh Regio?

Me: It was called that because it's named after the man that discovered Pluto: Clyde Tombaugh. He discovered Pluto back in 1930 and it was a huge achievement for him. When the New Horizons Satellite showed us what Pluto looked like for the first time in 85 years back in 2015, we saw that it had this huge 990 mile wide heart shaped area

Laney: That's amazing.

The Zistle squeaked.

Laney: Even Zilly agrees.

Lana: Zilly?

Laney: She's my Zistle friend that came to me.

Me: Aww that's so cute.

Nico: Look over there. What's that building in the middle of the heart?

Me: That's the Pluto Prison.

Laney: Wow! So that's the new Pluto Prison for Tyrants and the dark sides.

Nico: Wow! So that's where we sent the dark sides of Lori, Lynn and Lola.

Me: Yep. That's the very place. I can show you guys what it looks like when we're done.

Nico: Sure.

We saw amazing mountains along the edge of the Heart and it was breathtaking.

Lana: Wow! These mountains are amazing!

Me: They are made of pure water and are 11,000 feet tall.

Lily Loud: Wow! That's amazing!

Qin: It sure is.

We raced around the heart area and we got to Pandemonium Dorsa and it was an amazing hill range near the south pole. We saw the finish line up ahead.

Me: Finish Line spotted!

Marinette: Lets burn rubber!

We raced for it!

We were racing face and it was gonna be a close one.

Billy Natson: And here come the first racers to cross the finish line! It's MARINETTE AND ADRIEN!

Everyone cheered wildly for them!

A photo finish was taken and it showed that they both crossed the finish line at exactly the same time.

Gabriel: YES!

Sabine: Way to go Marinette!

We went back to the station and Marinette and Adrien were given the trophy. It was a trophy shaped like the planet Pluto with Charon and the New Horizons Satellite around it and they were made entirely of Swarovski Crystal and it was colored in different shades of brown and it had a brown patch on it shaped like a heart and it had a solid gold race car zooming around it. It was a beautiful trophy.

Nico: Way to go you two!

Marinette: Thanks Nico. It was so cool winning our first race.

Adrien: It sure was.

Alya: Way to go guys!

Chloe: I'm so happy for both of you.

Juleka: I'll say. It was an awesome race for you.

Marinette: Thanks guys. And if Lie-la is watching this…

She did this eyelid-pull taunt in the camera and sure enough, Lila Rossi was watching from the Saturn Insane Asylum and she was screaming in explosive rage!

Lila Rossi: (ENRAGED SCREAMING!) I HATE YOU MARINETTE! I HATE YOU TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM!

We laughed with Marinette and it was awesome.

Sabine: Marinette. I'm so proud of you and Adrien.

Marinette: Thanks mom.

Gabriel: Congratulations son. I'm so proud of you.

Adrien: Thanks dad.

Emile: My little boy is amazing.

Me: He sure is Emile. And he's an awesome race car driver as well as a great fighter and partner to Marinette.

Laney: That's right.

We then went to the Pluto Prison and it was an amazing prison. It wasn't like the Space Prisons in the clouds of the Gas Giant Planets, it was like a regular prison but with advanced technology.

Nico: Wow! So this is the Pluto Prison.

Me: Yep. Let me show you where we put the dark sides of Lori, Lynn and Lola.

We went to a special cell block for the dark sides of many people.

Me: This is Cell Block Ω. It's where we keep the dark sides of people that we know.

Laney: Wow. So this is where we put the dark sides of Lori, Lynn and Lola.

Me: Yep. And here they are.

We saw perfectly frozen in Sky Blue, Red and Pink Crystal the dark sides of Lori Loud, Lynn Loud Jr. and Lola Loud.

Lori: Wow! So this is what happened to my dark self. I can't believe I was literally like that. I was a bossy bitch.

Me: That was because of this monster inside you.

Lynn: And I can't believe that my dark side was that evil! She really wanted to kill Lincoln all because she thought he was a jinx. I was really stupid.

Lincoln: It's not your fault Lynn.

Lisa: I agree.

Lola: But I was the worst of all. I was a spoiled rotten brat and a monster that only liked being pretty and evil. I was a monster.

Lana: It's all right Lola.

Me: But thank goodness you never have to see these monsters again.

Laney: How come Dark Luan is not in here?

Me: Well we didn't build this prison back then so we had her sent to the Moon Prison.

Laney: Oh.

Me: Anyway lets get back to Earth. The trial of Margaret White as a disembodied brain is about to begin in 3 hours.

Nico: Okay.

We went back to Earth.

---

(The People's Court Theme plays.)

Bayliff: Calling the courtroom to order in the case of People of the United States VS Margaret White, Honorable Judge Katherine A. Rockell presiding.

Judge Katie: You may be seated.

We sat down.

Judge Katie: First I would like to say congratulations to Marinette and Adrien for winning the Pluto Race.

Marinette: Thank you your honor.

Adrien: It was awesome.

Judge Katie: You're welcome. Now. (Clears Throat) We will begin with testimony from Carrie White.

Carrie White Loud took the stand and she revealed to everyone what hell she went through at the hands of Margaret White and the nightmare she had to endure. She described every bit of it down to the last detail and the horrors she put her through. It was a major and powerful form of damning testimony. Everyone was horrified!

Juror 1: SHE'S A MONSTER!

Juror 2: MARGARET WHITE IS WORSE THAN ATTILA THE HUN!

Juror 3: SHE DESERVES THE CHAIR!

Juror 4: LOCK HER UP!

Juror 5: THAT'S THE MOST TERRIBLE THING EVER!

Juror 6: AWFUL! AWFUL!

Margaret White: YOU FUCKING LYING BITCH!

Katie banged her gavel.

Judge Katie: Order Order! Thank you for your testimony Carrie.

Carrie W.L.: You're welcome your honor.

Judge Katie: And Carrie I am terribly sorry about the rough treatment you had to endure. As a loving mother myself, I would never do all that stuff that Margaret did.

Carrie W.L.: Thank you your honor.

The Jury went out for deliberations and they came back in less than 20 minutes.

Judge Katie: Has the Jury reached a verdict?

Juror 1: We have your honor.

Judge Katie: To make this go along easier we'll say it's on all the charges.

Jury Foreman: We the Jury in the above entitled case #1452623F, We the 12 members of the Federal Jury find the defendant Margaret Verlaine White, GUILTY of Capital Murder, Domestic Terrorism, Arson, Federal Child Abuse and Aggravated Assault and Battery.

Margaret gasped in shock. She was found guilty on all 12,267 charges of those crimes.

Judge Katie: Very Well. Well then… I can't say that the verdict shocked me in the slightest. Margaret White, you have been proven, and clearly shown to be nothing more than a worthless and big time waste of a life that deserves nothing less! In all of my time on the bench, I have had many criminals come through my federal courtroom. Some were thieves, some were harassers, some were cold-blooded killers. But without a doubt, you are by far the most despicable, most reprehensible monster that I have ever had come through this courtroom! With that in mind, I hereby sentence you to death! And Carrie White is gonna be your executioner. The court thanks the jury for its work today. Justice has been served. Court is adjourned!

Judge Katie banged her gavel.

Carrie then walked up to her mother as a disembodied brain and we took her to be executed. She was sentenced to die by Firing squad.

Carrie W.L. had a powerful 50 Caliber Anti-Tank Rifle ready to fire.

Everyone had all kinds of protest signs saying various things about Margaret White. They said "KILL MARGARET WHITE", "BURN IN HELL FOREVER WHITE!", "THE DEVIL AWAITS!" and so much more.

Carrie W.L.: Any last words mother?

Margaret White: BURN IN HELL YOU FUCKING BITCH!

Carrie W.L.: I won't burn. You have all the time in the afterlife to think about your crimes. May God have mercy on your worthless soul.

Carrie had the blaster ready to fire and she had the brain of Margaret White caught in the crosshairs. She fired.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

The bullet exploded out of the gun with incredible force and it hit Margaret and she exploded and completely obliterated Margaret's brain instantly! All that was left were shards of glass from the jar.

Me: HOLY SHIT!

Nico: Man! YOU SMOKED HER ASS!

Lincoln: Nice shot Carrie.

Carrie W.L.: Doing what I can for my friends and with what I got.

Me: Wow. But good shot though.

Carrie W.L.: Thanks. (To the viewers) Never act like my mother or there will be debts to pay in blood.

Laney: You said it Carrie.

Then the spirit of Margaret White appeared.

Nicole: The Book of Vile Darkness is too good for you and so is Hell. The River of Fire is perfect for people like you Margaret. Enjoy burning in Oblivion.

The portal into the River of Fire opened and she was sucked into it.

Margaret White: FUCK YOU ALL TO HELL!

She was gone for good as the portal closed.

Carrie W.L.: Goodbye "Mom".

Leia White Loud: Never come back!

Good riddance to bad rubbish.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another awesome Race in the books.

Pluto is an awesome planet and it's an absolute shame that they demoted it to Dwarf Planet. But I think those astronomers have no idea what they are talking about. But it was so cool finally seeing what Pluto looked like when the New Horizons satellite took those amazing photos back in 2015. It was amazing! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the first chapter for the Real Adventures of Jonny Quest and we're going to do Undersea Urgency. That was one of my favorites and it was awesome!

See you all tomorrow.

Undersea Day of Carnage

At the aquarium we were walking around and looking at all the awesome species of fish. There were thousands of awesome species of fish.

Syd Chang: I love coming to the aquarium. It's so cool learning about all kinds of fish.

Clyde: It sure is.

Me: The aquarium is always an awesome place to come too.

Nico: It sure is.

Me: Another cool part of the Aquarium is seeing all kinds of really neat fish. Especially sharks.

Aqua: (sees some sharks in the Aquarium) My favorite kind of shark is the Great White Shark.

Xion: I like the Hammerhead Shark.

Namine: I like the Tiger Shark.

Kairi: And I like the Whale Shark.

Me: Those are some of my favorites. Did you know that there are over 440 species sharks?

Aqua: Wow! That's a lot of sharks.

Heidi: And Sharks are one of natures most powerful survivors. They have lived on the planet for over 480 million years, ever since the early Ordovician Period.

Syd Chang: That is still so cool!

Clyde: You said it Syd. I had no idea that there were so many species of sharks.

Me: Not nearly as many as all the different times of fish.

Heidi: That's right grandpa. There are over 33,000 known species of fish in the world.

Clyde: Whoa! That's a lot of fish.

Me: Not nearly as many as insects. There are 5.5 Million known species of insects on the planet.

Laney: Wow! That's a lot of insects.

Zizzy squeaks.

After the race on Pluto, Laney showed the entire scientific community Zizzy and she won a Junior Nobel Prize for it.

Me: Boy we've been so busy. A trip to the aquarium is always amazing.

Nico: Boy you said it.

We later went to the food court and we had some awesome lunch.

Qin: Is it true that you guys helped out Cinderalla?

Riku: We sure did.

Me: That was one of our most amazing adventures.

Laney: And we found out that Lady Tremaine was up to no good.

Me: You would hate Lady Tremaine. She was the worst mother ever.

I went over her history.

---

Lady Tremaine

Lady Madonna Tremaine, also known as the Wicked Stepmother or Stepmother, is a character who makes her debut as the main antagonist of Disney's 12th full-length animated feature film Cinderella (which is based on the 1697 French novel of the same name by the late Charles Perrault), and its sequels Cinderella II: Dreams Come True and Cinderella III: A Twist in Time. She is Anastasia Tremaine and Drizella Tremaine's selfish mother, and Cinderella's harsh and wicked stepmother and arch-nemesis. She is based on the character of the original fairytale.

Cinderella (1950)

Prior to the beginning of the story, Lady Tremaine married Cinderella's wealthy father, who wanted to give his daughter a mother figure, and sisters in the person of Lady Tremaine's daughters Anastasia and Drizella. She also has a black cat named Lucifer.

After Cinderella's father suddenly died (though the cause of death was unknown), Tremaine revealed her true nature, smiling wickedly while Cinderella was mourning the death of her father, without even bothering to pretend mourning. During the following years, she wasted the family's wealth to spoil her bratty and obnoxious daughters and reduced Cinderella to a lowly servant, abusing her out of jealousy for her beauty and kindness.

When the Tremaines are invited to a ball organized by the king to find a wife for his son, Cinderella asks to go with them, arguing that "each fair maiden in the kingdom is invited". Lady Tremaine agrees under the conditions that she gets all of her chores done and that she finds something suitable to wear, but Cinderella does not realize that Lady Tremaine is only giving her hopes to better crush them.

While Cinderella works very hard to do the immensely quantitative amount of chores given by Anastasia and Drizella, her bird and mice friends make her an extremely gorgeous dress from the clothes discarded by the Tremaine sisters. When Cinderella shows up, prettier than the Tremaines will ever be, Tremaine pretends to let this be by reminding that it was part of the deal and recognizes the necklace that she wears as one of Drizella's old pieces of jewelry. She subtly compliments this as the "right touch" for Cinderella before pointing it out to her daughters, who tear Cinderella's dress to shreds in a rage, accusing her of stealing their clothing. This cruelly breaks Cinderella's spirit as she dissolves into tears while Tremaine mocks her by bidding her goodnight.

Fortunately, Cinderella attends the ball thanks to her Fairy Godmother who gives her a marvelous attire, and she and the Prince fall in love. Meanwhile, Tremaine spies on them because the unknown princess looks familiar to her and she hears them singing, but is unable to spy any further as the Grand Duke orders her to give them privacy.

The next day, Lady Tremaine learns that the Grand Duke is looking for the maid who fits the glass slipper that Cinderella lost in her hurry, so that the Prince could marry her.

Overjoyed by this news, Cinderella starts singing carelessly, with Lady Tremaine recognizing her song and instantly figuring who the mysterious princess really was. Furious, she follows her upstairs and locks her in her room, keeping the key in her pocket.

The Duke arrives and tries the slipper on Drizella and Anastasia but it does not fit their enormous feet. As the Duke prepares to leave, Cinderella arrives, having been freed by the mice who managed to steal the key. Lady Tremaine tried to dissuade the Duke not to let Cinderella try the slipper, but the Duke sternly states that the King's orders were to have every maiden in the kingdom try it, including Cinderella.

Knowing that the slipper will fit Cinderella, Lady Tremaine resorts to a last underhanded and manipulative trick, tripping the lackey to shatter the slipper on the floor wth her cane. She grins victoriously, reveling in the Duke's despair, but Cinderella foils this by displaying the other slipper and putting it on easily to prove to the Duke that she was the one who danced with the Prince. This leaves Lady Tremaine and her daughters shocked and ruined, allowing Cinderella to move out and marry the Prince.

Cinderella 2: Dreams Come True

Lady Tremaine appears in the second film as the main antagonist of the third segment "An Uncommon Romance".

Several days following the Royal Banquet and the Spring Festival, Lady Tremaine tells both Drizella and Anastasia of an incoming ball that Cinderella is hosting for the kingdom, and that they are invited. She demands both girls to take the opportunity to find men of good wealth and nobility at the ball. She then leads the girls to buy new gowns at the marketplace, where she learns of a blooming romance between Anastasia (who is portrayed in a much more positive light) and a young baker apprentice. Believing that the baker is of no importance due to being a commoner, Lady Tremaine forbids Anastasia to ever see or speak with him again, much to Anastasia's distress.

The next day, Lady Tremaine spotted Anastasia in her new gown (loaned by Cinderella) riding off in a carriage to meet up with the baker. She and Drizella eventually catch up to them at a fountain, where Tremaine berated Anastasia for disobeying her. However, Anastasia decided that she is better off with the baker and breaks off her ties with Lady Tremaine, who storms off in a huff with a reluctant Drizella.

Cinderella 3: A Twist in Time

One year after the first movie, Anastasia witnesses a meeting between Cinderella, the Prince and the Fairy Godmother; and gets her hands on the magic wand, accidentally turning the Fairy into stone when she attempts to get it back. Tremaine seizes the wand and uses it to travel into time, back when her daughters were trying the glass slipper. She then creates her own horrific version of a "happily ever after", more akin to a nightmare than a fantasy.

She first bewitches the slipper to fit Anastasia's foot, verbally tormenting the bewildered Cinderella while making the second slipper "accidentally" fall in the staircase to destroy the evidence. When the Tremaines are welcomed in the royal castle, the Prince remarks that Anastasia is not the one he is looking for but Lady Tremaine magically alters his memories, all this being witnessed by Cinderella's mice friends.

When Cinderella learns that Lady Tremaine has the wand, she sneaks into the castle and enters their quarters to get it back, while covering her face and passing as a servant. But Lady Tremaine recognizes her immediately before unmasking her, sending the royal guards to have her exiled from the kingdom on a ship. However, the Prince eventually told the truth by the mice and rescues Cinderella from exile and exposes Lady Tremaine's treachery, forcing her to teleport away with her daughters.

Having realized that the Prince's feelings towards Cinderella are too strong for magic, Lady Tremaine resolves to replace Cinderella with a shape-shifted Anastasia before the wedding. She teleports Cinderella inside a pumpkin transformed into a coach (in a gloomy retelling of the first movie) and turns her pet cat Lucifer into a human coachman, instructing him to dispose of her for good. Fortunately, Cinderella manages to escape and she barges into the wedding, just in time to witness, to her amazement, a repentant Anastasia (who knows that the Prince will never love her for who she really is) saying 'I… don't', having realized she does not truly love the Prince. Infuriated by Anastasia's sudden conscience, Tremaine emerges from the shadows followed by Drizella. She turns all the royal guards sent to capture them into animals, and prepares to turn Anastasia into a toad, until Cinderella steps in to protect her, not willing to let Lady Tremaine harm Anastasia for trying to fix her happy ending. An unfazed Lady Tremaine decides to get her revenge on Cinderella and Anastasia by turning them both into toads, but the Prince steps in and uses his sword to deflect back the spell, defeating her for good and sending her and Drizella, transformed into toads, to an abandoned alley at some unspecified location.

During the end credits, both Lady Tremaine and Drizella are restored, but are wearing scullery clothes identical to those Cinderella used to wear, possibly implying that they will be working in her castle under Cinderella's authority as punishment for the cruelty she showed both her and Anastasia. This was most likely an act of mercy by Cinderella, who did not wish to see her stepmother in prison regardless of the fact she deserved such a sentence. Besides, it can be implied that the King, who was absolutely outraged by her actions, will not go easy on her. Alternatively, it may be possible that rather than being punished by Cinderella or the King, they were just restored with scullery clothes to humiliate them and were either exiled from the kingdom or forced to take the long road back to their mansion, but without any chance of becoming part of the royalty.

House of Mouse

Lady Tremaine is the minor guest of House of Mouse.

Mickey's House of Villains

Lady Tremaine was a minor guest cheering Mickey Mouse.

Kingdom Hearts Birth by Sleep

Lady Tremaine also makes an appearance in the video game Kingdom Hearts Birth by Sleep, the prequel of Kingdom Hearts, as one of the minor antagonists, but not as a boss. In many ways, she remains the same as in the movies, but when Aqua plays a role in helping the Grand Duke find Cinderella and matching the slipper, Tremaine vengefully vows to end her stepdaughter's happiness. This surge of negative emotions creates an Unversed in the shape of a pumpkin carriage. However, Tremaine's negative emotions prove to be her downfall as she cannot control the unversed which proceeds to blow her and her daughters away with a fireball.

Drizella Tremaine

Drizella Tremaine is one of the secondary antagonists in Disney's 12th full-length animated feature film Cinderella. She is the elder daughter of Lady Tremaine and elder sister of Anastasia Tremaine and Cinderella. She is portrayed as very jealous of Cinderella's success and beauty and often gets her into trouble. She is portrayed as haughty, bossy, abusive and highly disorganized.

She is portrayed as haughty, abusive, and sadistically cruel. She sets so many bad examples of spitefulness towards Cinderella for her younger sister to follow, that between them Anastasia's the better of the two. Highly unorganized, and, in the Kingdom Hearts series, murderous, she is contemptuously envious of Cinderella's success and beauty and often gets her into trouble. Unlike her younger sister Anastasia, who changes her spiteful ways and develops into a kind and good-natured woman, Drizella remains mean-spirited and cruel, and never overcomes her hatred of Cinderella. She is also depicted as having slovenly eating habits in the third movie, where she samples the food and the wedding cake being prepared for her sister's wedding by shoving handfuls of it into her face and eating them noisily. In the sequels, though not in the original film, Drizella is essentially a younger version of her mother.

Drizella and her mother constantly plot to ruin Cinderella and have no qualms about hurting her feelings. Lady Tremaine is well aware of her older daughter's harsh and cold-hearted - and even violent - mannerisms, and can trigger Drizella's anger with a mere handful of casually delivered words. In a particularly distressing scene in the original film, as Lady Tremaine and her daughters prepare to leave for the Prince's ball, Cinderella appears wearing her beautiful homemade gown. Lady Tremaine notes that Cinderella is wearing beads that belonged to Drizella, who rejected them on the claims she was sick of the sight of them. After Lady Tremaine casually points out to Drizella that the beads add a charming touch to the dress, Drizella flies into a rage and yanks the beads from Cinderella's neck, and along with Anastasia, lunges upon her stepsister and tears her gown to rags, leaving Cinderella devastated.

Later on throughout the series, Drizella turns on Anastasia and torments her, being able to physically intimidate her. Although she seems to be awed by her during the story An Uncommon Romance, after Anastasia openly rebelled against their overbearing mother and told her she was in love with a baker of low-birth and that she was happier with him than she would ever be with the wealthy suitor Lady Tremaine had hoped she would encounter at another palace ball. Angered, Lady Tremaine stormed off, leaving Drizella stunned, though she sided with her mother and returned home with her.

Unlike Anastasia, who eventually liberates herself from her mother's domination, Drizella obeys her mother's every order and schemes with her to undermine her hated stepsister, Cinderella, though they are foiled by Anastasia and as punishment, they are removed of their wealth and status and are reduced to working as scullery maids in Cinderella's palace.

Like her mother and sister, she appears in Kingdom Hearts: Birth by Sleep, playing the same role as in the original film. However, unlike in the films, she is very sadistic and is willing to murder Cinderella to prevent her from ever getting her happiness, and nearly succeeds with the Cursed Coach. However, Aqua manages to save her, and Drizella is hit by a firebomb alongside her mother and sister. She was voiced by Rhoda Williams in the original film and by Russi Taylor in the sequels.

In the 2015 live-action version of Cinderella, the "z" in Drizella was replaced by an "s" to reflect the British stereotype. Drisella was portrayed by Sophie McShera. Like her mother and sister, Drizella left the kingdom with the Grand Duke never to return.

While Drizella does not appear in Descendants 2, the film does feature her daughter, Dizzy, who is a hair stylist on the Isle of the Lost who helps Mal regain her familiar purple hair when she leaves Auradon. After the threat posed by Uma has been dealt with, Evie and Mal ask that Dizzy be the next 'villain kid' to be released from the Isle, with Dizzy expressing great enthusiasm for the offer.

House of Mouse

Drizella makes several cameos, mostly sitting with Anastasia and Lucifer. She is also one of the villains to take over the House of Mouse in Mickey's House of Villains.

Video game appearances

Drizella appears alongside her mother as an antagonist in Kingdom Hearts: Birth by Sleep. This act, however, causes a firebomb to drop on the three women, blowing them away.

Drizella appears as a character in the videogame Disney Princess.

Qin: Whoa! I can't believe Lady Tremaine and Drizella were that evil!

Me: They deserved their punishment. But not only that, Lady Tremaine is also the monster responsible for murdering Cinderella's father.

Qin: Are you kidding me?! Tremaine killed Cinderalla's dad?!

Elena: Yep. She did that by poisoning him.

Me: Yep. We stopped Lady Tremaine and Drizella from usurping the throne and we banished them to the planet Necmensa. They will never return. It's their new home now forever.

Qin: Good riddance.

Sunstorm: I'm glad Cinderella has a good life here now.

Me: Me too.

Wheelie: Thanks for modifying my speech pattern, Stewie.

Stewie: No problem. You rhyming was fun to listen to. But people run out of words to rhyme with eventually.

Me: That's true.

After we had a great lunch we were back in the estate. Elsewhere, on the bottom of the South Pacific Ocean, Maria and Horsea were having all kinds of fun swimming with Jonny Quest and Jessie Bannon. They were in an underwater mining colony 200 miles west of Peru. It was the first of its kind.

Jessie Bannon: I'm getting some great shots guys.

Maria: This is so cool guys. I can't believe that we're here in the middle of the ocean.

Jonny Quest: I know.

Man: Just wait. The best view is up ahead.

They saw the colony and it was a breathtaking piece of engineering.

Jonny Quest: Oh man! Very cool!

Maria: Wow! It's breathtaking!

Horsea: Amazing!

Jessie Bannon: I've read every report and article on this city about a million times.

Maria: It's so amazing. It's a shame your dad and Hadji couldn't come see this Jessie.

Jessie Bannon: I know. Mr. Zeigler, would you mind being the camera man?

Mr. Zeigler: My pleasure.

He got the camera and was filming.

Jonny Quest: Hi Hadji, Hi Race. Here we are 20,000 leagues under the sea. Behind me is the Verne Research Center. An honest to goodness underwater city. And the next time we come here the whole place will be finished. So it'll be even cooler.

Jessie Bannon: Hi dad. Hope you're getting over that ear infection. The deep sea pressure wouldn't be too good for you. We are having a blast. This city is just incredible! Feel better. I love you.

Maria: Hi mom. Hi Carol, Carmen, Nico, everyone you should see this place, it's amazing! I never once in my life dreamed of something this awesome! Me and Horsea are loving every second of this.

Jonny Quest: See you in about a week guys.

They waved goodbye.

Mr. Zeigler: That was great. Lets continue the tour.

Maria: Okay.

They swam passed a building.

Mr. Zeigler: Now this building is our administration center and over there is our control center.

Maria: Wow. Looks like your dad's inspections are going along well Jonny.

Jonny Quest: Thanks Maria.

Dr. Benton Quest was inspecting the building. With him was Heidi Knudson's colleague and friend, marine biologist Dr. Simone Duval.

Dr. Quest: Very impressive Dr. Duval. It looks like you've accomplished a great deal in the past year.

Dr. Duval: (French Accent) Thank you Dr. Quest. That's nice to hear. We're hoping to finish construction by April.

Dr. Quest: Yes, nearly a year ahead of schedule. But you know that's why I'm here.

Dr. Duval: Yes I know. Whenever a government project is under budget and ahead of schedule it looks suspicious.

Dr. Quest: Well not exactly…

Dr. Duval: So they sent you to check on us.

Dr. Quest: There's no need for you to be so defensive doctor. This inspection is just a formality. I'm not here to shut you down. And to tell you the truth, I'm on your side. You've done a wonderful job here.

Dr. Duval: Ah. I appreciate that. We're just anxious to get the actual construction over with and get on with our real work here.

Dr. Quest: Studying the mysteries of the ocean.

Dr. Duval: Exactly. Speaking of which.

They saw Jonny, Jessie, Maria and Horsea swam passed the window.

Dr. Quest: Hey kids! Thank you for having your foreman show them around.

Dr. Duval: My pleasure. Mr. Zeigler loves to show the place up anyway. Especially to those of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

In the water, they were swimming passed another building.

Mr. Zeigler: The building we just left was our living and administration complex. Ahead is the city's largest structure: The Oceanography Lab. The best Marine Biologists in the world are fighting over the honor of working here.

Maria: Boy I can see why.

Then an explosion went off.

KRABOOM!

Maria: Whoa!

Jonny Quest: What's that?

Mr. Zeigler: My construction crew. They're blasting a new sight today.

KRABOOOM!

Jessie zoomed in and at 500X magnification on her camera she saw the construction crew working.

Jessie Bannon: Wow! This telephoto lens works great.

Mr. Zeigler: My workers are using mini-detonators to precisely shape the excavation after the main dig has started.

A worker started a detonator timer and placed it in a hole and got out of there.

KRABOOOOOMM!

Mr. Zeigler: We've been blasting around the clock for 8 months now.

Maria: Wow! You guys have been really busy.

Jessie Bannon: Is that the Moon Pool?

Mr. Zeigler: Yep. Our submarine garage.

Jessie Bannon: Did you know Jonny's dad designed its pressurization system?

Mr. Zeigler: Yes I know. It's an honor to have you all here. Especially Team Loud Phoenix Storm's 2nd in Command of its Redemption Squad. Not everybody gets my V.I.P. tour.

But then suddenly without warning, a massive earthquake began!

Maria: AN UNDERWATER EARTHQUAKE!

Mr. Zeigler: WHAT!?

Inside the building, the whole place was shaking! Computers were shorting out.

On a monitor a woman saw the Earthquake and where it was happening. It measured at 8.7 on the Richter Scale.

McCollum: I'm registering an 8.7 seaquake! The epicenter is only 90 meters off our southeast perimeter!

Dr. Duval: Hang on everyone!

At Team Loud Phoenix Storm estate, Nicole was monitoring the situation. She then picked up the seaquake on her detectors! She gasped.

Nicole: (Gasp) Oh shit!

Nicole went to the alarm and pressed a red button and she called me.

Nicole: Dad! We've got big trouble! There's a huge underwater earthquake happening right by the Verne Underwater City!

Me: What!? We got to get over there and fast! PRIME OMEGA ALERT!

We were off to the Verne Underwater City.

The Earthquake destroyed the whole communication tower and smashed the main transport tube. Luckily the flood gates closed automatically. Jonny then saw something in the crack.

Jonny Quest: What's that!?

They saw that it was some kind of weird underwater hive.

Jessie Bannon: Weird. It looks like some kind of exposed hive or something. And there's something swimming out of it.

Strange creatures came out of it.

Horsea: Guys, I see some piranhas heading our way!

Maria: (takes a closer look) I don't think those are piranhas.

They were strange amphibious creatures and they had really sharp claws and teeth. The construction workers were pinned down and a Hammerhead Shark was swimming to them and the creatures ate the whole shark and stripped it entirely of its flesh and meat until it was only a skeleton!

Maria: They are extremely Voracious!

The creatures then went at the construction crew.

Maria: Oh no!

Maria went for the construction crew and she fired a powerful blast of energy and destroyed them all in a powerful explosion and killed them. She got the crew to safety and they went for the Moon Pool.

Maria: Come on!

Then a creature slashed Maria in the back and it wounded her badly! She was dripping blood and they got into the Moon Pool onto the edge and the creatures came onto the edge.

Jessie Bannon: They're amphibious!

Horsea fired a powerful Aurora Beam blast and killed one.

Maria: Maybe this will slow them down! SOLAR FLARE!

Maria released a massive and blinding flash of light as bright as a million suns and it burned them and incinerated them.

They got into a room and closed the door.

Mr. Zeigler: Thanks for saving us Maria.

Jonny Quest: Yeah but what are those things!?

Maria: Some kind of amphibious fish predator.

Jessie Bannon: I've never seen anything like them!

Maria: They are as ravenous and lethal as a massive shoal of piranhas.

They saw powerful claw marks on their tanks and helmets and their air hoses were ripped.

Jessie Bannon: Look at this! See how tough their teeth and claws are!?

Maria: Yeah no kidding!

Maria showed her wound on her back. She had 3 deadly gash wounds on her back. They hurt like hell.

Maria: OW!

Jessie Bannon: That door's not gonna hold for long!

Maria: We got to think of something.

Me: (On the radio) Maria come in! Do you read me?

Maria: It's J.D.! (Answers) I'm here J.D.! But we have a huge problem!

Me: We got word that a massive 8.7 magnitude quake hit where you guys are. You were right on top of the epicenter. Are you guys okay?

Maria: The earthquake destroyed the communications tower and smashed the transport tube between the buildings. But the earthquake unleashed a massive horde of ravenous carnivorous piranha-like amphibious creatures.

Me: WHAT!? We're gonna beam inside and fight them. Trust me on this.

Maria: Okay. Hurry.

Me: Right.

The submarine we were in parked over the underwater city. We were inside Nico's Whale Aqua Submariner and we saw the creatures Maria told us about.

Me: Whoa!

Shanan: Those creatures are Ickthyperambuloid Piranha Walkers!

Everyone: WHAT!?

Ben: You mean those creatures are from Walkatrout's home planet?

Shanan: Bingo. Very voracious and ravenous creatures. They also live in hives and they are really dangerous.

Nico: Geez! We got to kill those things.

Rikki Chadwick: How are we going to get rid of those aquatic demons?

Shanan: They are phobic to Light and it will burn them all over.

Me: Lets go.

Nico hooked a tube up to the air lock of the station and we got in.

We went into the station.

Me: We're in. Stay alert everyone.

But then something hit Terra (KH) and Ventus's butts and then they started clashing with their keyblades.

Ventus clashed his Keyblade against Terra's.

Ventus: Back off, Terra! Aqua's mine!

Terra: You want her? You'll have to go through me!

Me: What the hell is wrong with you guys!?

Aqua: Guys break it up!

Me: Wait, they've fallen under some freaks spell.

Aqua: Ventus! Terra! Snap out of it! This isn't you! You're under a monster's spell!

Terra: No, Aqua! My love for you is genuine ever since we first met! That love only intensified when I got freed from Xehanort.

Ventus: Same with me! Only my love for you intensified when we defeated Freakshow.

Aqua: (blushes) WHAT?!

Me: Stop this now!

I snapped my fingers and they stopped and they were back to normal.

Ventus: What happened?

Terra: Ven, what are we doing?

?: Aw you ruining their love!

We turned and we saw a monster that the Ninja Storm Rangers faced! It was MR. RATWELL!

---

Mr. Ratwell was summoned by Marah and Kapri, and recruited to start off Lothor's television career. Unfortunately, he accidentally made fun of Lothor and was about to get blasted until he calmed him down by explaining to Lothor that he can help him. Meanwhile, Marah and Kapri use his magical love pellets, and accidentally make Cam and Blake fall in love with Tori. While Lothor's career in the television was a success, Zurgane spotted the Navy and Green Rangers at the beach (both who are battling to win Tori's heart), he tells Mr. Ratwell to go after the two Ninja Storm Rangers, the monster refusal, but Zurgane angry force Mr. Ratwell to go after the two Ninja Storm Rangers.

He spots them and attacks, the two Rangers morphed and still continue to fight each other. Tori comes in and tries to break them up but to no avail. Mr. Ratwell grows more and more annoyed and was about to fire. Tori morphed into the Blue Water Ranger, but she gets blasted. The other Rangers came in to help, but they too get blasted. The Navy Ranger comes in and protects the Blue Ranger (who is badly hurt) from Mr. Ratwell's energy lasers. But no matter how much he fires, the Navy Ranger will not stay down (due to being under the power of love).

Mr. Ratwell was about to fire again until the Navy Ranger grabs his arm, forcing the monster to drop his bow and landing a hard hitting blow on the monster's chest. Thanks to the Green Ranger handing the Navy Ranger his Navy Antler, he was able to combine his Thunder Staff and the Navy Antler to ultimately destroy Mr. Ratwell and thus removing the love spell from everyone (including several teenage girls). He gets enlarge by the Scroll of Empowerment. The Green Ranger summons the Samurai Star Megazord and the Thunder Rangers summon the Thunder Megazord to battle Mr. Ratwell. They combined their Zords to form the new Samurai Thunder Megazord. Mr. Ratwell was no match and was destroyed permanently by the Samurai Thunder Megazord's Mega Lasers.

---

Shane Clarke: Mr. Ratwell!

Mr. Ratwell: It's been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember this guy! He turned some of you all against each other!

Shane Clarke: Yeah he did.

Tori Hanson: They were all fighting over me!

Me: I can't believe Lothar would send a really fucked up monster. If Lothar ever does come back he will die a thousand deaths.

Tori Hanson: I know.

Mr. Ratwell: (to Aqua) Have I really committed a crime today? Or did I just push you in the right direction rowards confessing your romantic feelings?

Star Sapphire: Love is grown, not forced, Ratwell! (smirks) Besides, it's not like you have a girlfriend.

Me: He never had one to begin with.

Then we heard a ghostly moan and then we saw a kooky glowing man in a diving suit come out. It was the GHOST OF CAPTAIN CUTLER!

---

The Ghost of Captain Cutler was the alleged return of Captain Cutler. In reality, he faked his death so that he could steal yachts around Rocky Point Beach.

Early life

As the story went, during one dark, foggy night, Captain Cutler collided with a yacht, following his ship down to the ocean floor. After a while, he began to haunt Rocky Point Beach, to take his revenge to the yachts at the marina by making them disappear.

Scooby-Doo, Where Are You!

It was later revealed that he was still alive and he and his wife faked his death so that they would steal the yachts and sell them. He was trapped unintentionally by Scooby after Mystery Inc.'s trap went wrong and identified by Shaggy after putting seaweed on Cutler to help his friends recognize who he really was.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Ghost of Captain Cutler!

Me: I remember him!

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: He was responsible for a major yacht hijacking and smuggling operation. Captain Cutler and his wife were stealing luxurious yachts and selling them on the black market for enormous amounts of money.

Qin: Wow! That is nuts.

Me: It was. Captain Cutler and his wife got 10 to 25 years in prison and just a couple of months into their sentence, they died in prison of natural causes.

Carrie W.L.: Good riddance.

Me: Yep.

Shane Clarke: Well lets get them!

Ninja Storm Power Rangers: NINJA/THUNDER/SAMURAI STORM! RANGER FORM! HA!

The Ninja Storm Power Rangers transformed and they were ready.

Lily Loud: Lets see who loves boats more than anyone else! Owla! Spread My Wings!

Lily turned into Night Owl!

Lily was facing the Ghost of Captain Cutler. She fired a powerful barrage of owl feathers and she also fired a powerful blast of star energy from her sword and killed the Ghost of Captain Cutler.

Lily Loud: You have been sent to the brig.

Nico: Captain Cutler you have failed this world!

Me: He sure has.

Laney: Now for Mr. Ratwell.

Me: I'll help out.

We faced Ratwell and we pulverized him and more. I punched him in the face and Shane Clarke slashed him all over and fired a powerful blast of wind. Dustin smashed him with a hammer and Tori blasted him with water and Hunter and Blake Bradley blasted him with lightning and electrocuted him and Cam slashed him all over with incredible speed.

Me: Lets finish this freak!

Shane Clarke: Lets do it!

The Ninja Storm Rangers put together the Thunderstorm Cannon.

Me: Lets get it!

Me and the Ninja Storm Rangers: THUNDERSTORM CANNON, FIRE!

It fired a powerful energy ball and it slammed into Mr. Ratwell and he exploded in a massive fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

All that was left of Mr. Ratburn was a flaming pile of ashes. I sent his spirit into the river of fire.

Me: That's right.

Maria: (Offscreen) Guys!

Me: Maria! Thank goodness.

Jonny Quest: Thank goodness you're all okay.

Jessie Bannon: (Hyperventilating) Guys we have to get out of here!

Me: Whoa whoa whoa! Jessie calm down.

Lisa: It appears that Jessie is suffering from an extreme case of Claustrophobia.

Me: The fear of being stuck in closed spaces?

Lisa: Correct.

Jasmine (Total Drama): (Australian Accent) I know that feeling. Jessie, like you I too am Claustrophobic. I can't stand being stuck in small places.

Jessie Bannon: I see.

Me: Don't worry Jessie, we'll get you all out of here after we kill those creatures. We had a run in with two more creatures. Mr. Ratwell that the Ninja Storm Power Rangers faced and the Ghost of Captain Cutler that Mystery Inc. busted.

Jonny Quest: Now that those two problems are taking care of, we should probably do something about those fish attempting to eat us!

Me: Lets go!

We went to the Moon Pool and we saw the freaky creatures!

Me: Ugly!

Nico: These creatures are hideous!

Ben: And scary.

Troy: Time's up for these fish!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Time Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Time Force Power Rangers!

Me: Lets get them!

Maria: These guys wounded me! They will pay for it!

William: That's right babe!

We went at the ugly fish creatures and I punched one in the face and kicked on in the mouth and knocked out some of its teeth and Nico punched one in its face and fired a blast of energy and blew a bunch of them apart and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted many of them and Laney fired a bunch of poison barbs and poisoned them with Strychnine Ω and killed a bunch of them in an instant. Luan fired a powerful blast of light from her hands and burned them and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and incinerated them. Lucy fired a powerful blast of black lightning and electrocuted many of the creatures. Suzi fired a massive blast of fire and burned them all over. Lori fired a massive blast of wind and blew them into the water and Linka fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted them in the water. Marinette kicked a creature in its face and blasted it with red fire and incinerated it. Chloe fired a blast of yellow fire and incinerated it. Kay Morningstar fired powerful blasts of star energy and incinerated them into dust.

Me: There's a lot of them! We're gonna need some teamwork!

Ben: Right!

Ben turned into Big Chill!

Ben: BIG CHILL!

Big Chill fired a powerful blast of ice and Ember McLain fired a powerful blast of fire.

Big Chill and Ember Mcclain: COLD FIRE SUPERFREEZE!

The blasts combined and turned into a powerful blast of blue fire that had a temperature of -459.67˚ Fahrenheit and it froze a bunch of the creatures in blocks of ice.

Ben then turned into Chromastone.

Ben: CHROMASTONE!

Shockwave: Time for some action!

Shockwave fired his turbo rifle and Chromastone fired a powerful blast of rainbow light.

Shockwave and Chromastone: RAINBOW MEGA TURBOBLAST!

The blasts hit many creatures and they exploded and destroyed many of them.

Wheelie: Time for some death shots! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his electromagnetic slingshot 100-fold.

Raven: Time for this darkness to come forth. AZARATH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Axarath Cyber Planet Key went into Raven's right arm device and it enhanced her darkness magic powers 100-fold.

Wheelie and Raven: BRIGHTLIGHT LIGHTNING MEGABLAST!

They fired their blasts and it turned into powerful black lightning and it slammed into the creatures and destroyed them.

Riku: Time for some keyblade power! DISNEY CYBER KEY POWER!

The Disney Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and it enhanced his Keyblade powers 100-fold.

Sunstorm: Time for some action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his fusion reactor and it enhanced his light, heat and electromagnetic waves 100-fold.

Riku and Sunstorm: DARK FIRE MEGABLAST STRIKE!

Riku fired a powerful blast of black fire and Sunstorm fired a powerful blast of light and the blasts hit the creatures and destroyed many of them.

Me: Now to finish these creatures for good!

Cleo: Right! Lets get them.

H2O Mermaids: ELEMENTAL MERMAID SUPERSTRIKE!

The H2O fired a powerful blast of elemental energy and they hit the creatures and obliterated many of them.

Jonny Quest: These creatures will never terrorize us again! LIGHTNING QUESTWORLD SUPERBLADE!

Jonny Quest formed a powerful energy sword and it was surging with lightning in the blade. Jonny Quest slashed the creatures all over and killed them.

Jessie Bannon: Time for some serious burn! PHOENIX ANGEL MEGAFIRE!

Jessie fired a massive blast of fire and incinerated many creatures. We killed them all.

Me: That's the last of them. Lets get everyone out of here.

We got on the submarine and got everyone onto the submarine including Dr. Duval. We left the underwater city. Varie was using her first aid kit and she was healing Maria. She had a nasty claw wound on her back and boy did it hurt.

William: Babe, are you all right?

Maria: (Grunts in pain) Bleeding bad. But I'll make it.

Varie: Boy you really got cut. Those creatures slashed you good.

Nico: No kidding.

Maria: Yeah. Ow!

Lily Loud: Ouch.

Me: But thank goodness we got everyone out of there. That turned from a research trip into a nightmare from hell.

Jonny Quest: No kidding.

Dr. Quest: But thank you all for saving us J.D.

Me: Anytime Dr. Quest. I'm just really sorry the Underwater City was all for not because of those creatures. But we can get the city repaired and creature free.

Nico: Yeah.

Jonny Quest: (To the viewers) Not even bloodthirsty, ravenous, voracious monster creatures can stop Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You said it Jonny. But thank goodness you're okay.

Jonny Quest: Yeah.

We went back to the surface and we got the city fixed and the Hive was destroyed and the rest of the creatures were gone too.

Back at the estate Aqua was going to her room and Terra and Ventus were behind her.

Aqua: (to Terra and Ven) I'm actually touched you two have romantic feelings for me. And I am thinking of returning those feelings in the future. But right now, I'm fine with us just being friends.

Ventus: We're ok with that.

Terra: If one of us should start a relationship with you, it'll be on our own terms and not under a monsters spell.

Aqua: (hugs them) Thanks, guys.

With that, Aqua walked to her room. But once she was a good distance away from Terra and Ven, she smiled with a blush on her face.

* * *

Back at the aquarium, we got word that a greedy man was gonna sell a young mermaid that is as old as Lincoln to it to make a fortune. But we wouldn't stand for it. It was the middle of the night.

Me: Lets go.

We snuck into the Aquarium and we were sneaking through the Aquarium in the darkness and we got to the tank the mermaid was in.

Me: This is it.

Sly Cooper: So how are we gonna do this?

Raven: I've got this. Azarath Metroin Zinthos!

Raven formed a portal and it opened in the tank and the mermaid swam through it and landed in my arms.

Me: Are you all right?

Nira: Yeah. Thank you. I'm Nira.

Me: Pleasure to meet you. Lets get you back to the lake.

Guard: HEY!

We saw the guard and we raced to the door and we busted out and went to the lake and Nira got out.

Nira: Thank you all so much.

Me: You're welcome Nira. Now we have one more loose end. Police! There is your kidnapper. He was going to sell Nira to the aquarium for a huge amount of money so that everyone can know about the existence of mermaids and be famous. Gregory Lanso is a monster and a greedy thief!

The police arrested him.

Gregory Lanzo: AND I WOULD'VE GOTTEN AWAY WITH IT TOO IF IT WEREN'T FOR YOU MEDDLING KIDS! I'LL GET YOU FOR THIS YOU FUCKERS!

Me: Tell it to the judge Lanzo and go fuck yourself. You're getting life for this.

Gregory Lanzo was found guilty of 1st Degree Kidnapping and he was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole.

THE END

Another Awesome fanfiction complete and the first chapter for The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest done.

Undersea Urgency was one of my favorite episodes from The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest and it was an awesome episode! Those creatures were terrifying and awesome! It didn't tell me what they were so I made up their species. The next episode for The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest is Other Space and that one is gonna be interesting. NicoChann11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is Megas XLR and we're going to destroy all of the Glorft and make those squidfaces pay for their crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

GIANT Robots VS Squidfaces

We were over in Atlantic City, New Jersey. It was one of the most beautiful cities in the country and one of the most popular tourist destinations in the country.

Lola: Wow! So this is Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Lana: It's so amazing here!

Me: It sure is. It is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the country. It's also known for its casinos and attractions.

Lincoln: Wow! That is so cool!

Nico: It sure is. If we were older we would go gambling.

Me: We actually are allowed to gamble. We have special passes to all the casinos that allow us to do that.

Nico: Cool!

Maria: Thanks for healing my back, Sora.

Sora: Any time Maria.

William: But still, that really must've hurt what those creatures did to you.

Me: Not as bad as Jessie. She was completely claustrophobic.

Jessie Bannon: I know. I was so scared and I can't believe that those things wanted to kill us.

Maria: Yeah but we were too tough for them.

Nico: Yep.

Maria: We sure were. But man I think I'll have scars on my back as a permanent mark of how those creatures slashed my back.

Me: Welcome to the club Maria.

Laney: Yep.

Carol: But still Maria, having a scar makes you look tough. You are a strong person like me.

Maria: Thanks Carol.

Nico: So what are we actually here for?

Me: We're here to find a guy named Coop. He is the pilot of an awesome super robot called the Megas. It's a really cool awesome robot said to be from the future in the year 3037.

Wes Collins: Wow! That's different. Never heard of a robot like that before.

Jen Scotts: That's a whole new one for me.

Me: I know. It's from 1,017 years into the future. But it's not that hard to spot.

Then we heard huge thuds and we saw the giant robot MEGAS! It was an awesome blue robot with a flaming 8 ball on it, hot naked girl decals and more and it had a red car on top.

Me: WHOA!

Flash: Man, look at the size of Megas!

Lana: HE'S HUGE!

Lola: WOW!

Lila Loud: He's a Megazord already fully transformed.

The Power Rangers fully agreed.

Lincoln: WOW! That robot is so awesome!

Laney: It sure is amazing!

Me: Lets go check it out.

We went up to it and we flew up to the car on top.

Coop: WHOA!

Jamie: WOW! It's Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

The convertible top of the car opened.

Coop: Hey it's so awesome to meet you guys!

Me: Thanks Coop. It's a pleasure to meet you. You have an awesome robot.

Coop: Thanks J.D. We heard so much about you all and it's really cool how you destroy all the bad guys.

Me: Just doing what we have to do to keep the universe safe. It's a big job but we have to do it. With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility.

Nico: That's right.

Jamie: It's an awesome honor to meet you all.

Kiva: We heard so much about you all in the future.

Me: I can tell. You must be Kiva. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Kiva: Same here J.D.

Lola: Your hair is very pretty Kiva.

Kiva: Thanks Lola.

Laney: How did you get an awesome robot like this Coop?

Coop: I found it in the junkyard buried under a pile of junk. I bought it for two buck and and put it all back together. Megas is an awesome robot.

Me: Wow. You're very talented in putting stuff back together.

Especially with a robot from the early 31st century.

Coop: Thanks man. Lets talk over at my place.

Me: Okay.

We went over to Coop's house and it was awesome. Nicole saw that he had every video game system ever and he loves junk food as much as Mary does.

Coop: It's real awesome to meet you guys. (sheepishly) Sorry if my place is a mess.

Volcana: It's fine. We've seen a lost worse.

Nicole: But you got to admit though Coop, you have a great love for video games like I do. You have video game systems we don't use anymore.

Coop: That's true.

Lana: Awesome!

Lola: I like your outfit Kiva.

Kiva: Thanks Lola. It's what we wore in the future. We have amazing advanced equipment.

Me: I can see that. A holographic computer analyzer belt right?

Kiva: How did you know that?

Me: We've seen all kinds of amazing stuff from the future. The technology we use for our estate is over 3,000 years more advanced. Plus we've been to all kinds of neat places all over the universe and been to many different times in the future and the past. We are no strangers to time travel.

Kiva: I see. That's incredible!

Coop: That is amazing.

Jamie: I saw all your adventures and they are so awesome.

Me: We have done it all.

Coop: I heard you guys killed Thanos.

Me: That's right. That was probably one of our most devastating battles.

Coop: And I heard you guys lost Ra's Al Ghul and Bowser. I'm really sorry about that.

Kiva: Me too.

Me: Thanks guys.

Bowser Jr.: Dad is with me in my heart. I know./

Talia: Same with my father.

Me: Yeah. Also from what we heard, you guys are having problems dealing with an evil warmongering race of aliens called the Glorft.

Coop: That's them. They are squidfaced freaks.

Lily Loud: What are the Glorft?

Shanan: The Glorft are a race of evil warmongering aliens that want to conquer all planets to expand their empire of war to take over the universe. Their leader is Warmaster Gorrath.

Kiva: That's right Shanan. How did you know that?

Shanan: You would be amazed at how much I know about all the creatures of the universe.

Shanan went over Warmaster Gorrath's history.

---

Warmaster Gorrath is the main antagonist of Megas XLR - although he would become less prominent of a threat later in the series (even a reluctant "ally" at times): he is noted for his intense hatred of Coop and humans in general, who he once sought to conquer. Gorrath is also the war-master of the alien race known as the Glorft and is not against using his army to hunt down those he truly despises. He also has a commander as his second in command.

In the future, Gorrath and his army fought an army of humans and were winning the battle against them. The human forces sent a group to travel back in time to stop the Glorfts from getting Megas. But, Gorrath and his forces followed them as well. However, they traveled too far into the past and found Megas was redesigned and founded by Coop. Gorrath tries to steal Megas and conquer but is defeated by Coop. Gorrath told his commander to travel home and get reinforcements but are trapped due to needing Megas to power the portal.

As a result, Gorrath tried to steal Megas. He found Megas' signal when Coop entered it into car show and went to Earth with his troops. Coop managed to defeat Gorrath again.

After being defeated by Coop two times, his men created Mecha Megas, an evil robotic duplicate of Megas. Gorrath decides to pilot and face Coop himself. Coop didn't have his control car so he had to face Gorrath with piloting Megas manually. Coop managed to get his control car back and defeat Gorrath.

Gorrath had also tried to get Megas multiple times or even destroy it.

Personality and Traits

Gorrath harbors an intense hatred towards humans, namely Coop. He shows very little to no respect towards Coop whatsoever even when they had to team up in Rearview Mirror Mirror. Being the leader of a hostile, war-like alien species, Gorrath personally told Coop that he was the one stain on his perfect record of conquest.

Gorrath said that he led his people to victory in over 100 wars and his elite guards slammed their battle-axes on the ground in supportive applause, hinting that he has some charismatic traits even though he abuses them on a regular basis. Gorrath craves victory and demands that his troops succeed no matter the costs or threatening to 'have their jhorbloks' should they fail him. Gorrath was willing to go to extreme lengths to win, such as having his fellow Glorft build a giant planet-destroying laser cannon on his flagship the Karajor to annihilate the Earth along with Megas and attempting to assassinate Kiva's ancestor in Coop's time.

When the Glorft captured Coop when he teleported himself aboard the Karajor in The Driver's Seat, Gorrath sadistically tortured Coop by crushing a Mega-Slush drink and [begrudgingly] ate a Philly Cheesesteak sandwich in front of Coop in order to tell him how to pilot Megas, specifically on how to use the time-flux drive even though Coop had unwittingly already destroyed it.

---

We gasped in sheer horror.

Me: The Glorft are ruthless monsters!

Lucy Loud: They are monsters of ultimate evil.

Shanan: The Glorft have always been a warmongering race hellbent on destroying all life. But they hate all humans with a merciless vengeance.

Me: Geez.

Lynn: I say we go to the Glorft right now and kill them all!

Coop: Settle down, Lynn. Instead of focusing all our attention on killing Gorrath and his pals, we shoud let them come to us.

Lola: And that will help us how?

Coop: Look, I know how dangerous Gorrath is. But every once in a while, you guys have to let loose and let danger become something you enjoy. Like I do.

Lori: Coop, the more we sit around doing nothing, the more powerful the Glorft get!

Jamie: Well, they usually attack Coop first anyway.

Me: That's what I've heard.

Coop: Besides, while we're waiting for the Glorft to come to us, I'll show you guys around town. What do you say?

Bombshell: That's actually not a bad idea.

Kiva: But you guys do have a point. The Glorft have to go.

Me: I agree with you Kiva. The Glorft have terrorized this universe long enough. It's time for us to send them all to oblivion for good.

Nico: I agree with Coop. We've followed Coop's idea for a long time and let a lot of our enemies come to us and we went to them several times in the past. But that was because we were prepared for them. Our technology predetermines what they are gonna do and more. That's how we can achieve our victory so fast.

Coop: I can tell. Wow. You guys are the most powerful force in the universe.

Me: Not to brag but yes. Lets head out and talk some more.

At the local hamburger restaurant we were eating burgers.

Coop: So, you guys enjoying yourselves yet?

Lynn: Actually, yeah. I am! (burps)

Me: Mmm. (With my mouth full) Good burgers.

Lori: This restaurant is literally similar to Burpin' Burger.

Lola: (wipes ketchup off of her face) Sorry, Coop. But I think I'd enjoy myself when I'm burning Gorrath to a crisp.

Perceptor: It's amazing how the Glorft seem to survive whatever Megas throws at them.

Kiva: I've been fighting them even before meeting Coop and Jamie. And trust me, they're not easy to kill.

Me: I can tell. And from the looks of things Kiva, you've had to endure a lot. You're from the year 3037 aren't you?

Kiva: That's right. My future has always been about fighting the Glorft and its been a helluva nightmare. I never got to have a family or anything.

Me: I'm sorry Kiva. But we will do everything we can to make sure that the Glorft pays for all their crimes.

Then my watch alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

On a hologram we saw the Glorft dropping out of Null Space and they were coming.

Me: The Glorft are coming! Lets get them!

Coop: All right!

The Power Rangers Transformed.

Me: We're gonna need some Megazord and Ultrazord Power Guys!

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it!

Me: Tommy, guys, do you mind?

Tommy Oliver: Not at all J.D. Go for it.

Me: Thanks. I NEED DINOZORD POWER NOW!

I used the Green Dragonzord Flute and summoned the Dragon Zord and got in the Tyrannosaurus Zord and activated the transformation sequence.

Me: I call upon the power of Titanis and the Ultrazord!

Titanus the Brachiosaurus Zord came and the Megazord merged with the Dragonzord and then it merged Titanis and a powerful fiery explosion erupted in the background.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Tommy Oliver: WHITE TIGER ZORD WARRIOR MODE

Jason Lee Scott summoned the Red Dragon Thunderzord and it transformed and Tommy turned the White Tiger Zord into his robot mode. The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers summoned the Ninja Megazord and Lincoln used the Zeo Megabattlezord. The Space Rangers used the Astro Megazord, the Turbo Rangers used the Turbo Megazord, The Lost Galaxy Rangers called forth the Orion Galaxy Megazord and the Defender Torozord, the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers called forth the Lightspeed Rescue Megazord, Supertrain Megazord, Lightspeed Solarzord, The Omega Megazord, The Time Force Rangers called forth the Shadowforce Megazord and Megazord Mode Red, The Wild Force Rangers called forth the Wild Force Megazord, Animus Megazord, Konga Zord, Predazord, and Isis Megazord, the Ninja Storm Rangers summoned the Hurricane Ultrazord, The Dino Thunder Rangers summoned the Valkasaurus Megazord, The S.P.D. rangers summoned the Delta Max Megazord, The Mystic Force Rangers summoned the Manticore Megazord, The Operation Overdrive Rangers summoned the Drivemax Ultrazord, the Jungle Fury Rangers summoned the Jungle Master Megazord, the R.P.M. Rangers summoned the R.P.M. Ultrazord, The Samurai Rangers summoned the Samurai Gigazord, Maria and William summoned the Ultra Gosei Great Megazord and the Ultimate Legendary Megazord, the Dino Charge Rangers summoned the Dino Charge Ultrazord and the Ninja Steel Rangers summoned the Ninja Steel Ultrazord! We had a massive armada of all the Megazords and Ultrazords from over the course of 26+ Years!

Keith (Voltron): Starting the party without us.

Me: Keith! Guys! Boy are we glad to see you all.

Princess Allura: Thought you all might like a hand.

Me: We greatly appreciate it. Nico, you have permission to use my Purple Lion.

Nico: Thanks J.D.

Nico got in my purple winged lion.

Keith: Ready to form Voltron! Activate Interlock! Dynotherms

Connected! Infracells up! Megathrusters are go!

Nico and the Voltron Force: GO VOLTRON FORCE!

The lions of Voltron flew up into the sky and transformed.

Keith: FORM FEET AND LEGS.

The Blue and Yellow lions turned into the feet.

Keith: FORM ARMS, WINGS AND BODY!

The Red and Green lions formed the arms and the black lion formed the body and the Purple lion formed the wings and they merged.

Keith: AND I'LL FORM THE HEAD!

Voltron's head formed and Voltron was ready!

Me: WE'RE READY FOR ACTION!

Megas was facing Gorrath.

Gorrath: (laughs) Oh please, Coop. Everytime you seem to destroy me, I somehow survive. What makes you think today will be any different?

Coop: (whispers to Nico) Nico, help me think of a good comeback!

Nico: HE'S NOT THE ONLY ONE YOU HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT!

We all came out and it was awesome!

Gorrath: What!? You aren't alone!?

Me: That's right you fiend!

Fu: J.D. I have the Superlaser locked on to the Glorft Ship. Shall I fire?

Me: Proceed Fu. Charge Up, Lock on and Fire.

Fu: Right! Commence Primary Ignition.

Fu pressed some buttons and pulled a lever and pressed a big red button and the Superlaser fired at the Glorft ship. It hit the ship and it exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared, the whole Glorft Warship was completely destroyed. Nothing of it was left.

Fu: BINGO! Target destroyed J.D.

Me: Excellent!

Gorrath: NO! YOU WILL PAY FOR THIS!

?: Let us help you!

We looked at where that voice came from and we saw that it was from the Lost Galaxy Rangers enemy from Lost Galaxy episode 11: CHILLYFISH!

---

Chillyfish was sent to the colony Terra Venture by Treacheron to freeze the citizens so as to procure the Lights of Orion without hindrance. He used a jellyfish-type conical to spread his ice stingers across the entire colony, resulting a extreme drop in temperature. The cold caused Terra Venture's engines and Alpha 6 to shut down. He is jellyfish-themed and wields a sword in battle.

When the Galaxy Rangers confront the monster in the city, only Leo Corbett is protected from his ice spell by Mike's dogtags (underneath his uniform and directly where Chillyfish shot him), the others fall victim to it along with the rest of the colony's citizens. Everyone except Leo, the animals and the Magna Defender are frozen and despite the presences of Chillyfish, Treacheron and Trakeena, the two warriors chose to fight each other (Leo demanding the Defender give him the Lights, thinking it'll save the colony, while Magna Defender, wanting them for himself, refuses).

When Chillyfish catches a glimpse of the Lights, he chases after them on his own horse. However, the moment he catches them they shatter, revealing their nature to be fake. Leo abandons his fight with the Magna Defender to confront Chillyfish on his own horse, but the monster proves too strong for him and is only overpowered by the Magna Defender's sneak attack (the Lights he'd released earlier were revealed to be part of his plan to destroy Chillyfish). Chillyfish grows and Magna Defender summons the Torozord and transforms into the Mega Defender. He gave Chillyfish a choice to tell him what he knew about the Lights, but the monster refused and was destroyed by the Defender Torozord.

Leo Corbett: That's Chillyfish!

Me: I remember him! He almost froze the entire colony of Terra Venture!

Mia: That's right!

Leo Corbett: But we beat this guy before.

Laney: That was rough!

A loud groan was heard and then out came a walking suit of black armor. It was the very first monster Mystery Inc. busted: THE GHOST OF THE BLACK KNIGHT!

---

The Black Knight was the disguise of Mr. Wickles, used to scare visitors away from the County Museum during his art forgery scheme.

Shaggy and Scooby-Doo found an abandoned truck with a mysterious suit of armor inside and contacted Fred, Daphne, and Velma for help. The gang determined that the armor had been in the care of a Professor Hyde White and was being transported to the County Museum.

After taking the truck and the armor to the museum, they learned that the armor was that of the legendary Black Knight and was supposedly haunted by his ghost. Mr. Wickles, the museum curator, was concerned that the legends of the Black Knight were true and that Hyde White was its latest victim. After investigating, the gang trapped the Knight and revealed that it was Mr. Wickles, who was using the disguise to scare people away while he swapped the museum's paintings with forgeries and selling the real paintings for profit.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's The Black Knight Ghost!

Me: I remember him! He's the first monster we busted!

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: He was really the caretaker of a local museum, Mr. Wickles. He was doing a major multi-million dollar art forgery and swindling operation. He would make forgeries of the real paintings in a museum and sell the real ones for a huge amount of money. We busted him and sentenced him to 20 years in prison. He was released for good behavior after serving 10 years in prison.

Fred: That's right.

Jamie jumped down.

Jamie: Relax, guys. The Black Knight Ghost's not real. He's just a guy in a costume. (takes off his helmet only to find empty air where the head should be)

Coop: Jamie, I don't think that's a costume!

Kiva: I thought the Black Knight Ghost was sent to the River of Fire! How was he resurrected?

May: The Black Knight Ghost that we sent into the River of Fire was a digital copy of the original.

Me: That's right. The Black Knight we faced in the Scooby Doo game was a digital copy. We have a replica of him in our Mystery Inc. Museum.

Kiva: Wow.

Linka: I'll face the Black Knight Ghost.

Lola: And I'll face Chillyfish.

Troy Burrows: Let us help too.

Lola: Okay.

Troy: I hope Maria and William can pilot our Megazords until we're done with these two monsters.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mystic Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mystic Force Power Rangers.

Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and melted Chillyfish. Killing him.

The Megaforce Power Rangers went at the Black Knight and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Linka fired a powerful blast of lightning and the Megaforce Rangers fired blasts of magic at the Black Knight Ghost and they exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Lola: Now for you to be sent back where you belong!

Lola fired a powerful blast of Gold Fire and turned the Black Knight Ghost into a gold statue! Lola sent his evil spirit into the dimension of the Book of Vile Darkness.

Lola: That's it for that evil knight.

Me: Good job guys! Lets take this fight to another planet so no one will get hurt.

Nico: Good idea.

I snapped my fingers and we went to the planet Glaren.

Me: Now the fight is on! ATTACK!

I fired powerful blasts of energy from the Ultrazord and energy blasts and elemental blasts from my hands and they hit the Glorft forces and destroyed them and Laney fired numerous blasts of fire and entangled them in plant vines and Lola fired massive blasts of fire and they hit the Glorft Robots and destroyed them and incinerated them. Lincoln fired powerful blasts of energy and lightning and electrocuted the Glorft all over and blasted them all into nothing. Megas fired a powerful barrage of missiles and they hit the Glorft Robots and exploded all over. Blowing them apart. Lana fired massive blasts of ice and froze them in place and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and blew them apart in a massive and fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Ben: Try this one for size!

Ben then turned into a brand new alien called Slapback!

Ben: SLAPBACK!

Me: Wow! I never saw that one before.

Shanan: That's an Ekoplektoid from the planet Ekoplekton!

Me: Wow! What do they do?

Shanan: Ekoplektoids are a very well known race. They have a massive city all over Ekoplekton.

Shanan went over their culture and landscape and society.

---

Ekoplekton is a sprawling metropolis that seems to cover every available surface on the planet. The landscape is dotted by large, rounded mountains vaguely resembling the armored plating on the Ekoplektoid's arms; these, too, are covered in buildings. Multiple subways run beneath the planet's surface, allowing the rapidly growing population to traverse the global city.

Society

Because of the Ekoplekton's duplication powers and their poor control over them, space is at a premium. At times, the planetary population grows to such a staggering number, that the Ekoplektons have to leave the planet just to get enough room. Unfortunately, the same problem that made them want to leave Ekoplekton in the first place often forces them to make emergency stops just to get some elbow room.

---

Me: WHOA! That's amazing!

Nico: So their planet ran out of space because of their massive global city that covered much of the entire planet? That sounds like Coruscant.

Shanan: It is.

Slapback: Lets see what it can do!

Slapback then slapped his back and turned into 10 copies of himself and they hopped and slammed onto the Glorft Robots and smashed them all with the weight of a hugely dense neutron star.

Me: WHOA! They are really densely powerful!

Volcana: No kidding. That was awesome!

Volcana fired a massive blast of fire and burned some of the Glorft Robots and melted them.

Slapback then turned into AmpFibian.

Ben: AMPFIBIAN!

He fired a powerful blast of lightning at the Glorft and electrocuted them.

AmpFibian: Try this one on for size!

He pressed the Omnitrix Symbol and then turned into a new ultimate form. He turned into ULTIMATE AMPFIBIAN! Ultimate AmpFibian is one of the more drastically changed Ultimate Forms. Rather than appearing like a jellyfish, he takes on a body type somewhat similar to Ghostfreak's with wings in place of arms. His body is is a pale blue, with light blue blotches swirling around inside, and almost-white yellow blotches within those. He has three green eyes, and wears the Evolved Symbol on his chest. In The Alan 10 Adventures, Ultimate AmpFibian is dark indigo, with bright blue and light blue blotches in his body. His eyes are red, and he wears the Evolved Simplicitrix on his chest.

Ultimate AmpFibian: ULTIMATE AMPFIBIAN!

Me: WHOA! An Evolved Amperi!

Shanan: This is completely different than what I remember! It looks like a ghost jellyfish with wings for arms.

Luna: That is amazing dudes!

Luan: So Shockingly Amazing! (Laughs) Get it?

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one Luan.

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one!

Ultimate AmpFibian: Watch this one!

He fired a massive blast of lightning that measured at over 980 Yattawatts! It was so powerful and it hit the Glorft Robots and destroyed them all with incredible power!

Me: WHOA! That was incredibly powerful!

Lincoln: It measured at 980 Yattawatts of Electricity!

Me: WHOA! That is powerful!

Nico: What are Yattawatts?

Me: That's the equivalent of 1 septillion volts of electricity. That's 10 to the 24th power, 1 with 24 zeroes.

Nico: WHOA! That's massively powerful!

Lisa: Incredible! That's 980,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 volts of power he hit the Glorft with.

Me: It sure is! That was intensely powerful!

Lincoln: Unbelievable! That is far more powerful lightning than what I have.

Me: I know. Lets get them with our teamwork!

Ben turned into Brainstorm.

Ben: BRAINSTORM! The electrical power of a Cerebrocrustacean is gonna provide sufficient electrical discharge for me to bring pain and destruction to this Architeuthis Menace.

Me: Okay for starters: Ow that hurt my head.

Brainstorm: Apologies.

Brainstorm fired a massive blast of powerful lightning from his shell and Stewie fired a powerful railgun blast.

Brainstorm and Stewie: ELECTRICITY MEGABLAST RAILSTRIKE!

The blasts hit Gorrath and they electrocuted him all over.

Ben then turned into Spidermonkey!

Ben: SPIDERMONKEY! (Hoots)

Leni: (SQUEALS) (Hugs Ben) I still can't get over how cute you look like this Ben.

Spidermonkey: I know Leni. But please let me go.

Leni: Sorry.

Me: Arachnichimps can look cute huh?

Riley: Yeah. Sorry Leni.

Leni: No I should be sorry Riley. I let my cuteness overload me.

Riley: It's okay.

Kitten: Lets get him!

Kitten fired a powerful blast of fire butterflies and Spidermonkey fired numerous blasts of spiderwebs.

Kitten and Spidermonkey: BLAZING SPIDER BUTTERFLY STRIKE!

The Spiderwebs merged with the Fire Butterflies and turned them into flaming Spider Fire Butterflies and they hit Gorrath and exploded all over him.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Bombshell: Time for this guy to go out with a bang!

Coop: I'm not gonna lie. I'm gonna really enjoy kicking your butt for the last time!

Me: Same with all of us Coop!

Bombshell: Lets get him! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it enhanced his Explosive Shell 100-fold.

Volcana: You are gonna burn! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her fire powers 100-fold.

Bombshell and Volcana: THERMONUCLEAR EXPLOSIVE FIREBLAST!

Bombshell threw his powerful explosive shell and Volcana fired a massive blast of fire and they hit Gorrath and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Flash: Time for the need for Speed! VELOCITRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his speed 100-fold.

Perceptor: Lets see how his likes this! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his concussion rifle 100-fold.

Flash and Perceptor: HYPERSONIC MEGA CONCUSSION BLAST!

Flash ran at over 40,000,000 miles per hour and Perceptor fired a powerful concussion blast and it the sonic boom from Flash and the concussion blast hit Gorrath and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now it's time to finish this creep for good!

Lisa: Affirmative!

Lana: Lets do it!

Coop: This is for making my friends look like a joke! HAMBURGER MEGABOMB STRIKE!

Coop held out his hands and he fired a massive blast of energy that turned into a hamburger and it hit Gorrath and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Jamie: This is for calling me a Monkey Thing! LIGHTNING SUPERSTRIKE BLAST!

Jamie fired a massive blast of lightning from his hands and it hit Gorrath and electrocuted him all over.

Kiva: This is for making my life in the future a living nightmare! TECHNO SUPERLASER MEGABLAST!

Kiva fired a powerful superlaser blast from her hands and it hit Gorrath and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lana: Never will you terrorize our planet again! ICE LIGHTNING SUPERFREEZE!

Lana fired a powerful blast of ice lightning and froze Gorrath in a block of ice.

Lisa: You are never welcome on our home planet! PERIODIC TABLE SUPER BLAST!

Lisa fired a powerful blast of energy and it turned into a bunch of symbols from the Periodic Table and they hit Gorrath and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM

Me: Now for the ultimate grand finale! Lets finish this fucker off for good! On my mark rangers!

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it!

Kimberly Ann Hart: We're ready!

Leo Corbett: Lets get him!

Delphine: (Alien Voice) Lets do it!

Keith: Form Blazing Sword!

Voltron formed its sword.

Me: NOW! FIRE!

The Thunder Megazord slashed him and so did Voltron, the Lightspeed Rescue Megazord, the Orion Galaxy Megazord, The Wild Force Megazord, Turbo Megazord, Astro Megazord and Aquitar Ranger Zords. Me and the Ranger Zords fired all our weapons at full power and the blasts all combined.

Me and all the Power Rangers: ULTRA MEGA POWER RANGER

SUPER BLAST!

Gorrath: THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING! I'M GORRATH! I'M INVINCIBLE!

Me: You're Nothing! Go to hell and burn as fried calamari!

The blast hit Gorrath and it caused him to explode with unbelievable power.

KRAAAAAAAABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: YEAH!

Laney: AWESOME!

Coop: We did it!

Nico: Gorrath, you and the Glorft have failed this universe!

Kiva: We did it guys! We did it!

Coop: That was awesome!

We went back to Earth.

Coop: (To the viewers) Everything we heard about Team Loud Phoenix Storm is true. These guys are just that powerful and good.

Me: Yep.

We landed and powered down.

Kiva: I can't thank you all enough for helping to destroy the Glorft. If there's anything we can do to repay you…

Nico: Would you all like to join Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Coop: We would be honored.

Jamie: Count me in.

Kiva: Same here.

Me: Welcome aboard guys.

We shook hands and it was gonna be so cool to have the Megas Team with us. We still have all of Coop's enemies he faced all over the galaxy to deal with. We put the gold statue of the Black Knight Ghost in the backyard as a statue for a dedication to the first mystery they did.

THE END

---

Another Awesome Fanfiction complete and another show covered.

Megas XLR was an awesome and really funny show! I loved how they went all over the universe and destroyed many bad aliens! It was an awesome show from May 1st - September 4th, 2004. Only on for 4 months! What a rip! It would've been really cool to see them on longer than that. I saw the Pilot Episode for the show and it was really funny and action packed! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the Totally Spies Misogynistic villainess Violet Vonderfleet and we're going to make sure that she pays the ultimate price for trying to kill all the men!

See you all tomorrow.

A Bad Misogynistic Plant Girl

In the living room we were talking to Qin and with us were the Loud Rabbits.

Me: So how have things been Warren?

Warren: Hectic as usual. But I'm getting used to it like always and I wouldn't trade it for the world.

Nico: I can tell.

Qin: So you all are rabbits that have been given human form?

Brittany: Yep.

Me: We had to give them human form because Luna is allergic to rabbits.

Qin: Oh man.

Me: Yeah.

Qin: And you are like Lincoln in every aspect being the only biological son in the family right Warren?

Warren: Yep.

Qin: Wow! And you have 26 sisters!? That's insane!

Me: We were shocked ourselves.

Varie: Yeah it's true.

Qin: Wow. Betty, you are like Lori in every aspect right?

Lori: She's literally like me during the whole No Guts, No Glori Scenario. I was a bossy bitch back then.

Betty: That's right. I may be bossy, but I do it to maintain order.

Qin: I see. But the military outfit looks awesome on you.

Betty: Thank you.

Lori: J.D. called me General Lori back then.

Me: It still is a good title for you Lori.

Nico: (Laughs) I agree.

Beverly (Loud House Rabbits): I agree too.

Qin: Me too Beverly. You also give awesome girl advice.

Beverly (Loud House Rabbits): Thank you Qin.

Blair: I like, totes think you go perfect in those clothes Qin.

Qin: Thanks Blair.

Leni: Blair is totes like me in every aspect. She loves all clothes.

Qin: I can see that.

Brenda: I hate those clothes!

Qin: Why?

Me: Ah Brenda is always like that. She hates everything.

Warren: I don't know why but she has always been like that.

Mandy (GAOBAM): I can relate. She and I have so much in common.

Me: No kidding Mandy.

Barbara: I agree though. She needs a better song in her life though.

Luna: Well said Barbara.

Qin: You have quite a talent in music though Barbara.

Barbara: Thanks Qin.

Me: She's like Luna in every aspect.

Qin: Nice.

Laney and Bodhi were meditating. It was very theraputic.

Qin: Wow. Look at Bodhi.

Me: She's always calm in the face of danger and is always in a meditative concentrated state.

Qin: Amazing.

Lily Loud: That is so cool.

Girl Jordan: The Flowers on her head are really nice.

Me: They are G.J. and they remind me of what happened back in the Woodstock 1969 era.

Nico: Good times back then.

Me: Yep.

Bebe: There's no Blooming from that! (Laughs) Get it?

Most of us laughed while everyone else sighed.

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Nico: (Laughs) That was funny!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Bebe.

Me: It sure was. Bebe is like Luan in every aspect.

Qin: I can see that. She's as funny as you Luan.

Luan: Thanks Qin.

Bippa: (British Accent) Would you like some tea J.D.?

Me: Oh why thank you Bippa.

She poured me a cup.

I drank it and it was good.

Qin: Bippa has a really strong love for all things in England.

Me: Yeah, even though she wasn't born in England she still loves it.

Qin: Wow.

Lynn and Bailey were arm wrestling.

Bailey: You are going down Lynn!

Lynn: In your dreams Bailey!

Qin: Wow. Bailey is like Lynn in every aspect. Very competitive.

Me: Yep. And she's really good at Basketball like me.

Nico: Nice.

Bella (Loud House Rabbits): Lucy and me both have a lot of things in common.

Me: Yeah.

Qin: I can tell that Bella is in every way like Lucy.

Me: Oh yeah. She likes Poems and Vampires and gloom and doom.

Brittney: Just like me.

Brittany: You and I have the same name Brittney.

Brittney: We do have the same name huh? But our names are spelled differently. I have N-E-Y at the end. You have A-N-Y at the end.

Brittany: Wow. That is a difference.

Me: But you are like Laney in every aspect Brittany.

Bernadette: (Through a Megaphone) LANA YOU GIVE BACK LOLA'S DOLL THIS INSTANT OR I'M TELLING MOM!

Lana: YOU'LL NEVER TAKE ME ALIVE!

Lola: Wow! Bernadette is so much like me that it's scary.

Me: No kidding.

Qin: But that is so cool.

Beulah: (Cowboy Accent) YEE-HAW! Rope them doggies!

She lassoed Lana and hogtied her.

Me: Wow! Nice job Beulah.

Lana: That was awesome!

Qin: She sure likes the Rodeo and cowboys.

Me: She would make an awesome star in the rodeo.

Lily: Even Sandy would agree.

Me: Yep.

Beatrice: The odds of Beulah participating in said sport are an abysmal 716,342 to 1.

Me: Wow.

Qin: Beatrice is like Lisa in every aspect.

Me: She's a prodigy and a genius.

Blanch: (Coughs) Rodeos make me sick.

Qin: Oh no.

Me: Blanch gets sick very easily and we have to be careful around her. She has to be very careful as well.

Qin: Oh man. Is there something wrong with her in medicinal terms?

Me: We don't really know exactly.

Bethany: Lets see. I have reading from 10:30 to 11:30 tomorrow morning and Lunch from 11:30 to 12:30.

Qin: Wow. Bethany is really organized.

Me: She always has a big to do list with her. She always follows it.

Edd: She and I have so much in common in terms of personality.

Me: That's true Double D.

Brie came out of the kitchen with a platter of carrot salad sandwiches.

Brie: Would you guys like to try one of my carrot salad sandwiches?

Qin: Sure.

Qin tried one and it was good.

Qin: Mmm! Delicious!

Me: Brie is an awesome chef and she can whip up anything in minutes.

Lynn Sr.: She and I have so much in common.

Me: I can tell Mr. Lynn.

Bernice: Here J.D. Use this lucky hat I found.

She put a cap with fire on it on my head and it had "A Fiery Luck Megastar" on it.

Me: A Fiery Luck Megastar. Wow. Thanks Bernice.

Qin: Bernice knows a lot about lucky charms.

Warren: Yeah before we came here, she suggested giving me a rabbits foot as a lucky charm.

Me: That's very offensive to rabbits.

Then we felt the sofa being lifted up and we saw Bertha lifting it up.

Me: Whoa! Wow!

Qin: Holy cow! Bertha is really strong!

Me: No kidding! She loves exercising and protein shakes.

She got in 100 lifts from the sofa.

Bertha: Sorry guys. But thanks for the lifts.

Qin: Wow! No problem. But with us on the sofa that must've weighed about 400 pounds.

Me: No kidding. But she is really strong.

Bianca: Check out the picture I did in oils.

Bianca painted an awesome picture of us pulverizing all of the Legion Of Doom if they were still active.

Me: Wow! That's a great art piece Bianca.

Qin: That's really talented.

Nico Robin: I'll say. It's breathtaking.

Bianca: It would've been perfect if the Legion Of Doom was still active though. But I call it "Victory Over the Legion".

Me: Good title.

Qin: Bianca is a great artist like Laney is.

Me: She sure is.

Brooke: (PANICING) WHAT IF YOU DON'T WIN ALL YOUR BATTLES!? WHAT IF YOU LOSE ONE OF THEM!? WHAT IF THE WORLD ENDS TOMORROW!? WHAT IF I GROW OLD!?

Me: WHOA WHOA WHOA WHOA WHOA! Brooke calm down! None of that is gonna happen.

Qin: What's gotten into her?

Me: She's always like this. She has what's called Panophobia, the Fear of Everything.

Qin: Geez!

Nico: That really is a strange fear.

Belinda: I think we need to find you a good match Qin.

Qin: Like who?

Me: Belinda is trying her hardest at Matchmaking. It's tough but no one can find their true love by matchmaking. They have to go with what their heart says.

Nico: Yep.

Qin saw Birdie reading with Matilda Honey.

Qin: Wow. Birdie is always reading huh?

Me: She loves reading. She can't get her head out of those books. It's amazing.

Nico: Yep.

Birdie: It's true and poems and architechture are my favorites.

Nico: Cool!

Beth was snoring. She was lying in the couch and she was really out cold.

Qin: Boy, Beth is really sleepy.

Me: She's always like that. She has what's called Narcolepsy. It's a sleep disorder that makes you tired very easily.

Qin: Oh man.

Brandy: You have pretty rings on your fingers Qin.

Qin: Thanks Brandy.

Me: Brandy likes Shiny stuff. She's into all that.

Warren: Yep.

Qin saw Bridget on her phone.

Qin: You really like talking on your phone huh Bridget?

Bridget sent her a text. A text came in and Qin read it.

Qin: "I can't speak, so talking on the phone is my source of communication." Oh no. That's a shame you can't talk.

Me: She was born mute. So she can't help it.

Nico: Yeah that's understandable.

Lincoln: Yep.

Pakura: That's amazing that you have so many awesome sisters Warren.

Warren: Thanks Pakura.

Qin: So, Skipper. How did you, Private, Kowalski, and Rico first become a team?

Mewtwo: That's one tale that Skipper remembers fondly.

Me: And it was awesome! We met the Penguins when we were capturing the Shadow Card.

Sakura Avalon: I remember that but I was really sick.

Me: Yeah.

Skipper: That is a very interesting story.

Skipper went over how he, Rico, Kowalski and Private became a team.

---

Not much is known about Skipper's early life, but we do know from their movie how he met Private and how Skipper, Kowalski, and Rico adopted him as their younger brother, a fourth member to their team. He has revealed that - due to as-yet-unspecified circumstances involving explosions, a high-speed chase and Hans the Puffin - he is unable to set foot in Denmark after being declared public enemy number one by Queen Margrethe II. In the episode "Skipper Makes Perfect" it is revealed that the incident had something to do with open faced sandwiches.

Skipper also mentions, in the episode Mr. Tux, that he once woke up in a Kyoto hotel room on a bed of counterfeit Deutschmarks. This must have been many years ago because Deutschmarks are no longer in use.

Another of Skipper's enigmas is the two former penguin agents Manfredi and Johnson. Skipper has mentioned them on many occasions. They died under unknown circumstances (but it's later found out in The Penguin Who Loved Me that the two aren't really dead, but trapped at Seaville). The only reason for this is that Skipper changes the reason every time he talks about them. He is also arch-enemies with the mad dolphin super villain Doctor Blowhole, although the circumstances under which they formed this enmity are unknown.

We don't know how all of this came into play, or where his brothers were during it.

Also, we see what Skipper looked like as a baby in the episode Rock A Bye Birdie. It was also revealed that as a baby Skipper happened to be a little gassy and had a noxious flatulence capable of knocking a person out.

In Littlefoot, we find out that Skipper was in Mexico for 8 years learning how to play a Spanish guitar.

Skipper's age is unknown, but his sometimes old fashioned sexism and resentment towards counterculture hippies suggests that he is the oldest of the four penguins.

At some unspecified point Skipper and his team were in Cuba.

---

Qin: Whoa! That is awesome!

Pakura: That sure is an amazing story.

Nico Robin. It sure is.

Tara: Skipper, you guys did the right thing going back for Private when no one else did.

Me: Yep. But still it was so cool that you are an amazing team.

Suddenly the computer tube opened and we were all sucked in!

Me: Here comes an awesome WOOHPing!

Stacy Bolton: WEEE!

The WOOHP tunnel just dropped us off on a boat near a cave.

Wreck Gar: Odd. Usually, we get sent into Jerry's office.

Me: Not this time.

The boat sailed into the cave. It was dark at first. But when the lights turned on, we saw a bunch of animatronic animals.

Animatronic Animals: You're gonna get a mission

A mission, a mission

A brand-new mission

Animatronic Monkey What's it gonna be?

Animatronic Animals: Go and get your mission

Your mission, your mission

A brand-new mission

We can't wait to see!

The boat stopped near Jerry's office.

GLADOS: Exit to your left, guys.

Maria: Thanks, G.L.A.D.O.S.

GLADOS: You're welcome Maria.

Bai Tza: And I thought the Dr. Gerbil theme was annoying.

We went into Jerry's office.

Me: Good Morning Jerry.

Jerry: Good morning, everyone. I hope you enjoyed WOOHP Entrance: The Ride. The agency wanted to make coming into work more exciting. It was either that or a huge bonus check.

Me: It was enjoyable.

Bai Tza: It's better than that annoying Dr. Gerbil theme we heard.

Thunderblast: (frowns) So, why didn't you accept the bonus check and WOOHP us here directly?

Clover: (annoyed) I agree with Thunderblast, Jerry. I honestly prefer being WOOHPed instead of singing animals for little kids.

Jerry: Well, in focus group tests, 6-year-olds overwhelming preferred singing animals to a piece of paper with numbers on it, so I chose the former option.

Clover: Oh.

Me: Clover now is not the time.

Kim Possible: So what's the sitch?

Jerry: I'm afraid we have a bad one.

Jerry pulled up an image of a woman with purple hair.

Clover: Violet Vanderfleet?

Sam Simpson: She escaped right?

Jerry: Yes she did.

Me: What's her story?

Clover: She's a Misogynistic Supremacist.

Clover, Sam and Alex went over her history.

---

An accomplished botanist, she created a hybrid of poisonous flowers called the "Viola Vanderfleetus" to destroy the male half of civilization because of her own failed relationships and because of her belief that there are, in her words, "a lot of angry, hurt women out there" who "all want revenge". She is unaware of the fact that men get dumped just as often as women do, maybe even more, and that some couples are perfectly happy with their relationships. Her madness began after a boyfriend dumped her for another (although it is unspecified whether it was another male or simply another woman). She also appears to have a similarly poor dating record, seeing men who "all dumped [her], too".

At one point, she offered Clover a chance to help her as she sensed Clover's rage at the fact Samantha was dating Clover's ex-boyfriend Fernando. However, Clover refused. After her plan goes haywire, being attacked by her own creation, the spies defeat her and take her to the WOOHP Prison.

In addition to her knowledge of plant biology and chemistry, she was also shown to be able to pilot a plane and was a skilled combatant, easily dodging and countering the spies' combat skills. She effortlessly nearly took down all three of them by herself, though the girls may have been exhausted from the previous encounters with her plants.

We gasped in horror.

Me: Just what the universe needs: Another fucked up Misogynistic Supremacist out to kill all the men.

Laney: So she's a botanist. Isn't that what you are Pamela?

Poison Ivy: That's right. But I was an ecoterrorist.

Laney: Big difference.

Qin: You had problems with this before?

Me: Oh yeah. We encountered another one from before.

Numbuh 1: She was Madame Margaret and she hates all boys with a merciless vengeance.

Numbuh 1 went over her history.

Madame Margaret, also known as Madame Margie, Principal Margaret (to reflect her career) or simply as Margie, is a one-shot villain who is the main antagonist in the episode "Operation: F.U.T.U.R.E." of the Codename: Kids Next Door series. She is the evil leader/principal of St. Rita's Preparatory School. She has a profound hatred for boys due to how she was teased by her brothers in her youth. Her goal and desire was to make a utopia of all girls and no boys. Apparently, she has the ability to communicate with her younger self and vice versa through a time machine.

After Numbuh 4 from the KND was sent to St. Rita's Preparatory School by his parents, Margie presented herself in her disguise as Principal Margaret, welcoming Numbuh 4 to the school, and went with him to his new class. Once at the class, Numbuh 4 came to the conclusion that all the students were girls, so Principal Margaret revealed to him that St Rita's was a school for girls, and subsequently, she revealed her intentions to turn Numbuh 4 in a girl with her Girlifying Rifle. She just made Numbuh 4's hand to turn into a woman's, but Numbuh 4 used the powder from the speckles of the slate to escape. After became furious of Numbuh 4's escape, Principal Margaret made a tantrum and later left the classroom to go to her office at the school's tower, but she told her students to continue with their lessons, which they did not do as soon as she left, they started to play.

Once at the school's tower, Principal Margaret communicated with her future self Madame Margaret, who told her that she was busy at the moment and to just leave her a message. Principal Margaret left a message explaining her future self about Numbuh 4's escape, but Numbuh 4 appeared at the window and swinging with a lamp, launched against Principal Margaret and knocked her. Much to Numbuh 4's horror, he realized that he had "killed" Principal Margaret by splitting her in half, leading Margie to emerge from the robotic legs she was using to impersonate Principal Margaret and insult Numbuh 4 for breaking her disguise. While Margie and Numbuh 4 argued about Margie's plan to turn every boy into a girl, Principal Margaret's robotic torso, which was still alive, managed to get where the Girlifying Rifle was and tried to turn Numbuh 4 into a girl one last time, but Numbuh 4 managed to turn down Principal Margaret's robotic torso once and for all and broke the Girlifying Rifle in half, much to Margie's chagrin. To his bad luch, Madame Margaret appeared as a hologram to aide Margie, so she send four members of her Girl Squad, who managed to girlifie Numbuh 4's t-shirt into a dress, with Numbuh 4 escaping with his jetpack. However, they managed to girlifie Numbuh 4's jetpack into a woman's purse, which made him to fall to the ground. Subsequently, Margie activated the robotic legs of St. Rita's Preparatory School, chasing Numbuh 4, who was unable to call for help as Sector V was girlified.

75 years later, it's revealed that Numbuh 4 somehow escaped from the young Margie and went into hiding, but as a result, Madame Margaret became the supreme ruler of the world, sending her Girl

Squad to girlifie or harass every living boy. However, Numbuh 4 created a resistance division named the Boys Next Door, who lived to fight against Madame Margaret and her tyranny. Feeling furious about the BND, Madame Margaret decided to create a giant and new version of the Girlifying Rifle known as the Supergirlifier Cannon, but it was still unoperational. Preparing for the ultimate battle against Madame Margaret's Girl Army, the BND were helped by Sally Sanban, Numbuh 3's granddaughter and a deserted member from the Girl Squad, who wanted to help the boys defeat Madame Margaret from extinct every boy in the Earth. Numbuh 4 dismissed her immediately, but he accepted her after she gave them a Girlifying Rifle to reverse its effects and make it a Boylifying Rifle. The rifle's effects were successfully reversed. Meanwhile, Madmae Margaret revealed to her girls that she anticipated Sally's desertion and secretly planted a tracker on her to discover the BND's headquarters. Ready to extinct boys from the face of the Earth once and for all, Madame Margaret activated the robotic legs of St. Rita's Preparatory School, now her utopia's castle.

Once in front of the BND's headquarters, Madame Margaret ordered the BND's Leader to call the BND to face her Girl Army. Immediately, the BND emerged with their jetpacks and started to fight. Numbuh 2's descendant transformed two girls into boys, but Madame Margaret resolved to reveal that the Supergirlifier Cannon was now operational, destroying the BND's headquarters and transforming many of its members into girls. Although Numbuh 5's descendant came to the conclusion that they needed to abandon the battle to fight another day, the BND's Leader reminded him that Numbuh 4 and Sally needed more time to infiltrate St. Rita's, so Numbuh 2's descendant sacrificed himself to get them more time, only to be soon girlified along Numbuh 5's descendant and other members. Now alone, the BND's Leader resisted to became a girl, but Madame Margaret shot the Girlifier Cannon to him, transforming him into a girl. Glorious for her victory, Madame Margaret returned to her office, happy that she had now transformed every boy from the world into a girl, but Numbuh 4 appeared at the window and swinging with the lamp, he launched himself against Madame Margaret to knock her, mimicking their first confrontation 75 years ago. After Madame Margaret asked him what he was going to do, he revealed that he was going to call for help. She reminded him that the boys were no more on the Earth's face, but Numbuh 4 used her time machine to remind her that there are still boys in the past that could help him. After Numbuh 4 dissapeared, Madame Margaret went to the time machine to follow him and prevent his actions, but Sally appeared and crushed with her feet the time machine. Realizing that her fate had been sealed and this time there was no chance for escape, Madame Margaret screamed in horror knowing that everything around her including herself will promptly cease to exist.

When he returned to the past, Numbuh 4 warned the KND about the young Numbuh 4's situation before they were girlified by Margie, so they went with him to St. Rita Preparatory School, which had started to chase Numbuh 4. They saved Numbuh 4 and Numbuh 3 went to the battlefield with the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P. to face Margie's Girl Squad. Margie ordered the Girl Squad to destroy the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P., but after shooting against it with no effect, Margie realized that the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P. was too girly already to be affected by the Girlifying Rifles. Subsequently, the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P. entered into her office, scaring the Girl Squad away and roaring at Margie. With one last card up her sleeve, Margie attempted to call the still existing Madame Margaret to get help from her and avoid defeat, but Numbuh 3 crushed the time machine with her feet mimicking the way in which her future granddaughter defeated Madame Margaret in the future, effectively sealing the fate of both Madame Margaret and the Girl Squad. Numbuh 3 then arrested Margie and under Numbuh 1's orders, she was send to the Kids Next Door Arctic base to pay for her crimes. Following her arrest, the future Numbuh 4 faded into oblivion and the Girl Squad was erased from existence, as well St. Rita's Preparatory School crashed down.

75 years later, on those same grounds in which St. Rita's was destroyed, instead of Madame Margaret's dystopian girly future, there is a playground built for boys and girls, strongly implying that Margie likely spend the rest of her days in prison or is still at prison, precluding her to carry out her evil plans.

Qin gasped in horror!

Qin: She was going to kill all the men on the planet by turning them into girls!? That's Insane!

Me: It was. After we stopped her we sent her to the planet Xenomorph Prime and she died there. If there's one thing we never tolerate above all others, it's Misogynistic Supremacists. Because if you kill one half of one species, then the other will die out. Her crimes would've resulted in the extinction of the entire human race.

Qin gasped.

Qin: That's ultimate evil!

Me: That's right. Her crimes are considered acts of ultimate genocide.

Nico: And if there's one thing I never tolerate it's a sexist villain.

Me: You said it Nico. Jerry we'll take the case. But we're going to kill Violet. She will pay for her crimes in blood.

Jerry: Understood.

Me: Nico, you go to the island of Themiscyra and tell Queen Hippolyta that we got another genocidal Misogynist out to destroy the world. Tell her that I sent you.

Nico: Right.

Nico used Instant Transmission to beam to the island of Themiscyra.

Me: Now I have a plan. Aqua, You will go to Violet's hideout to talk to Violet while Ben as Ghostfreak will be inside you for a sneak attack.

Aqua: Okay. That's really clever.

Me: But Ben, make sure you don't fully take over Aqua. We want her to have some control.

Ben: Got it.

Me: When you give us the signal, we attack.

Ben: Right.

Me: Okay lets move!

We were off to Violet Vanderfleet's hideout. We were using the Super Megaforce Skyship. Violet Vanderfleet's hideout was a floating moving fortress in the middle of the ocean. The Skyship was cloaked and we were invisible and ready to attack.

Nico got the amazons of Themiscyra and we were ready.

Aqua: You ready for this, Ben?

Aqua's eyes turned purple.

Ghostfreak: I was born ready, Aqua.

Aqua went into the fortress.

Queen Hippolyta: I can't believe that women are going to kill all men. It's inhuman.

Me: I know your majesty. But some people just absolutely despise the opposite sex. It's not right on so many levels.

Laney: That's right.

Aqua was walking through the fortress and she was seeing the interior.

Ghostfreak: You ok, Aqua?

Aqua: Well, I have a lot on my mind ever since we killed Ratwell.

Ghostfreak: Such as?

Aqua: You promise not to laugh?

Aqua revealed that she has feelings for either Ventus or Terra.

Ghostfreak could only watch as Aqua was crying.

Ghostfreak: Look, Aqua. Maybe you should do what Timmy did to solve his romantic feelings.

Aqua: (still crying) And that is?

Ghostfreak: Follow what your heart tells you. And ask Terra and Ventus if they have any romantic feelings for you.

Aqua: (smiles and wipes tears from her eyes) I'll try that. Thanks, Ben!

Ghostfreak: You're welcome Aqua.

But in the recesses of Aqua's mind, Anti-Aqua surfaced.

Anti Aqua: You think you can contain me for long? I'm going to get out of here eventually. And then, you and your friends will fall to darkness!

Ghostfreak: (grabs Anti Aqua by the throat) Not gonna happen. We're already in the middle of dealing with one bad girl right now. And I know that J.D. and the others would want to kill you themselves. So, I'm gonna banish you into the deep parts of Aqua's mind. Should keep you contained for a while.

Ghostfreak did so and sealed her away for a while.

Aqua: That was a close one. Thanks Ben.

Ghostfreak: No problem.

Aqua: We're almost there.

Aqua then entered the main control room and she saw VIOLET VANDERFLEET!

Violet Vonderfleet: Thank you for coming by, Aqua.

Aqua: Shouldn't there be two monsters helping you?

Violet Vanderfleet: They're both coming.

Aqua: I see. So, what's your plan this time?

Violet Vanderfleet: Well it's really simple. I am going to create a powerful super poison that will wipe out all the men in one fell swoop. Once I load it into these missiles I will spread it throughout the planets atmosphere and then once all the men have been killed, I will reign supreme as queen of a world where men are dead and Women rule!

Aqua: That's actually a good plan. Except for one problem.

Violet: Which is?

Aqua's eyes turned purple.

Ghostfreak: (through Aqua) You're not as smart as you look.

Ghostfreak then jumped out of Aqua and grabbed Violet Vanderfleet and punched her face and then a massive fiery explosion blasted a hole through the roof and a Phoenix Cry was heard and we landed by Aqua.

Me: It's over Violet!

Megas then grabbed the roof and it just ripped off the roof of Violet's hideout.

Coop: Knock knock! Can we come in?

Lynn: (Sarcastically) That's right! Why even bother with a Phoenix Cry when we can just go overkill and use Megas to rip off an entire roof?

Me: Lynn not now. Violet Vanderfleet, we won't let you kill all the men!

Nico: You have failed this planet!

Lincoln: What is your deal against men!? What have we ever done to you!?

Violet Vanderfleet: WHY!? Because men are monsters! They are a menace to people everywhere! That's why they have to die!

Me: HEY! I resent that!

Gia Moran: I admit that some boys are bad. But that doesn't mean that all men should be killed!

Emma Goodall: Forget it, Gia. She's not gonna listen. Let's just go Legendary!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Storm!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Storm Rangers.

Nico Robin: I can't believe that you would kill all the men like this!

Pakura: You're a monster Violet!

?: She's not the only monster!

Then out came a monster that the In Space Rangers fought before. It was VOLTAGE HOG from Episode 7 of In Space.

---

Voltage Hog was one of the monsters used by Astronema to attack the Earth. It was draining power from various power stations in Angel Grove. It attacked Andros and his thieving friends in their headquarters of stolen vehicles, soon after Andros had discovered they were thieves. Andros protected them anyway, battling him and Ecliptor. When he activated the "saber ignition", Voltage Hog sparked and fell over, then exploded. He was destroyed by the Astro Megazord.

---

Andros: Voltage Hog!

Voltage Hog: Its been a long time Space Rangers.

Me: I remember this guy! He was draining all the power from the Angel Grove Power Plants!

Lincoln: That's insane!

?: NO MORE SCOOBY SNACKS!

We then saw a living glob of cheese! It was THE CHEESE MONSTER! The Cheese Monster was a large male humanoid made out of orange, oozing cheese.

---

After the Cheese Monster scared off all the employees at the Scooby Snack Factory and forcing Constance McSnack to close it down, he made a news report that his company would supply the dog treats until her factory could re-open again. He then supported her after a failed investigation into the monster attacks, and even offered her a job, but he was disappointed though when she told him all the top secret formulas was locked away in her factory so they couldn't add her ingredients to his own. After the kids probed Mrs. McSnack for questions, she and Mr. Acme left in a car together.

During the kids' search through the abandoned Scooby Snack factory they heard the ruckus Mr. Acme made and managed to see the back of him, fleeing around a corner. When the Cheese Monster cornered Scooby-Doo into a locked room he did the only thing he could think of: eat it neck down, leaving only the head intact, but also revealing the body of Mr. Acme and that the monster was only a costume. He tried to escape, but Velma Dinkley quickly entangled him with her yo-yo. Once the police arrived they took off what was left of the Cheese Monster to reveal that it was in fact Larry P. Acme.

A clue was when his blue suit (which he wasn't wearing underneath his costume) was found in the trash. He wanted to put his main rival company, the Scooby Snack Factory, out of business by dressing up as the Cheese Monster to scare off its employees so he was free to find the secret formula, which he wanted to use in order to improve his own distasteful recipe and take over the market. Larry then says that he would have gotten away with it, too, if it weren't for those pesky kids and that puppy who ate his costume (which Scooby refers to as "delicious," much to Larry's confusion).

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Cheese Monster!

Me: I remember this tasty guy!

Scooby Doo: (Slurps) He was delicious.

Nico: I love cheese.

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: He was really the owner of Acme Dog Biscuits, Larry B. Acme. He wanted to force the entire Scooby Snack Factory out of business so that Acme Dog Biscuits can take over the market and use the Scooby Snack Top Secret Formula on the dog biscuits.

Lily Loud: That's like what Plankton was doing!

Me: It is very similar. Larry B. Acme got 20 to 30 years in prison for his crimes and his company declared Chapter 7 Bankruptcy. He lost everything. He vowed to get revenge on Mystery Inc. and he got Life Without Parole in federal prison for Conspiracy.

Qin: Whoa!

Me: Scooby ate his whole costume and he was so full that he couldn't eat anything else for the rest of the day.

Shaggy: (LAUGHS) Like, that was so funny.

Me: Yeah. But the Scooby Snacks are really tasty. My favorite flavors are Bubble Gum and Creamy Garlic and Vanilla and Pizza and Cajun.

Laney: Wow! They have lots of flavors!

Nico: Nice!

Sora: What was the worst flavor of Scooby Snacks ever?

Me: UCH! That was the most disgusting flavor ever. It was called Zucchini Squid and it tasted like puke! Made me hurl my guts out!

Scooby Doo: I remember that one. It was disgusting.

Lana: I got the cheese monster!

Volcana: Let me Grill this cheese monster! (Rimshot)

Volcana fired a powerful blast of fire and melted the Cheese Monster and Lana ate the whole monster and she was stuffed.

Lana: (BURPS!)

Shaggy: (LAUGHS) That was a funny joke I said!

Luan: (Laughs) That was funny!

Me: (LAUGHS) Good one Volcana!

Laney: That one was funny.

Andros: Lets rock it!

The In Space Rangers transformed and they turned into the In Space Rangers!

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them and Nico and the Amazons and the In Space Rangers faced the Voltage Hog. Volcana punched Violet in the face and Poison Ivy punched her in the stomach and Laney kicked her in the stomach and Sakura Avalon kicked Violet in the back and punched her in the stomach and fired a powerful blast of lightning at her and electrocuted her. The Space Rangers, Nico and the Amazons slashed and blasted the Voltage Hog and shorted him out and killed him and blew him into dust. I blasted his dust into nothing. I punched her in the face and Laney kicked her in the stomach and the Megaforce Rangers blasted her all over. Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted her all over.

Nico Robin: Time for some pain! CIEN FLEUR! WING!

Nico Robin then spread her hand wings and flew at Violet Vanderfleet and punched her in the face with devastating force.

Violet Vanderfleet: ATTACK!

Violet then called forth her Henchwomen and they came at us.

Pakura: Try this on! SCORCH STYLE NINJA ART: INCINERATION HEAT RAY!

Pakura fired a powerful blast of fire and it hit many henchwomen and incinerated them and the ray also mummified all of the Henchwomen and turned them into dry husks. Killing them in an instant.

Qin: WHOA! That was awesome!

Stella (Loud House): She taught me some of her techniques too. Watch! SCORCH STYLE: SUPER STEAM KILL!

Stella formed a bunch of sun like flaming orbs and they spun around Stella and they touched numerous henchwomen and dried them up and turned them into mummified husks. Killing them.

Me: WHOA! That was amazing!

Lincoln: Awesome job Stella!

Stella (Loud House): Thanks guys.

Girl Jordan: And I learned this too! SOLAR STYLE NINJA ART: INCINERATION RAY!

Girl Jordan fired a powerful beam of sunlight and it hit numerous henchwomen and obliterated them into nothing!

Me: AWESOME!

Nico Robin: Nice job girls! That was very impressive.

Girl Jordan: Thanks Nico.

Pakura: Well done.

Me: That takes care of the Henchwomen. Now for some awesome Teamwork!

Ben: And watch this!

Ben then turned into NRG!

Ben: (Russian Accent) NRG!

NRG fired a powerful blast of radiation and it hit Violet and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

NRG: And watch this one.

He pressed the Omnitrix symbol and it activated his Ultimate form. He turned into ULTIMATE NRG! He had a much bigger lead suit and an awesome helmet and powerful energy towers in the back and he had energy blasters in the front of the body, legs, feet and face and he was really radioactive.

Ben: ULTIMATE NRG!

Me: WHOA! An Evolved Prypiatosian-B!

Shanan: WOW! The Radiation coming off of it is mindboggling!

Riley's Geiger Counter on her Plumber's Badge was clicking like crazy!

Riley: My geiger counter is showing radiation levels that are off the charts!

Starfire: Luckily radiation cannot harm me.

Me: Our powers make us impervious to radiation.

Ultimate NRG: Lets see how she likes this!

Ultimate NRG fired a powerful blast of radiation at Violet and she dodged it and it hit the ship controls and destroyed them!

Me: Never mind that! Combo time!

Ultimate NRG turned into GOOP!

Ben: (Jellied Gurgling voice) GOOP!

Acid Man: I'm ready for this.

Acid Man formed his acid barrier and Goop fired powerful globs of acid.

Goop and Acid Man: ACIDIC SLIME BARRAGE!

They fired numerous globs of acid and they hit Violet and burned her and also they destroyed the controls.

Ben then turned into ALIEN X!

Alien X: (In Ben's and 2 Other Voices) ALIEN X!

Me: This is gonna be interesting.

Alien X fired a powerful blast of celestial energy and G1 Reflector fired a blast of light energy.

Alien X and G1 Reflector: CELESTIAL LIGHT BLAST!

The blasts combined and they hit Violet Vanderfleet and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Violet Vanderfleet: I HATE YOU ALL!

Our auras flared up with incredible intensity!

Me: Thanks for the power boost you bitch!

Wreck Gar: Time for you to pay! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his axe 100-fold.

Tara: This bitch makes all us women look bad! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Tara's Right Arm Device and enhanced her Earth Powers 100-fold.

Wreck Gar and Tara: EARTH MEGAHATCHET CHOP!

Tara formed an axe made of rock and she and Wreck Gar slashed Violet all over.

Thunderblast: Time for some CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into her rocket launcher and turned it into a bigger rocket launcher.

Mewtwo: Time for some psychic pain. EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his psychic powers 100-fold.

Thunderblast and Mewtwo: SUPER ENERGY MEGABURST!

Thunderblast fired a powerful blast of energy from her cannon and Mewtwo fired a powerful blast of energy and they hit Violet and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Me: Lets finish this bitch for good!

Clover: You make me sick Violet! LIGHTSTORM MEGABLAST!

Clover fired a powerful blast of light energy and it hit Violet and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM

Volcana: This bitch will burn! FIRESTORM MEGABURN!

Volcana fired a blast of fire and it hit Violet and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lori: You literally disgust me Violet! I will literally turn you into a human pretzel! CYCLONIC TORNADO SHREDSPIN!

Lori fired a massive blast of wind and it hit Violet and cut her up really good.

Thunderblast: You are a menace to this world! DECEPTICON ROCKET CANNON BLAST!

Thunderblast fired a blast of energy and it hit Violet and exploded all over.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lily Loud: You will pay for your crimes against the world! OWLA! Spread my wings!

Lily Loud turned into Night Owl!

Lily Loud: Now you die! STAR BLADE OWL STRIKE!

Lily fired a powerful blade of stellar energy from her sword and it hit Violet and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: You are never welcome on our planet! KIBAL! Lets Howl!

I turned into Wolf Moon!

Me: You are a monster to all us men in general! You make me sick Violet! WOLF SCYTHE FIRE BURN!

I swung my scythe and sent a powerful blade of dark blue fire and it slashed Violet and cut her good.

Violet Vanderfleet: I HATE YOU ALL!

Our auras flared up even more.

Volcana: I've got an idea on how to finish her. Ivy?

Poison Ivy: Yeah?

Volcana: Have Violet's own plants eat her!

Poison Ivy: I like it!

Violet Vanderfleet: I'm not dead yet!

Violet then pressed a button.

Computer: SELF DESTRUCT SEQUENCE HAS BEEN ACTIVATED! 100 GIGATON DETONATION IN T-MINUS 5 MINUTES AND COUNTING.

Me: 100 Gigatons!? That's 100,000 megatons of TNT!

Violet: That's right! And in 5 minutes you all and everything in a 1000 mile blast radius will be completely vaporized!

Me: YOU'RE INSANE!

Nico: You are really fucked up!

Me: But it will only be you! We're in the middle of the ocean 2,000 miles away from land!

Lisa: But the shockwave from the explosion will result in massive 3000 foot megatsunami waves that will destroy everything on the continents!

Violet Vanderfleet: That's right! This whole fortress uses a quantum-linear accelerator and soon I will be known as the woman that killed you all and all of the world! (INSANE LAUGHTER!)

Me: YOU'RE INSANE! We got to get this heap of metal away from water! BURN IN HELL VIOLET!

I formed a powerful force field around the fortress to contain the explosion and I lifted it up into the sky and at 10,000 feet into the air we got out of there and then we saw the whole fortress explode with unbelievable power!

KRRRRRAAAAAAAAAABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so massive, so powerful and so devastating that its tremendous power could be felt all over the entire planet and it shook the very core of the entire planet to the brink. The power from the explosion was so intense that we felt the entirety of its massive power. Luckily the force field was holding and 2 minutes later the whole fortress was completely obliterated in an instant and there was nothing left of it and Violet Vanderfleet was dead!

Me: WHOA! Holy shit was that powerful!

Nico: Unbelievable!

Lincoln: WHOA!

Volcana: That as intense!

Laney: Yeah.

Clover: But at least we never have to see that bitch ever again.

Me: Good riddance. She wanted a world without men and in the end it ended up destroying her.

Nico: Yep. Violet Vanderfleet you have failed this universe.

Coop: She sure has. But this was really intense.

Kiva: You said it Coop.

Volcana: (To the viewers) If you hate someone of the opposite sex, don't expect any mercy from all of us.

Me: Yep.

We went back to WOOHP Headquarters and we filed our report.

Jerry: I see. Very well done guys.

Me: Thanks Jerry. I can't believe that she would blow herself up to kill the entire human race. But thank goodness we stopped her.

Jerry: Yes.

Ventus: Aqua, we heard about the conversation you and Ben had on the way to Violet's hideout.

Aqua: You did?

Terra: We're not mad. In fact, it's time for us to settle this mess with your romantic feelings.

Aqua: Okay.

Terra: The truth is Aqua that I love you like a sister and ever since we went on our epic journey to stop Xehanort and the ordeals we went through we became very close like family. I love you like a sister.

Aqua: I'm okay with that.

Ventus: Aqua I love you more than life itself. I love you.

Aqua: I love you too Ven.

They kissed and it was beautiful.

We cheered for them. It was the start of a new life for them.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another Totally Spies Villain bites the dust.

Violet Vanderfleet was a sexist on steroids and she was pure evil. I got the ending for this chapter out of inspiration from the episode of the Real Adventures of Jonny Quest called OTHER SPACE! That whole facility blew up with the power of 25 Gigatons of TNT and it was awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is a chapter where Doug and Michelle from the Loud House episode Really Loud Music try and get their revenge on Luna for us exposing them as liars and menaces to the worlds of talent. They will try to kill her for ruining their lives. Not if we have anything to say about it.

See you all tomorrow.

Bad Music Stars Revenge

Note: In a way, this is the sequel to the Loud House episode Really Loud Music.

---

At the Neptune Prison for Traitors we were there to visit Ricky Beamer.

---

At his middle school, Ricky is constantly tormented by bullies. One day, fed up with his teasing, Ricky attempts to get revenge on Tasha McClain, one of his many tormentors. He types up an ad in the school newspaper, putting in her phone number and inviting "creeps" to give her a call after midnight. This backfires when Tasha catches onto his plan and puts Ricky's number in the ad instead.

Things go from bad to strange when Ricky gets calls late at night, from people calling themselves creeps. Eventually, the creeps reveal themselves to be four of Ricky's bullies, who have secretly been shape-shifters in disguise. The creeps tell Ricky they intend to turn the whole school into creeps via the planting of seeds. Ricky is both terrified and hesitant and tries to find ways to sabotage the plan and tell others about the creep. However, no one belives him and his plans backfire.

Eventually, the creeps get the idea to put the seeds in cookies to sell at a bake sale. At the bake sale, Ricky tries to warn everyone again but they only laugh at him. One of the creeps tells Ricky that when the others eat the cookies, they will be slaves. Upon hearing this, Ricky tells the others to eat the cookies and eats one himself, thinking about how things will be different from now on.

---

Qin: I can't believe that this Ricky Beamer guy would accuse you like that Nico!

Nico: I know. He's a monster.

Me: We should've just killed him like the rest of those fucking Creeps.

Lincoln: I know. But leaving him in prison as a creepless human is an appropriate punishment.

Me: You're right.

Thundercracker: Well said boss. But what Beamer did makes him a monster at heart.

Isaribi: I agree with you Thundercracker. It's like what I went through when I was with Dr. Amachi.

Me: But Amachi was a true monster. And he was really fucked up to the core. He hated everything and we already killed Orochimaru.

Nico: I remember that. What happened to Dr. Amachi?

Me: Well he was arrested and imprisoned in the Enceladus Prison for mad scientists.

I went over his history.

---

In the past, Amachi used to work alongside Orochimaru in the Land of Sea. They work to abduct the citizens of the Land of Sea and put them through illicit experiments so that they can create a human that can breathe under water. As a result of their abductions, everyone who was taken to be experimented on did not return to the Land of Sea. Amachi also witnessed Orochimaru giving Anko the Cursed Seal of Heaven mark when she was a young girl. Orochimaru left the Land of Sea and Amachi continued his experiments on the citizens of the Land of Sea. Amachi found Isarabi and successfully turned her into a human-fish hybrid. He coerced her into attacking ships so that he can one day turn her back into human. At some point, he experimented on himself and managed to turn himself into a fish-humanoid. Unlike Isaribi, Amachi can transform back into a human.

After the events of the chuunin exams, Yoroi Akado and Misumi Tsurugi came to help Amachi. Orochimaru also returns to the island to talk with Amachi about their experiments. During his meeting with Orochimaru, Amachi had the moment to meet Sasuke Uchiha briefly. Amachi continues to coerce Isaribi into attacking the ships so that he can get his hands on the resources on the ship. Amachi eventually meets the leaf ninja in his hideout when he came face-to-face with them. He attempts to trap them which results in them being expelled from his hideout.

Amachi confronts the leaf ninja on one of the ships after having Isaribi attack them. Naruto manages to talk Isaribi out of her actions leaving her to hesitate. Amachi fights Anko and manages to gain the upperhand over her. Amachi confronts Isaribi and gets angry when she no longer wants to go along with his schemes. Amachi transforms into a stronger fish-humanoid form and attacks Naruto. Naruto soon finds himself trapped by Umibozu, a creation of Amachi that is made out of water. Naruto uses his nine-tails chakra form to burst out of the water creature and defeats Amachi with his brute strength. Amachi is detained by the leaf ninjas. Umibozu attempts to attack Naruto until the latter summons his giant frog, Gamabunta to help defeat Umibozu.

When Amachi is detained by the leaf ninjas, he mocks the ninjas and mocks Isaribi saying that when she was done working for him he was going to dissect her instead of turning her back to human. Anko asks him where Orochimaru was but Amachi refuses to give her an answer. He is taken by the leaf ninjas and arrested.

---

Qin gasped.

Me: I know. Amachi was a fucked up waste of a life.

Nicole: I should've killed him right then. But prison is the best punishment for him.

Me: Yep.

Kira Ford: I can't believe that some people are just that screwed up.

Laney: That's an understatement Kira. People are just that screwed up and twisted by their own evil desires.

Isaribi: I agree with you Laney. I was poisoned with lies until I found out the truth.

Nico: Dr. Amachi has failed this universe.

Me: Yep.

We arrived at his cell. He was in a solid plexiglass cube that was 20 feet by 20 feet and he was tied to a chair. He was declared the most dangerous inmate they have in the Neptune Prison.

Sailor Mars: Hey there, Beamer. Ladybug and the other Miraculous users want to have a chat with you!

Beamer: Who are they?

He saw them.

Me: Hello asshole Beamer. Remember us?

Beamer: How can I forget? You locked me up in here!

Me: Because you brought that on yourself. You turned the whole town into mutant freaks!

Marinette: How dare you tell Nico that it's his fault Qin's parents are dead!?

Sunny Tennyson: Do you know what that did to Nico? That got him depressed for nearly an entire day!

Me: That's right! You made him depressed and he was a hollow shell of himself!

Marinette: You made him sad and depressed!

Chloe: How can you be so cold!?

Alya: J.D. should've killed you back then!

Ricky Beamer: (bored) Are you all done?

Horri Bull: He didn't even listen to a word we said!

Me: He is really arrogant.

POW!

Qin then punched him in the face with devastating force and sent him flying out of his chair and he crashed into the wall!

CRASH!

Lincoln: WHOA!

Me: Holy shit! That was a strong punch.

Ultra Magnus: Qin, teach Beamer a lesson. But leave him alive. Him losing his Creep form is punishment for him enough.

Qin: I plan to.

Qin then went over to him and grabbed his shirt and braced him up to the wall.

Qin: YOU HAVE A LOT OF NERVE HURTING NICO LIKE THAT! I'VE KNOWN HIM SINCE I WAS IN SECOND GRADE AND HE'S BECOME LIKE AN AWESOME BIG BROTHER TO ME! YOU DAMAGED HIS PRIDE BY SAYING THAT HE LET MY PARENTS DIE WHEN IN TRUTH YOU HAVE NO IDEA WHAT THE FUCK YOU'RE TALKING ABOUT! MY PARENTS WERE RUTHLESSLY GUNNED DOWN BY THE EVIL MEMBERS OF THE RUSSIAN MAFIA BECAUSE MY DAD DOUBLE-CROSSED THEM AND THEY WERE RATTED OUT BY PEOPLE LIKE YOU! I LOST MY PARENTS BECAUSE OF THE MOB AND I WAS MADE A HOMELESS ORPHAN AFTER THEY BURNED DOWN MY MANSION AND RUINED MY LIFE! I LOST EVERYTHING AND IF IT WEREN'T FOR J.D. AND HIS FRIENDS I WOULDN'T BE MADE WHO I AM NOW! I WAS ALSO GENE-SLAMMED WITH A KOMODO DRAGON AND TURNED INTO SCALEBREATH AS A RESULT BECAUSE OF AN INSANE FUCKED UP LUNATIC SCIENTIST THAT DESERVED TO DIE! AND I GOT JUSTICE FOR

MY PARENTS AND FOR MYSELF WHEN J.D. KILLED THE MAFIA AND DR. ROLAND PARADIGM AND THEY DESERVED TO BE SENT OFF TO HELL JUST LIKE YOU! IF YOU EVER HURT MY FRIENDS IN ANY WAY SHAPE OR FORM EVER AGAIN I WILL FINISH WHAT J.D. STARTED AND KILL YOU WHERE YOU STAND! THAT IS A PROMISE YOU MOTHERFUCKING ASSWIPE!

We cheered for her!

Me: Yeah! You tell him Qin!

Nico: YEAH!

Connor McKnight: Yeah you tell him.

Ethan James: This guy is a true monster.

Trent Fernandez: You said it Ethan.

Me: By the way Trent, how's your dad doing?

Trent Fernandez: He's doing good thank you J.D. Now that Mesogog is gone he's doing much better now.

Me: That's good. But I have a feeling that Mesagog will come back someday. And if he does he will die.

Tommy Oliver: Yeah we all will destroy him.

I put my hand on Tommy's shoulder.

Me: Tommy, I'm sorry you had to kill your friend Smitty. What happened to him was completely unforgivable because of Mesogog.

Tommy Oliver: I know J.D. But I have a feeling that he survived somehow.

Me: We will find him if we do.

Laney: Yep.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. But he might still be Zeltrax und I have a feeling he is still as dangerous as ever.

Me: I agree Hunter. We will stop him.

I then slide up my sleeve and I had a purple Dino Gem bracelet.

Me: I will help save Smitty if he is still in there.

Kira Ford: You have a Dino Gem too!?

Me: Yep. Just got it.

Laney: Same with me.

Laney had a brown Dino Gem.

Lori: And me.

Lori had an Aqua Blue Dino Gem.

Nico: And me too.

Nico had a Green Dino Gem.

Lincoln: And me as well.

Lincoln had an Orange Dino Gem.

Lola: And lastly me.

Lola had a pink Dino Gem.

Connor McKnight: Wow! You guys have Dino Gems as well.

Lola: Yep.

Lana: That is so cool!

Me: Lola did find the Amphicoelias Dino Zord. Mine is the Spinosaurus Dino Zord.

Lincoln: Mine is the Velociraptor.

Laney: Ankylosaurus.

Nico: Quetzalcoatlus.

Lori: Stegosaurus.

Kira Ford: Wow! That is amazing!

Ethan James: Wow! That is so cool.

Trent Fernandez: It sure is.

Lincoln: Yep. It's gonna be so cool working with you guys also.

Me: Yep.

Carter Grayson: It sure is amazing. But J.D. how did you get the Omega Megazord back? It was destroyed when we were fighting Queen Bansheera.

Me: I remember that Carter. That was terrible. But I found it after what happened and fixed it. Like with what happened after Rita and Zed destroyed the Thunder Zords, I fixed them.

Kelsey Winslow: Wow! That's amazing!

Dana Mitchell: We owe you one J.D.

Chad Lee: Thank you man.

Me: Any time guys.

Nico: A lot of zords were destroyed over the course of the entire Power Rangers franchise.

Me: I remember that. That was awful.

I held up the Animus Wild Zord Crystals.

Me: First I brought back the Thunder Zords and Dinozords and then I brought back the Animus Wild Zords and then the Lightspeed Omega Megazord.

Lily Loud: Wow. That is amazing.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Me: By the way Aqua, Congratulations on you and Ventus becoming a couple.

Aqua: Thanks J.D.

Ventus: It's a great start in us being a couple.

Me: Lets get back to Earth.

We left the prison and left Beamer there to rot.

* * *

In the sewers of Gotham Royal York, disgraced music show hosts Doug and Michelle were cleaning every square inch of the sewers with a toothbrush and it was really humiliating for them. Ever since we exposed their plots to ruin all rock stars and make them into someone they are not, they have developed a very powerful hatred towards all of us. But mostly Luna Loud. They hate her with an incredibly fiery vengeance and want nothing more than to kill her!

Doug: Man this stinks!

Michelle: It literally does. Because of that fucking bitch Luna, we've been blackballed and no one will ever hire us back! I will kill her for this!

Doug: Save seconds for me! That bitch will die for this!

?: Doug and Michelle, I presume?

Doug and Michelle turned to see a figure in black walking towards them. It was ZELTRAX!

Doug: Who the hell are you?

Zeltrax: I am Zeltrax. We seem to have a common enemy in Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Michelle: What did they do to you?

Zeltrax: Their Power Ranger friends have caused me trouble. Perhaps, we can help each other.

Doug and Michelle formed an alliance with the evil Zeltrax.

---

Back at the estate we were watching TV when suddenly the Alarm went off.

Me: UH OH.

We went to the computer and we saw that Doug and Michelle are in a field waiting for us.

Me: Doug and Michelle are out for revenge!

Luna: Those monsters and disgraces of music just will never learn.

Sam S.L.: No they won't Lunes.

Me: They are just that stupid.

Qin: Who are Doug and Michelle?

Me: Oh that's right you don't know about them. They almost ruined Luna's life and sent her down the wrong path.

I went over their history and what happened during the events of Really Loud Music.

---

They first appeared in "Really Loud Music" where they serve as the two main antagonists of the episode where they both convince Luna into changing her from a Rock n' Roll singer into a Bubble Gum Pop star. They've changed her clothes, her name, and tells her to lip sync her song instead of performing the song herself. But at the end of the episode, Luna choose to stand up to them and perform as herself.

Pre-series History

Doug & Michelle are the producers and judges of their singing show called ¨America's Next Hit Maker¨. They even have a recording studio in the show.

---

Qin gasped in shock!

Qin: Luna that's awful! Why would they do that to you?

Luna: They hate Rock and Roll with a vengeance dude. They tried to turn me into someone I'm not.

Me: But we exposed their plots and got them fired. They were demoted to work in the sewers and they were forever blackballed.

Leni: Blackballed? Are they gonna get black balls thrown at them?

Lisa: No Leni. Blackballed means they were forever rejected from all things related to entertainment.

Lincoln: In other words, companies in television and movies won't ever hire them back.

Me: Yep. We forever disgraced them because of their Pop Star Supremacist ways. But this time they will pay the price. Lets go!

We were off to the field they were at.

---

We arrived at the field and we saw Doug and Michelle.

We landed and faced them.

Me: Doug and Michelle. I'm not surprised that you would sink so low.

Luna: You tried to ruin my life you monsters!

Doug: You had everything, Lulu! But you gave it all up!

Michelle: And for what? Your family?!

Luna: Family is more important than fame or fortune! And my name is Luna! Not Lulu!

Sam S.L.: Yeah so shut up!

Zeltrax: They aren't the only ones you have to worry about.

We saw ZELTRAX!

---

Zeltrax (real name: Terrance "Smitty" Smith) is a cyborg who acts as a general for Mesogog and a supporting antagonist from Power Rangers: Dino Thunder. Zeltrax was one of the two archenemies of Tommy Oliver, the other being Goldar.

Zeltrax was once the human, Terrance "Smitty" Smith, was once partners with Tommy Oliver and Anton Mercer.

Smitty and Tommy were both up for a job at Mercer Industries, but Tommy got it instead of him. Later on, as Smitty was doing an experiment in another lab when an accident resulted in an explosion that caused terrible damage to his body.

Taking what remained of him, Mesogog placed it in a cyborg armor, transforming him into Zeltrax, a cybernetic general. He became completely intent on revenge on Tommy Oliver, blaming him for what happened to him and lead Mesogog's forces in their attacks on Reefside.

During an attempt to make himself stronger with the Geno-Randomizer, Zeltrax accidentally created a "son" called Goldenrod, who he sent to destroy Tommy and the Power Rangers, only for him to be destroyed, increasing his strong hate for the rangers. Later when the White Dino Ranger joined Mesogog's team, Zeltrax wnated to get rid of him and used the Copyotter monster to create a copy of his Drago Sword.

He proceeded to trash Mesogog's lab and left the sword at the scene to frame the White Ranger, but this only made things harder for his master, after the White Ranger escaped Mesogog's life draining machine and joined the other Dino Rangers. Zeltrax made up for this by creating a White Ranger Clone completely evil with no trace of Trent in him and the White Terrosaurus monster, but they were defeated and the monster destroyed. Some time after this, the cyborg was almost destroyed by one of his master's plans and he turned on the dinosaur-hybrid, going out on his own.

During this time, Zeltrax was approached by Emperor Gruumm, who traveled to the past so that he wouldn't have to deal with the S.P.D. Power Rangers. The cyborg reluctantly agreed to join forces with him and lead a combined army of Tyrannodrones and Krybots to take on the Power Rangers, only to be defeated again.

Some time after this, Zeltrax became aware of the powerful waters beneath a tree at Reefside High and used some of it to enter a super-powered form. He proved almost unstoppable, but was defeated by the Red Ranger's Triassic Battlizer.

Later, Zeltrax built a zord for himself, Zelzord, and after Mesogog was defeated by the Rangers, he unleashed it upon Reefside. However the rangers used the self-destruct of their Dinozords to destroy the Zelzord and Tommy and Kira Ford destroyed Zeltrax once and for all.

Powers and Abilities

Zeltrax is a powerful warrior, possessing superhuman abilities thanks to his cyborg body and can fire energy blasts and teleport. In combat, he wields a sword or an axe and a shield and in his super from, he became even more powerful.

---

Me: Zeltrax!

Lincoln: Whoa! I remember him!

Laney: He really was ruthless!

Zeltrax: Tommy Oliver. It's been a long time.

Tommy Oliver: I can't believe you are still alive after all this time Smitty.

Zeltrax: Do you think this is going to have a happy ending, Dr. Oliver? No. This is going to end with you bleeding on the ground!

Cheetah: Well, at least you're not faking regret like Sabretooth did.

Me: But you are still a good person Smitty. Tommy would not want you to become like this.

I fired a powerful blast of magic and it hit Zeltrax and it split him into two beings. One was Smitty who was free from the magic of Mesogog and the other was Zeltrax in physical form.

Smitty fell down unconscious.

Lana and Lola grabbed him.

Me: I'll take care of Zeltrax. This monster will pay for his crimes.

?: You also have to deal with me!

Then out came a monster that Ethan James knows all too well. It was TUTENHAWKEN from episode 25 of Dino Thunder!

---

Tutenhawken was an Egyptian-themed vulture/lychee/treasure monster. He was the main antagonist of the episode "Tutenhawken's Curse."

When the Rangers are on a field trip, Ethan James translates some Egyptian hieroglyphics, which unleashes Tutenhawken's curse on him. Awakened, Tutenhawken plans to take control of the city, and tries to make Cassidy Cornell his queen. When Ethan learns that Tutenhawken can only be defeated in the air, he uses his new Hovercraft Cycle to destroy him. After Mesogog makes Tutenhawken grow, the Mezodon Rover finishes the job.

Tutenhawken is one of the few creatures in Dino Thunder that is not in the service of Mesogog despite being enlarged by his Hydro Rejuvenator.

Personality

He is very greedy and domineering, especially by his abuse to his servants. Too amorous.

Powers and Abilities

Superhuman Resistance: He is very resistance to attack of his enemies, except the person had the curse.

Flying: Tutanhawken can fly to attack and escape from his enemies.

Lasers Eye: Tutanhawken can shoot lasers by his eyes.

Lasers Blast: Tutanhawken can blast yellow energy lasers by his hands. This is his strongest attack as a single blast took down all five Rangers and caused large explosions around the Mezodon Rover when he was giant.

Arsenal

Claws-Tutanhawken has razor sharp claws on either hand to cut and slash his enemies.

Whip: His whip can transformed in energy and trapped his enemies

---

Tutenhawken: Its been a long time Blue Dino Thunder Ranger.

Ethan James: Tutenhawken!

Me: I remember this guy! He caused you really bad luck and got you really hurt Ethen.

Ethen James: I know. That still hurts me.

?: And he has me with him!

We saw that he had FLYTRAP from Mystic Force episodes 8 and 9.

---

Flytrap is a flytrap/vampiric leech-like monster and is one of the many creature's of the Underworld. He serves as the primary villain of the first part of the two-part episode "Stranger Within".

This monster disguised himself as "DJ Fly", a new DJ in Briarwood. When Vida went to the club he was DJ-ing, she, and many other teens, fell victim to his hypnotic powers, and were soon turned into Vampires. It didn't take Chip long to notice Vida has all the signs of being a Vampire, though the others did not believe him. When Vida tried to attack Chip, he held her off with his garlic clove. Chip told Vida that he would help her return to normal, no matter what. The two then returned to the night club, only to fall back under DJ Fly's trance. Necrolai showed up and was about to attack Chip, when he reveal that he came prepared and was wearing earplugs. Chip fought off Necrolai as best he could, and then morphed into the Yellow Ranger. After he had done so, Flytrap captures Chip by wrapping him in his vines and was about to fire his energy laser at Vida. The Yellow Ranger managed to break free and jump in front of the attack and take the hit. With Vida still a vampire, and Chip drained of strength, both Necrolai and Flytrap managed to escape.

After Chip regained his strength, he and Vida went to fight Flytrap in the city, in their Ranger forms. The others, after realizing Chip was correct in his Vampire theory, morphed and joined them. Working together, all five Rangers used a combined tornado attack to weaken Flytrap. However, the monster then grew large, forcing the Rangers to morph into the Mystic Titan forms and form the Titan Megazord. The Rangers fought off Flytrap, but they were running out of time. The sun was about to rise, and if the monster was not destroyed, all the teens he turned to Vampires would be turned to ash. Flytrap was then destroyed thanks to the Mystic Spell Seal Attack and everyone was returned to normal. Stranger Within Flytrap is cold, ruthless and sinister monster. Unlike other monsters the Mystic Rangers battled who prefer to use pure power, Flytrap is much more charismatic and calculated and can make people trust him by turning into the DJ. He is cold, manipulative, insidious and villainous. He is also very loyal to Necrolai and loyaly helps her with the plan. But Flytrap is also arrogant. It is shown in the end, as the villain underestimated the Rangers and was finally defeated for good.

Personality

Powers And Abilities

Energy Laser: Flytrap can fire a red colored energy laser from his leech-like hands, it is strong enough to take Chip out of his Mystic Ranger mode in one hit.

Teleportation: Flytrap can teleport to any location.

Size Changing: Flytrap can change his size at will.

Human Disguise: Flytrap can disguise himself as a human named "DJ Fly".

DJ Hypnosis: DJ Fly can hypnotizes his victims with his DJ music.

Arsenal

Vines: Flytrap can launch vines from his leech-like hands to wrap his enemies with.

Vampire Spell Curse: Owing to his vampiric nature, Flytrap can suck blood from people and turn them into vampires, the curse will be broken if he is killed.

---

Flytrap: Its been a long time Mystic Force Rangers.

Vida Rocca: Flytrap!

Me: I remember this clod! He turned you into a Vampire, Vida!

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

Me: Well he's still not a good monster!

I fired an energy blast at Flytrap and blew him apart in a massive explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Me: Go back to Hell with the Master, Flytrap.

We then set our sights on Zeltrax and Tutenhawken.

Me: Now you two are going down! Zeltrax, Tutenhawken, you will pay for everything you've done.

Zeltrax: I don't think so!

The Dino Thunder Power Rangers transformed.

Dino Thunder Power Rangers: DINO THUNDER! POWER UP! HA!

The Dino Thunder Power Rangers were ready.

Jack Landors: Lets do it guys!

S.P.D. Power Rangers: S.P.D. EMERGENCY!

The S.P.D. Power Rangers were ready for action!

Orion: I know one Legendary Ranger Mode that can give us extra power against these creeps!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Sixth Ranger Mode!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Sixth Rangers. Troy Burrows was the Titanium Lightspeed Rescue Power Ranger, Noah Carver was the Wild Force Wolf Ranger, Gia Moran was the Green Samurai Ranger, Jake Holling was the Shadow SPD Ranger, Emma Goodall was the Red Mystic Force Wolf Ranger and Orion was the Mercury Ranger from Operation Overdrive.

Zeltrax and Tutenhawken then grew to huge size!

Me: Time for these freaks to die! Kibal! LETS HOWL!

I turned into Wolf Moon.

The Dino Thunder Power Rangers and Lincoln called the Thundersaurus and Delta Squad Megazords.

I grew to giant size and I was ready to face Zeltrax.

Me: You will pay for your crimes Zeltrax.

Zeltrax: We'll see.

I had my scythe ready.

Me: You are going to die now.

(APOCALYPSE TOMORROW THEME PLAYS)

Me and Zeltrax then engaged in a powerful fight. I punched him in the face and slashed him in the chest and fired a powerful blast of wolf fire at him and burned him and Zeltrax slashed at me and I blocked it with my scythe and kicked it away and I slashed him leg and kicked him in the face and he flipped and kicked at me and I blocked his kick with my scythe and pushed him away and slashed his leg and it exploded.

Me: Now you go back to hell Zeltrax!

I had my scythe blade ignite and I slashed Zeltrax in half right down the middle and cleaved him in half and killed him and he exploded in a massive explosion of fire.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: You are history Zeltrax.

Zeltrax's evil spirit was sent into the River of Fire!

The Delta Squad Megazord was fighting Tutenhawken and so so was the Thundersaurus Megazord. It was a tough fight but they did it. The Thundersaurus Megazord used its powerful Tyranno Drill to skewer Tutenhawken and the Delta Squad Megazord blasted him all over the place.

We beat them.

Then we heard stomping and we saw on the horizon, a Black 9-Tails! And on its head was the parallel universe version of Naruto that Nicole, Naruto, Sakura and Fu met during the Shinobi of The Cosmic Storm saga: MENMA UZUMAKI! He looked so much like Naruto except that he had Black Hair and he was full of relentless burning hatred.

Menma Uzumaki is the main antagonist in the animated movie Naruto Shippuden Movie 6: Road to Ninja who happens to be a version of Naruto Uzumaki from an alternate universe which Naruto and Sakura ended up in as the result of being subjected to Obito Uchiha's Limited Infinite Tsukuyomi. Unlike Naruto, Menma fully embraced his world's version of Kurama and became evil. Obito took Menma's body as his own to interact with the world he created while using the youth to battle Naruto.

Menma, who is wearing his kitsune mask is first seen attacking a village, carrying a defeated shinobi with him. Tobi arrives and makes a deal with him by giving him the genjutsu world's jinchuriki and they agreed to work together. At some point, he manage to defeat genjutsu world's counterpart of Yugito Nii and lost the Red Moon Scroll from Jiraiya whom he manages to kill later.

Later, he attack the Hokage's office and forces Tsunade to give the scroll back to him. He overpowers Minato, Kushina and Tsunade. Naruto and Sakura fought him but overpowers them too and then kidnaps Sakura in exchange for the scroll. He uses his Great Spiraling Ring, destroying a large part of Konoha and leaves. After Naruto confronts Tobi, Menma attacks him and asked for the Red Moon Scroll. He summons his Nine Masked Beasts and tries to kill Naruto but is saved by the genjutsu world's counterpart of Akatsuki, who manages to fight his Nine Masked Beasts. He starts to fight Naruto himself and clashes with his Spiralling Ring with the latter's Rasenshuriken. Upon doing so destroys his mask and is then revealed himself to be Naruto's genjutsu counterpart. He called forth his Nine Masked Beast and summons the world's counterpart of Kurama, the Black Nine Tails. He then overpowers Naruto. Naruto in turn, makes a truce with Kurama and fights alongside with him. As the fight comes to an end, Naruto and Menma exchange their final blows and Naruto knocks out Menma out. Tobi then possess Menma and personally extract Kurama out of Naruto, causing Naruto to look into his Sharingan. As Kurama is beginning to get extracted, Sakura steps in & stops the extraction. Naruto gets up defeats a Tobi-possesed Menma, similar to how his father defeated him. Tobi leaves Menma's body and proceeds to fight Naruto and Sakura before retreating into the real world. Minato and Kushina then quickly arrived and checks upon Menma as Naruto and Sakura transports back into the real world.

Powers and Abilities

Menma has all the abilities Naruto possesses, but with better control over his Kurama to create living constructs from the Nine Tails's chakra. With Obito using his body, Menma gained the Sharingan and able to use it to his benefit (though implied that he used them without him realizing it as Tobi was controlled his body). However, the way Menma developed his powers appeared not in the same way with Naruto's, given that Menma's Spiralling Ring was alternate version of Naruto's Ranseshuriken.

Nine Masked Beasts

The Nine Masked Beasts are entities created by Menma throught the used of Black Nine Tail's chakra. Five of these beast are described as divine beast while the other four are described as divine priests. They are very similar to the Six Paths of Pain. Menma summons them by forming a tiger seal and chanting the kuji-kun, which conjures a massive mandala featuring each kanji of the kuji-in encircled by nine rings, arrayed in the same cross pattern he wears in his cloak. Each of the masked beast emerges from a specific ring. The rings are somewhat similar to the ones Akatsuki wore. One defeated, they reverted to their true forms, which are nine masked fox kits that each possess a single tail. They can also convert back into chakra that will arc through the air from their present location back to Menma. Once they collided with Menma, they reform Black Nine Tails.

Seiryuu (Azure Dragon), a dragon that resembles a seahorse.

Byakko (White Tiger), a lean and slender white tiger.

Suzaku (Vermillion Bird), a bird with elegant and dramatic plumage.

Genbu (Black Tortoise), a tortoise with a shell with overlapping plates.

Kinja (Golden Snake), a serpent with massive golden scales. It can bind on its opponents wrapping its body around them.

Tennyo (Celestial Maiden), an angelic priestess with overlapping robes. It uses transluscent ribbons to whip enemies. Like Kinja, it can also bind its opponents.

Shinigami (Grim Reaper), a skeletal priest that bears a striking resemblance to the Grim Reaper. A swing of its scythe unleashes sickle-like energy waves which drain targets of their chakra once they have passed through them. The waves can be bypass the barriers set up by Hakuto Sennin and Nanto Sennin.

Hakuto Sennin (Northern Sage), a priest with a fox staff. In unison with the Nanto Sennin, it can trap opponents in purple cylindrical barriers.

Nanto Sennin (Southern Sage), the matching counterpart of Hakuto Sennin. In unison with Hakuto Sennin, it can trap opponents in purple cylindrical barriers.

Spiralling Ring

A dark technique with is very similar to Naruto's Rasengan, except being darker. It creates a dark purple Rasengan-like orb of chakra that orbit the main sphere. These rings then align into one disk-like shape around the orb, causing the rings to look like planetary rings. It matches Naruto's Rasenshukiren in Sage Mode in power. A much more powerful version of it, Great Spiralling Ring is also used which can cause a massive destruction in the impact.

---

Me: Whoa! It's Menma Uzumaki!

Nicole: But how!? He's still in that parallel universe!

Me: I don't know. But we'll find out soon.

I walked up to him.

Menma saw me.

Menma: You are J.D. Knudson! The father of that fucking bitch Nicole!

Me: That's right! What of it!?

Menma: Your daughter nearly killed me in my universe and I was defeated by her! She overwhelmed me!

Me: You had that coming to yourself! You wanted to kill my brother Naruto! This time I will finish what Nicole started!

Menma: (Laughs malevolently) Unbelievable! To think that you and Naruto are brothers. That must be why I can't stand you!

Me: I HATE YOUR GUTS TOO!

Menma: Your very existence makes every hair on my body stand up!

Me: And your very existence makes my blood boil!

Menma: But at least the solution's easy! I'll just have to erase you!

Me: Not if I kill you first you fuckwipe!

I punched the black 9-Tails in the face and sent him rolling and he got up and went at me and I went at him and we collided and it released a massive fiery explosion of incredible power.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM

I kicked the black 9-Tails and sent him flying! He then charged up a powerful tailed beast bomb and I formed a force field around the city and he fired at me and it hit the ground by me and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

He fired many more Tailed Beast Bombs and they hit by me as I was dodging them and they exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRRAAAAAABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

I fired energy blasts at the black 9-Tails and they hit him all over.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM
KRRAAABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

The whole area was turning into a warzone and it was blowing much of the area apart and turning it into a massive inferno of epic proportions.

We then jumped into the air.

Menma: We will triumph! YOU WON'T SURVIVE!

Me: Go fuck yourself! But his power is unreal!

We charged at each other and I went back to normal size!

Menma: JUST GIVE UP! YOU CAN'T DEFEAT US!

Me: I'VE ALREADY WON YOU MOTHERFUCKER!

Menma jumped up and drew his fist back.

Menma: YOU'RE GONNA DIE RIGHT NOW!

He punched at me and I dodged it.

Me: YOU'RE THE ONE WHO'S GONNA DIE! GO TO HELL AND STAY THERE YOU MOTHERFUCKING SON OF A FUCKING BITCH!

I punched him in the face with devastating force and he was knocked out and I fired an energy blast and obliterated him into nothing! Menma was dead!

Me: Menma Uzumaki you have failed this world and your world.

Nicole then sealed him and the Black 9-tails into the Book of Vile Darkness.

Nicole: I should've killed you in that time. But letting you live was a terrible mistake.

Me: I know.

I landed and we regrouped.

Then out came Dark Spicer.

Me: Dark Spicer. Back for another round I see.

Dark Spicer: (to Sam Sharp Loud) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Sam S.L.: We'll see about that!

Dark Spicer: I see you killed Zeltrax, Flytrap, Tutenhawken and Menma.

Nicole: So you brought Menma Uzumaki back!

Dark Spicer: That's right and I have new aliens to show you.

Dark Spicer then turned into a new version of Upgrade! He was a purple Galvanic Mechamorph with powerful spikes.

Trojanware: Say hello to Trojanware!

Shanan: He's a mutated Galvanic Mechamorph and named after the viral software that hides in programming to steal your personal information.

Elena Validus: You keep coming up with evil names!

Elena Validus formed a blaster and shot a laser at Trojanware. But he creates a hole in his body, making the attack pass right through him.

Trojanware: Nice try! (merges with a car and drives right at Elena Validus)

Bella activated Ultimate Bella and activated Ultimate Humungousaur and she grew to 20 feet tall and she smashed the car.

Me: Nice job Bella!

Bella: Thanks J.D.

Dark Spicer then turned into a new version of Ghostfreak. He looked like a black version of Ghostfreak but with his skull head exposed.

BooDunce: Meet BooDunce!

Shanan: He's a mutated Ectonurite!

Venom tried to punch him but he turned intangible and the punch went right through him.

BooDunce: Oh, so close! (throws his own punch at Venom)

Venom dodged it and grabbed him and threw him far.

BooDunce: Let's see how you fare against one of your own!

BooDunce went right into Kairi and she screamed as she held her head in pain.

Sora: Kairi! Are you ok?

Suddenly, Kairi looked at him as her eyes changed color.

They were red!

BooDunce: (through Kairi) Sorry. But Kairi's not in right now! (swings Kairi's Keyblade at Sora)

They clashed.

Danny Phantom: Try this on!

Danny went intangible and pushed him out of Kairi.

Danny fired a powerful blast of his Ecto Ray and it hit BooDunce and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

BooDunce was defeated.

BooDunce: You must think you're so clever, don't you?

Luna: Actually, now that you mention it…

BooDunce: Well, guess what, losers? Before this battle, Vypra managed to seperate Zs'skayr from my Ecoturnite form. So now, he works for us. (to Ben) Have fun trying to find out how to beat him this time! (flies off)

Me: Oh shit! Now we have another one of Ben's most dangerous enemies working for a dangerous monster like Vypra.

Qin: Who or what is Zs'Skayr?

Gwen Tennyson: Zs'Skayr is an Ectonurite. He used to be Ghostfreak until he went rogue and tried to take over the world.

Gwen went over Zs'Skayr's history.

---

Zs'Skayr (pronounced Zuh-Scare), also known as Ghostfreak, is the Ectonurite High Ecto-Lord of Anur Phaetos and Anur Transyl, and a major antagonist in the Ben 10 franchise. He serves as the main antagonist of the season 2 episode, Ghostfreaked Out and all of season 3. He also served as the main antagonist of season 5 of Ben 10: Omniverse.

He was originally stuck in the form of Ghostfreak, but after time managed to gain control over it and escape the Omnitrix, becoming one of Ben Tennyson's most cruel and dangerous enemies.

Past

Originally, Zs'Skayr was High Ecto-Lord of the Ectonurites of Anur Phaetos and learned of the Omnitrix from the data of a probe belonging to Vilgax that crashed on his planet. Soon afterwards, Zs'Skayr met Myaxx as she was seeking DNA samples and helped her to get some from the nearby planet, Flors Verdance. But unbeknownst to her, the Ectonurite took over the Flourana being sampled, thus she took an Ectonurite sample as well. Since Ectonurite's personality and DNA were tied together, Zs'Skayr's personality then formed in the Codon Stream even after the real one died. A clone of the Ectonurite was then born inside Ghostfreak.

Ghostfreaked Out

After Ben Tennyson gained the Omnitrix, Zs'Skayr's personality became present whenever he turned into Ghostfreak. After some time, Zs'Skayr finally freed himself of the Omnitrix and confronted Ben, tearing away his outer layer of skin to reveal his intimidating, true form.

Wanting to become whole again, Zs'Skayr attempted to possess Ben, but failed to after the sun drove him back. He sought out the Circus Freak Trio and got them to aid him by threatening them when he took over Thumbskull and tossed him around the room. Zs'Skayr went with the trio to confront Ben and tried to possess him, but since Ben had been changed into Four Arms at the time, he couldn't do so.

The Ectonurite took over the Circus Freak Trio to fight Ben, but they were defeated one after another. However Zs'Skayr took over Gwen and used her to fight Four Arms, who eventually regressed back to Ben. The Ectonurite then threatened to make Gwen jump off of the wall they were fighting on if Ben didn't give up. Ben agreed and Zs'Skayr sent the Circus Freak Trio after Gwen and Grandpa Max, before trying to possess the boy.

However Ben was able to transform into Grey Matter just in time and Zs'Skayr continued to pursue him. Eventually Ben changed back to normal and the Ectonurite prepared to again try and possess the boy. However he noticed that it was daytime outside and opened the curtains on the building they were in, destroying Zs'Skayr.

Be Afraid of the Dark

However Zs'Skayr was not finished yet and a Transylian scientist from the Anur System named Dr. Viktor began working to revive him. He stole material from the clock tower where Zs'Skayr had been destroyed and gained the help of a Thep Khufan and a Loboan from the Anur System. As well as bring back Ghostfreak, Vicktor prepared to plunge the Earth into complete darkness for his master to rule. Onboard a NASA Space Shuttle, Vicktor revived his Ectonurite master to face Ben Tennyson again. Then with Corrodium that the Thep Khufan had retrieved, Zs'Skayr and his minions then used a Corrodium beam, blocking out all light from the Sun. With the Earth consumed in eternal darkness, the Ectonurite was fully empowered, but this didn't last long.

Vicktor was tricked into destroying the Corrodium beam and Max opened the space shuttle's roof, exposing him directly to Earth's sun and destroying him again. At the same time, Ben managed to regain Ghostfreak on the Omnitrix, but ended up never using him.

Alien Force

Zs'Skayr was eventually removed from the Codon Steam and imprisoned using sunlight by the Galvans. However Vilgax freed him in exchange for the secrets of the Omnitrix and the knowledge that would let him finally beat Ben. Zs'Skayr told him about Primus, the location of the Codon Stream, but as soon as Vilgax freed him, the Ectonurite betrayed him.

Zs'Skayr took over Vilgaxia, Vilgax's home planet, by possessing the citizens, transforming them into Ectonurite creatures. Vilgax tried to fight them, but was forced to retreat and went to Earth to ask for help from Ben, Gwen, and Kevin. They went to Vilgaxia and infiltrated Vilgax's palace where they found Zs'Skayr, who revealed that Vilgaxia was just the beginning and his minions were already building ships to spread their master's influence to other planets.

The Ectonurite possessed Ben, which was actually part of his plan since it trapped Zs'Skayr back in the Codon Stream. Ben transformed into Ghostfreak, but the Ectonurite quickly took control and began fighting Gwen, Kevin, and Vilgax. Eventually Gwen and Kevin were knocked out and Zs'Skayr managed to knock Vilgax's sword away. He made his minions restrain the conqueror so the Ectonurite could possess him as well. But Vilgax freed himself and used light from his sword to weaken Zs'Skayr, letting Ben regain control and change back, trapping the Ectonurite back in the Omnitrix.

Omniverse

Zs'Skayr makes his return in "Mystery, Incorporeal", being seen crawling out of the portal to Ledgerdomain. According to himself, Ben left him trapped there, and Darkstar opening the portal allowed him to escape. Derrick J. Wyatt states that after Ben destroyed/ dispersed him in their last battle, Zs'Skayr used the magic of Ledgerdomain to reform himself there.

In "Rad Monster Party", he along with Dr. Viktor, Kuphulu and Crüjo attempted to defeat Ben and his team, only to be defeated by NRG. His main objective was to regain his title as High Ecto-Lord.

In "Charmed, I'm Sure", he has drained a large portion of energy from the Alpha Rune. Though he thinks it is completely powerless and is now useless, that is not the case.

In "The Vampire Strikes Back", Zs'Skayr used the power he had drained from the Alpha Rune in order to ressurect Lord Transyl, and create a powerful servant in order to regain his title as High Ecto-Lord. This was against the objections of Dr. Viktor, who remembers how Lord Transyl's race had enslaved his people. Ultimately, Zs'Skayr's plan comes to naught as Viktor betrays him and he is once again burned to ashes, this time by Ben as Atomix. While he is seemingly killed, Ben states that he will return some day, so he leaves a light fusion orb called "Fusion Cuisine" in Zs'Castle Zs'Skayr so Zs'Skayr could not get in.

Protector of the Earth

In the video game Ben 10: Protector of the Earth, Zs'Skayr freed Vilgax from the Null Void, joining forces to have revenge on Ben. He also took over Hex so as to use his magic as a means of summoning his minions from the Anur dimension. Ben managed to stop this and Zs'Skayr left Hex, attacked the boy again in Chicago. However the Ectonurite was defeated again and banished to the Null Void.

Vilgax Attacks

Needing to obtain the last energy core to destroy Vilgax's Null Void Projector, Ben found out that it was in Anur Phaetos. However Anur Phaetos was not technically a planet, rather it was an alternate dimension he, Gwen, and Kevin couldn't access. Verdona managed to bring them to the Anur dimension, but accidentally split them up and Zs'Skayr revealed that he was still alive. He confronted Ben, saying he was most unwise to set foot in his homeworld and sent his minions after his enemy. Ben managed to fight them off and face Zs'Skayr himself, but defeated him using light.

---

Qin gasped in horror!

Qin: That's crazy! I can't believe that Zs'Skayr is that ruthless and dangerous!

Me: No kidding. But he's like a vampire and he can be destroyed by sunlight. Max has all of his Plumber's weapons ready for us to use just in case.

Nico: Good.

Then we heard a roar that was really familiar. We then saw a living walking blob of tar! It was THE TAR MONSTER!

---

The Tar Monster is a recurring villain in the Scooby-Doo franchise. It is a persona adopted by Mr. Stoner to rob treasures from the buried city.

The Scooby-Doo Show

The Tar Monster made his first appearance in the The Scooby-Doo Show episode of the same name. He appeared as the ancient guardian of the lost city of Byzantius in Turkey, especially the treasure of it's hidden inner sanctum. He was revealed to be Dr Stoner, an archeologist who found the treasure and was smuggling it out to keep it for himself.

Scooby Doo Mystery (SNES)

A different version of Tar Monster appeared in Scooby Doo Mystery SNES. He was really Dean Drabwell. It seems that Old Man Grumper's land was worth a fortune, but he wouldn't sell it to Drabwell. So he devised a plan to scare Grumper into selling it to him. His wife was his accomplice in all this, as she dressed up as a zombie to aid in the executing of the plan. With this great master plan, he was going to get the old man to sign his land over to him.

Scooby Doo and the Cyber Chase

The Tar Monster appeared again in Scooby-Doo and the Cyber Chase, where he appeared on the final level, this time it was not a costumed villain, instead, it was a cyber-monster. It chased Shaggy and Cyber-Shaggy, but was defeated when Scooby reached the box of Scooby Snacks, completing the game.

Scooby Doo!: Night of 100 Frights

The Tar Monster appears in every level of the game, he can throw "tar balls" at Scooby but he cannot talk. He was brought back by the Mastermind.

Scooby-Doo 2: Monsters Unleashed

In Scooby-Doo 2: Monsters Unleashed, The Tar Monster was the last costume to come to life as a real monster, he was one of the four monsters that Scooby and Shaggy created when messing around with the machine. The main difference about the tar monster was that he could spread himself and therefore appear much larger. He was next seen in the movie when Coolsville was invaded, the Tar monster Trapped an entire street full of people in tar.

He was one of the main villains in the final few scenes. The gang needed to connect the control panel to destroy all of the monsters that had been created. To stop them, the evil masked figure sent the Tar Monster to smother them, trapping everyone in his tar with the exception of Scooby, who needed to get to the other side of the room. To do so, Scooby used a fire extinguisher to make the tar of the monster go hard, Shaggy still had the control panel, when Scooby froze part of the monster, Shaggy was able to break his arms free. Scooby used the fire extinguisher to half skate and half surf on the Tar Monster to get to the other side; it was finally destroyed when Scooby connected the control panel to the base, the Tar Monster was the last to die as he was almost invincible in comparison to the other monsters. He drowns in his own body and dies after Scooby turned on the machine where to put the control panel. His Huge Tar body dries out and he turns back into a costume with the Pterodactyl Ghost, the Miner 49er, the Skeleton Men, and the Zombie.

In this version, the Tar Monster is somewhat deadlier than its previous incarnation, able to snare almost all of Mystery Inc. at the same time and mold itself into liquid form to choke or capture someone, something that previous incarnations were unable to do.

Scooby-Doo 2: Monsters Unleashed The Videogame

He also appears in the video game based on Monsters Unleashed.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Tar Monster!

Me: I remember this slimy creep! He was really sticky!

Lana: Cool! I love tar!

Qin: What was he known for?

Me: He was really the assistant of a professor at an archaeological dig at an ancient underground city in Turkey, Mr. Stoner. He was going to scare away all of his workers and keep an ancient priceless treasure all for himself.

Nico: Wow! That must've been something.

Me: It was. Stoner got 50 years in prison for his crimes and he then got life in prison without parole.

Qin: Wow! What happened to the treasure?

Me: We found it in a secret room in the ancient underground city and we turned it over to the museums of the world. It was one of the biggest treasure finds in the history of the world.

Qin: That's amazing.

Nico: It sure was.

Nicole: I've read about that! That was really cool!

Me: It was. Not nearly as big as the finding of the National Treasure.

Nico: That's true.

Lana: I got this.

Lana went at the tar monster and she plowed into it with a huge plop!

KRASPLAT!

She was having fun in it and she was being silly.

Me: That is what I call a silly and Sticky situation! (Laughs to rimshot)

We laughed.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one J.D.

Lincoln: (Laughs) That was funny!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one.

Lana then froze the entire Tar Monster in a block of ice!

Me: Nice! I got this.

I fired a blast of energy at the Tar Monster and blew it up into a million frozen pieces. Killing it.

Me: Nice! Now to take care of our two vengeful friends.

Doug: Come and get us!

Michelle: Luna you will pay for ruining our lives!

Luna: Dream on!

James Maxfield: (Offscreen) Let us help you!

James Maxfield and Seia appeared.

Me: Awesome! Thanks James.

James Maxfield: You're welcome J.D. Anything for friends.

Seia: Lets get these monsters!

We went at them and I punched Doug in the face and kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and Luna bashed him in the face with her axe and Sam kicked him and Michelle and fired a blast of fire and burned Michelle and it hurt bad. Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and it hit Michelle's hands and it electrocuted her all over. Lincoln increased the intensity and she was screaming as her hair stood up and her skeleton showed. I had my hand behind my back and it was glowing red hot and it looked like a red hot branding iron and it was in the shape of the Team Loud Phoenix Storm logo and I grabbed Michelle's hand and burned her and she screamed in excruciating pain. Lana formed a sheet of ice under Michelle's feet and she slipped and fell on her back. It hurt like the dickens. Laney formed a path of tar for Doug and he walked towards Luna and his shoes and socks were pulled off and then he stepped on a nail and it went through his foot and he screamed in agony and fell down and he was screaming in pain. Lana then formed a sheet full of icicles under Michelle and she stepped on them and screamed in pain as the icicles shattered and she fell down!

Michelle was raging pissed.

Michelle: I'M GONNA KILL YOU ALL!

Laney formed a plant vine swing that looked like a paint can and she swung it and it smashed into Michelle's face and knocked her down!

James Maxfield: Try this one.

James Maxfield had some bullet slugs and flicked them and they hit Doug in the Crotch and the head and knocked him down. It was funny! Michelle got up and she saw that she was on a jump plank and Lana and Lola jumped on the opposite side and launched her into the air and she crashed onto the top of a car and totaled it.

CRASH!

Seia: OOH! That's gonna leave a mark.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Lola: Try this!

Lola fired a blast of fire at Doug and burned his head and all his hair was burned off. Lincoln snapped his fingers and doused him with lighter fluid and it caused his head to burn in an explosion.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Doug's head was torched and burned.

Linka: Ouch.

Me: Check this out.

I snapped my fingers and as Michelle got up she was hit in the head with a 50 pound bag of cement and it covered her in cement powder.

Coop: Now that was awesome!

Kiva: It sure was.

Jamie: Those pranks were awesome.

Megan: They are what my brother used on the Wet Bandits at home and in New York City.

Me: That's right.

James Maxfield: Those were really good though.

Me: Yep.

Seia: Boy they sure were.

Me: Now for some fighting!

We went at them again and I punched them in the faces and Troy Burrows as the Titanium Ranger slashed Doug all over and Noah Carver blasted them with the Lunar Cue, Gia Moran slashed them with her sword, Jake Holling slashed them with the Shadow Ranger Sword, Emma Goodall blasted them with red wolf fire and Orion blasted them with the Mercury Monster Detector. Lucy Loud fired blasts of dark lightning and electrocuted them all over.

Isaribi: You are not worthy for the world of music! WATER STYLE NINJA ART: WATER DRAGON JUTSU!

Isaribi fired a massive blast of water that turned into a deadly dragon made of pure water and it hit Doug and splashed him and knocked him down with the force of a powerful megatsunami.

Me: Time for some teamwork!

Ben: Right! But check this out!

Ben turned into Jetray!

Ben: JETRAY!

Ben flew into the air and blasted them with lasers.

Jetray: But that's the beginning.

Jetray pressed the Omnitrix Symbol and he turned into a new Ultimate Form! He was ULTIMATE JETRAY! Ultimate Jetray is a large creature with an appearance similar to a humanoid sting ray. Most of his body appears like an over exaggerated version of his default form's, such as his wings, fingers, and tail. His face is much different from his default forms, being wide and having two bulding eyes off either side, and small tendrils above where his mouth is. His underbelly is a light blue, and his back, beck, and head are dark blue, with light blue spots being on his back. He wears the Ultimate symbol on his chest.

Ultimate Jetray: ULTIMATE JETRAY!

Me: Whoa! An Evolved Aerophibian!

Shanan: I never saw a creature like this before! Awesome!

Ultimate Jetray: Watch this!

He flew at incredible speed and he was moving so fast that it looked like it was like a bullet fired from a gun. He was moving really fast and he fired more powerful energy blasts and lasers and they hit Doug and Michelle and exploded all over.

Me: Wow! That was so cool!

Laney: No kidding!

Riley: That is so awesome!

Bella: It sure is.

Me: Time for some teamwork!

Amorpho: You got it J.D.!

Amorpho then turned into a Nanomech but with red eyes.

Ben turned into Nanomech.

Ben: (Tiny Techno Voice) NANOMECH!

They flew at Michelle and they had energy blasts ready to fire.

Amorpho and Nanomech: NANOMECHANICAL LASER BARRAGE!

They fired a bunch of powerful lasers at Michelle and they hit her and burned her all over.

Magnet Man: I haven't had any fun in a while.

Ben then turned into Lodestar.

Ben: (Mechanical Voice) LODESTAR! This is gonna attract your personality.

Magnet Man fired his Magnet Missile and Lodestar fired a powerful blast of magnetic energy.

Magnet Man and Lodestar: MAGNETIC ATTRACTION THUNDERSTRIKE!

The magnetic blast and magnet attracted a bunch of metal boxes and they encased Doug in a bunch of metal crates and then as luck would have it, a freak lightning strike hit the metal crates and they exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Connor McKnight: Time for some Tyranno Power!

Jack Landors: And some awesome Rescue Power!

Connor McKnight had his Thundermax Blaster and Jack Landors had his Delta Enforcer Blaster ready.

Conner Mcknight and Jack Landors: THUNDER ENFORCER BLAST!

They fired their blasts and they hit Michelle all over and exploded.

Sky Tate: Lets do it!

Ethan James: Right!

Ethan James fired a powerful blast of energy from his Tricera Shield and Sky Tate fired a powerful blast of blue energy from his Delta

Enforcer.

Sky Tate and Ethan James: TRICERA DELTA BLAST!

The blasts combined and turned into a Triceratops and it hit Doug and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Kira Ford: Lets do it Z!

Z Delgado: Time for some pain!

Kira Ford fired powerful energy blades from her Ptera Grips and Z Delgado fired powerful blasts of energy from her Delta Enforcer.

Kira Ford and Z Delgado: PTERA DELTA BLAST!

The blasts combined and turned into a powerful Pteradactyl and it hit Michelle and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Lola: Time for some serious firepower!

Sydney Drew: With you all the way Lola!

Lola had her Argentino Hammer Read and she channeled fire into it and Sydney Drew had her Delta Enforcer Blaster ready and she fired it.

Lola and Sydney Drew: ARGENTINO ENFORCER SMASH!

The blasts merged with the hammer and Lola smashed Doug and pulverized him into a pulpy pancake.

Bridge Carson: Time for some awesome action!

Tommy Oliver (Dino Thunder): You got it Bridge!

Bridge Carson fired a powerful blast of psychic energy and Tommy Oliver fired a powerful blast of fire from his Brachio Staff.

Bridge Carson and Black Ranger Tommy Oliver: PSYCHIC BRACHIO MEGABLAST!

The blasts combined and turned into a powerful Brachiosaurus made of pure fire and it hit Michelle and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMM!

Sam the Omega Ranger: Lets show this creep some awesome power!

Trent Fernandez: Lets do it!

Sam the Omega Ranger fired a powerful blast of lightning and Trent Fernandez fired a powerful blade of energy from his Drago Sword.

Sam the Omega Ranger and Trent Fernandez: LIGHTNING DRAGONBLADE STRIKE!

The lightning merged with the energy blade and it cut Doug all over the place.

Me: Lets see what our new Dino Thunder weapons can do.

Nico: Right!

We called our weapons out. I had an awesome Purple Scythe.

Me: Spino Scythe!

Nico called out his weapon.

Nico: Quetzal Fan!

Lori called out her weapon.

Lori: Stego Whip!

Lincoln called out his weapon.

Lincoln: Velociraptor Clawblade!

Laney called out her weapon.

Laney: Ankylo Mace!

Me: Sweet!

Nico: Wicked awesome!

Lori: This is literally so awesome!

Lincoln: Cool!

Laney: Awesome and cool!

Me: Connor, lets use combos to see how strong they are.

Connor McKnight: You got it J.D.!

I fired a powerful blade of energy from my Spino Scythe and Connor McKnight fired a powerful blast of energy from his Tyranno Staff.

Me and Connor McKnight: SPINO TYRANNO THERO SLASH!

The blasts combined and cut Doug really good and boy did it hurt.

Me: WHOA!

Connor McKnight: Awesome job!

Me: Thanks Connor.

Nico: Lets see what mine can do. Ready Ethan?

Ethan James: You bet Nico.

Nico swung his Quetzal Fan and he fired powerful blades of energy and Ethan James fired a powerful blast from his Tricera Shield.

Nico and Ethan James: QUETZAL TRICERA BLADE SHOWER!

The blast of energy merged with the blades and they hit Michelle and exploded all over her.

Nico: WHOA! That was awesome!

Ethan James: It sure was.

Lori: Time to literally put this bitch in her place.

Kira Ford: You said it Lori!

Lori lashed her Stego Whip and Kira Ford fired blades of energy from her Ptera Grips.

Lori and Kira Ford: STEGO PTERA BLADE LASH!

The whip lash and blades of energy cut Doug all over the place.

Lori: Wow! That was literally amazing!

Kira Ford: It sure was. Awesome job Lori!

Lori: Thanks Kira.

Lincoln: Ready Tommy?

Tommy Oliver (Dino Thunder): You know I am Lincoln.

Lincoln fired a powerful blade of lightning and energy and Tommy fired a blast of fire from his Brachio Staff.

Lincoln and Black Ranger Tommy Oliver: VELOCI BRACHIO FIRESTORM SLASH!

The blast of fire merged and cut and burned Michelle all over the place.

Lincoln: WHOA!

Tommy Oliver: Awesome job Lincoln!

Lincoln: Thanks Tommy.

Laney: Lets see what mine can do. Ready Trent?

Trent Fernandez: You bet I am.

Laney swung the mace ball really fast and threw it at Doug and Trent fired a powerful blade of white energy from his Drago Sword.

Laney and Trent Fernandez: ANKYLO DRAGO BLADE SMASH!

The blade of energy merged with the Mace Ball and smashed Doug all over.

Laney: Whoa! That was awesome!

Trent Fernandez: It sure was! Awesome!

Me: Now for Cyber Key combos!

Horri-Bull: You got it boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his concussion blaster 100-fold.

Sunny Tennyson: Make way for Sunny! ANODYNE CYBER KEY POWER!

The Anodyne Cyber Planet Key went into Sunny's Right Arm Device and it enhanced her mana powers 100-fold.

Horri-Bull and Sunny Tennyson: MANA CONCUSSION MEGABLAST!

Horri-Bull fired a powerful concussion blast and Sunny fired a powerful blast of Mana and the blasts hit Michelle and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Sailor Mars: Time for some true fire power! MARS CYBER KEY POWER!

The Mars Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her fire powers 100-fold.

Ultra Magnus: This is a first for me. CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into Ultra Magnus's back and enhanced his Blue Bolt cannons 100-fold.

Sailor Mars and Ultra Magnus: FLAMING LIGHTNING ARROW SHOT!

Sailor Mars fired a powerful fire arrow and Ultra Magnus fired a powerful blast of energy from his cannons and they combined and hit Doug and exploded all over.

Me: Now to finish you two off for good!

Tommy Oliver (Dino Thunder): I'll start us off. BRACHIO BLACK WAVE BLAST!

Tommy Oliver fired a powerful blast of black energy and it hit them both and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM

Lincoln: This is for all the pain you caused to so many people and shattering their dreams! LIGHTNING DRAGON ELECTROCUTION!

Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and it turned into a powerful dragon and electrocuted Doug and Michelle on contact.

Luna: You ruined the careers of many people!

Sam S.L.: And you two are gonna pay for it dearly!

Luna & Sam: RAINBOW LOVE BLAST RAY!

Luna and Sam fired a powerful rainbow energy ray and it hit both Doug and Michelle and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Michelle and Doug were defeated and disgraced even more.

Nico: Michelle and Doug you have failed this world.

Me: They sure have. I have just the punishment that's perfect for their ice cold hearts of hatred.

Doug and Michelle gulped.

I took them to the planet Lhodwi and it was an ice planet that was extremely cold. We banished Doug and Michelle to that planet for all time.

Doug and Michelle were gonna freeze to death there. But they would have to make the best of it. We gave them supplies and more for survival.

Back on Earth, Smitty woke up.

Tommy Oliver: You all right, Smitty?

Smitty: (Groans) Yeah. My head is really spinning. What happened?

Me: It's a long and very ugly story Smitty.

Tommy revealed everything.

Smitty: Whoa. I was dead and I was a monster created by Mesogog?

Me: That's right. You were a ruthless monster named Zeltrax. Pure evil.

Smitty: Whoa.

We got Smitty back to the estate and we fixed much of the city.

Sam S.L.: (To the viewers) No one should ever tell anyone what they should believe or not believe in. There's no true feeling in that. Never trust monsters like Doug and Michelle.

Nico: You got that right Sam.

We got some rest.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another bad Loud House Villain defeated.

This was an original chapter I made that serves as a sequel to Really Loud Music. NicoChan11 and Darkhai gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Let me know what you all think. Next up is where we're going to destroy the ruthless Deadman Wonderland and we're going to destroy that entire prison and kill all the criminals and rescue Shiro and Ganta Igarashi. Get ready for the ultimate prison break as we shut that entire prison down forever!

See you all tomorrow.

Shutting Down a Ruthless Prison Carnival

GET READY FOR A BIG TIME WILD RIDE AS WE BLOW A RUTHLESS NORTH KOREAN STYLE PRISON INTO HELL!

---

In the estate, Kairi was crying hard. She was really upset the way that Dark Spicer used her to try and kill Sora. We couldn't help but feel sorry for her. They were sitting on the couch watching TV as Kairi was crying her eyes out. Sora was comforting her.

Kairi: (Crying hard) Sora, I'm so sorry I tried to kill you!

Sora: Kairi it's not your fault. Dark Spicer made you try to hurt me so it's not your fault.

Me: Yeah Kairi, you aren't to blame for it.

Fu: That's right Kairi. It's not your fault that this happened to you.

Sakura Haruno: If anyone is to blame for it it's Dark Spicer. He made you do all that against your will.

Naruto: That's right. It's not your fault. Believe it.

Me: Yeah. But if we ever see Dark Spicer again, he will pay for using your body like that.

Lincoln: That's right.

Lola: I'll burn his butt for this!

Laney: Yeah!

Lincoln: We all will torch him for this. No one uses our friends like puppets and lives.

Nico: You got that right Lincoln.

Kairi: (Sniffles) Thank you guys. Thank you.

Sakura Haruno: You're welcome Kairi.

Aqua: Yeah.

Fu: Dark Spicer crossed the line big time for this.

Me: He sure as hell did.

We agreed to put Dark Jack Spicer down once and for all when we see him again. No one uses us as a puppet and lives to tell the tale.

---

Later we were over in Orchid Bay and it was a beautiful and bustling town.

Sandman: Here we are at Orchid Bay once again.

Me: Yep. It's the home town of Juniper Lee and her friends.

Nick Russell: I heard that a lot of magical creatures came here.

June: They sure did Nick and it's my job as the Te Xuan Ze to maintain the balance between the magical, physical and spiritual planes. It's a big responsibility and we have to do it.

Ophelia Ramirez: That's right. It's a really tough job and it's gonna be really cool working together as partners.

June: That's right Ophelia.

June's bracelet went off.

Me: Uh oh. Magical disturbance?

June: Yep.

Ophelia: Lets roll!

Ophelia spread her bat wings and then June and Ophelia were off and we followed them.

Ray Ray: You guys weren't kidding when you said Ophelia was gene-slammed!

Skullcruncher: (laughs) Are you really surprised?

Ray Ray: No way! It's awesome!

Qin: It may be a gift, but it was given to us by a mad man.

Ray Ray: WOW!

Monroe: (to Ophelia) (Scottish Accent) Lass, when I heard about you changing form, I thought it was through magic.

Warpath: Nope. It was through science all the way! And no, we're not going into another magic vs science debate.

Me: Yep. Ophelia was gene-slammed through science. One madman's goals to enslaving the world by messing around with the very laws of Mother Nature.

John Bolton: That's right.

Carolyn Hope: Yep.

We saw June and Ophelia fighting two demons that were picking on one of June's magic friends in the forest. It was a brutal fight and it was powerful.

Me: Wow! Look at that!

Varie: Whoa! That is so awesome!

Lincoln: June's job is just as amazing as ours on Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

June and Ophelia kicked the Demon's butts and sent them back to the underworld.

Me: WAY TO GO YOU TWO!

Nico: Those two demons have failed this world.

Vince: Boy you said it Nico.

Carol: Yep.

June and Ophelia came back to us.

June: That was too easy.

Me: It sure was. Awesome job you two.

Ophelia: Thanks J.D. It's really cool being June's partner.

Me: It sure is. You know June, there's no reason why you two shouldn't have to do all this alone. You can at least have some of your friends help out too.

June: I guess you're right.

Ophelia: That's true.

Me: Yeah. Jodie and Roger would make great helpers for you too.

Ophelia: I'm sure.

June: Jodie is still shaken up about what those vikings made her do.

Me: I know. From what I heard she hasn't gone to school ever since that happened. Ino has been trying to help her out.

June: How is she doing?

Me: Ino's therapy sessions are working well. But these things can't be rushed. They take a lot of time and healing.

June: That's understandable.

Ophelia: I'm glad she's getting help from Ino.

Alicia (Dead Space): She's a great psychologist. She helped me and my sister get better after our ordeal.

Suzie (Dead Space): She sure did.

June: I'm glad you two are better.

Alicia: Thanks.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja und I'm glad two.

Me: Same here Hunter.

We continued our tour of Orchid Bay and we saw all kinds of awesome places and more.

---

In Japan, Yolei and Lana were doing some shopping for the store in America. They bought all kinds of good food and more.

Yolei: Thanks for helping me with my store shopping Lana.

Lana: Any time Yolei.

Yolei: Now that we live in America with you guys we figured it would be perfect for us to have fun with Nico and everyone.

Lana: You said it Yolei. I think it's really cool that you do all kinds of great things with Digimon and all that.

Yolei: Yep.

Then they heard trashcans clattering and in came a man and he was a black hair man with a prison uniform on and he had a strange collar around his neck.

Man: (Wheezing) You got to help me! I'm dying!

Lana went over to him.

Lana: What's wrong!?

Man: I've been poisoned. I busted out of Deadman Wonderland and they are going to kill us. You have to stop them.

He took off his collar and gave it to Lana.

Man: You have to find an antidote and save the people there that are wrongfully convicted. Please… Destroy Deadman Wonderland. Save us! Please! (Dies)

Lana: He's gone.

Yolei: What happened to him?

Lana: I don't know. But this collar might have something to do with it.

Yolei: We'll take it back to the estate and run some tests.

Lana: Okay. First lets take him with us for an autopsy.

Yolei: Good idea.

They took the body with them and they went back to the estate.

---

At the estate we were watching TV and playing card games and Yolei and Lana came in with the body.

Lana: We got big trouble guys.

They brought in the body and it was in rough shape.

Lincoln: Geez!

Laney: What happened to him!

Me: He's dead and is in really bad shape.

Lisa: I'll take him to my lab for an autopsy.

Nico: Okay.

Lana: He said we have to destroy a place called Deadman Wonderland.

I gasped when I heard that name!

Me: Deadman Wonderland!?

Lincoln: That ruthless maximum security prison that is also an amusement park!?

Me: That's it.

Nico: Whoa! I've heard about Deadman Wonderland! It's the most ruthless prison ever and it also makes even the most ruthless concentration camps over the decades seem like a joke.

Me: That's right. They say there's no place that is worse than Hell. But Deadman Wonderland is a nightmare that is just like it. Here's what it is.

I pulled it up on the computer.

---

Deadman Wonderland was supposedly built for the revival of Tokyo, pulling a lot of tourists to the prison's special attractions. In reality, its true purpose is the containment of Deadmen, and in particular, to seal the Wretched Egg.

The prison is built on the Mother Goose System, a device created to seal the Wretched Egg's powers. It has six normal wards (labeled A-F) and one special ward (G Ward) for containing Deadmen. The prison has a special system called the "death sentence rule". That is that every prisoner on death row wears a collar that constantly injects poison into their bodies. The only way to avoid being killed by said poison is to eat Candy (an antidote) every three days. However, Candy is very expensive.

History

Deadman Wonderland was built after the Great Tokyo Earthquake with Hagire Rinichirō in control being left in control after taking over Tsunenaga's father's body. The warden was, in fact, sick, and it was the promoter who was pulling the strings. For ten years, Deadman Wonderland sought Deadmen and imprisoned them. The Carnival Corpse was also one of the first events held in the prison.

Hagire's body was defeated by the Wretched Egg which resulted in Tamaki becoming the head warden. In the year 2024, Scar Chain attempted a prison break, though it failed. They later made another successful attempt, but only Karako Koshio and a handful of others escaped. While on the outside, Karako revealed Deadman Wonderland's secrets to the media. Tamaki, needing an excuse for the truth within the prison, depicted the Deadmen as being inhuman animals. Due to this, Tamaki was able to continue his work with the Deadmen. The prison even began broadcast the Carnival Corpses.

Around this time, the Forgeries were introduced. The Chief Guard, Makina discovered Tamaki's plan and attempted a coup d'état. She succeeded with the help of Ganta Igarashi and the other Deadmen. Tamaki commits suicide and the prison was closed for good. Toto Sakigami later surfaces and assumes complete control over Deadman Wonderland. All Deadmen were later retried and the regular prisoners were transferred to another prison. After Makina's explanation, a mission to return to infiltrate Deadman Wonderland was installed though they all perished at the hands of Hagire and the Wretched Egg.

Makina and Karako later establish a plan to return to Deadman Wonderland alongside other Deadmen with the purpose of defeating Hagire and stopping the Wretched Egg. The mission succeeds and Deadman Wonderland was destroyed in a battle between Ganta and Shiro.

---

Everyone gasped in sheer horror!

Lola: That place is a nightmare on Earth!

Lily Loud: I can't believe such a place like that exists! And these collars poison the inmates to death and only the candy they have can save their lives!? That is awful!

Varie: That is completely barbaric. They kill all kinds of criminals all for their everyones entertainment and that is one of the worst things that mankind can do.

Me: It is.

Lana: And these collars have poison in them that can kill prisoners? That is sick!

Me: I know.

I looked at the collar and I got the poison out and smelled it.

Me: It's a slow-acting Neurotoxin. Kills the victim in 3 days.

Lisa came down with the autopsy results.

Lisa: That is correct J.D. It appears our John Doe died as a result of a lethal dose of a slow acting neurotoxin that killed him in hours.

Me: He must've been given it all at once because of these collars from Deadman Wonderland. But also that place is a hellhole on steroids. We need to go there and shut it down!

Nico: But how? That place is locked up tighter than Fort Knox.

Me: Not just that, but there are a bunch of people there that are suffering the worst of it. Some of them are wrongfully convicted criminals.

I pulled up their information.

Ganta Igurashi.

Birth name Maruta, Ganta was originally conceived by his mother Sorae Igarashi in order for her to continue her research with human testing. Shortly after his birth, Ganta's presence awakens the maternal instincts within his mother. Hagire Rinichirō meets with Sorae in the maternity ward and rejoices at the thought of continuing his experiments and goes off to prepare. Soon afterward, Sorae had begun to regret her choice of using her son as a subject for her experiments. After a conversation with her lab assistant and presumably Ganta's father who offers to take the newborn and leave, Sorae procures a little girl to be used as a test subject in his place, Shiro.

While living at the research facility, Ganta met Shiro. He told her he liked her hair and became her friend and playmate. At that time, Ganta didn't know the cruel torture his mother and Hagire put her through so he did not understand when she would lash out at him in pain and one time broke his Aceman doll, causing him to reject her. However, she saved him from a rabid dog and their friendship became stronger. Another time, Shiro accidentally hurt him with her strength when they were playing, but he impressed her when he stood back up. Ganta would celebrate his birthday with Shiro, due to her not knowing when she was born and both would receive homemade presents from his mother.

One day, while Ganta was looking for Shiro to play, he accidentally stumbled upon a room where Shiro was subjected to experimentation. At that time, Shiro already created her second personality, the Wretched Egg. Ganta, witnessing the slaughter of other scientists, ran away shocked and scared, dropping his Aceman doll which triggered Shiro to prevent Wretched Egg from killing Ganta. While the Wretched Egg was loose, Sorae sent Ganta to his father for his own protection and begged him to forget what happened with Shiro, to which Ganta replied he doesn't know who Shiro is, due to his shock causing him to forget everything about her.

Once at his father's home, he began a new life and when he was old enough, he enrolled in Nagano Middle School. There he met a girl named Mimi and a boy named Yamakatsu and became best friends with them. In 2023, A year before the start of the series, Ganta and his classmates went to a waterpark for a school trip.

Shiro

In the past, Sorae Igarashi, not wanting to use her own son in her and Hagire Rinichirō's experiments, went on to adopt a female albino child to use as a substitute.

Before the birth of the Wretched Egg, Ganta and Shiro played quite often, sharing a common admiration of Aceman. They first met when Ganta saw her sitting by a tree and commented on her white hair. Shiro became embarrassed about her hair, but Ganta told her he liked it, making her feel better and they started playing, eventually becoming good friends.

She and Ganta normally got along quite well, but once, when Shiro was in grave pain because of the constant injections, they once bickered so violently that Shiro broke his Aceman action figure and Ganta took his toys and ran away from her in tears. Soon after, he came face-to-face with a rabid, vile dog, one of the other test subjects that escaped from the lab. Ganta dropped to his knees in fear and called for Aceman to save him. Suddenly, Shiro jumped down from a window and landed on the dog, knocking it out and saving Ganta. After this, Shiro vowed to become Ganta's "Aceman" whenever he was in trouble.

Because of Hagire and Sorae's experiments, her body would often deteriorate, and needed to be sewn back together. Her arm fell off once while she and Ganta were playing hide-and-seek. She has also been seen with her leg being sewn back on. She was used in excruciatingly painful nanomachine experiments, causing her to create a separate personality known as the Wretched Egg to cope with the pain.

The Wretched Egg was the cause of the Great Tokyo Earthquake. It was revealed in Chapter 55 that this wasn't an accident; it was actually Wretched Egg attempting to use her powers to such a degree that she could destroy her body faster than it could regenerate, as an attempt to commit suicide. Sorae created the Mother Goose System afterward to prevent her from trying it again, but gave her a small measure of hope by showing her the red crystal, and stating that she could still 'get her wish.' The moment she found out Ganta's class would be taking a field trip to Deadman Wonderland and saw his name on the list, she stole the red crystal, and broke out of the prison entirely to infect him with it.

Hagire built a room for Shiro in Deadman Wonderland, supplying her with all the candy she could ever eat.

Senji Kiyomasa

Kiyomasa Senji (千地 清正, Senji Kiyomasa), a.k.a. Crow, is a former police officer and one of the major supporting characters in the series. He is a Deadman previously imprisoned in Deadman Wonderland. He has trained Ganta and helped him on multiple occasions.

Eight years before the start of the series, in 2016, an 18-year-old Senji worked as a police officer. After the Great Tokyo Earthquake, he and his colleagues Akira Shindō, Tōshirō Kan, Momoi, and his senpai Domon were assigned to Tokyo in order to restore the peace. At that time, Senji already had his Branch of Sin and used it to defeat thugs.

A special anime exclusive episode expands Senji's background story from his days in the police. During one of the chases, Senji corners a thug and starts assaulting him with his Crow Claw. Seeing the thug as nothing more than trash, Senji intends to kill him but is stopped by Domon. Back in the Police Station, Senji gets into an argument with his colleagues that someone told the man he was being followed by the police. The blame is pinned on Senji due to his past of working with street thugs, so he starts a brawl to protect his honor. After taking a walk through a farmers market to cool off, he spots Izuru being chased by the Goreless Peace gang members for stealing their valuables. Senji intervenes and beats up the gang members who swore revenge on him. He then takes Izuru back to Hinata in the orphanage not knowing that Goreless Peace was following him. As Senji returns home, he is intercepted by Keigo Ugachi who tries to get Senji to join his gang, but he refuses. Keigo is infuriated by this and commences an attack on the orphanage, killing Izuru and Hinata as well as the other orphans. Enraged, Senji alongside his comrades storm in Keigo's manor. Domon and his crew start gunning down gang members, while Senji chases Keigo and is eventually caught in his Branch of Sin: Wire Lyre. Senji attempted to get free, only to be caught once again. Domon then arrives to assist Senji, but Keigo traps him as well, wounding him critically in the process. Angered by this, Senji manages to extend his Crow Claw and stabs Keigo through the chest. Keigo tells Senji to finish him off, which Senji is glad to comply with, however, Domon interrupts, telling Senji that he cannot kill Keigo as then he'd be no better than him. Senji raises his Crow Claw to bring down on Keigo, but stops at the last second as he notices that Keigo fearfully flinched. Senji passes out, Keigo is arrested and placed in Deadman Wonderland.

Because of the efficiency Senji and his team operated, a lot of criminals wanted to kill them. They teamed up with Ikazuchi Akatsuki as their leader and challenged Senji. Senji's team protected him and went to the challenge alone, leaving Senji behind. When Senji finally arrived, the entire team was murdered, with the exception of Domon. He called Senji over and gave him a lecture about depending on others. "If depending on others is a specialty of kids, then acting all cool is a specialty of adults." He died soon after that.

Sometime after that, Senji was taken to Deadman Wonderland and addressed a tattooist to tattoo the first letters of his team-mates' names above his right eye (DSMK). Four years before the start of the series, the Necro Macro was used to capture a rampaging Crow within the prison. It succeeded in capturing him, but killed twenty-four other prisoners in the process. Senji became the subject of legend within the general prison population afterward.

Takami Minatsuki

Minatsuki was previously just an ordinary girl. One day, an earthquake happened while she was in a greenhouse. Her mother came, but much to her surprise and horror, she grabbed one of the plants and ran off, leaving Minatsuki behind. The entrance collapsed on her though, killing her. This eventually caused Minatsuki to become a warped liar (and gained her Branch of Sin powers) with a sadistic personality.

She lived with her father and brother from then onwards. Because of her twisted personality, she manipulated Yō to think their father was physically abusing her, often resulting in her brother beating up his father in retaliation.

One day, she faked a sexual assault and Yō attacked his father once again. For reasons unknown, however, Minatsuki used her powers and killed her father. Not knowing of Minatsuki's abilities, Yō held himself responsible, nevertheless, she was sent to Deadman Wonderland not long afterward, and because of her powers, she was confined in G Ward.

Kengamine Nagi

Nagi Kengamine (剣ヶ峰 凪, Kengamine Nagi) a.k.a Owl was a Deadman and the leader of Deadman Wonderland's former rebel group Scar Chain.

Before he formed Scar Chain, he was in a relationship with a female Deadman while in G Ward. They were about to become parents before being put into a Carnival Corpse against each other. Nagi intentionally lost the battle, as he did not want to injure his wife, who was pregnant at the time. His defeat gave way to his punishment game, in which he lost his vocal cords. Because of Nagi's dishonesty, having lost to his wife on purpose, Tamaki performed experiments on his wife in order to punish Nagi. As a memory of his love, Nagi wears her scarf around his waist. Two years later, Nagi forms Scar Chain in order to help fulfill his dream of holding his daughter, whom he believes to be alive in the outside world. He later allows Karako Koshio to be his second-in-command.

Koshio Karako

Karako Koshio (興緒 唐子, Koshio Karako) a.k.a Game Fowl is a Deadman and the former second-in-command leader of Scar Chain. She is in love with Nagi Kengamine and her purpose for joining Scar Chain was to fight for his sake. Together with Nagi, she set up the mass prisoner break. She and other Scar Chain members eventually got out. Karako exposed the secrets of Deadman Wonderland to the world, leading to the closure of the prison. After the release, she gathered the Deadmen for a new mission to infiltrate Deadman Wonderland.

Before her time in Deadman Wonderland, she worked as a nurse.

Once in Deadman Wonderland, she was feared as the merciless Game Fowl, who won some Carnival Corpses. It was at that time that Nagi approached her and told her that she was his friend, talking about the pretty sound of her bell. Together with Nagi, she later formed Scar Chain. In the anime, Scar Chain was already founded and Nagi appointed her as his second-in-command.

He once showed her his locket with, he says, a picture of his baby inside. However, the locket was empty, but Karako pretended she didn't see that it was empty and said to him that his daughter looks a lot like him.

At an unspecific point in time, Karako developed feelings towards Nagi.

Miya

Miya (ミヤ, Miya) was a Deadman and a former member of Scar Chain. She died during the Deadman mass prison break.

At some point in the past, Miya was imprisoned in Deadman Wonderland. Later, she joins a resistance faction within the prison known as Scar Chain.

Makina Kiwako

Kiwako Flügel Makina (蒔名フリューゲル季和子, Makina Furyūgeru Kiwako) is the former chief guard at Deadman Wonderland. She had the entire prison under her command, with the exception of G Ward. After she discovered Tamaki's secrets about the Wretched Egg, the Deadmen and the Forgeries, she turned against him and shut the prison down. Later, she set out on a mission to defeat Hagire Rinichirō and seal the Wretched Egg.

Sometime before the storyline, Makina joined the Special Forces, where she learned her swordsmanship skills. There, she also befriended Ekō Kaidō, Kashima Toraichi and Bonbu. At some point, she became a warden at Deadman Wonderland. Four years before the start of the series, Makina ordered that the Necro Macro be used to hunt down and capture a rampaging Kiyomasa Senji within the prison.

---

Laney: Whoa!

Qin: That is so disgusting! These people were framed for crimes they didn't commit!

Me: It sure is.

Nico: We got to get them out of there and blow up that whole prison.

Me: And we will. Here are our targets.

I pulled up the information of our targets.

---

Rinichiro Hagire

Rinichiro Hagire (also known by his current body of Toto Sakigami) is the main antagonist of the anime and manga series Deadman Wonderland. He transfers to bodies he chose as vessels like the old man and Toto Sakigami with his albino twin bodyguards. His current body is Toto Sakigami, a young man who is considered the strongest Deadman. Hagire also gained Toto's abilities including Love Labyrith allowing him to copy other Deadman abilities by absorbing his opponent's blood.

Hagire was a scientist who worked with Sorae Igarashi. Hagire and Sorae did research on how to highten someones immune system. Hagire had Sorae choose a "Ginea Pig" for them to experiment on. Sorae ended up choosing Shiro. Hagire and Sorae did a number of inhuman and downright sadistic experiments on Shiro that could be considered torture. Shiro suffered so much that she developed an evil personality in order to cope with the pain. Shiro ghen attempted suicide by releasing a giant ball of energy which caused the Great Tokyo earthquake. Hagire and Sorae managed to survive the earthquake. Sorae then built a machine calked The Mother Goose System which kept Shiro from starting another earthquake. Hagire was angered by this and demanded that she tell him the password to shut down the mother goose system. Sorae denied Hagires request before shooting her self in the head. Hagire visited a hospital which had two people, Chan and En, in it. Chan and Ens branch of sin could transfer a body over to another. Hagire saw this as a golden opportunity and acted as if he loved them in order to get them to trust and work for him. Hagire had Chan and En use their branch of sin in order to transfer his body into the body of an old man. This turns out successful in the end. Now in the body of the old man, Hagire creates the prison Deadman Wonderland. Hagire also had the deadman fight each other in order to see who the strongest deadman is, so that he can transfer his body into theirs next. He also raises Shiro in this form.

Deadman Arc

Hagire is seen with Tsunenaga Tamaki as they discuss the next deadman fight (Ganta vs Humming Bird). Hagire then decides that he will use Toto Sakigamis body. He once again has Chan and En preforme their branch of sin in order to transfer Hagires body into Totos. Before going into Totos body, Hagire fights with Shiro and ultimatly ends up dieing, however, his body is transfered into Totos just as he dies, bringing him back to life in the body of Toto while his old body has died.

Scar Cain Arc

When Shiro bumps into Hagire while looking for Ganta, Hagire tells her that the data chips are explosives. Shiro saves Ganta from the chips but Ganga ends up punching her in the face. Shiro runs off and Hagire is able to find her. Hagire tries to manipulate Shiro into hating Ganta, but instead, she runs off saying that she will punch Ganta. Hagire tries looking for Shiro and bumps into Ganta and Senji. He steals Senjis ability by licking Senjis blood and tries to do the same to Ganta but is stopped by Senji. He then takes his leave. While eating deadman body parts, he is interrupted by Hibana Daida. She attacks him but is easily killed in the end. Hagire is then seen eating Deadman body parts and gainig their ability until Chan and En show him a picture of Ganta's family, which interests Hagire.

Forgeries Arc

Hagire is seen telling Ganta that the deadman are forgeries and that they were created for "Humanitys Sake." Hes also the one that made the notes on how to create a forgery which is were Tamaki got the idea to make an army of them.

Revolt Arc

Hagire appears outright killing Azami and telling Wretched Egg to come with him to the battlefield. They arrive their and Hagire confronts Tamaki, telling him that he was just a pawn in his game all along. Right before Hagire could kill Tamaki, he shoots himself in the head (which disappoints Hagire). After Ganta and Wretched Eggs battle, Hagire takes Wretched Egg and puts her in a bed to sleep while questioning why she didn't kill Ganta.

Return To Deadman Wonderland Arc

When a team of police search Deadman Wonderland, Hagire jumps out and orders Wretched Egg to kill them all (which she does). Hagire then appears trying to hatch The Mother Goose Systems code. After many failed attempts, he goes insane and states that if Sorae Igarashi was still alive, he would torture her until she tells him the password. Hagire visits Wretched Egg and is enraged to find out that "Ganta Gun" and "Ganbare Gun" are different Branches Of Sin used by Ganta. Hagire then decides to take over Gantas body in order to get his powers and unlock the Mother Goose System. Hagire then begins to search for Ganta and ends up bumping into Mitsuzaki Yosuga. Yosuga mistakes Hagire for Toto and Hagire attacks her for "getting in his way". Hagire then breaks a hole in the ground and spots Ganta and Senji. He tells Ganta to come with him but he denies. He knocks Ganta to the ground and begins fighting with Senji. He tackles Senji and before he can take Senjis other eye out, Ganta decides to give himself up and go with Hagire. Hagire sets Ganta to the machine which is used for Hagire to transfer his memories into others. When Ganta sees all the memories of what Hagire did to Shiro as a child, he begins freaking out. Before Hagire can successfully transfer his memories to Ganta, Chan and Ens branches of sin are destroyed by Senji, causing the machine to stop working. Now infuriated, Hagire attacks Senji and stars to overpower him. However, Senji comes back and nearly kills Hagire, but Chan and En took the blow themselves in order to protect Hagire. As Chan and En die, they tell Hagire that they love him, to whuch he responded saying that he never loved them. Hagire continues his fight with Senji and gets the upper hand. He then leaves Senji to die in order to go after Ganta instead. Just before he can get Ganta, Senji gets up and takes Ganta with him. Hagire chases after them and shortly confronts the duo. Senji slices a billboard and which Hagire assumed was to get him distracted. However, while thinking this, Ganta jumps out from the rubble of the billboard and shoots Hagire directly in the chest with a Ganta Gun. Yosuga then returns and saves Hagires live out of confusion that hes Toto. Once Hagire is healed, he tries to find Ganta and his friends again. When Ganta unlocks the Mother Goose System, Hagire busts in and thanks them for "helping him unlock the Mother Goose System." Hagire and the protagonists have one final show down. Hagire takes a massive beating from the heroes. Yosuga then tries to help him but he stabs her in the chest and kills her. He then goes on a rant about how everyone is getting in his way. Ganta then uses his Advanced Ganta Gun to finish Hagire off for good.

Tamaki Tsunenaga

Tsunenaga Tamaki is a supporting antagonist in the anime and manga series, Deadman Wonderland. He acts as Deadman Wonderland's Promoter, and is essentially the de facto tyrant of Deadman Wonderland. The anime also depicts him as the son of Deadman Wonderland's Director Rinichiro Hagire.

Before the Great Tokyo Earthquake (a massive earthquake that sunk 70% of Tokyo and killed 150,000 people resulting from the Wretched Egg awakening) ten years prior to the events of Deadman Wonderland, Tamaki was a reclusive and indifferent computer otaku who would spend hours (if not days) shut up in his room, playing video games and not caring about anything else (even his family).

When the earthquake struck, his computers and game consoles were destroyed. The power was down, so he frantically searched for a backup generator; in his path he encountered his mother, who begged him to help her. Wanting nothing else but to play his games, he completely ignored her and abandoned her to die. When the generator was up and running, Tamaki realized that his games were all destroyed. This shattered his mind, and led him to engineer Deadman Wonderland to act as a gigantic video game, so he could keep playing like he did before the earthquake.

Now promoter of Deadman Wonderland, Tamaki treats the prisoners like his own personal toys. When Nagi and his wife were forced to fight each other at a carnival corpse, Nagi lost the fight on purpose in order to protect his pregnant wife. Because he lost, Nagi was penalized and lost his vocal cords. Tamaki noticed that he lost on purpose and thought that his wife should be punished as well. Nagi and his wife tried to run away but were killed by Genkaku. Tamaki then took the fetus of Nagis pregnant wife and used it for study, while forcing Nagi to watch.

In the anime, Tamaki was also the judge that sent Minatsuki to Deadman Wonderland after she killed her father. He also enjoyed Yoh's suffering as he watched his sister being sent to Deadman Wonderland.

Genkaku Azuma

Monk) was the leader of the Undertakers (an elite anti-Deadman task force consisting of the worst prisoners Deadman Wonderland has to offer). He is a deranged Buddhist monk who believes that death is salvation from a world full of pain and darkness. He is one of the main antagonists of the anime and manga Deadman Wonderland.

Genkaku makes his first appearance accompanying Tamaki who encounters Yoh Takami in G-Block (where Deadmen are housed). Yoh asks if Genkaku is really a monk, to which he responds that he's an "uber monk" ("uber" is the German word for "super"). Tamaki tells Yoh that he cannot buy his sister's freedom with his many Cast Points (Deadman Wonderland's currency) as Deadmen are not eligible for release under any conditions. Yoh angrily tries to attack Tamaki, realizing that all of his hard work has been for nothing since he cannot help his sister. Genkaku steps in and stops Yoh with the projectiles that launch from his guitar. As Tamaki leaves, Gengaku follows.

Genkaku next appears in Scar Chain's meeting room. Genkaku attempts to instigate a fight with Ganta, Nagi, and Karako. Ganta tries to hit Genkaku with his Branch of Sin, but he dispels it with his Worm Eater (anti-Deadman technology which negates Branch of Sin powers). Shiro then intervenes, dropping down from the ceiling and destroying Genkaku's guitar, genuinely surprising the deranged monk.

Genkaku is later seen annoying Hibana with his impersonation of an air guitar while waiting for his actual guitar to be repaired.

When Scar Chain put their escape plan into motion they arrive at the elevator. However, Genkaku and his subordinates are there to greet them when they reach the top. He quickly kills several of them before allowing his men to finish the rest off. Genkaku corners Ganta and prepares to kill him, but one of his lieutenants (Mozuri) inform him that they have to retreat. Genkaku reluctantly complies, but promises Ganta that he will soon give him a "private show".

He is next seen injecting Nagi (who was captured during the escape) with drugs to force him to remember his repressed memories of violently killing a large amount of Undertakers after his wife was killed by Genkaku. Genkaku succeeds in breaking Nagi's spirit and filling his soul with rage and a desire for retribution.

He then captures Karako and Shiro (Karako was disguised as an Undertaker in an effort to find and save Nagi and Shiro exposed them both after drunkenly crashing through a vent right next to her).

After Ganta arrives to try to save Karako and Shiro, Genkaku reveals Nagi to them. Nagi has now been driven insane and indiscriminately launches his explosive Bloodshot Eyes of the Owl Branch of Sin around the room, violently killing many Undertaker soldiers. Genkaku is pleased by this, as he sees it as Nagi fulfilling his destiny as a destroyer and bringer of "light" (even though it is his men who are being massacred).

Karako manages to break through to Nagi, reminding him of his dream to live as a free man again. Genkaku stabs Karako, hoping that this will cause Nagi to revert to the homicidal monster that he preferred. Karako survives, and Genkaku reveals that he intentionally meant to wound her as he wanted Nagi to be the one to kill her (Karako is in love with Nagi ). Nagi protects Karako and renounces Genkaku's ideology, saying that his salvation is his life with the people he loves. Genkaku, furious that his work is undone, blasts a hole through Nagi's stomach, detesting that the destroyer he desired is sane again. Genkaku goes insane, killing all of his subordinates (laughing maniacally as he does so) believing that he is saving them by delivering them from the burdens of life. He misses Hibana, though this was likely unintentional as he was too far gone to care at this point.

At this point, the only ones left alive from Genkaku's murderous rampage are Ganta, Karako, Shiro, and Ganta. Ganta tries to beg him to stop his actions. Here Genkaku reflects on his miserable life at the Buddhist temple, and how he awoke to the true nature of salvation through death. Genkaku's shrine to the Buddha is then shown, which is decorated with the heads of the Scar Chain members who were killed in the attempted escape.

Genkaku then moves in to finish off Ganta and his friends, but Ganta manages to get up and activate his advanced Branch of Sin, the Ganbare Gun, and launches it at Genkaku. Genkaku attempts to flee, but a dying Nagi grabs him, preventing him from escaping the full force of the Ganbare Gun. Before it hits the two of them, Nagi tells Genkaku that the two of them are in this together. Genkaku is happy, as he sees this as Nagi owning up to his feelings. Genkaku and Nagi are both hit. Nagi later succumbs to his injuries and dies with Karako and Ganta at his side.

It is later revealed in the manga that Genkaku did not die. Rather he is in a coma and in critical condition. It is mentioned that he will eventually die, however, as his chances of survival are slim.

Chan and En

Chan and En were born twins. With only half of their mind, they were left in a comatose state during the majority of their childhood. At some point after the Great Tokyo Earthquake, they ended up gaining a Branch of Sin and with it, they hacked into the medical monitors at their hospital and made it known that they were alive. Hagire Rinichirō soon adopted the two.

Lincoln: So those guys are who we have to kill.

Me: Yep. We're gonna make sure that they all go to hell. But I think Hell is too good for them.

Nicole: Same with the Book of Vile Darkness.

Me: The River of Fire is perfect for them.

Nico: Good.

Me: Yep. Lisa, you better synthesize an antidote for the prisoners once we get those collars off. We're gonna need a lot of it.

Lisa: Affirmative!

Lisa went to the lab and concocted the antidote.

She gave us all auto injectors full of the antidote.

Lisa: Here we go J.D. This should be enough for all of the prisoners we're going to rescue.

Me: Excellent. But from what I read we can't just rush into a prison like Deadman Wonderland. We need a plan.

William: And I got one.

Me: Lay it on me.

He whispered the whole plan in my ear and to the whole Redemption Squad and it was a genius plan. The Redemption Squad are going to disguise themselves as newly made convicts for Deadman Wonderland and when Stewie gives the signal we strike.

Me: That's brilliant William!

Maria: That is a good plan!

Nico: Very genius.

Venom: We agree.

Me: Perfect. Lets do it!

We were off to Japan and most of us were hiding in a cloud for cover.

Fu: Are you sure this is gonna work?

Me: It's a brilliant plan Fu.

Varie: I agree.

Sakura Haruno: It's gonna be a good strategy.

William and the Redemption Squad were heading into the prison.

They had prison uniforms on and those collars were on them.

Me: They're in. Now we wait.

Nico: Okay.

Me: I also sense an evil force in there. It's laying dormant in one of the inmates. We'll have to separate it from whoever has it.

We waited.

In the Deadman Wonderland cafeteria the Redemption Squad came in.

Ganta Igarashi was having lunch in the prison cafeteria eating tater tots.

William: Ganta Igarashi?

Ganta saw William sitting next to him.

Ganta: That's my name.

William: My name's William Dunbar, leader of the Redemption Squad. I heard that you were wrongfully locked up here.

Ganta: I was. But no matter how much I tried to prove my innocence, no one would listen.

William: What if I said that we can get you out? Me and 11 of my team are here ready to make a move.

Ganta: Good luck with that. Our collars are injecting poison into us even as we speak.

William: Here's the thing. The collars on me and my team aren't working on us.

Ganta: What?!

William: Don't worry. I'll tell you when it's time to bail.

Ganta: Okay.

They were eating and it was good food.

William: Execute the plan.

Maria: Can we have everyone's attention please?

All the prisoners looked at the Redemption Squad. And then, Stewie took out a fork and stabbed it into an inmate's brain.

Stewie: (smirks sadistically) Guess what, dookie birds? WE'RE KILLING EVERYONE!

Me: (From outside) NOW!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! PHOENIX CRY!

A massive fiery explosion blasted a hole through the ceiling and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed.

Me: This prison is hereby shut down!

Chan: On who's authority!?

Me: Mine!

I fired an energy blast at Chan and En and killed them in an explosion of fire!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Lincoln, Fu, get those collars off of the Branch of Sin. Lisa, Laney, give them the antidote.

Lisa: Right!

Laney: We're on it!

Lincoln and Fu got the collars off of the Branch of Sin members and Makina came in and killed some of the prisoners and we killed the rest of the prisoners with powerful energy blasts and gunshots. We were spilling their blood and guts all over the place in a massive bloodbath of blood and guts.

Ganta: Ow!

Ganta was injected with the antidote and the poison was gone and destroyed.

Ganta: Thanks Lisa.

Lisa: You're welcome.

Lincoln and Fu got the collars off of them.

Fu: These collars are a menace to the world.

Lincoln: What this prison is doing is an atrocity against humanity.

Kengamine: We owe you one. Thank you J.D.

Me: Anytime Kengamine.

Senji: Thank's man. Now we can get to freedom.

Miya (Deadman Wonderland): Thank you all.

Lincoln: Anytime Miya.

Ganta: But you got to help my friend Shiro. She has an evil force inside her.

Me: I sense it too! Shiro, you have an evil force inside you. I'm gonna use my magic and get it out of you.

Shiro: Okay.

I fired a powerful magic blast and it separated a blob of dark red energy and it turned into the RED MAN!

Red Man: FREE!

Shiro: That's the Red Man!

Ganta: That's him! He's the one I told you about Makina!

Makina: You were telling the truth! I'm sorry I doubted you Ganta!

Me: So you are the monster that framed Ganta and got him sent here to die!

Red Man: That's right. I hate everything. Kill everything. Ruin everything. I inflict pain on everything.

Me: You are a fucked up motherfucking monster! I will end your fucking existence once and for all!

(GOHAN'S ANGER THEME PLAYS!)

The ground was starting to shake.

Me: HHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

I unleashed the full extent of my power and lightning crackled everywhere all over me. My energy was skyrocketing at an astronomical rate as Fire, Lightning, Water, Wind, Earth, Light, Darkness and Aura energy were swirling around me all over as my power was skyrocketing at an accelerated rate! The ground was shaking violently as the sky clouded up with powerful storm clouds and tornadoes were destroying much of the prison. My hair turned rainbow color and my eyes turned rainbow color and my sclera turned into the stars. Then I unleashed the full extent of my power!

Me: HHHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

I flared up my rainbow aura and my power was unreal! I was in my Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Phoenix form!

Everyone in the prison was amazed with awe and so was the entire Branch of Sin!

Ganta: WHOA! Look at J.D.!

Shiro: His power is incredible!

Miya: UNREAL! He transformed!

Kengamine: WOW! What power! It's unlike anything we've ever seen.

Me: (Divine voice) That's because you are seeing the very power that I've used to kill Thanos the Mad Titan.

Everyone in the whole prison was shocked! They couldn't believe that I was able to kill the ruthless Mad Titan himself.

Makina: Wow! I've heard about all that! I'm so sorry about the loss of Ra's Al Ghul and Bowser.

Me: I appreciate that Makina. Everyone, continue killing all the prisoners we talked about. This is gonna be really ugly.

Nico: Right!

I went at the Red Man faster than a laser and punched him in the face with devastating force and we exploded out of the prison roof with incredible speed and power and we flew in the air.

I fired a powerful energy blast and the Red Man fired a powerful blast of energy and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful that it blew much of the prison rides apart and set most of it on fire!

I kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face with devastating force.

Me: DARK STYLE NINJA ART: SUICIDE BOMB RASENSHURIKEN!

I formed a powerful pitch black Rasenshuriken and it had a black and red core and I threw it at the Red Man and it hit him and exploded with a massive explosion of dark energy and a terrifying bloodcurdling scream followed.

AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHH

It stunned him.

Me: SOLAR STYLE NINJA ART: SOLAR STORM RASENSHURIKEN!

I formed a powerful glowing yellow Rasenshuriken that had a core that looked like a small sun and it had powerful solar flares around it and I threw it at the Red Man and it hit him and exploded in a massive explosion of solar fire.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Solar Fire rained down on all of the rides and the prison perimeter and ignited it all into a raging inferno and exploded everywhere.

KRABBBOOOOOMMM! KRABBOOOOOOMM! KABOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

When the smoke cleared, Red Man was badly injured. But I saw that he can regenerate himself and he was back together in a short period of time.

Me: So you can regenerate yourself. Then I'll have to use Total Obliteration.

Red Man: Like hell you will!

I fired a powerful blast of lightning at the Red Man and electrocuted him all over and punched him in the face with incredible force and I fired a massive blast of fire at him and burned him. I backed away and charged up a powerful Kamehameha Wave and it was rainbow color.

Me: KAAAAAAAAAA! MEEEEEEEEEEE! HAAAAAAAAAAAAA! MEEEEEEEEEEE! HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

I fired a massive blast of energy and it hit the Red Man and fully engulfed him and he screamed in pain as he was completely obliterated in an instant.

Me: Go to hell Red Man!

I went back to the prison.

William fired blasts of lightning from his blaster and electrocuted many inmates.

Sakura Haruno: Hey, William. You and the otehrs shouldn't hog all the fun. Save some inmates for us!

William: With pleasure Sakura.

Sakura Haruno: CHERRY BLOSSOM CLASH!

Sakura Haruno punched a bunch of Inmates with devastating strength and smashed them into pieces with incredible power.

KRABBBBBLLLLAAAAAAAAAAAAAMMMMMM!

Nico kicked a prisoner in the head and knocked his whole head off in a bloody mess and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted a bunch of prisoners and reduced them to ash. Laney fired a bunch of poison barbs covered in Strychnine Ω and they disintegrated into nothing. Lana fired a blast of ice lightning and froze some of them solid and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned them into ash. Ganta fired bullets made of blood and killed numerous inmates by blowing their heads open in bloody fashion and Shiro formed a powerful whip of blood in the shape of wired hexagons and slashed numerous inmates all over and I fired energy blasts at them and they all exploded into piles of blood and guts.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Takami formed whips of blood from her hair and she lashed numerous inmates with them and Miya formed powerful rings of blood and fired them at the inmates and Kengamine formed balls of blood and sent them at numerous inmates and they hit them and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Carol fired powerful blasts of Godzilla's Atomic Ray at some inmates and they exploded into massive explosions of pure fire and burned on contact.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBOOOOOOOOOOM!
KRABBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning at the remaining inmates and killed all of them. Senji formed blade of blood on his arms and slashed numerous inmates and guards apart.

Me: (Normal Voice) That's it for the rest. Now we have more to take care of.

?: That's right J.D. Knudson.

Out of a corner came Bombardo from episode 6 of Operation Overdrive!

---

This black arquebus/factory-theme monster was created by Kamdor from an abandoned pirate ship cannon and sent alongside Miratrix to obtain the Eye of the Sea. He was armed with a powerful cannon on his shoulder, hence his name. In the first encounter alongside Miratrix against four of the Rangers, he attacked the Rangers until Rose, who was possessed by Brownbeard the Pirate's ghost, gave him and Miratrix a beating, making the two fall back. Later, when Brownbeard unpossessed Rose, Brownbeard had the Eye of the Sea until Miratrix and Bombardo attacked and made off with the Eye of the Sea. Later Miratrix and Bombardo attacked San Angeles and wanted to use Eyes of the Sea to destroy the city. Brownbeard caught up with Miratrix and Bombardo and tried to reclaim the Eye of the Sea. They almost finished him off but Rose came just in time to save him. Bombardo used the Eye of the Sea to turn into a giant buzzsaw machine, but was taken out by the Shovel Driver, causing him to revert back. Kamdor then used a sutra to make Bombardo grow and the Drivemax Megazord combined itself with the Shovel Driver to form the Drivemax Megazord Shovel Formation. It was this form that destroyed Bombardo.

Bombardo: Its been a while rangers.

Mack Hartford: Bombardo!

Me: I remember him! He was a strong one that you faced Mack.

Mack Hartford: He sure was.

Tyzonn: Vypra is bringing all of our enemies back.

Me: But it's cool facing all of your enemies.

Nico: It sure is. But lets get this clod!

Mack Hartford: Lets get him!

Bombardo (to Rose Ortiz): You know what, Pink Ranger? I liked it when you were a pirate.

Rose Ortiz: To be fair, Emma's more of a pirate in pink then I am.

Emma: That's true. But then again, we're not here to entertain you.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Secret 5 Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Secret Force 5 Rangers from 1975 and Orion turned into Ninjor!

Operation Overdrive Rangers: OVERDRIVE! ACCELERATE!

The Operation Overdrive Rangers transformed and they were ready!

The Operation Overdrive rangers formed their weapons and Mack Hartford slashed Bombardo with his Drive Lance, Will Aston smashed Bombardo all over with his Drive Slammer and it packed a deadly purple energy power slam! Dax Lo blew him away with his Drive Vortex and blew powerful blasts of ice at him. Ronny Robinson slashed him all over with her Drive Claws and they packed a deadly slash! Rose Ortiz blasted him all over with her Drive Geyser and it packed a massive blast of energy and it really hurt all over. Tyzonn blasted him all over with his Monster Detector and the Operation Overdrive Rangers blasted him all over with their Drive Defenders and it really hurt. They then fired the Drill Blaster and Nico fired a powerful energy blast and Typhon fired a powerful blade of energy and the Megaforce Rangers fired powerful blasts of energy and they hit Bombardo and he exploded into a massive fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Bombardo you have failed this world.

Mack Hartford: He sure has.

Then we heard what sounded like an alligator growling. Out came a walking alligator? It was the GHOST OF THE GATOR GHOUL!

---

The Gator Ghoul resembled a bipedal alligator with glowing yellow eyes.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Ghost of the Gator Ghoul!

Me: I remember this creep!

Qin: What is this one's history?

Me: The Ghost of the Gator Ghoul was really former Kookie Cola

Secretary, Alice Dovely.

---

She worked as a secretary to the president of Kookie Cola until she was fired. She then got a job at the Skillett Showboat, plotting her revenge. She dressed up as the Ghost of Gator Ghoul to drive the Skillets out of business so she could get control of their product before it was bought out for a high price by Kookie Cola.

---

Qin: What's her story?

Me: She used to work as the secretary for the president of the Kookie Cola company until she got fired. She worked for the Skillett Showboat to get revenge. She dressed up as the Ghost of the Gator Ghoul to drive the Skilletts out of business and get the formula for Fenokee Fizz soda. We found a pink slip that was torn up into pieces and put them back together and it provided the answer to the mystery.

Qin: Whoa! That's nuts!

Shaggy: We were shocked ourselves.

Scooby Doo: Yeah.

Me: But we stopped her and she got 20 to 30 years in prison for it and she was ordered to pay the Skillett's $100,000,000 in restitution.

Qin: And I'll bet she got Life Without Parole for her revenge conspiracy.

Me: Bingo.

Lana: Wow! Let me face this monster! I'm an alligator wrestler.

Me: Have at him Lana.

Lana then jumped onto the Gator Ghoul and wrestled him all over the place. She was really mangling him.

Nico: WHOA! Look at Lana go!

Syd Chang: She's just as awesome as my mom!

Me: Really Syd?

Syd Chang: Sure. My mom is the world famous Gator Mom. She wrestled all sorts of Alligators. She's a legend.

Me: Wow!

Lori: That is literally amazing! Lana would love to learn some pointers from her.

Syd Chang: I'm sure she would.

Me: Wow. Becca is amazing!

Lincoln: She sure is.

?: Too bad it will be your last!

We turned and we saw the main operator of Deadman Wonderland: HAGIRE RINICHIRO!

Me: Hagire Rinichiro!

Hagire: That's right. How nice of you all to arrive Team Loud Phoenix Storm, to your demise!

Me: You're the one that's going to die Rinichiro!

Ganta: You ruined my life and you will pay!

Shiro: Yeah!

Me: Lets get him!

We went at Hagire and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Hagire fired his blood in the form of energy blasts and lightning bolts. I fired energy blasts at his blasts and they collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew the rest of the whole prison apart.

Hagire: YOU ALL RUINING EVERYTHING!

Me: And I show no remorse for it!

Hagire: I will kill all you motherfuckers for this! I was doing everything I can to help Japan and the world!

Me: By mercilessly killing criminals for everyones amusement!? I fucking think not you fuckweed! You are not running a prison here! You are running a merciless concentration camp!

Lincoln: That we are shutting down forever!

Me: By killing you and everyone who run it!

I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted him.

Ben then turned into Rath.

Ben: RATH!

Rath slashed Hagire.

Rath: LEMME TELL YOU SOMETHING HAGIRE RINICHIRO! NEVER RUN CONCENTRATION CAMPS OR WE ARE GOING TO KILL YOU!

Me: Which we already are gonna do! Time for some teamwork!

Rath then went at Hagire and Drill Man fired his Drill Bomb!

Rath and Drill Man: CLAW DRILL BOMB SLASH!

Rath slashed Hagire all over the place and the Drill Bombs exploded all over Hagire!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Ben then turned into Water Hazard!

Water Hazard: (British Accent) WATER HAZARD!

Bai Tza and Water Hazard fired a massive blast of water.

Bai Tza and Water Hazard: SUPER MEGATSUNAMI WATER BURST!

The blasts of water hit Hagire and drenched him all over and it smashed his rib cage!

Skullcruncher: I've had it with this freak! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Alligator Super Chomp Strength 100-fold.

Sandman: I would never send prisoners here! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his sand powers 100-fold.

Skullcruncher and Sandman: SAND MACE SUPER CHOMP!

Sandman formed a powerful mace ball arm and smashed it into Hagire and then Skullcruncher chomped Hagire and bit him right in half and bisected him in half! His blood was pouring out of him and his internal organs were hanging out.

Skullcruncher tasted him and spit his legs out.

Skullcruncher: BLECH! That tastes awful!

Warpath: This guy makes me sick! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his explosive shells and fire blasters 100-fold.

Nick Russell: This is gonna be interesting! LEGENDARY SOURCE! MYSTIC FORCE!

Nick Russell turned into the Legendary Mystic Force Red Ranger!

Nick Russell: (Echoing) ELEMENT OF FIRE! LEGENDARY MYSTIC RED WARRIOR!

Nick Russell was ready for action!

Nick Russell: MYSTIC FORCE CYBER KEY POWER!

The Red Phoenix Cyber Planet Key went into Nick Russell's Lion Staff and enhanced its fire powers 100-fold.

Warpath and Nick Russell: SUPER HYPERFIRE MEGABURN!

Warpath fired a powerful blast of fire and Nick Russell fired a powerful blast of fire from his staff and the blasts combined and they hit Hagire and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM

Hagire was dead. There was nothing left of him but a pile of ashes.

Then out came the main man that got Ganto sent to prison! TAMAKI TSUNENAGA!

Me: Just the man we're looking for. It's time for you to die Tamaki!

Ganta: Yeah! You sent me to prison and nearly got me killed!

Tamaki: Because you are nothing more than a fucked up murderer!

Me: The only murderer here is you for sending innocent people here to die! Now you are going to pay for your crimes you motherfucking son of a fucking bitch!

Nico: Tamaki Tsunenaga you have failed this universe!

Me: Time for you to die once and for all! Kiba! Lets howl!

I turned into Wolf Moon!

Ganta: This is for ruining my life! BLOOD BULLET MEGABARRAGE!

Ganta fired a massive barrage of blood bullets and they hit Tamaki all over.

Shiro: This is for all the crimes you've done to everyone in Japan! BLOOD WHIP LASHSTORM!

Shiro formed a powerful blood hexagon whip and slashed him all over.

Kengamine: You are a worthless monster that cares about no one but himself!

Branch of Sin: SIN BLOOD MEGABLAST!

The entire Branch of Sin fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit Tamaki and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew a powerful hole into his chest and exposed his black heart to the open. It was a heart as black as the night and it had demon teeth in it! It was a symbol of ultimate evil!

Makina: You care about no one! Now die! ENERGY BULLET FIRESTORM!

Makina fired a powerful blast of energy from her gun and it hit Tamaki all over and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Me: Feel the fury of the Wolf! WOLF MOON FIRESTORM BLAST!

I fired a powerful blast of Wolf Moon fire and it hit Tamaki and he was on fire! He was screaming in excruciating pain as he was burning.

Naruto: This is for all the pain and suffering you caused! SAGE ART: LAVA STYLE: RASENSHURIKEN!

Naruto formed a powerful Rasenshuriken of pure lava and it hit Tamaki and bisected him in half and he fell to the ground still burning.

Minato: Not even the world itself will welcome you now! FLYING THUNDER GOD RASENGAN STRIKE!

Minato threw his kunai and he reappeared behind him and slammed a powerful Rasengan into Tamaki's back and it exploded.

Sakura Haruno: We are never gonna forgive you for your terrible crimes! EARTH STYLE: MEGA RASENGUN!

Sakura formed a powerful brown Rasengan sphere and fired it from her finger like a powerful gun blast and it hit Tamaki and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion from the powerful blast obliterated much of the prison and sent shrapnel from the blast into the rest of the evil prison staff and killed all of them! Tamaki's head was left.

Fu: You are never gonna talk again! SEVEN TAILS NINJA ART: SPINNING SCALE EXPLOSION!

Fu unleashed a powerful dust cyclone of Chomei's scales and she spun around with incredible speed like a spinning top and she clapped her hands and ignited them and they exploded with unbelievable power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful and so devastating that it not only killed Tamaki and completely obliterated him in an instant but it also completely destroyed what was left of the entire prison and sunk the entire island the Prison was on right into the ocean! Destroying all traces of it from existence forever and leaving the evil staff and inmates as food for the sharks and fish.

May: Well, that's one prison we're not using anytime soon.

Me: You said it May.

Nico: Never again.

Ganta: It's over. I'm finally free.

The spirits of the evil inmates and staff have all been sent into the River of Fire.

Me: Lets go to Tokyo and reveal everything that happened.

We went to Tokyo and in the city hall press conference room, I revealed everything to the entire populous of the city and they were all shocked and horrified about what was going on and they began to realize that they were wrong about Deadman Wonderland and that it was a terrible mistake that should've never been made. It was a nightmare from Hell. But everyone in Japan was glad that we destroyed it. We got Ganta, Shiro and everyone in the Branch of Sin's records expunged and they were free people.

Ganta: J.D. we can't thank you enough for freeing us.

Me: It was our pleasure Ganta. What happened to you should've never happened at all.

Shiro: But I'm just happy that we're free.

Kengamine: That's true. Now we can go back to our families and start our lives over again. We have so much to catch up on.

Me: I know. But at least now we've seen the last of Deadman Wonderland. But you all can still use your Deadman powers for good and help people in need.

Miya: That's true.

Ganta: That's a great idea though.

Me: I'm glad. You're more than welcome to join Team Loud Phoenix Storm if you like.

Ganta: We would be honored.

Shiro: Yeah! It's awesome!

Ganta: (To the viewers) Never mess with the lives of other people that have been wrongfully convicted or Team Loud Phoenix Storm is coming for you.

Me: You said it Ganta.

We went back home to Gotham Royal York and we formed a new branch of Team Loud Phoenix Storm for Ganta and his friends called the Deadman Justice Brigade. It was a team of Team Loud Phoenix Storm dedicated to freeing those that have been wrongfully convicted and sent to prison or death row. The Ghost of the Gator Ghoul was made into a stuffed statue and Lana has it in her room.

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another awesome battle in the books.

Deadman Wonderland was an awesome anime! I never saw it but I saw an awesome promo for it on Toonami from 2014 and it was incredibly intense! But what happened to Ganta and everyone at that prison is downright completely barbaric! Killing people for everyone's enjoyment is completely despicable and disgusting! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is a chapter for one of my favorite video games: PRIMAL RAGE! We're going to destroy the evil gods Vertigo, Chaos and Diablo and give the survivors of New Urth a home again and explore the world of Urth in the process.

See you all tomorrow.

Gods of An Apocalyptic World

In the kitchen we were showing Ganta Igarashi and Shiro around. It was so good for them to finally be free of Deadman Wonderland. They were so happy and now Shiro and Ganta are now boyfriend and girlfriend. We were so happy for them.

Maria: How's it feel to be a free man, Ganta?

Ganta: It feels great!

Shiro: It's much better than being trapped in a prison where they pump poison into you.

Shiro was given new clothes instead of a white and red body suit. She had a red tank top that didn't cover her navel and she had a beautiful white skirt with red flames on it and she had awesome white sandals and she had a red sleeveless trench coat with white fire on it and it had the kanji for Shiro - The Crimson Red Fire Whip of Virtue on the back. シロ-紅の紅炎美徳の鞭

Shiro: And these clothes you made are amazing!

Ganta: I agree Shiro.

Ganta had a red fire shirt on and it had orange and yellow flames and he had black pants and black combat boots and he had a black sleeveless trench coat with a red Blood Moon from Magic the Gathering and he had the kanji for Ganta Igurashi - the Crimson Moon of Speeding Justice on the back. 五十嵐太-スピード違反の正義の深紅の月 He also had a powerful 50 caliber pistol and a ring on his right middle finger that was had a blood red ruby on it and it was surrounded by a ring of red diamonds and the kanji on the outside of the diamonds said A True Survivor of Deadman Wonderland. デッドマンワンダーランドの真の生存者

Ganta: And these rings fit the whole thing together.

Shiro: They sure do.

Ganta: But still J.D. we can't thank you all enough for everything you've done for us.

Me: It was our pleasure Ganta. What that stupid system did to you I wouldn't even wish on my worst enemies.

Nico: Me neither. It's pure evil.

Benson: Boy that prison must've been really awful for you all.

Shiro: It was Benson.

Me: But either way I'm glad we destroyed that whole prison and made all those monsters sleep with the fishes.

Nico: You got that right.

Muscle Man: Yeah. What that prison was doing is worse than anything.

Qin: It sure was. It's beyond ultimate evil. But I also heard you all have been to a place called Marzipan City.

Me: Yep. That's Chowder's world. We'll show you.

Scream: It's a really awesome place.

We grabbed the pop up book for Chowder and opened it and we went into the world of Chowder!

Scream: Welcome to Marzipan City, Qin.

Qin: Wow! It's amazing!

Me: Yep. It's one of our favorite places. We sometimes usually come here for food assignments.

Qin: Wow!

Me: Yep. You are going to love meeting Mung Daal and Chowder. They are really funny and awesome.

We arrived at Mung Daal's Catering and we went into the kitchen.

Jungle Fury R.J.: This kitchen reminds me of Jungle Karma Pizza.

Me: It sure does.

We saw Mung Daal cooking and Chowder and Panini were watching and learning.

They saw us.

Mung Daal: Ah J.D. Knudson and Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome back.

Me: Good to be back Mung.

Chowder: Are you guys on another food assignment?

Octopunch: Nope! This time, we're hanging out here for fun.

Me: Yep. We're showing Nico's friend Qin here what it's like here.

Mung Daal: I see.

Chowder: It's a pleasure to meet you Qin. I'm Chowder.

Qin: Pleasure Chowder.

Me: Chowder is Mung's apprentice and he is a chef in training.

Panini: And he's the most awesome boyfriend ever. Aren't you num nums?

Chowder: I sure am. I was in denial for a long time before I realized it.

Me: Just like Lori has been in denial all her life whenever she farts.

We laughed and Lori was in denial.

Lori: I do not fart! It was my shoe!

We weren't buying it.

Shiro: Is it always like that with Lori?

Me: You have no idea.

Kairi: I don't know how to cook like you Sora. Can you show me?

Aqua: And me?

Sora: Sure. Mung Daal can show you too.

Kairi: Awesome!

Seaspray: Don't worry, Kairi. If Sora can cook, so can you and Aqua.

Kairi: Yeah!

We got to work and Lori dropped a pill container from her pocket.

Me: Huh? What's this?

I picked up the pill bottle and read it.

Me: "Fart-B-Gone anti-flatulence medication. Doesn't stop you from farting, but keeps the gas from getting out. Not recommended for people with an overwhelming case accompanied with unhealthy denial." What is this for Lori?

Lori: That's mine. I must've dropped that.

Me: Lori!? Do you have a nasty flatulence problem?

Lori: YES! YES! YES! I DO! I let loose a stink so bad, that even a skunk would avoid it!

Me: So we've noticed over the years.

We got to training Kairi and Aqua in cooking and they were learning fast and getting as good as Sora.

They got just as good as Sora in 3 hours and made all kinds of great food. Qin decided to learn too. She became just as good as well.

We later went back home.

* * *

Back at the estate in the living room me and Lincoln were playing one of my favorite childhood video games: Primal Rage! It was an awesome game where gods battle for supremacy on a post-apocalyptic world called New Urth and it was a strange place.

* * *

A massive meteor strike has devastated Earth. Human civilization comes to an end in the ensuing cataclysms and humanity regresses into tribes of Stone Age dwellers. A primordial rainforest covers the land and the continental landmass has shifted into the shape of a fire-breathing dinosaur skull. The planet is now primitively referred to as "Urth" by the survivors of the cataclysms.

Seven fearsome creatures emerge from their slumber deep within the Urth's crust, and become worshiped as gods by the humans, who form segregated clans beneath the ones they follow. The beasts themselves are divided between those who wish to keep peace on Urth, and those who attempt to plunge the world into further chaos for their own benefit. They consist of Blizzard the apelike god of good and virtue, Armadon the ceratopsian/thyreophoran-like god of life, Talon, the raptor-like god of survival, Sauron the tyrannosaur-like god of hunger, Chaos the apelike god of decay, Vertigo the cobra/prosauropod-like goddess of insanity and Diablo the tyrannosaur-like god of evil and destruction. These creatures have otherworldly or supernatural abilities. Blizzard, Armadon, Talon and Sauron represented the side of good while Chaos, Diablo and Vertigo were aligned with evil.

* * *

I was placing as the wise blue gorilla god Blizzard and Lincoln was playing as Sauron, the God of Hunger.

I beat Lincoln.

Me: YES!

Lincoln: Wow! You are good at this J.D.

Me: Thanks Lincoln. But this game is fun.

Lincoln: You said it. But I can't believe that all this happened to Earth in this game. It's terrible.

Me: I know.

Lincoln: But who is evil and who is not?

Me: Vertigo, Diablo and Chaos are the evil gods and the rest are good. Blizzard, Armadon, Talon and Sauron are good gods.

Lincoln: Wow.

Me: But we should see if we can destroy the evil gods and making them pay.

Nico: Good idea J.D.

Me: Lets see here.

I went to the computer and to my surprise the planet Urth was real and it showed that it was located 77,263 light-years from our planet Earth.

Me: Looks like it's real. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix!

Lisa: Right!

We got onto the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix and we were off.

* * *

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2788.3: Team Loud Phoenix Storm is on its way to a post-apocalyptic planet Earth located 77,263 light-years from our Earth that was forever changed because of a nasty apocalyptic event that forever changed all of humanity and the world and they are being ruled by gods both good and evil. Our mission is to destroy the evil gods and help the good gods protect all of the survivors of the apocalyptic event.

Qin: So what are we gonna see when we get there?

Me: We'll find out when we get there.

Lincoln: That's right. But this is gonna be a very interesting adventure.

Nico: It sure is.

Lisa Loud: We have appeared to have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

The screen turned on and we saw another planet Earth, but this version was completely different and almost completely unrecognizable. What we saw was amazing. The 7 continents were no longer there and they had been rearranged and they looked like a tyrannosaurus rex skull that was breathing fire and it was completely shocking!

Me: Whoa.

Lola: That is so shocking! I can't believe that this version of Earth is not like ours.

Laney: What happened to this version of Earth?

Me: The scans say that a huge meteor slammed into the planet and it caused a massive apocalyptic event that caused the continents to rearrange themselves and destroyed much of humanity and our modern day technology and it caused all of humanity to revert back to the stone age. But during the apocalyptic event, creatures emerged from their slumber. The planet has been renamed Urth and it was awful.

Lola: Boy no kidding.

Varie: This is awful.

Me: Lets land.

THE COVE

We landed in the Cove and it was a strange place.

The Cove or Ormiskos (from the Greek Ορμίσκος) is the domain of Sauron, the god of Hunger. The area is a craggy, sandy beach that was once the Greek islands in the Aegean Sea. Rock formations surround the coasts. Decaying temples and other structures from ancient civilizations that once occupied the area line the surf.

We got out of the ship and we saw the place. It was a strange and terrifying place and more. We saw that a Greek Temple, the Parthenon, was intact and some of the place was amazing.

Me: Whoa. This is terrible!

Nico: My god. What the hell happened here?

Lincoln: It's terrible.

A roar was heard and we saw a Tyrannosaurus Rex coming at us and we saw that it was SAURON, THE GOD OF HUNGER!

For some dino-beasts, immortality comes at a price. For Sauron, the cost is nothing less than an insatiable appetite. From his first appearance on the new Urth, as one of the Virtuous Beasts, he attracted many believers. With his mighty jaw, they believed him to be the most powerful among the barbaric behemoths. All of Urth is the battlefield for Sauron, as he towers into war after war, in his quest for domination! Waging war with the primal titans is what Sauron lives for, for in their defeat is tomorrow's lunch.

Sauron is a Tyrannosaurus rex; a curious blending of an old-school, Ray Harryhausen-esque tail dragging behemoth with a Jurassic Park inspired head. His color is a deep orange-yellow with purple stripes running along his back down to his tail. He sports two claws on each of his disproportionately small arms and three-toed claws on each foot. He sports massive jaws built for inflicting a massive amount of damage. He is one of two T. rex characters in the game, the other one being Diablo; the result of palette swapping a common character sprite to inflate the roster, as is common practice in retro arcade fighting games.

Sauron is the god of Hunger. When released from his sleep of ages by the catastrophe, he soon realized that he must devour human flesh to remain immortal. The hungry hordes of humanity worshipped him, but lived in dread fear of his presence. Many humans soon sought refuge with other rulers of the planet. Sauron had no choice but to defeat the others in order to feast on their followers.

Now that he has devoured most of the land, he sets off in quest of new lands, and new meals…

---

Me: Whoa! It's Sauron!

Nico: He's a huge Tyrannosaurus!

Me: He's as big as a regular size Tyrannosaurus from 67 million years ago.

Sauron came at us and he stopped and he looked at us.

Sauron: (As Maurice Lamarche) So you all are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Varie: Whoa!

Sauron: I'm glad you all came. My brethren are helping the humans by destroying the evil gods.

Me: I had a feeling. We can help you and destroy the evil gods. But you have to eat a lot of meat in order to sustain your immortality.

Sauron: That's right.

Me: I can give you true immortality without having to do that.

Sauron: You would?

Me: I sure can.

I snapped my fingers and Sauron was now truly immortal and he didn't have the need to feed on Humans anymore.

Sauron: Thank you so much J.D.

Me: You're welcome. We can get the tribes of the good gods together after we destroy the evil gods and help human kind and the gods work in harmony.

Sauron: That's good thinking.

We then began our journey across Urth.

THE TOMB

We arrived in what looked like a Stonehenge and we saw that we were in the Tomb of Urth.

The Tomb or Tuama is the domain of Vertigo, the goddess of Insanity. This grassy knoll was once the prehistoric monument Stonehenge, but since the meteor freed Vertigo from her stasis, the area has become a place of arcane rituals. The region is the burial ground for the petrified enemies of Vertigo, and the full moon has become permanently visible in the sky.

Me: Wow. Look at this. It looks a lot like Stonehenge.

Lincoln: It sure does.

Yugito Nii: This is really something. I can't believe this all happened to the world when that meteor hit.

Naruto: No kidding.

Laney: Look at that. The Full Moon is always visible in the sky.

Me: It sure is. There are no phases anymore.

Nico: Yeah.

Lincoln: It's beautiful though.

Earth: It sure is.

Lana: Look at all these statues.

We went over and saw them. They were petrified creatures.

Me: I don't think these are statues. These are all petrified creatures.

Qin: Whoa.

A hiss was heard and then out came VERTIGO, THE GODDESS OF INSANITY!

---

Total insanity governs Vertigo's every action. With her mesmerizing powers of mind control and mastery of the unknown, she has attained mythical proportions among her followers. Vertigo's followers are loyal and their devotion is complete, fanatical and blind. She believes the defeat of all other dino-beasts for Urth domination can only be accomplished by utilizing her sorcery and the power of her devout followers… if she doesn't destroy their minds first.

The goddess of Insanity. Vertigo is a unique beast, identified on her action figure packaging as a "Cobrasaur Etraasia", resembling a cobra with dinosaur legs and short, spindly arms. She is one of the evil Destructive Beasts and is the only female beast on the roster. She has the longest reach. The game's plot states that her imprisonment on the Moon forced the other beasts into suspended animation until the meteor impact. Vertigo plans to enslave the entire planet forever by making humans into a slave race. Her domain is the Tomb, which resembles Stonehenge, and her worshippers dress in cyan. She is the only female member of the main 7 cast.

Me: WHOA! Vertigo!

Nico: Goddess of Insanity!

Vertigo: (As Whoopie Goldberg) That's right fools. I am indeed Vertigo.

Lana: You are really scary!

Lola: And really frightening!

Varie: She may be frightening. But we came here to kill this monster!

Vertigo: You cannot defeat us. We are gods!

There was a brief silence. Which was then broken by our two resident powerhouses.

Edzilla and Hulk: ED AND HULK SMASH PUNY GODS! (They both punch Vertigo)

SMASH!

They knocked her down!

Sauron: STUN ROAR!

Sauron fired a powerful fireball sound blast with rings around it from his mouth and it hit Vertigo and stunned her. Then we saw her teleport and she appeared behind Sauron and I fired a powerful energy blast at her and it hit her and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Me: Lets finish her with a combo and final smash!

Ben: You got it J.D.!

Torch Man: With pleasure!

Ben then turned into N.R.G.

Ben: (Russian Accent) N.R.G.! This monster is gonna feel the burn of radiation.

N.R.G. fired a powerful blast of radiation and Torch Man fired a powerful blast of fire with his Blazing Torch.

Torch Man and NRG: SOLAR FLARE FIRESTORM BLAST!

The blasts combined and turned into a deadly fireball of incredible power and it hit Vertigo and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Vertigo was weakened.

Sauron: Lets see how you like this you bitch! SONIC MEGA HOWL STREAM!

Sauron fired a massive blast of sonic fire and it hit Vertigo and instantly obliterated her in an instant!

Me: YEAH!

Nico: That did it!

Then I saw that Nico had Vertigo's tail.

Me: Nico you have Vertigo's Tail.

Nico saw that I was right.

Nico: Whoa! Awesome! That means I have all of her powers.

Me: Same with me. This is gonna be awesome.

Sauron: That's one of the evil gods down.

Me: And 2 to go.

We continued on our journey.

---

THE RUINS

---

We were traveling through the ruins of a destroyed city. We saw that the city was completely destroyed.

---

The Ruins are the domain of Chaos, the god of Decay. This region of Urth encompasses the ruins of what was once a thriving metropolis. When the meteor came in contact with the planet, the cataclysms wiped out the modern cities and destroyed all modern technology. The derelict skyscrapers have become a place for the newly evolved lifeforms to reside in.

---

Me: My god. This whole city is completely gone.

Nico: But some of the buildings are still intact and were left to rot.

Lincoln: I can't believe all this happened.

Me: Me neither.

Laney: Look there! Isn't that what's left of the Empire State Building?

We saw the ruins of said building and it was awful. It was rotting all over and there was moss covering the whole building.

Me: That is definitely the Empire State Building. This once was New York City.

Sauron: Hard to believe.

We went into one of the buildings and it was totally deserted.

Me: Still intact even after what happened here.

We saw some old office papers and they were all old and aged. I picked them up and they fell apart in my hands.

Me: Wow.

Lana: Time really has flown by here.

Lola: No kidding.

We left the building and then out came CHAOS, GOD OF DECAY!

---

In his quest for control and domination over the world, Chaos has become his own worst nightmare. Right after the Cataclysms, he existed as a renegade scientist who coveted Blizzard's powers and wanted to take control of the new Urth. But his desire to dictate the process of human evolution proved to be his undoing when he conducted a genetic experiment that went horribly wrong. Instead, he was turned into a disgusting beast. Now he must do battle with and eliminate the other dino-beasts. Many of his special moves consist of bodily functions. His fatalities, most notably the Golden Shower, drew condemnation from parents and is arguably his most revolting move.

Chaos is identified on his action figure's character profile as a "Kong", a gorilla-like creature. He has sickly pinkish to clay brown hair and grayish skin. His ape-like appearance is the horrific result of an evolution spell gone wrong.

---

Me: Chaos!

Chaos: (As Sean Connery) Yes and now I will rule this world in the name of decay!

Sauron: I don't think so you false god!

Sauron fired a powerful Sound Fireball and it hit Chaos and exploded.

Nico and me used Vertigo's Scorpion Sting attack and stung Chaos all over and Chaos used his Fart of Fury attack and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire at it and it ignited the fart and it exploded in Chao's face!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Ben: Time for this monster to have his technique blown back at him!

Ben turned into Terraspin!

Ben: TERRASPIN!

Air Man: I am ready.

Chaos fired another Fart of Fury and Terraspin flew into the air and fired a massive blast of wind and Air Man fired a powerful blast of wind with his Air Shooter.

Terraspin and Air Man: HYPERCANE MEGA WIND BLAST!

The blasts of wind combined and they hit the Fart of Fury all over and sent it right back at him and Chaos was stunned by his own technique.

Me: Lets see how you like this!

I growled and I turned into J.D. THE NOCTURNAL!

Me: Feel the power of the wolf! MOON FLAME POWER FIRE!

I fired a massive blast of purple fire and it slammed into Chaos and incinerated him into nothing! He was dead in an instant.

I reverted back.

Me: That's it for him. Lets move on.

We proceeded on.

---

THE STRIP OF MOTUROA

---

We were over in the forests of the Strip of Moturoa.

---

The Strip or Manawha is the domain of Talon, god of Survival. The area is a grassy stretch of land dotted with trees and small waterfalls. The primordial rainforest used to be Moturoa Island off the New Zealand coast but was brought in contact with the mainlands in the wake of the meteor.

---

Me: Wow! These forests are amazing.

Laney: Boy they sure are. It's so peaceful here in these forests.

Crysta: You said it Laney. I wouldn't mind living here.

Nico: It sure is beautiful here.

Earth: It's really beautiful here.

A Roar was heard and then out came TALON, GOD OF SURVIVAL!

---

Talon is in his most vicious state when it comes to the defense of his raptor clan. Before the Cataclysms, Talon's home was peaceful and harmonious, but now Talon and his followers have been thrust into an unfamiliar life of power struggles, battling between tribes and dino-beasts. On the new Urth, Talon stands ready to take on any dino-beast threatening his people.

The god of Survival. He is identified as a "Raptor" on his action figure's toy packaging, and closely resembles the Velociraptors from

"Jurassic Park", which had been released just the year before. Talon is the patriarch of a huge family of raptors and is fiercely protective of it, and it is for their sake that he plunges into the war. Talon is the fastest character in the game and an excellent jumper. Talon is also the shortest character, and numerous ranged attacks by taller enemies will simply miss him. He is the only character in the game who does not have a projectile attack. His domain is the Strip, and his worshipers are dressed in grey.

---

Me: Talon, God of Survival!

Talon: (As Ian McDiarmid) Ah so the mighty Team Loud Phoenix Storm is here. It's an honor to meet the famous universal saviors.

Me: Same to you Talon. We came to kill the evil gods that threaten this planet. Including you and the virtuous ones.

Talon: I see. I'm glad you all came then.

Teresa: I actually was named Talon in my Bang Baby Days.

Talon: I heard about that. But at least you're able to fly.

Talon: That's true. I will gladly come with you all.

Sauron: Thank you Talon my friend.

We continued on.

---

THE CLIFFS

---

We were in the mountainous area of Urth called the Chattaana Xuanya or the Cliff.

---

The Cliff or Chattaana Xuanya is the domain of Blizzard, the god of Good and Virtue. The area is an icy and mountainous tundra. The highest mountain in the Himalayas, Mount Everest, has been relocated to this part of the rearranged world. It now has the faint pattern of an ape face.

---

It was really cold up there and we had to bundle up in our warmest fur coats.

Me: Man it's really cold up here. But it's really amazing.

Lana: It sure is. But look over there! Isn't that Mount Everest?

Me: It sure is. It's completely intact even after the entire planet was reshaped. Amazing!

Luan: That's amazing!

Earth: Boy it sure is.

Paige: I just can't believe it managed to stay intact like that.

Me: No kidding.

Laney: I remember seeing the Himalayas. It was breathtaking.

Sauron: I see.

Talon: It's hard to imagine that there are so many things that have happened in your world and here.

Nico: No kidding.

Then a roar was heard and out came BLIZZARD, GOD OF GOOD AND VIRTUE!

---

In order for life to continue its natural progression, a delicate balance must be struck. This is the atmosphere that Blizzard has fought for millions of years to maintain. Enraged by the massive destruction he saw when he emerged from his primal slumber, Blizzard has embarked on a relentless execution mission. As guardian of natural evolution, Blizzard is determined to return Urth to its former state. As the leader of the Virtuous Beasts, Blizzard battles to return the balance to the Urth, even if it means destroying each and every dino-beast in the process!

Blizzard is a large Yeti-like creature, referred to on his action figure's character profile as a "Kong". His skin is ice-blue in color, with silvery brown hair. He has the ability to create and control ice.

* * *

Me: Blizzard, god of Good and Virtue.

Blizzard: (As Brock Peters) The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome.

Me: Thank you Blizzard. We are here on a mission to kill all of the evil gods.

Lincoln: We already killed Vertigo and Chaos.

Blizzard: I see. I'm glad you all came and Sauron, Talon. Glad you two could come good friends.

Talon: Thanks Blizzard.

Sauron: Yeah.

Blizzard: I will gladly help you all.

Me: We are grateful Blizzard.

We left for the next part of the world.

* * *

THE HOLLOWS

* * *

We were in the caverns of the Hollows. It was a massive and incredible cave system.

The Hollows are the domain of Armadon, god of Life. This landscape consists of underground ramiform caverns existing eons ago. The subterranean caverns have openings in the rock, wherein worshippers dwell. In the center of the caverns is a meditation shrine where Armadon practices focusing his inner thoughts.

Me: Wow! Look at these caves!

Nico: These are incredible caves.

Lynn: (Echoing) HELLO!

The echo was perfect.

Me: Wow. What an echo. These caves are perfect for it.

Lucy Loud: I got get used to caves like this.

Nico: For you Lucy, it would be perfect.

A roar was heard and then we saw ARMADON, GOD OF LIFE!

Guardian of the delicate and fragile ecological balance, Armadon was the last of the dino-beasts to emerge from his subterranean confines. Connected with Urth's life force and energy flow, Armadon ascended to save the planet from the dino-beasts who want ultimate control over it. Ironically, the battle for power raging among the beasts has caused a nearly irreversible terminal imbalance on the planet they are fighting to rule. Unable to tolerate the titans' destruction of the planet, Armadon's mission is to put an end to the battle for supremacy and the immense devastation caused by it.

The god of Life. Armadon fights to defend Urth and prevent its destruction from the hands of the Evil Gods. He's identified in his action figure's character profile as a "Tristegasauratops", a semi-bipedal dinosaur with Triceratops-like head and limbs, a series of spikes in his back, and a tail, the tip of which resembles a combination of an Ankylosaurus' tail club and a Stegosaurus' thagomizer. Armadon has the easiest combos, but has a short reach. His domain is the Hollows and his worshippers appear dressed in light green rags.

Me: Armadon, God of life!

Armadon: (As Alec Guinness) It's a pleasure to meet you J.D. We were told so much about you all.

Lori: How is that literally possible?

Blizzard: Word gets around quickly all over the galaxy.

Me: I see.

Armadon: I hear you have been killing the evil gods.

Me: We sure have. We killed Chaos and Vertigo.

Armadon: That's good.

?: Then you are gonna have a bigger problem!

Out came the Samurai Rangers old enemy from episode 2 of Super Samurai: ARMADEEVIL!

---

Armadeevil is a Nighlok bearing resemblance to both an armadillo and a rat, whose existence was unknown to Master Xandred before he came to the ship and offered his services. He merrily went on a rampage, and the Samurai Rangers were unable to cause him any damage due to his armor plating on his shell. They were only granted a chance to think of another strategy by his need to rehydrate. When he returned they were able to weaken his shell, first by tricking him into crashing into a rock wall, then by superheating it and quickly dousing it with cold water afterward to induce thermal shock.

Afterwards the Blue Super Samurai Ranger was able to end Armadevil's first life with a powerful slash. After Armadeevil activated his Mega Monster form, the rangers repeated their strategy against his giant size, using the Beetle Blaster, Swordfish Fencer, and Tiger Drill Megazord configurations but to no avail. Even the Claw Armor Megazord's double strike was unable to finish the fight, forcing the Rangers to resort to the Samurai Battle Cannon, which finally did the trick and destroyed him.

Powers and Abilities

Shell: Armadeevil has a shell on his back that can withstand nearly all attacks.

Ball Roll: he can make his body fit into his shell and turn into a metal ball to attack his enemies.

Jumping: He can jump at great distances and even over water.

Arsenal

Eye lasers: Armadeevil can fire red laser beams from his eyes.

---

Armadeevil: Its been a long time Samurai Rangers.

Jayden Shiba: Armadeevil! But you died!

Me: I remember this guy! He gave you all a nasty fight with that shell of his!

Armadeevil: That's right J.D. Knudson. You've sure done your homework by watching us fight on TV huh?

Me: That's right. And it was a very clever strategy the Samurai Rangers thought of when they beat you.

Armadeevil: But you can't beat me now!

Jayden Shiba: We'll see! Ready guys!?

Kevin (Samurai Power Rangers): Ready!

Samurai Power Rangers: GO GO SAMURAI!

The Samurai Rangers transformed!

They were ready!

Armadeevil: Face it, Rangers! The only way you'll ever beat me is with that strategy you did before. But I don't think you'll have the patience to pull it off this time!

Lana: We'll see about that!

Armadeevil: Don't you get it? My shell's now twice as durable.

Troy: Then we'll need twice of the same Ranger Team!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Samurai!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into a second Samurai Team!

Armadeevil: What?! Two teams of Samurai Rangers?!

Me: That's right! Lets get him!

We went at him and I kicked him in the face and sent him flying and he was in the air and he turned into a ball. I kicked him in the back and sent him flying faster than a bullet fired from a gun and the Megaforce and Samurai Rangers formed a powerful wall of rock and earth. It bounced off the walls with tremendous force and they fired blasts of fire and wind and heated him up to tremendous levels and Kevin and Noah cooled him down with water.

Armadeevil: Is that the best you can do?

Me: Think again.

His twice as durable shell cracked all over.

Armadeevil: No! NOT AGAIN!

Me: We're just getting started. Combo time on this freak!

Octopunch: Roger that boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his harpoon gun 100-fold.

Scream: We will make you scream! VENOM CYBER KEY POWER!

The Venom Cyber Planet Key went into Scream's right arm device and it enhanced her powers 100-fold.

Octopunch and Scream: SYMBIOTE LIGHTNING SPEAR BARRAGE!

Octopunch fired a powerful barrage of electrified harpoons and Scream had her Symbiote matter merge with them and they hit Armadeevil all over and electrocuted him.

Armadon: Lets see how he likes this shocking attack! GOD OF LIFE LIGHTNING SPIKE ELECTROCUTION!

Armadon fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit Armadeevil and electrocuted him all over and turned him into a burnt statue and he fell apart as a pile of ashes.

Me: YEAH!

Nico: Armadeevil has failed this universe.

Me: Yes he has. We're not done yet though. We have one more god to destroy.

We were off to the hottest part of the planet.

---

THE INFERNO

---

We were in the volcanic landscape of the Inferno. It was a hellish and deadly land.

---

The Inferno is the domain of Diablo, the god of Evil and Destruction. It is a volcanic atoll created by a geothermic upheaval ten times as great as that which formed the Hawaiian islands. Mesoamerican pyramids and stone sculptures lie among the active volcanoes and lava. The igneous island originated within the Pacific Ring of Fire.

---

Me: Wow!

Lola: Man it's really hot here!

Nicole: It's a land of volcanoes. I can't believe that this whole place used to be the Hawaiian Islands.

Me: Paradise turned into Hell.

Nico: No kidding.

Laney: This place is scary.

Earth: No kidding. I would not want to have this place on our Earth.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Varie: It sure is flaming hot here. I would not want to experience what happened here when the meteor struck.

Me: No one should.

Then a roar was heard and then out came DIABLO, GOD OF EVIL AND DESTRUCTION!

---

Now that Diablo, leader of the Destructive Dinos, has been released from his fiery prison deep within the Urth, he seeks to turn the world into a raging inferno. Determined to pursue his vision for Urth as a dominion of evil, Diablo thrives on inflicting immense pain and agony on his enemies. His followers and foes alike believe that Diablo is evil incarnate. Annihilation of all other dino-beasts is essential for Diablo to continue his reign of terror and carry out his gruesome vision for Urth.

Diablo's appearance follows that of a fire-breathing Tyrannosaurus rex. He is crimson red in color, and has dark, black stripes that follow the length of his body. He has two claws on his hands and three on his feet. He is one of two T. rex characters in the game, the other one being Sauron; the result of palette swapping an existing character sprite to inflate the roster, as was common practice in retro arcade fighting games. In the original arcade version, he is slightly shorter than his counterpart, though in the SNES port they are approximately the same height.

Me: DIABLO, GOD OF EVIL AND DESTRUCTION!

Diablo: (As Jim Cummings) Well if it isn't the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm and you have all the other gods with you!

Blizzard: That's right Diablo!

Nico: You will pay for all the crimes you caused!

Lincoln: Yeah! You are going to pay!

Laney: We won't let you rule this planet with evil!

Me: YEAH! Lets get him!

We went at Diablo and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Nico fired a blast of Vertigo's Venom Spit and it hit Diablo in the face and Lana fired a blast of ice lightning and froze him and Lola fired a massive blast of fire and burned him all over and Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted him and Laney fired a bunch of barbs covered in Strychnine Ω and poisoned him and Lynn and Earth fired a powerful blast of lava and burned Diablo all over. Sauron fired a massive Sound Fireball blast and it hit Diablo and exploded. Talon slashed Diablo all over and cut him up really good. Blizzard froze him in ice with a powerful pillar of ice and Nico released a powerful Fart of Fury with Chaos's powers and it stunned Diablo and Armadon fired a powerful barrage of spines and pinned him down. Vince fired a powerful blast of crystal energy and entombed Diablo's feet in crystal and Carol fired a powerful blast of atomic energy with Godzilla's Heat Ray.

Me: Lets finish this freak!

Seaspray: You got it J.D.! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his lasers 100-fold.

R.J. (Jungle Fury): Time for some wolf power! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his Wolf Morpher and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Seaspray and Jungle Fury R.J.: WOLF LASER FIRESTORM BLAST!

Seaspray fired a powerful blast of lasers and R.J. fired a powerful blast of purple wolf fire and the blasts hit Diablo and exploded all over.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

Me: Time for some final smash power!

Talon: Right! SURVIVAL MEGASLASH SUPERSTORM!

Talon slashed Diablo many times all over and cut him up really good.

Blizzard: Time for some justice in ice! ARCTIC GOOD SUPER COLD WAVE!

Blizzard fired a powerful blast of snow and arctic cold and froze Diablo in a massive block of ice.

Nico: Diablo, you have failed this world! NUOVA MEGA FIRE SPHERE!

The 4-Star Dragonball on Nico's bracelet glowed and he formed a massive sphere of powerful fire and he threw it at Diablo and it slammed into it and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion completely obliterated Diablo in an instant and killed him.

Me: Bingo!

May: That god is toast!

Then a familiar war that Mystery Inc. knows all too well was heard. They saw that it was the JAGUARO!

---

The Jaguaro is a half-ape/half-sabertooth tiger creature worshipped by a tribe of Amazonian natives on their sacred island. It was used as a disguise by Barney to hide his diamond mining operation in the Brazilian jungle.

Scooby-Doo and the gang were on a plane trip when a malfunction forced the pilot to make an emergency landing in the Brazilian jungle. The statue of the Jaguaro came to life and chased Shaggy Rogers and Scooby. After a chase, the Jaguaro fell over a waterfall. His costume came off and the Jaguaro was trapped. The Jaguaro was then revealed to be Barney who was using the plane to smuggle out the diamonds.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Jaguaro!

Laney: Whoa! That is a strange creature.

Me: I remember him. He was a really strange case.

Qin: What is his story?

Me: He was really Barney over in Brazil. He and the copilot Luis were doing a huge diamond smuggling operation. He was using the disguise and legend of the Jaguaro to scare people off and make sure that no one knows what's going on.

Qin: That's crazy!

Me: It was. Barney and Luis got 25 to 30 years in a South American Prison. But because of the conspiracy to murder Mystery Inc., they got life in a maximum security South American Prison without parole.

Qin: Good riddance.

Me: Yep.

Laney: I got this!

Laney went at the Jaguaro and she wrestled him all over the place and then Lola fired a powerful blast of gold fire and turned the Jaguaro into gold.

Me: That takes care of him! And we saved this world from the wrath of the Evil Gods.

Talon: We sure did. Thank you all for all your help.

Blizzard: Indeed. We can't thank you all for helping us.

Me: It was our pleasure.

Talon: (To the viewers) These guys are powerful enough to destroy gods and goddesses and they can save everyone.

Me: Yep. Thanks Talon.

We moved the planet Urth to the orbit of the Realm of Departure and it was now part of the Earth System. We went back home to our Earth.

However, Vypra and Dark Spicer were recruiting another member.

Dark Spicer: Number 7 of Legion Ex Machina?

Number 7: That's me.

Dark Spicer: I'm Dark Jack Spicer. But call me Dark Spicer for short. I heard all about you. Including how you now have the abilities of all your deceased teammates.

Number 7: I also plan on avenging them. So, please, leave me be.

Dark Spicer (smirks): What if I tell you that I can help you get your revenge on our common enemy?

Number 7 (thinks for a moment): Go on.

Uh Oh!

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and an awesome video game chapter done.

Primal Rage has been one of my favorite video games ever since I was a little kid and it was awesome! I never knew what it was about until I was older and it was awesome! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the 6th Are You Afraid of The Dark Villain: Nosferatu and he was a silent movie vampire villain that comes to live! We're gonna face him in a movie theater as he tries to make us his next meal!

See you all tomorrow.

The Malevolent Demon Vampire - Nosferatu

We were over in the awesome city of Monstropolis. It was a city for the monsters of Monsters Inc.

Monstropolis is the main location in the Monsters, Inc. series. It is the city that Mike, Sulley, and many other Monsters live in.

Star Man: Welcome to Monstropolis, Qin. The place where the good kinds of monster lives.

Qin: Wow! It's amazing!

Me: It sure is. We've had an amazing experience here.

Nico: I remember we also had to take down Randall here at one time.

Me: I told you about that Nico.

Nico: You sure did.

Next we arrived at Monsters, Inc.

Me: Here we are guys. The company that got it all started. Monsters Inc.

Qin: Whoa!

Laney: It's huge.

Me: It sure is.

Sora: Just as big and massive as I remember.

Donald: Same here.

We showed Qin around and we gave her an awesome tour. With us was Sulley, Mike, Boo, Randy, and Celia Mae.

Monsters, Inc. is the energy-producing factory in the film of the same name. Its logo is the "M Eyeball."

The commercial for the company is seen at the beginning of the film after Sulley is woken up and told to do some chores and warm-up exercises by his partner Mike Wazowski.

Monsters, Inc.'s main duty is to provide all citizens in Monstropolis with energy in the form of captured screams collected from children. They accomplish this by crossing into the Human World through the closets of children's bedrooms and scaring them to the best of their ability. The screams are then collected in special canisters for use as energy.

The factory is an immense facility equipped to fulfill the needs of its employees. Scaring takes places in rooms called "Scare Floors," where the monsters cross over into the human world using the doors of the children's closets. The doors are stored in an immense "Door Vault" and are brought to and from the Scare Floor by an automated system. Each Scarer has an assistant to help coordinate the energy collection. Any door belonging to a child who has no fear of monsters is promptly destroyed in the Door Shredder, as their screams cannot be collected.

During the events of Monsters, Inc., it is clear that the company had fallen on hard times, and screams are becoming increasingly difficult to obtain in large amounts because kids have become desensitized to their scaring. Facing a worsening energy crisis, the company sought out new, borderline-criminal means by which to obtain screams in large quantities. This is eventually resolved by James P. Sullivan, who has discovered that laughter produces more power than scream has done and reestablishes the company to have the monsters make children laugh.

In Monsters University, the factory only appears three times in the entire film, as neither Mike nor Sulley have any knowledge about the factory and working there yet: The first appearance of the factory was during Ms. Graves' kindergarten class field trip where a young Mike sneaks off into a child's bedroom used by Frank McCay without permission resulting in him being persuaded by McCay to attend MU; the second time during team Oozma Kappa's "field trip" as a result of them being fed up with Roar Omega Roar's prank at their house party only to be chased out by security guards, and the third and last time being when Mike and Sulley are both expelled from the university resulting in them starting a new life by working at the factory as mail sorters before finally becoming Scarers.

Areas in the Factory

Lobby: This is the lobby located in front of the factory, which depicts various clocks depicting various time zones around the world placed over a mural depicting a world map. On one wall is a "Scarer of the Month" gallery, which for some reason always only showed Sulley (and occasionally Mike). Celia, the factory's receptionist and Mike's girlfriend, works in this area.

Scare Floor A: Later known as Laugh Floor A.

Scare Floor B: Later known as Laugh Floor B.

Scare Floor C: Later known as Laugh Floor C.

Scare Floor D: Seen at the very beginning of Monsters University, this is the scare floor Ms. Graves' class visited on their field trip to the Monsters, Inc. factory. It is also where scarers like Frightening Frank McCay, Earl "The Terror" Thompson (Earl "The Terror" Thompson actually works on Scare Floor F in Monsters University) and Hank "The Tank" Knapp work at. During the field trip, Mike Wazowski sneaks into the scare floor without permission, which is often considered to be very dangerous to monsters, resulting in Frank giving Mike his hat and telling him to go and attend Monsters University. Later known as Laugh Floor D.

Scare Floor E: Later known as Laugh Floor E.

Scare Floor F: This is the Scare Floor where Sulley, Mike, Randall and the other scarers and their assistants work. It is a large room where various children's closet doors are brought in from the Door Vault by an overhead conveyor belt and are brought down by lifts on the ground. Then, the scarers enter the doors and try their best to scare as many children as possible to collect more screams. During a decontamination exam with the CDA, the overhead windows are shuttered off and doors on the ceiling open up to let the CDA in. Near the entrance is a giant clock and monitor display showing the Scarers' ranks and a map showing the area the Scarers will scare children. Its supervisor is Jerry. At the end of the film, Sulley after becoming the new CEO converts this (and possibly all of the other scare floors) into "laugh floors" to reflect the company's new premise of making children laugh. In University, it is shown that Earl "The Terror" Thompson, Carla "Killer Claws" Benitez, and "Screaming" Bob Gunderson once worked at this Scare Floor before either retiring, being reassigned to another Scare Floor, or possibly laid off since neither of them were seen in the original film.

Scare Floor G: Later known as Laugh Floor G.

Scare Floor H: Later known as Laugh Floor H.

Scare Floor I: Later known as Laugh Floor I.

Scare Floor J: Later known as Laugh Floor J.

Scare Floor K: Later known as Laugh Floor K.

Scare Floor L: Later known as Laugh Floor L.

Scare Floor M: Later known as Laugh Floor M.

Scare Floor N: Later known as Laugh Floor N.

Scare Floor O: Later known as Laugh Floor O.

Scare Floor P: Later known as Laugh Floor P.

Scare Floor Q: Later known as Laugh Floor Q.

Scare Floor R: Later known as Laugh Floor R.

Scare Floor S: Later known as Laugh Floor S.

Scare Floor T: Later known as Laugh Floor T.

Scare Floor U: Later known as Laugh Floor U.

Scare Floor V: Later known as Laugh Floor V.

Scare Floor W: Later known as Laugh Floor W.

Scare Floor X: Later known as Laugh Floor X.

Scare Floor Y: Later known as Laugh Floor Y.

Scare Floor Z: Later known as Laugh Floor Z.

Roz's Office: This is where Roz the paperwork inspector works. Her office counter can be separated from the rest of the factory via a retractable shutter.

Men's Locker Room: This is where all of the male scarers and their assistants go to use the restroom and store their belongings.

Women's Locker Room: This is where all of the female scarers and their assistants go to use the restroom and store their belongings.

Simulation Room: This room, featuring a simulated child's bedroom and an animatronic boy dummy, is often used to introduce newcomers to working at the factory. The simulation room is supervised by Flint. At the end of the film, Sulley and Mike both go to this room to trap Waternoose and expose his evil plans, leading the villain being arrested by the CDA.

Hallways: These are just hallways located throughout the factory.

Trash Compactor: This is a trash compactor located in the basement which destroys all waste material left in the factory. The compactor is a parody of the Looney Tunes short Feed the Kitty.

Boiler Room: This hidden room, accessed only behind several pipes in a certain part of the factory, is where Waternoose and Randall secretly built the Scream Extractor to help with their evil plans.

Door Vault: This is the largest room in the factory. It is a large area where all of the doors are kept when not in use, and are transported to the scare floors via a series of overhead conveyor belts arranged in a manner similar to rollercoaster tracks.

According to the audio commentary for Monsters, Inc., Pete Docter, the director of the movie stated that there are about 36 million doors stored in the vault. It is also stated by Docter that the vault is taller than the Empire State Building, it's about half a mile long (2640 ft), and Lee Unkrich, the co-director says that on any one given level in the vault, you can fit an entire Statue of Liberty in there.

Mail Room: The mailing room is where Mike and Sulley stared working at this factory when they were both first hired at Monsters, Inc. after being expelled from Monsters University by Dean Hardscrabble, but before being promoted to scarers and ultimately the new CEO following Waternoose's exposure and arrest. According to his backstory, Yeti the Abominable Snowman used to work here as Mike and Sulley's mailing assistant but was unfortunately banished to the Himalayas for accidentally messing up with his job.

Scream Can Storage Room: Seen only as a photograph in the epilogue of Monsters University.

Cafeteria: Seen only as a photograph in the epilogue of Monsters University.

---

Qin: Wow! This place is awesome!

Lana: It sure is. I thought it was so cool coming here!

Me: Me too.

Qin: What do they do here?

Me: Well for years, Monsters Inc. has been harnessing the energy of screams from kids they scare. They used to use screams as an energy source. But now they don't do that anymore. They go to kids around the world and entertain them with laughter. It was during the incident with Randall when he was evil that they discovered that laughter is far more powerful than screams.

Sulley: That's right J.D.

Mike Wokowski: That is a very genius find.

Rocket Raccoon: But still I can't believe that Mr. Waternoose would say such things. What the hell was he thinking? A child being toxic? What kind of bullshit is that?

Me: A big fat lie. We are not toxic. He probably was just that paranoid.

Boo: I agree with you J.D.

Powerglide: I'm glad you guys don't scare kids anymore. Even if it was for energy.

Sulley: Thanks Powerglide. And you guys are in luck. We're gonna show you how we get our job done.

Me: Cool!

We got to the Laugh Floor and we saw Mike and the workers pull out files with cards on them and they have photos of kids from around the world. Mike swiped a card on a panel and a number came up.

Me: Door 62635.

A door came through and a machine got it and placed it in a stand.

Armada Cyclonus: So these doors can teleport you anywhere?

Sulley: Anywhere around the world.

The doors were in place.

The laughers came and they got all kinds of comedy props and shenanigans ready.

Me: This is gonna be awesome! You want to give it a shot Luan? After all you and Eddy are good comedians.

Luan: Sure!

Eddy: This is gonna be good!

Me: Go for it!

Luan and Eddy were ready. The Eastern side of Europe was lit up and they were ready. The go light came on and they went to get laughter. The laughter was pouring in and the Laughter Canisters were piling up. Luan and Eddy were doing really well. They piled in 40 canisters of laughter in just half an hour!

Me: Wow! Way to go guys!

Sulley: Not bad for your first time doing this you two. You have a lot of talent.

Eddy: Thanks Sulley. We know how to make people laugh.

Qin: That was awesome guys!

Luan: Thanks Qin.

Me: They do say that Laughter is the best medicine and good for every occasion.

Lori: That's literally true. But I'm very impressed.

Me: I think we might've found an awesome job for Luan and Eddy.

We got Luan and Eddy hired at Monsters Inc.

Later we were watching the musical with Monsters Inc and it was really funny. We were laughing our heads off at it.

Needleman as Randall: Alright, Wazowski, tell us where the kid is!

Mike: I will never talk! NEVER!

Randy: I don't look like that at all.

Me: Oh come on Randy, they're just having fun. Besides you guys were awesome in the movie Monsters Inc. and in Monsters University.

Randy: That's true. But still I can't believe that I was like that in Monsters Inc. I was a total jerk!

Me: I know. But thank goodness we stopped you from becoming like that.

Laney: I agree.

Lana: Yep.

Me: But those bloopers you guys had in the movie were really funny.

Sulley: (Laughs) Yeah they were funny! But some of us got hurt because of it.

We laughed.

Rex: But that was funny how I made a cameo in the bloopers.

Woody: It was pretty funny how that happened.

Buzz: (Laughs) That's true.

We laughed some more.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we found out that supernatural disturbances are happening at the local movie theater.

Me: We got trouble at the movie theater.

I looked up what the disturbance is and we found out that the people are running away in sheer fright because of the monster from the movie Nosferatu the Demon Vampire coming to life out of the screen and is gonna kill people.

Me: Lets go!

We went to the movie theater.

GOTHAM ROYAL YORK MOVIE THEATER

We were at the movie theater and we were watching the movie Nosferatu, the Demon Vampire. It was a movie that was based on the old 1922 movie Nosferatu: A Symphony of Horror. It was supposed to be a scary and creepy movie. With us was Pete Matt and Katie Halloran and they know this movie like the back of their hand and they are gonna help us kill the movie villain. They were terrorized by Nosferatu and scared shitless.

Me: Here we go guys. Boy its been almost 100 years since this movie came out.

Nico: I know. They don't make silent movies anymore.

Me: I know.

Laney: Boy it feels like forever ago.

Lincoln: It sure does.

Pete Matt: I hope we kill Nosferatu. He ruined our lives.

Katie Halloran: I know. I'm scared.

Lana: I know you're scared, but we'll destroy him for good.

The movie was starting.

Nico: Alright, guys. Try not to fall asleep during the movie. We need to be awake for when Nosferatu comes out.

Me: Here we go.

We watched the movie and waited. It was a really creepy and scary movie. Then a few minutes later we saw him looking at us and out of the movie screen was NOSFERATU!

The theater where Pete and Katie worked was in danger of being shut down, when Dr. Vink showed up saying that he could save it and keep it open, by having the theater show one of his movies, a rare version of the classic vampire movie Nosferatu . Vink promised that his film would have brought a lot of audience and would have saved the business. In exchange, all he asked was that if his film had been successful, he would have got to show his other films in the theater one night a week. Pete and Katie's boss, Mr. Kristoff, agreed, but as soon as the doctor left, he stated that he would not show the movie.

One night, the movie they were showing burnt, so they had to show Vink's movie to keep the audience there. The audience loved it and said that they would have returned the next night. Vink soon resurfaced to get his end of the bargain, but Mr. Kristoff no longer wanted to honor their deal. The theater continued to do well, while Pete began to study the movie in an effort to figure out why it was so popular. Instead he fell asleep and thought he dreamt that Nosferatu came out of the screen. Later, Kristoff is heard screaming from his office. Pete and Katie found him unconscious, with a bite in his neck.

It is revealed that Nosferatu himself came out of the movie to get them. After they ran away from him, Katie started showing the movie. The vampire went to follow Pete, who had stepped into the film. In the movie, Pete opened the curtains, exposed the vampire to sunlight, and killed him. Pete stepped out of the film, and discovered that Kristoff was still alive. Dr. Vink reappeared, and Kristoff told him that he accepted their deal. Vink refused however, informing them that he had purchased the theater, and that he would be showing his movies whenever he wanted.

He is based on Count Orlok from the movie Nosferatu.

Count Orlok is the main antagonist of the 1922 classic silent horror film Nosferatu: A Symphony of Horror.

Orlok is one of the most iconic monsters of classic horror - rivaling Dracula, Godzilla, Frankenstein's Monster and The Wolf Man. In this regard, he is also notable for being more faithful in many ways to the traditional representation of vampires in folklore, being a hideously demonic creature rather than an attractive gentleman.

Not much is known about his past, though it is implied that Orlok is spawned from the Seed of Belial, the lieutenant of Satan. Orlok resides inside a decaying castle in a lost corner of Carpathia, so he terrorizes the people there over centuries by plagues.

Nosferatu: A Symphony of Horror

Count Orlok first poses as a nobleman from the Carpathian Mountains who moves to the city of Wisborg in Germany - he brings death with him as a result of his vampiric nature. He lives in a ruined castle high in the mountains and local townsfolk refuse to go anywhere near this castle, save for the film's protagonist, the young Thomas Hutter, the assistant of a Wisborg estate agent, who travels to his castle to show properties for sale in Wisborg.

Orlok conceals himself in one of his soil-filled coffins and is loaded onto a ship bound for Wisborg. Onboard the ship, he kills every crew member until only the captain and his first mate remain. Later when the first mate goes to the cargo hold to investigate, Count Orlok rises from his coffin, terrifying the first mate who jumps overboard in fear. The captain ties himself to the wheel of the ship when Count Orlok creeps up on him and kills him.

Upon his arrival in Wisborg, he spreads disease and plague, forcing the local authorities to declare a quarantine and provoking hysteria amongst the citizens.

Orlok stalks and attacks Hutter's young wife, Ellen, in her room, but during the pleasure of drinking her blood, he is caught unaware by the rays of the rising sun. When he heard the crowing of a rooster, he suddenly realized his own flaw and was caught in the sunlight, which burns him away in a cloud of smoke, killing him and ending his reign of terror.

Inspiration

Count Orlok was an unofficial adaptation of Bram Stoker's famous Count Dracula; however, because the studio is unable to obtain the rights to Dracula, they opted for making their own character. In the end, the two vampires would become very different beings, as Dracula would become known for his gentlemanly charm and cunning, while Count Orlok would come to embody the much more demonic, diseased side of vampire lore.

(Ironically Count Orlok is actually much more faithful to true vampire mythology than Dracula - except for the weakness to sunlight, which was added to the film and later became a staple of vampire fiction.)

Characters Inspired By Count Orlok

Count Orlok has inspired an entire subspecies of vampire also known as Nosferatus (in honor of the film) - these beings tend to be more monstrous-looking and vicious than the more human-like vampires seen in other fiction. They are also normally more demonic than normal vampires as well - midway between a vampire and a mutant.

The Master (This Buffy villain was a prime example of a Nosferatu in popular culture and was obviously inspired by Count Orlok.)

Olrox (Count Orlok's Castlevania counterpart, who looks the same and has the same name (albeit mistakenly romanized) and shares it's original counterpart's similarities with Dracula.)

Freddy Krueger (Although it seems strange at first, the slasher icon Freddy Krueger was inspired by Count Orlok - most likely the talon-like hands.)

Max Schreck - A fictionalization of the actor (portrayed by movie star William DeFoe) who played Orlok, amalgamated with Orlok himself, in the feature film Shadow Of The Vampire, in which the fact that Schreck is a real vampire is kept from the other crew members by Nosferatu Director FW Murnau.

Baron Vain: This villain from The Modifyers bears a very similar appearance to Orlok, and also shares similar title (as both Count and Baron are aristocratic titles).

Me: There he is!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the dark planet Necmensa.

Qin: Whoa! Where are we?

Me: This is dark planet Necmensa. It's where we banished Lady Tremaine and Tublat.

Nico: I remember that. This planet gives me the creeps.

Laney: It sure does.

Me: Now lets make this vampire freak of nature suffer!

Brittney: Leave that to me dad. I'll take him down.

Brittney stood forward and transformed and she was in her Super Angel 20,000 Night Raven form.

Brittney: Darkness is gonna consume this fucker.

Brittney flew at Nosferatu and punched him in the face and kicked him in the mouth. She punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the head and formed a powerful sword of pitch black fire and Nosferatu did the same and they clashed violently in a powerful sword clash that shook the whole planet and it was sending pitch black fire everywhere. Purple lightning struck all over the place and it was a massive clash.

?: That is some clash!

Troy Burrows: I know that voice!

Out came a monster that Gia Moran and Emma Goodall know all too well. It was BEEZARA from episode 5 of Power Rangers Megaforce!

---

Beezara is an Amazonian insect who is an elite on her own right and the fifth Insectoid to challenge the Mega Rangers. Beezara is wasp-themed, despite her name being bee-themed. Like Scaraba, she possesses a title of her own amongst the Insectoids: Royal Queen Warrior.

She is summoned by Malkor to join Warstar. She is a member of royalty, much like Vrak. Much like the Amazons of Greek mythology, she comes to Earth to make the male population her servants and make the women population clash with each other. She does this by using a special royal jelly venom she creates from her hand and tendrils. She succeeds in making Emma and Gia hate each other, while making Troy, Noah, and Jake her servants. After her spell was broken by the bond of friendship tying the female Rangers, Emma and Gia defeated her with their Ultimate Dino Blast Attack. She enlarges, thanks to the Zombats, only to be destroyed again by the Sky Gosei Great Megazord.

Beezara: Hello Megaforce Rangers!

Gia Moran: Beezara!

Emma Goodall: Not her again!

Me: I remember her! She turned you two against each other!

Nico: That is absolutely disgusting!

Me: No fucking lie!

? She's not the only one.

Then out came a beautiful blond hair woman and she had green eyes and a white lab coat and blue shirt and a red skirt and black shoes. She also had a fancy robot device on her arm.

Me: Are you Number 7 of the Legion Ex Machina?

Number 7: That's right J.D. Knudson. It's a pleasure to finally make your acquaintance.

Me: You aren't like the rest of your comrades that we destroyed. I never even expected Dr. Poindexter to build a female robot.

Number 7: Perhaps. But that was what he intended.

I looked at her with my data eyes and it revealed that she was very well built and she was far more powerful than the others that we destroyed and she had numerous weapons on her that can fire all kinds of lasers and missiles and more.

Me: Wow! You are far more advanced than your predecessors in the Legion. They never had that many weapons on them like you do.

Number 7: Yes I am. But I am far more advanced than my former colleagues and I still maintained my human emotion grid. I loved my father Dr. Poindexter. It's a shame he never expressed it.

Me: That's because he was unconscious inside a tank while the rest of your colleagues violated his privacy by looking into his head.

Number 7: I never knew about that.

Me: But you can still visit him and give him the love he needs and he can do the same to you as well.

Beezara just hit Gia, Emma, Maria, and Carol with her venom spray.

Beezara: I wonder who will turn on each other first. The pink and yellow rangers? Or Rockell and Pingrey?

Number 7: I look forward to recording the result.

Me: Uh oh.

Then Carol punched Maria in the face!

Carol: You are nothing but an overzealous bimbo!

Maria: You motherfucking bitch! I'm prettier than you are!

Gia Moran: I will kill you this time Emma!

Emma Goodall: Over my dead body you will!

Vince grabbed Carol.

Vince: Carol what the hell has gotten into you!?

Carol: Let me go Vince!

Vince: Not until you calm down!

Carla: Mommy stop it!

William: (grabbed Maria) Stop it Maria!

Maria: Get off of me William!

Troy Burrows and Noah Carver grabbed Gia Moran and Emma Goodall.

Troy Burrows: Hold on there you two!

Noah Carver: Get over this girls!

Me: It's Beezara's spell! It turned them against each other!

Vypra: (Offscreen) That's right and you have me to thank for it!

Vypra came out.

Me: Vypra. I should've known this was your work.

Vypra: That's right. And I have a new worker with me.

Out came a beautiful brown hair woman with a beautiful red and blue square checkered dress, black leggings, and two different color shoes. One was red and the other was blue. She had blue eyes and gold earrings and she had black armbands and she had the symbol of the infamous Red Ribbon Army on a white lab coat. It was ANDROID 21!

---

Android 21 is the main antagonist of Dragon Ball FighterZ. She is an Android created by Dr. Gero, and her intellect rivals or even surpasses his own. However, unlike most of the Red Ribbon Androids, 21 was once a human until Dr. Gero converted her into an Android. She is the mother of Dr. Gero's son, who later became the template for Android 16.

Android 21 is initially a Human-type Earthling who was converted into an Android by Dr. Gero. As a human, she was the former lover of Gero and she had a son who became the model for the design of Android 16. Over time, the cells of numerous powerful warriors and intelligent researchers were added to her, with the Supercomputer working on her after Gero's death, with even the likes of Buu's cells being added to her. 21 later discusses the fact that she is technically "not even ten years old" and was built in the image of a human woman with the IQ of an adult, noting that she feels as though she missed out on her adolescence. 21 states she has no memory of her life as a human, and often found it fun to imagine what her original name was and what her life was like. She did not know why Gero created her as a unique new type of Android different from the mecha-types (like 16) and the modified humans (like 17 and 18). Her good side did not know much about her creator (only referring to him as "the scientist") though she knew he was an evil person with great intelligence, though discussing him for some reason made her feel like crying; on the other hand, her evil side knew about Gero to an extent yet cared little for him.

At some point, 21 recalled the memory of her having a son when she was still human. When she realized that she wanted to see him so badly and have him by her side, she repaired Android 16 (the android whose design was modeled after her son) later on and explained that she wanted to treat him like family. When 21's urges resurfaced, she activated the link system to use its functions to keep herself under control, by suppressing her growing need to feed, and the evil persona that spawned from it. Eventually, this led them to seek out Android 18 and Android 17 for help separately, with the system activated, in hopes they would be able to successfully link them with another soul to. According to Android 16, at some point, the cells inside 21 may have gone berserk, which resulted in her uncontrollable urges to feed.

---

Android 21: Pleasure to meet you all. I'm Android 21.

Me: So you were created by Dr. Gero.

Android 21: That's right.

Goku: I remember you. You were both good and evil.

Android 21: That's right Goku.

Qin: Who is Dr. Gero?

Me: You would hate this guy Qin. Dr. Gero was a mad scientist that was responsible for unleashing a number of atrocities onto the world. His most infamous deed of them all was unleashing the infamous Red Ribbon Army.

Qin: The Red Ribbon Army?

Me: That's right. They were a ruthless group of terrorists that wanted to destroy the planet and rule the world.

Goku: That's right and I destroyed them.

I went over their history.

---

The Red Ribbon Army is a paramilitary criminal organization in the Dragon Ball animated series, bent on conquering the world. Its main goal is to find and collect the seven Dragon Balls in order to achieve world domination. In result of searching for the Dragon Balls they send a wave of fear and destruction throughout the world. The army was controlled by a short man called Commander Red. Red said to everyone that he wanted the Dragon Balls to conquer the world, but in truth he had another goal in mind.

Commanders

Commander Red: The original commander and creator of the Red Ribbon Army, he is very short. He is thought to have wanted to Dragon Balls to wish for world domination, but what he really wanted was to be taller. He hated to be around people taller than him and was always bullied when he was a kid. When Black found out about his goal, he killed him and took control of the army.

Assistant Black: Red's advisor and second-in-command of the Red Ribbon Army. Black usually just stood around and said exactly what

Red wanted to hear, although he really hated his job. He was a very tall African, who made Red very mad every time he stood next to him because of how much shorter Red was. When Black found out about the wish that Red really wanted to make, he shot him in the head, and renamed the army to Black Ribbon Army. His throne time is short because Goku kills him and destroys the rest of the army.

Generals

General Blue: One of the high-ranking officers of the Red Ribbon Army, Blue was the German sea operations general. He was very strong, a narcissist, and was a homosexual who feared only one thing: mice. He had a special psychic technique that could paralyze people. He was the only general who did not have subordinates. He chased Goku around a lot to find the Dragon Balls. He also fought a lot of other people to get away and go back the RR HQ. Commander Red then forced him to fight Tao Pai Pai and he is killed by Tao's tongue.

General White: The overreactive Russian in charge of Muscle Tower and snow operations, he commands Android #8, Sergeant Metallic, Murasaki, and Buyon. He had a Dragon Ball that Goku wanted, and he also threatened many people in the village outside of the Tower.

General Copper: Is only mentioned in the story. He controls Captain Yellow, Colonel Violet, and Colonel Silver. He commands them all to find the Dragon Balls, so he could take them back to Red and get all the credit.

Officers under Copper

Captain Yellow: A tiger cat, he was the only Red Ribbon officer who does not have any fighting skills. Instead, he prefers to use firepower. He oversaw sky operations. Although most Red Ribbon soldiers are humans, almost half of the army's soldiers also consist of anthropomorphic animals (mainly dogs, bears, cats, or alligators). Yellow is the only animal officer in the army; he is a tiger.

Colonel Violet: The only woman in the army, is there just for money. In the end, she steals all the money in the Red Ribbon's vault and escapes.

Colonel Silver: An American high-ranking officer who is a skilled boxer, but often underestimates his adversaries, which ends in his demise. He was defeated by Goku before Commander Red had him executed.

Officers under White

Murasaki: A very skilled Japanese ninja, but extremely perverted. He fights only when he sees no other choice. Has a special technique where he multiplies himself into many copies, each one using a different weapon, when he is actually calling his brothers.

Sergeant Metallic: A big robot who is very hard. Can get many blows without a single scratch. He is defeated when his batteries run out.

Buyon: An ugly pink fat monster. Can deflect any kind of attacks.

Android #8: A big robot that was under White's orders. Because of his good nature, he ends betraying White and allying with Goku. He then settles with the villagers.

Hired mercenaries

Hasky: A master thief who is occasionally employed by the Red Ribbon Army. She has made a career out of doing the impossible. Is hired to steal the Dragon Balls from Goku. However, Goku manages to stop her and gets the Dragon Balls back due to her ticklishness

Tao Pai Pai: A deadly and ruthless assassin who was never defeated before. When Red realizes that Goku is wiping out all of his officers, he hires Tao Pai Pai to eliminate Goku definitely. He was defeated when Goku kicked his grenade back at him and blew him up, nearly killing him.

Androids

Dr. Gero: The army's chief scientist who built all androids. After the Red Ribbon was destroyed, he spent his life to create powerful androids to kill Goku in revenge.

---

Qin gasped.

Qin: That's terrible!

Me: It was. But Goku let Dr. Gero live because he thought he wasn't a threat.

Goku: That's right. But letting him live was a mistake.

Me: Yep. After Master Goku destroyed the entire Red Ribbon Army, Dr. Gero was hellbent on killing Master Goku to get revenge. Just another fucked up mad scientist.

I went over Dr. Gero's history.

---

Dr. Maki Gero, also known as Android 20, is the main antagonist of the Android Saga in Dragon Ball Z and one of the two main antagonists of the Super 17 Saga in Dragon Ball GT alongside Dr. Myuu. He is an evil genius scientist and a brilliant weapons designer behind the criminal organization known as the Red Ribbon Army. As an android, he can drain energy from people through a device on his hand. Being the one responsible for creating the androids and Cell, as well as Super 17. He is also the creator of Android 21 who was originally the mother of his son.

Dragon Ball

Maki Gero was the chief scientist of the Red Ribbon Army (though he is never seen or even mentioned at the time) that created the first androids in the service of the Red Ribbon Army. In the anime, Dr. Flappe (who looks nothing like Dr. Gero) is named as Android 8's creator. A possible explanation is that Flappe and Gero were partners and constructed the first androids together (most likely including Android 8) or that Flappe merely constructed Android 8 while Gero produced the blueprints and forced him to create him (most likely the latter as Flappe was hinted at being a Red Ribbon member against his own will). Akira confirmed them to be partners and he modeled Android 16 after his late son who was a high-ranking member who died in a gunfire.

After the Red Ribbon Army was defeated by Son Goku, Gero went into hiding in a mountain area that was north of North City where his laboratory was located. In this lab, he strived to create the ultimate fighting machine. Using an extremely intelligent tracking device disguised as a ladybug, he studied Goku and the Z Warriors for years on end: the fights Goku had with Tenshinhan, Piccolo Daimao, Piccolo, and the Saiyans, Raditz, Nappa and Vegeta.

Dr. Gero ceased the study of Goku's power when the Saiyan left for Planet Namek, believing he had already compiled enough information; so he simply adjusted the androids' power levels to accommodate to Goku's expected power increase, not accounting for the power level of Goku's Super Saiyan form. Believing he had created the ultimate fighting machines, he finalized his plans and constructed a series of Artificial Humans (Androids).

Dragon Ball Z

Dr. Gero sought revenge on Son Goku, so he studied Goku and all his fights on Earth, including his fight with Nappa and Vegeta. He built androids with as much power as an army so they could defeat Goku. It is said by Trunks that the androids killed Dr. Gero when they awakened (as this was what happened in his timeline). However, this did not immediately happen, as Gero awakened Android 19, who made him into Android 20. They attacked a city where Goku and the other Z Fighters (minus Vegeta and Chaozu) were waiting for them. #20 destroyed a city to prevent the people from getting in the way of their fight. In a deserted area, #20 sent #19 after Goku, who then became crippled with a heart virus, and was forced to leave with Yamcha.

After Vegeta arrived and destroyed #19, #20 ran, deciding to steal energy from the other Z Fighters so he would be strong enough to defeat Vegeta. He targeted Piccolo first, but Son Gohan stopped him, and Piccolo beat up #20, cutting off his hand. However, Trunks showed up and revealed that #19 and #20 were not the androids from his timeline, but Artificial Humans 17 and 18 were. #20 retreated to his lab, but attacked a man along the way who shot at him mistaking him for a deer, leading Kuririn to fight him. They followed him to his lab where he awakened #17 and #18, who disliked being controlled and took his remote and crushed it. #20 tried to stop #17 and #18 awakening Android 16, saying it was too dangerous to awaken him. #17 then impaled him with his hand surprising everyone, and kicked his head off. He survived, so #17 stomped on his head, crushing it.

Dr. Gero's master computer was creating an ultimate android Cell from the cells of Goku, Son Gohan, Piccolo, Yamcha, Tenshinhan, Chaozu, Vegeta, Nappa, Freeza, and King Cold, which Gero had extracted using an insect-like device. In Cell's timeline (and possibly Trunks' timeline as well), Gero was killed when #17 cut his head off and #18 destroyed his head after he said Cell would swallow them up. In the regular timeline, the master computer and Cell in his larval form were destroyed by Kuririn and Trunks.

He later appeared in Hell alongside several other dead villains during the Pure Buu Saga, watching Goku's fight with Pure Majin Buu.

He also appeared in the movie Super Android 13, during his death at the hands of Android 17 (though the dialogue is changed), with his master computer programmed to think it was Dr. Gero, and it finished building Androids 13, 14, and 15. In the anime (as most of the movies are non-canon) it is said by 18 that all androids up to 15 were destroyed by Gero (excluding Android 8, as Gero never built him).

Dragon Ball GT

Dr. Gero and Dr. Myuu worked together to build another Android 17 in Hell, brainwashing the original #17 (who was no longer evil) to open up a portal from Hell which most of the dead villains escaped. The two 17s fused together into Super 17. Gero was betrayed and killed by Super 17 with an energy wave.

Legacy

Despite his death Gero actually impacts the story due to his creations. Anrdroid 16 was based on his son and Android 21 implied to have been his wife and the mother of his son was turned into a bio android for unknown reasons who served as the main villain of the video game Dragon Ball Fighterz. He also created Cell who was the main villain of the android saga through his supercomputer. Android 17 and 18 also caused devastation in Future trunks's timeline. Even in non canon materiel Gero's supercomputer managed to unleash Android 13,Android 14,and Android influence also caused Zamasu to invade Future Trunks's timeline in Superand in GT teamed up with Dr. Myu to unleashed Super Only villains who more impact on the story than Gero are Frieza and Zamasu/Goku assisted the rise of the red Ribbon Army and created Android 8.

Abridged

When he first appeared, he and Android 19 attacked two male prostitutes and a random guy in a car and mistook Yamcha for Goku before brutally beating and impaling him. When the Z warriors and Goku showed up, they quickly corrected their mistake and Gero attacks the city with blasts, before Goku punched him in the cheek, unintentionally hitting the off switch for the blasts. After "destroying" the city (he actually only blew up a small portion of it and the Z warriors, specifically Piccolo, pretended he had to prevent him from hurting more people) Gero and 19 went to a empty desert to fight the Z warriors. Before the fight, he informed the warriors on how he had been monitoring them for years and had calculated they're capabilities into his and 19's programming, only to state that he didn't follow them to Namek after Piccolo asked him if he did, following up by asking him if he knew what a Super-Saiyan was. After witnessing Goku's transformation, he had 19 load his program, only for it to encounter a unexpected error and accidentally send a report, he orders the Z warriors to wait for 19 to properly function, right before Goku hits 19 in the face.

During Goku and 19's fight, Gero spent his time yelling at 19, trying to get his program to work properly while Goku was mercilessly beating him and was frustrated at how even the simple act of dodging need a large load-time. Gero took immense satisfaction when 19 started to work and Goku suffered a heart attack, only to be upset when Vegeta showed up and went Super-Saiyan, angrily shouting "SERIOUSLY, WHAT THE F*CK IS NAMEK?!", and effortlessly killed him, causing him to run away. Vegeta and the other warriors went on the search for him and he snuck up behind Piccolo and sapped his energy, only to be kicked by Gohan, who saw them floating in the sky. He then fought Piccolo who easily countered his attacks and mocked his poor choices and design work, like his pointless and idiotic inclusion of pain receptors, he escaped by shooting down Bulma after Trunks accidentally distracted everyone.

He immediately went back to his lair and awoke 17 and 18, only to be followed by the Z warriors, who witnessed his death at the hands of the rebellious cyborgs (everyone else, except Cell, incorrectly refers to them as androids).

He reappears in the "Super Android 13" movie, which starts directly after his death in episode 38, in which his blood drips down in to his super computer, which was programmed to think like him. He rebuilds and reactivates his failures 15, 14 and 13 and sends them to kill Goku, his friends and most likely the other androids. He is killed when Krillin and Trunks show up to destroy his underground lab, meaning that this episode takes place between episode 40 and 41, even though that is obviously impossible.

---

Qin gasped.

Qin: Whoa! What a monster!

Me: That's right Qin. Dr. Gero was a monster hellbent on killing Goku no matter what. I killed him in the end with the help of Androids 17 and 18.

Lazuli: That's right and I should know. I was there.

Krillin: That's right. We saw that.

Trunks: I was really shocked about that.

Me: I know.

Android 21: I'm glad that Dr. Gero is dead. I never liked the guy. He was ruthless.

Me: I guess Dr. Gero didn't completely erase your humanity.

Android 21: No he didn't.

Vypra: I didn't know you had some history with him.

Me: Not that you would know Vypra. Besides, you can't get to Dr. Gero anyway. He's in the River of Fire and can never be brought back to life.

Goku: Good riddance.

Me: Yep.

Vypra: I'm afraid we can't stay very long.

Vypra: You can go after us. Or you can stop your friends from killing each other. Your choice.

We had no choice but to let the bad guys walk off into the distance of the place. But before Android 21 left the planet, she looked at Goku with regret in her eyes.

Android 21: (sadly) I'm sorry, Goku. (leaves)

Me: Don't worry Master Goku. There's still good inside her. But this stops now for Beezara!

I snapped my fingers and broke Beezara's spell over them!

Carol: Huh? What happened?

Maria: What the? (Gasp) I remember now! We were fighting each other because of this freak!

Gia Moran: This monster will pay for that!

Maria: (to Beezara): You've got some nerve trying to destroy my friendship with Carol!

Beezara: What are you going to do about it?

Gia Moran: (takes out Ranger Key) You know exactly what we're going to do!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mystic Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Mystic Force Rangers.

Beezara: So that's your Legendary Mode. I'm not impressed.

Then Beezara went at Tori Hanson.

Beezara: (grabs Tori by the throat) It's because of you Legendary Rangers that the Armada got defeated in the first place! But let's see what happens when I cut off the Ranger Keys' powers at the source.

But then Android 21 fired a powerful blast of energy at Beezara and it hit her in the back and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

It sent her crashing into the ground. Beezara saw this and she was shocked.

Beezara: You're siding with Goku? I thought you hated him!

Android 21: Not as much as I hate people like you!

Android 21 fired many energy blasts at Beezara and they hit her all over.

Pete Matt: Good thing I managed to avoid getting hit by Beezara's spell.

Me: I know. Lets finish this insect bitch off!

Nico: With pleasure! Beezara you have failed this universe!

Me: And many other universes!

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers fired a powerful blast of energy and magic and they hit Beezara and it exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Maria: Time for this freak to pay for messing up our Friendship!

Carol: You said it!

Carol fired a massive blast of Godzilla's Spiral Atomic Ray and Maria fired a massive blast of water.

Carol and Maria: FIRE AND WATER SUPER MEGABLAST!

The blasts swirled together and formed into a deadly blast of energy and they hit Beezara and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Beezara was completely destroyed in an instant!

Me: YEAH!

Carol: Sorry about that Maria.

Maria: No hard feelings.

Then we heard thunderous footfalls and a powerful roar was heard. We turned and we saw the SNOW BEAST!

---

The Snow Beast was a robot piloted by Jean Pierre Baptiste, Professor Kreuger's assistant. He wanted to cover his tracks when he discovered oil.

The professor asked Scooby and the gang to come visit him, but he was then kidnapped by the beast. The gang arrived to find its work complete. The Eskimo village was smashed and there were large footprints in the snow.

After it kidnapped the Eskimo chief, the gang followed it to its ice cave lair. A chase ensued, during which a submarine was discovered, along with a pipe and a pile of black snow. This allowed Velma Dinkley to realize what was going on. After rescuing the beast's prisoners, a trap was set. Scooby lured it onto a sheet of ice, on which it slipped and fell. The costume fell apart revealing Baptiste at the controls.

Shaggy: ZOINKS! Like it's the Snow Beast!

Velma: Jinkies!

Me: I remember this giant dinosaur!

Qin: What's his history?

Me: He was really a robot piloted by Jean Pierre Baptiste, assistant of Professor Kreuger. He discovered oil underneath an Eskimo Village in the North Pole and he covered it up by disguising oil derricks as Totem Poles and he took advantage of an ancient eskimo legend to scare off people and kidnap the Professor and the chief to make sure no one knew.

Qin: Wow. That's nuts!

Me: Jean Pierre Baptiste got 50 years in prison for his crimes and the conspiracy to murder Mystery Inc. landed him in prison for life without parole.

Qin: Good riddance.

Lisa: Very amazing specimen!

Lisa then went at the Snow Beast and tied it up in powerful energy chains.

Me: Great work Lisa. He'll be perfect for the Arctic Exhibit at Paleozoic World.

Nico: Good idea. (to Vypra and Number 7) Tell Dark Spicer that despite him possessing Kairi, we're still willing to play this game with him and you for as long as he wants.

Number 7: We will gladly tell him that.

Vypra: And 21? Consider yourself fired from the Masters of Evil!

With that, Vypra and Number 7 teleport out.

Android 21: I never liked working for it anyway.

Me: Good. Lets finish Nosferatu once and for all!

We went and helped Brittney. She had Nosferatu pretty much beat. He was badly beaten up and he was burning with pure black fire.

Me: Lets send this monster back to Hell!

Ben: You got it J.D.!

Ben turned into AmpFibian!

Ben: AMPFIBIAN!

Fuse Man: Lets fight with lightning and lightning!

Fuse Man fired a massive blast of lightning and AmpFibian fired a powerful blast of lightning.

Fuse Man and AmpFibian: LIGHTNING SUPER MEGA THUNDERSTRIKE!

The blasts combined and turned into a more powerful super lightning strike and it hit Nosferatu and electrocuted him all over with 700 billion volts of electricity.

Ben then turned into Armodrillo!

Ben: ARMODRILLO!

Rhino and Armodillo charged fast.

Armodrillo and Rhino: SUPER STRONG SUPERCHARGING BASH!

They both punched Nosferatu with devastating force and knocked him down.

Me: Time for some deadly Cyber Key Power!

Armada Cyclonus: You got it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his side and enhanced his blasters and lasers 100-fold.

Star Man: Time for some stellar pain! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and it enhanced his Star Crash 100-fold.

Armada Cyclonus and Star Man: STELLAR STAR LASER WHEEL!

Armada Cyclonus fired a massive barrage of lasers and Star Man fired a powerful wheel of stars and the lasers merged with it and turned it into a powerful spinning comet of light and it hit Nosferatu and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Powerglide: This monster is gonna pay! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Thermal Ray 100-fold.

Rocket Raccoon: This vampire is gonna get a big blast! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his blasters firepower 100-fold.

Powerglide and Rocket Raccoon: ATOMIC HEAT MEGABLAST!

They fired powerful blasts of energy and heat and they hit Nosferatu and exploded and burned him all over.

Me: Now to finish this monster off for good!

Android 21: You got it! SPECIAL BEAM CANNON!

Android 21 fired a powerful beam of energy and it went through Nosferatu's black heart and skewered him.

Lucy Loud: You give all vampires everywhere a bad name. BLACK LIGHTNING EVISCERATION!

Lucy Loud fired a powerful blast of black lightning and it cut Nosferatu in half.

Pete Matt: You ruined my life! LIGHTNING SUPER CUTTER BLADE!

Pete Matt fired a powerful blade of lightning and it cut Nosferatu in half and bisected him.

Brittney: You are not worthy of the powers of darkness! MAGIC BLACK CRYSTAL SHRED VORTEX!

Brittney chanted a powerful incantation and a powerful vortex of Black Crystals formed around her and they went at Nosferatu and shredded him into nothing.

I fired a massive blast of energy and obliterated him into nothing.

Me: Go to hell Nosferatu.

Katie Halloren: That takes care of him.

Then Katie Halloren came up to me and she hugged me and she broke down crying. She was crying hard and I was comforting her.

Me: It's all right Katie. It's okay.

She was crying hard so much that it made our hearts hurt.

Pete Matt: (To the viewers) Not even monsters from old horror movies can stop Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: Nope.

I was still comforting Katie Halloren. She was wailing hard as I comforted her. Android 21 was now made a member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we went back to Earth.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another Are You Afraid of The Dark Villain bites the dust.

The Tale of The Midnight Madness was a creepy and scary episode. Nosferatu in that episode was the scariest and most iconic monster from the 1920's and it was awesome! I never saw the movie but it was scary for a silent film. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is where we take down the Destructively Nefarious Kids, the Parallel Universe version of the Kids Next Door from Operation P.O.O.L. It was a freaky episode. We're going after Negative Numbuh 4 and Eizzil Enived.

See you all tomorrow.

Evil Kids Group of a Parallel Universe

In the Simulator, I was in the Realm of Darkness. It was a terrifying place where the remnants of all the worlds that were destroyed existed and all the heartless were there as well. I was tearing numerous heartless apart with my Keyblade and getting stronger and stronger at a rapid rate because of the negative energy they all had and the whole realm was flooded with negative energy and it was making me more powerful at an accelerated rate.

---

The Realm of Darkness (闇の世界 Yami no Sekai?), also translated as Dark World in its playable incarnation in Kingdom Hearts 0.2 Birth by Sleep -A fragmentary passage- and Kingdom Hearts III, is a realm made up of darkness in people in every world. Unlike the Realm of Light, the passage of time does not exist here. As a result, anyone trapped in the Realm of Darkness does not age or need food and sleep. Secret Ansem Report 5 If one who strongly resonates with darkness passes away, their soul ends up here, Chain of Memories although they can later be resurrected.

The Realm of Darkness has its own natural landmasses, often stone-like with blue glowing cracks in them. However, when Heartless devour a world's heart, it is swallowed into this realm and becomes connected to other worlds the Heartless attacked; although this sometimes help create new worlds like Traverse Town and End of the World. As with the Realm of Light, this realm has a Keyblade, Kingdom Key D, which chose King Mickey as its wielder. It is where Ansem, Seeker of Darkness formed the Kingdom Hearts of Worlds' Hearts, and is the home of all Pureblood Heartless.

After defeating Terra-Xehanort, Aqua awakes within an immense, eerie cavern known simply as the Realm of Darkness (闇の世界 Yami no Sekai?). Starting at the cavern's Middle Zone (中層 Chūsō?), she ventures through the Lower Zone (下層 Kasō?) and Upper Zone (上層 Jōsō?) before finally finding a way out. These caves are infested with Heartless and strange rock formations, as well as geysers and barriers formed from pure darkness. In the Upper Zone is a path towards a spiraling purple and violet light. Following this path leads to out of the cavern and to the Valley of the Dark (闇の狭間 Yami no Hazama?), a twisted and decaying forest drenched in darkness.

Past the valley is the Dark Cinderella Castle in the distance, which can be reached through a crumbling forested path sparsely lit with lanterns. Surrounding the castle is the Castle Town, which is filled with empty houses, business stalls, and a fountain frozen in time in the center. Pieces of buildings float around the area. At the edges of the Castle Town, the remains of the world are crumbling into blue crystals. Beyond that is the remains of the seven Dwarfs' cottage from Dwarf Woodlands, and a mirror leading to the World Within (鏡の中世界 Kagami no Naka no Sekai?, lit. "the World Within the Mirror") the Magic Mirror, which resembles both the realm of the Spirit of the Magic Mirror and the Queen's dungeon. Past the mirror is the Forest of Thorns (茨の森 Ibara no Mori?), a corruption of the dark forest of Enchanted Dominion which ends at the Forbidden Mountain. From there, a portal leads to similar cavernous area known as the Depths of Darkness. At the end of the path is a sandy terrain leading into a bright light; it leads to Homecoming, where Kingdom Key D is hidden.

At the furthest reaches of the Realm of Darkness, on the border between it and the Realm Between, is a moonlit shoreline called the Dark Margin (闇の海岸 Yami no Kaigan?). Like the caverns, this beach is littered with strange, almost organic rock formations.

Kingdom Hearts Birth by Sleep

While wandering lost through the Realm of Darkness, Aqua is confronted by a Darkside. She prepares to fight it, but three more Darksides join the fight and she loses hope. However, she is rescued by the Earthshaker and Wayward Wind Keyblades, which make quick work of the Darksides and renew her hope. She looks at her Wayfinder and remembers all the friends she has made throughout her journey across the worlds. Smiling, Aqua vows to escape the Realm of Darkness.

However, as she moves onward, a crack of light forms in the cavern's roof and a beam of darkness fires through it. Aqua's Wayfinder stops glowing and she senses something is wrong. Aqua ventures deeper in the Realm of Darkness and comes across the Heartless, enemies she does not recognize. As residents of the Realm of Darkness, these enemies prove to be stronger than the Unversed, but Aqua manages to fight her way through them until she reaches the Dark Hide. Although the beast is vicious and powerful, Aqua finally emerges victorious after a lengthy battle. Venturing forward, Aqua is horrified when she spots the destroyed Castle of Dreams jutting out of a sea of darkness in the distance.

Kingdom Hearts 0.2 Birth by Sleep - A fragmentary passage

Aqua continues her journey through the Realm of Darkness, passing through the remains of Castle of Dreams, Dwarf Woodlands and Enchanted Dominion. Aqua questions what happens to the people who have lost their worlds to darkness, while finding herself thinking back to when she was with her friends. She is eventually confronted by Phantom Aqua, an illusion created from the doubt in her heart by the darkness. Once it is defeated, Aqua finds manifestations of Terra's and Ventus's hearts; Terra is able to converse with her, while Ven remains comatose. However, Xehanort attempts to use this link to find out where she hid Ven. Terra fights off Xehanort, accidentally summoning a Darkside, which pulls Aqua into darkness.

Aqua is rescued by Mickey, who informs that an entire decade has passed since the battle with Xehanort. Mickey informs her they need to find Kingdom Key D, to help Sora and Riku seal the Door to Darkness to keep the Heartless from escaping and destroying the worlds. Upon finding the Keyblade they need, the duo find Demon Tide attempting to attack Riku; Aqua tethers it with her magic, getting pulled into a secluded part of the Dark Realm. Mickey is left to focus on sealing the Door and hoping to find Aqua again. Once she defeats the Heartless, Aqua rests; she is content to wait for her rescue, knowing now that the Realm of Light is safe with Sora and Riku there.

Kingdom Hearts

When Riku continues to resist against his possession, Ansem banishes the boy's heart to the Realm of Darkness. Riku's heart manifests as his former self, lamenting over his foolishness in abandoning his home and friends all for the sake of dark power. He hears Mickey call out for his help. Mickey lets him know that he has retrieved a Keyblade of darkness, with which they can close the Door to Darkness. Riku agrees to help, and continues onward to find the door.

Later, after Sora reaches the deepest depths of the End of the World, he finds Ansem preparing to open the Door to Darkness, so that he can enter the Realm of Darkness and the Kingdom Hearts of Worlds' Hearts laying within it. Though Sora defeats Ansem, the door has already opened and darkness begins spilling out. As Sora and his friends struggle to shut the door, they see Mickey and a restored Riku on the other side, and together, they manage to close the door.

Kingdom Hearts Chain of Memories

Riku awakens from his slumber in the Realm of Darkness when an unseen presence, later revealed to be DiZ, gifts him a magic world card and asks him to choose between slipping back into sleep, or taking the card and making his way toward the truth. Riku decides that going back to sleep would be boring, and confidently takes the card. He is taken by the card through a corridor of darkness to the lowest basement of Castle Oblivion. As Riku makes his way through the castle, he is contacted by Mickey, who is still trapped within the Realm of Darkness, but encourages Riku to persevere. As Riku reaches the top of the castle, Mickey finally finds a way out of the Realm of Darkness in the form of another card, which showed him Riku's heart and led him through a corridor of darkness constructed by Organization XIII.

Kingdom Hearts II

After running into Mickey at Twilight Town, Sora and his friends decide that they must enter the Realm of Darkness to find Riku.

When they encounter Saïx at the Battle of the 1000 Heartless, Sora even begs Saïx to let him into the Realm of Darkness, but the Nobody coldly refuses and prepares to attack. Maleficent begrudgingly rescues Sora and his friends by transporting them to the Realm of Darkness, where they run into a disguised Riku-Ansem. He leaves them a sea-salt ice cream bar and a photo of Roxas in Twilight Town as clues to get to The World That Never Was, rescue Kairi and destroy Organization XIII. They follow the clues to the Old Mansion, hoping that the Simulated Twilight Town will have another path to the Realm of Darkness.

After defeating Xemnas within his "The World of Nothing", Sora and Riku end up at the Realm Between's side of the Dark Margin. They patiently wait there until Kairi's Letter washes up on the shore. The Door to Light appears as they read it, allowing them to return home to Destiny Islands.

Blank Points

Eventually, Aqua finds Ansem the Wise sitting on the coast of the side of darkness, having been sent there by the explosion of the Kingdom Hearts Encoder, though he is slowly losing his memories again. Aqua and Ansem have a conversation about the worlds and how Ansem came to know Sora. This leads Aqua to shed tears of hope and say Sora's name, knowing that he will save her and her friends.

---

Me: This place is overflowing with negative energy. It's just hard to imagine that Aqua went through so much here for 10 years.

I arrived at the Dark Margin and I saw ANTI-AQUA!

---

Anti-Aqua is a boss in Kingdom Hearts III. She is under Master Xehanort's influence due to her corruption at the hands of Ansem. Sora is forced to fight her in order to release her from the dark corruption.

Anti-Aqua is a corrupted version of Aqua. Her hair is bleached blue, her eyes are yellow, and her once-white dress has darkened and become tattered. Her arms and legs have also begun to darken, and her hands are now black with red fingertips. In battle, she wields

Mickey's Star Cluster.

When she first reveals herself, Anti-Aqua initially appears as a black silhouette wreathed in a violet aura of darkness.

Kingdom Hearts III

Ansem, Seeker of Darkness arrives at the Dark Margin to confront Ansem the Wise about the children the former king used in his research. Aqua tries to fight Xehanort's Heartless, but the Heartless subdues her, imbues her with darkness, and throws her into the seas of the Dark Margin.

The corrupted Aqua, now known as Anti-Aqua, later confronts King Mickey and Riku when they return to the Dark Margin to find her. She has a Demon Tower restrain Mickey before revealing herself and explaining the pain she has been through over the years she spent trapped in the Realm of Darkness. She and the Demon Tide then team up to fight Riku, but with Sora's help, Riku is able to defeat the Demon Tide and free Mickey. With Mickey and Riku out of commission, Sora then battles Anti-Aqua and successfully manages to free her from the darkness.

---

Anti-Aqua: So you are J.D. Knudson.

Me: That's right. So you are Anti-Aqua. I heard so much about you from your light self. You tried to kill Sora and make him suffer.

Anti-Aqua: That's right. And I would gladly do so again. I hate people like you.

My rainbow aura flared up with tremendous force.

Me: You can hate me all you want. But all you are doing is just making me more powerful.

Anti-Aqua: We'll see about that. Now you will die.

Me: You first.

I flared up my Super Angel power and I had my sword ready.

Me and Anti-Aqua got into a massive clash and it was a powerful struggle. We were clashing all over and my sword and her Keyblade were producing sparks like there was no tomorrow. I punched her in the face and kicked her in they stomach and she fired a massive blast of energy and I deflected it and fired a powerful blast of energy at her and it hit the ground behind her and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

We went back to clashing and it sent sparks everywhere and set much of the landscape all over on fire. I punched her in the stomach and kicked her in the face and kicked her in the back and she teleported and created three clones of herself and they fired powerful energy blasts at me and I deflected them all back at her and they hit each clone and exploded.

KRABBOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Aqua fired a powerful blast of black lightning at me and I fired a powerful blast of energy and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We were fighting mercilessly with incredible speed and power and we were blowing much of the land apart with incredible ferocity.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Massive explosions and thunderous shockwaves were blowing much of the landscape apart and setting it all on fire and more. We were moving at such an incredible speed and really going at each other. Anti-Aqua demonstrated numerous and powerful moves. We backed up and stopped for a bit.

Me: Very impressive. It appears that our power is equal. But I can tell you are holding back.

Anti-Aqua: So nice of you to notice. Now you will face my full power.

Me: You've underestimated me Anti-Aqua. My power is far greater than you can ever imagine. Watch.

I then flared up my full power and I went Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Phoenix and she saw me fully transformed and powered up.

Me: (Divine Voice) This is my full power.

I punched Anti-Aqua in the face and knocked her out with one powerful punch.

I powered down and the Simulation ended and everyone cheered wildly.

Nico: Awesome job J.D.!

Me: Thanks man. Now we know what to expect when we face Anti-Aqua.

Ventus: We sure do.

Lincoln: I didn't know that Anti-Aqua was that ruthless and dangerous.

Laney: Me neither.

Earth: Yeah she was powerful and very cruel.

Qin: But that was awesome! I didn't know J.D. could match her every move like that at Super Angel.

Android 21: Me neither.

Me: I didn't expect that either.

Lana: No kidding.

We then went to the kitchen for a snack.

* * *

Later we went to the center of Fairy World in front of the Big Wand and we were talking to Denzel Crocker as a disembodied brain.

Crocker: Well if it isn't the very person I loathe the most.

Me: And if it isn't Mr. Crackfuck.

Irma: Hey, Crocker! How's our favorite brain doing today?

Crocker: (sarcastically) Oh, I've been better! Except I could've been relaxing on Tatooine right now instead of being without a body because of your hatred of me!

Me: You brought all that on yourself because of your own selfishness for fairies.

Crocker: If I can't have any FAIRY GODPARENTS! no one will! (LAUGHS MANIACALLY!)

Me: Just as fucked up as ever.

Tengu Man: (to Crocker) You should know that your buddy Dark Laser helped us against Thanos. So because of that, the next time we fight him, we'll show him mercy and throw him in the Moon Prison.

Crocker: Well, that's his problem, not mine!

Qin then walked up to him.

Qin: You are just a fucked up freak of nature! No wonder everyone hates you!

Crocker: HA! I'D LIKE TO TIE YOU TO A FUCKING ROCK AT LOW TIDE AND WATCH THE CRABS EAT YOU! YOU MAKE ME SO CRAZY!

Qin: Too late for that you fuckwad. You are nothing more than a sad and pathetic excuse of a monster.

Crocker then got so mad that it made his tank turn red with rage and he boiled mad!

Crocker: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) GAAAAHH! I HATE YOU MORE THAN LIFE ITSELF! YOU MAKE ME SICK JUST LOOKING AT YOU! I HATE YOU MORE THAN ALL OF LIFE ITSELF! (Qin's red fire aura flared up with incredible power) I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU! HAATTTEE HAAATTTEEE! HAAAATTTEEE! HAAAAAAATTTTTEEEEEE! HAAAAAATTTTTTTTEEEEEEE! HHHAAAAAAAAAAATTTTTTTTTEEEEEEEE! HHHHAAAAAAAAAATTTTTTTTTEEEEEEEEEEE! IIIIIIIIII HHHHHHHHHHHHHHHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAATTTT YYYYYYYYOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOUUUUU!

Crocker's hatred was so incredibly powerful that it defied all description and Qin's fire aura was so powerful and so strong that it was as powerful as Nico in Super Saiyan 4 and Nikiya combined.

Qin: Whoa! What power!

Lincoln: WHOA! Look at Qin! Her aura is unbelievably strong!

Earth: Unbelievable!

Yuko Tani: Wow! Her power is incredible!

Qin came back and her power was incredibly strong.

Qin: Wow! It's really weird talking to a disembodied brain.

Sideways: Why are you so surprised about Crocker's brain, Qin? Margaret White got reduced to a talking brain before her death.

Qin: That's true.

Me: But man his hatred is as powerful as his spazzing.

Yuko Tani: No kidding.

We later went back to the estate.

---

At the estate we were watching TV. It was a good series of cartoons on. We were watching T-Bone's favorite show Scaredy Cat.

We laughed when we saw him open the door and he got scared of a ghost.

Chance Furlong: (Laughing Hysterically) Oh that Scaredy Cat cracks me up.

Me: (Laughs) This show is really funny Chance!

Alexis (Swat Kats): It sure is. This show always cracks me up!

Jake (Swat Kats): It sure is funny though.

Me: Yep.

Lincoln: It sure is hysterical.

Qin: It sure is. Yuko I heard you all faced a bunch of villains that the Kids Next Door faced all the time.

Yuko: We sure did. Me and Lola were facing a lot of villains that were out to kill the entire human race.

Lola: It was an adventure worth remembering.

Nico: I heard about that.

Yuko: Let me show you some of them.

She pulled up the computer and pulled up the first villain that Lola took down: The P arent T eacher O rganization O f E radicating Y oungsters or P.T.O.O.E.Y Squad for short.

---

The Parent Teacher Organization of Eradicating Youngsters are minor villains in animated action-comedy series Codename: Kids Next Door. It is a small group of five adult villains including both parents and teachers, as their name implies. They are a parody of the PTA. Like many of the show's villains, the members of the group represent archetypes of oppressive authority figures, in this case those related to school.

They consist of The Principal, a school principal and the de facto leader of the group, who can fly but seems to do little else, voiced by Tom Kenny, Mad Dad, an abusive father figure who is angry with his child's poor grades, voiced by Jeff Bennett, The Terrible Tutor, a a school tutor who can shoot textbooks from his sleeves, voiced by Dee Bradley Baker, Heli-Teacher, an old woman possessing a flying chair, voiced by Cree Summer, and Midwestern Mom, a wrestler-like mother figure, voiced by Grey DeLise.

Their only major appearance was in "Operation: N.O.-P.O.W.U.H.", in which they attack the Sector V Treehouse but are quickly defeated. Aside from this, the members of the group are frequently seen at large gatherings of villains.

---

Qin: These guys look bad.

Yuko Tani: They were. They are an evil version of the Parent Teachers Association and they kill kids with a passion.

Numbuh 1: They did. But they got what they deserved.

Qin: I would not want to meet Mad Dad though.

Me: No he's the embodiment of an abusive father. I would kill him.

Yuko: We all would. But you would not like this kid.

Yuko pulled up the profile of former disgraced 4th Grade Class President, James Nixon McGarfield.

---

James "Jimmy" Nixon McGarfield was the Fourth Grade President-For-Life at Gallagher Elementary School. He first appeared in Operation: R.O.B.B.E.R.S. and made his official debut as "Fourth Grade President" in Operation: P.R.E.S.I.D.E.N.T. where Sector V escorts him to a meeting at City Hall, where he plans to shorten school days and make mandatory pizza lunches. Along the way, they are attacked by Ice Cream Men and a robotic duplicate of Jimmy controlled by the Delightful Children From Down the Lane. He has an Arnold Ernst Toht style fedora.

Jimmy is the main antagonist In Operation: S.N.O.W.I.N.G., in a parody of Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back. He betrays his fourth graders by planning to kidnapping them all on a snow day and forcing them to attend an assembly at the school. Using his Bus Walkers (a parody of the AT-AT's), Jimmy successfully kidnaps all but one person. During the assembly, Jimmy announces that, to be ruler, he will need a queen. In fact the whole reason for his switch to evil was to make Lizzie Devine fall for him. He even has a discussion with her on the matter when she is brought before him. He shows Lizzie her crown which was a modified "boyfriend helmet" made to warp her mind into thinking that Jimmy is her boyfriend. When Numbuh One arrived, however, he clashed 'blades' with the usurper. At the end of their battle, Lizzie announces that she loves Jimmy, which crushes Numbuh One. As Jimmy was about the finish him off, Numbuh One blocked the attack with the soup container he was given by Lizzie earlier. The container breaks, and the soup falls and lands on Lizzie's crown. The soup causes it to malfunction and explode, destroying the whole school in the process. Jimmy is taken to the KND Arctic Prison, where he finds his new girlfriend - his secretary, Anna Worthington.

Qin: James Nixon McGarfield? He sounds like he has 3 presidential names in one.

Me: I was surprised myself. His name is a fusion of Presidents James Garfield - America's 20th President, Richard Nixon - America's 37th President, and William McKinley - America's 25th President.

Qin: Wow.

Numbuh 2: That's right and in the end he got sent to Permanent Detention after turning totally evil.

Qin: Geez!

Me: I know. The Neptune Prison is also the Permanent Detention facility.

Qin: Wow. That's rough.

Me: Yep.

Yuko: It was. Here's the villain we killed.

Yuko pulled up the information of Madame Margaret.

---

Madame Margaret, also known as Madame Margie, Principal Margaret (to reflect her career) or simply as Margie, is a one-shot villain who is the main antagonist in the episode "Operation: F.U.T.U.R.E." of the Codename: Kids Next Door series. She is the evil leader/principal of St. Rita's Preparatory School. She has a profound hatred for boys due to how she was teased by her brothers in her youth. Her goal and desire was to make a utopia of all girls and no boys. Apparently, she has the ability to communicate with her younger self and vice versa through a time machine.

After Numbuh 4 from the KND was sent to St. Rita's Preparatory School by his parents, Margie presented herself in her disguise as Principal Margaret, welcoming Numbuh 4 to the school, and went with him to his new class. Once at the class, Numbuh 4 came to the conclusion that all the students were girls, so Principal Margaret revealed to him that St Rita's was a school for girls, and subsequently, she revealed her intentions to turn Numbuh 4 in a girl with her Girlifying Rifle. She just made Numbuh 4's hand to turn into a woman's, but Numbuh 4 used the powder from the speckles of the slate to escape. After became furious of Numbuh 4's escape, Principal Margaret made a tantrum and later left the classroom to go to her office at the school's tower, but she told her students to continue with their lessons, which they did not do as soon as she left, they started to play.

Once at the school's tower, Principal Margaret communicated with her future self Madame Margaret, who told her that she was busy at the moment and to just leave her a message. Principal Margaret left a message explaining her future self about Numbuh 4's escape, but Numbuh 4 appeared at the window and swinging with a lamp, launched against Principal Margaret and knocked her. Much to Numbuh 4's horror, he realized that he had "killed" Principal Margaret by splitting her in half, leading Margie to emerge from the robotic legs she was using to impersonate Principal Margaret and insult Numbuh 4 for breaking her disguise. While Margie and Numbuh 4 argued about Margie's plan to turn every boy into a girl, Principal Margaret's robotic torso, which was still alive, managed to get where the Girlifying Rifle was and tried to turn Numbuh 4 into a girl one last time, but Numbuh 4 managed to turn down Principal Margaret's robotic torso once and for all and broke the Girlifying Rifle in half, much to Margie's chagrin. To his bad luch, Madame Margaret appeared as a hologram to aide Margie, so she send four members of her Girl Squad, who managed to girlifie Numbuh 4's t-shirt into a dress, with Numbuh 4 escaping with his jetpack. However, they managed to girlifie Numbuh 4's jetpack into a woman's purse, which made him to fall to the ground. Subsequently, Margie activated the robotic legs of St. Rita's Preparatory School, chasing Numbuh 4, who was unable to call for help as Sector V was girlified.

75 years later, it's revealed that Numbuh 4 somehow escaped from the young Margie and went into hiding, but as a result, Madame Margaret became the supreme ruler of the world, sending her Girl Squad to girlifie or harass every living boy. However, Numbuh 4 created a resistance division named the Boys Next Door, who lived to fight against Madame Margaret and her tyranny. Feeling furious about the BND, Madame Margaret decided to create a giant and new version of the Girlifying Rifle known as the Supergirlifier Cannon, but it was still unoperational. Preparing for the ultimate battle against Madame Margaret's Girl Army, the BND were helped by Sally Sanban, Numbuh 3's granddaughter and a deserted member from the Girl Squad, who wanted to help the boys defeat Madame Margaret from extinct every boy in the Earth. Numbuh 4 dismissed her immediately, but he accepted her after she gave them a Girlifying Rifle to reverse its effects and make it a Boylifying Rifle. The rifle's effects were successfully reversed. Meanwhile, Madmae Margaret revealed to her girls that she anticipated Sally's desertion and secretly planted a tracker on her to discover the BND's headquarters. Ready to extinct boys from the face of the Earth once and for all, Madame Margaret activated the robotic legs of St. Rita's Preparatory School, now her utopia's castle.

Once in front of the BND's headquarters, Madame Margaret ordered the BND's Leader to call the BND to face her Girl Army. Immediately, the BND emerged with their jetpacks and started to fight. Numbuh 2's descendant transformed two girls into boys, but Madame Margaret resolved to reveal that the Supergirlifier Cannon was now operational, destroying the BND's headquarters and transforming many of its members into girls. Although Numbuh 5's descendant came to the conclusion that they needed to abandon the battle to fight another day, the BND's Leader reminded him that Numbuh 4 and Sally needed more time to infiltrate St. Rita's, so Numbuh 2's descendant sacrificed himself to get them more time, only to be soon girlified along Numbuh 5's descendant and other members. Now alone, the BND's Leader resisted to became a girl, but Madame Margaret shot the Girlifier Cannon to him, transforming him into a girl. Glorious for her victory, Madame Margaret returned to her office, happy that she had now transformed every boy from the world into a girl, but Numbuh 4 appeared at the window and swinging with the lamp, he launched himself against Madame Margaret to knock her, mimicking their first confrontation 75 years ago. After Madame Margaret asked him what he was going to do, he revealed that he was going to call for help. She reminded him that the boys were no more on the Earth's face, but Numbuh 4 used her time machine to remind her that there are still boys in the past that could help him. After Numbuh 4 dissapeared, Madame Margaret went to the time machine to follow him and prevent his actions, but Sally appeared and crushed with her feet the time machine. Realizing that her fate had been sealed and this time there was no chance for escape, Madame Margaret screamed in horror knowing that everything around her including herself will promptly cease to exist.

When he returned to the past, Numbuh 4 warned the KND about the young Numbuh 4's situation before they were girlified by Margie, so they went with him to St. Rita Preparatory School, which had started to chase Numbuh 4. They saved Numbuh 4 and Numbuh 3 went to the battlefield with the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P. to face Margie's Girl Squad. Margie ordered the Girl Squad to destroy the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P., but after shooting against it with no effect, Margie realized that the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P. was too girly already to be affected by the Girlifying Rifles. Subsequently, the H.I.P.P.I.E. H.O.P. entered into her office, scaring the Girl Squad away and roaring at Margie. With one last card up her sleeve, Margie attempted to call the still existing Madame Margaret to get help from her and avoid defeat, but Numbuh 3 crushed the time machine with her feet mimicking the way in which her future granddaughter defeated Madame Margaret in the future, effectively sealing the fate of both Madame Margaret and the Girl Squad. Numbuh 3 then arrested Margie and under Numbuh 1's orders, she was send to the Kids Next Door Arctic base to pay for her crimes. Following her arrest, the future Numbuh 4 faded into oblivion and the Girl Squad was erased from existence, as well St. Rita's Preparatory School crashed down.

75 years later, on those same grounds in which St. Rita's was destroyed, instead of Madame Margaret's dystopian girly future, there is a playground built for boys and girls, strongly implying that Margie likely spend the rest of her days in prison or is still at prison, precluding her to carry out her evil plans.

Qin gasped in sheer horror.

Qin: That is sick! I can't believe she hates all boys like that!

Yuko Tani: We were shocked ourselves. I'm glad we killed her. She doesn't deserve to be in this universe.

Me: No she doesn't. Madame Margaret got what she deserved.

Lincoln: I agree.

Chance Furlong: Yeah you got that right.

Jake (Swat Kats): What a monster.

Yuko Tani: I know. But here's another villain group.

She pulled up the profiles for the Proper Patrol.

* * *

The Proper Patrol are minor antagonists of Codename: Kids Next Door. They fly around attacking kids with their Proper Rays, transforming their clothes into pink dresses for girls and sailor outfits for boys.

Major Mrs. Manners was voiced by Jennifer Hale, and Sergeant Sensible was voiced by Daran Norris.

History

Their only major appearance was in Operation: C.A.N.N.O.N., where they (along with several other villains) attack the Sector V Treehouse when the kids forget to activate their defense systems.

They also make minor appearances with other villains.

* * *

Qin: The Proper Patrol? That's a strange name.

Me: It sure is. But they are forcing kids to wear the wrong clothes.

Yuko Tani: You got that right. But here's a villain that was really gross.

Yuko Tani pulled up the info for the Common Cold.

* * *

The Common Cold is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is an eternally ill villain who wishes to spread his cold to everyone else in the world and uses a machine to fire mucus from his nose at his enemies. He is also the uncle of Anna Worthington.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny who also voiced Knightbrace and Chester in the same series.

History

The Common Cold first appears in Operation: T.O.M.M.Y., in which Numbuh Two's brother, Tommy, aids the Common Cold out of jealousy for the KND, building a machine for him that transforms him into the "Flu Bug". Numbuh Two's mother used chicken soup to counter the machine and defeat the villain.

The Common Cold never got a starring role in an episode again, but made several minor appearances.

---

Qin: The Common Cold? Boy he looks really sick.

Yuko Tani: He was all the time and they say there's no cure for the common cold.

Me: No kidding. And I've never been sick a day in my life.

Zoe Weather: I know. Me and Hercules don't get sick anyway. The only diseases that get us sick are the diseases from the Netherworld.

Qin: Wow!

Nico: That's amazing!

Yuko Tani: I still am amazed by that.

Qin: Wow.

Yuko Tani: I know. Here's a really bad villain.

Yuko pulled up the information for Gramma Stuffum.

---

Gramma Stuffum is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. She is a fat old lady obsessed with force-feeding her disgusting food to children to fatten them up, believing that a child that is too fat to move can't get into trouble. She speaks with a German accent.

She was voiced by Grey Delisle, who also voiced Asajj Ventress in Star Wars: Clone Wars.

History

She first appeared in Operation: N.O.-P.O.W.U.H., in which she was interviewed by The Delightful Children From Down The Lane, who wanted to find a villain to bring havoc upon the KND. They convinced her to do so by saying their foes were famished. Gramma Stuffum then attacks Sector V Treehouse with her food army while their power is out. She is able to fatten Numbuh 1, Numbuh 3, Numbuh 4 and Numbuh 5 into a state of helplessness, but Numbuh 2, who has an enormous appetite and is more tolerant of her disgusting dishes, proves much more difficult to subdue. When he is finally full and about to give up, the Hamsters return and eat the rest of her food. Numbuh 2 then fires Gramma Stuffum back to the Delightful Mansion From Down The Lane, where she decides to feed the Delightful Children.

She appeared again in Operation: F.O.O.D.F.I.T.E., She is apparently revealed to be a cafeteria chef at Gallagher Elementary. During lunch period, the members of Sector V have an extended battle with her and her food, which is implied to be a regular occurrence during lunchtime. Gramma Stuffum then summons the monstrous Slamwich, which overwhelms the children until the super-powered hamster Joaquin appears and eats it. During the battle sequences are lyrically altered versions of the GWAR songs "The Private Pain of Techno Destructo" and "Gor-Gor". GWAR provided the music for this episode under the name "RAWG". After her defeat, she tells them to prepare for lunch the next day and Numbuh 4 throws a chicken leg at her, hitting her in the head as he tells her to get a real cookbook.

---

Qin: Gramma Stuffum? She looks like an everyday grandma.

Me: She does on the outside. But on the inside she's bad news.

Lola: But her food is really good.

Numbuh 2: And really tasty.

Me: But she force feeds kids. YUCK!

Qin: That's torture!

Me: It is. But her food is enough to not only make you sick, but also make you fat.

Nico: Yuck.

Yuko Tani: But here is a really dark villain.

She pulled up the profile for Count Spankulot.

---

Count Spankulot is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is a vampire who exists to spank naughty children who have violated rules. He appears to his victims in a terrifying way and announces their crimes and his name before he proceeds to punish them. Count Spankulot speaks with a deep Romanian accent.

Count Spankulot makes his first major appearance in Operation: S.P.A.N.K. and his story is revealed that he was sent to prison after mistakenly spanking an innocent child named Carlos, and after being released, resolves to now use his powers to help children rather than punish them. When he sees the Kids Next Door fighting Mister Wink and Mister Fibb, he forcibly joins Sector V, who make no complaints about this so as not to invoke his wrath.

After several missions, in which Count Spankulot proves to be more harm than good, the team decides that they must find a way to get rid of him. On a mission one night, they take Count Spankulot to a house that they claim belongs to Wink and Fibb and tell him to go inside and spank them. He does so, only to realize that the house actually belongs to the Judge who had sentenced him to prison after the previous incident, and that he has been spanking him and his wife.

At the trial, the furious judge sentences Spankulot to an absurdly long prison term, and the KND apologise to him for this unfortunate "accident". Kuki, not understanding that they are supposed to be lying, then reveals the true nature of the event to Spankulot while also revealing they were responsible for the incident with Carlos, so he begins furiously spanking them on the spot.

In Operation: L.O.C.K.D.O.W.N., Count Spankulot carries out his revenge on the KND by using his hypnotic powers to lure Nigel to the prison he was incarcerated in, then turning him into a spank-happy vampire like himself, and later, having him do the same to the other Sector V operatives, as well as Kuki's Big Bottom Rainbow Monkey Doll, while the treehouse is on complete lockdown during the night. It is explained here that Count Spankulot can turn other people into vampires by spanking the victim with his bare hands, which is why he, along with every other Spank-Happy Vampire, normally wears gloves, creating the Spank-Happy Vampire Army. The only way a victim can cure himself/herself of the Spank-Happy spell is to spank back the vampire that spanked him/her, or spank the original Spank-Happy Vampire (Count Spankulot himself), which is how the members of Sector V return to normal at the end of the episode.

In Operation: S.P.A.N.K.E.N.S.T.I.N.E., before he could administer a spanking to Mushi Sanban for "murdering" Kuki's Posh Party Rainbow Monkey Doll in Operation: C.L.U.E.S., Mushi used an evil machine on him to revive the Rainbow Monkey Doll as an undead monster. He is later seen at the Sanban's dinner party, reminiscing on the old days with Lydia Gilligan.

---

Qin: Count Spankulot?

Yuko Tani: He may have been a vampire, but he was an honorable one.

Brittney: I've never heard of a Spank-Happy Vampire and I may be a vampire hunter myself but that is just wrong.

Lucy Loud: Most vampires drink blood. But this vampire gives all vampires everywhere a really bad name.

Buffy Summers: No kidding.

Lincoln: But his spanking really hurts.

Numbuh 4: (Australian Accent) No kidding mate. It hurts to the point where you need a double-cheek transplant.

Me: Ouch.

Yuko Tani: Here's another bad freak of nature.

Yuko pulled up the profile of Chester.

---

Chester is a recurring villain in Codename: Kids Next Door, who first appears in "Operation: C.A.M.P.", where he was an evil camp counselor who brainwashed children and made them produce wholesale lanyards and wallets for him to sell. In subsequent episodes, his character was built upon from this, making him into a man who forms a variety of elaborate money-making schemes which all involve harming children.

Unlike other villains on the show, who generally stand for "adult supremacy" and mainly target the Kids Next Door and other rebellious youngsters, Chester is motivated simply by monetary greed and harms completely innocent children, making him one of the more vile villains in the series. By far his worst atrocity of all was in "Operation: F.A.S.T.-F.O.O.D.", in which he ran a hamburger restaurant where he intended to lure children, kill them and feed them as burgers to anthropomorphic sharks. Fortunately, Chester was stopped before he could take any victims by Numbuh 3, who had been sent to buy the team's lunch.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny.

History

He first appeared in "Operation: C.A.M.P.", in which he is the councilor of "Camp Lemmeouttaheah", where kids are brainwashed into making wallets and lanyards for Chester to sell. With the help from their new teammate Bradley and his parents, the KND defeated Chester and set the campers free.

In "Operation: F.A.S.T.-F.O.O.D.", Chester enacts what is undoubtedly his most despicable plan ever (and possibly the most gruesome operation of any villain in the entire series, and obviously crossed the Moral Event Horizon): opening a fast food restaurant called Burger Frenzy, where kids visiting the restaurant are captured and used as the meat on burgers which are then sold to sharks. This horrific plan was stopped by Numbuh 3 during her birthday "mission" of picking up lunch.

In "Operation: U.T.O.P.I.A.", Chester creates the "Happy Headband", which traps the victim in a virtual reality in which they experience a personal paradise. However, the device can be adjusted to turn the dream "sour". He intended to sell it to parents as a product designed to keep children under control. The Happy Headband was tested on Numbuh 1, who eventually escapes using the jet boots he is wearing in real life. He then puts the Happy Headband on Chester. In Chester's fantasy, he has defeated Numbuh 1 and finds himself in a room surrounded by a cheering crowd of his fellow villains. Mr. Boss then awards Chester a check for "a buhmillion dollars" for his victory. At the end of the episode Numbuh 4 turned the dial to Sour at which point Chester realized that he was wearing his own headband.

In "Operation: S.A.F.A.R.I.", Chester disguises himself as "Dr. Phineas Sharp", a doctor who gives vaccination shots for "Moosebumps". he used Nurse Jumbo, a needle hating elephant who quit working for Chester after receiving repeated vaccinations by mistake due to Chesters poor aim and Numbuh 1's quick foot work. However, the shots he gives actually cause Moosebumps, which literally turns the victim into a moose. Chester intends to saw off the antlers of his victims and use them to make "Chester's Marvelous Moosicles". Though at the end of the episode it's revealed the entire episode was the paranoid ramblings of Numbuh 1 who was trying, and failing, to explain to his mother why he shouldn't get his moosebumps shot, in the final shot of the episode it's revealed that Chester is the secretary for the real doctor.

---

Laney: Chester?

Qin: This guy looks like trouble.

Me: He is from the looks of it.

Lola: He was. I'm glad we destroyed him.

Yuko Tani: Me too. Here's a really dumb villain though.

Yuko pulled up the information on the Toiletnator.

---

The Toiletnator (real name: Lou Pottingsworth III) is a recurring joke character from Codename: Kids Next Door. He is obviously a toilet-themed supervillain, a motif that has unclear justifications even compared to the show's other villains. He is seen as a non-threat by KND operatives everywhere and shunned by other villains to the point that they take deliberate measures to keep him away from their villainous meetings. Despite all of this, he is incredibly enthusiastic and jubilant about being a villain and completely oblivious to the fact that no one wants him. His "powers" include several toilet-related abilities such as shooting toilet paper from his arms.

He was voiced by Dee Bradley Baker.

In the episode "Operation: F.L.U.S.H.", Toiletnator decides to prove himself worthy to the other villains by defeating the KND in their treehouse. However, because the members of Sector V were away at the time, the other villains had already taken over the treehouse without resistance and as a result the empowered Toiletnator defeats his own allies, mistaking them for the kids, who arrive right afterwards just when his sudden burst of competence wears off.

In the comic story "Operation: H.I.S.T.O.R.I.E.", Toiletnator's origin is revealed: he'd once been Lou Pottingsworth III, an executive for Evil Adult Industries, before he was assigned by Father himself to become part of the company's operation to mass-produce their new vegetable: "asparigross". But when the Kids Next Door attacked the factory building site, Lou hid in a porti-potty and was trapped in there for several days when it was knocked under a large mass of rubble, forced to eat nothing but urinal cakes. There, he was visited by "The Almighty Protector of Potty" (some form of toilet god), who'd chosen him to be its knight (the only reason being that he'd been the only one to use the bathroom in a while) and bestowed him with toilet-based powers, which he used to punish kids who wrote on the bathroom walls, missused toilet paper, and forgot to flush. The comic also revealed that the Toiletnator is actually Numbuh 4's uncle and Mr. Beetles long lost twin brother.

---

Qin: Toiletnator?

Lola: He was as pathetic as the Amoeba Boys.

Lana: But his toilet paper is good for nothing.

Me: Yep. To the Kids Next Door he was mostly used for Comic Relief.

Numbuh 1: That's right. He was a good comic relief villain.

Lola: Yep.

Yuko Tani: I'm glad we banished him to that island. Here's another villain.

Yuko pulled up another villain and it was Knightbrace.

---

Knightbrace, real name Mr. Jelly, is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is an oral health-themed villain who attacks children at night and forcibly performs painful and unnecessary dental and orthodontic procedures on them. He is one of the most frequently recurring villains of the series alongside Toiletnator, Count Spankulot, and Stickybeard.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny who also voiced the Common Cold and Chester in the same series.

Origin

Knightbrace's true identity is Mr. Jelly. Mr. Jelly had dreamed of being a dentist all his life, but used extreme methods and was kicked out of dental school for trying to put braces on babies. He was then forced to work in his family's candy store, thus damaging kid's teeth rather than cleaning them. This ultimately drove him over the edge. He thus became Knightbrace and sought out to repair the damage he'd done. Knightbrace wears a dark blue/purple costume with a tooth on the front and a large halo-shaped retainer; this causes him to speak with a lisp. He also wields an extremely large toothbrush, clubbing the Kids Next Door with it and even using it to pole vault. He considers himself to be a vigilante similar to Batman, styling himself the Enamel Avenger.

Codename: Kids Next Door

Knightbrace first appeared in Operation: T.E.E.T.H. Sector V first became aware of Knightbrace when he was encountered by Numbuh 3 while she was walking home one night after a trip to Mr. Jelly's candy store; the entire team went back to the candy store with her because her teeth got whitened to an extreme level. On the way back, Knightbrace launched a sneak attack on Numbuh 4 and nobody noticed until they reached the Sector V Treehouse, whereupon they found Numbuh 4 tied up with giant braces that stuck out very far and within minutes both Numbuh 2 and Numbuh 5 were also attacked and tied together with floss. The KND initially assumed him to be Dr. Sigmund Teef, a dentist who had offered them free checkups (and been rudely refused) earlier that day. When the villain is unmasked by Numbuh 1, he and his team are shocked to learn his true identity to be Mr. Jelly. Dr. Teef, who had been awakened by the noisy fighting, then walks into the room, at which point Knightbrace's past is revealed. Dr. Teef saves the KND from Knightbrace by giving him taffy, his "delicious weakness". Apparently, even Knightbrace has an occasional sweet tooth, despite his hatred of cavity-inducing foods.

In Operation: F.L.U.S.H., Toiletnator believes Knightbrace to be Numbuh 4, who he considers to be his arch-nemesis, when he attacks his fellow villains at the Sector V Treehouse and violently disposes of him. When he does this to Knightbrace, a view of the treehouse shaking violently is shown on screen with a rumbling sound affect.

In Operation: A.W.A.R.D.S., Knightbrace is the host of the Villain's Choice Awards. As his clothes are stolen by Numbuh 4 during the episode, he is forced to appear onstage in his underwear. He was to read the winner of Best Villain award, but was caught up in the fighting before it could be revealed.

In Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S., Knightbrace is believed to have been tie-ified by a Queen Neck Tie along with Potty Mouth while at the tieland common shopping mall. It's unknown what happened to him after this, mostly he got eaten alive.

---

Qin: Knightbrace?

Lincoln: I remember him. He makes moms job as a dentist look bad.

Me: I know. He gives dentists everywhere a really bad name.

Rita: I agree with you J.D. I can't believe that he ruins the good reputation of all dentists everywhere.

Me: I know. But thank goodness he's dead.

Stickybeard: My history before joining you lads and lassies was brutal.

Yuko Tani: I remember that.

Yuko pulled up Stickybeard's profile.

---

Stickybeard, formerly known as Stickyfuzz, is a recurring antagonist in the Cartoon Network series Codename: Kids Next Door. He was once a cabin boy of Licorice pirates.

He was voiced by Mark Hamill, who is also known for the live action role of Luke Skywalker in the Star Wars franchise and also the voice actor for the Joker.

Stickybeard is a candy-loving pirate who sails around the suburbs where the members of Sector V live in his ship the Sweet Revenge (which is a reference to the Queen Anne's Revenge). Along with his crew of Candy Pirates, Stickybeard hoards candy in the same manner that traditional pirates horde gold, primarily by stealing it from various children. Stickybeard's name references the notorious real-life pirate Blackbeard, as well as the fact that his beard has several pieces of candy stuck to it. The candy of Stickybeard and his crew is very prominent to the point that parts of the ship itself is made of candy, and they use weapons made of candy, such as candy cane swords and gumball cannons.

Stickybeard frequently targets the Kids Next Door due to their large stash of candy, and is most closely associated with Numbuh 5, also a lover of candy, who he respects as a rival; he even offered her the position of First Mate and heir aboard his ship in Operation P.I.R.A.T.E., which she turned down. He has aided members of the KND on multiple occasions, including saving them from the great white asparagus monster and escorting them home in Operation A.F.L.O.A.T. and teaming up with Numbuh 5 in Operation L.I.C.O.R.I.C.E. to save Heinrich Von Marzipan (his former cabin boy) from evil pirates made out of licorice under the command of Black John Licorice, who Stickybeard was worked for as a cabin boy on their ship in his youth. He was also on Numbuh 4's bowling team in Operation M.I.S.S.I.O.N.. He especially eats candy in a rush, as seen in Operation Q.U.I.E.T..

In Operation V.I.D.E.O.G.A.M.E., Stickybeard is the boss of Operation S.H.I.P.S.H.A.P.E., fought by Numbuh 5. In Operation A.W.A.R.D.S., Stickybeard was nominated for best villain at the Villains' Choice Awards, along with Gramma Stuffum, Mr. Boss, and Father. In Operation G.I.R.L.F.R.I.E.N.D., he tried to steal the Sweater of Sweetness, but was foiled by Numbuh 1. He last appeared in Operation I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S., where he stole Yipper Card 87 from the Nerd Zombies, which resulted in the Nerd Zombies chasing Stickybeard and his Candy Pirates away.

In real-life, Stickybeard would likely be arrested for breaking and entering, robbery, property destruction, and possibly involuntary manslaughter if anyone was in the houses destroyed by his ship.

---

Qin: Wow! I love candy as much as anyone else.

Stickybeard: That ye do lass.

Yuko Tani: But here's another villain I despise.

Yuko pulled up the information of Mr. Fizz.

---

Mr. Angelo Fizz is a minor antagonist from Codename: Kids Next Door. He is Numbuh 2's arch-nemesis.

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett, who also provided the voices of Major Man and Professor Dick Hardly in The PowerPuff Girls.

Background

Mr. Fizz is the Hispanic head of the Soda Control Board. He raised the legal soda drinking age to 13 meaning children were banned from consuming it. He enforces this law strongly and dedicates himself to remove the underground soda bars and their suppliers, one of whom being Numbuh 2 of the Kids Next Door. Despite his occupation, Fizz himself is seemingly addicted to soda which possibly provides him an incentive to prevent children from drinking soda. He utilizes many soda based weaponry most notably his combat suit consisting of mostly soda barrels and bottles. He is tall and thin and dons purple shades and white suit with grey suit attire adorned by a red tie and big white shoes. His more notable characteristics are his chin and mustache.

Codename: Kids Next Door

Mr. Fizz debuted in Operation: P.O.P. He catches Numbuh 2 illegally selling soda to an illegal underground soda bar. After his men destroy the bar, he takes Numbuh 2 into questioning. Despite capturing Numbuh 2's fellow operatives, Numbuh 2 refuses to divulge any information. After the children begin ranting angrily, he storms out for a drink. Once getting a drink he looks through the observation window to find the KND escaping. He sends the guards after them but to no avail. Whilst attempting to escape from the Soda Control Board, the heroes discover a factory in which children are getting stuffed into bottles. While they are in shock, Mr. Fizz appears and reveals his plan to keep control over the children. The Kids Next Door rant angrily at Fizz causing him to go beserk. He bellows "soda" and encases himself in his soda based combat suit. He unleashes rivers of soda onto the children. Whilst Fizz battling on the conveyor belt, Numbuh 2 switches the belt on and off, shaking him rapidly. After the belt is stopped Fizz swears vengance however, before he can enact his revenge, the carbonation in his soda bubbles over leading his suit to explode. Afterwards, while the children are enjoying the soda, Fizz, under the watchful eye of Numbuh 2, searches for Numbuh 5 in all the bottles.

Mr. Fizz returns in Operation S.I.X in another attempt to defeat Numbuh 2. He has his spy, Lt. Seltzer, infiltrate an underground soda bar where Numbuh 2 and Numbuh 3 are recieving a mission. Once Fizz is informed by Seltzer of 2's plans, he sends guards to capture the heroes. However they are subdued by Robobradley while 2 and 3 escape. Once they are on the road, Fizz himself pursues them in a Soda Control Board Carbonator. He almost captures them until Robobradley breaks into the carbonator and releases his smell onto Fizz and his minions. However as Mr. Fizz has Anosmia (an ability to percieve odours) he is not affected. Fizz catches the skunk but is distracted by an oncoming Carbonater manned by Lt. Seltzer and his men. They crash causing a large soda explosion. This does not stop Fizz as he and his men immediately continue pursuing the heroes in soda related cars. They surround them and Fizz is almost catching up to the truck, however Numbuh 2 initiates the turbo boost created a large distance between them. Whilst Numbuh 2 attempts to deploy the PowerPack emergency brake, Fizz kicks him off the truck and laughs while he hangs on to Robobradley. Numbuh 3 drives the truck into a hippopotamus ranch and Mr. Fizz gloats about he will defeat Numbuh 2 on top of his contraband. Numbuh 3 abandons the wheel to save Robobradley and the truck bounces of a hippopotamus sending Fizz flying. He then finds the heroes at the Yipper Youth Club Playtime Pizza Palace and gloats that he finally caught Numbuh 2 redhanded with millions of barrels of soda. However they discover that the contents of the truck was The Delightful Children From Down The Lane's birthday cake. As they escape, Numbuh 2 realises the roadblock was to stop him from delivering the cake. He optimistically acknowledges that at least they were not caught with any soda, but Numbuh 3 returns with one giving Fizz a devious look on his face.

Fizz also makes other cameo appearances in other episodes.

Operation S.O.D.A.

Mr. Fizz was the main antagonist of the gameboy advance's Operation S.O.D.A. The plot of the game is that the anti-child senate passed the Soda Control Act prohibiting children under the age of 13 from drinking soda. The Kids Next Door are outraged and decide to rebel against the act by providing soda to children secretly (which in real life could never be passed legally as it violates the right for young children to drink soda, which the U.S. constitution forbids laws that violate the rights of others). The game consists of mission where the player goes up against members of the Soda Control Board in order to deliver soda or to disrupt Fizz's plans. Mr. Fizz himself his the final boss of the game. After the battle, the volcano erupts and washes away Fizz's soda.

---

Qin: Mr. Fizz?

Yuko Tani: He was the head of the Soda Patrol and he outlawed all soda everywhere.

Me: Very similar to what happened during the 18th Amendment in the United States Constitution.

Qin: The Great Prohibition of Alcohol but with Soda.

Vince: That is nuts. I love soda.

Me: I know. My favorite soda is root beer.

Lincoln: I like orange soda.

Lynn: I know. That guy is a monster.

Carol: He sure is. I don't think we faced him yet.

Me: I don't think so either. I can't remember.

Laney: That's all right.

Yuko Tani: Yeah. But here's a villain that shocked us.

Yuko pulled up the information of Mr. Boss.

---

Mr. Boss is a fat, greedy villain and a major antagonist from the show Codename: Kids Next Door. He is Father's right hand. He is Numbuh 3's arch-nemesis and Numbuh 86's father.

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett.

Despite the fact that he has not fought with any weapons or technology, Mr. Boss is the #2 greatest enemy of the Kids Next Door, and unsurprisingly, it is Father and the Delightful Children From Down the Lane who top the list. He always has a cigar in his mouth. He is the leader of the Villains who are adults, and has no control over the children villains (who Father has control over few of them or they work alone).

As second-in-command of the adult villains, he is also the minor leader of all the common-appearing villains. His three most supportive henchmen are Crazy Old Cat Lady and Mr. Wink and Mr. Fibb. Later, it is revealed in Operation: D.A.D.D.Y. that Numbuh 86 (Fanny Fulbright) is actually his daughter, and that Mr. Boss loves his children, and still cares about them a lot even if they're in the Kids Next Door, including one of his sons Numbuh 85.

His biggest plan before was to transport all girls, then the boys to planet Pluto, but was stopped by Numbuhs 3 and 4. Numbuh 1 calls him Sector V's most biggest enemy, but he was fought only four times. He is a "boss" because Numbuh 3's mother and Numbuh 4's father work for him as boss.

---

Qin: Mr. Boss?

Yuko Tani: He is Numbuh 86 and 85's father. It really threw us for a loop and we couldn't bring ourselves to kill their father.

Numbuh 1: Numbuh 86 and 85 love their dad and we couldn't kill him. He may be my sector's biggest enemy, but he's still a good parent.

Me: That's good.

Yuko Tani: Even though the adults are out to cause the Genocide of all of Humanity, we could never bring ourselves to kill a father of one of the Kids Next Door's members. Despite us being terrible enemies.

Lincoln: Good. That's a good act of judgement.

Yuko Tani: Thanks. Now here is a very strange case.

Yuko pulled up the profile for the Delightful Children From Down The Lane.

---

The Delightful Children From Down The Lane are five children who are bent on the destruction of the Kids Next Door Organization and the supremacy of adults over children. They speak in synchronization and stand together in group formation. They are the secondary antagonists throughout the Kids Next Door series.

Bruce was voiced by Ben Diskin, Cindy and Constance were voiced by Cree Summer, David was voiced by Tom Kenny, and Lenny was voiced by Dee Bradley Baker.

Although the Delightful Children are in service of Father, they are seen acting independently from him just as often as not. The Delightful Children rarely partake in direct physical combat, usually sending other villains to do their work and controlling large combat machines. They make more appearances in the series than any other villains, and more than any character other than the five members of Sector V.

It is revealed in Operation: Z.E.R.O. that the Delightful Children are none other than the operatives of the legendary "lost sector" of the KND, Sector Z. They were captured by Father and placed in his first prototype Delightfulization Chamber, which had much stronger effects than intended and completely destroyed the children's individual identities, creating the hive mind that is the DCFDTL and destroying the unstable machine.

Shortly after this is revealed, the Delightful Children are re-commissioned by Re-commissioning Module, restoring them to their former selves as KND operatives. However, the effects of delightfulization were so powerful that any reversion is temporary, and the re-commissioning module's effects wear off during the final battle on the moon base. Sector Z's final words to Numbuh 1 as the delightfulization takes hold again are "Tell The Kids Next Door That we miss them!".

The Delightful Children celebrate their birthday five times a year, as they are technically five people. Each time, they prepare a delicious cake which they intend to eat it without sharing with any other kids and force their "guests" to watch as they do so. Sector V personally attempts to stop them from eating their cake at all costs whenever they celebrate their birthday, which occurs six times throughout the series and composes a recurring storyline, throughout which this simplistic scenario is repeated with several variations and exaggerated to absurd lengths.

In "Operation: C.A.K.E.D.F.I.V.E'.", Father creates a moon-sized ice cream cake for his children and attempts to remove all other ice cream, planning to have all the children in the world watch as they eat the last ice cream in existence. In each of these episodes, the cake is stolen, destroyed or in some way rendered inedible for the Delightful Children, save for "Operation: S.I.X.", where Numbuh 2 is tricked into personally delivering their cake to them. This leads to Numbuh 362 giving the mission to Sector W in "Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S.".

In "Operation: F.O.U.N.T.A.I.N.", it was revealed that the Delightful Children were responsible for making Numbuh 1 bald, which was done in such a way that his hair would never grow back. This occurred shortly before he joined the KND, and is never shown and only briefly mentioned, leaving the circumstances of the incident up to the imagination of the viewer.

Their first appearance was in Operation: C.A.K.E.D., the very first episode of the series after No P in the Ool and the first installment in the aforementioned "C.A.K.E.D." series. Their connection to Father was first revealed in Operation: G.R.O.W.-U.P., also the latter's first appearance, in which he gives them use of the "Really Really Incredibly Destructive Machine" and the Age-Changing Cigar from Operation: C.A.B.L.E.T.V.. Using these items, the Delightful Children successfully destroy Sector V's treehouse and turn Numbuh 1 into an adult.

The DCFDTL are obsessed with behaving properly and wish to become adults as soon as possible. In Operation: E.L.E.C.T.I.O.N.S.', they make a deal with Chad to let the students of his middle school enslave the students of Gallagher Elementary in exchange for being "promoted" to middle school level, thereby becoming "that much closer to glorious adulthood". In Operation: F.O.U.N.T.A.I.N., they attempt to destroy the Fountain of Youth in order to prevent anyone from remaining a kid.

When startled, the Delightful Children become disoriented and briefly cease their synchronization with each other. In "Operation: U.N.D.E.R.C.O.V.E.R.", Lenny, the boy with the helmet, is apparently revealed to be an undercover KND operative and leaves the DCFDTL to assist the team during their attack on the coffee rig, during which time he functions independently and acts like a normal kid.

However, this is revealed to be a ruse, as Lenny was only pretending to be an undercover KND operative so he can get his hands on the KND's top secret files and he returns to the Delightful

Children towards the end of the episode. Even after this is revealed, Lenny alone is responsible for the error that causes the Delightful Children's defeat, as Numbuh 274 and Sector V (except Numbuh 4) knew Lenny was tricking them from the start and he would betray them sooner or later, so they turned the tables by pretending to trust Lenny and give him fake files. He and the other Delightful Children discover the files is actually a bomb, much to Lenny's dismay as the others call him an idiot.

In "Operation: I.T.", the Delightful Children betray Father in order to stop his plan to spread broccoli throughout the world to force feed to children, which even they are against, because they are still children, and even they hate broccoli.

The last we see of the Delightful Children is in "Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S.", in which they are on a scavenger hunt to retrieve their cake. When Numbuh 1 returns to the amusement park with Father's pipe, the children begin to battle him for it, and end up on a log-river ride. The Delightful Children get him into a hold and are about to end him once and for all, when Nigel grabs onto a sign while they fall into a broken part of the ride and into a deep hole below, presumably to their deaths.

---

Qin: Whoa! They were the long lost Sector Z!?

Yuko Tani: That's right. Lola freed them from the Delightfulization curse that plagued them.

Lola: I remember that. It was awful what Father did to them.

Qin: I think I remember that. Father was the worst. But who is Father again?

Yuko pulled up his profile.

---

Benedict Uno, also known as Father, is the main antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door. He is one of the most powerful villains in the show, and one of the most malicious, being one of the few to actually attempt to kill members of the KND. He is the adoptive father and the boss of The Delightful Children From Down The Lane and Nigel Uno/Numbuh One's uncle and arch-nemesis.

Father was voiced by Maurice LaMarche and Jeff Bennett as Benedict while in Cartoon Network: Punch Time Explosion he was voice by Nolan North who also did the Penguin in Batman: Arkham Series.

Father was the brother of Monty Uno (Numbuh Zero) and son of Grandfather. Unlike his brother, Ben was too afraid to rise up against his father, and ran away. He later grew resentful of his brother overthrowing their tyrannical parent.

At some unknown point, he gained his powers and became the villain known as Father. He secretly kidnapped Sector Z and turned them into The Delightful Children From Down The Lane, adopting them as his own children, resulting in the Kids Next Door losing all contact with Sector Z, until the events of Operation: Z.E.R.O. when Numbuh One's father Monty (Numbuh Zero) discovered the truth and temporarily recommissioned them.

In a crossover with Villainous, it's revealed that he buys his technology from the Black Hat Organization, however, it's uncertain if this info is canon.

---

Qin: Geez! He's ruthless!

Lola: He was ruthless. Father was the ultimate personification of pure evil. He wanted nothing more than to kill all of the entire human race.

Me: Yep. I'm glad he's dead.

Jared: I agree dad. But I have a strong feeling that Vypra will bring him back and he will try and kill us.

Me: I know son. But we'll be ready for him.

Numbuh 1: But that's nothing compared to facing a Kids Next Door from a parallel universe.

Nico: Parallel Universe?

Numbuh 1: That's right. We faced an evil version of the Kids Next Door from a mirror universe called the Destructively Nefarious Kids. This is a version of the Kids Next Door gone very bad.

Numbuh 1 went over their history and it was terrible.

---

The Destructively Nefarious Kids are the counterparts of the Kids Next Door who exist in a mirror universe where everything is the opposite of the way it's in the regular universe. They are seen in Operation: P.O.O.L. The Destructively Nefarious Kids are devoted to tormenting children everywhere and rule their world with an iron fist.

At the end of Operation: P.O.O.L., the DNK change their ways and help kids instead of punishing them. Negative Numbuh 4, the original DNK supreme leader, was also sentenced to the broccoli mines for his crimes against the Negaverse.

Their original archenemies are the Little Traitor Dudes For Children's Defense (who are the counterparts of The Delightful Children From Down The Lane).

Known Members

Negative Numbuh 1 - Negative Sector V Member

Negative Numbuh 2 - Negative Sector V Member

Negative Numbuh 3 - Negative Sector V Leader

Negative Numbuh 4 - DNK Supreme Leader

Negative Numbuh 5 - Negative Sector V Member

Negative Numbuh 49 - (Temporary) - Negative Sector V Member

Negative Numbuh 86 - DNK Troops Leader

Known opposites

In contrast to the Kids Next Door, who use 2x4 Technology for their weapons and tree houses for bases, DNK have futuristic weapons and well-armed fortresses. Their armor pieces resemble the 2x4 tech, though. For example, Numbuh 86's helmet is adapted from strainer basket, while Negative Numbuh 86 has a real battle grade helmet. However, it still retains the basic shape. Some of the more generic KND troops have slide projectors as helmets that use the lenses for laser targeting. The negative troops use helmets of similar shape, but again, they're made out of battle grade material (and to further extend the Positive-Negative pun, the negative troops have one horizontal line instead of a normal crosshair, which represent a negative, or minus, symbol. The KND troops have a normal crosshair, which in comparison represents a positive, or plus, symbol). The DNK also have negative numbers for codenames in contrast to the KND who have mostly positive numbers for codenames. The negative kids have the opposites personality as there counterparts

Trivia

The DNK is a backwards spelling of KND.

They're also similar to the DC Comics group, the Crime Syndicate of America, mirror universe counterparts of the Justice League of America.

The logo has Negative Numbuh 4 in the middle and Negative Numbuh 1 on the far right, as opposed to the KND logo because Negative Numbuh 4 is the leader of the Destructively Nefarious Kids.

Their computer voice is male instead of female (similar to how the ISS Enterprise in the Star Trek episode "Mirror Mirror" has a male voice instead of a female voice like the USS Enterprise), and the Technology name is on top than below.

---

We gasped in horror!

Me: That is awful!

Nico: No kidding! I can't believe that this version of the Kids Next Door is that evil!

Me: But this also reminds me of an episode of Star Trek that I remember seeing with my dad. It was called Mirror, Mirror and that was a strange one.

Nico: I remember that one. That was really strange.

Laney: No kidding.

Vince: Boy that is really strange.

Superman: I remember something very similar to this. It's where we went into the parallel universe where we weren't called the Justice League, but the Crime Syndicate of America.

Me: That's horrible Kal. But that is terrifying. I would hate to imagine if I had a mirror twin. I would not like it one bit.

Nico: Me neither.

Numbuh 1: Here is their leader.

Numbuh 1 pulled up their leader's profile. It was NEGATIVE NUMBUH 4 - Eeballaw Seltaeb. He looked so much like Numbuh 4 except he had a malevolent black beard.

---

Negative Numbuh 4 is the Supreme Leader of the Destructively Nefarious Kids, an evil version of the Kids Next Door Organization that exists in a parallel Negative Universe, and the tyrannical ruler of that universe before his defeat.

Negative Numbuh 4 founded the DNK to start a tyranny of child oppression on their world.

When the main characters entered the Negative Universe through a portal in Wallabee's new backyard pool and Negative 4 discovered the existence of a positive universe, he sent Eizzil to capture her counterpart Lizzie in a bid to take over the positive universe.

After successfully capturing the members of Sector V and replacing them in their universe with his servants, Eeballaw revealed himself to his captives, but they mocked him on his goatee. In response, Eeballaw declares that positive Sector V and Lizzie will fight each other in the arena and all but the winner will be sent to the broccoli mines while the winner will become his "bestest bodyguard."

Negative Numbuh 86 made a weak protest, only to be harshy rebuffed by Negative 4. Nigel mocked Negative Numbuh 4 and declared that they will never fight each other and rule alongside someone who rules by using fear, so Negative Numbuh 4 orders his guards to take the prisoners to the broccoli mines.

With that settled, Eeballaw returned to the pool, waiting impatiently for his minions to secure the positive universe's pool and begin his invasion. Before he could do so, he found his minions resurfacing and greatly injured. Shortly after, Numbuh 4 jumps into the pool and enters the Negaverse, facing his negative counterpart on the diving board, with the Negative version bragging that his guards and superior intellect gave him the advantage.

However, Wallabee recognized that his foe was everything he was not; therefore, he was also an utter coward. Although Eeballaw tried to deny the accusation, Eeballaw's challenge caused him to order his guards to fire. Unfortunately for Eeballaw, this display of cowardice - coupled with a regretful Ynnaf's impassioned speech to her teammates - led to the DNK turning against their leader and realizing the error of their ways.

After a short rant about his team's betrayal, Eeballaw leaped into the portal to the positive universe, only to be kicked back to the negative universe by Eizzil. He was then apprehended by his former minions, who sent him to his own broccoli mines as punishment for his crimes against the Negative Universe.

Appearance

Eeballaw appears identical to his positive counterpart, apart from a black goatee on his face. He claims it makes him look "eviler", but it's the source of much ridicule from both allies and enemies alike.

Personality

As with all inhabitants of the Negaverse, his personality is mostly the inverse of his positive counterpart. Although both Numbuh 4s possess a short temper and a boisterous personality, Eeballaw is much more intelligent and calculating than his heroic counterpart, able to coordinate the DNK through a combination of good strategy and simple intimidation.

However, he is also extremely cowardly if confronted directly, as opposed to Wallabee's fierce courage and hot-headedness. Consequently, he's almost totally reliant on his subordinates for protection; which, given their fear-based loyalty, is entirely dependent on his ability to keep up a threatening image as leader. Eeballaw also appears to act somewhat childish, as he uses words such as "toys" to describe his weapons.

Eeballaw shows no apparent attraction towards Ikuk, nor she towards him, displaying the opposite of their positive selves.

Trivia

Negative Numbuh 4 has a black goatee, referencing the evil version of Spock from the famous Star Trek episode "Mirror, Mirror", which the entire episode is a parody of.

His real name might be Eeballaw "Yllaw" Seltaeb.

Since Wallabee hates Rainbow Monkeys, it may be possible Eeballaw secretly loves them, but is too afraid to admit it to due to keeping up with his fearmongering attitude and his cowardice.

---

We gasped.

Me: Geez! That is just like with Spock in Mirror Mirror.

Nico: But really bad.

Me: No kidding. But it also says that his name is spelled backwards.

Numbuh 1: Everyone in that universe's name is spelled backwards. And here is his helper.

Numbuh 1 pulled up the information of Eizzil Enived - Lizzie Devine's evil counterpart.

---

Htebazile "Eizzil" Enived, a.k.a. Negative Numbuh 49(-Temporary), is the Negative Universe counterpart of Lizzie Devine and a member of the Destructively Nefarious Kids, working for Eeballaw as one of his most trusted agents. Her whole name is Lizzie Devine spelled backwards.

Personality

Since she is the opposite of Lizzie, she is very mean and evil. Even though Eizzil is the opposite of Lizzie they are both loud and bossy.

History

She captures her positive counterpart and lures Nigel to the Negaverse, where she attempted to pose as Lizzie but Nigel wasn't fooled. Surprised by his deduction, Eizzil triggered a conveniently placed springboard that launched Nigel into the DNK treehouse.

Later confronting a chained Nigel, Eizzil learned from him that he knew she was an impostor when he looked into her eyes and he demanded the real Lizzie. As a confused Lizzie asked what was happening, Nigel cunningly suggested Eizzil's ex-boyfriend explain. Begrudgingly, Eizzil summoned Legin, who then boasted about their organization, the Destructively Nefarious Kids. Nigel soon proceeded to mock Legin, correctly suspecting he wasn't DNK leader. Eizzil attempted to punish him with a S.P.L.A.T.T.L.E., only for the Little Traitor Dudes For Children's Defense to appear and set their positive counterparts free. Though Nigel and Lizzie managed to escape, Eizzil and Legin later recaptured them and went into the Positive Universe in order to pose as their positive counterparts and convince Numbuh 4 to take apart the Energy Enhancement Grid in Sector V's treehouse.

However Numbuh 4 was able to figure out that he was being tricked when Negative Numbuhs 2, 3, and 5 arrived and Numbuh 4 saw that Negative Numbuh 3 wasn't Kuki. Numbuh 4 manages to beat up Negative Numbuhs 1, 2, 3, and 5 and send them back to the Negaverse, however he manages to somehow convince Eizzil to see the error of her ways and assist him in stopping his negative counterpart's plans. When Eeballaw enters the positive universe, Eizzil tells him to get off her friend's world and kicks him back into the Negaverse.

After Eeballaw is captured, Eizzil rejoins the DNK in the Negaverse and assures the Postive Sector V and Lizzie that they won't need help from their positive counterparts now that nobody is afraid of Negative Numbuh 4 anymore. As Positive Sector V leave, Eizzil hugs Nigel for complimenting her eyes, calling him "Positive Nigie" before he's taken back to the positive world by Lizzie.

Trivia

After the events of Operation: G.I.R.L.F.R.I.E.N.D., it could be assumed that Eizzil and Legin got back together.

It is possible she may be Negative Numbuh Vine (possibly named Negative Numbuh Nive)

---

Qin: Whoa!

Star Man: Boy that is an extremely toxic relationship.

Laney: Yeah no kidding. I would not want to have Numbuh 1 date someone like Eizzil. You are much better with Numbuh 362.

Numbuh 1: Thanks Laney.

Yuko Tani: I agree with Laney. Nigel Uno and Rachel MacKenzie are a match made in Heaven where as Legin Onu and Eizzil Enived are a match made in Hell.

Numbuh 1: Agreed.

Me: But what Negative Numbuh 4 and Eizzil are doing is completely unforgivable. We need to go to that universe and shut down the D.N.K. for good.

Nico: I agree.

Lincoln: But like the Kids Next Door treehouse we'll never get in without setting off alarms.

Me: Hmm. Then we need a plan.

Carol: Maria, I know the perfect way to beat the DNK.

Maria: Which is?

Carol: We can have J.D. turn us back into our 10 year old selves so we can infiltrate the D.N.K.'s ranks. Oh, and we should also get the help of Father's good counterpart and his kids.

Me: That's a great idea girls! And just to be on the safe side, I'll mark the K.N.D. members to avoid confusion with numbers.

Numbuh 1: Good thinking J.D.

Me: Okay.

I snapped my fingers and Carol and Maria were now 10 years old again.

Beachcomber: How's it feel to be 10 years old again, girls?

Young Carol: I feel amazing!

Me: One time, one of Lisa's experiments accidentally made Carol look like she was 6 years old.

Vince: Wow. I remember you told me about that. That was something.

Nico: I remember that. That was cool.

Laney: It sure was. But mom and dad were not happy. But they remembered that.

Rita: It sure was adorable.

Lynn Sr.: Made us feel like we went back in time.

Me: It sure did.

Young Maria: So much has changed for us when we turned 11.

Me: Boy no kidding.

Young Carol: I know.

Young Maria: I remember the time we infiltrated a bullies club and smashed their faces in and got them all arrested.

Young Carol: That was a good deed.

FLASHBACK 1

Carol and Maria went into a bullies club and just as they got in, they smashed a bunch of bullies faces in and tied them up.

Young Carol: That was a breeze.

Young Maria: You said it.

The police came.

Policeman: Good job girls. We've been after this gang for months. They were wanted all over Michigan.

Young Carol: They were terrorizing our school and pounding a bunch of kids to death. They killed one of our friends.

Policeman: Well they will get life with this. Great job girls.

FLASHBACK 1 ENDS

Me: Boy that was awesome!

Nico: Those bullies failed this world.

Young Carol: They got life in prison without parole.

Lincoln: Good riddance.

Vince: Yep.

Young Carol: Also we beat up another bully and got him expelled.

FLASHBACK 2

Carol and Maria used their deadly martial arts skills and pulverized a bully to pulp. They turned him over to the principals office and got him expelled and arrested.

FLASHBACK 2 ENDS

Me: Good riddance to that freak.

Numbuh 1: The best entrance into the mirror universe is through a swimming pool.

Me: Wow. That's interesting. Okay.

I snapped my fingers and the Sector V KND had colored Numbers on the right cheeks of their faces and their elbows.

Me: Perfect. Lets go!

We went to the swimming pool and Brittney used her magic and opened a portal into the mirror universe.

Me: It's ready.

Shaggy: Like no way are we going!

Scooby Doo: Yeah there might be a monster in there!

Shaggy: Like, forget it guys! There's no way we're going into a place where there might be a monster!

Me: Oy vey. You guys are true cowards.

Nico: (Holds up a box of Scooby Snacks) Would you two go with us for a Scooby Snack?

Daphne Blake: Hey that's usually my line!

Nico: Sorry Daphne.

Shaggy: No way!

Scooby Doo: Not on your life.

Me: Okay then.

I grabbed them both by the shirt and collar.

Me: This is it guys. We're going in. CANNONBALL!

I dove into the portal tucked into a ball and pulled Shaggy and Scooby Doo in with me.

Lily Loud: (Imitating Mr. Krabs) All ashore that's going ashore Mr. Squidward! Land HO!

Lily dove in.

Everyone else all dove in. We were now in the mirror universe.

Shaggy: Like why did Freddy let you into the gang in the first place?

Me: Because he needed an enforcer to keep you cowardly chickens going. That's why.

We saw that it was a nasty wartorn nasty landscape and city. The sky was dark and lightning struck all over the place and it was a terrifying place.

Me: My god. This whole place is Hell.

Nico: This is awful.

Me: It gets worse. Look.

We saw the kids being forced to work like slaves in working and the adults were living like kids.

Me: This place is a nightmare. Lets go.

We walked around the city and it was worse than what we originally thought. It was like something out of a horror movie.

Nico: This place is a nightmare.

Me: I already said that.

We arrived at the headquarters of the Sector V D.N.K. headquarters. Young Carol and Young Maria went into the treehouse and in a house, Rhino went in. We stayed outside and waited.

Rhino was walking through a hallway when he spotted some tech that looked awfully similar to the K.N.D.'s upgraded weapons

William: (calls Rhino) Rhino? Are you there?

Rhino: Yep. You're not going to believe what I found. The D.N.K.'s been developing a lot of weapons. And most of it looks similar to the K.N.D. weapons after J.D. and the others upgraded them.

William: Whoa! Okay. Stay where you are. Me and the others… (static cuts off the call)

Rhino: Hello? Oh well. Negative Numbuh 4 probably chickened out. I could've taken him myself anyway.

Negative Numbuh 4 (over the intercom): Really now? Well, mate, you're not worth my time. I usually let my new friend take care of the hard work for me.

Rhino: Friend?

?: He means me.

Rhino saw Game Goblin in his tiny form.

Rhino: Game Goblin, right? You're so puny right now that I can take you easily.

Game Goblin: You're right. Time I changed size!

As Game Goblin turned into his true form, Rhino charged at him. But Game Goblin punched him to the ground.

Game Goblin: Hold still. This won't hurt a bit!

As Game Goblin fired his Controller Beam at Rhino, we cut to the outside of the D.N.K.'s base as we hear Rhino screaming.

Me: We got to find Rhino.

Spiderman: I'll find him.

Spiderman went to look for him and in the backyard he heard something.

Spiderman looked around for Rhino.

Spiderman: Rhino? Where are you?

?: Right behind you, Wall Crawler!

Spidey turned around to see Rhino with red eyes.

Spiderman: Rhino? Oh no. Don't worry. I can help you. (Rhino backhands him into a wall)

Rhino: I don't need your help! I've never felt better in my life. (Approaches Spiderman menacingly as he gets up) Y'know, I forgot how much fun it is to be the bad guy!

We went and saw what was going on and I saw a green energy wire attached to Rhino. I saw who it was connected to. It was GAME GOBLIN from Episode 5 of Super Ninja Steel.

---

Game Goblin was (as his name applies) a goblin/lawn mower/video game-themed contestant on the second season of Galaxy Warriors, he appears in the episode "Game Plan".

Game Goblin was sent by Madame Odius to teleport the Ninja Steel

Rangers into a video game and destroy them. He was first seen in his tiny form as he explains his plan to suck the Rangers into his game and destroys them after enough people play his game, to which they do, he captures 4 of them, and after exploring his plane and turning into is true form, the Red, Yellow, White and Pink Rangers morph and took on the battle with Game Goblin, the Rangers had the upper hand, but Game Goblin had to recharge himself, to which after words he fires his Controller Beam at the Red Ranger, to which he now attacks the Yellow, Pink and Blue Rangers, he then does the same with the White Ranger when the Controller Beam on the Red Ranger wore off, to which after it wore off of her, the Rangers flee and try to hide, but Game Goblin finds them and gains even more points (up to 1000) thanks to the Blue Ranger and all other students in the School playing his game, he overpowers the Rangers but right before he could finish them off, the Blue Ranger comes in and kicks the monster away, tho he now gets hit by Game Goblin's Controller Beam, resulting him attacking the Rangers, the Yellow, White and Pink Rangers attempt to battle Game Goblin as the Red Ranger deals with the Blue Ranger, tho they had the upper hand, Game Goblin cowedly ask the Blue Ranger to help him, for which he does, then after being order by Game Goblin to steel their Power Stars, he goes all out of the Rangers and he was on the verge of snatch the Yellow and White Rangers' Ninja Stars, but fortunately Game Goblin loses his power when Levi Weston with Mick Kanic succeed to convince the students to stop playing at his game, which snaps the Blue Ranger back to normal, Game Goblin is then destroyed by Preston Tien's Blue Tornado Strike Final Attack, but then he gains a bonus level and goes giant, the Blue Ranger then summons the Ninja Steel Zords and forms the Ninja Steel Megazord Dragon Formation to take on Game Goblin, tho the Megazord had the upper hand at first, but Game Goblin uses his Controller Beam on the Megazord which immobilize it, the Rangers then summons the Astro Zord and forms the Astro Ninja Steel Megazord to fight Game Goblin, but it too got hit by Game Goblin's Controller Beam which freeze it too, with only one option left, the Rangers summon the Sub Surfer Zord to form the Sub Surfer Ninja Megazord, Game Goblin then attempts to fire his Controller Beam at the Megazord, but it gets deflected by the Sub Surfer Ninja Megazord's sword, he then fires the Controller Beam three times, but the Sub Surfer Ninja Megazord was too fast and Game Goblin is finally destroyed by the Sub Surfer Ninja Megazord's Riptide Slash Final Attack.

Game Goblin: Its been a long time Ninja Steel Rangers.

Brody Romero: Game Goblin! I didn't know you were here!

Me: I remember him! He put you all in a video game so he could destroy you!

Preston Tien: That's right.

Sarah Thompson: That was cool being in a video game!

Nicole: That would be something and we were in Sugar Rush.

Lana: I remember that.

Game Goblin: (To Nicole) So you are the famous Goddess of Video Gaming, Nicole Knudson.

Nicole: That's right. You have quite a knack for making video games. I can tell.

Game Goblin: Thank you. But lets see you fair against my new friend.

Nico: I don't think so.

Ninja Steel Rangers: It's MORPHIN TIME!

The Ninja Steel Rangers transformed.

Brody Romero: POWER OF THE NINJA! NINJA STEEL RED!

Preston Tien: STEALTH OF THE NINJA! NINJA STEEL BLUE!

Calvin Maxwell: STRENGTH OF THE NINJA! NINJA STEEL YELLOW!

Hayley Foster: SPIRIT OF THE NINJA! NINJA STEEL WHITE!

Sarah Thompson: SPEED OF THE NINJA! NINJA STEEL PINK!

Levi Weston: RHYTHM OF THE NINJA! NINJA STEEL GOLD!

Ninja Steel Rangers: NINJA RANGERS FEAR NO DANGER!

An explosion of fire went off in the background behind them.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Game Goblin: I'm not impressed.

Nico: You should be.

Nico punched the Game Goblin in the face and kicked him in the stomach and knocked him down.

Then the Ninja Steel Rangers used their powerful Team Attack and they slashed the Game Goblin all over and Me and Nico slashed him with our own Ninja Steel Spin Blades in an X formation and we obliterated him in a fiery explosion.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Rhino was freed.

Rhino: (Groaning) Oh man. What happened?

Nico: We found you in here. But you had red eyes and were being controlled by Game Goblin.

Brody Romero: Luckily, we freed you by destroying Game Goblin. Good thing he didn't suck us into another one of his games.

Rhino: That's nice to hear. Now, we have to find Negative Numbuh 4.

Preston Tien: You just got freed from mind control. Go back with the others outside when you can. We'll find Negative Numbuh 4 and take him down ourselves.

Me: Lets do it!

We went into the D.N.K. Treehouse.

---

Inside the briefing room, a massive fiery explosion blew a hole through the door and a phoenix cry was heard.

We came in.

Negative Numbuh 4: (Australian Accent) So you all came.

Me: That's right and we came to shut down the D.N.K. for good. Your days of tyranny are finished forever.

Nico: Okay, Negative Numbuh 4. It's time you told us why you reassembled the D.N.K. again. And why you seem to be making weapons based on the upgraded ones from the K.N.D.?

Negative Numbuh 4: (laughs) Oh, we've got nothing to say to you blokes.

Me: You better start talking or else.

Eizzil: We've already completed the construction of the weapons. And soon, they'll be in the hands of our… associates.

Numbuh One: Are you talking about the Masters of Evil? I thought you were smarter then that. As soon as they get what they want, they're going to get rid of you.

Negative Numbuh 4: We'll worry about those blokes. You just need to worry about yourselves.

Eizzil: We'll give you one chance. Leave this place and mind your own business. Otherwise, you'll end up like your stupid friend Rhino.

Brody Romero: Not gonna happen. We're just going to have to take our chances. Besides, you should know by now that we have a few tricks up our sleeves.

Me: Powerful tricks.

Negative Numbuh 4: Oh, we know.

Eizzil: But we know all about your tricks. We're the negative versions of that stupid K.N.D., remember? They were barely a match for us. And neither are any of you.

Me: Hmph. You guys underestimate us and that will be your undoing.

Troy Burrows: Time to see who has the best firepower.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: S.P.D.!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the S.P.D. Power Rangers.

We went at the D.N.K. and I punched Negative Numbuh 4 in the face and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning at Negative Numbuh 3 and electrocuted her and Laney punched her in the face and kicked her in the stomach and chest and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire at Negative Numbuh 2 and burned him and Lisa fired a powerful blast of energy from her hands and it hit Negative Numbuh 1 and exploded with incredible power and burned him all over. Luna fired a powerful blast of water at Negative Numbuh 5 and got her wet and Linka fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted her all over and Bella turned into Ultimate Bella and activated Arctiguana's powers and she blew a powerful blast of ice and froze Negative Numbuh 3 in a block of ice and fired a powerful blast of lightning when she activated Ultimate AmpFibian's powers and electrocuted her all over and it hurt really bad.

I punched Negative Numbuh 4 in the face and kicked him in the crotch!

Negative Numbuh 4: YOU ROTTEN FREAKS!

Me: Says the pot calling the kettle black.

I kicked him in the face and went behind him and gave him a mega atomic wedgie!

Nico: Destructively Nefarious Kids, you have failed this world!

Nico punched Negative Numbuh 2 in the stomach and he projectile vomited his guts all over Nico.

Nico: Aw sick!

Then out of the blue, a powerful blast of fire hit Negative Numbuh 4 in the face and burned him all over. And we saw that it was Father's good parallel universe counterpart Tcideneb Onu and with him were the Delightful Children's good counterparts The Little Traitor Dudes For Children's Defense.

---

The Little Traitor Dudes For Children's Defense

The Little Traitor Dudes For Children's Defense, or L.T.D.F.C.D. for short, are the counterparts of the Delightful Children From Down The Lane in the Negative World.

According to legend, they were once members of the Destructively Nefarious Kids who defected from the group and began fighting their tyranny, but are generally unsuccessful in defeating the DNK.

In Operation: P.O.O.L., Numbuh 1 and Lizzie Devine met the LTDFCD when they saved them from Eizzil and Negative Numbuh 1.

Later, they joined in the fight against Negative Numbuh 4 and his evil DNK Attack Team, where they would have lost if Negative Numbuh 86 had not interfered. After Negative Numbuh 4 was defeated, the L.T.D.F.C.D. and D.N.K. operatives agreed to become friends and work together to make their universe a better place for everyone.

Personality

As the opposites of the Delightful Children From Down the Lane, they talk in surfer accents rather than in monotone (though they still speak in unison just like their real-world counterparts). True to their title, they fight for children's rights and oppose the adult tyranny that DNK enforce over the Negaverse as opposed to the Delightful Children who enforce adult tyranny. They are also heroic as their counterparts' former Sector Z-selves.

Appearance

They are dressed in summer clothing as opposed to school uniforms, live in a trailer as opposed to a mansion, and are led by "Daddy" as opposed to Father.

Daddy

Daddy is Negative Universe's version of Father, and the "daddy" of the Little Traitor Dudes For Children's Defense. He only appears in the episode Operation: P.O.O.L..

Appearance

He resembles Benedict's human self as seen in Operation: Z.E.R.O., but with a pink shirt, brown hair, pink glasses and blue bow tie.

Personality

Being the opposite of Father, he is very kind and cares for his children very much, but is also cowardly and unwilling to get things done. Father is mostly brave while Daddy is cowardly. He is first seen hiding in a closet in the LTDFCD's trailer and comes out when they return home. He told positive Numbuh 1 and Lizzie about the DNK and when the DNK show up, he goes into the closet again just as the trailer is blown up.

Daddy can be similar to Father's younger-self in term of cowardly and worriedly attitudes, except unlike his positive counterpart, Daddy never fell into the path of villainy through his adult life. Daddy is a decent good guy as his positive counterpart's long-lost older brother, Monty Uno.

Trivia

Although this episode predates Z.E.R.O., the character model had previously been used for "Mr. Wigglestein" in Operation: A.R.C.H.I.V.E., who later in the episode, was revealed to be Father.

They also share the same voice actor (Jeff Bennett).

His real name could be either "Tcidineb Nietselggiw" or "Tcideneb Onu", although neither has been confirmed.

His decent kindness as his counterpart's brother somehow foreshadows that his positive counterpart's connection to Uno family, thus, Daddy is likely related to Negative Numbuh 1.

---

Me: Whoa! Are you the good version of Father?

Daddy: That's right. My name is Daddy. I'm the good version of the bad father.

Me: Wow.

LTDFCD: COWABUNGA Dudes!

Leo: And I thought we were the only ones that said Cowabunga.

Raph: Yeah.

Donny: No kidding.

Mikey: Cool.

Me: Lets get them guys and finish them with our teamwork!

The LTDFCD punched Eizzil all over the place and we fired powerful weapons of our own.

Ben: Time for some powerful alien power!

Ben turned into Lodestar!

Ben: (Techno Voice) LODESTAR!

Lodestar fired a powerful magnetic blast and he buried a Negative Numbuh 2 under some metal.

Lodestar: Time for some ultimate power.

He pressed the Omnitrix symbol and Lodestar turned into a new ultimate form. He turned into ULTIMATE LODESTAR! Ultimate Lodestar looks very similar to Lodestar, except now his body exists as many fragments held together by a magnetic field. In some continuities his colour scheme is inverted, meaning the parts of his body which were yellow whilst unevolved become black and vice versa. His head is in the center of his body, and the Ultimatrix is on his 'chest' segment.

Ben: (Deeper Techno Voice) ULTIMATE LODESTAR!

Me: Whoa! An Evolved Biosovortian!

Shanan: Wow! I never saw something like that. That's amazing!

Nico: So cool!

Riley: That is so cool!

Ultimate Lodestar: Watch what I can do Riley.

Ultimate Lodestar used powerful magnetokinetic abilities and formed a massive cage around the Negative Numbuhs and Eizzil except for Negative Numbuh 4.

Riley: Whoa! That is awesome!

Me: Awesome! You are done for Negative Numbuh 4. Time for you to meet your maker.

Demona: With pleasure!

Ben turned into Fasttrack.

Ben: FASTTRACK!

Demona and Fasttrack went at Negative Numbuh 4 with incredible speed.

Demona and Fasttrack: SUPERSONIC MEGAPUNCH BARRAGE!

They punched him all over with incredible strength and speed.

Cheetah: Time for this cat to slash.

Ben then turned into Chamalien.

Ben: CHAMALIEN!

Cheetah went at incredible speed with her claws ready and Chamalien was invisible.

Cheetah and Chamalien: INVISIBLE SPEEDING SLASH STORM!

They slashed him all over and cut him up real good.

Beachcomber: Time for some action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his wheel mounted guns 100-fold.

Irma Lair: You are gonna be drowned! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Irma's Right Arm Device and enhanced her Water Powers 100-fold.

Beachcomber and Irma: MAELSTROM SUPER LASER DELUGE!

Beachcomber fired a powerful laser barrage and Irma fired a powerful barrage of lasers and they hit Negative Numbuh 4 and exploded and got him wet.

Cybertron Sideways: Lets see how you like this! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Planet X Cyber Planet Key went into his shield and extended his shield blades.

Tengu Man: This is gonna be awesome! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and enhanced his Tengu Blade 100-fold.

Sideways and Tengu Man: RAVEN BLADE MEGASLASH!

Sideways flew at him in jet mode and Tengu Man fired powerful blades and they both cut Negative Numbuh 4 all over.

Me: Now lets finish this bastard off!

Lola: You got it! Time for you to burn! FIRESTORM SUPER DRAGON BLAST!

Lola fired a powerful and massive blast of fire and it turned into a powerful dragon that roared ferociously and it hit Negative Numbuh 4 and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion completely destroyed the entire DNK Treehouse and burned it completely to the ground.

Me: That's it for that Treehouse.

Yuko Tani: This tyrant doesn't deserve to be a leader! EXCALIBUR BURN SLASH!

Yuko channeled fire into the powerful blade of Excalibur and slashed Negative Numbuh 4 all over and burned him.

Numbuh 1: You are a true mockery of the entire Kids Next Door name! You will never ruin our name again! Kids Next Door! BATTLESTATIONS!

Numbuh 5: 5!

Numbuh 4: 4!

Numbuh 3: 3!

Numbuh 2: 2!

Numbuh 1: 1!

Sector V KND: SECTOR V SUPER LASER BLAST!

They fired blasts of red, aqua blue, green, orange and dark blue light and the blasts combined and they formed the letter V and they hit Negative Numbuh 4 and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked down Negative Numbuh 4.

Numbuh 4: Like I said before, Evil Me, I've more braver then you!

Numbuh 4 punched him in the face and knocked him out. We put him in the cage.

Me: That takes care of that.

Then we heard evil cackling and out came a monster I remember. It was the Ghost of Witch McCoy!

---

The Ghost of Witch McCoy was the disguise of Aggie Wilkins. She made up the Ozark witch, McCoy, to scare the Hatfields away from their cabin, because her ex-boyfriend, Zeke Harkins, deposited a map to his hidden loot in the cabin.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Ghost of Witch McCoy!

Me: I remember this evil witch!

Qin: What was she known for?

Me: She was really Aggie Wilkins. She was a store owner and her boyfriend was a notorious bank robber that busted out of prison, Zeke Harkins. He stole $500,000.00 from a bank in West Virginia and buried it. He was arrested for it. When Aggie found the money, Zeke broke out of prison when he learned that Aggie found directions to the money. She used the Witch McCoy story to frighten off the last of the Hatfields away so she could steal the money before he could. But the Hatfields moved into the cabin and she used the story of Witch McCoy to scare them away. The Hatfields were locked up in a sawmill when we rescued them.

Qin: Wow! That was clever.

Me: It was. Zeke Harkins got sentenced to Life Without Parole in Solitary Confinement and Aggie Wilkins got 50 to 70 years in prison for her crimes.

Qin: Geez! And she got Life for the murder conspiracy right?

Me: Nope. She was not involved in it.

Qin: Wow.

Lucy Loud: I'll face her.

Lucy fired a powerful blast of black lightning and sent her spirit back to the afterlife.

Nico: (To Shaggy and Scooby) Next time I'll motivate you with a Pizza Flavor Scooby Snack.

Shaggy: Pizza flavored!?

Nico held up a box of pizza flavor Scooby Snacks.

Scooby Doo: OH BOY!

Shaggy: Like thats my favorite flavor!

Later we got the entire D.N.K. together.

Me: Destructively Nefarious Kids, we have arrested your leader.

Lola: (to the rest of the DNK) Your leader is done for! And so, you all have to surrender!

Me: I would do it if I were you. You've tormented this world and its children for far too long and we will not stand for this.

I snapped my fingers and erased the memories of all of the DNK members and they were just normal kids now with no memories of being in the DNK.

The DNK Sector V kids were sent to Permanent Detention in our Universe.

The DNK was disbanded and the world of the mirror universe was at peace.

Lola: (To the viewers) Not even evil mirror universe KND Organizations are a match for us.

Me: You said it Lola.

We took the weapons of the DNK and decided to use them as our own.

We went back to our universe.

But elsewhere in the headquarters of the Masters of Evil, Vypra is recruiting another member.

Dark Spicer: Vanitas, I presume?

Vanitas: Dark Spicer and Vypra. I've been hearing a lot about you two lately.

Vypra: We're flattered. We came to you because we know that you used to serve Xehanort.

Vanitas: But the Keyblade Wielders and their friends killed him. Not to mention that my stupid brother Ventus is awake!

Dark Spicer: Well, we can help you get revenge on Ventus and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Vypra: So, do we have a deal?

Vanitas (smirks): Whatever team you two are forming, sign me up!

Uh oh. Vanitas is a member of the Masters of Evil.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another villain of the Kids Next

Door destroyed.

The Destructively Nefarious Kids of the Kids Next Door episode Operation P.O.O.L. was a strange group and one of pure evil! What they were doing was entirely weird and more! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is a chapter for the Goosebumps Book A Shocker On Shock Street and we're going to face robots of incredible horror!

See you all tomorrow.

Attack of The Robot Mantises

HAPPY CHINESE NEW YEAR 2020 EVERYONE!

---

It starts with us in Paleozoic world. We were showing Marinette and her friends all of the entire park and it was beautiful and amazing.

Marinette: Wow! So this is Paleozoic World.

Me: Yep this is it.

Marinette: This place reminds me of Jurassic World.

Me: It is based on it. We had to move all of Jurassic World here when Isla Nublar was completely destroyed in a powerful volcanic eruption.

Lana: That's right. It was a good deed we did.

Qin: Wow.

Adrien: This is amazing! It's like we went back in time to the times before the dinosaurs.

Me: It does feel that way. This park was built to show everyone what the creatures of Earth were like over the course of 700 million years.

Alya: This is amazing.

Chloe Bourgeois: It sure is. I can't believe that there are so many amazing creatures from that long ago.

Nathanial: It's amazing.

Nathalie: It sure is amazing. I didn't know so many creatures like these were possible.

Me: I know. Evolution and nature have many things.

Nico: Yep.

Arpeggio: (British Accent) It is truly a most fascinating and enjoyable thing to learn.

Luka: It sure is.

We went around Paleozoic World and we saw all kinds of awesome prehistoric creatures and more. We saw all kinds of awesome creatures from the Cambrian Period all the way to the Tertiary Period.

Arpeggio: So, Marinette. How are you and Qin liking Paleozoic World so far?

Marinette: It's so awesome!

Qin: This is the most amazing place we've ever seen.

Tikki: It sure is amazing.

Trixx: I didn't know all these creatures even existed.

Nooroo: It sure is breathtaking.

Pollin: Yeah.

Kibal: It's so amazing seeing all this. I didn't even know all this was possible.

Swanno: You said it.

Juleka: I think this is so amazing seeing all this.

Luka: I agree.

Sass: Me too. It's so awesome.

Kim: You said it.

Aqua: We could've sent the Snow Beast and the Caveman into the River of Fire. But we couldn't pass up the opportunity for good attractions here.

Me: That's true Aqua. But I couldn't bring myself to destroy a very important part of our human evolutionary chain. The Caveman was a powerful example of our evolution.

Aqua: That makes sense.

Me: Yep. Homo Erectus was a very interesting part of our human evolutionary chain. So I couldn't bring myself to destroy a part of it.

Aqua: That's a very good reason.

We walked around and we saw the Caveman in an ice age exhibit.

Mindwipe: (to the Caveman) Hello, Caveman. (Caveman tries to get out of his cage but Mindwipe controls him with his powers) Sit quietly in your cage!

Me: Good job Mindwipe. Also Koda, you're a caveman right?

Koda: That right. I am caveman from 100,000 years ago.

Me: So you are a what's called a Homo neanderthalensis.

Koda: Think so.

Me: They are another part of our human evolutionary chain. They were on our planet over 100,000 years ago.

Tyler Navarro: That's right. It's really fascinating.

Me: It sure is. Prehistoric life has always fascinated me since I was a little boy.

Syd Chang: Me too. I think it's so amazing.

Aylene C.: Me too.

We all thought it was amazing.

We then went to the Snow Beast Exhibit.

Cosmos: Hi, Snow Beast. Still thinking about your defeat? (the Snow Beast roars in anger)

William: Guys, please don't antagonize the monsters.

Cosmos: Oh, c'mon! If they get out, we can beat them all over again.

Jack Spicer: Dude, we already got my dark side and his team as recurring archenemies. We don't need to add more enemies to that list.

Me: True.

We continued walking around the park and it was a beautiful place. We saw many creatures and more.

---

Later we were back at the estate and I was checking on Tommy Oliver's friend Smitty who was resting in his room. He was still resting after being defeated as Zeltrax.

Me: How are you feeling Smitty?

Smitty: Still exhausted. I can't believe that I was like that when I was Zeltrax.

Me: I know. But you'll never see that monster again. Mesogog turned you into a monster of ultimate evil.

Smitty: Yeah he sure did.

Me: But if Mesogog ever comes back, we will kill him.

Smitty: I know. But you all saved me from myself and for that I'm really grateful.

Me: Think nothing of it Smitty. I'm sorry about what happened to you.

Smitty: It's all right J.D. But thank you.

Me: You're welcome man.

Tommy Oliver came in.

Tommy Oliver: How are you doing Smitty?

Smitty: Still weak. But hanging in there man.

Tommy Oliver: I know. But J.D. destroyed Zeltrax for good. He's gone forever.

Smitty: I heard. Thank goodness he did. I can't believe I was like this.

Me: Well like I said. Zeltrax is dead and burning in the River of Fire.

Tommy Oliver: Yeah.

Smitty: I'm glad.

Tommy and Smitty shook hands.

Later in the living room we were watching TV and reading books. I came down and I showed Tommy something. In my hands were a bunch of comic books.

Me: Tommy, I have a strong feeling that Vypra and Dark Spicer are going to recruit Lord Drakkon into the Masters of Evil. You remember him don't you?

Tommy Oliver: No I don't.

Me: Well these comics might help. These are all of my Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers Comic Books. I collected them since I was little. Lord Drakkon is an evil parallel universe counterpart of you.

Tommy looked at them and what he saw was absolutely unbelievable. The comics told him all about Lord Drakkon's history.

---

Lord Drakkon (real name: Thomas "Tommy" Oliver) is an evil Power Ranger who controls the mysterious Black Dragon Zord and fought the Power Rangers, and he serves as the main antagonist in the Shattered Grid arc of the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers comic books by Boom! Studios. He is a sinister and older version of Tommy Oliver from an alternate reality where he rules his Earth with an iron fist from a dystopiac and futuristic Angel Grove where he is in total control.

A Different Path

Being Tommy Oliver from alternate reality, Lord Drakkon's backstory as Tommy matches his prime counterpart's until his climatic final battle against the Red Ranger, Jason Lee Scott. When Tommy was freed from the alien witch Rita Repulsa's curse, instead of joining Zordon and his Rangers, Tommy fled, wandering from city to city, avoiding the Rangers as they tried to find him. As result, it allowed Rita to swayed him to her cause once again, telling him why she had chosen him and that he was meant for great things, to bring peace to the world as its one leader. Rita also told him of Drakkon, another young man in whom she saw potential and whom had successfully built a legacy with her guidance. Tommy, intrigued, left with Rita and continued to serve her, this time in his own volition. Believing Rita Repulsa meant to better the world through conquest, Tommy aided Rita in taking over the Earth, one city at a time. Over time, their conquest caused Rita Repulsa herself to become popular to Earth's population.

Eventually, Tommy led Rita Repulsa's forces into one final battle against Zordon's last battalion of Rangers and Zords just as Zordon was on the verge of creating White Ranger Power. Tommy breached the Command Center as Jason was being infused with this new power, interrupting the process before it could finish. After killing Jason in one final battle, he stole the new Ranger Power and forcefully combine it is Green Ranger power, resulting his Ranger armor assume its signature appearance. The triumphant Tommy, now Lord Drakkon, then emerged from the Command Center clutching Jason's shattered helmet.

Due to his new powers, Tommy and his forces singlehandedly defeated the rest of the Rangers, destroyed their Zords, and successfully conquered the planet Earth. While he originally did so in Rita Repulsa's name, his hunger for power grew and he became a ruthless monster and an oppressive tyrant far worse than his creator, something Rita herself not foreseen. A testament of his fall from grace was his backstabbing on Rita after Rangers' destruction and after the sorceress taught him her spells, such as brainwashing. He then gained the loyalty of Rita Repulsa's elvish alchemist Finster, who he turned into the cyborg Finster 5, using Alpha's body parts.

Now rechristened "Lord Drakkon", Tommy drew upon the Power Coin energies to create Ranger Sentries, each serving a specific role in his army. However, he lacked Billy's coin, as Trini hid it away. The former Rangers and those who were against Tommy's rule formed the resistance group called "The Coinless". Unknown to Drakkon, Skull had infiltrated his army as a Tyrannosaurus sentry.

Ever since the death of Billy and Matthew by Lord Drakkon's regime, Kimberly Ann Hart began her solo quest for vengeance against the dark lord Power Ranger. However, Drakkon managed to enslave her with one of Rita Repulsa's brainwashing spells quickly, turning her into his brainwashed Ranger Slayer.

Personality

Being Tommy Oliver who willingly chose the path of evil, Lord Drakkon is a ruthless sociopath, who rule his subjects with an iron fist, possessing a warped vision of the world with a God complex. He detests any connection that he has of his alternate-reality self, considering him to be a polluted and weak shadow of the powerful image of himself that he has cultivated. His hatred of this connection he has, no matter how distant, shows that his rage and contempt spans the multiverse, which paints him as being truly a dark mirror of the man that his alternate and younger self is striving to become. In many ways, Drakkon represents the absolute worst fears that Tommy from the main universe has about himself. This version of Tommy is ruthless and cunning, using his knowledge of the Power Rangers to systematically weaken them and destroy the Command Center.

Lord Drakkon also incredibly arrogant, believing his hybridized powers made him superior to other Rangers before and after him. His superiority was so great that he would rather die than shamefully defeated and imprisoned by his hated younger counterpart. The said arrogance seems to grow into troubling signs of god complex where in the live action promotional trailer for Shattered Grid, he believes all Power Rangers aside himself have squandered their chance to become gods with their powers.

However, like all arrogant tyrants, Lord Drakkon's hubris proved to be his character flaw which, upon exploited, unveils a cowardly side of himself he unknowingly developed by his ego. When he was finally stripped of his powers, Lord Drakkon was clearly in a state of shock, realizing that he had relied too much to his powers for so long to the point of him believing himself to be invincible. He quickly recovered though, and resorted to use psychological warfare against his foes, skills that he developed from his time as the servant and apprentice of his reality's Rita Repulsa. Also, in spite of his immense powers, it should be noted that his experience, as well as skills over them, still pale compared to his his heroic younger counterpart, so much that even after finally recover his lost powers, he chose to attack Tommy via ambush instead of a head-on attack.

---

Tommy, the rest of the Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers and Qin were shocked.

Trini Kwan: I can't believe that Tommy would turn into a monster!

Jason Lee Scott: Me neither.

Qin: That is awful! That universe is awful!

Billy Cranston: Boy that Tommy is a monster. No offense man.

Tommy Oliver: None taken.

Kimberly Ann Hart: And I became a person hellbent on vengeance? That's awful.

Me: That's really awful. Nothing good can ever come from vengeance.

Zach Taylor: No kidding.

Me: But if we ever run into Lord Drakkon we will kill him.

Nico: We sure will. That version of Tommy is ultimate evil incarnate.

Me: Yep. But we'll face him when the time comes.

Later we went back to watching TV and I was looking over Nico's Goosebumps books. I went over them and I saw one that was interesting: A Shocker On Shock Street.

Me: This one looks interesting. A Shocker On Shock Street.

Nico: That one is a strange one. I remember that one.

Lincoln: Me too. Those Mantis robots were awesome. But it was really sad when we found out that Erin Wright and her friend Marty realized that they were robots.

Me: Wow.

Android 21: I know that feeling. I feel sorry for them. But maybe we can help them be human again.

Me: I agree. But the cover of this book reminds me of an old B-Movie from my dad's past from 1957: The Deadly Mantis.

Lana: Wow! I remember that one! That was cool!

Lola: I may not like mantises but they are interesting.

Lisa: Agreed. Mantodea are one of the most fascinating specimens of the insect world.

Me: Indeed. Praying Mantises have been on this planet for 145 million years and they are considered one of the most fascinating species of insects ever known.

Syd Chang: That is so cool!

Ronnie Anne: It sure is awesome.

Edd: Insects are all perfect specimens and really interesting.

Me: They sure are.

Manterror: And I should know. I am a praying mantis in Beast Form. It's really interesting.

Me: It sure is Manterror. The Praying Mantis is one of the most voracious and most deadliest insects in the insect world. And Lisa, your spirit animal is the Praying Mantis like Isabelle said.

Lisa: Indeed.

Nico: Yep. Scary. But we have our next target. We have to destroy haywire mantis robots.

Me: Yep. And Shock Street is located in a small neighborhood inside Atlanta, Georgia.

Eddy: Cool!

Me: Lets go!

We were off to Atlanta, Georgia.

SHOCK STREET, ATLANTA, GEORGIA

We arrived in Shock Street in Atlanta and we saw that the whole place was completely deserted.

Me: This is the place.

We walked around and we saw that no one where there.

Laney: Where is everyone?

Lincoln: It's like they just left. Like some kind of scary force scared them all off.

Lana: Yeah.

Shaggy: L-l-l-like, lets go home!

Shaggy and Scooby ran.

I grabbed his shirt and Scooby's collar.

Me: Not so fast you chickens. We came here to destroy another Goosebumps monster and we're not leaving till we do.

Shaggy: Oh no!

Velma: You know Shaggy sometimes I think you have a big yellow streak running down yours and Scooby's back.

Lincoln: She's right. I see them.

I saw that Shaggy and Scooby had two yellow streaks going down from the tops of their heads to their lower backs.

Me: Geez! I've heard of that old saying "Having a Cowardly Yellow Stripe" but this is ridiculous. You two may have tremendous appetites as big as the moon, but you guys are total chickens.

Shaggy and Scooby clucked like a pair of chickens.

Me: I rest my case.

Lana: Now I see why they are chickens.

Lola: True chickens.

Lily: Cowards.

?: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

We turned and we saw Erin Wright and her best friend Marty.

Me: Wow. Are you Erin Wright?

Erin Wright: That's right. It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you Erin.

My data eyes turned on and it showed that Erin and Marty were both robots that were really well built and more.

Me: Wow! Your father built you really well.

Nico: He sure did.

Erin Wright: Thanks J.D. I just wish we could be human again.

Animorphs Rachel: You know, Erin. You and I look alike.

Erin Wright: (sadly) Except for one difference. You're a real girl. I'm not.

Me: I know. If I may ask, how did you turn into this?

Erin Wright: I was in a drowning accident.

Marty: Me too. Our bodies were destroyed and Erin's father made us into androids. We are robots in human skin.

Me: Wow.

Android 21: I know just how you two feel. Like you I too am an Android. I was built into an android.

Erin Wright: Wow. That's amazing.

Android 21: I am still human on the inside despite all that.

Erin Wright: Wow.

Me: Dr. Gero built her and Lazuli and Android 16 really well. But Erin, I can make you and Marty human again.

Erin Wright: How?

Me: Watch.

I snapped my fingers and in a powerful flash of light it looked like nothing happened.

Erin Wright: That was weird.

Manterror: Erin, you might want to feel your chest.

Erin felt her chest and gasps. She had a heartbeat and she was human again!

Erin Wright: (starts to cry in happiness) I have a heartbeat! I'm a normal girl!

She got up and hugged me and she cried hard.

Me: I'm glad you have your humanity back Erin.

?: And soon it will never last.

Ben: Oh no. I haven't heard that voice in a while.

We saw a figure come out and it was ZS'SKAYR!

---

Zs'Skayr (pronounced Zuh-Scare), also known as Ghostfreak, is the Ectonurite High Ecto-Lord of Anur Phaetos and Anur Transyl, and a major antagonist in the Ben 10 franchise. He serves as the main antagonist of the season 2 episode, Ghostfreaked Out and all of season 3. He also served as the main antagonist of season 5 of Ben 10: Omniverse.

He was originally stuck in the form of Ghostfreak, but after time managed to gain control over it and escape the Omnitrix, becoming one of Ben Tennyson's most cruel and dangerous enemies.

In the original series as well as Omniverse, he was voiced by Steve Blum. In Alien Force, he was voiced by Jeff Bennett.

Past

Originally, Zs'Skayr was High Ecto-Lord of the Ectonurites of Anur Phaetos and learned of the Omnitrix from the data of a probe belonging to Vilgax that crashed on his planet. Soon afterwards, Zs'Skayr met Myaxx as she was seeking DNA samples and helped her to get some from the nearby planet, Flors Verdance. But unbeknownst to her, the Ectonurite took over the Flourana being sampled, thus she took an Ectonurite sample as well. Since Ectonurite's personality and DNA were tied together, Zs'Skayr's personality then formed in the Codon Stream even after the real one died. A clone of the Ectonurite was then born inside Ghostfreak.

Ghostfreaked Out

After Ben Tennyson gained the Omnitrix, Zs'Skayr's personality became present whenever he turned into Ghostfreak. After some time, Zs'Skayr finally freed himself of the Omnitrix and confronted Ben, tearing away his outer layer of skin to reveal his intimidating, true form.

Wanting to become whole again, Zs'Skayr attempted to possess Ben, but failed to after the sun drove him back. He sought out the Circus Freak Trio and got them to aid him by threatening them when he took over Thumbskull and tossed him around the room. Zs'Skayr went with the trio to confront Ben and tried to possess him, but since Ben had been changed into Four Arms at the time, he couldn't do so.

The Ectonurite took over the Circus Freak Trio to fight Ben, but they were defeated one after another. However Zs'Skayr took over Gwen and used her to fight Four Arms, who eventually regressed back to Ben. The Ectonurite then threatened to make Gwen jump off of the wall they were fighting on if Ben didn't give up. Ben agreed and Zs'Skayr sent the Circus Freak Trio after Gwen and Grandpa Max, before trying to possess the boy.

However Ben was able to transform into Grey Matter just in time and Zs'Skayr continued to pursue him. Eventually Ben changed back to normal and the Ectonurite prepared to again try and possess the boy. However he noticed that it was daytime outside and opened the curtains on the building they were in, destroying Zs'Skayr.

Be Afraid of the Dark

However Zs'Skayr was not finished yet and a Transylian scientist from the Anur System named Dr. Viktor began working to revive him. He stole material from the clock tower where Zs'Skayr had been destroyed and gained the help of a Thep Khufan and a Loboan from the Anur System. As well as bring back Ghostfreak, Vicktor prepared to plunge the Earth into complete darkness for his master to rule. Onboard a NASA Space Shuttle, Vicktor revived his Ectonurite master to face Ben Tennyson again. Then with Corrodium that the Thep Khufan had retrieved, Zs'Skayr and his minions then used a Corrodium beam, blocking out all light from the Sun. With the Earth consumed in eternal darkness, the Ectonurite was fully empowered, but this didn't last long.

Vicktor was tricked into destroying the Corrodium beam and Max opened the space shuttle's roof, exposing him directly to Earth's sun and destroying him again. At the same time, Ben managed to regain Ghostfreak on the Omnitrix, but ended up never using him.

Alien Force

Zs'Skayr was eventually removed from the Codon Steam and imprisoned using sunlight by the Galvans. However Vilgax freed him in exchange for the secrets of the Omnitrix and the knowledge that would let him finally beat Ben. Zs'Skayr told him about Primus, the location of the Codon Stream, but as soon as Vilgax freed him, the Ectonurite betrayed him.

Zs'Skayr took over Vilgaxia, Vilgax's home planet, by possessing the citizens, transforming them into Ectonurite creatures. Vilgax tried to fight them, but was forced to retreat and went to Earth to ask for help from Ben, Gwen, and Kevin. They went to Vilgaxia and infiltrated Vilgax's palace where they found Zs'Skayr, who revealed that Vilgaxia was just the beginning and his minions were already building ships to spread their master's influence to other planets.

The Ectonurite possessed Ben, which was actually part of his plan since it trapped Zs'Skayr back in the Codon Stream. Ben transformed into Ghostfreak, but the Ectonurite quickly took control and began fighting Gwen, Kevin, and Vilgax. Eventually Gwen and Kevin were knocked out and Zs'Skayr managed to knock Vilgax's sword away. He made his minions restrain the conqueror so the Ectonurite could possess him as well. But Vilgax freed himself and used light from his sword to weaken Zs'Skayr, letting Ben regain control and change back, trapping the Ectonurite back in the Omnitrix.

Omniverse

Zs'Skayr makes his return in "Mystery, Incorporeal", being seen crawling out of the portal to Ledgerdomain. According to himself, Ben left him trapped there, and Darkstar opening the portal allowed him to escape. Derrick J. Wyatt states that after Ben destroyed/dispersed him in their last battle, Zs'Skayr used the magic of Ledgerdomain to reform himself there.

In "Rad Monster Party", he along with Dr. Viktor, Kuphulu and Crüjo attempted to defeat Ben and his team, only to be defeated by NRG. His main objective was to regain his title as High Ecto-Lord.

In "Charmed, I'm Sure", he has drained a large portion of energy from the Alpha Rune. Though he thinks it is completely powerless and is now useless, that is not the case.

In "The Vampire Strikes Back", Zs'Skayr used the power he had drained from the Alpha Rune in order to ressurect Lord Transyl, and create a powerful servant in order to regain his title as High Ecto-Lord. This was against the objections of Dr. Viktor, who remembers how Lord Transyl's race had enslaved his people. Ultimately, Zs'Skayr's plan comes to naught as Viktor betrays him and he is once again burned to ashes, this time by Ben as Atomix. While he is seemingly killed, Ben states that he will return some day, so he leaves a light fusion orb called "Fusion Cuisine" in Zs'Castle Zs'Skayr so Zs'Skayr could not get in.

Protector of the Earth

In the video game Ben 10: Protector of the Earth, Zs'Skayr freed Vilgax from the Null Void, joining forces to have revenge on Ben. He also took over Hex so as to use his magic as a means of summoning his minions from the Anur dimension. Ben managed to stop this and Zs'Skayr left Hex, attacked the boy again in Chicago. However the Ectonurite was defeated again and banished to the Null Void.

Vilgax Attacks

Needing to obtain the last energy core to destroy Vilgax's Null Void Projector, Ben found out that it was in Anur Phaetos. However Anur Phaetos was not technically a planet, rather it was an alternate dimension he, Gwen, and Kevin couldn't access. Verdona managed to bring them to the Anur dimension, but accidentally split them up and Zs'Skayr revealed that he was still alive. He confronted Ben, saying he was most unwise to set foot in his homeworld and sent his minions after his enemy. Ben managed to fight them off and face Zs'Skayr himself, but defeated him using light.

Personality

While the rest of Ben's aliens were DNA copies and whenever he transformed he retained his own characteristic, Zs'Skayr was a fully sentient being with his own personality. Whenever Ben transformed into Ghostfreak he would have control of the body more than Ben did and was able to speak his own sentences and actually choose himself instead of other aliens, as Ghostfreak, Zs'Skayr was quite aggressive and belligerent when he violently beat Zombozo and his circus freaks but after freeing himself, he revealed his sinister and sadistic ways. Zs'Skayr was also deeply resentful and vituperative towards Ben Tennyson and his Omnitrix and as such took great twisted entertainment in trying to murder the young hero and his family in a twist of irony after freeing himself from the bonds of the Omnitrix he was left unwhole and needed to possess his despised enemy to become one again.

Perhaps Zs'Skayr's most prominent trait was his overwhelming arrogance, he underestimated his enemies, specifically Ben and believed that he could have destroyed him in his human form which led to his first destruction. He was naturally treacherous and manipulative, as when he was freed by Vilgax from his prison, the first thing he did was invade his home world, Vilgaxia. Zs'Skayr's violent and destructive nature was also shown when he rallied the Circus Freaks with threat of death and used blackmail to get Ben to hand over his Omnitrix.

Zs'Skayr was proud of his true name and apparently hated being referred to as "Ghostfreak" and when he returned in Omniverse demanded to be called as such, his true evil was never shown however until he was prepared to block out the sun and mutate life on all of planet Earth just so he could become all-powerful.

Powers and Abilities

Because he is an Ectonurite, Zs'Skayr can turn invisible and intangible and fly, as well as possess other bodies, taking complete control of them. He can also use this to turn other beings into his Ectonurite minions, who can in turn, do the same to others.

Zs'Skayr can also manipulate his density to make himself lighter or heavier, consume souls, survive in space, use telekiensis, fire energy beams from his chest, and attack with the tentacles coming out of his chest.

As a resort of his true form, his intimidating appearance can easily unnerve individuals, also including the appearance of his head. Zs'Skayr's only weakness is bright light, sunlight in particular, but he can form a second layer of skin to protect himself by hiding his true form. He also wields a scythe and after spending time in Ledgerdomain, he has gained some magical abilities.

Me: Zs'Skayr, formerly known as Ghostfreak.

Zs'Skayr: That's right you fool. (grins evilly while wearing a sports jersey) Long time no see, Ben Tennyson!

Ben: Why are you here again?

Zs'Skayr: To get revenge on you.

Me: But try this on!

I fired a powerful beam of sunlight from a gun device Max Tennyson gave me and it hit Ghostfreak. But shockingly it didn't phase him!

Kevin Levin: How the Hell are you not burning up right now?

Zs'skayr: Vypra has removed my weakness to sunlight and has made me more resilient to fire.

Maria: So much for those options.

Me: Yep. But what's with the sports jersey? Usually you don't wear clothes like that.

?: That's because of me.

We saw a monster that the Dino Charge Rangers faced. It was GAME FACE from Episode 7 of Dino Super Charge!

---

Game Face is summoned by Fury to tangle with the Rangers. After his first strike fails, Heckyl threatens to destroy him, until he reasons that both him and Fury are correct when stating the raid was a failure because the Vivix are out of shape, as they inhale treats whenever they get the chance. After he is given one more chance, Game Face has his Doom Squad train hard, overseen by him, the Spikeballs, Wrench and Fury. When he discovers his explosive bat is with Koda, he is exhilarated, as the bat itself is explosive and will destroy those close to it if detonated. However, Koda throws it into the air, allowing it to burst harmlessly. While his now-improved Doom Squad initially overwhelms the heroes, their new Victory Charger proves decisive in their triumph. As the entire team is grown giant, the Rangers summon the Plesio Charge, Dino Charge, and Ptera Charge Megazords to engage them. The Ptera Charge Megazord: Para-Raptor Formation destroys the Vivix with the first strike, the Plesio Charge Megazord: Ankylo Formation dispatches the Spikeballs and the Dino Charge Megazord: Tri-Stego Formation deals the initial hard blow to Game Face, the outlaw being finished off by the Plesio Charge Megazord Pachy-Rex Formation's Galactic Run Koda

He was revived by Wrench along with Nightmare. Both of them fought by the side of Professor Strickler, although the plan of switching the Rangers' bodys did work, the Rangers manages to overcome this and he gets destroyed by T-Rex Super Charge Victory Maximum Strike and later on after being enlarge by the Magna Beam, destroyed for good by the Dino Charge Ultrazord's Titano Cannon's Final Fightday

Personality

Personality wise, Game Face acts very much like a gym teacher/ coach, as a sports player, Game Face is very competitive and thinks highly of himself. He is shown to be in good terms with Wrench, as the two even compliment each other, like two tag team players. He is severe with the Spikeballs and Vivix, making them train and toughen up, as only superstars make the cut for his Doom Squad, initially seeing his minions, specially the Vivix, as laughable lightweights and sorry sacks of seaweed as well as faceless fools. However, he comes to approve of them. He also enjoys testing his own abilities, in which he is pushed to the absolute limit and beyond against the Rangers.

Powers and Abilities

Extraordinary Leaper: Game Face can leap at an incredible distance.

Teleportation: Game fact can teleport to any location at will.

Arsenal

Explosive Bat: Game Face possesses an explosive bat, which can hit targets with explosive force, and which is an explosive itself, being able to be detonated if he is close enough to the target which holds or possesses it, in the beginning of the episode, it was used by the Blue Ranger.

Baseball Glove: Game Face also possess a baseball glove on his left hand to catch upcoming balls.

Terrifying Tennis Rackets: Game Face also has tennis rackets for the Vivix to hold for battle.

Cannon Balls: The tennis rackets has a tennis balls that when hit on on contact with the target, will explode.

Fatal Footballs: Game Face also possesses footballs to be hold by Vivixs, that when thrown will charge up bright blue and will explode on contact.

Brutal Baseballs: Game Face also carry's baseballs to be hold by the Vivixs, that when thrown in a "Power Pitch" will explode on contact.

Ground Bombs: Game Face also has ground bombs, that when a press on a button, will explode, its mainly used to make the Vivixs go faster while on training.

Basket Balls: Game Face also has basket balls for both combat, and to train the Vivixs, despite their appearance, these balls carry's powerful forces, if thrown by Game Face into a "Free Throw" it can cause an explosion.

Baseball Bats: When enlarge, Game Face carry's baseball bats for the Vivixs and the Spikeballs to carry for combat.

Fiery Fast Ball: Game Face's strongest weapon, he can throw a baseball in full force, causing it to charge up with fire and it will split into a baseball bat, a baseball glove, a tennis racket, a boxing glove, a golf club, a basket ball and a baseball, all the while ambushing the target with great force.

---

Tyler Navarro: Game Face!

Game Face: Its been a long time Dino Charge Rangers!

Me: I remember this guy!

Lynn: Me too! He was the only monster in Dino Super Charge that I like.

Game Face: You know the difference between me and the other monsters? I actually brought backup. Doom Squad, time for some terrifying tennis! Serve the cannon balls!

Several Vivix wearing Sports uniforms appeared. They pulled out several glowing tennis balls and shot them at us with tennis rackets.

Me: Oh no you don't!

I formed a fiery tennis racket and shot the tennis balls back at them and they hit the Vivix and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

The explosions destroyed the Vivix and destroyed them all.

A Spikeballs soldier than appeared.

Zs'Skayr went at Erin and just as he was about to possess her, a lightning aura prevented him from doing it.

Zs'Skayr: (to Erin) It seems I can't possess you due to your mechanical nature. No matter. I have another candidate in mind.

Zs'Skayr possessed a Spikeballs and its eyes turn purple.

Zs'Skayr: (through Spikeball) No one gives these foot soldiers credit. Time to prove them wrong. (Attempts to punch Riley Griffin)

Riley blocked his punch and fired a powerful blast of energy at the Spikeballs and it hit him and exploded. Destroying it. Zs'Skayr exiting his body.

Zs'skayr: You haven't seen the last of me, Ben Tennyson! Oh. And Game Face? Have your sports jersey back! (throws sports jersey at Game Face before flying off)

Me: We'll be ready. Dino Charge Rangers, lets kill this bad sport!

Tyler Navarro: Right!

Me: It's MORPHIN TIME!

Me and the Dino Charge Rangers: DINO CHARGER! READY! UNLEASH THE POWER!

We released the power of dinosaurs and the Dino Charge Rangers transformed! I had an awesome Argentinosaurus Star Saber.

Me: STARS OF THE ARGENTINOSAURUS! J.D. KNUDSON IS READY!

Tyler Navarro: FIRE OF THE TYRANNOSAURUS! DINO SUPER

CHARGE RED RANGER!

Koda: WATER OF THE STEGOSAURUS! DINO SUPER CHARGE BLUE RANGER!

Chase Randall: (Australian Accent) EARTH OF THE PARASAUROLOPHUS! DINO SUPER CHARGE BLACK RANGER!

Riley Griffin: WIND OF THE VELOCIRAPTOR! DINO SUPER CHARGE GREEN RANGER!

Shelby Watkins: CRYSTAL OF THE TRICERATOPS! DINO SUPER CHARGE PINK RANGER!

Sir Ivan: (British Accent) LIGHTNING OF THE PTERODACTYL! DINO SUPER CHARGE GOLD RANGER!

James Navarro: STEEL OF THE ANKYLOSAURUS! DINO SUPER CHARGE AQUA RANGER!

Prince Phillip III: (British Accent) LAVA OF THE PACHYCEPHALOSAURUS! DINO SUPER CHARGE GRAPHITE RANGER!

Kendall Morgan: HEAT OF THE PLESIOSAURUS! DINO SUPER CHARGE PURPLE RANGER!

Zenowing: UNITY OF THE TITANOSAURUS! DINO SUPER CHARGE SILVER RANGER!

Me: THE ELEMENTAL FORCES OF DINOSAURS KNOW TRUE LIGHT!

Me and the Dino Super Charge Power Rangers: DINOSAUR MIGHT READY TO FIGHT! DINO SUPER CHARGE!

A Massive fiery explosion went off in the background.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lincoln: AWESOME!

Lori: Literally so cool!

Nico: YEAH!

Me: Lets get this bad sport!

We went at Game Face and I punched him in the face with incredible power and slashed him and the Dino Charge Power Rangers blasted him and slashed him all over the place and kicked him as well.

Manterror: He doesn't know what the terror of a mantis can do. Manterror, TERRORIZE!

Manterror transformed and threw powerful sawblades at Game Face and they cut him really good.

Me: Time to finish this fuckhead off for good.

Tyler Navarro: You got it!

I put in 3 Argentinosaurus Dino Chargers into my sword and supercharged it and it was surging with star energy.

Sir Ivan charged up his Ptera Blade and it was surging with lightning.

Me: Lets do it!

Me and the Dino Super Charge Rangers: SUPER DINO BLADE BLAST!

We fired a powerful blast of star energy and elemental energy and it hit Game Face and it caused him to explode.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Game Face was dead in an instant!

Me: Go to hell.

Nico: Game Face you have failed this universe.

Me: Yeah!

Then we saw the Giant Mantis Robots!

Me: Whoa! Those mantis bots are huge!

Lisa: Lets see how they like this powerful mantis! MANTIS ZORD ARISE!

Lisa called forth the Praying Mantis Wild Zord and it was a huge Green Praying Mantis machine and Lisa went inside it and it was fighting the Mantis robots and it was slashing them all apart.

Me: WHOA! Way to go Lisa!

Cole Evans: She sure has learned fast.

Casey Rhodes: She sure has.

Troy: Almost forgot about the Preying Mantises,

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Storm!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Storm Rangers and we blasted a lot of Mantis Robots

Me: Lets help Lisa by blasting them apart with our combos!

Ben: You got it!

Riley: Lets do it!

Ben then turned into Jury Rigg!

Ben: JURY RIGG!

Fuzzy Lumpkins: Lets me these there robots pay!

Jury Rigg fired a powerful blast of energy and Fuzzy Lumpkins fired his Meat Ray.

Fuzzy Lumpkins and Jury Rigg: DISMANTLING MEAT RAY!

The blasts combined and one Mantis Robot fell apart and turned into meat and splattered all over the place and the Powerpuff Girls were gathering it all up in a big bag. They got over 550,290 pounds of different kinds of meat.

Ben then turned into Eatle!

Ben: EATLE!

Blade Man: This is gonna be awesome!

Eatle fired a powerful blast of energy from his horn and Blade Man fired his Triple Blade.

Blade Man and Eatle: ENERGY SWORD TRIPLE SLASH!

The energy merged with the blades and they cut through another mantis robot and it was destroyed in a massive explosion.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: YEAH! We have two more.

Mindwipe: You got it boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it enhanced his viper gun 100-fold.

Arpeggio: Lets get him! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into Arpeggio's Right Arm Device and it enhanced his Laser Feathers 100-fold.

Mindwipe and Arpeggio: LASER NEURO DEATH RAY!

Arpeggio fired his laser feathers and Mindwipe fired his Viper Gun and the blasts combined and turned into a deadly laser that destroyed the legs of the robot.

Aqua: Time for some light power! DISNEY CYBER KEY POWER!

The Disney Cyber Planet Key went into Aqua's Right Arm Device and enhanced her Keyblade powers 100-fold.

Cosmos: Here comes some space power! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his particle beam 100-fold.

Aqua and Cosmos: SPELLWEAVER PARTICLE LASER BURST!

Aqua fired a powerful blast of energy from her keyblade and Cosmos fired a powerful blast of energy and the blasts combined and they skewered another Mantis Robot and it exploded all over in a powerful fiery explosion.

Me: One robot left! Lets get it!

Manterror: With pleasure! PRAYING MANTIS BUZZSAW BLADE!

Manterror slashed the Mantis Robot all over with his buzzsaw claws.

Lisa: This is for making awesome specimens of Mantodea look bad! MANTIS ZORD LASER ANTENNAE!

The Mantis Zord fired a powerful energy blast from its antennae and they hit the Mantis Robot and skewered it.

Erin Wright: You are not worthy of life! LIGHTNING SUPER MEGABLAST!

Erin Wright fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit the last Mantis Robot and it exploded all over as fiery debris.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The mantis robots were completely destroyed.

Me: That takes care of them.

Erin Wright: Yep.

Marty: Awesome.

Then we heard evil insane laughter.

We saw a figure came out and we saw that it was THE GHOST OF MR. HYDE!

---

The Ghost of Mr. Hyde was the disguise of Dr. Jekyll, who used it to cover up his jewel thefts.

Dr. Jekyll claimed to have made a vitamin formula one would only had to take once in a person's life, but the concoction went awry and he became the Ghost of Mr. Hyde, a monster transformation also taken on by his great-grandfather. This was a lie, however; Jekyll used the story as a cover for his crimes as the monster, since all his experiments had really failed.

Scooby-Doo, Where Are You!

After one of his jewel thefts (at a high-rise department store), the Ghost of Mr. Hyde hid in the back of the Mystery Machine, under a blanket, while the gang was in the Malt Shop. Once they were on the road, the ghost was soon spotted by Scooby-Doo and the gang, who piled out of the van and hid behind a log. The ghost went into the marsh, and the gang tracked him down to an old house. They tried to get in through the back, but the backdoor triggered a trapdoor, and they ended up in Dr. Jekyll's laboratory. They met Dr. Jekyll, who told them that he was the ghost of Hyde; he had mud on his shoes from the marsh and the jewel necklace that Hyde stole in his pocket. However, the mud on his shoes was dry, signifying that something fishy was going on.

Shaggy Rogers discovered Hyde lurking behind a bookcase while searching for clues. The ghost chased him and Scooby into a room where they hid inside a TV. When Hyde turned the TV on, they pretended to be characters from a TV program, but Shaggy blew their cover when he accidentally poked Mr. Hyde. Shaggy and Scooby fled and managed to lose the ghost, but they collided with Velma Dinkley in the process, causing the three of them to fall down a laundry chute. In the laundry room, Scooby found a pair of muddy shoes and a duster belonging to Jekyll's housemaid, Helga.

Following this lead, the gang checked Helga's room for more clues, though Shaggy opted to stay outside the room and eat some fruit from a bowl. Underneath the mattress, Fred Jones and Daphne Blake found a can of phosphorus paint and a bottle of knockout drops. Shaggy mentioned finding "something interesting" in the fruit bowl, but before he could elaborate, the ghost of Hyde captured him. He strapped him to an operating table, planning to turn him into a frog, but Scooby rescued him. After a chase, they managed to lose Hyde. The thing Shaggy found turned out to be suction cups. The gang didn't understand this clue at the time, but they were ready to set a trap for the ghost of Hyde.

Fred, Daphne, and Velma dressed up as ghost of Hyde duplicates to scare him, making him fall through the trapdoor from earlier and onto a mattress. Shaggy and Scooby used the mattress to wrap him up, capturing him. Though the clues seemed to point to Helga, Hyde was instead revealed to be Dr. Jekyll. When the gang tracked Hyde to his house, Jekyll attempted to frame Helga by planting false clues for them to find. The suction cups were the real clue; Jekyll needed them to climb buildings. Helga wouldn't have needed the suction cups because of her experience as a circus performer, which is why Hyde grabbed Shaggy when he found them.

Shaggy: ZOINKS!

Daphne Blake: It's the Ghost of Mr. Hyde!

Me: I remember him!

Qin: What was his history?

Me: He was really Dr. Jekyll. And not the one in the book. When all his experiments failed, he turned to a life of crime. He became a jewel thief that was wanted all over the city. He used a very clever method. He used suction cups to scale the buildings. He stole a beautiful red ruby 18K gold necklace from a jewelry store and it was worth a fortune and we busted him for it.

Qin: Whoa!

Varie: That necklace was given to me for our first anniversary date. See?

Varie had the very necklace that was stolen around her neck because I bought it for her.

Qin: Wow! That is a beautiful necklace Varie.

Varie: Thanks Qin.

Me: Dr. Jekyll was given 30 to 40 years for his crimes. But he wasn't one of the conspirators that was going to try to kill Mystery Inc.

Qin: That's good.

Me: Let me face him.

I went at Mr. Hyde and punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face again and kicked him high into the air and Lola fired a powerful blast of gold fire and turned him into a solid gold statue.

Me: Nice!

Then everyone came out of their houses and cheered wildly. Everyone was freed from the terror of the Haywire Mantis Robots.

Erin Wright: (To the viewers) I've heard of great victories. But this is too much.

Me: Yeah.

We were in the debt of everyone in Atlanta. Erin and Marty were made honorary members of the Goosebumps Monster Busters.

THE END

Another Fanfiction complete and another Goosebumps Monster destroyed.

A Shocker On Shock Street was a strange one and more. Me and

My friends were read that story when I was with them. It was scary and creepy. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is a chapter where we take down the 2016 Ben 10 villains The Weatherheads. Robots that control the weather. Get ready for a Forecast of pure pain as we smash them to nothing.

See you all tomorrow.

Robots that Control the Weather

I was sitting on the sofa at the computer looking at how many Dark Orbs are left on Earth. We've been really busy the last few weeks. It was hard to imagine that there were so many of them since the time Team Galactic and the Broccoloids made many of them which made our job harder. But the number still was still on 47,000 galaxies all over the Virgo Supercluster.

Me: Hard to imagine that there are still that many Dark Orbs out there. Those damn Broccoloids and Team Galactic made our jobs even harder.

Nico: I know.

Me: But we have to keep going. We have to destroy them in order to save the universe from Xehanort's evil fragments.

Nico: Yep.

Then I got a holographic call.

Me: Oh got a call.

I answered it.

Me: Hello?

It was Ronnie Anne and Bobby's dad Dr. Arturo Santiago.

Dr. Santiago: (Spanish Accent) Hola J.D. It's Dr. Santiago.

Me: Hola Dr. Santiago.

Dr. Santiago: I have good news for Ronnie Anne and Bobby. I'm coming over to the city of Gotham Royal York to stay with you guys. I got a job over at the hospital there.

Me: Awesome! She is going to love that. But I will definitely tell them that.

Dr. Santiago: Awesome! Thank you for telling them. I'm over at the airport in Asunción. I'll be boarding my plane in 10 minutes.

Me: You're welcome. See you in a few hours and have a safe flight.

Dr. Santiago: Gracias. See you soon.

Me: Will do.

The call ended.

Nico: That's cool we're gonna meet Bobby and Ronnie Anne's dad. They talk so highly about him.

Me: I know. But it's gonna take 15 hours for him to get here. It's 4,942 miles of flight time.

Nico: (Whistles) That's a long time to fly by plane.

Me: I know. But thanks to our new supersonic planes that we built it'll cut that time by 85%. So it'll take him about an hour and a half to get here.

Nico: Cool! That's amazing.

Me: I better go break the news to Ronnie Anne and Bobby.

Nico: Okay.

I went to break the news and when they heard that Dr. Santiago was coming they were ecstatic!

Ronnie Anne: Wow! That is so cool! I'm so excited!

Bobby: I can't wait to see dad again!

Me: Boy you guys are really excited. But Mr. Casagrande doesn't seem excited.

I noticed that Hector Casagrande had a nasty scowl on his face and it was not a pleasant sight.

Me: Does he have a really bad history with Dr. Santiago?

Ronnie Anne: When Mom divorced him, Abuelo has had a small grudge on him ever since. But mom and dad are happy being friends.

Me: That's understandable. But he needs to open up more to him. Lets get to the airport. He lands in 1 hour.

Ronnie Anne: Awesome!

Me: We'll use my car.

We took my car and Nico was in the passenger seat and Bobby, Lori and Ronnie Anne were in the middle seats.

Ronnie Anne: I'm so excited to see dad again!

Bobby: Me too Ni Ni!

Lori: Come to think of it Boo-Boo-Bear, I literally don't think I've ever met your father.

Bobby: You will love him babe.

Me: You haven't met him because he's a missionary that was saving lives from sickness over in South America. He helps kids in dealing with all kinds of terrible tropical diseases and he was setting up hospitals in parts of South America that don't have them yet. The Amazon Rainforest may be beautiful, but it has all kinds of strange things.

Lori: Wow! That's literally amazing.

Nico: It sure is. I heard he called us on Fathers Day last year.

Me: He sure did buddy. It was cool meeting him. But its gonna be cool to meet him in person.

Lori: Same here.

We arrived at the airport and we were waiting at the gate for his plane. We saw all kinds of awesome high-tech extremely advanced planes that were incredibly awesome!

Ronnie Anne: Wow! These planes are so cool!

Me: They are our newest lines of supersonic planes that are kerosene free. They are our new solar powered carbon-zirconium reinforced supersonic airliners. They look like advanced versions of the Concorde Supersonic Airliner that was discontinued ages ago. They can withstand speeds up to mach 8 or 5,680 miles per hour and can store enough solar energy to keep them running for 10 days with no carbon emissions.

Nico: Wow! That is so cool!

Lori: It literally is. I never even knew we built these planes like this.

Bobby: They are so cool Babe!

Nico: So even if it's raining or snowing they can still go.

Me: Yep.

We saw the plane land at the gate.

Ronnie Anne: That must be dad's plane!

Me: That must be it.

We waited for 20 minutes and Ronnie Anne had a sign that said Dad on it. Out came Dr. Arturo Santiago and he saw us.

Ronnie Anne: "[gasps]"

[Ronnie Anne runs to Arturo to hug him.]

Arturo: "Oh!"

Ronnie Anne: "I'm so glad you're here!"

[Arturo hugs her back.]

Arturo: "Mi Ronita!"

Bobby: Dad!

[Bobby hugs Arturo as well]

Arturo: Mi Roberto!

Me: It's such a pleasure to finally meet you in person Dr. Santiago.

Arturo: Same to you J.D.

Bobby: Dad, this is my amazing fiancé Lori Loud.

Lori: It's literally a pleasure to meet you Mr. Santiago.

Arturo: It's a pleasure too Lori. Bobby talked about you all the time.

Nico: It's a pleasure to meet you Dr. Santiago. I'm Nicolas Chan. But everyone calls me Nico.

Arturo: It's a pleasure to meet you too Nico.

Me: Nico is one of my second in command.

Arturo: I see.

We left the airport and went back to the estate in my car and we were having a nice drive.

Bobby: Dad I missed you so much.

Ronnie Anne: Same here.

Arturo: I missed you both so much too. It feels like forever.

We arrived back in the estate and we helped Arturo get settled in and unpacked. He got a job at the hospital in Gotham Royal York and it was gonna be so cool to have him with us. Hector Casagrande was not happy about it but we'll have to keep him in line.

Ronnie Anne introduced him to all of us and it was awesome! He was happy that Lincoln was now Ronnie Anne's fiancé.

Later we were over in Switzerland and we went deep into the Limburger Cheese Mines. We saw a lot of evil spoiled brat kids. They were the most despicable spoiled brat kids ever. We had nose plugs on because Limburger Cheese smells horrible. It smells like rotten socks. We were there to see our old enemy Chandler Henderson. It was to find out some stuff.

Laney: (Nasally) Wow. I still can't believe that all this cheese is here. I wonder if there are other mines like this.

Me: (Nasally) If there are we would have a hard time looking for them.

We walked up to Chandler.

Chandler: Well if it isn't the loser force. And Scarfy and Larry are here too.

Maria: (glares at Chandler) (Nasally) You know what's funny? You used to be dead. And now, you're alive. Spending the rest of your days working in these mines.

Chandler: Because of you.

Me: Don't try to pin that on us Chandler. You are the one that came to us looking for a fight. That's why Laney took your life. It was YOUR choice.

Lincoln: We didn't come here to gloat about how we killed you. We came here because I needed some answers. Why do you hate me and Laney so much? What have we ever done to you that would cause you to hate us?

Chandler: Why do I hate you Larry? WHY DO I HATE YOU!? Shut the fuck up! You think you're better than everyone else, don't you, you fucking bastard?! You've had everything fucking handed to you! Money, girls, power! I could never outwit you in anything Larry and I don't know why! I should be stronger than you damn it! You're just a damn nothing compared to me! What the hell makes you so damn special?! Why did the girls flock to you and to me?! I'm the one who was much better in our age group! ME!

Me: So that's what this is all about!

Nico: He's jealous!

Lincoln: You're jealous!? Of me and Laney?

Laney: Why?

Chandler: I'm not jealous of you Scarfy. I picked on you for fun. I'm jealous because of Larry here!

Me: His name is Lincoln! Get it right you asshole!

Qin: Yeah!

Lincoln: This is ridiculous Chandler! I was never trying to compete with you. I didn't get like this because it was handed to me! I got like this because I earned it. Power is not given. It's earned. Love is not given. It's earned. I got Ronnie Anne, Earth, Lilly, Paige and all my loving wives because I love them! And they love me. I got this strong through hard work and because I have my friends and my love for everyone I care about to help me. I wouldn't have gotten this far if it weren't for them!

Me: I can't believe you're that jealous Chandler. Like my father says: Jealousy is a way to become more upset than anyone else involved.

Nico: That's interesting.

Chandler then blew his stack!

Chandler: (ENRAGED!) I hate you Larry! I hate you so much that I can't stand it anymore! I don't care if it's frowned upon. I'm will enjoy tearing you apart when I get out of here! I'm will enjoy killing you for the humiliation that you've inflicted upon me! I'm tired of living in your shadow!

Lincoln's aura flared up with incredible power!

Lincoln: All that jealousy and you have no love for anyone but yourself. I pity you Chandler. You've clearly lost your mind, just as Sasuke and all the other villains we killed before we all had to kill some of them. Please… don't make me have to do the same to you.

Me: That's right. So watch yourself. You have the rest of your life in here to think about your crimes and we resurrected you because we figured that you didn't deserve to go to Hell so soon.

POW!

Laney and Lincoln then punched him in the face and sent him crashing into a wall of cheese.

CRASH!

Chandler had stars and birds orbiting around his head.

Chandler: (Stupid talk) Night mom. Wind up the cat and put out the clock.

FWOMP!

He was knocked out stupid.

Me: Nice shot you two.

Laney: Thanks.

Lincoln: That felt good.

Me: It sure did.

Splash Woman: I can tell he has had it coming for a long time.

Nico: Yep. That's why he has failed this world. Always have and always will.

Muscle Man: You know who else would love smashing this kid? My mom!

We laughed!

Nico: That is always funny!

Me: It sure is.

We went back to the estate.

---

Later in the middle of the city, we were walking all the way over to Stark Industries, the corperate headquarters of Tony Stark A.K.A. Iron Man and his awesome business.

---

Stark Industries is a multinational industrial company, and is the largest tech conglomerate in the world. Founded in 1940 by Howard Stark, the elder Stark ran the company from its inception up until his death in 1991, after which Obadiah Stane was appointed interim CEO. with Tony Stark officially assuming the position shortly after at the age of twenty one.

Under Stark's control, the company flourished financially for nearly two decades; however, when Stark discovered that Stane was selling their weapons to terrorist groups around the world, such as the Ten Rings, he shut down their lucrative weapons division. In 2010, Stark appointed Pepper Potts as the CEO of Stark Industries after realizing that he was dying from palladium poisoning, a position Stark allowed Potts to maintain after he engineered his own recovery.

Stark Industries was founded by Howard Stark during the early twentieth century, a great pioneer in different types of technology and constantly helping the United States Armed Forces with different and innovative weapons, helping the government to create the Super Soldier Serum. Years later, he created an Arc Reactor along with Anton Vanko, a source which provided free, pure and efficient energy for Stark Industries' main plant.

After the death of Howard Stark in 1991 at the hands of HYDRA, the company was inherited by his son Tony Stark, with the help of Obadiah Stane, although Stane was appointed interim CEO immediately after Howard's death before his son could officially assume the position of CEO.

Years later, Tony Stark was kidnapped by the Ten Rings in Afghanistan, and developed a suit of armor powered with a miniaturized Arc Reactor to escape captivity. Upon his return to Malibu, he decided the company would no longer produce weaponry, due to the fact that he had discovered his captors now possessed illegal Stark weaponry and technology.

Stark further developed his armor to create new models, such as the Iron Man Armor: Mark III and started looking for and destroying stolen Stark tech, which he later discovered Obadiah Stane was selling behind his back. Stark faced Stane, who had created his own suit of armor, and killed him in battle at the Stark Industries Factory.

Six months later, Stark re-inaugurated the Stark Expo and was attacked by Anton Vanko's son Ivan, who thought Howard Stark was responsible for Anton's misery and death, although Anton was deported because he tried to use the reactor to his own profit.

Though panned by critics such as Bill O'Reilly, Stark appointed Pepper Potts as leader of Stark Industries.

Stark later opened a new base for Stark Industries in New York City, building the Stark Tower, which was powered by a new prototype Arc Reactor inside the tower. Meanwhile, Potts procured permits to build a Stark Tower in Washington, D.C.

Dissatisfied with his previous status as "Iron Man's bodyguard", Happy Hogan was hired as head of security in Stark Industries Headquarters.

Following the downfall of S.H.I.E.L.D. and the hiring of Maria Hill, Stark Industries made privatized security a part of its services.

A bomb manufactured by Stark Industries landed in the apartment building of the Maximoff family, failing to detonate but still killing the parents of twins Wanda and Pietro Maximoff, causing them to hate Tony Stark and initially help Ultron.

Sometime after the Battle of Sokovia, Stark Industries announced new scholarships for promising students from urban city schools.

---

With us was Mothra and she was in an amazing Human Form. She had an awesome Indian Style dress, black hair, blue eyes and a white tiara. She also had her wings folded.

Tony: Pepper's going to be pissed at me!

Galaxy Man: C'mon, Tony. I'm sure she won't be that mad. I mean, sure, you left without telling her. And you haven't contacted her for over a year (stops to think about it) You're right. Pepper's going to be pissed at you.

Me: But it was for a reason. You had to help us kill General Ross and Thanos.

Nico: Yep. Among many other things.

We went inside the building and Pepper Potts, Tony Stark's assistant and deputy CEO saw us.

Pepper: (hugs Iron Boy) OH, Tony! I was so worried!

Iron Boy: (laughs and reveals his face) Sorry. I'm not Tony.

Mothra: But you have to admit. He does look like him.

Pepper: Oh sorry! Tony!

She hugged Tony.

Pepper: I was so worried about you! What happened?

Iron Man: It's a really long story Pepper.

Me: He has been helping us out.

Pepper: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Wow! Such an honor to have you all here.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Pepper. Tony told us a lot about you.

Runabout: Sorry that Tony hasn't contacted you for a while, Pepper.

Pepper: I'm just glad he's all right.

Outback: Pepper, you should know that despite Tony not calling you, he's helped us out a lot.

Me: That's right. He has been helping us in a lot of our adventures. We have so much to tell you.

Pepper: What happened?

We went over everything that happened while Tony was with us. We talked about how we killed General Ross, Thanos and many others.

Pepper was shocked and amazed.

Pepper: Wow. That's amazing. But guys I'm really sorry about your loss.

Me: It's all right Pepper.

Talia: (Arabic Accent) We appreciate your concern.

Bowser Jr.: But we'll pull through.

Then a mail man came and to our surprise it was Stan Lee!

Stan Lee: I got a package for a Ms. Dipper Potts.

Pepper: That's Pepper Potts.

Me: Stan Lee!

Stan Lee: Greetings true believers! I see you all made it back safe from the defeat of Thanos.

Me: We made that monster pay Stan. But we suffered two casualties. We lost Ra's Al Ghul and Bowser.

Stan Lee: I see. But I'm glad you're all safe.

Me: Thanks Stan. EXCELSIOR!

Stan Lee: EXCELSIOR!

He left.

Qin: He sure is full of surprises.

Me: Oh yeah. Stan Lee is the world famous creator of Marvel Comics and an amazing artist and man of creativity.

We went on an awesome tour of Stark Industries and it was awesome!

---

Back at the estate we were watching TV and playing card games and reading books. Suddenly the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the computer and we saw that there was a strange unnatural weather disturbance over in Oklahoma.

Me: A huge weather disturbance that's unnatural in Oklahoma. Lets go check it out.

We were off to the middle of Tornado Alley in Oklahoma.

---

OKLAHOMA!

---

We arrived in the middle of Oklahoma and a massive and raging thunderstorm was going on. Lightning was striking all over the place and it was raining all over.

Me: WOW! A thunderstorm in the middle of winter.

Nico: This is completely unnatural.

Lincoln: What in the world is going on?

Laney: This is amazing!

Lana: Wow!

Lola: Whoa!

Lisa looked on her doppler radar and she saw that the storm was a very strong and powerful severe thunderstorm. We were standing right in the middle of it.

Lisa: This is a really intense thunderstorm everyone.

THUNDERCLAP!

Me: Whoa!

Nico: Wow!

Lincoln: That was powerful!

?: It's an amazing storm isn't it?

We turned and we saw a couple of robots. We saw that they were THE WEATHERHEADS!

---

The Weatherheads first appeared in Riding the Storm Out, where they attempted to construct a weather-manipulating machine in order to create a galactic cyclone. They were defeated by Amalgam Ben, and were sent through the "cosmic cyclone" that they created, launching them into space.

The Weatherheads return in The 11th Alien: Part 2, where it is revealed that they were responsible for the unnatural weather occurring in the previous episode (initially believed to have been a consequence of Ben using the Omnitrix), partnering themselves with Vilgax. However, once they become convinced that Vilgax will betray them, they decide to turn on him - thus leading to their defeat by Shock Rock.

In The Feels, the Weatherheads, almost drained entirely of their battery, attempt to recharge by creating negative emotions via their usage on weather. Whilst their initial attempts of wreaking havoc initially work and recharge them (thus making them more powerful), they are once again defeated by Shock Rock and quickly run out of charge once more as the people happily rebuild their damage. This subsequently causes the Weatherheads to perform generous acts (under the influence of these positive emotions) and therefore malfunction and are forced to retreat.

In Beach Heads, the Weatherheads are seen at Tampa beach, where they attempt to create their new base. After a fight with Diamondhead, and later Cannonbolt, the Weatherheads begin to take in the positive emotions once more that they experience whilst battling the latter - this distraction subsequently providing enough time for Gwen and Max Tennyson to destroy their base and thus foiling their plans once more. The episode thus ends with them finally accepting the relaxation and enjoyment that they feel on the beach.

In Heat of the Moment, the Weatherheads are swiftly defeated by Cannonbolt at the beginning of the episode. It is this embarrassing loss (as well as the countless ones prior) that prompt them to accept Kevin's advice of accepting their emotions, in a last-ditch attempt at finally defeating Ben. Later on, the now-emotional Weatherheads attack Ben at the ski resort, utilising their newfound emotions to further enhance their own perhaps and swiftly defeat Four Arms. However, their fall comes during their battle with Slapback, where they become convinced (from the latter taking advantage of their emotions) to question their loyalty towards Kevin - thus prompting them to then chase an angered Bashmouth instead,

Powers and Abilities

Each of the Weatherheads is capable of manipulating weather-based elements. Hail-O controls water, allowing him to cause torrents of water to fall from the sky. Shock-O controls lightning and electricity, allowing him to unleash powerful bolts of electricity at enemies. Gust-O controls air and wind, allowing him to attack with powerful gusts of air. The Weatherheads are also capable of combining their abilities for more powerful attacks, like when Hail-O and Gust-O combined their powers to blanket a small town in snow.

The Weatherheads are able to absorb negative emotions in order to recharge themselves.

Weaknesses

The Weatherheads' denial of their own emotions can easily be exploited by their enemies.

In the event that the Weatherheads perform acts that generate positive emotions, they will malfunction and shut down.

---

Me: The Weatherheads!

Lincoln: These guys are them?

Lola: But they look like everyday corporate business men.

Me: They do on the outside. But on the inside they are robots that have the ability to control the weather.

Lori: That's literally amazing.

Gust-O: Don't even try to provoke us into hating you idiots. Our emotions have been turned off.

Me: We have no intention of letting you do that Gust-O. You get recharged through negative emotions just like we get power from hatred.

Gust-O: That is correct.

Helen Wheels: Everyone! Don't show off any Negative Emotions. That's what recharges the Weatherheads!

Me: I know.

Lincoln: What were you built to do?

Shock-O: To create the ultimate galactic cyclone and use it to destroy the entire universe.

Hail-O: That's right.

Me: That's not right.

Laney: I agree.

Lisa: I would never create robots to do such a despicable thing to all of the very fabric of the universe.

Shock-O: You have no authority to stop what we were programmed to do.

?: And I will help them.

We then saw a figure come out of a portal of darkness and out came VANITAS!

---

Vanitas, also known as The Masked Boy, is one of the secondary antagonists of the Kingdom Hearts series. Vanitas is a Keyblade wielder, Master Xehanort's apprentice, Ventus' dark embodiment, and is the cause of infestations of The Unversed in various worlds. He is also a member of the Real Organization XIII.

In the novels, Vanitas's life between his creation and the events of Kingdom Hearts: Birth by Sleep is expanded upon. At first, Vanitas was a faceless being much like a Heartless but with red eyes, that felt sad for his separation from Ventus. However, that sadness soon turned to hate and contempt for what he considered his weakness. In a way, Vanitas hated himself for being so weak.

Vanitas was well aware of his existence, and soon started questioning why he was born, and every time he felt something, an Unversed would come to be. This caused him to be irritated by the fact that such a monster was born from him, so he destroyed the Unversed with his Keyblade without any hesitation; but every time he destroyed an Unversed, he himself would feel strong physical pain running through his body, and after the Unversed was destroyed, the pain and negative feeling would return to Vanitas's mind, which added more to the irritation he was feeling and in turn another Unversed of "irritation" would be born from him.

When a newborn's heart came in contact with Ventus's fractured heart, he also directly contacted Vanitas's heart. After feeling a sharp pain in his chest, Vanitas's body fell to the ground of the wasteland near the Keyblade Graveyard and almost lost his consciousness, feeling being engulfed by absolute Darkness. That was when Vanitas heard Sora's voice and then he saw Light.

The Light eventually surrounded his whole body. He then heard a voice saying, "Let's open the door".

Vanitas then opened his eyes and found out that now he had a normal boy's face. He also realized that someone, probably also a newborn heart like himself, had saved Ventus's heart from completely fading away.

Because Vanitas told Master Xehanort that if he kept both him and Ventus, he could not guarantee that he could keep Ventus alive, since he found it was hard to suppress his impulse to hurt Ventus, Xehanort had to take Ventus to the Land of Departure, asking Eraqus to take care of the boy. But after Ventus left, Vanitas started to miss him, and he kept wondering why they got separated from each other. This caused him to feel miserable and immense pain.

At the same time, he also felt very lost and anxious about his future; without Ventus, what would become of him? What was he supposed to do? What was the meaning of his existence? Why did he feel so suffocated in his chest? The more he thought about these questions, the more anxious, irritated, and lonely he felt. And the more he felt that, the more Unversed were created. Looking at the Unversed was like looking at his own weakness that he did not want to admit, so he started to kill them in a cycle of suffering that he could not escape.

At the same time, Master Xehanort could only coldly watch Vanitas harming himself from far away. Vanitas desperately wanted to escape from this vicious cycle of pain and suffering. But as young as he was at that time, he simply did not know any other ways other than killing the Unversed. Until the point the pain was too much to endure, he finally collapsed onto the ground of Keyblade Graveyard, and cried. Tears started running down his face silently as he lay on the ground, alone. Master Xehanort came to him, telling him the only way for him to achieve salvation was to become the χ-blade.

Becoming the χ-blade was the only way for him to truly unite with Ventus again, and the χ-blade would bring salvation not only to him, but also to the whole world. Vanitas desperately wanted to free himself from this unbearable fate, thus to become the χ-blade had now become his goal, his whole life purpose, and his only light of hope to lead him out of this Darkness.

Birth By Sleep

As Ventus-Vanitas, Vanitas was found by Xehanort and became his apprentice, and Xehanort decided to use him to create the χ-blade and also as a vessel. He found that Ventus could not be a vessel but could still make the χ-blade. Xehanort gets Ventus to fight against a horde of Neoshadows but Ventus is defeated so Xehanort splits him into two beings, Ventus - heart of pure light and Vanitas - heart of pure darkness.

After Ven's training, Vanitas arrives and taunts him about being weak before leaving and telling him that if he does not chase Terra, he will never see him again. Vanitas later met Ven at the Badlands and attempted to kill him, thinking he was too weak but Mickey saved him and Vanitas left.

Vanitas later encountered Aqua at the Radiant Garden and they fought, but Vanitas left, revealing that it was just a test. Vanitas met Aqua again in Never Land and fought her because he no longer needed her. After the battle she faints and he leaves, it is unknown why he did not finish her off.

Vanitas confronts Ventus and forces him to go to the Keyblade Graveyard after revealing their past.

Vanitas then fights against Aqua and Ventus at the Keyblade Graveyard and then he faces Terra with Xehanort's help, though he lives midway through the fight so he can forge the χ-blade. Vanitas knocks Aqua out and is about to finish her but Ventus recovers and fights Vanitas.

In the end, while confronting Ven, Vanitas unmasks himself, revealing his face to resemble Sora's, albeit with black hair and golden eyes. He reveals the Unversed came from him, and then would return to him once they're defeated.

During the final confrontation, Vanitas forces Ventus to fuse with him to become Ventus-Vanitas. Ventus fights Vanitas inside his mind while Aqua and Mickey face off against Vanitas controlling Ventus. After a long fight, Aqua and Mickey defeat Ventus-Vanitas and Ventus defeats Vanitas in their mental battle.

During Aqua's search for Terra, she senses a strong presence in the Keyblade Graveyard. Arriving there, she is confronted by Vanitas' Lingering Spirit, who attacks her. She knows he has all of his old powers plus the Unversed's powers and the χ-blade. After a long battle, Aqua defeats him and continues her search for Terra.

Dream Drop Distance

When Young Xehanort appears before Sora within the cathedral at La Cité des Cloches, Ventus's heart reacts within Sora and allows him to see an image of Vanitas. In unison, the youth and Vanitas claim that Sora has made his heart into a prison, then vanish.

The real Vanitas joins the rest of the real Organization XIII during Master Xehanort's resurrection and attempt to make Sora the thirteenth vessel. However, Lea, Donald, and Goofy's intervention forces the Organization, including Vanitas, to retreat to their own times.

Kingdom Hearts III

In Monstropolis, Vanitas was revealed to have freed Randall Boggs so he would aid him in gathering negative emotions from children. After Randall was banished for good, Vanitas tried to seize Ventus from within Sora. Goofy recalled that Ven was never able to defeat Vanitas, because they both struck each other down. In the nick of time, Sulley grabbed him and threw him into four doors with the last one being put in the shredder.

Later, he invaded the Land of Departure to take Ven while his heart was sleeping. Aqua formed a barrier to fight him one-on-one, though he had the upper-hand. With Sora's plea, Ven's heart returned and pierced the barrier to save Aqua. Vanitas retreated after saying that three Guardians was more than he cared to face.

He and Terra-Xehanort were fighting Sora, Ventus, and Aqua in the Keyblade Graveyard. After being defeated, part of his mask shattered to reveal his face again. Ven assured that anyone has the right to choose what they want to be. Vanitas told him that he was darkness and then his body vanished.

---

Ventus: Vanitas!

Vanitas: Hello, Ventus. It's been a long time.

Me: I remember you. You are the embodiment of the evil inside Ventus! You got Ventus sent into that coma!

Vanitas: That's right J.D. Knudson. You are just as powerful as you say. I'm impressed that you were able to defeat someone like Master Xehanort so easily.

Me: Now we still have all his fragments to clean up.

Vanitas: So I have heard. But lets see if you are as strong as you say you are.

?: Let me help too!

Then out came an old enemy that the Dino Thunder Power Rangers faced in episode 10 of Dino Thunder: MEGALADOR!

---

Megalador is a creation of a shark, a oleander flower, and spare car parts. He was created by Mesogog. He is sent to kidnap Nikki Valentina, supermodel/actress of the serial Ocean Alert. He succeeded in his scheme, but was encountered with Tommy. Megalador captured her and teleported himself and her into lair of Mesogog. He also infected Conner and Kira with flower blasts, causing allergic reaction. Valentina soon escaped and Megalador was sent to capture her on the beach. Megalador encountered the rangers. After the battle he was destroyed by Z-Rex Blaster. Elsa revived and enlarged monster. Megalador created giant wave, tsunami and sent it on the Reefside. But Hayley activated the egg of new Stegosaurus Megazord and sent it to rangers. Megalador was destroyed by Stego Surgboard and Dino Drill.

Connor McKnight: Megalador!

Kira Ford: Not this ugly freak again!

Me: I remember this guy! He gave you and Connor ugly allergic reactions and almost destroyed all of Reefside with a powerful Tsunami!

Ethan James: That's right. He sure did.

Kira Ford: It was awful.

Connor McKnight: Yeah and he also kidnapped Nikki Valentina and tried use her for Mesogog.

Me: I remember that. That was awful.

Megalador: You are very observant J.D.

Then we heard a malevolent laugh and we saw THE RAMBLING GHOST!

The Rambling Ghost had beige, emaciated skin, red sclera and a black mark on either side of its face. He wore a red and white football helmet, a torn white football jersey with a large number '13' on the front, red pants and grey football shoes.

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Rambling Ghost!

Me: I remember him!

Lynn: This guy makes all of football look bad!

Qin: What's his history?

Me: He was really disgraced football coach of the Hawks that was fired a long time ago: Buck Bender. After he got fired, he swore to get revenge on the manager of the Hawks. To get even he dressed up as the Rambling Ghost, a player from the 1930s who once cursed the same stadium they were playing at after he was booed away, and kidnapped star players of the team. At one point when Mystery Inc. chased Buck, as the Rambling Ghost, into the scoreboard where he posed as the scoreboard operator to throw them off and put suspicion on Bulldog Pertowsky who happened to be hiding in there at the same the Rambling Ghost had entered.

Lynn: Wow! I've read about him! He was fired and banned from all of football for life for having an explosive temper! He swore to get vengeance for it.

Me: That's right. Buck Bender was busted and he got 40 to 50 years in prison for his crimes and now he's in prison for life because of a contract he put on Mr. Prentice and Mystery Inc. This was before the conspiracy. He got life without parole in federal prison.

Qin: Geez!

Lynn: He gives all baseball lovers everywhere a really bad name!

Me: Yes he does!

Megalador used his toxic flower to blast Bobby and Lightning, causing warts to appear on their faces.

Bobby: Oh man! Look at my face!

Lightning: Lightning's hideous!

Vanitas: (laughs) You could go after us. Or you can go help your friends with their new warts. Your choice.

With that, the Weatherheads, Vanitas, the Rambling Ghost, and Megalador walk off.

I snapped my fingers and the warts were gone! Now it was personal!

Me: Nico, you and the Dino Thunder Power Rangers take down

Megalador. Ben, you and the Omnitrix Brigade and the rest of the team will take down the Weatherheads. Troy and the Megaforce Rangers can help you. Lynn, you take on the Rambling ghost.

Nico: You got it!

Troy Burrows: Right!

Lynn: Oh It Is On!

Ben: Right!

Vanitas: Stay out of this, Knudson! This is between me and the happy Keyblade family!

Me: I don't think so Vanitas. Your fight is with me.

We split them up.

---

Battle 1: J.D. Knudson VS Vanitas.

---

(STAR WARS III Battle Of The Heroes Theme Plays)

I was facing Vanitas. I had my Keyblade, the Bond of Flames, ready and Vanitas had his Keyblade, the Void Gear, ready.

Vanitas: So you decided to prevent me from getting my revenge on Ventus.

Me: That's right Vanitas.

I then went Super Angel 3.

Me: Lets see how you like me at the power I used to kill Xehanort.

Vanitas: Impressive. So this is the power you used to kill Master Xehanort.

Me: That's right. Shall we dance?

Vanitas: Yes.

We went at each other and I clashed with his keyblade and I kicked him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and clashed with his Keyblade and we clashed several times as fire and sparks flew everywhere and ignited much of the land around us and turned it into a massive raging inferno of epic proportions. We fired fire blasts and energy blasts at each other and massive fiery explosions exploded all over the place.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRAAABOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

The entire area was turning into a massive and epic conflagration and I fired a powerful blast of fire at Vanitas and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Me: Why are you joining Vypra and her forces Vanitas?

Vanitas: Because she can help me kill Ventus.

Me: Why?

Vanitas: Because he ruined everything for me just like you have! Master Xehanort was my mentor and a friend!

Me: What kind of bullshit world do you live in!? Xehanort was going to destroy the entire universe! He was the ultimate evil!

Vanitas: From my point of view you are evil!

Me: Go fuck yourself!

I kicked him in the stomach and I fired a powerful blast of fire and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Vanitas fired many blasts of fire at me and I deflected them all and they hit him all over and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

The whole area was turned into a massive war zone of incredible power and burning fire! We stopped and Vanitas was panting heavily. His armor was all mangled up and his face was revealed. His eyes reminded me of what the eyes of the Dark Side of the Force looked like. They were really freaky. But his eyes were overflowing with pure evil. I wasn't even in the least bit exhausted.

Me: You fought really valiantly Vanitas. You learned really well from Xehanort.

Vanitas: You are a man of honor J.D. I can tell you are a worthy adversary.

Me: Thank you.

Vanitas: This has been fun. But I should get going.

Kairi: You're not sticking around?

Vanitas: I know when I'm beat. Besides, the Weatherheads' performance disappointed me. (teleports out through a Corridor of Darkness)

Me: He will be back. But we'll be ready for him.

Battle 2: Nico and the Dino Thunder Power Rangers VS Megalador

Nico and the Dino Thunder Power Rangers were facing Megalador.

Nico: You will pay for hurting our friends!

Megalador: We shall see Nico!

Connor McKnight: Lets do it guys!

Kira Ford: Right!

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it!

Lola: This is gonna be awesome!

Dino Thunder Power Rangers: DINO THUNDER! POWER UP! HA!

The Dino Thunder Power Rangers transformed!

Connor McKnight: TYRANNO POWER! DINO THUNDER RED RANGER!

Ethan James: TRICERA POWER! DINO THUNDER BLUE RANGER!

Kira Ford: PTERA POWER! DINO THUNDER YELLOW RANGER!

Tommy Oliver: BRACHIO POWER! DINO THUNDER BLACK RANGER!

Trent Fernandez: DRAGO POWER! DINO THUNDER WHITE RANGER!

Lola: AMPHICOELA POWER! DINO THUNDER PINK RANGER!

Nico: You will like this! DINO THUNDER! POWER UP! HA!

Nico was enveloped in a powerful flash of Green light and had an awesome belt and the symbol of the Dino Thunder Power Rangers was on his shirt and he had a deadly and powerful broadsword with a Quetzalcoatlus head on the hilt and the blade was a powerful Green blade and it was surging with powerful green fire and he had his morpher on his left arm and he also had a Dino Blaster on his right hip. He also had his Quetzal Fan on his left hip.

Nico: QUETZAL POWER! DINO THUNDER GREEN QUETZAL RANGER!

An explosion went off in the background behind him and the Spinosaurus Zord roared ferociously behind him.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Kira Ford: Whoa! Nico you look awesome!

Nico: Thanks Kira.

They went at Megalador and Nico punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Kira Ford fired a powerful blast of energy from her Ptera Grips and Connor smashed him with his Tyranno Staff and Nico slashed him all over the place and he bursted into flames. Ethan James fired blasts of energy and blasted him all over. Trent Fernandez went at him with incredible speed and slashed him all over and burned him all over.

Nico: Lets finish this freak of nature!

Connor: Right!

They formed the Z-Rex Cannon!

Nico: Megalador, you have failed this world! FIRE!

They fired a powerful blast of fire and energy from the cannon and sword and they hit Megalador and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Megalador was nothing but a pile of ashes!

They cheered wildly.

Trent Fernandez: That's it for him.

Tommy Oliver (Dino Thunder): Yeah!

---

Battle 3: Lynn Loud Jr. VS the Rambling Ghost!

---

Lynn was facing the Rambling Ghost and she was gonna make sure that he never ruins the good name of football ever again!

Lynn: You are a menace to football everywhere you freak of nature!

The Rambling Ghost roared in rage!

Lynn went at him and punched him with incredible force and kicked him in the stomach and she fired a powerful blast of lava and covered him and incinerated him.

Lynn: Never ruin football again!

---

Battle 4: Everyone else VS The Weatherheads!

---

Everyone else was facing the Weatherheads.

Gust-O: Do not interfere with our plans.

Ben: I won't let you all do this.

Marinette: Me neither.

Shiro: Same with me.

Troy Burrows: Time to fight weather with sunlight!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Sun Flare Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Solar Squadron Sun Vulcan Ranger from 1982.

They went at the Weatherheads and Ben punched Gust-O in the face and kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the head and Riley fired a powerful blast of leaves and cut him up. Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted Shock-O. Luna fired a massive blast of water and Lana fired a powerful blast of ice lightning and they froze Hail-O all over and Lori blew Gust-O all over.

Me: Lets finish these ugly tin cans!

Flash Man: You got it J.D. Lets get him!

Ben then turned into Clockwork!

Ben: (Swedish Accent) CLOCKWORK!

Me: The Time will destroy the Weatherheads.

Clockwork: Ves it vill. Vith Svedish fun. Verdy verdy verdy ja.

Flash Man fired a powerful blast of light and Clockwork fired a powerful Time Ray

Flash Man and Clockwork (Ben 10): TIME RAY SUPER RUST!

Their blasts combined and it hit Shock-O and he was rusting.

Ben then turned into Feedback!

Ben: FEEDBACK!

Shocker: This is gonna be awesome!

Feedback: Yeah! Lets do it!

Feedback and Shocker fired a powerful blast of lightning at Shock-O.

Feedback and Shocker: LIGHTNING SUPER MEGASTRIKE!

The powerful blast of lightning hit Shock-O and it obliterated him into nothing.

Me: One down and two to go!

Runabout: Lets get him with our combos! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his particle ray 100-fold.

Galaxy Man: This is gonna be interesting. I've always wanted to try this! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and enhanced his Black Hole Bomb 100-fold.

Runabout and Galaxy Man: EVENT HORIZON VORTEX!

Galaxy Man fired a powerful black hole and Runabout fired a particle blast and turned it into a 4th Dimensional tornado and it spun Gust-O around in a deadly black tornado.

Outback: This is gonna be awesome! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Outback's back and enhanced his Mortar Shells 100-fold.

Mothra: This is gonna be awesome.

Mothra jumped into the air and turned into her Kaiju Form. She turned into Mothra 2019!

Mothra: KAIJU CYBER KEY POWER!

The Kaiju Cyber Planet Key went into her right forearm and it enhanced her powers 100-fold.

Outback and Mothra: RAINBOW ENERGY EXPLODING LASER!

Mothra fired a powerful blast of rainbow energy from her antennae and Outback fired his Mortar Shell and they hit Hail-O and exploded and completely destroyed him in a massive fiery explosion.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Time to finish you for good Gust-O.

(Twister F5 Music Plays.)

Ganta: I will never forgive you robots for messing around with our weather! BLOOD BULLET FIRESTORM!

Ganta fired a massive barrage of blood bullets at Gust-O and they hit him and went all the way through him.

Shiro: You were a huge mistake being created. BLOOD WHIP MEGASLASH!

Shiro formed a powerful whip of blood and she lashed Gust-O all over.

Iron Man: Now for some Avenger power! REPULSER FIRESTORM BLAST!

Iron Man fired a powerful blast of repulser blasts and they hit Gust-O and exploded all over him.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Lincoln: You are the worst Weather maker ever! LIGHTNING MEGA DRAGON ELECTROCUTION!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and it turned into a powerful dragon and it hit Gust-O and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Laney: These clods give all weather reporters everywhere a bad name! FLOWER SHURIKEN MEGA BARRAGE!

Laney threw a bunch of powerful flower shuriken and they hit Gust-O and skewered him.

Lori: You robots literally are a menace! HURRICANE CAMILLE MEGA HURRICANE WIND!

Lori fired a massive blast of wind at Gust-O that had the explosive power of Hurricane Camille back in 1969 and it slammed into Gust-O and blew his metal shell off.

Lily Loud: This oughta short you out! GLOW WATER SUPER DELUGE!

Lily fired a powerful blast of glowing water and it hit Gust-O and drenched him. He was shorting out.

Ben: Time for some Hero Power! OMNITRIX ALIEN SUPERSTRIKE!

Ben fired a powerful energy shower made of the spirits of all of the aliens he has in the Omnitrix. They hit Gust-O and exploded all over.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Riley: Lets see how he likes this! LEAF STORM MEGASLASH!

Riley fired a powerful shower of leaves and they cut Gust-O all over.

Bella: Try this! DREJ ION LASER BARRAGE!

Bella fired a powerful ion laser barrage and it hit Gust-O all over and the blasts burned him all over.

Gwen Tennyson: Try this on for size! ANODITE MEGA POWER BLAST!

Gwen Tennyson turned into her Anodite form and fired a powerful blast of mana and it hit Gust-O and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Here Kevin.

I handed him crystal made of solid Kryptonite and Kevin touched it and turned into solid glowing Kryptonite.

Kevin Levin: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome. Good thing we resolved all of the people of Krypton's problems with being poisoned by Kryptonite.

Kevin Levin: Lets see how he likes this! KRYPTONITE LASER STORM!

Kevin fired a powerful focused beam of kryptonite and it hit Gust-O and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Chione: That was amazing! Lets see how it likes this! ENDOTHERMIC FIRESTORM FREEZE!

Chione fired a powerful blast of endothermic fire and it hit Gust-O and froze him in a block of ice.

Sunny Tennyson: How about this as well. MANA SUPERBLAST BARRAGE!

Sunny Tennyson formed 5 powerful blasts of energy and they hit Gust-O and exploded all over.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Me: I think the Plumbers Helpers isn't complete without Pierce Wheels.

I snapped my fingers and it resurrected Pierce Wheels! He was one of the Plumber's Helpers that was murdered by the Forever Knights.

Manny Armstrong: I don't believe it!

Helen Wheels: Pierce!

Pierce: Helen! Manny!

They hugged and the Plumbers Helpers were reunited and all back together.

Pierce: What happened? I was dead.

Me: I brought you back. My name is J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Pierce: I've heard so much about you. I met someone named Ra's Al Ghul and he told me all about what you all have been doing.

Me: Wow!

Talia: Ra's is my father. He was killed by the evil Thanos the Mad Titan.

Pierce: Wow. That's what I heard. But thanks for bringing me back.

Me: No problem Pierce. But if we ever see the Forever Knights, we will kill all of them.

Pierce: Thank you J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Ben: Glad you're back Pierce.

Pierce: Thanks Ben.

Leslie: It's a pleasure to meet you Pierce. My name is Leslie Gesneria Tennyson.

Agony: And I'm Agony.

Pierce: Pleasure to meet you both.

Ben: Leslie is my adopted sister.

Pierce: Wow! It's a pleasure.

Leslie: Same to you Pierce.

Shanan: Are you half Armadonian?

Pierce: That's right. How did you know that?

Shanan: I have a lot of knowledge about all of the creatures of the universe.

Kevin Levin: That was Argit's Species.

Me: Wow. We'll talk more later. We're facing him.

I pointed to Gust-O.

Pierce: Let me help out. MEGA THORN SUPER PIERCE!

Pierce fired a powerful barrage of thorns and they skewered Gust-O all over.

Manny Armstrong: Lets smash him to pieces! TETRAMAND SUPER SMASH PUNCH!

Manny punched Gust-O all over with devastating force.

Helen Wheels: I feel the need for speed! KINECELERAN SPEED CYCLONE!

Helen Wheels ran at 500 miles per hour and spun around in a powerful cyclone and blew Gust-O all over the place.

Alan Albright: Lets see him feel the heat! PYRONITE FIREBALL BARRAGE!

Alan Albright fired powerful blasts of fire and they hit Gust-O and burned him all over.

Julie Yamamoto: Time for an upgrade!

Julie's clothes turned green and black and she got an awesome new suit of armor on!

Me: WHOA! That is so cool!

Nico: It sure is.

Julie Yamamoto: Thanks guys. Try this on Weatherheads. GALVANIC LASER BURST!

Julie fired a powerful laser blast from her hand and it hit Gust-O and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM

Elena Validus: Lets see how you like this! NANITE LASER FIRESTORM!

Elena Validus formed her hands into laser blasters and she fired them and they hit Gust-O and exploded all over.

Cooper Daniels: Time for some Techno Strength! SUPER POWER STRENGTH RAM!

Cooper ran at the wreckage of Gust-O and rammed all the way through him and smashed him into a thousand pieces!

SMASH!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: That was awesome!

Lincoln: No kidding! Great job Cooper!

Me: But that's it for the Weatherheads.

The storm clouds cleared up and they were gone.

Me: Whew. Clear day.

Alan Albright: It's great to have you back Pierce.

Pierce: Thanks Alan. I missed you guys.

Gwen Tennyson: We missed you too.

Me: The Plumbers Kids are back together.

Helen Wheels: Thanks to you J.D. Thank you.

Me: Anytime.

Nico: The Weatherheads have failed this universe.

Me: You said it Nico. Whoever built them has to be one fucked up lunatic.

?: I agree with you J.D.

We turned and we saw a member of the United States Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Me: Vice Chairman of the United States Joint Chiefs of Staff, John E. Hyten.

John E. Hyten: That's right. It's a pleasure to meet you J.D. Thank you for destroying the Weatherheads.

Me: You're welcome sir. Do you know who built them?

John E. Hyten: As a matter of fact I do. They were created by an insane lunatic who's goal was to control the weather. His name was Dr. Alex Cumulous. It was about 6 years ago. He was proposing to fund a radical project to invent robots that are capable of controlling the weather and solve the weather problems around the planet. He calls it Project Weatherhead. But all of congress thought he was absolutely crazy and they called him an insane lunatic. We cut his funding and pulled the plug on his ludicrous and insane experiments. But he went to work on the project anyway and he created the Weatherheads to destroy the universe. We tracked him down to his hidden hideout in the northern Rocky Mountains of Alaska and arrested him.

Me: I remember that sir! I helped you guys bust him!

Lori: Wow! That's literally amazing!

Ronnie Anne: No kidding!

John E. Hyten: Yes and I'm glad you stopped the Weatherheads.

Me: You're welcome sir.

Laney: How long did Dr. Cumulous get?

Me: He got 1,000 life sentences in a maximum security federal prison. That was a day I'll never forget.

FLASHBACK.

Me: (Narrating) Cumulous was declared the most hated man in the history of America. He was 1,000 times worst than the most evil man that ever walked the planet because of his experiments. His trial was really swift and very severe.

Cumulous was rotting in his cell in a state pen, and he was in rather poor condition from not eating so much food. Despite that, he was fueled with hatred, and revenge against me. Cumulous had never felt so humiliated and disgraced before in his life. Outside his cell was a large angry mob all chanting for Cumulous to die for all the crimes he had committed against the planet and against all of humanity. Despite the police agreeing with the civilians, they were tasked to keep them away from the cell and building, and the people had to leave this to the justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Two FBI agents went up to his cell, and grabbed him by the arms, dragging him out and throwing him into an armored car while he was cuffed, and it drove off to the most secured courthouse in the United States' capital city. While being escorted by the men with guns, Cumulous was being surrounded by thousands and thousands of angry people, demanding that he suffer greatly and suffer a painful death.

Me: Everyone wanted to see Cumulous's head mounted on a pike for all of the terrible crimes he had done to the planet.

As soon as he set foot inside the courtroom, it was silent and it was packed with angry people, senators and government officials mixed with civilians. Instead of two tables, there was a restraining board and the judge began speaking.

Judge of the Supreme Court: Alexander Nate Cumulous, you have been charged of crimes against humanity and other heinous acts amongst people and all over the planet. Normally, we would have a fair trial, but with the crimes that you have committed, the Congress decided to let us give it to you straight. Have you got anything to say?

Dr. Cumulous: I… did it for science and for protecting our people and planet! You people may think what you want about me, but I did what I do best.

Me: He got the Worst Sentence Ever.

Judge of the Supreme Court: Very well. You deserve no clemency or lawyers after all you have done, and for that, you are hereby given one thousand life sentences with absolutely no chance of parole at all. Every once a week, you will be given torture by sitting in a white room for long, agonizing hours, and be forced to listen to songs by Blarney over and over again for your. Most importantly, you will get painful beatings every Saturday from guards, and it will be agonizing and painful!

The sound of savage uproar of cheering was heard amongst the crowd and the jury, even a few police officers were cheering after hearing that. After it had gone quiet, the judge cotinued to speak.

Me: He was gonna go through hell in a powerful Maximum Security Federal Prison.

Dr. Cumulous: No. No! You can't do this to me!

He felt himself being dragged by the same guards and everyone in the courtroom began cheering in savage pleasure. The former disgraced scientist fought with all his might, but no avail.

Dr. Cumulous: I WILL NOT BE DEGRADED LIKE THIS! LET ME GO! LET ME GO!

Past Me: You brought all this on yourself!

Judge of the Supreme Court: Take him away! And may he rot!

FLASHBACK ENDS

Me: That day was satisfying for all of us.

Lori: Wow! I literally remember that! That was incredible!

Luna: Dude that was intense!

Luan: No kidding!

Lynn: Yeah!

Lincoln: What happened to him?

Me: Dr. Cumulous was beaten to death in the ADX Florence Prison. He was sent off to Hell where he belongs.

Lincoln: Good riddance.

John E. Hyten: Yes and we can't thank you all enough.

Me: Anytime sir.

We later went back to the estate.

* * *

We were back home.

Iron Man: (To the viewers) Any robots that were built by mad science are never gonna be welcome on Earth.

Me: You said it Tony. But this was awesome!

Pierce: It sure was J.D. Thank you for bringing me back.

Me: You're welcome Pierce. Now the Omnitrix Brigade is complete.

Ben: That's right.

We had a good rest of the day.

THE END

Another Fanfiction Complete and another 2016 Ben 10 villain destroyed.

The Weatherheads from 2016's Ben 10 were amazing and interesting because of their abilities to control the weather! I thought that was really cool! I made up the doctor and the mad scientist plot and it was interesting. Now our problems became worst with Vanitas joining the Masters of Evil. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the Alien Force villain Darkstar and Kay Morningstar is gonna destroy her brother for his crimes!

See you all tomorrow.

The Dark Wrath of Darkstar

We were over at the awesome and beautiful kingdom of Corona. It was as beautiful as we remember it.

---

Corona is an island kingdom and the birthplace of Rapunzel in the 2010 animated feature film Tangled.

The central hub of Corona's kingdom was built on an island and grew over many years. The oldest known of Corona's line of monarchs is King Herz Der Sonne. During his reign, Corona was in a bitter war with their rival kingdom, Saporia. Under King Der Sonne's rule, a complex tunnel system was built beneath Corona to safely move the kingdom's knights and supplies wherever King Der Sonne needed. A detailed map of the tunnels and their secrets were recorded in a journal, by Der Sonne.

At one point, Corona was invaded by Der Sonne's sworn enemy, the ruthless General Shampanier. As her minions ravaged the kingdom, Shampanier made it to Corona Castle, where she battled Der Sonne personally. In the midst of their battle, Shampanier finds that the final pages of Der Sonne's journal contained a profession of his love, intended for her. The feelings were mutual, and the two declared their love. They were later married, and with their union brought peace between their two lands.

Centuries after King Der Sonne's reign, Corona was ruled by King Frederic and his wife, Queen Arianna. During her pregnancy, Arianna became gravely ill, forcing the citizens of the kingdom to search for a fabled magic, golden flower with healing abilities. Once it was retrieved, the flower was given to Arianna, and its power saved both the queen and her daughter, named Rapunzel. Due to the flower's powers, Rapunzel was born with golden hair that also had the ability to heal the sick and injured. Because of this, a woman named Mother Gothel - who had previously hoarded the flower's power for hundreds of years to keep herself young - broke into the castle, stole Rapunzel, and hid her deep within the forest outside of Corona's reach. Rapunzel was then raised as Gothel's daughter, and her power to heal was hoarded by the witch once more. To ensure she never lost the flower's magic again, Gothel forbade Rapunzel from ever leaving the tower.

Seventeen years after her kidnapping-on the eve of her eighteenth birthday-Rapunzel met a notorious thief named Flynn Rider. With his help, she managed to escape Mother Gothel, return to Corona, and reunite with her parents. Rapunzel then resumes her rightful place as princess and heir to Corona's throne.

Places of interest

The Castle: This is the home of Queen Arianna and King Frederic, their daughter Rapunzel and later, their son-in-law Eugene Fitzherbert.

The Capital City: The village that surrounds the castle on the island, where a majority of Corona's population resides.

The Sea: Where the residents on boats release the floating lanterns on Rapunzel's birthday every year, and where Rapunzel and Eugene witness the lanterns during the song "I See the Light".

The Forest: Located on the mainland, the forest is an expansive area that homes the Snuggly Duckling pub, and a remote tower that held Rapunzel prisoner for eighteen years.

The Mountains: On the mainland, an ancient subterranean machine was built deep in the mountains. Mount Saison is one of the mountains named.

Old Corona: A village located on the mainland, where Varian and his people reside. The village is led by Quirin, an old friend of King Frederic.

Der Sonne's Tunnels: A maze of tunnels that one of Corona's past kings, Herz Der Sonne, placed under the kingdom so he could bring supplies to his troops during Corona's war with Saporia. When the war ended the booby-trapped tunnels were hardly used since and only the map in Der Sonne's journal can help people find their way around them, as well as finding hidden entrances to them.

---

We were walking through the forests and we saw all kinds of awesome plants and more.

Qin: So, this is Corona.

Flynn: Nope. This is the outside of Corona. There's a stop we should go to before the kingdom.

Me: Okay. How have things been with you and Rapunzel, Flynn?

Flynn: We're doing awesome thank you. And I have an awesome surprise for you when we get to the castle.

Me: Okay.

We arrived at a place called the Snuggly Duckling

---

The Snuggly Duckling is a pub located somewhere in the woods, not too far from Rapunzel's tower. Despite having what seems to be a "cute" name, the Snuggly Duckling is definitely not a cute place. The restaurant hosts many of Corona's ruffians and thieves who use the location as a hangout.

---

Flynn: Here we are guys. This is the Snuggly Ducklng.

Me: Nice.

Superman: Qin, when we enter the Snuggly Duckling, promise me you won't freak out.

Qin: Okay.

We went into the tavern and we saw a bunch of thugs and more.

Thug 1: Hey Flynn! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: Hey guys!

Nico: What's happening guys!?

Thug 2: Not much Nico.

Pierce: Wow. Everyone here is friendly.

Poison Ivy: You know, Pierce. These thugs might seem mean at first. But they're actually friendly. It's the same with Sir George.

Pierce: I know. I don't blame Sir George for my first death. But I do blame Driscoll and Enoch.

Me: And we will kill them both.

Horsea tried something to drink and we saw that she was completely drunk. She was hiccuping ink and acting all silly.

We then went to Corona and it was a beautiful kingdom.

Pipes: Corona's so beautiful!

Maria: That's right. You and the rest of the Cybertronians haven't visited Corona before until today.

Me: That's true Maria.

Maria: Yep. Poor Horsea. I hope she stops being drunk.

Me: I know.

Horsea: (Drunk) What are you looking at buddy. (Hiccups)

Nico: Geez.

Me: And I thought Lady Tsunade was that bad when she drinks.

Vince: No kidding.

Luna: Yeah.

Luan: She sure Drunk more than that! (Laughs)

We laughed at Luan's joke.

Me: (Laughs) That was funny!

Eddy: (LAUGHS) Good one Luan!

Laney: That was a good one.

Then we saw Rapunzel!

Rapunzel: Hey guys!

Me: Rapunzel!

Lola: Rapunzel it's good to see you again.

Rapunzel: You too Lola.

Qin: It's a pleasure to meet you Rapunzel.

Me: We have many more friends with us.

Rapunzel: I can see that.

I then saw a lump in her belly.

Me: I don't believe it. Are you and Flynn expecting?

Rapunzel: We sure are J.D.

Lori: Congratulations to you and Flynn.

Rapunzel: Thank you Lori.

Me: We're so happy for you!

Qin: Me too.

We got to having a nice talk with Rapunzel.

Headstrong: Rapunzel, when exactly did you find out Gothel lied to you?

Rapunzel: It was shortly after the festival you guys took me too.

Me: I remember that.

Qin: Who is Gothel?

Me: You would hate her more than anything Qin.

I showed her what Gothel looked like and went over her history.

Madame Gothel, or better known as Mother Gothel or also simply known as Gothel, is the main antagonist of Disney's 50th full-length animated feature film Tangled (which is based on the 1812 German fairytale Rapunzel by Brothers Grimm) and a posthumous antagonist in Tangled: The Series. As her name suggests, she is Rapunzel's former foster mother-turned-archenemy, who seeks to remain youthful and immortal by utilizing the magic hair of her "daughter". In Tangled: The Series, she was revealed to be Cassandra's biological mother. In Once Upon a Time, she is known in Hyperion Heights as Eloise Gardener.

Before the events in the film, an elderly lady named Madame Gothel hides a flower born from the sun's dew that keeps reverses her age whenever she sings to it. But someday, the flower is found and given to the queen so she would not die in childbirth. All the magical flower's power is now in the queen's daughter, so Gothel abducted her and kept her in a hidden tower for 18 years, teaching the little girl to sing for her. Although she tried to cut a lock of Rapunzel's hair to stay young, once cut, it goes from golden blonde to dark brown and loses its power. She spent the following years raising Rapunzel as her daughter and causing her to fear the outside world, which she describes as frightening, dull, selfish, cruel and unforgiving.

Once Rapunzel turned 18, she begs to see the floating lanterns on her birthday; however, Gothel refuses both musically and angrily. In order to trick her, Rapunzel asks for special paint for her birthday, a gift that would take three days to get. While reluctant, Gothel believes Rapunzel and sets off.

However, when she sees Maximus, one of the guards' horses, she concerns that someone was searching for Rapunzel. When she arrives at the tower, she is horrified to find that Rapunzel was already gone. Believing she was kidnapped, Gothel takes a sharp dagger from her drawer and sets out to find her. She passes by the Snuggly Duckling Inn and while paying attention to the thugs and Rapunzel sing, she realizes that no one kidnapped Rapunzel, but she left with a wanted criminal named Flynn Rider (Eugene) instead. Deeply outraged, when one of the men staggers outside and attempts to flirt with her, she threatens him with her dagger unless he tells her where they are.

When she finds their location, she runs into the Stabbington Brothers, Flynn's partners who he abandoned. She gives them the decision of receiving either the princess's tiara that he stole or revenge on Flynn. They unhesitatingly chose revenge. She encounters Rapunzel afterwards, saying that Flynn's only with her for the tiara. Unfazed by Gothel's warning, Rapunzel agrees to put him to the test.

Soon, the Stabbington Brothers take the tiara and knock Flynn unconscious and tie him to a boat, making it look like he was abandoning Rapunzel. They try to kidnap her, but Gothel double-crosses them by knocking them unconscious and comforting a heartbroken Rapunzel. When they show up at home, Rapunzel has a sudden epiphany that she's the lost princess of the King and Queen and she realizes that Gothel was not her mother at all, but merely a wicked schemer after the power of her hair.

The princess angrily encounters Gothel, declining to let Gothel use her hair again. Infuriated, Gothel gags Rapunzel and chains her to the wall. When Flynn enters the tower to try and save her, Gothel stabs him from behind. Rapunzel begs to cure him and says that if she lets her cure him, she will agree to be her captive forever. While hesitant, Mother Gothel agrees, but chains Flynn to the wall.

Rapunzel intended to heal him, but Flynn cuts her hair with a shard of glass from the broken mirror to save her life and prevent Mother Gothel from enslaving her. As she screams in horror as her true age catches up with her, Pascal pulls the length of the cut hair, and Gothel trips over it, causing her to fall out of the tower window. As she falls from an enormous height, she crumbles into dust and by the time she hits the ground, all that remained of her was her cloak.

Tangled: The Series

Mother Gothel appeared in the series as a posthumous antagonist. She first appeared in the episode What the Hair?!, where she appeared in a nightmare that Rapunzel was suffering after losing control of her newly grown hair. She reappeared again in the episode Rapunzeltopia where Tromus (a disciple of Zhan Tiri) takes on the form of Gothel to haunt Rapunzel in her dream, only for Rapunzel to thwart him by hitting him in the face with a pan.

It is later revealed in the third season that Gothel is the biological mother of Cassandra. Despite their blood relation, Gothel cared more about maintaining her eternal youth, even going too far by deliberately abandoning Cassandra for Rapunzel just to avoid being caught by the Royal Guard, leading to Cassandra's adoption by the Captain of the Guards. This event is what drove an embittered Cassandra to develop a certain jealousy towards Rapunzel, even betraying her by taking the Moon Stone for herself to become as powerful as Rapunzel.

Once Upon a Time

Main article: Mother Gothel (Once Upon a Time)

Kingdom Hearts III

Mother Gothel appears in Kingdom Hearts III. Her role in the Kingdom of Corona world is pretty much the same as the film Tangled, with Marluxia's Nobodies taking the place of the Stabbington Brothers. After Rapunzel's hair was cut, and Gothel aged rapidly prior to her defeat in the movie, Marluxia turned her into a Heartless called the Grim Guardianess before her cloak hit the ground to battle Sora, Donald, and Goofy and they trio ended up slaying the beast.

Powers and Abilities

While the character from the original fairytale was a witch, Mother Gothel has no magic powers whatsoever, aside from the knowledge about the Magic Flower and how to use it.

However, Mother Gothel is a highly skilled and intelligent manipulator, able to make Rapunzel fear the outside world, and then by making her believe that her trust in other people was unfounded. She is very good at talking people into agreeing with her, convincing them of what she wants them to believe and lying efficiently. Finally, she displays no fear when confronted with people bigger and more imposing than her, and proves a very temperamental and dangerous fighter with a dagger in hand, though she would rather avoid direct confrontations and prefers setting traps and taking foes by surprise.

---

Qin gasped in horror.

Qin: Gothel was a monster!

Sora: She sure was.

Aqua: I can't believe she was that dangerous.

Lola: I'm glad we killed her though. Twice.

Me: Yep. Gothel was the worst mother ever. She gave all parents everywhere a really bad name.

Laney: She sure did.

Kay Morningstar: I can tell she was that dangerous.

Rachel S.D.: No kidding. She deserved to die.

Rapunzel: I know. But at least we never have to see her ever again.

Me: Yep. She's now in the Book of Vile Darkness and if she ever comes back as a Heartless, she will be sent into the River of Fire.

Nico: Well said.

We had an awesome time over at Corona. We saw some great people and we had an awesome dance festival and more and we did some awesome dancing. We were having a lot of fun.

---

Later after we got back, Nico went out on a walk and then he came across a terrifying sight! He saw numerous people on the street all dead!

Nico: (Gasp!) What the hell happened!?

Nico looked at the bodies and he tried to feel for a pulse. He found a weak one.

Nico: Pulse is very weak. But they are still alive. Their energy levels are incredibly low. Something drained them of their energy.

Then Nico heard a scream and he went over and he just saw Darkstar finish in draining a girl named Bebe Stevens.

Darkstar: (sees Nico) Nicolas Chan, I presume?

Nico: Michael Morningstar?

Darkstar: (takes off his helmet to reveal his handsome face) You know who I am?

Nico: But that's impossible! You died!

Darkstar: Good to know. And guess what, Chan? You're about to die as well! (shoots draining beam of black energy at Nico but ends up knocking him out) Hmm. Seems I can't drain him or Knudson. No matter. I have a wide variety of people to feed on anyway. (leaves)

Nico was weak but still alive!

We later found all the bodies.

Laney: Geez what happened to all these people?

Me: I have no idea. Faint pulse, energy levels are incredibly low.

Varie: They have been drained of their life energy.

Ben: This is Darkstar's handiwork.

Gwen Tennyson: It sure is. He's back.

Qin: Who is Darkstar?

Me: His real name is Michael Morningstar. This is him.

I showed a holographic image of him and revealed his history.

---

Michael Morningstar, also known as Darkstar, is one of the plumber kids thay appear throughtout the course of Ben 10: Alien Force. He first appeared in the episode All That Glitters, and since because one of the most notable regular villains in the franchise. He has the ability to drain the life force from living beings in physical contact. He gained a grudge against Ben and his team after they accidentally caused him to turn into an awful zombie-like being who has to wear a helmet to hide his face. His plans usually involve gaining back his original face and feeding himself, though he seems to still be interested in feeding from Gwen's vast stores of Anodite energy.

Michael is initially depicted as a well-mannered individual who appears eager to help Ben and company. He comes from a rich family, as he states that his family has multiple mansions. How his family acquired such wealth isn't explained but it is known his is the only family which has such wealth and are armed with a menagerie of Plumber technology. The technology in question is monitoring equipment that uplinks to a variety of networks, which funnels information to him. Part of the monitoring equipment features a communication network between the Plumber badges. As they travel with him, he shows a very uncaring attitude to others around him. This is evident by his slamming of the door in Kevin's face as well as his remarks to Gwen while they are alone. While Ben and Gwen quickly trusted him, Kevin knew since the beginning about Morningstar's true motivation (partially because of his jealousy, as Michael and Gwen tended to flirt with each other). After a fight with zombified schoolgirls from unknown origin, Kevin guessed that Michael was the one responsible for these zombifications. His guess later proved to be right when Morningstar drained Gwen's energy, becoming nearly unstoppable and easily defeating both Ben and Kevin. However, Gwen proved to have enough will to resist his control, and drained her energy back from him, as well as part of his own, leaving him weakened. His other zombie victims then turned against him, and took back what remained of his energy, leaving him almost desiccated and powerless. His Plumber badge was destroyed by Kevin who states that he doesn't deserve it.

He later reappears as Darkstar in Darkstar Rising, his powers having gradually returned much stronger and more powerful than before. In order to get revenge, he tries to get Ben, Gwen, and Kevin arrested by Magister Prior Gilhil for impersonating Plumbers and by making a deal with a Highbreed lord he defeated. When the Highbreed did his part of the deal, Darkstar tried to absorb Ben, Gwen, Kevin, the Highbreed, and Gilhil's life force energy, but he was unable to absorb Gwen's because she escaped. He later captured the four and was about to absorb all of their life force energy when Gwen came in with the DNAliens in which he was unable to absorb all of them because of fatigue. He was defeated by Ben using a combination of his aliens. Afterwards, he was arrested by Magister Gilhil and thrown in the Null Void.

In the two-part second season finale War of the Worlds, Darkstar is eventually released from the Null Void by Cooper Daniels so he can help them stop the Highbreed invasion. During the battle, he tried to absorb the life force energy of several DNAliens, transforming his face back to its original youthful appearance, but Ben managed to talk him out of it because Michael realized that he was killing real people under alien control. After the fight was over, Darkstar managed to evade them.

Darkstar appeared again in the third season in the episode Trade-Off, where he tricks Kevin into finding him so that he could convince Kevin to join him to find the Dominus Librium (a device that was decidedly alien origin and could restore the two of them to original human forms) to which they eventually retrieved and used to absorb their powers and return them to normal. Then he sucker punched Kevin in the face. Darkstar kept the Librium so he could still use his powers. When Gwen discovered the truth about Kevin, she confronted Darkstar and he started to drain her power as well as Swampfire's. Darkstar's full power was eventually perished by Kevin when he broke the Librium and got his regular powers and ugly appearance again. Darkstar then swore that he would make them all pay someday before running away.

Ultimate Alien

When Darkstar appears in the two-part first season finale Absolute Power, it is revealed that he is now in a weakened state and is forced to feed off the energy of stray animals just to survive and tries not to cause too much attention to himself. He was later found and recruited by Gwen to stop Ultimate Kevin. As payment, she changes his face back to normal using a powerful transformation spell and promises him mana, enough to keep him fully restored for a year. Michael then agrees to help her to stop Kevin, much to Ben's chagrin. Michael reveals that he kept a fragment of the Dominus Librium after it had exploded in Trade-Off, though it's ineffective. However, a strong energy surge would make it usable again. The group goes to Los Soledad and meet Cooper Daniels, who also agrees to the plot. Both Michael and Cooper create a device while Ben and Gwen stall Kevin. When Kevin becomes normal, Michael takes advantage of this moment and absorbs the vast powers and abilities of the Dominus Librium, becoming the power-hungry Morningstar again. He then shreds off his clothes and becomes pure energy. However, Ben anticipated this plot and presses a button which causes Morningstar to become normal again. Ben reveals that he told Cooper to create a mechanism to revert the process of the absorption. He reverted to normal in his boxers. Afterwards, Kevin punches Darkstar on the eye in retaliation prior from Trade-Off.

Darkstar reappeared in Couples Retreat, having reverted back to his ugly form. He broke into Kevin's garage to steal one of Gwen's spellbooks. He used a spell in it to summon the Door to Anywhere, but was badly injured while fighting Ben, Gwen, and Kevin in the process. Escaping his pursuers, Darkstar collapses at the foot of the open door, and Charmcaster appears, taking him to her castle in Ledgerdomain. Once in Ledgerdomain, Darkstar reverted back to his handsome form, now having access to an unlimited supply of Mana. Charmcaster and Darkstar are later engaged in a romantic relationship, but Darkstar, of course, was only using Charmcaster for her power and the power of Ledgerdomain. After telling him her real name, Hope, Charmcaster planted a rune on Darkstar's hand that acts like the key to Ledgerdomain, so he can come and go as he pleases. However, Darkstar soon finds that the power of Ledgerdomain leaves him when he leaves the realm, so he returns there, but is pursued by Ben, Gwen, and Kevin. At Charmcaster's castle, Darkstar fights Ben and Kevin, ranting about how he'll take over Earth and Ledgerdomain, and keep the "lovely Gwen" as a trophy.

Charmcaster confronts him about this, but Darkstar denies having meant it seriously and offers Charmcaster to join him in being evil. However, Charmcaster asks him if he remembers her real name. Darkstar, unable to completely remember, replies "Heather." Charmcaster becomes enraged, destroying her castle in a burst of magical power and also kicking out Ben's Team. In addition, she expelled Darkstar from Ledgerdomain, stripping him of his powers and returning to his ugly appearance. Charmcaster closes the Door to Anywhere in Darkstar's face, despite his pleas for her to take him back (calling her wrong names in the process). Ben, Gwen, and Kevin then approach Darkstar, ready to beat him up and apprehend him once more.

Omniverse

In Omniverse

He returns in Special Delivery where he is one of many characters who cameos in the stands awaiting the items being auctioned off by Psyphon in Undertown.

He returns in Mystery, Incorporeal where he disguises himself as a nerd named Dante and captures Gwen using one of the Charms of Bezel at her college. He attempts to use her as a sacrifice to open a portal to Ledgerdomain to gain a unlimited supply of mana and is almost successful, until Ben transforms into Ghostfreak to possess him and make him reverse the spell at the last minute. After being taken into police custody, Charmcaster appears before him in order to take revenge.

In Charmed, I'm Sure, it was revealed that Charmcaster turned him into a stone totem along with Adwaita and is kept in her bag. He whispers a plan into her ear that she likes in order to keep her from smashing him. Their conversation made Ben and Rook call her crazy and weird.

In Charm School, through Darkstar made no onscreen appearance, Charmcaster told him in her bag that he was a horrible boyfriend.

In Third Time's a Charm, Darkstar, along with Adwaita, Hex, and Gwen, is freed from Charmcaster's bag. He attempts to flee, but is stopped by Rook and presumably arrested.

Powers and Abilities

Homo Magi Superior Physiology: Despite having both Dark Arts and regular superpowers, Michael Morningstar is a Metahuman and a Homo Magi hybrid.

Balanced Mode: In this form his appearence is not only normal, but while in this state he is capable of possessing both regular to Parasitic Energy Manipulation at the same time.

Dark Magic: Michael Morningstar is skilled in the art of dark magic.

Dependency: While he is indeed powerful, he is always hungry, meaning he has to absorb energy from others in order to maintain his looks, otherwise he will descend into his negative form by force.

Enhanced Strength: Michael possesses incredible physical strength.

Enhanced Durability: Michael can withstand heavy attacks.

Flight: Michael can fly into the air, when he fly he leave behind a sparkling energy trail.

Negative Form: In his negative state whenever his energy capacity is low, he appears cadaverous and dehydrated, with his hair fallen out also, and his lips being folded back, thus showing his teeth. His Energy Manipulation begins to transform into Parasitic Energy Manipulation, which still comes in useful in restoring his looks, and possibly ascending into his Positive Form whenever his energy capacity is very high.

Parasitic Energy Manipulation: Again, in his negative and balanced form, Michael can manipulate parasitic energy. However, this superpower is a hybrid ability of Energy Drain and Energy Manipulation.

Energy Drain: Michael can absorb energy such as; life force, mana, and electricity, the more life energy/mana he absorb the more powerful he become.

Absorption Beam Emission: In his negative and balanced form, he is capable of projecting beams of parasitic energy as well.

Positive Form: Once his energy capacity is extremely high, he will ascend into his positive form, which gives him golden yet healthy skin. Similar to before, his Parasitic Energy Manipulation will begin to turn into Energy Manipulation.

Energy Manipulation: In his positive state he can manipulate regular energy which is gold in color.

Energy Attacks: He can project golden energy bolts from his hands, generate energy beams from his eyes, create a defensive energy shield in order to protect himself from incoming attacks, and generating energy shockwaves from his body.

Energy Bolt Projection: Like before, he can project energy bolts which he can use to attack others with.

Concussive Force: Which can also cause concussive damage on impact.

Energy Shield Construction: As of mentioned before, he can generate an energy shield around himself to protect himself.

Weaknesses

Michael's absorption powers cannot absorb life energy/mana from

Ectonurites as they have none inside them, which make it unaffect to them.

Qin and all of us gasped!

Laney: So Michael Morningstar is killing several people!?

Lincoln: I remember this guy! But I thought he died in the Moon Prison!

Ben: No that version of Michael is from another universe. This version is one that I know and he wants nothing more than to kill me.

Qin: What a monster!

Kay Morningstar: That fiend is not my big brother! I will burn him for this.

May: Guys over here!

We saw Nico on the ground!

Nico just woke up to see everyone looking him.

William: You ok, Nico?

Nico: Yep. Except that I saw Michael Morningstar.

Me: You encountered him too?

Nico: I sure did. He was draining people.

Me: I figured that. First lets get these people to the hospital and get back to the estate to see where he went. Can you stand Nico?

Nico: I think so.

Laney: Hang on Nico.

Nico tried to get up but he was still weak from the drain. I gave him a Senzu Bean and he was fully healed.

We got the people that were drained to the hospital and they were gonna be in there for a while as they regain their energy.

Back at the estate we went to the computer and we found out that Darkstar was on the planet Encephalonus IV, Brainstorm's home planet.

---

Encephalonus IV is a large planet filled with massive towers and facilities built upon rocky mountains and canyons. Coral can be seen on rock walls and mountainsides.

The buildings' interiors are mostly filled with dark rooms, long corridors, bridges and computers.

Technology present on Encephalonus IV is very futuristic and advanced, in accordance to the fact that Cerebrocrustaceans have extremely high intelligence. Most of the machinery and transportations present include jet-powered, interchanging platforms; laser beams used to activate switches that open doors, or turn on other machinery; high-speed subway trains that are powered by electrical coils; numerous satellites and pylons, plus advanced computer systems.

It is suggested that the numerous puzzles and computers present on Encephalonus IV are used to test the knowledge of the Cerebrocrustaceans, and it is a daily thing in everyday life to exercise their brains.

Lightning and thunder are frequently roaring in the dark, cloudy sky, though rain has not been seen.

---

Me: Encephalonus IV?

Shanan: How did he get all the way to Brainstorm's home planet? That's over 2,412 light-years away from here.

Qin: But I wonder why he is there?

Me: Guess we got to find out ourselves. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

Lisa: Affirmative!

We got to the ship and we were off to the planet Encephalonus IV.

* * *

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2791.1: We are on our way to the planet Encephalonus IV, Brainstorm's home planet located 2,412 light-years away from Earth. One of the Omnitrix Brigade's most lethal enemies, Michael Morningstar A.K.A. Darkstar is on a rampage to get revenge on Ben and Gwen and all of us so that he can kill him and destroy everything. Our mission is to kill Michael Morningstar.

Manny Armstrong: I remember Michael Morningstar helping us defeat the Highbreed. But I can't believe he's that Evil.

Helen Wheels: I remember that.

Pierce: No kidding.

Alan Albright: But it's hard to imagine he's that dangerous.

Sunny Tennyson: Tell me about it.

Julie Yamamoto: Didn't you used to like Michael, Gwen?

Gwen Tennyson: Don't remind me Julie but yes I did. Once.

Max Tennyson: But that monster Michael must be stopped at all costs.

Lincoln: He will pay for his crimes.

Lily: What he is doing is completely reprehensible!

Me: Yeah.

Lisa: We have appeared to have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

The screen turned on and we saw planet Encephalonus IV and it was a mountainous planet completely covered in storm clouds and lightning was flashing all over the clouds like there was no tomorrow and it was amazing.

Me: Wow. So that's Encephalonus IV.

Nico: Incredible. The energy coming off of it is amazing.

Kay Morningstar: This is amazing seeing another planet like this. I can't believe that this is all possible here.

Laney: It sure is amazing seeing it from space like this.

Rachel S.D.: It sure is.

Me: Lets land.

We landed in a huge mountain plateau and we got out and we saw the surface of the planet. Encephalonus IV was an amazing planet. We saw all kinds of amazing crab-like towers, amazing subway trains and more. We also saw powerful storm clouds that covered the entire planet and they were flooded with powerful lightning.

Me: Wow. So this is Encephalonus IV.

Aylene C.: It's amazing. I never knew a planet like this was possible.

Lynn: Whoa. This place is incredible.

Lucy Loud: Wicked. This reminds me of the darkness of the storm inside my heart.

Luna: This is incredible dudes.

Sam S.L.: It sure is amazing that a planet like this is even here in our galaxy.

Dana (Loud House): It sure is incredible.

Olga Orromov: It sure is an electrifying world.

Me: No kidding.

Trudy: Yeah.

Me: Lets get searching for Darkstar.

We flew out and we were searching for Darkstar. We sensed for his signal and it was getting stronger.

We hid in a crab tower and we saw DARKSTAR! He was on a plateau in front of the building.

Me: There he is. Now we need a plan.

I revealed my plan. It was to have Kevin talk to him and then when Darkstar's guard is down, we swoop in and attack him.

It was a clever plan. We put it into action. Kevin went to talk to him. He was looking right at him.

Kevin Levin: Nice to see you again Morningstar.

Darkstar: Kevin Levin. I take it you came with the lovely Gwen.

Kevin Levin: What do you want now, Darkstar? Trying to take Gwen from me like you tried to before?

Darkstar: Taking Gwendolyn from you, Levin? I think not.

Kevin Levin: Uh, yeah, I kind of think so. Gwen is my girlfriend. You have to respect the rights that she'll never choose you.

Darkstar: But once you are drained to nothing more than a corn husk, she will be mine and only mine and all mine.

Kevin Levin: You know she's mine and that's what eats away at you, day and night, every second of every moment that you can breathe. And that's why you know she can never be yours. Because she likes me for who I am and only me and she loves me more than she could ever even think about even touching you with a ten foot pole.

Darkstar: What are you going to do if I touch her then, Levin? Sic your ugly earth, wind, and fire friends on me?

POW!

I punched Darkstar in the back of the head and sent him crashing into a rock. He got up and saw all of us ready to fight.

THUNDERCLAP!

Darkstar: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I didn't expect you all to come here all at once with Ben and all of the Plumber's kids.

Me: Nice little reunion huh? But we didn't come here to catch up on old times. We came to kill you and make you pay for draining all those people to the point of near death.

Darkstar: What!? They're still alive!?

Me: Barely. But they will pull through.

Kay then walked up to him.

Darkstar: (Gasp) Kay? Is that really you?

Kay Morningstar: Hello big brother. Yes it is.

Darkstar: But I thought you were dead.

Kay Morningstar: No I wasn't dead. I was turned into a donkey because of the curse of Pleasure Island 2 and a half years ago.

THUNDERCLAP!

Darkstar: I'm glad your safe sis. I thought I would never see you again.

Me: (In my head) I sense a spark of good inside him. Maybe it's not too late for me to save him from himself!

I fired a powerful blast of light energy and it hit Darkstar and he screamed in pain as a dark blob of energy was separated from him and Michael Morningstar was purified and then we saw Darkstar form into a second Michael and he had evil red eyes!

Michael Morningstar: Whoa! I'm free from my evil!

Kay Morningstar: Big brother!

They hugged for the first time in a while.

Michael Morningstar came over to us.

Me: We'll have time to catch up later Michael. Now lets take care of your evil self!

Michael Morningstar then glowed in a powerful aura of golden star energy and he had yellow angel wings.

Troy: You want power? Have your fill!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Jungle Fury!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jungle Fury rangers.

Ben then turned into Brainstorm!

Ben: BRAINSTORM! This electronic crab is gonna give you a powerful unified field theory equation.

Darkstar: Oddly enough, I feel like I've been to this planet before.

Brainstorm: That was an alternate version of you. (to us) If you have not played Ben 10 Vilgax Attacks, you will not understand what I mean.

Me: I played it.

Riley: So have I. It was awesome!

Lincoln: Same here. It is so cool!

Lana: It sure is.

Me: Lets get this creep!

I powered up to Super Angel 20,000 and everyone transformed! Our power was incredibly strong!

Me: Lets dance Darkstar.

Darkstar: With pleasure.

We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the chest. He fired a powerful dark energy blast and I fired a powerful energy blast and our blasts collided and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico kicked him in the face and punched him in the back and fired a powerful fire energy blast and it hit Darkstar and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Darkstar you have Failed this universe!

Laney: He sure has!

Laney fired a powerful barrage of super powerful razor sharp leaves and they cut up Darkstar all over. Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted him.

Brainstorm fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted Darkstar all over and Michael and Kay fired a powerful blast of star energy and the blasts hit Darkstar and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lola fired a massive blast of fire and it hit Darkstar and burned him all over. Lana and Lisa fired powerful blast of ice lightning and atomic gears and they hit Darkstar and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Lets see if your energy draining powers can absorb this much

energy. KAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEEEEE
HAAAAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEEEEE
HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

I fired a powerful red Kamehameha Wave right at him and then Darkstar fired his draining ray at it and then he sucked it in like he was drinking a soda. When he finished the energy was too strong for him to handle and it blew his left hand apart! He screamed in excruciating pain!

Michael Morningstar: Geez! That must've really hurt!

Kay Morningstar: No kidding!

Me: My hypothesis is correct. My power is far too strong for him to handle and if he absorbed all of my power he would explode into nothing.

Nico: No kidding.

Darkstar: I'm not beaten yet!

Darkstar then went at Sunny and we saw that he was currently in the middle of sucking Sunny of her powers.

Gwen: Sunny!

Darkstar: Oh, don't act so concerned, Lovely Gwen. Sunny's acted like a brat to you so many times. She deserves this. And after I'm done with all of you, I'll pay Charmcaster a visit. I hear she's been all depressed ever since I dumped her!

But to his shock, nothing was happening!

Darkstar saw that nothing was happening as he was trying to drain Sunny. Her energy was not being sucked in.

Me: Her energy is being suppressed thanks to a special energy suppression seal tag I put on her.

I punched Darkstar and kicked him in the face. Knocking him off.

Sunny took the tag off.

Me: I've had it with this freak!

Brainstorm: Me too!

Ben turned into Bloxx.

Ben: BLOXX!

Inque: This monster will pay!

Bloxx formed his arm into a powerful massive hammer and Inque did the same.

Bloxx and Inque: SHAPESHIFTING HAMMER SUPERSMASH!

They smashed him all over and it really knocked him down.

Then Ben turned into Gravattack.

Ben: GRAVATTACK!

Gravattack fired a powerful blast of gravity energy and Stone Man fired a powerful stone with his Power Stone.

Stone Man and Gravattack: CRUSHING MEGA METEOR!

The gravity merged with the Power Stone and it turned into a deadly meteor and it slammed into Darkstar and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion from the blast knocked him down. But he was not out.

Me: Time for some Cyber Key Combos!

Headstrong: Roger that! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it enhanced his strength and power 100-fold.

Poison Ivy: I'm going to enjoy this. GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into Poison Ivy's right arm device and enhanced her plant powers 100-fold.

Headstrong and Poison Ivy: RAMMING MEGA PLANT PUMMEL!

Poison Ivy formed her hands into powerful hammers and Headstrong rammed Darkstar into the air and Poison Ivy pulverized him all over with the hammers.

Pipes: Time for an acid bath! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his corrosive gas pipes 100-fold.

Superman: This is for getting Kevin in a lot of trouble! KRYPTON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Krypton Cyber Planet Key went into Superman's Right Arm Device and it enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Pipes and Superman: LASER ACID MEGA BURN!

Pipes fired a powerful cloud of corrosive gas and it covered Darkstar and Superman fired a powerful laser vision blast and it ignited the gas cloud and it exploded into a powerful fireball of blue fire and burned him all over.

Me: Time to finish you for good! KIBAL! Lets Howl!

I turned into Wolf Moon and the Miraculous Celestial Union transformed too.

Ben turned into Brainstorm again!

Brainstorm: Lets beat him for good! ELECTRON BRAINWAVE DEATH RAY!

Brainstorm fired a powerful blast of energy from his brain and it hit Darkstar and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Kay Morningstar: This is for ruining my brother's life and getting him in trouble! STELLAR STAR RAY BLAST!

Kay Morningstar fired a massive blast of energy and it hit Darkstar and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Riley: You are a monster Darkstar and we're going to make you suffer for your crimes! PLANT SWORD SUPERSLASH!

Riley formed a powerful sword of plants and she slashed Darkstar and cut him all over.

Gwen Tennyson: You are a menace to all of us in general! ANODITE MEGA MANABLAST!

Gwen fired a massive blast of pink energy and it hit Darkstar and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now you are finished Darkstar!

Marinette: You are never gonna terrorize our friends again!

Adrien: You are a monster!

Alya: And you will suffer for your crimes!

Kim: That's right!

Nico: Darkstar you have failed this universe!

Me and the entire Miraculous Celestial Union: CELESTIAL CONSTELLATION SUPERBLAST!

We fired a massive rainbow energy blast that had all the symbols of the constellations of the stars and they hit Darkstar and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion defeated him and when the smoke cleared, he was on the ground beaten.

Me: It's over Darkstar.

Darkstar: I will never be defeated.

Gwen: There's only one way to defeat Darkstar. We have to drain him of his powers.

Sunny: Gwen, you and I will do that. Together!

Me: Get him girls.

Gwen and Sunny grabbed him and chanted a powerful spell that sucked all of his power and energy out of him and then it turned Darkstar into a hideous freak of nature!

Darkstar: No! I'm hideous again.

Kevin Levin: (grabs Darkstar by the throat) And that's just the least of your problems! (snaps Darkstar's neck) Is it ok if I keep his head?

Me: No Kevin, everyone will think you're crazy. Besides he is heading to a better place.

Darkstar's spirit went into the River of Fire.

Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and incinerated Darkstar's body.

Michael Morningstar: Thank goodness it's over.

Kay: Me too big bro. We got a lot of catching up to do.

?: How touching.

We turned and we saw that it was GENERAL BENAAG of S.P.D. episodes 11 and 12!

---

General Benaag is one of Gruumm's most powerful warriors and led the attack on Sirius when it was conquered. Doggie's wife Isinia was last seen in his custody, but a judgement scan says he didn't kill her. General Benaag is contained by the Shadow Saber and taken into custody by the Shadow Ranger.

---

Jack Landors: General Benaag!

Z: Not this freak!

Me: I remember this guy! He was a deadly general that led the attack on the planet Sirius!

Sydney Drew: Yeah that's right!

Sky Tate: Commander Cruger told us about that!

Bridge: But he didn't do it and his morpher confirmed it.

Me: That's right.

General Benaag: That's right J.D. You are as smart as you are.

Jack Landors: Lets get him!

Cruger: I'll help too! I have a score with him.

The S.P.D. Power Rangers were ready.

S.P.D. Power Rangers: S.P.D. EMERGENCY!

The S.P.D. Power Rangers transformed and they were ready to face him!

Benaag: Let's see how you Rangers deal with 100 Orange Krybots!

Benaag summoned 100 Orange Krybots and I fired a powerful blast of wolf fire and incinerated them all. Nico and the S.P.D. Rangers slashed and blasted him all over the place and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach.

Me: Newsflash for you Benaag. The Shredder called and he wants his armor back.

I kicked him in the face and the Megaforce Rangers hit him all over with their Animal Spirit powers and knocked him down and Cruger slashed him all over. and knocked him down. Cruger walked up to him.

Benaag: (on the ground) What are you waiting for, Cruger? Finish me!

Cruger raised the Shadow Saber. Benaag closed his eyes but when he reopened them, he saw that Cruger stabbed the ground next to Benaag.

Cruger: That would be taking the easy way out, Benaag. You don't deserve it.

Me: Let me do the honors Commander Cruger.

Cruger: Be my guest.

I judged him with my morpher and a red X lit up.

Me: GUILTY!

I contained him in a card prison.

Me: Good.

Cruger: Good job J.D.

Me: Thank you Commander. But we all did it.

Jack Landors: True.

?: That was a good job.

We then saw Dark Spicer!

Sora: Dark Spicer!

Dark Spicer: Hey, guys. Vypra and Number 7 told me the message you wanted them to tell me. So, does that mean we're good?

Nico: As long as you're committing crimes, things between us will never be good!

Kairi: Be grateful we're even letting you live as our archenemy after the stunt you pulled with me the other day!

Me: That's right!

Dark Spicer: Close enough. Anyway, (to Gwen Tennyson) here's your warning: your ass is about to be kicked!

Gwen Tennyson: Bring it on.

Dark Spicer: I have new friends I want you to meet.

Dark Spicer then turned into a Cannonbolt rip-off. It was a mutant Arburian Pelorota. He looked like a Red version of Cannonbolt but with spikes all over his body.

Rollburn: Say hello to Rollburn!

Shanan: A Mutant Arburian Pelorota.

Roxas: I take it you unlocked this alien the same way Ben did?

Rollburn: Nope! Ben's was an accidental discovery. All 73 of my aliens were available when I put the Antitrix on. (Turns into ball and charges towards Roxas)

Lynn: Oh no you don't!

Lynn swooped in and kicked him and he crashed into a mountain. Dark Spicer then turned into a new form. It was a Mutant Florauna. He looked like a purple version of Wildvine but with many Venus Fly Trap vines all over him.

Plantmenace: I call this alien Plantmenace! (Poison Ivy tries to control him) Nice try! But my Florauna form can't be controlled by you!

Shanan: He's a mutant Florauna.

Rubberband Man: How many upgrades do your forms have?

Plantmenace: None of your damn business! (throws Explosive Fruit Pods at Rubberband Man)

Rubberband Man threw the explosive fruit back at him and it hit him all over and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM

Dark Spicer reverted back and he was defeated again.

Eddy was pointing his blaster at Dark Spicer's chest.

Dark Spicer: What are you waiting for? End it! (Eddy doesn't fire) END IT! What's stopping you? (smirks) Oh, but it's like you said before. You need a worthy archenemy now that Grodd's out of the picture. Am I right?

Eddy: (growls before putting blaster away) Get the hell out of here.

Dark Spicer turned into Dirtdrive.

Dirtdrive: I wonder which two aliens I'll use against you the next time we fight. (runs off)

Me: We'll have that to look forward to. Lets go home.

We went back to our ship and went back home to Earth. We landed back on Earth and we made Michael Morningstar's good self part of the Redemption Squad. He was on the road to redemption. But because of all the pain he caused to everyone at his prep school and more he'll never be welcomed at his home or at his prep school.

Gwen Tennyson: (To the Viewers) It was cool seeing Encephalonus IV. But never trust an evil guy that sucks energy for power.

Me: Yep.

We were glad that we have seen the last of Darkstar and we now have his powers in our arsenal.

THE END

---

Another Awesome Fanfiction complete and another Ben 10 Enemy destroyed.

Darkstar was beyond a shadow of a doubt, no pun intended, the most dastardly and most dangerous enemy of Ben 10 and his friends and family. One of them. He was extremely ruthless and Michael Morningstar is like what happened when Lucifer fell from grace in Paradise Lost. But we've now seen the last of him. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is the Xiaolin Showdown villain Raksha and he is a living snowman and we're going to melt him into oblivion. We haven't done a Xiaolin Showdown Villain in a long time.

See you all tomorrow.

The Living Snowman Heylin

In Monsters Inc., we were watching Luan and Eddy work on the Laugh Floor and it was awesome seeing how they were getting a huge amount of energy with laughter.

Luan came out of a door and I had a blue helmet with the Monsters Inc. logo on it.

Luan: Boy that was awesome! Keep them coming!

Me: Great job Luan! Another door coming right up!

I sent the door up and another door came.

I swiped a card and got another door and Eddy went in and he got another kid to laugh by using whoopee cushions.

Eddy came out.

Eddy: That was awesome! (Laughs)

Me: You were great Eddy!

I got another Door and Luan and Eddy went in and I saw that a bunch of kids were laughing and I got 10 tanks full of energy from one door!

Me: Wow! That's a lot of energy in one door!

Luan and Eddy came out. They had whipped cream on their faces.

Luan: There was a slumber party for that.

Me: Wow! Way to go guys!

Nico: That was so awesome!

Everyone cheered.

Charlie (Monsters Inc.): Great job Luan!

Luan: Thanks Charlie.

Sulley: Great job you two!

Luan: Thanks Sulley. It's so awesome working here. It's just as good as us working for my business Funny Business.

Eddy: You said it Luan.

Me: And it was really nice of you to get me a job here Sulley.

Sulley: Think nothing of it J.D. You three are an amazing team.

Me: Thank you. We all are.

We were working very hard and Nico and Qin were enjoying seeing us work. It was an awesome day.

---

Later we went back home and I hung up my blue hard hat and Luan and Eddy had a big stack of money with them.

Luan: Another day another dollar.

Eddy: You said it.

Me: But great job guys! I'm glad we found the perfect job for you to use your talents in comedy.

Luan: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

In Maria's room, Horsea was sleeping in her fish tank and then she woke up. Horsea smacked her lips.

Horsea: Boy what happened? (GROANS) My head! I feel like I was run over by a truck driven by Team Plasma.

Maria: Horsea, thank goodness you're awake.

Horsea: Maria? What hit me? How long was I asleep?

Maria: 6 days.

Horsea: Whoa! What happened while I was out?

Maria: A lot of things. You were really drunk.

Maria went over what happened during that time.

Horsea: Jeez! I missed out on some things.

Maria: Well, Horsea. It's been a few days since you passed out from being drunk. What have we learned today?

Horsea: I learned never to drink alcohol ever again.

Maria: Good. Lets get you something to eat.

Horsea: I'm starving.

Horsea hopped into her arms.

Horsea: How's your back doing Maria?

Maria: Much better. But it's now permanently scarred.

Maria had a nasty claw scar on her back. Luckily it didn't destroy her tattoo or her swimsuit.

Maria: But I look really tough with a scar. William says he loves it.

Horsea: Cool!

They went to the kitchen.

In the living room we were watching TV and reading books.

Nico: Boy that was so cool seeing Luan and Eddy work. They are an awesome team.

May: They sure are Nico. I think it's awesome that most of us have jobs.

Me: I know. We have to work hard to keep up our everyday lifestyle, not just as heroes of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, but also as productive people.

Lily Loud: Boy ain't that the truth.

Laney: I agree with you Lily. It's awesome helping out.

Then the doorbell rang.

Teresa: I'll get that.

Teresa went to the door and she opened it and it was three girls.

1 had Black hair, blue eyes, a blue shirt with a red shark on it, a blue skirt and blue leggings and blue mary jane shoes.

The 2nd girl had red hair, blue eyes, was from Scotland and she was dressed in a traditional Scottish outfit.

The 3rd girl had brown hair, brown eyes, a purple shirt with lightning on it, and purple leggings and brown combat boots.

Cora: Hello. We are looking for Jenna McKay.

Teresa: Are you three friends of Jenna's?

Cora: We sure are.

Jenna saw them.

Jenna McKay: (Gasp!) Cora, Laurie, Ohra!

They went to her and hugged her.

Laurie: (Scottish Accent) Jenna lass!

Ohra: We were worried about you!

Cora: We didn't know you were a member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm now.

Jenna: I joined less than a year ago. It's awesome!

Laurie: We didn't know that lass. You'll have to tell us.

Jenna: Sure.

They went to the couch and we made tea for them.

Cora: It's truly an honor to meet you J.D. We should introduce ourselves. I'm Cora Mennington, chef in training.

Laurie: I'm Laurie Nottingham. Pleasure to meet you lad.

Ohra: And I'm Ohra McLilly.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Laurie: Aye. Same to you.

Marinette: Were you three gene slammed like Jenna was?

Cora: We sure were. Unlike those of fishface Paradigm, we became Gene-Slammers thanks to the help of Dr. Robert Bolton when he got gene-slammed.

Jenna: That's right. Dr. Bolton was coming up with his own army to combat Dr. Luther Paradigm. He invented a formula for us that enabled us to change at will.

Nico: That's amazing.

Swerve: (to Dr. Bolton) Did you make the three syringes that Jenna's friends got.

Dr. Robert Bolton: Of course. It was all part of an experiment to see if I can make on my own gene-slammed people that can transform at will. Sadly, those three and the one Jenna took were the only ones I could make.

Me: Wow.

Jenna: I am now half Great White Shark.

Cora: I'm half Whale Shark.

Laurie: Ach. I'm half Hammerhead now.

Ohra: And I'm half Tiger Shark.

John Bolton: Wow! That's very coincidental.

Clint Bolton: Yeah those are the same species of shark fish head slammed with us.

Stacy Bolton: Except for me. I'm half Sawshark.

Me: Boy that's very ironic. Dr. Bolton was tampering with the laws of nature to try and kill Dr. Luther Paradigm. Where as Dr. Luther Paradigm was tampering with the laws of nature to rule the world for his own fucked up pleasures.

Nico: That's a very interesting twist.

Vince: It sure is. And thank goodness we killed Dr. Luther Paradigm.

Me: Yep. And we killed his brother Dr. Roland Paradigm who specializes in land animals.

Stacy: Yep. Good riddance. Now all we have left is their brother that specializes in Air Animals: Dr. Albert Paradigm.

Laurie: The doctors of Land, Air and Sea. Wow.

Laney: But they will get what's coming to them and they will pay for ruining the lives of countless people.

Dr. Bolton: Indeed they will.

Me: How did you three find the formula for getting yourselves slammed?

Cora: That is an easy one. We were given it to us by a mysterious figure.

---

Cora: (Narrating) We got the formula from a hooded man and we went back to my apartment.

Laurie: What is this stuff?

Cora: It's the same formula that slammed the Street Sharks. He wants us to help the Street Sharks kill Dr. Paradigm.

Ohra: Wow! This is gonna be interesting. But will the change be permanent?

Cora: No we'll have the ability to change at will.

Laurie: Wow! That's amazing lass!

Cora: Lets do it!

They took some syringes and loaded them with the formula and they got ready.

Cora: Here we go.

They injected the formula into them and they were in a lot of excruciating pain!

Cora: Oh man! IT HURTS!

Laurie: NO KIDDING LASS!

Ohra: AAAHH! IT HURTS!

But then they started changing! Their skin turned different colors. Cora's turned orange, Laurie's turned brown and Ohra's turned aqua blue and it also had purple stripes on it. Their muscles grew and their heads changed and their human teeth receded into their gums and were replaced by Shark Teeth and they grew shark fins out of their backs and their top clothes ripped as their heads turned into those of a Whale Shark, A Hammerhead and a Tiger Shark in that order! They roared ferociously!

Cora: WHOA! That was painful! But now we can help the Street Sharks.

Laurie: Aye lass.

Ohra: We were given great power and like J.D. on Team Loud Phoenix Storm said, With Great Power comes Great Responsibility.

Cora: Yeah!

Girls: JAWSOME!

FLASHBACK ENDS

Me: But that formula gave you girls the ability to change at will.

Jenna McKay: Like me.

Cora: That's right.

Me: Wow! That's amazing! I'm glad you three went to help out the Bolton Siblings.

Vortex: Were the three of you also topless when you willed yourselves into reverting back to human?

Cora: That's right.

Trudy: Sorry if he asks that.

Dayna: We all lost our clothes because of Paradigm.

Me: We've had a lot of encounters with many people that have been gene-slammed because of the Paradigm fuckers.

Ohra: Wow. I can see that.

Laurie: Aye. Yes we were topless as a result.

FLASHBACK 2

Cora, Laurie and Ohra were in the apartment looking at themselves.

Cora: I look awesome as a Whale Shark. In this form call me Big Slammette.

Laurie: Good name lass. In this form call me Forcejab.

Ohra: And in this form call me Speedstreak.

Cora: Good names girls. Lets see if we can change back.

Laurie: Okay.

Ohra: Lets do it.

They concentrated and they were reverting back. They had their heads revert back, their fins went back into their backs, their teeth came back, their skin changed back, their muscles shrank and they got back to their original height and they got back to normal.

Cora: It worked!

But they looked down and saw that they were half naked.

Cora: Oop! (Covers her chest)

Laurie: (Covers her chest and blushes) We need to find clothes.

Ohra: (Covers her chest) Good idea.

They went to find some clothes and they got them on.

FLASHBACK 2 ENDS

We laughed.

Ohra: That is funny.

Laurie: It sure is lads.

Me: So what are your backgrounds girls.

Cora: Well, I'm a chef in training and I am training to become the greatest chef ever.

Mary Knudson: Wow!

Lynn Sr.: That's a great goal! Me and Mary can help you become a great chef.

Lincoln: That's right. Dad and Mary are awesome chefs.

Cora: I would like that.

Laurie: I am descended from the Dunbroch Clan that lived in Scotland.

Me: Wow!

Nico: That's the very same clan that Princess Merida is from.

Merida then came.

Merida: (Scottish Accent) It's always a good feeling to have family. My name is Princess Merida.

Laurie gasped.

Laurie then hugged her.

Laurie: Ancestor!

Me: That is a surprise revelation. But really awesome!

Qin: Just like I am descended from famous China hero Hua Mulan.

Lana: Wow.

Nico: It's so awesome to see family back. Ohra what is your story if I may ask?

Ohra: I was originally from a place called Paradigm City.

Me: (Gasp) The City of Amnesia!

Ohra: Yes, how did you know?

Me: You would be amazed at what it is.

Nico: I wonder why it's called that though?

Me: Lets see.

I looked up what Paradigm City is. And what we saw was shocking!

Overview

The main setting of The Big O is Paradigm City, located next to a sea and a vast desert. Androids coexist with the human inhabitants of Paradigm City; their numbers are actually fairly low and they're something of a rarity, but there are enough of them that they are considered citizens of the city.

History

It is never revealed what Paradigm City was before the Event, but there have been numerous hints to it previously being the United States city known as New York City. It is highly possible that the entire state of Paradigm may even be the island of Manhattan.

Paradigm is known as The City of Amnesia, as 40 years prior to the story, an unknown occurrence known only as "The Event" decimated the outside world and left the survivors without any memories.

The Event makes for the main question of the series, "What happened?" The Event's causes remain unknown. Aside from that, people's memories and all records of prior events were erased. Memories recovered by Roger Smith and the "tomatoes" (clones of Paradigm City's senators), suggest that an army of Big Megadeus's attacked and destroyed the city, before turning on each other.

It is heavily suggested at the end of the series that Paradigm City, and possible surviving outposts of humanity throughout the world, are battlefields wielded between cosmic powers of good and evil. To this end, the megadeuses act as representations of God. At the end of season 2, it is demonstrated that Big Venus, another big megadeus, possesses the ability to alter reality and time, possibly accounting for the unusual stage-like design of the city its surrounding locale. Paradigm City could, then, be the ultimate battleground for the final battle between good and evil.

Culture

The inhabitants of Paradigm City appear to only remember bits and pieces of what religion was like before the Event, though numerous episodes show its inhabitants practicing Christianity, or at least Christianity in some shape or form, as people congregate in meeting places with crucifixes prominently displayed. It is revealed in "Daemonseed" that almost no one remembers what Christmas is at all, and several old cathedrals now stand in ruins, their original purpose unknown (some of the elderly occasionally feel compelled to stand in front of them and sing hymns, but they do not clearly remember why they do this). Half based on vague memories of a holiday on December 25th, and half as a celebration to commemorate the founding of Paradigm City; which happened around the same time of the year; Christmas Day is now celebrated as Heaven's Day. Heaven's Day is apparently an almost entirely secular holiday, which started out as an annual celebration of the founding of the city by giving bread and wine to the poor. As the city grew more prosperous over the course of 40 years, people started giving presents to the ones they loved, and it grew into a commercial shopping extravaganza not unlike modern day Christmas celebrations. The inhabitants of the city still put up generic Christmas decorations like decorated Christmas trees and streamers, but they don't really know the underlying reason behind all of this. Alex Rosewater seems to be the series' only character with knowledge of pre-Event Christianity. In "Daemonseed" Dastun mentions that Rosewater had in his possession fragments of a "Book of Revelation", although neither Dastun nor Roger had previously heard of it. It is possible that Rosewater also has other fragments of The Bible, as Rosewater describes the real meaning of Heaven's Day as being "the day God's son was born." Whether he was referring to a memory of the original holiday, or to himself in comparison to his father is unknown.

Surface

Paradigm City itself is essentially a city-state, characterized by severe class inequity; the upper classes residing inside geodesic domes and middle and lower classes, living outside the domes. At many times during the series Alex Rosewater, director of the Paradigm Corporation, does not care about those living outside the domes, and that the city would be better off without them.

In "Bring Back My Ghost" we see that the Land Buyout Riots occurred over increasing the number of domes.

In "Twisted Memories" the areas outside the domes are called the Illegal Residential Sector.

Each dome in Paradigm City has its own artificial "sun", a source of light that orbits, rising and setting, along a track along the inside span of the dome. Bright and direct sunlight is considered something of a luxury, the city having been under a near-constant state of cloudy overcast ever since the Event. The structure of the domes is conventional; they appear to be built of heavy steel girders. The largest is Paradigm Dome at the city center; it contains the Paradigm Corporation headquarters. The structure of the domes themselves also become important during some of Roger Smith's battles in the Big O, such as his fight against Schwarzwald in "Enemy Is Another Big!". Schwarzwald says that the domes are "false skies".

Roger travels to various areas of the city to meet with his clients as well as get information from an informant called Big Ear at the "Speakeasy", a bar/pub outside the domes. He also travels to the Paradigm Dome for a few jobs, although he despises the company.

Underground

The old underground subway and maintenance systems were abandoned after The Event, as everyone was afraid to go below the surface of the city. Many believe that hidden secrets from before The Event lurk in these unexplored tunnels. Secret laboratories and other installations from before The Event are located in the underground. Roger Smith is unafraid to use the old subway system as a means of quickly transporting Big O around Paradigm City as needed: an immense tank-like vehicle that contains the Big O uses the subway tracks to maneuver around the city and then raise the Big O on a platform so that it may drill forth from underground. As a result, no one can track Big O's movements to Roger's house. However, even Roger has only mapped out the basic subway grid to use to move Big O around, and even to Roger almost all of the underground is an entirely separate world that he is afraid to go into. In "Underground Terror", Roger ventured further down than he had ever been before, and found that the deeper you go the more modern the surroundings become; newer installations were built below the older ones. Thus while the tunnels near the surface are simply old subway lines, the regions very deep down are from right before the Event and house exotic technologies that are unknown on the surface, such as the ruined Archetype found by Schwarzwald. It is revealed in the final episode that the deepest level is where Big Venus lays dormant until it is reactivated by Angel.

Coast

A large portion of the city is also submerged in shallow water just off the coast. It appears that during the Event there was either a massive rise in sea levels or an earthquake caused a large portion of the city to sink into the sea, or both. Taller buildings can still be seen protruding from the water. The submerged city acts as a large artificial reef, attracting a large amount and variety of fish and other ocean life, which is harvested to help feed the city's population. In "The Call from the Past", it is shown that even after 40 years, many submerged buildings still have electricity and are intact.

Electric City

In "Electric City", Roger Smith is dispatched to Electric City to negotiate with the locals for the reactivation of the hydroelectric power plant. The city is located in a stretch of hilly forest with a large lake and river that appears to lead to Paradigm City. The fact that Electric City was spared the destruction of the Event was probably due its close proximity with Paradigm City, whose domes and skyscrapers can clearly be seen a short distance off. It's entirely possible that Electric City was a suburb or fringe city of Paradigm which was built along the shores of the lake, given that the Paradigm Corporation appears to own and operate the power plant. Also, Big O somehow is transported to this remote area, suggesting that Electric City may have access to part of the Paradigm City subway system which Roger Smith uses to move the megadeus.

The city is smaller than Paradigm City, but resembles it. However, unlike Paradigm, the city was without any form of modern utilities. Citizens are frightened of a monster that is said to live in the lake, so they live by torches and other primitive means and refuse allow the power plant to be reactivated.

Angel, under the guise of Casseey Jenkins, investigator for Paradigm Power Management, re-activates the hydropower plant. A Megadeus Eel emerges and Big O arrives to destroy the giant electricity stealing eel. Once destroyed, Electric City briefly lights up with electric power discharged from death of the giant Eel.

Electric City is the only known city to exist outside Paradigm City. Its existence later in the story seems to be forgotten as to much story eludes to that city is surrounded by sandy wastes vs some urban forest and sand wastelands (however, several flashbacks in later episodes show the Paradigm Corporation retrieving the body of the Eel from the lake and then producing a clone of it).

City Limits

Beyond Paradigm City, there is nothing: whatever happened in The Event 40 years ago turned the rest of the world into an endless desert, and Paradigm City is believed to be all that remains, to the point that its inhabitants mock the idea of surviving "foreigners" as myth. However, during the course of the series a group called "The Union" surfaces which appears to be made up of foreigners who are infiltrating the city.

The Union are the French. They sing a version of La Marseillaise. ("Stripes", "The Third Big").

The only culture referenced is that of the Germans (Dastun's quote "He's a German Guy.")

It is also perplexing that while English appears to be the only spoken language, Roger easily translates "Schwartzwald" to "Black Forest". In the original Japanese Dub, this translation isn't used, however, Schwartzwald speaks German numerous times. Later, in "Winter Night Phantom", neither Dastun or Smith understand French.

Economy

Despite the limited territory, the city has an extensive industry. There are fields contained within domes where crops are grown to feed those within, such as the fields of wheat and tomatoes owned by the retired Gordon Rosewater. Genetic engineering is widespread. There are several corporations for constructing Megadeus's and the armored vehicles of the Military Police.

Technology

The technology seen is similar to the level seen in the 1940's and 1950's. Some technology is from the 1990's.

Submarines are largely unknown, though the Paradigm Corporation operates a corps of frogmen with SCUBA gear in "The Call from the Past". Boats are used by the Military Police and the fishing fleet. Aircraft are used in "Missing Cat" and by the Union. Only Big Duo and Big Duo Inferno are flight capable.

Dan uses an electric megaphone in "Bring Back My Ghost".

The news media uses cameras. ("Eyewitness")

Dan Dastun and Schwarzwald are always seen using a typewriter and filing cabinets.

The Military Police use slide projectors and metal detectors. ("Daemonseed", "Winter Night Phantom")

Telephones and radios are limited to the Paradigm Corporation and the Military Police. ("Bring Back My Ghost", "The Call from the Past", "Winter Night Phantom")

Televisions, always with black and white color, are used only by the upper class. ("Hydra", "R.D.", "Stripes", "The Call from the Past", "The Greatest Villain", "The War of Paradigm City", "Winter Night Phantom")

Compact discs are seen in "Negotiations with the Dead" and "Day of the Advent".

Alex is seen with an orbital calculation display system in "Day of the Advent".

We hear of the film industry in "Winter Night Phantom", "The Big Fight", and "The War of Paradigm City".

Roger has access to some of these technologies due to his command of Big O.

Government

It is ruled by the Paradigm Corporation, a corporation that owns all the businesses. There are several mentions to a senate that founded the city and once held power in "Winter Night Phantom". By the time of the story, all the senators have retired and the Paradigm Corporation controls the city. The Military Police also are controlled by Paradigm.

Paradigm CorporationEdit

The Paradigm Corporation is run by Alex Rosewater, son of original founder of Paradigm City and the Paradigm Corporation, Gordon

Rosewater. The Paradigm Corporation is made up of divisions such as Paradigm Press, Paradigm Laboratories and Research. To his displeasure, Roger Smith is often hired by the Paradigm Corporation or Alex Rosewater.

The company's logo is a stylized P, in a combination of Art Deco Streamline Moderne styles. Its headquarters are in a vaguelly Babel-like axial tower, at the center and protruding through the top of the city's largest dome.

Stage

In "The Show Must Go On", as Roger's Megadeus sinks into the sea, he sees below the submerged portion of the city, what appears to be a large series of gigantic gears and mechanical equipment below the ruins, lending support to the theory that the entire city itself, even the old submerged ruins, may just be a fabrication. Enormous, megadeus-sized stage lamps are hung from a structure high above the city, reinforcing the suggestion that the city is a stage, although the population is unaware of them as they are concealed by clouds.

Real Life

Paradigm City may be modeled after New York City. Although Paradigm City might be New York City, or an imitation of it, it is much more expansive than the New York City of today. While there are recognizable landmarks from New York City's past, i.e. the Grand Central Terminal building apparently expanded in all directions and within the old boundaries itself. Paradigm City was actually "founded" on the ruins of an earlier city; details are scarce but it appears that Paradigm City is considered to have been founded when the domes were constructed and order re-established after chaos ensuing The Event, but that much of the city predates that. The ruins that the "new" Paradigm City was built on were meant to sustain a much larger population than the current city supports: the city is only filled to about half the capacity that it could potentially sustain. As a result, the Megadeus battles that cause massive property damage aren't much of a problem, as they either destroy abandoned buildings, or people displaced from destroyed buildings can easily find more that are available.

"Day of the Advent": we see a map of the city's sea borders.

"Roger the Negotiator": the World Trade Center can be seen in the distance. (The anime was made before the September 11 attacks.)

"Bring Back My Ghost": it is mentioned that Officer Fraizer fell into the Hudson River.

"Missing Cat": the antagonist's base is in what appears to be the American Museum of Natural History.

"Enemy Is Another Big!": JFK Mark (John F. Kennedy International Airport) (the ruins are at the edge of the wastelands, which suggests that almost everything beyond the airport ruins has been destroyed)

"Leviathan": the remnants of the Coney Island amusement park and the Cyclone roller coaster are shown.

"Eyewitness": the android killer is shown wearing a New York Yankees baseball cap.

"Stripes": Angel finds herself drawn to the ruins of Grand Central Terminal.

"The Third Big": Big Fau rises out of the ground through the Washington Arch.

"The War of Paradigm City" or "The Show Must Go On": Roger sees Vera in what appears to be Lincoln Tunnel.

Whenever he visits Big Ear, Roger drives over what appears to be the Brooklyn Bridge.

Roger Smith pays Big Ear with United States Federal Reserve Notes.

We were really shocked!

Nico: Whoa!

Qin: That is terrible! Nobody should ever be without memories!

Me: I know that feeling all too well. And I should know because I've had amnesia once.

Qin: That's terrible.

Laney: I had amnesia myself too and it was not fun.

Anastasia: I know.

Rex Salazar: I remember that.

Me: But Paradigm City looks so much like New York City. Wait.

I looked into Ohra's eyes and I saw that she had a barcode in them.

Me: You have a barcode in your eyes. How did that get there?

Ohra: I have no idea. But I've never even noticed it was there.

Me: Lets see what they unlock.

I looked at her with scanning laser vision and unlocked all of her memories and they came flooding back to her. She remembered it all and now she has full recollection of everything that happened.

Ohra: (Gasp) I remember! I remember it all! I remember!

Ohra then hugged me and she was crying hard into my chest. I then saw something on her back. I saw that she had 2 scars on her back that looked like they were the spot where angel wings were severed from her.

Me: (Gasp) These scars are bad!

Nico: Whoa. I wonder how she got those.

Me: No idea.

When Ohra calmed down she told us that she was born poor and she lived on the streets for a long time until she was sucked in through a dimensional vortex that took her to our dimension and she couldn't remember anything. But she was brought into Laurie's family and they became really close like sisters and more.

Me: Ohra that is awful. What happened in Paradigm City was terrible. But the scans show that Paradigm City is now here right next to New York City. Really amazing and coincidental. And I was there a while back. I have a friend there.

Nico: Who is that?

Me: His name is Roger Smith - The Negotiator.

Lincoln: Wow! I've heard of him. He is really great protector of Paradigm City. He works with a giant robot called Big O.

Me: That's right. He and I were partners ages ago. We worked together a while back.

Nico: That is so cool!

Vince: Awesome! I met Roger Smith and he's a really nice guy. But what happened to Paradigm City was awful.

Carol: No kidding. That city needs our help soon.

Me: We'll have to decide that later in the future. Paradigm City is overflowing with criminals and mob bosses that are beyond what we know. But like I said, we'll worry about it later.

Nico: Okay.

Later we were over in Beast's Castle over in France. It was beautiful.

Qin: Wow! So this is Beast's Castle.

Me: Yep. It is the castle of Prince Adam. He was the Beast from Beauty And the Beast from 1991. His tale was a sad one.

I went over what happened.

The Beast is the male protagonist of Disney's 1991 animated feature film, Beauty and the Beast. A prince by birth, he was cursed by a mysterious Enchantress as punishment for his selfish and cruel nature; only by loving another and earning their love in return can the Beast free himself and those affected by the spell before time runs out.

As the film is based on the traditional fairy tale of the same name, the Beast is based on the corresponding character from that fairy tale.

Many years ago, the Prince named Adam was a handsome young man, but also selfish, unkind and spoiled. He lived in a luxurious castle in France and had everything he wanted. One night, on Christmas Eve, his kindness was put to the test when a beggar woman came to the castle and pleaded for shelter from the freezing cold and rain, with a single rose as payment. Repulsed by her haggard appearance, he sneered at the simple, but beautiful gift, and turned the woman away. The woman warns the prince not to be deceived by appearances, for beauty is found within. When the Prince shuns the beggar woman again, her ugliness melts away and then transforms into a beautiful and powerful Enchantress. Seeing her beauty and realizing her power, the Prince tries to apologize, but it is too late, for she had seen in her disguise that there was no love in his heart. As punishment for his cold heart and cruelty, she turns him into a terrifying beast. She also casts a ghastly curse on the entire castle, transforming it into a dark, foreboding place, its lush green grounds into dark, misty, wolf-infested woods, and the good-natured servants into anthropomorphic household objects to reflect their different personalities. Ashamed of his new appearance, the Beast conceals himself inside his castle with a magic mirror as his only window to the outside world.

The rose the Enchantress had given him was enchanted, and it would bloom until his twenty-first year. She had told him that if he could learn to love another and earn her love in return by the time the last petal fell, then the spell would be broken, but if he failed, he would be doomed to remain a beast forever. In his first animated appearance (set some time before his twenty-first year, as evidenced by the rose not having bloomed fully yet), he also scratches a portrait of his human self in anger and shame upon being reminded of his previous appearance before the Enchantress cursed him (seeing his former self as a fool). This anger soon gives way to despair and hopelessness as the years go by, for he becomes convinced that no one could ever love a beast.

Years later, the Beast discovers Maurice inside the castle and accuses him of trespassing (not knowing that Maurice was actually allowed inside by the servants for shelter, despite the servants trying to vouch for him). Maurice's stare at the Beast only provokes the Beast's fury, and he proceeds to "give Maurice a place to stay" by locking Maurice in the tower as a prisoner. Sometime later, Maurice's daughter, Belle, arrives to find him, but soon confronts the Beast herself and pleads with him to let her father go, offering herself as a prisoner instead. The Beast, astonished by Belle's offer, ultimately accepts, under the further condition that she remains in the castle forever, as well as heeding her request to step into the light to reveal himself to her, horrifying Belle once she sees his monstrous form. He then brashly throws Maurice into an enchanted coach to take him back to the village he came from without letting Belle say goodbye to her father first.

The Beast eventually decided to give her an actual room other than the dungeon cell (both at Lumière's suggestion and due to feeling some guilt at Belle's sadness from his prior actions). He further warns Belle not to go into his chamber, the West Wing, although he gave her expressed permission to visit the other areas of the castle. He then "invites" her to dinner, although it was closer to command than an actual request. He later waited for Belle to join him for dinner, although because of her residual anger towards the Beast for his earlier actions and grief towards her father being released before she said goodbye, Belle did not join him, citing as an excuse that she wasn't hungry, and refused to come down even when twice (albeit reluctantly) politely making requests to come down to dinner, incensing him enough to have her starve for the evening and later causing him to despair upon overhearing Belle's negative comments about him with the Wardrobe and her implication that she would never fall in love or have anything to do with him. Although he had specifically forbidden her from visiting the West Wing, she does later on out of curiosity, much to the Beast's fury. His rage caused him to destroy much of his chambers while screaming at Belle to get out.

Realizing his mistake, the Beast pursues Belle after she flees the castle, arriving just in time to rescue her from a pack of wolves and getting injured in the process. After Belle helps him back to the castle, she starts tending his wounds, but the two then enter another brief argument about who is at fault, with Belle effectively winning the argument. As Belle, having conquered the Beast's ferocious temper, continues to tend to his injuries, she thanks him for saving her life, to which the Beast, realizing the deed he has just done while noticing her kindness, starts feeling good inside himself. The Beast, who has never felt considerate before, wants to do something for Belle. At Lumiére's suggestion, he shows Belle the castle's enormous library, which strikes her interest so much that he gives it to her as a gift. She then in return helps him become more civilized. During one evening date, Belle teaches the Beast how to dance; during which, the Beast falls in love with her. Placing her happiness before his own, he releases Belle to tend to her sick father (and to make up for his earlier harsh treatment of her father) when Belle discovers Maurice lost in the woods. He then gives her the magic mirror as a present to remember him by. As Belle departs on Phillipe, he gives out a mournful roar that echoes through the castle.

A lynch mob comes to kill the Beast, led by a jealous rival suitor named Gaston (with Belle, albeit unintentionally, instigating the mob by exposing his existence to save Maurice from the paddy wagon). Gaston eventually finds the Beast, and initially, the Beast has no will to fight, still in a state of depression from Belle leaving. Just as Gaston is about to bring the final blow, Belle returns, calling for Gaston to stop. Upon hearing Belle's voice, he suddenly stands and fights back with a renewed vigor in the knowledge that Belle truly does care about him. As the fight continues, Gaston brags about his superficial beliefs that he is Belle's true love, and the Beast is nothing more than a monster whom Belle will never love. Finally fed up with Gaston's taunts and arrogance, the Beast overpowers him and holds him by the throat over the edge of the castle. Gaston finally drops his pride and begs for mercy, to which the Beast initially ignores, but upon realizing that he is turning into everything that represents Gaston himself (not to mention that Belle would never allow him to take the latter's life, despite her animosity towards the hunter), instead spares his life and allows him to walk away, warning him to leave the castle and never return.

Just then, Belle arrives at the castle's balcony and calls out to the Beast, who turns and climbs his way up toward her. Reuniting with Belle, he happily embraces her but is then stabbed in the back by Gaston. This sudden twinge of excruciating pain causing him to rear backwards to try and endure it. Belle manages to grab hold of the Beast and pull him onto the balcony while Gaston, knocked off balance by the Beast, falls off the castle to his death. After helping the Beast onto the balcony surface, Belle turns his face towards her. The Beast smiles at seeing Belle, who tries to reassure him that everything's going to be fine, but he knows all too well that his time is coming, telling her how grateful he is to have a chance at seeing her one last time before succumbing to his wounds. Upon losing him, Belle begs him not to leave her and, breaking down into tears, admits her love for him, mere seconds before the last petal falls from the enchanted rose.

As Belle continues sobbing over the loss of her love, shimmering beams of light fall onto the Beast. The Beast's body then begins to float in the air and becomes enshrouded in his own cape and surrounding fog as he begins to transform: his fore-paws, hind-paws, and furry head respectively turn back into hands, feet, and ahead of Prince Adam, and he is returned to normal. He then gets up, looks at himself, and turns to Belle, who initially looks at him skeptically before recognizing him by his blue eyes. Prince Adam and Belle share their first kiss, that further breaks the additional spell the Enchantress had placed on the castle and its inhabitants: the castle is restored to its original, shining state, and all the Prince's servants, including Lumiére, Cogsworth, Chip, and Mrs. Potts, are transformed back into humans. The film ends with Belle and the Prince dancing in the ballroom, surrounded by his servants and her father watching them happily.

In the Special Edition, his role is unchanged, except for a small scene that was added where we see the Beast's struggle to read, a trait he knew as a human but was taken away after his transformation. This is during the song only included for the Special Edition DVD, "Human Again". In addition, in the Special Edition version of the film, as soon as Beast gives out a mournful roar that echoes through the castle, glass-smashing and furniture-knocking sound effects are heard as the camera pans upward to the West Wing balcony, implying that Beast, in a fit of despair, destroyed and messed-up the West Wing off-screen, in order to better connect the "Human Again" musical number with the climax from the main film where the West Wing was still in disrepair.

Beauty and the Beast: The Enchanted Christmas

In the midquel, which takes place not long after the Beast rescued Belle from the wolves, much to the Beast's frustration, Belle wants to celebrate Christmas and throw a real Christmas party. The Beast hates the idea of Christmas, for it was the very day when the Enchantress cast the spell on him and the entire castle ten years ago; he also was ungrateful for his gift that day, a storybook. For this reason, the Beast has forbidden Christmas, just to keep history from repeating itself. While the Beast sits most of the preparations out, a treacherous servant plot to have Belle thrown out of the castle: Forte the Pipe Organ since he is far more appreciated by the Beast while under the spell.

Unknown to the Beast, Belle writes him a special book which he doesn't see until later on. She also meets Forte later on in a chance meeting. Forte tells her that the Beast's favorite Christmas tradition when he was a child was the Christmas tree. Belle becomes frustrated, for no tree she has seen on the grounds has been tall enough to hang ornaments. He then lies to Belle, saying that a perfect tree can be found in the woods beyond the castle. Reluctant to go against the Beast's orders that she never leave the castle, Belle leaves nonetheless in order to find the perfect tree. When Belle does not arrive to see the Beast's Christmas present to her, he begins to suspect that she is not there at all. When Mrs. Potts explains that the household cannot find her, the Beast becomes enraged. He goes to Forte to ask for advice, and Forte lies to him that Belle has abandoned him. The Beast finds Belle in the woods and saves her in time from drowning since she fell through thin ice.

Still believing that Belle disobeyed him by leaving the grounds, the Beast ruthlessly throws her into the dungeon. But when Forte goads him into destroying the rose to end his suffering, the Beast finds Belle's book in the West Wing and reads it, coming to his senses and realizing that all Belle wants is for him to be happy. Releasing Belle from the dungeon, the Beast prepares to join in the Christmas festivities. But Forte does not give up and even goes as far as to attempt to destroy the entire castle with Beethoven's 5th. Fortunately, the Beast finds him in time and destroys his keyboard with Franz Schubert's Symphony No 8. Losing his balance (and his pipes), Forte falls from the wall he is leaned up against and is silenced forever. Despite his intentions, the Beast mourns Forte's death with Belle comforting him. When he and the other servants are returned to normal, the Prince and Belle give Chip, Mrs. Potts' son, a book to read, which he loves. As the Prince and Belle come out to the balcony, he gives her something too: a rose.

Belle's Magical World

In the final entry of the franchise, made up of four segments from a presumably failed television series, Belle teaches the Beast a thing or two about life itself, consideration and manners. He appears only in the first and fourth segments, and in a cameo in the third. Only this time, he is shown to be very different than he was later in the chronological story. He is more foolish, immature, a slacker, and still a brat, according to Belle.

In the first part, The Perfect Word, the Beast and Belle have a bitter falling out at dinner when the Beast demands that Cogsworth opens the windows to cool him down, despite the fact that he is the only one hot and there is a cold wind and states that the castle belongs to him, and only he makes the rules. Eventually, he angrily strikes his servant, Webster, a long-tongued dictionary for giving to synonyms to Belle's ensuing insults. Despite Lumière and Cogsworth's please, the Beast refuses to apologize for his behavior, until Webster, Crane, and LePlume forge a letter of apology from the Beast to Belle. All is settled until the Beast realizes that it was a forgery. He furiously banishes Webster, Crane, and LePlume from the castle. Belle tries to object, but the Beast orders her to be silent, and tosses the servants out the window, and declares that anyone who gives them comfort would be sorry, but Belle brings them back from the woods, and the Beast soon learns to forgive them, as their intentions were good.

In the fourth (and final) part, The Broken Wing, the Beast loses his temper with Belle again when she brings an injured bird into the castle, as he dislikes birds. As he tries to chase the bird out, however, he falls over on the stairs and hits his head hard, knocking him unconscious and later stripping him of his hatred for birds. However, his selfishness still remains, and he locks the bird in a cage in his room, demanding that it sings for him whenever he demands it. The bird, terrified, refuses until Belle teaches the Beast that the bird will only sing when he's happy. The Beast lets the bird out and learns to consider others before himself.

Earlier on, in the third segment, Mrs. Potts' Party, the Beast makes several cameos sleeping in his bed in the West Wing. The dialogue between Lumière and Cogsworth shows that he had spent the entire previous night mending leaks in the castle roof, and is still resting. An argument between Lumière and Cogsworth about Mrs. Potts' favorite flowers lead to them having to hide several bunches of flowers around the Beast's bed. At one point, the Beast begins to smell one of the flowers and almost wakes up, but it is removed just in time, and he falls asleep again.

Qin was shocked!

Qin: My gosh. I can't believe he was like that. But thank goodness he became a better person because of Belle.

Girl Jordan: It's good he did. I felt bad for him.

Sora: I know. Me too.

Kairi: Same here.

Aqua: It was sad that happened to him.

Laney: Yeah.

Qin: And that rose he had was like a timer.

Me: Exactly.

Qin: But his Castle is really beautiful!

Lola: It sure is.

Qin: But I heard that you fought a monster man named Gaston.

Me: That's right. He was a true monster.

I went over Gaston's history.

---

Gaston LeGume, also better known by his first name Gaston, is the main antagonist of Disney's 30th full-length animated feature film Beauty and the Beast (which is based on the 1756 French fairytale of the same name by the late Jeanne-Marie Leprince de Beaumont), and its 2017 live action adaptation of the same name. He is also one of the supporting antagonists in Mickey's House of Villains.

He is a treacherous, chauvinistic, egotistical, deceptive and arrogant hunter from Belle's village, who was after her hand in marriage by any means necessary (regardless what she thinks about his offer). He is the Beast's arch-nemesis.

Gaston is the local hero of a small French village at an unknown point in French history. He owns a large tavern where he and the villagers drink and talk. Inside, there is a large portrait of himself along with "trophies" from his hunt consisting mostly of animal antlers. He also says he eats five dozen eggs every morning to help make him "roughly the size of a barge".

He first appears in the film shooting down a waterfowl headed south with perfect accuracy (implying that he had just returned from a hunting trip) and declaring his intent to marry Belle after acknowledging from LeFou of his popularity with all of the women in the village. He then started pursuing Belle throughout the village as she returns home after buying a book from the local bookstore. Their meeting starts off well, but Gaston's sexist remarks about women reading and thinking drive Belle away from him and she goes home, leaving him disappointed. In addition, after learning that Belle was going to aid her father Maurice, Gaston scolded LeFou for mocking Maurice (although it was implied that he mostly did that in an attempt to impress Belle rather than out of any genuine concern for Maurice). However, after an explosion occurs inside Belle's house, Gaston and Lefou both begin to laugh as Belle rushes to check on her father.

Asking for a Wedding

The next day, Gaston organizes a wedding outside Belle's cottage in an attempt to "surprise" her, complete with various decorations, a priest, and a wedding cake. He forces his way into the cottage and attempts to strong-arm her into marrying him, again making sexist remarks about women and housewives (he even envisions the home they would live in as a "rustic" hunting lodge, with his latest kill roasting over the fire and Belle massaging his feet while their children - six or seven boys - play on the floor with their dogs).

While he attempts to corner Belle in an attempt to kiss her, she manages to open the door that he has pinned her against, rejecting his proposal. causes him to lose his balance and fly headfirst into a large mud puddle (complete with cattail plants) in front of Belle's cottage. When asked by Lefou how it went, Gaston is humiliated and furiously storms off, but not before vowing to make Belle his wife regardless of her refusals and throwing LeFou into the mud.

Getting his Praise

Later, during a snowstorm, LeFou leads the villagers in the tavern to sing a song about Gaston's greatness to cheer him up after his failed proposal. Maurice suddenly interrupts and warns the villagers about a "monstrous" Beast who has locked up Belle as a prisoner in the tower of his castle. Thinking that Maurice is talking nonsense, the villagers throw him out of the tavern, which made Gaston realize that he can use Maurice's outrageous claim to his advantage. In a surprising display of animalistic cunning, he bribes Monsieur D'Arque (the owner of the local asylum) to throw Maurice into the asylum in order to pressure Belle into marrying him. Though D'Arque states that Maurice's claims and his odd inventions do not make him very dangerous, he is willing to accept the bribe because he liked the despicable aspect of the plot. However, just before Gaston and LeFou barge into Belle and Maurice's cottage, Maurice left for the castle on his own. Gaston orders LeFou to stay outside the cottage and wait for their return.

Concocting his Plan

When Belle and Maurice eventually return to the cottage, LeFou immediately informs Gaston, and he sets his plan into motion. With the villagers gathered outside the house, D'Arque has his men drag Maurice towards their carriage, while Gaston makes Belle his offer, he will clear up the "misunderstanding" if she marries him. Horrified and disgusted, Belle refuses and instead proves her father's claims of the Beast's existence by using a magic mirror that the Beast had given her, causing all of the villagers (including Gaston) to realize that Maurice was telling the truth. Following Maurice's release, Gaston grows more frustrated and shocked that his plan has failed, and becomes increasingly jealous when Belle begins referring to the Beast as kind and gentle (since he let her go to help Maurice and gave her the magic mirror to remember him by). Realizing that she prefers a "monster" over himself, Gaston refers to the Beast with this insult, to which Belle furiously retorts back by saying that Gaston is the real monster for his despicable plot.

In his jealousy and pride, Gaston angrily snaps out by snatching the mirror from Belle and convincing the villagers that the Beast is a threat to the village that must be brought down immediately by playing off their fear of monsters. Belle furiously tries to stop this, but Gaston has her and Maurice locked in the basement to keep them from warning the Beast. He then leads a lynch mob to attack the Beast's castle and leave no one alive while declaring that he himself is to take down the Beast. However, the castle servants formed a defensive attack, leaving the rioters to fight back. Rather than helping out his fellow rioters, Gaston instead betrays them by leaving them to their fate and manages to get past the servants, as they were too busy fighting the villagers that they didn't notice him making his way up the stairs and proceeding to kill the beast. The battle ends with the violent rioters fleeing away in defeat thanks to the castle servants' enchanted forms. Despite the loss of the villagers, Gaston confronts the Beast alone in the West Wing, where he fires an arrow into him, tosses him out of the window onto a lower section of the roof and taunts him. The Beast doesn't respond back as he lost his will to live since Belle's departure, so Gaston uses a castle statue as a makeshift club to try to kill the Beast. However, the Beast regains his will when he witnessed Belle returning to the castle with her father (as they had escaped from the basement with help from Chip, who stowed away with them). A terrified Belle begs Gaston to spare the Beast, but Gaston ignores her, though the Beast defends himself by viciously fighting back against Gaston with all of his strength and ferocity.

Final Battle and Death

Though roughly even with his adversary, Gaston soon learns that he cannot rely on brute strength alone to kill the Beast, and instead begins taunting him over his ugly and grotesque exterior and love for Belle. Gaston even pushed the final button by claiming that Belle is his to take and no one else's, but this immediately backfires as the Beast snaps out and head-butts Gaston in the chest. The furious Beast then gets Gaston at his mercy by holding him above the castle roof by the throat, threatening to drop him into the deep castle moat for the trouble he caused. With his life at stake, Gaston abandons his pride and pathetically begs the Beast not to hurt him by claiming that he will do anything for him. At first, the Beast initially attempts to ignore Gaston's pleads but realizes that he ought to be better due to his genuine love for Belle. Seeing that Gaston is nothing more than a reflection of what he would've become like a cruel and aggressive monster, the Beast reluctantly spares Gaston by ordering him to leave the castle and never return. However, when Gaston sees the Beast embracing Belle on the castle balcony, his hatred and envy arises again. Rather than leaving the castle, Gaston instead climbs onto the balcony and stabs the Beast in the back with a knife. The Beast swings his arm backwards at Gaston as he roars in pain, which Gaston tries to dodge, but unfortunately, he loses his balance and drops his knife below the castle. As both he and the Beast are on the verge of falling, Belle saves the Beast by grabbing onto his collar and helping him up to safety, whereas Gaston plunges into the deep moat below as he fearfully screams to his death.

Despite laying a fatal stab on the Beast, Gaston would permanently die alone that night; just as the Beast nearly succumbed to his wounds, Belle confessed her love for him just before the last petal of the enchanted rose that kept him bound to his beast form fell, breaking the spell and reviving the Beast. This also allows the Beast and the castle servants to transform back to their human forms, much to their joyful delight.

Qin gasped in horror and then she growled ferociously!

Qin: What a monster! I would never want that man alive.

Girl Jordan: Me neither. He gives all men everywhere a really bad name!

Me: You said it G.J. Took the words right out of my mouth.

Nico: Gaston has failed this world.

Qin: Yep.

Me: But you don't have to worry about him anymore. He's in a special solitary confinement cell in the Saturn Insane Asylum.

Qin: Good riddance. What year does Beauty and The Beast take place?

Me: It said it takes place in 1756.

Qin: Wow!

We went into the castle and it was awesome to see Prince Adam again.

Prince Adam: J.D., Team Loud Phoenix Storm, welcome.

Me: Good to see you again your highness.

Qin: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Me: We have a lot of new friends and teammates with us.

We introduced everyone.

Prince Adam: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Qin: Same here.

Belle: It's good to see you all again. How have things been?

Me: Great Belle. I'm glad that we helped you out.

Belle: Same here.

Lumiere: (French Accent) But we can't thank you all for saving ze master's kingdom.

Me: It was nothing Lumiere. We were just doing what we do to save our friends.

Cogsworth: (British Accent) Indeed.

* * *

We later went back to the estate and we were watching TV. Then the alarm went off!

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the computer and we saw that the Xiaolin Warriors old enemy, Raksha - the living snowman was back.

Me: Raksha!?

Raimundo: There's Raksha!

Kimiko: Do you see if he has any Shen Gong Wu?

Me: Let me see.

I looked it up and he had the Heart of Jong on him.

Me: He has the Heart of Jong on him.

J.D. 2: The Heart of Jong is a very powerful Shen Gong Wu and it has the power to bring inanimate objects to life.

Me: Wow! That's amazing.

The Heart of Jong was a maroon heart-shaped Shen Gong Wu, with several artery designs around it.

Me: He's over in the Himalayan Mountains. Lets go!

We went out to the Himalayan Mountains.

THE HIMALAYAN MOUNTAINS, KATHMANDU, NEPAL

We arrived in the Himalayan Mountains and they were as beautiful as always to see.

Me: Here we are guys. The Himalayan Mountains, tallest mountain range on Planet Earth.

Cora: It's so beautiful.

Marinette: Wow.

Adrien: It's beautiful.

Chloe Bourgeois: But the air is very thin up here.

Aurore: It sure is.

?: (German Accent) Ja it is pretty.

We turned and we saw RAKSHA!

Raksha was a snowman that was brought to life when Jack Spicer's Dude-Bot became tired of being Human from the Heart of Jong and carelessly threw it into a chasm. The Heart of Jong landed in snow and resulted in the creation of Raksha.

Me: Whoa! He's a living snowman!

Raksha: Spicer?

Spicer: You seem surprised to see me, buddy.

Raksha: But you just here an hour ago to give orders.

Spicer: It was probably my dark side who gave you those orders.

Me: That probably was him.

We saw a figure with tentacles in the shadows.

Ben: Come on out, Vilgax! I know you're there!

?: Oh, I'm not Vilgax.

The figure walks out to reveal himself as TENTACUS from Episode 1 of Power Rangers Super Megaforce!

He was sent immediately after the destruction of Headridge. He was the first of Vekar's field commanders to be enlarged by Levira's Maximizer and destroyed by the Super Megaforce Rangers' new zords after the three Bruisers that were grown along with him were defeated.

Tentacus: But you have to admit. I do look like him, don't I?

Lola: More like Vilgax's ugly twin brother!

Troy Burrows: Tentacus!

Me: I remember this guy! He was the first monster of the Armada you guys fought when you all became the Super Megaforce.

Noah Carver: That's right.

Lana: Boy he is ugly!

Me: But he is no Vilgax. He may look like him but he is no Vilgax.

Eddy: So where's the other members of the Masters of Evil?

Tentacus: All 6 of them are busy at the moment. They're doing some training exercises to improve their attacks and skills.

Me: Bring them on.

Tentacus: (to Tommy Oliver) Don't think I've forgotten about you Legendary Rangers. Because of all of you, the Armada was defeated!

Tommy Oliver: They brought all that on themselves!

Me: They deserved to be destroyed!

Then I smelled an amazing aroma in the air.

Me: (Sniffs) Mmm. What is that delicious smell?

Shaggy: Like, I know what it is. It's Scooby Snacks!

Scooby Doo slurped his lips. But then a roar came and out came THE SCOOBY SNACK MONSTER!

---

The Scooby Snack Monster was the disguise of Penelope Bailey.

Physical appearance

It's entire body is covered with a thick, brown layer of Scooby Snacks batter. For some unexplained reason, it formed a working face, with glowing yellow eyes.

Early history

Several months ago an employee tried to taste the Scooby Snack batter, but fell in and mutated into a sludge monster made out of the same batter.

What's New, Scooby-Doo?

The monster attacked two spies, who were trying to break into the vault and steal the secret recipe. They were barely able to escape alive.

Shaggy and Scooby ran into the monster while wandering around the factory. It trapped them in one of the fan tubes, and nearly sliced them to pieces.

Trudy, who was followed by Fred, hid in a container of batter, and spotted Shaggy and Scooby eating Scooby Snacks, and attempted to get rid of them twice by baking and drowning them. But, they were able to escape both traps.

It tried to sneak up on them again, but ended up chased by the rest of the gang in the tour tram. They trapped it in the stabilization chamber, where the sprinklers melted the monster, revealing to be Trudy, who was a spy trying to steal the secret recipe. However, the real monster showed up, and pursued the gang all over the factory, until it was trapped in a giant Scooby Snack box, and unmasked as Penelope Bailey.

She wore the costume to protect her company from industrial espionage, so she was forgiven.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Scooby Snack Monster!

Me: I remember this creep!

Qin: What's its history?

Me: The Scooby Snack Monster was really the daughter of the owner of the Scooby Snax Factory, Penelope Bailey. She was using the disguise of the monster to frighten off spies that try to steal the Scooby Snack Secret Recipe.

Lily: Like what happened with Plankton.

Me: Exactly. Penelope's actions were completely understandable.

And it was a good cause. It was to prevent spies from rival factories from getting their hands on the secret recipe. Also Penelope Bailey was allergic to Scooby Snacks and if they got on her she would break out in hives.

Qin: Wow.

Spicer: Tentacus, we challenge you, Raksha, and the Scooby Snack Monster to a Xiaolin Showdown.

Raksha: What Showdown this time?

Spicer: (gestures to a huge block of ice) One side has to defeat the other before the huge block of ice melts. And we'll use our natural skills. If me and my friends win, then we get all of your Shen Gong Wu.

Tentacus: And if we win?

Spicer: (sighs) Then I surrender myself to you guys and you hand me over to Chase Young and the rest of the Heylin Forces. And my friends don't attack you or any of the other bad guys for a year.

Tentacus: You're on!

Me: Time for the appropriate attire!

I snapped my fingers and went into my Xiaolin Star uniform and the planet we were on was Glaren.

Me: Much better. LETS GO! XIAOLIN SHOWDOWN!

The stage was set and we were ready! There was a huge block of ice and it signaled that we had 45 minutes.

Me: GONG YI TAN PAI!

Troy: Let's start this showdown off!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Wild Force!

The Megaforce Power Rangers turned into the Wild Force Rangers!

We went at them and Lana and Shaggy at the entire Scooby Snack Monster and they belched.

BBBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUURRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRPP

I punched Tentacus in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him all over! Laney fired powerful razor sharp leaves and they cut him all over.

Tentacus: You are a worthless monster Spicer! Your Parents would be better off dead!

We gasped at what he just said!

OH HE DID NOT JUST GO THERE!

Spicer: (growls) What did you just say?

Tentacus: I said your parents would be better off dead. Why?

Spicer: (gets pissed) NOW YOU'VE DONE IT! (marches over to me) GIVE ME THE KUZUSU ATOM! NOW!

Me: (GULP) (now terrified of Spicer) Ok. Here you go. (gives Spicer the Kuzusu Atom)

Spicer obliterated him from existence forever with a powerful blast of energy from it.

Nico: Holy shit! He really was pissed.

Me: No kidding. Now lets face Raksha!

We went at Raksha and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and fired a powerful blast of fire at him and melted his arm off. Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and melted his other arm off. The Megaforce Rangers slashed him all over with the Jungle Sword and cut him good and we slashed him all over and fired elemental blasts and more and they hit Raksha and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Me: Lets show him some teamwork!

Ben: You got it!

Ben then turned into Crashhopper!

Ben: CRASHHOPPER!

Me: I don't think we saw this one before!

Shanan: That's an Orthopterran from the planet Arthropta! They are an insect race.

Me: Whoa!

Cricket: That is amazing!

Wood Man: It sure is. Lets see what he can do.

Crashhopper jumped into the air and Wood Man fired his Leaf Shield.

Crashhopper and Wood Man: CRASHING LEAF SHRED!

The leaves cut up Raksha and Crashhopper slammed onto him with devastating force.

Me: WHOA! That was intensely powerful.

Cricket: Boy I'll say. That's like what my E.V.O. abilities can do.

Me: It sure is Cricket.

Ben then turned into Arctiguana.

Ben: ARCTIGUANA!

Killer Frost: Time for some ice power!

Arctiguana fired a powerful blast of ice breath and Killer Frost fired a powerful blast of ice.

Arctiguana and Killer Frost: ABSOLUTE ZERO MEGAFREEZE!

The blasts hit Raksha and froze him in a block of ice.

Raksha: Ah. The first frozen Snowman. That's not too shabby.

Me: Boy he sure got the cold shoulder! (Rimshot)

Luan: (Laughs) Good one J.D.!

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one!

Me: Thanks.

Vortex: Lets finish him! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Wind Tunnel Rotor Blades 100-fold.

Teresa: This is gonna be awesome! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into Teresa's Right Arm device and enhanced her sonic powers 100-fold.

Vortex and Teresa: SONIC WIND TUNNEL STRIKE!

Teresa fired a powerful sonic blast and Vortex fired a powerful wind blast and they hit Raksha and shredded his ice and more.

Marinette: Lets do it! TIKKI! SPOTS ON! HA!

Marinette turned into Ladybug!

Marinette: This is gonna be awesome! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and it enhanced her powers 100-fold.

She formed a sword Lucky Charm!

Swerve: Lets do it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his car speed 100-fold.

Marinette and Swerve: DRIVING LADYBUG SLASH!

Marinette was on Swerve and he was going at 400 miles per hour and she slashed Raksha and cleaved him in half and he exploded all over!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The arena reverted back and we had the Heart of Jong and several other Wu in our possession.

Me: Good riddance to another Heylin.

Omi: (Tibetan Accent) Indeed.

Me: Vypra is really enjoying herself in pissing us off.

?: Then you will really be pissed with me!

We turned and we saw our long time deceased enemy ZAKU ABUMI! But he was also a Reanimation because of the Reanimation Jutsu.

---

Zaka Abumi (in Japanese: ザク・アブミ, Zaku Abumi) is a minor antagonist/anti-hero in the manga and anime series Naruto. He was one of the assassins sent by Orochimaru to kill Sasuke Uchiha, though it was actually to test his abilities.

After a failed assassination attempt on Sasuke during a test, he lost during a preliminary battle in which both of his arms were severely wounded. Despite the severe damage, he was able to get his arms repaired and was able to pass the second portion of the Chuunin Exam.

During the third part of the Chunin Exam Arc, he fought against Shino Aburame. In their battle, Shino used his insects to cover up the holes that Zaku used in his arms to release air pressure. As a result, the air pressure within Zaku's arm caused him to lose both his arms and lose the battle altogether.

Before the invasion of the Leaf Village by both the Sand and Sound villages, he and Kin were used as sacrifices by Orochimaru to summon the souls of the first and second hokage, Hashirama Senju and Tobirama Senju.

---

Me: Zaku Abumi!

Zaku Abumi: Its been a long time you fucker. You've changed a lot.

Me: You're still the same arrogant little fucked up brat I remember killing 150,000 years from now.

Zaku Abumi: That's right! And now I will have my revenge on you!

Me: How in the world did you come back to life? I made sure that I sent you to Hell.

Zaku Abumi: I suppose I should tell you. It was thanks to Vypra. She used the Reanimation Jutsu and brought many evil ninjas you all faced over the years back to life and recruited them into her forces.

Me: I see. But you haven't changed at all when we last fought. I can tell you've gotten stronger too. And also I've gotten far more powerful than ever.

Zaku Abumi: That's right. And now watch this!

Zaku Abumi then had black marks spread all over him and I saw that he had the Curse Mark!

Me: You got a Curse Mark on you.

Zaku Abumi: That's right. And now I'm going to kill you!

He charged at me and just as he was about to punch me, I teleported away. He looked for me. He found me standing on a rock

Me: You're still the same weak little fool. That's what got you killed my me. And you are still the same fucked up brat that follows the lies and evil of a fucked up lunatic like Orochimaru. What a disappointment.

Zaku then released the full extent of the Curse Mark's power and he looked like Sasuke did in his Version 2 form.

Zaku Abumi: NO ONE TALKS THAT WAY ABOUT LORD OROCHIMARU!

Me: Impressive. Your curse mark form brings back memories. A bunch of Evil Sasuke's that we faced looked like this and they all died because of us. Now watch this!

I then flared up my power and my power was accelerating rapidly! I then released the full extent of my power and I was now in my Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Phoenix Form.

Me: (Divine Voice) Zaku Abumi, you will now face the pinnacle of my ultimate power.

I teleported and punched him in the face with devastating force and Nico kicked him in the back and punched him in the face and Laney fired a bunch of poison barbs and they hit him and poisoned him and Omi fired a massive blast of water at him and drenched him.

Nico: Zaku Abumi, you have failed this universe!

Me: And more. Lets finish him!

Omi: With pleasure! He is a monster without honor!

Me: And a fucked up mutant barbarian!

Omi: I see. TORNAMI MEGA DELUGE!

Omi used the powerful Orb of Tornami blast and drenched Zaku all over with a powerful blast of water!

Kimiko: You are a monster Zaku! CAT'S EYE DRACO FIRE MEGA BARRAGE!

Kimiko fired a powerful barrage of fire blasts and they hit Zaku and burned him all over.

Nico: You are going back to Hell where you belong! NUOVA STAR FIRE BOMB!

The 4-Star Dragonball on his bracelet lit up and he formed a powerful ball of fire and he threw it and it hit Zaku and it exploded with incredible power and incinerated him into nothing.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

There was nothing left of him. Zaku was then sent into the River of Fire. I powered down.

Me: Good riddance.

Kimiko: That was intense! (To the viewers) Never mess with the power of fire. It will burn you and melt snow.

Omi: Most well said Kimiko.

Me: Jack, I'm sorry your family got insulted like that.

Spicer: It's all right J.D. But thank you.

Me: You're welcome.

Omi: What are your parents like, Jack Spicer?

Spicer: Really nice people who love me more than anything.

Me: Nice.

We went back home to Earth. I reported what we found out about this to Lady Tsunade and she was shocked. But we were ready for anything.

THE END

Another Awesome fanfiction complete and another Xiaolin Showdown villain destroyed.

Sorry I haven't done a Xiaolin Showdown villain in a while but

Raksha was a strange one. He was cool though. Now we're going to add the villains from Naruto to the fray whenever we face members of the Masters of Evil. It's gonna be awesome! The next Naruto Villain is Danzo Shimura. Get ready for a fight with the most corrupt and most evil of the Hidden Leaf Elders. I'm doing them all at random and there's a lot of villains to face. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Plug your noses because next up is a fight with Lori's Flatulence problem when we help Osmosis Jones and Drix take down a virus that has been the source of Lori's fart problems!

See you all tomorrow!

Operation: GASEOUS RELIEF

In the living room at the estate, we were watching Moana from 2016 and it was one of our favorites and Lily knows this movie all too well.

---

On the Polynesian island of Motunui, the inhabitants worship the goddess Te Fiti, who brought life to the ocean using a pounamu stone as her heart and the source of her power. Maui, the shapeshifting demigod and master of sailing, steals the heart to give humanity the power of creation. However, Te Fiti disintegrates, and Maui is attacked by another who seeks the heart: Te Kā, a volcanic demon. Maui is blasted out of the sky, losing both his magical giant fishhook and the heart to the depths of the sea.

A millennium later, the ocean chooses Moana, daughter of Motunui's chief Tui, to return the heart to Te Fiti. Tui takes Moana away, causing her to lose the heart. Tui and Sina, Moana's mother, try to keep her away from the ocean to prepare her for ascension as the island's chief. Sixteen years later, a blight strikes the island, killing vegetation and shrinking the fish catch. Moana suggests going beyond the island's reef to find more fish and figure out what is happening, but Tui forbids it. Moana tries conquering the reef but is overpowered by the tides and shipwrecked back to Motunui with Pua the pig.

Moana's grandmother Tala shows her a secret cave of ships, revealing that their people were voyagers until Maui stole Te Fiti's heart; the ocean was no longer safe without it. Tala explains that Te Kā's darkness is poisoning the island, but can be cured if Moana finds Maui and makes him restore the heart of Te Fiti, which she gives to Moana. Tala falls ill and, on her death bed, tells Moana that she must depart to find Maui.

Setting sail on a camakau from the cavern, Moana is caught in a typhoon and shipwrecked on an island where she finds Maui, who boasts about his achievements. She demands that Maui return the heart, but he refuses and traps her in a cave. She escapes and confronts Maui, who reluctantly lets her on the camakau. They are attacked by Kakamora - small, coconut-armored pirates - who seek the heart, but Moana and Maui outwit them. Moana realizes Maui is no longer a hero since he stole the heart and cursed the world, and convinces him to redeem himself by returning the heart. Maui first needs to retrieve his magical fishhook in Lalotai, the Realm of Monsters, from Tamatoa, a giant coconut crab. While Moana distracts Tamatoa, Maui retrieves his hook but discovers he can no longer control his shapeshifting. He is overpowered by Tamatoa, but Moana's quick thinking allows them to escape with the hook. Maui reveals that his first tattoo was earned when his mortal parents rejected him. After reassurance from Moana, Maui teaches her the art of sailing, regaining control of his powers, and the two grow closer.

They arrive at Te Fiti's island, only to be attacked by Te Kā. Moana refuses to turn back, resulting in Maui's hook being badly damaged. Unwilling to lose his hook in another confrontation with Te Kā, Maui abandons Moana, who tearfully asks the ocean to find someone else to restore the heart. The ocean obliges and takes the heart, but Tala's spirit appears, inspiring Moana to find her true calling. She retrieves the heart and sails back to confront Te Kā. Maui returns, having had a change of heart, and buys Moana time to reach Te Fiti by fighting Te Kā, destroying his hook in the process. Moana discovers Te Fiti is missing, and realizes Te Kā is Te Fiti, corrupted without her heart. Moana tells the ocean to clear a path, allowing her to return Te Fiti's heart, and the restored goddess heals the ocean and islands of the blight. Maui apologizes to Te Fiti, who restores his hook and gives Moana a new boat before falling into a deep sleep and becoming a mountain.

Moana bids farewell to Maui, returning home where she reunites with her parents. She takes up her role as chief and wayfinder, leading her people on a voyage.

---

Moana's singing was incredible and she had just a beautiful and enchanted voice. She was just as good as Ariel.

We saw Moana and Maui face Te Ka and she was a dangerous force.

---

Te Kā is the (former) main antagonist of Disney's 56th full-length animated feature film Moana. She was once the benevolent island goddess Te Feti, but after her heart was stolen by the demigod Maui, she became a destructive lava demon.

Te Kā first appears in Gramma Tala's story, where it is revealed that she was once the island goddess named Te Fiti, who created all islands on the ocean with her heart, who had the ability to create life. She then placed herself into an eternal slumber, with her body forming into an island. However, one day, Te Fiti's heart was stolen by the demigod Maui in a misguided act of heroism. As a result of this, the island was quickly consumed by darkness, while Te Fiti's physical form morphed into that of the deadly and powerful Te Kā.

As Maui tried to escape on his boat, Te Kā rose from her cloud and attacked the demigod. Their battle resulted in the loss of both the heart and Maui's fish hook which was later recovered by the giant crab Tamatoa and added to his collection of treasures. Also, because of the loss of the heart, all the islands that Te Kā has created were cursed, slowly causing the destruction of food supply, flora, and fauna, thus making it impossible for humanity to survive. According to legend, only the restoration of Te Fiti's heart can save the world from annihilation.

3,000 years later, Moana (the film's protagonist) finally reaches Te Fiti with Maui after helping the latter to retrieve his fish hook from Tamatoa and defeat the Kakamora from stealing the heart. During the journey, Maui confesses to Moana his reason for stealing Te Fiti's heart: because he wanted to give it to humanity as a gift (due to his tragic upbringing caused by his parents, who attempted to drown him when he was an human infant).

But before they can reach the shores of Te Fiti, Te Kā emerges and attacks them. Maui then turns into a hawk and tries to fly past her, only to be struck from the sky several times. He is soon weakened too severely and orders Moana to turn the boat around. Not wanting to back away from her mission and confident that she can succeed, Moana continues to sail towards Te Fiti and directly by Te Kā, who tries to smite the duo. Maui quickly blocks her blow with his fish hook, but the impact blasts him and Moana miles away from Te Fiti and severely damages the boat. When they recover, Maui finds his fish hook severely damaged and nearly destroyed. Furious at Moana for endangering their lives despite his orders to turn away, and knowing that one more blow from Te Kā to his hook will destroy it forever, Maui leaves her.

Despite this, after an inspirational visit from the spirit of Gramma Tala, Moana refuses to give up. She repairs her boat and sails back to Te Fiti, once again sailing up to the gap. Te Kā immediately reappears and raises a fist to destroy the boat, but Moana steers toward another gap, barely avoiding the blow. When Te Kā catches up to her, she sails back to the first gap. However, Te Kā sends a giant wave at Moana, causing her boat to capsize. With boulders raining down around her, Moana tries to right her boat but she isn't strong enough. Te Kā aims a killing blow at Moana but at the last second Maui returns - having had a change of heart - and parries the blow. He then distracts Te Kā again while Moana reaches the island of Te Fiti although her boat is destroyed by Te Kā in the process.

Unfortunately, Moana cannot find the spiral in which the heart is to be placed as the entire island is actually gone. At this moment, Moana notices the swirling spiral in Te Kā's chest and comes to an extremely stunning and impressive realization: Te Kā is actually Te Fiti without her heart. Meanwhile, Maui continues to fight, despite his fish hook having been destroyed. This enrages Te Kā immensely, and the lava demon conjures a massive fireball to kill the demigod once for all. Just as Maui is about to accept his fate in order to protect Moana, the latter gains Te Kā's attention by shining the heart of Te Fiti's light in the distance. Moana also asks the ocean to clear a path, allowing Te Kā to lunge at her. But, Moana sings the song "Know Who You Are" to calm the fury of Te Kā, who finds peace in Moana's inspiring words. She turns herself into molten rock, and Moana places the heart into the spiral of Te Kā's chest.

With the heart finally restored, Te Kā ceases to exist as the molten rock crumbles into pieces, reverting to her true form as Te Fiti. Maui then apologizes to Te Fiti for stealing her heart, admitting that he was wrong and that he has no excuses for doing so. Content that Maui learned his lesson, Te Fiti warmly forgives him and revives the dying islands across the world, as well as Moana's boat and Maui's fish hook. Afterwards, Te Fiti forms back into her resting position.

Powers and Abilities

As an island goddess, Te Fiti has the ability to produce and generate life, as she can instantly grow plants (both flora and fauna) around barren lands with a single touch and manipulate her body to form a terrain during her slumber. She also has the power to recreate objects that were previously destroyed, such as Maui's fish-hook and Moana's boat.

However, as Te Kā, she has the power to control magma, fire and lava, so that she can produce and throw out fireballs to destroy any obstacles and turn any matter into molten rock. She is also proven to have superhuman strength, as she can overpower the capacity of demigods such as Maui himself.

We were amazed and when the movie was done we cheered wildly!

Me: That is so awesome!

Nico: Boy I will never forget this movie. It was so awesome!

Lily: It's one of my all time favorites and I know this movie well.

Qin: Lily, how did you meet Moana?

Shadow the Hedgehog: I'd like to know that as well.

Rhino: Did you arrive at the start of the movie?

Lily: That is an adventure I will never forget. I arrived at the part where Moana was about to give up and head back.

Lily went over what happened during the events of The Ocean of Te

Fiti.

---

The Simulator Activated and Lily found herself in the Middle of the Ocean.

She walked on the water and she saw a blue light on a boat. The boat was a Polynesian Sailing Canoe.

Lily: I'm in the movie Moana. One of my favorites. I love this movie.

Lily walked over to the boat and she saw Moana hugging the spirit of her Grandmother.

Moana: I tried, Gramma. I couldn't do it.

Lily: Moana. You can't give up. You've come this far and you can't give up on your people.

Moana: Who are you?

Lily: My name is Lily Loud. I came to help you.

Lily got onto the boat.

Moana: Lily I tried my hardest but it was too much for me.

Lily: I know. But you have a strong spirit and a strong will and love for everyone on your island.

Moana: I know. But the question is Who am I?

Lily: [Singing Divinely] You are a girl that loves your Island and a girl that loves the sea.

Moana: [Singing] It calls me.

Lily: You are the daughter of the village chief. You are descended from voyagers who found their way across the world.

Moana: They call me.

Glowing Blue Polynesian Sailing Canoes appeared and they had the spirits of Moana's Ancestors on them.

Lily: You've delivered them to where you are. You have journeyed farther. You are everything you've learned and more.

Moana: Still it calls me. And the call isn't out there at all it's inside me.

Lily: It's like the tide always falling and rising.

Moana: [to her Grandmother] I will carry you here in my heart you remind me that come what may.

Lily: You know the way.

Moana: I am Moana!

Moana dove into the water and swam down to the bottom and retrieved a glowing green stone. It was the Heart of Te Fiti. The song ended.

Moana got back on the boat.

Moana: Lily. Thank you for reminding me.

Lily: It's no trouble at all. Now we got a job to do.

Moana: Right.

Lily: Lets do it, Together.

Lily extended her hand and she and Moana shook hands.

They both fixed Moana's boat and Lily made a horse of Glowing Water.

Lily: Ready?

Moana: Lets go.

They both went to the island where Te Fiti is said to be.

When they got there they saw black clouds with ash and soot blowing around.

Lily: Is this it?

Moana: Yes. We have to go passed the Barrier Islands. We do that, we make it to Te Fiti. But Te Kâ the Volcano Demon is going to prevent us from getting there. Te Kâ can't follow us into the water.

Lily: Okay.

As they approached, Ash clouds, lava and red hot smoke billowed up and they saw a fiery monster.

Lily: Is that Te Kâ?

Moana: Yes.

Lightning flashed in Te Kâ's ash clouds and smoke and she was going to make sure they don't get passed her.

Lily fired a blast of water and it hit Te Kâ in the chest and cooled her down and she screeched in pain.

Lily: That oughta cool you down!

Ta Kâ reheated her chest and threw a ball of lava at them and Lily threw and ball of Water at it and cooled it down.

It hit the rocks nearby.

Lily: Is that all you got you overgrown sack of hot air!?

Te Kâ got mad and the lightning in her clouds intensified as she roared.

Moana: Lily here she comes!

Te Kâ fired a stream of Fire and Lily fired a blast of water and the blasts collided and the fire turned into steam and the water hit Te Kâ in the face and she screeched in pain.

They made it passed the Barrier Islands and Te Kâ extended her arm out and was about to grab them when an Eagle came and transformed into the legendary demigod Maui and slashed off Te Kâ's arm and he landed on the boat with us.

Moana: Maui. You came back.

Maui's chest tattoo friend smiled in proudness.

Lily: Maui I presume?

Maui: That's right and you are?

Lily: My name is Lily Loud.

Maui: It's a pleasure.

Moana: But your hook. One more hit and…

Maui: [Chuckles] Te Kâ has got to catch me first. Now get to the island chosen one. Go save the world.

Moana: Maui, thank you.

Lily: We owe you one.

Maui: You're welcome.

Maui then transformed into some kind of bug and flew up to Te Kâ and turned into a whale and made a big splash.

It hurt Te Kâ and Lily and Moana made it to the island and went up the mountain and in the lagoon they saw a hole that looked like someone was resting.

Moana: Te Fiti. It's gone.

Lily: What happened?

Lily and Moana saw Te Kâ and in her chest was a spiral pattern and it matched the spiral on the Heart of Te Fiti and they instantly connected the dots.

Lily: Te Fiti and Te Kâ, they're both one in the same. Te Kâ is Te

Fiti.

Moana: Yeah. Now we know.

Maui got Te Kâ extremely angry and Moana held the heart up and it emitted a bright glow and a loud hum.

Lily and Moana walked to the ocean edge.

Moana: Let her come to us.

The ocean in the lagoon split and allowed Moana and Lily to cross and Te Kâ rushed to them without feeling any water.

Lily and Moana were walking on the sand of the ocean floor.

Lily: [Singing] We have crossed the Horizon to find you.

Te Kâ was getting closer.

Moana: [Singing] We know your name.

Lily: They have stolen the heart from inside you.

Moana: But this does not define you.

Lily: This is not who you are.

Te Kâ began to realize that she was made into someone she was not.

Lily and Moana: You know who you are?

Te Kâ leaned in closer and Moana put her head on her head as the song ended.

Moana: Who you truly are.

Te Kâ closed her eyes and Moana placed the heart in the spiral and it glowed green and began cracking apart as leaves, flowers and life grew on Te Kâ and after the rocks broke off they saw Te Fiti, fully restored.

Lily and Moana: Te Fiti.

They were amazed. Te Fiti the spirit of life was fully restored and bringing new life to the island.

Te Fiti was forever indebted to Lily and Moana and she forgave Maui for his recklessness and actions and his hook was repaired. Maui left to go see the world.

As Lily and Moana left for Moana's island, Te Fiti went back to her rest.

Lily and Moana arrived back at Moana's island Motonui and her mom and dad, Sina and Chief Tui arrived onto the beach as they got on.

Moana: Mom! Dad!

Sina: Moana!

Moana hugged her mom and dad.

Moana: I may have gone a little ways past the reef.

Chief Tui: [Chuckles] It suits you.

Moana: Oh mom, dad. This is Lily Loud. She helped me on my journey.

Lily: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Sina: Lily, we can't thank you enough for helping Moana.

Moana: Lily was a big help.

Lily: You are so welcome Sina.

The villagers came and were excited to see Moana back safe and sound.

They cheered for both Lily and Moana.

Moana: Lily. I couldn't have done all of this without your help. I thought I was gonna have to turn back but you helped me regain my courage and strength.

Lily: True courage and strength only comes from what's inside your heart. Never forget that.

Moana: I won't.

Moana surprised Lily by taking off her necklace and placing it around Lily's neck.

Lily: You're necklace? But this is yours.

Moana: It's yours now Lily. You helped me save the world and I couldn't have done it without you. You will always have a friend here on Motonui.

Lily was surprised and hugged Moana.

Lily: Thank you Moana.

A vortex opened up.

Lily: I have to go home now. But I will never forget you Moana.

Moana: Me neither.

Chief Tui: Take care, Lily. You will always be welcome at our island.

Lily: Thank you Chief.

Lily waved as she entered the vortex and arrived back home.

---

Most of us were amazed and it was an awesome adventure.

Qin: Whoa! That is so amazing!

Nico: Boy that is so awesome!

Skywarp: Didn't you also battle a fire giant?

Lily: Yep. That was Te Ka. And I was shocked when me and Moana found out that she was also Te Fiti.

Kira Ford: That's amazing. It's hard to imagine.

Tori Hanson: It's good that you helped Moana when she was down.

Lily: It was.

Lincoln: That's my baby sister for you.

Maui: She is a good soul.

Tailgate: (to Maui) So, you took on Te Ka knowing full well that your hook wouldn't be able to withstand another hit?

Maui: Isn't that the kind of thing that heroes do?

Me: Most of the time yes. But many times we have to have a plan.

Maria: That's true. And it's really cool that Moana gave you her necklace to remember her Lily.

Lily: It sure is. Moana is an awesome movie I will treasure in my memory, my heart and soul.

Lola: Wow. What year does Moana take place?

Me: It said 3,000 years ago. So some time in 10th century B.C.

Maui: Long time ago.

Me: It sure is. It's an amazing movie though.

Lola: Do you think that Motonui is a real island in the Polynesian Islands?

Me: It might be. We'll have to find it later though.

Nico: Okay.

Qin: Also I heard that you guys went to a planet called Mer to stop the Dark Water and the Darkdweller.

Me: Yep. That was one of our biggest adventures. It was awesome!

I went over what happened during the events of The Plague of Dark Water and went over the history of the Darkdweller and Pirate Lord Bloth.

---

Lord Bloth.

Bloth is a savage alien pirate and the main antagonist of the series.

This cold-blooded high seas marauder sails in search of the Thirteen Treasures of Rule. He kidnapped Primus and held him aboard his monster warship, The Maelstrom, trying to get information as to the whereabouts of the Treasures the King had his captains hide. When Primus escaped and passed the mantle of the quest over to his long lost son, Ren, Bloth went after the youth with a vengeance. Now they are sworn enemies, and the race to find the jewels comprises the central conflict of the Dark Water series.

Bloth will stop at nothing to gain the Treasures, which will give him the power to control Dark Water and thus rule the planet for his own profit. With his bloodthirsty cutthroat crew, this ruthless pirate raves anything and anyone who stands in the way of his evil mission.

He is quick to fly into a rage and has been known to throw members of his own crew into the pit of the horror-beast, the Constrictus, which he keeps in the massive hold of his ship.

Bloth is a fearsome fighter who, despite his huge size, has great agility and speed. He can also play the diplomat when it suits his needs. A cunning manipulator, Bloth is able to draw on his wealth of historical information about Merian legend and lore and use it to turn any situation to his own good. He has a photographic memory… especially about anyone who has ever crossed him.

Bloth's Achilles Heel is that he fancies himself a cut above the scum who sail his ship. In truth, he's only another hardened salt cully, but he's forever looking for ways to align himself with a better class of Merian. Ren is able to use this against Bloth, tricking him into situations where the corpulent pirate can be strung by his own bloated ego.

Dark Water.

From the beginning of time, the Thirteen Treasures of Rule have sealed the heart of our planet. The Treasures, imbedded in a reef far below the sea beneath Octopon itself, have emanated a collective power, nourishing the entire planet with a harmonious life-force.

Then, one day, years ago, the mystical stones were pried loose by a violent and unknown power. They were scattered far and wide in a furious storm of upheaval. From that day forward, the planet headed on a course of slow, degenerative destruction.

The crippling, which at first appeared only spiritually and emotionally, soon took living form in the substance which has become known as Dark Water. This substance oozed slowly, perversely, from the fissure where the Treasures were ripped from the bowels of the planet.

In the early years there were wild tales of a capricious, driving shape that moved across the watery planet, devouring anything unlucky enough to land in its path. Then, slowly, there were more and more sightings of the Dark Water, always moving, consuming and leaving nothing but loss and despair in its powerful wake. The vastness of all that is evil had taken a form… become tangible… It was the Dark Water.

The Dark Dweller

The Dark Dweller, master of the Dark Water, was an evil being that resided within the Chamber of Lost Souls at the center of Mer, where the evil liquid is spawned. The Dark Dweller himself seems to be made of Dark Water, implying that the Dark Water is not so much under his control, but a part of him and an extension of his horrible will (either that, or he is an evil spirit who inhabits the Dark Water and can bend it to his will).

The Dark Dweller seems to keep to himself, content to let his minions, Morpho and the Dark Disciples, and the Dark Water itself do his work for him. It was mentioned by Bloth at one point, however, that sometimes sailors could see the Dark Dweller's face reflected in the surface of patches of Dark Water, and that to see it was a bad omen.

Originally, both he and the Dark Water were trapped in their domain by the seal of the Thirteen Treasures of Rule, but after a time the Dark Dweller became powerful enough to cause a rift in the ocean bed, allowing the Dark Water to begin seeping out, thus beginning the Year of the Black Tide. He then sent Kiroptus to scatter the Thirteen Treasures across Mer, so that nothing could stop him from enveloping all of the world in the Dark Water.

When Tula fell into some Dark Water and was sucked down into it, the Dark Dweller spared her life, keeping her alive in his domain so that he could use her ecomantic powers to lure Ren there, in the hopes of stealing the first seven Treasures of Rule. He took on Tula's form in an effort to persuade Ren to give him the treasures, but his treachery was revealed when "Tula" didn't know exactly where Ren kept them (they were in his pouch).

He then tried to make a bargain with Ren: one treasure in exchange for Primus' soul. But, like Tula, this "Primus" was merely the Dark Dweller in another form, and Ren drove the monster away with the combined powers of the seven treasures. Weakened severely, the Dark Dweller was forced from then on to rely entirely on Morpho and the Dark Disciples to get his loathsome work carried out.

---

Qin: Whoa! That is amazing! I can't believe that an evil creature like the Dark Dweller was gonna destroy Mer!

Me: It was like a cancer. We destroyed the Dark Dweller when the 13 Treasures of Rule merged with my sword and they made my sword powerful enough to destroy the Dark Dweller once and for all.

Qin: Wow! That's amazing!

Nico: Boy I wasn't with you guys when that happened. But that is an epic adventure.

Me: It sure was.

Lincoln: It was awesome. But I'm glad we saved all of Mer.

We later took a rest. We then got to reading books.

Poliwag: Horsea, if you ever got drunk again, let me join you! (kisses her cheek)

Horsea: Thanks Poliwag.

Lori then got nasty stomach cramps!

Lori: Oh no!

Me: What's wrong Lori?

Lori: I don't know!

FFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRRTTTTTTTTTTTT!

Lori released a massive deadly fart that was so bad that it made most of us vomit and hurl.

Me: OH MAN! GEEZ LORI! WHAT THE HELL DID YOU EAT!

Maui: Whoo! That is rank!

Lori: It was my shoe!

Laney: (COUGHING AND GAGGING!)

FAAAARRRRRRTTTTTT!

Lori was really farting up a storm and the farts smelled so horrible!

Lola: (GAGGING!)

We took Lori outside. Ratchet and Lisa ran a diagnostic on her.

Lisa was wearing a HAZMAT suit.

Lisa: I'm afraid our firstborn eldest sibling has an infectious virus that is causing her an incredible level of abnormal spontaneous flatulence.

Lori: I am not farting! It was my shoe!

Me: We're not buying it Lori. You have a nasty fart bug and we need to go inside you and get rid of it.

Lincoln: We got to help Osmosis Jones and Drix and take down this mysterious virus.

Me: Lets do it.

But Shaggy and Scooby were not gonna go like the cowards that they are.

Shaggy: Like forget it! No way are we gonna go with you inside Lori!

Scooby Doo: Yeah and you can't make us.

Me: You two are nothing but a couple of big fat chickens.

Then Shaggy and Scooby both were clucking like a pair of chickens.

Ed: CHICKENS!

Me: Ed, down. I swear you two. You may have appetites as big as a mountain, but your brains are as tiny as your courage and your fear glands are just as big as your appetites.

Lisa: Uh J.D. there is no such thing as a fear gland.

Me: I know that Lisa. I was speaking in metaphorical terms.

Lisa: Oh. Apologies.

Nico: Shaggy, if you and Scooby come with us inside Lori, I'll give you the pizza-flavored Scooby Snacks that I was talking about.

Shaggy: Like, oh boy!

Scooby Doo: We'll do it!

Me: How good are those Nico?

Nico: They are really good. They taste like 1,000,000 of the best kind of pizzas you've ever had in one.

Lola: It's true. I helped make them for him.

Me: Nice!

Nico handed them 3 each for them and they ate them and they were really tasty.

Shaggy and Scooby: MMM! MMMM! MMMM!

They turned into rockets and went high into the sky and exploded into a dazzling display of fireworks and they inflated into blimps and on them it said "Try Nico's New Pizza Flavor Scooby Snacks, YOU'LL LOVE THEM!" They went back to the ground and landed into Nico's arms.

Shaggy: Boy, like, that hasn't happened to us in a long time.

Scooby Doo: Not since we were kids.

Nico: Boy no kidding. See I told you that you would like them.

Shaggy: Like yeah. We're ready!

Bobby: (to Lori) Babe, any time something bad happens in your body, I'll always be there to help you.

Lori: Thanks Boo-boo-bear.

Lydia: Yeah mommy!

Roxanne (Loud House): We'll literally make that fart virus cured!

Ramon: This is literally gonna be good!

Lily: Lets do it!

Me: Here we go. Open wide Lori.

She opened her mouth and I snapped my fingers and we spun in a tornado and we were shrunk down to the size of white blood cells and we went inside Lori.

Ratchet: Okay that was really cool.

We went down Lori's esophagus and it was like going down a slide. It was amazing.

Me: WEEEEE!

Nico: This is so cool!

Lynn: YEAH! I love sliding down the Esophagus!

Lucy Loud: This is wicked.

Laney: It's so cool though!

We went through a valve that went into the stomach and we landed by the beach next to the sea of Stomach Acid.

Me: We're back in Lori's stomach again.

Nico: Wow! It sure is huge here.

Qin: Wow! So this is what it's like being inside Lori. This is so cool!

Lana: I'll say. I think this is awesome being inside the body!

Lola: EW! Especially someone who farts all the time!

Lori: (On Lola's watch) I heard that Lola! And it was my shoe!

Me: Sheesh.

?: HEY GUYS!

We turned and we saw Osmosis Jones and Drix.

Me: Hey Ozzy! Drix!

We high-five and shook hands.

Me: Good to see you guys again.

Osmosis Jones: Glad you all came.

Drix: We got word about a nasty fart virus.

Me: So we smelled.

We laughed.

Nico: Qin, this is Ozzy and Drix, Ozzy and Drix, this is Qin. She's a childhood classmate I know from 2nd Grade.

Osmosis Jones: Pleasure to meet you Qin.

Drix: It's a pleasure to make your acquaintance.

Qin: Same here.

Me: Osmosis Jones is a white blood cell and Drix is short for the medicine Drixenol. It was a type of cold medicine from a long time ago. We don't use medicine like that anymore.

Qin: Wow! That is so cool that you are partners.

Osmosis Jones: Thanks Qin.

?: (Laughs evilly) Then I will only break you two up!

We turned and we saw one of the first Power Rangers Monsters: MAGNET BRAIN from episode 80 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

Magnet Brain was created by Zedd from science device built by Billy called a polarizer. Zedd called Magnet Brain a "monster with magnetic personality". Magnet Brain wielded a staff which possessed magnetic abilities. Zedd sent Magnet Brain to demolecularize the magnetic field of Earth causing the planet to disintegrate. Magnet Brain also carries a huge magnet, which he toss around like a weapon. Magnet Brain attacked Angel Grove and encountered the Power Rangers. In the battle Magnet Brain could sent magnetic whirlwinds from his arms and throw the rangers in sides using his magnetic powers. He also could deflect the blasts of rangers back in them. When heroes used the Power Blaster against the monster, it didn't destroy him, just pushed him along the ground and knocked him against the wall, barely harming him. Then Zedd used his grow grenade and made Magnet Brain grow. In the giant battle, villain attacked the giant magnet to the Thunder Megazord's Chest and then sent electric shock through it. However, Thunder Megazord sliced the magnet and then destroyed the monster with Thunder Saber. Upon monster's defeat, Billy's device returned to the normal state.

---

Lisa: Gadzooks!

Jason Lee Scott: It's Magnet Brain!

Trini Kwan: I hate this guy!

Me: I remember this magnetic freak! He tried to destroy the Earth's magnetic field and destroy the planet!

Lincoln: What a freak!

Magnet Brain: That's right. Its been a long time rangers!

Tommy Oliver: Lets get him guys! It's Morphin' Time!

THUNDERCLAP!

Tommy Oliver: WHITE TIGER!

Zack Taylor: MASTODON!

Kimberly Ann Hart: PTERODACTYL!

Billy Cranston: TRICERATOPS!

Trini Kwan: SABER-TOOTH TIGER!

Jason Lee Scott: TYRANNOSAURUS!

The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers were ready!

Magnet Brain: Now I will have my revenge!

Trini: Don't even try to magnetize our weapons!

Magnet Brain: Who said I was going to do that? (magnetizes Drix)

Drix: What is this?!

Magnet Brain: Say hi to Ra's Al Ghul and Bowser for me, Drix! (laughs evilly)

But the Magnetic Energy vanished.

Me: Nice try Magnet Brain. But our powers make your powers useless!

Troy: Time to fight magnets with electronics!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Electronic Brigade!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Electronic Squadron Denziman rangers from 1980.

Me: Lets get him!

We went at him and I punched Magnet Brain all over and Nico punched him all over with incredible force and kicked him in the face and Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over and Laney fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him and Riley shredded him with razor leaves. The Megaforce Rangers fired laser blasts and the Mighty Morphin Rangers slashed and blasted him all over. Luna fired a blast of water all over Magnet Brain and drenched him and it messed up his magnetic polarity and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him all over. Linka fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over and Maui punched him all over and slashed him all over with his hook.

Me: Lets see how you like our teamwork!

Ben: You got it!

Ben turned into Ball Weevil!

Ben: Ball Weevil!

Me: I don't think we saw this one.

Shanan: That's a Weevilian from the planet Curculios XII! They are a plasma energy insect race that can use plasma as balancing balls like circus stars.

Me: Whoa!

Maria: (SQUEALS) (Hugs Ball Weevil!) He's so cute!

Ball Weevil: I know I'm cute but please Maria.

Maria: Oh sorry.

She let him go.

Ball Weevil: Thank you.

Ball Weevil fired a powerful ball of plasma energy and and Bounce Man fired a Bounce Man fired his Bounce Ball.

Ball Weevil and Bounce Man: BOUNCING SUPER PLASMA BOUNCESTORM!

The balls bounced all over Magnet Brain and hit him all over the place with incredible force.

Ben then turned into Walkatrout.

Ben: WALKATROUT!

Me: Whoa!

Shanan: An Ickthyperambuloid from the planet Gilli-Perambulous Promenade.

Luna: Wow! That is amazing dude!

Walkatrout: This is gonna be tough. But it will work.

Splash Woman: Lets do it!

Walkatrout slid on the floor of the stomach and Splash Woman got onto his back and fired her laser trident.

Walkatrout and Splash Woman: SLIPPERY LASER SLIDEBLAST!

The laser blasts hit Magnet Brain all over and exploded.

Me: Lets finish this freak!

Tommy Oliver: Right!

The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers formed the Power Blaster and Lincoln summoned the Power Cannon. They fired powerful energy blasts and they hit Magnet Brain and he exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: YEAH!

BELCH!

Lori: Oops. Excuse me.

Lori belched out some smoke and Lisa saw it.

Lisa: It appears that J.D. and everyone destroyed a Power Rangers monster.

Lori: Wow!

Back inside Lori we were planning on how to face the Fart Virus.

Me: We need to think about this. The Fart Virus must be deadly.

?: That's not the least of your worries my old friend.

We turned and we saw our long time deceased former elder and the worst traitor of the Leaf Village: DANZŌ SHIMURA!

Danzō Shimura is a member of the Hidden Leaf's council and a major antagonist in the manga and anime series Naruto. His unbridled jealousy of Hiruzen Sarutobi, caused Danzō to do despicable acts in pursuit of the position of Hokage, Danzō's militant and archaic views made him a danger to the village he professed to love and protect as he created the hatred in some of Konoha's greatest attackers and major villains - Kabuto Yakushi, Orochimaru, Nagato, and Sasuke Uchiha due to his harsh and cruel indifference to human suffering. Strangely, despite Danzō's views that ninja should always be ready to sacrifice their lives, he was afraid of death, much to his own shame.

In his youth, Danzō was good friends with Hiruzen Sarutobi, having felt the need to upstart him. During the First Shinobi World War, Danzō and Hiruzen, along with the latter's team-mates Koharu Utatane and Homura Mitokado, were placed together in a squad under the Second Hokage Tobirama. When being late pursued by the Kinkaku Squad of the Village Hidden in the Clouds, Danzō attempted to volunteer in sacrificing himself as a decoy to ensure the others' safety. However, paralyzed with fear as Hiruzen volunteered for the task, Tobirama sacrificed himself instead while naming Hiruzen as his successor much to the shock of both Hiruzen and Danzō.

With Hiruzen as the Third Hokage, with him, Koharu, and Homura appointed roles as his advisors, a grudge filled Danzō resolved to become Hokage someday and formed the ANBU subsidiary named Root. Though the group was later officially disbanded, Root remained secretly active as Danzō executed shady dealing. The group became even more mindlessly devoted to Danzō, who started branding them with cursed seals, even attempting to assassinate Hiruzen on one occasion.

One such event was aiding Hanzo in his attempt to wipe out the but the men he sent to the Village Hidden in Rain were all wiped out by Nagato. Danzō also played a role in Kabuto Yakushi becoming a rogue ninja under his former subordinate Orochimaru, whom Danzō had implanting the DNA of Hashirama Senju to use his Wood Style.

In the aftermath of Kurama's attack on Konoha, Danzō suspected the Uchiha clan to have involvement and supported their relocation for better observation, which led to the Uchiha becoming more isolated and discontent, and thus eventually plotting to rebel. Years later, learning of the planned coup d'état by the Uchiha clan and playing on Itachi Uchiha's pacifist tendencies to provide him and the other elders with information of the clan's actions, Danzō secretly killed Shisui Uchiha, despite the fact that Shisui was actually already planning to use a genjutsu to prevent the Uchiha rebellion. He kills Shisui in order to obtain his Sharingan eyes. However, Danzo then secretly ordered Itachi to slaughter his clan in return that his younger brother Sasuke Uchiha would be spared death. Though Itachi committed the deed, he left Danzō with a warning to not harm Sasuke or he would expose the circumstances of the Uchiha Clan's demise to the other ninja villages. Hiruzen, however, guesses much of what had happened, although he had no proof, and becomes even more suspicious of Danzō, and demands that Root be disbanded.

Part II

When Team Kakashi decides to meet with the spy Sasori installed in Orochimaru's camp, Danzō took advantage of Kakashi's absence to assign Sai to the group as part of a plan to secretly assassinate Sasuke. To achieve that goal, Danzō had Sai trick Orochimaru into thinking he wants to join forces with him to destroy Konoha. Though Sai failed his mission, Danzō allowed him to remain with Team Kakashi, as Danzō had become worried about Naruto becoming a problem, and Sai would be in a perfect place to watch him.

During the events of Pain invading Konoha, Danzō was against Tsunade calling Naruto back to the village in fear that they would lose Kurama. To that end, Danzō not only killed the messenger toad Kōsuke but also ordered his subordinates not to come to the Hidden Leaf's aid with the expectation that Tsunade would be killed off not caring about the deaths of the other villages. Most of the villagers were killed in the attack. However, despite Danzō's action, Naruto arrived none the less with everyone Nagato killed revived while Tsunade ended up in a coma. Following the invasion, the Hidden Leaf are summoned before the Lord of Fire over what occurred, with Danzo convincing the feudal lord to name him the new acting Hokage. Danzō becomes the leader of the armed forces by influencing Mifune's mind but is caught.

Soon after, Danzō uses his power to mark Sasuke as a criminal to be killed before leaving for the Kage Summit in the Land of Iron to discuss dealing with the Akatsuki. Before leaving, seeing that he cannot confine Naruto due to his reputation as a hero, Danzō ordered Sai to spy on the boy while sending his men to track down Kabuto for his medical knowledge. With Torune and Fuu as his bodyguards, Danzō arrives at the Kage Summit and attempts to name himself the leader of the alliance that would fight the Akatsuki. However, the abrupt appearance of Taka and White Zetsu forces Danzō to flee.

However, Danzō and his men were halted by Tobi at the Samurai Bridge. By that time his men were defeated by Tobi and Sasuke, who then challenged Danzo to personal combat, Danzō unsealed his arm and revealed it to have been embedded with multiple Sharingan eye as he admits his role in the Uchiha Clan Massacre. Sasuke pretends to attack in anger with his Susanoo, Danzō uses Izanagi to evade the fatal attack, until it becomes evident that Sasuke was actually just making Danzō lose track of how many Sharingan he had in his arm, and in the end Sasuke is able to overcome Danzō by using a simple genjutsu making Danzō think he has one extra. With the powers of both Senju and Uchiha at his disposal, causing Tobi to realize that Danzō is targeting Naruto, Danzō clashes with Sasuke before being forced to sever his right arm as he was overwhelmed by the Senju DNA.

Refusing to accept defeat, Danzō takes Karin as a hostage so he can use Shisui's eye on Sasuke. However, Danzō was shocked that Sasuke had his attack pierce through Karin to kill him. On the verge of death, seeing that he can never surpass Hiruzen, Danzō decided to use the last of his life to take both Sasuke and Tobi down with him with the Reverse Four Symbols Seal. Though both were able to get out of range, Danzō destroyed Shisui's Sharingan to prevent Tobi from obtaining it.

Personality

When he was younger, Danzō was a hot-headed and eager ninja with a strong desire to prove himself. He, after a long internal struggle, decided to volunteer himself to buy time for his teammates, though Hiruzen Sarutobi beat him to it. He often displayed jealousy towards Hiruzen, believing he was always one step ahead of him and feeling inferior to him. Danzō never used soft words like "friend", as he never wanted to lean on someone or be leaned on. As an adult, Danzō was a completely calm, cold and collected individual who did not allow his emotions to surface. Due to being raised in times of war, Danzō's beliefs differed from those of the Hokage as he felt that the interests of the village should be placed above all else, even ethics and morals. Danzō seemed to hate the previous Hokage's beliefs stating those beliefs have destroyed the village after Pain's assault on it, despite using the attack as an attempt to overthrow Tsunade and leaving its citizens in peril as well as being responsible for Nagato's negative perceptions of Konoha, which lead to its destruction. He was very ambitious, something even his fellow chancellors openly noted and in the anime, his desire to be a greater and stronger Hokage than Hiruzen made him even attempt to have Hiruzen assassinated in the belief that the Third Hokage had lost the capacity to effectively lead the village. An extremist, Danzō preferred to directly eliminate threats through assassination and execution rather than diplomacy and negotiation. However, he secretly worked closely with the international criminal Orochimaru in illegal experiments in order to increase his physical capabilities. Danzō possessed a fanatical and arbitrary adherence to the ideals of a shinobi, believing they must sacrifice absolutely everything for the village. However, Danzō hypocritically feared death, hiding this fear behind a belief that his survival was necessary for the sake of the shinobi world itself. He would only conquer this fear in the last moments of his life, boldly attempting to kill Sasuke and Tobi for the sake of his village and the entire shinobi world with his suicide, and destroying Shisui's eye with his dying breath.

Despite his reputation as a militarist, Danzō ultimately sought peace for the ninja world, one he would achieve by uniting all shinobi forces under his control. As such, he sought the title of Hokage, waiting patiently for decades before an opportunity arose. Danzō's pursuit of peace followed an end justifies the means. As such, he had no remorse taking any immoral actions as long as he believed it would benefit Konoha. To that end, he worked in the shadows to ensure that this future came to fruition. He used Root to eliminate potential threats to Konohagakure with or without the consent of the Hokage and to further him along the path to achieving the position, as he believed he was best prepared for the "necessary" transition. Because of the nature of his actions, Danzō could not allow the details of what he had done to become public knowledge, and thus he branded members of Root with cursed seals to prevent them from revealing his secrets. Danzō also believed Konoha was the strongest and most stable when the village had a target to focus its anger and hatred on. To this end, Danzō was key in stigmatizing the Uchiha clan to the rest of the village and was the one to secretly leak out the knowledge that Naruto Uzumaki was the container of the Nine-Tailed Fox, ensuring the villagers would loathe him as a result. Danzō also views the members of Root as expendables pawns and shows no remorse in having them perform duties that could result in permanent injury as shown in his ordering Fū to gouge out Ao's Byakugan, despite the fact it would result in Fū losing his eye as well. Danzō is also treacherous by nature, as shown in his betrayal of Hanzō despite their previous alliance. Likewise, should an "ally" prove too capable for his comfort, Danzō will see to their elimination, as he attempted to do with both Nonō and Kabuto Yakushi. Itachi also believed Danzō had no intention of honoring his promise of sparing Sasuke when he accepted the mission to kill his own clan and had to threaten to leak Konoha's secrets to enemy villages and risk his own safety by returning to Konoha after Hiruzen's death to ensure Sasuke's safety. He was willing to do anything to further his physical and political powers, as shown in allowing himself to be experimented on with Hashirama's cells by Orochimaru in order to gain the power to control a tailed beast and extend his use of Izanagi. He also broke international law by manipulating Mifune into making him supreme commander of the Allied Shinobi Forces. In his later years, Danzō had become somewhat delusional, believing that he would be able to change the Shinobi World, even though his actions at the Kage Summit lost him his credibility. Danzō also had no hesitation in stealing Shisui's right eye in order to gain access to Kotoamatsukami despite his unquestionable loyalty to Konoha over his own clan and the fact he was a descendant of someone who had once been Danzō's own comrade. Tobi deduced Danzō's intent to seize control of the Nine-Tails from Naruto by using his multiple Sharingan. Danzō is also shown to be extremely arrogant, as seen in his gloating during his final clash with Sasuke, believing he had won, and only he is capable of changing the entire world.

Despite his self-righteous, amoral, and draconian methods, Danzō nevertheless was not purely evil. His actions, be it as cruel and self-serving as it was, was all for what he genuinely believed for the greater good of Konoha. He was capable of respecting others even if they differed from him, as although he was at odds with Itachi, he acknowledged Itachi as a unsung hero whose selfless devotion to Konoha was worthy of his respect and openly reprimanded Sasuke for his hatred and violence against Konoha, as it had wasted both the sacrifice of the Uchiha and Itachi's own personal sacrifices. His devotion to Konoha far surpassed his fear of death, as he did not hesitate to use the final moments of his life helping Konoha by trying to take Sasuke and Tobi with him and used the last of his strength to destroy Shisui's eye. Despite his envy against the Third and their growing rivalry, in the end, he had not entirely lost his friendship with Hiruzen, reminiscing of his childhood memories with him and asking what he was to Hiruzen in his final moments. His fellow elders, Homura Mitokado and Koharu Utatane, held Danzō in high regard and often took his advice when dealing with the politics of the village and even though they preferred Hiruzen over him, they openly acknowledged Danzo always had Konoha's best interests in heart.

Abilities

Because of the stolen Sharingan eyes and the cells from the Third Hokage (which Tobi suspects that he implanted them all with Orochimaru's aid), Danzō was an immensely powerful and skilled ninja. He could fight on even terms with Sasuke Uchiha.

Danzō was highly skilled with Wind Style chakra nature, able to utilize various, very powerful techniques with instant ready ease, them being strong enough to equal the strength of Sasuke's Susanoo in any of its stages. He had access to the unique summoning contract for the Baku, a giant, tapir-like creature that dwarfed Sasuke's Susanoo, and that was capable of complimenting Danzō's Wind Style with its extreme suction ability to the point that Danzō was able to rip open Sasuke's armored Susanoo with one attack. Despite his old age, Danzō was very strong, fast, and agile, able to repel Karin with a single kick, catch Sasuke off-guard (placing a paralyzing curse mark as he did), and easily dodge Sasuke's Susanoo's attack with one high leap, despite noting its capabilities, also showing great reflexes. Along with paralysis curse marks, Danzō was skilled at using marks that could silence a member of Root if they tried to speak about him and set a creative booby trap with his Reverse Four Symbols Sealing Technique to activate at death. Sasuke counted on Danzō being overconfident because of this technique. Danzō's pride is possibly his biggest weakness.

Danzō's most fearsome and formidable abilities were the various bodily implants he received from Orochimaru. Before the latter's being sealed, Danzō took Shisui Uchiha's right eye, capable of using the Mangekyo Sharingan and the strongest genjutsu, and replaced his right eye with it, and took his right arm after his death and replaced his with it, and after the Uchiha clan massacre, Danzō took up to ten Sharingan eyes and implanted them into that arm. From Orochimaru, Danzō had the cells of the First Hokage implanted in his right arm as well. Doing this allowed him to use the forbidden dojutsu Izanagi through all his Sharingan, but only doing so with the ones in his arm. To conserve his chakra, as all his eyes were active, Danzō placed a seal on his right arm and bandaged his eye to conceal these implants. Using Izanagi allowed Danzō to control reality and illusion about himself, transferring any disadvantages, like fatal wounds, into a dream and making his own desire for successful attacks a reality. With the advantage of the First's cells, Danzō could use Izanagi for one minute an eye, at the cost of losing its use afterward to blindness. Using this to the full effect, Danzō was able to exhaust Sasuke and mortally wound him at the cost of the same. Danzō was very skilled at using Shisui's eye, able to easily locate a squad of assassins and use his Kotoamatsukami technique very effectively, able to control others with ease without direct sight of them. Along with the with the enhancements to his body and chakra reserves(which were very large) they gave, having the First's cells in him also allowed Danzō access to his Wood Style kekkei genkai, which he could use without hand signs, but only from his right arm, and its power was pale compared to the original. Aside from Sharingan, Danzō was very skilled at using and dispelling genjutsu, even Sasuke's inept Tsukuyomi, although this led to his death.

Me: DANZŌ SHIMURA!

Qin: So that's the Danzō you told me about!

Me: That's him. He was once one of the Hidden Leaf Elders on the Hidden Leaf Council. He was an old acquaintance of Hiruzen Sarutobi the former 3rd Hokage and he is also the monster responsible for putting the entire planet of Shinobi in peril!

Qin: What!?

Nicole: His actions almost led to the entire planet being completely destroyed because of the Akatsuki and it almost led to total annihilation.

Qin: This guy is a monster!

Danzō: Everything I've done was for the good of the village!

Me: Bullshit! You are nothing more than a warmongering fuckpot and you would rather make enemies than have friends! You killed countless lives over the course of 35 years and you nearly destroyed the entire planet! You have committed several atrocities over that timeframe against humanity, nature and the planet!

Qin: What did he do?

Nicole: He was ordered to disband the Root ANBU program and he kept it running in secret for his own selfish needs.

Lincoln: He destroyed the entirety of the Uzumaki Clan by manipulating the Cloud, Mist and Rock villages into launching a joint attack that annihilated them and scattered them throughout the land and it nearly left Naruto and Kushina almost clanless!

Naruto: He is responsible for leading Obito to my delivery spot which unleashed Natsumi onto the village!

Me: He allied with Orochimaru and compromised the defenses of the village for an easy attack.

Fu: He forced Itachi to kill the entirety of the Uchiha Clan except for Sasuke!

Naruto: He manipulated Hanzo the Salamander and made my uncle do all kinds of terrible things!

Sakura: And he also started the 2nd and 3rd Great Wars!

Qin gasped in sheer horror!

Nico: You traitorous freak of nature!

Me: They didn't give him the moniker The Darkness of the Shinobi for nothing.

Danzō: Impressive that you know all about my history J.D. Lady Tsunade and all of the Leaf taught you well.

Me: Because I have 150,000 years of experiences with me. You're the reason why the Leaf was nearly plunged into ruin and you did all that for your own selfishness in trying to get the title of Hokage! Tarnishing everything that the entirety of the Hidden Leaf stands for!

Nicole: That's why we took your life Danzō! You are far too dangerous to be Hokage or anything for that matter!

Danzō: Everything I did was for the good of Village. I'm a patriot!

Me: Bullshit! By causing war and chaos you were destroying the Hidden Leaf's image and ruining the lives of countless innocent people!

Lynn: You know who you remind me of Danzō? Benito Mussolini!

Danzō: And who was that?

Me: The old dictator of Italy from back in the 1940's. He was a good leader. But he wasn't as smart as you were.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. I remember you saying that J.D.!

Me: That's right Hunter.

Osmosis Jones: (to Danzō) You're not so tough. I don't know why Naruto and the other ninjas were afraid of you.

Me: Because he was a warmonger. Also Danzō, I'm not the same as I was when we brought you to justice 150,000 years from now.

Danzō: How so?

I then flared up my power and went Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Phoenix!

Osmosis Jones: Whoa! Look at J.D.!

Drix: My goodness! His power and transformation is incredible!

Me: (Divine Voice) Now Danzō, you will pay for your crimes as you did millennia hence.

Danzō: We shall see.

Me: You don't even have your artificial arm, implanted stolen Sharingan or Shisui Uchiha's Mangekyo Sharginan with you this time.

I went at Danzō and punched him in the face with devastating force and kicked him in the stomach and kicked him in the face all over the place. I fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over. I then kicked him in the stomach and fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him all over. But because he was a reanimation, he regenerated.

Laney: Let me finish this monster! BOIL STYLE: LAKE NATRON!

Laney fired a powerful mist that was extremely caustic and corrosive and alkaline that it stripped all of the flesh off of Danzō and it caused him to calcify and fossilize. All the was left of him was a fossilized skeleton with one arm and his chakra network was completely exposed as all his cells were destroyed.

Me: WHOA! That was awesome! Laney that was really well done!

Laney: Thanks J.D. I figured Lady Tsunade is gonna want to know about this.

Me: Good idea Laney.

I powered down.

Nicole: And now his soul is going to the River of Fire.

The portal into the River of Fire opened and his spirit was sucked into it and it closed.

Me: Hell is too good for him.

Laney: No kidding.

Nico: I've never even heard of a technique called Lake Natron. That was really cool.

Me: Lake Natron is also a toxic lake that lives down in Tanzania.

Lola: I think we saw that lake when we were over there!

Lana: Yeah there were a lot of Flamingos there.

Me: That's right. Lake Natron is one of the most popular flamingo spots in the world.

I revealed about it.

---

Lake Natron is a salt or soda lake in Arusha Region in Tanzania. It is in the Gregory Rift, which is the eastern branch of the East African Rift. The lake is within the Lake Natron Basin, a Ramsar Site wetland of international significance.

The lake is fed principally by the Southern Ewaso Ng'iro River, which rises in central Kenya, and by mineral-rich hot springs. It is quite shallow, less than three metres (9.8 ft) deep, and varies in width depending on its water level. The lake is a maximum of 57 kilometers (35 mi) long and 22 kilometers (14 mi) wide. The surrounding area receives irregular seasonal rainfall, mainly between December and May totaling 800 millimeters (31 in) per year. Temperatures at the lake are frequently above 40 °C (104 °F).

High levels of evaporation have left behind natron (sodium carbonate decahydrate) and trona (sodium sesquicarbonate dihydrate). The alkalinity of the lake can reach a pH of greater than 12. The surrounding bedrock is composed of alkaline, sodium-dominated trachyte lavas that were laid down during the Pleistocene period. The lavas have significant amounts of carbonate but very low calcium and magnesium levels. This has allowed the lake to concentrate into a caustic alkaline brine.

---

Laney: Whoa! I remember that.

Lynn: Whoa! That is amazing!

Luan: Boy a lake like that is deadly! I would not want to go swimming in that.

Eddy: Me neither.

Osmosis Jones: Same here.

Nico: I didn't know a lake like that was real. That must be a dangerous place.

Me: It is.

Then we heard a roar and then we saw Mystery Inc.'s enemy: THE SAN FRANPSYCHO!

---

The San Franpsycho possessed sickly greenish skin, glowing red eyes, and a hook in place of his right hand. He wore a tattered blue prison outfit and was covered in seaweed.

The San Franpsycho was supposedly the ghost of Clint Morris, an Alcatraz inmate who tried to break out from Alcatraz in 1962 and swim to shore, but was attacked by a shark and died in the water.

What's New, Scooby-Doo?

The San Franpsycho first showed up at the Grind Games, with his first victim being Rich Gurman. When he skated up the half pipe, he got a lot of air, so much so that he didn't come down, only his skateboard did. The monster proceeded to smash the lights, and the crowd ran away screaming. The attack resulted in a security increase when Mystery Inc. came to attend the Grind Games the next day.

The gang witnessed the monster's second attack. The San Franpsycho burst out of the half pipe and attacked another competitor, Lucas. He used his seaweed to snag her leg and attempted to drag her away, but two others rushed out to help and rescued her.

The gang learned about the San Franpsycho from Julian Libris and went to Alcatraz to investigate. Upon setting foot inside, they quickly ran into the monster, who started chasing them around the prison. Velma Dinkley escaped him by hiding under a bed in one of the cells, but the monster continued to pursue Shaggy Rogers and Scooby-Doo until they accidentally slid down a staircase railing, colliding with Fred Jones and Daphne Blake and causing them to hang off of a ledge. The monster walked by, but didn't notice them, and the four pulled themselves to safety. Velma found a clue, a Grind Games program with the skateboarders crossed out, but the gang then heard the sounds of Julian's boat and rushed outside to discover that the San Franpsycho had stolen it. Fred found an extra boat and the gang made it back to the mainland despite a near-death experience with some sharks.

When they got back to the Grind Games, the San Franpsycho showed up in the stands and started chasing them again, but they managed to lose him. Fred, Daphne, and Ryan followed Julian, since he was a potential suspect. Fred followed him into a cable car, but Julian was gone when he boarded, and the San Franpsycho sabotaged the car, causing it to go off the track and out of control. Ryan and Daphne got on a cart and followed them. Ryan gave Fred and the passengers instructions so they could steer themselves to safety, and they stopped just short of falling off a pier.

The gang regrouped, and Fred formulated a plan to capture the San Franpsycho. Shaggy posed as a competitor to lure the monster, while Fred wore a magnetized helmet that would attract the monster's metal hook hand. The plan nearly worked, but an ice cream truck drove by, and Fred was pulled and got stuck to it. The monster chased Scooby, who got on a skateboard and tried to get away from him. He went up a half pipe, came back down, crashed into the monster, and flung him into a concession stand. The San Franpsycho was unmasked, revealing Rutie Banez. She wanted to ruin the Grind Games because she wasn't allowed to compete. She claimed it was because she was a girl, but it was actually because she was a bad skateboarder.

---

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the San Franpsycho!

Me: I remember this creep!

Qin: What's his history?

Me: He was really skateboarding judge Rutie Banez. She wanted to ruin the Grind Games because she wasn't allowed to compete because of the strict age requirements. Also she was upset that she couldn't do it because they said she was a girl. Totally sexist! But in actuality she was a bad skateboarder.

Qin: Geez!

Me: She got 10 years in prison. 5 years in Juvenile Prison and 5 years in adult prison when she turns 18 and ordered to pay the skateboarders she hurt in the amount of $250,000,000.00.

Nico: Geez! Ouch.

Lincoln: Harsh.

Me: I know. Lets beat this freak with our combos!

Skywarp: You got it boss! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his heat-seeking missiles 100-fold.

Rhino: Time for a charge! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and it enhanced his strength 100-fold.

Skywarp and Rhino: CHARGING MISSILE RAM!

Skywarp fired his missiles and Rhino grabbed them and he charged and rammed the San Franpsycho and sent him flying with an incredible explosion.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Tailgate: Time for us to finish him! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Velocitron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his speed 100-fold.

Tori Hanson: Time for action! GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into her Right Arm Device and enhanced her ranger powers 100-fold.

Tailgate and Tori Hanson: SPEEDING MEGATSUNAMI HAMMERSLAM!

Tori Hanson got on Tailgate and slammed a massive hammer into the San Franpsycho as he was going at tremendous speed. It smashed and killed him.

Me: BINGO! We're not done yet. Lets head to the colon!

We went to Lori's Large Intestine and we saw the Fart Virus! It was an ugly primitive virus where it farted all over the place and caused nasty gas to build up to massive levels.

Me: So that's the fart virus!

Qin: Ugly!

Me: Lets destroy it!

Qin: You got it! FIREBOMB INCINERATOR BURST!

Qin threw a ball of fire and it hit the Fart Virus and ignited it.

Osmosis Jones: You are dealing with a white blood cell here! IMMUNE SYSTEM BLAST!

Osmosis Jones fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit the virus and burned it all over.

Bobby: Never torment my babe again! CRYSTAL FRUIT SHATTER!

Bobby imprisoned the virus in a powerful crystal prison and it shattered into a million pieces and completely destroyed it.

Me: YEAH!

Lincoln: That did it!

Lola: We cured you Lori! The Virus is gone!

Lori: Thank goodness! Well done guys.

Lisa: Affirmative everyone. Lori's flatulence levels are moderating. Well done.

We got out of there and we took a shower.

Bobby: (To the viewers) Romance can be a good thing and that person is willing to do anything for their love. I love Lori and she is an awesome babe.

Me: You said it Bobby. Well done amigo.

Bobby: Thanks man.

We rested and Lori was on the sofa resting with us. I reported to Lady Tsunade about our encounter with Danzō and she was shocked and amazed.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction Complete and another funny chapter done.

This is the second chapter of Osmosis Jones that we did and it was really funny. We got rid of the source of Lori's gas problem and more. Next Naruto Villain is Gato and we're going to make sure that little freak and tyrant gets what's coming to him again. NicoChan11 and GenkaiArakida-XIV gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. GenkaiArakida-XIV gave me the title for this. Let me know what you all think. Next up is Scooby Doo in Big Top Scooby Doo and we're gonna unmask an evil jewel thief werewolf.

See you all tomorrow.

Werewolf of the Big Top

In our game room we were trying a new awesome way to have fun. Me, Jonny Quest, Nico and Lincoln we're going into Questworld.

Sora: You guys are heading to Questworld?

Me: Yep. This is gonna be awesome!

Nico: I can't wait to see what it looks like.

Cheetah: Can we come as well?

Me: Sure.

Jessie Bannon: This is gonna be amazing guys. You will love it.

Hadji: (Indian Accent) Ready guys?

Me: Ready Hadji.

Hadji: Questworld Log On. Subjects Jonny Quest, J.D. Knudson, Nico Chan, Lincoln Loud, Cheetah, Broadside, Thundercracker and Jessie Bannon.

We had really cool Q shape virtual reality eye bands on.

Jonny Quest: GOING HOT!

We went into Questworld and it was so cool! We were all inside an awesome 3-D game and we had awesome body suits and my vision through the virtual reality eye band was amazing. It was like we were seeing through an awesome targeting lens and we had awesome diagnostic visual graphics.

Me: Whoa! This is so cool!

Nico: WOW!

Lincoln: This is so awesome!

Cheetah: Amazing!

Jessie Bannon: It sure is.

Thundercracker: So, this is Questworld?

Jonny Quest: That's right.

Me: Wow. It's like we've gone inside a video game.

Broadside: Anything fun we can do here?

Jonny Quest: All kinds of stuff. But lets do my favorite thing.

We then had an awesome Chess Match and we were the pieces. We were armed with broadswords and we were taking down the chess pieces that came to life and attacked us and they did all kinds of things. The chess pieces were armed with all kinds of weapons and we used all kinds of awesome techniques and more.

Nico: This is awesome!

Thundercracker: Boy I can see why you guys get a kick out of this!

Cheetah: No kidding!

Lincoln: Boy this is awesome!

Clyde was watching us from outside.

Clyde: Wow! That is so awesome! I can't believe they are inside a game!

Nicole: It is an awesome game though. But it's more than just a game though. Virtual Reality is a whole new different dimension in video gaming than anything that we are familiar with. But the graphics in this are amazing.

Laney: Boy this is so cool! I don't think I've ever seen a game this advanced before.

We took the queen and she turned into a Red Dragon!

ROAAAAARRRR!

Laney: WHOA!

Clyde: SO AWESOME!

I fired an energy blast at it and destroyed the dragon.

Nico: Awesome!

Me: Check the king Nico!

Nico: Got it!

Nico did so.

Nico: Checkmate!

The king was claimed and we won!

The system turned off.

Me: That was so awesome Jonny!

Jonny Quest: Glad you all had fun J.D.

Clyde: That was so awesome!

Lola: I've never seen a system like this.

Lisa: Dr. Quest really knew how to make the worlds most amazing and most perfect video gaming entertainment system that is really amazing.

Cheetah: It sure was amazing though.

Lincoln: I'll say.

Qin: But it sure was fun from the looks of it. I thought it was so cool how you can do all that in there.

Nico: Thanks Qin. It was fun though.

We got back to play games in the game room.

We were having all kinds of fun and more.

---

Later in the training grounds, I was testing out new abilities and Nico was watching me. I was testing out the powers of the legendary 9 Armors of the Ronin Warriors. My sword has the symbols of the powers of the armors of the legendary Ronin Warriors on it and it had the powers of Righteousness - 仁, Justice - 義, Courtesy - 礼, Trust - 信, Wisdom - 智, Loyalty - 忠, Serenity - 忍, Obedience - 考, Piety - 梯, and Love - 愛.

Nico: Wow! I've heard about the legendary 9 Armors. They are powerful and they possess incredible power.

Me: I know. Now my sword has imbued me with all of their incredible power.

?: That power won't be enough to save you when you die.

We turned and we saw the ruthless businessman that we killed on our first mission: GATO!

---

Gatō is a minor antagonist in Naruto, who also acts as the main antagonist in the Land of Waves Arc. He was an extremely corrupt and ruthless businessman and a drug dealer in the Land of Waves.

Creating the Gatō Company years ago, Gatō took control of the Land of Waves' shipping routes and created a monopoly by isolating the country from the outside world, making it impoverished and hunger-stricken. He also dealt with a resident named Kaiza with a public execution in order to demoralize the people so nobody would stand up to him.

However, with news of a bridge to the mainland being built, Gatō hired Zabuza Momochi to assassinate the bridge maker Tazuna and discourage the bridge's construction. But due to Team 7's intervention as Tazuna's bodyguards, and Zabuza's arrogance, Gatō decides to take matters into his own hands.

Making his move once Zabuza's arms were broken during his rematch with Kakashi, Gatō arrives with his men to finish the job himself while also killing Zabuza so he would not have to pay him for his services. But Gatō's scheme backfired when Zabuza, near death, used the last of his strength to brave through Gatō's men to kill him, thus granting him his comeuppance.

---

Me: GATO!

Gato: It's been a long time J.D. you motherfucker!

Nico: Who is that freak!?

Me: That's Gato, he was a monster tyrant that we killed on our first ever mission outside the village. He was a ruthless and corrupt businessman that took over the Land of Waves and ruled over it with an iron fist. He nearly drove the entire land into the brink of poverty and he killed anyone that opposed him. He took away all of their hope and courage.

Nico: Whoa! I remember you told me about him!

Me: That's right.

Gato: And you killed me J.D.!

Me: Because you deserved it you fucker! I killed you because you brought all that on yourself because of your own selfishness and greed. Even in death you still refuse to learn. People like you have no right to live!

Gato: I WILL KILL YOU!

Gato charged at me and I punched him in the face and sent him crashing into a post.

Me: You are just as pathetic as you were 150,000 years from now.

Gato: YOU MOTHERFUCKING SON OF A BITCH!

Me: Says the pot calling the kettle black!

Nico: Gato, you have failed this universe!

Gato came at me and I kicked him in the mouth and knocked out some of his teeth. He crashed into another post.

Me: I gave you one chance to surrender Gato and all you did was threw it right back into my fucking face. You have no soul and no conscience and absolutely no regard for the value of human life. That's why we killed you and took your life and sent your fucking ass off to hell where you belong. You don't care about anyone but yourself.

Gato: (ENRAGED SCREAMING!) YOU FUCKING FUCKHEAD! I WILL KILL YOU AND SEND YOU OFF TO HELL!

Me: I don't die that easily. I'm immortal and invincible.

Gato then released a massive amount of chakra and energy at an incredibly explosive level. His aura turned pitch black with pure evil and his eyes turned red with pure evil!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: HOLY SHIT! What power!

Me: UNREAL!

Gato then flared up an incredibly dark aura of such incredible evil that it was just as strong as Omega Shenron's!

Gato was completely out of his mind with so much rage and hatred that it was unbelievable! He went at me with incredible speed and I flared up my Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Phoenix Power and we went at each other and I punched him in the face with incredible force and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the nose and he fired a powerful blast of dark energy at me and I fired a powerful blast of fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I punched him in the face with devastating force and kicked him in the crotch with a powerful kick and kicked him in the face and he kicked at me and I punched him in the back and sent him crashing into a rock with devastating force.

KRABLAAMMM!

Gato got up and he was really enraged!

Gato: (ENRAGED SCREAMING!) I HATE YOU!

My aura flared up with incredible intensity!

Me: (Divine Voice) Thanks for the power boost.

Gato: YOU FOOL! (SCREAM IN FURY!)

He flew at me with incredible speed and he punched at me and I dodged it and punched him in the stomach with devastating force!

KRABBBBLLLLLAAAAAAAAAAAMMMMMMMM!

The punch was so powerful that it caused Gato to belch up an incredible amount of blood. Gato was knocked down and he looked at me with incredible fury. Everyone then came out and they couldn't believe what they saw! They saw me fighting Gato!

Naruto: GATO! What the hell is he doing here!?

Sasuke: I thought you all killed him!

Sakura: We did! But Vypra must've brought him back to get revenge on J.D.!

Fu: What a monster!

Qin: So that guy that J.D. is fighting is the Gato you all told me about!? He's a monster!

Lincoln: He was.

Shaggy: Guys, I think you should say the B-A-D word so I can help you kick Gato's ass!

Nico: No Shaggy. Let J.D. handle this.

Me: It's too bad, but the comfort in all that power you had when you were alive will come to an end today. No more will the word Gato mean anything but failure. (Laughs)

I punched him in the face and sent him crashing into a post.

Me: I've got new tricks to show you. Feel the love of the stars.

I swung my sword and the sky turned black with stars.

Me: (Echoing) STAR SWORD SCREAM! 嵐星斬

4 stars glowed purple and powerful blasts of lightning hit the ground and converged on Gato and they hit him and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: WHOA! What power!

Nicole: Unbelievable!

Lincoln: That was intense.

Gato was not beaten yet.

Me: Feel the Serenity of the illusion of the spider. (Echoing) WEB OF DECEPTION! 投蜘網

I swung my sword and send powerful spider threads and they bonded Gato all over.

Laney: Wow!

Nico: Now he's trapped.

Me: Time for the Piety of Poison. (ECHOING) SNAKE FANG STRIKE! 蛇牙剣・六節大蛇

I swung my sword and it formed a powerful blade whip and it turned into a powerful energy whip and it slashed Gato and it covered him in a deadly acid poison. It was burning him all over and he was screaming in excruciating pain.

Me: Obey the Black Lightning of Death. (ECHOING) BLACK LIGHTNING SLASH! 暗黒跳飛斬り

I fired a massive barrage of black lightning lasers and they hit Gato all over and burned him bad.

Me: Be Loyal to the chains of your demise. (ECHOING) QUAKE WITH FEAR! 紅雷閃

I swung my sword and it fired a powerful blast of red lightning that turned into a powerful chain and it released a massive barrage of smaller lightning and it turned into many chains that lashed Gato all over.

Me: The Wisdom of the Air knows no bounds. (ECHOING) ARROW SHOCKWAVE! 真空波

I fired a powerful arrow of energy and it slammed into Gato and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew Gato around in a massive explosion of wind and air and it was powerful enough to blow his limbs apart!

Me: The Faith of Water will cleanse you. (ECHOING) SUPER WAVE SMASHER! 超流破

I fired a powerful wave of water and it fired massive blue energy blasts at Gato and skewered him all over.

Me: Lightning's Courtesy shall strike. (ECHOING) THUNDERBOLT CUT! 雷光斬

A powerful bolt of lightning struck my sword and I fired a powerful blast of lightning that slashed him in haif.

Me: The Justice of Earth will make you suffer. (ECHOING) IRON ROCK SMASHER! 岩鉄砕

I turned my my sword into a deadly hammer and smashed Gato with incredible force and it uplifted the earth around him.

Me: Now you will feel the Fire of Righteousness! (ECHOING) FLARE UP NOW! 双炎斬

My sword flared up with intense fire and I cut him with incredible fire and burned him all over with incredible heat.

Me: Now to finish you for good Gato. Feel the combined power of the Inferno! (ECHOING) RAGE OF INFERNO! 超弾動閃煌斬

I swung my sword and released a massive vortex of light and fire and it hit Gato and exploded in a massive explosion of fire.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Everyone felt the massive power from the fire and it was incredible!

Nico: WHOA! What power!

Lori: That was literally intense!

When the smoke cleared, Gato was beaten and he was down. I walked up to him.

Me: You are a monster that needs more than just the fire of hell Gato. You should never be around in any universe ever.

I held up my hand to his face.

Gato: Wait, what are you doing?

Me: HAKAI !

Gato was enveloped in purple light and he was being obliterated in an instant as he was completely erased from existence for all eternity. He's not in Hell or Heaven and now he is gone for good.

I powered down.

Me: Goodbye for good Gato.

We went back to the estate.

---

Later we got a call from Velma and she told us about a mystery going on at the Circus and she told us to help them.

May: I can't wait to go to the circus, Nico!

Nico: Me too May.

Frightwig: I haven't had this much fun at a circus since before I worked for Zombozo!

Ben: I can tell.

Me: This is interesting. A lot of villains were haunting circuses and we busted the villains responsible.

Qin: Good riddance.

We arrived at the circus in Atlantic City, New Jersey and we saw the Mystery Inc. gang there.

Fred: Hey guys!

Daphne Blake: Glad you all came.

Nico: Wouldn't miss out on a good mystery.

Velma: I can tell.

Kim Possible: So what's the sitch?

We found out that a werewolf is terrorizing the circus and scaring everyone away as he is stealing jewels.

William: Let's split up and search for clues. We'll meeet back here in an hour to go over whatever we find.

Me: Okay.

We went over the grounds of the circus and we found out what was going on and we also found the stolen jewels. It was a bunch of beautiful jewels.

We found the werewolf and he was really savage.

Me: This werewolf is gonna a dead one.

Troy: Time to send this puppy to the pound.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Goggle V Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the the Goggle Squad V rangers from 1983. We went at the Werewolf and I punched it in the face and then I turned into J.D. the Nocturnal! I slashed the werewolf with my claws and weakened him.

Me: Time for this werewolf to feel the power of our final smashes.

Carol: Lets do it! GODZILLA FIRESTORM RAY!

Carol fired a powerful blast of Godzilla's orange spiral ray and it hit the werewolf and exploded all over.

Frightwig: This guy is a monster. FRIGHTENING MEGA HAIR PUNCH!

Frightwig punched the werewolf all over with incredible force with her hair.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Me: Feel the power of the full moon! DARKFLAME MOON BLAST!

I fired a powerful blast of moon fire and it hit the werewolf and knocked him down as it burned him.

Mystery Inc: You are never gonna be free again! MEDDLING KIDS SUPERPUNCH!

Mystery Inc. punched the Werewolf with incredible force and knocked him down and it destroyed his costume.

We found out that the jewels were stolen by Whitney Doubleday and his accomplice Archambault were trying to destroy the circus and make the owner of it suffer for double-crossing him. The police arrested them both and they were sentenced to 20 to 50 years in prison.

Doubleday: And we would've gotten away with it too if it weren't for you meddling kids!

Me: TELL IT TO THE JUDGE!

Lincoln: Good riddance.

?: His hate is nothing compared to mine.

We turned and we saw the HATE MASTER from episodes 124 and 125 of Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers!

---

The Hate Master was a monster created by Lord Zedd and Rita Repulsa from the evil seeds of the various monsters that Finster had created. Using his powers, he was able to 'enchant' the Rangers with various rap songs, causing them to feel nothing but hate and frustration with each other. Fortunately, Aisha was not affected by his initial attack as she was away visiting her grandmother, later being granted an immunity to even a direct attack from the Hate Master due to the love centered in a necklace her grandmother had given her. Using the love in the necklace, Alpha 5 was able to develop a machine that would purge the Rangers of the rest of their hate, Aisha managing to resist an attack from the Hate Master on her own by remembering her grandmother's encouragement. Hate Master was finally destroyed by a mass assault from all six Ninjazords and Titanus.

---

Jason Lee Scott: The Hate Master!

Hate Master: Its been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember this guy! He turned you all against each other with his hate powers and tried to break you all up!

Nico: This guy has no idea who he is messing with!

Hate Master just used his hate powers on the Loud Kids.

Hate Master: The 12 of you were chaotic enough before getting your powers. Let's see how well you fare when all of you hate one another!

Aurico: (Alien Voice) NO! (grabs Hate Master by the throat) If you really did end up making them hate each other, I'll make you suffer before we kill you!

Me: Don't worry Aurico.

We had our auras flared up to an incredible level and our power was enhanced over 10,000,000-fold.

Hate Master: What!?

Me: Nice try Hate Master. But you didn't count on this happening. Our power gets stronger from hatred.

Hate Master: Impossible!

Me: Nothing is impossible. Now you will die.

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it guys! IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

THUNDERCLAP!

Tommy Oliver: WHITE TIGER!

Zack Taylor: MASTODON!

Kimberly Ann Hart: PTERODACTYL!

Billy Cranston: TRICERATOPS!

Trini Kwan: SABER-TOOTH TIGER!

Jason Lee Scott: TYRANNOSAURUS!

They transformed and they were ready!

Ben: Time for this monster to pay!

Ben turned into Pesky Dust!

Ben: PESKY DUST!

Pesky Dust fired a powerful stream of dust and Star Man fired his Star Crash.

Pesky Dust and Star Man: STARDUST MEGA CRUSH!

The blasts combined and turned into a shower of stellar dust and it hit Hate Master and burned him all over.

Ben then turned into Mole-Stache.

Ben: MOLE-STACHE!

Me: Whoa! I never saw this one.

Shanan: That's a Beardonan from the planet Talpa IV. They are known for using their mustaches as their weapons.

Me: Wow!

Mole-Stache: That's right. Lets do it.

Mole-Stache sent powerful fists of his mustache at Hate Master and Impact Man had his Pile Driver Ready.

Mole-Stache and Impact Man: SUPER IMPACT PILE DRIVE!

They punched the Hate Master with devastating force and it was powerful enough to knock him down.

Thundercracker: Lets show him some of our power! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his arm and it turned it into a deadly powerful thunder cannon.

Cheetah: Time for speed! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her speed and strength 100-fold.

Thundercracker and Cheetah: SPEEDING THUNDER BULLETSLASH!

Thundercracker fired a powerful blast of energy and Cheetah ran fast and she slashed and clawed Hate Master and the energy blast hit Hate Master and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Sora: Try this! DISNEY CYBER KEY POWER!

The Disney Cyber Planet Key went into Sora's keyblade and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Broadside: You are a monster that deserves damnation. CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his plasma pulse gun 100-fold.

Sora and Broadside: LIGHT KEY PLASMA BURST!

Sora fired a powerful blast of light from his energy and Broadside fired a powerful blast of plasma from his gun and they hit Hate Master and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Mighty Morphin' Power Rangers punched and kicked him all over and blasted him and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of energy and completely obliterated him into nothing.

Me: Go to hell Hate Master.

Shaggy: (To the viewers) Never mess with the power of love or like, you will feel the wrath of J.D. Knudson and everyone.

Me: Yep.

We enjoyed the circus and went home.

THE END

Another Fanfic complete and another Scooby Doo movie done.

Big Top Scooby Doo is an awesome movie. I saw it 2 days ago and it was awesome! Gato was a monster that deserves nothing more than to die. Next up is Mizuki and we're going to make that freak pay with his life in hell. Also next up is the first villain of The Secret Saturdays, Van Rook and we're also going to see the worlds greatest protectors of Cryptozoology. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think.

See you all tomorrow.

TLPS and the Cryptic Warriors

We were over in the world of Toy Story and in Andy's old room we were watching TV.

Qin: So this is what it's like to be a toy.

Me: It sure is. It was really cool coming here.

Ironhide: And now I can call forth these awesome cannons I got when we first came here anytime I want.

Nico: That's awesome Ironhide.

Woody: Remember, in this world, we can't be seen moving by any human.

Riku: Don't worry. We'll keep that in mind.

Lincoln: But Woody you had to break that rule when Sid was about to kill Buzz.

Woody: That's true. But that was an emergency situation.

Hamm: That's right.

Nico: I'm glad we never have to see Sid again.

Syd Chang: I know. I can't believe that Sid Phillips was that dangerous! He was a monster!

Laney: He's what I call a Sociopath.

Rex: That is awful what he did to us toys.

Bo Peep: I agree. He was a monster.

Buzz Lightyear: But at least we never have to worry about him.

Me: Yep.

Woody: I wonder how Andy is doing.

Me: Lets find out.

I opened a viewing window and it showed that Andy was 18 years old and is in college and he was with a girl with brown hair with an awesome pink hair bow in her hair, she had green eyes, a pink shirt with butterflies on it and she had a pink plaid skirt and grey leggings and grey shoes.

Agony: So that's Andy?

Woody: That's him. He's in college now.

Me: Good for him. Hey I know that girl that's with him! That's Hannah Phillips!

Lincoln: Sid's younger sister!?

Laney: Cool!

Lori: I'm literally so happy for him and Hannah.

Woody: It's ironic, really. Andy's dating the sister of the kid who tried to kill his favorite toys.

Ramjet: Irony. You gotta love it.

Me: Yep. But I think that is so cute!

Lana: I'm so happy for him and Hannah.

Nico: Me too Lana. I wonder what Andy is studying for in college.

Woody: His mom said that he is studying to be a doctor in Neurology.

Me: Whoa! That's gonna take 10 to 12 years of college and medical school to do.

Laney: No kidding and I'm studying to become a Forensic Psychologist.

Lisa: That is indeed a magnificent field of science to learn from.

Red Alert: It sure is. But I'm happy that Hannah and Andy are together.

Me: Me too. I saw in the movies through his eyes that Sid hated Andy and that he was a terrible bully to him.

Lola: That is sick!

Lori: They literally do say that "The Eyes are the Window into the soul" and I agree with you.

Nico: Me too. But I have a strong feeling that one day we will meet Sid Phillips and face him in the future.

Me: I have that feeling too.

Buzz: I'm just glad we got to see Andy one last time.

Punch: Who says it has to be the last time?

Me: That's right. Andy will never leave you all. You all are still part of him as he is a part of you.

Vince: That's right.

Carol: I think it's so cool that you all know Andy so well. He loved all his toys like his family.

Carla: You said it mommy.

We laughed!

Slinky: That's true though.

We had a great time with the toys of Toy Story.

---

Later that night, back at the estate on Earth, we were watching TV and I was deep in thought.

Me: Hmm. Hey guys I think I know why there was a scream shortage in Monstropolis.

Lana: What do you think it might've been?

Me: Well, I think the reason might've been the size of the tank capacity of the tanks that were used to hold the scream energy.

Nico: Hmm. You may be right.

Me: Lets see.

I did an analysis of the tanks that were used before and after and I discovered that my hunch was right.

Me: I was right. Look here guys. The tanks on the left were not gonna cut it. They were 75% smaller than what is being used now. They went through so many tanks of energy that there wasn't enough scream for even 1,000 years. Let alone 1 week.

Nico: Sheesh! No wonder Waternoose fell from grace.

Lincoln: He was willing to do anything to keep the company going.

Laney: Desperate times call for desperate measures.

Lola: Yep.

Nico: Maybe we can visit Mr. Waternoose in prison tomorrow and let him know how everything is going and what he did wrong.

Me: Good idea Nico. He does have to know how things are going on.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that something was going on in the Point Pleasant Area of West Virginia.

Me: Point Pleasant, West Virginia?

Lana: That's right on the border with West Virginia and Ohio!

Lola: Wonder what's going on there.

Me: Lets find out. Lets fly!

We were off to Point Pleasant, West Virginia.

POINT PLEASANT, WEST VIRGINIA

We arrived in Point Pleasant, West Virginia and it was a beautiful and amazing town.

Me: Point Pleasant, West Virginia. Wow.

Nico: It sure is amazing here.

Lily Loud: This is really amazing.

Nick Russell: I've never been here before.

Lucy Loud: GASP!

Lori: What is it Lucy?

Lucy Loud: Look!

She pointed at something and we saw a pair of glowing red eyes coming right at us and we saw that it was a terrifying creature that was half man, half moth! It was the legendary MOTHMAN!

In West Virginia folklore, the Mothman is a creature reportedly seen in the Point Pleasant area from November 12, 1966, to December 15, 1967. The first newspaper report was published in the Point Pleasant Register dated November 16, 1966, titled "Couples See Man-Sized Bird… Creature… Something". The national press soon picked up the reports and helped spread the story across the United States.

The Mothman was introduced to a wider audience by Gray Barker in 1970 and later popularized by John Keel in his 1975 book The Mothman Prophecies, claiming that there were supernatural events related to the sightings, and a connection to the collapse of the Silver Bridge.

The Mothman appears in popular culture. The 2002 film The Mothman Prophecies, starring Richard Gere, was based on Keel's book. An annual festival in Point Pleasant is devoted to the Mothman legend.

On November 12, 1966, five men who were digging a grave at a cemetery near Clendenin, West Virginia, claimed to have seen a man-like figure fly low from the trees over their heads. This is often identified as the first known sighting of what became known as the Mothman.

Shortly thereafter, on November 15, 1966, two young couples from Point Pleasant, Roger and Linda Scarberry and Steve and Mary Mallette, told police they saw a large grey creature whose eyes "glowed red" when the car's headlights picked it up. They described it as a "large flying man with ten-foot wings", following their car while they were driving in an area outside of town known as "the TNT area", the site of a former World War II munitions plant.

During the next few days, other people reported similar sightings. Two volunteer firemen who saw it said it was a "large bird with red eyes". Mason County Sheriff George Johnson commented that he believed the sightings were due to an unusually large heron he termed a "shitepoke". Contractor Newell Partridge told Johnson that when he aimed a flashlight at a creature in a nearby field its eyes glowed "like bicycle reflectors", and blamed buzzing noises from his television set and the disappearance of his German Shepherd dog on the creature. Wildlife biologist Dr. Robert L. Smith at West Virginia University told reporters that descriptions and sightings all fit the sandhill crane, a large American crane almost as high as a man with a seven-foot wingspan featuring circles of reddish coloring around the eyes, and that the bird may have wandered out of its migration route. This particular crane was unrecognized at first because it was not native to this region.

After the December 15, 1967 collapse of the Silver Bridge and the death of 46 people, the incident gave rise to the legend and connected the Mothman sightings to the bridge collapse.

The Mothman Prophecies (2002) is a major motion picture, loosely based on the 1975 book of the same name by John Keel.

According to Georgian newspaper Svobodnaya Gruziya, Russian UFOlogists claim that Mothman sightings in Moscow foreshadowed the 1999 Russian apartment bombings.

In 2016, WCHS-TV published a photo purported to be of Mothman taken by an anonymous man while driving on Route 2. Science writer Sharon A. Hill proposed that the photo showed "a bird, perhaps an owl, carrying a frog or snake away" and wrote that "there is zero reason to suspect it is the Mothman as described in legend. There are too many far more reasonable explanations."

Analysis

Folklorist Jan Harold Brunvand notes that Mothman has been widely covered in the popular press, some claiming sightings connected with UFOs, and others claiming that a military storage site was Mothman's "home". Brunvand notes that recountings of the 1966-67 Mothman reports usually state that at least 100 people saw Mothman with many more "afraid to report their sightings" but observed that written sources for such stories consisted of children's books or sensationalized or undocumented accounts that fail to quote identifiable persons. Brunvand found elements in common among many Mothman reports and much older folk tales, suggesting that something real may have triggered the scares and became woven with existing folklore. He also records anecdotal tales of Mothman supposedly attacking the roofs of parked cars occupied by teenagers.

Conversely, Joe Nickell says that a number of hoaxes followed the publicity generated by the original reports, such as a group of construction workers who tied flashlights to helium balloons. Nickell attributes the Mothman reports to pranks, misidentified planes, and sightings of a barred owl, an albino owl, suggesting that the Mothman's "glowing eyes" were actually red-eye effect caused from the reflection of light from flashlights or other bright light sources. The area lies outside the snowy owl's usual range.

According to University of Chicago psychologist David A. Gallo, 55 sightings of Mothman in Chicago during 2017 published on the website of self-described Fortean researcher Lon Strickler are "a selective sample". Gallo explains that "he's not sampling random people and asking if they saw the Mothman - he's just counting the number of people that voluntarily came forward to report a sighting". According to Gallo, "people more likely to visit a paranormal-centric website like Strickler's might also be more inclined to believe in, and therefore witness the existence of, a "Mothman"".

Some pseudoscience adherents (such as ufologists, paranormal authors, and cryptozoologists) claim that Mothman was an alien, a supernatural manifestation, or a previously unknown species of animal. In his 1975 book The Mothman Prophecies, author John Keel claimed that the Point Pleasant residents experienced precognitions including premonitions of the collapse of the Silver Bridge, unidentified flying object sightings, visits from inhuman or threatening men in black, and other phenomena.

Festivals and statue

Point Pleasant held its first Annual Mothman Festival in 2002 and a 12-foot-tall metallic statue of the creature, created by artist and sculptor Bob Roach, was unveiled in 2003. The Mothman Museum and Research Center opened in 2005 and is run by Jeff Wamsley. The Festival is a weekend-long event held on the 3rd weekend of every September. There is a variety of events that go on during the festival such as guest speakers, vendor exhibits, a mothman pancake eating contest, and hayride tours focusing on the notable areas of Point Pleasant.

Lana gasped in horror!

Me: Dive aside!

We dove away in both sides and we saw it and it screeched horrifically and we saw it.

Lola: Whoa!

Luna: Dude what is that thing!?

Me: I don't believe it! I thought it was just a legend!

Laney: That's the Mothman!

Lori: It is literally the most terrifying creature I've ever seen!

Nico: WHOA! That is so cool!

The creature was flying by the moon and Laney snapped a photo of it.

The picture came out perfect.

Laney: Awesome!

Stella (Loud House): I've never seen a creature like this before!

Me: There have been a lot of sightings of the Mothman ever since 1963 and it is a terrifying creature.

Lincoln: Wow!

?: Glad you all are okay.

We turned and we saw the world famous cryptozoology scientists, The Secret Saturdays! We saw Doc and Drew Saturday and their son Zak and with them was their thought-to-be extinct pterodactyl called Ornithocheirus Simus, whom they named Zon, the legendary Fiskerton Phantom or Gorilla Cat that they named Fiskerton or Fisk for short, and Komodo, a genetically altered Komodo Dragon.

Me: No Way!

Laney: Wow! The world famous Secret Saturdays!

Lisa: The world famous cryptozoology scientists!?

Drew: That's right Lisa. It's truly an honor to meet the world famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Doc Saturday: We heard so much about all of your adventures. You all have done a great job saving the planet.

Me: Thank you Doc. But it is an honor to meet the world famous Cryptozoologist Scientist family.

Laney: That's right. I read all your books on Cryptids and how they look and move and you guys are awesome.

Drew: I'm honored that we have some fans.

Zak: It's good that you are learning about us.

Laney: You guys are my heroes. I love learning about cryptozoology as much as psychology.

Me: We even saw three Cryptids ourselves on our adventures.

Laney: It's true.

Laney showed them pictures of the legendary Loch Ness Monster, the legendary Mongolian Death Worm, and the legendary Yeti of the Himalayas.

Doc: Wow! You guys met and saw the Loch Ness Monster, Mongolian Death Worm and the Yeti?

Me: We sure did. One man over in Scotland was trying to sell the Loch Ness Monster for a huge amount of money and we encountered the Mongolian Death Worm over in the Gobi Desert during the Global Super Race. We saw the worm sign from a massive blast of lightning that came out of the ground. We saw the Yeti when we were solving a mystery up in the Himalayan Mountains. And now just a couple of minutes ago we now saw the Mothman here.

Drew: Wow! I'm very impressed. Especially with you Laney. You have the makings of an amazing cryptozoologist.

Laney: Thank you Drew.

Drew: You're welcome.

Zak: It's so cool how you all did so much all over the universe.

Zon agreed and so did Fisk and Komodo.

I saw Fisk.

Me: Whoa! Is that the legendary Fiskerton Phantom of Lincolnshire, England?

Doc: That's him. His name is Fisk.

It was first reported August 27, 1997 by four girls, between the ages of nine and fourteen, who were staying at a caravan park next to a pub at Short Ferry, a small hamlet next to Fiskerton. They described seeing a four-foot tall jet-black ursine-like creature eating a pheasant. The girls, scared, fled immediately to seek help in the pub. When they returned, they saw large paw prints. A motorist reported the beast again that evening, near where the girls saw the critter. On 2011, it was reported again various times.

Me: Wow.

Laney: That is so awesome that you know one.

Me: It sure is.

Zak: I wish I can join you guys on your adventures and help you all.

Me: I'm glad you want to help us out Zak.

Doc: It's really dangerous son. You heard what happened on their adventures.

Zak: Dad! I'm not a little kid!

Maria: Drew, how come you and Doc don't like bringing Zak on missions?

Drew: (sarcastically) Could it be that we don't want him to get hurt? He's just a kid!

William: So are several of us. And we hardly get hurt at all.

Maria: I think it's time you two stopped babying Zak and treated him like part of the team.

Me: That's right Drew.

Jade Chan: I agree. I went on all of my Uncle Jackie's adventures and I didn't get hurt either.

Jackie Chan: That's right. Jade is a growing girl and she is a strong and spirited one as well. She has helped me and Uncle and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm destroy all of Bai Tza's former siblings, including my number one enemy Shendu.

Zak: Whoa! I saw that and that was so awesome!

Me: That was one of our most incredible adventures.

Qin: Wow! I'll have to learn more about that one.

Me: I'll tell you later Qin. It was awesome. But anyway, Zak has helped you all before right?

Doc: Yes.

Drew: Yeah he has.

Me: Then Zak is old enough to help us out and help you all too. You went all over the world and you saw all of the worlds most famous legendary creatures and killed the most ruthless man that was trying to use the Kur Stone to destroy the world.

Drew: That is true.

Qin: Who is that?

Me: His name was Vincent Vladislav Argost.

Nico: Whoa! I've heard about him. He was a ruthless man. He wanted to use the power of the Kur Stone to wipe out all of Humanity.

I went over his history.

---

Vincent Vladislav Argost, more commonly referred to as V. V. Argost or simply Argost, is the main antagonist in The Secret Saturdays. He is actually the Yeti of Himalayan legend (as revealed in the second last episode). He created a mask in his mountain home and went out into the human world.

He hosts his own show, Weird World, which is about cryptids. Zak Saturday (prior to Kur Rising) was a big fan, even though his parents didn't want him to watch the show. His museum of cryptid relics and trinkets is really an arsenal of magical objects he plans to use to get his hands on the most powerful cryptid of all, Kur.

In the premiere of season 2, episode "Kur (Part 1)", it is revealed that following his defeat at Antarctica that Argost has disappeared. Despite this, his loyal fans however have been spray painting "Argost Lives" on buildings, cars, and even the Saturday's own Airship (much to Doc's chagrin). When the Saturdays go on the run, Doyle, aided by Zon and later Van Rook, begins a search to find him to find out all he knows about Kur to help the Saturdays.

Van Rook has stated if Argost is alive, he will be licking his wounds in a place where he feels at home. When Doyle mentions they already tried Weird World, Van Rook berates his former apprentice for his lack of imagination saying that Argost has always preferred cryptids to people. In other words, he will be recuperating somewhere isolated and close to one of his "pets."

In the final episode of season 1, "Kur Rising" his mask is cracked by Zak during the fight. Up until recently it was unknown that Argost's "face" was actually some kind of mask (although it was mentioned in the promo site "Wierd World"), which was revealed in the end of season 1 when Zak cracked it during their fight. This is because he is actually a cryptid, the legendary Yeti. He has powerful claws and muscle power, along with a twisted evil mind.

In his true form Argost is a lot taller than a normal human, which explains his always hunched over position when he is in disguise. He is possibly as tall or taller than the Hibagon and also very strong and agile, able to take on multiple opponents with little effort.

He has a knack of using cryptids in battle in ways that no one thought possible before, such as using the neural parasites to actually control someone when it was originally believed one could only view what the host saw and not manipulate them. Doc has mentioned before that the Secret Scientists probably don't even know a fraction of his capabilities.

It was believed by Doyle in "Kur (Part 2)" that Argost was actually dead when he and Van Rook track Munya to Scotland and discover he has been faking Weird World promos with a text-to-audio device. Argost turns out to actually be alive and saves Zak from a sneak attack from Rani Naga by tackling her off her cryptid mount, although all Zak and Fiskerton see is a blurry shadow during the incident. He later appears in person after Zak sends all the cryptid attackers home, grabs Zak, taking him up to the top of a building. Fisk follows and the two fight briefly before the cryptid loses his balance and looks like he is about to fall off the building when Argost grabs his arm pulling the cryptid to safety. He tells Zak he hopes that this action is enough proof that all he wants is to talk. He admits he knows Zak's true identity and in the end he will most likely betray him but he is willing to teach Zak to control his power "covertly" through Weird World. Zak agrees despite the risks and later asks Doyle to dig up as much has he can of Argost's past so he can have an edge over Argost if he needs it.

From Baron Finster it is learned that Argost provided the initial design for the criminal's lower body, originally more organic than the mechanical body it would eventually become. Argost gave him the design in exchange for the money to launch Weird World, having nothing but his cape and his mask at that point in his life. It is also learned from Baron Finster that it is unwise for anyone who knows anything about Argost's past to talk about it because such people have a habit of vanishing. Finster himself is kidnapped by Munya for apparently saying too much though he manages to cryptically tell Doyle to "follow the cryptids" before being dragged off by Munya. At the end of 'Legion of Garuda', he took the flute of Gilgamesh (an item said to be able to extract the spirit of Kur). He appeared again in "Return Of Tsul 'Kalu", when Doyle, Zon, and Van Rook tracked Finister's message to a cryptid black market. At first, it looked like he was after the dealer, but in the end, his real target was an orange ape-like cryptid called the Xing-Xing.

Last Stand

In And Your Enemies Closer, Argost made his final move, secretly shows up to help Zak remove a dangerous cryptid from Dr. Beeman's lab, which later turns out to be Argost's final trap that puts Zak's life in danger. He then captured Zak and took him to a secret island where he revealed he had obtained the Monday's smoke mirror from the Louvre, having learned about the existence of the Mondays when he hacked into the Saturday's database. Using Zak's presence in the mirror, Argost freed Zak Monday, only to use the Flute Of Gilgamesh to steal the evil doppelganger's powers. At the same time, Doyle and Drew discover that their parents were lost because they were attacked by a Himalayan monster called the Yeti. Upon inspecting the beast's abandoned lair, they discover a mold for Argost's mask, who at the same time, rips his mask off, revealing his true identity as a cryptid.

Defeat

In "War of the Cryptids", Argost's complete back story is explained at first. Having obtained a television as a 'souvenir' from one of mountain camps, Argost as the Yeti and the Xing-Xing cryptid he later captured learned how to speak English from it.

After coming back from his attack on the Blackwell's camp, the Xing-Xing warned Argost that the humans would come after him. Argost wasn't worried however, as he donned the mask he had made to walk among humans to make it hard to find him. He got his television show by creating robotic spider legs for Baron Finster as compensation for his services.

In the present, Argost used his stolen Anti-Kur powers to raise an army of the most vicious cryptids to live and had them attack capital cities all over the world.

Eventually, he is confronted by the Saturdays and their allies. Once down, he is attacked by Drew and Doyle who tell him that he attacked their parents 27 years ago while separating the siblings. Argost merely taunted them and labeled their parents among his many victims who all screamed in different ways. Before they could attack, Zak intervened and Argost used this as a chance escape the Saturday family.

At his lair, he is approached by the Nagas who see him as the true Kur and convince him to eliminate humanity instead of enslaving it, which he decides to go through and has his army attack. When the Saturdays stormed Weird World and prepared to fight the Nagas, Argost offered to let everyone go free if Zak went with him. At first, Zak didn't agree until during the fight, Rani Nagi launched a fatal blast, meant for Drew, at Van Rook. Argost then revealed that since his plan to drain Zak Monday's power worked so well, he decided to do the same to Zak.

However, he didn't hear Zak's warning that matter and antimatter cannot exist in the same universe and just as he was feeling a moment of ultimate victory, the combination of the matter/antimatter Kur powers makes an intense vortex open and he is then sucked into it while screaming. Argost then vanishes into the vortex, apparently destroyed and ending his threat (as well as the threat of Kur) once and for all.

Ben 10 Crossover

However, it is revealed that in the crossover episode "T.G.I.S" of Ben 10 Omniverse that Argost was actually thrown into a state of antimatter flux and had in place a back-up plan with Dr. Animo to revive him through the use of cryptid and alien DNA.

He is indeed returned to life by the mad doctor although after 3 years instead of the agreed upon month and in a chimeric amalgamation of various cryptids that he finds less than pleasing at first. Very soon finds his new body is to his advantage when he seeks revenge on Zak and is thrilled to learn that he still has the powers of the antimatter Kur which allows him to control an entire army of mutant cryptids with a single thought. Ultimately he is defeated once again through the teamwork of Zak and Ben Tennyson, the later of whom manages to drain Argost's powers; effectively trapping him within his own body in a coma-like state.

After his resurrection Argost's body is now a patchwork of machine and cryptid body parts: Specifically the head, torso, and left arm of a Yeti, the horns, wings and legs of the Jersey Devil, and the tail and head for a right arm of the Loch Ness Monster. Additionally his body is interspersed with stitches where he was put back together and machinery.

Personality

Argost peppers his speech with French words and phrases, and his most common greeting to others is "Greetings and bienvenue." He commonly uses cryptid animals and plants as weapons against the Saturdays and wears a cape made from Megatooth shark skin which can shield him from attacks.

Argost also seems to have a natural affinity with certain cryptids, maybe because he is a cryptid himself. Though not the same as Zak's Kur powers, it has been seen that certain cryptids naturally obey him, like in Once More the Nightmare Factory when he is fighting with Doc and releases a horde of insects that normally attack anyone. The creatures don't attack him but instead go straight for Doc. Even the Bunyips, who are notorious for trouble making, appear to "behave" when they are around him.

Powers and Abilities

In the game Code of the Cryptids, he has the ability to control lightning and his megatooth shark skin gives him the ability to glide.

Argost also showed a high level of agility in The Atlas Pin during the dogfight between the Saturdays and his own ship. Annoyed the fight was not finished quickly he left the ship and leapt from his own ship onto the Saturdays' ship from a considerable distance, making the landing with little effort before proceeding to hit the ship with acid pellets. Also in Kur (Part 2) he is shown to be able to scale the side of a building, his hands and "claws" were literally digging into the stonework. In Life in the Underground his claws are shown to leave marks in solid steel. This happens when he is talking to Zak in the clocktower and casually traces his claws over a metal beam, leaving an obvious indent behind.

Qin gasped in horror.

Lori: That is literally awful!

Me: I know. I'm glad he's dead. But with the threat of Vypra and all the other villains coming, we have to be ready for anything. Vypra may bring him back.

Zak: Who is Vypra?

Me: She's one of the many enemies of the Lightspeed Rescue Power Rangers.

Carter Grayson: That's right. Vypra was one of our most dangerous foes.

Kelsey Winslow: Yeah and she's a monster.

Nico: She is now the leader of the Masters of Evil. After we killed Thanos, the Legion of Doom disbanded and the Masters of Evil rose up to take their place.

Doc: My word.

Zak: That's awful!

Drew: We heard about the battle with Thanos. That was terrible! Talia, Bowser Jr., we're so sorry about the loss of your family.

Bowser Jr.: It's all right. But dad is with me all the time.

Talia: (Arabic Accent) I appreciate that Drew. Thank you.

?: How touching.

We turned and out of the shadows we saw Naruto's old enemy and the monster that made his life a living hell: MIZUKI!

---

Mizuki (ミズキ in Japanese) is the first antagonist from the Naruto manga and anime. He is a rogue ninja who betrayed the Leaf Village and attempted to steal a secret scroll from Naruto's possession in order to give it to Orochimaru.

Past

Mizuki was the best friend of Iruka Umino in his youth, but soon began to grow jealous of him following the attack of the Nine-Tailed Fox. Iruka's parents had died in the attack, and Mizuki noticed that Iruka was suddenly getting more attention from the villagers, causing him to become increasingly jealous. Despite his newfound hatred towards Iruka, Mizuki still pretended to be his best friend, while at the same time relishing in his misery. When Mizuki applied for a teaching position at the academy, the Third Hokage discovered that one of Mizuki's teammates had died of suffocation on a mission, yet had only a minor, non-lethal leg wound. Mizuki was turned down and Iruka instead got the job, causing him to eventually hate the Leaf Village.

As it turns out, Orochimaru himself saw Mizuki murder his teammate, which peaked his interest. He left him with instructions for a potion after giving him a Curse Mark.

Betrayal

After Naruto was the only one not to graduate with the rest of his classmates, Mizuki manipulated him into stealing the Scroll of Seals to improve his skills. He originally planned to kill Naruto and take the scroll for himself, but soon after Iruka showed up, Mizuki revealed Naruto's identity as the Nine-Tailed Fox. After hearing Iruka defend him, Naruto helps him fend off Mizuki, using the Multiple Shadow Clone Jutsu that he learned from the scroll. After Mizuki was beaten into unconsciousness, he was declared a missing-nin and incarcerated in Konoha's maximum security prison. However, his time in prison didn't soothe his hatred towards Naruto and Iruka.

Escaping from Prison

In the anime-exclusive Mizuki Strikes Back arc, it is revealed that he actually intended to give the Scroll of Seals to Orochimaru. He planned to escape from prison with the help of the Legendary Stupid Brothers and create the potion that Orochimaru requested. After his escape, he was bent on getting revenge on both Naruto and Iruka, hating them more than ever. His former lover, Tsubaki, remarked how he used to be kind before he began following Orochimaru, and tried to convince him to abandon his quest for vengeance. He would not listen, however, and knocked her unconscious.

After dueling with Iruka and nearly killing him with paper bombs, Mizuki broke into the Nara laboratory to get the ingredients and fled to cave where he could concoct his potion. The potion activated his curse mark, causing him to increase in strength and speed as well as transform into a tiger-like humanoid. Realizing that they can't win in a fair match, Iruka guides Naruto away from the battlefield, which prompts Mizuki to give chase. Unfortunately for him, Mizuki is led into a field of sealing paper bombs, paralyzing him so that Naruto could hit him with his Rasengan. The side effects of the potion destroyed his cellular structure and left him in a condition where he could never return to the life of a ninja, thus granting Mizuki his comeuppance for his actions.

After his defeat, Tsunade interrogated him on the whereabouts of Orochimaru and Sasuke, but he gave no useful information, as he was not aware that Orochimaru's base in the Hidden Sound Village had been destroyed. After being healed and saved by Tsunade he returned to prison where he presumably spent rest of his life.

Appearance

Mizuki has white shoulder-length hair with a slight hint of blue to it and green eyes. He wore the standard attire of the Konoha-nin before his defection, which included flak jacket and forehead protector that he wore like a bandanna.

Upon being sentenced to the Konoha Strict Correctional Facility, he wore the prisoner's uniform of a gray tunic with matching pants, with his prisoner number on the back, and going barefoot. During this time, he became much more muscular and well defined in build to the point Naruto didn't recognize him at first. When Mizuki escaped from prison, he changed into an opened black vest, tight black pants, and a dark brown belt which had a silver rectangular belt buckle.

When Mizuki drank the potion concocted from his cursed seal, he gained tiger-like stripes, which also gave him much more feral look. After the potion's effect wore off and his cells began a self-destruction, Mizuki shriveled up into a frail and decrepit old man, his skin darkened brown and very heavily wrinkled. However, Tsunade managed stabilized his deterioration, and even restored his appearance to his original form, before his time in prison.

Personality

Originally, Mizuki appeared to be very polite and kindhearted, and was described to be a sweet man by his former fiancée, Tsubaki. However, his "nice" personality was nothing more than a hoax. Actually, he doesn't care for anything or anyone beyond his own rise in power. He takes pride in the fact that he is not bound by things like morals or teamwork, and is very willing to sacrifice whatever he has to in order to complete his goals. His desire for power seems to come from what appears to be an inferiority complex, as he can't stand having anyone look down on him. Although Tsubaki claimed that Mizuki was a sweet man before meeting Orochimaru, even that was a facade as he already showcased his underhanded and ruthless methods since childhood, having a manipulated friendship with Iruka for his own benefits, and later brutally murdering a comrade who suffered a minor injury, justifying his actions by claiming that he is merely eliminating any potential hindrances for the mission's smooth success while actually he killed him out of sadism. Mizuki's defining characteristics are being greatly ambitious and dishonorable.

Mizuki's craving for power and acknowledgement led him to hate Iruka for gaining more attention than him, and pretended to be Iruka's friend in order to live off of that attention, as well as discreetly inflict misery on Iruka. Because of this, during their second confrontation, Mizuki constantly mocked Iruka while refusing to surrender and repent no matter how many times Iruka tried to convince him to. Due to his disregard for comradeship and friendship, Mizuki detests the Will of Fire, insulting it when Iruka tried to encourage Mizuki to look back into it, dismissing it as irritating nonsense. In what is perhaps an attempt to make him even more of an antithesis to Naruto, Mizuki's least favorite food is ramen, which happens to be Naruto's favorite. Mizuki also has a particular hatred for Naruto, seeing him only as the Nine-Tailed Demon Fox. His avarice and greed even drove him to ignore Tsubaki's love, having no more feelings for her himself, as he took advantage of her lingering affections for him and used her to benefit himself, and then attacking her when she begged him to stop, even physically tossing her aside later on. Upon discovering that Naruto gained acknowledgement after risking his life to defend the village, Mizuki grew angrier than ever at him, refusing to accept the boy's heroism, and instead accused the villagers of being too excited.

When Mizuki overheard the Third Hokage and the examination committee suspecting his field of conduct as a reason for not promoting him, he felt that they wronged him for accomplishing a mission at all cost, and developed strong grudge against the village for feeling that they neither appreciate nor understand his powers or efforts. He reached his tipping point of betraying the village when Orochimaru praised his actions and gave him a cursed seal. Mizuki came to the conclusion that only Orochimaru truly acknowledged his potential, and hold the renegade to high regard. Mizuki believed that if he went to Orochimaru, he would be granted even more power, and attempted to steal the Scroll of Seals as a means to please him.

Mizuki also turned out to be very sadistic and extremely cruel. Even as a child, he found satisfactions by watching Iruka wallow in misery of losing his parents, stating that having someone to look down on feels great. Upon his second confrontation with Iruka and Naruto, Mizuki declared that he intends to kill them slowly and painfully, as payback for getting him arrested. During this, he constantly mocked Iruka's ideals of comradeship and memories, while derogatorily regarding Naruto as a "monster fox" and "nine-tails brat".

Me: MIZUKI!

Mizuki: That's right J.D. Nice to see you again, you pathetic fuckwipe!

Me: I thought you were still locked up in prison!

Mizuki: I was busted out thanks to Vypra.

Qin: Who is he?

Naruto: That's Mizuki. He was a former Academy Instructor that ruined my life!

Me: He sabotaged Naruto's entire education and he's one of the very people that made his life a living nightmare. He is also a very dangerous traitor to the entire Hidden Leaf village. The reason is because he made Naruto steal the Forbidden Scroll of Sealing and he also revealed Naruto's entire Jinchuriki Status and made him almost believe that he was Natsumi.

Naruto: That's right. I beat him and sent his ass off to prison forever.

Mizuki: I won't be beaten this time you fucking Demon Fox. Now I will make you suffer!

Me: Shut your fucking trap Mizuki! For your information you goddamned son of a fucking bitch, Naruto is not Natsumi!

Natsumi: That's right you fucker!

Natsumi walked up to him with her 9 tails flailing and her red eyes glowing with righteous fury!

Natsumi: My name is Natsumi, but you know me as the 9-Tails and I am not Naruto! Naruto is a human and I am a being of chakra.

Mizuki: YOU LIE!

POW!

I punched him in the face with devastating force and sent him crashing into a fire hydrant.

Me: Even after all this time you are still as weak as ever.

Mizuki then substituted with a log and I sensed him underground!

Me: Oh no you don't!

I had my hand surge with lightning and I slammed the ground and channelled lightning into it and Mizuki came out and he was twitching with lightning.

Me: Nice try Mizuki. But I know all your moves.

Mizuki: Then lets see if you know this.

Then Mizuki suddenly changed! He got hugely muscular and then he got really bulky and glowing marks appeared on his arms and head and his teeth turned into fangs and he was really powerful.

Me: WHAT THE FUCK!?

Nico: WHOA! Holy mackerel!

Sakura: His chakra has gotten stronger!

Fu: Unreal!

Me: Impressive. You've gotten some new tricks since I sent your fucking ass into prison 150,000 years from now.

Mizuki: Yes and now I'm going to gladly make you suffer!

Me: But you aren't the only one that has learned some new tricks.

I then flared up my aura and I went Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Phoenix.

Mizuki: WHAT THE!?

Me: (Divine Voice) I've gotten stronger and far more powerful than ever.

Mizuki: YOU ASSHOLE!

Me: You are the asshole Mizuki. You are nothing more than a fucked up monster that is working for a fucked up mad scientist.

Mizuki: NO ONE TALKS THAT WAY ABOUT LORD OROCHIMARU!

I flipped the bird at him and he charged at me with incredible speed and he punched at me and kicked at me and I dodged all his attacks with incredible speed and the number of punches and kicks he dealt was incredible and I was dodging them all with such incredible speed and it looked like it was making time slow down. Everyone saw Mizuki attacking me with incredible ferocity and to everyone it looked like I was standing still.

Sasuke: Whoa! J.D.'s speed is incredible!

Naruto: How can you tell Sasuke?

Sasuke: My Sharingan is slowing down the speed. When Mizuki is attacking him, J.D. is anticipating his every move like he is reading his mind. Mizuki's power and muscle mass are too big for him and his rage is making him sloppy. That's why he is slowing down. That's how J.D. is dodging him so easily.

Lincoln: Whoa! That's amazing!

Nicole: Even after all this time, he just will never learn.

Naruto: No he won't sis.

Nico: Wow!

I was still dodging his strikes. Mizuki then backed away and he was panting hard.

Me: If this is all you're made of Mizuki, it's a complete waste of my time.

Mizuki: I HATE YOU!

My aura flared up with tremendous force!

Me: Thanks for the power boost. Try this one. SPECTRUM STYLE NINJA ART: THALARON DESTROYER SWORD!

I formed a glowing neon green sword in my hand and then I went at Mizuki and I slashed Mizuki and the sword went through him!

Mizuki: Is that all you go…

Then his body started decaying at a rapid rate and he was getting necrosis and he was rotting and turning into a statue. In seconds he was dead and he fell and crumbled apart into dust and ash. All that was left of him was his clothes.

Me: Go to Hell, Mizuki.

Mizuki's spirit then appeared.

Me: You are not worthy of anything Mizuki and you don't deserve anything given to you.

I walked up to him and held my hand up to his face.

Me: HAKAI!

Mizuki then screamed as his body and spirit glowed purple and he was completely obliterated from existence forever like he was never born at all!

Me: Oblivion for you.

Naruto: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Rachel S.D.: You said it Naruto.

Sakura: I never liked that guy.

Sasuke: Me neither.

Laney: Same with me.

Drew: Wow! That was intense!

Doc: It sure was. But thank goodness that guy is dead.

Naruto: Yeah he was one of my most dangerous enemies and he deserved to die.

Zak: I agree with you Naruto.

Naruto: Thanks Zak.

Then Shaggy and Scooby smelled something good.

Shaggy: Like, What's that delicious smell?

Scooby: Rit's roming rom rat ray! (he and Shaggy follow the smell)

Nico: Shaggy! Scooby! Wait!

May: Well, no point in using our Phoenix Cry if we're trying to follow teammates.

Me: Lets follow them.

We followed them and 10 minutes later we found them trapped in a net! We were hiding in the trees and we saw that Shaggy and Scooby were captured by the Saturday's old enemy: LEONIDAS VAN ROOK!

---

Leonidas Van Rook is a major antagonist in The Secret Saturdays. He serves as a mercenary for hire, offering his services to whomever pays him the highest bid. He is voiced by Corey Burton.

Leonidas Van Rook was a rival cryptozoologist, mercenary and ally of V.V. Argost, as well as the tertiary antagonist for the first half of the series. Van Rook was solely interested in proving the existence of cryptids for money. He had built a reputation for himself which allows him to command large fees from those that hire him. Van Rook was an exceptional marksman, being able to shoot small quick moving objects out of the air. He had a tattoo on his right bicep of a snake wrapped around a skull.

He had a relationship with Drew Saturday in the past, they dated in college. It was also hinted that he had an apprentice before Doyle Blackwell, in the first episode Doc Saturday asked Doyle Blackwell if 'Van Rook told you what I did to his last apprentice.'

In the episode Cryptid vs. Cryptid he ran a Cryptid fighting ring in an ancient temple. At the end of the episode he was found by police after trying to escape, he flew away but his jet pack failed and he fell onto a cop car crushing it, as a reult his helmet fell off letting viewers momentarily see his face. He appears in prison at the begining of Target: Fiskerton notably without his mask, he was seen trying to bribe the guard into getting him a softer pillow for his room, using an American Penny. He was quickly rejected, his penny bent and thrown on the ground. He was released by V.V. Argost, and "Convinced" to help V.V. Argost with his latest plan, hung by the leg out of the jet by Munya when he refuses to help the first time. He attacks the Saturdays with Piecemeal leading Zak Saturday into a train trap leading to Fiskerton's capture. He later escapes and was not seen afterwards. He apparently still had feelings for Drew Saturday as he said to her in Target: Fiskerton "This could have made a great honeymoon" and "I'm over you baby" In the episode Food of the Giants, Abbey Grey was revealed to be his new apprentice.

In season 2, Van Rook admits that he trained Abbey too well because she had taken over the mercenary business from him. He had since been recruited by Doyle to find V.V. Argost. In War of the Cryptids, While on they're final assault on V.V. Argost's Manor after his assault on the world he sacrifice himself to save Drew after he took the hit from Rani Nagi using Drew's own fire sword. At the end of the episode the Saturday family, Doyle, Wadi, Ulraj, Miranda and Paul were at his grave honoring him for what he did for them.

And we also saw that with him was THE BURGER MONSTER!

---

The Burger Monster was the disguise of Skippy Johnson, who worked for Mr. O'Greazy for 38 years but never received a pay raise during his employment.

He dressed up as the Burger Monster, for revenge for never getting a raise in all those years. It didn't occur to him to look for a better job.

---

Me: (Normal Voice) (Whispering) That's Leonidas Van Rook!

Qin: (Whispering) I've heard of him! He's a monster!

Laney: (Whispering) And who is that living burger with them?

Me: That's the Burger Monster.

Daphne Blake: (Whispering) Jeepers. I remember him from when we were kids.

Velma: (Whispering) Shaggy and Scooby were arguing about something and the Burger Monster was Terrorizing one of our restaurants in Coolsville.

Me: I remember that.

Qin: What's his history?

Me: He was really a veteran worker named Skippy Johnson. He dressed up as the burger monster to scare Mr. O'Greazy for revenge for never receiving a raise from him after working for him for 38 years.

Qin: Boy I would quit in a heartbeat if that happened to me.

Me: Me too. Skippy Johnson got 800 hours of community service because of his advanced age.

Nico: Wow.

Van Rook: Alright, Drew. Come on out! Otherwise, your friends are toast!

Doc: (you're about to charge in) Instead of charging in, how about this time, we do a sneak attack on Van Rook?

Me: Good thinking.

We snuck around and I kicked Van Rook in the back of the head and knocked him down.

Nico slashed the net and cut it down.

Burger Monster: YOU MEDDLING KIDS ARE GONNA BE MINCEMEAT! (ROARS)

Me: You look like a tasty burger!

Shaggy: Like, we love burgers. Lets get him!

Shaggy and Scooby ate the entire burger monster!

Shaggy and Scooby: BBBBBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUURRRRRPPPPPPP!

Shaggy: Ahh. Like he was really good!

Me: Looks like your appetites paid off.

We went to face Van Rook.

Me: Now we're going to kill you.

Van Rook: Threatening my life? Did all of you get up on the wrong side of the bed this morning?

Me: That's a question you should ask yourself you monster.

?: He's not the only monster!

We then saw a figure come out and it was SHELLSHOCK from episode 22 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

Shellshock was a tortoise monster, created by Squatt and Baboo. Shellshock possessed traffic light atop his body, which could create speed and free spells. For hand weapons, he posssessed a hook brass knuckles and baseball bat with a ball, as well a large cannon in his shell. Squatt and Baboo created him from a figure in Finster's Laboratory with his Monstermatick. Then they arrived to Earth. They attacked Rangers, when they were playing baseball and Shellshock fired and destroyed their baseball ball. Then they encountered the Power Rangers and heroes morphed. However, Shellshock hit Trini with his green ray, making her running uncontrollably. Then Shellshock hit Zack, Kimberly and Billy with the red ray, freezing them. The villains then left after Jason shot them with his Blade Blaster. They were proud of their deed and Rita even praised them. Then Shellshock returned to Earth, was enlarged by Rita, and attacked Angel Grove. Jason tried to battle him with his Tyrannosaurus Dinozord, but was overpowered. So Jason asked Tommy for help. Tommy summoned his Dragonzord and, together with Jason, they fought Shellshock and nearly defeated him, but he used his red traffic light to freeze their Zords. But eventually Trini arrived. She, with the help of Saber-Toothed Tiger Dinozord, found the magical flowers that could free them of Shellshock's magic The Yellow Ranger used magical flowers and freed herself and her friends. Then heroes used Tyrannosaurus Under Breath on Shellshock (which didn't quite finish him) and double barrage of Dragonzord missiles to finally finish off the monster once and for all.

---

Shellshock: Its been a long time rangers!

Billy Cranstron: Shellshock!

Me: I remember this guy! He used his powers on you with that traffic light and made Trini run uncontrollably and he froze the other rangers.

Trini Kwan: And my legs are still sore from that!

Lori: That was a strange episode though.

Nico: But a good one.

Mikey: (to Shellshock) Newsflash, dude! We're the only walking turtles around here!

Shellshock: Well, you're yesterday's news! I'm the new walking turtle in this world!

Me: Not anymore! The Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles have been popular since the 1980's, you Shellshock were on back in 1993.

Troy: I feel the need for speed!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Race Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Japanese version of the Turbo Rangers.

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it guys! IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

THUNDERCLAP!

Tommy Oliver: WHITE TIGER!

Zack Taylor: MASTODON!

Kimberly Ann Hart: PTERODACTYL!

Billy Cranston: TRICERATOPS!

Trini Kwan: SABER-TOOTHED TIGER!

Jason Lee Scott: TYRANNOSAURUS!

The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers transformed and they were ready!

Number 7 then appeared.

Me: Number 7.

Number 7: Yes and it's gonna be good.

Ed: I'll handle Number 7. You guys can have the rest (turns into Edzilla)

Number 7: Unlike my teammates in the Legion Ex Machina, I will not be easy to defeat.

Me: We'll take that chance.

Edzilla: ED SMASH!

He punched Number 7 and sent her crashing into a tree.

She got up and she had her hand turn into a powerful ion blaster. She fired it and the blasts hit by Ed as he dodged them. Number 7 formed her hand into a plasma blaster and she fired it and the big blast of energy hit by Ed and exploded and set much of the forest on fire. She then formed a flamethrower and fired a powerful blast of fire and Ed fired a powerful blast of fire from his mouth and the blasts collided and exploded and sent Number 7 crashing into another tree. She was knocked down.

Raph: By the way, (uses sai to cut off Shellshock's traffic light) I'm keeping your traffic light!

Shellshock: MY TRAFFIC LIGHT!

Number 7: I believe that is my cue to exit. But know this, Saturdays. You can expect to see Argost again in the future. (teleports away)

Spiderman: Is it wrong that I was expecting Number 7 to be a guy?

Me: Not at all.

I punched Shellshock in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted him.

Me: Lets get this clod!

Punch: With pleasure! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Decepticon Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his photon cannon power 100-fold.

Agony: We will make him writhe in agony. ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her powers 100-fold.

Punch and Agony: PHOTON SYMBIOTE TENTACLE PUNCH!

Punch fired a powerful photon blast and Agony fired powerful symbiote matter globs and the blasts merged and they hit Shellshock and exploded all over.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Riku: Lets get him! DISNEY CYBER KEY POWER!

The Disney Cyber Planet Key went into his keyblade and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Ramjet: Time for some speedy explosions! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his cluster bombs and speed 100-fold.

Riku and Ramjet: DARK FIRE CLUSTER BURN!

Riku fired powerful blasts of dark fire and Ramjet dropped a bunch of cluster bombs and they hit Shellshock and exploded all over!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Lincoln and the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers summoned the Power Cannon and fired it and the blast hit Shellshock and made him explode!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Shellshock was completely obliterated in an instant.

Me: YEAH! Now to finish Van Rook!

I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach.

Lola threw a couple of fireballs.

Van Rook: (dodges one of Lola's fireballs) No jokes, quips, or one liners? I thought all heroes make those during fights.

But the fireball came back and hit him in the back and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Lola: How's that for banter you freak!?

Luan: You are gonna feel the light!

Luan fired a blast of light.

Van Rook: (avoids one of Luan's light beams) On second thought, forget the quips and one liners if they're going to be that terrible!

Kairi: Too late! You wanted jokes in battles? You got them!

I punched him in the face and fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him.

Lana: This one burns you up!

Lana fired a powerful blast of ice lightning and froze his feet in blocks of ice!

Drew slashed him all over with her Tibetan Fire Blade and burned him and Doc punched him all over and Zak fired a powerful blast of energy from his staff and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Doyle then swooped in on a jet pack and punched Van Rook in the mouth and knocked out some of his teeth.

Me: Try this teamwork on!

Ben: This is gonna be good!

Ben turned into The Worst.

Ben: THE WORST!

Me: WHOA! That one is weird.

Shanan: That is an Atrocian from the planet Atrocitus VI. They may not look strong, but they are very tough creatures.

Me: Cool!

The Worst then went at Van Rook and Plant Man fired his Plant Barrier.

The Worst (Ben 10) and Plant Man: FLYING BLOB PLANT SHRED!

The plants merged with The Worst and orbited around him and The Worst slammed Van Rook with devastating force and knocked him down.

Arpeggio: (British Accent) Now for some feather ruffling.

Ben turned into Kickin Hawk!

Ben: KICKIN HAWK!

Arpeggio fired powerful laser feathers and Kickin Hawk went at Van Rook.

Arpeggio and Kickin Hawk: LASER SLASH FEATHER KICKER!

Kickin Hawk slashed Van Rook all over and the Laser Feathers slashed him as well.

Me: Now to finish him!

Nick Russell: Lets do it!

Me, Nico and the Mystic Force Power Rangers: MAGICAL SOURCE, MYSTIC FORCE!

The Mystic Force Power Rangers transformed!

Nick Russell: FIERCESOME AS FIRE! RED MYSTIC RANGER!

Xander Bly: (Australian Accent) STRONG AS A TREE! GREEN MYSTIC RANGER!

Vida Rocca: EVERCHANGING AS THE WIND! PINK MYSTIC RANGER!

Charlie Thorn: FAST AS LIGHTNING! YELLOW MYSTIC RANGER!

Madison Rocca: FLUID AS THE SEA! BLUE MYSTIC RANGER!

Daggeron: (British Accent) POWER OF THE SUN! SOLARIS KNIGHT!

Udonna: FLURRY OF SNOW! WHITE MYSTIC RANGER!

Leanbow: BURNING HEART OF FIRE! WOLF WARRIOR - DEFENDER OF TRUTH!

Claire: POWER OF THE SHINING MOON! PURPLE MYSTIC RANGER!

Me: POWER OF THE COSMIC STARS! BLACK MYSTIC RANGER!

I was a new black Mystic Force Power Ranger and I had angel wings that were pitch black and they had a powerful image of the stars and objects of the infinitely vast reaches of the cosmos reflected in them.

Nico: THE COLD OF ICE! AQUA BLUE MYSTIC RANGER!

I had a cool black star sword that looked like Leanbow's sword and it was really cool!

Me: Lets do it!

Me, Nico and the Mystic Force Power Rangers: MYSTIC MAGIC ELEMENTAL BLAST!

I fired a powerful blast of star energy, Nico fired a powerful blast of ice, Nick Russell fired a powerful blast of fire, Xander fired a powerful blast of leaves, Vida fired a powerful blast of wind, Charlie fired a powerful blast of lightning, Daggeron fired a powerful blast of solar wind, Leanbow fired a powerful blast of wolf fire and Claire fired a powerful blast of moonlight and the blasts combined and they hit Van Rook and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Nick Russell: You look amazing as a black power ranger J.D.

Me: I sure do Nick. This is an awesome first for me.

Nico: Same for me. I look awesome.

Carol: Time for this guy to meet his downfall. GHIDORAH GRAVITY RAYSTRIKE!

Carol fired powerful blasts of King Ghidorah's Gravity Lightning and they hit Van Rook all over and exploded all over.

Laney: This guy gives all Cryptozoologists everywhere a really bad name! RAZOR LEAF BLIZZARD SLASH!

Laney fired a massive barrage of razor sharp leaves and they went at him and cut him all over.

Drew: You will never terrorize the worlds of Cryptozoology again Van Rook! TIBETAN FIRESTORM SLASH!

Drew slashed him with her Tibetan Fire Sword and it sent a powerful blast of fire and burned him all over and knocked him down.

I took off my helmet and I looked at myself.

Me: Wow! I look awesome.

Nick Russell: You did really well J.D. Not bad for your first time as a Mystic Force Power Ranger.

Me: We learned it all from you Nick.

Nick Russell: I know.

We went over to him.

Lola: We need to kill this guy!

Zak: Guys, I don't like Van Rook either. But instead of killing him, we should lock him up. That way, we can get some good information out of him.

Lola: Why don't you wake up and smell reality, Zak?!

Lynn: Lola's right. Van Rook's committed enough crimes already!

Lori: How many people are going to get hurt before you realize that some lives have to be taken?!

Zak: (not backing down) I do realize that. Me and my family killed Argost, remember? But some criminals like Van Rook aren't worth killing.

Drew: And just because you guys are angry at Van Rook doesn't mean you have to take it out on my son.

Me: Guys that's enough. Zak has a good point. We need to get information from him so that we can get everything out of him. He worked with Argost and we can make sure he never comes back by throwing him into our space prisons.

Doyle (looks at the unconscious Van Rook): I hate him so much! But, like we said before, he's not worth killing.

Daggeron: I know what it's like to have a grudge against an enemy, Doyle.

Drew: Hmm. You're right.

Lola: True.

Nico: Van Rook has failed this world.

We beamed him to the Uranus Prison and he was given an eternal sentence. He was actually wanted for numerous crimes by Interpol and the FBI and they were after him for years.

Drew: (To the viewers) Never mess with the rights of all things that are either from Cryptozoology or you will mess with us and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You said it.

We decided to form an alliance with the Secret Saturdays and help them face their enemies and learn so much about the famous creatures of legend.

---

Another Fanfic complete and another awesome series added to the mix.

The Secret Saturday's were an awesome show about the world famous legendary creatures of the world. It was awesome! I never saw most of it but it was awesome! It aired from October 3rd, 2008 to January 30th, 2010. It would've been really cool for it to continue! Mizuki was one major league jerk! I hate that freak! Next up is the traitorous former deputy of the Hidden Star Village, Akahoshi and be ready for an explosive fight with him from the stars! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Let me know what you all think. Next up is a full fledge chapter for The Hunchback Of Notre Dame and we're going to send Frollo to the darkness and fire of Hell for taking God's law into his own hands!

See you all tomorrow.

Christianity Taken Way Too Far

In the Monstropolis maximum security prison we were there to visit former president and CEO of Monsters Inc., Henry James Waternoose III.

---

Henry James Waternoose III, more commonly known as Mr. Waternoose or also simply known by his surname Waternoose, is the main antagonist of Pixar's 4th full-length animated feature film Monsters, Inc., and a cameo character in Pixar's 14th full-length animated feature film Monsters University. He is the former chairman of the company, as well as being the boss and grandfather-figure-turned-archenemy of James P. Sullivan and Mike Wazowski.

He was voiced by the late James Coburn (who died in 2002 shortly after Monsters Inc. was released in 2001), who also played Looten Plunder in Captain Planet and the Planeteers.

For three generations, Monsters, Inc. has been in Mr. Waternoose's family and was inherited from his father by the age of 142. Upon meeting Sulley and Mike, Waternoose was pleased and welcomed them to their new workplace after working from promotion to promotion.

Taking them on as his new scarers and proteges, Waternoose told them that all human children were poisonous and deadly and that a single touch from a child could kill a monster.

Many years later, Mr. Waternoose was recently troubled, disappointed, and stressed that Monsters, Inc. was starting to fail because children were increasingly no longer scared of monsters like they used to. Therefore, the energy used to power the city was being decreased and forcing Mr. Waternoose to desperately look for ways to save the company and end the crisis before it was too late.

In Monsters, Inc.

Waternoose first appears when Thaddeus guesses that leaving a door open could let in a draft, correcting him and saying that it could let in a child. Everyone is surprised to see that their somewhat intimidating boss has arrived. Waternoose warns them that there is nothing more toxic or deadly than a human child since they could get killed if it touches them even once. One of the monsters gets scared and tell Mr. Waternoose that he cannot make them go in a child's room, but the boss tells him they must because they need power for the screams as he uncorks a can and lets a scream split the air.

Waternoose proceeds to explain that the city needs the children's screams, as it's their source of power, and since it is dangerous work, they really need to do their best. He also tells them that he needs scarers who are, as he describes, "confident, tenacious, tough, and intimidating" like his top scarer; James P. Sullivan.

When Sulley and Mike disguise Boo in a monster costume, they make up a lie to Mr. Waternoose, claiming that it is "Bring an Obscure Relative to Work Day" and Waternoose obviously believes them, saying that he must have missed the memo. Then he and the CDA agents leave to go to an audition for monsters practicing their scare tactics.

Afterward, when Sulley and Mike were carrying Boo, they try to report to Mr. Waternoose and tell him about Randall's plan to kill them when he is attending a training session for new monsters. However, Mr. Waternoose insists Sulley demonstrate his scare tactics and when Sulley roars at the simulation child, he accidentally scares Boo, who reveals herself as a human child. After Mike tells Waternoose about Randall's plan, he takes Boo and promises to set things right for them.

Instead, he brings a different door, which Randall appears next to and opens, revealing that he is Randall's partner in crime. He then betrays Sulley and Mike by pushing them into the door and quickly closes it before Sulley can run back in, trapping the duo in the Himalayas (where they end up having a falling out over Sulley listening to Mr. Waternoose rather than Mike). Only worried about going back to Monsters, Inc. and saving Boo, Sulley quickly scavenges parts from stockpiles from the Abominable Snowman, abandons an upset Mike, and goes to the nearest village to use a door and return to Monsters, Inc. to stop Waternoose.

Inside the secret lair, Mr. Waternoose has second thoughts about trusting Randall with his plans and ultimately regrets banishing Sulley and Mike earlier. After Randall puts a scared Boo into his seat to extract her screams, Waternoose then approaches Randall and tells him that he should never have trusted him with the plan since he had to exile his top scorers all because of him. Randall nonchalantly brushes this off, telling Waternoose they will not need scarers with the Scream Extractor and that Sulley "got what he deserved" anyway. An offended Mr. Waternoose tells Randall that Sulley was twice the scarer he will ever be, which makes Randall lowly growl in frustration and anger at Mr. Waternoose.

Waternoose is forced to accept the plan and stand back and to use the Scream Extractor on Boo. Fungus tests the Scream Extractor on Boo as Randall watches in amusement while Waternoose watches it uncomfortably.

Before it can get to her mouth, Sulley roars and intervenes at the last moment and pushes the Scream Extractor away with his strength, to which the villains are surprised to see his sudden return. Sulley destroys the machine and throws it at the gang, pinning Mr. Waternoose against the wall and causing him a little pain. After Sulley rescues Boo, Waternoose then yells at Randall to get Sulley and Boo and an already enraged Randall does so.

As well, Waternoose tells Randall to finish Sulley off (which Randall had already intended to do as well). However, Mike (who has followed Sulley back into the monster world) accidentally gives away Randall's cloaking abilities by throwing a snowball at him instead of Sulley, who then punches Randall in the face and knocks him out. After the three escape, Mr. Waternoose tells Randall to go after them and says that there cannot be any witnesses, to which Randall replies that there will not be.

While Sulley and Mike lead Randall on a wild chase through a large chamber where thousands of doors to the human world are kept, Waternoose rallies the CDA to arrest Sulley and Mike, framing them as the "criminals" who are responsible for the entire incident.

After the trio defeats Randall and goes back to Scare Floor F, Mike distracts the CDA by driving them away into a room while Waternoose catches sight of Sulley with Boo and her door and chases them into the simulation room. While Sulley was using a pipe to barricade the door (where Mr. Waternoose was trying to get in), Sulley puts Boo's door in the simulation room to make it look like Boos room as he slams the door (as Waternoose pounding the door).

As Sulley puts Boo in the bed, telling her to be a good girl, Waternoose busted into the room where Sulley was and confronted him. Defending Boo, Sulley yells at Waternoose to leave her alone, but Waternoose refuses, saying that she and Sulley have seen too much of his plan. Sulley tries to reason with Mr. Waternoose by telling him things don't have to be the way they are, only for Waternoose to say that he has no choice since scaring isn't enough anymore to stop the energy crisis. A shocked and enraged Sulley asks Waternoose if kidnapping children are worth saving the company, to which Waternoose declaring that he'll kidnap a thousand children to save the company and end the energy crisis and that he'll silence anyone who gets in his way. After knocking his former friend aside, Mr. Waternoose tries to grab Boo from her bed, but he instead grabs the simulation child, leaving him shocked and confused.

Just then, the wall goes up to reveal that Mike was behind the controls this whole time. Mike, who has recorded the entire confrontation, plays back his favorite part to where Mr. Waternoose reveals his plot to kidnap children as he watches in shock and bewilderment. With this incriminating evidence, the CDA turns on Waternoose and arrests him for his crimes. As he is being dragged away, Mr. Waternoose angrily blames Sulley for "destroying" Monsters, Inc., proclaiming that the energy crisis will only get worse because of him. However, this is eventually proven wrong as Sulley replaces Mr. Waternoose as the CEO and makes children laugh instead, thus generating even more power than screams and finally ending the crisis for good.

It is unknown what has happened to Mr. Waternoose afterwards, but he most likely remained in prison for the rest of his life for his crimes or felt remorse after hearing of the company's updates.

In Monsters University

In the prequel, Mr. Waternoose did not physically appear, but was seen making a cameo appearance in a photo shaking hands with a teenage Sulley and Mike when they are promoted as new members of the scaring team at Monsters, Inc.

In the photo, he was seen as a younger, middle-aged monster with an Afro and facial hair, which he would later lose as the years go by.

Personality

Originally, Waternoose has a friendly, demonstrative, thoughtful, and fatherly demeanor. He used to be Sulley's father-like mentor and he liked him as his top scarer, only to turn on him and Mike and banish them later on. Since that day, Sulley, Mike, and Mr. Waternoose have been enemies, though Waternoose admits earlier that he ultimately regrets betraying them, implying that he holds himself responsible for destroying his mentor-like relationship with them in the first place.

Despite being Randall's partner, Waternoose is a bit more sophisticated, compassionate, and well-mannered than him.

Though Mr. Waternoose genuinely liked Sulley and Mike because of their successful teamwork, he was only driven to villainy out of desperation to keep Monsters, Inc. afloat in the midst of the energy crisis, as well as due to stressful financial problems and his responsibilities as CEO. Mr. Waternoose became more villainous and manipulative as this drive and desperation stripped away his morals and was determined to not let anything stop what he felt would be the best way for the company to keep going and being Randall aid him in his partner secret plot, never bothering to look for alternative energy sources.

One example is when Sulley tried to reason with him that things did not have to be the way he envisioned, Waternoose responded he had no choice since scaring children was no longer working.

At the end of the first film, Waternoose gets taken to jail by the CDA after Randall's plan is exposed. While being dragged away, he yells at Sulley and blames him for "destroying" Monsters, Inc. and that it is his fault that the crisis will now get worse, believing screams were the only solution. However, it was revealed that Sulley ended up making it better for good, solving the energy crisis by harvesting children's laughs, which is ten times more powerful than scream. as well as replacing Mr. Waternoose as the CEO of Monsters, Inc..

Appearance

Waternoose is an obese, completely bald gray monster with five teal eyes, seven fingers on each of his two hands, and six crab-like legs with black tips, and has the ability to crawl on walls like a spider and make himself look taller.

In a photo seen during the credits of Monsters University, it is revealed that Waternoose used to have an Afro and mustache in his earlier years, but he may have grown out of it when he got older.

Sulley: So why are we visiting Mr. Waternoose in Prison?

Me: We want to inform him of the progress the company is making and what the problem was that lead to the scream shortage.

Sulley: I see.

Mike Wazowski: We haven't seen Mr. Waternoose in a while.

We arrived at his cell.

Mr. Waternoose: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you too Mr. Waternoose.

He saw Sulley with him.

Mr. Waternoose: What do you want, Sullivan? Come to rub it in my face?

Carolyn Hope: Well, that's part of why we're here.

Sulley: We didn't come here for that sir.

Me: We actually came here to tell you about how the company is doing. The energy crisis has been resolved and Monsters Inc. and Monstropolis are doing much better than ever before.

Mr. Waternoose: Really? How is that possible?

Sulley: Well sir, during the time Boo was with us, we found out that laughter is 10 times more powerful than scream. So instead of scaring kids, we make them laugh.

Me: That's right. And they say that Laughter is the Best Medicine. Laughter is now the best clean energy from Monsters Inc.

Mr. Waternoose: Are things in Monsters Inc. really that good because of laughter?

Sandstorm: That's why we came here.

Mr. Waternoose: Wow! I'm very impressed.

Me: Also we found out the reason why there was an energy shortage. It was because of the size of the tanks that were used to collect the energy.

Mike pulled out the old tanks and the new ones.

Me: Look here. One tank was smaller than the newest one. The new ones have 75% more energy capacity than the other ones. The little tanks are only good for 1 day. We helped modify the tanks to give enough energy to power the city for 10 days.

Mr. Waternoose: Amazing! I didn't know about that. But that is amazing! Sulley I'm very proud of you for doing such a great job as the new president and CEO.

Sulley: Thank you sir.

Mike: I'm glad we now don't have to scare anymore.

Lola: Also we came to correct something about what you said about us being "Toxic".

Lana: We are not toxic creatures. Hold out your hand.

He did so and Lana and Lola touched it. Nothing happened.

Lola: See? We won't hurt you.

Lana: That's right. We are just like you guys. Monsters are people too in our opinions.

Boo: That's right.

Mr. Waternoose: I guess I was wrong. Humans are NOT toxic.

Me: No we aren't. Maybe to bad guys but not anything else.

We laughed.

Mr. Waternoose: (Laughs) That's true.

Randy: I'm glad you think so sir.

Waternoose: Randall? How are you here?

Randy: I'm not the Randall you know.

Octane: It's a long story involving Monsters University.

Me: We went to Monsters University and helped out around there. We were also our own fraternity club.

I showed them our fraternity club patches for ΓΘΞ on the insides of our trench coats and some of them were in our clothes pockets.

Mr. Waternoose: I see. Amazing job.

Randy: They showed me what kind of path I was heading and I was a total jerk and cared about no one but myself. It was awful what I was turning into.

Mr. Waternoose: I see. But thank goodness you didn't turn into that real monster. Metaphorically speaking.

Randy: That's true.

Sulley: I'm glad you understand about how the company is doing Mr. Waternoose.

Mr. Waternoose: I do Sulley and I'm very proud of you. That's my top scarer.

Me: That was before the company turned to using laughter.

We laughed.

Commander Mars: Why didn't you take an oppurtunity to get out of jail? Randall was able to get out easily.

Mars' Bronzong: (nods) Bronzong!

Mr. Waternoose: Well I realized what a fool I was with my actions and it lead me to pay the price. I decided to stay here to atone for my crimes.

Me: That's good. But I figured you'll be out of here in 10 years and you can help Sulley in Monsters Inc. when the time comes.

Sulley: That's right sir. It'll be great to have you back.

Mr. Waternoose: Thank you Sulley.

We later left the prison.

Later back at the estate, we were watching one of my all time favorite movies from my childhood from 1996: The Hunchback of Notre Dame. Awesome movie.

---

The movie opens in 1482 Paris with Clopin, a Gypsy puppeteer, telling a group of children the story of the Hunchback of Notre Dame. The story begins as three gypsies sneak illegally into Paris but are ambushed by a squadron of soldier-like thugs working for Judge Claude Frollo, the Minister of Justice and de facto ruler of Paris. A gypsy woman attempts to flee with her baby, but Frollo, thinking the woman is carrying stolen goods, catches and kills her just outside Notre Dame, intending to kill her deformed baby (Frollo says to the Archdeacon that the baby is "an unholy demon" and that he is "sending it back to hell where it belongs"), but the Archdeacon appears and accuses him of murdering an innocent woman. Frollo denies that he is in the wrong saying his conscience is clear, but the Archdeacon declares he can lie to himself all he wants, but he cannot hide his crime from heaven ('the eyes of Notre Dame', the statues of the saints outside the cathedral). Fearing for his soul and to atone for his sin, Frollo reluctantly agrees to raise the deformed child in the Cathedral's bell tower as his son, naming him Quasimodo. He notes that someday the child may have use for him.

Twenty years later, Quasimodo has developed into a kind yet isolated young man with three gargoyles as his only company, constantly told by Frollo that he is a monster who would be rejected by the uncaring outside world. Despite these warnings, Quasimodo sneaks out of the Cathedral to attend the Feast of Fools, where he is crowned King of Fools but immediately humiliated by the crowd when Frollo's thugs start a riot. Frollo, in the audience, refuses to help Quasimodo, and the crowd only stops when a kind and beautiful gypsy Esmeralda frees Quasimodo from his restraints and openly defies Frollo. She then throws the crown at Frollo, deeming him to be the biggest fool. The judge immediately orders her arrested, but she escapes by means of illusions, which Frollo refers to as "witchcraft." Frollo confronts Quasimodo and sends him back inside the Cathedral.

Esmeralda follows Quasimodo to find him, but she herself is followed by Phoebus, Frollo's Captain of the Guard. Phoebus, who himself does not approve of Frollo's methods, refuses to arrest her inside the Cathedral, saying that she has claimed 'Sanctuary' and thus cannot be arrested as long as she remains in Notre Dame. Frollo finally leaves when the Archdeacon intervenes, but not before warning Esmeralda that his men will capture her the moment she attempts to escape the Cathedral. Esmeralda finds Quasimodo in the bell tower and befriends him. As gratitude for helping him in the crowd, Quasimodo helps Esmeralda escape Notre Dame. In return, she leaves him with a map to the gypsy hideout, the Court of Miracles, should he ever choose to leave Notre Dame again. Frollo himself begins to realize his lustful feelings for Esmeralda and wishes to be free of them to escape eternal damnation. He soon learns of Esmeralda's escape and instigates a city-wide manhunt for her, which involves burning down countless houses in his path.

Realizing that Frollo has lost his mind, Phoebus defies the judge by saving an innocent family, as Frollo orders him executed for treason, but is assisted in escape by Esmeralda. After being hit by an arrow, Phoebus falls into the Seine River and is left for dead by Frollo, but he is rescued by Esmeralda, who takes him to Quasimodo for refuge.

Frollo soon returns to the Cathedral, forcing Quasimodo to hide Phoebus. Discovering that Quasimodo helped Esmeralda escape, the judge bluffs that he knows where the Court of Miracles is and that he intends to attack it at dawn with a battalion. After he leaves, Phoebus requests Quasimodo's help in finding the Court before Frollo, though reluctant he agrees to join. Using the map Esmeralda left, they find it and are almost hung by Clopin for being spies, but they are saved when Esmeralda intervenes and clears up the misunderstanding. Phoebus tries to get the court to retreat as Frollo plans to invade however, Frollo's army appears and captures them all, with the judge revealing that he followed Phoebus and Quasimodo.

Frollo then orders Esmeralda burned at the stake after she refuses his proposal of her becoming his mistress. Frollo gets a torch and burns the wheat Esmeralda is standing on and she starts coughing and then she goes unconscious. Quasimodo, chained up in the bell tower, initially refuses to help under depression, but when he sees Esmeralda in pain, he gives into his anger and rescues her, bringing her to the cathedral and yelling "Sanctuary." As Frollo grabs a sword and orders his men to attack the cathedral, Phoebus ignites a rebellion among the people of Paris who have had enough of Frollo's tyranny and a battle ensues in the street between the citizenry and Frollo's thug army. Quasimodo places Esmeralda's unconscious body on a bed and pours a cauldron of molten copper onto the streets to ensure nobody gets inside. Frollo, however, manages to break in and force his way past the Archdeacon. Quasimodo, believing Esmeralda to be dead, breaks down in tears beside her body as Frollo comes into the room to kill him with a dagger. Quasimodo, in his fury, disarms his former guardian and finally rejects all that Frollo had taught him. Esmeralda wakes up, alive, and Quasimodo grabs her and flees. The deranged judge chases them onto the balcony, where he attacks Quasimodo and Esmeralda with his sword. The battle ends with Frollo maniacally quoting the Bible and him and Quasimodo both falling from the balcony. After Frollo falls to his death, Quasimodo also falls but is caught by Phoebus on a lower floor, and the three friends reunite.

As the citizens celebrate their victory over Frollo, Quasimodo reluctantly emerges from the Cathedral to face the populace again, only this time, he is hailed as a hero and is finally accepted into society.

---

We just couldn't believe that Frollo was that evil and we saw that he was much worse than anything we have ever previously thought. He was the biggest sinner of them all. When the movie was over, we cheered wildly and we were in awe.

Me: That is always so awesome!

Lola: You said it J.D.!

Qin: That was awesome! But I can't believe that Frollo is that evil! He is the very personification of the Devil himself.

Nico: Good way to put it Qin. Frollo is a monster!

Lola: And I should know because I got him both arrested and I killed him in our babysitting adventures.

Jared: I remember that.

Vince: Me too. That was cool!

Lori: But still, what Frollo did is really disgusting!

Me: I know. I'm a Christian myself and I may be a devoted follower of Jesus Christ and God, but I for one would never take God's laws into my own hands like that and use his laws to kill innocent people all for ones own hatred over people that have done nothing wrong.

Nico: Me neither. Well said.

Me: Thanks. I may have omnipotent power and all of these amazing powers, but still I'm only human.

Laney: That's right.

Lily Loud: I agree.

Nico: And I may be a Saiyan and I was raised here on Earth and I am just as human as everyone else.

Starfire: Same here Nico. I am a Tamaranean, but I am human like everyone else.

Blackfire: Same with me sister.

Chione: And some of us may be hybrids of aliens, but we are just as human too.

Me: That's right.

Qin: But does is reveal the full extent of Frollo's crimes?

Me: Lets see. Also The Hunchback of Notre Dame is based on the real book made by Victor Hugo.

I pulled up Frollo's information on the computer. What it revealed was far more horrifying and it showed a man that was filled with absolute hatred and a total blasphemous traitor.
